HOLLAND BOY SENDS STRAPS OF GERMAN HE BAYONETTED

ALSO TAKES HELMET FROM OFFICER HE HELPED SHOOT

Sniper's Bullet Comes Within Few Inches of Marshall Irving's Nose.

One of the most interesting letters that has ever been sent from France to Holland together with war trophies in the way of a German officer's helmet and shoulder straps reached Holland yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. James Irving from their son Marshall. The war trophies are in Bote's show window and the letter which is self-explanatory, follows below:

Still in France, Sept. 21, 1918
My Dear Folks:—

Well everything seems to have been my way for the last few days. I was paid part of my money and just finished quite a tight pinch with my life. There sure were some narrow escapes which I hold responsible to the fact that folks at home did not forget to pray for me when you were praying.

Yes, the Marines took part in the big drive and drove the dirty Germans about 20 miles before they stopped. We started over the top under one of the biggest and best artillery barrages there ever was, and the Huns run for their lives. I guess they thought the world had come to an end.

They left in such a hurry that they didn't take any of their supplies and even their clothing and rifles. In the towns we took, we found such as honey, artificial and reg. r honey, plenty of their black bread, and hard tack, and a whole cellar full of German beer. Oh yes, with the bread came a couple of barrels of apple marmalade. It was tested by the Doctor and found o. k. then we all ate all the German food and saved our own.

In the first town we captured a German officer stayed a little too long. I guess he was waiting to get a good line on us, but as he tried to make his exit on horseback, about 500 rifles opened up and we got both he and the horse. I managed to get his dress helmet and belt. I am going to try and send the helmet home as soon as possible. It might come in handy as you said. Also in this letter you will find a German shoulder strap off of the first German I bayoneted. It was like this: three non-commissioned officers and myself were sent in a very thick woods, (one of their strong points). It was pitch dark and there happened to be plenty of Germans there. Well, we hadn't gone far in the woods before I spied by my side a German crouching in a bush; on the impulse I turned and let him have the knife. From what I understand I hit him right in the heart as he only made a little move and then lay quiet. As for myself I kept on moving as there might have been more than I could of handled. Well we (four) went thru the woods and found a place to take up a position for the company and went back to get them.

I only wish I could have got hundreds of them right there as thousands will never pay for dear Bill's life.

Talk about excitement, sure have found a lot, a good deal more than I really cared for sometimes. But this woods job was what I wanted to do. But just the same I felt sort of ticklish around the neck. While we were in No-Man's-Land I received several letters from you and Gertrude. Now they were more than welcome. I tell you. I just read them several times, and every time they gave me new thoughts.

Well mother, dad and brother, and everybody else concerned, I guess I'll quit my story in this letter and continue it in Gertrude's the next one will be called the "Devil's Hill."

Well give my best to all the folks. Well again my best to all and love and kisses to you all, I remain,

Your son,
74 Co. 6 Regt. Marines
Amer. Expdy Force,
G.P. M. N. Y.

Opl. Marshall L. Irving,
—101—
Still in France, Sept. 21, 1918.

My Dear Gertrude:—
Well I am still well and happy. I received a couple of your letters while at the front. Now believe me words on paper can never express how glad and what a help they were.

Well as I said in mother's letter I would continue my story in your letter. As I figure that it would be useless to write the same thing twice, so here goes the continuation.

We spent that night in the valley and a bad night too. The next morning they opened up a heavy shell fire on us. Now you ought to see those picks and shovels we carry work. I lost my shovel during the night so did the Gunery Sergt. But that didn't stop us any. I took my bayonet and he took his meat gear cover and in less than two minutes we had ourselves

RAILROAD MOTOR GETS AWAY AT ZEELAND; IS STOPPED AT BOYD.

A Pere Marquette railroad inspector came from Grand Rapids to Zeeland to inspect some reconstruction there. All inspectors have a motor car that is placed upon the rails, and in this way the inspector goes to all points of the system to inspect the work.

This inspector had a new motor which was easy to start. In some unaccountable manner the car got started, and before the inspector could reach it to stop the engine, the car went spinning over the rails in the direction of Holland without a passenger.

How the miniature railroad train ever got through the net work of tracks and switches at Waverly, and again at Holland, is a mystery. Any way the car came through the switchyard and through the city at some 40 miles an hour, never hitting anything.

At Boyd, a crossing about three miles south of the Piano factory several section men were at work. They saw the motor car coming without a master hand at the brake and knowing that something was wrong they placed shovels on the track and in this way the runaway car was ditched. Just in time, however, for shortly after the incident took place the rapidly moving express came along and might have been ditched had the small car not been detected and side-tracked.

A. P. L. FIGHTS A WILD BEAST

TAKES HURRY UP CALL AT THE POLICE HEADQUARTERS

The A. P. L. has been meeting in police headquarters for some time, rounding up slackers because of the gassess Sundays, and to point out the duty of other slackers in the buying of Liberty bonds.

At one of these meetings a few night ago the buzzer of the telephone rang loud and long.

The voice of a lady came quivering over the phone, "Is this the chief of police? This is Mrs. So-and-so on 10th street. There is a wild-wild animal in our back yard and—"

The phone sputtered and went out of commission. The A. P. L. held a hurried consultation and two of their members, who wished to attend the wild animal in an official capacity, quickly donned policemen's helmets, and with club and gun sallied forth to an awaiting automobile. The speed limit to Tenth street was broken by several miles it is said. At the door the lady was waiting for help and the A. P. L. who were on the job for that purpose, bravely entered the darkness at the rear of the home.

Just as they were about to land upon this beast of prey it climbed thru the back fence into the yard of the neighbors.

The vigilance committee knew the name of the animal long before they saw it for it happened to be a skunk.

es down in a well sized hole. We sure did dig. At last the fire quit and we started over two strongly protected hills belonging to the Huns. They were full of snipers, machine guns and the artillery they had was letting us have a heavy fire to walk through. And their airplanes were giving their artillery the range. But it never stopped us—of course a few of our comrades fell, but very few, cause they knew how to get by.

Well on this hill I came so near getting mine that every time I think of it I pinch myself to see if I really am still going. In one case a shell missed by head by about 6 inches and hit right at my feet as I lay under a couple of leaves trying to hide for a second from an airplane. Well it raised the device with some of the boys further away. It only picked me up and threw me—it never hurt me a bit.

Another close one—a sniper took a poke at me and it hit a little tree in front of my head glancing off. The tree was about 3 inches in diameter. There were so many close ones I can't count them and even know them. Well, we chased the Huns out in the open and as they run from shell hole to shell hole the boys took pot shots at them. It sure was fun to watch the poor devils go. Oh, yes, another close one and then I'll close for this time. Well I was standing on a little road and either a machine gun or a sniper took a shot at me—it hit my wet shoe, glancing off singing a miss. My ankle is sort of sore.

I have given you full details of the drive as I guess I'll quit. Enclosed you will find a shoulder strap off of a Boche—he is finished now—we had to do it.

With love,
MARSHALL L. IRVING.

QUESTIONNAIRES SOON TO GO TO 36-45 CLASS

DRAFT BOARD NOW BUSY GETTING THEM READY TO MAIL

Plan To Send First Batch On Next Saturday and Others For Several Days Following.

The men in Holland and Southern Ottawa who are between the ages of 36 and 45 inclusive will soon receive their questionnaires. The draft board now has a force of stenographers at work making out the lists and preparing the questionnaires for mailing. Altho the exact date on which the sending of the documents will begin cannot be given at this time, it is likely that the first batch will go out on Saturday. After that probably about ten per cent of the full number will be mailed each day until all have been sent.

About 1400 questionnaires were mailed by the local board soon after September 12 to the men in the 18 to 21 and 31 to 36 class. This leaves about 1,600 names in the 35 to 45 class to whom questionnaires are still to be mailed. It is planned to send about 160 questionnaires each day after the first batch has been mailed.

Those who receive questionnaires will have seven days, not including Sundays and holidays, in which to make their answers and return the documents to the local draft board. It is anticipated that there will again be considerable of a run on the local notaries public for assistance in making out the questionnaires. But the notaries are better prepared to meet the avalanche now than they were a few weeks ago. They have an organization now and that organization will be brought into play again. Altho no official announcement has been made, it is likely that the notaries will again maintain an office in the city hall where the registrants with questionnaires to make out can go for advice and to have affidavits signed.

Registrants are advised however to make out their questionnaires themselves as far as they are able. Most of the questions can be easily answered by any person with average intelligence. Then, having done this, they can call upon the notaries for signatures and for the clearing up of any little point that needs elucidation.

GRAND HAVEN WILL HAVE BUS LINE SYSTEM

WILL MAKE TRIPS LIKE A STREET CAR; WILL HAVE REGULAR STOPS

Grand Haven will very shortly have a motor bus line. George Vandenberg, proprietor of the Grand Haven Bottling Works has completed arrangements for putting service into effect with a sixteen-passenger motor bus in operation. Contracts for building the body of the bus has been let to Peter Van Zyl. It will be an all weather top build substantially and strong like a street car, and it will comfortably accommodate sixteen passengers. The new bus will start in with one vehicle but more equipment will be added as business warrants. The first route will extend from the corner of Water and Washington streets to the corner of Washington Avenue and Beech Tree street. Hourly service will be maintained between these points from 6:30 in the morning to 11 in the evening. During the rush hours in the morning, at noon and in the evening, when the employees of the factories are using the bus line, the schedule will be altered and as many trips as possible will be made to accommodate patrons. The car on these trips will make the loop around Fulton street to Griffin street and thence back to Washington avenue.

Mr. Vandenberg expects to have his bus line in operation within about three weeks and the prospects for his success are considered excellent. There has long been a demand for service to the Fifth ward, and as business warrants, more equipment will be added. A fare of five cents a ride will be charged with computation tickets for 22 rides at one dollar.

SICKNESS PREVENTS HOPE COLLEGE ANCHOR FROM COMING OUT

The Hope College Anchor will not be issued this week for the reason that two of the editors are out of commission. Mr. De Jonge, editor in chief is in Ann Arbor where he underwent a serious operation. Walter Scholten who temporarily took Mr. De Jonge's place is laid up with the grip. It is expected that the Anchor will be issued as usual next week.

Jacob Nibbelink is confined to his home on West 9th street, on account of illness.

WEATHER NEVER SO FINE FOR THE BEET HARVEST

NINE THOUSAND TONS OF BEETS IN AND AROUND THE SUGAR FACTORY

Nearly the entire local factory of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co. is correlated with beets. It is all beets that one can see about the plant. The company states that 9,000 tons of beets are represented in these piles.

