CHIEF VAN RY LAST TO SEE THE ALPENA LEAVE

WAS ONLY A YOUNG SAILOR
ON SCHOONER GUIDE

Today is Anniversary of the Sinking of the Alpena 39 Years Ago.

Today it is 39 years ago that the ill fated Alpena went down with not a soul left alive to tell the tale of how it happened. The story of the Alpena has repeatedly been told, has often been written about in both poetry and prose, but there are some side lights that relate to the ill fated steamer from Grand Haven that have never been in print, and there is no doubt that Frank Van Ry of Holland and the crew of the steamer Guide were the last to see the Alpena as she steamed out of Grand Haven harbor on October 16, 1880.

Mr. Van Ry seemed very reluctant about giving this paper the story, stating that he had never told it before for publication.

Mr. Van Ry's story is as follows: "I was a young chap sailing on the little schooner Guide, owned by Captain Harry Smith, known to all east shore sailors as the 'Old Salt Water Weather Prophet.' The ship was captained by Frank Frega, and manned by Chris and Andrew Smith and myself.

"The day before the storm we came light from Chicago and tied inside of the Grand Haven piers about 1000 feet from the light house. We received orders to go that same night to Port Sheldon, 10 miles north of Holland to take on a load of ties, but for some reason or another we did not go but stayed tied up at the pier.

"The night of the 16th of October, which was Friday, the lake was beautiful. There was not a ripple on the water. The sky to the north-west however was as black as night. At 8 o'clock in the evening we were all standing on the pier, and the Alpena sailed out for Chicago.

"As she came opposite us I saw Captain Ed Napier, and Captain Hurbert Squires of Grand Haven standing beside the wheel house, and they both waved us good-bye.

"Old Harry, the salt water prognosticator was very anxious however and called to Napier.

"Cap! stick her across to Milwaukee. Don't go to 'Chi', for the glass is way down. Don't chance it, because we're going to have bad weather!"

"Captain Napier hailed back laughingly. 'I guess we can make it all right, Harry. I'm going to push her through to Chicago,' and soon the ship was lost from sight never to be seen again, with not a survivor to tell the tale of that awful night.

"I remember the sky was as black as ink. I have never seen such a sky before or since in all my sailing career, and at 2 o'clock that night the storm broke and such a storm is hard to describe. We barely had time to pull the schooner Guide into the inner harbor, and this was done with much difficulty by the entire crew and we ran her up on the sand into Dewey hill.

"The piers were seldom visible and the waves came roaring into the harbor as if it would overwhelm the city of Grand Haven.

"Before the storm I can tell of another incident of that night.

"The air was very clear, and as we sat on the pier we saw forty schooners leaving Muskegon harbor, all full rigged ships in those days, and as they sailed, Old Harry, the weather prophet shook his head and said, 'A lot of these boys are never coming back,' and they didn't.

"Among the schooners that I saw was the 'A Plugger' of Holland, captained by my father B. Van Ry. Closely following her was the big schooner 'White Cloud' of Saugatuck, captained by Charles Coats.

The crew of the White Cloud were Peter Schoon, Harry Raffenaud, better known as 'French Harry,' and Charles Boyenga, all of Holland, besides several strangers, whose names I do not remember. Believe me, I was excited that night. These two schooners belonged to the Cutler Salvage Lumber Company of Grand Haven and Spring Lake.

"Captain Coats and Captain Van Ry were bosom friends, and generally sailed their ships to the same ports. Both schooners were bound for Michigan City with lumber that night.

"After the storm broke Captain Coats called his crew around him and said,

"I fear that my chum captain Van Ry and crew is done for. The little boat can never weather this gale!"

After four days of wallowing in the storm, losing its deck load, the steamer Guide limped into Michigan City and tied up at the pier. Captain Coats saw the plugger, and in his excitement said, 'Well, if the little black devil didn't get ahead of me.'

"Captain Van Ry had been piloting his boat up and down Lake Michigan for four days, also losing his deck load, and arrived in Michigan City five hours before her sister ships.

"Captain Van Ry had already gone down town, and Captain Coats quickly followed him. When Captain Coats found Captain Van Ry he threw his arms around his neck, and the stern seaman who was not otherwise subjected to emotional outbursts, kissed his friend upon the cheek and burst into tears.

"Another vessel that had a trying time was the Schooner Holmes. A Holland man was also aboard, in

The Wreck Of The Alpena

BY D. FLETCHER HUNTON OF GRAND HAVEN WRITTEN IN 1880

Grandly glowed the autumn sunset, o'er the Lake's expanse of blue, Till across her fair broad bosom, streamed a path of golden hue; Brightly gleamed that fleece of glory, o'er the shimmering waves away, Till it flamed upon Grand River, where the old Alpena lay.

Capt. Napier—prompt and watchful—paced her deck with nervous tread, Scanning closely every feature of the strange skies overhead:— Long, long years he'd sailed the ocean, every lake and inland sea; Though he may have been too daring braver man there need not be.

Slowly, twilight drew her curtains round the couch of dying day, Till upon the lake and river, night resumed her royal sway: Some one said—"There's danger coming! See the red light burning high!" "How the scuds are racing—flying—through the strangely yellow sky!"

"Danger!" proudly said the Captain—"I have always kept aloft," "And have yet to meet the tempest that can swamp this noble boat!" "Yonder red light, is a signal often wrong, and seldom right; "My advice is from Chicago; sir, Alpena goes tonight!"

Then we saw the steamer tremble, heard her engines lift and groan; Watched her, gliding down the river, out into the lake, alone; Like a thing of grace and beauty; like some fairy water-sprite; Old Alpena neared Chicago on that strangely, pleasant night.

On, and onward; fearing nothing; heeding not the sullen roar, Of the fearful tempest raging, all along the western shore:— Fast, and faster, rough, and rougher; till the winds and waves grew high: And a storm of wildest fury burst upon them from the sky!

When the dawn began to glimmer—just at moonrise in the east; Napier saw the coming waters, foaming like a sea of yeast! Saw his steamer stagger—shudder—wrestle bravely in the tide—Till a pond'rous, mighty billow, whirled her head to leeward side!

"Head her to the wind!" cried Napier! "Keep her steady in its eye!" "I have started for Chicago, and I'll make it, now, or die!" Like a war-horse, trained for battle, old Alpena minds the wheel; And, she leaps hard up to windward, trembling from her stem to keel.

Fiercer, wilder howls the tempest! slower, works the engines now! Harder, harder lift the billows up against her guarded bow! Hark, they've broken in the gangways! Fires are out! The decks are free! And the steamer furches sternway, in the hollows of the sea!

Standing at his post of duty, shouting to the tempest-tossed, Captain Napier cried, "I'm beaten! She is sinking! 'We are lost!' O, what terror and confusion seize upon that frantic throng! Cries for help, and prayers, to heaven ring those fated decks along!

Help, there is none! Hope is vanquished! Hearts are palsied with despair! Helpless men, and helpless women, all alike, are helpless there! Down among the hungry billows, yawning like the jaws of hell, There they struggle, sink and perish! How, and wherefore none can tell!

He who sees the falling sparrow; hears the raven when it cries; He who took the dying robber, from the cross to Paradise; He who knows where Alpena foundered; He has marked each lowly bed; And he'll claim H's shipwrecked children when the "Sea gives up its dead!"

ROY GILBERT OF CHICAGO AGAIN A HOL- LAND CITIZEN

FIRST OF THE DE PREE CHEMICAL COMPANY'S OF-FICE FORCE TO ARRIVE

Roy Gilbert, former principal of Holland High school, but more recently with the De Pree Chemical Company at Chicago, has purchased the home of Dave Snyder on College Avenue, and has moved his family to this city. Mr. Gilbert is the first of the Chicago office force of the De Pree Chemical company who has come to Holland. Within a few weeks a dozen more will arrive and by spring all the officials of the general offices will have arrived with their families. No doubt building on the first unit of the De Pree Chemical Company plant on the C. L. King property, on the Lake front, recently purchased, will soon be started.

