Cider Mill Is All But Destroyed by Fire at Fennville

Loss Is Estimated at Fifty Thousand; Valued
Pumice Stock Burns

Fennville, Oct. 7 (Special)—Fire discovered at 2:30 a.m. on Tuesday almost destroyed the Steffen cider mill in Fennville, resulting in loss estimated at $50,000. The fire occurred less than a day after funeral services for the mill manager, George Burleigh, who was buried Tuesday afternoon. He died unexpectedly last Thursday in a Grand Rapids hotel while on a business trip.

This was the first big fire the company, which is part of a national concern, has had in 75 years. A large pile of "pumice" (the remains of apples after they are pressed) valued at $1,500, was destroyed. Officials in Chicago not having learned of the fire sold the pumice in Chicago this morning and then had to cancel the sale. Pumice is used in the manufacture of pectin.

The Fennville fire department was unable to save the building as the flame had gained too much headway, but with much hard work kept the flames from spreading to six oil storage tanks nearby.

The mill manufactured cider, processed apple juice and, later in the season, vinegar. The old two-story building was not fireproof and when Burleigh was alive, he constantly cautioned his employees about fire hazards.

There was no night watchman on duty, although one employee said when he left work about 12:30 a.m. that everything was all right.

Bins containing only a few apples behind the mill were not destroyed.

The mill was an important concern in Fennville. About 20 or 25 persons were employed during the peak season and a few were employed during the winter in the manufacture of vinegar. Fennville apple growers hereafter will have to send their cider apples to Holland or Allegan, it was said.

The fire caused a toll failure which cut off all long distance telephone connections from Holland and Grand Rapids south. G. K. Hewitt, Holland plant superintendent, sent down a crew of 14 men at 8 a.m. and repairs were completed at 10:30 a.m. The telephone lines ran along the large plant which was about 150 to 300 feet. One pole was burned and all lines were down.

Fennville, Oct. 7 (Special)—The Steffen cider mill of Fennville, which suffered a $50,000 loss from fire Tuesday, will still receive apples for processing, it was announced by the management today. The apple bins which were located behind the mill were not damaged.

Grand Haven Curfew Is Sought in Petition

Grand Haven, Oct. 7 (Special)—The Grand Haven Community council, an organization made up of representatives of many civic organizations, decided, by a vote of 12 to 10, Thursday night, to petition common council to pass a 10 p.m. curfew ordinance applying to children 14 years old and younger.

The vote was taken following a public meeting in the high school library.

The youth adjustment committee of the Community council has drawn up a petition after more than a year's study and one of the recommendations is that parents be held responsible for violation of the curfew law.

In a straw vote in the audience, the curfew proposal was defeated 29 to 22, but 15 of the 29 votes opposing the petition were cast by a group of high school youths who attended the meeting to champion the cause of a youth center in this city. The adult vote was 22 to 14 in favor of the petition.

Council to Take Direct Hand in Post-War Plans

Group Also Named to Work With Legion in Helping Service Men

Approval of a council post-war committee, appointment of a committee to cooperate with the American Legion post and other city organizations in establishing a service center in Holland and a communication from the Doughnut Corp. of America which promised elimination of offensive odors in that locality were highlights of the common council meeting Tuesday night.

Ordinarily scheduled for Wednesday night, the council met earlier this week so that members and other city officials would be free to attend the Michigan Municipal League convention in Kalamazoo Wednesday and Thursday. Ald. James H. Klomparsen introduced the post-war matter, stating that the council should have a direct hand in post-war plans as it is the city that must finance such projects. He suggested that the mayor assign this duty to the civic improvements and building and grounds committee.

After the initial suggestion was approved, the committee was then authorized to engage such expert assistance as is necessary in making plans for a recreational building. An appropriation of $500 to go ahead with the study was approved.

Decision to put a recreational center as project No. 1 in the post-war planning program coincides with the recommendation of a previously appointed post-war committee which at a meeting August 6 placed a city auditorium as a No. 1 project, hospital wings and boiler room as No. 2, and a vocational school as No. 3.

In speaking for the American Legion post, A. C. Joldersma told what the post has been doing in maintaining contact with Holland persons in service and said that some thought should be given as to what Holland could do for service men here, adding that other organizations in the city also have been discussing the matter. He suggested that the council appoint a committee to meet with the Legion service committee to work out something concrete in the near future.

Dr. Bruce Raymond, former aiderman and at present coordinator for the army specialized training program at Hope college which will get under way soon, said the American Legion represents a cross section of all former service men in the city and should act as a clearing house for the service program. He reminded councilmen that a considerable amount of money will be needed to maintain a workable program and that aidermen must be prepared for requests. Ald. Bertal Slaghs motioned that a committee of five including the aldermen and means committee be appointed was approved.

Mayor Henry Geerlings appointed Ald. Ben Stoffers, Van Hartesveld, George Damsen, Bernard De Pree and John Bontekoe to serve on the committee.

The communication from the Doughnut corporation in regard to what is being done in the plant to overcome the offensive odors that arise from the settling basin explained that the company has now in operation a process developed in cooperation with the U. S. department of agriculture to remove the protein which causes the odor after it has been deposited in the settling basin.

The letter signed by Plant Manager C. L. Bohanan added that this process is working satisfactorily in the pilot plant and that the necessary equipment has been purchased for the regular plant operation. It further stated that the new method should be functioning in from four to six weeks.

A petition signed by about a hundred dog owners requested that the dog ordinance be rigidly enforced without discrimination was referred to the police department and poundmaster. The petition stated that there have been many complaints about dogs barking when defense workers are trying to sleep and suggested that as a solution the ordinance be enforced without discrimination adding that much of the barking is caused by dogs annoyed by other dogs running at large.

City Clerk Peterson presented an application and bond of J. W. Hoback for a license to construct sidewalks. The bond was approved and the license was granted.

A communication from the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance Co. covering a recent follow-up inspection of the boiler at Holland hospital was referred to the hospital board. The report stated that the scale condition as previously reported has been greatly improved and recommended that in order to further improve this scale condition that an opening be made on a line with the bottom blow-off in order to provide a suitable drain when washing out the boiler.

Approval was given an application to state land office board requested that they withhold from sale lot 56 of McBride's addition and that the county treasurer be

Thames of Bay City, Tex., a carpenter in civilian life, who now pinch-hits as one of his group's barbers. (Local residents would normally expect the positions of the two in the picture to be reversed since Bol's father, Martin, has followed a career as barber on West 16th St. for many years.)

Sgt. Bol, 28, entered the army air corps April 10, 1942, and was last stationed in this country at Fort Myers, Fla., where last March he was ready for overseas service. He made novelties and toys before entering service. A brother, Andrew, 30, is in England with the military police.

Two-Way Radios Being Installed

Grand Haven, Oct. 7 (Special)—A two-way radio system for three cars of the sheriff's department is being installed.

This was approved by the board of supervisors at its May session, the cost of which is $2,800.