Farmers are coming into the city in a veritable parade and strings of cars are being constantly unloaded by the big crane and a force of men. The officials of the company cannot remember a year where the weather remained so fine for the harvest. The beet crop is exceptionally fine this year.

DIES IN ZEELAND IS BURIED AT GRAAFSCHAP

ALBERT HUISKEN WAS BORN IN PRUSSIA SEVENTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO

Albert Huisken, formerly a resident of Central Park and Holland, passed away last night at his home in Zeeland at the age of 77 years after a lingering illness.

He was born in Graafschap, Prussia and came to this country in 1868 locating in the vicinity where he spent the remainder of his life.

He is survived by his widow and foster son, Henry Ebelenk, located at Central Park and several step-children, two sisters, Mrs. George Vrede veld of Holland and Mrs. John Tibb of Grant, Michigan, one brother John Henry Huisken of Grand Rapids.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m. at 344 East Washington street, Zeeland. Burial will be at Graafschap cemetery.

TWENTY YOUNG MEN GO TO VIRGINIA CAMP

LEFT HOLLAND YESTERDAY TO BEGIN PERIOD OF MILITARY SERVICE

Twenty drafted men from the second district of Ottawa county left Holland yesterday for camp to get ready to be in on the finish of the Kaiser. The names of these men were printed in the Sentinel about a week ago. They are from various sections of the southern half of the county and Le Hall, Virginia. This camp is comparatively free from the "flu" and is being used to receive recruits who under normal conditions would have been sent to such places as Camp Custer where the "flu" has taken a very strong hold.

The twenty men left in the afternoon, collecting at the city hall to receive their final orders from the draft board. In spite of the drizzling rain, a considerable number of relatives and friends collected at the city hall to bid them farewell.

HOLLAND VETERAN DIES IN CHICAGO

WAS 84 YEARS OLD AND WAS A MEMBER OF A. C. VAN RAALTE POST

Truman Spencer Chettenden died at Chicago at the age of 84 years, and up to the time of his death was as spry as a man could possibly be at that age.

For several years he was a resident of this city, but later moved to Chicago, and for the past 15 years spent his summers at Ottawa Beach.

He was a member of the A. C. Van Raalte Post G. A. R. and has a war record that is the envy of many of his comrades.

The family sends the following war record: Truman Spencer Chettenden enlisted with the 88th Ill. Volunteer Inf. Co. T, June 1862. Served in and around Nashville, Tenn, participating in the Battle of Murphys borough and others. Was wounded in July 1863 and discharged from service. Was a member of Van Raalte Post of Holland, Michigan. Died Sept. 20, 1918, at the age of 84; buried at Mount Glenwood cemetery, Chicago, Ill., September 23, 1918, Meade Post of Chicago officiating.

Mr. Chettenden is survived by five daughters and two sons: Morris and Roy Chittenden; Mrs. Jessie Grady, Mrs. Nettie Hinkley, Mrs. Bessie Peoples, Mrs. Sadie Rowh, Mrs. Josephine Higgins and eleven grandchildren all well known in Holland.

The family wish to extend thanks to the ladies of A. C. Van Raalte Relief Corps for the lovely flowers sent by them.

Red, White and Blue Pigs

Pans, Ill, Oct. 24—A brood sow owned by Assessor Oran M. Ross, Pana township gave birth to six little pigs today, two red, two white, and two blue—Chicago American.—Not wishing to be unpatriotic, but we are wondering if the pigs had a star attached to their tails?

DOES NOT KNOW
TUNE OF THE STAR
SPANGLED BANNER

Klaas Zuidewind paid $10 to the Red Cross fund as a penalty imposed by Justice Thomas N. Robinson for failure in removing his hat when the Ladies Military band played "The Star Spangled Banner." Zuidewind's hat was knocked from his head by an officer while the band was playing. He proceeded to replace it when a bystander knocked it off for a second time.

Zuidewind is said to be a patriotic Hollander. He gave as his reason he was not feeling well and that he was as eager to obey the law as any one. He claimed he purchased a $50 bond in the fourth Liberty Loan drive and that he was for America first, last and all the time.

He told Judge Robinson that he did not know the tune of Star Spangled Banner very well and did not recognize it immediately.

PAINT FARMER
YELLOW FROM HEAD TO FOOT

Cedar Springs, Oct. 23—C. C. Thompson, 60 years old, considered a wealthy farmer and living north of this town in Solon township the last 25 years, was painted yellow from head to foot and then ordered out of town for failure to contribute to this or past Liberty loan drives.

A hundred citizens forming a vigilance committee, headed by T. B. Taylor, local chairman of the Liberty loan, drove in 25 autos to Thompson's farm where they asked him to make a suitable contribution. Refusing, his house was painted yellow and he was then brought to town. Here he was given three more chances to go to the bank and make a contribution but refusing, was given a thorough coat of yellow, while the entire town, called out by the fire bell, stood by and jeered him.

The bank holding Thompson's money has returned it, refusing to handle his business, and all merchants in the town will refuse to take any money or buy from him.

CLARENCE WEED
DIES AT CAMP CUSTER

Pvt. Clarence Weed, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weed of this city, died at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Camp Custer after a brief illness.

Weed went to camp with a contingent from Holland six weeks ago and he has since been in training there. He made a fine record and arrangements had been made for his promotion to the rank of Corporal but death put its veto on this honor.

Before his departure for camp Mr. Weed was a prominent member of the local K. of P. lodge.

The deceased is survived by his mother at 128 West 12th street, this city, his father, J. H. Weed, Pueblo, Colorado, a sister, Mrs. Benj. Harris, 288 East 17th street and a brother, Charles Weed of Chicago.

WILL UNCLE SAM
CLEAN OUT HOLLAND
HARNESS SHOPS?

Herman Street was held up in Holland by Speed Cop Bontekoe for riding his motorcycle on Sunday which is against the gasless Sunday regulation.

Street came down Eighth street at a fair clip with a handkerchief flying from the handlebars. When stopped he pulled out his badge showing that he was a government inspector on his way to Grand Rapids. Street said that he was going to make a raid on Grand Rapids harness shops and commandeer the harness and pay the proprietor his price for them. The government needs the harnesses—was his comment. He did not state whether he would clean out the Holland shops.

SUGAR BEET PULLING
DEVICE IS SUCCESS

Owosso, Oct. 21—With only a few minor changes it is declared the beet pulling and topping machine recently invented by W. E. Smith of Middle-town, O., and tried out on the farm of County Road Commissioner Bailey will work perfectly. The Owosso Sugar company purchased the machine and will use it in their regular work as soon as several changes have been made by the inventor. Mr. Smith claims the machine will pull and top four acres of beets in a day.

BANQUET LADY BAND
AT HOTEL CAFE

As a fitting windup to a day of faithful playing the War Board of this city entertained the Ladies of the band at Hotel Holland Cafe Saturday evening.

The members of the band were surprised and especially pleased at the treatment accorded them by the citizens of Holland and especially the local board and at the windup of the spread, one of the ladies gave the following toast of appreciation:

A word of thanks from America's Lady Band

Direct from your government, from your Uncle Sam

Words cannot express this patriotic trust

Let's hope the Kaiser's dead when again we meet.

The lady band came without a guarantee of cash further than what the members were able to solicit by way of donations thru the sale of the button-hole tickets.

The band left Sunday afternoon for Kalamazoo.

VRIESLAND HAS A MYSTERIOUS
SHOOTING CASE

Jacob Rozema, 24 years old, who formerly lived in the vicinity of Holland, but had rented a farm one-half mile east of the Pere Marquette station at Vriesland is dead as the result of a gun shot wound received while hunting last week Friday. The man died Sunday afternoon of blood poisoning, and the case was not reported to Prosecutor Miles or the coroner at Holland, Dr. Daniel G. Cook, until Tuesday afternoon.

The coroner, prosecutor and deputy sheriff Hopkies drove to Vriesland immediately in order to investigate the mysterious circumstances surrounding the case.

They reached the home of the man, but no one was there at the time. The wife and child had gone to Zeeland and the door was found locked.

They gained access however, found the body, gave it a thorough examination and Coroner Dr. Cook pronounced that the man had died of infection. The officers began an investigation, which brought the following story to light.

About a week ago Gerrit Meeuwse, aged 21, of Holland township came to work for Jacob Rozema. On Friday afternoon he suggested that the two go hunting. Rozema had two guns, one a single barrel, and another a double barrel rusty shotgun, with one hammer missing. He took the single barrel himself and gave the one-hammered gun to Meeuwse.

Isaac De Witt, 19 years old, and a neighbor boy, also wanted to go along and proceeded home to get his firearms. The three hunters had just gone over the hill near the home, when Rozema discovered a rabbit, and fired at it. Apparently Meeuwse saw the same rabbit, although he did not remember having seen one. Anyway his rusty gun went off and the charge of bird shot entered the right leg of Jacob Rozema between the knee and the hip, blowing a hole, but did not break any bones.

Young DeWitt hastily called Dr. Masselink after they had taken the unfortunate young man home on a stone boat, and the doctor from Zeeland took care of the man until his death, which took place on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The young men at first refused to give the officers any details as to how the accident happened, but in this they were only following the instructions of Rozema, who realized that it was an accident, and constantly refused to say anything about the matter and pledged the two young men to keep the secret relative to the details of the case. This and the fact that the doctor had not reported the case to the coroner or the prosecutor surrounded the shooting with mystery.

Prosecutor Miles did not hear of the affair until Undertaker E. Pruijm of Zeeland, and Health Officer Nienhuis, also of Zeeland, reported the case, for they were mystified when they saw that the body bore a gun shot wound.

Coroner Cook, after he had thoroughly investigated the case, considered that an inquest was unnecessary and that the boys had told the truth, in fact were all broken up over the death of their friend.

The deputy game warden then proceeded to gather up all the guns and ammunition, claiming that hunting at this time of the year was illegal. The guns were sent to the state game warden where they will be destroyed.

Neither of the three hunters could show a license to hunt, and the deputy is considering the advisability of prosecuting the two living ones although it seems that their lesson must be pretty well learned by this time.

The funeral of Rozema will take place on Thursday afternoon at Vriesland.

DON'T SELL ANYTHING ON APPROVAL, SAYS MAYOR

Mayor Bosch requested the merchants of Holland Wednesday not to sell anything on approval and he likewise requested the people of the city not to buy anything on approval. This request is made so that no goods that have been in homes where there are cases of "flu" will be returned to stores and so that customers can be sure they are not buying goods that have been in such homes.