Holleman—Deweerd Company sells 12 Cars in one week.

Talk about whether advertising pays, Albert DeWeerd, manager of the Holleman & Deweerd Auto Company, successor to the Star Auto Company says, "I'll say it does. We sold 12 cars since last week Saturday.

"Here is the list:—Four touring cars, four roadsters, one sedan, one coupe, and two Ford trucks, all Fords."

Surely this is a record breaker for this firm. Holleman & Deweerd have only been established here a few weeks, buying out the Star Auto Company. They also have garages in Byroon Center and Zeeland, both doing a thriving business.

the person of Gerrit Doesburg, and to show how suddenly the storm struck, and the velocity of the gale, is evident from the fact, that the Holmes was anchored a mile out of Michigan City. The ship did not have time to pull its anchor, and it dragged. It could not make the harbor and it had to push out to sea, and for four days it rode the storm, the wind blowing the staunch-ship 150 miles out of its course, and it finally landed as far north as Big Point Sauble. The schooner Holmes also lost its deckload of lumber.

"I am always congratulating myself, that for some reason or other our little schooner Guide did not make the trip to Port Sheldon for ties that night. I do not think I would be Holland's Chief of police today, if we had made the trip."

Incidentally we might mention that a few days afterward, wreckage began to come in at what is now called Alpena Beach, named so after the wreck of the Alpena.

The large piano and stool were picked up, and when found were standing right side up as if placed there by human hands instead of by the tossing waves.

The late C. Blom, Sr., for many years had the sign of the Alpena that was placed over the pilot house.

The Holland City News possesses two of the ventilator windows from the upper deck. Possibly there are a great many other relics around Holland, that were picked up on what is now called Alpena Beach.

COMMON COUNCIL TO BANQUET THE WAR SOLDIERS

PEACE DAY NOVEMBER 11, IS THE TIME FOR A SPREAD

Committee Appointed to Make All the Necessary Arrangements.

All the Holland soldiers and those of this vicinity are going to be given a banquet by the city of Holland.

The aldermen last evening decided that they were going to spread themselves, and give the boys who fought so nobly for us, a final honor on Peace Day, Tuesday, November 11.

Just what the arrangements will be, have not been decided, but you may be assured that the spread will be a sumptuous one, and the city of Holland will gladly and graciously foot the bill.

The mayor appointed an alderman from each ward and city attorney C. H. McBride, to act as a committee of seven to make all the necessary arrangements with power to act.

A meeting of this committee will be held in the very near future when speakers committees on invitation, and all committees incident to a banquet of this kind, will be appointed.

Place of meeting, music and caterers for the banquet will be matters to be taken up by the committee.

Many cities throughout Michigan and the United States are designating peace day for a day of recognition of this kind, and Holland is falling in line with the other cities.

The committee to have the banquet in charge are Mayor Bosch, City Attorney McBride, Aldermen Blue, Brieve, Kammeraad, Lawrence, Dykstra, and Wiersma.

WANT SIGN ON HOL- LAND HOSPITAL

PEOPLE SEEING QUIET ZONE
SIGNS ARE MUCH CON-FUSED

Alderman Blue asked the Common Council last evening that a proper sign "Holland Hospital" either be placed on the building, the lawn or at the corner of the hospital lot in order to let people really know where the hospital is.

Strangers are constantly asking where they can find the hospital, where the proper sign would direct them.

Strange motorists too, are to be told to be quiet in the hospital zone, still these signs are more than a block away from the Hospital proper, and when they look around for the building they fail to find it because there is no proper sign indicating that a hospital is near.

The aldermen recommended that the matter be brot before the hospital board, suggesting to them that an appropriate sign be conspicuously placed in order that the public and especially the strangers cannot help but get the information as they pass by.

The Hope College eleven travels to Alma Saturday to battle the Alma College aggregation. This is to be the second game of the season and the local team will do everything within its power to overcome the defeat suffered at the hands of Kazoo College last Saturday. The Hope team will start the game minus a few players. Pete Prins is still nursing a sprained ankle sustained in the game last week while Van Hazel is suffering from a dislocated collar bone.

But despite this fact, Hope expects to return victorious.

No shifts will be made in the lineup. Hope will leave Friday afternoon and it is possible that Coach Brooks will present the following: Ends, Knutson and Van Putten; Tackles, Hoek and Dalenburg; Guards, Voss and T. Prins; center, Roggen; Quarter, Capt. Jappings; Halves, Elferdink and Wassenaar; Fullback, John Steketee. Reserves, Visscher, Boersma, M. Mulenburg.

A SEA STORY INVOLVING DE FEY- TER BROS., HOLLAND

THIS HAPPENED IN 1871. AC-CORDING TO AN OLD FILE
COPY

A very interesting story is clipped from an old file copy dated September 28, 1871, relating to two Holland men who at that time were sailors hailing from this port and who have lived in this city for years.

Here is the story:— "About 8 o'clock last Wednesday evening Peter and Henry De Feyter came running to where the steamer Fanny Shriver lay windbound at the entrance of Black Lake, to report that a waterlogged vessel was anchored off DeFeyter's pier; that the sea was breaking over her so heavily that her crew could not go forward to cut her cable; that she might be beached, and that her crew would be lost. Fifteen minutes after they reached the Fanny this staunch little steamer had taken a supply of dry wood from the tug Croton, then alongside, had steam up, and with everything movable stowed below decks, hatches barred down and deadlights nailed fast, was rushing into the gale, hoping to be in time to save their fellow-sailors. The lake was one seething field of foaming water, through, rather than over which the little steamer went, half buried in the raging billows. The captain and two of the crew of the schooner Speed, the U. S. engineer in charge of the works at Black lake the engineer of the pile driver at work there, and the De Feyter Bros., volunteered to go with the regular crew of the Fanny. The dangerous trip was safely made the schooner found and her crew saved."

Starts a little Dollar Day of his Own.

A. Peters apparently wants a dollar day, no matter if the rest of Holland is ready for it or not at this time. He has set aside Saturday of this week for a real honest to goodness dollar day at his store, and if you don't believe it look at the ad on the first page.

WILL ASK FOR RETRIAL IN DYKE CASE.

Attorney Wesselius basis his claim on ten errors made in trial.

The Reiner Dyk damage suit trial may be tried all over again, that is if Judge Cross will reopen the case and grants Attorney Wesselius a new trial for his client.

Wesselius claims that the court erred in ten instances, and holds that his client is entitled to a new trial.

It will be remembered the case was against Jacob Lokker, C. A. Bigge and Lieut. Simon Den Uyl in the celebrated smoke out case, the jury bringing in a verdict of no cause for action in one minute time.

Charles McBride is in Grand Haven for another whirl at the gas case.

VAUDEVILLE AT KNICKERBOCKER LATER PART OF WEEK

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week the Knickerbocker will be opened with six big vaudeville acts that are new and up-to-the-minute.

The Holland playhouse will be opened at least three nights each week and possibly more often. Arrangements are now being made for fine bills of vaudeville and moving pictures for every week and possibly a good road show occasionally.

Kitties Band is writing for a return date here and the management no doubt will book them for another concert together with some new features along the line of those given during the Holland fair.

The opening of the Knickerbocker is proving popular indeed.

Last week the house was packed on Thursday and Saturday nights and Friday night the theater was well filled. The proceeds went to the Holland Fair strong box. The proceeds for the show this week will also be for the benefit of the Holland fair.

WORK PROGRESSING ON ANILINE BUILDINGS

The construction work at the Holland Aniline Dye Works is being rushed; so that the manufacture of dyes may be begun soon.

The foundation of the first building has been erected and the masons are busily engaged in putting up the brick walls.

Excavation for the second building is completed and the forms for the concrete work are ready.

Contractor Postma expects to have the first building ready soon, since nearly all the steel is here.

SUGAR FACTORY STARTS SEASON ON WEDNESDAY

The Holland-St. Louis Sugar factory in this city started grinding beets on Wednesday of this week. All the preparations for the opening of the season have been made and from now on until some time early in 1920 the local factory will be feeding the beets from the farm into the machinery and turning out sugar.

