A TOWN OF SORROW AND HAPPINESS IN ROCHESTER

A COMPARISON OF HOLLAND AND ROCHESTER, MINN.

How Would Holland Look With Thirty-Eight Hotels and Sixty Restaurants

It is rather a far-fetched local article to bring the city of Rochester, Minn., the home of the great hospitals of the world, the town made famous by the Mayo Bros., this country's greatest surgeons, to our very door in a comparison with our own city.

The writer having visited this place could not help but make a few observations, comparing them with Holland, the two cities being about the same size.

There are scores of Holland citizens who owe their well being to the Mayo Hospital system, and for that reason Rochester, Minn., will no doubt hold a considerable interest to not a few.

Holland is especially interested in hospitals these days as we are now campaigning for a sixty bed hospital and we think we are accomplishing quite something if we put this across.

Just think of a city of 12,000 having seven large hospitals with an added one under construction called St. Marys with a capacity of 1,600 beds.

Imagine 800 people daily in the clinics waiting their turn for a proper and thorough examination. Imagine six thousand sick folks either in hospital beds or in convalescent homes. More than 2,000 wheel chairs are constantly parading the congested principal streets.

No doubt Rochester, Minn., houses more sorrow and at the same time more happiness than any place on this earth compared to size. Happiness because many have been benefited by virtue of the great Mayo system. Sorrow because the learned physicians pass their final judgment and say "it is too late, I can do nothing for you."

Imagine Holland having 38 hotels and sixty restaurants. It surely is hotel to the right of them, hotel to the left of them.

Holland has some forty odd factories, Rochester, Minn., has not a factory, and does not want any, nor does it want any street cars, all public travel being done by noiseless auto buses.

Another strange coincidence is the fact that all business places have wheel chair entrances and these are labeled in that way.

At Mayo's the rich and the poor are on the same level. The rule of the barber shop "you're next" is a hard and fast rule. This is evidenced in an incident observed by the writer.

The secretary of a state of Mexico came to Mayo's to be treated making the trip in a beautiful private car, accompanied by his wife and children and a retinue of servants.

The coming of the illustrious Mexican visitor did not create a stir and the man of power in Mexico had little power at the clinic and was compelled to register in his turn and wait his turn to be examined and abide his time to be treated. He ate with the common folks at the table and has become quite democratic by this time.

Another interesting figure is the daughter of an Indian chief. She is a lass weighing 300 pounds, her "daddy" struck it rich in oil fields and is sending her $1,000 a week in order that she may be able to reduce.

Other interesting observations were, the lack of soda fountains, there only being three in a town where $18,000 people either live or abide temporarily. The lack of flowers in the rooms of patients is also noticeable. The reason given is that most of the patients come from a distance and flowers are difficult to send. "Posies" are also reasonably purchased, beautiful roses selling for $2 a dozen and carnations for 75c.

There is no home life in Rochester. Nearly every home is commercialized and a sign welcomes the visitor at so much per day or week. There are no laboring men on the streets, for there are no factories, but there is employment for thousands of young women who either become trained nurses or helpers and hundreds appear in their quaint caps and gowns on the street constantly.

If you wish any information do not ask a passerby, for invariably he is a stranger here for there are six thousand of these. Get your information from a man in uniform or in any one of the store buildings.

A peculiar sight is the looming up of a ten story building surrounded by small two and three story ones.

This is the Hotel Kaller, which is larger and higher than the Pentland in Grand Rapids. No matter where the visitor may be within that vicinity the light stone structure is always in sight. Its illumination at night is especially attractive. This hostelry has been erected by the Mayo Brothers in order to accommodate the rapidly growing need for more hotel accommodations.

While Rochester is a wonderful

SHIP BETTER PACKAGES SAYS THE EXCHANGE CLUB

POOR PACKING BRINGS GREAT DEAL OF CONFUSION IN SHIPMENT

The month of November is "proper packing month" all over the United States, and the three prominent figures in shipping in Holland, namely, Mr. Johnson of the Graham & Morton Line, Mr. Stenger of the American Railway Express and Mr. Rich of the Pere Marquette Railway have been asked to go before the Exchange Club of Holland and foster this proper packing month idea.

