Interesting Scandinavian Story Related for Club

In accents reminiscent of Scandinavia, Thyra Ferre Bjorn told the interesting story of "How Mama Got Papa" at a weekly meeting of the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon.

Appearing in colorful native costume, Mrs. Bjorn told how mama at 16 was hired as a housemaid for a handsome 38-year-old bachelor minister in Lapland, Sweden. Mama proved to be such a good cook and worker that she was promoted to the rank of housekeeper two years later. Mama wanted badly to marry papa but papa didn't get the idea, and it wasn't until mama accompanied a family to America and got a job as second cook in a fine house on Fifth Ave. that papa realized he missed her.

When papa came to New York on his month-long vacation, he visited mama and he wanted her to return to Sweden as his housekeeper. But mama managed the situation and practically proposed. There were some breathless moments before the knot was tied.

ending five years of waiting for mama.

Mrs. Bjorn's narrative traced further developments, the arrival of eight children and the ultimate arrival in America where papa at 59 took over a small Swedish-speaking church in New England. Mama had decided that America was the land of promise, a land where her eight children could get an education—a college education.

The speaker concluded with a general windup. Papa died in 1938 while he and mama were in a visit to Sweden. Mama today is 78 and is living in Miami, Fla. Mrs. Bjorn, second born, has written a book on "How Mama Got Papa" which has sold 40,000 copies and which has been translated into six languages.

Mrs. Clarence Becker, president, presided at the meeting and introduced Mrs. Bjorn.

Next week's meeting will be titled "Gavel and Travel," featuring talks by Mary Bosch, delegate to Girls' State, and Barbara Emmick, community ambassador this year to Chile.

Blaze Causes Heavy Loss To Red Brick

Local Fireman Treated For Burns; Believed Started by Kinding

One Holland firemen was injured and an estimated $15,000 damage was caused by a fire at the Red Brick Tourist Rooms, corner of Rive Ave. and 12th St. Monday morning.

Fireman Ralph Jones, 43, of 264 West 13th St., was treated at Holland Hospital for mild burns of the face and left side of neck. Jones said he was pulling a smoking cornice off a window on the second floor when it "exploded" in his face.

Crowds of people some in their pajamas watched firemen battle the smoldering blaze for more than two hours from around 8 a.m. to after 10 a.m.

Fire Chief Dick Brandt said that the fire started in the basement, and worked up through the walls of the building to the first and second floors.

Chief Brandt believes that the fire was started by kindling piled near a hot smoke pipe.

Great clouds of smoke poured from the doors, windows and eaves, even squirting out from cracks in the brick. The fire, working up inside the walls, was hard to kill, and firemen were forced to chop open the walls and woodwork to get at it.

Firemen forced to enter the building to fight the fire wore gas masks to work through the strangling smoke. A foot and a half of water was standing in the basement as firemen used hydrants up to a block away on the stubborn flames.

Fireman Teno VandeWater grabbed Jones as he was burned and helped him to safety. Jones returned to fight the fire, however, until ordered to go to the hospital.

The building is owned by Leon DeVries, and is said to be covered by insurance.

Muskegon Heights Stops Dutch, 18-0

Osie McCarty Makes 3 TD's For 3rd Win

Muskegon Heights' football team handed Holland its third straight loss of the season Friday night with an 18-0 victory over the Dutch at Riverview Park before 3,000 fans.

It was the 200th football win for the Tigers since starting football as a class D school in 1921 and the 179th victory for Coach Okie Johnson, now in his 31st year at the Tiger helm, and the third straight this year.

And a name, sure to go down in the Heights annals as one of its top all-around athletes, Osie McCarty, carried the ball over the Dutch goal for the three touchdowns. The Tigers were not able to make a conversion.

McCarty, on a delayed reverse, scampered 35 yards for the first Tiger touchdown with 50 seconds gone in the second quarter.

Then with one minute left in the first half, sub quarterback, Dan Wright pitched a pass to McCarty, who hauled in the ball on the Dutch 10 and raced into the end zone. The scrimmage line had been the Holland 38.

The final tally came in the fourth quarter with 1:55 left. McCarty skirted right end for six yards and the touchdown. The touchdown had been set up by a blocked Holland kick by Bill Poland, Bob and Walt Herrala. Seven plays later, including a 15-yard punt, brought the score.

Holland, although still failing to score in three games, continued to show improvement on offense. But the mistakes on defense were costly.

The completed pass, one of four thrown by the Tigers, caught the Dutch napping on pass defense while McCarty's two end sprints, one on each side, showed the Holland ends will be in for some additional work this week.

The Dutch managed to get a couple of drives going in the second half. Guard Bill Tornovish recovered a fumble on the Holland five to stymie a Tiger drive and this proved the key to get the offense going. With Scott Brower and Ron Kuylers tearing the tackles, the Dutch drove to midfield in 10 plays but they were then stopped. In this series, Holland made its initial first down of the game.

Then in the fourth period quarterback Paul Elenbaas hurled an aerial to right halfback Rich Woltman. The sophomore back, with the ball on the Holland 20, caught the football at midfield and raced to the Tiger 30 before being downed. But Elenbaas fumbled on the Heights 22 and recovery by Tom Miles squelched the drive, which was the deepest penetration Holland had made in the three games.

Holland's passing game had several "close ones" but only three found the mark. Keith Bosch dropped a pass in Holland's first series of plays in the game on the Tiger 41 and Ron Kuylers missed a pass after getting behind the Heights secondary in the second half.

Penalties bothered both teams. The Tigers scored three times in the first quarter after Titus Roberson recovered a fumble on the Holland 15. But each time the play was called back, because of a penalty. The Tigers carried the ball 50 times and Holland 47.

Right half Bob Bolks and tackle Russ Flins made the game because of fluke while Tom Buis' leg injury prevented him from dressing. Fullback Vern Teske played only on defense because of a cold.

Holland will play at Grand Haven next Friday night. The Bucs defeated St. Joseph, 26-13 Friday night.

Fennville Drops 25-6 League Game

BLOOMINGDALE (Special) — Bloomingdale jumped into the lead in the Al-Van League and appeared on its way to winning its second straight league title following a 25-6 trimming of Fennville here Friday night.

It was quick-opening plays that won for Bloomingdale. The Blackhaws came back strong in the second half and with a make-shift lineup, put together by Coach Sam Morehead because of injuries, and played on even terms.