DOMESTIC BAKERY
QUITS BUSINESS

J. Oudemolen, proprietor of the Domestic Bakery, 156 West Sixteenth street, has gone out of business. The fresh loaves and little cookies will no longer come from this bake shop, for the proprietor did a thorough job of going out.

Instead of selling out he takes the hammer, saw and crowbar and tears the bakery down and today the Domestic is out of business after fifteen years of continued success.

Mr. Oudemolen and family have decided to live in the future in the balmy clime of lower California.

They will leave Holland this week for Los Angeles, after which the family will settle on a farm.

Directions about sending Christmas packages to soldiers may be obtained at the Red Cross headquarters.

Sheriff and Mrs. C. Dornbos motored to Holland Tuesday.

RESORT DAMAGE
SUITS OPENS
IN COURT

The suit of Mrs. Unis Stuefer, administratrix, widow of the late William Stuefer, former president of the First National bank at West Point, Neb., for $50,000 against the Macatawa Resort company and Swan Miller, its former manager, was called in Judge Clarence Session's district court Monday at 2 o'clock.

The suit is brought to recover $50,000 damages for the death of William Stuefer who, with Mrs. Sarah Giffert, 333 Benjamin avenue S. E. Grand Rapids, fell through the cement walk at Macatawa park when it gave way while they in company with Mrs. W. W. Huelster and Mrs. Unis Stuefer, who were just far enough ahead of the former two to escape the cave-in.

Mrs. Sara Giffert was seriously injured, suffering internal injuries and, it is claimed, has been a nervous wreck ever since. At the time of the accident the coroner's jury of this city returned a verdict of criminal negligence on the part of the responsible parties. For this reason the Macatawa Resort company will endeavor to prove that they were not the parties responsible for the condition of the sidewalk, although they paid the taxes on it and for the police patrol.

The case is expected to attract a good deal of attention and a hard fight is anticipated. The tragedy of which this suit is the aftermath is well remembered but many had forgotten the fact that the damage suit was still pending. It has been put over from time to time but it is likely that it will be fought to a finish now and that a verdict will be arrived at, thus definitely closing up the incident that resulted in the death of the Nebraska banker.

VOTE TO KEEP FARM BUREAU

Ottawa county will retain her farm bureau and agricultural agent. The board of supervisors listened to two reports of the committee on agriculture, the majority report declaring against the retention of the farm agent, and the minority report in favor of retaining the service. The minority report was adopted by a vote of 15 to 12. Later it was substituted for the majority report and unanimously adopted by the board every one of the members voting for it.

A test of strength has been expected since the board opened its session, on this proposition and the outcome has never been certain. Petitions have been coming in requesting the board to retain the county farm agent, and the sentiment in favor of the service has been most evident for some time. A number of the supervisors have been seen personally by persons deeply interested in the agricultural development of the county and retention of the service has been very strongly urged.

The proposition was referred to the agricultural committee of the board of supervisors for action at this session. This committee is composed of G. J. Veldman of Blendon, Gradus Luthers of Zeeland and J. Van Dyke of Zeeland. The report recommending the abolishing of the county agricultural agent's office in this county was submitted and signed by two members of the committee, Messrs. Veldman and Luthers. This report called attention to the straw vote at the last election.

Supervisor Van Dyke who refused to sign the majority report presented a report of his own and presented it as the minority report recommending that office of the farm agent be retained, calling attention to the need of such a service in the county and endorsing the work of D. L. Hagerman since the opening of the bureau. He presented his report and requested its adoption by the board.

Walter I. Lillie of Grand Haven moved the adoption of the minority report, and the fun started immediately. There were some pretty lively speeches, not the least peppery of which was that of M. F. Donahue of Grand Haven township. The vote displayed the strength of the board on the proposition and the score was as follows: For the minority report, Supervisors Ossewaarde, Allendale; Peterson of Crookery; Chamberlain of Georgetown; Donahue of Grand Haven township; Luidens of Olive; Heneveld of Park; Cline of Spring Lake; Smith of Tallmadge; Loutit, Van Arroy, Northouse, Lillie of Grand Haven city; Chris Nibbelink, George Van Landegend, Holland; Van Dyke, Zeeland, 15 votes.

Against the report, Veldman, Blendon; Chittick of Chester; J. Y. Huizinga, Holland township; Yntema of Jamestown; Avrill of Polkton; Tripp of Robinson; Hambleton of Wright; Luthers of Zeeland; John DeKoeyer of Holland; Simon Kleyn, Henry Vander Warf of Holland city; Rock of Zeeland, 12 votes.

Mr. Lillie then moved that the minority report be substituted for the majority report and the motion was carried unanimously by the board every member voting for it. During the entire contest there was not the sign of serious bitterness and the unanimous vote on final proposition proved the readiness of the board to adopt any measure of progressiveness which the majority believed right.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in, and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

HOLLAND TOURISTS REPORT FINE TRIP

The following is clipped from the "Buckleton News" of Buckleton, Washington:

Dr. and Mrs. H. Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hadden, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cappon of Holland, Michigan, stopped in Buckleton over night Wednesday, leaving Thursday morning en route to Los Angeles, California via Portland. They are motoring thru in a Dodge roadster and a Twin-Six Pathfinder car. They report having encountered but short stretches of bad roads over the Yellowstone Trail and the weather conditions were ideal except for possibly a day's run in rain and mud. Having left Holland Sept. 25, they made the run from Walla Walla through the Horse Heaven country and Battlesnake mountains and surmounted heavy grades without any difficulty.

MARTIN J. BROWN IS INFLUENZA VICTIM

Influenza followed by pneumonia claimed another victim in Holland Tuesday night when Martin J. Brown, 100 West Ninth street, died at his home after about a week's illness. Mr. Brown in his capacity as employee at the Pharnabueq Market was widely known throughout the city and had many friends. He was 23 years old and is survived by a wife and child.

The deceased was born in Holland and had lived in this city all his life. About a week ago he contracted a heavy cold which later developed into pneumonia. The funeral was private. It was held this afternoon.

CANNING COMPANY OFFERS TO SHIP FRUIT PITS

The Holland Canning Company has been saving all its fruit pits and sending them to the government to be used in the manufacture of a chemical to protect gas masks. A great many pits have been sent by this company, and many more will go later. A number of schools throughout the county have been saving pits likewise and have turned them over to the Canning Co. for shipment.

Manager Vander Ven Friday morning announced that he will be glad to accept the pits of any school or individual for shipment. They will be forwarded to the proper place free of charge and whatever is realized from them will be returned to the organization making the shipment. This offer is made as a convenience to all those who may wish to gather the pits but do not know where to ship them.

TO OFFER SILENT PRAYER AT NOON

The council has adopted a resolution for holding silent prayer services every day for the duration of the war. It is likely that the bell of the Third Reformed church will announce the time each day. The time set by Mayor Boech is high noon. At that time the bell will announce the services and people are asked to pause a moment to offer a silent prayer.

PERSISTENCE LANDS HIM IN STUDENTS' ARMY CORPS

John Vander Plough of Grand Haven, a sophomore at Hope, beat the doctors who rejected him for military service. Although he was far below the weight he managed to increase his weight enough to enable him to enroll in the S. A. T. C. at Hope.

HOPE S. A. T. C. RAISES $6,000.00 IN LIBERTY BONDS

Though the Hope College unit of the Student Army Training Corps is a small one compared with those at the larger colleges and universities, its members are as patriotic as any. A strong proof of this is found in the way they have helped along the fourth Liberty Loan. On Wednesday night an enthusiastic meeting was held at the college and at that time total subscription from the Hope Unit was increased from $3,400 to $6,000. The four officers of the unit took out $500 and the men subscribed the rest. The $3,400 was subscribed a few days ago but the men felt by straining their resources a bit they could still do more and hence they raised it to $6,000. Lieut. Friedlund, in charge of this work, gave the men a talk, and Lieut. Jacobsen, in charge of the unit here, read a telegram from the department at Washington asking for a maximum subscription.

Aside from the money raised by the unit as a unit some of the members have taken out subscriptions in the city. The unit is raising subscriptions as an organization. The commander makes a report to Washington direct and not to any city or county organization.

No suggestion of coercion is used in obtaining the subscriptions. The men are merely given the opportunity to subscribe, the idea being that they are doing their full part anyway by offering themselves to Uncle Sam. But in spite of this nearly every member of the unit subscribed, thus setting a splendid example for the rest of the city.

Kryn C. Kalkman arrived safely overseas.

STORES CLOSED AT 6 O'CLOCK FROM NOW ON

Beginning Wednesday night all the stores in Holland must close their doors at six o'clock. From now on until further notice no store in the city of any kind or description will be open after six, except restaurants and drug stores. Drug stores however will be allowed to sell only drugs and the restaurants will be allowed only to feed people; they cannot sell such things as cigars, candy, etc., articles that are sold in other stores which are closed. In this way the stores closed by the health officer are protected against unfair competition.

This decision was taken by Health Officer Godfrey Wednesday forenoon after a conference with a number of merchants in Holland. The health officer is determined that there shall be no crowds in the stores and the merchants represented to him that it would be practically impossible to prevent this on Saturday evening. Hence it was decided to close all evenings. It may mean some slight inconvenience to some people but convenience is not to be considered when it comes to a matter of public safety.

It is likely that this order will be in effect for some time. The indications now are that it may last several weeks, since the order will not be lifted until all danger of the spread of the "flu" has passed. Hence people will have to make arrangements to do all their shopping during the day.

The merchants are complying cheerfully with the health order, realizing that it is for the best interests of the city. It may mean something of a curtailment of business but the merchants are patriotic enough to make the sacrifice. In fact the order is partly at their suggestion and will be carried out strictly to the letter.

PNEUMONIA CLAIMS ZEELAND WOMAN

Mrs. John Westveld died at her home in Zeeland at the age of 36 years. She was taken sick last week Thursday with pneumonia when later complications set in which caused her death.

Mrs. Vanden Hof-Westveld came to this country 13 years ago and lived in Zeeland about 9 years. About three years ago her first husband, Dirk Van den Hof, died. Last winter she married John Westveld who now survives her with her small children. Besides these her father, three brothers and one sister also survive. The father and one brother are still in the Netherlands, one sister in Java, East India, and two brothers in Holland, Michigan.

Funeral services were held Friday, at 2 o'clock from the home.

POOL ROOM PROPRIETORS WANT ORDINANCE AMENDED

Proprietors of pool rooms have made a request that the ordinance relative to the conducting of pool rooms be so amended that soft drinks and lunches can be served. Some of the aldermen object only because soft drinks would soon be off the market because of the sugar shortage and that it would be wiser to wait until after the war. The matter was left to the ordinance committee to make further report.