Packages that are shipped must be properly packed in order to assure prompt delivery. Proper packing is an insurance against miscarriage in shipping and the poor packing is the cause of most of the delay on the railroads. In this way the good suffer with the bad and proper packing month is called in order to bring about a campaign of education that will teach shippers, manufacturers and individuals to pack their goods in such a way that the destination can easily be found, and the packing is done in such shape that the package remains intact until it reaches that destination.

Mr. Johnson of the Graham & Morton explained to the Exchange club fully what was required and the club thought enough of the proposition that the chairman, Sears McLean appointed a committee of three consisting of Ernest Brooks, John Kooiker and Arthur Heuer, whose duty it will be to bring the subject before the shippers of Holland properly.

HOLLAND TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY

LOCAL LEGIONNAIRES ARE MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR BIG EVENT

There is very little doubt but that all business activities on Armistice day which occurs on Friday, November 11, will be halted, and the ending of the great war will be given the significance it deserves in the way of a proper celebration.

The Willard Leenhouts Post of the American Legion, is making preparations for a large parade, and a banquet to be held at 6:30 P. M. on Armistice Day.

Just what time the parade will be staged and just what form the celebration will assume has not entirely been arranged.

It has been announced that A. H. Landwehr of the Holland Furnace Co. will throw open the beautiful new banquet hall at the factory which has just been completed, and for the first time a large spread will be given there.

It is stated that after "mess" has been partaken of and the speakers heard the floor will be cleared and the soldiers and their sweethearts will trip the light fantastic, to the strains of music from a large orchestra secured for that purpose.

The National Guards, another military organization containing many ex-service men will also help celebrate. Besides giving a parade in the afternoon on the street, they will also give an exhibition drill on Hope College campus, the grounds having been turned over to the guards by President Dimment for the day.

DIVIDES ONE THEME INTO SEVEN SERMONS

YOUNG PEOPLE WILL BE INTERESTED IN TRINITY PASTOR'S SERMON

Rev. Clarence P. Dame, pastor of Trinity church, will sermonize the young people and there is no doubt but that his discourses will be unusually interesting to both the young and old.

Sunday evening he will start a series of eight sermons devoted entirely to the young folks.

The main topic is entitled, "Young People and Their Problems." The sermon Sunday night, the first of the series will be "Young People and their amusements" followed in turn every Sunday evening by "Young People and their companionships," "Young people and their employment," "Young people and their money," "Young people and their reading," "Young people and the home," "Young people and the church," and "Young people and the Christ."

place, the wheel chair brigade, the drawn faces of the sick and suffering and the general atmosphere of helplessness is no doubt very depressing to the well man.

There is no doubt, however, that these great institutions are a God-send to humanity and the Minnesota town is filling a great place of usefulness among the cities of this nation.

CHARLES SLIGH GIVES EXCHANGE CLUB AN INTERESTING TALK

TELLS SOME INTERESTING IMPRESSIONS OF ENGLAND RECEIVED ON HIS RECENT VISIT

He States That Labor Unions Are Throttling the Nation By Vicious Law

The Exchange club of Holland had an interesting visitor Wednesday noon in the person of Charles Sligh, the man who runs the largest furniture factor in the world, and was at one time a candidate on the Democratic ticket for congress.

Mayor E. P. Stephan as a fellow-furniture man was called upon to introduce Mr. Sligh, which he did in a very pleasing manner.

Mr. Sligh stated that he had made a trip to Europe and stayed ten weeks in England, and he could not help but observe the terrible conditions there and the carelessness in which business was done. He stated that England had millions of unemployed men, and that the union heads were trying to dominate every artery of trade and were now working in conjunction with politicians with the result that conditions were awful, business is stagnant, and wages are falling.

Some time ago a mine strike dominated the whole country. The miners would not take their cut in wages when the people demanded a lower price in coal. In many districts miners allowed big mines to fill with water, and because of this fact the mines had to be abandoned as useless and thousands of miners are out of employment as a result.

In London and in other parts of England the labor unions having the power in the common councils, put over a vicious law, called the unemployment insurance law. This law was originally intended to help those who were in destitute circumstances at a time when there was no work to be had. But the unions with their power have abused the intent of the law and have under cover of it given those who do not work and around idle, nearly as much money as he or she would earn, should they work an entire week. Several thousand would get as high as $17 a weeks each, and not do a tap for it, and as Mr. Sligh says, it is only human nature to get what you can for nothing, and the inevitable result is that people will not work, when a pension is handed to them, and if they must work, they will do as little as possible during their hours of labor.

