NEW JOB PRINTING FIRM STARTS IN HOLLAND*IS NAMED THE "CITY PRINT SHOP" DEVOTED EXCLUSIVELY TO JOB PRINTING

Cyrus Vande Luyster, who has been connected with the Holland City News Printery for the past eight years is launching on a new venture, and has established what will be known as "The City Print Shop," handling all classes of job printing.

Mr. Vande Luyster has installed a new Chandler-Price press of the latest type with a Kilmble variable speed motor attached.

The new shop is also equipped with the latest type faces, and a liberal supply of paper.

The office is practically arranged to open October 18, in the Peters block, 8th street, over the Woolworth store.

STRANGE PUZZLING CHANGE IN THE ALLEGAN PEACHES

Allegan county orchardists are mystified by a remarkable change in two popular peaches this season. Elbertas and Barnards have always been freestone but this fall they become clingstones of the tightest kind. There is some variation in this respect as to localities but such is the strange condition generally. Some other kinds have manifested the same tendency in one degree or another. It is believed that the cool and wet later season has something to do with the manifestation.

JESIEK BROS. HOLDING ANOTHER CONTEST*MAN CATCHING THE LARGEST FISH TO WIN $15.00

Jesiek Bros. at Macatawa are repeating the annual fishing contest that attracted so much attention last year. This year they are giving three prizes, one is $15.00 for the largest perch caught in Macatawa bay, the second is $10 for the next largest, and the third largest pulls out a $5.00 prize.

Last year there were hundreds of fishermen contesting for these prizes and at the same time they were having some fine sport, and brought home many a fish dinner in the bargain.

A FREAK EAR OF CORN APPEARS IN ALLEGAN COUNTY

Allegan Gazette—A queer freak of nature was brought to the Gazette office this week by Mr. Freeman Stratton of this city. It is an ear of corn produced in Cheshire instead of the silk parting from the kernels and disappearing in or before the husking, the filaments all remain and cover the corn out of sight. In time of growth there is a strand of silk attached to each germ in the ear. Fertilization and growth is accomplished by pollen falling on the tips of the new silk and being conducted through them to the germs before they begin to develop into kernels.

Miss Nellie Churchford is in Ann Arbor with one of her flock who needs surgical attention.

WATCH FOR THE YELLOW LIGHT SAYS CHIEF*MOTORISTS START TOO FAST WHEN THE BELL RINGS

Many complaints have come in from pedestrians to Chief Van Ry, telling him that foot passengers are not given time enough to make the crossing, even though the crossing lights give them ample time to get over.

Drivers are to quick on the gas when the bell rings for a change, and Mr. Van Ry asks motorists to mind the light and not go until the signal is fully green, and not the intermediate light of yellow.

The yellow light is for the safety of those on foot, giving them ample time to get out of harm's way.

It seems that other cities are not unlike Holland judging from an editorial in the Grand Rapids Press recently, headed: "Yellow Light." The Press says:

"An eight-year-old Grand Rapids boy was injured last week when the lights at an intersection changed just as the youngster and his mother were crossing the street. 'This spring the city was notified that to avoid accidents of this type and give the pedestrians a fair chance to cross the street the yellow light was to ring for ten seconds. During that period all motor traffic was to come to a complete stop. Pedestrians already in the street with the green light were to have the full ten seconds to get across before the lights turned against them. Pedestrians waiting for the green lights were to have ten seconds start, getting them across well out into the street before traffic making right hand turns could swing in from behind."

"The attempt to enforce or even seriously apply this plan has been abandoned. The yellow light has become once more simply an extra period for speedsters to make the corner before the red light goes on. Pedestrians run out at haphazard, regardless of lights. The ten seconds has fallen to varying periods according to the intersection; downtown it is only five. The whole value of the pedestrian's interval has been sacrificed. It has succeeded elsewhere and it could succeed here."

Rev. C. P. Dame, of Trinity Reformed church, will give as his subject Sunday night "His Reasonableness." This is one of the series in his major sermon subject "The Man Everybody ought to Know."

At least one hundred pastors who attended the conference held here this week are now on the way to their homes after one of the most successful meetings for some time. The ministers from abroad are loud in their praises for Holland and Holland hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garland of Holland, Mr. and Mrs. John Sierberkorn and sons Lester and Donald of Zeeland and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens, Virginia Lavange and Donald Owens of Olive township, were among the many guests who took part in the surprise birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Nicholas De Witt of Grand Haven. There were thirty-five guests present from different parts of the county.

FOUR-PIECE MIXING SET FOR 25 CENTS

On Page six of this issue Mead & Westrate tells how you can get a 4-piece mixing set for 25 cents. The picture of the set is also shown in the announcement. Turn to page six.—Adv.

NEW FIRM TO MAKE MORE IMPROVEMENTS*MEAD AND WESTRATE PUT CLOAKROOM ON THE SECOND FLOOR

Mead & Westrate, the new dry goods firm, who now occupy the beautiful store building erected by A. H. Meyer, the present store man, are already talking of expansion with a bargain basement, to be completed by next spring.

The new firm is occupying two floors with dry goods on the ground and second floors, a beautiful large cloakroom on the floor above, connected by a staircase in the rear.

The cloak department has wall cases containing cloaks and dresses, with a fitting room tucked away to one side.

The center of the room is covered with a large rug in blue with plenty of mirror effect. The color scheme blends nicely throughout.

Between the first and second floors there is a mezzanine level used largely for a business office. The ground floor is also neatly arranged with the latest in shelving and show cases. The lighting arrangement for daylight or electric light is excellent and modern in every particular.

The store is 28x36 feet and the building has a great deal of show window space.

The new firm is already figuring on turning the basement into what will be known as a bargain basement, but this new venture will not be taken up until late in the winter. The proprietors of the store are Bert Mead, who conducted a similar store at Saugatuck and James Westrate, formerly of Holland, who for many years was connected with the Stern-Griswold Co. at Allegan. Both men are well equipped to conduct a dry goods store. The opening of the firm was last Saturday and the management states that at least 4,000 visitors inspected the new Eighth street enterprise.

It appears that some women in Ottawa county also see a future in the poultry industry judging from some correspondence from Forest Grove stating that Miss Margaret Strick was in East Lansing Thursday where she attended a meeting of the Michigan Poultry Improvement Association. At this meeting Miss Strick was elected vice-president of the newly organized Michigan Record of Performance Association which is a subsidiary of the Michigan Poultry Improvement Association. Miss M. Strick is the younger of two sisters operating the Strick hatchery, three miles south of Forest Grove.

REV. HAGER HAS MOVED HIS FAMILY HERE*HAS JOINED THE HOPE COLLEGE FACULTY STAFF

Rev. Harry Hager and family have moved from Forest Grove to 322 Columbia Ave., Holland. Mr. Hager is now on the Hope College staff having accepted a position.

From a correspondent at Forest Grove it appears the church Mr. Hager has served for nearly three years regret exceedingly his leaving.

Mr. Hager delivered his farewell sermon to an audience that taxed the capacity of the church. The correspondent also states that a reception was also tendered Rev. and Mrs. Hager and was held in the church building and practically the entire congregation was present at this last meeting with our beloved pastor and his helpmate, at which Mr. A. Vander Wall presided. It was opened with a short song service and remarks by Mr. Vander Wall. Prayer was offered by C. Keizer. The following gave short talks: Mr. Dekker for the congregation; Mr. Dick De Koning for the choir; Alex. Klooster for the Sunday school teachers; Mrs. Walter Van Dam for the Women's Mission Society; Mr. John K. Klooster for the Adult Bible Class. Responses were given by Rev. Hager and Mrs. Hager.

The cabins of the muskrat in the swamps nearby are well thatched and ready for winter occupancy.

Jake Fris of Fris Book store is having his show windows remodeled. The inside glass is being removed and finely finished backgrounds in wood will be substituted.

Rev. Albert Baker of St. Anne, Illinois, is attending the General Synod of the Reformed churches and also visiting with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rezelman.

