The photographer took this photograph just as the Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp dropped the hood, emblematic of a doctor of laws degree, over the shoulders of Ambassador Eelco N. van Kleffens, while at the right Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers reads a citation. This was the climax of a ceremony at

Funeral Services Held for Victims Of Local Accident

Triple funeral services were held Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Mosher and their daughter Dorothea Ann, 5, who were killed in the train-car accident at the 15th St. tracks Thursday, Oct. 6.

After consultation with Prosecutor Wendell Miles, Coroner Gilbert Vandewater ruled death was accidental and there will be no inquest.

They were killed when their car, going east on 15th St., was struck dead center by a Chesapeake and Ohio steamliner at 2:22 p.m. The train was coming into Holland.

According to police measurements, the impact rolled the car down the grade on the east side of the track, and it landed on its side, 91 feet from the center of the crossing.

Mosher was thrown out of the car and landed about six feet away. The body of his wife rolled out when police uprighted the vehicle. The young girl was pinned in the back seat of the 1947 model car.

Mosher was taken to Holland hospital with a fractured collar bone, fractured arm and internal injuries. He died at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Mosher and Dorothea Ann were pronounced dead at the scene. Mrs. Mosher, who was riding on the side that the train struck, received a fractured pelvis, hip and skull, and internal chest and abdominal injuries. The girl, who was riding in the back seat, received a "bad skull fracture."

Engineer of the train, William Coleman of Grand Rapids, said he saw the car and "laid" on the train whistle and applied the brakes. The train came to a halt with the engine just beyond the 13th St. crossing. Many persons around the city reported hearing the whistle and said it sounded "extra loud."

A Mr. O'Connor was fireman on the train; C. E. Mackey, conductor; Earl Jones, brakeman. All are from Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Margaret Brower of 112 East 14th St., was the only witness listed by police. She was standing on the corner of 15th St. and Columbia Ave., and told police she heard the train whistle and heard the train brakes and saw the impact.

Mosher was co-owner of the City Kitchen restaurant. His partner was Clarence Boone. The Mosher had just let Fay Van Langevelde off about a block back from the scene.

The Mosher family lived at 412 West 20th St., but had purchased a house on 15th St., just east of the scene of the accident, last Sept. 6.

Mrs. Mosher, 46, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Mosher of "Trowbridge township, Allegan. Mrs. Mosher, 40, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Crum of Allegan.

Other children in the family are Marilyn, a student at Bob Jones university at Greenville, S. C.; Pauline, a student at Hope college, and Johnny, a Holland Junior high school student.

Other survivors are Mrs. Mosher's sister, Mrs. Darrel Sweetland of Otsego, and Mr. Mosher's sister, Mrs. Harold Bostwick of Allegan.

Use of UN as Weapon Scathed by van Kleffens

Dr. Eelco N. van Kleffens, Netherlands ambassador to the U.S., charged here Wednesday night that some nations are using the United Nations as a new "weapon to attack political opponents" thereby weakening efforts for world peace.

Dr. van Kleffens, a veteran UN delegate, said he objected to the formation of political blocs within the United Nations.

"More dangerous still," he said, "is the tendency to use the UN, not for what it was meant to be: A high impartial forum for the pacific settlement of genuine international disputes, but as a new weapon of individual countries in the arsenal of their diplomacy to harm, hinder or attack political opponents."

He said the trouble with the UN lies not with the charter, because it would be possible to amend that. "What it now needs is something more difficult to improve—the shortsightedness and selfishness of individual government and their consciousness of responsibility not only for their own country, but for the world at large."

Dr. van Kleffens spoke at Hope college Memorial chapel where he was presented a doctor of laws degree by Hope President Irwin J. Lubbers. He was presented by Dr. Wynand Wichers, of Western Michigan college.

The ambassador, a veteran United Nations delegate, drew parallels between United States and the Netherlands dating to the peace conferences in the Hague in 1899 and 1907. Gov. Williams, who made a brief address, paid tribute to the warmth and hospitality of the Dutch people. The governor and Mrs. Williams visited the Netherlands a few years ago. He also recalled meeting Dutch fighters in the South Pacific during the war.

Mayor Harry Harrington and William J. Laughlin, president of the Hope college International Relations club, spoke briefly.

The chapel choir sang under direction of Harvey O. Davis, with Mrs. W. Curtis Snow at the organ.

Dr. John A. Dykstra, president of the Board of Trustees of Hope college, offered prayers.

Attending also were the Netherlands Consul General Jan Vand Mortel of Chicago, Consul General John Steketee of Grand Rapids and Vice Consul Allan Rettiger of Denver, Colo., and Ernest C. Brooks, Correction Commissioner of the State of Michigan.

Hope college faculty and senior class, in academic garb, took part in the ceremony.

Supervisors Are Aroused After 21 Fatal Accidents

Ottawa Board Considers Allocations to Control Bad Traffic Situation

Grand Haven, Oct. 13 (Special)—There are too many traffic violations in Ottawa county.

That is the conclusion of the Board of Supervisors after being told Monday that so far in 1949 there have been 21 fatal accidents in Ottawa county.

Supervisors are considering allocating new funds to patrol areas, particularly those places which do not have full-time police patrol protection. These include Conklin, Coopersville, Marne, Hudsonville, Allendale, Eastmanville, Nunica, Jamestown and vicinity, and Park and Holland townships.

Prosecutor Wendell A. Miles requested a full-time patrol car and deputy for policing these areas. Probate Judge Frederick T. Miles made a similar request and called particular attention to the situation in Coopersville following receipt of a complaint from the Coopersville Rotary club.

Sheriff Jerry Vanderbeek also appeared before the board Monday to ask for an extra car and extra man to patrol county roads and highways.

He said the present arrangement of two cars does not allow mileage for road patrol. He cited complaints from Holland and Park townships, particularly on the lakeshore roads, and from Allendale, Coopersville, Marne, Tallmadge, Jamestown, Jenison, Hudsonville, Zeeland and Borculo.

He said hiring a man for patrol duty last summer brought improvement in the traffic situation in Borculo as well as Park township, Zeeland and Holland townships in the vicinity of M-21. The sheriff said the state police have been willing to co-operate but with 15 men and five cars, they are kept busy covering four counties.

All requests were referred to the County Officers committee.

Rep. Henry Geerlings of Holland, former member of the board, explained current work of the state legislature. Among other things, he said Ottawa will receive $140,000 for schools this year. Philip Robach of Grand Haven reported expenditures of $7,577.69 for repairs to the jail and jail residence.

Sanitarian John Wyma, on petition of women employees in the court house, called attention to inadequate rest room facilities in the building, pointing out there are only two rest rooms for 35 women. The communication was referred to the buildings and grounds committee.

H. Van Oss Dies At Castle Park

Herman Van Oss, 58, died this morning at his home in Castle Park of a lingering illness.

He was active in civic affairs. Having served as justice of the peace for many years and as township clerk for the last year. He also was well-known for his musical activities. For 15 years he directed the Hosanna Dutch chorus and conducted other chorals in this area. He was recently in the news when he was named to receive a legacy in the settlement of an estate.

Surviving are the wife, Susie; two daughters, Mrs. Edward Stielstra and Mrs. Ernest Zoerhof; four grandchildren; two brothers, Henry and James; a sister, Mrs. John Speet, all of this vicinity.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the home, private, and 2 p.m. at Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church. The Rev. A. W. Hoogstrate will officiate and burial will be in Grafschap cemetery. Arrangements were made by Clarence Mulder.

The body is at Nibbelink-Noter funeral home where friends may call Friday from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m.

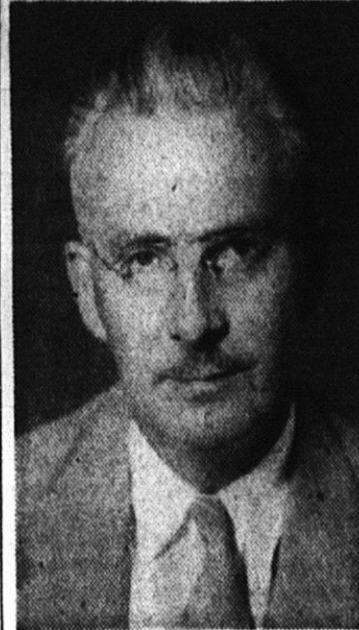

Traffic Survey Scheduled Here

A survey of all traffic conditions in Holland city and on highways leading into Holland is expected to be conducted here soon.

Common Council Wednesday authorized such a survey to be carried on by the Michigan Highway department. It will be the first carried on here by the state department in many years, although the AAA has made several other surveys.

The request for such a survey was first made by the Public Safety commission which questioned the speed of cars and trucks on US-31 and M-40 leading into Holland. The state department suggested a thorough survey and requested a proper resolution from Common Council.

In the resolution, council agreed to participate in the cost of extra signs which may be needed to help control the situation.

Charles Vos

Former Assistant Superintendent of BPW Succumbs

Charles Vos, 59, former assistant superintendent of the Board of Public Works, died Wednesday night at Holland hospital where he was taken Monday night. Vos had been in ill health for six years. His home was at 97 West 19th St.

Vos became affiliated with the Board of Public Works in 1913. He became assistant superintendent in May, 1932. He was granted a leave of absence by the board in Sept., 1944, after suffering a paralytic stroke, and never returned to work. He and the BPW Superintendent Abbe Nauta were instrumental in planning the James De Young power plant on Third St. in 1939.

Vos was a past president of the Michigan Municipal league and was a Navy veteran of World War I. He was a member of Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church.

Surviving are the wife, Clara; a son, Osborne; three daughters, Mrs. Louis Elenbaas, Mrs. Gerrit Ballast and Mrs. William A. Sikkel; nine grandchildren; five sisters, Mrs. Charles Ash, Mrs. George Kuiper, Mrs. William Hovenga, Mrs. Jack Dykstra and Mrs. Benjamin Kragt all of Holland. A son, Leonard, was killed in Army service in World War II.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Langeveld Funeral chapel, private, and 2 p.m. in Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church. The Rev. William Van Peursem will officiate and burial will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral chapel Friday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Three Fined $75 On Hunting Count

Zeeland, Oct. 13.—Three Holland young men were assessed heavy fines on a charge of shooting a pheasant during the closed season when they were arraigned before Justice Isaac Van Dyke.

Sentenced to pay $75 fine and $7.40 costs each were Allen W. Fisher, 18, of 807 South Shore drive; Lloyd Ter Beek, 19, route 6, and Robert L. Rannels, 21, of 958 South Shore drive. Ter Beek and Rannels sold their full furs Tuesday night and Fisher arranged to pay a $40 remainder by Saturday.

The trio was arrested Oct. 5 by Conservation Officer Elmer Boerman. The alleged offense occurred in Allegan county just over the Ottawa line. Justice Van Dyke also imposed a condition in which the three will be unable to obtain small game hunting licenses until September, 1950.

Others arraigned before Van Dyke included Jason Haveman, 18, 263 East 10th St., Holland, shooting duck after the 5:17 p.m. time limit, $10 and $7.40 costs; Paul Bluekamp, 18, Holland, shooting duck after time limit, $10 and $7.40 costs; John Impeliger Grand Rapids, running red light, $5 and $1 costs; Jerome H. Matzen, Grand Lodge, fishing without license, $5 and $7.40 costs; Harvey De Witt, Grandville, failure to have car under control causing an accident, $10 and $1.40 costs; Howard Wiersma, Zeeland, speeding 47 miles per hour through town, $7 and $1 costs; Russel D. Breen, 65 East 26th St., Holland, speeding and passing on intersection, $8 and $2 costs; Shirley E. Babbitt, route 1, Fennville, no chauffeur's license, $7 and $1 costs.

Mrs. Nellie Van Doorn Dies at Zeeland Home

Zeeland, Oct. 13 (Special)—Mrs. Nellie Van Doorn, 70, died early Monday at her home, 222 East Cherry St., where she lived with her sister, Hattie Rookus, for several years. Mrs. Van Doorn was formerly of Coopersville and Grand Rapids.

Surviving are three sons, Arnold of Zeeland, Gerald and Harold of Coopersville; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Maggie Brower of North Holland, Mrs. John Geerts and Miss Rookus, both of Zeeland, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Rookus of Central Park.

New Industrial Solicitation Plan Gets Under Way

Business-Professional Group Starts Community Chest Canvass Monday

The Industrial Single Solicitation plan enrollment drive for Holland's Community Chest got under way today following a meeting of team captains Tuesday in Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

O. W. Lowty, chairman of the Single Solicitation plan committee, explained the purpose of the drive to the captains and supplied them with pledge cards to be distributed among employees in practically all Holland plants.