On the first play from scrimmage, a 55-yard counter, Ken Johnson ripped through Fennville for the first touchdown. He followed in the second quarter with a 25-yard dash to give the winners a 12-0 halftime lead.

Johnson broke away in the third quarter for 20 yards and the third score and after a Fennville fumble on their own 30, John Katy carried around end to the one where Rog Griffendorf crashed over. Bloomingdale ran the extra point.

Fennville quarterback Denny Morse and halfback Eric Phelps left the game in the second quarter because of injuries and Morehead had a backfield composed of regular fullback Jack Barnes and sophomores Rog Tiffany, Carl Pandel and Bill Tromp, at quarter and the halves, all playing their first game.

This group took over on the Fennville 35 in the middle of the third quarter and pushed for the Blackhaws only score in five plays. Barnes had carries of 19, 12, eight and 4 yards with the final run scoring the touchdown.

Mezzo - Soprano Jones, possessed of a beautiful voice as well as physical charms, added immeasurably to the program, appearing in a group of songs of love, the opera-oratorio and in several contemporary numbers.

Great audience favorites were a Franz Joseph Haydn number entitled "To Women," scenes from American history covering the revolution, covered wagon days, western and sea songs, and a Ralph Hunter arrangement on a tribute to Jerome Kern, one of the greatest American composers. The Hunter arrangement of a Latin American rhapsody using gourd, bongo drums, wood sticks and other percussion instruments, resembled more a symphonic treatment of Spanish rhythms in Ravel's "Bolero" than in the Xavier Cugat manner.

If Hunter's chorus at times had a marked resemblance to the Robert Shaw Chorus, there was good reason. Hunter was Shaw's right hand man for several years, and the final encore of the rollicking Rodgers-Hammerstein "There Is Nothing Like a Dame" was put on in the breezy Shaw manner.

The second concert will be presented two weeks hence in the form of a ballet by Kovach and Rabovsky Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. in Civic Center.

County Has 9 Polio Cases

Ottawa county has had nine cases of polio thus far in 1957. Charles K. Bugielski, patient care chairman, told the executive board of the Ottawa County Polio chapter at a meeting Wednesday night in the home of E. L. Bates, state representative of the National Foundation, in Grand Rapids.

Bugielski also reported that $27,484.85 has been spent to date, of which $2,000 was spent on 1957 patients. The balance which is approximately 80 percent was used for patients who contracted polio prior to 1957.

He said the cost per patient for a 31-day period at Mary Free Bed Hospital is $620, and Bugielski said local funds will be depleted long before the 1958 March of Dimes.

The Ottawa chapter has 383 polio cases on file and currently is providing care for at least 100 patients. Not all patients are known to the chapter and a census of all former polio patients currently is being taken by the Ottawa chapter in an effort to determine rehabilitation needs. There may be some post-polio sufferers in the county for whom no record has been kept and who may be helped through modern rehabilitation methods unknown or unused at the time the disease struck. Such patients, whether diagnosed as paralytic or nonparalytic, are urged to write or phone Mrs. Loretta De Weerd, 147 East Ninth St., Holland, or Charles Bugielski, 711 Washington St., Grand Haven.

Dutch Second Lose 3rd Game

Muskegon Heights second team kept its goal line untouched here Friday with a 26-0 win over Holland's reserve football team at Riverview Park. They have won three straight games while Holland has lost three straight.

The Little Tigers scored in the final minute of the first half on a 40-yard pass play from Ben Howe to Mac Hunter, which was set up by a Holland blocked kick.

Ron Wade ran 50 yards around end in the third quarter for the next score and the third tally was made on a nine-yard plunge by Phil Baldwin in the fourth quarter.

The Heights picked up two points on a safety in final period when a blocked kick rolled out of the end zone and Phil Kelly ran seven yards for the last touchdown.

Holland coach Loy Lovitt said the Dutch line play was good in the first half, but with the "crippled up" backfield, the offense couldn't get going. The Little Dutch played with Ron Maat, out with the flu and quarterback Bruce Van Dyke was bothered by a painful leg bruise. Holland plays at Grand Haven next Friday.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Fire Prevention week seems to have started off in the area with some bad fires. This is another reason for people to make a special effort to clean up and police up their business places and homes. We are quoting from a bulletin of the German federal government, Bonn, Germany. While this is being done by women in a small community, their work with the volunteer fire department shows that people all over the world are respecters of fire. The coffee drinking is a well known function in our community. It serves for both men and women.

THE FIREWOMEN OF DORNACH

The small community of Dornach, near Tubingen, has organized an auxiliary female fire brigade, and its members have already proved their mettle during exercises as well as in fighting real fires.

The establishment of this female fire brigade is one of dire necessity, for, as a rule, there is only one man present in Dornach during the day out of a population of 320 persons. All the other men are out of town working in the industries of the neighborhood. Who, therefore, is to put out the fire that might break out in a household owing to a defective iron, or in a haystack by self-ignition or if children have been careless with lighted matches?

This was decidedly a case where the women must come into the breach. Twelve women and girls joined forces to set up the auxiliary fire brigade. Their commanding officer, however, is a man. When the loud bugle call gives the fire alarm, the women rush to the spot where the fire has broken out, leaving kitchen pots, stable and wash tubs to look after themselves.

They have no uniforms but come in their workday clothes. However, it is intended to equip them at least with helmets so as to protect them from falling tiles, timber and crashing walls.

Three members of the female fire brigade have already become exemplary "head firemen." They hold the end of hose as firmly and stanchly as do their male colleagues.

Only in one respect has the female fire brigade been a decided "failure." If, after having done a good job, the question of quenching their thirst arises, they are satisfied with a few cups of coffee, while their male counterparts like to drink gallons of beer.

Blue Birds Take Hike To Federal School

Third grade Blue Birds from all the schools in Holland took a hobo hike Monday afternoon starting from the Camp Fire office and proceeding to the Federal School on East Eighth St.

There were 154 Blue Birds on the hike with 20 leaders as guides. They carried their supper in a colorful hanky tied with a stick and slung over their shoulders.

Each group gave a song or skit at the school grounds where they ate their supper. Each girl was provided with a bottle of milk by the Camp Fire office.

This year each group carried the name of its group on a banner, which was made by Mrs. William Venhuizen.

After supper Mrs. Andries Stektee, executive director, led the group in games and songs. The girls had a police escort.

