All in one Competent Organization

Here they are:

1. Plan Service
2. Materials
3. Millwork
4. Construction

NOWHERE else in the building industry can you find anything like this Bolhuis service. There are plenty of "ready-cut" houses, lots of stock plans—and lumber mills galore, but where is there a complete home-building service, all in ONE organization, starting with the individual plans for your home, supplying all the materials, doing the millwork themselves, and constructing the house with their own men?

This combination is to be found only in the Bolhuis organization. It is unique—original—something different. It will save you money and guarantee you a satisfactory job in every respect.

FIGURES GIVE VERY INTERESTING FAIR HISTORY

RAIN AND PADDLE WHEELS
MAKE DIFFERENCE IN RECEIPTS

At a banquet just held at the Masonic Temple banquet hall, the officers and directors of the community fair gathered with Austin Harrington as toastmaster. It is quite a coincidence that every member, 34 in number was present, there being only one absentee.

A very flattering tentative report was sent in by Secretary Arendshorst, showing that the receipts this year were $21,923.89. This is nearly $6,000 more than the banner year before that which was in 1922 when the total receipts were $17,173.15, while in 1923 the receipts were $17,094.00. The amount taken in at the gate this year was $9,511.75. At the Grandstand, $4,897.49. The money taken in for concessions was $2,223.75.

It was rather noticeable that when it was published that paddle wheels would not be allowed during 1924, that the concession receipts fell off $1200.00, those concessionists using paddle wheels and other gambling devices, giving Holland a big berth and consequently the big slump in concession money on that particular year. However this has been more than made up during 1924 by other concessionists, and consequently the concession money is again at the high level as when paddle wheels held sway.

In a comparative statement it is also evident that rain plays havoc with fairs, as is shown in 1912 and in 1917. Those years were blue fair years, with rain practically every day.

Apparently this was also reflected in the box office receipts, since the total amount taken in at the grandstand in 1912 was $79.00 and in 1917 only $16.00. Compare that with 1924 with $4,897.49. Its no wonder they insure against rain.

The report of Mr. Arendshorst also shows some substantial improvements during 1924, costing a total of $3,231.60 which includes an addition to the Poultry House, improvement to Cattle Barn, a new lighting system, improvements to dwelling and miscellaneous improvements.

It is rather interesting to note the comparative statement of attendance covering a period of seven years beginning with 1918 and including the year 1924.

This comparative statement follows:

Mr. Harrington as toastmaster of the banquet pointed out the growth of the fair, the amicable relations that existed between Holland and all localities in Ottawa and Allegan co., who are interested, speaking especially of the splendid co-operation received from our neighboring city, Zeeland.

Mr. Harrington stated that the fair was not a Holland fair but a community fair embracing all the adjacent communities as well as Holland, and that the fair was the property of these communities collectively.

County agent Milham stated that the community fair is an ideal fair, for the reason that it sticks to the purpose for which it was intended, namely, teaching the farmer, the poultryman and the dairymen those things which it is beneficial for them to know.

It deals with farmers and the products of the farm and that is the object of a fair generally.

There have been other departures such as competitive school exhibits, domestic science, domestic art and other things along these lines, and it is well to make these a part of the exhibition.

Mr. Milham pointed out however that the community fair has been close to the line and should continue to do so, not overshadowing the real object with other exhibitions and attractions foreign to the original intention.

Too much of these shows have been put on at other fairs and the educational feature has been side-tracked and in some communities fairs have become carnivals rather than educational exhibitions.

Mr. Harrington called on every director present to say a few words. Space however forbids to quote 24 speeches. Suffice it to say however that every official was enthused over the showing made and imbued with the spirit to make even a better showing in 1925.

BANQUET WITH TABLES MORE THAN TWO MILES LONG

THE H. J. HEINZ SPREAD WILL
6 O'CLOCK

Mr. Hoover, manager of the H. J. Heinz company in Holland has all arrangements made for the radio banquet to be held in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple Saturday evening, when simultaneously with employees of the H. J. Heinz Company in 62 cities, the employees of the local plant sit down to table.

In an interesting communication the H. J. Heinz company give some idea of what this banquet will involve. This communication in part has the following:

More than two miles of table will be spread for the feast, and after the dinner is served there will be approximately 100,000 pieces of china and glass and 61,000 knives, forks and spoons to wash.

These are among the details to be arranged for the dinner that will celebrate 55 years of mutual goodwill and peace between employer and employee on the eightieth birthday anniversary of the founder of the business after the unveiling of a memorial to H. J. Heinz, erected through voluntary contributions from employees all over the world, in the company's administration building, Pittsburgh. The same menu will be simultaneously served at each banquet at the time corresponding to 7:00 in Pittsburgh.

While it has been declared that too many cooks spoil the broth, 210 chefs and helpers will be engaged in the preparation of the food, one item of which will consist of 5,000 chickens. It will be necessary to cube about half a ton of butter for the tables.

About 425 gallons of ice cream will be served and the guests will pour something like 130 gallons of cream into their coffee cups. Three hundred and fifty pounds of mince, over 255 pounds of shelled nuts and 20,000 cakes will be placed on the tables.

When the signal is given at 7:00 in Pittsburgh 1,400 to 1,500 waitresses will begin to serve the dinner at 4:00 in San Francisco, at 12:00 in London and corresponding hours in other cities.

The largest of the series of banquets will be served in Pittsburgh. As able, Heinz company has completely equipped one of its main buildings in Pittsburgh with dining room, reception rooms and kitchens.

The tables of this dining room, if placed end to end, would stretch a distance of 3,600 feet. It was necessary to install a total of 21 service kitchens to distribute the food to 450 waitresses who will serve it. One steam table is 310 feet in length. Thirty thousand pieces of china and glass and 18,800 knives, forks and spoons will be used.

The cooking and serving of a five-course dinner for so many people is no ordinary task. It will be handled by the company on a big business basis.

Fifteen hundred chickens and 40 to 50 bushels of potatoes will be prepared at the same time in the company's big bean ovens. The battery of ovens in the girls' dining room in the factory, where more than a thousand girls eat luncheon each day will be put into play in the making of over 3,000 cups of coffee at once, and 750 cans of peas will be cooked in silver lined copper kettles in the preserving kitchens of the plant.

PLANS LAID FOR SHOOTERS LEAGUE AT G. H.

HOLLAND CLUB TAKES INITIATIVE IN GETTING TRAP LEAGUE FORMED

Grand Haven Tribune.—Tentative plans will be laid for the organization of a trap shooting league, with four or five clubs in this vicinity as members.

The Holland club, organized two years ago, is fostering the new association and is planning to offer two silver trophies to the winners next year. The club has a membership of about 25 and will be divided into two classes next season with memberships based upon scores registered this year. The junior association will become permanent. The Holland club this season defeated Ludington, Grand Haven twice with the third contest a tie and split 50-50 with Muskegon in two shoots.

MESSANGER OF GRAND HAVEN WESTERN UNION SUSTAINS INJURY

Arthur Headley, 17, Western Union messenger at Grand Haven, sustained a broken knee cap when he fell from his wheel Tuesday. A boy running in front of the bicycle on which young Headley was riding, is said to have caused his fall. The messenger will be confined to his home for about two weeks it is stated. Headley had been with the Western Union for over half a year and had performed his duties in a conscientious manner.

LOST GREASED PIG HAS BEEN FOUND

During one of the picnics this summer at Jensen Park a young lad who caught a small pig in a greased pig contest lost him again later in the day, and the pig could not be found.

For some time it was noticed that an obstreperous pig had been rooting up the neighborhood at Jensen Park. A hunting party was sent into Harrington's woods where Mr. Pig had been running wild and two young lads, one named Van Appleton, and the other Karbs shot the pig. When the porker was weighed he tipped the scales at a little over 100 pounds, 70 pounds heavier than when he escaped one day during the summer picnic season.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Himebaugh left this noon for Miami, Florida to spend the winter.

CITY SHOULD OPPOSE CERTAIN FISH LAWS

FISH CONGRESS SEEM TO WANT WHAT HOLLAND DOES NOT WANT

Fish legislation has brot a great deal of grief to the different localities of Michigan. In this case what is good for the goose is not good for the gander, as in some localities certain fish and game regulations and laws apply, while these same laws would be unjust, burdensome, and even silly in other localities.

This for instance was true when one could catch only 25 perch in Black lake, when there were millions of them swimming in and out thru the harbor from Lake Michigan. No amount of hook and line fishing could possibly make an impression upon them.

But those are just the kind of laws the fish congress at Grand Rapids voted for and will endeavor to foster at the next session of the legislature and it is up to Holland to put a stopper to some of these obnoxious laws that are being fostered by some of the wealthy sportsmen of Detroit and Grand Rapids who make Michigan their hunting preserves and they and their representatives advocate laws that will help them instead of the masses who are also supposed to have a small edge on the Wolverine state.

For instance the congress at Grand Rapids voted to push through a bill closing Michigan to all fishing from January 1st until June 15.

This would be extremely detrimental to Holland, six months without fishing followed by dog days for two months when fish are more or less sidetracked as a diet, leaving four months to fish in, two of them being cold months. Holland and vicinity surely do not want such a law.

Then the fish congress at Grand Rapids voted to put a $1.50 rod tax on each fishing rod used, so it is evident that should this law pass, that ever poor man who goes fishing after work will be deprived of this pleasure unless he digs down and shells out $1.50 for the privilege of enjoying a little sport, and incidentally supplying his table with food. Holland doesn't want the rod tax either, and efforts should be made to oppose it.

One law at least considered by the fish congress was a meritorious law, namely that it was not a violation of the law to catch and keep undersized fish.

The reason for this change is that 99 out of 100 fish that have been hooked die afterward, and the proposed change in the law also provides that the small fish caught also counts on the number that the fisherman is allowed to catch at one time under the law. This does away with dead fish and also prevents the fisherman from picking nothing but the big ones.

There are other obnoxious laws that were considered by the game congress that will be brought up from time to time. The fact that the game congress voted these laws does not make them laws by any manner of means.

The laws must first come up in the next session of the Michigan legislature and there it will be decided whether these proposed laws will really become laws.

It is up to the Holland Game and Protective Association with its membership of 600, and other civic clubs as well to endeavor to put a stop to such game legislation.

Laws of this kind would not only damage Holland's resort business to a considerable extent but would deprive our own citizens from fishing in adjacent waters the greater part of the year, for the sole purpose of stimulating fishing in other streams and inland lakes where a closed season would preserve the fish until the idle rich are ready to fish for them in their own good time.

The fact of the matter is, the Holland delegation at the fish congress was not given a very cordial reception according to the delegates, other sporting clubs considering that the sportsmen of Holland have been giving more than their share of trouble in the past.

If such trouble has ben prevalent it is because of just these unsportsmanlike laws which are being suggested by the game congress.

The main trouble seems to be that the laws do not fit all localities the same.

For instance the perch law catching 25 should not apply to the lake port towns, while this might be just the thing for inland lakes. The thing for the game department to do is to divide the state in three sections, the lake towns, the northern peninsula, and the inland lake towns. Each of these localities have their fish problems, and laws should be made to fit these respective localities and not apply laws which while beneficial in one locality, would be harmful, obnoxious in another.

It was also voted to urge that the open season on pheasants coincide with the partridge season with the bag limited to two cock birds in one day and five in a season, close the partridge season for one year, prohibit carrying of firearms in woods or in streams during closed seasons, reduce the catch limit on pan fish to 25 of all varieties in one day, reduce catch limit on all trout to 15 in one day and 30 in possession, complete revision and codification of game and fish laws and empower the governor on recommendation of conservation department to close season on any game or fish in an emergency.

Anyway it is well for Holland to keep its eye on any future fish legislation.