"The idea is to eliminate repeated solicitations of industrial employees which are costly and time-consuming," he explained. Under the new plan, only one drive will be made to cover the needs of Community Chest, United Health and Welfare Fund, Red Cross and polo, so far as industry and employees are concerned. Red Cross participation is subject to formal approval by the board which meets Monday in Grand Haven.

Employees are being asked to pledge a minimum of 10 cents a week. These contributions are matched dollar for dollar by the plant.

W. A. Butler is vice chairman. Team heads are C. C. Andreesen, John Fenlon Donnelly, Wilbur Cobb and Ervin Schneider.

Captains under Andreesen are Gordon Van Putten, Bernard Arendshorst and Willis Wellington. Captains under Donnelly are Joseph C. Rhea, Charles Madison and Gerald Vande Vusse; under Cobb, George Stephens, B. B. Patterson and G. Joel St. John; under Schneider, James Van Dyke, Harold Ramsey and Robert Fitzgerald.

The USO (United Service Organization) which provides recreational opportunities to men and women in the armed services, was inadvertently omitted from the listing of agencies in a leaflet being distributed in connection with the Single Solicitation drive. The USO is a prominent agency of the United Health and Welfare fund which is included in the Community Chest drive this year.

Robert Kouw, general chairman of the Business and Professional division, today announced service club teams which will handle this type of solicitation for the Community Chest starting Monday.

Team 1, the Kiwanis club, will be headed by William H. Draper. Workers will be William J. Meengs, Fred Bulford, C. E. Chadcock, Gabriel Kuite, Tony Last, H. Palmros, R. Peterman, Elmer Plaggenmarr, Robert Weener, Edwin Plaggenmarr and William G. Riemersma.

Team 2, the Rotary club, will be headed by H. K. Alexander. Workers will be John M. Scott, Henry Oosting, R. E. Barber, L. C. Dalman, Edwin Heeringa, Dr. S. S. Tiesenga, E. E. Riddick, A. E. Rakes, Bruce Mikula, Robert Carley and H. J. Masselink.

Team 3, the Lions club, will be headed by James E. Cook and A. Van Lopik as co-chairmen. Workers will be Don Rypma, Harold De Fouw, James E. Draper, Preston Manting, W. H. Stolp, Neil Van Leeuwen, Burt L. Post, Harvey J. Barkel, P. Charles Verburg, Al Knipe, Ernest H. Post, Henry Ter Haar, C. J. Van Tamenen.

Team 4, the Exchange club, is headed by Dr. Lester J. Kuypers. Workers are E. V. Hartman, John Pieper, Robert Notter, Russell Klaasen, Jack Dykstra, Jacob Fris, Clarence Groenewold, Bert Stegink, John Kobes and Dwight D. Ferris.

Team 5, the Optimist club, is headed by Dale Fris. Workers are H. Triesenberg, William Venhuizen, Robert F. Topp, Harvey Tinnholt, Ernest H. Phillips, Kenneth Zuverink, H. Frans, Gerald Apple-dorn.

Maplewood Area Gets Gifts for Playground

Solicitors report that $3,000 cash and pledges have been received to buy property for a Maplewood area community playground.

A committee will go ahead and buy property for the playground. The new playground will be operated under the Maplewood Park association.

In other business at the general meeting, the group voted to name an executive committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws.

Grover Infant Dies At Holland Hospital

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon for Bruce Alan Grover, 27-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grover, 473 West 20th St. The infant died Saturday night at Holland hospital.

Surviving besides the parents are a sister, Mary Louise, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grover of Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Perry of Lowell. The Rev. G. Kok officiated at the ceremony at 2 p.m. at Ver Lee funeral home. Burial was at Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Jerry Charles Scott

Accident Occurs Near New Buffalo; Crushed in Cab

Jerry Charles Scott, 24, of 145 Scotts Dr., was fatally injured at 3:10 a.m. on Tuesday as the semi truck he was driving crashed into the rear of another semi, two miles north of New Buffalo on US-12.

Scott was driving a loaded Holland Motor Express Co. semi from Holland to Chicago.

The other truck-tractor involved was driven by Marion E. Porter, 40, of Beulah, and was owned by Opal Lung of Beulah. Both were traveling southwest on highway 12.

According to New Buffalo state police who investigated, the tractor driven by Scott struck the rear of the other semi and the impact crushed the cab of the local semi.

Scott received a broken neck and crushed chest. State police said he was pinned in the cab. Troopers Richard Dalton and Raymond Bronicki of the New Buffalo post investigated.

Charles Cooper, official of the Holland Motor Express Co. went to New Buffalo soon after the accident.

Scott was married June 29, 1948 to the former Edna J. Church of Gary, Ind. They have a two and a half month old daughter, Candace. Scott was the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Scott of 127 River Hills Dr.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Irma Cauwe of Holland, and Jean Moore of Kalamazoo.

Scott had served in the Navy during World War II aboard the USS Idaho and had seen considerable action in the Pacific theater.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in the Nibbelink-Noter funeral chapel with the Rev. J. Kenneth Hoffmaster officiating. Burial will be in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Laxity, Neglect Cited in Letter To Supervisors

Ottawa Involved Since It Has 15 Patients in Muskegon Institution

Grand Haven, Oct. 13 (Special)—All is not well at the Muskegon TB sanitarium.

And the Ottawa county Supervisors are set to find out why. The county has about 15 patients in that institution.

Serious charges against operations at the institution were filed in a letter to the supervisors Tuesday, signed by 14 patients. They charge that no blood test is made on entering, no urine test is taken and they cited other omissions and malpractice known only to themselves.

In short, they said conditions the past 4½ years under Dr. E. W. Gaikema have been deplorable. Dr. Gaikema is medical director of the sanitarium and TB consultant for Ottawa county. He spends a half day each month in this county.

The 14 patients further complained of a part-time assistant who, they said, gives public examinations in one's room where nothing can be told in confidence without noising it all over the building. It was further charged that, although the sanitarium has capacity for 80 beds, only 65 patients are being treated leaving 12 beds empty and persons on waiting lists are told there is no room available.

Attention also was called to a nurse described as "cruel and hard, one in whom they live in fear" who is "sweet to the public but a changed person otherwise."

The letter also called attention to two private rooms, rarely used except for "important people." The complaints were referred to the health committee for investigation and report. Supervisor John Ter Avest recalled that Dr. Gaikema had been discharged from the Sunshine sanitarium at Grand Rapids.

The patients also sent a communication to Roy J. Miles, city superintendent of Muskegon Heights and chairman of the health committee of Muskegon county.

The board adjourned until 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Game Law Violators Assessed Court Fines

Three persons paid fines recently in Justice C. C. Wood's court for conservation law violations.

Charles Morris of route 4, paid $50 fine and $7.40 costs for shooting a pheasant out of season. Stanley Kleves of 116 Walnut Ave., was assessed a $10 fine and $7.40 costs for killing a non-game bird; to wit a grebe.

John Otting of Holland, paid a $10 fine and $7.40 costs for shooting a duck after hours.

Local Woman, Daughter Hurt Near Hudsonville

Mrs. Lars Granberg of 324 Central Ave. and her one-year-old daughter Karen were hurt in a mishap three miles west of Hudsonville on the divided highway Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Granberg received a cut near her eye and knee bruise and her daughter injured the side of her face. Another daughter, Barbara, 3, who was riding in the back seat was not hurt.

According to a driver in the car following Mrs. Granberg was going east and a car came off a side road without stopping. She swerved to avoid a collision and the car ploughed into a dry stream bed alongside the road.

She is the wife of Hope college psychology professor Lars Granberg.

George Van Peursem is the new secretary-manager of the Zeeland Chamber of Commerce, it was announced today by Cornie Karsten, president of the board of directors. Van Peursem, a former Zeelander who returned last February to practice law, is also city attorney and justice of the peace. Before coming to Zeeland he served six years as a director for the La Salle-Park, Ill., Chamber of Commerce and one year as president. He is married and has two children.

Visiting Nurses Ass'n Is New Chest Agency

Within a month, a new Red Feather organization, the visiting Nurses association, will be in full swing as one of the new social service organizations in Holland.

It is the aim of this group to afford good nursing service to local residents within reasonable reach of every pocketbook.

The association was organized here recently when a national life insurance company withdrew its nursing plan since subscribers dropped below the limit to maintain such a plan here.

Mrs. Janet Sundin, a nurse representing the insurance company, discussed establishment of a Visiting Nurses association, and the plan was submitted to the Council of Social Agencies, which appointed Mrs. Edith Walvoord, Mrs. Mayo Hadden and Beth Marcus to investigate the need for such a service. A favorable recommendation from the committee resulted in including the VNA in the Community Chest.

This move was necessary because although the visiting nurse receives remuneration from the family she serves, often the clients are in poor financial condition and such obligations must be assumed by the association.

New VNA directors are Rex Chapman, Bernice Bishop, Dr. Bert P. Bos, H. S. Maentz, Mrs. W. C. Kools, Mrs. R. L. Schlecht, Mrs. Martin Mellem, Dr. Carl Cook, Mrs. Hadden, Dr. H. D. Terkeurst, Mayor Harry Harrington and Miss Marcus.

Aim of the new organization is The VNA offices will be located in the Ottawa County Health department at Central and 12th. It is expected a full time nurse will be on duty soon.

This is but one of the 13 member agencies of your Community Chest. Give generously during the campaign Oct. 17 to 22, sponsors ask.

The annual Junior Red Cross enrollment campaign starts Monday in all schools in Ottawa county, according to Stephanie Yurick, county Junior Red Cross chairman.

Miss Yurick said a goal of 100 per cent is sought. Last year some $600 was contributed by the county school students. The money was used for materials for articles made by the Juniors for children's hospital, homes for the aged and military and veterans' hospitals.

Projects already have been started for Veterans' hospital at Fort Custer and Percy Jones hospital in Battle Creek. Students are making holiday items for each holiday in the year, comfort items, games, scrapbooks, afghans and the like.

This year, Miss Yurick said, the Junior Red Cross is concentrating even more of its energies in working toward world peace and international understanding, and at the same time is continuing its program of national and community service.

Since the close of the war, Juniors have sent approximately $6,250,000 worth of basic health and educational supplies to children in war-devastated countries—all paid for by contributions to the National Children's fund.

Dinner Meeting Opens Century Club Season

At the opening fall dinner meeting of the Century club Monday evening in the Hope church parlors, Ralph Windoes of Grand Rapids reconstructed in words and pictures "Michigan's Kingdom." This kingdom, he said, was established on Beaver Island almost 100 years ago by James Strang.

The speaker told his audience that Strang established his Mormon colony on the northern Michigan island the same year that Dr. Albertus Van Raalte settled Holland. However, Windoes implied, the parallel between the two settlements ends there.

Evidence proved Strang a charlatan, according to the speaker, who traced the history of the Mormon colony from its inception in the mind of Joe Smith of New York state through its struggles in Ohio and Missouri. The group settled at Nauvoo, Ill., where Strang joined them and remained until the leader, Smith, was killed in 1844, Mr. Windoes said.

After a sojourn at Vorhees, Wis., Strang took his sect to Beaver Island. There Strang, impressed with the ease of controlling his followers, had himself declared their king and ruled as such for about six years before his death, the speaker concluded.

Mrs. George Pelgrim, club president introduced the speaker and also conducted a business session preceding the program. Dinner and program arrangements were made by the executive and program committees, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Pelgrim, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin J. Lubbers, Miss Adelaide Dykhuizen, Mr. and Mrs. Jay H. Den Hertog, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth De Pree, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ten Cate, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Geerlings, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Kleinhekel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vischer.

A schedule of the year's meetings and program highlights were announced by the program committee.

On Nov. 7, Dr. No Yong Park will speak at a meeting in the home of Mrs. George E. Kollen. His subject will be "America and Russia in China." The Rev. Robert Richards of Detroit, will speak at the Dec. 5 meeting on "It's Fun to Live in America." The meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest C. Brooks.

Gerrit Wiegerink To Direct Adult Education Series

School Board Adopts Resolutions Needed For Special Election

The Board of Education Monday night approved appointment of Gerrit Wiegerink as director of the Adult Education program which will start here early in January. Recommendation for the appointment came from the committee on teachers and Supt. C. C. Crawford.

Under the new arrangement, Wiegerink, who is co-ordinator of the Co-operative Training program, will be assigned the entire responsibility of organizing and directing the annual adult education program.

The board spent considerable time drafting and approving resolutions necessary for the special school election Nov. 1 seeking to raise $650,000 for additions to Longfellow and Van Raalte schools and a new elementary school replacing Lincoln and Froebel schools. Peter S. Boter, representing the law firm of Lokker, Den Herder and Boter, retained by the Board of Education for the special election, explained the issues.

Supt. Crawford announced the first of a series of public school radio programs Thursday at 5 p.m. This is expected to become a weekly feature under direction of a faculty committee headed by George Lumsden.

