CITY AND VICINITY.

Ground has been broken for the new residence of G. Birkhoff Sr., on West Twelfth street.

The handsome new school building at Fennville, the plans of which were drawn by Architect James Price of this city was opened for use last week.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wesseldyke at Borculo Tuesday when Anna Wesseldyke was married to Gerrit B. Blauwkamp. Rev. J. J. Jonkman performed the ceremony which was witnessed by many friends.

The damage suit for $10,000 against Saugatuck township brought by Miss Pauline Koeppe has been dismissed, so tax payers who feared their taxes would be increased to pay damages if the case were won, need have no fear.

The library will be open from now on every afternoon except Sunday from 2 to 6 o'clock and on Saturday from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 8 p. m. The reading room will be open daily from 2 to 6 p. m., and from 7 to 10 p. m., and Saturday mornings from 9 to 12.

About 100 people gathered at the Peoples mission last Friday night where a banquet was served by Mrs. E. Ward and seven other ladies. Henry Vander Ploeg as toastmaster called on some 15 among whom were Revs. E. J. Blekkink and W. W. Taylor, Prof. J. B. Nykerk, Prof. J. H. Kleinheksel, M. Notier, B. D. Keppel, Floyd Wyble and J. Lokker. The banquet was held after the public meeting at Hope Church which was a celebration of the anniversary of the conversion of Hub Harrington.

The post office officials at the Holland office have recently received the following postal information from the Postmaster General: "Commencing the first day of October, 1908, the postage rate applicable to letters mailed in the United States addressed for delivery at any place in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be two cents an ounce or fraction of an ounce. Letters unpaid or short paid shall be dispatched to destination but double the deficient postage, calculated at the said rate shall be collectible of the addressee upon the delivery of them all."

Rev. J. Smither, the new pastor of the North Street Church was welcomed by a very large audience at the installation, which took place last Thursday evening. Again Sunday morning the edifice was crowded to the doors to hear the pastor make his sermon of welcome. The entire congregation is elated over having secured so able a pastor after many fruitless attempts and have received their new shepherd with open arms. Rev. Smither graduated from the Theological Seminary at Grand Rapids in 1895, served as domestic missionary one and a half years, three years as pastor of the Chr. Ref. Church at Crisp, four years at Sioux City, Ia., and five years as pastor of the Third Chr. Ref. church of Muskegon.—Zeeland Record.

This joke No 2 on Mr. Fred Wade of Saugatuck: It will be remembered that last week, when he came here to preside as toastmaster at the Republican committee banquet, his suit case disappeared—at least he declared it did, and really thought so. Last Saturday, Landlord Smith opened a suit case that had been in the coat room at the hotel undisturbed since the night of the banquet and behold! There was Mr. Wade's dress suit, clean collars, diamond pin and other finery just as he had brought it. But the greatest part of the joke is this. Mr. Wade was shown the case two or three times during the evening and declared it was not his. As he came through Holland which is a dry town, it is a query with his friends here what he had on his way up to so distort his vision that he could not tell his own suit case. No, thank you, Bro. Wade we do not smoke, but we like chocolates.—Allegan Press.

WHAT THEY WEAR IN ZEELAND

It is frequently said, by clothing men especially, that clothes make the man. To a certain extent this is true. Clothes surely appear to change a man's nationality. With a little care and paint clothes will make the wildest appearing Indian out of the most civilized white man. President Roosevelt would make a typical German peasant if dressed in German peasant costume, and I suppose that Nick Whelan rigged up in Turkish garb would pass muster all right for a Turk. Even Hope college lads when dressed in the farmer's costume of the "boer" of Zeeland look more like the old Dutch stock from which they sprang than like a born citizen of Uncle Sam's big estate. The cut shows Mr. DeKraker dressed in the costume of a Zeeland farmer. Mr. VerHalst had a photo taken while the boys were in the island of Marken, but this picture did not prove satisfactory for a newspaper cut, so we could not publish it. This costume is the farmer's Sunday suit, and Sunday mornings one sees the for the things which to us seem improper and entirely out of place, to them seem fitting and right, for they have made it a custom. And what is our etiquette and good manners but custom evolutionized to a high state of refinement, or rather to that condition in which we were intended to be?

In the remote parts of the Netherlands one can see what the evolutionist would call a lower state of civilization. For example every male inhabitant carries a young bread knife, not a jack knife like our American boys use to cut their fingers with and the old wise acre at the village grocery store uses to whittle with, but a real ugly looking knife. When a boy gets to be 8 or 9 years old he begins teasing his mother for a knife and soon he gets it. It is carried in a sheath which is carried in a narrow pocket inside the side trousers' pocket. By some this serves as an instrument for feeding purposes as also as an instrument of defense. So that in the slums of the city fights are always sturdy tillers of the soil, dressed in their best attire, hands behind them, pipe or cigar in mouth, leisurely strolling to church. Having arrived at the place of worship he seeks out his seat, and lets the goodwife hunt up a place for herself. Before seating himself the "boertje" removes his hat, holds it before his eyes while he prays, and as he sits down he unconsciously places his little cap upon his head, whence it is removed only when the "dominie" prays. In one way the Hollander has greater respect for divine things than we, for none of the men will remain seated during prayer, but when one sees them seated in a place of worship with their caps on one almost judges them to be disrespectful; but it is customary and no one notices it. And so many things which they do seem strange to us but proper to them. An American might think the table etiquette of these farmer people to be very improper, for father and sons would never think of eating a meal with head uncovered. But we must not judge them harshly carried on with knives instead of with fists as among the Americans. But this lower state of civilization is also noticeable in other things. The farm implements are antiquated; methods of living somewhat barbaric, in the sense that the people live much nearer to nature than we do and that alone accounts for the strong healthy women and sturdy men whom we find there, and examples of which we find among our Holland people in the United States. Their food is simple and sometimes scanty with very little dessert so that there is very little trouble of indigestion. Results are that no crusade against patent medicines has yet been necessary, for Peruna and Swamp Root are unknown. Nature and hard work are the two principal remedies, with an extra bite to eat, and when we see them landing, Ellis Island we envy them nothing but their health in which the "boer volk" of the Netherlands have got John D. beat by a few points.

The seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Plakmeyer of Olive township died last Friday and was buried Saturday afternoon from the home.

A meeting of the South Ottawa Teachers' Association will be held at the Zeeland High School, Saturday, October 10, at 10 o'clock a. m. Afternoon, Civil War program: Battle of Bull Run, Dr. C. P. Brown; Sheridan, Joseph Baronoski; The Peninsular Campaign, Mr. Gunst; Louisville to Washington, C. Van Loo.

Al Tanner, Bert Cochran, Dave Blom and Martin VanderBie left Monday night for Faulkton, South Dakota, on a hunting expedition. The trip will last for two or three weeks during which time the Holland Nimrods expect to bag some of the choice game in the "land of the Dakotas."

The directors of the Holland Fair association showed last week at the fair that they will not stand for any attraction on the grounds which is not clean and moral. A side show called the "Superba" advertised its attractions as "moral and polite." Some of the directors who went in immediately found that the manager was imposing on the association, that he was indeed running a moral and polite show, but that at the end of it he made an additional charge for a vaudeville act which was not up to the association's standards. The lid was therefore clamped down upon the "moral and polite" performance and the manager and his troupe were compelled to decamp to other parts.