On Monday, Oct. 14, the fourth grade Blue Birds will have their hobo hike which will start at 3:45 p.m. from the Camp Fire office.

Moral Standards in a Church
I Corinthians 5:6-13; 6:17-20
by C. P. Dame
(Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and used by permission.)

The early church was imperfect just as the church of today. Sin is no modern invention. Corinth was a large and wicked city and sin abounded there. Paul knew that the congregation which he had founded in Corinth had moral problems and that is why he wrote to it with the hope that the congregation would gain spiritually.

I. Moral laxity in a church always hurts. There was a member of the church in Corinth who had married his step-mother which was forbidden by the Levitical law (Leviticus 18:8) and also by the Roman law. Even among pagans such a marriage was regarded with abhorrence and unheard of and Paul was shocked that the church did nothing about it. The indifferent attitude of the church reflected upon the church. The Corinthian church was inclined to boasting. Paul said that the church should be ashamed.

The purpose of Paul was to arouse the church to act. He used the argument that "a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." We say that one rotten apple may spoil a whole bushel of apples. Paul recognized the sin—evidently the church did not.

The apostle told the church to act. "Purge out therefore the old leaven, as ye are unleavened." The apostle being a Jew referred to the Jewish custom of removing all leaven and anything unleavened from the house in order to prepare for the Jewish Passover Feast. Paul urged the Corinthian Christians to become "a new lump" that is a new kind of Christians. We can all become better and finer Christians than we are.

In the lesson Paul calls Christ our Passover who was sacrificed for us. On that memorable night when the Jews left Egypt the paschal lamb was slain and its blood was sprinkled on the doorposts. It was through the blood of the lamb that the Jews were saved from death. Christ was slain for us and therefore we should make our lives like a sacred festival.

II. The Christian standard is higher than the standard of the world. It is not possible for Christian people to withdraw from all manner of contacts with worldly people. We are in a sinful world and we live among sinful people. Paul had to associate with all types and kinds of people and some are corrupt and others are just careless. But it is not necessary to associate intimately with people whose moral standards are low even though they are members of the church. Some church members by being shunned might become ashamed of their conduct.

Today we do not hear much about church discipline. In times past members were sometimes disciplined foolishly. The old records of some churches tell of unwelcome procedures such as a man who was disciplined for riding a bicycle on Sunday or the man who was disciplined because he drove a car on Sunday. If church members fail to live up to their obligations they should be dealt with and if they continue in their evil ways removed in the proper way from the membership of the congregation.

III. The Bible tells us that the body is the Temple of God. We are living in a time when many people misuse their bodies. We consist of body and soul. The Bible does not disparage the body. The body is the temple of God. Therefore all moral laxity is out of place and is sinful. A Christian's body is the Lord's property; it is sinful therefore to hurt it, abuse it, live immorally or thoughtlessly.

Smoking and drinking liquor are popular in these days but both hurt the body and surely no one glorifies God by doing anything that does damage to his health. The words of Paul deserve to be remembered when we are tempted to adopt habits which endanger one's physical and moral and spiritual well-being: "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Rev. E. Van Pernis of Beechwood was the speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club last Tuesday noon. Rev. Van Pernis showed the club members two sets of films. One of the film sets was on the Azores Islands in the Atlantic, owned by Portugal. Landscapes and ocean scenes and deep sea divers were featured.

He also showed combat pictures of World War II, which were actual battle and surrender scenes of the Italian and Japanese armies. President J. F. Schipper presided and presented perfect attendance pins to Charles Kuylers for five years and to Henry Lokers for three years. George Van Eenennaam was in charge of the program.

The Priscilla and Aquila Society of Second Reformed Church was host at the meeting to all the public school teachers in the city, with their wives on husbands and the attention was focused on the question of teenage codes of behavior. The meeting used as a starting point on its discussion material developed by the governor of Minnesota's study group. Participating in the panel discussion were Raymond Lokers, principal of Zeeland High School; Mrs. Howard C. Miller, a Zeeland mother; and Len Ver Schure, Ottawa County safety director and former deputy sheriff.

The discussion took up such matters as parental agreement on use of the family car, the number of nights "out" hours to be in from dates and knowledge on the part of the parents of where their children are and whom they are with. The panel members were generally agreed that most young people desire to do the right thing, but that group pressure is strong during the teens and it is difficult for a teenager to be "different" and not "go along" with the majority. Mr. Lokers pointed out that any youth activities program should not be handed to the school teachers to supervise. On the same topic, Mrs. Miller suggested that parents do much more entertaining of their children's friends in their homes. She also felt that teenagers ought to have a voice in constructing a code of agreed conduct themselves.

Mr. Ver Schure mentioned the problem of keeping parents "off the streets" and at home with their children, not just to watch television, but to spend time with them in sharing common interests. The problems of smoking and drinking among teenagers go hand in hand, he said, and both are serious in Ottawa County.

As grim reminders of the presence of serious crime in the county, he brought with him knives, brass knuckles and other weapons taken from teenagers during his service with the sheriff's department.

Questions from the audience indicated a keen interest in the problem and many constructive suggestions were made. The hope was expressed that the teenagers themselves may take up the problem and come up with an agreed code of conduct which they regard as a suitable minimum for the Zeeland area.

Robert Vanden Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Vanden Berg, 343 West Washington, has enrolled as a senior student at Wheaton college in Illinois. Robert attended Zeeland High school and expects to be a medical missionary.

The Red Cross sent Lester R. Lewis home via plane from Fort George Meade, Va., to visit his mother, Mrs. Della Lewis, who is confined in Community Hospital. He will return today.

The Woman's Literary Club opened its new season today with a tea honoring new members, and a delightful program of interpretations in music by John and Florence Richardson. The program, Robert and Clara, Romantic Duo, is not a recital, not a play, but a unique interpretation through music of the moving story of Robert Schumann and Clara Wieck.

The tea will be in charge of Social Committee I, whose chairmen are, Mrs. Howard Miller and Mrs. Anton Winterhalter. Hostesses for this meeting will be Mrs. A. Vanden Bosch and Mrs. Pyle. ## Flu Now Hits Holland High

The flu, one kind or another, hit Holland High School Monday. By noon, absences had reached 190, according to Principal Jay Formisna. This is about 15 percent of the student body, compared with a normal absence figure of 4 per cent.