This is a Motorola F.M. two-way radio telephone system. After it is installed it will be part of a state-wide network of similar systems in which any patrol car in Michigan can maintain contact with its own headquarters regardless of where they are in the state. This system is being sponsored by the State Sheriff's association, the Chief of Police association and the state police.

Members of the sheriff's department are now studying instructions for the operation of the equipment and they will be instructed by Howard Vander Wal, radio engineer for the Grand Haven police department. The main transmitter will be located on the top floor of the court house and the control point will be in the sheriff's office.

A new type half-wave coastal antenna approximately 16 feet long will be installed on top the flagpole on the court house.

The clerk read a communication from City Engineer Jacob Zuidema that the amount due J. W. Hoback Construction Co. on the 24th St. paving contract was $9,685.16 which was ordered paid. The total cost was listed as $51,801.70.

Clark Peterson also presented a municipal maintenance contract with the state highway department covering maintenance of trunkline highway with the city of Holland for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1943. ## New Contract to Shoe Company

Exception Is Secured
To Critical Labor Area
Rating in Racine, Wis.

C. C. Andreesen, president of Holland-Racine Shoes, Inc., announced today that negotiations have been completed on a new contract for 104,000 pairs of army service shoes to be manufactured in the Racine, Wis., plant of the corporation.

Mr. Andreesen gave much of the credit for obtaining the order to the Manufacturers Association of Racine and Cong. Lawrence H. Smith who were instrumental in securing the exception to the war manpower commission directive which prohibits the placing of new contracts in critical labor areas.

Racine is one of 59 areas of acute labor shortage and these areas will also first feel the effects of cut-backs and the termination of contracts, Mr. Andreesen said.

He added: "In a conversation with Col. J. E. O'Garra, industrial personnel division, army service forces, he particularly stressed the importance to a community of avoiding this critical labor area classification. He mentioned that Dayton, O., had been threatened that the community took immediate steps by avoiding hoarding of workers on the parts of the employers and the enrolling for jobs of every available person in the community."

"First indication of the effects of Racine's classification in the critical area group came Sept. 10 when the shoe company was notified by Lieut. Col. E. J. Tremaine, Jr., Boston quartermaster depot, that consideration could not be given our bid as a result of the W.M.C. directive. Appeals were immediately filed through the Smaller War Plants Corp., the war manpower commission and also to the critical labor area appeals board."

"The difficulties involved in obtaining execution to the directive bears out the government attitude that relief from the restrictions contingent upon classification as a critical labor area can best be accomplished through local efforts to remove the original causes."

Mrs. T. Laman Dies in Hospital

Mrs. T. Laman

Mrs. Tonnies Laman, 83, 180 College Ave., died Wednesday night at Holland hospital following a lingering illness. She had been confined to the hospital for the past 10 weeks.

Mrs. Laman was born in the province of Groningen, The Netherlands, July 29, 1860, to the late Mr. and Mrs. Eliza De Haan and came to this country in April of 1881. She has resided in Holland for the past 20 years, during which time she was a member of First Reformed church.

She is survived by her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Reka White of Holland, Mrs. Kate Kolkens of Clinton, Minn., and Mrs. Emma Dykstra of Morrison, Ill.; three sons, Rev. A. T. Laman of Oseburg, Wis., Rev. Clarence Laman, Auburn, N. Y., and Alex Laman of Muskegon; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hazel Laman of Holland; twenty-seven grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren; six sisters and three brothers.

Tentative funeral arrangements have been made for Monday.

That nostalgic, frost-on-the-pumpkin feeling that October brings with its kaleidoscopic foliage, chestnuts and bittersweet, pheasant dinners and cozy hearth-fires carries with it a responsibility that is particularly obligating to local residents. For it is the season in which they do the spade work that makes this the famous beauty spot of the nation in May, October is tulip planting time.

October in 1943 promises to become a milestone in the experience of the home gardeners who are keeping alive Holland's reputation as the Tulip City. The orthodox six-inches-deep and six-inches-apart rule for planting tulip bulbs which called for lifting, storing and replanting every year can be replaced by a much simpler method now publicly announced by Harry Nels, president of the Dutch Tulip Growers association and one of the leading horticulturists of the country.

The new deep-planting method has been tried by enough of Mr. Nels' customers to give him such case histories as prove its general practicability. It has been found that a bulb planted 12 inches deep produces a bloom fully as beautiful and large as when placed half that depth as has been the practice previously. But this deeply planted bulb need not be removed from the ground each summer to assure a continuing good bloom!

It seems that the deeper, cooler earth has much of the same effect upon the bulb as summer storage. And it has the advantage of placing the bulb below the traveling range of the mole and the field mouse that follows in his tracks and eats the bulbs.

Of course merely drilling the bulb into unprepared soil will never bring the best results. Mr. Nels explained. The tulip beds or border areas should be enriched from time to time and be well drained and watered during dry periods. But the drudgery of annual lifting and replanting has been removed from the tulip lovers enjoyment of springtime's most glorious flower.

Tax Percentage High This Year

Almost Perfect Total Is Best Recorded in Past Seven Years

City Treasurer Henry J. Becksfors has announced that payment of Holland city and school summer taxes has amounted to $257,441.97 or 97.8 per cent of the levy of $365,218.63. Delinquent taxes amount to $77,773.66. The treasurer said the percentage was the highest in seven years, and perhaps for many more years than that. This report is as of Sept. 30. General payment was between July 6 and Aug. 15.

Last year 96.95 per cent of the levy of $378,574.46 was collected, amounting to $367,036.78. Delinquent taxes in 1942 amounted to $11,537.68.

Service Ratio Is High in Holland

In commenting on the father draft question today, Vaude Vandenberg, chairman of the local selective service board, stated that the board is concerned first with supplying labor for Holland's 29 defense plants before sending men with dependents into the service.

He quoted the Chamber of Commerce as saying that local defense industries could use 1,000 additional workers. If fathers in non-deferable positions and jobs are not willing to change to war work, they of course will be drafted, Mr. Vandenberg said.

He also said that Holland has approximately 9 per cent of its population in the service. "This," he said, "is far above the national average for if 9 per cent of the United States population were in the service, we would have an army of 11,700,000, while recent figures indicated that there are under 8,000,000. So it is our defense plants that should have our first consideration."

Holland Men Dominate Class B Archery Awards

At a final meet of West Michigan Bowmen Sunday in Grand Rapids, three Holland archers participated and dominated class B awards. All three shot class A scores but had been previously classified in class B. They included Wall Alverson, 417, first; Joe Alverson, 368, second, and Neal Houtman, 308, fourth.

This was in field archery competition which is that form of archery designed as hunting practice. The targets in the form of various animals are scattered through the woods and hills, and shots are made from all angles and distances.

At the annual meeting following the field shoot, Houtman was elected to a three-year term on the board of governors. Joe Parish of Grand Rapids is president and Miss Edith Hastings of Muskegon is vice president.