The campaign was opened in Ionia county yesterday when Congressman Diekema came to Ionia to spend three days in the county. He will visit afternoon at Palo, Muir, Lyons and other localities and will speak on the three evenings at Hubbardston, Lyons and Saranac. Other meetings are being arranged for the remaining weeks of the campaign and republican headquarters have been opened in the Page block with Chairman Pitt and Secretary Sutherland in charge.

D. B. K. VanRaalte, a member of the Soldiers' Home board by appointment under Gov. Warner, resigned his seat yesterday when the board met in regular monthly session. VanRaalte is a candidate for the legislature from Ottawa county on the Republican ticket and he believes that he should get off the board now that he has entered politics.

Mrs. Wm. Wiess, living at Vriesland, gave a noble example of heroism last Saturday in her attempt to save the life of her two year old boy. Mrs. Wiess saw the child tumble in to an open cistern. She jumped in the water which reached almost up to her neck and held the child above the surface. Mrs. Wiess stood in this position for several hours, her cries not being loud enough to attract the attention of her family. Finally when she was almost exhausted, a searching party found her. Mrs. Wiess has suffered considerably from the chill water.

The big 38-caliber, blue steel, Iver Johnson revolver which James Waffle turned on his sister, Mrs. Newel Gilmore, and fired the shot which caused her death and later sent a bullet through his own brain, is in the window of Sluyter & Dykema, the East Eighth street clothiers. Beside the gun lay both empty and loaded cartridges taken from the dead man's gun. The empty shells are the ones which caused the double tragedy. Curtis Waffle has presented the relics to Chief of Police Kamferbeek as souvenirs.

Sheriff Whitebeck of Allegan raided Morgan Hawks' shanty at the dam last Friday and found enough to satisfy the prosecutor or himself that a gambling den was conducted there. He obtained nearly a thousand poker chips, a dozen decks of cards, dice and other things used in gaming. The officers have been trying several months to get sufficient evidence of the character of the place to warrant action, and were given unexpected aid by Chas. Stedman of Pearl, who "squealed" after having lost money there. Two others with him, Art Watkins of Pearl and Fred Helmer of Cheshire, besides Mr. Hawks, were arrested Saturday.

The Twentieth Century Limited elected two members at their regular meeting Monday evening. They are James Whelan and Geo. Manting of the high school. They will be initiated at the next meeting. Four new names have been proposed for membership. The members are optimistic and believe that it will not be long before a full membership is attained. The program of Monday evening was well received. The debate on the saloon question was decided on the merits of the question in favor of present conditions but on the merits of the arguments the saloon side won. Other numbers on the program were: Readings by Joseph Nauta and Arnold Mulder, Current Events by Arthur Misner and the President's address by Tom Robinson. Richard Wiersma was elected secretary to take the place of Hans Olsen who has gone to Chicago. The question for debate at the next meeting is: Resolved that a law guaranteeing national bank deposits should be passed by the next congress.

A SURPRISED MINISTER

"For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and had despaired of anything like a cure. Judge of my pleasant surprise when I first used Hyomei, which brought complete relief. Hyomei has been a veritable god-send."—Rev. Charles Hartley, Sardinia, Ohio.

Thousands of catarrh sufferers have given up in despair. They have tried stomach dosing, snuff, spray and douches without success and now believe catarrh to be incurable.

But Walsh Drug Co. the druggists, holds out hope to all distressed. They sell a remedy called Hyomei which is guaranteed for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, asthma and croup.

Hyomei (pronounced High o-mei) is medicate air, full of the healthy virtues of the mountain pines. You breathe in the delightful antiseptic air, and as it passes over the inflamed and germ ridden membrane it allays the inflammation, kills the germs, and drives out the disease.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1.00, and an extra bottle of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents. See the Walsh Drug about it today.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Walsh Drug Co.'s drug store. 25c.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Holland Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders.

Day existence is but a struggle. No one d to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you.

Holland people endorse the claim:

Michael Schwarz, retired dairyman, 689 Central Ave., Holland, Mich., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with the most satisfactory results. Last fall I caught a severe cold which settled in my kidneys. I thought little of it at first but it soon grew worse and I became annoyed with dull, heavy pains across my back and loins. I could not bend or lift anything without suffering misery and my condition gradually grew worse. I was telling a neighbor of my trouble and he advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Doesburg's drug and after using them only a short time felt greatly relieved. I continued taking them and when I had used the contents of half a box, my backache and the accompanying symptoms of kidney trouble had disappeared. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I give them my hearty endorsement."

Apple Crop Short

Fennville, Oct. 3.—The apple harvest is now in full blast but the size and quality of the crop is much below the usual standard for this section. The Perlee Produce Co., of Fairbury, Ill., this week purchased the crop on the George Tucker orchard at a private price, understood to be not far away from $2.50 per barrel, delivered here at the station. The same company also bought the orchards of Wade & Wade and George Sargent at not far from $2.25 per barrel for both first and second grades. Common orchards are selling at not far from $1 per estimated barrel on the trees and much of this stock will be handled in bulk. Cider apples are bringing about 40c per hundred weight and bulk stock runs from 55 to 55 cents per hundred.

Saw Wild Deer

Grand Haven, Oct. 5.—While driving to town Emil Bethke saw a strange animal in the swamp near the Gidley bayou bridge. He stopped his team and watched it closely and finally discovered that it was a wild deer. The animal was nibbling among the long grass near the roadway and Mr. Bethke watched until another farmer drove up. Both saw it plainly.

Becoming frightened the animal started and ran up a hill north of the road. It leaped three fences and was lost to view in the thicket.

There is much speculation as to where the deer came from, whether he wandered away from the wilds of the north woods or whether he escaped from captivity in some of the nearby parks. One escaped from North Park, Grand Rapids sometime ago and it may be this animal has gone back to his natural haunts in the woods.

Organize Diekema Club

Enthusiasm, determination and confidence were the dominant features at the Republican "smoker" held in Princess rink on Eighth st., last Wed., night when a goodly crowd of dyed-in-the-wool G. O. P. supporters gathered and formed a Diekema club—an organization which gives every indication of being a power in the city, county and state politics from now on. The meeting was not of the gas bag or ler with temporary enthusiasm imported for the occasion but was founded on cautious, solid grounds, with an eye to the future and every man left the hall determined to do his own individual part to make the Diekema Club a winner and fight for his party standard from president down to county corner.

Officers were elected by ballot and the result made E. P. Stephan president, Mortimer A. Sooy, vice-president, Henry Geerlings Secretary and J. J. Congleton, treasurer.

Cornelius Vander Meulen was temporary secretary of the meeting and doubtless could have been made the permanent one, but explained that because of considerable absence from the city in the near future he would be unable to devote the proper time and attention to the office it would require.

The rink room which was thrown open to the use of the Republicans, gratis, by William Brusse, was appropriately decorated for the occasion with bunting, large pictures of Nominees Taft and Sherman. Directly back of the speakers' table was an image of a large American eagle and the effect was indeed good.