Rev. C. P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church will on Sunday evening continue his series on the subject "Character Study of the Twelve Sons." His topic for Sunday evening will be "The Optimist."

The two ladies' aid societies of the 1st Chr. Ref. church of Zeeland last Friday presented 195 jars of canned fruits and vegetables to the Christian Psychopathic hospital at Cutlerville.

WHOLESALE RAID IN OTTAWA BY STATE OFFICERS

FOURTEEN PLACES ARE SAID TO HAVE BEEN RAIDED FOR LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS

Just before going to press the fact developed that a wholesale raid for liquor law violations had been made Wednesday evening by state officers in Grand Haven, around Grand Haven and in Robinson township. Fourteen places are said to have been raided and the victims were lodged in the county jail, in the Holland city jail and in Grand Rapids, according to meager reports available. No arrangements have as yet been made and the names of the persons captured in the raid have not been made public as yet.

"DINNIE" UPTON TO REFEREE GAME SATURDAY

Coach Hinga is all set for the Holland High-Greenview High game at 2:30 Saturday afternoon at Waterworks park.

At 1:30 a preliminary game will be played between two picked teams of the local high school.

Another attraction at the game will be "Dinnie" Upton who will be one of the referees together with Farrar of the Western State Normal and Beard of the Grand Rapids Y.

It will be remembered that "Dinnie" was for years the popular Grand Rapids coach, and today he is on the chautauqua platform talking true sportsmanship.

Tickets can be secured in advance at the three local cigar stores, namely "Ollie's Place", Superior and Van Tongeren Cigar store.

YOUNG FOLKS AND STUDENTS OF HOPE ARE ENTERTAINED

On Wednesday evening the C. E. Society of the Trinity Reformed church gave a supper in the church parlors attended by 130. Besides the members of the society, the young folks of the church, and students from abroad who attend services at the church were given a hearty welcome.

A program had been arranged for which included a welcoming speech by Fred Yonkman, president of the society; a few selections by a male quartet; vocal duet by the Misses Gertrude Mulder and Jeanette Albers; reading by Miss Margaret Schuurman; address by Dr. M. De Haan.

The supper was in charge of Mrs. G. Van Dyke and committee, while several young married couples of the church served the 130 young folks at table.

NORMAL SCHOOL OFFERS COURSE IN GRAND HAVEN

Grand Haven is to have a Western State Normal extension class this year, it was announced from Kalamazoo. Prof. George Sprau, head of the English department at the Normal, will come once a week, beginning Saturday Oct. 18, to teach a class in English, presenting the same material as in his classes at Kalamazoo and granting regular college credit to all the passing the course.

Grand Haven is one of a score of Michigan cities in which Western Normal extension classes are to be held this fall and winter. Primarily the classes are designed for school teachers but they are open also to all high school graduates and adults, who may or may not wish credit. The credit received may be applied to all those passing the course.

The Grand Haven class will meet every Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the high school. Any information can be secured from Prof. John C. Hoekje, extension director, at Kalamazoo Normal.

"Exchange Club the Best Club of its kind in the Country." This was the keynote of the talk which Dr. Leenhouts gave when the Holland Exchange Club met Wednesday, in giving his report on the National Convention held at Nashville, Tenn.

The chairman, Mr. Feigman gave a telegram stating that the regular speaker for the day was confined to his home by illness, but Dr. Leenhouts nicely took care of the situation.

Said he, "The Exchange Club ranks first among the noon day luncheon clubs of the world. Starting as a purely local organization in Detroit, it has grown during the last years to become a club national in scope with four hundred clubs throughout the country and more being added right along. The principles upon which the club is founded are bound to make it grow. The ideals it has and the practical application of these ideals are going to accomplish great things for the country." He also gave some facts pertaining to the National organization and stated that the organization during the past year had enjoyed a growth of more than 30 per cent.

A. A. Visscher also gave a short talk about the hospitality afforded the Exchange club delegates at Nashville. There were over nine hundred delegates registered, and the meetings were held in the capitol building, being the first time in the history of this building that a meeting of this nature has been held there showing in what high esteem the club is held in that city.

Both Dr. Leenhouts and A. Visscher spoke very highly of the personnel of the National organization, stating that it consisted of some of the leading men of the country, and advised all members to take in these conventions as much as possible, as in so doing we can the more fully realize what a wonderful club it is.

THREE YOUNG CHAPS ROB OIL STATION

On September 28th the Grand Rapids papers reported the robbery of an oil station on division street but detectives had no clue to the mystery.

The day before the robbery occurred officer Bontekoe noticed on the streets of Holland three kids, ranging about 13 or 14 years old. The young chaps looked rather seedy when Bontekoe quizzed them, and after the robbery in Grand Rapids had occurred the local officer somewhat or other associated the boys with the robbery and told Chief Van Ry.

Friday morning a butcher on the east end called up, stating that there were three kids in his place attempting to buy meat, and that they looked rather seedy.

The other patrolmen being on duty, chief Van Ry directed Ed Vander West, deputy sheriff to get the boys and bring them to headquarters. When the lads appeared, they were questioned by the chief and Mr. Bontekoe just then happened to come in from the street, recognized the three who he had seen come from the Chicago boat. One of the kids was hatless, while one had on a new overcoat, and the other a new sweater.

They were locked up in the detention room at the city hall, and after an hour behind lock and key, were taken into the chief private room separately.

After many contradictory statements, the story came out. They stated that they lived in Grand Rapids, that they broke into the oil station and took $90.00. They then took the interurban to Grand Haven, took the boat for Chicago, and after staying at Chicago for a few days they got on a train for Minneapolis. There they had a good time, divided the money and they went out to see what they could steal. They took an overcoat and a sweater from one clothing store and two grips from another.

Then they went back to Chicago, stole two blankets out of an automobile in order to keep warm while sleeping at night on the Graham & Morton Chicago docks. They got back to Holland on the Chicago boat, however before leaving they stole a new blanket from the stateroom of the Holland boat.

When Mr. Van Ry quizzed them as to where the stolen goods was, they stated that they had hidden it in the jungles on Black river, the place where tramps congregate, and they stated further that the tramps had directed them to go to the city to get food, while the weary Willie guarded the loot. One of the boys carried a newspaper sack, and when officer Bontekoe looked over the contents, he found several pieces of balana, some corned beef and some eggs. These were stolen from the market of William Vander Veere, on 8th street near Columbia avenue.

When the grips were opened, it was found that these contained 15 time novels, several packs of cards, flashlights, socks and other things. Chief of Police of Grand Rapids was immediately notified by the local police, and juvenile officer, C. H. Bennett came over to take the boys back to Grand Rapids, stating that they had had a great deal of trouble with the lads in question.

He also gave the local department praise for rounding up the boys. The names of the lads are: Cecil Chrysler, Ed. Olwinski and Lyle Panches, all of Grand Rapids.

When the boys were nabbed in Holland there was only $4.00 left of the money stolen.

Director John Vander Sluis of Holland was thoughtfully remembered by the members of the large chorus that sang at the Ottawa county Sunday school convention at the close of the meet Wednesday night.

Just before leaving the high school building the spokesman of the large chorus, George Swart, handed Mr. Vander Sluis a white gold chain to which was attached a dainty penknife, a present that is very popular these days.

In presenting the token the chorus expressed appreciation because of the untiring efforts of the Holland man.

Mrs. J. W. VerHoeks, the accompanist, was at the same time presented with a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses. The 107 singers that made up the chorus signed a petition asking Vander Sluis to put on a musical entertainment in Grand Haven during the next few weeks for a charitable cause and Mr. Vandersluis has consented to do so.

Calvary Reformed church, Grand Rapids, which since its founding in 1915 has grown from a membership of 29 families to a membership of more than one hundred families, opened the dedication services Thursday night of the fine brick church building at the corner of East Fulton and Lowell sts. which has just been completed at a cost of about $43,500. An audience which filled the auditorium and gallery to capacity attended the service.

The dedication exercises, which were concluded with another meeting at 7:45 Friday night, were led by Dr. S. C. Nettinga of Holland, who preached the dedicatory sermon; Rev. Minor Stegenga, pastor of the church, who read the dedicatory service and C. P. Dame, also of Holland, the first pastor of Calvary Reformed church who spoke on "The Church as Home." Rev. N. Boer, pastor of Third Reformed church, Grand Rapids, assisted in the devotional services.

Speakers at the meeting Friday night included Rev. Abraham De Young, J. Trompen, and Dr. J. E. Kuizenga of Holland. Rev. A. Klerk of Bethany church assisted the Rev. Stegenga in the devotional service.

The Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was represented at the 24th state conference at Benton Harbor and St. Joseph by the regent, Mrs. M. C. Clark, the vice-regent, Miss Katherine C. Post, the recording secretary, Mrs. J. M. Martin; the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Martha Robbins, and Miss Myrtle Beach and Miss Florence Cotton. Mrs. William Vanden Berg, registrar, and Mrs. Howard Lane, treasurer, attending the sessions on Wednesday. The visiting daughters greatly enjoyed the unusual hospitality of the twin cities. She was arraigned before Justice and were much interested in the meetings. The events of special interest will be told at their meeting next Thursday at the cottage of Miss Florence Knox at Macatawa park.

CONTROVERSY IN THE CENTRAL AVE. CHURCH HAS BEEN SETTLED

The trouble that has been brewing in the congregation of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church for months and that has been the subject of several meetings of the classis, while it also threatened to become a subject for synod action, was settled Thursday at a meeting of the classis in a spirit of compromise. On the one hand the classis, in the agreement that was reached between that body and Rev. B. H. Einlink, declares that Mr. Einlink is not under censure or discipline, and on the other hand Mr. Einlink agrees to seek another field of labor with the aid and co-operation of the classis. That, in a nutshell, is what the action arrived at Thursday amounts to.

In the report that was adopted by the classis Mr. Einlink, with a view of assisting him in securing another field of labor, is given a six months' vacation, presumably with salary. This period of vacation is tendered him to give him opportunity to make such arrangements as may be necessary to secure another pastorate or to make such other arrangements as he may decide to be necessary.

The report also agrees that the classis shall aid the pastor in every way possible to attain this end by specifically publishing in the church publications and announcing publicly in the congregation that Mr. Einlink is not under church censure or discipline and that he is a minister of the Christian Reformed church in good standing. It is further agreed that the action taken some time ago relieving him of his ministerial work in the congregation for six weeks is not to be construed in the light of censure but as a practical means of bringing about a peaceful solution of conditions in the congregation.

At the meeting of the classis held some weeks ago it was decided to ask the pastor, Rev. Mr. Einlink, to request his release from the congregation. This proposal Mr. Einlink definitely rejected and in his counter proposal to the classis he specifically stated that nothing that was agreed upon should be construed in that light. The counter proposal in substance is said to have contained the offer on the part of Mr. Einlink to leave the congregation on condition that the classis would co-operate with him and would make such a step possible for him by stating that he was not under censure or discipline, that he was a minister in good standing, and that the action barring him from his pulpit for six weeks had not been a method of censure or discipline.

What the result would be if after the six months period Mr. Einlink should have failed to secure a new field of labor is problematical. Presumably if that contingency should come up, the whole thing would return to the status it had before the agreement of Thursday was reached.

The compromise that was arrived at Thursday between the classis and Rev. Mr. Einlink is likely to end this somewhat dramatic episode in local church history. It has held the attention of the Christian Reformed denomination in this classis for many months and it has aroused the interest of churches in other classes of the denomination. It threatened to become another synod matter, Mr. Einlink having given notice at the last meeting of the classis before this one that he would appeal the decision of the classis to the synod which meets in Englewood in 1926.