The board granted permission to the Holland Gideons to distribute Testaments among fifth graders in the public schools.

Inspectors named to the various precincts for the special election Nov. 1 are E. V. Hartman, first ward; Mrs. Kenneth De Pree, second ward; Prof. A. E. Lampen, third ward; Ben Wiersema, fourth ward; C. J. De Koster, fifth ward; Jay L. De Koning, sixth ward.

Supt. Crawford called attention to several resolutions passed at a conference of Michigan Association of School Administrators at Traverse City Sept. 22 to 24. The resolutions called for wide development of local citizens' committees to co-operate closely with school groups in studying the needs of the schools and ways and means of meeting these needs.

Attention also was called to the growing acceptance of the community college as a logical extension of senior high school as 13th and 14th grades. Should Holland adopt such a program, it is believed the training would be technical rather than in the liberal arts.

Resolutions also called for inservice education for teachers and definite budget appropriations for such curriculum development. They also commended the favorable position taken by Senators and many representatives in their attitude toward federal aid to education, opposing expenditure of state or federal funds for education in other than tax-supported institutions.

Resolutions also regretted failure on the part of the legislature to take steps toward removing the state superintendency from politics. "It is high time the state department of public instruction were removed from the corrupting influences of political partisanship," the resolution read.

The resolutions concluded with: "We view with alarm the tendency on the part of county allocation boards increasingly to allot higher tax rates for county purposes without giving adequate consideration to public school needs."

Supt. Crawford announced a meeting of the Board of Education and the Rural Board of Education Oct. 25 at 8 p.m. in room 2 of Junior high school.

Claims and accounts totaled $69,940.51 of which $32,539.02 went for teachers' salaries. All trustees were present with the exception of Harry Wiekamp. Trustee De Koning gave the invocation and Trustee De Koster presided.

The Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds are in full swing again, reporting many interesting meetings.

The Joyful Blue Birds, reports Linda Lou McBride, met at the home of Jane Penna. This meeting was devoted to the making of Halloween decorations for the coming party. Mrs. Elmer Burwitz is the leader of this group.

On Sept. 26 the Waku Wasti Camp Fire Girls gathered at the home of Mrs. Clarence Klaasen. The girls earned three Frontiers honors by listing machines which were non-existent in their fathers' and grandfathers' childhood, demonstrating kitchen gadgets, and by listing 5 compound machines that are used in their homes. They earned 2 Creative Arts honors by teaching a younger group two singing games, and by singing five folk songs in a group. Paddle pops were served to all the girls.

On Oct. 3 the same group met at Mrs. A. S. Kohn's home. They made a trip to Mr. Kohn's office where he taught how an architect draws up plans for a blue print, after which they returned to the Kohn home and made blue prints. Two honors were earned for this.

Women's Mission Groups Meet at Local Churches

Several missionary groups in Holland held meetings this week. Various speakers and a luncheon highlighted the meetings.

One hundred women attended the fall luncheon meeting of the Trinity Reformed church Missionary society Thursday afternoon at the church parlors. The room was decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. C. Dressel, vice president, presided at the meeting and welcomed guests. Mrs. George Lumsden sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. H. Beernink.

Afternoon speaker was Wendell Chino of Mesclero, N.M., an Apache Indian. He attended Cook Training school in New Mexico and was graduated from Central college, Pella, Iowa. He now is a student at Western Theological seminary.

Chino told about the Apache Indians, the church and schools at Mesclero.

The luncheon was served by Mrs. J. Siebelink and her committee. Mrs. W. Koop and Mrs. Marinus Kole were co-chairman in charge of arrangements. Mrs. J. R. Mulder and Mrs. George Wolterink were program chairmen.

Sam Williams of Brewton, Ala., student at Western Theological seminary, was speaker and soloist at a meeting of the Bethel Reformed church Women's Missionary society Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bert Boes presided in the absence of Mrs. Willis Van Vuren, president.

Duets were sung by Mrs. Henry Verhulst and Mrs. Bertha Nyenhuis. Mrs. Richard Van Vuren accompanied.

It was announced that the next Missionary Union conference will be Oct. 12 at Hope church at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. During the session session supplies from Knox Memorial hospital were distributed to members who will complete work on the equipment. Election of officers was scheduled for the next meeting in November.

Homecoming Fans See Chix Eleven Win Fourth Game

Zeeland, Oct. 13 (Special)—Zeeland and high school's football team romped over Coopersville 27-0 here Friday night before an estimated 2,000 homecoming fans.

The win was No. 4 straight for Coach Joe Newell's Chix.

The powerful Zeelanders dominated play throughout the game as they rolled up 14 first downs to three for the visitors. The Chix scored once in each quarter and controlled the ball most of the game.

Zeeland kicked off. Coopersville punted after its offense stalled. Zeeland took the ball on its own 30-yard line and on a sustained drive down the field, that took just ten plays, scored. Herman Nienhuis climaxed the drive as he smashed over from the two. Bern Raterink danced around end for the conversion.

Although Zeeland dominated play the rest of the quarter, the Chix couldn't dent the Coopersville wall for a score.

In the second quarter, fleet Raterink raced around his left end and went 34 yards for a score. Jim Boonstra went through right tackle for the extra point.

Zeeland scored its third touchdown on another 70-yard drive down the field. Raterink capped the drive by going through center from the two-yard line for the score. The try for extra point was no good.

The final score came in the last quarter. Milt Meyard hit pay dirt from the ten-yard line after a sustained drive down the field. Raterink ran around right end for the point.

Raterink was by far the best man on the field. His offensive play overshadowed the deft blocking and tackling of the Chix. Denney DeHaan was the best Zeeland player on defense.

Kelly and Hollinshead were the best players for Coopersville.

Newell said blocking was spotty but liked the way his offense rolled in Friday's game.

END OF A RED ROAD

Should there be a statute of time limitation on court trials?

That question is suggested by the trial of top members of the American Communist party who have been battling in the federal court of Judge Harold R. Medina in New York city. That trial has been going on without a break for more than nine months. Can there be any situation so complex that a reasonably intelligent jury cannot come to a decision in much less time than that, without jeopardizing the interests of the persons on trial or those of the government? Has mere physical and mental endurance been turned into a compelling argument that will supersede the arguments of reason and evidence?

It would seem so, and it would further seem that fundamental justice is in danger in America's courts if the example of the Communist conspiracy trial should take on the nature of precedent. There is perhaps no one judge in ten who could stand up under such a long ordeal. Fortunately for the government in this case Judge Medina is a man of almost phenomenal physical and mental stamina. It seems very certain that the defense in this case has been banking on his breaking down, thus creating a situation that would keep the case from the jury indefinitely. Delay, no matter on what pretext, is clearly a weapon of the defense. Every week that passes makes the jury more weary, the judge more exhausted, the public more apathetic. The defendants would not need an acquittal if they could keep on delaying a verdict. So far they have succeeded all too well.

In common with defendants of any kind in any court case, the American Communists on trial on conspiracy charges have a right to have all their constitutional guarantees as American citizens safeguarded. Clearly, considering the number of men on trial, that could not be done in a trial of a few days' duration. But it would seem that not more than a few weeks would be necessary to bring before the court every shred of evidence against them and every shred in their favor.

It is hard to see how such a trial could continue for three quarters of a year if obstruction had not been deliberately engaged in to impede the procession of justice. Has the time come to set limitations to a trial by statute? If there are many more cases of this kind, doing something of that nature is clearly indicated.

Add Insult to Injury: He Cleaned up Mess T

Grand Haven, Oct. 13 (Special)—Clifford L. Jarvis, 30, Muskegon, dumped garbage in the wrong place Saturday night when he emptied a garbage can in an alley at the rear of the home of Trooper Reed Harris of the Michigan State Police.

Jarvis made one mistake. He left his hunting coat with his hunting license number at the scene.

Jarvis was arrested by state and city police officers. Arraigned Monday afternoon before Justice George V. Hoffer on a charge of dumping garbage in the city, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay $10 fine and $9.05 costs. Before he was released he was taken to the scene to clean up the mess of garbage.

Child Struck by Car While Crossing Street

Brent Overway, three and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Overway of 355 Howard Ave., was taken to Holland hospital Monday evening for treatment of head and face lacerations received when he was struck by a car near 375 Douglas Ave.

The car was driven by Claude Stygstra of route 4, who told deputies that the boy ran in front of him as he was traveling west on Douglas.

Deputies said the accident occurred at 6:45 p.m. after it had started to rain and was getting dark.

Sunday School Lesson

October 16, 1949
God and the Nations
Isaiah 1:21-28; 19:19-25
By Henry Geerlings

The nations of the world were never so agitated in peace time as they are now. Our modern means of communications have made the world a neighborhood; but no power has yet been able to make it a brotherhood. Nations are jealous and suspicious of one another. One nation distrusts and misinterprets the motives of another. All pretend to work for peace but no one knows how near war is. All are in distress, fearful and uncertain.

The title of our lesson takes God into account. But the nations in their individual plans and collective conferences leave God out of consideration. There is no recognition of Him by having the Bible read and His presence and guidance invoked. When God was mentioned to one prominent member of the United Nations he laughed and said that he did not know that He was in the meeting. In contrast to dependence on God a prominent clergyman has called attention to the amount of liquor that is swilled at their meetings. But though God is not in their thoughts they are very much in His thoughts and sometime soon they will realize it.

In our Scripture references four nations are mentioned—the Jews, the Assyrians, the Babylonians and the Egyptians. References to any one of these could take all our space. We believe it would be more profitable for us to give a brief outline of the teachings of the Bible about the nations as a whole. The Bible gives us a comprehensive picture of the nations in the past, present and future. And to the one who has grasped this teaching, the present condition of the nations makes sense.

The first thing that is pointed out here is the unity of the nations in respect to being. They are all one. The people are all human. They come from one original pair. There are superficial differences. But all have body, soul and spirit. And all have the same organs and functions, both physical and mental.

The next thing we notice is that God intended men to scatter and dwell on all the face of the earth. After the deluge when men began to multiply, they planned to congregate together. They built Babel. But God confused their language and scattered them.

In connection with the settlement of the nations in their respective localities there is an illuminating text in Deuteronomy. "When God divided to the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel." Israel was to have the first, central and dominating place among the nations. This was true as long as Israel was faithful.

The next thing we notice in connection with God and the nations is that God Himself determines how long a nation shall last. Nations and rulers plan for stability and permanence. They talk in terms of a thousand years. But they leave God out. We have seen such in our day. When a nation violates laws of morality and justice, God says so long and no longer shall ye endure.

And there is another truth in the text that is very seldom noticed and commented upon. It is that God set a moral opportunity and purpose before all nations. They must seek the Lord. Many philosophers have declared that man was his own savior; that he could rise up morally unaided from nature up to nature's God. The nations throughout the centuries have had this opportunity ever before them. History shows that nations did not seek after God. Many nations did not go from darkness to light but from light to darkness.

So long as Israel was faithful to God He was faithful to them. He promised them happiness and prosperity but when declined in faith they were driven from their land. According to Daniel four great Gentile nations were to run their courses, the Babylonian, the Media-Persian, the Greek and the Roman. Then Christ would come and establish His kingdom of righteousness.

We need to remember that while the nations did not have the law they were not left without light and truth. They had the revelation of God in nature and they had conscience. They will be judged according to the light they had. But the nations did not live up to their light any better than the Jews. In the end of time they will organize against Christ and His forces and their armies will meet their doom at Armageddon.

Christ has a threefold relation to the nations. 1. As the Light He brings salvation to the Gentiles. They are saved during this age. 2. He will rule over the Gentiles during the kingdom age. 3. The Gentiles who believe have a place in the church. Our duty to the nations is to evangelize them. We have a story to tell to the nations.

Lost Boy Returns

Grand Haven, Oct. 13 (Special)—Two-year-old Larry Gordon Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Williams, was returned to his home near Coopersville about two hours after he had been reported missing. The child had gone into the woods with two large dogs and was found by a neighbor in the woods back of the Williams farm, apparently none the worse for the experience. He was reported missing at 5 p.m. Monday.

Saturday Closing Ruling Promised

A final decision on the Saturday night closing proposal will be made at the November retail merchants meeting.

A committee, headed by Burt Post, was appointed at Monday's general merchants meeting to work on the proposal and make a final canvass.

President George Good of the Retail Merchants association, emphasized that if any change is decided on, it will not take effect until Jan. 1, 1950.

The 25 merchants attending the meeting also made plans for the Christmas season. Dale Fris was appointed to head a committee that will get decorations for the downtown area, and Bill Brouwer was named chairman of the committee to fix Christmas shopping hours.

The committee on Christmas shopping hours met this morning and agreed to the following:

Stores will be open all day on the three Wednesdays preceding Christmas, beginning Dec. 7. They will close at 5:30 p.m. The week before Christmas, Dec. 19 through Dec. 23, stores will remain open until 9 p.m.