There were plenty of cigars on hand and those who enjoyed the weed waded in and from the first minute good cheer and the warmth of friendliness prevailed the place.

The meeting was one in which everybody felt at perfect ease and those who had ideas or suggestions of any sort were given ample opportunity to talk and many did so.

The club will hold weekly meetings Monday nights, from now on until after election when the meetings may be made either monthly or every two weeks, according to the desires of the members.

Previous to adjournment last night, President Stephan called on Attorney Vander Meulen and Editor of De Grondwet Maasman for speeches. Both talked on the progress and harmony in the Republican party in general. Editor Maasman pictured Bryan as an orator of great ability and declared his power and hold on people was purely because of his wonderful and masterful talent as a talker and his personal magnetism. He likened Bryan's oratory to a basket of beautiful flowers, grand to look upon, but that when you looked for the man he was lost to sight amid the profusion of blossoms.

As it was left entirely to the chairman of the club to name the executive committee which will formulate the by-laws and attend to the financial and other parts of the club workings, President Stephan has selected the following: Charles McBride, J. B. Mulder, M. A. Sooy, William Brusse, H. Ohrwall, Jerry Laepple and Ben Van Raalte, Jr.

A meeting of this committee has been called for tomorrow night at 7:30 at Attorney McBride's office on River street.

Dick Brink Meets Death

By the slightest turn in the wheel of fate Sunday which had dawned bright and happy for a party of Grand Rapids people the most of whom were quite well known in Holland, was turned into sorrow and mourning by the tragic death of Richard Brink, the well known Furniture City clothier. The overturning of Mr. Brink's automobile which he was driving and of which he evidently lost control while coming down a sharp incline nearly in front of Cornelius Den Herder's home on the road half a mile north of Winters crossing, just east of Vriesland, was the cause of this popular business man's untimely death.

In the ill-fated machine were besides Mr. Brink, Mrs. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Middleton and Mrs. H. W. TenBroek. The party were on their way from Grand Rapids to Macatawa park where Mr. TenBroek, a well known Grand Rapids insurance man had preceded them to see to the opening of his cottage and the preparing dinner. This dinner, which was destined to be left untasted, was all ready and waiting for the auto party when Mr. TenBroek received word of the accident and hurried to the sad scene.

Mr. Middleton who with his wife and Mrs. TenBroek sat in the rear seat says that the machine had zigzagged down the short hill, into the declivity of the one side and toppled over fairly before anyone realized what had occurred. He says that the only words uttered by the fatally injured man were "turn off the gasolins" and "oh, get me out from under this."

Both Dr. Ralph Spencer, the family physician, who was summoned from Grand Rapids and Dr. Mabbs of this city are of the opinion that death must have ensued five minutes after the accident. The steering gear was the immediate cause of Mr. Brink's death, as it crushed his chest in, causing hemorrhage and suffocation.

Mrs. TenBroek was the first one to extricate herself from the wreckage and hurried to the DenHerder house. Her secured help and with poles the auto was righted. It was then that Mr. Brink faintly gasped his last breath. Although it is nearly three quarters of a mile distant, Mrs. TenBroek, herself hurt about the right shoulder and knee, ran to the home of J. Bolt and there telephoned to Grand Rapids and her husband at the park.

Coroner Mabbs was notified and arrived at the scene about an hour after the accident. He immediately impaneled a jury which returned a verdict of accidental death. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker George DeYoung of Zeeland and removed to the dead man's former home in Grand Rapids. Both Mr. Middleton and Mr. TenBroek stayed with the body on its way home while the women in the party went to Grand Rapids on the interurban. Mrs. Brink bore up under the shock with great fortitude, but could not be convinced for some time after the accident that her husband was really dead.

News of the accident soon spread about Holland and many visited the scene, among whom were a number who were intimately acquainted with the dead man. When told yesterday of Mr. Brink's death, Rev. VanderMeulen was greatly affected. "He was a member of the First Reformed church in Grand Rapids" said Mr. VanderMeulen. "You know I used to preach there. Mr. Brink often came down here to Hope."

"Dick" Brink, as he was called by all, was born in Grand Haven, Sept. 18, 1859. His parents were of Dutch origin and were among the early settlers in this part of Michigan. He graduated from the Grand Haven schools and started in to learn the clothing business in Grand Rapids when 18 years of age. How well he succeeded in his chosen line is well known by many Holland people and by the business men of Grand Rapids of whom he was one of the most active and prominent. At the time of his death he was proprietor of the Dick Brink clothing establishment, 54 Monroe street, Grand Rapids. He was but recently elected to the presidency of the Monroe street Business Men's association and belonged to the leading fraternal orders. A son Howard, aged 18 survives.

Death of Rev. Van Zanten

Rev. J. J. VanZanten, pastor of the Reformed church at Beaverdam and a former resident of this city died Saturday at the home of his mother in South Holland where he had gone for a much needed rest. Though broken in health Rev. Van Zanten was an indefatigable worker and only consented to take a three month's vacation when forced to do so.

Rev. Van Zanten was born 49 years ago in South Holland, Ill., and was graduated from Hope College. After his graduation he taught for a time in the Northwestern Academy at Orange City, Ia., and later studied theology at the McCormick and Western Theological seminaries. His first charge was the Second Reformed church at Grand Haven and later he became pastor of the First Reformed church at Muskegon. To Rev. VanZanten belongs the credit of the founding and establishment of the Cedar Grove, (Wis.) Memorial Academy. His efforts on behalf of this school of which he was the first principal, undermined his health and he was obliged to give up his work and came to this city where he was connected with Hope college for two or three years. Later he assumed the pastorate of the church at Beaverdam.

Rev. Van Zanten was married in 1883 to Miss Anna G. VanderVeen, daughter of E. Vander Veen of this city. Mrs. Van Zanten, two daughters Jeanette and Irene and a son, John W. VanZanten, a student in the New Brunswick Theological seminary, survive him.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the home of E. Vander Veen, 77 W. Ninth street, and at 2 o'clock from the Third Reformed church. Interment will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Rev. J. M. Vander Meulen will speak at the house while Revs. E. J. Blekkink, H. J. Veldman and Wm. Moerdyke will have charge of the services at the church and Rev. J. H. Karsten will officiate at the grave.

A Look Into The Future

In a splendid lecture Tuesday night, the last of a series of half a dozen, Dr. Bavink, advocate though he is of all things spiritual and of living a life of spiritual aspiration, exalted the physical life and the care of the body. It would have been well if all who attach an undue degree of importance to the intellectual life would have heard him. A part of the great theologian's lecture was devoted to what he called the coming of the Kingdom of Man. Basing their hopes on the gradual rise to a state of perfection in certain forms of plant and animal life by the aid of science, many today believe that also man's body can be made perfect by the aid of science. They believe that the day will come when all disease shall have been stamped out, and when there is no death except that which is a welcome transition, the result of the gradual weakening of physical powers.

