FARM HOME IS BURNED WEDNESDAY AT NEW GRONINGEN

A disastrous fire occurred Wednesday morning at New Groningen, when the farm home occupied by two brothers and their families, Lambert and William Schuitema, was completely destroyed. The fire started in or near the kitchen and it is supposed that it originated from a defective chimney. The Schuitemas conduct a milk route in Zeeland and they were away from home at the time of the fire. The house was completely destroyed and all the furniture, with the exception of a very few pieces, was also consumed.

Owners of bicycle, in Holland are hereby made aware of the fact that the new ordinance relating to lights on bicycles has gone into effect.

Every bicycle in the city must have a light burning in the front one hour before sunrise and 1 hour after sunset.

The families also lost nearly all their clothes, and the cleanup made by the fire is about as complete as it could very well have been made.

The Zeeland fire department came to the rescue, but it was comparatively helpless because no water was available and the fire had progressed too far for the successful operation of chemicals.

COUNCIL BACKS HOSPITAL PROJECT ELEVEN TO ONE

MAYOR ANSWERS QUESTION ASKED ON PROPOSED PLAN

By a vote of eleven to one the common council Wednesday night went on record as being back of the hospital plan that is to be voted on in November. Alderman Prins was the only member of the council who voted against a motion of Ald. Dykstra to back up the hospital, all the others enthusiastically voting in favor of it.

The vote came as the climax of a lengthy discussion on the proposed hospital, in which Mayor Stephan carefully answered all questions that were raised by the aldermen. The first question was as to whether outsiders should pay more than citizens of Holland. Mayor Stephan answered that no definite action had been taken by the hospital board on this score. The board he declared, took the position that as long as the proposed new hospital was not full it would be unwise to charge more to outsiders, because it was better business and more humane to have as many as possible use the hospital than to have rooms unoccupied. The new sixty-bed hospital, he said, would not be immediately filled by citizens. But the time will come in the not distant future when Holland will need a hospital of that capacity for itself, and when that time comes, the board will consider the question again and unquestionably charge more to outsiders than to citizens.

A hospital cannot be run like a light plant, the mayor said. It is not a business but a matter of charity and Christianity and it cannot be conducted in a cold blooded way.

Ald. Prins raised the objection that he wanted the surrounding townships to help pay toward building the hospital. Mayor Stephan replied by pointing out that it could be a county hospital, but in that case the north end of the county would vote against a hospital in Holland and hence it would be defeated. Moreover beyond 32nd street is Allegan county, although that section is the natural territory from which patients are drawn, hence it would have to be a two-county affair, which would be impracticable. Moreover, if it is a city hospital, the city has the right to run it, and if a county or a two-county hospital it might have to be built miles away from the city of Holland. If however, a township wants to come in for all the privileges of the hospital and wants to make a donation to it, the mayor declared it will be gratefully received. But just now we are facing a condition, not a theory, and it is a matter of either rejecting any kind of a hospital or voting for a city hospital.

Ald. Prins declared that he was not against a hospital but that he wanted the surrounding community to help pay for it. The answer was that it would be extremely improbable that unanimity could be secured for such a project over a territory extending into two counties.

The real question is, the mayor declared, do we need a hospital? And there can be no two opinions on this point. Everybody who has had occasion to use the present hospital is absolutely sure of this. That being the case, it is up to those who have the city's interest at heart to be broad-minded and forget minor differences. There will always be differences of opinion, but we must believe that the hospital board, either the present one or any board that is appointed, will be loyal officials and will do their very best for the hospital as they see it. We must believe that they will meet the various problems as their best judgment dictates and that they will act in accordance with the best information they have. We must show confidence in their judgment, assuming that they are just as loyal as we would be in the same position.

And it is worth remembering, the mayor said, that almost to a man the manufacturers and business men of the city, who pay more than half of the taxes are in favor of the hospital even though they are the ones who can best afford to go elsewhere for hospital service, and that opposition often comes from those who are small tax payers and who can least afford to get hospital service in another city.

HAS EIGHT CANDIDATES FOR THE CINDER PATH

Coach Schouten has eight cinder-path enthusiasts looking forward to the annual intercollegiate long-distance run which is to be held at M. A. C. November 11, after a number of aspirants have been weeded out. Although much interest is shown in running, only one event has been slated for the barriers, in which only five will be eligible. Hope's athletic material however is very promising, and assures Coach Schouten of a good start.

Ald. Brieve, chairman of the committee on poor, reported Wednesday night that the sum of $91 had been expended for temporary aid the past two weeks.

The following men have been named election inspectors for the November election: first ward, Bert Slaght; second ward, Egbert Beekman; third ward, Henry Van Lente; fourth ward, Gerrit Woltman; fifth ward, John Dobben; sixth ward, Peter Bysma.

ALL CONTRACTORS MUST HAVE PERMITS COUNCIL RULES

WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO
THEY GET IT

The erection of an addition to the Holland Ladder Company gave rise to a spirited debate by members of the common council at Wednesday night's meeting. The usual application had been made and it had been signed by the fire chief, but on Wednesday night a remonstrance was filed with the council by property owners in the neighborhood.

The curious part of it is however that the building is nearly completed, or at least well on the way. The question arose whether the company had a right to build without a building permit from the council. The company seems to have acted in good faith, depending on the signature of the fire chief to the application. There is moreover much confusion on the subject and it seems to be a question as to what is required under the ordinance. The practice has been that any building, a store or factory must get the consent of surrounding property owners, and this was not done in this case.

The whole question was complicated in several ways, and in view of the fact that the building was partly up it was hard to handle. But the matter was referred to the aldermen of the Fifth ward, and they will have to solve the riddle.

As a result of this case however, the council went on record Wednesday night as giving general notice to all contractors and all who put up buildings, that hereafter they must positively have a permit of the council before they can start building, and those who do not secure such permit will be prosecuted. It was the sense of the aldermen that any building operation that would cost $50 or more cannot be started without a council permit.

It was also informally urged by Mayor Stephan that the city must soon adopt a definite zoning system that will protect property owners throughout the city against having the value of their property lowered by the erection of objectionable buildings.

HOPE ENROLLMENT REACHES 500 MARK

HISTORY TO GRADUATE IN JUNE

After all the students have returned to college, the total enrollment has reached the 500 mark. Of this number the Freshman class is the largest, numbering 129, followed by the Sophomore class with 117, the Juniors numbering 64; and the Seniors 64. The preparatory department has a total enrollment of 126, distributed almost evenly among the different classes, the A class 31, the B class 37, the C's 30 and the D's 28.

These figures show that the local institution will graduate in June the banner class of its history. Last year's Senior class numbered 56, which is greatly outnumbered by the graduating class of 1923.

Prof. Winand Wiebers, the registrar, has still to receive the enrollment of the Hope College school of music, which, indications show, will also be unprecedented.

The contract for paving 17th St. from Central avenue to River was let Wednesday evening to the Willite Construction Co. This company's bid was $2.19 per square yard, and they promise to have the job completed by December first.

It will be possible, because of the lowness of the street, to use the present road bed as a base, which will make the expense lighter to the property owners than it would otherwise be.

Dave Blom petitioned the common council for a license to conduct a pool room in the building formerly occupied by Will Blom. The petition was referred to the license committee.

M. Franzburg petitioned the council for a building permit to erect an addition to his store on the corner of Central and 13th street. Property owners in the neighborhood filed a remonstrance. Both were referred to the aldermen of the third ward.

James Overbeek Wednesday night resigned as constable of the Fifth ward because he had moved into the fourth ward. The council appointed Morris Spyker to fill vacancy.

The Consumers Power Co. will move its high tension poles 24 inches from the sidewalk line on Fairbanks avenue. This agreement was reached with the committee on streets and crosswalks and it was ratified by the council Wednesday night.

NEW HOSPITAL RULES ADOPTED BY THE BOARD

THEY HAVE RECEIVED THE UNANIMOUS APPROVAL OF THE DOCTORS

A set of new hospital rules that will govern in Holland's new hospital if it is voted on favorably in November has been passed by the hospital board and it has received the unanimous approval of the physicians of the city. The rules were presented to the council Wednesday evening by Mayor Stephan.

In the new rules a sincere attempt has been made to meet all objections that were made to the old rules. The charge that some physicians were given preference was not well founded, the Mayor declared, but arose out of the natural limitations of the present hospital. Sometimes a doctor asked for permission for a patient to be admitted, but before this could be done an emergency case would come that needed immediate attention and naturally a matter of life and death took precedence. But with plenty of room in the new hospital there would be no chance for such difficulties. One doctor made the charge that he was being discriminated against, and when the records were looked up, the mayor declared, that doctor had had more cases in the hospital than any other one physician in the city.

The creation of a visiting staff in addition to a consulting staff, and giving the visiting staff in effect the same privileges as the consulting staff will do away with many objections. Before an operation members of the consulting staff must consult with another member in the same way as members of the visiting staff must do this eliminating another source of friction. The consulting staff must hold meeting every two weeks and must report to the board every month; and once a month there must be a joint meeting of the consulting staff and the visiting staff, again eliminating many sources of trouble and friction.

The new set of rules are printed below in full for the information of the general public:

Rules

A consulting Staff of six members shall be appointed by the Hospital Board to serve for a term of three years each, but at the time of the first appointment, two shall be appointed for the term of one year and two for the term of two years, and two for three years. A Chief of Staff and a Secretary shall be chosen by the Staff from its membership to serve for one year.

All qualified physicians having an M. D. degree from an accredited school who have practiced in Holland two years or more immediately preceding October 1, 1922, and are not members of the Consulting staff shall constitute a Visiting Staff.

Other physicians with an M. D. degree from an accredited school now practicing in Holland or who may locate in Holland in the future may be elected members of the Visiting Staff by the Hospital Board, provided that no physician shall be made a member of the Visiting Staff against whose election the Consulting and Visiting Staffs shall protest by a three-fifths vote of their combined membership resident in Holland.

The Hospital Board with the Consulting Staff may appoint certain non-resident physicians and surgeons as members of the Visiting Staff and such appointees shall be considered as consultants when called to cases with the family or attending physician.

Members of the Visiting Staff shall have the privileges of the Hospital under the Hospital rules.

Qualified physicians having an M. D. degree from an accredited school may by vote of the Consulting Staff be given the privileges of the hospital for other than surgical work.

The Consulting Staff shall meet regularly once every two weeks, and shall hold special meetings as conditions require reporting to the Hospital Board once a month.