When school opened, the absences totaled 180, and as class periods progressed one or two students asked to go home every hour.

The school system was not particularly alarmed. Last Wednesday, Dr. Ralph Ten Have, head of the Ottawa County Health department, met with all teachers in the city to talk about the flu situation. The discussion covered the various flu strains, symptoms, treatments, precautions and prevention.

The general advice is to go home and rest and not return until the person has recovered. This takes usually three or four days. In view of the fact that absences took an upswing in Holland High School last Friday, the administration expects improvement in attendance records toward the latter part of the week.

Lake Allegan Nearly Clear

ALLEGAN (Special) — The second phase of the Lake Allegan clean-up project — and the hardest part — started Saturday and Sunday and attracted even more volunteers than did the initial survey work.

More than 35 boats — ten from the Kalamazoo area and four from Grand Rapids — participated in the two-day effort to rid the 1,700 acre lake of stumps, deadheads and other obstacles to safe boating.

In addition to the power boats, some 15 tractors were on hand both days to beach the hundreds of stumps and logs, some of which were huge pine timbers more than 100 feet in length, which were brought to shore by the boats.

The boats, which ranged in size from rowboats with small motors to a cabin cruiser, worked in teams to put lines around the logs and drag them in to where workers with tractors could reach them.

Al Kiella, chairman of the Lake Allegan Clean-Up committee estimated that the two-day effort had made a large portion of the "big pond" between Eagles Nest Island and the Allegan municipal dam, safe for boating.

Most of the obstacles in this area, which had been flagged during the survey two weeks ago, were brought to shore, he said. In fact, by mid-Sunday afternoon, the boats were searching for logs missed in the initial survey.

Committee members indicated that volunteers had promised to continue work on the project in off-hours as long as good weather holds out.

By Sunday night, it was estimated that volunteers had donated nearly 2,800 man hours to the effort. Further plans for the fall call for bull-dozing and graveling a boat landing area at Eko point, Kiella said.

Lutheran League Holds Meeting

The fall rally of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of the Grand Rapids district was held Sunday at Trinity Lutheran Church in Conklin. Mrs. W. Brandt led devotions and Mrs. E. T. Hedrich conducted a business meeting.

Mr. R. Richman of Holland, district delegate to the International LWML convention in Minneapolis, gave a report. The motto of the convention was "Talk Ye of All His Wonderful Works." She reported that Dr. J. Behnken, president of the Missouri Synod, slanted his talk towards the three points of the League — missionary education, missionary inspiration and missionary service.

The highlight of Sunday's meeting was the presentation of information of the various mission fields, complete with native costumes and products. New Guinea was represented by the local group. The supper menu consisted of food from all countries and was served by women in native costumes. Miss Ruth Proff, missionary nurse and teacher, showed slides of her work in Hong Kong.

Assisting at a reception for 80 guests held in Overisel Reformed Church parlors were Misses Muriel and Thelma Lankheet who were gift room attendants; Mr. and Mrs. Justin Brover who served punch, Mr. and Mrs. William Smallen who were master and mistress of ceremonies and Miss Gertrude Ringia who attended the guest book.

Schools Mark Fire Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week which opened Sunday is getting attention in city schools, despite a tight schedule of firemen combating fires Monday.

Plans call for a team of firemen and a truck to visit all elementary schools at some time this week. The program got off to an early start Monday in Thomas Jefferson School with Fire Inspector Marvin Mokma meeting with teachers, room mothers and a representative from each room to discuss the week's activities.

Downtown Blaze Blamed On Children

Prompt Fireman's Work Saves Appliance Stock; Detectives Investigate

A fire at Van Hemert's Sales and Service, 70 East Eighth St., caused an estimated $20,000 damage to the building and appliances Sunday afternoon.

The fire apparently started in the alley at the rear, and Fire Chief Dick Brandt believes that children may be responsible. Holland detectives are investigating.

The fire was discovered about 1 p.m. by a resident in a nearby apartment who saw smoke. The entire rear of the store was a mass of flames when firemen arrived.

Prompt action by the firemen saved virtually the entire stock of appliances inside the store. The records of the store were saved also, and the front of the store is undamaged.

The firefighters were forced to cut overhead power lines leading to the store when flames ate through the insulation.

Tanks of bottled gas standing outside at the rear blew up in the intense heat and flaming gas was added to the conflagration.

Firemen and spectators, attracted by the towering clouds of black smoke, quickly removed a dozen other cylinders of gas. A truck loaded with several cylinders was also hauled out of danger.

The flames jumped to the roof of the adjoining building to the east, but firemen quickly put them out.

Off-duty policemen were called to block off Eighth St. and College Ave. Fire Chief Brandt reported that the fire was under control within an hour.

New Model Trailer Destroyed in Blaze

GRAND HAVEN — Fire totally destroyed a 1955 model, 35-foot house trailer sometime between 1:30 and 5:30 Sunday morning. The tri-level trailer which was valued at $3,000 was all equipped to be taken to Florida in the near future.

The trailer was owned by George E. Smith of 11570 52nd St., Grand Haven township, and was in his yard at the time of the fire. There was only one electric line leading into the trailer and the sheriff's department said the fire may have been caused by a short.

The walleye, a game fish, often is referred to as walleyed pike, but actually it's a member of the perch family.

Huibregtse's Extra Point Kick Gives Hope 14-13 Win Over Northern Michigan

MARQUETTE (Special) — The 450-mile return trip Sunday from Marquette was "much shorter" than the 120-mile jaunt back from Alma last Saturday for Bill Huibregtse, Hope College football player.

For Saturday night, Huibregtse kicked an extra point in the final three minutes to give Hope a 14-13 victory over Northern Michigan. Last Saturday, the Sheboygan, Wis., junior had missed a kick as the Dutch lost to Alma, 14-13.

Quarterback Jack Faber connected with end Ron Bronson for the tying Hope touchdown in the fourth period. The play covered eight yards and came on a fourth down play.

Center Gene Van Dongen had intercepted a Northern pass on the Wildcat 30 and raced to the eight to set up the play. The Dutch failed to gain the first three plays but the pass crossed up Northern.

Northern scored first in the opening three minutes of play on a 65-yard sustained drive. Quarterback Tom Schwalbach cracked over for the touchdown and converted. The drive started when Northern recovered a fumble by Ron Beyer on the NMC 35.