E. J. MacDermann of Zeeland, who underwent a serious operation at St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, Monday, is reported improving, and will leave the hospital shortly.

One of the lodges at Muskegon has made Buster Keaton a life member of the local chapter, but doubtless this, like all other attempts to make the comedian smile, will be a failure.

County Farm agent C. P. Millham is to stage a movie county farm meeting at Olive town hall on Friday, Oct. 15. All are invited. The films to be shown are: "Proper Use of Dynamite"; "Shall I Buy a Tractor"; and "Club Work for Boys and Girls."

Dr. Raymond Lee Anglemire of Saugatuck is the Democratic candidate for state senator and he is making a whirlwind campaign thru Allegan, Barry and Van Buren counties. If he makes an impression on these three most rock-ribbed Republican counties he sure is a whirlwind.

Tomorrow Lecture Course Reserves

Tomorrow at one o'clock sharp, the reserving of seats for Hope College Lecture Course begins, and no doubt a line of patrons will be on the job a half hour early in order to be first.

It is understood that no persons can reserve more than six seats at one time. That will be a hard and fast rule tomorrow at Hui-zenga's Jewelry store where the reservation chart is found, and where all tickets will be reserved.

Remember the time is one o'clock Friday, the place is Hui-zenga's Jewelry store on 8th street.

RURAL PHONES WILL COME HIGHER FROM NOW ON*BELL COMPANY RAISES TO $2 A MONTH ON OUTSIDE PHONES

From now on, manager Ripley of the Bell Telephone company, states that the rates on rural phones will be raised from $1.75 a month to $2.00 on all residence phones, that is those phones that are within three miles of the city limits. An added twenty-five cents will have to be paid by all rural subscribers who live more than three miles from the city. In other words there is a raise on phone rates, on every three miles or a fraction of three miles of 25 cents.

If the phone is located within three miles of the city limits, it cost 25 cents more. If it is beyond the three mile limit it costs 50 cents more and nine miles will cost 75 cents more, etc.

Mr. Ripley states that, there will be no raise in city phone rates although the company has made application for a raise. The raise cannot possibly be made until this is definitely decided by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission. It is up to this body to fix the rate and when it shall be operative.

Grand Rapids is getting a double dose, for phone rates in the city as well as in the rural districts have been raised.

With the first frost arriving late leaves are just beginning to color. The Indians call this season, "The Moon of the Falling Leaf."

Dr. C. W. Lane of London, England, who has been lecturing for a week in Holland in the churches, college and schools and at the Ministers conference, left last night for Chicago where he will give a series of lectures before the students at the Moody Bible Institute.

The city has put a signal light at the River Ave. and 15th St. intersection to make safe this dangerous crossing for students from the Junior high and high school within that block. The danger light together with the high school traffic cops should make the highway comparatively safe for children. The signal light is of the same type as the ones on River avenue and 8th St.

News Items taken from Files of Holland City, News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today*FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Holland had only three trains a day to Grand Rapids over the Chicago, Michigan & Lake Shore R.R., one at 5 a. m., another at 3:30 p. m., and at 8:25 p. m. There was a midnight train for home as now.

Apples sold at 25c per bushel, eggs 15 cents a dozen, butter 18c per pound, wood $1 per cord.

J. E. Higgins of Holland got a first premium on his new patent air tight butter tub. That tub is one of the few inventions that may be classed as a necessary article and he is daily receiving orders for manufacture.

Our correspondent at Grand Haven writes about the effects of the terrible gale of Monday. He says that the schooner "Two Charlies" owned by Klaas Brouwer of Grand Haven went to pieces against the south pier. The schooner Minnie Corlette of Muskegon; H. D. Moore of Saugatuck and large inland Queen owned by Squelers & White of Grand Haven all loaded with lumber went on the beach near the north pier. The schooner Hattie Earl lost her rudder, but made the harbor safely. The surf boat of the life saving crew rescued the crew of the Island Queen and Corlette. The following vessels put into this harbor for safety, the scows South Haven, A. Fredericks, Skinner, U. S. Grant, and Granger. Schooners Myrtle, Hattie Earl, J. Tibbets and Elm City.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

McKinley, H. Boone's trotter has lowered his record to 2:19 1-4 and is now eligible for a 2:20 class. Holland's horse won another race at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday.

The death of Mrs. H. Vander Berg, wife of Dr. Vander Berg occurred at Zeeland.

Mrs. Rose D. Fileman and Cornelius Hoffman were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wm. Hayes, 13 West Eighth street, Rev. J. Bergen officiating.

George H. Hui-zenga, a well known and popular young man of Holland who was formerly of the firm of Martin and Hui-zenga, drug store, will open a jewelry store at 36 East 8th street. He is a graduate of the Waltham Horological college. Note—The firm is still in existence and is managed by Joe Koolker. Mr. Hui-zenga died more than 15 years ago. The Martin & Hui-zenga drug store is now the Model. Forty years ago it was Yates & Kane drug store, the partners being Dr. O. E. Yates once mayor and Peter Kane. Both men have passed on many years ago.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The Percy Mayhew Co., manufacturers of a sanitary comforter, is making use of a machine that picks out the impurities from raw cotton shipped here from the south and renders the cotton ready for use. Mr. Mayhew is now shipping his product all over the country. Note—The shop in question is now the Komforter Kotton Co., managed very successfully by Al Van Duren. This company has made tremendous strides since local capital became interested.

There were two minor auto accidents in Zeeland the past week. Marion Ypma, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ypma, was run down by a Ford roadster driven by Ed Lanning. The child was badly bruised about the head and received an ugly cut in one hand.

Although serious the injuries are not dangerous. Another accident occurred when little Freddie Hietje was returning home from school. He was run down by Joe Wentzeldyk. When the child was picked up from the pavement it was found to be unconscious and an arm was badly bruised.

SUIT BROUGHT VS. MACATAWA RESORT COMPANY*MRS. UNA ANTISDALE CHARGES DISCRIMINATION IN WATER AND LIGHT SERVICE

A suit charging discrimination in the matter of furnishing light and water privileges to three cottages owned by Mrs. U. Antisdale at Macatawa Park has been started by Mrs. Antisdale against the Macatawa resort association and against Swan A. Miller, president of that association. The suit was filed on a summons with County Clerk Wilds at Grand Haven and the summons was served by Deputy Sheriff Henry Lugers.

The case is the culmination of a dispute that is of long standing in regard to the conditions under which water and light are furnished to residents at the park. Mrs. Antisdale charges discrimination and asks for damages. It is expected that the case will come up for early consideration in circuit court.

DR. LANE WANTS ENGLAND AND AMERICA TO BE FRIENDLY

Dr. Lane of London, England, is anxious that England and America shall remain friendly. In an interview he stated, "I hope and pray that England and America may always remain friendly. That they may unite in the greater things of life and this especially as it relates to the Gospel. 'The union of these great people in religious work would be a blessing to the world and I hope that God will silence those who preach division between these two great nations.'"

MORE STOCK TO BE ADDED TO NEXT POULTRY SHOW*DOG AND PET SHOW WILL BE NEW FEATURES AT ARMORY

Secretary Ed Brouwer is making arrangements to compile the poultry catalogue to be in time for the 27th annual poultry show to be held at the new armory December 14-18.

Poultry is going to be the dominant feature of course and will occupy the ground floor of the large armory. However the basement, not used before, will be given up to a dog bench show that proved so popular at the Holland fair in August.

Then there is to be a rabbit and pet stock show in connection with which will include pigeons, squirrels, rabbits, guinea pigs, etc.

Herman Bekker is to be the superintendent of poultry, and Lewis and Helene Van Wezel are to be dog superintendents while Dewey Jaarsma will supervise the pet stock. Mr. Brouwer states that for variety nothing bigger has been attempted before and these different departments will attract many more to the whole show.

The Holland Poultry association is the pioneer of poultry raising in Ottawa county. Twenty-seven years ago there were no poultry men in Holland or Zeeland. The farmers had some scrub hens but these were simply those that foraged behind the reaper, and the eggs had to be hunted up in hay stacks.