Virtually all members of the West Michigan Bowmen hunt deer in Allegan county.

Child Killed by Father's Truck

Verdict of Accidental Death Is Rendered in Marne Farm Tragedy

Coopersville, Oct. 7 (Special)—Mark Carmody, 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Carmody of Marne in Wright township, was almost instantly killed about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday when he was run over by a truck driven by his father at the Carmody farm home on route 1, Marne.

The child had been riding with his father during the day and late in the afternoon Mr. Carmody sent young Mark into the house. Somehow the child left the house and was playing at the opposite side of the two-ton truck. The wheel passed over the child's head.

Coroner J. E. Kammeraad of Coopersville after investigation issued a verdict of accidental death. John Lillie, deputy of Coopersville, assisted in the investigation in the absence of Don Garter, deputy of the Marne district who was out of town.

Prompt Collection of Milkweed Pods Urged

Collection of milkweed floss is being encouraged by County Commissioner of Schools Dick Vandebunte, and L. R. Arnold, county agricultural agent. It is hoped that all material now out in the fields will be gathered by school children, taken care of and later turned over to the state-wide collection agency.

This floss is an important article right now. The floss replaces Kapok, a product originally imported from Japan. Floss is the only known substitute for Kapok which has been used in life preservers and aviator jackets. Tens of millions of milkweed pods are sufficient for one jacket which might well save a life.

A payment of 20 cents per bag is made. Boys and girls are encouraged to gather this material, place it in open mesh onion bags, hang the bags out for drying out of the pods. Bags are now at hand in the agricultural agent's office and will be supplied free. Schools taking on this job should make request for bags.

Pods must be gathered at once as they now are ready to break open.

Citizenship Class To Be Organized Here on Tuesday

All Foreign-Born of This Area, Including
Zeeland, May Enroll

The Americanization classes for instruction in citizenship will be organized Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in room 103 of Holland high school. The educational program under the direction of Ervin D. Hanson, instructor of social science in the high school, is sponsored jointly by the board of education of the public school and the Willard G. Leenhouts post of the American Legion.

Weekly instruction in citizenship will be offered foreign-born persons in this area who are not yet American citizens. Attendance is not limited to individuals in the city but will extend to all districts of the area and Zeeland. Local Legionnaires estimate the number of unnaturalized residents in the community at about 300.

The Legion committee for this year's program consists of Benjamin Rutger and J. Nyhof, co-chairmen, H. Poppen, G. Anderson, W. Diekmans, C. A. Farr, E. V. Hartman, J. J. Riemersma, J. Roseboom, Frank Van Ry, A. C. Prigge, Ed Wallace, John Post, Henry Vining, William Mulder and J. H. Riemersma.

This committee will give weekly assistance to aliens in filing their first papers or "declaration of intention" and second papers, or "petition for naturalization," which require a five-year residence in the United States including one year in Michigan. Individual help is also given with correspondence to the Detroit Federal office of Naturalization.

Dr. E. E. Fell, superintendent of schools, has endorsed the program, adding that the cost is assumed by the board of education.

Interned Americans to Be 'Free' October 15

Mrs. Lavinia Girard, 125 East Ninth St., has received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Veenschoten of Detroit, stating that the latter's husband is on his way to the United States after being interned by the Japanese since Dec. 7, 1941. Rev. Veenschoten is one of a group of prisoners which also included Rev. Henry A. Poppen of Holland, being exchanged for Japanese prisoners.

According to the letter the interned group, on the Swedish steamship, Gripsholm, is near India and after Oct. 15 they will be "free people."

Mrs. Veenschoten writes, "What a day it will be for him when he sees the American flag again. He will weep for joy. The people don't know what it means until they are deprived of it."

Mrs. Girard and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Byron Girard, plan to visit Mrs. Veenschoten in Detroit for about a week. They will leave Wednesday.

New Cutter to Be Named Escanaba

Grand Haven, Oct. 7—According to an article in the Army and Navy Journal of Oct. 2, one of the three new type 235-foot cutters now being constructed will be named the Escanaba for the cutter blown up in the Atlantic last June.

The article said, "The Otsego is being renamed the Escanaba for the 165-foot patrol boat which blew up mysteriously with the loss of all but two hands."

Leaders of the Grand Haven bond drive in which more than $1,000,000 was raised in 28 days believe the success of the drive may have had a bearing on this decision although no official word was received here. The city had originally set a goal of a million dollars to be raised in more than two months to replace the Escanaba.

Convention of Catholic Group Held at Manistee

Interest of local Catholic women centered Tuesday in the fifth annual convention of the Grand Rapids Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women, which was held in the Guardian Angel parish auditorium at Manistee, with Mrs. Lawrence O'Neill of Lansing, Diocesan president presiding.

The council is the federation of all existing organizations of Catholic women, working together for the common good of the church and the country, and its growth during the past 25 years has been outstanding. Diocesan federations, known as Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, are functioning in 67 dioceses. Programs vary with the needs of the diocese, but participation in the work, whether on the diocesan, district or deanery or parish level has meant progress in unifying, coordinating education, social welfare, and religious activities particularly needed in this world of fast changing ideals and morals.

Mrs. Louis Hohmann of this city is deanery president for this district, and Mrs. Joseph W. Lang is the St. Francis de Sales parish president.

The Manistee convention was opened with solemn high mass celebrated by the Rev. Edmund Falicki, assisted by the Rev. B. B. Roguszka and the Rev. A. E. Inghalt. Registration and a business session followed. The Rev. Henry Niedzwicki acted as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. O'Neill, diocesan president, met with members of St. Francis de Sales parish in Holland during the past week at the home of Mrs. Hohmann. A report was given by Mrs. Lang concerning the War stamp drive conducted by the National Council of Catholic Women during the summer months and continuing through the fall to aid the war and post-war effort by a campaign that will have a two-fold effect.

First, the campaign will provide the government with added funds needed to carry on to victory; second, it will guarantee a debt-free Catholic graduate school for women social workers sponsored by the Catholic women of America, serving God, country, and fellowmen during and after the war.

Mrs. John Fenlon Donnelly discussed the recently published book, "Principles for Peace," a compilation of the peace pronouncements of the last five popes covering 65 years from 1878 to the present. It consists of pertinent selections from encyclicals, letters, allocutions and radio addresses on peace, war, and human rights. The popes do not enter the domain of statesmen, but are witnesses to religious and moral truth. Peace involves this truth and the popes have spoken within its sphere.

It was decided at the meeting to select this book for further study and discussion by the study club group of St. Francis church. The group will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Elton A. Gogolin.

Mrs. Francis Crowley was appointed chairman of a mothers' club group, and will be assisted in organizing the group by Mrs. John J. Good. Plans were also made for various activities to be sponsored by the ladies of St. Francis parish during the fall and winter.