Hope tied the score early in the third quarter on a 65-yard five-play drive sparked by long runs by fullback Ron Wetherbee and halfback Jim Hoeksema. Hoeksema cracked over from the eight with the score and Huibregtse converted.

Northern took the lead again in the fourth period. Schwalbach passed to fullback Bill Brodeur near the Hope goal line. Van Dongen tackled Brodeur and the ball squirted out of Brodeur's arms across the goal line where end George Knecht fell on it for the score. Schwalbach missed the conversion.

Both Hope and Northern had scoring drives squelched in the first half. In the first quarter, Larry Ter Molen, Hope tackle, recovered a fumble by halfback Rex Terwilliger on the Hope 40 and the Dutch began a drive which culminated on the Northern five when Faber fumbled and the Wildcats recovered.

Captain and halfback Mert Vandenberg intercepted a Northern pass on the Northern 46 in the second quarter. The Dutch drove to the Northern 33 but lost the ball as Voskuil fumbled and Dick Stephens, recovered. Hoeksema intercepted a pass in the Hope end zone and ran the ball out to the Dutch 22 to stop the Northern scoring chance.

After Hope had taken the 14-13 lead, the Wildcats began throwing but Hope end George Van Verst ended the chances by intercepting an aerial in the final minute.

Hope had the ball for 33 rushing plays and Wetherbee led the Dutch with nine carries for 40 yards while Hoeksema had eight tries and 39 yards. Terwilliger, Northern workhorse, carried 24 times for 50 yards.

The Dutch return to Riverview Park and MIAA competition Saturday night to play Kalamazoo College at 8 p.m. The Hornets tied Alma 13-13 Saturday.

Band Honors Ex-Principal

J. J. Riemersma, Holland High principal for 42 years who retired in June, was honored Friday night at halftime by the Holland High band.

The show followed a "This is Your Life" theme and depicted several highlights of Riemersma's career.

The first formation was of the state of Iowa and a large sign pointing out Sioux Center, Riemersma's home town. This was followed by a large cannon with revolving wheels and a bullet that whistled out the end and reminded the fans of Riemersma's overseas military experience during World War I in France and Germany.

The next formation was a 42 and the initials JJR which were symbols of his years of service to Holland schools. Thousands of former students remember those initials.

Stuart Boyd, a graduate of the first class Riemersma served as principal, climaxed the ceremony with a presentation of a plaque engraved "Jock, 42 years of outstanding leadership in the school, the church and the community of Holland. Your Grateful Friends." The presentation was made while the band was in a block H formation. The Muskegon Heights band presented a Rogers and Hammerstein salute as its part of the halftime show.

County Prosecutor Outlines Annexation Election Procedures

James W. Bussard, Ottawa County Prosecutor, stated that in his opinion the annexation election scheduled for Nov. 19 will be handled as follows:

"The annexation election in the Holland area will involve one proposition and one ballot which will be submitted in the City of Holland and the four townships involved. "The law also makes it necessary that the vote in each township be kept separate from every other township, and that in each township the votes be separately counted in such fashion that the votes in the area to be annexed be counted separately from the votes in the remaining portion of the township.

"The Ottawa county clerk has been instructed to carry out the foregoing provisions, and ballots and election notices are now being printed. This is in accordance with a petition filed with the Secretary of State's office requesting that an election be held which would annex areas in both Allegan and Ottawa counties.

"For the reason that two counties are involved, with a greater portion of the area being in Ottawa county, the Secretary of State has directed under the election law that Ottawa county, specifically the Ottawa county clerk, conduct the election.

"The law regarding the election returns makes it the duty of the Ottawa County Board of Canvassers to canvass the votes. The manner of counting the ballots and the results of the election will be determined by this board."

(Bussard indicated he would advise this board relative to any questions they may have.)

REPORT OF THE TWENTY-FOUR MEMBER SCHOOLS COMMITTEE ORGANIZED UPON THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE CITIZENS' ANNEXATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE RAYMOND KOOISTRA CHAIRMAN HARVEY BUTLER, SECRETARY SEPTEMBER - 1957

Pursuant to the recommendation of the Citizens' Annexation Advisory Committee, the Twenty-four Member Schools Study Committee was organized consisting of the presidents or appointed representatives of the twelve school districts included in the proposed consolidation and 12 representatives of the Holland City School District. It was advised to limit its deliberations to the educational problems of school district consolidation and to express itself on the broad policy matters which arise in the new enlarged district including the following:

I Type of school organization proposed.

II The nature of the educational program proposed from the kindergarten through the twelfth grade with consideration to future planning for junior or community college.

III Location and estimate of cost of elementary, junior high, and senior high school buildings proposed.

IV Endorsement of the proposal made in the Citizens' Advisory Report to merge the bonded indebtedness of the member districts.

V A proposed tax structure for retiring the outstanding bonded indebtedness and financing the proposed school capital outlay needs, and

VI A policy for the admission of high school students who reside outside of the boundaries of the new school district.

Three subcommittees were organized to study the specific details as outlined in the charge above. Each submitted a separate report which was adopted by the entire committee on September 9, 1957. Limiting itself only to consideration of the educational problems of the area proposed for annexation, the following summary represents the conclusions and recommendations of the committee:

Type of School Organization

From a study of the discovered needs of children of all ages, it appears that 6-3-3 plan of school organization will most adequately meet the needs of the youth of the area. Therefore, it is recommended that elementary schools be organized for handling the kindergarten and grades one through six; junior high grades seven, eight, and nine; and the senior high school grades ten, eleven and twelve.

Relative to the size for each of these schools the committee submits the following recommendations:

(A.) That elementary schools for boys and girls from kindergarten through the 6th grade would ideally be 400 to 425 students and suitably located throughout the area so as to be as close as possible to the homes of those attending the school.

(B.) That the Junior High Schools be located suitably throughout the area, of enrollments ranging from 500 - 800 serving grades 7-9 and extending the opportunity of junior high education to all children of the new enlarged community.

(C.) That Senior High Schools be located suitably in reference to enrollment needs serving grades 10-12 built to accommodate from 1000-1500 students.