Such is the dream of many a scientist, says Dr. Bavink. Whether the scientist is too sanguine or not, the fact remains that man is striving for that end and is approaching physical perfection as a limit, to use mathematical terms. Many a disease has been banished from the face of the earth within the last few decades by the aid of science, and the warfare against physical weakness still goes on with unabated energy. Until recently the medical profession stood almost alone in this struggle. But now the other professions are beginning to see the vision of the perfect physical man and the resulting co-operation is fraught with hope for the future.

The newspaper is today the medical scientist's staunchest helper. The national weeklies and monthlies became convinced of the havoc patent medicine is playing with the health of the people. The next week or month the battle is carried into a million homes and five million men, women and children are set thinking in a humbler way every day and weekly is joining in the work of physical redemption. The tuberculosis congress at Washington two weeks ago has been featured in all the newspapers in the country, so that there is hardly one of these eighty million of Americans who has not been given the opportunity to know all about it.

The columns of the News have always been open to every effort made in fighting this scourge the scientific thought of the world today. The effort may be humble, but if it is the least little mite of aid toward the physical perfection of man, it will have been worth while. And if twenty years from now, when tuberculosis will doubtless have been wiped out, we look over our files, we are convinced that our sense of gratification will arise not chiefly because we supported a certain candidate or because we were staunch defenders of a certain party, but because we played our little part in saving many thousands from the clutches of disease.

"I put Mr. Taft's deeds against your words," writes the president to Mr. Bryan. "I asked that Mr. Taft be judged by all his deeds, for he wishes none of them to be forgotten. I ask that you be judged both by the words you wish remembered and by the words that, seemingly, you and your party now desire to have forgotten." The test proposed is a fair one to apply to any candidate.

Taft—A Man Among Men

The colored man down South who said that he liked Mr. Taft because of his "personal magnitude" was right, both in spirit and expression, even if he failed to choose the word that he wanted. If it is true, as frequently insisted, that an unpopular man is never elected to office, Mr. Taft need have no fears of defeat on that score. No student ever left Yale, no official ever filled the seat of the Secretary of War, no American was ever in power in the Philippines, Cuba and Panama, no judge ever sat upon the bench who was more popular with his associates and those with whom he came in contact than Mr. Taft. His quality of love for his fellows, his desire to be helpful to them as broad and all-embracing as his personality is magnetic, sunny, inspiring. As Dr. Lyman Abbott well wrote of Mr. Taft:

"It is this intensely human quality in Mr. Taft that gives him his popular sobriquet of 'Bill' Taft. He likes men and he likes all sorts of men except those that are dishonest or disloyal. He was the most popular governor the Philippines ever had. This was not wholly because he was absolutely just, was loyal to their interests, urged the earliest possible substitution of civil law for military law and offered an invincible opposition to all schemes of exploiting the islands for the benefit of unscrupulous American pioneers. He was the personal friend of the Filipinos; he believed in them, defended them, befriended them, trusted them and danced with them. This last fact, I am inclined to think, went as far as any, perhaps, as all the others combined to make the Filipinos idolize him, as they certainly do, for Judge Taft is in the best sense of the term a democrat. He is as free from race and class prejudice of every description as any man I have ever known. He is thoroughly a believer in the motto, 'A man's a man for a' that.'"

Pull Together

In almost every county in the state special efforts are being directed towards the defeat of certain republican candidates. In many counties the election of democratic sheriffs is the purpose towards which all the efforts of that organization are directed, and in some other counties republican candidates for probate judge and prosecuting attorney are being hardest fought. In the state at large the election of the democratic candidate for governor is the end in view. Other candidate and other purposes will be seemingly deserted in Michigan in order to accomplish the definite objects democrats have in view. Republicans in counties, districts and in the state at large should loyally combine to prevent these incidents of party defeat. Too much is gained through united adherence to republican principles and republican policies to permit the disorganization of the party by defeat of such of its candidates as may become the individual targets of concentrated democratic fire. Do not permit it in this campaign.

"Absent without leave" is recorded twenty nine times in the single session of the legislature of 1903 against the record of Lawton Hemans, the democratic candidate for governor. Some of the most important items of the legislation of that session were transacted during Mr. Hemans' "absence without leave." If Mr. Hemans' record for zeal in behalf of his constituents was typical of his party it is not strange that they were not successful in doing efficient guard duty as members of the legislature.

By Winter a new term will have been coined to describe the political status of our statesmen. To be known as an "Oil Senator" will be an equivocal description of a man's uncertain membership in the "Millionaire's Club."

Mr. Hearst appears to be running for president in 1912 and taking an early start to get ahead of Bryan. But the Perpetual announced several years ago that he would be in the hands of his friends until 1928.

Not one of the 50,000 depositors in 13 banks and trust companies which closed their doors in the panic last fall will lose a dollar. Banking institutions in the United States are conducted on pretty sound business principles.

For four years Mr. Taft had charge of 30,000 working men at Panama, and they unite in saying that he is a good boss as well as efficient in carrying forward the business in hand.

Never keep a diary. The things worth telling are the things you dare not write and the things you write are so stupid they are not worth it.

Senator Wm. Alden Smith is to stump New York for the party. The fact that his eloquence is not necessary in Michigan shows Michigan's progress.

It is reported that the gubernatorial recount is progressing rapidly enough to please Hon. Arthur Hill of Saginaw anyway.

Shall the people rule? asks Bryan again. The Republicans offer the renomination of Gov. Hughes as a specimen answer.

The firm of Bryan and Haskell begins to think that the latest and highest explosive should be called Hearst.

Mr. Hearst's remedies for apathy are understood to have been imported from Jamaica and Cayenne.

Mr. Haskell says his retirement was voluntary. When a promoter, did he fool people as easily as that?

Washington reports that the president jumped in again yesterday and kicked Gov. Haskell's half-finished alibi out from beneath him.

Indiana steer ate dynamite; enraged owner threw a brick at him. Much noise. Result, a bum steer.

Cheer up, we still have the beautiful Indian summer to look forward to.

Party loyalty and good sportsmanship of the defeated continue to delay the recount at Lansing?

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

35 Years ago To-day.

On Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock John Harm Hartger, a well to do farmer, residing near Graafschap, fell dead in his field. He had a short time before left his home in his usual health. He was one of the pioneers in this part of the country. He leaves a large family to mourn his sudden death.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ryder celebrated their tin wedding on Saturday evening last. The Phoenix hotel presented a lively scene and the gayeties were kept up to a late hour. Mr. Ryder's popularity as a landlord is still on the increase.

A sad accident occurred on Lake Michigan last Sunday about 40 miles from our harbor. It was blowing hard, a high sea was running and the schooner Wm. Bates, Capt. John Thompson, was running under double reefed canvas, when the schooner sprung a terrible leak under her bow, filled in a few minutes, capsized, rolled the main mast overboard, lost her boat, dumped her deck load, and afterwards righted herself again. She laid with her nose so deep in the water that it was necessary to let her anchors run out, which lightened her a little. They managed to set a piece of her forestaysail and were a long while trying to get her before the wind. They finally succeeded in doing this and let her drift ashore, then that sail blew away and then the men took to the fore rigging where they remained until they neared the shore about a mile to northward of our harbor, when they were taken off by a little boat belonging to the schooner Sandy Morrison, on Tuesday last. The men, three in number, were almost exhausted when taken off and have suffered terribly while clinging to the rigging for so many hours. The schooner has gone to pieces and is a total wreck. The oak lumber with which she was loaded belonged to Messrs. P. Pfanstiehl and E. J. Harrington, and part of that will be saved. There was no insurance on the vessel and the loss falls heavy on the Thompson family.