Rev. Mr. Einlink has made no statement as to what his plans for the future are. It is presumed that he will forthwith seek another field of labor, in accordance with the agreement reached Thursday and if he is successful in this a period will be written to the whole affair.

The committee of the classis in charge of the investigation that led to Thursday's action was composed of Rev. D. Zwiler, Rev. J. M. VandeKleef, Rev. J. A. Ghyssels, Rev. J. C. Schaap, Mr. P. DeGoede, Mr. M. TenHoor, and Mr. L. VanAppledorn.

YOUNG GIRL IS TAKEN ON FORGERY CHARGE

Freida Fytsma, better known as "Freida Frycake" among her friends and by the police, and who lives on Fairbanks avenue, was arrested on the charge of forgery. The young lady went to the Rose Clock store, purchased a fall outfit and presenting a check of $32.00, signed by A. Van Duren, which Miss Fytsma endorsed, according to the police.

When the check turned up at one of the local banks it was pronounced a forgery, and the arrest of the girl followed immediately.

Van Schelven, waived examination, and was bound over to circuit court for trial, her father giving a bond of $200 for her appearance at Grand Haven at the next term of court.

Leonard Van Hoven, of the Van Hoven-Vereke Co., of Zeeland, who about three weeks ago called for an inspection of the Church street interurban crossing in that city, by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission in order that the danger to life and property at this crossing be minimized to its least possible degree, states that conditions at that crossing have greatly improved.

Mr. Van Hoven was led to make his request for greater safety there thru a very narrow escape one day when he was passing that point in his automobile.

Mr. Homer Hughes, railroad inspector, representing the commission met at Zeeland and with Mr. Van Hoven and other Zeeland representatives and with representatives of the Michigan Railroad Co. shortly after the request and decided that there was need for greater safety and so reported to the Utilities Commission.

The order now gone forth under date of September 26, in which the railroad is to operate its cars over the crossing at a speed not to exceed six miles per hour after that date.

Grape growers in the Grand River Fruit Growers association are making up a carload of "Champion" brand grapes which will be shipped from Spring Lake on Wednesday, Oct. 8. The car is to be made up at the Grand Trunk station in Spring Lake and loading hours will be from 3 a. m. to 5 p. m. Grapes must be ripe and packed in four quart baskets.

John Bottema, secretary of the association, stated Friday that this was a very poor year for grapes and that a very small quantity would be shipped. It is said to be extremely hard to get grapes of the right quality to put under the "Champion" brand. Frost has done damage to grapes and early conditions were unfavorable to the crop.

At the National Dairy Show held in Milwaukee this week 386 Michigan owners of dairy herds were awarded certificates, which were presented Friday to such of them as were present at the show. The herd of each farmer on the honor roll averaged more than 300 pounds of butter fat production during the year ending July 1, 1924.

Those from this section honored by the national association, and all members of West Allegan Cow Testing association, are:

C. S. Methven, East Saugatuck; Taylor & Jager, Fennville; J. D. Wedge & Sons, Allegan; F. Lane, Bloomington; H. N. Johnson, Fennville; C. F. Maskey, Allegan; L. C. Pedersen, Bravo; R. N. The thirty-first annual convention of the Fifth district of the Women's Relief corps concluded Thursday with the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. Lucy A. Wise, Blanchard, Hastings; junior vice, Mrs. Lucuba Cady, South Haven; chaplain, Mrs. Louise Harker, Kalamazoo; treasurer, Mrs. Clara West, Holland; conductor, Mrs. Nettie Mead; guard, Mrs. Maud Haynes, South Haven.

FATHER PLEADS THAT SON MAY HAVE LENIENCY

Carl Arnold, father of Carl Arnold Jr., age 21, who was taken at Grand Haven Saturday night on a booze charge, visited Grand Haven Friday to see his boy and to ask for leniency in the case of the young man who just reached his majority. In company with four companions from Grand Rapids, Arnold was arrested Saturday night by Officer Lawrence DeWitt on a charge of transporting booze. The officer found liquor in the car, it was stated.

The boy is held in the county jail on three hundred dollars bond, his case having been bound over to circuit court after he had waived examination. His father intends to go his bail. The young man's car which he is paying for bit by bit has been taken and held by officers but will probably go to the father who would have to make good in the event of its loss.

Accompanying the Arnold boy's father to the county jail was his mother. The father displays a parental pride in the young man but does not condone his drinking. "He never did it before to the best of my belief, I think companions must have led him on, he has always been such a good lad." The mother asked if there was no way that her boy could be let off and was told in a kindly way by Chief Pippel that if the case were settled in Justice court that some leniency might be granted because of the youth of the boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vork, W. 32nd st., a girl, Marion Gertrude.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeWart, 319 W. 17th St., a boy, Earl Westley.

Two more of the Junior Red Cross organizations of the city's schools have turned in their Christmas boxes to Mrs. N. Hofstee, who is chairman and organizer of the movement in Holland. Froebel and Washington schools have each made up and donated eight of the boxes which will be sent as Christmas presents to foreign children.

The Junior Red Cross enrollment in the public school of Holland is now 2,957. This does not include the kindergarten or pupils above the grades. Only pupils from the first grade to the Junior high school are eligible to membership.

The Holland school for Christian Instruction has a membership of 1,487, St. Francis 123, Zeeland public school 400, Zeeland Christian school 275, New Groningen 53, and Beechwood school 275.

John W. Behee, claiming to be a Chicago fruit buyer, was arrested in Ganges township Wednesday by Sheriff Leo Hare charged with passing worthless checks. He brought more than $3,000 worth of fruit from farmers of Saugatuck, Ganges and Casco township giving checks on three Chicago banks. The checks were returned with the statement he had no funds in the banks. He waived examination before Justice Loomdyke of Ganges township and was bound over to circuit court for trial.

He is in jail in default of $3,000 bonds.

Edway B. Reid of Washington, son of E. C. Reid of the Allegan Gazette, has been appointed temporary Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation. He succeeds Gray Silver, who has resigned to devote all his time to the co-operative grain marketing company, which is taking over five large grain companies in Chicago. Reid has been connected with the Farm Bureau Federation in Washington for some time past, dealing especially with the legislative work of the federation.

Thomas Price of Holland and Miss Nella Havinga of Grand Rapids were married Thursday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. S. W. Large. The bridal couple was attended by Miss Helen Veran and James J. Dalman of Holland. The wedding was the first marriage conducted by the Rev. Large in his new charge.—Grand Haven Tribune.

OTTAWA CO. SCENE OF ANOTHER FATAL ACCIDENT

One man was fatally injured and six other persons were seriously hurt when the two cars in which they were riding plunged into a ditch following a collision on M-11, about 1 mile north of Ferrysburg Saturday afternoon.

Clarence Sield, 28, of Muskegon, died in Hatton hospital, Grand Haven, where he and Ralph Dougherty, 20; Miss Loucher, 18, daughter of Otto Loucher; Richard Morse, 19; Miss Marshall, 18, daughter of Dr. Marshall; Timothy Bowman and Benjamin Strong, all of Muskegon, were taken following the accident.

The crash occurred when the machine, driven by Dougherty, traveling toward Grand Haven, in which the Misses Loucher and Marshall and Richard Morse were riding, attempted to pass the car driven by Sield, bound in the same direction, and, due to the heavy traffic, was forced to strike the Sield machine, both cars turning over. Bowman and Strong were riding with Sield.

Sield is a well known resident of Muskegon and is survived by a widow and two children.

HOLLAND-GRAND RAPIDS ROAD TO BE FINISHED

The swing span of the new Grand Haven-Ferrysburg bridge has been half paved with concrete according to word received Saturday at the manager's office. The bridge is paved every other section or block and before the intervening blocks must be put in, the first paved blocks must set. Other paving has been done on the bridge, the north fixed span having been completed with poured concrete and the work is now being started on the south approach to the swing span.

Small gaps are left where the approaches proper meet the bridge span and these are to be concreted in the near future. Early every morning, the bridge is swung by hand and the workers get busy putting in concrete and doing various bits of work needed before completion. It is stated that the swing apparatus was put in the other day with everything in readiness for the motor to be connected up.

Work on M-51 is progressing very rapidly with two miles yet to pave. According to C. T. Bowen, county engineer, this work will be done during the fall with the exception of the sinkhole plat which includes territory as long as about two city blocks. The engineers believe the sinkhole conquered and if it is, they will travel it over and open the new highway to traffic this winter.

At Crocker's Flats, workers have torn out one bridge and are preparing to tear out the other. The stream has been diverted through the new concrete structure which was built last year. The old cuts where the bridges were, will be filled and graded and it is possible that this job may be finished in concrete before winter sets in. Officials state this is rather improbable, however.

DEATH ENTERS FAMILY FIRST TIME

Death entered the family of G. De Weerd, 120 West 14th street, for the first time Thursday morning when the aged mother of the household, Mrs. G. De Weerd, passed away at the age of 83 years. Mrs. De Weerd was born in the Netherlands and came to this country in 1871. She has lived in this city ever since. She has been married 54 years.

The deceased is survived by her husband and six children: Mrs. B. Vanden Bosch, Walter, Mrs. Henry Mouw, Mrs. Henry G. De Weerd, Mrs. H. Vanden Brink and John. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at 2:15 at the home, Rev. James Ghyssels officiating.

The Holland Christian Endeavor Union, comprising the Christian Endeavor societies of this city, is very busy, and the reason for their untiring activity is the erection of a church in the foothills of the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia.

The Holland Union, desiring to extend its influence beyond the boundaries of its own city, has become vitally interested in the project of a mission church building in a poverty stricken section of Virginia.

The need for a church was urgent, but not until the Holland Union took this responsibility upon itself, could this need be realized.

The church has been in construction for some time. The outside of the building is practically completed, leaving all of the interior work still to be done. The missionary laboring in that district, Mr. Caudill, is superintending the building and frequent letters from him, with pictures of the church taken as the building progresses, serve to keep the local societies in close touch with this work. The minimum cost of erection will be $1500.00.

Part of this money has been raised by the individual societies, and the balance is to be raised by the Union collectively. They are diligently working on a play which will be ready for the public about the 8rd week of October. Arrangements are being made to secure an auditorium large enough to accommodate the audience.

J. B. Mulder is in Chicago on business.

FARMER SELLS MEAT; PUS IS RUNNING OUT

How badly the people of Holland need protection against diseased meat, the object desired in the meat ordinance that was defeated by a 5 to 4 vote by the common council Wednesday evening, was shown Wednesday afternoon when Jacob Hulst, a farmer, appeared in Justice Den Herder's court and pleaded guilty to a charge of having in his possession, offering for sale and selling rotten, decomposed and putrid meat. Hulst was given a fine of $50 and costs amounting to $5.50.

The arrest and conviction of Hulst was the result of clever work on the part of City Inspector Henry S. Bosch. Mr. Bosch received an inkling of the case about ten weeks ago when the meat was sold by Hulst as long ago as last February. The city inspector carefully and painstakingly collected his facts from various sources and after he had all the evidence he needed he took City Clerk Overweg with him as notary and secured the sworn affidavits from the parties concerned. Armed with these he secured a sworn confession from Mr. Hulst himself.

When he had all this evidence he referred the matter to the board of health. Holland having no ordinance covering the situation, the city attorney advised that the state be called in. This was done and the arrest was made under authority of the state board of health, the complaint being made by George Stout, special investigator.

Hulst sold the meat to a local market, claiming that the cow had broken its leg and that it had been slaughtered on that account. The affidavit of the meat market man goes on to say that after the carcass had been delivered the market man "made an incision with a knife into the carcass purchased from Mr. Hulst, whereupon matter flowed from the incision made by the knife." The market man found the meat so bad that it was fit only to be sold to a fertilizer company.