The central thought of the committee in considering problems of Senior High Schools dealt with the nature of the program to be offered. The Holland Area School Study reported high acceptance of the program now offered in the Senior High School. Such a program which provides full academic opportunities as well as offerings in vocational education, music and art must be made available to a sizable student body in order to be economical. In this connection our committee recommends high school size to be not smaller than 1000 and ideally not to exceed 1500. The committee recognized that the size alone is only one factor in planning an adequate program where the identity of the pupil is not lost. At the same time good program planning in the high school should serve to provide each boy and girl with the opportunity to meet his individual need.

The Nature of The Education Program To Be Offered

After careful consideration of the philosophy of education of the Holland Public Schools as well as the proposed curriculum plan, it is recommended that the present school program be the minimum that should be available to every student in the new community. Constant study and evaluation of the curriculum to expand further and to improve the program is recommended.

The ever increasing problem of young people getting into college will be apparent here in Holland very soon. The Committee recommends the need of a community college to serve students with a program going two years beyond high school. It is recommended that planning for this program be started as soon as possible.

Location and Estimate of Cost of School Buildings

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Inasmuch as the present area proposed for annexation is different than any one of the plans in the 1956 Holland Area Study Report, a new and exhaustive study was made of enrollment trends and projections in the area for the period from 1950 through 1965 and further projected to 1975 when children who are born this year will be graduating from high school.

A comparison of the number of pupils of elementary school age and the capacity of the schools to house them reveals that the present elementary school buildings in the total area are inadequate to handle foreseeable school enrollments even providing the 7th and 8th grades are transferred to new junior high schools.

Conservative enrollment projections show that there will be need of at least 20 additional classrooms by 1965.

Junior High Schools

A study of present and projected enrollment in grades 7-8-9 has led the Committee to make the following recommendations:

1. Build a Junior High School located north of Lake Macatawa and Black River to serve the following district:
- 1 - Lakewood
- 2 - Waukazoo
- 3 - Pine Creek
- 4 - Beechwood
- 5 - Waverly

2. Build a Junior High School located south of Lake Macatawa and west of the present City of Holland to serve the following districts:
- 1 - Harrington
- 2 - Lakeview
- 3 - Montello Park
- 4 - Maplewood

3. Maintain a Junior High School centrally located in the present city to serve the following districts:
- (This is in the existing Junior High building between 15th and 16th streets on River.)
- 1 - Holland
- 2 - Apple Avenue
- 3 - Federal
- 4 - Van Raalte

4. Planning should be started for a fourth Junior High School located east of the present city to be completed about 1970. A suitable site for this building should be procured immediately.

The present Senior High School can serve as the overflow building for Junior High students in this area during this construction period, following which it can be used as an administrative center and for a Community College.

Senior High Schools

Enrollment in grades 10-11-12 for only the proposed consolidated area in 1957 is approximately 1000 students. In 1960 it will be 1200 and by 1965 it will be in excess of 1550. Enrollment will be increased by approximately 200 students each year if high school services now available continue to be used by districts outside of the proposed consolidated area.

On the basis of these facts the Committee recommends the following:

- A. To have a high school program comparable to that of our present school requires an enrollment of a minimum of 1000 students.

- B. The first new high school must be designed for between 1000-1500 pupils, with a second high school of like size to be constructed when needed.

The Consolidation of School District Bonded Indebtedness

Benefiting from legal and financial counsel, the Committee makes the following recommendation to provide immediately school facilities in the area:

- A. By appropriate school elections consolidate the thirteen school districts after the proposed areas have annexed to the City of Holland, and,

- B. Consolidate the existing bonded indebtedness of each of the thirteen school districts amounting to $2,072,000 and retire all outstanding indebtedness by a levy upon the combined state equalized valuation of the new district.

Proposed Tax Structure to Pay Off All Present Bonded Indebtedness And Pay For New Buildings Proposed

The Committee studied intensively the cost of new school facilities needed immediately. On the basis of school building costs during the past two years in the state of Michigan, it appears that the cost of necessary high school facilities, the cost of two new junior high schools, and the cost of additional elementary classrooms in the area as needed will require a total bond issue of from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000.

It has been demonstrated that the present bonded indebtedness of the thirteen districts in the amount of $2,072,000 and a $6,000,000 bond issue can be paid over a 25 year period by a millage levy ranging from 3.5 to 5.5 mills on the State Equalized Valuation of the district.

Furthermore, the Committee recommends that a Building and Site Fund be established at the earliest possible time to provide money for future building on a pay as you go basis thus eliminating the interest of a bond issue that would otherwise be required.

A Policy on The Admission of Non-Resident High School Students

The Committee recognizes that certain school districts outside of the proposed consolidated area will be interested in sending their ninth through twelfth grade high school students to Holland. If the proposed consolidation is approved, it is recommended:

- A. That the 9th through the 12th grade students from the districts exterior to the proposed consolidation be admitted upon the payment of tuition on a year to year basis, and

- B. That districts sending such students shall continue to provide their transportation, and

- C. That the new school district board continue a study of enrollments, set a limit as to the number of non-resident pupils it will accept on a tuition basis, and as the various districts approach the limit, steps towards their annexation be taken.

A massive amount of varied legal, statistical, taxation, and financial data was made available to the Committee in its study. Legal opinions were furnished by Attorneys Peter Boter, Vernon Ten Cate, and James Townsend with special counsel from the Detroit firm of Berry, Stevens, and Moorman. Projections of enrollment were recalculated and substantiated by counsel from the Bureau of Schools Services of the University of Michigan. Expert guidance and assistance in taxation, millage and bonding was provided by Mr. Louis H. Schimmel, Director of the Municipal Advisory Council of Michigan. Interim reports of the various subcommittees were prepared from time to time.

A final report of each subcommittee was consolidated into the complete report of the Committee. In the interest of brevity for submitting to your Bodies the report contained herein represents conclusions and recommendations only. Substantiating data is available for your use as you may direct.

Respectfully submitted
Harvey J. Butler, Secretary
Raymond Kooistra, Chairman

LANDMARK BURNS — Firemen fought a stubborn fire for more than two hours Monday morning at an old Holland landmark, the Red Brick Tourist Rooms at the corner of River Ave. and 12th St. The building suffered extensive damage as the fire, starting in the basement, worked up between the walls and through the woodwork to the first and second floors. One fireman was injured in the estimated $15,000 blaze, believed to have been started by kindling and rubbish piled too near a hot smoke pipe in the basement. (Sentinel photo)

IMPOSING LANDMARK SPARED — This white pillared church, erected in 1856, less than 10 years after the arrival of the Dutch colonists, was one of the few structures that escaped destruction in the $900,000 fire which swept Holland early in the morning of Oct. 9, 1871. The church, known today as Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church, is located at Ninth St. and College Ave.