Even sensible laboring men, statesmen and business men know that if this condition continues, it will bankrupt the nation, and an effort is now being made to have the law repealed, for naturally such an affair will wind itself up, since these non-producers are receiving their weekly wage out of the coffers of the state, and all classes of people must "foot the bill."

He also related an interesting fact stating that London didn't have any more autos, all told, than did the city of Grand Rapids, and that most of the Londoners rode on bicycles either for business or pleasure.

He also gave some interesting facts relating to Germany. He stated that Germany would soon undersell the entire world. He stated that the Germans had been unfair enough to repudiate all patents and were now making goods from the patents without paying a royalty.

A case in point of a carpet sweeper made in this vicinity and used extensively in Holland. The Germans are now making this same sweeper at such a reduced rate that it is underselling the American made sweeper, which formerly had an extensive field through Europe. The Netherlands is simply flooded with the sweepers, said Mr. Sligh, and large consignments ordered and shipped from America were not accepted on arrival for the reason that the price of German make was far lower.

Mr. Sligh stated that there are several reasons for this. In the first place while the mark may be low in the exchange it is still used to pay wages with. All German men are working not less than 12 hours a day at reduced pay and the material entering into many of the manufactured goods are found near the manufacturing centers.

There is no doubt that Germany is endeavoring to capture the world's trade. Germany's shipyards are turning out an 8,000 ton ship every five days, and these ships small are built strong and of such draft that these can enter any harbor in the world.

In the list of repudiated patents by Germany, Mr. Sligh mentioned several popular American made goods.

Jumping back to England he stated that the nobility of England today is not the "uppercrust". The nobility has never worked, and with changed conditions the unions now say, "we'll take a lay off." The result is that no one works and cas-

MAKES TRIP TO EUROPE ON THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS

HOPE COLLEGE STUDENT RETURNS AFTER INTERESTING TRIP

Shipped As a Sailor On an Oil Tanker; Saw Sights in Mexico and London

Peter H. De Vries, member of the Senior Class of Hope College and editor of the Hope College Anchor, returned to Holland Wednesday evening after roughing it for four months on the high seas and in Mexico and England. Last June when college closed, Mr. De Vries took a notion that he would like to see something of the world before he graduated, and he traveled halfway around the world at a total cost of just $35. He declared today that he could have made the trip on less but now and then in London he felt like being extravagant and blew in some money for the sake of variety.

Mr. De Vries, accompanied by his brother Charles De Vries, a graduate of Hope college and last year studying at Boston University, took jobs as sailors on an oil tanker last June at Portland, Maine. They were classed as "able bodied seamen" and the work was rough, but they enjoyed it to the limit. Peter De Vries soon graduated from sailor to wheelman, spending four hours a day at the wheel and two hours in the lookout. The ship touched several Mexican ports, including Tampico, the big oil center, where some years ago Uncle Sam cleaned up on a regiment of "Micks" and where the celebrated flag incident took place which stirred this country from end to to end.

Trouble in the Mexican oil situation put an end to that trip, and the boys found themselves without jobs. After a little while trip to Mobile, they secured jobs on two other vessels. Peter De Vries became a sailor on the S. S. "Auditor" bound for London, and Charles De Vries on the S. S. "Colorado Springs," bound for Glasgow. For the rest of the journey the boys were separated. Charles is still in France where he went from Glasgow, and he expects to return soon and enter the Western Theological seminary.

While in England Peter De Vries saw London and the British Isles. He visited Oxford College and Windsor and has a fine idea of what fog-laden London looks like. Peter De Vries shipped back to this country on the same vessel on which he made the outbound trip.

Mr. De Vries tells of an interesting incident that might have been disastrous in a storm. The steamer which was an oil burner, ran out of oil while the ship was in the middle of the gulf of Mexico. The ship was afloat for three days and in a helpless condition before aid arrived. What might have been the result had a storm struck it can only be conjectured.

In his travels Mr. De Vries also visited Halifax, and Norfolk, Va., the United States government naval base.

Muskegon has one officer who believes in enforcing the law to the letter. Game Warden Willard Dagen came upon S. A. McCrea, in Eggleston township ten minutes after sundown. He arrested McCrea for hunting ducks illegally and the latter was fined $16 when he pleaded guilty in police court.