Today Ottawa county has a hen population of 600,000, not counting the roosters and the product sold last year amounted to more than three million dollars in money.

Mr. Brouwer states that systematic publicity and a campaign of education through the local papers covering many years followed up by poultry association work was the foundation that built up this large industry.

He stated that few people realized the magnitude of poultry business in lower Ottawa county. It is an industry that leaves much money in a community and the source of this money is from abroad and not from the community itself.

At a recent board meeting Dirk Derks was named vice-president of the Holland Poultry association in the place of Arent Siersema who is now in Boston.

ZEELAND WILL LOOSE MORE WHEN RY QUILTS*HAS ONLY LEAN SERVICE OVER THE PERE MARQUETTE

The Zeeland Record is complaining bitterly that the change in the Pere Marquette schedule has brought a hardship on Zeeland people. This paper will still have more reason to complain when the Holland Interurban starts running shortly. Says the Record:

"With the revised passenger train schedule of the Pere Marquette, Zeeland suffers unreasonably from the public's viewpoint. Of course, if the railroads are going to embark on a thorough regime of purchasing and operating all bus lines as feeders for main line traffic, it may be that the public can be adequately served by carrying all small town passengers by bus to the larger centers and have them embark for their rail destinations. But until such a program is in effect, the public will suffer, and the railroads will be severely criticized and lose favor in a still larger degree, with the public."

"Mail service for Zeeland is now rather lean, not only that, but it is being routed in a roundabout way to accomplish delivery. This involves a loss of time, which several have noticed to the chagrin."

"We are not as badly situated as Hudsonville is. If our citizens can derive sufficient consolation out of that probably they will bear patiently with the decrees of the powers that be."

DR. LANE SAYS HOLLAND MUST BE A SAINTLY TOWN

Evangelist says that this city is most beautiful.

It appears that Holland will share with Central Park the name, that it is a saintly place. The report west of us has been called "The saintly town" for the reason that a score of pastors from abroad spend their summers there.

Dr. W. R. Lane, evangelist from London, England, who was one of the speakers of the Reformed Church synod at Winants, chapel in Zeeland, Sunday at 1st Reformed church gave as his subject that Holland was the most beautiful city of its size he had ever visited in all his travels, and if cleanliness was next to Godliness, as the saying goes, then Holland must be a God-fearing town, and if beauty is a good thing, then Holland must be a good place.

Dr. Lane stated that he had written his daughter telling her of this beautiful city, located on beautiful lakes, and wrote further that no where had he found a people imbued with such community spirit and such wholesome religious environments, and such excellent educational advantages as here.

In conclusion Dr. Lane congratulated the citizens of Holland that someone with a wonderful foresight had selected a spot so ideal as the place where Holland is now located. "The credit of course goes to Dr. Van Raaie the founder of our city."

PASSENGERS SHAKEN UP AS INTERURBANS CRASH

A head-on collision of two cars on the Holland line of the Michigan R.R. company resulted in damage to the cars and a shaking up of the passengers early yesterday morning on State St. Grandville. A dense fog prevailed at the time and the first car, eastbound, in charge of George Roseboom of Grand Rapids, was a half mile in the block when the second car, in charge of C. L. Phillips of Grand Rapids, loomed ahead. Both motorists applied brakes, but were unable to stop quickly enough to avoid the crash.

WILL CONTINUE DOCTRINAL SERMON SERIES

Next Sunday morning Rev. F. J. Van Dyk, pastor of the Central Park church will resume the preaching on a series of doctrinal sermons for a general theme, "Religion and Morality." Sermons on the following subjects comprise the remainder of the series "The Object of Religious Worship," "Moral Worship," "The Test of Moral Cleanliness," "Work and Worship," "The Family Relation," "The Sacraments of Life," "Personal Purity," "The Rights of Property," "Truthfulness," "The Sin We're Afraid to Mention." Mrs. E. Teusink and Mrs. Ed Cook will sing a duet at the morning service. The evening sermon subject will be, "The Challenge of Impossibility." The special music will be furnished by Miss Cornelia Nottings. A most cordial welcome awaits all who come and worship at Central Park.

The city ministers' conference comprising the pastors of the Reformed denomination at a meeting elected the following officers: president, Rev. C. P. Dame; vice president, Rev. A. Maatman; secretary, Rev. Dr. William Masselink. The meeting was held at the 14th Street Christian Reformed church, and Dr. Lane of London England was the speaker.

city mission, an institution that for a quarter of a century has served the people of Holland and that has won the respect of all classes of people.

Architecturally the new mission fits in well with any building of its size in Holland. There is a story connected with the drawing up of the plans that is of interest. A piece of work of that kind, if paid for at the usual rates, would have cost a good deal of money and the committee would probably not have been able to secure the services of a first-class architect. But the building was designed and the plans drawn up by one of the best known architects in America and it did not cost a cent.

It so happens that some months ago F. E. Davidson, of Chicago, became a resident of this community, purchasing the beautiful summer home formerly occupied by J. H. Himebaugh. Mr. Davidson is interested in Holland and in the mission and he has generously donated his professional services and that is how it was possible to secure for the building of an architect of national recognition.

Since establishing his home near Central Park Mr. Davidson has been commuting between that place and Chicago. He expects to continue to maintain his office in Chicago for some years. He is past-president of the Illinois Society of Architects, a member of the American Institute of Architects, the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Industrial Engineers, the National Fire Protection Association, and other technical and professional bodies.

"I feel that I have designed a real workable plan for this church," said Mr. Davidson, "and I hope it is a building of which the building committee and the city of Holland may be proud. However, my specialty as an architect is industrial buildings and manufacturing plants. I take it that the city mission may more properly be classified as a church. Certainly it would not be stretching one's imagination too much if Miss Churchford's work were classified as one of the real needful industries."

Work on the new city mission building is in full swing and before very many more months have passed, Miss Churchford and her work will be able to move into the permanent quarters of the mission, donated to that institution through the generosity of the people of Holland who, responding to an appeal made by the chamber of commerce mission building committee, contributed the money with which to erect the beautiful new mission home.

Above is the architect's drawing of how the new building will look when completed. Located on River avenue north of the First State Bank, it will be a beautiful addition to that section of the city and it will be a credit to Holland. In it will be centered the activities of the

FIFTY THOUSAND VISIT CONVICT SHIP IN HOLLAND

The convict ship "Success" has left Holland harbor and was towed out of this port to Muskegon harbor where the ship expects to be stationed for some time. Captain Smith was not prepared to state just how many visitors have been aboard the convict ship in Holland but he believed it was in the neighborhood of 50,000.

Captain Smith Saturday expressed great satisfaction and gave his thanks to the citizens of Holland who have made the stay of the ship a success in this port.

"It is a fact," he said, "that we would probably never have come into this port if it had not been for a letter received from a representative of the Sentinel who tried to persuade us to dock in Holland during the time you were celebrating your Venetian Nights. At that time we were in St. Joseph and the chamber of commerce in that city was giving us such an operation that it would have been unfair to them to leave their resort."

"As Hollanders now know, the convict ship is under federal control and such being the case, we are permitted to exhibit in any city every day including Sunday. We were informed of the situation regarding Sunday opening in Holland and rather than antagonize those good people who believe in Sunday closing, we had almost determined to eliminate Holland from our itinerary. I want Hollanders to know that we are not unsympathetic to their beliefs but naturally, with Sunday the day when we expect our largest crowds, we would not go anywhere our rights could not be respected."

"I am very happy to say that our experience in Holland has shown us conclusively that your citizens are as broad-minded as those of any city. We have done our utmost to respect their viewpoint and we feel that they have respected ours. The large crowds that we have brought to the city have added work to the police department but this work has been cheerfully done as a public duty. We are informed that these visitors have added to the prosperity of Holland and there is nothing that gives us greater pleasure than that which Hollanders may well be proud and although the convict ship must necessarily leave, never to return, as we have much territory to cover the splendid spirit that is everywhere apparent in Holland sends my crew and myself away from here as Holland boosters. So many of your citizens have contributed to the pleasure of our stay here that it is impossible for me to thank them individually as I would wish, but I want them all to know how much we appreciate their every good thought and action toward us. I hope my next action toward us will be good friends among the Holland newspaper men will convey my good wishes to them."