William H. TenHakken, a Hope student, has been honored with a captaincy of Company, 54th Pioneer Infantry A. E. F. Ten Haken was one of the first undergraduates to be admitted to Fort Sheridan training school and became a first lieutenant 12 months ago. He was former manager of Hope's Basketball team.

STATE OFFICIALS AT LOCAL MEETING

E. K. Mohr, of New Buffalo, treasurer of the Michigan State Sunday School association, delivered a forceful and interesting address on "Evangelism" at the quarterly teachers' meeting of the Third Reformed church Sunday school Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geerlings. Mr. Mohr held the closest attention of the 50 teachers and friends for more than an hour and illustrated his talks with appropriate and telling experiences gathered in his trip throughout the state.

"Evangelism," said Mr. Mohr, was only the telling of the gospel story. The "G" stood for good news, the "o" for the order and command, the "e" for the scriptures, the "p" for the program, the "e" for everybody, and the "l" for life. This, he said, summed up the whole word "gospel" in a nutshell.

Supt. H. G. Pelgrim had charge of the meeting and the question box was in charge of Mrs. G. H. Dubbink. A piano and a vocal solo were rendered respectively by Miss Henrietta Warnshuis and Miss Henrietta Bloemendaal. Questions on different phases of Sunday school work were answered by Henry Geerlings, Henry G. Pelgrim, Rev. M. Filipe, Miss Henrietta Warnshuis and Rev. W. J. Van Kersen. Light refreshments were served. The program closed with the singing of the fifth verse of "America," "God Bless Our Splendid Men."

Zeeland Public schools were closed this week because of the influenza epidemic.

SUPERVISORS MUST APPOINT COMMISSIONER

Work looms up ahead of the Ottawa County Board of Supervisors at the beginning of the second week of the session. There was no session Monday morning but the board arrived in the afternoon for the opening meeting of the week. There are still a great many matters in the hands of the various committees and these will be reported out during the week. In fact there is enough routine business alone to require the entire attention of the supervisors, without any outside matters popping up.

The auditing committee has not as yet submitted its report to the board for final action, but it is expected that this report will be ready toward the end of the present week. The members of the board were not at all sure that they would be able to finish up their work at the end of the present week and the session may have to be extended a few days over the usual period.

The board, however, has already accomplished a great deal of progressive legislation. Last week the annual good roads appropriation assured the completion of the program of the county road commission which calls for some essential road work during the next 12 months. The board's vote to retain the services of the Ottawa county agricultural agent was another move in the right direction, and the action put Ottawa again in the list of the progressive counties of the state.

At the present session the board will be called upon to appoint a member of the county road commissioner as the term of Rokus H. Cook expires in January and under the new law the commissioners are appointed by the supervisors rather than elected by the people, it is understood that he is expected to be opposed by a number of other candidates.

J. I. Gibson, secretary of the West Michigan Development bureau was expected to appear before the board with a request for support for the bureau. Ottawa has retained her membership in the bureau for a number of years and is expected to continue it. This year the bureau is engaged in a new movement, that of helping to find employment and farms in Michigan for returned soldiers.

READING ROOM CLOSED IN "FLU" ORDER

The city library will not close as a result of the "flu" epidemic, but the city reading room has been closed to the public. This decision was reached by Health Officer Godfrey Monday when the matter was referred to him by the library board for a ruling. The circulation of books is looked upon as perfectly safe, but the congregating of people in the reading rooms is considered to be a violation of the governor's closing order. Especially now that the schools are not in session large numbers of children could be expected to congregate in the reading room, and there are also usually more than a dozen adults at the reading tables most of the time. Hence the reading room has been put on the taboo list.

Patrons of the library who come to the desk for books are requested not to gather there in little crowds but to wait in the hall until their turns come and then step forward for their books.

REV. J. F. BOWERMAN GETS DOLLAR A MILESTONE

One of the most enjoyable functions ever held at the M. E. church was the reception given Wednesday evening in honor of the return of Rev. J. F. Bowerman to the pastorate of the local church. About two hundred of the members of the church gathered to do honor to their pastor.

Contrary to former custom, only the members participated in the event the welcome of the other organizations of the city being taken for granted, and as it was put by one of the speakers, it was a "family reunion" of the Methodists. Mrs. McClellan presided during the program, every number of which was unique and enjoyable. Mr. Olinger gave a welcome in rhyme in which the characteristics of the "dominie" were cleverly described. F. T. Miles made a plea for even better unity and cooperation than has been given in the past, and sounded the keynote of a better year's work. Austin Harrington starting with his favorite subject of good roads, disclosed the fact that Rev. Bowerman had just passed his forty-fifth milestone in life's journey, and presented him on behalf of the congregation with a silver "marker" for each one. Mr. Bowerman's young son, who also had a birthday the same day, was likewise remembered. Mr. Bowerman replied in well-chosen words expressing his appreciation of their thoughtfulness.

Music was furnished by the Sunday school orchestra, also by some young ladies of the congregation who sang appropriate parodies on popular songs. Mr. Robert Evans sang "Song of Thanksgiving" by Alltisen, and "Recessional," De Koven. Mrs. Waltz delighted the audience with two operatic selections, "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," Balfe, and "Thou art a Mystery," Verdi.

Mrs. John Pieper spent Thursday in Zeeland visiting relatives.

COLLEGE OBEYS THE "FLU" ORDER TO THE LETTER

There are no cases of "flu" at Hope College, either in the barracks or among the other students, but the college authorities are taking no chances. They are living strictly up to the letter and the spirit of the health order closing the institution. The students who are living on the campus in the dormitories are under the control of the college authorities. They are not allowed to go to their homes in other cities, or if they do, they are required to stay there, practically under quarantine so far as the college is concerned. Those who live at home in Holland are more or less out of the control of the college authorities.

The students living on the campus have been given a supervised study period from 8 to 12 in the forenoon and from 7 to 9:30 at night. This includes all students in the dormitories and those in barracks. Each person does his studying in his own room and no congregating of students is allowed. Lessons are assigned each morning by posting them on bulletin boards. The work of the college goes on in every way except that no laboratory work is done and there are no class room recitations. When the "flu" order is lifted examinations will be held in the supervised work that is now being done in the students' rooms. When books are wanted from the library they are supplied to the individual students, no student being allowed to visit the library himself.

The plan is working excellently, President Dimmett announces. Good work is being done and it is believed that almost as much work will be done under these conditions as would have been done under normal conditions. Nothing is being left undone to safeguard the health of the students.

WAS ON VESSEL SUNK IN HARBOR

Clarence Romeyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Romeyn of this city, is home on furlough. Mr. Romeyn was on the United States vessel that was mysteriously sunk in New York harbor a week or more ago. His story of the catastrophe is a thrilling one. There was no panic he declares and that is the reason why the loss of life was so slight. With others he helped to get the sick off the vessel.

Mr. Romeyn since entering the service has been promoted 4 times. He now has the rank of first-class pharmacist. At one time he was employed in the Chas. Dykstra drug store in this city.

THIRTEEN NEW CASES REPORTED WEDNESDAY NOON

Health Officer Godfrey Wednesday noon reported by telegraph thirteen new cases of "flu" to Surgeon General Rupert Blue of the United States Health Department at Washington, D. C., through the Michigan State Board of Health. There has been a rapid increase in the disease throughout the city during the past 24 hours and the indications are that Holland is but just entering upon the epidemic which in some other cities has spent its force. Tuesday the number of new cases reported was but four and the day before there was none. There are at present, so far as they have been reported to the local health officer, between 35 and 40 cases of the disease in Holland.

There is further danger in the advance report from the weather department that this section of the country is in for some early touches of winter. Bad weather will mean an increase in the epidemic, it is believed. This statement is not publicly made to scare people unduly but to warn them to discount the effect of bad weather as much as possible. The reason why bad weather acts as it does in the spread of the disease is because in bad weather the average man denies himself a full supply of fresh air. He sticks to the old foggy notions that drafts are the causes of "colds" and hence he avoids the out-of-door air as much as possible. And fresh air is the surest possible help in preventing the spread of the "flu". By making certain that they are not cutting themselves from a full supply of pure air all the time, especially at night by keeping bed-room windows wide open, people can help prevention along to a great degree.

And not under any circumstances should anyone get into a crowd or stay in a crowd if he finds himself in one. There is no need to ask the health officer whether this or that gathering can be held. Each person should assume for himself that no gathering of more than ten persons can be held and each person should keep himself away from his fellows as much as circumstances will allow. That is the best way to help curb the disease in Holland.

WIRE RECEIVED THAT EG- MOND ROGERS IS DEAD

A wire has been received that Egmond Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rogers, 10th street, died of pneumonia at Camp Taylor, Ky. The body will be shipped to this city for burial.

PLACE BAN ON HOLLAND'S ICE CREAM PARLORS

All ice cream parlors and soda fountains in the city have been closed by order of Health Officer Godfrey in an effort to curb the "flu" epidemic in Holland. Wednesday not a dish of ice cream was sold anywhere in the city.

This action was taken when it was found that people persisted in congregating in these places. The general rule that in no place in the city should more than ten persons come together is the basis for the action. Health Officer Godfrey found that in some of the ice cream parlors there were crowds gathered at the little tables, some eating cream and others just sitting there visiting. It appears that the closing down of all other activities had increased the ice cream trade. This congregating of people at close quarters was believed to constitute a positive danger and the immediate closing order was the result.

In all other stores in the city the general rule has been laid down by the health officer of one customer to a clerk. No crowding in the stores will be allowed under any consideration. Each store has been asked to keep a man at the entrance to see to it that not more than ten persons are in the place at a time and to keep the customers circulating as much as possible.

"Do your Saturday shopping, today," is the slogan that Health Officer Godfrey is now suggesting to the people of Holland. He advises them not to wait till the end of the week because that will mean the usual crowding in the stores, and if large crowds of customers collect in any place the store will be closed without warning. Crowding in stores either now or Saturday will positively not be permitted the health officers announce.

CAPT. LEENHOUTS FINDS MUCH "FLU" IN THE SOUTH

Dr. A. Leenhouts, now "Captain Leenhouts," writes from Camp Greenleaf, Chickamauga Park, Ga., that the "flu" is as prevalent throughout the South as it is up North. Sunday, the day when the letter was written, all passes at camp were canceled. "So far we are still looking anxiously for the sunny South," the letter continues. "It has rained every day since we arrived. Not the pleasant kind of an introduction, but from general observation I feel sure that this is a most wonderful country."