And on Christmas eve, the stores will close at 5:30 p.m.

Because Christmas falls on Sunday, the holiday will be observed Dec. 26, and on that date all stores will close.

Kiwanians Dedicate Lodge to Aid Youth

Eaton lodge on Kamp Kiwanis grounds was dedicated in brief ceremonies Monday night with members of the Eaton family attending the dinner-meeting.

"The Kiwanis club would not be able to do what it is doing for the youth of our community without the generosity of W. L. Eaton," the Rev. Herman Rosenberg said in his dedicatory speech.

He traced the youth program of Kiwanis International and paid tribute to the men who direct young Americans to good citizenship. He said that 2,200 Holland area boys and girls had used the camp facilities in the last year.

The Rev. Rosenberg closed his address with a prayer, in which he said in part, "...We are thankful for the memory of Mr. Eaton. May it spur us on to greater effort in this crucial point in world history to redouble our best efforts in behalf of American youth."

A plaque has been placed over the fireplace which reads "In Memory of William L. Eaton." More than 100 members and their guests were called to order by President Dan Vander Werf. Members of the Eaton family attending the ceremony were:

Mrs. W. L. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John Eaton and Bill and Virginia Wood. A gift from the estate of W. L. Eaton helped the club finance the lodge on the property owned by the Kiwanis club.

Ruth Vander Leek Wed To Charles Mersman

Large baskets of bronze, gold and white chrysanthemums and seven-branch candelabra decorated the American Legion club house Monday night for the lovely fall wedding of Miss Ruth Eleanor Vander Leek and Charles Mersman.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vander Leek, Jr., 31 West 19th St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mersman, Sr., 2189 Whitehall road, Muskegon.

The double ring wedding service was read at 8 p.m. by the Rev. Peter Jonker of Coopersville, formerly of Holland.

"Because" was sung by Miss Patricia Houghtaling preceding the ceremony and while the couple knelt she sang, "The Lord's Prayer." At the close of the ceremony the soloist sang "The Bells of St. Mary" and "O Promise Me." The pianist, Miss Marcia Holbrook, played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in heavy white skinner satin fashioned with a marquisette yoke with seed pearl trim extending down from the back of the yoke around the fitted dropped neckline. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrists and a long train extended from the full skirt. Her white satin half hat, quilted with seed pearls, held her illusion veil in place. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses and rose buds. A double strand of pearls, gift of the groom, was her only jewelry.

Mrs. Ray Stam attended the bride as matron of honor and Miss Margaret Vanden Berg was bridesmaid. They wore identical forest green and copper gold taffeta gowns, respectively, with low necklines with double collars and matching mitts. Their white net crownlets were trimmed with ribbons matching their gowns. They wore triple strands of pearls and carried colonial bouquets of gold, yellow, bronze and white chrysanthemums set in white ruffs with gold and white streamers.

Walter Kitchen assisted the groom as best man and Ray Stam was groomsmen. Walter De Vries and A. Mersman seated the guests.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the American Legion club house. A two-course buffet lunch was served. Miss Blanche Avery presided in the gift room and Mrs. James Blankensma of Grand Rapids, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

Guests attended from Grandville, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Coopersville, Detroit and Holland. The bride is a graduate of Holland Christian high school and Hackley Hospital School of Nursing, Muskegon, where she has been employed. The groom attended Muskegon schools and is employed by his father who has a grocery business.

For their wedding trip to the southern states, Mrs. Mersman wore a teal blue suit with brown accessories, white coat and a corsage of white roses. They will be at home in Muskegon after Oct. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Stam entertained at a dinner party for the bridal party and guests following the wedding rehearsal Friday night.

The bride was entertained at showers given by Mrs. Charles Mersman, Sr., Mrs. Peter Vander

Leek, Jr., Mrs. Ray Stam and Miss Barbara Zoeller.

The wedding day marked the birthday anniversary of the bride.

West Olive Baby Dies Unexpectedly

William George Francis, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Francis, route 1, West Olive, died at 8 p.m. Monday in Holland hospital after the child was suddenly taken ill. The parents and child had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Van Raalte, 133 East Eighth St.

Coroner Gilbert Vande Water said the child was born prematurely last July 8 and weighed only two pounds 10 ounces at the time.

Surviving are the parents and grandparents, Mrs. Anna Francis of West Olive, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard of Spring Lake and Lovell Pegg of Allegan, and the great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Doddington of Ferrysburg and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pegg of Allegan.

Good Names More Chest Assistants

Additional chairmen for divisions in the 1949-50 Community Chest campaign which opens officially Monday, Oct. 17, were announced today by George M. Good, campaign chairman.

O. W. Lowry heads the industrial division which is opening its campaign this week in advance of the regular campaign. Industrialists this year are operating under the new Single Solicitation plan which covers Community Chest, United Health and Welfare, Polio and Red Cross.

Robert J. Kow heads the business and professional division. His assistants will gather Thursday at 10 a.m. in the Centennial room of the Warm Friend tavern for a coffee kletz and briefing session.

Mayor Harry Harrington heads the national gifts division, assisted by Dr. H. D. Terkeurst who will send letters to all ministers. E. E. Brand heads the schools and colleges division, assisted by J. J. Riemersma in the public schools, John Timmer in the Christian schools and Jay Folkert at Hope college.

Chairmen for the public employees division are Clarence Grevengood, Harry Kramer and Jack Barendse. Co-chairmen for the individual gifts division are Mrs. Bert Selles and Mrs. J. D. Jencks who will be assisted by more than 100 local women in soliciting local homes. Individual gifts in the suburban areas will be directed by Carl Harrington on the south side and Gerald Elenbaas on the north side.

Persons assisting in the home solicitation will gather in the Warm Friend Tavern Friday at 2:30 p.m. for a briefing session and coffee kletz.

A bride of 25 and a bridegroom of 30 have one chance in 10 that they will both live to celebrate their golden wedding.

Fennville Fights Multiple Injuries

Fennville, Oct. 13 (Special)—Coach Burrell DeYoung of the Fennville Blackhawks is fighting the season-long injury jinx this week as he prepares his team to invade Byron Center Friday night.

The game will be the second this season between the two teams. Both schools have new lighting systems this year and were anxious for home games against each other under the new arcs.

Byron Center won the first hard-fought game by a last-minute score, 26-19.

However, the Blackhawks are on the mend this week and may be at full strength for the game Friday.

The entire first line backfield at Fennville is nursing hurts. Jack Bale has a twisted knee, Bill Sisson has a back injury, Jack Turner has a sore hip muscle and Bill Macicak is nursing a hurt leg. Guard Dan Barnes twisted his ankle.

DeYoung expects to have most of the injuries healed before Friday and plans to give the Byron Center crew a real battle.

Officers Solicit Help of Parents For Child Safety

October Designated As 'Child Safety' Month by Police

Holland area law enforcement officers today urged parents to co-operate during this month to promote "child safety."

Officers asked that parents "teach your child safety as you would good manners."

Police Chief Jacob Van Hoff and Deputy Clayton Forry said children really don't know what is expected of them in traffic. But, by school age, they "should have learned."

Officers point out that 3,800 children under the age of 14 are killed annually in traffic accidents.

The Michigan state safety commission listed tips for parents:

1. Do not allow your children to play in the street under any circumstances.
2. Insist that he cross the street only at intersections when no cars are coming.
3. Do not allow him to ride a bicycle in traffic until he has demonstrated to your satisfaction that he has the necessary skill.
4. Impress upon him the fact that bicycle riding is subject to the same rules of safety and courtesy that actual driving is.
5. Confine his play with tricycles, skates, scooters and wagons to the sidewalk—and well away from the alleys and driveways.

Anniversary Party

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lowry celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Monday. In the evening they entertained about 50 guests at an informal reception in their home at 686 North Shore Dr.

City Gets Title To Pine Court

The City of Holland has acquired ownership of the Pine Court veterans housing project.

City Clerk Clarence Greengood received an answer from the government agency Monday to an earlier bid for ownership by the city. The deal was made possible at no cost by the recently passed independent offices appropriation act.

It was emphasized that no money is involved in the switch of owners.

The 13-building project is located on West Eighth St., between Pine and Maple Aves. There are 26 apartments.

Of the available apartments, only 11 are occupied, Greengood said.

City officials have hinted they would like to tear down unoccupied barracks because there have been no recent rental applicants. Veterans get priority.

The buildings were erected under the Lanham act following World War II to help ease a critical housing shortage.

Bridal Showers Fete Miss Pearl Elenbaas

Miss Pearl Elenbaas, bride-elect, was fete at two bridal showers recently.

Roofing Ideas Given by Firm

Roofing problems for local home owners may be solved quickly and easily by calling the Holland Ready Roofing Co. The firm now is located in its spacious new building at 125 Howard Ave. Free estimates on roofing and siding jobs are cheerfully furnished by the firm.

A roof should be a feature that lends the home and surroundings beauty and not only a commodity to keep the home dry, the roofers stress. The roofing craftsmen advise all prospective home owners or present owners planning a re-roofing job, to inspect the various types of roofing for a choice to suit their taste of beauty and durability.

They strongly recommend Flint-kote products made with every advantage that scientific research can provide, backed by almost 50 years of successful manufacturing experience. The firm handles Flint-kote Sidos — cement sidings which are made of imperishable materials — asbestos fibre and Portland cement which cannot rust, rot or burn.

Company owners have been in the business for 20 years. They are justly proud of the fact that many persons have come to them for help in solving their roofing problems.

Sportsmen Hear Lt. Jack Bursey

Lt. Jack Bursey, who made two trips to the antarctic with explorer, Adm. Richard E. Byrd, addressed members of the Holland Fish and Game club at Holland high school auditorium Monday night. Lt. Bursey also showed colored movies of his adventures.

Penguins and seals paraded before the adventurers without visible fear, the speaker said, never having seen men before. Pets were made of penguins and many were brought back for city zoos.

Gigantic icebergs were encountered, the speaker said, and when the expedition landed, the ice shelf was 60 feet above water. Living quarters were excavated in the ice and snow with roofs level with the surface. Travel was by dog sled, tractor and airplane. The expedition discovered new land which was officially claimed as belonging to the United States. Bursey said. Rock cairns were erected with suitable records buried beneath them and the flag flying above.

The trip lasted 14 months, he said, and valuable scientific information was obtained.

Marine life also was studied on the trips. Mineral samples were taken and weather statistics were compiled. Information was obtained as to suitable clothing for the extreme cold and these facts were used during World War II by the Army and Navy, Bursey said.

John Gallen, club president, presided and the speaker was introduced by Kenneth Vander Heuvel.

Rural Stories More Important Than You Think

"Freedom Goes Where the Newspaper Goes," the 1949 slogan for National Newspaper Week, affects the immediate area of a newspaper's circulation as well as America as a whole.

The priceless heritage of a free press is expressed in the simple newsy item important to the local scene just as much as in the interpretations and editorial comment on the big national issues.

Not a small part of the success of any small town-paper is the effort put forth by dozens of suburban and rural correspondents.

In the case of the Holland Evening Sentinel, the circulation area in Ottawa and Allegan counties is served by some 40 correspondents. Correspondents in Allegan and Grand Haven keep abreast of developments on the county level. Daily copy is carried on Zeeland city. Most other correspondents send in their news on a weekly basis, except in case of accidents, fires and more timely events.

While the self-appointed intellectual may sniff at the homey notes about Mr. and Mrs. Smith spending a week-end in Chicago, it is news of this type which is of more interest to the average reader than such world rocking events as devaluing the British pound sterling.

The task of providing news of interest to all persons in the circulation area, locating persons willing to provide the news at little or no remuneration, and editing the copy which has a habit of descending on the news room all on the same day, sometimes is complicated work.

And so, The Sentinel salutes its correspondents—community-minded upright folk who probably expend more energy tracking down and writing the news than they do in their daily work.

Married in Millgrove Church

Mrs. Norman G. Grigsby (Van Melle photo)

Fennville, Oct. 6 (Special) — Miss Esther Pedersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pedersen, route 3, Fennville, and Norman G. Grigsby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grigsby of Millgrove, were married Oct. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in Millgrove Christian Reformed church. Dr. J. H. Bruinooge of Zeeland read the single ring service in the presence of 100 guests.

Miss Geraldine Grigsby, sister of the groom, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Dennis Vander Heuvel who also played the bridal marches.

The altar was decorated with ferns, bouquets of white and lavender asters and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with a scalloped nylon yoke. Three rows of scallops accented the top of the full skirt and the hemline and full train also were scalloped. She wore a fingertip veil of illusion held in place by orange blossom clusters. The bride carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Lois Hoyt attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Ellen Rasmussen and Dawn Dell. They wore gowns of blue, yellow and pink moire respectively, and carried bouquets of fall flowers. The flower girl, Sally Overmyer, wore a gown styled like the bride's. Philip Pedersen of Holland, ring bearer, wore a white suit.