At a mass meeting held by the student body of Hope college it was voted to reject the honor code by a vote of 144 to 50. Many students seem to hold the idea that the honor system merely was a cloak for the cribber and the sense of the meeting seemed to be that an ineffective honor code was worse than none.

There was intense interest at the recently held meeting, with Melvin Lubbers presiding. After reading the code, Mr. Lubbers, president of the student council, asked for a debate on the question and the speakers heard were Bruno Bruns, Betty Moir, E. Fell, and Pete De Rutter.

The argument was rather one-sided. The reason why the honor code is undesirable, it is argued, is its evident failure as a practical means of preventing dishonest work among students. Since it fails to attain its purpose, why retain it? Further, a rejection of the system would not cast a reflection upon the college, as some seem to think. Outsiders, understanding the facts, would rather commend the student body on its wise decision. Such an action at the present time would not appear as questionable to the public as much comment as the necessity of its adoption formerly.

After the stated speakers had finished their argument, remarks from the floor were called for. Jay Wabeke expressed the opinion that the code did not work because it was faulty in principle since it is impossible to legislate a moral issue. Neil Van Oostenberg spoke in defense of the system, urging caution against lightly discarding an institution which was established as a necessity and was surely a deterrent to keep some from doing dishonest work.

Although the majority of the students present were for abolition of the honor system, according to the provisions of the code it requires a three-fourths majority to revoke it. Since so large a majority was not obtained, and only about half the students were present, the code is still in force and another mass meeting will probably be called.

FAIR BODY IN GOOD SHAPE

The community fair directors at Holland are to hold a meeting at the office of the secretary, John Arendshorst, on Nov. 1. The financial condition of the fair is excellent and the annual report of the secretary will show a debt of $14,000 on an estimated property valuation of $120,000.

Plans for the coming year will include an addition to the grandstand which will increase the seating capacity from 3,000 to 6,000, enlargement of the first building and an exclusive building for automobile display. More accommodations also will be needed for the home demonstration department with an increase of a dozen clubs planning to make displays.

Chief Van Ry was asked to have men watch for a car driven by and Bechoult of South Haven was reported to be headed this with a 17-year-old girl from Bend, Indiana, whom he is to have induced to elope.

WORKER HURT IN CAVE-IN AT SPRING LAKE

Emil Knutsen, a tile layer working for the Royce Hultgren Co., laying the sewer system in Spring Lake was caught in a cave-in of the sewer trench Tuesday morning, which caused a great deal of anxiety for a time.

The man was buried in the sand chest high, but his head was saved somewhat from smothering in the sand by the sheetlining meeting over his head and protecting him. He was taken out in a semi-conscious condition after the twenty-five men worked frantically for an hour and fifteen minutes trying to get him out. A hole ten feet wide had to be dug to get him out.

The Grand Haven city ambulance was called and it took the man to Hattson hospital where his condition was said to be serious. Bleeding from the mouth indicated that his chest and lungs had evidently been squeezed by the terrific pressure of the cave in.

The accident occurred near the Savidge estate, while the men were laying the tile. Adequate sheeting and the cave-in came about by warning by the slipping of the jacks and breaking down of the sheet lining. The excessive rains of the last weeks may have had something to do with the softness of the earth and general weakening of the holdings.

Little could be learned from the man as he was more or less overcome by his experience. He has been working at the Spring Lake sewer job about three weeks and it is thought that he came from Minneapolis. He is about 45 years old and is unmarried.

Nothing has been added to the information that the sheriff's office had Sunday on the raids made on the stores in Lamont, Spring Lake and West Olive on Thursday night, when it is believed six men or boys in a sedan raided these stores, taking money, checks and merchandise.

The only clues left were six soiled shirts and two pairs of trousers left in the woods after the raiders had satisfied themselves with a lunch and evidently thought a change in raiment would improve them. The officers have notified all surrounding cities, and unless the gang is swallowed up in the big city of Chicago the members may be apprehended.

The state police who have also been at work on the case, took the telephone which was found open in the store to Lansing to be fingerprinted. Two very good fingerprints were found which may lead to the identification of the raiders who broke into this store and possibly the ones who made the break in the store. If they are criminals they will not be hard to identify some of the individuals, as every jail in the country now takes the fingerprints of every prisoner. The records are being searched but to date nothing has been learned.

Miss Carrie Williams will be in Ottawa Oct. 12-13 to begin her clothing work for the year. The clothing work has grown in popularity. It is expected that between 30 and 32 groups will organize for the work, comprising about 500 women. Problems involved in the use of commercial patterns will be topics for discussion during the winter.

Going beyond the expectations of even their most ardent admirers the Holland high school football team covered itself with glory Saturday afternoon at Island Park, Grand Rapids, when they displayed football brawn and knowledge that won them even the plaudits from the opposing team and rooters. Going into the set to win many a hand, the team's coaches and eleven threw all predictions to the wind and caused the biggest upset in football circles so far in state circles this season.

Outweighed 8 pounds to the man, with only two veterans on the squad, Holland soon began to function as a few local teams ever had. Looking small against the big Truesdale crowd, the lighter aggregation fought back time and again, and had not injuries set them back, they might have had an even score, as they were close several times.

Every Holland man played as he never played before and the fans went home talking about this wonder crew which accomplished what few other teams larger than they have, when they put the Union team back against their own goal line several times. Hinga surely worked with splendid results a steeb boys out-smarted Union most of the way.

Union had not been scored upon in 18 games and they play the state's best team, Lewie Elenbas, first year man at the local level. Looking small against the dashed 93 yards to a touchdown in the third quarter. Receiving a punt on his own 2 yard line, the plucky little back evaded player after player and as pandemonium reigned in the stands he raced down the south side of the field to a touchdown. He then stepped back and coolly kicked goal for the extra point.

ODD CHARACTERS ARE DESCRIBED AS RAW MATERIALS

(By Ruth von Bach Van Duren)

On Tuesday afternoon the Women's Literary club resumed its meetings at the club house with a program of more than usual interest. Mr. Arnold Mulder was the speaker of the day and Miss Ethelyn Metz gave a musical adaptation of Longfellow's "King Robert of Sicily," from the "Tales of a Wayside Inn."

The subject was the first of two studies of the novel and concerned itself with the raw material from which the novelist spins his stuff of dreams. As a literary artist Mr. Mulder holds firmly to realism, preferring the authority of living characters drawn from personal contact to synthetic romance or the fictional propaganda of the pseudo-scientist.

Listening to the amusing and penetrating portrait-anecdotes of contemporary local characters, Tolstol's definition of art came to mind. "Art is a human activity consisting in this, that one man consciously, by means of certain external signs, hands on to others feelings he has lived through and that other people are infected by these feelings and also experience them. Mr. Mulder effected this transfer of feelings.

The several persons recreated were listed by the speaker as "nuts" or "cranks," and these categories were further defined as applicable to those persons whose temperaments or enthusiasms led them far enough from convention's beaten path to make them odd, and therefore, interesting. In a word, the "nut" or "crank" is a highly developed individual of that type, who may, given the break of circumstance, succeed, and thereafter he lauded by a fickle world as a genius.

Mr. Mulder's characters included the retired clergymen who alone of all the world completely understood and could interpret the Book of Revelation. He found a place in the author's "The Sand Doctor." Another was the utterly unworried but very earnest student of psychology and philosophy who seemed to write movie scenarios. Still another was a gentle octogenarian artist, who gave his life to the pursuit of beauty, who lived through lean, humble and happy years in this pursuit without ever once imprisoning beauty on canvas. His life typified the reverse of Croce's definition of art. "Art is expression," for true as that may be, all expression is not art. The last was the self-styled "orchardist," who knew each apple on his trees by its first name, who recorded the readings of this thermometer three daily through his entire life, who fixed his unswerving attention on the minute happenings in the insect world as Fabre or Darwin did, who busied himself collecting facts which had no market value and thereby kept himself sane and balanced under the burden of a great secret sorrow.