The first carload of beets arrived at the local plant on October 4. There are at present 15 carloads of beets at the factory on which the plant can begin operations for the season. Next week Monday the farmers from the immediate vicinity of Holland will begin drawing the beets to the factory in wagon loads.

The beets for the local plant come from a very wide territory now. In the early history of the factory most of the crop came from the farms immediately surrounding Holland within a radius of about ten miles while now they come from a distance of 100 miles. This system creates possibilities for a much larger run.

General Manager C. M. McLean said that the crop for this season is a wonderful one. During the summer the dry spell somewhat retarded the growth of most crops, but the fall rains made up for this so that the crop is in splendid condition. The recent frosts have helped to put sugar into the beets.

"Within a week or ten days there will be no more sugar famine in Holland," said Mr. McLean. "I can assure the people of this community that there will be all the sugar here that they can need."

The sugar famine is still quite acute in this city, but this assurance may probably prevent people from increasing it by buying more than they need.

HOLLAND LADY MARRIES CHICAGO MAN

Mrs. Mary Harmon surprised her many friends in Holland by getting married to Fred Mulfinger of Chicago. Mr. Mulfinger is a very enthusiastic American, who wanted to go to war when our difficulties with Germany arose.

The government wouldn't take him but in this particular case political pull was put to useful advantage, and the gentleman from Chicago joined the army, altho he was far over the age limit.

His three sons too, were patriots and scrapers also, for Uncle Samuel. Every son Jack of them, went into the service immediately when war was declared.

Mr. Mulfinger holds a very responsible position in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulfinger arrived in Holland a few days ago, and after matters are straightened up in Holland, the happy couple will settle down in Chicago.

JUSTICE THOMAS N. ROBINSON WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION.

At the request of Chief Van Ry, attorney Thomas N. Robinson who sent in his resignation as Justice of the Peace to the Common council withdrew this resignation Tuesday.

The chief states that Mr. Robinson has been of valuable assistance to him, in giving legal advice, and in other ways has aided him in police court work which has been a valuable asset to the department and for that reason he has made an urgent request that the Justice remain for a while longer at least. Mr. Robinson has reluctantly complied with the chief's request, and has withdrawn his resignation, at least temporarily.

Mr. Van Ry states that many a young man is on probation in this city, and is under the joint supervision of Mr. Robinson and himself, and this plan has worked out very satisfactory to both the young men and the department, and he would like, if possible, to have this condition remain.

This matter of Justice of the Peace again calls to mind something advocated by this paper several years ago, namely the establishing of a police court, with an efficient police judge, who knows the law, and can mete out justice intelligently. This police judge could have his court room in the present city hall building, and it would do away with the kiting of offenders from one judge to another. A judge of this kind could give the police department valuable assistance at all times, and Holland would simply be establishing something that all cities of its size already have.

Of course to establish a court of this kind the necessary changes in the charter would have to be made.

WAUKAZOO GIRL WEDS CHICAGO MAN.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rice of Chicago announce the marriage of their daughter Margaret Josephine to Mr. William E. Langrill of Chicago. The wedding took place at 1:30 at the Hyde Park Hotel where the bride was living with her parents. The wedding was a quite but very pretty affair. The rooms were a tower of white carnations and chrysanthemums, while the bride table was done in white roses, carnations and smilax with yellow candelabras. After the wedding dinner the couple left for Chene du Lac, at Waukazoo the summer home of the bride's parents, to spend a few days, after which they will return to their home 1447 E. 52nd Street, Chicago.

Zeeland Man Loses Finger in Machine.

Thursday morning having just entered upon work Mr. J. Bolman met with an accident at the Zeeland Furniture factory. He was operating his machine when his attention was drawn and turning to one side as he drew the saw, he had the misfortune to cut off his second finger at the second joint. He was taken to the office of Dr. Boone who dressed the finger and took off the part of the joint.

Who's the Profiteer?

"Not I," says the packer.
"Not I," says the manufacturer.
"Not I," says the retailer.
"Surely not I," says the consumer with the flat pocketbook. "And positively not the farmer!" thunders

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

True enough, the farmer has profited by war prices. But to what extent? Well, he has been able to paint his house so it looks as well as the grocer's in town.

He has been able to buy an automobile as good as the plumber's. His family has been able to wear clothes as good as the other church folks. In other words, the farmer for the first time has had a fair living wage for his labor, with a little return on the capital he has invested in his farm and its equipment. The farmer is not a profiteer, and THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN will fight to prove his right to a fair profit for his labor and his products.

SAYS HOLLAND JUSTICE HAS RIGHT IDEA

Justice Van Schelven of Holland has the right idea concerning the drunken autoists. He says he will give the next one brought before him the maximum fine, plus the maximum jail sentence. A small fine is a poor deterrent for men who can afford to get drunk and drive cars these days, and nothing short of a jail term will serve to dissuade them from imperiling the lives of pedestrians and other motorists, say nothing of their own, which doesn't matter much.—Crescent News.

$1,500.00 HOLLAND'S QUOTA FOR THE COUNTY "Y"

At the first Monday dinner held by the Victory Club at the Woman's Literary club rooms, at least 75 of the members were present.

Many matters of valuable importance were discussed, one of them being the county "Y" that had already been placed in the hands of a large committee to work out.

The committee consisting of Dr. A. Leenhouts, Supt. E. E. Fell, Prof. J. B. Nykerk, J. Fris, Dick Boter, H. Winter, H. Geerlings and C. M. McLean made their report relative to the fostering of the county Y. M. C. A. movement.

These men had been meeting with committee men from other parts of the county, and they recommended in their report that Holland do its share to help along a project of this kind.

It was decided to raise $4,000 in the entire county, and Holland's quota was placed at $1,500; Grand Haven, $1,100; and Zeeland, $600; while the balance of the townships must raise jointly $800.

The temporary committee recommended that a permanent Holland committee be named, and they selected for the approval of the club the names of Henry Geerlings, Dick Boter, Ed Heeringa, and Principal J. Riepma. A general discussion of the advisability and the scope of a county Y. M. C. A. was then held.

Bert Slagh wished to know what benefit a "Y" of this kind would be to Holland individually, and Herman Van Tongeren stated that he did not like to have it interfere with any building Y. M. C. A. project that Holland might enter into later.

Jake Fris, secretary of the present Y. M. C. A. Movement, stated that something ought to be done to help give the business men and the boys of the shop places for recreation, but he guaranteed that the Holland "Y" now organized, would cooperate in aiding the county plan.

Father Wyckoff pointed out that there was already a community home in the Sentinel building, in a small way, and that any who wished, could avail themselves of the use of the club.

Prof. Nykerk, Mr. Landwehr, Mr. Geerlings, Arthur Vischer and others voiced their sentiment in favor of the county "Y" stating that giving $1500 would not handicap the building of a structure in Holland, later, if found necessary.

A permanent committee will now get busy and solicit funds pledging $1500 a year for two years.

From the $4,000 thus raised in the entire county, a paid secretary will be hired, and this man will work through group leaders in every district within the county and in that way reach the boy life of the whole community.

HOW IS THIS CITY GOING TO SET THE CLOCK?

On Sunday, October 26 the time has again arrived to set the clock back an hour and after six months of daylight saving the hands are to be turned to their original position and where they were the year around during pre-war times.

The war came and a new law was inaugurated whereby it was found that the setting ahead of the clock in the summer between March and October an hour could be saved each day for work, thus conserving light and consequently fuel and adding to the output of war necessities. With the ending of the war the law was also repealed.

The changing of the clock has however proven to be a welcome boon to the city folks and although the law was generally condemned by the farmers, city folks wanted it to remain in vogue.

City people gain thereby by long evenings to stay at home to rest or to work in gardens, to go fishing or to utilize the long twilight evenings for recreations that struck their fancy.

Life did not seem such a humdrum to the toiler. It did not mean work and to bed.