Holland Almost Totally Destroyed by Fire 86 Years Ago, One Day After Chicago Fire

Fire Prevention Week, which this year is observed Oct. 6 through 12, always recalls the big Holland fire which swept over the colony on the early morning of Oct. 9, 1871, destroying the greater share of the city which had been settled less than 25 years earlier.

It was between 1 and 3 a.m. that memorable morning when fire swept from smoldering forests southwest of the city, leaving in its wake destruction estimated at $900,000.

Loss of human life was limited to one aged widow, Mrs. J. Tolk, who lived in a house on Ninth St. Property loss included more than 353 buildings, 250 head of livestock and left 300 families without shelter.

According to an account of the fire written by Gerrit Van Schelven in 1893 in "Historical and Business Compendium of Ottawa County," the city had experienced an uninterrupted drought for many weeks preceding the fire.

Woods and muckland had been on fire for many weeks and by hard labor, the southeastern part of the city was saved from these forest fires the week before the conflagration.

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, the atmosphere was very oppressive and sultry and at intervals fine ashes showered over the city. These ashes were subsequently explained as the first messengers of the great fire that swept Chicago that Sunday afternoon.

At 2 p.m. the wind turned south-westerly and the fire alarm was rung from the Third Church bell.

As night advanced the wind increased in force until it hit hurricane proportions at midnight, sweeping fire from the woods with alarming velocity toward the city. Huge bark piles at the Cappon and Bertsch tannery in the western part of the city and Third Reformed Church in the then southern part of the city were among the first points attacked.

Then the wind turned west, forcing the fire toward the center and eastern part of the town, and within two hours the entire devastation was accomplished. The grounds of Hope College, somewhat isolated as they were, seemed to be the only spot where one could escape with his life. Many took to the waters of Black Lake, escaping in small boats. Population of Holland at the time was 2,400.

The number of buildings destroyed follows: dwellings, 210; stores, shops and offices, 75; manufacturing, 15; churches, 5; hotels, 3; miscellaneous buildings, 45; docks and warehouses, 5; one tug and several boats.

Over 250 dead horses, cattle and swine were found in the burned district. A cancelled bank check, partly burned, drawn by the firm of De Jonge, Van Schelven and Ogden, upon Nathan Kenyon, banker, was picked up the next day on a farm in Tallmadge township 25 miles away.

The fire swept the heart of the city, the business portion, etc.

What was left was a strip of houses along the extreme western and southern parts of the city all south of 10th and east of Market Sts., and nearly the entire first ward (now third ward), Hope College, Pluggers Mill, Heald's Planing Mill, Union School, First Reformed Church, Holland Christian Reformed Church on Market St., the railroad depot and the old town house.

Only about $100,000 of the $900,000 loss was covered by insurance and only a part was recovered inasmuch as many insurance companies were rendered insolvent by the great Chicago fire.

Nor was the calamity limited to the city. Damage also was great in Holland township as well as Fillmore and Laketown townships in Allegan county.

No trains could enter the city since the bridge on the line of the then Michigan Lake Shore Railroad had been destroyed. Grand Haven friends unloaded provisions and other stores on the northern banks of Black River to be distributed among Holland's hungry people.

The provisions were not only what grocery and bakery could instantly supply, but the kitchen and pantry also were emptied. A loaf of bread partly cut, a solitary biscuit, doughnuts, part of a roast were among the supplies.

The general conflagrations of Oct. 8 and 9, 1871, embraced not only Holland and Chicago, but also Peoria, Wis., Manistee, Port Sheldon and other locations in Michigan.

As news of destruction here became generally known, aid and relief were liberally forwarded. The Board of Supervisors made ample provision for a destitution feared during the approaching winter, but thanks to a generous public, it was never needed. A new assessment roll of Holland was ordered. Gov. Baldwin visited Holland and other burned districts in the state to determine whether state aid would be needed. Abundance of voluntary relief, however, rendered this also unnecessary.

A local relief committee consisted of Dr. B. Ledebor, chairman; H. D. Post, secretary; K. Schadelde, treasurer; Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, Philip Phelps, C. Scott, A. T. Stewart, R. K. Heald, Dr. S. L. Morris, H. Meengs, J. O. Doesburg, G. Wakker, E. Heald and G. Van Schelven.

Holland township appointed W. Diekema, J. H. Boone and D. Miedema. At Grand Rapids a general relief committee was appointed by Gov. Baldwin to distribute aid through the western part of the state.

Labors connected with the receiving and distributing of supplies were kept up during the greater part of the winter with the town house as headquarters. Lumber and building material, hardware, provisions, clothing and household goods and furniture were sent in large quantities. Liberality of the railroad companies in furnishing free transportation was an important item.

Through Dr. John L. See of New York, treasurer of the board of education of the Reformed Church, a cash fund of about $40,000 was collected from friends in the east and the sister colony at Pella, Ia. Kin across the sea also responded.

Work of rebuilding Holland kept up uninterruptedly although rebuilding in Chicago created a heavy demand for all kinds of building material and a corresponding increase in prices. Close upon this period came the general shrinkage in values caused by the panic of 1873, reducing the assets and valuation of the rebuilt city fully 50 percent without lessening liabilities and incumbrances incurred. All drawing interest at the then prevailing rate of 10 percent.

Dutch to Talk About League

Holland officials stated that Grand Haven's decision and the outcome of the annexation election in Holland were big factors determining whether the Dutch would rejoin the league.

Address by Dr. Hoffman Opens Century Club Year

The Holland Century Club held its opening dinner meeting at the Warm Friend Tavern Monday evening. Fall flowers arranged by Mrs. Bruce van Leuwen and Mrs. Paul Fredrickson decorated the Tulip Room.

Bruce van Leuwen, president of the club, welcomed guests and members and announced that the executive committee had honored four long-time and faithful members with honorary membership. They are Miss Kittie Doesburg, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Fell and Dr. G. W. Van Verst.

Miss Adelaide Dykhuizen, vice president of the club, announced that Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Hollenbach, former members on leave-of-absence for the past two years, D and Mrs. William Arendshorst, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kleinhekel and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Oudersluys, had been extended invitations to membership.