WHAT YOU SAW 25 YEARS AGO

Last Saturday a marble slab was uncovered at the City Hall, now in progress of construction. The slab had the name of the architect, Geo.

H. Sipp, and the name of the builder, Jas. Huntley, carved upon it. The boys were generously supplied with cigars in consequence thereof.

E. J. Harrington, who owns a fine strip of land on the bank of Macatawa bay, near the mouth, has laid it out into lots and christened it "Macatawa Park Grove." He has sold several of the lots already and there is no doubt but what it will be an easy matter for him to dispose of all of them. We also understand that W. J. Scott has bought a piece of land between the property of Mr. Harrington and that of the Park association and has already commenced work preparatory to erecting a hotel there. It begins to look as though Macatawa Park and all its accessories will have a "big boom" next season.

Matrimony has entered the rank and file of the News office. Fred Wade who has been employed in this office for some time, was married to Miss Ida Nies, daughter of John Nies, hardware merchant of Saugatuck, on last Thursday.

The new two-cent postage stamp is now in use, having been placed on sale last Monday. They are a great improvement in appearance over the displaced stamp, the face of the "Father of our Country" appearing in a most agreeable guise. The color of the new stamp is red, the head resting on an oval medallion on a shield. At the top are the words sharply defined, "United States Postage," while below is "Two (2) Cents." The double rate is a green stamp with the head of Andrew Jackson thereon. The improvement in this is not so great as in the other. The first postage stamp used in this country was in 1847. It is comparatively a few years since a charge of twenty-five cents was made for the transportation of every letter. People were chary of correspondence then and made few communications in writing.

WHAT YOU SAW 20 YEARS AGO

News was received here last Monday morning at 9 o'clock that a vessel which afterwards proved to be the Australia of Chicago, had come ashore in the harbor at the mouth during the terrible gale of Sunday and that another was adrift in the lake about two miles out, water logged and coming ashore, a strong northwest wind blowing at the time. We at once hastened to the scene of the disaster, where we found the captain of the wrecked vessel and from him got the following statement of facts: "The Australia was a schooner of one hundred and sixty tons burthen and carried a crew of seven men, including myself. We loaded with cedar posts at Sand Bay, Beaver Island, and were bound for Chicago. We experienced very bad weather, and when 40 miles off Point Racine on the Wisconsin shore early Saturday morning became waterlogged and were obliged to man the pumps to keep the craft afloat. Finding that we could not make a harbor, we put the vessel about and ran for the east shore, with the intention of making a port or running ashore. We stopped pumping Sunday afternoon, the men being completely exhausted, having worked continually over 24 hours. We arrived at this harbor about 8 o'clock Sunday evening and attempted to run inside but owing to the high sea, struck the bottom between the piers and stove her in so badly that we gave her up for lost. We were taken off by the life saving crew who also saved a portion of the cargo." After our interview with the captain we took a look at the wrecked vessel which was lying in the channel, about 100 feet inside and against the north pier, blocking up the harbor. Her stern was washed away and a portion of her cabin was gone and she was rolling in such a manner that it was expected that she would go to pieces at any time, which happened in the afternoon.

WHAT YOU SAW 15 YEARS AGO

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Stroop, Monday—a son.

Died in Holland town Thursday morning, Mrs. Geo. Deur, aged 78 years. Deceased was one of the pioneers of 47 and survived her husband twelve years.

A good story is told of a woman who bought a new-fangled coffee pot from a peddler. In the evening she showed it to her husband, a hardware dealer, who told her he kept the same thing in his store for half the price she paid. "Well," said she, "Why don't you advertise? Nobody ever knows what you have for sale."

WHAT YOU SAW YEARS 10 AGO.

The following is from Camp Poland, Tenn.: Col. Gardener entertained a number of the young ladies of Knoxville, at brigade headquarters last evening, assisted by the officers of the Thirty-first. A toothsome lunch was served, after which a most enjoyable dance was held to the music of the regimental band.

Married in this city on Wednesday, Oct. 5, Miss Dena Beltman and John TenBrink. They will be at their new home, 200 W. 13th street, after Oct. 12.

The Visit of Dr. Bavink

Holland has shown the good sense of appreciating the visit of a remarkable man. Dr. Bavink is a man such as people even in large cities get an opportunity to hear only once in a decade perhaps. He is the most noted theologian of his age and has an international reputation as a writer on psychology and pedagogy. Wm. James, the inimitable American writer on these subjects, is better known in this country perhaps, because he writes in a more lucid and popular style. Only scholars can enjoy the writings of Dr. Bavink in these branches, and all students of psychology, pedagogy, and theology pay tribute to his intellect and painstaking industry in the interest of science, whether they agree with the learned doctor's views or not.

But the people of Holland are chiefly interested in Dr. Bavink's views on theology, and the overflow meetings each time he spoke show how deep seated this interest is. More people came out to hear Dr. Bavink than could be attracted by Mr. Bryan last winter. He spoke in the largest auditorium in the city, but each time standing room was at a premium.

The noted theologian does not believe that the evolution theory is a thorough-going explanation of the origin and history of the universe; he also accepts the theory in so far as it is applied to that which already exists.

His objections to evolution theory without God were four fold. In the first place he could not agree with it because it was founded on the belief that matter was eternal—an absurdity, for then matter must be God. He objected to the theory because it professed to derive life for death, and the best scientific research has heretofore been baffled by this proposition and true science has been forced to admit, "Only life begets life." The third objection he had was to the evolutionary origin of man. He did not deny that there was a close analogy between man and certain animals, but a mere analogy is not identity. The missing link has never and will never be found, he asserted. In the fourth place he could not find in evolution any base for the sexual differences in man. The first chapter of Genesis gives an entire and satisfactory account of the whole matter.

Dr. Bavink conducted regular religious services Sunday, in the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, in the afternoon in Carnegie hall and in the evening in the Central avenue Christian Reformed church. The lecture of Tuesday evening in Winants chapel was a splendid wind-up of the series.

Dr. Bavink was born Dec. 13, 1854 at Hoogeveen, Netherlands. His father was a minister, and the learned doctor lived in an atmosphere of theological culture from his infancy. While attending the high school at Zwolle he formed a friendship with Dr. Henry Dosker which has proved to be a life long friendship.

He studied theology under the tutelage of the famous theologians Scholten and Keunen and received his degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1880 with a dissertation on "The Ethics of H. Zwingli." After serving a year as gospel minister Dr. Bavink became professor of theology at the Kampen Seminary and in 1902 he accepted the chair at the Free University at Amsterdam, which he now occupies.