The city folks were as a rule very much disappointed when the law was repealed because the agriculturists objected to it.

But apparently there seems to be a way out and although the new way does not appear to be quite as satisfactory, it is better than the old pre-war way and will give the city people their long evenings in the summer just the same, however in the winter time they will have to get up in darkness at least until the next spring when the days again begin to lengthen.

There is a general agitation going on in the larger cities of the state, namely to adopt Eastern time instead of setting the clock back as before.

Grand Rapids papers are taking a poll on the adoption of Eastern time which seems, according to the votes received, to meet with the approval of the people generally.

The wholesalers who visited Holland last week took a straw vote in nearly every place of importance visited and found that the sentiment is about 2 to 1 in favor of Eastern time.

In this case it matters very little what Holland's preferences are in the matter. Supposing for instance that Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Detroit, Lansing, Flint and other large centers adopted Eastern time, Holland will practically be forced to follow, otherwise we would be constantly and hopelessly time-tangled. Railroads will make time schedules according to the time adopted by the larger cities of the state and not according to the time that Holland, Zeeland or Grand Haven may see fit to adopt.

It might however be well to keep this in mind and be ready to follow immediately when the larger cities decide upon a definite time.

Should no change be made and the pre-war time schedule prevail again then why not follow a plan of our own as it relates to Holland people? Here is a simpler way than any yet suggested.

Let every community go to work an hour earlier in the morning in the spring, leaving the clock as it is. That is, let factories begin work at 6 o'clock in the morning instead of at 7. Or, let them quit work at 4 in the afternoon, instead of at 5. Let business men regulate their hours of business accordingly. Why do we need to deceive ourselves as to the time by turning the clock ahead? In two days we would be accustomed to the earlier hour, as we became accustomed to the time when we shoved the clock ahead. And by keeping standard railroad time there will be no confusion to travelers.

This plan is so simple that few think of it.

The continuous effort and final success to repeal the "daylight saving" law recalls, perhaps, the first introduction of that character of legislation in congress.

It was nearly 30 year ago, when the fourth congressional district of Boston was represented by Mr. Joseph H. O'Neill, who succeeded the late Patrick Collins of Boston. It was perhaps at the session of 1890-2 that Mr. O'Neill introduced his bill which provided for turning the clocks ahead fifteen minutes on each of the four Sundays in April, until the full hour had been reached, and reversing the hands back again 15 minutes each Sunday in September until the sun time had been restored. This scheme to conserve more daylight at the end of the working day received scarcely any consideration from the lawmakers at that time, so Mr. O'Neill's proposition was pigeonholed, but it seems that his conception of the division of the working hours in the spring and summer months possessed the elements of merit, for it went marching on and was finally enacted into law nearly 30 years after its first introduction.

ALMA COLLEGE MEETS HOPE TEAM SATURDAY

Alma college grid team will be in action at Alma next Saturday afternoon, the Maroon and Cream eleven stacking up against the Hope College team.

Elated rather than disappointed at the showing of his green team made at M. A. C. in Wednesday's game, Coach Wood is now polishing up the eleven, ironing out the weak spots that the Aggies found in the line and expects to defeat the Hopeites.

Spooner, the veteran tackle who was out of the Aggie game with injuries, will be back in the game, and will strengthen the line. This will also make possible the strengthening of the guard position, which looked bad in the Aggie game, as Anderson who held down Spooner's job, will be placed at that position. Wood will have to complete backfields ready for action against Hope.

THE HUN SERVES A GOOD CAUSE IN THIS CASE

Lawrence Bancroft doesn't believe that a lock and key are much good when it comes to keeping one's possessions safe. Bancroft is a returned soldier and being such has a large collection of souvenirs. Among them is the skull of a German.

Bancroft has a Negro porter in his office. And this negro porter dotes on running through Bancroft's papers when the latter is out. So now the German skull reposes on Bancroft's desk. You know how Negroes are when it comes to skulls. Now you couldn't hire that porter to go near the desk and the papers are all safe. Who said something about "necessity is the mother of invention?"

TWO LOCAL MAIL MEN ARE OPERATED ON

The Holland postoffice was considerably crippled temporarily Saturday when two members of the force went under the surgeon's knife. Both are still under the doctor's care and substitutes are taking their places.

Jacob Geerlings, city carrier, went to Grand Rapids Saturday afternoon and submitted to an operation in the office of Dr. F. G. Warnshuis for the removal of a swollen gland in the neck. The operation, while very painful, was performed with only a local anesthetic and it appears to be wholly successful. Mr. Geerlings is out again and expects to be back at work soon.

George Schuiling, postoffice clerk, was operated on Saturday forenoon at Blodgett Memorial Hospital for the removal of his tonsils. Mr. Schuiling will be confined to the hospital for some little time.

LOSES THUMB AT ATHLETIC CELEBRATION

The student celebration in anticipation of the football game, cost Ivan Bosman, 367 Lincoln avenue, a thumb Friday night. Bosman is a high school student of the Sophomore Class and he was hard at work with the others getting the wagon in shape on which the team was drawn through the streets of Holland. It appears that some of the crowd started up sooner than Bosman expected and the result was that he lost the thumb from his left hand. It was taken off so completely that further amputation was not necessary. Dr. Cook and Dr. Boot dressed the wound.

LOCAL WOMEN ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Woman's Missionary Conference of the Reformed churches of Michigan, held in Grand Rapids, Oct. 9, was a decided success. The attendance was large and the addresses inspiring.

Mrs. Baldwin, president of the foreign Board, presented a view of the field and the need of a forward movement. Mrs. A. Peters brought a message from Japan and Miss Marie Zwemer and Miss Westveer were on the program for "young people's work."

Mayor and Mrs. Nichodemus Bosch are on an extended trip thru the East. They will visit New York City, Boston, Washington, Philadelphia and other places of interest on the trip. Mr. Bosch is combining business with pleasure as he was called east relative to some large orders for the Western Machine Tool

WORLD POLITICS TO BE DISCUSSED

A feature of the meeting was a symposium on "The Big Four", with the following divisions: "Wilson," Mrs. C. M. McLean; "Lloyd George," Mrs. E. E. Fell; "Clemenceau," Mrs. C. H. McBride; "Orlando," Mrs. W. G. Winter.

Community singing was led by Mrs. Mabel Anthony. "The Peace Treaty" was the subject of an address given by Prof. Wynand Wichers of Hope College.

At the close of the program a class in parliamentary law was organized.

Prof. J. B. Nykerk was in Grand Rapids on business Saturday.

CATCH AUTO THIEF-FORGER AND ALL-ROUND CROOK

Prosecuting Attorney I. C. Montague of Allegan County received word to have the officers be on the outlook for Lisle L. Rix, a former resident of Allegan, who was wanted for forgery and supposed auto stealing.

Monday evening, while the Allegan city council was in session, Assistant Marshal John North told the prosecutor "their man" was on the street and they went out and arrested him and landed him in jail. Rix drove a nearly new Ford car to Allegan early on Monday evening and this car is said to have been stolen from C. M. Green at Grand Park, Ill., Sept. 29. It is said Rix has recently sold two other Ford cars in this city. One, a pretty good Ford, was sold to Earl Walters; another Ford was sold to a son of Mr. Frank Smith, a relative by marriage of Rix, of the City Hotel. Rix is wanted at San Antonio, Tex., where he forged a check on his father for $975. The father is a dentist at Tampico, Mexico, and in a letter says he wants to see his son punished for his misdeeds, though he has done everything possible to give him a start in the world. He is also wanted at Huntley, Ill., where he forged a check for $300.

Rix is being held pending the arrival of the sheriff at San Antonio, Texas, and will be taken there as soon as extradition papers can be secured.

GOVERNMENT FOOD ARRIVES AT LAST

At last, after long waiting, the army food has arrived and the people who bought the goods thru the postoffice from Uncle Sam way back in the summer some time can now get the returns for their money.

Tuesday about a third of the consignment to Holland arrived in this city. There was a good deal of bacon in the shipment, and other goods of various kinds. Everything that arrived at the local postoffice was distributed Tuesday, and the parcel post delivery auto had a busy time of it.

