PAST PANICS.

The Great Crises of 1837 and 1857.

(From the New York World.)

THE PANIC OF 1837.

The two causes generally assigned for the panic of 1837 were the Bank of England in 1836 requiring payment from the American houses in London, and the passing of the "Surplus Revenue" bill by Congress, which latter had effect of causing the bank credits, which represented the surplus revenue, to be transferred from place to place without any regard to laws of trade. The combination of these circumstances was too much for the banks, and they all simultaneously stopped payment in May, 1837, as well as the three leading American houses in London. The depreciation of bank notes through the country varied from 12 to 25 per cent. The Eastern banks adopted all proper measures to secure speedy resumption of payments, but their efforts were not seconded by those of other parts of the country, and in the West and South new banks continued to be created. During the remainder of 1837 and in 1838 the excess of specie imports over exports was $18,000,000, of which a part was sent to the Bank of England to enable the American banks to resume. In May, 1836, the banks of New England and New York resumed and continued to pay specie. In the August followed the bank of Philadelphia proposed to pay specie, and by January, 1839, there was a nominal resumption of payment throughout the country. October, however, of the same year the Philadelphia banks suspended a second time; resumed in January, 1841; suspended a third time the 4th of February following, and did not permanently resume till March 1842. In 1837 there were 788 banks in the country, employing a capital of $290,000,000.

PANIC OF 1857.
Up to August, 1857, that proved so fatal to all the business interests of the country, commercial affairs had been pursuing the even tenor of their way on the highroad of prosperity. Everything pointed to a still more prosperous future. The mania for building railways had apparently been nipped, if not in the bud, at least before it had extended too greatly the country's credit, and although there were several hundred millions of foreign capital in use, in case of its being recalled the home market could register the bonds which represented it at half the par cost. The wisest Solomons of the bank saw no indications of the coming storm in the commercial skies. When on the 8th of August, the loans reached the unprecedented height of $122,000,000, even then a reduction of $10,000,000 or $12,000,000 during the autumn months without injury to commerce was declared possible, and in pursuance of this declaration the banks began to contract their loans. Never was an act followed by more fearful consequences. The prices of securities at the Stock Board immediately fell. The failure of a heavy produce house, although accounted for by the depression of that particular interest in the market, and the report of defalcation in a leading railway company caused a suspicion of a coming crisis to taint the public security, but failed to seriously effect the general confidence. On the 24th of the month the news of the suspension of the Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company came like thunder from a clear sky. The financial circle vibrated to its center; banking officers, panic-stricken by the suddenness of the blow, at once lost their heads. The days of '37, seemed once more upon them and financial chaos was come again. Stocks and commercial paper were at once sacrificed at ruinous rates, other failures were announced, and rumors exaggerated each calamity. The Clearing House report for Aug. 29—the first after the suspension of the Trust Company—showed a reduction of $4,000,000 in the bank loans for the previous week. A defalcation was announced on the same day of $70,000 in one of the associated banks, and so great was the general mistrust that other institutions immediately became suspected of dishonesty.