The Consulting Staff and Visiting Staff will hold joint meetings monthly at the Hospital.

A complete case history of each case entering the Hospital must be taken within twenty-four hours of entrance. These histories must conform to the requirements demanded by hospitals of the first class. The responsibility for the history must rest upon the attending physician.

Cases for major operations, except bona fide emergency cases, must be in the hospital at least twelve hours before operation. Each case must be subject to such study as shall make reasonably certain the need for operation, and in all cases before operation is undertaken a complete history of the patient and the condition for which admittance to the hospital has ensued shall be written upon the blanks furnished for that purpose.

Before any major operation is performed by a member of either Staff there must be consultation with one of the members of the Consulting Staff. The consultant must make note upon the chart, the diagnosis and recommendation for or against operative treatment. The attending physician may call in one or more other consultants from either Staff as he sees fit. Consultation shall be free of charge.

No manipulation of any character shall be undertaken upon the pregnant uterus, except the pregnancy be at full term, without the advice

WILL COST $25,000.00 TO ERECT STATUE TO DR. VAN RAALTE

THAT IS TENTATIVE SUM SUG-GESTED BY CHICAGO
SCULPTOR

It will cost Holland approximately $25,000 to erect a statue in honor of Dr. A. C. Van Ralte. This is the estimate made by Leonard Crumelle, Chicago sculptor who is now engaged on the work of making a sketch in clay of a proposed statue. The cost of the statue will depend somewhat on the size and on whether there will be allegorical figures in addition to the statue itself or not.

Mr. Crumelle, who next to Lorado Taft, is one of the best known sculptors in America, has saturated himself with the history of the Holland "colony." In a letter to one of the members of the committee, he says: "In regard to the Van Ralte memorial, the story connected with the founding of Holland is of such importance that if possible a sum of $25,000 ought to be raised for the purpose. I have started a small sketch based on this fine story of a portrait of Van Ralte with allegorical figures in the composition. This adds interest and importance to the portrait statue."

Photographs of statues executed by Crumelle were put on display in play in the window of the Fris Book store Thursday morning, where they may be inspected by the public. Among the photos are those of the monument to Governor Oglesby placed in Lincoln Park, Chicago, overlooking the lake. This monument was put up at a cost of $25,000. There is also a photograph of a Jacksonville, Ill., monument dedicated to the soldiers of the civil war. This memorial, with its symbolic figures on either side, cost $35,000.

One of the latest statues executed by Mr. Crumelle is one of former Governor J. M. Palmer, of Illinois, for which an appropriation of $35,000 was made.

The sum of $25,000 has been tentatively suggested by the committee for the Van Ralte statue. Mr. Crumelle states that if he gets the commission it will take about two years to complete the work.

STANDARD OIL PLANS NEW SERVICE STATION

ASKS PERMIT TO ERECT ONE ON CORNER OF 14TH AND RIVER AVE.

The Standard Oil company which already has one thriving service station in Holland wants to build another. Since the completion of the pike road through the city the company has seen the advantage of having a service station on the pike. Wednesday night the company petitioned the common council for permission to build a station on the corner of River Avenue and 14th St. They propose to install two one thousand gallon storage tanks and a station 15 by 24 feet with a canopy the structure to be of brick and stone and to be in appearance somewhat like the other service station. The plant would cost about $6,000. The petition was referred to the committee on streets and crosswalks.

and consent of two members of the Consulting Staff.

Currentment in unmarried women shall not be performed without consultation.

In suspended animation of the new born child, every scientific means for its revival shall be exhausted thru prolonged efforts.

Physicians and surgeons bringing patients to the hospital shall give such patients immediate, continuous and proper care.

Breaches of the foregoing rules shall be called to the attention of the Consulting Staff by the Superintendent. Failure to comply with the rules after a second notification shall subject the offender to six months suspension by the Staff from all privileges of the hospital.

No patient, except in an emergency case shall be given a general anesthetic without first having had a urinalysis and physical examination of chest and heart.

No general anesthetic shall be administered by any other person than a licensed physician or a specially trained nurse.

HOLLAND BAND IS HONORED BY CONVENTION CHAIRMAN

John Van Vyven, leader of the Legion band received a letter from T. S. Walmesly, general chairman of the American Legion convention at New Orleans, inviting the local band to sit in the bandstand and to serve as the official band at the swimming championship contests that are going to be held at Audubon Park during the convention.

Johnny Weismuller and Norman Ross are among the contestants in swimming meets and the affair will be one of the important events of the convention. It will take place on October 16th at two o'clock in the afternoon.

This honor does not come to the Holland band by chance. Last year at the national meeting of the Legion the band gave a good account of itself, and that fact provided the opportunity to show its class again.

Mr. Van Vyven has wired the band's acceptance of the honor, and the Holland band will appear on the program as the official band of that feature of the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schmalfeld and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cappon will motor to Florida in the former's automobile, leaving Wednesday, October 18. They will travel over the National Highway to Washington, D. C. thence south through the Carolinas, Virginia and Georgia.

TWO GRAND HAVEN BOYS STEAL $8,000 IN MONEY AND SECURITIES

Due to some quick and efficient thinking and action, the two young housebreakers who entered the home of Claus Schweitscher at Grand Haven last Sunday night and who robbed the man of what first reported as $150 and what later turned out to include his life's earnings, certificates in three banks, his deeds, mortgages and even his life insurance policy and other documents are safely haled into the custody of the Grand Haven police and the two youthful robbers, Bernard Middag, aged 13, and Paul Durant, aged 15, both of Grand Haven are held. The stolen money and documents were restored to their delighted owner.

Officer Klumpel has had charge of investigations concerning young Middag before as the youngster has been up several times for various petty thefts. It was discovered that the Middag boy had not been at home Sunday night and upon further inquiry it was learned that he had taken the 9:20 Sunday night car to Muskegon. Officer Klumpel got in touch with the Muskegon police and learned that a boy answering Middag's description had been seen around the Occidental hotel Sunday night. He was reported as being flush with money by the clerk at the hotel.

Klumpel immediately went to Muskegon and secured young Middag whom the Muskegon police were holding. He was found to have $83 in cash in his possession as well as a great number of new small things, cigarette holder of expensive quality, cigarette case, wrist watch, field glasses and a variety of small articles ranging from a pocket comb to a small looking glass.

When Bernard Middag was confronted by the officers and was examined he said that he had had a co-worker in the affair in the person of Paul Durant of Grand Haven, aged 15 years. It is evident that Durant was not the leading spirit in the affair as when he was taken he had but $50 in bills and three five dollar gold pieces. The half eagles which young Durant had were identified by Mr. Schweitscher as being keepsakes of his. This made a total of $148 which was found on the youngsters at the time they were taken into custody while effects were found on young Middag which totaled $23 when he was taken in Muskegon. Officers are at a loss to account for the extra amount as it totals more than was reported to have been taken from Mr. Schweitscher.

The big part of the robbery was not unearthed with the first clues and other data which were gathered but when J. J. Jones, an employee of the Grand Trunk in the yards found $8000 in certificates of the Peoples Savings bank, the Grand Haven State bank and the old National bank of Grand Rapids stuffed into a journal box in one of the cars, the whole looting was uncovered. These were returned to Mr. Schweitscher along with his life insurance policies, deeds, mortgages and other papers of value.

Bernard Middag, thirteen year old Grand Haven youth, was taken away to the State Industrial School in Lansing Wednesday morning by the police department following the presentation of his case in juvenile court before Judge James Danhof. Judge Danhof committed the boy to the state industrial school on account of the recent robbery in which he played a leading part. Young Middag was on probation because of participation in a similar affair at the time he committed the theft at Mr. Schweitscher's home.

Bernard will serve a full term at the state institution according to the terms of his commitment. This means that unless the superintendent believes that he is fit to come out and mingle in society before his term is up, that he will serve until he is 22. The superintendent has the power to release at any time a boy under his charge at the school who he thinks will make a good citizen and who will keep his feet on the straight and narrow way.

Young Middag stands a good chance of eight year confinement as he is barely 13 years of age it is understood.

Paul Durant will be examined at a hearing before Judge Danhof in the near future on account of his alleged complicity in the robbery in which Middag participated. This is the first time Durant has been before the juvenile authorities and he will receive a probation term if found to be guilty of complicity.

Police still have an additional sum of money taken from young Middag. He had more than the $150 that Mr. Schweitscher reported to have been taken and whether it was taken at another place is not known at present. Middag spent about $24.34 for various articles including a suit, a sweater, wrist watch, spy glass and various other small articles mentioned. When he was taken at Muskegon officials had to wait for him to return from an auto ride on the North Muskegon bus. He evidently had a luxurious time of it while it lasted according to the paraphernalia which he had collected.

As usual at this time of year and early in the spring a great deal of damage is being done in Centennial Park by thoughtless children who walk over flower beds. Park Commissioner Van Bragt has had many bulbs planted in flower beds that will be ready to produce flowers early next spring. Because there are no plants to be seen children often jump to the conclusion that there is nothing in the beds and they walk right over them, injuring the bulbs.

Mr. Van Bragt has made a plea to all parents in Holland to instruct their children not to indulge in this practice. If parents will co-operate with the park authorities the park can be made more beautiful for all.

OTTAWA HAS 3400 HEAD OF TUBERCULOUS CATTLE

The Ottawa County Farm Bureau News gives some startling information about the tuberculous situation among cattle in this county.

The first step a county must take to fight this menace is for the Board of Supervisors to make an appropriation of $9,000 for the first year's work. This will mean that in taxes everyone will have to pay one dollar for each $10,000 valuation which is exceedingly small. The next step will be the securing of an accredited veterinarian who will give his entire time to eradication work. The State will also furnish a man to offset the cost of the county man. Then each herd in the county is tested free. In case reactors are found the state and Federal Government both pay indemnities and the owner also receives money to the value of the carcass.

Ottawa county has 34,000 head of cattle, as stated by the last census; at least ten per cent of these are tuberculous. In 1921 over 12% of the cattle tested in Ottawa reacted, and this year from January to June more than 11% were reactors where tested and there were over 1300 tested. This leads to the conclusion that at least 3,400 head of cattle in Ottawa are tuberculous. These cattle valued at an average of $50 a head, including purebreds, would mean a value invested in tuberculous cattle of $170,000. One State indemnity is half the appraised value which would be $85,000, then the Federal indemnity would amount to at least $35,000 which is not available excepting to the counties making a county wide cleanup. Then the carcass values would reach a total of probably $40,000.00. The state expects appropriations of lesser sums for the two years following because they feel that it will take three years to completely wipe out the disease. But at that it is a good investment. It is easily proven that farmers have already lost more than the entire cost of a cleanup because of not being able to secure the Federal indemnity.

COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMAN'S CLUBS IS ORGANIZED

An Ottawa County federation of women's clubs was formed Tuesday at the morning session of a conference of representatives of the various clubs, invited to Holland as guests of the local club by Mrs. G. E. Kollen, president of the Central Division. Mrs. Kollen presided at both forenoon and afternoon sessions. After she and Mrs. C. J. Dregman, local president, had welcomed the delegates, the presidents of the clubs were called upon to tell of their activities. Grand Haven, the largest club, Holland next Coopersville the smallest, and Zeeland the youngest but a "lusty youngster," all reported educational work and civic activities. Mrs. McNett of Grand Haven and Mrs. DeMerrell of Holland spoke in favor of a county federation. When put to a vote it was unanimously carried.

Committees on constitution and nomination were appointed. A constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Louis Koster of Grand Haven; vice president, Mrs. G. J. Diekema; recording secretary, Mrs. Fred Phillips, Coopersville; treasurer, Mrs. J. Haan, Zeeland; directors, Mrs. Kollen Holland and Mrs. A. Lahuis of Zeeland.

Mrs. Kollen gave an interesting report at the morning session of the biennial conference at Chautauqua, N. Y. The board of directors of the local club served luncheon to the 24 guests.

In the afternoon the meeting was opened with community singing led by Mrs. E. M. Waltz and accompanied by Mrs. G. W. VanVerst and Miss Ruth Keppel. Mrs. Dorian Russell, candidate for president of the state federation, was the first speaker. She compared the series of club federations to five enclosed circles. The large one was made up of the outlying clubs, the next of the county federations, then the district, then the state, and at the heart the general federation.

SAYS "NEWBERRYISM" IS NEW NAME FOR OLD ISSUE

Making "Newberryism" the overshadowing issue in his address here as in other places, former Governor W. N. Ferris spoke to a fair-sized audience in the W. L. C. rooms Wednesday afternoon. He was introduced by Ernest Brooks who acted as chairman of the day.

"Newberryism," according to Mr. Ferris, is not a new issue. The Newberry case merely dramatized, as it were, an age-old issue in American politics—the undue influence of money in deciding elections. If the Newberry issue is dead, he declared, and if it can be overlooked by the American people, then American liberty is dead and the real republic is at an end. "Newberryism" is the great overshadowing issue and the moral health of American politics is at stake.

Ottawa county is to have a candidate for congress from the fifth district, and Carl E. Mapes, the republican nominee, will have one more opponent. The new candidate is almost, though not quite, from Holland, his home being at Jenison Park.

The latest addition to the candidates for this office is Jasper S. Hughes. He has been nominated by the new party known as the Liberal Party of the State of Michigan. Mr. Hughes has not yet formally accepted the nomination but he is studying the principles of the new party, which is also known as the "Committee of 48."

eral federation. There has even been started an international federation in which 30 countries are represented and with which 33 national organizations are affiliated. In 1925 there is to be a meeting in Washington.

Miss Marjorie Delavan, of the state department of health, who spoke next, said that this year is the 50th anniversary of the beginning of public health work in Michigan. At first physicians were required to report only small-pox. The slogan of the health department is "Education is activity, and activity is education." The department is divided into bureaus, each with special functions. Michigan has the best health laboratory in the U. S. with the exception perhaps of New York. The department is especially interested just now in diphtheria, as the death rate in Michigan from that cause is very high. Anti-toxin has been so well distributed that now no doctor in the state is over ten miles from where it can be obtained.

Mrs. J. E. Telling favored the audience with two solos, Mrs. G. W. Van Verst accompanying her.

PIONEER CHURCH IS

75 YEARS OLD

Ninth-st. Christian Reformed church, commonly known as the old colonial church is planning to celebrate its diamond jubilee with a special service on Thursday evening, November 16. The tentative program will include addresses by Rev. A. Keizer of Harderwyke and Rev. E. J. Tuuk of Chicago both former pastors; Rev. Henry Beets of Grand Rapids and Rev. J. M. Ghysels, who assumed the pastorate in 1919.

The church was founded by the late Dr. A. C. Van Raalte in 1847. The congregation first worshipped in a log church, located in the cemetery in 1856 the present pillar church was erected and dedicated. Dr. Van Raalte served as pastor for about 20 years and his successors were Rev. R. Pieters, Rev. E. Bos, Rev. K. Van Goor, Rev. A. Keizer, Rev. E. J. Tuuk, and Rev. J. M. Ghysels.

Although the exterior of the church is practically the same as at the time of its construction, the interior has undergone many changes. A new organ, new pews and a new lighting system were installed. Plans are being made for the installation of a new heating system to cost about $4,000. The church now numbers 230 families, 625 communicant members and 1,180 souls.

A peculiar feature in the history of the church and one that was regarded as an especial act of Providence, was the saving of this church on the occasion of the big fire of 1871 when the city was almost completely destroyed. The old church stood unscathed and sheltered several buildings in the immediate vicinity from the ruins.

The old bell placed in the steeple 75 years ago is still doing service. In pioneer days the bell announced the time of day and also was rung for fires.

EMIL HILDEBRAND OF SPRING LAKE FINDS IT PAYS TO NOURISH VINEYARD

One-third more grapes on fertilized than unfertilized land, such was the result of a demonstration just made in the Emil Hildebrand vineyard, two miles east of Spring Lake in Ottawa county.

Mr. Hildebrand set aside one quarter of an acre of Concord grapes for the test. He applied fertilizer to two rows and left two rows as a check. Use of ammonium sulphate in conjunction with acid phosphate brought one-third increase in yield of grapes. Large improvement resulted from application of ordinary barnyard manure. Also from each of the two other fertilizers applied singly.

The vineyard is of light, sandy soil, typical of much vineyard soil in the region. Not many cattle are raised in the neighborhood and there is a very limited supply of manure. Hence commercial fertilizer is much needed.

Mr. Hildebrand performed this test in conjunction with C. P. Milham, agricultural agent for Ottawa county. There are 12 acres in Hildebrand's vineyard. Next year a larger share of the vineyard will be fertilized.

G. R. PEOPLE TO BUILD AT ZWEMER PARK

Fred H. Locke, city manager of Grand Rapids, has purchased two lots of H. P. Zwemer in the Zwemer Park west of West Olive. The lots are very desirable ones and are on the lake front. The Zwemer Park seems to be booming. There are prospects of the erection of about a dozen new cottages there next spring most of them to be built by Grand Rapids people. The Zwemer Park is the nearest point at which Grand Rapids people can reach Lake Michigan. It is just 26 miles west of Grand Rapids on the Bridge street road, and the road to the shore is fairly good most of the way.

EUROPE NEEDS A

VITAL RELIGION SAYS DR. MOERDYKE

A good many Hollanders in this country are in the habit of bragging up the religious conditions in the Netherlands as compared with conditions here, but generally speaking religion in the Netherlands does not begin to be as vital as in this country. This was one of the many interesting things said by Dr. Peter Moerdike at a meeting in Trinity Reformed church Thursday evening.

Religious life in the Netherlands is changing he said. Modernism still has a strong hold there, as in other European countries, but it is losing ground and orthodoxy is on the increase. Generally speaking, the great trouble with religion in most of the countries, according to Dr. Moerdike, is formalism. In most of the countries the state church is very strong and in most cases this leads to subservience of the church to politics. This tendency is most pronounced in France and Italy and countries of that type, while conditions are somewhat better in England, the Netherlands, the Scandinavian countries. But even in these countries formalism and the influence of the state church play a part that can hardly be understood in America.

What most of the countries in Europe need, according to Dr. Moerdike, is a real vital religion, and speaking as a Protestant he declared that they need a real vital Protestantism there.

Touching on prohibition, he declared that Europe needed that too. The minds of many are so befuddled, he declared that they cannot think straight. After visiting Europe, he said, he appreciated more than ever the freedom of America, not necessarily freedom alone in a political sense, but freedom of outlook and freedom from the trammels of the past that hold many Europeans in mental bondage.

HOLLAND GIRL HAS PLENTY OF BAD LUCK

Misfortune is certainly following in the footsteps of Mrs. William B. Mull, of Grand Rapids, formerly Miss Angie Luidens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luidens of Holland. Mrs. Mull has just submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Blodgett Memorial hospital in Grand Rapids, and this is the third serious operation that she has had within two years. In addition to all that she was run over by an automobile some time ago.

Mrs. Mull was injured in an accident and as a result she lost the use of one arm to some extent. This necessitated two very serious operations which were successful and gave her back the use of her arm to a large extent. The operation for appendicitis that she submitted to now was also a serious one but it appears to have been successful and her condition is reported as favorable.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother Private Clarence H. Weed, who passed to the great beyond four years ago, Oct. 15th, 1918 at Camp Custer, Michigan: Do not ask us if we miss him. Folks may think the wound is healed,

But little do they know the sorrow Deep within our hearts concealed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weed, Brother and Sister.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Henkle left today for Wheeling, West Virginia, where they will spend about three weeks. They are making the trip by automobile, going through Ohio.

HOLLAND BOYS

ON WAY SOUTH HAVE GREAT TIME

(By Staff Correspondent)

New Orleans, La.—(By Wire)—Holland Legion band first to arrive with a Michigan delegation. The town went wild.

Friday night, at Michigan City—The American Legion band and 20 extra guests left Holland at 6:57. All the boys were well taken care of by the railroad authorities, several of the passenger representatives accompanying the parties from Holland, Grand Rapids and Battle Creek. The train is made up of two sleepers and one observation train. The Holland crowd have a car all to themselves, however. Visiting forth and back from car to car is constantly going on. The boys are all in good spirits without the addition of extra spirits. In the car ahead there are not a few who have bulging hip pockets filled with apples, as it were. Our boys are not making the mistake that Mother Eve made and are behaving like gentlemen. The trip up to midnight was beautiful. We stop for midnight lunch at Michigan City. Instead of taking the Chicago route, the special is heading straight south and is due in Louisville, Ky., at 6 a. m. Saturday morning, when one hour is given for breakfast. Our train will reach Nashville, Tenn., at 1:30 Saturday too late to allow a stop over to see "Cappy" and "Roby" away with U. of M. The Holland boys endeavored to get a stopover, but the train is an hour behind schedule and it was not allowed. "So near and yet—"

The crew of the train is the Pullman Co.'s prize crew who took the Holland boys to Kansas City last year. They are M. D. Hauser conductor, Porters Carter, Mitchell and Hanes.