Raw material for the novelist! It is to be found everywhere in the seemingly commonplace. Since it is true that originality is but a pale of new eyes, there is much to be found in Holland, for no community goes more sturdily and invincibly along its own racial trend of development than one of Dutch extraction. It produces strong individuals.

Mr. Mulder's speech left a message of dual portent with its listeners; one, of the value of tolerance and another, of the creative inspiration to be found in contemporary life. Surely life would be more interesting if we were to adopt the formula of tolerant observation and let each man enjoy his own idiosyncrasies without attempting to mold them to personal prejudice. Surely life would become even more interesting if we were to record these idiosyncrasies in words or music or pigment.

Contrasting the lives and work of the two outstanding English novelists of the Victorian period, Dickens and Thackeray. Prof. Egbert Winter of Hope College opened the year's program of the Social Progress Club Tuesday evening when that organization held its first session since the summer vacation at the home of Principal and Mrs. J. J. Riemersma.

Prof. Winter's subject was "Dickens vs. Thackeray," but he did not exalt the one writer to the detriment of the other, as is often done by persons who are either admirers of the one or the other. He pointed out that the two great novelists are so radically different that their work hardly touches at any point.

Dickens, as described by Professor Winter, portrayed the lower strata of English life and he did this in a masterly way. Whenever he tried to portray the higher levels of society he was only moderately successful or failed completely. Thackeray on the other hand was a master in the portrayal of persons in the higher walks of life. Dickens had many qualities that mark him as a very great novelist, but Mr. Winter carefully analyzed those qualities. On the other hand, he also had some qualities, as for instance his bathos, that are serious blemishes on the artistic quality of his work. Thackeray had many qualities of an entirely different kind that have made his work live and that will continue to make his books read, and he on the other hand also had defects that detract from his artistic excellence.

The work of the two men was painstakingly analyzed by the speaker and his conclusion pointed to the fact that it is in place to be a warm admirer of both writers. He also described the lives of the two novelists and showed how the circumstances of the life of each influenced the work of each.

Rev. Dr. R. Drucker, pastor of the 3rd Christian Reformed church of Zeeland, former pastor of the 14th Street Christian Reformed church of Holland, announced to his congregation Sunday morning that he had accepted the call extended by a similar church in Passaic, N. ## CARDINALS CAPTURE WORLD SERIES CROWN

The St. Louis Cardinals are carrying home the bacon today, by winning two straight games at New York Saturday and Sunday. The Cardinals have raised the World Series pennant and St. Louis has gone wild. In Saturday's game St. Louis won very decisively by a score of 10 to 2. Sunday's game, the deciding game, won by St. Louis, was very close, the score being 2 to 3 in favor of the Cardinals.

BOYS AND GIRLS TO ORGANIZE POULTRY CLUB

One project which should interest boys and girls in many sections of Ottawa county is the boys' and girls' poultry club for egg production.

The purpose of the club is to encourage boys and girls in poultry work and to encourage them to fit in good laying stock. The plan is to start the club activities before November 1st next. Each club member should start with ten to twenty pullets, keep an accurate account of expenses and receipts and report on regular blanks to the agricultural agent.

Members will be given instructions in housing, feeding, management, the building of feed hoppers, water stand, roosts and traps. Members must learn candling of eggs, preserving and marketing, culling, must exhibit at some show.

Agricultural Agent Milham is offering his assistance in organizing such a club in any section of the county. Any community or organization interested should communicate at once with him.

Mrs. Louise H. Campbell has been in Ottawa county to speak to different groups in the county on the organization of extension work as a whole and separately concerning Ottawa county. The meetings held in Zeeland, James-town, Peach Plains and Coopersville were well attended and splendid response came from the women.

These meetings were preliminary to the county organization work for the winter. The plan for the year is to have two household management centers and four centers for clothing. Miss Edna V. Smith, household management specialist from M. S. C., will be in the county to give instruction. The clothing centers will be in James-town, Grand Haven, Coopersville and Zeeland. Miss Carrie Williams, the clothing specialist, will be in charge of two centers and the home demonstration agent will be in charge of the other two. The number of groups enrolled in the centers will determine where Miss Williams is to be in charge.

Between thirty and forty groups have enrolled for the work this year. All groups wishing to take the work should notify the home demonstration agent as soon as possible. In order that they may be located in a center before the work is begun.

An answer was filed in the Muskegon circuit Friday by the county in the suit brought by Wm. O. Mathews, William Elyke and Macdonald estates. The suit involves title to a park tract given to the county by Addis E. Lloyd and Sarah E. Lloyd.

The park tract in question is on White Lake and Mr. & Mrs. Lloyd gave the property to the county with the understanding that a highway was to be constructed. Later, the plaintiffs brought suit against Mr. Lloyd to obtain possession of property in question. Judge Vanderwerf held with the plaintiff and decided that the title to the land rested with them.

Now, the plaintiffs are bringing the suit to settle title to the park property, a part of the original tract, which Judge Vanderwerf decided Mr. Lloyd did not own.

The goal posts on the football grounds at Riverview park will be decorated when the high school boys play at home. The high school council has assigned these duties to some of the different societies in the schools and the schedule for these societies to decorate follows:

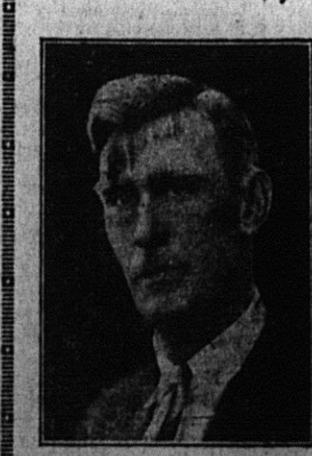

Oct. 2—Dnaloh High.
Oct. 23—Sigma Chi, Phi Beta.
Nov. 6—Atheneum.

CIRCUIT COURT TO OPEN THE TERM NOVEMBER FIRST

The calendar for the November term of circuit court in Ottawa county has been arranged by the county clerk, William Wilds, and Prosecuting Attorney Fred T. Miles, which will occupy the attention of the circuit court during the month of November. The term opens up on November 1, taking the first week to arrange the calendar further and hear a few default cases and arraignments. The following week the jury comes in and the regular routine of the court is begun.

The cases coming up for trial this term will cover the following: the people represented in the main by Prosecutor Miles against Clyde Horn for wife desertion; John Quinn for non-payment of alimony; John Lampe will come before the judge for sentence as will Ben Garret and Frank Gosh for violation of liquor laws. Arthur Van Hall, F. Coats, Fred Ennenga will appear for liquor violations, James A. Sinke of Holland for larceny; Clarence Helling, bastardy; John Naash for felonious assault; Henry Fluke, of Holland colored, statutory rape; Charles Ward, embezzlement; Walter Hyde breaking and entering and Fred Williams for the same cause.

This completes the criminal calendar and will be the last time the case will be represented by Prosecutor Fred T. Miles who has been the prosecuting attorney for the last ten years, and a most familiar figure in the court room where he has ably handled the county's interests.

Several civil cases will come up, among them the case of Rollin Williams and C. Ballow against the City of Grand Haven.

This has come up many times, being a damage suit for recovery on the death of the two Muskegon men who ran off the dock at the foot of Washington street and were drowned two years ago in October. This case has been deferred many times and it may go the same way during this present term.