It is expected that from now on the rest of the Holland consignment will be coming right along and that there will be no further delay.

Rev. James F. Zwemer was in Grand Rapids on business Tuesday.

Clarence L. Herweyer of Flint, is spending a few days with his cousins, Otto and John Herweyer of this city.

John Vanderwaag well known in Holland died in Spring Lake at the age of 81 years. The funeral was held Friday, Rev. J. H. Monsma officiating.

In speaking of a game of football to be played between Grand Haven and Holland the Tribune says at the tail end of a sporting article: "Two new games have been added to local schedule. Both will be home games, too. Shelby will come next week Saturday and Allegan has been secured for a game here November 1. These two games are both good and will help prepare the locals for the big Holland tilt November 15. Sports may close negotiations for a game October 25, but it is likely that November will be purposely kept open."

The high church steeple of the Christian Reformed church of Drenthe, has been taken down and the belfry has been changed to the ancient style of cathedral architecture. Lighting struck the barn of Rev. W. D. VanderWerp during the electrical storm that passed over that village last Saturday.

This action was in respect for the memory of the late H. J. Heinz who died at his home in Pittsburgh during the past year. The parties who paid $40,000 for the Van Dyke 40 got it cheap, is the verdict of those well informed in land values in the muck area.

MAKES GOOD IN MUSIC IN LONDON, ONT.

Herman J. Brouwer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Brouwer of this city, has taken a position on the vocal staff of the London, Ontario, Conservatory of Music and holds the position of Managing Director of the institution. In the school's announcement the following is said about the former Holland man:

Herman J. Brouwer is an American singer who possesses an unusual baritone voice of wonderful possibilities. He has achieved unqualified success in concert and recital. His career as a musician began at the age of twelve and in the years following he has appeared before large audiences in practically every city of importance in the United States. Engaging personality, beautiful voice, elegant style and distinct enunciation form the artistic features always specially emphasized in all of Mr. Brouwer's press reviews."

The London, Ontario, Advertiser of October 9, prints a lengthy article about a concert given by Mr.

Brouwer in London. Introductory to a detailed critique of the individual numbers on the program, the article had the following general remarks:

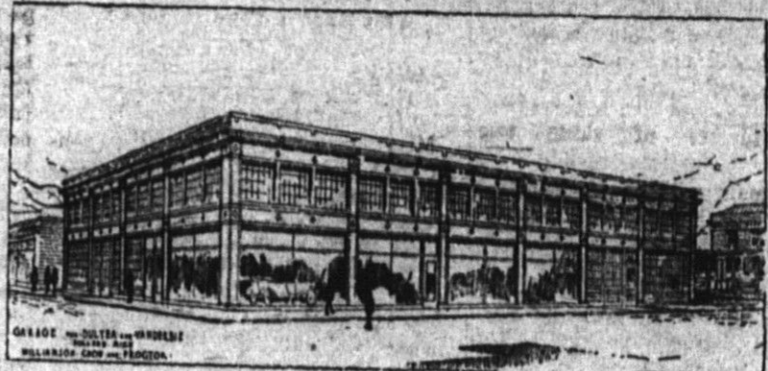

"London may well toss her head with pride that she has permanently within her gates such an artist as Herman Brouwer, who sang in recital here at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening.

"With a rich baritone voice of unusual range, beauty and power Mr. Brouwer almost immediately captured the interest of his audience but his heart was lost completely in the final number "When the Boys Come Home," sung with intense fervor and vigor.

"In the matter of clear enunciation, Mr. Brouwer almost goes to the extreme, but still within the bounds of art. He doesn't believe in taking the prevailing sloppiness of even the most correct speech into song. When he sings an "L" it is an "L" and not just a slur. His stage presence is alike modest and imposing and immediately he makes friends with his audience."

A chorus will furnish four numbers during the program.

The installation of Rev. James Wayer as pastor of the First Reformed church will take place at 7:30 in Winants chapel. Rev. Strabbing of Ebenezer will preside. The sermon will be by Dr. S. C. Nettinga, the charge to the pastor by Dr. J. E. Kuisenga, the installation by Rev. S. Vander Werf. Music will be furnished by the Prins-Baker quartet.

LOCALS

Rev. G. Tyse of North Holland has declined a call extended to him as a classical missionary.

Rev. Charles Judd will address the Student Volunteer Band of Hope College Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Cosmopolitan Hall. His subject will be "A Discussion of Japan." This is to be an open meeting and all are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nibbelink, Mr. and Mrs. S. Dogger, and family, Mr. James Dogger, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vanden Berg and Miss Sena and John VandenBerg motored to Grand Rapids Wednesday to attend the marriage of Miss Bessie Dogger and John Zoelman.

Much complaint has been coming in from residents living on 15th St. between River and Central avenues. After every rain a veritable river forms and remains until the water sinks in the ground. City Engineer Zuidema has been instructed to purchase the proper drains and see that the surplus water has a chance to reach the sewer.

The Corner Hardware petitioned the Common Council for the privilege of putting in an air pump for autos and bicycles. The council gave the committee power to act in the matter but instructed them to allow the pump in the rear only as the parking zone forbids autos from standing in front of the store at that location.

Rev. P. Battens, pastor of the Maple Ave. Christian Reformed church left for the east on an extended trip. He has been asked to preach in Rochester, N. Y. Sunday and incidentally will visit several cities of interest in New York state and may possibly go to Washington, D. C.

The resolutions follow:
Resolved: That whereas the city of Holland has by the death of John A. Kooyers lost a faithful official and an honored citizen whose civic activities and interest in municipal welfare, has been of great value in our community and to whom in particular, citizens are indebted for the beauty of our parks and public places; therefore,

Resolved, That the Common Council do hereby express their sincere sorrow for the decease of John A. Kooyers and condole with the family and fellow citizens in their loss; and further,
That this resolution be spread at length in the minutes of the proceedings of the Common Council and the clerk be directed to send a copy of these resolutions to the widow.

WOMAN NAMED MEMBER OF SCHOOL BOARD

Holland now has two woman members on the Board of Education. At the regular meeting of the Board, Mrs. Chas. H. McBride was appointed a member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death recently of Henry G. Pelgrim. Mr. Pelgrim was elected at the regular election held in July and hence his new term of office had just begun. Mrs. McBride however will not serve the full three years on the present appointment that Mr. Pelgrim would have served if he had lived. The city charter provides that an appointment made by the board of education shall expire at the time of the next general election when the voters shall proceed to elect a successor in the regular way. The election will occur next July and Mrs. McBride will serve until then, and longer if chosen at that time by the people of the city.

Not until a few years ago did Holland name a woman member on the Board of Education. The first woman to serve in this capacity was Mrs. G. E. Kollen, and her labors on behalf of the public schools in Holland were endorsed after her first term had expired when she was honored with re-election.

In filling the vacancy the board of education evidently took the hint given by the electors in the election of one woman by naming a second. With four daughters in school, Mrs. McBride has taken a deep personal interest as well as a civic interest in the educational institutions of Holland, and through her appointment the newly enfranchised women of Holland will have a wider representation on the board of members of their own sex.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will entertain its friends on next Friday afternoon, Oct. 17, from 3 to 6 o'clock in the parlors of the M. E. church. Each member of the union may bring one guest and any lady interested in the work will be cordially welcomed. A program of readings and of music will be given and refreshments served.

MAYOR AND WIFE RETURN FROM TRIP EAST

Mayor and Mrs. N. Bosch returned to Holland Tuesday evening after spending about two weeks in the East. They spent some time in Boston, New York City and Pittsburgh, incidentally visiting by automobile many outlying points of interest in New England.

Though primarily a pleasure trip, the mayor combined business with pleasure in New York and Boston visiting the machine trade in those cities in the interests of the Western Machine Tool Works.