The most substantial securities in the market sold for next to nothing at public sale, and while the regular discounts of bills by the banks had been nearly suspended, street rates for money on the most unquestioned securities rose to what was up to that time unheard of here—five per cent. a month—and money could not be had at any rate on ordinary promissory notes and bills of exchange. Commercial house after commercial house, bank after bank succumbed to the panic. The panic extended through the entire country. The failure of the Bank of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, was followed by that of the other banks of that city and by those of Baltimore and of the Southern Atlantic States generally. The panic was no respecter of persons. Merchants, bankers, money-d corporations, and manufacturing companies were swept down without distinction. Commercial business was everywhere suspended; the purchase and transportation of produce entirely ceased; and the climax only was reached when, on the 14th of October, the bank suspensions of New York and New England took place. For this almost universal suspension the banks could not claim the want of faith among the depositors to be the cause. Despite the distrust that early began to effect the entire country, the depositors stood well by their guns, and not till the 29th of September did they begin to be alarmed. For the five successive weeks preceding they withdrew less from the banks each week than the bank withdrew from them by the depression of loans. Although the panic started on the 25th of August, caused by the contraction of loans, and was at once carried by the telegram with the speed of light to all parts of the country, no marked withdrawal of deposits by individual depositors took place anywhere till more than an entire month later. Up to that time the depositors presented a steady front, apparently determined to sustain the public credit if everything else failed. But when October came, in resistance ceased at once to be a virtue, on the third of that month a marked change came over the spirit of the depositors. Over four million of deposits were withdrawn in seven days following, and over fourteen millions in next twenty. The 14th of October was the date of the bank suspension. On the day following withdrawals ceased and restoration began. One of the causes alleged by the banks themselves for their suspension was sudden withdrawal of country balances, and for this the telegraph was responsible. It not only took the news to the country banks of the collapse of credit in the city, but brought back their orders demanding their deposits in specie. The Clearing House, too, was alleged to aid in increasing the general collapse. Its daily settlements in coin forced the smaller banks into contracting their loans, into sacrifices of property, and finally into bankruptcy. Default at the Clearing House became the Banker's ghost and appeared at the bank board of all the smaller institutions. The most universally accepted cause for the panic of 1857 is the violent contraction of bank loans immediately after the 24th of August. And this was entirely the action of the banks, and they had only themselves to blame. It was, too, the expansion of banks previous to the panic that laid the foundation for the memorable commercial crisis of 1857.

The execution of the Modocs is the last act in the most extraordinary and tragic contest ever waged with any of our Indian tribes. The desperate valor of Captain Jack and his band defied for a time the whole power of the government, and commanded the attention of the press not only in this country but abroad. The ignominy of their deaths detracts not a whit from the interest in their struggle. Captain Jack suspended from a rope takes rank with Red Jacket. Tecumseh, Pontiac, Osceola, and other warriors who have gone before. He excelled them all in the duplicity and atrocity which attended the massacre of General Canby and Dr. Thomas, for which crime the Modocs were executed.

Circumventing a Swindler.

The other day a young man called at the Union Pacific general ticket office in Omaha and requested a strictly private and confidential interview with the gentleman in charge. This being accorded him, he mysteriously folded back the lapel of his vest and showed a small metallic shield with word "Detective" on it in raised letters. Then he gravely pointed to a pair of handcuffs which he carried in his inside pocket. He explained he was in the employ of the Government Secret Service, and had started for a Western city on the line of the road. He had lost his wallet containing his money and his ticket. What should he do? Clearly there was but one way out. The Company must pass him, for justice could not be defrauded of her right. The man he was going for was "shoving the queer" up the road, and must be stopped. After consultation and some delay it was decided to issue the detective a pass, provided he would sign an order on the Secret Service Department for his pay. Of course he would, and he did. Then he took his pass and departed in a happy frame of mind. He had only left the office but a few minutes when a message went over the wires to Washington, and presently an answer came that no man of the name given was in the employ of the Secret Service. He was then on a westward bound train, happy, with his pass in his pocket, but a telegram was sent ahead to the next station, directing the conductor to take up that pass and collect full fare, which was done. The fellow was lucky to get off so easily.

Starching and Ironing.

From the Western Rural.
Starch and iron shirt bosoms as usual, and when the articles are thoroughly dry, place one at a time on a narrow, hard and very smooth board which has one thickness of cotton cloth over it, sewed tightly; have the "polishing iron" heated so that it will not scorch, and rub it quick and hard over the surface, up and down the bosom, using only the rounded part on the front of the iron. A still higher polish may be obtained by passing a damp cloth lightly over the smooth surface, and then rubbing hard and quickly with the hot iron. It needs a good deal of patient practice to do this admirably, but it is crowned with success, and when once learned is as easy as other ironing. A "polishing iron" is small and highly polished, with a rounded part which allows all the friction to come on a small part at one time, which develops the gloss that may be in both linen and starch. These irons may be had for about seven-fifty cents each; one is sufficient for a family. Collars and cuffs look nicely done in this way.

A Dilemma.