Robert Hipsma assisted the groom as best man and guests were seated by Elmer Grigsby and Laverne Onken.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Grigsby home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. For traveling, the bride wore a gray suit with green accessories. Upon their return they will live at the Grigsby farm.

Training Program Given For Camp Fire Leaders

A two-day training program for Blue Bird leaders and Camp Fire guardians was carried out this week by the local Camp Fire office. Mrs. Albert Timmer, local executive, was in charge, and Mrs. Peter Kromann, as training chairman, carried out program plans. Mrs. Hans Knutson and Mrs. A. J. Keane assisted.

On Thursday all Blue Bird leaders met at 9 a.m. at the Camp Fire office and then went to Camp Kiwanis for the day. Beginning the program was the teaching of Blue Bird songs and games by Mrs. Keith Soderberg. During the coffee hour, Mrs. Timmer spoke on group organizations.

Mrs. Knutson discussed program planning for girls of Blue Bird age and types of programs for meetings. She was also in charge of a discussion on dramatics and handcraft which was conducted later in the day.

At noon, Mrs. Raymond Fehring demonstrated outdoor cooking, explaining types of kindling, safety rules and typical outdoor lunches. Each leader made her own lunch over the fire.

A second music and games period was conducted by Mrs. Soderberg in the afternoon. Final event was the making of a dish garden by each leader. Materials were gathered in the woods following explanations by Mrs. Fehring on the planting of the gardens.

On display in the Kiwanis camp building were handwork exhibits, and other Blue Bird materials.

Leaders attending were Mrs. Winfield Ball of Beechwood school, Mrs. Irvin De Weerd and Mrs. Willis De Cook of Froebel, Mrs. Richard Näsby of Harrington, Mrs. Ray Moeller and Mrs. William Plum of Lincoln, Mrs. Elmer Burwitz of Longfellow, Mrs. Ray Ten Have and Mrs. Leon Kraai of Montello Park.

Also Mrs. Bernard Donnelly, St. Francis school leader; Mrs. Charles Harrington; Mrs. Egbert Geritsen, Jr.; and Mrs. Ed Voss, Van Raalte; Mrs. Howard Phillips, Mrs. Andries Steketee and Mrs. Robert Kuiper of Washington.

Mrs. Lester Essenberg and Mrs. Millard Westrate were present to assist with the meal.

A similar program was carried out Friday for Camp Fire guardians. Program features centered about the organization and planning for girls of Camp Fire age.

Mrs. Soderberg taught music and games from the Camp Fire manual and during coffee in the morning, Mrs. Orle Bishop, president of the council, spoke on the local organization in relation to the national organization. Mrs. Timmer giving ideas for organization.

Mrs. Fehring again carried out the program on outdoor activities and the cook-out. Guardians were taught how to make stew over a fire, mock angel cake and other camp fire dishes.

Mrs. Moran's nature program was carried out in the afternoon, including the making of dish gardens, spatter prints and several hand craft activities.

Feature of the day was a discussion by Prof. Harold J. Haverkamp, of the Hope college psychology department. His subject was "Bluebirds Fly." In his discussion, he emphasized understanding of the child and understanding yourself, giving interests and motivation for each.

Mrs. Robert Longstreet discussed New Frontiers, new Camp Fire craft; Mrs. A. E. Hildebrand, president of the Leaders association, spoke on "Helpful Hints for Leaders." Exhibits included memory books, ceremonial boleros, hob-stoves and candles, group record books and reference books.

Among those present were Mrs. Ralph Eash and Mrs. Dave Boyd, who assisted with the noon meal; Mrs. Keane, who helped in the outdoor program, and the following leaders: Mrs. Neal Houtman of Washington school; Mrs. Raymond Klomprens, Longfellow; Mrs. Casey Oonk, Harrington; Mrs. John Dahl and Mrs. Al Riemersma, Pine Creek; Mrs. Robert Longstreet, Beechwood, and Mrs. Wilma Reed, Mrs. Don Maatman, Mrs. Fehring and Mrs. Hildebrand, junior high leaders.

Several members of the Holland Junior Chamber of Commerce were in Allegan Wednesday night for the 10th anniversary celebration of the Allegan Junior Chamber of Commerce. The dinner-dance was attended by 150 persons.

Guest of the evening was Sen. Harold Tripp of Allegan, who also was toastmaster. Other guests were Maurice J. Mayer, state JCC president, and Mrs. Mayer, and all past presidents of the organization.

Attending from Holland were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin De Weerd, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Welling, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Phillips and President Edward Heuvelhorst.

It was through the efforts of the Holland organization that Allegan JCC began 10 years ago.

Dutchmen Unleash Powerful Attack To Crush Scots

Hope college's football team labeled itself a powerhouse in MIAA circles Friday night when it crushed defending champion Alma 20-0.

The Dutch win snapped Alma's consecutive game won streak at 12 and pitched the Dutch into MIAA lead.

In the game at Alma, the Dutch displayed a powerful running attack capped by a stalwart defensive machine. It took an entire half before the Dutch really got rolling, but after that it was a matter of how high the score would go.

At halftime the score was 7-0. Late in the first quarter, Hope found itself with its back to the wall. Alma had the ball on Hope's 11-yard line with third down and six to go. Quarterback Alex Kish flipped a pass over center intended for Joe Catarino.

Catarino had his hands on the ball but it bounced out and alert Bill Bocks picked it off on his own five. Bocks headed for the sidelines and behind near perfect blocking ran the ball all the way to Alma's 33. Three plays found the Dutch on Alma's 26, with fourth down and three to go.

On a beautiful pass play, Nick Yonker sucked the entire Alma team into the center. Big Moose Holwerda slipped out to the left, just over the line of scrimmage, took Yonker's pass on the Alma 23 and raced to pay dirt. Holwerda booted the point.

The rest of the first half was an all Alma show. The Scots rolled up 10 first downs to two for Hope in that first 30 minutes of the game. Alma outtrushed Hope 91 to 39 yards in the first two periods and completed four out of eight aeriels to one out of seven for Hope.

Vanderbush's halftime words had their desired effect. Hope charged out after the half and scored another touchdown on a 60-yard drive after taking the kickoff. Jim Pfingstel took the kickoff on his own 15 and ran it back to the Hope 40. Pfingstel, Ron Appledorn and Eddie Leverette powered the ball to the Alma one-yard line from where Leverette took a handoff and crashed through center for the score. Holwerda split the uprights for the extra point.

After taking the kickoff back to its 38, Alma tried desperately against the stubborn forward wall but couldn't get anyplace. Catarino punted on fourth down to Yonker who returned to Hope's 37.

Yonker, Pfingstel, and Leverette shoved the ball to Alma's 42-yard line. With third down and four to go, Yonker took the ball off the "T" and shoveled a lateral to Appledorn going around left end. Appledorn held up briefly to let his interference form and did a tight-rope walk down the sidelines to score standing up.

He was just inches from the sidelines all hte way along. Holwerda's kick was blocked.

The quarter ended in a few minutes. Alma tried desperately to get back in the ball game, but the brilliant Dutch defense just wouldn't give. The Scots pushed to the Hope one-foot line early in the fourth quarter but had to give the ball up on downs.

The Hope backs, such as Leverette, Pfingstel, Appledorn and others have been question marks during the first two games. However, there just isn't any question of their ability anymore. They all ran with uncanny skill and showed the crowd at Alma that Hope is definitely a title contender this season.

The Dutch forward wall, both on offense and defense was brilliant. On offense, the line opened some mile-wide holes for the backs and on defense Alma was stopped cold most of the second half.

For the locals, Yonker, Pfingstel, Appledorn, Bocks, Gene Campbell, Abe Moerland, Ripper Collins, Clare DeMull, Gord Van Hoven, Gord Timmerman, Jack van der Velde were all outstanding.

Alma's Merle Cosgrove, although forced to retire in the third quarter because of injuries, was outstanding. Joe Slotnick, Don Carey and Ray Mohr were other standouts for the Scots.

Statistics:

	Alma	Hope
First Downs	11	9
Passes attempted	11	9
Passes completed	7	3
Passes intercepted	0	2

Hope College Sorority Meets at West Hall

Alpha Sigma Alpha, Hope college freshman girls' sorority, held its first meeting of the school year Thursday evening in West hall lounge. Miss Doris Adams, sophomore, was in charge of the meeting during election of officers.

Miss Connie Boersma was named president; Miss Esther Kinney, vice president; Miss Barbara Soper, secretary, and Miss Maxine Mulder, treasurer. Miss Sally Palen is sergeant at arms, Miss Dorothy Moerdyke, chaplain, and Miss Joanne Geerds, reporter.

During the business meeting the ASA constitution was read and plans were made for a homecoming breakfast and float. Committees were appointed for both events. Singing of the sorority song concluded the meeting.

George Zuverink's best fan is his wife, Lorraine. While George pitches his way to the major leagues, his wife stands by, offering encouragement. This summer, while

Zuverink was putting them over the plate for Oklahoma City, his wife missed just eight games, and that was because of an operation that kept her down. George's contract has been purchased by the Cleveland Indians and he will report for spring training.

Charter Revision Group Votes on Four Measures

The results of many informal meetings, intensive committee studies, and individual probes of other city governments were crystallized by Holland's charter revision commission at a formal meeting Thursday night.

It was the first formal meeting since June 23, but Chairman Vernon D. Ten Cate explained that the group has made many off-the-record studies in the meantime.

The nine-member group made four definite decisions for incorporation into the proposed city charter.

An office of city auditor will be provided for in the charter. According to the resolution, it would be a centralized accounting office for the entire city government, including the Board of Public Works.

The city auditor would take over financial bookwork for all city offices and boards.

Another innovation in the proposed charter will provide for an "administrative code or plan." This was explained as a working pattern between the council and city manager, within limits of the charter.

An administrative plan eliminates details in the charter. "We're not solving details, but provide a means of taking care of details," the commissioners said.

The revision group voted to retain the Hospital and Library boards under the new charter.

However, the scope of the library board would be broadened to include "such other cultural activities that may include a museum, it was explained.

Five members, serving staggered five-year terms, will make up the Hospital board. The city manager will be a board member, without voting power, and the city clerk will be clerk of the hospital board.

Duties of the board include operation of the hospital and "such other health activities as might be assigned to it."

Ten Cate presided and all members were present, including George Sidwell, charter consultant from Lansing.

A motion to abolish the Board of Public Works wasn't supported. Members voted instead, to leave the matter for further study.

The nine members are agreed that the BPW must be made answerable to council for its actions. However differences of opinion cropped up at Thursday's meeting on the question.

One side favors divorcing the water and sewer departments from the BPW and leaving that board with the electric utility. The sewer and water departments would be placed under control of the city engineer, through the city manager.

The commission will take up the question at next Thursday's meeting.

Legion Auxiliary Has Polio Benefit Bridge

DeKruif Calls Off Long Time Feud With Physicians

Science Writer Hints Medical Association Has Undergone Purge

(In the following news story, Paul De Kruif, widely-known medical and science writer, discloses a desire to end his long feud with the American Medical association. De Kruif's offer to join forces with the AMA climaxes a 25-year period in which he has been quick to point out what he believed were faults in medical profession. De Kruif lives at Wake Robin on the Lake Michigan shore just south of Castle Park.—Editor)

Dr. Paul DeKruif, widely-known science writer and long-time critic of the American medical profession, offered today to aid the nation's doctors in a fight against socialized medicine.

"My confidence in the ability of organized medicine to care for the health of the American people has been greatly strengthened in recent months," said De Kruif in explaining his change in attitude toward the American Medical association.

DeKruif's support of the powerful AMA apparently ends one of the bitterest feuds in medical history.

Since he criticized medical practices in his first book, Our Medicine Men, in 1922, DeKruif's writings have been scored by Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the American Medical Journal.

Fishbein repeatedly has called DeKruif's books and articles inaccurate and prejudiced.

In uniting with the AMA in its struggle against socialized medicine, DeKruif appeared assured that he no longer would be in the AMA's disfavor, regardless of Fishbein's denunciations.

DeKruif, a bacteriologist, believes that government control of American medicine would be detrimental to the nation's health.

"Socialized medicine would soon destroy the initiative of doctors and take away much of the inspiration from medical research," he said. "Already there is too much governmental control exerted in research."

"But most of all," he added, "the entering wedge to socialism on a board scale would be socialized medicine."

The widely-known medical writer pointed out that, although he is against a federal health plan such as that proposed by President Truman, he is a strong advocate of "pre-paid" health programs which have become popular in recent years.