Mr. Hulst himself in his confession states that "he found the liver of the animal spotted, and that he found a pus sack in one of the hind quarters of said animal, that he did not cut said pus sack out but cut it open permitting pus to drain out." Yet in spite of that he sold the carcass for human consumption.

The pus sack is described in the same affidavit as about 5 or 6 inches in diameter and about a washbasin of matter was drained out of it. But it was only due to the vigilance of the market man to whom the beef was sold that it did not make its way to the tables of homes in Holland. And it was due to the vigilance of City Inspector Bosch that the farmer was brought to justice. Mr. Bosch and the board of health asks for an ordinance that can prevent this very thing but six members of the council Wednesday night prevented its passage by their negative votes.

At a group meeting of the hardware dealers of this section of the state questions of interest to hardware dealers were discussed. They talked of how to give better service to the public, how to avoid duplications, how to affect economies for the benefit of dealers and customers both, and kindred subjects.

About 30 dealers came from Holland, G. Rapids, Zeeland, Hudsonville, Graafschap, Hamilton, East Saugatuck and other places. Ray Nies acted as chairman and after a dinner an address was given by field secretary Nelson of Marine City who talked on the subject of stock turnovers. Then the question box was opened and it was presided over by J. Charles Ross, manager of Edwards & Chamberlain Hardware company of Kalamazoo. It is expected that next year's meeting will again be held in Holland. James De Pree of Zeeland was elected local chairman for next year and Dick Van Tatenhove of Holland, vice chairman.

From time to time as articles in regard to the bankruptcy proceedings of Morton & Jones are published, the impression seems to be gained, although this should not be the case for people who can read plain English, that the Holland Theatre is involved in that bankruptcy. The only ones involved are Morton & Jones, former lessees of the building, and no one else.

The bankruptcy proceedings have nothing to do with the Holland Theatre as a theater, or with Mr. G. Buis, the proprietor of the building, or with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lane, who are at present conducting this theatre very successfully, giving fine pictures, together with excellent vaudeville shows. Mr. and Mrs. Lane haven't made a big splurge, but in their quiet way have put on programs which Holland people appreciate, and hence the growing patronage.

Let it be stated plainly that the curtain has not been rung down on the Holland theatre, but on the bankruptcy proceedings that involved Morton & Jones, lessees of the theatre a year ago. The Holland Theatre is not "dark," but open every night giving popular programs.

Fred Klatt, Jr. of Grand Haven figured in a narrow escape in an auto accident which occurred last Sunday afternoon near Youngstown, Ohio. The young man was traveling from Brooklyn, N. Y., to Toledo, O., with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooley. On a crossroad near the Ohio town a Buick sedan driven by a Warren, Ohio, man crashed into their Nash car. Mrs. Cooley was badly injured and Mr. Klatt was seriously cut about the face and jaw by flying glass. Several stitches were taken in his jaw.

Mrs. Bert Ter Haar died Thursday night at her home at 92 East 17th street. Mrs. Ter Haar used to live in Drenthe. Later the family moved to Hamilton where Mr. Ter Haar was superintendent of the canning factory. Later they became residents of Holland. The funeral was held Tuesday noon at 12 o'clock at the home in Holland and at 1:30 at the Drenthe Christian Reformed church. Interment took place in Drenthe. The deceased is survived by four children: Mrs. Jennie Van Dam, Bert Harry, and Mrs. Ada Lohman.

The executive board of the Christian school is planning to make a drive toward freeing the property from debt within the next two weeks. The total debt on the property, exclusive of the amounts pledged, is $22,000.

POOLE PLACE NOW HOME OF GIRLS' SCHOOL

There are many schools for very bad people, many for the very good, and many that accept all classes. But in the whole state of Michigan there has been only one that operates with the single idea of providing an inspirational home and complete school training for young girls whose most formative years are unfortunately influenced.

This unique school that does all such a serious social good has been in operation for some time at Chelsea, Michigan. But the school's importance has outgrown the particular limitations that were affecting it, with the very natural result that a broader and more suitable location was sought.

The Poole property has been selected by the authorities as the most desirable, and this will explain why autoists have recently noticed the absence of the big "For Sale" sign there.

The Home, for it really is that above all, is to be called "The Sunnycrest School for Girls". And in just a few words, its office can be said to be that of accepting and training with the best of a motherly spirit, intelligent girls ranging from five to fourteen years, whose start in life is for some reason cramped by unfortunate circumstances.

Girls without homes, or those existing in very unhappy homes, or those that are seriously underfed in the love and encouragement that should be the birthright of every American child—these children are received at Sunnycrest and are given the normal privileges that in turn make them normal young women.

Investigation discloses the fact that these handicapped girls, once given the sunshine and cheer and love—the moral, mental and physical training that they have lacked—become better than normal. They become pure-minded, highly developed, leaders: exactly what this country needs.

Miss Helen Clarke, the founder of this school, wishes at this time to thank Mr. Carl Geschwind, Mr. Henry Zwemer, Mr. G. J. Diekema and others who have been instrumental in helping to make the new home possible. She also wishes to have it announced that when they become settled at Sunnycrest, she and the twelve girls that have come with her, (others will be taken from time to time), the public of Holland will be invited to call and see for itself, just what is being accomplished.

And although Sunnycrest school is to have the advantages of one of the most delightful locations in Michigan, a splendid building, beautiful grounds, lake frontage where one finds the most charming color effects that our Black Lake has to offer, and with the easily accessible seclusion that is so much to be desired by any girls school,—yet after all Holland is more fortunate to have Sunnycrest than Sunnycrest is to have Holland.

It is certain that Holland and vicinity will have an ever-increasing interest in this school which is broad enough to include all Protestant sects. Holland is going to be proud of Sunnycrest and is going to help make it the institution that Michigan needs.

One thinks of the old expression, "A ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," in connection with these schools of humaneness which by 'd character and make reform schools needless.

ZEELAND STORE TO BE REBUILT

At a meeting of the stockholders of the G. J. Boone & Co. store of Zeeland, it was unanimously decided to rebuild their store, which was destroyed by fire on the morning of September 7th, at the old stand.

The debris from the old building has been removed and piled in the rear end of the lot, where all valuable material will be sorted, after which it will be cleared away.

Noteworthy improvements will be made in the new building. A full basement, considerably deeper, will be built under the west half and a heavy wall will be built at the west side that will be able to withstand any fire that may at any time visit that or adjoining property. The east half of the building, which was not injured by the fire will practically remain as it is, only being subject to interior remodeling.

The store as a whole will receive a new front that will be up to date and will be a great improvement in the appearance of Zeeland's Main street.

SAUGATUCK PIONEER AND CIVIC LEADER SUCCEUMS

In the death Friday of Charles C. Billings, 83, Saugatuck loses one of its oldest and most respected pioneers. Pneumonia, with which he had been suffering but a few days, was the cause of death.

Mr. Billings, a veteran of the Civil war, had been a resident of this vicinity for more than 70 years and during that period he had been a leader in civic endeavors and prominent in religious circles. The widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

ASK $100,000 TO ADVERTISE THE RESORTS

Western Michigan will again come in for a great deal of advertising in the South and Middle West because the Western Michigan Tourist and Resort association decided again to raise $100,000 to advertise Western Michigan as the playground of America.

President Fred N. Rowe, who was head of the association for some time, serving the association through the growing years, resigned through the office and Carroll F. Sweet was named in his place. The plans for advertising that brot such excellent results even in summerless year such as we have just passed through will be followed out again.

Holland came in for some very unfavorable advertising at the banquet when Dr. R. M. Olin, head of the state board of health of Michigan, got mixed up in a controversy with Judge J. C. Everett, proprietor of Waukazoo Inn. Judge Everett charged that Black Lake is being polluted with sewage from the city of Holland and that politics blocked every move to overcome this evil. Dr. Olin replied, tartly.

"Yes, there is politics. But the politics is in the city of Holland where people voted down a bond issue to provide for disposal of sewage by modern methods. What you need down at Black Lake is to convince your own people that it doesn't pay to make a sewer out of a body of otherwise pure and clear water."

Judge Everett also caustically called down the highway department of the state when he charged that roadwork on M-11 in Allegan county was delayed this year until July 3rd, the day before the 4th of July, the biggest tourist day in the year, and motorists had to be content with a bad detour on this big day. Such neglect, Mr. Everett contended, would lessen the effect of the advertising setting forth that Western Michigan was the ideal playgrounds of America.

In later discussion of this thorny subject, Highway Commissioner Rogers promised that in future the special need for maintaining Western Michigan roads in good condition during the resort months would be kept constantly in mind. Ottawa county's quota is $2500 and Allegan county's $1500.

Rev. Wayer of the First Reformed church will conduct the services in the Holland language at 9 A. M. and 2 P. M. in the Seventh Reformed church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schaftenaar, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kragt and Mrs. Boyenga left last Monday on an automobile trip to the south.

H. O. H. HOLDS GOOD MEETING

The H. O. H. of Holland held an interesting meeting Friday night. A short but lively business session started off the meeting and after that a snappy program was given.

Mr. M. Hirdes of Zeeland, carried the house, with a humorous Dutch reading, while Mr. R. Sybersma gave the audience a taste of some of Dutch songs. During the entire evening music was furnished by the Central Park Orchestra, who proved themselves to be fine, talented musicians, and deserve much credit, for the good program. The orchestra is composed of P. Sikkkel, violinist; J. Sternburg, sax; Hans Van Ins, cornet; Harvey Cook, trombone; Lester Cook, drums; Herman Cook, Jr., pianist.

Mr. Brieve, president of the H. O. H., thanked Mr. De Vries and Mr. Dornbos for getting up such a well balanced program.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Haight, 317 West 14th street, a girl. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Wolfert died Monday night. The funeral was held Wednesday at 3:30 West 13th St. at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. C. De Vinney officiating.

The Sixth Reformed church has organized a Junior choir of 14 little girls. This Junior choir will sing next Sunday at the evening service. H. P. Zwemer & Son have driven in a new model of the Rickenbacker car. It is known as a Rickenbacker Eight and has many new features. The car on display at the local garage is a sedan and the only car of its kind in this section of Michigan.

On account of the meeting of the grand chapter of the Eastern Star this week in Grand Rapids, the meeting of the past matrons, which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Van Duren, 24 East 14th street Thursday, has been postponed for a week.

T. N. Robinson, Andrew Klompars, C. J. Dornbos, Peter Lieveens, Frank Nash, and Jacob Lieveens were in Grand Rapids Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Michigan Congress of Game and Fish associations at the Pantlind hotel. They were the delegates sent by the Holland Game & Fish Protective association. The Queen Esther Circle of the Methodist Church met Monday night at the home of Gertrude Woldring. An unusually large number were present. A short, wide-awake business session was followed by a program. Music was furnished by Miss Marion Lordahl, after which refreshments were served.

Secretary Van Tatenhove requests that all members of the Holland trap shoot club who have not paid their membership fee do so immediately, calling at the corner Hardware. An extra assessment of $2.00 per member must also be paid, the money to be used for the purchase of a new trap on the range.

Girls at the high school and Junior high now have stools to sit on. The pupils of the manual art department have been making these stools for the girls' dressing rooms, one for each locker. The stools are painted the same as the lockers in order to match them up. While some of the stools are ready for use, the boys in that department will make 75 in all.

Herd of 15 farmers, members of the Western Alfalfa Cow Testing association, have been placed on the honor roll at the National Dairy show held in Milwaukee. Each herd averaged more than 300 pounds of butter fat during the year. The certificates were awarded to C. S. Methven and D. V. Webster, East Saugatuck; L. C. Pederson, Mrs. M. Jorgensen and Truman Dodge, Bravo; Taylor and Jager, H. N. Johnson, Andrew Anderson, Fennville; J. D. Wedge and Sons, C. F. Maskey, R. N. Ellis, John Veenkant, M. Wilkenson and Sons, Ashley and Clark and Jewett and Whitacre, Allegan.