An awkward affair once occurred to one of the judges on a Western Circuit. It appears that, having finished his labors and cast off his forensic wig at his lodgings, he had retired into the next room to wait for his brother judge, whom he was about to accompany to meet some of the local aristocracy at dinner. The female servant of the house had entered the bed-chamber by a side door and, not knowing that the judge was in the next room, in a frolic arrayed herself in his wig. Just at the moment when the fair Mopsy was admiring herself in the looking-glass the judge unexpectedly entered the room, and the poor girl, catching sight of the stern countenance looking over her shoulders in the glass, was so alarmed that she fainted, and would have fallen to the floor, if the learned, judge impelled by humanity, had not caught her in his arms. At this critical moment his brother judge arrived, and on opening the dressing-room door, with a view to see if he was ready, discovered his brother with the fainting maid in his arms. The intruder quietly attempted to withdraw, when his brother judge vociferated, "For heaven's sake, stop and hear this matter explained!" "Never mind, brother; never mind—the matter explains itself; and he left his learned colleague to bring the fainting maid to as best he could.

Free Lodgings for Immigrants.

BY PROF. J. D. BUTLER.

The Emigrant's home at Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska has now been open one year. This institution is a building at the Burlington and Missouri River R. R. station provided by that company for the gratuitous accommodation of strangers. Besides a spacious day-room, there are ten chambers, in which as many immigrant families may spread their beds and lodge, there is a kitchen with all conveniences for them to cook and wash; Bathing rooms for males and females are also provided. The only charge ever made is the cost of the fuel used.

During the year more than six hundred persons (630) have here found refuge and rest. Of this number 365 were adults (254 males and 111 females) and 271 children; 154 took up homesteads on government land—leaving families at the Home while they hunted for locations, and 150 or more obtained work either in Lincoln or west of it.

One old man lately came from Scotland with three daughters and their new husbands—all very poor. The wives, at once, as "hired girls" obtained $3 and $4 a week with board, in good Lincoln families; the husbands and the patriarch soon discovered homesteads for each of them further west, and took possession of those $14 farms. By working for other farmers, they hired a few acres plowed, and sowed with sod-corn. Their united earnings will soon pay for such a house as homesteaders build. Their crops will pay for farming tools, teams, wagons, cows, sheep, swine, and a better house in good time.

Thus, working no harder, and fareing no worse, than they always have, they will live henceforth absolute owners of a square mile of land, 640 acres, as good as any in Scotland. Emigration opens to them a new heaven and a new earth, for, in their native isle, they could scarcely by any possibility, have ever become the owners of one single acre.

The B. & M. Emigrant Home in Lincoln, has entertained strangers from all parts of Europe, and through them its story has been told in their various homes. It will welcome more and more, and send them on their way rejoicing.

This B. & M. railroad company have sold along their line in Iowa and Nebraska, within thirty-three months, 478,988 acres to 4,525 purchasers, on ten years credit, and six per cent. interest. On sales made since 1872 no part of the principal till the end of four years—while twenty per cent. is deducted from land prices, for prompt improvement.

OUR COUNTY FAIR.

On Wednesday last we conceived the idea of visiting our County Fair. Consequently in company of Hon. John Roost we took the early train for Nunica at which place we arrived with life and limb in tact. After waiting here some two hours we took the train for Berlin, a very cozy little place of about 300 inhabitants in one the north western towns of this county, arriving there about 10 o'clock a. m. we found the little town full of people intent upon doing all they could to secure the success of the Fair. We strolled over to the Fair Grounds and upon entering them we were really surprised to see the vast number of people already there, "taking in" the magnificent articles on exhibition. We first visited the stock pens and found a large number of graded cattle some of them equalling if not surpassing the finest stock at the State Fair. Messrs Johnson and Manly of Alpine exhibited a large number of blooded Durhams among which was Moss Rose and one of the finest, cows we ever saw, with a yearling weighing 1365 pounds. There were others who exhibited some fine stock alike creditable to themselves and to the County in which they were raised.