LOUISVILLE, KY., (9 a. m. Saturday)—Crossing Ohio river and also the locks built for large river boats, the car was three hours late. Rushed into the depot restaurant at Louisville a few minutes afterward.

The boys are famished because of the delayed eats. Notwithstanding the fact that the trip was started on Friday, the 13th, Dan Zwemer, Franklin Van Ry and William Topp of the Legion band had to content themselves with compartment No. 13. Hartger Jonker of Grand Haven in the car ahead defied all superstition and changed his berth from No. 1 to No. 13. He has his nerve.

The farther south you go the darker it gets despite the fact that the sun is shining brightly and the day is beautiful. From my car window I saw a negro woman splitting wood and another plowing in the field. By night we will have had the experience of having taken breakfast in Kentucky, dinner in Tennessee and supper in Alabama.

Jack Frost seems to have been more busy with the foliage in Kentucky than in Michigan; the leaves have all turned and the trees here are beginning to look quite bare. It seems that Michigan may become a winter as well as a summer resort state, provided further weather evolution takes place.

At the station a veritable cloud of darkies was working (oh, so slow). Got in touch with Dr. H. E. Dosker and Dr. John M. Vander Meulen, both former Holland men now in Louisville. Time was too short for them to visit the boys at the depot. Be cause of the belated train, the time limit in Louisville was cut one hour.

(Saturday, 3 o'clock)—Left Louisville after breakfast and everyone was remarking about the large number of small one-story unpainted dwelling houses, at least in that part of the city thru which the train passed. All through the rural district unsightly shacks met the eye. A paint factory should do well here.

The people seem to lack an eye for the beautiful. For instance, we passed by a magnificent county court house, with large pillars, a southern style, and constructed of granite. To one side on the spacious front lawn a large power and heating plant had been constructed from unpainted lumber and the ramshackle thing had the appearance of a saw mill. The unsightly building marred the appearance of the very beautiful building prominently located on a high hill. A native stated that the power plant had done duty for several years.

Just went through our fifth tunnel—one a half mile long—dark as pitch—daylight again. One young lady's hair is "roughed" and a young man, very near, looks rather sheepish.

Just passed by some tobacco fields. Looks a great deal like a sugar beet going to seed. Gathered at every station by which the special rushes, could be noticed five colored men to one white man.

Just crossing the Cumberland river going into Nashville. A very dirty stream judging from the car window.

(Saturday evening, 9 p. m.)—Just entering Birmingham, Alabama, where supper is awaiting us. The Holland band is just striking up its most fetching "jazz" selection often heard in Centennial Park, but judging from the demonstration of the natives, never in "Alabama." Going back to Nashville. I failed to mention that the train passed alongside a beautiful National cemetery and judging from the markers several thousand federal soldiers are buried there. The last resting place of the Civil war soldiers is located between Bowling Green and Nashville.

At 6 o'clock p. m. the train crossed the Tennessee river and to the writer it appears even larger at that point than the "Father of Waters."

It surely is a very large stream. We entered Alabama at Decatur, just across the long bridge, reported to be nearly two miles long. A message brought the news that Michigan and Vanderbilt were tied in the foot ball game at Nashville, but we do not believe it.

Late tonight our train reached Flomaton, Ala.; nothing unusual about this only the little town is within a half mile of the Florida boundary line, within hailing distance, but the boys can't say that they passed thru the Everglade state. Sunday morning we were given a stop over at Biloxi, Miss., a beautiful winter resort. The railway authorities have made arrangement for bathing in the Gulf of Mexico and many of the Holland boys have their bathing suits with them. Those who do not have will be furnished with them by the committee in charge. An auto drive along the coast is next in order. Many of the Holland men will attend church services instead of taking the auto ride.

—Ben Mulder.

HISTORY OF ZEELAND TO BE PUBLISHED. PA. PER ANNOUNCES

A history of the colonization of Zeeland, from the earliest beginnings up to the present time, is to be published in the near future, the Zeeland Record announces in last week's issue. It has not yet been determined whether this history will be published in book form or whether it will appear serially in the columns of the Zeeland Record. That will depend to some extent on available funds. To publish in book form will require a considerable outlay, but it will probably be done if the money can be secured.

The work is the result of the untiring efforts of the late Prof. Herbert Keppel, for many years professor of Mathematics at the university of Florida, whose death came a few years ago partly as a result of his war work. During his busy life he found time to collect a large mass of material about the history of Zeeland. He was much interested in the historical material, and at one time he made a trip to the Netherlands, later giving stereopticon addresses about his trip in this country. A short time before his death he put into tangible form the material he had collected about Zeeland, and this has since been completed and prepared for publication by his wife, Anna Kremer Keppel.

Prof. Keppel was a graduate of Hope College. His parents were among the earliest pioneers of Zeeland and spent their lives in that city. Much of the material collected by Prof. Keppel was first hand information, and the completed volume will form a complete story of the city of Zeeland from its founding to the time when it took its place as a thriving city.

A new impulse has been given to this work by the recent home coming celebration held in Zeeland. In that celebration much of the early history of the city was recalled, and when Mr. Keppel's work is published it will put many of these early remembrances into permanent form.

EAST HOLLAND GIRL

Miss Nancy C. Nies and Mr. Benjamin Van Eyck of East Holland, were united in marriage by Rev. M. Stegeman of verisat at their future home two miles east of Holland on Wednesday afternoon in the presence of their immediate relatives. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Eyck of Holland and the bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Nies of East Holland, and for the past few months has held a position as nurse in the Holland hospital. They will make their home on the R. Van Eyck farm. The ring ceremony was used. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white georgette crepe over satin and carried a bouquet of roses and swansons. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferns and red and white dahlias. At the ceremony a three course luncheon was served.

ROAD BUDGET IS PASSED BY THE SUPERVISORS

The budget for the coming year for road construction in Ottawa county was presented to the road committee by the county road commission and favorably reported out by the committee. Later it was adopted in full by the board of supervisors. The total budget is $123,188, which is considerably less than last year's budget. The reduction has been made by the road commission because of general conditions, the members believing that a policy of retrenchment for the time being was necessary. The budget is a trifling over a two mill tax.

The appropriation is chiefly for trunk line roads, together with some maintenance expense and a few other items. The following sums will be expended: Trunk line 11, $25,850; trunk line 16, $23,500; trunk line 51, which is work on the Grand Rapids road from Jenison to Zeeland and on the gap between Zeeland and Holland, $25,000; maintenance fund $25,000; Alpena Road $5,000; Beaverdam road, $3,600; Cooklin road $5,788; Gooding road, $2,500; Graafschap road $7,000.

ANNIVERSARY RECALLS OLD "COLONY" SINGING SOCIETY

The commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Holland recalls some interesting early history of this city as a music-loving town. When Dr. A. C. Van Raalte first settled in Holland in 1846 no musical organization of any kind existed. The old Hollanders enjoyed the singing of psalms and each Sabbath day found them en masse singing the psalms lustily at the old First church under the leadership of Frederick J. Van Lente. For eleven years after the settlement of the colony no musical organization existed, and the formation of the Van Lente choir was due to the discordant singing of the psalms at the religious gatherings in the old First church.

Frederick J. VanLente, a superb tenor singer who had been thoroughly trained in the Netherlands by the best teachers, assumed the leadership in conducting the singing at these Sunday meetings, a position which he held for 25 years.

Mr. Van Lente, who reached Holland with his family one year after the Van Raalte band had settled, was a cooper by trade. He erected a log cabin on the corner of Lincoln avenue and 16th street. He had given much thought and energy to improve the song service and while soloing on the subject, two young men entered his home and requested him to organize a singing school. The movement rapidly found favor and at the first meeting the month of October, 1856 (66 years ago) an attendance of 12 boys and two girls greeted him and all were enrolled as members.

The first officers were: President, and director, Frederick J. VanLente; secretary, W. VanAppeldoorn; treasurer, John Van Lente. A constitution was adopted and the members were held to strict rules in regard to regular attendance and behavior. A valid excuse was necessary for absence and in case of misconduct at meetings a fine of 2 cents was imposed, even for trivial offenses, such as whispering. The meetings were always opened with prayer and money collected was used for benevolent causes.

In a few years the organization grew so that the homes proved too small and a building was erected 32x18 feet in dimensions, which was used for the singing school and a debating school, which was organized later. English hymns were introduced in which the leader's two sons John and Hein. (the latter is living in Holland today) were instructors.

The organization has since disbanded, the last meeting being held about 10 years ago, after it had been in existence for 55 years.

Some of the charter members, many of them dead, are: J. Hekhuis, C. Rot, A. Vanden Belt, W. Van Appeldoorn, John Dinkeloo, Bert Hekhuis, William Venhuizen, John Van Lente, Henry Van Lente, H. Hidding, Mrs. Abeeg, Mrs. J. Van Appeldoorn, Mr. Huizenga, Mrs. John Dinkeloo, Mrs. Balgooyen, Mrs. Kleis, and Mrs. J. Kerkhoff. Of this group only four are living, namely: Wm. Venhuizen, Hein Van Lente, Mrs. J. Kerkhoff and Mrs. J. VanAppeldoorn.

The 50th anniversary of the organization was celebrated September 8, 1907, in which several descendants of the above group participated.

TELLS STORY OF EDUCATION IN THE EARLY DAYS

The celebration Tuesday evening of the 75th anniversary of the founding of Holland has inspired Fred Van Lente, a student of Hope College, to write a history of education in Holland in the early day of the "colony." His article which is of unusual interest, follows:

The settlement of Holland in reality dates from the summer of 1847, but the majority of the settlers arrived the following spring. One of the necessities of the people to be provided for, was the educational training of their children. The people struggling desperately for an existence heroically laid the foundations for higher education. Mr. Van Raalte, himself a man of culture and learning, had a passion for a higher Christian learning. Since they were ignorant of the educational advantages and provisions of the state, and since they were unable to take advantage of them had they known, they devised means to secure teachers. Funds were raised by voluntary subscriptions. By October sufficient funds had been secured, and Mr. Ira Hoyt was engaged as the first teacher. He taught for nearly the whole of the following year.