In a Bottle

Philip Voland, a farmer living on Rural Route No. 11, picked up a bottle on the shore of Lake Michigan last week Tuesday about a mile north of the Ottawa Beach Hotel in which he found the letter printed below. "Airy Nothings"

The "Airy Nothings" column is a new department in the News, and will be run occasionally when the editor of the column is not engaged in fishing and is at leisure from the arduous duty of helping with the family wash. The above is a cut of the "Airy Nothings" editor. Hand him the bright things you have heard on the street or that have happened to you and let your name into print.

"Mother, may I go out today?
"You may but cut no capers,
And don't fly high, or you will get
Your name in all the papers!"
—Buffalo Evening News.

"That young boarder is in love with the landlady's daughter."
"What makes you think that?"
"I know it. He saves every hair he finds in the butter."—Washington Times.

A former Holland boy, seven years old, who is just learning to write, wrote the following letter to a friend here the other day: "Our dog Foxie gone. He went Saturday. We did not see him since. Pa put an advertisement in the paper. I think he was a big fool to do that because you know Fox can't read."

Mamma don't you think God has improved wonderfully since he made papa.

"Go to father," she said,
When I asked her to wed:
She knew that I knew
That her father was dead.
She knew that I knew
What a life he had led,
She knew that I knew
What she meant when she said,
—"Go to father."

"Buster Brown" at the Majestic

"Buster Brown" is at the Majestic all week. The mischievous pranks of Buster, impersonated by Master Rice, aided by his dog Tigey, played by Jack Bell, who shared honors with Buster. caused many a laugh, while little Lelia Cautna in the role of Mary Jane, proved as popular as before. The company presenting "Buster Brown" is much the same as last season and is a capable one while the chorus is also to be commended. "Buster Brown" is an offering of nonsense which is amusing, musical numbers which please and specialties which win ready favor. The piece this season introduces new numbers in the musical list, the most pretensions of which was "My Yankee Rose" with singer and chorus in striking costumes while a series of pictures added to the novelty of the number and included pictures of Bryan and Taft, the present presidential candidates; Roosevelt and the three martyred presidents.

There will be matinees Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Taft A Near Dutchman

And now, when one Dutchman is about to step out of the White House, some one has found out that the man who aspires to be his successor, can lay claim to the Dutch vote also. Though it may seem a little far-fetched, Mr. Taft's claim rests on his golf playing. Mr. Taft's favorite game is said to have originated in Holland, is therefore a Dutch game and puts Taft in line for the Dutch vote. Mr. Andrew Lang establishes the origin of golf as follows:

"Visiting Holland in 1899, Mr. Cunningham observed in the Rotterdam Gallery a picture by Jan Steen (1626-79) a picture in which a little boy is swinging 'an undoubted golf club,' a club in all respects identical with the praebulger type of driver. This picture led Mr. Cunningham to investigate Dutch golf. Of course the date of Jan Steen is late, in relation to Scottish golf. We know that the game was so popular in Scotland two centuries before Jan Steen that Parliament pronounced it illegal. Men ought to be practicing archery and learning to hold their own against the English bowman, not playing golf. But in Scotland no man paid any attention to acts of Parliament and golf went on merrily. We do not know how much older it is than 1450, but it is pretty certain that the balls and clubs were at first brought from Holland. The Rev. Mr. Blair about 1650 drew a parable from the making of a golf club, for Mr. Blair was a St. Andrews preacher. Patriots may argue that Scotland might have lent the game to Holland, but Mr. Cunningham proves that the phrase 'stinty' is Dutch, while het kollen is Dutch for 'the golf,' and our 'tee' is the Dutch tuftje, pronounced 'toytee.' Clearly, if Scotland borrowed the terms of the game from Holland, as all Europe borrowed the terms of tennis from France, Holland is the cradle of golf, as France is the cradle of tennis. I am greatly guilty of having stated that James VI clapped a heavy tariff on Dutch golf balls, and so enabled the Scots to make their own. Mr. Cunningham quotes my history of golf in the Badminton Book, for this piece of tariff reform, but who was my authority? Mr. Cunningham should have verified my facts in our acts of Parliament or in the records of our Privy Council. I am not sure of my own fact, though I think I have made it clear that in 1614 Scots golf ball were of wood, like the balls used at jou de mail in the eighteenth century. When balls stuffed with feathers came in (they lasted until about 1850) we do not precisely know. In the Netherlands golf was full grown by 1500, but it declined into a bastard game no better than croquet, and Mr. Cunningham finds that even this form is decadent. The Dutch, however, are the fathers of golf. Mr. Cunningham has placed that fact beyond doubt."

First Meeting of W. L. C.

The Woman's Literary club held its first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. E. Kollen. There was an unusually large attendance, the members gathering half an hour early to meet Mrs. H. Bavinck who was the guest of the club for the afternoon. The members were received by Mrs. Kollen, Mrs. Bavinck, Mrs. J. C. Post and Mrs. R. N. DeMerell.

The club was called to order at three o'clock and the meeting opened with the singing of "My Country, 'tis of Thee" led by Mrs. A. Van Duren and accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. C. Wheeler.

The roll call brought out many interesting responses including an original poem by Mrs. Wheeler which was applauded.

In her address to the club, Mrs. Kollen said in part:

"If I have interpreted aright the bits of conversation heard before this meeting opened, and if I read aright your happy faces—I am only expressing what you all feel, the pleasure that the meetings of the club have returned and the happiness you experience in meeting from week to week with other ladies of similar tastes and ambitions.

"Just a decade of club life has passed and we stand on the threshold of the second.

"And as I look back over these 10 years of work, I would not say 'It might have been' but 'It hath been.' Not that everything was done which we could have done but good work has been done and well done.

"Our club has grown in numbers; our active membership is today the largest it has ever been, notwithstanding an increase in the annual dues to be paid. The good fellowship existing among the members has never been better and the ties of friendship which binds us together have never been stronger or closer knit. You have learned how to study history; how to discern the world movement; the relation of a part to the whole; of one country to the other; the inter-relationship and independence of man regardless of nationality and race. And from the facts you have gathered and stored away to be drawn upon as desired, this development which I believe to be pronounced, is the great good our club has accomplished for its members.

"Not only do you strive for 'mehr licht' on the past but you endeavor to make the present and our immediate surroundings better for your efforts, and with Young we say: 'How empty learning and how vain is art. But as it mends the life and guides the heart,' and I would add, how useless all, unless it makes our surroundings better, nobler, cleaner, purer.

Detroit emblazoned to the world the sign, 'Here life is worth living,' and I hesitate not in saying that there is no city of our size better kept, with cleaner streets, with purer atmosphere, with greater average intelligence, with fewer criminals than our own; and it is noteworthy that this condition is improving and has improved during the decade just passed.

"Our study this year is England; it is eight years ago that we studied the history of our Mother country, which Smith calls, 'The most brilliant star upon the crest of time.' I predict that this year's study will be a glory and not a grind and that the same spirit of helpfulness and charity will continue to dwell in our midst to enrich, to comfort and to be a blessing to us all.

"Cox says, 'Work thou for pleasure, paint or sing or carve, the thing thou lovest though the body starve. Who works for glory misses off the goal. Who works ambitiously but dwells his soul. Work for work's sake; and it may well be that these things shall be added unto thee.'"