At the Agricultural Hall we found a large display of fruits and vegetables, this large hall was nearly full of products some varieties of which we never saw excelled in any county. The display of apples was large, but we do not think that Ottawa was fairly represented in this line as she would have been, had more care been made in securing specimens. The showing of grapes was not large nor anything in quality more than ordinary. The only peaches we saw on exhibition were from Pigeon River a seedling of very large size and evidently a valuable variety. Some very fine specimens of canned fruit, jellies &c. were also exhibited. In dairy and domestic products there seemed a lively competition judging from the number of entries. The show of butter was especially commendable as also the different varieties of bread, and the fair ones who were so ready and fluent in discussing the merits of their articles; altogether we were greatly pleased with the display made in this department and left it with the belief that Ottawa, West Kent and Muskegon were not behind in the variety and quality of agricultural products of any County in the State.

In the Manufacturers and Art Hall, we found the number of entries were quite limited and were to judge the people from what we saw at the Fair we should say that they devoted themselves almost exclusively to agricultural pursuits, paying but little heed to the more refining influence of Art, yet we could not maintain this theory by acquaintance, hence we must conclude that this deficiency arose from the lack of disposition on the part of the officers in urging the necessity for such articles for exhibition. We would not ignore the fact, however, that a very creditable display of domestic arts, needle and fancy work was made, further showing that the ladies "God bless them" done all that was done in this department. Then there was a fair display of patch work; wool blankets, bed spreads, rag carpets, stockings, mittens &c., many of the articles showing that time and labor were not economized in making them.

The usual variety of Agricultural implements were on the ground as also several of the best Washing Machines in the world, it is surprising how high the washing machine men are, a kind of omnipresent being ever blowing their own horn.

Altogether the Fair was more than we had expected and we are glad to record so honorable an institution among us and only regret that this portion of the county was not represented by our farmers and manufacturers. Certainly nothing but good effect can result from such efforts and we shall speed the day when the entire county shall take an interest in its prosperity. THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

From Allegan Journal.

The claim advanced by certain Grand Rapids politicians that Kent county is entitled to the Congressional nomination made vacant by the death of Mr. Foster is a most absurd one. The fact is that Kent county has no more claim for the office than Ottawa. Kent county has now the U. S. District Judge, the Attorney General of the State, the U. S. Pension Agency, and about all of the Federal district appointments of any importance. So far as Congress is concerned the claim of Kent county is of the most impudent character. Let us look at the facts. Lucius Lyon, of Grand Rapids, was U. S. Senator from 1836 to 1840, and a Representative in Congress from 1843 to 1845. Gen. Francis W. Kellogg, of Grand Rapids, represented this district in Congress for six years—from 1859 to 1865. While the lamented Mr. Foster was elected for two terms but only served for one. So much for Kent county's claims for the Congressional vacancy.

For the first time in the history of the Republican party of our State the Republicans of Allegan county will present the name of one of her most honored and distinguished citizens to represent this State in Congress of the United States, and we look for the aid of our political brethren throughout the district in support of our choice for the position of Congressman. Allegan has had only three of the minor State offices, viz.: Hon. John R. Kellogg, member of the Board of Education, James B. Porter, (now of Lansing) Secretary of State, and Gen. B. D. Pritchard, Commissioner of the State Land Office. These are all the offices of any importance which Allegan county has had since the organization of the county.

We appeal to our political brethren of the district in regard to this matter of claims to the record of the distribution of political patronage and ask of them to form their own judgement.

For one we are decidedly opposed to this monopoly of political patronage which certain wire-pulling politicians in Kent county seek to fasten upon the good people of this Congressional district and hereby enter our solemn protest against it. When the politicians of Detroit attempted a similar monopoly of the offices of the State we warred against their machinations and fought the good fight till that monopoly was destroyed. We shall have more to say on this subject after the call is issued for a district convention.

We clip the above, from the Journal, not to advocate the claims of Allegan County or any other county to the exclusion of men and principles. We base our political creed upon principles and when we find a candidate in whom we can place our entire confidence, that he will truthfully represent our ideas, we should certainly support him irrespective of locality. All circumstances being equal we would favor a distribution of honors. Men and principles every time. We argue with the Journal, that Allegan County has one of the most honored citizens in the State, whose name they can present to the nominating convention; whom many would be pleased to support; not because he happens to be a resident of Allegan County, however, but rather from the fact of his moral and intellectual fitness to represent an independent people in the councils of the nation, more acceptable than those that are aspiring for the same distinction in other counties. The right man in the right place is our motto: and when we single him from a multitude of applicants we shall support his nomination without inquiring whether he be from Kent, Ionia, Allegan or Ottawa Counties.