"Great strides have been made in improving medical care by doctors, and even greater advancement looms in the future if governmental control is not forced upon physicians," he said.

DeKruif seemed ready to forgive and forget the long feud with Fishbein.

"A lot of blows were aimed my way, but I learned to roll with them and never was really abused," he said with a smile.

Fishbein's displeasure over DeKruif's writing apparently increased when the bacteriologist began writing regularly for a national magazine in 1940. Many of his stories on discovery of new drugs and techniques were denounced by the AMA editor as "premature."

DeKruif said he never stopped writing what he saw.

"I have had a change of mind on ideas I entertained 20 years ago concerning the medical profession," he said. "But I have changed because much of what I formerly criticized is no longer present."

"The American Medical association is democratizing itself, and that alone is most healthy sign I have seen in a generation."

Antlerless Deer Season Attracts Many Applicants

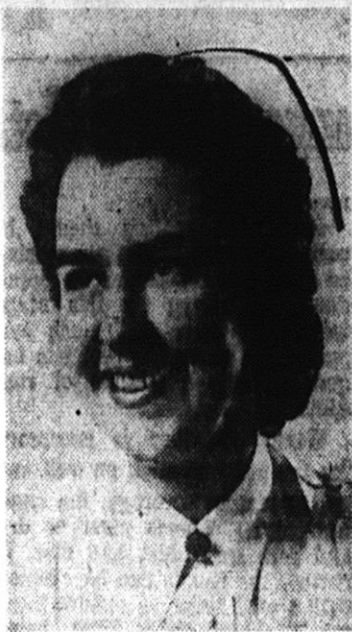

Allegan, Oct. 13 (Special)—With 7,000 acres added to the Allegan county area for the special antlerless deer season Dec. 1 to Dec. 10, applications from hunters are expected to far exceed the 800 permit limit, Orland Haugen, manager of Swan Creek station, reports.

Hunters are applying now to general operations division, Department of Conservation at Lansing. Permits will be granted after a drawing as the season opens.

The additional area comprises Manlius, Heath and Saugatuck townships—orchard areas where deer control is needed. Haugen said. It gives hunters a total of 42,000 acres to hunt out does and bucks with less than three-inch antlers.

The regular shotgun season which opens Nov. 15 to Nov. 30 will not be limited by permits. Hunters are allowed to use buckshot and slugs, the latter giving them greater range.

Troth Announced Saugatuck

Miss Lois Kathryn Heasley. The engagement of Miss Lois Kathryn Heasley, daughter of Mrs. L. E. Heasley, West 18th St., to Gail E. Beck, has been announced by the bride-elect's mother. Mr. Beck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beck of Owen, Wis. Miss Heasley is a graduate of the Edward W. Sparrow Hospital School of Nursing, Lansing, and is employed at Holland hospital. Mr. Beck is a staff member in the department of horticulture at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. He received his bachelor and master of science degrees at Michigan State college.

Hurricanes Plan Zeeland Workout

The Holland Hurricane football team is going to Zeeland Thursday night for a scrimmage and offensive workout under the lights at Zeeland football field.

Holland plays the Ionia Independents Saturday night at Riverview park.

Backed against the wall because of early darkness these evenings, Coaches Jay Van Hoven and Ed Damson persuaded the sponsoring Lions club to find a place for night practice.

Players cannot report earlier than 6:30 p.m. because of jobs and trips to Holland from out of town.

Coaches urged that all team members be at the 19th St. field Thursday evening at 7 p.m. for the trip to Zeeland. They plan an extensive scrimmage to correct the many offensive faults.

Eastern Star Officers Honored in Ceremony

Star point, Electa officers were honored in a candlelight ceremony Tuesday night by Holland chapter, No. 429, OES. Gifts and flowers were presented to each by Mrs. Harold Jensen, worthy matron.

Officers elected following the ceremony were: Worthy matron, Mrs. Leon Moody; worthy patron, Louis Hietje; associate matron, Mrs. A. G. Greening; associate patron, A. B. Greening; secretary, Mrs. Eldon Dick; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Orr; conductress, Mrs. Ellen Anderson; associate conductress, Mrs. Jud Hohl and alternate delegates, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Hohl and Mrs. Henry Streur.

At an open meeting on Oct. 25 at 8 p.m. the public is invited to attend the installation of these officers.

Holland chapter and its worthy matron, Mrs. Jensen, were invited by the worthy grand matron of Michigan to attend the Grand Chapter in Grand Rapids Oct. 11, 12 and 13 to act as grand escort.

Members who have been in the order for 25 years were also honored at the meeting which included the annual report on activities by Mrs. Jensen, the secretary, treasurer and sunshine committee.

Outside chapters have been invited to participate in Friendship night, Oct. 18 to take part in initiatory work. Worthy Grand Patron Leland Barnes and Grand Chaplain Eulah Barnes have accepted the invitation to attend.

Refreshments following the meeting were served by Mrs. Earl Price, Mrs. William Slater and Mrs. Raymond Wilkinson.

Bethlehem Chapter Elects New Officers

Mrs. Thomas Longstreet was elected worthy matron of the Star of Bethlehem chapter No. 40, OES, at its meeting Thursday night. Rudolph Eriksen was named worthy patron; Mrs. Lowell Blackburn, assistant matron; Lambert Schultemeyer, assistant patron; Mrs. E. J. Bacheller, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Williams, treasurer; Mrs. William Broder, conductress; Mrs. Ford Weeks, assistant conductress. John Fisher, worthy patron, presided at the meeting.

Sixty members attended the meeting. Yearly reports were given by the worthy matron, secretary and treasurer.

Alternate delegates to the grand chapter Oct. 11, 12 and 13 at Grand Rapids, are Mrs. Arthur White, Mrs. Rudolph Eriksen and Mrs. Clifford Hopkins. Delegates are the worthy matron, assistant worthy matron and worthy patron.

The secretary was instructed to ask the grand chapter for a special dispensation to hold a meeting Nov. 4 instead of Nov. 3, because the latter is the date of the county association.

Installation of new officers will be held Oct. 20.

Refreshments were served by mittes.

Because every effort is made to keep Holland hospital's nursery free of germs, these three Junior Welfare League leaders (in top picture) don sterilized gowns before entering the new nursery to pose amid equipment the league provided, valued at $2,000. The photographer shot the picture through a doorway. Left to right are Mrs. Andrew Volink, past president, Mrs. James White, president this year, and Mrs. Robert Wilson, who served as chairman on the hospital projects committee. They are admiring little Beth Louise Wildmen, peacefully content in the plastic basket on one of the 20 new bassinets. Note the storage space underneath cradling for the baby's clothing and supplies. Lower picture shows Cornelia Bos, nursery supervisor, demonstrating the new modern incubator, one of a pair donated by the league. At right is the old type which has only a tiny window in the top. The new five-foot viewing window is at the rear. (Sentinel photos)

Junior Welfare League Proud of New Nursery

A roomy new nursery with a large viewing window, fluffy white criss-cross curtains and enough room for 20 brand new bassinets is now in operation at Holland hospital.

Virtually all furnishings and equipment for the new nursery have been provided by the Junior Welfare League which raised approximately $2,000 during a three-year period for this project.

The new nursery lies just north of the old nursery on the second floor. The old slanting partition in the hall through which proud fathers and grandmothers could view the new offspring in the old nursery is now spring has been removed, and used as a weighing and formula room.

Perhaps most novel are the new bassinets which can be rolled to the five by five-foot viewing window for inspection by admiring grownups. In this way the baby is not disturbed by handling. What's more, the convenient bassinets have storage space for all baby's clothing and the necessary jars for oil, cotton and whatever else is needed to keep the newborn happy.

Of the 20 bassinets, 12 are of the new plastic type—the kind in which the nursery attendant can spot at a glance whether all is well with her young charges. Such bassinets are in use in Grand Haven, Allegan, Grand Rapids and Muskegon.

Other equipment provided by the League includes two modern new incubators, the glassed-in type in which the baby is easy to see. They replace two "wash-tub" types which had only a small window to spot the tiny occupant.

The League also has provided scales and other articles for the nursery. Hospital Director Fred Burd said a plaque will be placed on the door acknowledging the gifts.

The League started this project three years ago when Mrs. Gleon Bonnette was president. For the most part, funds were raised through bazaars, bridge parties, children's plays, Christmas paper and cards, decorations, college dances, making and selling plum puddings (611 last year), baked goods sales and a home talent play for children.

The Junior Welfare League was organized here in 1932 by Mrs. John K. Winter, Mrs. Clarence Becker and Mrs. Marian Stryker for the purpose of helping children and babies. It was patterned after the Junior League of Grand Rapids, but the name "Junior Welfare League" was selected because the Holland group could not qualify as a national Junior League.

With six members of the Woman's Literary club as honorary members, the club started with 21 members. Today, after 17 years, the League has an active membership of 75. Its schedule includes purchase of glasses for needy children, making and distributing layettes to needy families, and purchasing and distributing Christmas baskets to needy families.

Monthly projects are scheduled and all money earned is spent on the community in whatever manner the group directs.

The city tax books have been closed and all unpaid assessments will be spread over the fall tax bills.

Collections totaled $456,269.98 of the total assessed $466,580.49. This amounts to 97.8 per cent.

In 1946, collections were 98.6 of the total summer tax levy.

The largest government arsenal is located on Rock Island, close to this city, which took its name from the island.

Summer tax collections fell just two-tenths of one per cent below total collections last year, according to the final collection figure revealed today by City Treasurer Henry J. Beckfort.

The city tax books have been closed and all unpaid assessments will be spread over the fall tax bills.

Collections totaled $456,269.98 of the total assessed $466,580.49. This amounts to 97.8 per cent.

Newspaper Group Tours Farm Co-ops In Allegan County

Farm editors and other representatives of newspapers in a four-county area in western Michigan were given a new insight into the operation of farm co-ops Wednesday when they toured five establishments in Allegan county in a farm bureau-sponsored tour.

Climax of the tour was a visit to Hamilton Farm Bureau, a pioneer in the quality egg marketing field, which operates in addition to its grain and feed implement sales and appliance stores. Plans are under way to build new fertilizer plant.

The group toured Allegan Farmers Co-op in Allegan, Otsego Sanitary Milk Products Co. in Otsego, Martin Farmers Co-op in Martin and the Salem Co-operative Co. in Dorr.

Throughout the day, the press crowd inspected the latest in modern equipment. Representatives had ample opportunity to discuss farm problems with farm bureau board members. It was learned that Allegan farmers generally do not favor the government's program for support prices. As one director put it: "If we go in for support prices, all the way, there will have to be control, and I don't want to be told exactly just what I may grow on my own land."

The tour was arranged by James C. Curtis, secretary of the Allegan Farm Bureau board, and A. D. Morley, Allegan county agricultural agent. Several extension leaders of Michigan State college joined the tour. Dinner featuring chicken barbecue, roasted outdoors in a portable pit designed by MSC specialists, was served in Hamilton.

End Ed Boeve, Jim Schurman and George Botis also stood out on defense.

Harris, Norm and Elwin Rider, Uribi and Ted Coslewski were outstanding for the visitors.

The appeal from justice court is brought by the Allegan County road commission versus David Bennett over a gate built by the Chicagoan on his property at Saugatuck.

Prosecutor Chester Ray, representing the county board, asked three days be set aside for the trial.

The case of Raymond Selkirk and 38 other Selkirk lake property owners against Charles Walker on the issue of irrigating with lake water was set over to the next term of court, due to the heavy calendar.

Chancery cases will occupy the court this week, with the jury to report next Monday.

Police today warned children against playing in piles of leaves in the streets.

Officers reported they received two complaints of "close calls" Monday from motorists.

Parents are asked to co-operate with police in watching that children don't play in the leaves in streets. Police point out that each year many children are run over while buried in piles of leaves at curbs.

Chief Jacob Van Hoff also asks motorists to exercise caution to prevent such accidents.

Allegan Circuit Court Terms Are Changed

Allegan, Oct. 13 (Special)—Court terms for the Ottawa-Allegan circuit will be changed next year, Judge Raymond Smith has notified County Clerk Esther W. Hettiger.

Allegan terms will be set for February, May, September and November, instead of the January, April, July and October terms as present.

The change will end the coincidence of court opening at the same time of the county board of supervisors sessions here.

Jackson All-Stars Beat Hurricanes In League Contest

Classy Elwin Rider Stars for Visitors; DeVries Tops Locals

Paced by the best runners in the Michigan Football league, the Jackson Metro All-Stars gouged out a 13-0 victory over the Holland Hurricanes Saturday night at Riverview park.

Official paid attendance at the game was 1,386.

Elwin Rider was the spark that kindled 283 yards rushing for the Stars compared with 65 yards rushing for the Canes. Rider ran 34 yards for the second Jackson and reeled off many long gains throughout the contest.