West 16th street. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. J. Ghysels, pastor of the Ninth St. Chr. Ref. church, officiating. Interment will take place in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

The deceased is very well known. For many years he served as janitor of the Ninth St. Christian Reformed church. He is survived by his wife and four children: Mrs. H. Bos, Holland; John Ensing, Big Rapids; Miss Minnie Ensing, Hoiland; Harold Ensing, Grand Rapids.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE FARMERS OF OTTAWA COUNTY

The first annual meeting of the Ottawa County Farm Bureau is slated for Coopersville on October 29th. This comes as a result of an action of the executive committee of the bureau while in conference last week in the office of the agricultural agent.

The county farm bureau is an active organization and has been in existence for nearly a year. During the early part of the year over sixty farmers of the county met in Grand Haven and after studying the Farm Bureau method of organization decided to adopt the plans and promote such an organization within the county. Since that time the membership has grown steadily. A number of new members were added at the time of the Farm Bureau picnic and others are constantly being volunteered.

The object of this conference is two-fold, first, to conduct the election of officers and committeemen in all parts of the county to arrange a membership and publicity campaign which will reach all the farmers of the county, and second, to hold a better seed exhibit and at this time to bring together samples of the best varieties of grains, grasses, legumes and other farm produce for the purpose of studying their merits. This exhibit does not aim to show produce of the farm as is usually exhibited at fairs but to bring together only such samples as are of unusually high quality for seed purposes.

Through the co-operation of the Granges, Farmer Clubs, Gleaner Arbors and cooperative associations of the county sufficient funds have been provided to allow the officials of the Farm Bureau to arrange for the exhibit and to offer such prizes as will induce the best farmers of the county to exhibit. Prizes will be offered on corn, wheat, oats, barley, vetch, potatoes, beans and fruit together with a contest among the ladies to determine who can bake the best loaf of white bread and the best apple pie. A full list of the premiums will be published throughout the county and in all an unusual attractive day is being planned.

The farmers of the county are invited to attend whether or not they are members of the Farm Bureau. A program with some of the best speakers of the state is being arranged for and it is expected that the I. O. O. F. hall at Coopersville will be crowded to capacity on this day.

VILLAGE OF GIBSON AND CITY OF HOLLAND ON VERY GOOD TERMS

In a little item telling of several people from Gibson visiting in Holland, this paper recently appended the line: "Welcome Gibson; are there any more of you?" This inspired a citizen of Gibson to the following interesting information of the affiliations between the little village on the way to Saugatuck and Holland:

"Why Hello, Holland!
"We are pretty well acquainted as individuals, altho perhaps not as 'Gibsonites.' Glad to note your 'Official 'Welcome Gibson' in your paper of Oct. 9!

"Your bankers, business men, superintendent of schools, teachers and many private citizens are acquainted with and personal friends of many of us for many years. Like to have your memory jogged? All right. Let's begin at your splendid high school. Among its graduates you will find Arthur Younkes, Alice McAllister, Marion, Irene, Ruth and Dorothy Bauhahn, Anna Lundberg, Hazel Bush and James Boyce, with Fred and Dick Boyce now in attendance. Our artisans are not entirely unknown to you either; among them being Earland Gundin, Carl Bennett, Fred Sundin, Geo. McAllister, Olaf Sundin. Some of our young people are married and living in Holland among them being Anna Erickson,

Nellie, Eunice Hattie and Hazel Bush.

"We also have an enterprising Sunday School, Christian Endeavor, Alumnus Society (Bon-a-sig), Standard School, Country store and lastly a Bell Telephone association composed of the following members: Messrs. Atwood, Baker, Banhahn, Berlin, Bennett, Boyce, Bush, Kanera, McAllister, Methven, Sundin, Steiner Van Dine Wagner. We are bounded by Lakes Michigan, Goshorn and Gilligan and on east by Michigan Railway Co. Any more of us? Course!! Sure you knew us!! Welcome! All right, thanks. We knew that! So long! GIBSON."

Talk about adventures!

Men in the Navy come home with the kind of experiences that most chaps read of only in the books.

Here's your chance!

Uncle Sam has, as you know, a big Navy and gives red-blooded young fellows like you an opportunity to step aboard and "shove off".

What will you get out of it? Just this:

A chance to rub elbows with foreign folks in strange parts of the world.

The chance for good honest work on shipboard—the kind of work that teaches you something real; the kind of work that puts beef on your shoulders and hair on your chest.

You will get 30 care-free vacation days a year, not counting shore leave in home or foreign ports.

You will have the kind of comradeship in travel that sailors know.

You will have regular pay, over and above your meals, lodging and your first uniform outfit—good stuff all of it.

You can join for two years. When you get through you'll be physically and mentally "tuned up" for the rest of your life. You'll be ready through and through for SUCCESS.

There's a Recruiting Station right near you. If you don't know where it is, your Postmaster will be glad to tell you.

To any Father and Mother:—
In the Navy your boy's food, health, work and play, and moral welfare are looked after by responsible experts.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Four Times
As Strong

An analysis was recently made by Ford experts of the comparative strength of a genuine Ford part and a corresponding imitation part sold by some repair shops. In this test the genuine part registered a tensile strength four time greater than the counterfeit. And this part is a vital one to which the Ford strength gives a necessary margin of safety.

Don't buy imitation Ford parts. Remember that every genuine Ford part must pass rigid factory tests, but the only test of the inferior, imitation parts is the cheapness of their selling price. We are now supplying genuine Ford parts to reputable garages everywhere.

When your Ford needs attention, insist that that the garage man doing your work uses genuine Ford parts. Don't allow imitation parts to go into your car.

When King Albert of the Belgians landed within the borders of Ohio he paid tribute to the men of the 37th division who came from that state. HOLLAND CITY LOSES SERVANT THRU DEATH.

Holland Thursday lost a faithful servant who has served the city about 21 years and whose work has done perhaps as much as that of anyone else to make the city favorable known to outsiders. At 9:30 p. m. Thursday death took John A. Kooyers, Commissioner of Parks of this city. Mr. Kooyers suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he did not recover. His death occurred at his home 550 State street.

Mr. Kooyers was 66 years old. He was born in Holland and lived in this city all his life. He began his working life as a printer, and for 24 years he was connected with the printing plant of "De Grondwet." This position he relinquished about 21 years ago to become the employee of the Holland City Park Board, which he has served ever since.

When Mr. Kooyers began his work as park commissioner the city of Holland did not have the fine system of parks that it has today. He was exceptionally well qualified for the position and to him is due a great deal of the credit for Holland's fine parks. While the park board naturally initiated many of the policies that resulted in the city's park system, Mr. Kooyers worked out their ideas splendidly, and his work with the plants received wide recognition. Strangers who spend a few days in Holland usually remember this city by its park and this feature of the city's life is one of its best assets.

The deceased is survived by his wife and five children: Fred of Oklahoma, Martin and Lewis at home, Mrs. Mildred Carter of Fennville, and William of Long Beach, California.

The funeral was held Monday at two o'clock from the home, Rev. B. Fleming of the M. E. church officiating.

A LIVE TEAM RIDES IN AN ALLEGAN HEARSE

The Allegan Base Ball team went to Otsego to play ball the other day and the boys all piled in the automobile belonging to John Short.

The trip going was made all right and without mishap, but on the return trip Short who in reality is long was short of tires and short of air in them, in fact short of everything.

The boys piled into the buzz wagon and were tumbling over the sides because of their numbers. When about half way between Otsego and Allegan the last tire blew out and the patches were all used up. In fact Short was short of everything but passengers and he was long on these.

The ball players sat along the roadside dejectedly discussing whether they should "hoof" it back or stay until a good samaritan should come along.

One did come but not in the way the boys expected.

On the brow of the hill they spied an Allegan undertaker with his large hearse. This conveyance that goes only to one destination generally speaking, did not appeal very strongly to the leaguers and besides there were no extra seats and if they wanted a ride, well you know!

The most daring however spoke up and asked for a lift. The undertaker said "well boys I know it is rather early for such healthy chaps as you are to all ask for my services, but if you want them pile into this hearse for the going is free at least this time."