Plan Specialized Tests on Nov. 9

The second qualifying test for the army specialized training program and the navy college program V-12 which will be given throughout the country on Tuesday, Nov. 9, will be administered at Holland senior high school, Principal J. J. Riemersma announced today. A pamphlet of general information which contains an admission-identification form may be obtained at the high school.

This form properly filled out will admit to the test students between the ages of 17 and 21, inclusive, who are recent high school graduates or who will be graduated by March 1, 1944. Intent to take the test should be made known immediately to Mr. Riemersma in order that the necessary test supplies may be ordered.

The same examination will be taken by both army and navy candidates. The examination is designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge required for the program of college training and all qualified students are urged to take the test. At the time of the test each candidate will be given a choice of service preference, but taking the test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service.

The army specialized training program and the navy college program enable students to continue academic training at government expense following induction into the armed services. Successful completion of the prescribed courses may, following further officer training, lead to a commission in the army or navy.

Those selected for the army will, after further screening and basic military training, be sent to college. Students chosen for the navy program, after selection by office of naval officer procurement, will be detailed directly to college. Students who attend college under either of the programs will be under military discipline on active duty in uniform with pay. All expenses, including tuition, food, housing, books, and uniforms will be paid by the army or the navy.

Waste Paper Needed for Cartons

City Salvage Chairman L. Phillip Van Hartesveldt emphasized today that no material other than paper will be collected in Friday's scrap paper pick-up. Friday beginning at 7:30 a.m. Dates for collection of prepared tin cans and also for heavy scrap iron and steel will be announced later. Scrap paper in Zeeland also will be collected on Friday.

Residents are instructed to have their papers and magazines tied in bundles or packed in cartons or strong bags. The scrap paper should be put on the curb in front of the walk. Importance of having the paper out early was emphasized as there will be only four trucks making the rounds and they cannot cover the territory twice, the committee said. On Eighth St. commercial section, trucks will pass both on the main street and in alleys.

Boy scouts under the direction of Herbert Ten Have will be aboard the city trucks to load the bundles of paper. The material collected will be disposed of through local dealers who will sort it and sell it to paper mills.

Invasion scenes like that pictured above are becoming more and more common in almost every part of the world. Supplies must be shipped in suitable containers and in many cases floated ashore. Virtually all wastepaper collected in the drive Friday will go into the making of the type container known as V-boxes which carry supplies to men in armed forces in foreign battle zones.

Manufacture of V-boxes, intended to convey medical supplies, protoplasm, food, replacement parts, and many other essential war materials overseas is imperiled by a critical paper shortage that the paper mills throughout the country are facing today. In order to forestall such a shortage the office of civilian defense locally and nationally has launched an intensive nation-wide appeal for all wastepaper.

'Clipper Girls' Entertain Century Club Members

The "Clipper girls," in the persons of the Misses Grace Hamilton and Nina Babcock, who left New York city to take over the management of a weekly newspaper in Cedar Springs 11 years ago, only to make the town famous for its "red flannels," entertained members of the Century club at the first meeting of the year Monday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Telling on Park road.

Answering a series of fictitious telegrams from members of the club, Miss Hamilton and Miss Babcock gave a bit of their own personal history along with a humorous description of their novel adventure in taking over the Cedar Springs Clipper. They cited their close contacts with people and the opportunity for community service as two of the outstanding advantages of life in the small town over that of the city.

Beginning with 205 paid subscribers, the "Clipper girls," now run off 1,600 copies of their newspaper, every department of which (including the machines), they can operate themselves.

Relating the history of the "red flannel" tradition which has made the town of Cedar Springs famous, the speakers closed their program with a display of authentic red flannels, and induction of several members of the club as "Knights of the Red Flannel Drawers."

Cleaner Cows Less Labor with CONCRETE PAVED BARNYARD

A concrete paved barnyard is a big aid to dairymen producing high quality milk. Fall, winter, spring and summer it helps keep cows out of mud, dust, dirt—cuts down work of cleaning cows before milking. A big factor now that farm help is short and every effort is being made to increase milk production.

When cows wade through mud they waste energy needed for producing milk. Owners say a paved barnyard soon pays for itself by helping produce more and better quality milk.

Paste coupon on penny postcard and mail today for free instructions for paving your barnyard or building other durable, thrifty, sanitary structures with concrete.

Hope Gives Credit To Nurse's Aides

Hope college now is offering college credits for the Red Cross Nurse's Aide corps training course. Dr. Wynand Wichers announced today. Two hours of advanced college credit will be allowed to all students who satisfactorily complete the Nurse's Aide course, which may be carried in addition to the regular academic load of hours. Decision to allow the credit was based on its educational value and its patriotic character, Dr. Wichers indicated.

Hope college students should submit their schedules to the registrar for approval before registering for the extra work. Two hours credit also will be allowed to students who have completed high school and who have taken the standard Nurse's Aide course. No matriculation fee is charged for this credit.

The Nurse's Aide course includes 35 hours of class room work and 45 hours of supervised practice in Holland hospital. The graduate Nurse's Aide pledges herself to serve 150 hours a year in a hospital or clinic. A Nurse's Aide assists professional nurses in every way a well-trained lay person can. They are proving invaluable in helping to maintain the nation's health in view of the growing professional nursing shortage as trained nurses are called to military service.

Women between the ages of 18 and 50 who are physically fit and have the equivalent of a high school education are urged to apply Monday through Friday next week at the Ottawa County Red Cross chapter office, 6 East Eighth St., for Nurse's Aide training. The telephone is 2532.

Farm Production Is Large for 1943

Grand Haven, Oct. 7 (Special)—Despite all obstacles, latest reports indicate a large farm production in 1943. County Agricultural Agent L. R. Arnold said last week. Early in the year farmers were requested to produce as never before, to increase crops and livestock, and all citizens were called upon to establish Victory gardens.

Lack of labor and farm machinery were two factors which had to be surmounted and this was accomplished to a great extent through longer hours by the farmer and by emergency labor. Weather conditions were bad; crops were planted late; many seedlings were ruined, and thousands of Victory gardens had to be replanted.

Good growing conditions did prevail later in the year with the result that fine crops were harvested. The agricultural agent said with ten days of continued good weather, farmers will harvest a three billion bushel corn crop.

There was a tremendous increase in all types of livestock. A few weeks ago it seemed that much stock would have to be slaughtered without proper finishing, but conditions have changed and it appears that feeders will feed out the millions of grass-fed cattle. Some grain will be imported from Canada, Arnold said.

Plans now are being laid for greater production of all kinds of foods in 1944 even though the labor situation may be even more acute.

In Ottawa county, crop conditions were not ideal due to the September frost causing the loss of thousands of bushels of corn, potatoes and beans. This condition, however, did not exist ver a wide area.

Head of Hospital Commends Aides

In urging women between the ages of 18 and 50 to register for the new nurse's aide course arranged by the Red Cross, Miss Rena Boven, supervisor at Holland hospital, said today that while at first nurse's aides were regarded with skepticism because of their non-technical training, they have proved their worth in relieving the load on the trained nurses at the local hospital.