Yellow Fever.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 7.—There was a heavy frost last night, and indications of another to-night. It is thought today more new cases of fever were developed than before. There are about 600 under treatment in the infected district. To day there were 42 yellow fever interments, and 13 from other causes. Among the former was the Rev. Father Carey, of the Dominican priesthood.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—The City Council has appropriated $250 for the relief of the Memphis sufferers.

CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 7.—Five hundred and sixty one dollars were contributed by citizens to-day for the relief of the sufferers by yellow fever at Memphis and Shreveport.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 7.—The Jews of this city have collected from the people of their own faith, and forwarded to the sufferers of Shreveport and Memphis, the sum of $900, to be used for all, irrespective of religion or nationality. A matinee will be given at the Academy of Music to-morrow the proceeds to be sent to Memphis and Shreveport.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 7.—Nearly $2,000, in addition to the amount previously reported, has been subscribed for the Memphis sufferers, and an active committee is still working in their behalf. The Odd Fellows and Masons have also sent handsome sums to be disbursed by their brethren in the afflicted city. About $7,000 in money, clothing and provisions have been sent to Shreveport, and more is being contributed. Much sympathy is felt here for the sick and destitute of these cities and it is finding an expression in a substantial manner.

From the New York Times we learn that a white man, supposed to be Dr. Livingstone, is said to have been captured by the natives somewhere on the upper Congo. The story is probable enough, because it was known to be Livingstone's intention to reach the Guinea Coast by a route pretty similar to the one which this "white man" seems to have been following. The Congo pursues a comparatively unknown course of about 1,000 miles and we are left to conjecture the distance which Dr. Livingstone must have traversed since his encounter with Stanley. Presuming that he had just crossed the ridge which forms the backbone of Southern Africa, and from which the Zambesi begins its long south-eastern, and the Congo its almost equally long north-western course, he must have been about 2,000 miles distant from the point where he was last "discovered." No European traveler has ever penetrated the region which the English explorer would seem to have traversed, and since Livingstone, the Magyar, explored the sources of the Zambesi, some twenty years ago, there has, we think, been no white man in the region where it is presumed the natives have laid hold of Livingstone.

The Eagle's Galaxy of Congressional Heads.

The Eagle introduces a galaxy of Congressional aspirants, preceding it with the following remarks:

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

"We have authority for saying that each of the following named citizens of Grand Rapids has assented to the use of his name as a candidate for Congress by the forthcoming Republican Convention: Hon. M. V. Aldrich, Hon. W. A. Howard, Hon. I. E. Messmore, Hon. B. D. Bell, Hon. E. S. Eggleston, Hon. B. A. Harlan and E. G. D. Holden."

So Much for Kent County. Allegan County has Hon. M. D. Wilbur, Hon. W. B. Williams; Ionia, Wm. R. Smith, Ottawa so far as we can learn has no candidate.

W. H. Waterman the high toned gentleman who broke into VanLandegend hardware Store a few months since, who was arrested plead guilty, and sentenced to five years imprisonment, succeeded in making his escape a few days since. A reward of $300 is offered for his capture.

We have received No. 1. Vol 1 of the Saturday Evening Post a new candidate for public favor, published weekly at Grand Rapids Mich., it is a quarto six column page, and full of interesting reading matter. It is neatly executed and shows that its Editorial department is well cared for; as to its position we let the Post speak for itself.

The Post will be an independent paper, published every Saturday afternoon. Its independence will not be of that slippery sort quite common in so called independent journalism which is chiefly noticeable for its ability to be upon all sides of all questions at one and the same time. The Post will entertain decided opinions upon all important questions, but will reflect the sentiments of its editor and not those of any class, party or sect. Men or measures, that seem to him to be fair subjects of discussion, shall be approved or disapproved, as they deserve. He will not go out of his way to engage in useless attacks upon the honestly entertained opinions of others, but will not hesitate to combat these when by so doing he believes good may be accomplished. We wish the new enterprise success.