Holland's defense closed up deep in its own territory more than once to prevent Jackson scores. And the local offense flashed briefly in the first quarter, but couldn't hit the double stripe.

But the story of the game was Jackson on offense and Holland on defense most of the time.

The Canes advanced the ball to Jackson's 34-yard line early in the game, but punted after two passes fell incomplete. The closest the locals could get in the second half was to the Stars 42-yard line.

Halfway through the second quarter, Red Hulst punted for Holland from his own 30 to the Jackson 32. Rider took the ball and ran it back to the Jackson 45. Bob Snell and Roy Uribi aided by two tackle-arounds by Jack Harris plunked the pigskin on Holland's two yard line. From there, Uribi hit off left tackle for the score. Ken Shafley booted for the point but the ball went outside the posts.

Just before the end of the first half, Jackson punched to Holland's six yard line. However, Uribi was spilled for no gain, a five-yard offside penalty moved the ball back to the 11, and Rider's fumble was recovered by Ted Bos to end the threat.

Jackson went all the way to Holland's five-yard line in the third period but gave the ball up on downs.

Holland's brief offensive flash came in the first period. The locals had taken over on their own 35 after stopping the Jackson attack on fourth down. Don Leeuw, Red Hulst and Howie Peterson racked up two first downs and the ball was on Jackson's 34. Two passes failed and Hulst punted to the Stars 12 where it was downed.

A couple of Holland passes in the last few minutes of the game hinted toward a drive but a fumble ended the threat.

Rider ripped off his touchdown run in the last minute of the game. With fourth down and two yards to go on Holland's 34, Rider went through a mile-wide gap on the left side of Holland's line and cut toward the sidelines. He outraced the secondary and crossed the goal.

This time Shafley dropped back to boot for the point, but the center was low. He picked it up and ran around right end for the point.

Jason DeVries once again was the best Hurricane on the field. He robbed the ball away from Jackson runners three times and played an outstanding defensive game.

End Ed Boeve, Jim Schurman and George Botis also stood out on defense.

Harris, Norm and Elwin Rider, Uribi and Ted Coslewski were outstanding for the visitors.

Fruit Growers Concerned About Mice Damage

Poisoned Grain Placed In Grass After Harvest Good Control Program

Fruit growers are concerned over damage done to trees by mice. L. R. Arnold believes that growers must carry on a continuous mouse-control program otherwise great damage may occur. Most orchardists have sod in the orchards, particularly apple orchards. Many resort to mulching. This grass and mulch make an excellent protection for mice.

Poisoned grain may be distributed in the grass just after harvest. The grain can be distributed in a single row along the drip line on each side of the tree rows at rate of not more than 10-20 grains per linear foot. Bait might well be placed around the border of the whole orchard. The bait is most effective if it falls through the grass to the ground. This also helps to hide it from birds and other creatures.

Zinc phosphide is now used to poison the grain.

The bait may be dyed with methylene green dye.

The following formula is recommended: 100 pounds cracked corn, 2 pounds zinc phosphide, 1 quart vegetable oil, 1/2 ounce methylene green dye.

The dye is not oil soluble but may be mixed with the dry zinc phosphide before adding to the oil. The prepared grain will then turn green in the orchard in contact with moisture from the ground, dew, frost, or rain.

Mix the zinc phosphide with the oil to form a thin paste. Avoid breathing the dust and work outdoors or in an open, airy place.

Gloves should be worn. Pour the paste over the grain in a large metal tub and use a hoe to mix the mass very completely so that the grains are evenly coated. More poison will stick to the broken corn surfaces than to the unbroken surface and this is desirable. Avoid breathing the fumes given off while mixing.

The prepared grain may be sowed immediately or left in the mixing container. Since zinc phosphide is poisonous to humans and to all animals the material should be stored carefully. Do not store the prepared bait in a tightly closed building where animals or people are present but it must be kept dry. It will keep for several months in a dry place without serious loss of strength. Label all containers "POISON" and use them for no other purpose.

Fall Good Time To Plant Roses; Do It Correctly

By The Master Gardener

The question of whether to plant roses in the fall or spring will produce an argument whenever rose growers get together. The answer depends upon several factors. Both fall and spring plantings have their advantages.

However, year in and year out, fall planting gives the best results in the moderately cold winter sections, that is, in all of the U. S. except the extreme north and the lower south. In the northern areas, since winter comes so early, spring planting is usually preferable. In the lower south, where the winter is mild and warm, roses should be planted when the bushes are most nearly dormant.

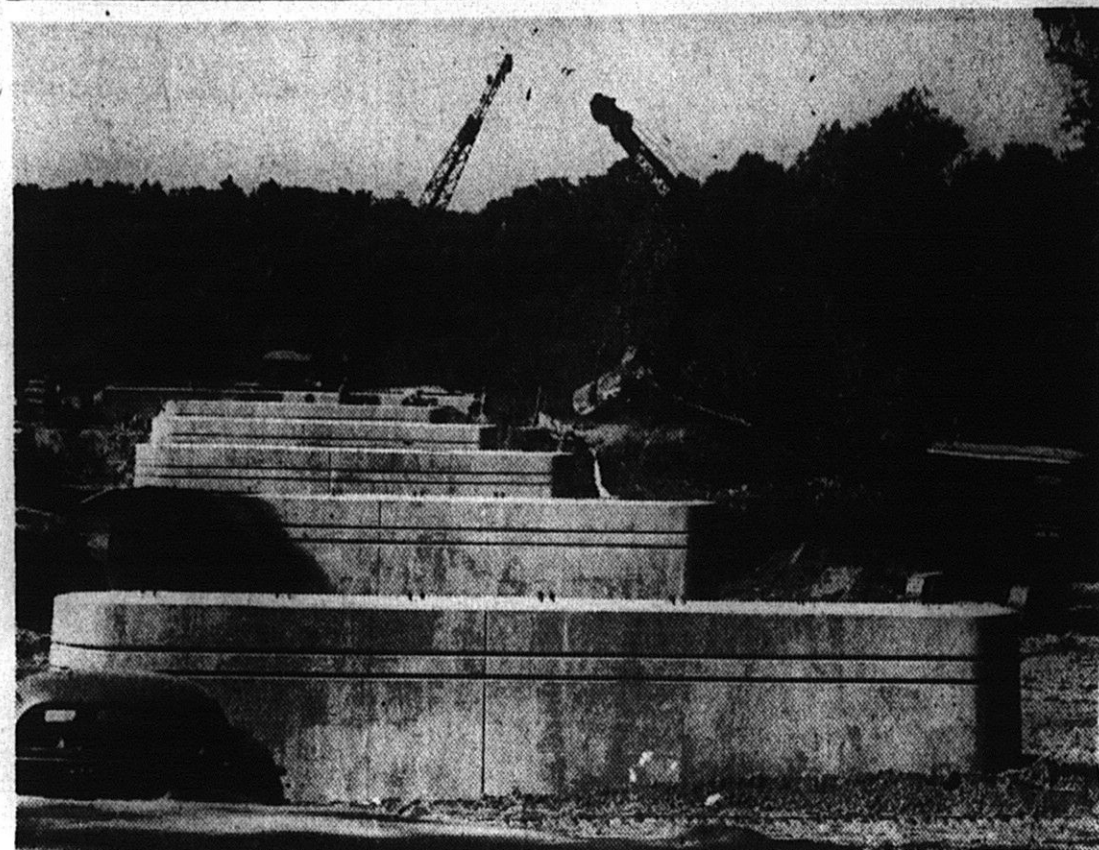

The advantages of fall plantings are: Soil conditions are usually better for planting; the gardener is not so rushed by other duties; plants are usually not out of the ground long before they are delivered; nurseries have a full stock of popular varieties, and fall planting gives the plant a chance to grow into gradual adjustment. Since roots are never entirely dormant, when the soil temperature gets a few degrees above freezing plants will make some growth.

Whether you want to plant a new rose garden, increase your plantings or change the size and shape of your rose garden the first things to do is to decide what you want in color, size, and type. This means a session with your rose catalogs and reference books. Later contact your nurseryman and arrange to secure the plants you need.

Don't make the common mistake of planting roses too close together. Plenty of space for each plant is needed for several reasons. More blooms per plant are produced and flowers are usually of better quality. With plenty of space, there is opportunity to work around the bushes easily. Better light and air conditions prevail and disease control is easier.

Hybrid Teas, Polyanthas and Floribundas should be planted about two to two and one-half feet apart. In the lower south they should be at least three feet apart.

Plant Correctly
Roses should be planted in a sunny location and in a soil that is fertile and well drained. Broken and bruised roots should be removed and the top growth cut back to 6 or 8 inches. Grafted

Foundations for the new bridge across the Kalamazoo river on the new Allegan - Fennville highway are shown here as work progresses on the span. Routed through a scenic section of Allegan state forest, the highway is not expected to be opened until next year.

Shucks, No Sidewalk Superintendents For This New Bridge in Allegan County

Allegan, Oct. 13 (Special)—One of the best opportunities for the Allegan chapter of Sidewalk Superintendents is slipping away—because the biggest bridge construction for some time around here is deep in Allegan state forest. There's no traffic. No onlookers. It's the 360-foot span across the Kalamazoo river which will carry traffic between Allegan and Fennville on the re-located M-89.

Barring delays in steel delivery, the bridge will be completed this fall to the point of pouring the concrete floor, Paul Nordgren, district bridge engineer for the state highway department, predicts. June 15, 1950 is Contractor L. W. Lamb's completion date.

But the bridge won't see immediate use. While the highway is graded and graveled from its intersection with M-40 to the bridge, there is little more than a right-of-way for the remainder of the distance to where it will join the blacktop two miles out of Fennville. A contract for that portion has not been let.

The highway, cutting straight through the forest, will be a scenic and safe route, if not much shorter in mileage, to the lake shore. It will eliminate the many curves and two of the three railroad crossings on the present M-89. Tom Conlan district road engineer in charge of the project, points out. It will be paved with blacktop materials.

The concrete bridge will have a 28-foot wide roadway, with two foot and a half walks. Despite the lack of an onlookers' advisory committee, it seems to be coming along splendidly.

Bangs Program In Progress

The Bangs control program now in progress is proceeding at a normal and uniform rate, according to L. R. Arnold. The program in Ottawa county is under direct supervision of Dr. F. Waddell, veterinarian. Headquarters are at Zeeland.

Since July a total of 1,085 herds have been tested including 10,770 cattle. At present, farms are being visited by veterinarians in the following townships: Jamestown, Georgetown, Tallmadge, Wright, Chester, Polkton, Allendale, Blendon, Zeeland and Holland. No townships have been fully covered yet in the initial test. After the county has been completed, a re-check in all herds will be conducted. It will require several months to complete the county.

Over 40 counties have been tested thus far. The first testing started several years ago in northern counties. There has been steady progression toward the southern counties.

plants should be set so the graft is 1 to 2 inches below the soil surface. Dig the planting hole about six or eight inches deeper than needed for the plant and large enough to accommodate the roots without crowding or bending. If the soil has a tendency to be soggy during wet weather, place some rocks and gravel in the bottom of the hole to facilitate drainage. Mix one rounded tablespoonful of complete plant food with the soil that goes under the rose plant. Cover this mixture with loose soil and mound in middle of the planting hole.

Set the rose plant over the mound, spread roots, fill in some soil and firm. Firm two or three times before the hole is completely filled. Pull soil up around the plant making a mound of some three or four inches high. In the central and northern sections, newly planted roses should be mulched—the first winter. Mulching materials should not be applied until the ground is frozen.

It doesn't take an expert to grow good roses. If you follow these planting directions, start monthly feedings of complete plant food early in the spring and protect your plants from insects and diseases by regular use of an all-purpose insecticide-fungicide, you will find yourself well on the way to being a successful rose grower.

Achievement Day for Women Is Scheduled

Members and friends of the women's extension club work are invited to attend the annual achievement day program to be held at the Coopersville theater, on Friday, Oct. 14.

The morning program is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. and the afternoon program at 1:30 p.m. Among the interesting features of the day will be the informal discussion carried on by several foreign students now enrolled at Michigan State college. There will be a revue of the coats and suits made by the women of the tailoring class. Musical numbers will be presented by various members of the Coopersville band. A group of women from the Presbyterian church of Spring Lake will present a humorous play, "The New Minister's Wife."

Dinner reservations should be made before Tuesday, with Mrs. Ward Keppel, route 2, Zeeland.

Pullman

(From Friday's Sentinel)

The Pullman Ladies Aid has invited the Pearl Ladies Aid to a meeting at the Pullman IOOF hall Thursday, Oct. 20.

Alfred Carlsen is building a garage at his home west of Pullman.

American Legion Auxiliary 273 met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jerry Spurlock.