BOYS WARNED SHOOTING MUST STOP IN CITY

The shooting of birds with air-guns within the city limits must stop. This is the mandate issued by Chief of Police Van Ry. Just at present there is a regular epidemic of bird shooting in Holland and scores of youngsters make this one of their principal outdoor sports. But it is against the law not only but is dangerous to people.

Already two accidents resulting from this indiscriminate air-gun shooting have been reported to police headquarters. The boys responsible of course did not expect to hurt anyone but it is quite easy for them to miss their aim and shoot a person instead of a bird. To guard against this all air-gun shooting in the city is taboo from now on. Any boy caught disobeying this order will be summarily placed under arrest.

The chief of police's order is directed chiefly to parents however. Parents are asked to take air-guns away from the youngsters and if accidents occur because of not obeying this request the parents will naturally be held accountable.

The boys in Holland just now are doing a great deal of "night shooting." They go in groups of three or four, one member of the group armed with a flash-light, the others with the guns. In this way they visit the vines along the porches in search of sparrows. The flash-light finds the birds and the boys with their guns shoot them.

This and all other kinds of shooting must stop in Holland immediately, the chief declares.

HIGHER SALARIES ARE ASKED FOR DEPUTY SHERIFFS

At the opening session of the Ottawa County board of supervisors, a petition was presented to the board asking for a raise in salary for the deputy sheriffs of the county. The increase was asked to bring the pay up to $95 per month for each deputy. The petition was referred to the proper committee by the board for recommendation and further action.

ANOTHER ALLEGED LIQUOR VIOLATOR TAKEN

Officer Spangler of Grand Haven made a complaint against Phil Schipper who he alleges had a bottle of liquor in his possession when he was seen by the officer. The allegation is that the liquor was secured by the local man from the Chicago boat, when the officer gave chase and secured the evidence. He will be held under the prohibition law.

CITY NURSE NOW ON THE JOB IN HOLLAND

Holland's new city nurse system is in working order now. Miss Alma Koertje, the nurse employed by the committee in charge of this service, has been in Holland about a week and she has entered upon her work. It took the new nurse a few days to get settled and to become acquainted with Holland and its needs. But the work in the schools is now beginning and from now on the pupils will have the health protection for which the school board, the city council and various organizations in the city have been working for a long time.

Miss Koertje will do a great deal of work in the schools, since that is the logical way of looking after the health interests of the people in the most effective way. But her work will not be confined to the schools alone. She is the city visiting nurse and she will serve the public of the city of Holland in the same way as visiting nurses do in other cities.

Through the work of Miss Blanche E. Post, Holland has become familiar with this service. But with the new system in working order, there will not be as much of a haphazardness about the service as was necessarily the case with a county nurse on the job who could give only a small part of her time to this city. Miss Koertje will give all her time to this city alone.

The new nurse is getting acquainted with the different schools and is vigorously attacking the health problems that present themselves here.

The schools in Holland were closed at noon Monday by order of Health Officer Godfrey, Supt. E. E. Fell and the Holland City Nurse. At the meeting of the board of health Saturday the decision as to whether or not the schools would be closed was left to those three city officials. They were disposed Saturday to keep the schools open on the theory that the pupils could be better controlled there than at home. But circumstances shaped themselves in such a way Monday forenoon that the decision was reached to close the schools Monday. Hope College is included in the order.

Scores of pupils had to be sent home this forenoon by reason of the fact that there were "colds" or cases of "grip" in their homes. The task of weeding out these pupils developed to such large proportions that it was finally decided it would be more practicable to send them all home.

But that makes it all the more necessary for parents to take unusual precautions, the health board believes. It is just as necessary to safeguard children out of school as in school and parents should see to it that their children are not exposed and that they do not expose others.

"It rests largely with the public," said Health Officer Godfrey, "as to whether or not the epidemic is to be checked here. The great danger is that people will make light of a 'cold' and expose others wilfully. Even the slightest 'cold' should at this time be looked upon as potentially dangerous and no one has a moral right to expose anyone else, even if he himself things lightly of it. And especially is that the case with the children. The family that allows some of its children to come into promiscuous contact with others when there are cases of even the common 'colds' in the family is guilty of crime under the present circumstances. This cannot be emphasized too strongly."

LIBRARY GETS FINE SET OF BOOKS

Dr. J. Ackerman Coles of New York has presented the Hope College library with a beautiful set of books that will add materially to the art treasure in this city. The books are in ten volumes, each volume containing 10 large sized mounted original etchings, photographs, paintings in oil, and facsimiles in color, all in cases, each case containing ten pictures. It is "The Book of Wealth" by Herbert Howe Bancroft, describing wealth in relation to material and intellectual progress and achievement. It is an edition de luxe, No. 39 of a limited edition of 400 copies published.

Among the pictures are: The Mosque of Omar, The Cathedral of Cologne, Windsor Castle, The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, Kremlin, Palace of Sennacherib, Golden Horn, Gate of Teheran, Gateway of Ichatao in the Great Wall of China, Royal Palace of Bangkok, Brooklyn Bridge, Battle of Manila Bay, Pompeii restored, Interior of St. Peter's Rome, etc.

Arrangements will probably be made by the college to give the general public of Holland an opportunity to see this set of books and to examine the etchings.

WAS DOLLAR DAY IN CITY BIG SUCCESS

Dollar Day opened in Holland bright and early, and with the opening of the business places at seven o'clock, shoppers rushed in, in order to be early birds at the bargain fest at which the merchants were the hosts.

Thursday was like a spring day, warm and balmy with a gentle south-west wind blowing. It was such a day as makes every one feel cheerful.

Thursday all roads leading into Holland were popular thoroughfares and a veritable parade of autos and rigs traveled in the direction of this city. It is doubtful if ever as many shoppers have appeared upon the streets of Holland at any one time before.

That the day was a success and that the shoppers were pleased with the treatment of the merchants, is shown from the comments of the business men who have volunteered to make statements, and who thank the citizens of Holland and vicinity for participating in Holland's second annual dollar day.

Henry R. Brink, Chairman of the Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce:—"The merchants and I are more than satisfied. It was a grand business day. The merchants gave bargains that were bargains and the customers went away satisfied. The local press of this city handled the publicity end admirably and the business men of the city of Holland wish to thank them for their efforts."

Nicholas Spritsma of the Spritsma Shoe store:—"It was a splendid business—never was better; let it come again."

Fred Beuwkes of the J. A. Brouwer Co.:—"We had a remarkable day of business. We are more than satisfied and wish to thank the newspaper men for the thorough publicity given the day."

John Vandersluis, dry goods:—"I have been in business twenty-four years and in all that time I have not had a day in which I sold as many goods, as on this dollar day. We must keep this custom up, in fact, should at least have two a year."

John Van Tattenhoven, of Boter's Clothing store:—"It was simply great. They were standing in front of our store at 7 o'clock in the morning and the rush kept up until 6:30 at night. The whole force went dinnerless because they had no time to eat. Anyway this helps Hoover's policy."

Ben Du Mes of Du Mes Bros. Dry goods store:—"Our sales yesterday were tripled of what they have ever been before. Saying that we are satisfied with dollar day is putting it mild. It was simply immense, and what is more the customers were all satisfied. The newspaper men of the city should get a full mead of credit in giving the day thorough publicity."

"Enterprise Shoe Store:—"My day's business was very satisfactory. I believe in dollar day."

Stevenson the Jeweler:—"It was a fine, successful dollar day."

I. Altman, of French Quack Store:—"I have always believed in advertising, and have followed out my belief. Dollar day certainly shows that advertising pays. If you don't believe it you should have seen my store from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. on dollar day and it would have convinced the most skeptical one."

Jake Lokker, of Lokker-Butgers Co.:—"Never in the history of our firm have we done such a large day's business, altho a little short of help because of the war we managed to handle the customers to the best of our ability, and I am sure that the buyers were well satisfied with the treatment accorded them by the merchants of this city."

DeVries & Dornbos:—"Both partners said you can't put it too strong for us. We have at least tripled our sales over any other day in the history of this firm. Let dollar day come often. We wish to thank the local press for their part in the success of dollar day."

Mr. Wilson at Woolworth's:—"Dollar day I knew would be a success, and I think we should have more sale days in Holland."

Cook Bros. Music House:—"We are more than satisfied with the way dollar day treated us, you can not put this too strong."

John Rutgers Clothing Co.:—"You can say for me that Dollar Day was a great success."

A. Steketee & Sons, Dry Goods and groceries:—"Dollar Day this year was even better than last year for us and that is going some."

A. Peters Five & Ten Cent Store:—"I have always contended that such days as Dollar Day are a good thing to stimulate trade. Sales days are no new departure in other city, why should not Holland lead? We should be prepared to give some real bargain leaders more often and thus induce customers to come to this city to trade. Have them get the habit as it were."

Dick Boter:—"That the customers were satisfied is the most important part of Dollar Day and apparently they are. The day was a big success to my way of thinking."

NEW POLITICAL DEAL TO COME AT WAR CLOSE

When the boys come home there will be a new deal in politics. Hardly a day passes that this opinion is not expressed by some political leader. By the boys, they mean the men from Michigan who are now fighting for democracy somewhere "over there."

If the war ends next year, or should the treaty of peace be signed prior to the primary election in August 1920, it is confidently predicted by those who follow the trend of political events, that the candidates for governor on both republican and democratic tickets will be men from Michigan who have seen active service. It is believed, also, that this applies to lieutenant governor, many members of congress, legislative and county candidates.

As was the case following the Civil war, it is believed there will be a general disposition on the part of the people to honor with public office, the men who offered their lives to their country. When the state conventions are held by the two leading political parties, it is predicted that men who have won honors on the battlefield will be the successful contenders. It is yet too early to predict the probable candidates, but political dopsters are confident that the tickets will be made up mainly of returned soldiers.

This condition prevailed for many years following the Civil war. The Spanish-American war veterans have been successful in many political contests. Friends of Truman H. Newberry pointed out his Spanish war record and placed emphasis on the fact that he and his two sons are now in service of his country which gave him many votes in the recent senatorial primary.

"There will be nothing good enough for the returned soldiers, in the estimation of the general public and we may just as well make up our minds to abdicate in their favor," said a prominent state representative a few day ago.

Zeeland Public schools were closed this week because of the influenza epidemic.

WATCH FOR YOUR ORDER NUMBER

(Beginning this week serial numbers and order number of registrants in second district of Ottawa county will be published in the City News. There are more than 3,000 names in all. Because of limited space these cannot all be printed at once, but the list will be continued from week to week until all numbers and names are printed. The draft board advises all registrants to look for their own names and numbers and make a note of them, thus saving the board from constantly answering questions on this point. The number before the name is in each case the serial number and the one after the name the "order number," or the number in the order of which the registrant will be called.