"The Red Cross nurse's aides have a definite and useful place in our hospital today. Because of the shortage of graduate nurses, the Red Cross nurse's aides have been a comfort to our patients and of immeasurable value to the nurses. They have mastered the art of making a hospital bed, bathing patients, feeding the helpless and other techniques of bedside care, leaving the nurse free for more technical work," Miss Boven said.

She added, "This efficiency and willingness to perform as volunteer aides is the finest example of patriotism and unselfish devotion to the cause of our country."

Miss Boven's statement was made in conjunction with an announcement by the Ottawa county Red Cross chapter of a campaign to enroll more women in the course which includes 35 hours of class room work and 45 hours of supervised practice in the hospital. Applications may be made at the Red Cross office at 6 East Eighth St.

Seek to Reorganize Country Club

An executive committee made up of Jay Den Herder, Lawrence Lamb and Clarence Jalving is attempting to reorganize the Holland country club into a stock company.

The present operator, Lee Kleis, is selling out and taking over a new position that will require his year-round services. He will contact physicians of the southwestern Michigan area for Mead-Johnson and Co. of Zeeland.

Whether the club can be reorganized into a stock company depends directly on the residents of Holland and vicinity. Already between 65 and 70 local golf enthusiasts have signed pledges for a share in the company but at least 100 pledges are required before the club can reorganize.

Members of the soliciting committee besides the above named are Joe Chamberlain of Zeeland and George Slikkers, Dr. Walter Hoeksema, Henry Ketel, Dr. H. De Vries and Dr. Otto VanderVelde.

Kleis has operated the club for seven years. He stated that it has always shown a profit and that the stock company would start without debt.

Although tournaments for the year have been concluded, the club expects to remain open another month. With the recent light rains, the course is in excellent condition, according to club officials.

He also stated there were no delinquent children, but delinquent parents and delinquent society. He appealed to parents to realize their responsibility to their teen-age boys and urged the mothers to stay in the homes, as much as possible, and care for their children so that in the world of tomorrow they will not be menaces to society.

AUTHORBALONEY

In a nursing home in London
the other day Elynor Glyn died at the age of 78, and the story of her passing was deemed important enough so that a great news association cabled the fact across the Atlantic and distributed it all over the English-speaking world.
And that in wartime, when non-military news of even the greatest importance has a hard time to get recognized in competition with war dispatches. An educator of the very first rank might die without notice, and so might almost any other important citizen who had not been directly connected with the war effort.
Nearly every kind of civilian event is dwarfed by the war news.

And yet, in spite of this fact,
Elynor Glyn's death successfully competed with the battle in Italy, with the Russian advance,
with MacArthur's island hopping
in the Pacific. She must therefore have been a woman of commanding importance, one who towered head and shoulders above even important citizens. There must have been something about her that compelled global attention.

Nothing of the kind. Elynor Glyn was an author, but even in her own profession she was the smallest of small fry. She has no more chance to get into the history of English literature, even in a minor footnote, than the proverbial needle. As an author she never wrote anything that was worth reading even for the mere purpose of killing time.

But many years ago she had the good luck to write a book, called "Three Weeks," that struck the generation of that day as scandalous and spicy. The phrase "Three Weeks" became, as a result, almost a synonym for fiction that was, sexually speaking, daring.
The irony of the whole thing is that what was "daring" in Elynor Glyn's youth, today seems tame.
There can hardly be anything more disappointing than reading
"Three Weeks" today in the hope of a thrill.

But the tradition of Elynor Glyn's daring had been firmly established. It served to keep her name alive as a kind of symbol of "emancipation." And so when she passed off the stage a half century after winning attention
with a cheap bit of now-out-modeled scandal her "fame" was still great enough so that the story of her death could successfully compete with global events. A good example that of authorbaloney fame.

Dr. Steggerda Addresses
Christian Endeavorers

Dr. Fredrick Steggerda, associate professor of physiology at the University of Illinois at Urbana, addressed a joint meeting of the two evening Christian Endeavor societies of Sixth Reformed church Sunday night on the subject, "Recent Scientific Studies Proving the Truth of Biblical History." About 70 were present.

Dr. Steggerda defined science as a systematic or logical study of facts and said there are two approaches, objective and subjective. He said the Old Testament of the Bible was a history of the Jewish nation whereas the New testament relates the activities and history of man.

Illustrating his talk with maps
and diagrams on the blackboard, he briefly sketched historical facts of the old Testament emphasizing the time element. He said that it is only 20 or 30 years ago that people had got around to prove historical facts of the old Testament on the basis of discoveries in the Holy Land, and that it is less than 100 years that archaeologists did any "digging"
at all.

He said archaeologists have found evidences of as high as 20 different layers of civilization in mounds on what are now deserts in Canaan, indicating that at one time the region was very fertile.
In other diggings, evidences point
to certain dates which correspond with events in the Bible, Dr.
Steggerda said.

You will never know what metal you are made of till you go into the fire.

Sunday School
Lesson

October 10, 1943
Reverence for God
Exodus 20: 3-7, Matthew 4: 10,
John 4: 23, 24.

By Henry Geerlings

It should not be necessary to be reminded that it was not unusual for God to individualize the message He had to deliver. All the way through it is Thou. It was not possible for any person addressed to escape the direct-ness of what God was saying. He meant to lay it directly upon the heart of every individual. God will have neither a rival nor a substitute. He alone is God. All other beings are the creations of the imagination of man. No matter how stoutly we may argue to the contrary it is nevertheless true that a man's god is what he puts first in his thought.

Rowing down to images is the equivalent of worshipping them.
It is next to impossible to take the first step without taking the second, and then a third, which is the identification of God with the idol, and the idol with God.
Would it be safe for us to conclude that we are able to use images and symbols of God without in any manner worshipping them?

Reverence is impossible where there is no respect for God. He deserves our worshipful regard.
His name, His goodness and His power should foster within us the feeling of awe and affection. How can we honor Him if the very thought of Him does not beget
in our hearts a sense of profound respect? Loyalty follows respect and reverence. The greatness and goodness of God call forth praise and adoration.

Moses holds the place in our hearts that he does because of his great respect for God. He did not use his name lightly. He stood in awe before Him. He was humble in the divine presence. God was so much greater than he
that he was silent before Him.
Small God was great and he was very good. God was perfect in goodness while he was full of faults.
He could not look on God and not be humbled.

The command for reverence, however, is not sufficient. How often we imagine when we are preserving order in the church or any of its organizations that we are doing all that is necessary in order to obtain reverence. Certainly order, and good order at that, is a prerequisite. Without it the attitude of worship and profitable instruction is next to impossible. We look for the order that is requisite to maximum achievement. We call that reverence.