Following Mrs. Kollen's address, the club sang "God Save the King." Mrs. G. J. Van Duren presented a splendid paper on "How Britain became England," which she delivered entirely without notes holding the close attention of her hearers for half an hour.

"The first message of Christianity to England" was told by Mrs. H. Geerlings.

To Close the Gildner

Grand Haven, Mich., Oct. 7.—Because he believes he is being persecuted by the local officers, Henry Gildner, proprietor of the Gildner house, the only first class hotel in this city, announces that he will close the hostelry October 15 and abandon the business.

This statement was made by Mr. Gildner, who is much perturbed over his arrest this week for an alleged violation of the liquor laws. If the house is closed, as Mr. Gildner threatens, it will leave Grand Haven without a first class hotel and will work much injury to the city's commercial interests.

First—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it.

Second—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well.

Third—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength.

A SURPRISED MINISTER

Pays Tribute to Diekema

With W. Millard Palmer, ex-Mayor of Grand Rapids as head liner on the program, the report of the committee on the constitution and by-laws, excellent music, a characteristically humorous and enthusiastic address by Editor Maasman of De Grondwet and a swelling in membership, Wed. night's meeting of the newly organized Diekema club was a success in every respect.

Mr. Palmer gave a forcible, instructive and most interesting discourse on the national campaign, delineating the lofty ambition of Presidential Nominee Taft, which the speaker declared to be to serve God, his family, his country and his fellow man and could not be swayed from his purpose. He went into the early history of this great man's early life; his college life his early life at the bar, his rise and of his success at what ever he undertook no matter how small or how great.

Mr. Palmer likened the situation today with the great masses of American citizens to the time Taft was sent to handle that difficult task of governing the Philippines when Roosevelt wanted to promote the Cincinnati man to a seat on the Supreme bench, the highest judicial office in the United States, and when the Philippines heard of it they placarded the walls of Manila in the various languages. "We want Taft! We want Taft!" The Philippines appreciated the greatness of this man and Mr. Palmer declared that the American people today feel in a greater measure his great worth.

In course of his speech Mr. Palmer said that what was giving Mr. Bryan his latest and greatest cause for alarm was that he feared today that Theodore Roosevelt would forget his dignity and take the stump in support of the Republican principles and that Mr. Bryan knew that if Roosevelt did that he would receive the greatest setback he had ever known, for when Roosevelt showed his "teeth" it meant fight and fight to win.

In closing Mr. Palmer paid a glowing tribute to Congressman Gerrit J. Diekema and pointed him to be the man who had unquestionably made the cleanest and best record in the way of accomplishing things than any of the representatives ever sent to Washington from any part of the country serving his first term.

At the mention of Diekema's name the Princess hall resounded with thunderous applause. "By all means return this man, your countryman back to Washington to fulfill so grand a work he has set in to do for you and your country" urged Mr. Palmer. He likened the pictures of Mr. Diekema like those of Roosevelt and Taft as the kind of men whose faces looked clearly and fearlessly straight out at you; faces which showed character.

The Diekema club came in for unstinted praise from Mr. Palmer who declared it to be for the time of its existence the very best he had ever seen; that its constitution and bylaws were of the kind which showed the kind of stuff behind it which assured its success.

"When I see the returns coming in the night of November 3," said the speaker, "I expect to see Ottawa county giving the Republican party a plurality of at least 3090." Mr. Palmer was recently made chairman of the Fifth district congressional committee. George Clapperton who was to have been here last night was unavoidably detained away from Grand Rapids.

Last night's meeting was opened by President Stephan who gave out the report of what the executive committee had done at its session to appoint the standing committees. These are the committees: Membership, Jerry Laeppe, Wm. Brusse, Nick. Kammeraad; finance—J. B. Mulder, H. Geerlings, Ben Raalte, Jr.; entertainment—F. J. Congelton, S. S. Shackleton; constitution and by-laws—M. A. Sooy and Charles McBride.

Ward committees as named by Pres. Stephan are as follows:

First Ward—A. VanDuren, Gerard Cook, Hans Dykhuis, Simon Roos, Albert Keppel, J. Arendshorst.

Second Ward—John Vanden Berg, F. Bieve, John Schoon, Art Drinkwater, G. VanZanten, Peter De Speld.

Third Ward—Peter Brusse, B. D. Keppel, Arie Zanting, N. Dykema, B. A. Mulder, Cecil Huntley.

Fourth Ward—John Haan, H. Pelgrim, Jr., C. Doornbos, H. Kammeraad, George L. Lage, C. Hensen.

Fifth Ward—Ald. Jellema, A. Hidding, Henry Bosch, Peter Paulus, H. Vander Werf, Abel Postma.

A smoker was a part of last night's program and all who wished were given amply opportunity to enjoy the weeds, plenty of which were on hand. John Mulder passed a box of Taft buttons and the lapsels of all were soon adorned with pictures of the big man. Mr. Sooy read the constitution and by-laws as the committee had prepared them which were unanimously adopted by the club.

Ray Hadden, pianist, accompanied Glen Hemingway with the violin in several most enjoyable selections and Frank Carlson played two numbers with a dash and vim which threatened to bring down the roof with applause.

As next Friday night will be a banner Republican night, the first of several scheduled big mass meetings, the Diekema club resolved to make the occasion a howling success and will march in a body to the auditorium. Previous to this they will gather at the Princess rink, which by the way will be the Diekema club headquarters for the time being at least, and go in a body to the Hotel Holland and meet Congressman Charles Townsend of Jackson. Headed by the Citizens band the club will then march to the hall.

Congressman Townsend is an orator of much fame and is ever in great demand at big meetings of political and other nature the country over. It will be a treat to hear this man.

This meeting Friday is for the women as well as men and all are invited. President Stephan announces that there will be a meeting of the membership committee also a meeting of the old standing Republican city committee in Attorney McBride's office Thursday night, 7:30.

All Over America, the News of the Marvelous Dandruff Cures of Parisian Sage Has Spread

A few years ago there was introduced into America a cure for dandruff, falling hair and all scalp diseases.

This hair renewer did not attract much attention for some months, until a progressive business man, hearing of several almost magical cures, decided to tell the American people of its mighty power to destroy the deadly dandruff germ.

And today, without any sensational or untruthful advertising, Parisian Sage is used extensively in almost every town in America. And what has produced this great demand? Simply this: Parisian Sage does just what we are telling the readers of the Holland City News it will do.

We claim, and we back our claim with Walsh Drug Co's. money back guarantee, that Parisian Sage is the most invigorating and rejuvenating hair tonic. It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp; it makes the hair grow strong and vigorous, yet soft and lustrous. It is the only hair dressing that reaches the root bulb of the hair and destroys the dandruff germ.

And to the women who are reading this simple statement of fact, we want to say that Parisian Sage works wonders with women's hair. It will turn dull, harsh and faded hair into beautiful lustrous hair in a few days, and is the most pleasant and satisfying hair dressing any woman ever used.

"My hair was falling out rapidly when I heard of your guaranteed hair restorer. The first application removed the itching, my hair stopped falling out, and it is soft, glossy and pliable."—Carrie William, 844 Clinton Ave. S., Rochester, N. Y.