WAS DOLLAR DAY IN CITY BIG SUCCESS

Dollar Day opened in Holland bright and early, and with the opening of the business places at seven o'clock, shoppers rushed in, in order to be early birds at the bargain fest at which the merchants were the hosts.

Thursday was like a spring day, warm and balmy with a gentle southwest wind blowing. It was such a day as makes every one feel cheerful.

Thursday all roads leading into Holland were popular thoroughfares and a veritable parade of autos and rigs traveled in the direction of this city. It is doubtful if ever as many shoppers have appeared upon the streets of Holland at any one time before. That the day was a success and that the shoppers were pleased with the treatment of the merchants, is shown from the comments of the business men who have volunteered to make statements, and who thank the citizens of Holland and vicinity for participating in Holland's second annual dollar day.

Henry R. Brink, Chairman of the Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce:—"The merchants and I are more than satisfied. It was a grand business day. The merchants gave bargains that were bargains and the customers went away satisfied. The local press of this city handled the publicity end admirably and the business men of the city of Holland wish to thank them for their efforts."

Nicholas Spruietsma of the Spruietsma Shoe store:—"It was a splendid business—never was better; let it come again."

Fred Beuwkes of the J. A. Brouwer Co.:—"We had a remarkable day of business. We are more than satisfied and wish to thank the newspaper men for the thorough publicity given the day."

John Vandersluis, dry goods:—"I have been in business twenty-four years and in all that time I have not had a day in which I sold as many goods, as on this dollar day. We must keep this custom up, in fact, should at least have two a year."

John Van Tattenhoven, of Boter's Clothing store:—"It was simply great. They were standing in front of our store at 7 o'clock in the morning and the rush kept up until 6:30 at night. The whole force went dinnerless because they had no time to eat. Anyway this helps Hoover's policy."

Ben Du Mez of Du Mez Bros. Dry goods store:—"Our sales yesterday were tripled of what they have ever been before. Saying that we are satisfied with dollar day is putting it mild. It was simply immense, and what is more the customers were all satisfied. The newspaper men of the city should get a full mead of credit in giving the day thorough publicity."

"Enterprise Shoe Store:—"My day's business was very satisfactory. I believe in dollar day."

Stevenson the Jeweler:—"It was a fine, successful dollar day."

I. Altman, of French Clock Store:—"I have always believed in advertising, and have followed out my belief. Dollar day certainly shows that advertising pays. If you don't believe it you should have seen my store from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. on dollar day and it would have convinced the most skeptical one."

Jake Lokker, of Lokker-Butgers Co.:—"Never in the history of our firm have we done such a large day's business, altho a little short of help because of the war we managed to handle the customers to the best of our ability, and I am sure that the buyers were well satisfied with the treatment accorded them by the merchants of this city."

DeVries & Dornbos:—"Both partners said you can't put it too strong for us. We have at least tripled our sales over any other day in the history of this firm. Let dollar day come often. We wish to thank the local press for their part in the success of dollar day."

Mr. Wilson at Woolworth's:—"Dollar day I knew would be a success, and I think we should have more sale days in Holland."

Cook Bros. Music House:—"We are more than satisfied with the way dollar day treated us, you can not put this too strong."

John Rutgers Clothing Co.:—"You can say for me that Dollar Day was a great success."

A. Steketee & Sons, Dry Goods and groceries:—"Dollar Day this year was even better than last year for us and that is going some."

A. Peters Five & Ten Cent Store:—"I have always contended that such days as Dollar Day are a good thing to stimulate trade. Sales days are no new departure in other city, why should not Holland lead? We should be prepared to give some real bargain leaders more often and thus induce customers to come to this city to trade. Have them get the habit as it were."

Dick Boter:—"That the customers were satisfied is the most important part of Dollar Day and apparently they are. The day was a big success to my way of thinking."

NEW POLITICAL DEAL TO COME AT WAR CLOSE

When the boys come home there will be a new deal in politics. Hardly a day passes that this opinion is not expressed by some political leader. By the boys, they mean the men from Michigan who are now fighting for democracy somewhere "over there."

If the war ends next year, or should the treaty of peace be signed prior to the primary election in August 1920, it is confidently predicted by those who follow the trend of political events, that the candidates for governor on both republican and democratic tickets will be men from Michigan who have seen active service. It is believed, also, that this applies to lieutenant governor, many members of congress, legislative and county candidates.

As was the case following the Civil war, it is believed there will be a general disposition on the part of the people to honor with public office, the men who offered their lives to their country. When the state conventions are held by the two leading political parties, it is predicted that men who have won honors on the battlefield will be the successful contenders. It is yet too early to predict the probable candidates, but political dopesters are confident that the tickets will be made up mainly of returned soldiers.

This condition prevailed for many years following the Civil war. The Spanish-American war veterans have been successful in many political contests. Friends of Truman H. Newberry pointed out his Spanish war record and placed emphasis on the fact that he and his two sons are now in service of his country which gave him many votes in the recent senatorial primary.

"There will be nothing good enough for the returned soldiers, in the estimation of the general public and we may just as well make up our minds to abdicate in their favor," said a prominent state representative a few days ago.

Zeeland Public schools were closed this week because of the influenza epidemic.

WATCH FOR YOUR ORDER NUMBER

(Beginning this week serial numbers and order number of registrants in second district of Ottawa county will be published in the City News. There are more than 3,000 names in all. Because of limited space these cannot all be printed at once, but the list will be continued from week to week until all numbers and names are printed. The draft board advises all registrants to look for their own names and numbers and make notes of them, thus saving the board from constantly answering questions on this point.) The number before the name is in each case the serial number and the one after the name the "order number," or the number in the order of which the registrant will be called.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

We are pleased to see that the Republicans of Allegan county have nominated John Eppink, of Graafschap, for the office of County Treasurer. Mr. Eppink has filled the office very creditably during the past two years, and he certainly deserves re-election.

The grading of East Twelfth street will be completed this week. The improvement in the looks of the street is so great that the property owners on the street are in ecstasies over the job.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Married Tuesday evening, October 16, by the Rev. E. Bos, Miss Johanna Van Haften of this city, to Mr. Arie Wierenga of Chicago. The happy couple left for Chicago Thursday, in which city they will make their future home.

Wopke Diekema of Holland township, was elected by the Board of Supervisors to succeed G. Van Schelven of this city as one of the superintendents of the county poor.

Mrs. Julia Butler sister of Mr. Chas. Odell of this city died at her residence in Muskegon last Monday. The deceased was 76 years old. The funeral occurred Thursday.

FIRST MEETING OF LINCOLN

SCHOOL CLUB IS HELD

The first meeting of the year of the Lincoln school P.T. club was held on Tuesday evening. A large attendance was secured, most of the parents of the pupils being present. Community singing conducted by Prof. Nykerk was followed by an address by Prof. Nykerk. Three year old Allan Drost sang a solo, and Miss Mary Geegh gave a reading. The new city nurse spoke and the Central Avenue orchestra gave a number of selections. Miss Mills sang a solo. The children of the school also took part in the program. The next meeting will be on the third Tuesday in November.

SHERIFF DORNBOOS TAKES

MAN WANTED IN IOWA

Sheriff Dornbos and Deputy Sheriff Ed Boongaard went to Wright township Monday and picked up L. W. Lane, who is wanted by the Sheriff of Sedar county, Iowa, for obtaining money under false pretenses, it is alleged. He is being held here pending the arrival of the Iowa officers.

HUDSONVILLE PASTOR OB-

SERVES ANNIVERSARY

Rev. H. Walkoten, pastor of the Christian Reformed church at Hudsonville, is celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination as a gospel minister. Mr. Walkoten is a native of Germany and has served the Hudsonville church for seven years.

FATHER AND SON

BOTH ANSWER

COUNTRY'S CALL

In 1898 Gilles P. Hiller of Grand Haven was a member of Company F of the Michigan National Guards. He was a soldier in the Spanish war and laid down his life for his country at that time.

Edward Hiller, a son, was then a babe in arms but true to the spirit that animated his father, he also joined Company F of Grand Haven after he had grown to manhood.

When the difficulties with Germany arose he was amongst the first to volunteer. He has been through many of the great battles in which Michigan soldiers have made a name for themselves on the pages of history.

JUDGE CROSS

CLOSES COURT ON

ACCOUNT OF 'FLU'

'Flu' has even gotten into the circuit court of Allegan county and no attorney, jury, or judge can subdue it. Judge Cross would like to hold it in contempt of court and send it to jail, but in this case the all powerful magistrate is powerless. Circuit court was to have convened Monday, but the Spanish Flu is so bad in Allegan city and parts of the county that Judge Cross deemed it wiser to adjourn court until a later date. For that reason Sheriff Hillman was instructed to inform the jury men not to appear.

Should the influenza not abate soon the cases on the October calendar may go over the term and not be tried until December.

TWO MEN WERE NABBED

BY SHERIFF DORNBOOS

Len Duinker and Curtis Sparks were taken into custody Thursday morning by Sheriff Dornbos, as they were coming from the ferry Grand Haven at that port. The two men had whiskey in their possession, it is alleged and a charge of violation of the Michigan prohibition law will be lodged against them. The sheriff and his deputies have been informed that there is considerable liquor running going on into Grand Haven from the west side of the lake, and they are camping on the trail of alleged offenders.

TABOO THINGS

MADE IN GERMANY

The Forward Movement club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Homfeld, 196 East 13th street. The club went on record as pledging its members not to purchase anything made in Germany until such a time when the Germans shall become as human as the people in America and other civilized countries.

The paper of the evening was read by Mr. Homfeld, whose subject was "Women Labor During and After the War." Mr. Homfeld called attention to three classes of woman labor, those who work for patriotic reasons, those who work as a matter of vanity "to be in the swim," and those who work out of economic necessity. The writer declared that women labor would become quite a problem after the war when the millions of men whose places they have taken come back to civil life and he advocated that the government should require employers to pay women the same wages as men for similar work so that the competition should not be unfair.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Ry, West 15th street.

CLOCK GOES BACK TO

OLD TIME ON OCTOBER 27

ORIGINALLY PLANNED

No further effort will be made by congress to continue the existing day light saving law, and the hands of the clocks will be turned back an hour on Oct. 27, as originally planned. This decision was reached Friday at a conference between congressional leaders and Chairman Baruch of the War Industries board, who had recommended that the law remain in force for the period of the war.