Twelve telephone toll lines were temporarily rendered useless when an automobile cut up several cables on the Zeeland road, about a half mile east of Zeeland limits. The machine crowded an automobile driven by Brandt off the road into a ditch, then plowed through a telephone pole on the side of the road, smashed a mail box and jumped across the road, split another telephone pole, throwing half of the pole across the road. The driver, whose name was not learned, kept his machine going, apparently having sustained little or no damage. The pole was removed from the road by another motorist.

Rev. George G. Heneveld, pastor of the Unity Reformed church at Muskegon, Monday was re-elected president of the Muskegon Pastors' conference. Dr. A. R. Johns, pastor of Central Methodist Episcopal church, was elected vice president and Rev. Bernie Mulder of the Covenant Reformed church at Muskegon Heights was named secretary and treasurer.

Rev. Willis G. Hoekje, on furlough from the mission field in Japan, spoke at the annual conference of the Woman's Missionary union, comprising the churches in the Reformed church district of Kalamazoo, held in Kalamazoo Tuesday. Others speakers included Miss Leona VanderLinden of China, Miss Marie Muisken of Kentucky and Rev. G. A. Watermuller of the Winnebago Indian mission in Nebraska. Greetings from the board were given by Mrs. G. Bilkert.

Miss Anna Mae Huff, of Wayland, and William Volkema, 90 West 9th street, were married this forenoon at ten o'clock at the home of the bride in Wayland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Miller of the Nazareth church of Grand Rapids. The young couple will take a wedding trip through the state and will be at home in Holland after their return. Mr. Volkema is employed by Charles Van Zylten.

The People State Bank last year conducted its first annual apple show and it was a very successful exhibit, much more successful than the officials of the bank had dared to hope. The bank people were so encouraged by this venture that they have decided to hold another show this year. It will probably be on a somewhat larger scale although the details of the plan have not yet been worked out. The show will be held late in October or early in November.

H. H. Reserves beat Bangor Friday at Bangor 13-6. Verhey, Ranck and Praken scored a touchdown apiece and the locals had the ball in the enemies territory most of the time. Ranck and Praken each intercepted passes and made long runs for their touchdowns. Praken was the individual star for Holland but coach Chapman was pleased with the way all his boys performed.

George Beech of Grand Haven was arrested Tuesday and paid costs in justice court there on a charge of leaving glass on the pavement. Grand Haven police made the arrest.

Suffering a stroke of apoplexy on Monday morning, Weizer Douma died suddenly. He was 69 years old and his death was very sudden and unexpected. He is survived by his wife and five children: George, Mrs. Cornoll Wydraaf, Mrs. Harvey Steffens, Mrs. G. Kuipers of Grand Rapids, Mrs. J. Barnes of Zeeland. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the home, 124 East 17th st.

Playing with a crippled lineup and being seriously handicapped by the loss of Kolo, the Holland high team plowed its way to a 12-0 victory over the Plainwell eleven, Saturday afternoon. Not until the final quarter did Hinga's men score, although they should have had a touch down in the second quarter the ball resting one foot from goal with two downs to push it over, but time was called. The locals found real opposition especially in Capt. McLean who proved to be a big stumbling block in their path and he also was adept in advancing the ball.

Holland high school is offering three new courses in household mechanics, household management and arts and crafts. Household mechanics is a study of the use of tools. Francis Drake is instructor. The household management course offers domestic art under Miss Myrtle Karr and domestic science under Miss Hazel McClellan. Miss Karr also teaches the arts and crafts class.

Dewey Jaarsma, manager of the Hoekstra Ice Cream company of Holland, has just returned from a business trip to Chicago and Milwaukee. At Milwaukee he attended the National Ice Cream men's convention, who were holding a meeting jointly with the dairy men at the Milwaukee Dairy Exposition. There were more than 10,000 delegates from the United States and Canada present at this exposition.

Fire was discovered in the home of J. Knoll at the corner of Maple avenue and 22nd street. A defective chimney caused a loss of $300, the rear end of the home being badly burned. A second alarm was sent in at the noon hour. The blaze proved to be the same house, some of the fire having been overlooked. The department responded quickly for a second time and put the small blaze out without further damage.

The examination of Louis Serier who was arrested by the local police charging him with bootlegging came off in Justice Van Schelven's court in the city hall Friday afternoon. It is claimed by Mr. Spriggs who sold a painter by the name of Volkema, moonshine, that he bought the moonshine from Serier. Anyway, Serier had his attorneys present while prosecutor Miles appeared for the people. After reviewing the case Justice Van Schelven considered that there was enough evidence to bind young Serier over to circuit court.

Organizations now are in full swing in Holland high school. Class presidents are: seniors, Willard Vandewater; juniors, Earl VanLente; sophomores, Edward Wendell. Miss Winifred Zwemer has been appointed librarian. Presidents of the various clubs are: Dnaloh Hgh, John Winter; Blue Triangle, Eva Tyssie; Signifier, Cornelius VanLeeuwen. President J. J. Hlemenga of Grand Rapids has announced another gift of $10,000 towards paying off the debt of Calvin College dormitory which is being built at a cost of $150,000. This brings the contributions to the dormitory to $100,000. The $10,000 is the fourth gift to be presented to the college by an anonymous donor.

The enrollment in the Holland public schools has reached 2,551, the largest on record. The high school leads with 516 students and the junior high is second with 483. The grades in order are: VanRaalte, 319; Washington, 277; Froebel, 270; Longfellow, 268; Lincoln, 266; Horace Mann, 152.

At the home of Misses Mary and Nella Jonkryg on Thursday evening a "Kid Party" was enjoyed. "Kid" clothes were worn and "kid" games were played and a very dainty "kid" lunch was served. Those participating were: the Misses Julia Lemmen, Helen Wellings, Janet Zoerhoff, Sena Gerding, Gertrude Gerding, Joan Jipling, Christine Scholten, Mary and Nella Jonkryg. All reported a splendid time and everybody enjoyed going back to "kid days".

William Brusse, secretary of the Ottawa County Building & Loan association, was in Muskegon today to attend the state convention of building and loan associations. Mr. Brusse reports that the Ottawa County Building & Loan association has had one of the best years in its history. It has done a big business and the association has grown rapidly during the past year.

With an audience that fulfilled every expectation as to number and with an entertainment that more than met the expectation of even the most exacting, the 1924 Hope College Lyceum course opened Friday evening in Carnegie Hall when the Little Symphony Orchestra and Jesse Littlebel Christian gave a delightful and highly artistic concert. For 2 hours the fine company of musicians entertained the audience and when the closing number had been played the people were reluctant to leave but clamored for more.

Employees of the board of public works are repainting every fire hydrant in the city a bright red.

One of Holland's very old residents passed away on Saturday evening when death came to Mrs. John J. Lemmen, 89 years old. She was one of the pioneers of this community and had lived here since the early days of the city's history. She is survived by five children: Gerrit, Benjamin, Fred, Lane and John. The funeral was held Tuesday at one o'clock at the home of Gerrit Lemmen, 480 Michigan avenue.

Allegan high football team defeated the heavy Zeeland team there on Saturday in a hard-fought game, 12 to 0.

Detectives from Lansing came to Holland Friday afternoon to take back Arthur Kieft who is wanted for embezzlement in the capital city. The detectives stated that young Kieft is charged with embezzling $250.00 from his employer.

The quarterly teachers' meeting of Trinity Reformed church Sunday school was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Damstra. Miss Retta Pas gave a report of her experiences at the summer conference she attended at Winona Lake, and Miss Anna Meengs and Miss Janet Aibers gave a report of the conference they attended at Lake Geneva. The delegates to the county Sunday school convention also gave reports.

John Hoeker while on his way to Grand Rapids, skidded on the wet pavement and lost control of his machine. The car turned over twice into the ditch. The car was slightly damaged and Hoeker slightly hurt.

Geneva Evangeline Nienhuis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Nienhuis of Overisel, died Saturday at the home of her parents at the age of 16 years. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home.

Fred Nivison collided with the car owned by Ray Nies and driven by his daughter Saturday at the corner of 9th street and Columbia avenue. Nivison had the car delivered to him Saturday and apparently had not mastered the wheel. Both cars had fenders smashed but no one was hurt.

The entire community feels a deep sense of loss in the death of Mrs. Henry TeRoller, which occurred a little after 9 o'clock last night.

Mand Ella McClellan was born May 13, 1891, at Holland. She spent her entire life in Holland and received her education in our public schools, graduating from Holland high school in 1911.

In 1912 she was married to Mr. Henry TeRoller. Mr. and Mrs. TeRoller were classmates during their high school life. They made their home at 184 East 5th St.

Mrs. TeRoller was a faithful and loved member of the Methodist Episcopal church, a loyal member of its choir and active in other organizations of the church where her presence will be greatly missed.

She is survived by the husband and three children: Donald, Marian and Lois Jane; her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McClellan at whose home she has received faithful and loving care during her illness; and by three sisters, Miss Clara McClellan of Holland, Mrs. A. Winstrom of Zeeland, and Mrs. Henry Zweering of Flint.

Mrs. TeRoller had been ill for some months and thru all the days suffering her courage and cheerfulness were a constant source of her implicit faith and sweet Christian spirit. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her but the influence of her life will live on.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. C. DeVinney at the M. E. Church on Saturday at 2:30 P. M.

Those from out-of-town who attended the funeral of Mrs. Henry TeRoller were: Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Bowerman and daughter Gwendolen of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Zweering of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holley of Belleville, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lial of Battle Creek, Miss L. Fleming of Albion, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Holley of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Weimer of Grand Rapids, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Dobbertien of Marshall.

More than 200 women from Kent, Muskegon and Ottawa county gathered in Holland on Thursday at the fourth semi-annual convention of the Oak Leaf Tri-county association of the Royal Neighbors of America. The convention proper, with sessions in the forenoon and forenoon, was held in the Woman's Literary club hall and dinner was served at noon in the Masonic temple. About 240 sat down at the dinner tables in the temple.

The convention opened with registration at nine o'clock and during the forenoon state supervising deputy, Alfa C. Smith of Detroit and district deputy Linda Knaak of Grand Rapids, gave addresses. They spoke on subjects connected with the good of the order and their talks were of an inspirational nature to the delegates who had come here from all over the three participating counties.

The dinner in the Masonic temple was not accompanied by a program and after the delicious meal adequately served the delegates went back to the convention hall for the afternoon session. After roll call there was a formal opening and then the juvenile department of the Royal Neighbors of Holland put on their initiatory work. This department is growing rapidly and already has a membership of 45. The work was put on beautifully by them and won the warm interest of the delegates.

For the third time in seven months, death chose the Division ave. road crossing the Michigan Central railroad, half a mile south of Grand Rapids, Saturday for a scene of a double tragedy, a speeding inbound passenger train killing Gerrit Vander Woude, 35, and his son, John Simon Vander Woude, 8, who were returning on a milk truck to their home near Dutton.

The train, the Wolverine flyer due at noon, was the same train which two weeks ago snuffed out the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Champion, whose automobile skidded into the path of the locomotive while the Champions were returning to their home south of Grand Rapids.

Vander Woude, who had been employed by the Wabeke Dairy company of Dutton, was driving behind a large oil truck which, in accordance with oil company regulations, stopped at the crossing. As the shrieking whistle of the train sent its warning down the track, Vander Woude, apparently unaware of the proximity of the train, drove around the oil tanker in front of the on-coming train and the terrible loss of both lives occurred.