Walsh Drug Co. sells Parisian Sage for 50 cents a large bottle, or it can be obtained direct from the makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., all charges prepaid.

Withstands Gale

The new breakwater which is nearing completion under the personal supervision of Inspector Ewart withstood the wild gale of Wednesday night as though it had been old Gibraltar itself. This speaks volumes for this piece of government work and shows its stability beyond a doubt.

The tug "Duncan City" which has been weather-bound in the harbor for some time cleared last night for Sturgeon Bay, Wis., with the barge Empire State in tow. She will return later with another load of stone for the breakwater.

The new boat house recently built on the Ottawa Beach side for the life saving crew is completed and the beach apparatus and the surf boat have been installed. The new surf boat for the station, which will have a center board and other new features is expected to arrive this fall.

The Messrs. Reid and Butler, light-house engineers, arrived from Chicago yesterday and are superintending the construction of a new gas light on the end of the south breakwater.

Rev. D. R. Drukker, pastor of the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church, has been extended a call by the First Christian Reformed church of Muskegon to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. J. I. Fies.

Rev. Drukker was easily the favorite of the trio recently selected by the consistory and at a congregational meeting held Thursday night he received 84 of the 135 votes cast. The other ministers on the trio were Rev. E. H. Einink, pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Roseland, Ill., and Rev. S. Volbeda, pastor of the Alpine Avenue church of Grand Rapids. The Muskegon church has a membership of 225 families.

Rev. Drukker came to this city from Drenthe 7 years ago to become pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church then a newly organized congregation. During his pastorate Mr. Drukker has endeared himself to the hearts of his congregation not only but has done much to put the church on its present solid foundation. Should he decide to accept the call to Muskegon he would be sorely missed by his congregation and in local church circles.

Mr. Fies, the retiring pastor, occupied the chair at the congregational meeting and received a demonstration from the congregation. He was forced to make a short speech to his flock, explaining that although regretting to give up his labors among them, he felt that advancing age required his retirement from a rapidly growing congregation like the local one, which called for too constant attention.

Notes of Sport

FOOT BALL

Grand Haven High lost to Hope on the campus Saturday afternoon by the score of 5 to 0. The High school boys put up a good game against the men from Hope and had they not been handicapped by Hope's superior weight might have won. Hope on the other hand, for a new team, made up largely of men new at the game, fought well and will without doubt have one of the strongest college teams in the state before the season closes.

Veenker, VanWesteburg, Vruink and Pleune starred for the locals. Vruink got the ball off on forward passes in sensational style. Pleune and VanWesteburg starred in long gains while Veenker's work on defense repeatedly called forth applause. For Grand Haven Conruey and Schippers starred. The former on his offensive and the latter on his defensive play.

Had Hope not allowed Grand Haven to use the same trick play time and again the score in favor of the college men might have been larger.

The High school boys held Hope to a 6 to 0 score in two fifteen minute halves in a practice game on the campus Tuesday. As the local High plays the Grand Haven High Saturday at Grand Haven the dope looks good for a close game. The High School was crippled Tuesday by the loss of Deto who will be back in the game by Saturday. Whelan starred in long runs for the High School.

The following article appeared in the Grand Haven Tribune before Saturday's game:

"The game (with Hope) last year was far from satisfactory and the treatment Grand Haven received from the hands of the Holland rooters was decidedly bad. The game does not place Grand Haven High anywhere. If the local team loses, nothing is lost and if it wins, nothing is gained. Hope is neither in the inter-college nor high school class. Nevertheless, now that the game is on the team will go to Holland ready to do its best."

After the game the same paper commented as follows:

"Taken all in all, the showing was not so bad at all, considering the fact that Hope will play the important state colleges this year."

This change is perhaps caused by the low score to which Hope was held and perhaps it is not. The Holland rooters do not object to any change of front that Grand Haven may show but they do object to any aspersions cast by anyone upon their character as rooters.

The Holland rooters did not swarm upon the field in front of Grand Haven's players. The Grand Haven rooters do. No big burly Hollander rushed out upon the field to shake his fist in the Grand Haven referee's face and threaten him. Coach Helmer of the High school was once so threatened at Grand Haven. Furthermore in Holland no rooters ever jumped into the game from the side-lines to prevent a possible Grand Haven touch down. Sad as it is to say that very thing has happened to Holland in Grand Haven.

Perhaps the Holland rooters have something to be ashamed of. If so it is something that they do not know about. Such things as the above mentioned occurrences must be known in Grand Haven.

A Holland Independent team is being organized. About thirty candidates reported for practice last evening. The new team is meeting with support from some of Holland's business men. It is planned to have games in the near future with Grand Haven and Manistee.

The Grand Haven High school football squad has been increased by the appearance in foot ball togs of Edgar Wyman, who has entered the High school for supplementary course work. This makes the balance in Grand Haven's favor a trifle lower in Saturday's game with Holland.

BASKET BALL

The Lyceum roller rink is to be represented by a fast basket ball team this winter. Suits for six men came this week and practice has already been started. The squad will be started with the following men: Chris Knutson, H. Rottschaefer, Jim Williams, Carl Shaw, James Deto and Tom Robinson.

The Holland Fair.

Holland's twenty-fourth annual fair was a big success. This year instead of one big day at the fair there were two. The crowd Friday was not as large as the Thursday crowd but it was large enough to make Friday a bigger thing to the people and a bigger thing to the Fair Directors than any previous last day in the history of the association. The paid admissions for Thursday were 4,905 and for Friday 2,593. The association took in approximately $2,000 including admissions and exhibits to say nothing of concessions. Every one was satisfied. The crowds were satisfied with the exhibitions, with the races, with the association and with the weather man. Those who had charge of the fair were satisfied with the crowds, with the weather man and with the result of their labors.

There were an unusually large number of exhibits. Each department and building was crowded to its utmost capacity and in some cases the superintendants were at a loss to know what to do with some of the displays. The poultry building was especially crowded, more entries being made in this department than in any other. In the woman's department was made the second largest number of entries.

Miss Rose Clark took the greatest number of first premiums in the woman's department and Miss Lillian Hopkins won the special prize for the largest number of first premiums in the children's department. John Schippers of Hamilton took more first premiums than any other exhibitor. It is estimated that the total amount that will have to be paid out by the fair association in premiums will be over $1,000.

The races this year were of the first order and none who sat in the grand stand Thursday or Friday went home dissatisfied. Following is a summary of the races of the two days. Thursday May Douglas won the 2:40 trot and Tom won the green race. Friday Niel Ball won the free for all, Camilla won the free for all for horses not in training, Eastern Star won the 2:30 trot.

In the mule race an animal named Samona Girl, driven by Johnny Boothe, took first money. The fair directors drove the mules in the final heat. N. J. Whelan was given first as he was the only one who held his mule to a trot. Cornelius Andre was fined $10 for running.

Taken all in all everyone is pleased with the result of the fair. Let everyone get together now for the big fair to be pulled off next year on the association's twenty-fifth anniversary. It will be the biggest and best.