The sessions were first held in a private house, later in Hampton's storebuilding. During the winter they moved again, this time into the front part of a home. In the spring they moved into the old log church then half finished.

During the month of June of 1848 the school district was organized. Mr. Hoyt resigned and was succeeded by Miss E. H. Langdon, a most cultured and superior woman. She came under an association, appropriated by Ex-Governor Slade, of Vermont, in 1846. This was for the purpose of supplying teachers for the far west. Miss Langdon was the first female teacher in Holland, and the pupils advanced rapidly under her instruction.

A school building had not yet been erected, when she arrived; so a small red building was put up by the district, and she taught here. The structure was erected on the hill, the present site of Lanning's blacksmith shop. Later it was purchased by the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church and used as a parsonage. It was placed on the corner of Tenth-st. and Central avenue. Afterward it served as a residence for Mr. TeRoller. Miss Langdon remained for some time, and after her resignation the school building remained vacant for a long period of time.

But for those who would pay tuition, nevertheless their education was not neglected; for Mr. H. Doesburg kept a sort of peripatetic private school. Very frequently this was poorly attended, although sometimes the attendance was good.

The tuition was ten cents per week. The students were compelled to furnish their own books. Some attended no less than seven different places under his wandering guidance.

In the fall of 1851, Mr. W. F. Taylor, a teacher of a classical school in Geneva, N. Y. came out under an arrangement with some influential men of the Reformed church in America, in the east.

Their purpose was to start a preparatory school to fit young men for college. This was four years after the settlement. Hope College grew out of this school later on. It was opened October of 1851 in a new building, erected for district school purposes, called the Union School. This was carried on at first in connection with the district school. Two daughters and one son of Mr. Taylor were engaged to teach the district school. Mr. Taylor himself teaching the preparatory school. This union came to an end in 1853, the district school continuing by itself in the same building. The preparatory school moved to another building. The Union school was built on the site where the Froebel school now stands.

Mr. Pitcher was engaged to teach the district school, and in 1860 the school became graded.

The preparatory school continued under Mr. Taylor until 1855. Rev. Beidler succeeding him for one year. Rev. J. Van Vleck succeeded Beidler as principal. Then the school became known as Holland Academy under Rev. Phelps, and was chartered Hope College in 1866.

Some of the early students who attended the district school, and later became some of the most prominent citizens are as follows: Mr. John Kramer, who became a lieutenant of a company of the 25th Michigan Infantry; Benjamin Van Raalte, a civil war veteran, and son of the founder of Holland; James Vandersluijs, Peter Koning, John G. Heuhuis, Ryke Schaddellee, and Ralph Bomgaards, are others. The Rev. Christian Vander Veen, a prominent minister, and J. A. Ter Vree, who later became a prominent alderman of our town.

It is men of this type who are living testimonies to the early educational work in our city. Thus were the plans and ideals of the early settlers realized.

The settlers hereby laid the foundations for higher education and to day we have Hope College with a large enrollment, the Western Theological Seminary, a splendidly equipped high school, five splendid grade schools, a junior high school, and preparations are being formed now for a new junior high school building. The foundations laid by the colonists have resulted in the splendid educational system and an academic city.

Harry Hiltner of Holland and Sarah Goldberg of Muskegon were married Tuesday noon at the parsonage of the Methodist church, Rev. G. B. Fleming performing the ceremony.

TWO NEWS ITEMS

A Smooth Burglar

An unknown person entered the home of Claus Switzer, 311 N. 2nd street, Grand Haven, Sunday, and took about $150 in money from a bureau drawer. A window was broken open and the thief left without leaving any clues. Police are working on the case. The robbery was believed to have occurred between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Some Wise "Kiddle"

New York, Oct. 11—There are now 1,305,000 children in the country who have savings bank accounts according to figures made public by the American Bankers' Association, who held a convention in New York city last week. Last year showed only 604,000 depositors among the youngsters. The savings bank division of the Association is encouraging a movement for establishment of savings account through the schools.

Children seem to be even wiser than some grown folks. Had the Grand Haven parties availed themselves of the opportunity given by the FIRST STATE BANK namely to save, they would not alone now be $150 ahead, but could have added 4 percent interest compounded to the amount stolen had the money found its way into a Saving Book of a well regulated Bank instead of in the pocket of a smooth burglar.

A sock or tea pot is a poor Savings Bank.

MUSKEGON TO CONTINUE WORK ON HIGHWAYS

A reduction of approximately $7,300 is the sum to be expended for highways by the county in 1923 from last year's road expenditure was recommended by the Muskegon highway commission in its report to the board of supervisors in session.

The proposed budget allots $200,000 for road work in 1923. Chief among the improvements to be made will be the linking up of all parts of the state trunk line M. 11, in Muskegon county.

This will mean the hard surfacing of the present gravel road between Muskegon and Grand Haven and gravel stretches on the Whitehall road. Of the amount to be spent, $37,000 will be for new paving. In addition a recommendation that $49,912 be collected in taxes under the Covert act was presented to the board. The county has appropriated $300 for the children's hospital at Detroit.

FORMER OTTAWA NEWSPAPER MAN DIES AT BELDING

Simon Vander Meulen, former Ottawa county newspaper man, is dead at his home in Belding following a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Vander Meulen was 66 years of age.

He was a man of no small degree of experience and numerous adventures. His career had been varied and he had lived in many parts of the United States. He was once private secretary for Gov. Stuenberg of Idaho, who was killed in the Idaho mine riots and I. W. W. dynamiting plot a number of years ago. He had also served in official capacities in Washington and once marched to the National capitol with Kelly's army of unemployed.

Mr. Vander Meulen has also done considerable detective work and was said to have been on the staff of the U. S. Secret Service at one time. He was a liberal in thought and had been identified with a number of liberal movements at various times. He was an enthusiastic advocate of the Single Tax idea, and at one time was a resident of Fair Hope, Ala., the famous Single Tax experimental colony.

OTTAWA MUST MAKE PROVISIONS FOR THE UNFORTUNATES

In his report to the board of supervisors James J. Danhof, judge of Probate has suggested that the sum of $12,000 be raised by the board for the insane fund for the coming year. This will include charges for transportation and medical examinations which may be necessary in the case of indigent patient, who may become stricken by the terrible affliction during the year. These patients are now sent to the Kalamazoo state hospital and the Psychopathic hospital in Ann Arbor and the expense in the case of indigents must be paid by the county from which they are sent. The rate is now fixed at one dollar per day.

At the present time there are 32 patients from Ottawa county either in Kalamazoo or Ann Arbor who must be provided for by the supervisors, along with the such other cases as may be sent during this year.

There were admitted during the year ending October 1, 1922, 17 cases, 11 males and 6 females. Of this number 2 females and 4 males were discharged. One female was removed and four males and three females are still in the hospitals. There are now 15 males and 13 females chargeable to the county of Ottawa, coming within the one year provision.

HOG CHOLERA APPEARS IN OT. TAWA COUNTY

Hog cholera in a very serious state has appeared in the county and County Farm Agent Milham is bending every effort to hold it in check. The first cases were discovered near Fergusburg, near the concrete bridge at a farm which has quit a number of hogs. Four head of hogs have already been lost at this farm as a result of the attacks of the cholera and the disease is said to be gaining.

Preventative measures are urged which include the use of serums of anti-toxin, keeping birds and dogs away from the pens and quarantining the diseased hogs. Dogs and birds are said to be the best spreaders of hog cholera which can be found. Mr. Milham threatens to have the diseased pens quarantined if the disease is not checked in the near future.

Glassy eyes, lack of appetite and sluggishness are the symptoms of hog cholera and any farmer seeing these symptoms in any of his hogs is requested to get into touch with county farm agent C. P. Milham or a veterinary at once.

The hogs are absolutely useless once they have contracted the disease and if they do not die off of the disease they are of no further use if they do recover. The best policy is to slaughter them and burn the remains as this is the only safe way to stamp out any after effects. Farmers are urged to be alive to the evil effects of the disease and to do all in their power to stop it before it becomes serious.

BARNYARD ROOSTER CANNOT RIDE IN MAIL; DAY-OLD CHICKS CAN

Washington, Oct. 17.—The old barnyard rooster cannot travel by United States Mail, but day-old chicks according to a postoffice department announcement, still may be shipped from place to place, provided their journey may be completed within 72 hrs. Moreover, the chicks may be insured against loss, but not against death.

Harmless live animals rated as inoffensive and not requiring food or water in transit may go by mail, along with baby terrapins, soft shell crabs, blood worms and chameleons. Under new regulations live alligators up to 20 inches in length are the only live alligators Uncle Sam will handle.

REPORT MADE TO BOARD ON THE PENSION FUND

Judge James J. Danhof of the Ottawa county probate court has prepared his report for the year ending October 1, 1922 on the matter of distribution of the "Mothers' Pension" in Ottawa county. The name is something of a misnomer, however, as the pension provided by state law is "not mothers' pension but rather a "children's pension" as it is the child who really receives the benefit of the money advanced.

According to Judge Danhof's report there are in Ottawa at present, 93 families with 282 dependents on the pension list. The average monthly payment is $1982, apportioned among the cities and townships of the county.

The number of families receiving the pension in Ottawa last year was 75 and the increase in number may be due to a number of causes. During the past year a number of heads of families have been sentenced to serve time because of infraction of the liquor laws and the county is obliged to take care of families whose support has been removed.

Judge Danhof has recommended that $26000 be raised this year to take care of the disbursements in the pension fund, as the total amount paid out for the year ending October 1, 1922 was $23,786. Last year the total was $19,200.

The payment is made every four weeks and the last payment showing was as follows: Allendale, $32; Blendon $56; Chester, $16; Crookery $32; Georgetown $74; Gr. Haven twp $108; Grand Haven city $434; Holland township, $154; Holland city, $616; Jamestown $126; Olive $68; Park $24; Polton $6; Robinson $76; Spring Lake twp. $24; Polkton $6; Robinson $76; Spring Lake twp. $24; Tallmadge $16; Wright, none; Zeeland twp. $8; Zeeland city $162.

The payments discontinued during the year were as follows: Georgetown $12; Holland City $150; Tallmadge $8; Polkton $20; Zeeland $52, a total of $242.