The call of the Allegan circuit court calendar showed an unusual number of cases ready for trial. Of the criminal section Guy Gibbs and Guy Mankin pleaded guilty to a charge of violation of the prohibition law as did Bert Emery. Pleas of not guilty were entered for Everett Snyder on a charge of keeping a gaming table, Albert Meulbert for violation of the liquor law; Melborn and Cecil Poyers for embezzlement; John Meyer and Frank Davis for burglary. Ray Brininger pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while drunk and Fred Westers to a violation of the prohibition law. The cases against Walter August for assault and battery, and Manford Roberts, George Bushroo, May Grimes and Robert Robertson for violation of the prohibition law were announced ready for trial; and the first is on trial for today. In the case of Bill Thompson for violation of the prohibition law a motion to suppress evidence will be argued Oct. 12.

In the civil jury cases the several cases of F. B. Todd & Sons vs. Pennsylvania Railway company were announced settled. Seventeen cases were announced ready for trial. This looks like plenty of work for the jury.

In the chancery division James Crill et al. vs. Simon Young et al. was dismissed. A large number of cases were announced ready. Nine divorce suits, in which there had been no progress for a year, were dismissed.

The Home Economics program under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Morley County Demonstration Agent, is getting under way for the winter and plans and outlines are in readiness for a winter of unusual activity and delight on the part of the rural women of this county.

One meeting was devoted to the study of kitchen arrangement, the placing of furniture and equipment both as to time and labor saving placements, and to saving of space. Plans of the kitchen as they are and then a rearrangement after a careful study had been made of the existing conditions under which the kitchen would have to remain. The height of sinks, tables and other furniture that would relieve many back-breaking hours, was another feature of this discussion.

Miss Carrie Williams will be in the county Oct. 11 and 13th, to begin her clothing work for the year. This work has grown in popularity and it is expected between 30 and 32 groups will organize for work during the coming winter comprising about five hundred women.

One of the subjects for study will be the commercial pattern and its adaptation to personal needs and wide spread use of this invention. Plans of adjusting it to figures not in perfect proportion.

The question of girls' clubs is also under discussion. Whether there is need or not for these organizations is not known. C. P. Milham, who organized Boys Clubs all over the county has certainly demonstrated that these are very successful and the exhibit at the Fairs this fall were proof of what this organization is accomplishing.

If there is a desire for a girls organization the Demonstration Agent should be notified, and everything done to promote these clubs which in many parts of the state are proving very popular.

The Home Guards of the First M. E. church have elected the following officers: President, Glen Loveland; vice pres., Carol Thompson; treas., Geneva Burdick; sec., Barbara Evans; mite box sec'y, Emily Hope Evans; birthday sec'y, Ella Harris; pianist, Marian Te Roller.

Plans are being made for a hallo-wen party to be held at the home of Miss Barbara Evans on Thursday evening, Oct. 28th. All Home Guards are asked to meet at the church at 4:30. This will be a costume party. Pot luck supper will be served. Each one is asked to bring something for pot luck.

Coopersville handed Grandville a severe beating Friday at Coopersville. The Ottawa county team won the Kent county team by a score of 44 to 0.

Give Farewell Salute To The Convict Ship

The tooting of the boat whistles heard Sunday night was a farewell to the Goodrich captain and crew to Captain Smith and the crew of the convict ship "Success." The floating prison was docked here for more than a month and very friendly relations have sprung up during that time between the two crews. Capt. Smith, having no whistle aboard, brought out a large fog horn and responded in that way to the friendly salute. The saluting took place as the steamer Holland left for Chicago. The "Success" was towed out of Holland harbor Monday morning for Muskegon.

TO HOLD FARM BUREAU FESTIVAL IN NOVEMBER

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Ottawa county farm bureau, held in Grand Haven, it was decided to again stage a farm bureau festival this fall. This event has been an annual affair for Ottawa farmers and the decision to hold another this year is meeting with wide-spread approval. For two years past Alford has been the host to the festival and at the committee meeting it was thought best to see if Coopersville wished to play the part of host this year, and accordingly a number of the business men here have been interviewed and they have given their whole-hearted support to the project.

The festival will undoubtedly be held some time the fore part of November, and further particulars will be published at a later date, when further arrangements have been made. Prizes will be awarded to Granges, Gleasons, and farm bureau units making displays. Displays and single exhibits of women's work and of farm produce will feature the festival.

Emil H. Arnold, of Ann Arbor, of the Michigan State Board of Examiners in Optometry, has written the following letter to John Pieper in regard to the recent convention held here:

Friend Pieper:
Sorry I did not get over to your place again before leaving but the party was ready to leave and I had to hurry away before saying goodbye to you again. I am enclosing that little booklet of papers that I mentioned to you.

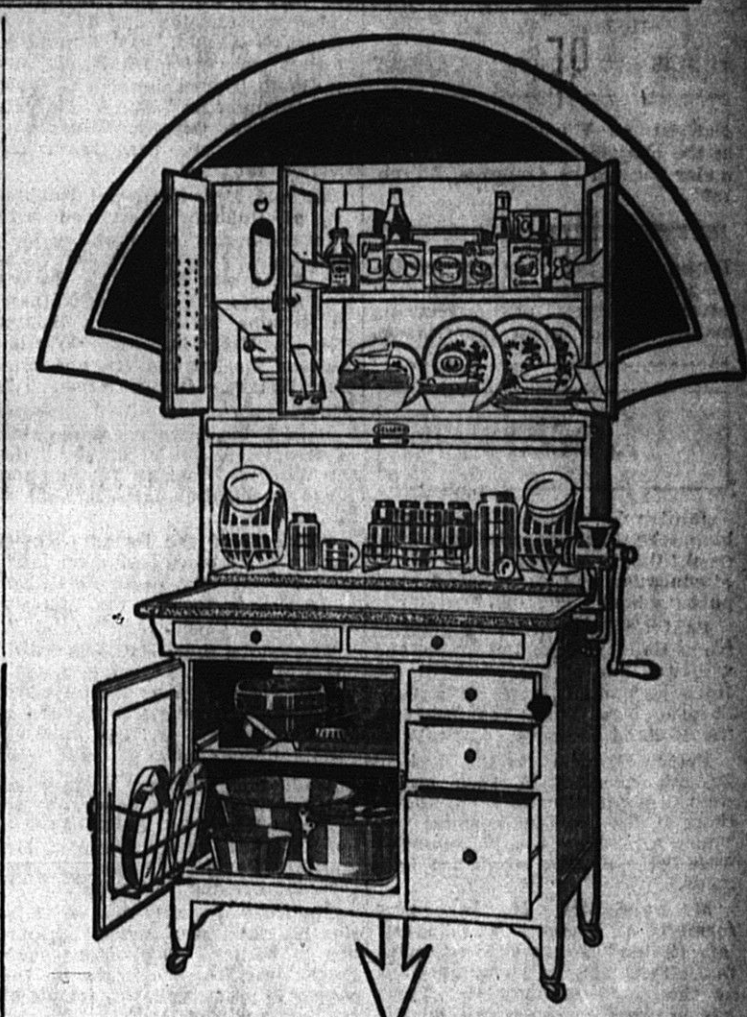

Now then let me add that it was a pleasure to meet in your city and I want to thank you for the spirit of your townspeople in assisting us to have such a very successful meeting. The personal help you gave us was needed but you may be pleased to know that I consider the meeting held in your city one of the best we ever had in point of arrangements even if the enrollment did not come up to the expectations.

You are certainly to be congratulated upon the completeness of your new Optometric equipment, as complete and well arranged office as I have ever wished to operate in and I hope you will acquaint the people of your vicinity with this fact. You would not be fair to them if you did not. I feel that people near you are fortunate in being able to avail themselves of services as can be rendered in your office.

Again I wish you success and will look forward to the next meeting in your city.

Sincerely yours,
Emil H. Arnold.

The board of supervisors went into session Monday afternoon. Much work is to be disposed of at this session.

BLOODY SMASHUP ON ELEVATOR IS AN EXCITING ONE

One person was probably fatally injured and four others were hurt when a car driven by W. E. Williams of Fremont crashed into a moving elevator at the Grand Haven on M-11.