OTTAWA COUNTY

AUTOS FOR JAPAN

The first consignment of ten Panhard Motor trucks built in Grand Haven have started on their long journey to far off Japan. The trucks are consigned to Yokohama, and there are ten of them making the long journey together. The trucks are all freighted in the knock down, in a group of ten boxes, each box containing one truck. The shipment of the ten boxes completes the first Japanese order for the machines.

The Panhard Truck plant at the county seat is now busy filling orders as rapidly as material can be secured and the machines turned out. There are many orders ahead and the future looks promising to the Grand Haven plant. The truck itself, is making a good impression wherever it goes and in all cases it is standing up to any vehicle of its kind now being put on the market. Everywhere it goes it goes it is bringing good publicity to the city, where it is made.

APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO PLAN A

MEMORIAL

Mayor Bosch today appointed a committee of aldermen who are to act with a committee of the War Board in the matter of erecting a memorial in Holland for the boys from this city who fall on the battle field in France. The appointment of the committee was authorized by the common council at its recent meeting. Following are the members named by the Mayor: Ald. Wiersema, chairman; Ald. Blue, Ald. Smenge, Ald. De Vries, Ald. Lawrence and Ald. Dobbens.

This committee will join hands with the committee of the War Board for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements. What form the memorial will take has not yet been decided.

SERIOUS AUTO

ACCIDENT ON

COLUMBIA AVE.

C. Dykhouse, employee of the Canning factory came to town early with his wife and Ford for Dollar day shopping today.

At the corner of Columbia Ave. and 16th street, he met a motorcycle driven by Bert Holberda. The two tried to dodge one another in passing but failed. The result was that Mr. Holberda took a header over his handlebars and his motorcycle was squeezed between the Ford and a telephone pole.

When the Ford backed away it was found that the motorcycle was nearly bent double, that the axle of the Ford was bent, and that the nose of Mr. Dykhouse was cut on the windshield.

HANGS OUT FLAG

OUT OF DOORS

The first Reformed church of this city is the first church in Holland to hang its service flag out of doors where all passersby can see it. The flag has been placed near the front entrance where it will hang all the time except in bad weather. The flag has 93 stars and it is believed that soon the number will pass the 100 mark. Of the 93 boys represented on the flag only one so far has been hurt in the war. The First Church also has a roll of honor hanging in the church, containing the names of the boys in service.

"STAND BY THE WAR"—REPUBLICAN

The Republican party says to the country, "STAND BY THE WAR."

And in this declaration of purpose is included the slogan which the Democratic party seems to have adopted, "Stand by the President," a duty which Republicans have assumed as a matter of course to all that the great office implies. "STAND BY THE WAR" includes far more than this. It includes standing by every public official, high or low, measured by the thoroughness with which that public official stands by the war; it includes standing by the Government; standing by this country; standing by our Allies; standing by our soldiers in France; standing by every effort for war-saving and giving in this country; standing by the cause for which we fight; standing by "the irreducible minimum" of peace terms so splendidly enunciated by Senator Lodge; standing by the war aims of this country to vindicate American rights, interests and honor, and to end forever the intolerable arrogance of scientifically trained brutality, to end forever Prussianism in the world and the oppression which it typifies, and to make certain forever the inability of militarism, German or otherwise, again to disturb the peace of the world; standing against an inconclusive peace and standing for a peace with a victory; stand for the preparation now of a sound and proper foundation for a policy of reconstruction after the war which will fulfill the economic needs and realize the spiritual ideals of our people, that the greatest good may come also to our own country from, and after, our supreme sacrifice.

All this we say in—"STAND BY THE WAR"—and for this purpose we dedicate the last of our blood and our treasure.

Shame on that political party that would seek to make a political asset out of the patriotic war spirit which now inspires this nation! For shame that a political organization would put party spirit above Americanism and sacrifice patriotism to the meanest spirit of partisanship!

It is an insult to every soldier in France. It is an insult to every Republican home from which one of those soldiers came. It is an insult to an unsullied record of patriotism of a political party which is itself a child of patriotism, conceived when our nation's foundations trembled. It is an insult to judgment and justice, to reason and righteousness. And the electorate of this country will handle properly the political party which in this nation's darkest hour would make politics out of the most sacred trust ever given to man.

OTTAWA GETS

$33,844.00 FOR

GOOD ROADS

The Ottawa county board of supervisors held to its progressive road program, when an appropriation of $34,000 was passed by the board without a dissenting vote. The action of the board is particularly gratifying to the road commissioners who have worked so faithfully on their plans for the coming year, making an earnest effort to include only the essential work in their estimate. At the same time the supervisors displayed a desire to assist in every possible manner in the movement to bring Ottawa county up to a real standard in permanent road building.

In the commissioners' request for an appropriation several projects were specifically set forth. The sum of $23,000 was asked for the work on the road designated at the Central Michigan Pike which runs through Zeeland and Georgetown townships, with a cut off at Jensen to eliminate two railroad crossings. The work on this line will be concrete.

On the West Michigan pike project, the commission proposes the construction of three miles of concrete road from Agnew to West Olive through Grand Haven and Olive township. The sum of $44,000 is needed for this project.

On the Dixie highway which includes the construction of concrete road through the Champion cut off in Tallmadge township, grading and concreting of a mile, in Polkton, the right-of-way of a mile with concrete in Spring Lake township, calls for a total of $23,000. Miscellaneous expenditures will add $4,844 to the total. The supervisors were all agreed that the work was essential and the unanimous vote indicates the desire of the entire board in the matter. Since the beginning of the session, the committee on good roads has made a complete survey of the projects in the annual appropriation request and when the proper time came, the request was recommended for passage.

During the last year or more the Ottawa county board of supervisors has visited both Milwaukee county in Wisconsin and Wayne county in Michigan, and the determination to make Ottawa's road good has been the result. The work along this line is surely a mark of progression.

GOOD ROADS

COMMITTEE MAKES

ROAD TOUR

The good roads committee of the board of supervisors made a tour of the county with the members of the Ottawa county road commission to complete a survey of the work proposed for the coming year by the commissioners. This committee consisting of Supervisors Hambleton, Loutit, Yntema, Hepeveld and Osewaarde will consider the proposed project of the commission and will make the recommendations to the board for the amounts needed to go through with the jobs.

Among the main projects which were surveyed at first hand by the committee was the continuance of the work on the West Michigan pike between Agnew and West Olive where the road lines are shortened up, and railroad crossings are eliminated. A similar project at Jensen was inspected and the party looked over the ground at Vriesland hill where it is proposed to reduce the grade. Besides these proposed projects the road commissioners visited a number of other points where jobs will be completed if the program for the coming year is approved by the board of supervisors. While the proposed work this year is not as extended as it might be, it includes work which is

APPLES PLentiful

HERE THIS YEAR

Those who said there would be no winter apples in this vicinity this year were apparently poor prophets. The Saugatuck Co-Operative Fruit Association's Exchange is by long odds the busiest place in town these days, and furnishes employment for a considerable number of people. Apples appear to be plentiful and of good quality, and grading at the exchange is strictly according to law. The association members are working for the future—to hasten the day when the "Grown in Michigan" shall be the recognized stamp of quality fruit, honestly graded and packed.

JOE GUNST OF HOLLAND DIES

AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Joe Gunst of this city who has been in Camp Ouster most of the summer but who was transferred to Washington, D. C. on August 24, died at the National Capital of Spanish influenza.

The body arrived at the home of Dr. W. I. J. Bruinisma, 63 West Ninth Street, where he was living before he left for the army, Sunday morning.

Mr. Gunst was working in a general's office at Washington.

He leaves a brother Tom Gunst of Grand Rapids, and an uncle Peter Gunst to mourn their loss.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., Oct. 16, 1918. The Common Council met in regular session and was called to order by the Mayor. Present: Mayor Bosch, Ald. Blue, De Vries, Brive, Lawrence, Brink, Dykstra, Dobbens, Vander List and Wiersema and the clerk.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. At this stage of the proceedings, Attorney Robinson being present and representing certain property owners on Lincoln Avenue between 24th and 32nd streets, in the matter of remonstrance against the special assessments for street improvement, requested a further adjournment of the hearing on such assessments until the next regular meeting of the Council, whereupon:

On motion of Ald. Dykstra,

Resolved, that the hearing on the assessments for the improvement of Lincoln Avenue between 24th and 32nd streets, be and the same hereby is adjourned until Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1918, at 7:30 P. M.

Carried.

On motion of Ald. Dykstra,

Resolved, that the Common Council Wednesday evening passed appropriate resolutions relating to the death of the son of Frank Brive, alderman of the 2nd ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Brive's son Joseph, died of pneumonia while on his way to Russia in the service of his country. Therefore the mayor and common council and city officials in appropriate resolution extended their sympathy to the bereaved family.

The resolutions follows:

Resolved

Whereas Alderman Frank Brive has received official notice of the death of his son, Joseph Brive, while in the service of his country in the Army of the United States, and

Whereas, Joseph Brive was genuinely respected and loved by all with whom he came in contact, and this community has lost a young man who had won an enviable place for himself in the high regard of the citizens of Holland and distinguished himself in the Roll of Honor among those who have made the supreme sacrifice for the salvation of all which civilization holds dear, and;

We, the members of the Common Council of the City of Holland therefore desire to express in the official records of our proceedings our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolences to Alderman Frank Brive and his family in their bereavement; and hereby direct the City Clerk to enter at length a copy of this resolution in the minutes of our meeting, and to mail an official copy of this resolution to said Alderman Frank Brive and family, and also to the Honorable Charles Pierce, Clerk of the House at Lansing, Michigan for whom Joseph Brive acted as Page in the Legislature, during the session of the year 1913.

Carried.

Petitions and Accounts

Harold Borchert petitioned to come under the Compulsory Sewer Ordinance, being Ordinance No. 308, and have his premises described as E. 4 of lot 4, blk. 29, connected with the sewer, and presented an agreement waiving service of notice and everything else necessary to come under said Ordinance, at a cost of $141.85.

Granted and accepted.

The clerk presented a communication from W. G. McAdoo, Director General of Railroads, dated at Washington, D. C., July 29, 1918, relative to road construction and other public improvements, a portion of which is to be charged against railroads under Federal control.

The Mayor presented an acknowledgment of receipt of a telegram sent to the President on Oct. 3rd, relative to this city, as a municipality, signing a pledge card making it a member of the "Unconditional Surrender Club."

LOCAL NEWS

Triplets, two sons and a daughter were born to Mr. and Mrs. James Danne of Fulton street, Grand Haven. One of the trio of infants failed to survive but the others were reported as doing well today.

Last week Wednesday occurred the marriage of Miss Susie Buscher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buscher of Graafschap, to Edward Hoffmeyer of the same place.