Lansing, Oct. 17.—The state fuel control measure became law Tuesday when it was signed by Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck. Immediately following its formal enactment the governor certified to the secretary of state that an emergency "affecting the public health, peace, safety and welfare and requiring governmental regulation of the supply of fuel and its equitable distribution at reasonable prices," exists.

Tuesday morning eight persons appeared before Justice Van Schelven for riding bicycles on the side walks and each paid $3.70. The men were Leendert Kammeraad, Bert Bouwman, Gerrit Beekman, Herman Beukema, Govert Lugers, Jacob Molenaar, Albert Bouwman and Henry Bos.

LEGION BAND LEFT FRIDAY NIGHT FOR NEW ORLEANS

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post band, American Legion, left Holland Friday evening for the trip to Dixie. The band boys and other members of the Legion who are making the trip to New Orleans gathered at the city hall on Friday afternoon at 5:30. The band boys were in band uniform and the others carried with them their service uniforms for use in parades in New Orleans. The company formed a parade and marched from the city hall to the Pere Marquette depot, the band giving a concert as the march proceeded as a farewell to the people of Holland and in appreciation for the donations contributed that helped to make the trip possible.

The band is composed of the following: Henry Wilson, Nick Van Dyke, John Roozeboom, Raymond Knooihuizen, Henry Topp, John Moomey, William Topp, Don Zwemmer, Franklin Van Ry, Jake Vander Meulen, Henry Oosting, Bert Brandt, Bertal Slaght, Martin Langhuis, Ben Brinks, Morris Schepper, Albert Hoeksema, Robert Evans, Joe Kramer, Jack Steketee, John Zuidema, R. Vander Bie, Bert Jacobs, Henry Mulder, Herbert Steinway, George Van Dyke, Neil Wiersema, Clarence Jalving, Bernard Kammeraad, and John Van Vyven, the leader of the band.

The following members of the American Legion, not members of the band, accompanied the party to New Orleans to attend the national convention: Herman Van Ark, Benj. Lievense, Samuel Bosch, Jack Knoll, John Emmink, Edw. Oonk, Tom Halley, M. Barendse, Richard Nyland, Gerrit Rooks, H. Frins, and Marshall Irving. B. A. Mulder of the News and Sentinel also accompanied the party to New Orleans.

The party will be gone ten days. Other delegations have gone from Grand Haven, Zeeland and other places in this district.

FURTHER ODYSSEY OF HOLLAND BAND IS DESCRIBED

MIDNIGHT SATURDAY—Coming back to Birmingham, Ala.—The railway authorities had provided a chicken dinner, southern style for the band and patrons of the special. The hotel is located about one mile from the depot on one of the principal streets. The band started on its march down town and was soon followed by three hundred excursionists.

The legionnaires were in fine fettle for music and soon received an ovation from those southerners on the side lines, who at first did not seem to understand what it was all about. After starting off with "Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here," with the crowd following singing lustily, the band switched off on "Dixie" and with a medley of other selections soon had the most of Birmingham on the street marching along until the hotel was reached.

"Michigan, My Michigan," was played on the return trip, followed by other inspiring music. We'll say those southern folks know how to prepare chicken.

SIX O'CLOCK, A. M. SUNDAY—Reached Mobile, and from the car window, it appeared to the writer to be the most delapidated city he has ever visited. Lumbering seems to be the main industry, for everywhere on the outskirts of the city and on the upper reaches of Mobile Bay, saw mills dotted the landscape. In this city at least one Holland person lives. She is Mrs. Gregg Luce, formerly Miss Sadie Howard, youngest daughter of Hanley D. Howard, well known to our pioneer residents.

At 8 o'clock our train reached Biloxi, on the Gulf, where breakfast was waiting at the leading hotel. Here the boys saw the first banana trees and picked pecans.

At 9 o'clock a. m., the excursionists were given the opportunity of attending Sunday morning services. After church 40 autos were waiting and took the party to Gulfport, Long Beach and Pass Christian, three of the most wonderful winter resorts on the Gulf.

One of the interesting sights included in this auto trip was the old home of Jefferson Davis, deposed Confederate president. It has been turned into a soldiers' home for the boys in gray and "believe us" they are still wearing that color. The boys also visited the winter home of former President Wilson at Pass Christian. A large military academy was also visited, as well as a fine new college for girls. The shell roads are wonderful and plant and tree life cannot be surpassed. The folks out here however, lack that northern pep, and progress is slow. The thermometer registers 90 in the sun.

Saw the most wonderful live oak trees here to be found anywhere in the United States. The spreading branches of one in particular covered an area of more than 100 feet, and the foliage reached the ground all around. In the tree a cosy little house had been built and this tree seemed to be a show place.

Wonderful hotels everywhere and chicken plays an important part in the menu. Chickens are sold live, dead ones are not saleable for the reason that the climate soon spoils a dead hen.

At Gulf Port the band gave a concert on the veranda of the leading hotel and thousands gathered.

Again it can be said that Holland was placed on the map. The mayor of the city bade us welcome and goodspeed.

At 2 o'clock the special started on the last leg of the journey to New Orleans and we are expected to reach there within an hour.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Hollanders started away on Friday, the 13th up to this time no mishaps have occurred.

The hospitality of the south cannot be surpassed, there are real hosts here.

—Ben Mulder.

SPEAKERS RECALL PIONEER DAYS ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Pioneer spirit ran high Tuesday evening, when old and young, and men and women of all professions and walks of life met at Carnegie Gymnasium to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of this "colony". The meeting was held under the auspices of the Federation of Men's Bible Classes and was presided over by the president, Nicholas J. Jonker.

Rev. J. H. Bruggera of the Sixth Reformed church opened with the reading of the Scripture and prayer after which the entire audience joined in singing a Dutch psalm. This same psalm was also sung on the occasion of the semi-centennial celebration in Centennial Park in which Dr. J. B. Nykerk who was in charge of the meeting said, 10,000 voices joined in singing at the time, and with the accompaniment of a band of 100 pieces. The spirit with which the psalm was sung was evidence enough that it had become familiar to many a gray-haired pioneer who had long cherished those gems of Dutch literature. Dr. Henry Beets' Holland-American adaptation of the "Wien Neerland's Blood" was also sung.

Mayor E. P. Stephan in addressing the audience with a few words of welcome expressed his gratitude to the Federated Bible Classes for carrying on a most praiseworthy work. Public recognition, said the mayor, should be given an event as important as this one, especially one that is intimately connected with the history and welfare of our "colony" and he was pleased with the celebration that the occasion brought.

The Van Lente quartet, composed of the son, grandson and great-grandsons of the first "voorsingers," were favorably received when they rendered two selections, one "De Leurgestelde Landverhuizer," a humorous song written by Harm Israel, and "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned," which had been arranged for male voices by Harris Meyer. The latter number was the first English hymn sung in the Dutch colony.

Prof. C. Doesburg's singing school rendered it. The name of this organization was "Harmonie."

"History is the only lamp that shades its ray over the past," said Hon. G. J. Diekema, as he addressed "the survivors of the Pilgrim Fathers of the West and their descendants." We look to the past not so much for a chronological line of events, but it reveals to us the principles, the ideals which have led our humanity forward. Not only is it good to recall the past, said the speaker, but we have divine authority for doing so as the history of the Israelites points to its Feast of the Passover, and as the altars of stone besides the Jordan mark a milestone in the struggle of the Israelites, and remind them of the divine guidance they had received as well as of the safe crossing of the river. The speaker sketched the reasons for the coming of the pilgrims and why they selected Holland and the struggles thru which the prophetic vision brought the fulfillment of liberty which throbbed in the hearts of the poor. In the summer of 1847 every home was a hospital it was their faith and the faith of their leader that kept kindle within them a hopeful spirit. A leader of indomitable will, of military bearing, in short, a mighty genius chosen of God was Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, and willing hands and hearts will make it possible to erect to his honor a statue, which will bestow upon their honored leader a humble recognition for the priceless heritage our early fathers have bequeathed us. Industry, thrift, education, the observance of the Sabbath day, and integrity, these are some of the matchless characteristics which have helped to make this colony what it is today and will be indispensable to its further growth.

The economic developments, together with those of education and religion, give proof that Holland was well founded in every respect. "Spera in Deo", the motto which the early settlers have inscribed upon the stone of Graves Library, has become the sacred realization of our ancestors. The great conflict today, Mr. Diekema pointed out, is a conflict between two civilizations, that of the Crescent and that of the Cross.

Do not imitate our ancestors, or lean upon the good work wrought, concluded the speaker, but rather emulate the cardinal virtues, those of the heart and not of the head, "pass along the flag without a stain upon our homes."

Rev. Peter Moordyk, the sole surviving member of the class of 1866 of Hope College, addressed the audience, and sketched for them in part the ecclesiastical history of the colony. The founding of this colony was motivated by religious principles, he declared. It was religion that was of paramount importance, and take religion out of the purpose and plan of the early settlers and it is doubtful whether Holland would ever have stood at all. Dr. A. C. Van Raalte was a man of deep religious zeal and determination, and it is to him that we can ascribe much of the religious fervor that is still characteristic of Holland today.

Dr. A. C. Van Raalte Gilmore, baritone soloist, grandson of Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, rendered "Gloria" by Buzzi Pecia, and Miss Helene Van Raalte, great-granddaughter of Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, contralto, sang "Light," by John Prindle Scott.

The Medical Association of Holland will conduct a free clinic in the clinic building on the hospital lot each Friday morning from 9 to 11 beginning Nov. 3rd.

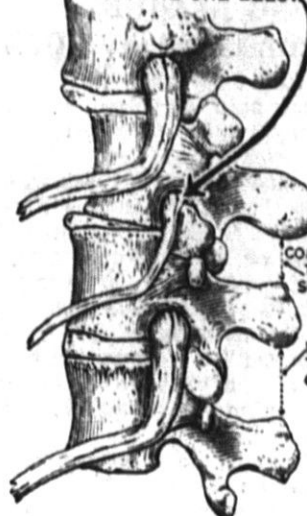

Examinations and advice will be given for children of both pre-school and school age; also for pregnant mothers. This is purely an educational institution where firsthand scientific advice may be had, given by various physicians of the city. Special arrangements will be made whereby care will be given when necessary.

Big Rapids, Oct. 16.—Ferris institute played Hope College to a scoreless tie here Saturday in its second game of the season. The institute team displayed a marked improvement over the past two weeks.