Riding with Williams was Albert McComb of Flint, who is in the hospital at Grand Haven, with a fractured skull and possible internal injuries. Tingleer had as passengers Mrs. John Hensel and her daughter, Miss Ruth Hensel, of Fremont and Frank Plant of Nunica. The party was on the elevator when it crashed into the car Sunday with Mrs. Hensel's sister.

The Hensels, Williams and Tingleer also were taken to the hospital at Grand Haven, where their injuries were treated. The women were badly bruised and cut.

The steering gear on Williams' car was said to have broken and the vehicle struck Tingleer's car at high speed, although Tingleer had brought his car almost to a standstill on observing the plight of the other vehicle.

A member of the Ottawa county detachment of the state police, who arrived on the scene soon after the accident, made the statement that it was the worst wreck he had seen during the entire course of the summer. He declared he had been at wrecks where people had been killed but at none in which the cars were so badly smashed.

The Ford had almost literally doubled up, breaking in the middle and doubling up like a jack knife when it closes. The Williams' car, a brand new car, was so completely ruined that it was just possible for the wrecking crew to drag it out, only the hind wheels being intact. The rest of the car was one mass of splintered wreckage.

For an hour or two the roadside was a bloody shambles, the occupants of the two cars being covered with blood. They were taken to the hospital all except the driver of the Williams-Knight needing hospital care.

It seems to be the general opinion of the Holland Interurban officials that the road will be entirely extinct after the 20th of Oct. Grandville will be a loser in many ways that will be felt very keenly.

They could have done the worst to the hospital all except the driver of the Williams-Knight needing hospital care.

Two dinner dances will be given at the Otwellan Country club of Allegan in October. The first one will be Friday evening and the other will be a Halloween party Friday evening, Oct. 29.

Mrs. Walter Streuting, fifty-nine years a resident of Spring Lake township, died Sunday at her home north of Ferrysburg after a long illness. Mrs. Streuting was a native of the Netherlands in which country she was born sixty-six years ago. She came to America with her parents while a little girl and had spent her life in the farming section north of Ferrysburg.

A meeting called by the Parent-Teacher council of Allegan will be held in the Federated church Wednesday evening. All Parent-Teacher associations of the county have been invited to attend. Mrs. Maude Weaver of Cedar Springs will give an address on the work accomplished by these associations.

About 55 members of the Wolverine Beagle club arrived in Allegan Tuesday with 200 dogs for their fall field trials. The field trials will last two weeks, and the club expects to have a hundred more members there during that time. This is the fifth year the field tests have been held at Allegan.

Peter Zieunstra was arrested by Officer Bontekoe for allowing a person to ride upon the running board of his machine. Cecil Zieunstra, the offender, also was arrested before the justice and both were fined the court costs amounting to $3.70. Police are enforcing the new ordinance very rigidly.

BOLT STRIKES TWELVE SHEEP IN OPEN FIELD

Twelve sheep, lying in an open field during an electrical rain storm, were struck by lightning and killed on a farm in Green Oak township, near Holland, Mich., owned by George L. Tutill.

Sheep are seldom killed during a storm when they lie in an open field. They usually seek shelter under a tree during the rain.

A barn in the community was struck during the same storm.

JOY-RIDERS NABBED BY THE LOCAL POLICE

Officer Cramer arrested James Van Iwaarden Sunday night after the man had been chased into a vacant house by a crowd of young men who were waiting for him to bring back a car stolen from John Wolbert.

The Ford was parked near the Methodist church on 17th street Sunday night while the owner attended the services. Van Iwaarden, in company Benjamin Frans, took the car and enjoyed a ride, returning shortly after the vehicle was reported to have been stolen.

At first Van Iwaarden tried to give a fictitious name but finally he confessed and implicated Frans. They both appeared before Justice Van Schelven Monday morning and were bound over to circuit court, November term. The charge against them is unlawfully taking a motor vehicle and they will not be released on bonds.

OTTAWA CO. BOYS STOPPED AT ST. JOSEPH

The state police were notified by Sheriff Franz of St. Joseph that he had three boys wanted in Ottawa county and would hold them pending the arrival of an officer.

They are Charles Rose, aged 11, Leonard Rose, 12, and Lester Rose, aged 9 of Spring Lake.

These boys are alleged to have taken a letter from the mail box of J. M. Bennett, of Spring Lake, that contained a check of about $22. This check was endorsed by one of the boys and later cashed. Due to the fact that these boys are on probation, the parents were very anxious to handle the matter themselves. They paid the money to Mr. Bennett expecting to punish the boys in some way. However, the boys decided to take things in their own hands and Sunday night, October 3rd, disappeared. The officers were notified and immediately tried to get hold of the boys. The message from St. Joseph allayed the fears of the parents in a way. The boys were found on a train evidently headed for Chicago.

The state police will bring them back today, when they will be brot before Judge James Danhof, probate judge at Grand Haven. These boys are now on parole, having been implicated in the burglary of the Bertsche store in Vilsa Park last summer. It is alleged. Just what will be the disposition of the court in this case cannot be determined.

Coach Jackson and his Flint Junior College team took a decisive licking, Friday afternoon at Riverview Park when the Hope college team beat them 4-0. Hope scored in the first quarter, fumbling and seeming unable to get started. The second quarter saw the men going in better shape with Kleis contributing a long run of 40 yards and then stepping off 7 more for a touchdown.

Grand Rapids Press—Miss Martha Rich, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweet of Alexander street, Grand Rapids, will be married to Dr. Lyle S. Wilhelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilhelm of Traverse City, near Holland, which is the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rich.

Miss Rich recently resigned as director of the occupational therapy at Traverse City. After an extensive motor trip through the eastern and southern states the couple will go to Traverse City to reside.

The little son of Joe Lehman of Grand Haven had a rather narrow escape from possible injury on Monday evening when he fell out of a car which his father was driving. Mr. Lehman was driving off Washington at First. Making the corner rather sharply, the car tipped over and the little fellow was thrown out on the pavement. The curb was very near and had the youngster struck the sharp edge he might have been hurt severely. As it was nothing but skinned knees and fright were the consequences.

The regular monthly meeting of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Raymond, 18 East 16th St., at 3 P. M., Thursday. Reports of the state conference, which was held in Adrian, Mich., recently, will be given by Mrs. Post, Miss Hines, and Miss Cotton. The annual dues are payable at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Richards of Saugatuck were painfully hurt while returning from a visit to Chicago when a large speeding car pushed their car into the ditch at Holland. Mrs. Richards suffered a broken nose and Mr. Richards was badly cut. The occupants of the other car did not stop. Mr. and Mrs. Richards were taken to their home and are under the care of a physician.

Fred Bleocker and James Drown of Grand Haven left on their annual migration to Florida. They are making the journey in their Ford truck and are headed for Yanketown. They expect to spend the winter in Florida.

FALL MEETING OF SUPERVISORS IS VERY IMPORTANT

The Ottawa County Board of Supervisors, during their sessions beginning Monday at the courthouse at Grand Haven received several communications and reports including the Ottawa county road report; the drain commissioner's report; the report of the state tax apportionment. A petition was received from the county treasurer asking for an increase in salary, pointing out the fact that the duties of the office have greatly increased and that the salary is not adequate.

The Michigan Tourist and Resort Association also requested an appropriation from the board. The report from the public health committee with Hugh Lillie as chairman asking for an appropriation of $100,000 for a Tuberculosis Sanatorium was another important report placed before the board.

Wm. M. Connelly on the conclusion of the annual report invited the board on a tour of inspection of the county roads on Thursday, Oct. 14th.

The drain commissioner's figures totaled $11,764.96 for drains to be constructed through the county draining and reclaiming areas that would be useless without this system of drainage.

The Michigan Resort and Tourist Association in their petition stated that in the opinion of the 1500 business men who composed their membership they were not incorporated for profit but were all gaining profit through the advance in property values, and the resort business which comes from constant thorough advertising. It was also pointed out that the expense to the individual of this county would be but a cent on a thousand dollars.