THE MUSICAL ECHO.—This popular monthly presents a rich variety of contents for its October number. It opens with a sketch entitled "Beethoven's Love," which is an interesting reminiscence of the early life of the great composer of instrumental music. The other articles are instructive and interesting, and are suited to the various tastes of the general reader. The Echo—though comparatively a new paper—already takes rank among the first magazines in the land, and is somewhat noted for its plainness of speech and soundness upon musical matters. Besides the original poems, sketches and other matter, the Echo gives each month, three or four new pieces of music, which, if bought in sheet form, would cost more than the price of a whole years' subscription to the Echo. The current number contains a song by Tucker, "There, darling, wait for me," a Mazourka, by Pattison, "The Faultless;" and the "Never tire Waltz."

How a magazine of this degree of excellence can be furnished for $1.00 a year is a mystery. We advise each and all of our readers who have the faintest glimmer of love for music and art, to send for the MUSICAL ECHO. Sample copies sent free on application to the publisher—H. N. Hempsted, Milwaukee, Wis.

Local News.

The Board of Supervisors of the County will convene for business next Monday.

The steamer Fanny Shriver is again on duty, after having been laid up for several days undergoing repairs.

The steamer Sky Lark arrived in this port on Sunday last. She was intending to load from the Lake Shore, but owing to the storm prevailing at the time, she was unable to do so.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Abraham Ledeboer left this place last Wednesday to pursue his studies at the Department of Medicine in the State University. Abe, is a studious fellow and will make an honorable disciple of Esculapius.

An apple tree is reported at Jackson, Washington county, Wis., which has blossomed forthnightly throughout the season, and which now exhibits one crop of apples well advanced, one crop just formed, and a set of fresh blossoms.

Workmen are busily engaged in putting the stained glass windows into the new Episcopal Church, in this city. Services will be held in the church for the first time, one week from tomorrow, the 19th.—All are invited.

Our enterprising hardware dealers Van Landegard & Mells, are this week putting up a furnace for one of the prominent Churches in Grand Haven. This speaks well for our mechanics, and our friends at Grand Haven may rest assured of their competency.

The Register of Deeds for Kalamazoo county, Mich., lately recorded a mortgage of the Chicago and Lake Huron Railroad Company to the Union Trust Company of New York, for $12,000,000. The mortgage bears date Aug. 1, 1873, and runs to the year 1903.

George Murdock was arrested last Saturday evening, being drunk and disorderly went to the calaboose, and was called before Justice Post, plead guilty fined $10 which was paid and George went home rejoicing. John Thompson was arrested for the same offence plead guilty, fined $5, and cost of suit.

The latest news relating to the success of the Holland Iron Company, is much more flattering than its friends had anticipated, and, if eastern capitalists do not disappoint our agent east, we shall soon be enabled to report the funds raised, which will guarantee the establishment of the works at an early day.

Dr. Ruse of North Holland was arrested a few days since, was tried, and sentenced to pay a fine or imprisonment. He accepted the latter, but was released from custody upon informality. The cause of the arrest was, the Doctor's horse became frightened and run away striking another horse and killing him, not being prepared to pay damages at once; hence the trouble.

SCHOONER LITTLE GEORGIE.—The Schooner Little Georgie of Sheboygan laden with lime arrived off our harbor Saturday morning carrying a signal of distress. The tug Fanny Shriver went to her assistance towed her into port, when it was ascertained that the lime was rapidly slacking, about eighty barrels were taken out and stored in E. J. Harrington warehouse, when the vessel was moved to a safe distance and sunk, the vessel will be raised and probably will not be seriously injured.

The Rice House at Grand Haven was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. A fire was discovered in some of the upper rooms about 2 o'clock a. m. an alarm was sounded, and furniture was being rapidly removed when the fire was extinguished and work ceased, in few moments it broke out again with double force and was soon reduced to ashes with a large portion of its contents. It was insured, house and furniture $7,500.