The consistory of the Third Reformed church have appointed William Vander Ven and Benjamin Du Mez as a committee to revise and reprint the directory of the church which will be issued within a few weeks.

Mrs. Anna Kok, widow of the late Hermanus Kok, died on Saturday, at her home on Columbia Avenue, aged 64 years. The funeral was held on Tuesday from the old church on 9th street.

The council on Tuesday evening transacted much street business, and among other matters they granted the electric street car line a connection with the C. & W. M. along Harrison Avenue.

B. A. Wilson, an ice cream manufacturer, returned last week from a long auto trip to the southern part of the state. He declared that in all the journey of many miles did he find roads anywhere that would compare with the splendid highways that are now being built in Ottawa county.

The gallery of the Third Reformed church has been fitted out and will be used as a Junior department of the Sunday school. The pews have been removed and replaced with chairs. Room has been provided for 12 classes, having an enrollment of about ninety. Miss Sena Kooiker is superintendent.

Mrs. E. A. Drake of Route 1, Holland has left for Detroit, Michigan, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Huntoon.

JUDGE DANHOFF
MAKE BOYS WORK TO PAY FINES

More or less complaint has been made to the officers of the Grand Haven police force of boys breaking the windows in vacant buildings, dwelling houses as well as churches in the city. Boys are boys, but they have no right to destroy property. When caught they or their parents will suffer the consequences. A few days ago a matter of the kind, where a number of windows in a city building were broken, came up in the juvenile court. John Luikens, truant officer, rounded the boys up and after a hearing in which the boys all confessed, they were fined $20 to pay the expenses and to cover the costs of the hearing.

Judge Danhof gave the boys to understand that throwing is all right in its place, as they could do this exercise to their hearts' content, but that the tax payers of Grand Haven, and property owners in general would not stand for and could not be obliged to go down into their pockets when it came to destroying property of any kind. While the parents paid the costs in the case, Judge Danhof told the boys they would be compelled to earn the money to pay back their parents.

Mrs. John Piper spent Thursday in Zeeland visiting relatives. Kryn O. Kalkman arrived safely overseas.

SUPERVISORS
COUNTY FARMINSPECT COUNTY INSTITUTION
AND ARE GUESTS AT DINNER
SERVED BY MATRON

Is An Annual Affair; Make the Trip
To Farm at Eastmanville in Autos

The Ottawa county board of supervisors made their annual trip to Eastmanville Wednesday and there was no session at the court house. From time unknown it has been the custom of the Ottawa County board to make this pilgrimage to the county infirmary and farms on the banks of Grand river and the tour always comes as a part of the routine of the fall session.

The trip is much easier to make now than it used to be because of the automobile as a traffic convenience. Good roads also help to make the journey an easy one now, and from all directions good roads lead to Eastmanville or within easy distance of it. Where the trip was formerly made by river or by way of Coopersville, the supervisors now whirl directly from their homes over to the farm by automobile.

The fine bridge across Grand river at Eastmanville also makes the county farm a much easier place to reach. People from the southern section of the county are now able to reach the places on the north side of the stream. Traffic over this route is becoming heavier continually and hundreds of automobilists travel via the route rather than ferry across at other points along the stream.

The supervisors did not call to order here and go to the farm in a body as in former years. Instead they drove directly to the poor farm. The Holland and south Ottawa members made the trip by auto from Holland and Zeeland and the representatives from the other sections left directly from their homes.

Ottawa county maintains a good sized institution at Eastmanville. The county farm is large and requires good supervision and care. The infirmary has a number of inmates who are now spending their days there as charges of the county and the management of such a place is no small matter.

Today, as has been the custom for many years one of the features of the trip was a dinner served at the farm by the matron. The board returned to Grand Haven to be ready to tackle the business still ahead of it.

WE FEEL THANKFUL

We cannot help but thank our many subscribers who have so nobly and pleasantly complied with our request to pay up their subscription promptly. Scores of subscribers have either mailed to us, or have come in person to settle their indebtedness as the United States government has requested and for this we wish to thank them.

There are always a few laggards however, who seem to need more urging. We are not in an urging mood because we are sure that in nine cases out of ten people are well able to pay, and in many cases it is stubborn and willful neglect.

Subscribers around Holland and vicinity have responded especially well, although there are some we are still looking for and expect they will put in their appearance shortly.

We are disgusted with a good many out of town subscribers, for the simple reason that papers going any great distance from Holland are practically a dead loss are sure not profitable. In the first place the government through the zone system is charging more postage for subscribers at a distance, and the fact that paper has advanced 200% makes outside subscribers practically a loss even should the subscriber pay a dollar a year.

This class of a subscriber has got to pay if we are going to continue his subscription and unless the subscriber from abroad comes across more promptly than he has been doing his paper will be discontinued and his account sent to a publishers collecting agency.

This does not apply to the regular pay subscribers who may be back a year or so, but to the professional dead head who year in and year out neglects to pay his subscription after being notified repeatedly, continues to sit down and read his home paper with a relish because it is better than a letter from home, never thinking that it takes money to manufacture the paper which he is enjoying.

This class of subscribers must make good very shortly. They can at least pay something on account to show that their intentions are honorable.

Office open Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

OTTAWA COUNTY
HERO PRAISED BY FRENCH PAPERS"RED" VANDEN BOSCH OF
GRAND HAVEN LOSES ARM
AND LEG IN BATTLE

One of Gamest Boys in the Service;
Fell in a Fierce Battle In France

Emerson Dickerson, special correspondent for the Grand Rapids News, now in France, and better known as "Dick" by the readers of the sporting page in a special dispatch to the News writes a very interesting account of an Ottawa county hero. The dispatch is self-explanatory and follows below:

Paris, Sept. 29.—Some soldiers have been known to go through dozens of charges without being scratched, and their comrades have fallen all around them. Others will be wounded in several places in their first charge, and many meet their death. Once in a while one will be gassed and wounded at the same time, then he certainly is up against it. The boys think that if it is their time, they are going to get it then and no sooner. Most of them are fatalists after they have been over the top a few times and gotten away with one injury. It's really miraculous how some of them are able to go unscratched over fields so swept with machine gun fire that it seems every inch of space is shot through.

Ernest Vandenhoeck of Grand Haven, a smiling young man with hair of reddish hue and reckless disregard of danger, fell one day in a battle that started the tide against Germany. He was rushed to the American Red Cross military hospital No. 5, and it was found necessary to amputate his left leg just below the knee. He was also wounded in the left arm, so that he was in danger of losing that also. He took his sufferings so gamely that he aroused the admiration of the entire hospital staff and every attention was paid him in the hope of saving his arm. He received his wounds by shrapnel in the bursting of a shell in a charge up a hill commanded by the German artillery.

Goes Thru a Second Operation

It was a long and hard fight for the youngster of 19, who was nearly strong enough to stand a second operation after his leg was amputated, and it became necessary to give him several weeks of rest that he might pick up sufficient strength to stand the second shock. Finally the time came and a handful of splinted bones was taken from the arm. He is on the road to recovery. He will not lose the use of the injured arm, and the limb-makers are expected to make him a cork leg, which he will be able to handle almost as well as the original one.

Soon the Grand Haven boy will be able to leave for home, for that is where he will be sent as soon as he is strong enough to stand the trip. All Grand Haven should welcome him, for a gamer boy never lived. He suffered uncomplainingly for weeks when he was unable to turn over, his left arm being suspended in a sling, and his injured leg just beginning to heal. Nurses attending him all became attached to the boy because of his cheerfulness and patience in suffering.

Picture in Paris Paper

The Grand Haven boy's experiences on the firing line are most interesting to hear. His greatest regret is that he is not going to be in at the finish.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald on Friday, Sept. 27, published a two column picture, showing young Vandenhoeck in bed at the hospital, with a nurse ministering to him. The cut bore this caption: "'Red,' 19 years old, is an honored patient; at military hospital No. 5." And beneath the cut the Herald said: "Everyone calls him 'Red.' He is 18 years old and one of the pluckiest American soldiers that ever went into American military hospital No. 5, near Paris. They have brought him bed out of doors into the sunshine, and the head nurse, Miss Leet, from Columbus, Ohio, is giving him what he wants out of Red Cross Comfort bag."

Four Die at Coopersville

John Mooney of Coopersville, aged 68 years, president of the village, died of influenza Tuesday. Mrs. Ellis Lillie wife of a local merchant also succumbed to the malady. The bodies of Privates Wesley Bennett and J. W. Bennett, who died of influenza at San Antonio, Texas, will be brought home for burial.

Although the greatest precaution is being taken, it is believed the epidemic has passed its crest.

May Erect Hackley Statue

Robert E. Bunker, retired dean of the University of Michigan law department and now an attorney in Muskegon is backing up a municipal project there to have erected at the Hackley Park Square at Muskegon a statue of Charles H. Hackley, who left that city about $5,000,000 in the shape of various bequests along educational lines.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED
FOR MISSIONARY MEET

The provisional program for the Ottawa county convention of the Layman's Missionary movement has been announced and the big event has been scheduled for Nov. 5 and 6 in First Reformed church. Three sessions will be held each day. The speakers will include Rev. E. M. Potent, president of Furman university at Greenville, S. C.; Rev. Samuel M. Zwemer of Cairo, Egypt, missionary to the Mohammedan world; F. J. Mitchell, field secretary of the Layman's Missionary movement and promoter of masculine Christianity; Jas. P. Brodhead, for 31 years a missionary in South Africa, and others of equal caliber. Louis E. Burnett will direct the music. Frank B. Bachelor of Detroit, who has visited mission station around the world will appear on the program.

DIES WHILE ON VISIT IN HOLLAND

Mrs. Henri G. DeKruif died early Monday morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. Leenhouts after a brief illness with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. DeKruif came to Holland from New York about a week ago. They were on their way to their home in Lagoona Beach, California, but planned to stop over at the Leenhouts home for a week's visit. Last Wednesday Mrs. De Kruif was taken ill with pneumonia which resulted in her death Monday morning.

Like her husband, Mrs. De Kruif was an artist. She was returning to California to engage in camouflage work in the government service. Lagoona Beach, the home of the De Kruifs, is an artists' colony and they were returning to their work when death interrupted their journey across the continent.

The deceased is survived by her husband and two brothers, R. H. Towner of New York and Fred Towner of Santa Anna, California. Mr. DeKruif who is a brother of Mrs. Leenhouts, is well known in Holland. He is a former Hope College student and left Holland for California about ten years ago. Mr. and Mrs. DeKruif had been married two and a half years.