Zeeland football team defeated the Grand Rapids Vocational school team at Zeeland Saturday 34 to 6. The Zeelanders played fine football while the visitors were handicapped by lack of experienced men.

The Central high football team, which has always proven a terror for the local eleven, ran true to form Saturday, defeating Holland 12 to 0. Holland twice took the ball inside of Central's 10 yard line, but failed to score. However, the team put up a good battle, and deserves to be commended for its showing against the much touted Central team.

Healthful Throat is a Winter Joy

Health Talk No. 42

By JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

People who are subject to throat troubles sometimes called tonsillitis, laryngitis, and just plain sore throat, look forward to winter with dread. The weakness which causes cold to settle in the throat is directly traceable to pressure on nerves at the spine.

Because the throat is so easily reached with gargles and swabs, the first thought in throat troubles is usually of such remedies as this, with little idea that the cause is pinching pressure on spinal nerves emitting from the spine in the lower-neck region. The chiropractor readily locates the pinch and by his skill makes the necessary adjustments. There is always the danger in throat ailments of diphtheria developing and prompt and efficient attention is necessary.

Osteopath's Son Gets Chiropractic

The son of Dr. R. D. Grant was taken sick while his father was away from home. An M. D. quarantined the house. Dr. Grant was called home and sent for a chiropractor who was formerly an osteopath, and by chiropractic spinal adjustments the boy became convalescent in three days and on the fourth took an automobile ride. —Case report in the Chiropractic Research Bureau file, Statement No 1348C.

PROBATE COURT COMMITTS TWO AS DELINQUENT

Judge of Probate James J. Danhof in juvenile court has committed two Holland young people, adjudged delinquents, to state institutions. Both of the young offenders had been given a chance to mend their ways before the judge was finally compelled to commit them for commitment to state institutions for the full term.

John H. Bosman of Holland, a lad of 13 years of age was charged with assault upon a little girl 7 years of age. The court after hearing the case very thoroughly committed the lad to the State Industrial School for Boys at Lansing for the full term.

Martina Vander Muelen of Holland who is an adopted daughter was summoned for delinquency and the evidence was of a very serious nature. The girl is 15 years old and Judge Danhof sent her to the Adrian school for girls for the full term.

A bullet from a small rifle passed through the window of Charles Johnson's home on Adams street at Grand Haven Tuesday narrowly missing Mrs. Johnson who was standing near. The police department was notified and Officer Klump made an investigation. After a long chase he discovered two lads shooting along the river. The boys admitted shooting the rifle but were apparently innocent of intentional wrong doing. They gave their names as Stewart Boyink and Harold Lindon. The matter was settled by an agreement on the part of the lads to put in a new window for Mr. Johnson and to refrain from using the rifle in the city limits again.

The new green "Frosh" caps have arrived at Hope College and the Freshmen boys may be seen sporting them while the girls are wearing green ribbons. The "wearing" of the green will be a familiar sight to the people of the city because the freshmen will be compelled to wear it for the entire year. Last year the first year students wore the green until Thanksgiving time but the rules have been changed somewhat this year.

The Social Progress Club began the year's work Tuesday evening with a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Westveer. R. B. Champion, president for the year, welcomed the members and presided over the meeting. The roll call consisted of two minute talks by the members on the subject, "What I would do if I were credit manager of the DePree Co." with a five minute reply by G. VanderMeulen. The roll call for each meeting during the year will consist of a similar exercise, the occupations of the members being taken as subjects for discussion, thus: "What I would do if I were Supt. of public works," "What I would do if I were superintendent of schools," and so on. The idea is to offer constructive criticism while the "victim" will have opportunity to tell of his difficulties and to answer criticisms.

The paper of the evening was read by Arnold Mulder on the subject "Twentieth Century Mythology." Other papers for the year will be: "A Socialized Hospital," Dr. A. Leenhouts; "The Home Beautiful," Nicodemus Bosch; "European Politics in 1922," Prof. Wyand Wiehers; "The Endocrine Glands and Personality," Dr. Frank N. Patterson; "Shall We Insist on Getting Our 'Pound of Flesh'?", Rev. P. P. Cheff; "The Increasing Scope of Municipal Activity," C. E. Drew; "Making the Railroad Gateways of the City Attractive," Prof. Egbert Winter; "Occupational Therapy," Thomas N. Robinson; "The Chemical Foundation," Dr. A. T. Godfrey; "Czechoslovakia," Prins, J. J. Riemersma; "Athletics or Physical Education," Dr. R. M. Waltz; "Ku-Klux-Klan," Wm. E. Vander Hart; "Fire Prevention and Fire Protection," Arthur A. Visscher.

The officers this year are: President, R. B. Champion; First Vice President, Prof. Egbert Winter; 2nd vice president, William Westveer; secretary-treasurer, Nicodemus Bosch.

The Hope College co-eds of the various societies have adopted a new system of taking in new girls into the societies. For many years various unsatisfactory means have been resorted to whereby each society could select its quota of new members. This has led to more or less confusion and dissatisfaction, so in order to give each newcomer an opportunity to choose for herself, the co-eds have mutually agreed to adopt a set of rules, which it is hoped will eliminate all unnecessary confusions. The rules covering the actions of any and every girl society, as they have been accepted are as follows:

Rule I—"Rushing" shall hereby be abolished.

Sec. A—It shall be considered "rushing" to influence any girl for or against anyone society either by attitude or speech.

Sec. B—It will be considered as "rushing" to unduly monopolize any new girls' time, either as an individual or society group.

Sec. C—It shall be considered as "rushing" for any society group to entertain new girls at spreads, teas, or parties of any kind before the end of the election period, except at the annual receptions or open meetings which shall be decided by the girls at a general meeting of all societies.

Rule II—Pledging shall hereby be abolished.

Sec. A—It shall be considered pledging to ask any girl to join any society before the end of the election period.

exact a promise from any girl to join any society before the end of the election period.

Rule III—Elections shall take place at a time designated by all the societies.

Sec. A—Election period shall extend 24 hours after the time of the meeting.

Rule IV. Every girl shall be on her honor to observe these rules.

These rules will do much toward fostering a better spirit among the four literary societies. A court of justice consisting of the president and vice president of each society has been established to enforce the rules.

DEBATING LEAGUE ORGANIZED AT HOPE

The debating league of Hope College has been organized and is now trying to make up a schedule for the coming school year. Plans are being made to get in touch with Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo Normal, Alma, Olivet and Hillsdale.

The question for debate, as given out by Phi Kappa Delta, is, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the cabinet-parliamentary form of government." If possible, this question will be used but probably another question will be used in one of the debates.

The officers for the coming year are as follows:

Jacob Prins, president; Jerry DeVries, secretary; Erwin Borgman, vice president; Al Vanden Berg, Treasurer.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church held their annual picnic in connection with the regular meeting at "Linger Longer" cottage, Virginia Park Monday, and a very happy time was enjoyed by all those who attended. Mrs. G. Elferdink, chairman of the quilt committee had provided work for the afternoon, and the time was spent in piecing blocks for mission quilts. A bountiful picnic dinner was served at 6:15. Those who survived this ordeal were able to attend the short business session which followed. The only number on the program was given by Mrs. H. W. Smith, which consisted of a review of the first chapter of the study book which was of unusual interest. The study book for the ensuing year is entitled "The Trend of the Races" by George E. Haynes, and the reference book "In the Vanguard of a Race," by G. H. Hammond. Mrs. G. B. Flemming and Mrs. G. C. Moody were elected delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Michigan conference "Woman's Home Missionary society" which convenes at First M. E. church Grand Rapids, Nov. 1st and 2nd.

Mrs. O. D. Bottume had charge of devotionals assisted by Mrs. Etta Whitman. The meeting closed with community singing, accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Rich. Hostesses were the Mesdames Huiling, TeRoller, Whitman, Rich and Miss Georgia Atwood.

ROAD COMMISSIONERS OFFER $25 REWARD FOR RUBBISH VIOLATORS

A flagrant violation of a state law will not go unpunished much longer if the Ottawa County Road Commission has anything to say about the subject and the culprits will be gone after with hammer and tongs. The violation is in regard to the state law which states that no garbage, rubbish or waste material shall be deposited on or in any highway of the state without permission of the highway commission.

In keeping with the policy of making Ottawa County roadway as attractive as possible the county road commissioners have authorized no one to dump rubbish and waste matter in certain places where the violation of the state law are evidenced and it is with this in mind that they are going after the law breakers. It is understood that Austin Harrington, chairman of the Ottawa County Road commission is offering a $25 reward to anyone who gives information which leads to the conviction of any party on the charge of violating the law in respect to dumping rubbish on highways.

Law violators are busy in two places in the county, first on Trunk Line 11 just north of Holland and also on the Lloyd's Bayou road. These two places are to be watched. The road officials believe that the rubbish and waste material are brought and dumped during the night.

The law in question reads as follows:—

"If any person or persons, unless duly authorized by the Highway Commissioner of the township shall put any garbage, rubbish or waste material of any kind into any highway of any township of this state with the intent to permit the same to remain therein, to the injury in any way of said highway, or to the annoyance of the citizens of this state, or any of them, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay not less than $5 and not more than $10 together with the costs of prosecution and in default thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ten days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

thereof shall forfeit and pay not less than $5 and not more than $10 together with the costs of prosecution and in default thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ten days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court."

It's the pig that goes to market weighing from 200 to 250 pounds at six or seven months of age that makes the profit for the hog raiser.

Unless a pig is fed so that it develops a big sturdy frame early, just as sure as two and two are four that pig will cost you more to raise than you'll get for it.

It pays to feed your young growing shotes a feed that will make them grow fast, develop big strong frames quick—give them the proper foundation for the extra pounds of meat at fattening time. That's just what

SUGARED SCHUMACHER FEED

It is the feed that makes pigs grow BIG fast—helps get them to market before they eat their heads off. It's a combination of nutritive grain products, finely ground and SWEETENED. Hogs eat it greedily—makes young pigs grow "like weeds." Exceptionally fine for brood sows and a splendid aid at fattening time when fed with corn and tankage. Come in and let us tell you all about this BETTER hog feed.

Say the Word!

WHY hesitate? When a thing is so important it ought to be done all the more promptly. Delay may make it expensive to everybody concerned. If you omit entirely to give by Will; that causes hard feelings.

The inability to decide on an individual who is willing to take the job of Executor and Trustee under a Will, has been the stumbling block that has prevented many a will from being completed. It comes last.