At the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the board of supervisors in the courthouse in Grand Haven the committee on public health reported favorably on the question of the erection of a tuberculosis sanatorium somewhere in Ottawa county at a cost of $150,000. Thus the first formal step has been taken to secure this much needed institution in Ottawa. The report of the committee, according to the usual custom, was placed on the regular order of business and it was decided to take it up in the whole board for general discussion and possible decision at the Friday morning session. As things now stand, this will be the most important matter to be presented to the board of supervisors at its October session. If the supervisors can settle this question their October session will be historic.

It is believed that the sanatorium issue has a very good chance to pass. Many of the supervisors are known to be in favor of it, after having given the matter careful study. They have come to the conclusion that a sanatorium is a pressing necessity in this county to take care of the tuberculosis patients, the number of whom is constantly increasing. Several surveys of the tuberculosis situation in Ottawa county have been held by health workers and the facts collected in these surveys point to the only possible conclusion—that Ottawa county is not doing its duty toward the persons who are afflicted with this disease. They further point to the conclusion, which is still more significant, that by failing to provide sanatorium treatment for such people, Ottawa county is not only depriving them of their chance for life but is endangering the lives of others, thus constantly keeping up the number of new patients. The tuberculosis clinics in Holland and Grand Haven, held once a month in one or the other of the two cities, has opened the eyes of many to the gravity of the tuberculosis situation. It seems likely that the supervisors will respond favorably to this sentiment on Friday.

There was a large gathering at the meeting of the home mission society of the Methodist church Monday evening, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vanden Berg, 27 E. 13th St. Mrs. Elsie Gunn very clearly outlined the 2nd chapter of the study book, "Our Temple Hills," by Ralf A. Felton. A short memorial service was held for the late Mrs. George Nash, who was always a faithful member and constant attendant in church services.

Mrs. Nina Dougherty gave a group of readings and Mr. L. Harris furnished vocal selections. The superintendent of evangelism reported that 164 ladies had signed the prayer cycle cards. The fruit committee reported that more than 70 quarts of choice canned fruit and jellies had been received for the Aldrich Deaconess and Esther Home in Grand Rapids. The late Mrs. Maude McClellan To Roller was made a "perpetual member" of the society and Mrs. Wm. Rief was made a "shut in" member. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. C. Willets, the first V. P., Mrs. Etta Whitman, presided. Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. A. E. McClellan. Mrs. G. C. Moody was elected R. Sec. The social members (men) assisted Mrs. J. E. Lewis' group of ladies in serving refreshments.

PIONEER WOMAN THE VICTIM OF A SUDDEN STROKE

Suffering a stroke of apoplexy, Mrs. C. Ver Schure early Wednesday morning passed in a flash from comparatively good health to death at the home of her daughter Mrs. A. L. Cappon. Mrs. Ver Schure had been ailing somewhat during the past six months but there was no indication that death was near. She had been in reasonably good health, considering her age, and death came suddenly and without warning.

Mrs. Ver Schure, who was 74 years old, was born in this city and she has lived here all her life. She was one of the oldest inhabitants in Holland of those who were born here as he was born only five years after the city was founded by the late Dr. A. C. Van Raalte. She was the daughter of the late Jacob G. Van Putten, the founder of the first private bank in Holland. This bank later grew into what is now the Holland City State bank. She married the late C. Ver Schure who for many years was cashier of the Holland City State bank and who during the greater part of his life was one of the financial leaders in Holland. Mr. Ver Schure died nine years ago this month.

Mrs. Ver Schure is survived by four children: Mrs. A. L. Cappon and Miss Jennie of Holland, Andrew of Chicago, and Java of Grand Haven; also by three brothers, Jacob VanPutten of Holland, Leonard VanPutten of Detroit and Marinus Van Putten of Grand Rapids.

She was a charter member of the Third Reformed church and she has been a worker in that church during the greater part of her life. Always ready to help anyone in distress, she was loved by many. During the last few years she had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Cappon.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Cappon home, Rev. James M. Martin and Rev. T. W. Davidson officiating. Interment will be in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Mrs. Anna De Walle, aged 50, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Vander Hill, 261 West 11th street. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Vander Hill, and one sister, Mrs. C. B. Butler. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vander Hill, Rev. L. Veltkamp officiating.

Another bridge dinner is to be given at the Holland Country club on Saturday, Oct. 16, at 6:30 P. M. The president, W. A. Diekema, says in his announcement:

"Please get your reservation card in Mrs. Rhea's hands as early as possible—the earlier the better—and not later than Friday P. M. These parties are delightful affairs. Your guests are welcome. No guest fees. Come out!"

Hope college for the second time in successive years will entertain the Student Volunteer movement, which convenes on Oct. 22-23 under the leadership of Robert Fleming of Albion. The council represents practically all colleges and universities in Michigan. Its purpose will be to formulate the policy of the state organization for the coming year and to prepare plans for the annual state conference to be held next spring.

The Western State Normal school will give a series of 14 lectures on the modern drama in the Holland senior high school. An instructor from the Normal will come here every Tuesday night at 6:30 to give an address on this theme and all persons here who are interested will have an opportunity to join the class. This can be done either for school credit at the Normal or for the pleasure of the lectures. There will be a meeting Thursday evening for purposes of enrollment.

A circuit court jury at Allegan on Tuesday found George Bushroe of Ousego township not guilty of violation of the liquor laws. Robert Robertson, arrested on Bushroe's farm and charged with a similar offense also was acquitted. Judge Cross discharged both men.

SINGER TO BRING GREAT HOLLANDER AS ACCOMPANIST

When Edith Mason, world famous soprano of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, comes to Holland on October 23 to open the lyceum course at Hope college, she will bring with her as accompanist Isaac VanGrove. Although Edith Mason is one of the greatest musical attractions Holland has ever secured there is hardly less interest in the accompanist. He is a native Hollander and won great fame as a pianist in his own country and thruout Europe. Authorities on music declare he is the greatest accompanist who has ever come to Holland.

For the convenience of the audience, Dr. J. B. Nykerk has had two thousand annotated programs printed and these will be passed out at the concert so that the listeners may follow the various numbers intelligently. A special piano will be used at the concert, provided for the occasion by the Bush & Lane Piano company.

Interest in the concert is great and tickets are selling fast. One Hope College girl student sold $200 worth of tickets and others came near equaling that record. The program will be as follows:

- La Violette.....Scarlotti
- Have You Seen by a White Lily.....Gounod
- Grow.....Old English
- I've Been Roaming.....Horn
- Romance.....Debussy
- Fantoches.....Debussy
- Off in My Garden.....Rachmaninoff
- Floods of Spring.....Rachmaninoff
- Waltz Song (Romeo and Juliet).....Gounod
- Miss Mason.....Debussy
- Habanera.....Granados
- Marche Orientale.....Granados

Commenting on the rumors that are constantly afloat about the location of M-51 from Zeeland to Holland, the Zeeland Record says in this week's issue:

"For some time the relocating of M-51 between here and Holland has been under consideration by the state highway department. Local people have been contending the merits of Main and Washington streets, and while most of the businessmen have expressed a preference for Main street, they have also conceded that the state would eventually decide on Washington street. To that end the city council purchased and cleared the right-of-way between Elm and State sts. Now comes the information that neither may be chosen but an entirely new route followed. The latter has it that the route will cross head of the curve on the east city limits then follow a northwesterly course to intersect with Roosevelt avenue at North State street, from there it would follow a line directly west connecting with M-11 at the Ottawa Beach road, providing a direct line from Grand Rapids to the new proposed state park on Lake Michigan.

"If the road is to follow this route it will avoid both Zeeland and Holland city entirely, and it remains to be seen what the reaction is. We believe no decision has been made by the state and because of the advance of the season it may not be decided until after Mayor Green has been elected governor, which of course we concede.

"This new route has a strong appeal to the state highway department for two specific reasons. For one thing it would shorten the distance and on the other this route is much better located with respect to grading and construction. It would avoid any low lands and the bridge construction would be reduced to a minimum, which would not be true over any of the former proposed routes.

"There will be considerable loss in business from tourists to the business men in the event this relocation is decided upon,