Gerrit Vander Woude and son, who were killed, were residents of Holland for several years before moving to Dutton last spring. Mrs. Vander Woude was formerly Miss Johanna Dystra of this city.

The funeral was held Monday at 1:30 o'clock at the home of the Misses Dystra, 172 West 16th street, Holland. Rev. Keegstra officiating at the home, and at 2 o'clock at the Fourteenth street Christian Reformed church with Rev. J. M. Vande Kieft and Rev. Medendorp of Dutton, Michigan, officiating.

Dr. M. De Haan of the Western Theological seminary officiated at Pelegrim Home cemetery where the double burial took place. Dr. De Haan is a cousin of Mrs. Vande Woude.

The unfortunate man leaves a wife and two little daughters, Margaret and Florence.

MEN HOLD UP
HAZEL DONICKY
AT CEMETERY

One of the most daring holdups that has ever taken place in Holland occurred Saturday night at 8 o'clock near the cemetery when Miss Hazel Donicky, well known and popular young lady of this city, was dragged from her horse, dragged, relieved of her jewelry and was then thrown into a ditch near the roadside.

Miss Donicky, Holland's leading lady equestrian, left her home near the fairgrounds at 7 o'clock going east to the late Ben Van Raalte homestead, about two miles southeast of the city. She had heard that the Reimolds, who reside there, were to leave their summer home, going back to Yonkers, N. Y., and she intended making a call before they left. Mrs. Reimold and children had gone Saturday afternoon, however, and finding nobody at home, Miss Donicky returned the same way.

When she reached the cemetery near the fairgrounds, she stated that she thought she heard the purr of an automobile riding slowly, but she failed to see any lights.

As she came in front of the Francis Karr place at the crest of the hill, within a hundred feet of her own home, an automobile shot alongside of her horse. Two men were standing on the running board, who pulled her from her saddle, placed a handkerchief over her face, and she immediately lost consciousness.

It was not until two hours afterward that Miss Donicky was found in a hole under the trees on the Francis Karr property near the fairgrounds. Mrs. Francis Karr told her son that she had been hearing the whinnying of a horse for sometime and asked him to investigate. Mr. Karr, thinking his mother unduly alarmed, as many horses pasture in the fairgrounds next door and their own horses are in a barn nearby, felt that the whinnying that his mother heard must be of one of these. However, he took out his automobile and went down town on an errand and upon his return did see a horse standing under a maple tree on the Karr property. The horse was tied to the tree with the hitching strap.

Mr. Karr went to the house immediately, called up Mrs. McCreery, mother of Miss Hazel Donicky, and asked her whether Hazel had gone out with her horse during the evening. He was informed that she had but had not returned. Mr. Karr then informed the mother that a horse was tied to a tree in their yard and that it looked like her daughter's horse, having an English saddle. The mother, now thoroughly alarmed, left her home with a flashlight, running up the road to the place where the horse was said to be tied.

The Karr family came up about the same time and found the mother bending over an inert form in a hole under the trees, nearly covered with underbrush.

It was found to be Hazel Donicky with hands and feet tied with ropes and while apparently there had been no struggle and no clothes had been torn, her lips were badly swollen, no doubt from the choloform or another drug administered by the holdup men, which slightly burned the face and lips.

A party of young folks who were going to Saugatuck also came up about the time the discovery was made. The unconscious girl was carried to her home and a physician was immediately called who did his best to resuscitate her. He was not successful until early Sunday morning when the young lady told her story up to the time when she was pulled into the car and lost consciousness.

When an investigation was made it was found that the holdup men had relieved Miss Donicky of a $2,000 diamond ring, an heirloom handed down in the Moore family through several generations. Also a wrist watch worth $40.00, and a pocket book containing $4.00. The Moore's it will be remembered, were wealthy lumbermen in the vicinity of Saugatuck, and Miss Donicky is related to the Moore family.

Mr. Karr immediately called Chief of police Frank Van Ry who with officer Bontekoe made a thorough investigation, going over the entire ground, shortly after the discovery of Miss Donicky was made known. Mr. Van Ry states that he is not ready to make a report, as there may be some new developments in the case.

Mr. Karr states that when he went to the horse tied to a tree he did not notice Miss Donicky in the hole in the underbrush but went immediately to find out whether the young lady had been riding that evening and was informed that she had, in fact she had another riding companion, a young girl whom she sent home earlier in the evening, just before dark, not wishing her to make the ride out in the country after dark.

Ed. Brouwer, secretary of the Holland Poultry association, has just returned from a ten days' trip to the northern peninsula and Wisconsin doing educational work in connection with poultry and the dairy industry for the Quaker Oats company. For a week Mr. Brouwer was stationed at the Houghton County Fair, where Mr. Brouwer worked directly with the poultry and dairy men, even aiding in some of the judging. Mr. Brouwer states that it was decided by the Poultry association in the upper peninsula to send a delegation to Holland and Zeeland to look over what they consider the largest poultry center in the middle west.

During his 6 days' stay at Houghton, Mr. Brouwer was surprised to find that most of the stock on the poultry farms originally come from the hatcheries in the vicinity of Holland and that so satisfied were the poultry men there that the delegation to come here wants to see how it is done.

Although the Houghton fair did not begin to compare with the Holland fair, the attendance for six days was at least 5,000 a day, and patrons paid the 75 cents admission cheerfully and without grumbling. Mr. Brouwer put on two movie exhibitions each day relating to dairy and poultry. The largest flock of poultry encountered was 3,500 birds.

During his stay in Houghton, Mr. Brouwer saw some things of exceptional interest aside from poultry and cattle. He visited the large monument put up of Douglas Houghton, Michigan's first geologist, who did more to develop Michigan's mining resources than any pioneer of the earlier days. The monument was erected from rock taken from every mine in the northern peninsula. The inscription reads, "Douglas Houghton, born September 21, 1850; was drowned off Eagle River, Lake Superior, October 13, 1845."

Mr. Brouwer also visited the large Quincy mines at Hancock, going underground 1,560 feet where copper is being bored. At this mine he saw the largest hoist in the world. The large drum around which the cables are wound and which hoists up ore and miners as well, weighs 516,000 pounds. The entire hoist, including cables, weighs 1,665,000 pounds. The two cables on the drum are each 10,000 feet long, each weighing 41,000 pounds. The speed of the hoist up and down into the mining shaft is at the rate of 3,200 feet a minute. "Some sensational ride" Mr. Brouwer states.

Friday night, immediately after the Little Symphony concert, a number of the orchestra were entertained at the home of Rev. Wm. Schumacher and family. Old friendships were renewed when Prof. O. P. Weed, local violin teacher, met some of his old friends who studied with him abroad. Mr. Dach and Mr. Britner being especially some of his old friends.

Schumacher brothers prepared a short humorous program which the members of the orchestra greatly appreciated, after their strenuous performance. Mr. Harvey Fairbanks and Mr. Gerard Hanchett came later, which also added to the evening's enjoyment. Refreshments were served. The company took the midnight train for Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Kilmberg, of Grand Rapids, were also present.

FIRE WIPES OUT CREAMERY AT BORCULO

The Farmers' Creamery Association of Borculo held a meeting Tuesday night at which they decided to rebuild the Borculo creamery that was completely destroyed by fire Monday noon. The new building will be erected on the site of the old and it will be slightly larger.

The fire Monday noon was a disastrous one for the little community of Borculo which is located about six miles north of Zeeland on the State-st. road. It was one of the most prosperous institutions of the village, and the fire in one hour wiped out the business in which more than a hundred farmers living in a wide radius were vitally interested.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It is supposed that it started from the boiler. The butter makers were absent from the plant during the noon hour and the fire started between the ceiling and the roof. When the blaze was discovered it had already advanced so far that there was no possibility of saving any part of the building. A call was not even sent in for the Zeeland fire department because it was certain that not a stick of the building would be left by the time the firemen could arrive.

However, volunteer firemen succeeded in removing over a thousand pounds of butter from the place. Two boxes of butter, totaling 180 pounds remained in the cooler and were destroyed. A two days' supply of milk and cream was also destroyed. This totaled to about 2,000 pounds of milk and 350 pounds of butter still in cream.

The loss is about $4,000 and the insurance amounts to $2,800. The new building will be of cement blocks and it is expected to begin work on it within two weeks. The building that was burned was erected 26 years ago and was a frame structure. It was a co-operative company, with 95 farmer stockholders, while it received milk from 110 farmers. The officers are: John A. Busch, manager; Harm Timmer, president; Gerrit TenBroek, secretary and treasurer; and M. J. Meppelink, butter maker.

At the merchants' meeting held Tuesday night, Jake Lokker started something when he brought up the matter of parking on River avenue and 8th street. He pointed out that his experience had been that in front of his store the same autos are parked during the entire day, leaving no time or chance for a customer to park his car and make purchases. Chairman Vander Sluis threw open the matter for discussion and a score of business men gave their opinions on parking in no uncertain tone. Fred Zalsman stated that often he had to carry groceries several blocks to the auto of a customer for the reason that the entire block was cluttered up with automobiles that remained parked for hours, the autos belonging either to men attending lodge in the neighborhood, who went to the theatre or had other business that consumed considerable time.

Albert Keppel stated that a few days ago two cars in front of his place, which were locked, prevented his man from delivering a load of coal until the locked cars were moved in some way. This operation took more than an hour, he states.

Many of the merchants stated that the merchants themselves are the worst offenders in prolonged parking, many merchants cars standing in front of their places of business the entire day.

The question then arose, "What will be the proper time limit?" Some wanted a half hour, others went to the other extreme and wanted two hours, while a vast majority wanted to make an hour parking limit.

A vote was taken and a recommendation will be sent to the police board or to the common council, recommending that a parking regulation be made for the two main streets with the time limit as stated above. Whether the council will act upon this matter or whether it will be a police regulation or will be handled by an ordinance adopted by the ordinance committee the future will tell.

BUYS INTEREST OF PARTNER IN THE STRAND

After having been associated with each other in business since 1914, interrupted somewhat during the war, Morris Hanna and E. P. Moran have dissolved partnership. Hanna and Moran have been in Holland a little over three years as the operators of the Strand Theatre and before that they were associated in business in Ann Arbor both in the theatre line and in other ventures.

Mr. Moran wanted to go back to Ann Arbor to become associated with his father in business there and so Mr. Hanna has purchased Moran's interest in the Strand. Mr. Hanna from now on will be the sole proprietor of this popular playhouse and will conduct it alone.

Mr. Hanna declared today that the policy of the Strand will remain the same but that he has made arrangements for a number of big pictures which will make the score of successes here high during the coming theatre season. His aim will be, he declared, to improve the grade of the pictures constantly. That together with the fine new organ-orchestra will make this an interesting playhouse to patronize.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Huizenga, 24 East 18th st. Mrs. C. A. Bigge will read a paper on "Women's Worst Enemy in Civic Life." Rev. James Weyer will give an address on "A Priceless Trust—America's Future." The music will be in charge of Mrs. Huizenga, the devotions in charge of Mrs. A. Walvoord, and tea will be served by Mrs. Wm. Van Dyke and committee.

John Pieper left Tuesday by auto to attend the twenty-eighth annual optometric congress and clinic in the Post Tavern, Battle Creek. This society will be in session Oct. 7, 8, and 9th.

MRS. WAYER IS INVITED TO SPEAK IN MUSKEGON

Mrs. James Wayer has been invited by the Congregational denomination to speak in Muskegon Wednesday at the annual thanksgiving meeting in the First Congregational church. This meeting is to be held for the purpose of collecting funds for Knobe College in Japan and Mrs. Wayer's connection with the drive last year for Union Colleges in the Orient caused those in charge of the movement to seek her aid in the present drive in that denomination.