Mr. van Leuwen paid special tribute to two club members who died since the club last met in April: Mrs. G. W. Van Verst for her contributions especially in the area of music; and Kenneth De Pree for many services to the club, including the presidency in 1953-54.

The speaker for the evening, Dr. Milton J. Hoffman, professor emeritus of New Brunswick Seminary, was introduced by Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers. Dr. Hoffman entitled his talk "South Africa" and used slides to illustrate his lecture.

He opened his remarks by reminiscing about the early days of Century Club when he and Mrs. Hoffman were members. The Hoffmans relinquished their membership 40 years ago when they left the community. Dr. Hoffman paid tribute to a few of the distinguished members of the club in those days: The G. J. Diekemas, the Browns, the Kollens and others, and spoke especially of Dr. Edward Dimment, his former Greek teacher.

As for South Africa, which the speaker has visited many times, he said it was the one place in the world he would choose to live, outside of his beloved United States.

He spoke especially of the cordiality and friendliness of the people, their interest in education, the progressiveness of industrialists and farmers in this great expanse of the African continent.

Touching the much publicized racial problem of South Africa, he said he had had many, many conferences with those in government and those of all races. It was in all cases explained to him as a different racial problem than the one in our country. In our country we have the "horizontal" system with the white man above the Negro, and others. In South Africa the system is "vertical" with the white man having his own of everything, society, education, transportation, and the black man having his own of these things.

However, Dr. Hoffman's observation is that the present government is unintentionally paving the way for integration in about 20 years, by giving the black people western education. The people are willing to make every sacrifice through high taxes to maintain these separate societies and to bring both up-to-date. But instead of teaching the black man his culture of voodoo and tribal customs, he is being given western education which will lead to integration.

Music for the program was provided by James Kranendonk, baritone, from the class of Norma Hark Baughman at Hope College. He delighted his audience with his professional treatment of his program which included Aria Vision Fugitive from "Heraclitus," Massenet: "Into the Night" by Edwards: "Upstream," Malotte with words by Carl Sandburg, and with his encore "Love Me, Love Me Not," Secchi. He was accompanied by Miss Edna Hollander, student of the college music department.

Library Adventures

By Arnold Mulder

The barring of "Huckleberry Finn" from the approved list of New York's elementary and junior high schools is almost too fantastic to be taken seriously. The American people have withstood the censorship of literature by government with reasonable success. Are they now going to lose the battle of censorship by pressure groups?

In this case, although the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People denies having initiated the ban on the reading matter of New York children, someone identified only as "a spokesman" for that organization admitted that the NAACP "strongly objected to racial slurs in Mark Twain's works."

If the government itself, municipal, state or national, should clamp censorship on "Huckleberry Finn," the outcry against such a move would be deafening. All America and much of the foreign readership of the world would call it an act of tyranny alien to a freedom-loving people. If pressure group becomes the censor, the evil does not become any the more palatable.

For of course pressure groups are legion, and if any one of them can be accepted as a censor of our literature, the same right will have to be accorded to all.

"Huckleberry Finn" is universally regarded as one of the half dozen greatest books produced in America; same even feel that it is America's greatest novel. If fanaticism can deprive school children of this book, the same force can rob them of many others.

Nor does it help much to argue that those New York children will still have the right to draw "Huckleberry Finn" for the library. Placing the brand of censorship on it by barring it from the approved list will suggest to millions of young minds that it is inferior reading matter and they will lose out of their lives a supremely great book.

If pressure groups are to become the censors of our literature, how about the Indians? Suppose they should take it into their heads to demand the censorship of that old favorite, "The Last of the Mohicans." True, Cooper's novel paints a very flattering picture of at least two Indians, but at the same time he portrays several as arch-villains. And Cooper's flattering picture of some Indians are no more flattering than Mark Twain's picture of the Negro Jim with whom Huckleberry Finn floats down the Mississippi River on a raft. Is there in any literature a more sympathetic picture of a Negro than that of Jim?

And the Jews might likewise set up shop as censors of literature; in fact, they have done so in recent years to their eternal discredit. They have damned Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice," Dickens' "Oliver Twist," and other books high up in the list of English classics.

Nor may the pressure group censorship stop there. In the thirties even Labor as a group tried it. During that decade American fiction was dominated by what was known as the "proletarian novel." In those novels the capitalist was always portrayed as a crook and a tyrant. Novels that portrayed him as being reasonably human and humane were denounced by the proletarian critics.

But what would prevent the capitalist pressure group from calling for censorship on books that cast slurs at the capitalist class? The goose and the gander eat the same sauce.

The story of "Huckleberry Finn" describes an illiterate boy born in slave country floating down the Mississippi River in the company of a slave who has run away from his master. Such a boy would obviously take slavery for granted. The book is in Huck's own phraseology, and to call his comments on slavery "racial slurs" displays an ignorance so great that it is frightening. On such a basis all truly great literature in America would soon be dead.

Allegan Hears Report From City Manager

ALLEGAN (Special) — Allegan City Manager P. H. Beauvais, in a report to City Council Monday night, said that the school tax to be levied within the city this year would total $195,258.79 and would be the equivalent of a $24.94 per $1,000 valuation rate.

He also reported on recent conferences regarding the proposed sidewalk to the new high school saying that for topographical reasons the state highway department would insist that the walk be on the north side of the highway. This would require students to cross the highway at the school.

Beauvais was instructed to go to Lansing to confer with highway officials on the possibility of placing a proposed water main extension from the Griswold well to Second on Marshal St., on the new M-89 highway bridge.

Beauvais said it would mean considerable savings to the city if the main could be laid on the sidewalk, next to the railing. The present main crosses the river on the old State St. bridge and has required repairs recently.

The council discussed changes in the by-laws of the volunteer fire department. Principal changes include provisions for two full time firemen for retirement age of 60 after 1960 and for a complement of from 25 to 30 members.

Beauvais said he would confer soon with highway department traffic engineers on the possibility of installing a red flasher light at the intersection of M-89 and M-40 in the city. The five corners has been the scene of 4 accidents in 1956 and 1957, Beauvais said.

Councilmen were told that collection of fees for spraying elm trees has been very unsatisfactory. Beauvais said that the cost of collection including checking sites and in locating the trees has exceeded the cost of spraying in many instances. Council agreed that the city either provide sufficient funds to pay for all of the spraying or cancel the program next year.