This problem has all been simplified.

It will be perfectly proper for you to name the Trust Company as your Executor and Trustee. We may say it is the ONLY proper and approved way of doing. It is the modern way.

RAID RECALLS OLD SOUTHERN "CORN WHISKEY" CASES

The old Southern mountaineer method of dispensing moonshine whiskey is believed to have been practiced in Ottawa county and the system is believed to have been uncovered by the Sheriff's force Thursday. In novels about the Southern mountaineers moonshine, or "corn whiskey," hidden in a sack in the chicken coop often figures, the customers knowing the place and getting the stuff at stated intervals. It is believed by the sheriff's force that the same plan was followed on the farm of Peter Arensma, one and one half miles west of the Pine Creek school. At least they arrested Mr. Arensma Thursday on a charge of bootlegging and found a gallon of moonshine hidden back of a chicken coop. They also found and confiscated a still.

Arensma claimed vigorously that he did not know anything about the gallon of illicit whiskey back of the chicken coop and that he was not responsible for its being there. He will be given a chance to defend himself against the charge at the next term of circuit court. When arraigned before Justice Brusse late Thursday afternoon, he waived examination and was bound over to circuit court. He was released when he furnished the necessary bonds for his appearance in court.

The case against Arensma was worked up by Sheriff Fortney and Deputy Sheriff Vander West. The sheriff did not take part in the actual raid because he was at the moment busy making a raid in another part of the county. The raid on the Arensma farm was made by Deputies Vander West and Bouwman and city officer C. Steketee. They searched the place until they came upon the moonshine hidden under a box back of the chicken house. That and the still they discovered furnished the necessary "evidence" in the case and the arrest was made.

JOHANNA BOEVE BECOMES BRIDE OF HENRY JACOBS

A beautiful wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boeve when their daughter Johanna became the bride of Mr. Henry Jacobs. ## MCBRIDE TAKES A PROMINENT PART IN STATE MEET

City Attorney C. H. McBride took a prominent part in a conference in Lansing between Representative George Lord, of the general taxation committee of the house of representatives and delegates of cities in all parts of the state, members of the league of Michigan municipalities.

The meeting was for the purpose of securing a square deal for the cities of the state in the matter of the distribution of money collected in taxation. It was pointed out for instance that in many cities 75 or 80 per cent of the automobile tax money of a county is collected from the city while about 20 per cent is returned to the city in benefits. This question was one of the main points of discussion last spring at the state convention of the league of Michigan municipalities in Holland, and the convention then decided to take action. The automobile money is only an illustration; the same thing holds good in regard to many other matters.

Mr. McBride expressed himself as favoring a plan of organizing special assessment districts for county roads excluding trunk highways, along lines used in the cities, stating that by this means only could the principle of benefits be applied. He went on record as being directly opposed to a gasoline tax, considering such a levy a direct penalty on transportation and communication.

Mr. McBride also asked for the correction of certain inequitable features of the capital stock tax, saying that the established maximum of $10,000 let such large manufacturers as the Ford Motor Co. and a few others off with much less than their fair share.

Another short, but hot debate was over the assessment by the state of city property lying outside of city limits. Divergent views were set forth. Taggart of Gr. Rapids stating that such a tax should depend upon the degree of service rendered the property by the state. McBride stated that this would be a pyramiding of taxes, as such property was already kept up by taxation of city residents who felt that, in view of the fact that boulevard property lying outside the city benefited the country both by increasing the value of its real estate and by offering a service to country residents equal to that offered city residents, it should certainly be exempted from state taxation.

FORMER PASTORS HELP TO DEDICATE RE-MODELED CHURCH

Rev. D. R. Drukker, first pastor of the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church, and Rev. P. A. Hoekstra, the second pastor, were the main speakers at the dedication of the remodeled church building on Thursday evening. Rev. Herman Hoeksema the third pastor, was not able to be present but he sent a letter of congratulation. The meeting was presided over by the present pastor, Rev. J. M. Vander Kieft, and a large audience was present.

The improvements cost $28,000, and at the meeting Thursday night the sum of $366 was collected for the building fund. The remodeling of the church added 200 seats to the capacity of the building and it eliminated the fire trap entrance, giving a wide free entrance on the east side of the church. A new $5000 organ has been installed and a new vapor heating system has been put in.

The building committee in charge of improvements was composed of John Steggerda, Tyde Warner, Richard Ash, Louis Dykema, E. S. Holkeboer, Gerrit Wanrooy, John Harmon, and John Grevengoed.

FORMER SAUGATUCK MAN GOES TO VIRGINIA

They are making the trip by auto and were visiting Mrs. Hauke's old home in Buffalo when he wrote us. They took a side trip to Niagara Falls while there and rode on the "Maid of the Mist," that was built by Mrs. Hauke's cousin 40 years ago and on which Mrs. Hauke rode many a time when she was a little girl, as Niagara Falls was her girlhood home while in Virginia. Mr. Hauke will have charge of the work of getting out 5000 cords of wood for an excelsior factory—Saugatuck Commercial-Record.

SHARP FROST HITS LAST OF TOMATO CROP

The sharp frost of Thursday night will probably put a definite end to such tomatoes as were still on the vines on the farms. The tomato season this year lasted longer than has been the case in many years and the same thing was true of the pickle season. Usually the season comes definitely to an end toward the end of September because it is then that the killing frosts come, but this year the frost did not come as usual and hence many pickles were grown after the time when the season usually ends. The weather has been unusually favorable for all kinds of farm crops this fall.

BITTER FIGHT IS STIRRED UP ABOUT ROAD COMMISSION

The most paradoxical election in years in the board of supervisors was held in the court house Tuesday when Austin Harrington was re-elected member of the Ottawa County road commission. The election was a curious paradox because Mr. Harrington had nearly all the supervisors from his own end of the county against him, most of them bitterly against him, while the supervisors from the north end of the county were enthusiastically and solidly for him. He won on the first ballot, having two votes to spare. The ballot stood: Harrington 14, S. L. Henkle 12, Barend Kamps of Zeeland 1. The struggle was marked by extreme bitterness under the surface, and that bitterness is still burning in the breasts of the supervisors from this end of the county. Every supervisor from Holland, with the exception of J. J. Rutgers, voted against Harrington, and most of the supervisors adjoining Holland also were bitterly opposed to him. It was a fight that stirred up strong animosity, and even today there were many charges and countercharges flying about and making the supervisors hot under the collar. It was charged by some of the Harrington opponents that the meeting had been packed with Harrington supporters, as practically every member from the north end was in his seat, even the members who otherwise rarely attended a meeting, and there was also bitterness about the vote of Supervisor Rutgers, who had been supposed to be with the anti-Harrington group.

The anti-Harrington group based their opposition on the ground that this end of the county had not received its fair share in roads; and they charged that the north end of the county was solid for the Holland man because of the number of roads secured there. Whether this charge is well founded or not, it was the motive back of the fight against Mr. Harrington.

There came an aftermath later in the day when Road Commissioner Bekius of Zeeland handed in his resignation. Bekius heatedly gave as his reason that the other two members of the road commission ignored him and that hence the county might as well have a commission of two men as of three. He charged that the other two commissioners were "doing things high handedly," and that he did not wish to continue to serve under these conditions. The board of supervisors at first refused to accept the resignation but Bekius was firm, and his successor will soon be appointed. He will probably be Barend Kamps of Zeeland.

City Inspector Henry S. Bosch is out to get the alleys of Holland cleaned up. Ashes and other rubbish are being dumped in many alleys and even in some streets, according to Mr. Bosch, and he intends to put a stop to this. One person today was required to clean up an alley that he had defiled in this way, and from now on no more warnings will be given. The ordinance governing this point will be enforced without further notice which means that arrests will follow. A pile of ashes in one alley was loaded with old nails which would have meant ruin to the tires of any auto that might venture in.

WAS A BUSY WEEK FOR JUDGE O. S. CROSS

Last week was a fairly lively week for Judge Cross in the Allegan county court. In the case of Fred Van Leuwen vs. Eva A. Van Leuwen for divorce a decree was entered following a property agreement between the parties. The case of the Old State Bank of Fennville vs. Jas. E. Howland et al, to set aside a deed, turned upon the question whether the deed of property from husband to wife could be set aside by his creditor. There was a dispute as to whether the wife agreed to pay the debt of Howland to the bank. The court held the deed could not cut off the bank and Mrs. Howland must pay the debt. Cora Ives Ross vs. Victor Ross was brought to secure alimony from a husband who was in arrears and was finally located in that county. Plaintiff got judgment for $8,265.

NATIONAL POULTRY AUTHORITY SPEAKS IN HOLLAND

On Monday of last week the Poultry association staged the biggest treat for the poultry raisers in this district. Dr. O. B. Kent, of the Quaker Oats Co., was the main attraction for the evening. In his lecture he not only proved himself to be the most wonderful student in the poultry world but also shared his experience with the poultry men and women present at this meeting. Dr. Kent also showed motion pictures describing and showing poultry in all its stages. Dr. Kent was formerly with Cornell University and has an intimate knowledge of poultry. Several attended the meeting from Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Ferrysburg and also from Zeeland, Forest Grove, Vriesland and Jamestown. Surely it is a credit to Holland to have men of this ability come to its city and tell of their knowledge. The president very ably introduced Dr. Kent and also thanked him for his time to come here and that in the name of Holland the president was able to thank him and hoped that the doctor would again come to Holland in the near future.

Thursday, Oct. 5, Majorie Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Broe and Lewis Symons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Symons, were united in marriage at 9 o'clock mass in St. Basil's church, South Haven, Rev. Father Houwer officiating.

The second week of the Kadey meetings at the Wesleyan Methodist church began with enthusiasm. On Sunday three services were well attended the evening audience requiring the use of both annex and gallery. Intense interest characterized all the services. "The words 'fact' and 'truth' do not necessarily mean the same," said the evangelist in his Sunday evening discourse. "A fact may be sordid and unavory—unspeakable. The truth is always uplifting, majestic, and sublime. You never find a desire for ribald and vulgar language and a desire for the truth both in the same individual. These things do not mix any more than does oil and water." Services each week night are at 7:30 with a bible hour from 2 to 3 P. M. Wednesdays and Fridays. Mr. John M. Smits is directing the musical side of the services in a very acceptable manner. A meeting for men only is being announced for 2:30 P. M. next Sunday.