New Goods.—The ladies intending to renew their wardrobe for the fall and winter season will not forget that the most popular place in this city, to secure such articles as are adapted to their wants, and to the season, is at the store of the Van den Berg Sisters, corner of Eighth and Cedar Sts. They have just opened one of the largest and most complete assortment of ladies furnishing goods ever offered for sale in this market, consisting of Fall and Winter hats, in the latest style, a full line of collarettes, neck ties, gloves, ribbons, shawls, furs, ladies underwear, table linen, embroidery patterns, infants clothing, and in fact any thing a lady may want for style or comfort at prices which will defy competition.

Odd Fellows.

On Thursday last the corner stone of the Odd Fellows Building at Grand Haven was laid with imposing ceremonies. Among the articles deposited in the cavity was a manuscript containing the names of the members of the Lodge, the past Grand Officers, the present Officers, the President of the United States, the Governor of the State of Michigan, the Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the United States, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Michigan, the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Michigan, the Grand Representative to the Grand Lodge of the United States, a copy of the By Laws of the Lodge. Leggat, several Coppers and Silver coins by citizens, card of the Cutler and Bath House by G. C. Stewart, the address delivered on the occasion by Past Grand Henry Griffin, a copy of which we are promised for publication. The brethren at Grand Haven are deserving of much credit for the unanimity manifested in this undertaking, fully demonstrating the truth of the old adage that in "Union there is Strength." We congratulate the brethren of Ottawa Lodge upon the success of their efforts and can wish them only God speed in their noble work.

Make a Bank Bill.

erfeters to make a profit by a anipulation of genuine bills.
is in this wise: Take say, ten lay on one the other a quarter below the top, something after r bags. When they are all thus ly laid off a knife is run through m, and, of course from the first a quarter of an inch will be cut
it, a half inch from the second,
three-quarters from the third, an inch
from the fourth, and as to the tenth bill,
from the bottom of which there is taken a very small portion, nothing more than the border. This bill is left as it is, but to all the others the parts taken off are neatly pasted on, and the result is that there will be eleven bills, all perfect, except a small reduction in the size of each. Of course the operator makes five dollars in every ten.
The amount taken from each is so small and the bills being generally all of one kind, it is a very difficult matter to detect them. The bill detected by the teller referred to was bunglingly done—the top being a part of an Ohio
bill, while the bottom was part of a Baltimore bill. The names of the places are prominent, and consequently bills on the same bank or place preferred. It is a very neat arrangement to cheat people who are not in the habit of giving bank bills a close examination.

A Baby Fondling a Snake.
A man and woman of Lehigh county,
Cal. went to the hay-field the other day, and took their baby along and placed it in the shade. Some time after the mother noticed the child playing with a black strap, which the little one would every now and then let fall out of the wagon, and then crawl out after it, seemingly being very busy with the object it had in possession to amuse itself. Upon drawing near, it was discovered that the child was actually fondling a black snake, at least four feet in length, now wrapped around the little ones body, then again entwined itself about its neck and going through all kinds of frightful movements
its red tongue darting out of its mouth with lightning-like rapidity, and the child all the while stroking it, and joyfully laughing until the tears rolled down its cheeks. The snake was killed to the grief of the child.

Tax-Ridden California.
The Californian State Board of Equalization has fixed the rate of taxation for State purposes for this year at 50 cents on the $100 of assessed value, so that San Francisco, having $206,000,000 on her own roll, will have to come down with $1,030,000 for her share. This is for the State purposes alone. The city tax will be three times as much, and the amount paid in duties
and internal revenue taxes about $0, 000,000, making a total of $13,000,000
of taxes to be collected in San Francisco next year. Of duties on imports about $5,000,000 are repaid to our citizens by the people of the coast outside of this city, leaving $8,000,000 to be paid by 27,000 voters, or about $300 annually of tax to every voter, on the average.—San Francisco Alta.

VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DE WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bodies are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means,
and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, In young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.
For Inflammation of the Digestive Organs, Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vilitated Blood, which is produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tet-
ter, Salt Rheum, Blisters, Spots, Pimples, Pastules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms,
Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurf, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors
and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.