Gingerly the ball players crept in and to add to the gressomeness of the occasion, one began to tell of "spooky" stories.

At midnight when all was still, one might have seen a bunch of ball players eagerly climbing out of a wagon that heretofore carried dead ones only, and quietly sneak away to their respective homes. The Allegan team is far from "dead" however, for they beat Otsego.

Mrs. Etta Sadler Shaw, national lecturer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, spoke in all the schools in Holland Thursday in the Union's anti-cigarette campaign.

Mrs. Shaw was accompanied Thursday a. m. by Mrs. G. E. Kollen, member of the board of education, and Thursday p. m. by Mrs. A. E. McClellan. She was the guest while in Holland of Mrs. E. B. Rich.

MOTOR DRIVER BUMPS RIGHT INTO HOLD-UP

To have about $400 in your care, and to see bandits, with masks and guns, just complete a real hold-up, and then to escape with the money and a whole skin, is harrowing enough experience for one night for any man. But that is what happened to John Boyd of Grand Haven Thursday night on the Muskegon road near Mona Lake. Today Mr. Boyd does not quite know how the bandits escaped him, but he is glad they did.

The whole thing happened in an exceedingly brief period of time. Mr. Boyd, with his wife and his daughter, Miss Belle Boyd, were driving home from Fremont. Mr. Boyd was at the steering wheel and he had in his possession about $400, the proceeds of some business transactions.

Suddenly the lights of a car, stopped in the road, loomed ahead. The stationary car was stopped in the highway and blocked the path. Mr. Boyd blew the whistle on his car. He could see a man standing at the side of the car apparently hanging to it, and the Grand Haven man called out,

"Why don't you get out of the road and give me room to get past?"

There was no answer but it was not long before the local party realized that something unusual was happening. The Grand Haven driver managed to squeeze through past the stalled car, and stopped his machine for a minute. It was then he caught sight of a man slipping around the rear of his car. The fellow wore a handkerchief over his face, and held a revolver in his hand. The two ladies screamed, and they state that they heard two shots.

At that instant a car from the direction of Muskegon came up in the rear, and other cars approached from the south. Within a very few minutes there were several cars approaching from both directions, and the bandits disappeared from sight immediately. Undoubtedly the sudden appearance of so many cars, put an end to the operations and saved Mr. Boyd's coin.

He learned that the bandits had tackled the wrong car for their own interests, and had made a haul of not much more than sixty cents. To all appearances the bandits were operating from the roadside and no car was in evidence.

Mr. Boyd got his car going in a moment, and upon reaching the first place along the road he went in and notified the Muskegon Heights police. When he came out of the house another car stopped, and a man asked Mr. Boyd if someone had been hurt down the road. While the Grand Haven drivers had no means of identifying the robber, he had seen for a brief instant down the road and he was struck with the similarity of appearance of this man to the bandit.

He lost little time in getting over the rest of the route toward home.

ANOTHER HOLD UP ATTEMPTED ON THE MUSKEGON ROAD.

Another attempted holdup on the Mona lake road just outside of Muskegon was frustrated when another automobile rounded a curve ahead and threw its lights on the highwaymen, according to a Muskegon news dispatch. Occupants of the held-up car, C. R. Walters and C. W. Jackson, both of Muskegon, were forced to alight at the point of a revolver just before the protecting beams shot around the curve. The robbers were frightened away in their car. No clue has been found to the bandits.

DEATH TAKES FORMER HOLLAND BUSINESS MAN

Fred G. Aldworth, former Holland business man, died last evening at about ten o'clock at his home at 141 East Tenth street after an illness of some duration of septic poisoning. Mr. Aldworth was born in Allegan 58 years ago. He was at one time connected with the Baker Drug Co. of Allegan, and also traveled for the John A. Wyeth & Bros. Co. of Philadelphia. Later he was employed by the Peck Drug Company of Grand Rapids.

Early in 1915 he formed a partnership with John Vaupell and operated with him the drug store on the corner of Central and Eighth. After three years in the local drug store he sold out and since then he has been connected with the Holland Aniline Company.

The deceased is survived by his wife and one daughter Eleanor. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock from the home, and burial took place in Grand Rapids.

NEW GAS RATE OF $1.40 IS NOW ESTABLISHED

A dollar and forty cents net for gas—that is the word that came from the State Public Utilities Commission Saturday morning to City Attorney C. H. McBride and to the officials of the Holland City Gas Co. This is a raise of fifteen cents per thousand cubic feet, but it is not yet the permanent rate. The commission in its communication says that it wants more time to fix a permanent rate and that hence a new temporary rate has been established. The rate shall apply on all gas sold after August 26, 1919. The formal temporary rate is $1.50 per thousand cubic feet with a discount of ten cents if paid before the 15th of the month.

"Pending a thorough examination and consideration of the proofs and testimony offered in the matter," says the communication, "the Commission feels that the Holland City Gas Works is entitled to more than $1.25 net per thousand feet of gas sold." And hence the new temporary rate is established.

In a letter to Mr. McBride Sherman T. Handy, one of the commissioners, says: "The reason for making this order is that the Commission finds it will be unable to make a permanent order in this matter for several days owing to the fact that so much time is necessarily involved in compiling figures from the testimony. The commission is also giving serious consideration, in fixing a permanent rate, to make a charge to cover the expense of service connections, installing, maintenance, removing and reading meters, billing, complaints and the like, and we find in many places that a flat charge is made for such services of from 25¢ up. We recognize there is a great deal of merit in this charge for the reason that this cost is applicable to all consumers alike. As this matter was not argued, or proofs offered for or against it, we feel that before making a permanent order this matter should be called to your attention and you be given an opportunity to file a brief in favor or against the proposition, as you desire. These briefs should be filed on or before the 21st day of October."

Our own experience with Republics has conclusively proven that immunity to road wear does make Republics last longer.

Our observation in hundreds of cases is that they reveal no sign of the chipping and cutting you expect in a tire that has seen considerable service.

This is due, of course to the Prodim Process, which so toughens the tread that—like steel—it wears down slowly and evenly.

That is why we do strongly urge all motorists to equip with Republic Tires.

for this year, Dr. J. E. Kuizenga, of the Western Theological Seminary. Last year the class made a very enviable record. In a recent letter to Professor Kuizenga the Superintendent of the Educational Department of the Michigan Sunday School Association says, "Your class passed with a high percentage. The examination papers from your students were so good that they were sent to the state Convention at Flint, for the Teacher Training exhibit. The results were gratifying and you may well be proud of such a class. Your class will receive the first year's certificate, having completed the studies for the same."

Past members of the class, Sunday school superintendents and the teachers and the pastors of all the churches in Holland are urged to co-operate and make this a banner year.

Those who took the June examinations are requested to call upon the secretary, Prof. F. N. Patterson at 71 W. 13th street in regard to their diplomas.

CENTRAL RESERVES WIN FROM HOLLAND SECONDS

In the preliminary to the Holland Grand Rapids Central game, the second team from the western state metropolis defeated the local reserves, 13 to 0.

The playing of Tarte, Thorquist for the visitors featured each of the players getting a touch down. Davis Houtman and Damson played a stellar game for the locals, but were unable to come up to the class of football played by the Centralites.

The playing of all the players was noticeable for the absence of any questionable tactics.

ALL BUT 18 OF COMPANY I HAVE ANSWERED CALL

The death of James Sherman, one of the members of the famous Company I of the 25th Michigan regiment recalled to the mind of G. Van Schelven, another member of this well known company, that there are at present but 18 survivors of this organization of Civil War veterans. All the others have answered the last bugle call.

The 18 survivors are Mr. Van Schelven himself, Renke DeVries of Drenthe, Ulke De Vries of Holland, Peter DeVries of Holland, Peter De Feyer of Missouri, Joe Van Plank of Spring Lake, M. Van Regenmorter of Holland, J. Abrahamse of Kalamazoo, W. Frick of Kalamazoo, H. J. Ter Sleghter, G. C. Doesburg, Henry Van Lente all of Holland, John Lewis, of Grand Rapids, Henry Van Dyke of Zeeland, B. G. Van Tongeren, G. Walker of North Carolina, Peter Rookus of Zeeland and Derk Stegenga.