The adults are in a large measure responsible for the maintenance of reverence. It is possible to excuse what appears to be a clear case of misbehavior and irreverence on the part of children and often of youth. They are active and thoughtless. Frequently they do not mean to be inattentive or disrespectful.
What is being said or sung,
likely as not is beyond them.
They are not able to take it in.
They are really not a part of the attentive and listening and worshipping congregation. Adequate provision for their limitations and personal needs has not been taken into account. When parents are not sufficiently interested in what is going on to lift a hymn or a quarter from the seat, what can you expect from those of lesser years?

We shall not long be reverent
if we are not willing to participate in the service of worship and study. To provide adequate literature in addition to Bibles
is one of the first steps in securing reverent study attention on the part of all age groups. It is one of the responsibilities of grownups to exercise some supervision, not only by example but also by suggestion, over the part played in both study and worship by those in the lower age brackets. We have not done all that might reasonably be expected when we have provided instruction in the principles of reverence and created conditions conducive to it. We must manifest the reverent spirit through the consciousness of the presence of God.

The presence of the spirit of reverence is a secret safeguard against all forms of evil. One is not nearest yielding to evil when we are aware of the companionship of Christ. When we keep the spirit of reverence and worship
within us we will be conscious of resources of strength of which the world knows nothing. They will be a constant strength and help.

But It's True

Holland
In 1913

The Republican city committee
and some members of the Republican party in Holland held a meeting last evening in the Holland City News office for the purpose of discussing the coming campaign and to make general
plans for the fight, began a story in the Wednesday, March 19, issue of the Holland Daily Sentinel published in 1913.

The annual business meeting of the Hope college Y. M. C. A. took place last night in the Y. M. C. A. room at Winants chapel. The following officers were elected: President, Conrad Jongewaard; vice-president, Nicholas Siechterman;
secretary, Minor Stegenga; treasurer, John De Boer.

The following were nominated
at the Holland township Socialist caucus last night: Supervisor, Arie Van Doosburg; clerk, John Wolterding; treasurer, Archie Ressengue; justice of the peace, Jaccob Oosterbaan; highway commissioner, W. S. Van Dyke; constables, John Stegeman, Frank Resse-gue, Niles Hansen and Walter Bocks.

A Queen Esther Circle was organized in the parlors of the M. L.
church last night. The following officers were elected: President,
Hazel Fairbanks; vice-president,
Lucy Moody; recording secretary, Ruth McClellan; corresponding secretary, Elsie Gowdy; secretary of literature, Nina Fanslow; treasurer, Ruth Rich; secretary of supplies, Hazel Scott; Mite box secretary, Fern Wilson; directors, Bessie Crofoot and Cora Snaffer.

The many friends of Harvey Oltmans in this city will be pleased to learn that he expects to return to Holland this summer. Mr.
Oltmans for the past three years has been teaching at Tokyo, Japan.

The Adeline Y. M. C. A. met last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Blokkink, 13th St. The speakers at the semi-annual commencement that year will be James Verburg who will give the English address and Joan Vis who will give the Dutch address.

Lansing Teachers from all over Michigan, young and old, men and women educators who have given gray in the service, young ones looking forward to a career of usefulness are here tonight becoming the leg-station of the teachers' retirement fund bill, commonly known as the teachers pension bill.

That there are 2000 soldiers in the city of Hermosillo who are loyal to the memory of Francisco
I. Medero and hostile to the Huerta-Diaz regime is the statement of H. H. Fris outside circulation manager of the El Paso Herald,
who arrived in the city yesterday morning from the west coast of Mexico, according to a story in the Thursday, March 20, issue.

He states further that these men are abundantly supplied with ammunition and have five machine guns. They are said to be waiting for the Huerta government to take the first step to force the state government into recognition of the new federal government.

They are not revolutionists or bandits but they will fight the invasion of the state of Sonora to the last ditch says the newspaperman.

Fris had a harrowing experience at Culiacan. On an incoming train to that city he was shadowed and followed for 30 miles by a rurales,
who upon the arrival of the train
at Culiacan asked Fris to accompany him to the court. Fris objected and took refuge in the railroad station, being acquainted with the ticket agent to whom he reported the incident of being shadowed and the attempt to arrest him. Looking outside the station, Fris saw that the building was surrounded by rurales with rifles beaded on his heart.

The commander of the rurales refused to allow Fris to get friends in the city to accompany him to the jail, so the agent closed up the depot and went with him. As an unusual dispensation Fris and the railroad man were allowed to ride in a cab to the jail with the rurales marching on every side. At the jail Fris was questioned at length and finally satisfied them that he was not a spy or a criminal. Fris believes that he was suspected of being one of two Canadians who were said to have robbed a store at Mazatlan two months ago. Fris is a Hollander and the rurales probably considered his blonde complexion and light hair as being characteristics of a Canadian. Fris is the son of Mrs. L. Fris of this city.

Free Press Is Weapon of Democracy, Club Is Told

Meeting in the Tulip room of the Warm Friend tavern Monday night, the local Kiwanis club observed National Newspaper week with a talk on "Freedom of the Press" by Miss Fritz Jonkman of the Sentinel staff.

In a program announced by Donald B. Rice, president of Kiwanis International, 2,200 Kiwanis clubs including 118,000 members, salute the press this week for aid in the club's youth service and civic improvement programs.

Stating that "American newspapers are weapons of democracy," Miss Jonkman contrasted fact-filled free papers of the United States to government-controlled, Fascist papers. The right of the newspaper and the people to criticize freely was also emphasized. The development of press freedom in America from pioneer newsmen like John Campbell and Peter Zenger, to present popularly circulated dailies was traced.

"The modern newspaper's role in wartime," she said, "is to keep the people fully and truly informed."

Quoted figures showed that more than 40,000 U.S. newsmen are now in service, and 766 dailies have contributed 20,267 men. A total of 16 war correspondents, including the famous Webb Miller, and 132 other newspaper employees have been killed in action to date.

Using the slogan of National Newspaper week, she said "A free press and a free people form an unbeatable team, to which neither Hitler and his goosestepping Nazis nor Tojo and his suicide squadrons can ever write '30'."

The meeting opened with the singing of "America" and Capt. Herbert Jensen pronounced the invocation. President Leo J. Ebel presided and rousing group singing was led by Dr. J. K. Ward with Miss Marie Lemmen as accompanist. Capt. Jensen also gave a brief talk on the work at the Youth Center at the Salvation Army Citadel.

Dr. Chester Van Appledorn served as program chairman and introduced the speaker.

Meengs Has Good General Service

Meengs' Standard Service station, according to William J. Meengs, manager, offers the auto owners of Holland a "good general service." The station, which is located at 381 River Ave., gives complete, all-around service including greasing, washing and simonizing.

Mr. Meengs, a local alderman, has operated his present station for nine years and for two years previous to that operated a station on North River Ave. Prior to entering the gasoline business, he was a bricklayer.