The demand for higher education in oriental countries is growing rapidly and the problem facing the Congregational church in connection with Knobe College is similar to one that faces the boards of foreign missions of all denominations.

NEW CHURCH SOCIETY ORGANIZED

A Ladies Aid Society of the Van Raalte Ave. Reformed church was organized last Wednesday with the following officers: president, Mrs. Geo. Veldman; vice-pres., Mrs. Henry Naherhuis; secretary, Mrs. Wm. Mookma; treasurer, Mrs. Bert Ter Haar; chairman of fancy-work comm., Mrs. Edw. Lam; chairman of sewing comm., Mrs. G. Bocks. The meetings will be held every other Wednesday afternoon at the homes of the members. The newly organized church is showing much interest in its various organizations. Catechism classes for the children are held on Wednesday afternoons under the leadership of Rev. G. Tyse, and in the evening a class of young people is instructed by Mr. Edw. Tania of the Western Theological Seminary.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marinus De Jong, 258 W. 20th St. a girl, Fredricka.

HELD FOR BREAKING INTO LAKETOWN HOME

John Windish, 39, a butcher, was held in the Allegan county jail Monday following his arrest Sunday night on a charge of breaking into a home at Laketown and stealing $7. Windish is said by officers to have admitted the theft, explaining that he needed money to pay railroad fare to Chicago, where he intended to go in quest of employment.

The Democratic State Central Committee, so chairman William A. Comstock says, has contracted for $8,000 worth of phonograph records—100,000 at eight cents apiece. Each record contains a two-minute extract from campaign addresses by the party's candidates for Governor and Senator, Edward Frensdorff and Mortimer E. Cooley.

SUNFLOWERS, BLUE RIBBONS THE COLLEGE COLORS

Something new was observed at the Hope college foot ball game Saturday afternoon. The co-eds appeared wearing a new kind of sunflower not common in this section. The brilliant orange of the sunflowers was backed by a navy blue ribbon, orange and navy blue being the colors of Hope college. The flowers were grown on the place of M. Bohl of the north side and it was his idea to have them used with the navy blue ribbons to make up the college colors.

FRUIT BUYERS AT SAUGATUCK IN TROUBLE

John W. Beehe and A. M. Cherney of Chicago constitute the firm of U. P. Shipping Co., not incorporated. "Up" is right apparently. Beehe came to Michigan, locating in Saugatuck, about Sept. 18 to buy fruit. Cherney came over Sept. 23 to join him. It is claimed that at the time Cherney came checks given in payment for fruit had begun to come back from a Chicago bank, and that Cherney said these would be taken care of if returned accompanied by a draft. On his return to Chicago n the 25th Cherney is said to have written Beehe not to buy any more fruit until what had been purchased was sold, as the firm was out of money. It is also claimed that Beehe continued to issue checks. As near as can be determined, some $3,000 of checks were issued in all. Beehe was arrested and held by Justice Lovelidge of Ganges under bonds, which he was unable to give and was placed in jail. Whether Cherney will be arrested remained under consideration, but it is probable that a warrant will be issued for him on the theory that he was aware of the issuance of checks while in this country with Beehe.

OBJECTS TO PART OF MEAT ORDINANCE

Alderman William Visser states that some people seem to misunderstand his reason for voting against the meat ordinance as proposed in the common council Wednesday. He says that he is absolutely for a meat ordinance that strictly regulates the wholesaling and selling of meat to retailers or to private individuals and that ordinance should include all the safeguards necessary to protect public health. He says, however, that in going over the ordinance he saw only the farmer regulated and not the string butcher or other persons through whom meat comes into the city. He states that the ordinance mentions only the farmer and he feels that the farmer should not be the only one to be regulated. He states that if the ordinance embraces all avenues from which Holland gets its meat supply, the string butcher as well as the farmer, he is for the ordinance, but that class legislation singling out the farmer only is not to his liking.

Mr. Visser states his case thus: Mr. Editor:— In reading your article on the meat ordinance it looks as though the six aldermen who voted against this ordinance are against meat inspection. This is not the case. I for one do not like to pass a one-sided ordinance. According to the ordinance in question the farmer's meat must be inspected before the retailer can sell it. But the string butcher or licensed butcher can sell his meat to a retailer without inspection. The health officer or city inspector is given power to do so but not compelled to do so as is the case with the farmer's meat.

If meat inspection is wanted let's have all meat inspected. Then the six aldermen who voted against the ordinance may take a different stand.

Alderman of the Sixth. If space will permit kindly copy Sec. 8 and 9 relative to inspection of meats in ordinance.

The sections in question to which Alderman Visser objects follow: 438—Sec. 8. No retailer in the city of Holland shall purchase or have in his possession any fresh meat for human consumption which he has obtained from any person not a licensee under this ordinance, unless the wholesaler from whom he obtained such meat is operating either under United States or State license and inspection; excepting and provided, that a retailer may have in his possession wholesome meat which has been dressed and sold to him by a farmer who has himself raised, fed and slaughtered the animal or fowl from which such meat was obtained; provided further, that a retailer shall immediately notify the City Inspector of his possession or purchase of any such meat from a farmer, and that said meat shall have first been inspected by the City Inspector before the retailer shall offer the same for sale for human consumption.

434—Sec. 9. For the purpose of inspection the Health Officer, City Inspector, and/or the assistants of either of them or any member of the Board of Health are authorized to enter any building, room or premises where any such licensee under this ordinance slaughters, keeps or stores any fresh meat for sale or delivery to any retailer within the city of Holland. The said Health Officer, City Inspector, assistant or any member of the Board of Health, are empowered to open any package or container, whether in transit or otherwise, containing fresh meat for sale to a retailer in the city of Holland, and take therefrom a part or the whole thereof for examination, to determine whether said fresh meat is fit for human consumption.

ALDERINK SENT TO COUNTY JAIL FOR 30 DAYS

Bill Alderink appeared before Justice Bruse Tuesday on the charge of stealing $15.00 from H. Nyboer, 351 Harrison avenue, and pleading guilty to the charge he was sent to Grand Haven for 30 days where he will be the boarder of Sheriff Fortney in the county bastille.

Alderink was boarding at the Nyboer house and it is stated that he stole the money Sunday while the people were at church. When the money was missing, the young man was suspected immediately, he having been implicated in a forgery matter and also larceny, and Chief Van Ry felt that Alderink was involved in this matter too. After considerable quizzing the young man confessed, pleading guilty to the charge.

ROOF OF FIELD HOUSE FALLS DURING GAME

The roof of one of the Grand Haven Field Houses at Fourth Ward football field, crashed in Saturday afternoon during the first half of the Muskegon-Grand Haven game. The house was located on the Muskegon side of the field, or rather the east side, and about 25 enthusiastic Muskegon fans had climbed on top to watch their team make its drive down the field following the second touchdown.

Suddenly a crashing was heard and the roof fell in as the walls spread apart. No one was hurt when the roof caved in. An order was issued excluding everybody from the field house following the accident and the Muskegon team had to retreat between halves in the school building.

GRAND HAVEN MEN STAR IN NORMAL VICTORY SATURDAY

A number of Grand Haven people journeyed to Kalamazoo Saturday and witnessed the great game between Alma college and Western Normal. It was a hectic struggle and the Grand Havenites felt particularly proud because of the fact that Kalamazoo won 7 to 0 after being reckoned a defeated team and because of the fact that Ike Van Weelden, Pat Muller and "Dutch" Zuidema, all former Grand Haven high boys, were members of the winning squad. The Grand Haven lads covered themselves with glory in the game.

THE NUMBER OF "DROWNED" INCREASING

Grand Haven also was alarmed over the report that the Ferrysburg bridge had gone down. The Grand Haven Tribune was kept busy answering the report. This report also reached Grand Rapids and by that time was to the effect that 15 people drowned. No one seems to know where or how the report started.

HOLLAND POLICE NABS CLARENCE BELL

Clarence Bell, home port unknown, driving a little red river speedster with a Wisconsin license, stopped at the Botbyl Cardinal service station Grand Haven Monday morning to get gas. Incidentally an eyewitness is said to have reported that he helped himself to some oil, paid for the gas only and went on. George Botbyl complained to the police and a call was made to Holland. Holland police nabbed the youth as he entered this city. He was brought back to Grand Haven Monday afternoon.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY GIVES FIRST ENTERTAINMENT

On Thursday evening, October 9, the Holy Name Society of St. Francis de Sales church will give its first entertainment for the fall season. The patrons will be given a trip around the world with George Cobalt as their guide, while Dr. Duffy will, via the movie pictures, show the audience the Holy Land describing these historical countries of Bible times step by step. Father Ryan will tell all about the Holy Name rally at Washington, D. C., after which there will be cats and smokes, and singing by the audience, followed by an added program, a number of acrobatic stunts and tumbling to help digestion. The evening is called Free Holy Name Night with no charge for admission.

The motto of the men of the church is "Every man a Holy Name Member."

The Century club held its first meeting of the new club year Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Telling, Park road. With an unusually large number of the members present the meeting was a very successful one and set the pace for the meetings that are to follow during the 1924-25 season.

Supt. E. E. Fell, the new president, gave a few remarks of welcome and Willis A. Diekema, on behalf of the membership committee, reported that there were no vacancies and that hence no new members could be added. Chester Beach, on behalf of the executive committee, gave notice of a minor change in the constitution to be voted on two weeks hence, and Mrs. Albert Diekema, secretary and treasurer, read the list of programs that will be given during the year.

Three charming solos by Willis A. Diekema, accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins, opened the program Monday evening. The main feature of the evening's entertainment was a reading of Zola Gale's popular stage success, "Miss Lulu Bett" by Miss Ritta Smith of Chicago. Miss Smith, a professional reader, is the guest while in Holland of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Waltz. Some years ago she and Mrs. Waltz were in the same company of chautauqua entertainers and toured a large part of America together.

Miss Smith called attention to the fact that "Miss Lulu Bett" had won the Pulitzer prize a few years ago and she said that while she had seen both movie and the play, the former had been disappointing. She gave an interpretation of the stage version of the play, portraying the character of a sensitive servant girl in the family of commonplace people satirically conceived by Zola Gale.

Miss Smith was encircled a number of times and responded with shorter pieces that won enthusiastic applause. Mrs. J. E. Telling sang a number of solos, accompanied by Mrs. Robbins, and gave encores.

ACCIDENT RE- PORT GREATLY EXAGGERATED

turned from Chicago Monday night where Dr. Irvin had taken some special work. While they were away the report spread in Holland that both Dr. and Mrs. Irvin were in a hospital in Chicago as the result of an automobile accident. One report even had it that neither Dr. or Mrs. Irvin was expected to live.

They smilingly assured their friends Tuesday that their accident, like Mark Twain's death, had been greatly exaggerated. They did figure in an auto accident early Saturday morning when on their way to Chicago but were only bruised up somewhat. On the other side of South Haven the car skidded and turned turtle into a ditch. The car was somewhat damaged and the occupants received minor injuries. But they were well enough to continue their trip to Chicago by train.

SCHOOL CLASSES ELECT OFFICERS

The classes of the high school began activities by electing their officers for the coming year. The senior class tried a new system, which worked very well. The class met to nominate candidates for the various offices. Ballots were printed and distributed in the first period classes to seniors thus enabling every one to vote. These ballots were then taken to the office and counted.

The junior and sophomore classes also held elections and the results of all have been published in Assembly.

OTTAWA TO HELP MAKE GARMENTS FOR SOLDIERS

The Ottawa county chapter of the Red Cross has accepted the assignment made by Central Division for the production of garments. These garments are needed throughout the fall and winter months for the disabled men in the U. S. Veterans' Bureau hospitals and for distribution under the auspices of the insular and foreign chapters of the American Red Cross.