Company I which won fame during the Civil war because of its gallant behavior under fire and on the march was mustered in at Kalamazoo. It was made up almost exclusively of Hollanders, and its members were young boys from Holland, Zeeland, Grand Haven, Eastmanville, Kalamazoo and other scattering points in the Dutch colony which was at that time in its infancy, having been founded about 15 years before. Practically all the boys who formed the company were born in the Netherlands, but they fought for their adopted country as bravely as if it had been for the land of their birth.

The company was organized in August, 1862. On September 22 of that same year it was mustered in, and after a few weeks it went to the front and into action. After serving through the period of the war and taking part in some of the hottest engagements, it was mustered out in July 1865.

There were about 40 men in the company from Holland, about 20 from Zeeland, and the others from scattering places, the whole company numbering 83 members, all but 18 of whom have since passed away.

GRAND HAVEN HAS A MARK TWINN DEATH

To receive a card from the adjutant general stating that his son died honorably in the service of his country almost a year ago would be tragedy in the home of any man. But to have that soldier son, present in life, when the gruesome message is received, a strange circumstance, indeed. Yet that is what happened in the case of Gerrit Ver Woert of Grand Haven who has just received such notice concerning his son Henry Ver Woert, who has these many months resumed his job of making a living in civil life.

Henry Ver Woert went to France with the army, and after being assigned to the 64th U. S. Infantry, he suffered a severe gas attack, which developed in a rather severe illness. His name appeared among the dead in France but the notification was later corrected. Some time ago he returned home, and the other day this message came, ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES To All Who See These Presents, Greetings:

This is to certify that Henry Ver Woert, Private Co. K., 64th Infantry, died with honor in the service of his country, Oct. 31, 1918.

Three hundred high school students left the Gym. at 9 o'clock Friday night. Marching down town they created much pep for the game played Saturday afternoon on the 19th street grounds. Attached to a long rope was a large drape and this was being drawn by the student body while the football team made merry in the truck. The rooters marched thru the principal streets giving the high school yells and doing other stunts to create enthusiasm.

INTERURBAN IS EIGHTEEN YEARS OLD TUESDAY

The Holland Interurban was 18 years old Tuesday as will be seen from a clipping from an old copy telling of the event. Here it is:

"On the afternoon of August 31, 1901, the first car was run through from Holland to Grand Rapids over the single track that was completed on that day. This was in accordance with the terms of the right of way through Zeeland township by which the company was required to run a car through by that time or pay a forfeit of $1,000.

"It was not until October 14 that the line was formally opened for regular traffic, and a working schedule put into effect. At 1 o'clock on the afternoon of that day, however, cars left Holland and Grand Rapids carrying the first regular passengers over the new line on a two-hour schedule.

"The occasion was made one of rejoicing and celebration along the entire route and people flocked from miles on either side of the road to see the big cars go whizzing by at their 50 miles an hour speed.

"The first car in regular service leaving Holland was in charge of Conductor Harris and Motorman Stewart, while that leaving Grand Rapids was manned by Conductor Mitchell and Motorman Irving. Of these four men two are still with the company, Mr. Stewart being now master mechanic at the car barns and Mr. Irving superintendent of Jenison Park."

The above clipping only relates to the opening of the road over the entire system altho in 1897 the building of the road was started to Macatawa, which was completed on July 3rd, 1898, and the first cars were run over it on the 4th of July.

Later the road was completed to Saugatuck and last of all the Grand Rapids extension was built by the well known Jack Busby, who afterwards became superintendent.

When the road was first built, M. J. Kinch was the superintendent, and Charles A. Floyd was the ticket agent, who later worked himself up to the superintendency, until the road was sold some five years ago.

We can candidly say for the Holland interurban as far as Holland is concerned, that if all cities had as little trouble with public service companies as Holland has had with the Holland interurban, the intense feeling generally existing against a public utility company, would not exist.

The road as a rule has complied with any reasonable request made by the aldermen, and generally complied with these wants quickly and graciously. As far as prompt service goes, it is a known fact that there is not an interurban road in the state that gives the service Holland gets through its interurban line. It has been said that people set their watches as an interurban car goes by.

It has also been unusual the way snow blockades have been taken care of between Holland and Grand Rapids.

When other roads were generally blocked by snow storms the Holland interurban road was running. This fact was not alone known in Holland, but the road bears that reputation throughout the state.

The interurban crews too are men of the highest type, and we number many of them among our best citizens.

At least forty interurban families make their home in this city.

HOLLAND INTERURBAN TO BUILD NEW FREIGHT DEPOT

City Attorney C. H. McBride recently requested that certain changes be made in the Holland interurban freight house on W. 8th St. Superintendent H. P. Harren stated that they would do better than that, and that they would build a new freight house.

AS TO SHOOTING FOX SQUIRRELS; DATES ARE

FROM OCT. 15 TO OCT. 30

For several years the shooting of fox squirrels has been forbidden by law, but now a short open season is allowed—Oct. 15 to 30 inclusive. No other sort of squirrel may be killed. Some states forbid the killing of squirrels within the limits of any city or town or within one fourth mile thereof, but there is no such provision in Michigan laws.

However, this is a matter which ought to be observed by all hunters, for the preservation of these animals within towns is desirable for sake of their pleasing appearance and their presence as pets. They are harmless in towns and afford not a little delight to all beholders. Holland has a considerable supply of them and surely there is no one who would like to see them exterminated or their numbers lessened. Besides a city law forbids the discharge of firearms within the city.

ARE STRUCK BY ZEE- LAND AUTOMOBILE

Mr. and Mrs. P. Kuizenga were injured on East 8th street just outside of the city limits Tuesday evening at about 9:30, when they were struck from the back by an automobile driven by John VerHage of Zeeland. Mr. and Mrs. Kuizenga were walking east when the car on its way to Zeeland struck them. Mr. Kuizenga was quite badly injured and Mrs. Kuizenga was also hurt although not as seriously as her husband.

The injured man was immediately taken to his home where he was attended by Dr. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd of Chicago are guests at the home of their daughter Mrs. A. H. Wite of Beechwood.

The foundation has already been laid for the beautiful new home being erected for D. B. K. Van Raalte, Jr., on the Cor. of Maple Ave and 11th Street.

John F. Van Anroy of Grand Haven, sold his old home on West 13th Street to Peter F. Douma, contractor of this city. John is now city assessor in Grand Haven and has become pretty well a Grand Havenite.

City Clerk Richard Overweg, who recently purchased the home of contractor Frank Bolhuis on West 13th Street, recently sold it to Lucas Smith, who will make his home there.

Mayor Bosch was asked to give a report to the council of the trip taken by Mrs. Bosch and himself. He did this in detail, but said of all the cities visited Holland looks good to him.

City Attorney Charles McBride has sold a home to Marshall Irving on the corner of College and 20th Street. "Marsh" will make his future home in this city. Mr. McBride was also sold a home, 489 College Ave. to Clarence Wood, engineer at the Holland Light and Power plant.

Ben Van den Berg, of the St. Clair Oil Company, has purchased the Oosting home on West 13th Street, where he will live in the future. Mr. Van den Berg has recently moved here from Grand Rapids.

Wm. Van der Ven, manager of the Holland Canning Company, sold his home on College Avenue to E. Smallfield of Chicago, who will live in Holland in the future. Mr. Van der Ven in turn purchased the Warren Hanchett homestead on West 11th Street and has moved to that place.

The frame work for the home of Ben Brower on 11th Street, east of Maple, is now up. The structure will be a beauty when completed. It is stated, that George Clements, of Poole Bros. and Henry Luidens of the First State Bank will also build in that immediate neighborhood in the near future. Both of these gentlemen have sold their homes.

Rev. Siebe C. Nettinga, recently installed as Professor of Historical Theology in the Western Theological Seminary has purchased the homestead owned by the late Prof. N. M.