A pre-war feature of this station for seven years was its 24-hour service, with no night closing. OPA regulations, however, have forced the station to operate on a 72-hour a week basis for the last two years.

With this exception, though, wartime restrictions have not affected the business to a major extent. In proportion to the number of hours worked, business has "held its own," according to Mr. Meengs. Transient business is much lighter than in pre-war days, but local and rural customers have taken the place of tourist trade.

Nelis Famed for Variety of Tulips

Nelis Nurseries, which was established in 1922 and incorporated in 1937, is one of Holland's leading nurseries. They are especially noted for the fine tulips of every variety which they grow and which are on display every May at their farm on route 4.

They also handle a complete line of nursery stock, trees, flowering shrubs and evergreens of almost every description which are hardy for Michigan's climate, with a capable landscape man in charge of this department.

Many other novelty plants are grown, outstanding of which are Lillium Bownii (Plant patent No. 436) and Colchicums, from which the drug colchicine is now manufactured.

Daffodils were grown for the first time on the farm in 1924, and a sizeable amount were grown here when the embargo went into effect in 1926. This branch has been kept up to date, and nearly one hundred of the finest varieties are now carried, which may be seen in bloom during the latter part of April and early May.

Heights Eleven Trounces Dutch By 26 to 6 Score

Weak Holland Line Unable to Cope With Attack of Invaders

The Holland high school football team fell victim to a hard charging Muskegon Heights line and backfield Friday night, 26-6, in their first Southwestern conference game here. Two boys, Jack Weisenburger and Joe Hegedus, ripped the Dutch defense open for gain after gain as the Tigers slammed out 16 first downs and four touchdowns against the Dutchmen.

The work of Jack Weisenburger, Muskegon Heights fullback, was as expected but Joe Hegedus proved the surprise of the team as he alternated drives into the line with Weisenburger and showed some of the hardest running yet encountered by the Holland eleven.

Holland scored their only touchdown in the late minutes of play when Bob Kuipers intercepted a Tiger pass and raced from his own five-yard line to the Heights forty before he tripped when touched while trying to avoid a lone Tiger tackler. On the next play Kuipers scooted through a hole over his right side, plunged into three would-be tacklers and came out with a clear field ahead and scampered across the goal line.

All the touchdowns for Muskegon Heights came on sustained running attacks, with the exception of the last which was scored on a pass going from Hegedus to Matthews. Weisenburger scored two touchdowns, both on line plunges from the Holland one-yard line, while Hegedus scored one on a cut-back play starting from the Holland 16-yard line.

Despite the score, Bob Kuipers and Eddie Benz showed up good in the Dutch backfield while De Vries played his usual stellar game at the guard post, Holland's line, however, was woefully weak.

Dendinos, besides playing a good line game for Muskegon Heights, booted two extra-points.

Most of the scoring was done in the last quarter when the Tigers showed two touchdowns across and Holland one. The Dutchmen made four first downs while Muskegon Heights was piling up 16.

No Serious Coal Shortage Here

Simon Borr, Ottawa county OCD chairman, said today there was no serious coal shortage in this area, following a survey of conditions at the request of Capt. Donald S. Leonard, state OCD director, who said results of the state-wide survey through county chairmen will be turned over to Governor Kelly's office for whatever action might be advisable.

Leonard said the Michigan OCD headquarters and executive office have already received reports of an approaching fuel famine in some areas. In Barry county, officials reported that there was no coal for home deliveries and that some schools were without an adequate supply.

Mr. Borr said there has been some shortage of Pocahontas and hard coal in this county and the manpower shortage was a real problem in making deliveries. However, he was quite optimistic about the local situation.

HOH Changes Its Name to HMA

A new name for the HOH was adopted at the annual meeting Friday night in the IOOF hall. The new name, "Holland Mutual Aid Society" is a direct translation of the old name, "Hollandse Ouderling Hulpvereniging Concordia," which was founded almost as early as Holland city.

In other business, the society voted to adopt the hospitalization plan. In the presentation of the financial report, it was pointed out that the society's assets are listed as $6,602.70. During the past year, dues amounted to $1,876. A total of $942 was paid out for illness and $700 for death benefits.

Plan New Drive For Heavy Metal

Further plans for a heavy metal scrap drive to be held in Ottawa county during October were made at a meeting of the salvage committee September 28 in the local OCD office with L. R. Arnold of Grand Haven presiding in the absence of Chairman John Van Dam. According to present plans, the main drive will be carried on through schools in the county. The drive, intended again to comb homes, farms and stores for waste steel and iron, results from Washington requests that steel mills be assured adequate supplies of scrap to operate at capacity through the winter months. Kenneth Burns, state salvage director, has said mills and suppliers now have on hand only 7½ million tons of scrap.

Milkweed Pod Campaign Opened at HHS Program

A campaign to collect milkweed pods in the local area in behalf of the war effort is under way here. Students in Miss Lida Rogers' Biology I classes at Holland high school participated in a chapel program on Friday and explained the purpose and rules of the drive.

Common milkweed floss, the only satisfactory substitute for Kapok known since the Japanese now control the Kapok supply, is now being processed by a company in Petoskey under government authority, and will be used for insulating life jackets, making life preservers, as insulation for "May West" jackets and pilot's cabins in planes, and numerous other purposes.

It has been estimated that there is more milkweed in Michigan than any other state, and collection of this important weed is being sponsored by the superintendent of public instruction and various schools in Michigan.

Residents of the community are urged to assist in the collection of the milkweed. The full green pods should be placed in burlap or other cloth sacks and hung on a fence or post to dry for approximately three weeks.

At the conclusion of the drying period, the bags should be taken to room 303, Holland high school, and their shipment to Petoskey will be assured. The campaign will extend through Oct. 23, and all sacks should be taken to the school before Nov. 1. Now is the time to pick the full green pods, it was emphasized.

In the school program on Friday, Mary Fairbanks, chairman of the drive in the Biology classes, presided and introduced Verma Van Otterloo, who told of the uses of the floss. Junior Hill talked on the need for the collection and its regulations. Tim Harrison, president of the Victory council, and Jack Tirrell, school mayor, also spoke in behalf of the campaign, which has for its slogan, "Back the Attack with Milkweed Floss."

It is expected that the campaign will be extended to Junior high school, East Junior high and other schools.

It is planned to raise money for the purchase of a $10,000 war bond by the sale of bushels of wheat. A number of counties, including Allegan, have raised their quotas, except the extra $46. The West Allegan group raised its quota by sales of scraps, etc., instead of wheat. The Camp Committee represents eight southwest Michigan counties which comprise the district, namely Berrien, Cass, Kalamazoo, Barry, Allegan, Ottawa, Van Buren and St. Joseph.

U.S. Not Guarding Its Interests in World: Hoffman

Cites Airports, Toning Down of Part Yankees Are Playing in War

Washington, Oct. 7.—Three senators have returned from a 4,000-mile tour of Allied battlefronts with the unanimous opinion that something should be done immediately to safeguard the interests of the United States throughout the world, Cong. Clare E. Hoffman of Allegan, Mich., pointed out this week.