The following assignment has been made to Ottawa County: 30 layettes, of which South Ottawa will furnish 18 and North Ottawa 12; fifty boys' suits, of which South Ottawa will furnish 30 and North Ottawa 20; forty laundry bags, 25 by South Ottawa and 15 by North Ottawa; one hundred sewing kits, in a proportion of 60 and 40. This will make a total of 133 articles for this section of the county and 83 for the north half of Ottawa.

CITY TO BUILD $2700 GREENHOUSE

At a recent meeting of the Park board, park commissioner Van Braght was given an appropriation of $2700.00 with which to build another greenhouse at Central avenue and State street, the same size as the one built some years ago.

Work on the new greenhouse has already been started and the greenhouse is expected to be ready for use before snow flies and in time to house some of the plants now in the city parks.

For years the single green house was entirely inadequate to take care of the flowers that the park commissioner houses during the winter and others that he propagates for spring planting. Holland's beautiful parks have been made more beautiful from year to year; however, it takes flowers and plants to bring this about. Now the First avenue boulevard has been added from 8th street to 16th street with two spaces in each block for flower planting, or 16 spaces in all. These too will have to be filled with flowers as well as the boulevard on West 12th street. The park commissioners made a wise move when they ordered the greenhouse built, for Holland's best advertising asset is its park system.

NEW TRAP HOUSE TO BE BUILT AT FAIRGROUNDS

The Holland trap shoot club held its last shoot of this season Saturday. A contest was to be held with Grand Rapids, but our neighbors failed to show up. The annual meeting is soon to be held when new officers will be elected and possibly some of the old ones will be retained, and plans for next season will also be formulated.

It is understood that a new trap house is to be built on the range at the fairgrounds and two substantial trophies are to be purchased by the club. Different classes in shooting will also be arranged and a try will be made to form a citizens' shooting league for next season in order to interest busy men in this outdoor sport as a pastime.

The shoot Saturday between the members resulted as follows: V. Mapee, 45; Neal De Waard, 42; Wm. Woltring, 41; Dick Van Tatenhove, 37; Dick De Waarde, 34; C. A. Biggs, 33; Sam Althuis, 31; Oscar Peterson, 28.

E. Z. LUNCH ROOM HAS NEW PROPRIETORS

The E. Z. Lunch room located on River avenue across from the Wolterine Garage has been sold to Bert Golds and Walter Mattison. They took possession on Monday afternoon and are now ready to meet the public at meal times and at any other time when appetite calls. The place will be completely overhauled and repainted and will be converted into a fine quick-lunch room.

TWO MEN ARE INJURED IN TANNERY FIRE

Two men were burned at shortly before noon Monday when the naptha being poured into a big boiling kettle became ignited at the Eagle Ottawa-Leather company Grand Haven. How the "dope" became ignited is not known, but two men who were caught within range of the sudden outburst of fire were rather severely burned.

Raimond Vander Swaag of Spring Lake and Douwe Sietema of Grand Haven were the victims of the blaze. Both were removed to Elizabeth Hatton Memorial Hospital where they were given immediate treatment. Both of them were reported to be resting as comfortably as could be expected Monday afternoon, and it was not expected that the burns would prove fatal in either case.

Mr. Vander Swaag was the more seriously injured of the two. He was burned about his head, face, arms and back. It is believed however that he will recover. Mr. Sietema was burned about the face rather severely and his condition is not believed to be serious.

An alarm of fire was turned in immediately and the Second Ward truck responded at once. The flames were extinguished before they had spread and the damage to the "dope room" was therefore not great.

It is said that the escape of the two men from more serious injury and perhaps death was almost miraculous, as the flare-up from the dope was instantaneous and without warning.

MR. DE BOER LOSES FAITH IN HUMANITY

Detroit News—All the rogues are not in jail.

Peter De Boer, of Grand Rapids, had a striking illustration of the truism Saturday noon when, on emerging into the society of supposedly honest citizens after four months of intimate association with the other sort in the Detroit House of Correction, his pockets were straightaway picked of $23 in cash and a railroad ticket.

The railroad ticket was Peter's passport back to his family, which he had not seen since he was sentenced to prison for violating the State Prohibition Law. The $23, painfully accumulated at the rate of 20 cents a day, was his wage for four months of honest labor.

Peter bade a cheerful goodbye to the House of Correction officials at 12:30 p. m. At 1:30 p. m. he was back again, not so cheerful by half, and his faith in the essential honesty of man greatly diminished. He had scarcely boarded an Oakland car for the Michigan Central station, he said, when he discovered his loss. And he had so hoped to have Sunday dinner with his family.

A hurried consultation of the officials resulted in his being presented with another ticket to Grand Rapids and the advice—now wholly unnecessary—that since he was going out into the world again he should beware of pickpockets.

COUNTY SOLONS TO BE ASKED FOR MONEY

Last year the Michigan Tourist and Resort association put on a drive with the board of supervisors in every county along the lake shore asking that these summer resort counties, through their boards of supervisors, each donate $1,000.00 towards helping the advertising campaign, putting Michigan on the map as the summer playgrounds of America. The officials of the association figure that the lakeshore counties receive a tremendous benefit because of the oncoming stream of automobile tourists.

Last year many of the counties came across handsomely, including Muskegon and Allegan counties. However, Ottawa county turned the request down, much to the chagrin of the officials of the resort company who have the advertising of Western Michigan in charge and who naturally also have the handling of the advertising part that relates to Ottawa county.

The officials feel that, of all counties, Ottawa county, of which the big half is resort, ought to do its share, since there is not a tax payer in the county who does not directly or indirectly benefit from the large influx of resorters who spend the summer here. They enumerate a tremendous list of things that resorters buy in localities where they have their outing, and according to statistics, even the farmer is benefited.

There is no doubt that Ottawa County receives a great benefit from its resort properties. If our resorts, with all their buildings and improvements, did not exist, and consequently were off the tax roll, Ottawa county would surely feel the added burden.

If Holland should lose its resorts through a disastrous fire or from other causes, this city and its business interests would suffer tremendously, and the busy summer and the season of money making would be turned into the dull months in the year, a period of depression always felt in an inland town having no resorts.

The resorts have brought good roads, which in turn have boosted the price of farms and suburban property as well. In fact, the Michigan Tourist and Resort company officials point out many reasons why in a county like Ottawa the board of supervisors should at least give the sum of $1,000, a small amount compared with the benefits received.

PINE CREEK P-T CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The following members were elected at the annual election of Pine Creek P-T Club. They will serve for the term, 1924-25: president, —Mr. A. Van Doesburg; vice president, —Mr. R. Lamb; secretary, —Miss V. Van Doesburg; treasurer, —Mrs. H. Gunn; publicity committee, —Miss H. Eberhardt, Mr. H. Van Wessel.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kardux have returned from a trip to Old Mission, Mich.

LAKE LEVEL IS STILL FALLING

The United States Lake Survey reports the monthly mean stages of the Great Lakes for the month of September, 1924, as follows:

Lakes Michigan-Huron are 0.11 foot lower than last month, 0.13 foot lower than the low September stage of a year ago, 1.10 feet below the average stage of September of the last ten years, and 3.92 feet below the high stage of September, 1876. During the last ten years the Sept. level has averaged 0.2 foot lower than the August level, and 0.25 foot higher than the October level.

DOLLAR SUITS! GOING FAST

The Response to This Sale Was Even Greater Than We Looked For — Sale Ends Saturday Night

We have just returned from the New York Market, where we were allowed to select from the manufacturers of the Monroe Clothes Co. a Lot of Suits at a ridiculously Low Price on account of their going out of business. We feel we are of service to the people of Holland and vicinity to give them the best possible values that money will buy, and so we snapped up the Bargain and are now handing it to our customers.

We have included in this Sale a large number of our Stock Suits, such as Hart Schaffner & Marx, Society, Collegian Brands, which will give you the greatest Clothing Values which have ever been offered anywhere.

There are no ifs or ands about this Sale. It will be the most sensational sale ever put on in Holland. Suits will go at prices way below today's cost.

You do not have to take two suits of the same size—Bring along a friend and get two suits for the price of one—You pay the regular price for one Suit and pick out any other Suit up to the same value for an additional Dollar—For Example:

$30.00	"	"	"	$31.00

LOCAL

A very pleasant reception was given Rev. and Mrs. Visser and little daughter Rosetta at their parsonage home on Tuesday evening. Rev. and Mrs. Visser have recently moved to this city to take up the work of the Wesleyan Methodist church. Much interest is being shown in the work of the church and prospects are for a good year in the work of the Master.

The Y. M. C. A. at Hope college is enjoying very successful meetings. Each Tuesday evening about 150 men gather for the meetings which are led by various students. The Y. has always been a great influence for good and this year bids fair to be the greatest yet enjoyed by the association.

Mr. Metzgar, county secretary of the G. R. Y. M. C. A. visited Holland Tuesday and spoke to the students at Hope after the Y meeting. He is promoting gospel team work which has been carried on with fine results by the different teams sent out from Hope. Paul Gebhard has charge of the gospel team work at the college.

Bert Vanden Berg, Grand Rapids jeweler at 721 South Division street, and family visited Mr. Vanden Berg's mother, Mrs. G. Vanden Berg, East 14th street, Sunday.

The appropriation for the buildings in both Benton Harbor and Holland was passed by the 1923 legislature. Leroy Hill and Ira Weering left Monday morning to resume their studies in the Chicago Dental college of surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ederle have moved into their new home at 51 W. 19th street.

Mrs. John Segman of Coopersville died Sunday morning at St. Mary's hospital Grand Rapids. She was taken to the hospital Friday and submitted to an operation necessitated by a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Donald K. Moore of Hilldale was elected secretary of the Michigan D. A. R. and not Mrs. Winona Moore Sherwood of Allegan, as was announced at the closing session of the state meeting at Benton Harbor. Mrs. Moore won out by a few votes.

—Grand Rapids Press.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Toren have left for Lake Worth, Florida, where they will spend the winter, returning some time in April or May. Mr. Toren, who lives at Jensen Park and conducts a business at Macatava during the summer, will be engaged in the real estate business in Florida.

W. R. Stevenson and son Alfred L. Stevenson have left for Battle Creek to attend the 28th annual optometric congress and clinic, Oct. 7, 8, and 9.

Benj. Baldus, proprietor of the Baldus Welding & Radiator Shop, 117 East 8th street, has installed an electric arc welder in his shop, the only machine of its kind in the city. It is used instead of an acetylene welding outfit for welding metals. The claim is made for it that it makes a more durable job of welding in steel and malleable iron than can be obtained by the acetylene torch method and does the work about 20 per cent faster. The machine has been installed and is now ready for business.

Henry Schutmaat is driving a big new sedan.

A telephone has been placed in the barbershop and now the customer may phone his order and have his tonsorial goods delivered at the back door with his groceries; or, if father is in the chair and ready for a shave and Maggie wants him to come immediately, she can telephone her orders and the barber can release father and work on the next customer until Maggie finishes with father.—Allegan Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Vander Ploeg are rejoicing over the arrival of their first born, a baby girl.

Mr. O. I. Gregg, oo. farm agent, held a community meeting in Hamilton recently in which matters of interest to farmers were discussed. Parts of his lecture were illustrated with moving pictures. There was a very good attendance and those present were satisfied with the entertainment.

The Laying Hen is the Paying Hen

Purina Chows make layers out of hens. Purina Chows cost little or no more than ordinary feeds, and they produce more eggs than other feeds on the market. That's why we picked Purina, as the chows to sell. Pure, clean, honestly made, they are sold under the iron-bound guarantee of more eggs or money back, when fed according to the simple directions. If you want more eggs right now drop in.