Mrs. Grace Burrows is convalescing at her home after being injured in an automobile accident. She was thrown from the Berg car in which she was a passenger, when it was struck by a car driven by Lucille Wightman of Fennville, route 2. She was taken to Allegan Health center and treated for a cut on the back of her head and bad bruises.

The Pullman Rebekah lodge will meet Wednesday, Oct. 12, at the Pullman IOOF hall. After a party for members whose birthdays are in August, September and October, supper will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mahne and son, Walter, entertained guests from Chicago recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hayes, who live northeast of Pullman, had as week-end guests their son, William Hayes of Chicago, and daughters, Mrs. Tony Kerchow of Crystal Lake, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrich Krema, of near Bravo, drove to Cicero, Ill., to visit her mother, Mrs. Rose Cady and family, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pypen and daughter.

Mrs. Harry Clark and children moved Friday from the farm of the Rev. Floyd Hoag to the Spurlock cottage in Pullman.

George Munson had as a guest last week-end, his sister, Mrs. Ollie Goldsmith of Chicago.

Driver Waives on Homicide Count

Grand Haven, Oct. 13 (Special)—Carl Holmes, 55, Grand Rapids, charged with negligent homicide in connection with a fatal accident Sept. 25 south of Jamestown, waived examination in Justice Howard W. Erwin's court in Coopersville Friday. He will appear in circuit court later.

Holmes had previously demanded examination which was set Oct. 6.

Mrs. Jane Hoffman, 71, Grand Rapids, was killed and eight were injured in the two-car accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jacobusse, Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Witteveen and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beebe attended the ball game at Detroit Saturday.

Movies on the "Prince of Peace" will be shown at the North Shore Community hall Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Roller skating for children under 14 years at the North Shore Community hall Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m.

Good Soil Result Of Cover Crops

The humane society doesn't make people put a blanket on the soil nor does the soil grumble about not being covered. But L. R. Arnold, Ottawa county agricultural agent, says that the results show up in poor soil condition later.

Cover crops are usually thought of as protection from wind and water erosion, he says; but big losses occur from leaching also. A living cover crop will collect some of these losses and retain them for future use.

Arnold agrees with Leonard Braams, Michigan State college soils specialist, who states that rye is a good cover crop. The regular rye gives good soil protection. If spring pasture is needed, balbo rye is recommended.

In Ottawa county, rye can still be seeded until about Oct. 15. A seeding of one and one-half to 2 bushels is sufficient. Commercial fertilizer will help get a quicker protective cover. Two hundred pounds of 2-16-8 or 4-16-8 or 3-12-12 on light sandy land is the recommended application.

Ottawa Beach Closes Oct. 15

Holland state park, jammed with tourists less than a month ago, today is a barren, wind-swept chunk of sandy beach, dotted with snow fences.

Occasionally a car drives through the park, or one of the four remaining attendants walks through the area. But the bumper-to-bumper traffic, crowded tent and trailer spaces and filled picnic tables are gone for another season.

However, 1,500 persons visited the park last Sunday, and used all 30 picnic tables.

The park officially closes Oct. 15. Picnic tables, refuse cans, and toilets will remain open until snow or severe cold, according to Clare Broad, park superintendent.

A quick thumb through attendance figures during the season through Sunday, totals 1,287,664 visitors. A total of 1,957 camping permits were issued.

Broad explained the camping figure is down this year due to respecting to cut down fire hazards and to give campers additional room.

Tent spaces were divided into squares for the first time this summer.

The dressing room and concession at the park will remain open until Oct. 15, Broad said.

Rural Carriers, Wives Have Potluck Supper

Members of the Ottawa County Rural Letter Carriers association and their wives met Friday night. A potluck supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, 165 East Eighth St. Fifty members attended.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Kronmeyer and Mrs. Anna De Boer. Slides were shown by Henry Strabbing, a retired carrier from Hamilton.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curtiss of Hudsonville. A Thanksgiving program will be given.

Dutch Outclass Tough Trojans To Win 19-6

Good Fundamentals Pave Victory Path For Holland Warriors

Displaying top flight football form, Holland High's Dutchmen won a stubbornly fought 19-6 decision here Friday night from Grand Rapids South, before an estimated 5,000 fans who basked in banana belt weather.

Taking over on their own 40 when the kickoff was out of bounds, the Dutch worked power plays to advance the ball to the five-yard line. On fourth down, after a reverse lost six yards, Bruce Van Voorst tried a pass to Tom Carey in the end zone. It was incomplete and the threat ended. Neither team threatened again and the quarter ended scoreless.

Holland took over after South had kicked early in the second period, and ran and passed the ball to the South 35 where a series of downs ended in fourth and 18 inches. Van Voorst gambled and sent Joe Fendt crashing through the center for a yard and a first down. A mixed running attack put the ball on South's 26-yard line. Then Tasma heaved a beautiful pass into the hands of Ike Immink far across the field and the lanky end, juggling the ball on his fingers, glommed onto the ball and ran the final eight yards to the goal line. Paul Vander Meer's kick was good.

That ended the scoring in the first period, although a fake punt by South gave the stands a thrill when Curt Cable almost broke away after starting from his own goal line.

South's offense, bottled up all first half by aggressive line play by the durable Dutch, got rolling as the second half opened. The Trojans received and with Cable and Jack McDowell alternating put on a dazzling display of running and passing. They advanced the ball to Holland's 25-yard line before Holland linemen stiffened and Holland took over.

Two plays later, the Dutch had scored again. On the first play, Van Voorst ran to his right, feinted to the right and then calmly heaved the ball clear across the field to Immink on Holland's 45. Ike rushed the ball ahead to South's 35 before being overhauled by South's safety. And on the next play Tasma broke into the open and in the best exhibition of open field running at Riverview park this year pivoted, sidestepped and skittered 35 yards to score. Vander Meer's kick hit the goal post and fell dead.

Again the stubborn Trojans started a scoring threat, moving from their own 36-yard line to Holland's 10 in 10 plays, including a fancy pass, Splint Shaver to Carroll, who jumped high in the air to take the ball away from two Dutch defenders.

The fourth quarter was marked by threat and counter threat. Holland almost caught McDowell behind his own goal line on a fake punt, but he eluded tacklers and got free. Holland's line got a little more aggressive in closing minute of play and with Carey, Tasma and Fendt carrying the mail moved to another score with Tasma bouncing into the end zone after a sweep. The score was courtesy of Carey who took two tacklers out of play, bumping one and knocking the second down.

Van Voorst called plays with uncanny skill, which Carey, Tasma and Fendt executed with precision. In line play, no single man could be handed laurels on offense. The entire forward wall showed up well in fundamental blocking assignments. Ike Immink showed well in pass catching. On defense, Jay Vander Sluis, captain for the game, Bob Tasma, Jack Kuiper, and Dick Draper sparred.

Coaches Bob Stupka and Curley Wiegier were well pleased and didn't mind saying so. All week long they had drilled their charges to avoid over confidence. They said now a rest would be in order, since the 70-plus temperatures had sapped the physical reserves of their squad. Few substitutions were made, because Stupka explained South is a good ball club and a few seconds let-down could have been disastrous. Game statistics:

Good Care Means Longer Life for Metal Roofing

Metal roofs are noted for durability, says Michigan State college agricultural engineer, George Amundson. But he advises careful attention to application and preservation of these roofs for longest life.

Screw-type nails have proved preferable to smooth-shank nails for fastening metal sheets securely to roof sheathing. Sheet metal screws have been used satisfactorily to fasten sheets together where the wood structure did not hold nails. A No. 12 half-inch galvanized screw-nail was also satisfactory as it fills old nail holes.

Asbestos wicking has been found to be a good material for gaskets in the sheet laps, but not more than two strands should be used or the sheets may be spread apart too far. Galvanized roofing should be painted as soon as the galvanizing or zinc coating begins to break down. Painting as this stage takes less labor and much less paint than when the roof has begun to show a number of rust spots.

Warm weather is necessary for the paint to stick on well and get maximum coverage, the engineer states. Sheets must be dry and free from dust and dirt. If rusted, the sheets can be cleaned with a wire brush to remove loose particles and scale. First, paint all rusted spots and allow to dry before applying a coat over the entire roof.

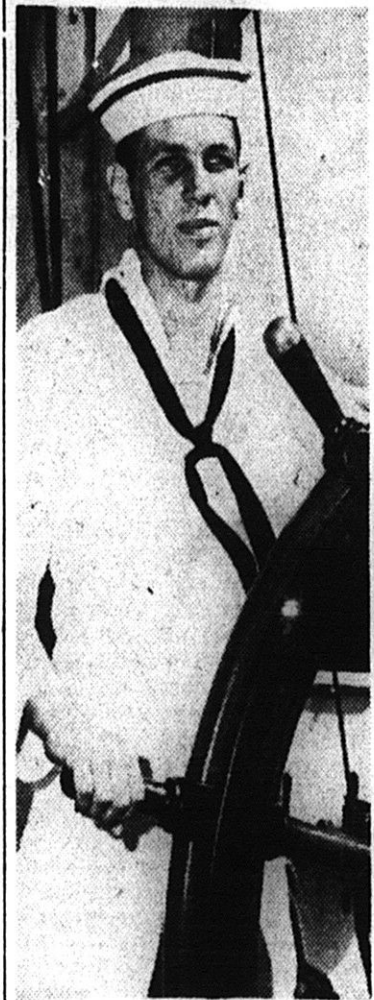

Wire brushing is not necessary

if the paint is applied with a spray gun, but the roof should be swept with a broom just before painting. Metallic zinc paint has given excellent service in many tests.

Central Homecoming

Central Michigan college, Mt. Pleasant, has announced plans for the annual homecoming celebration scheduled for Oct. 28, 29 and 30. A football game with Hillsdale is scheduled for Oct. 29 at 2:30 p.m. Organization reunions, an alumni luncheon, parade, crowning of homecoming queen, coffee hour, varsity club dinner and a homecoming ball are also scheduled on that day.

Ex-Local Youth Is at Academy

William Holland Bruinma

A former Holland high school student was one of 275 successful candidates out of 1,449 applicants to pass a competitive examination for entrance into the United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

He is William Anton Bruinma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Bruinma, formerly of Holland, who now live at 1974 Wood St., Muskegon.

Of the 1,449 who applied from throughout the nation, 1,034 qualified for the examination and 572 out of that group received qualifying scores in all subjects in which they were examined.

The first 275 were appointed. Bruinma rated No. 133 on the 274-man list and took his oath of office as a cadet July 7.

Principal J. J. Riemersma of Holland high recently received a commendation for the high standards at the local school that enable a student to pass the rigid entrance exam.

Another Coast Guard exam is scheduled for Feb. 20 and 21, 1950. Further information is available by writing the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C.

Events Scheduled By Grace Church

Grace Episcopal church begins its fall schedule of events Thursday with the annual pence party and parish supper in the guild hall. St. Anne's guild is in charge, assisted by St. Agnes guild.

On Nov. 3, Grace church women will entertain the fifth region of the diocese of Western Michigan. In order that all the local women can attend the communion and meetings, Roy Young and his staff will put on the noon luncheon. Mrs. Lambert Van Dis, president of the Women's Council, appointed a committee in charge of registration and additional duties. They are Mrs. H. Raffenaud, Mrs. A. C. Yost and Mrs. John Kramer.

The fall United Thank offering will be taken Sunday, Nov. 6. Mrs. Robert Rose, UTO custodian, reported the 1948 fall collection was $73.36, the largest in the parish's history. A corporate communion for women is being planned for this occasion.

St. Catherine's guild is in charge of the parish supper on Nov. 10. St. Anne's guild will set the tables.

All-parish women's activities include a tea on Oct. 26 at 2 p.m. Newcomers to the church will have an opportunity to get acquainted at this birthday tea.

Confirmation classes will begin on Oct. 18 and Bishop Lewis B. Whittemore will confirm candidates on Dec. 4.

First American railroad joined Schenectady and Albany, New York, August 12, 1830.

A cord of seasoned wood will give as much heat as a ton of coal, and leave about one-quarter the amount of ashes.

School Election Set in Allegan

Allegan, Oct. 13 (Special)—A reduction in estimated building costs of $110,000 for Allegan's proposed new school has resulted in the setting of Dec. 6 for a second special election on the bond issue, according to Arthur Kaechele, superintendent of schools.

The board of education ordered the election on a $490,000 bond, the original plans for a 27-room school remaining intact.

Officials said they were informed building costs had dropped to a leveling-off point and revised estimates are on the basis of 70 cents per cubic foot instead of the earlier 85 cents. While there has been no reduction in materials, labor and other costs are responsible for the cut, they were told.

An election on the issue was voted down last June 13. The lower figure plus the fact that the new school term brought serious overcrowding problems, is expected to put the voters behind the project, officials said.