"We have spent billions of dollars in the construction of airports in foreign countries and under the present arrangement, not a single plane of ours may even use the bases six months after the termination of the war," Hoffman asserted. "We are supplying more than our share of oil."

Commenting on the report of the senators—two Democrats and one Republican—Hoffman said, "The further information is given that our Allies are toning down reports of the participation of our fighting men in battle, not giving to their own homelands information as to the part the United States is playing in the war."

"It is long past time when our government representatives should begin to look toward the safeguarding of the interests of these United States, of the interests of her own people."

Turning to other issues, he continued:

"The senate has been debating the question of the drafting of fathers. It has been shown that there are hundreds of thousands of young, unmarried men in government positions, doing clerical work which might as well be performed by women or older men; also, that many of the larger industries make it a practice to keep a reserve of manpower on which it may draw as occasion arises. In my judgment, fathers should not be drafted until it has been definitely established, which so far it has not, that they are indispensable to the war effort."

"The announcement by the treasury that the bond quota for the third war loan had been over-subscribed is a tribute to the American fighting man and to his relatives and friends at home. We have been winning substantial victories on the war fronts and, despite the questionable progress of the so-called home front, the confusion and worse which exists in the multiplicity of bureaus telling our citizens what they must do, our people have responded in a gratifying manner to the call for funds."

"The ranking Republican member of the appropriations committee of the house has estimated that the administration could curtail present government spending by anywhere from $5,000,000,000 to $8,000,000,000 annually. Congress should insist that the government put its spending on a business basis. The war must come first, non-essential spending should cease."

"Have you ever stopped to think that the expenditures of the federal government for one year, ending June 30, 1943, totaled $78,182,348,000 and that that amount was $55,900,000,000 more than its receipts?"

"That the public debt increased during that year from $76,900,000,000 to $140,796,000,000?"

"That the total expenditures, by all the United Nations, for 1943, was $105,000,000,000? That the United States spent $67,581,000,000 up to June 12, 1943, or almost twice as much as all the other Allied Nations put together?"

Stress Deadline For Yule Parcels

Postmaster Harry Kramer today called attention to the fact that Oct. 15 is the last day that Christmas gift parcels may be mailed to soldiers abroad. Nov. 1 is the deadline for the navy. After those dates no assurance can be given that the gifts will reach the addressees before Christmas.

Apparently the public has not been impressed with the necessity of mailing parcels far in advance because the average daily volume of mail up to the present has been half of what was expected, he said.

Arms, munitions and supplies take precedence over gifts in the allotment of shipping space, and because mail from home and Christmas gifts are important to men and women overseas, it is imperative that those who plan to send gifts do so at once to assure their delivery on time.

Delay Review of Gas Applications

To Issue Extra Ration To B and C Drivers Only in Rare Cases

With the value of B and C gasoline coupons reduced now to two gallons each, the local war price and rationing board today said it has received no authorization to consider applications from B and C book holders for adjustments under the new program.

The district OPA office at Grand Rapids stated that local ration boards might be permitted to handle such applications some time after Oct. 15. Adjustments may then be made, but only in rare cases. Basic "A" gasoline coupons remain at three gallons each under the new order.

Gasoline dealers are cautioned to keep a record of all B and C coupons taken up to Oct. 1 at old value. Dealers will be allowed through Oct. 6 to transfer such coupons to suppliers at the time of replenishment. If for any reason the dealer cannot follow this procedure he may exchange them for inventory coupons at his local board on or before Oct. 6. The suppliers have until Oct. 11 to dispose of old coupons.

Extend Program Under Camp Fire Leadership

The local Camp Fire program, which among other objectives aims to help girls realize the ideals of womanhood as a preparation for their responsibilities in the home, the church, and by service to the community, has been extended and developed under the capable leadership of Mrs. Lloyd Reed who is beginning her seventh year as executive secretary of the organization.

After serving as Camp Fire guardian for three years, Mrs. Reed took over the leadership of the organization which was composed of eight groups with a total membership of 65 girls. Today there are 23 Camp Fire groups, three Bluebird groups and three Horizon clubs with a total of 350 members.

The Camp Fire organization in Holland is sponsored by the Woman's Literary club and is aided by funds from the Community Chest. It is controlled by a board of 17 women, members of the Woman's club, with Mrs. Albert Timmer serving as board president.

This year service projects are to be stressed. The girls will "serve by sharing," and numerous services to the community are being planned. Older girls are collecting fats and younger girls will make tray favors for the hospital.

The Horizon clubs or older girls' program is considered important especially in consideration of the unsettled conditions of the present day. Horizon club girls are aiding the war effort by selling stamps and bonds at the theaters, taking first aid courses and doing Red Cross work. An outstanding project of the year was treating the children of the orthopedic room to a day at Camp Keewano recently. They were assisted by the Rotary club. A feature of the social program is the series of sweater dances held in the Woman's club following local football and basketball games. These parties are chaperoned by members of the board and teachers.

Highlights of the 1943-44 Camp Fire program will be the Christmas vesper service held jointly with local Boy Scouts Dec. 12; a "play day" for all Camp Fire girls in February; Achievement day in March, featuring a display of their accomplishments by each group; and in April, the grand council fire.

CABLES FROM LONDON

"I HAVE SEEN the soldiers come down from the ships and stand in long lines on the docks, their 'B' bags beside them and their packs on their backs and their rifles slung over their shoulders. They have come to a new country and it is strange to them. They are puzzled and although only a little time from home, they are homesick.

"I have seen the supplies come in by the hundred shiploads, locomotives and tanks and trucks—acres of boxed food and great mounds of hams, shiploads of bombs stacked in from keel to hatch and all materials that we need at home—steel for bridges and buildings, food for our own people, material enough to make all America well fed and well housed and well clothed. And all this dumped on the docks of a foreign country.

"I have seen American railroad men shunting cars on the British line, men who got good pay on the B. & O. and on the New York Central and now with Sergeant's stripes and Sergeant's pay.

"I have seen the men climb into the Fortress in the early morning and fly away waving with elaborate nonchalance and I have seen the gap in the mess when they did not come back and the empty bunks, the blankets thrown aside as they threw them, and the framed photographs on the steel lockers.

"The men have gone up the gangways again to go into action and they jump from landing barges to a beach, strewn with the bodies of their own people, and they claw their way like animals into a hostile coast.

"I have seen the hospitals with the mauled men, the legless and blind, the fingerless hands and the burned faces—all the destruction that steel and fire can do to a man's body and mind. I have seen children hauled out of a blasted building; lumps of crushed, dirty meat in pinafores, and dead—boxed and buried carrion. In God's name, what is it for except to get this horrible thing over with as quickly and as thoroughly as possible? And if this is true, it should not be a matter of 'Who will lend his money?' but 'Who dares not to?'"