G. Van Eenam of Zeeland and Harvey De Weerd of Holland, were elected editor-in-chief and business manager respectively of the 1922 Milestone, the annual publication of Hope College.

ties are being sold right and left at 25 cents on the dollar, and the blue bloods are peddling their heirlooms, piece by piece, in order to live. Many of these have been handed down for centuries and jealously guarded. Now bread and butter mean more than the family jewels.

Mr. Sligh stated that these could be obtained so reasonable that he himself had purchased a consignment of them.

Mr. Sligh stated further that if this condition in England remained both the "uppercrust" and the "lowercrust" would find that the filling would soon be gone.

Mr. Sligh also stated that conditions in this country were ideal as compared to England, but that the unreasonable demands of unionism, and the unbearable freight rates demanded by railroads were beginning to throttle legitimate industry, manufacturing and business in the middle west.

He said that while the railroads and the unions and the labor boards are having their conferences the legitimate industries and the labor who derive their livelihood from these industries were not represented, and surely this element is more largely interested, is in the vast majority and pays the freight, that pays the wages of the railroad men, and the profits of the road.

FOUND DEAD ON FLOOR OF HER ROOM

Mrs. P. Jacobusse, aged 77 years, died suddenly Thursday at the home of her son Peter Jacobusse, 495 Harrison avenue. Mrs. Jacobusse had eaten a lunch in the middle of the forenoon and seemed to be in her usual good spirits. She went upstairs to her room and when the family called her for the noonday meal she was found lying dead on the floor. She had apparently been dead for some little time, having probably fallen when she entered the room.

The deceased is survived by three sons and two daughters: Peter, Marine, Louis, and Mrs. Frank Brieve of Holland, and Mrs. Van Leven of the Netherlands. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, Rev. Keestra officiating.

MAY REVIEW RURAL RATES OF CITIZENS TELEPHONE CO.

The possibility of a review of the recent increase in telephone rates in the rural districts served by the Citizens Telephone company of Grand Rapids, with a revision if such action is deemed proper by the public utilities commission was indicated Friday following a hearing by the commission at which representatives of more than sixty rural exchanges were present.

SUPERVISORSDEFEAT THE PARK
SITE PLAN

True to expectations stiff opposition developed on the board of supervisors to the plan for purchase by the county of fifteen acres of forest land between Holland and Zeeland as a park site. In fact the opposition proved so well organized that when the measure came to a vote, the park purchase plan was defeated by a vote of 16 to 10. This was the alignment of forces which developed when the issue first came to a show down earlier in the session.

In opposition to the plan were named most of the supervisors from the north end of the county, and one of the issues against the measure was the claim that the purchase of the park site could not benefit all of the people of the county. Some of the supervisors stated that their belief that the park site should be purchased by the cities of Holland and Zeeland and turned over to the state as the Grand Haven State Park site was purchased by the city of Grand Haven. Austin Harrington of Holland was one of the speakers in favor of the plan.

At this session the appropriation asked by the county road commission for putting through the program for road work next year did not escape with a whole hide. The supervisors passed a budget allowing the county road commissioners a fund of $165,000 including the maintenance and construction funds. The appropriation asked was in the neighborhood of $200,000.

In making their final decision the supervisors trimmed $26,000 from the construction program and $15,000 from the maintenance fund. The largest items on the budget as allowed were West Michigan $25,000; Dixie $25,000; Central Pike $25,000.

The recommendation on that said road be built east from the city of Zeeland to the S. E. corner of Sec. 16 then north between Sec. 15 and 16 connecting with the line along the railroad.

The Parker billiard tournament began in the Palace Billiard Hall Friday of last week. The tournament began for the billiard championship of Holland for this season, and eight of the leading artists of the cue are taking part in the series. The winner of the tournament will then play the champion of Grand Haven for championship of Ottawa county.

Holland showed Tuesday evening that it is interested in National music week by coming out in large numbers to the community concert given in 3rd Reformed church by a chorus of 55 voices. The church was crowded to the doors by an appreciative audience and the concert was in every respect a big success.

The announcement was made at the beginning of the program that there would be no encores, but the applause that came after each number was spontaneous, and there would have been many encores if this rule had not been given. The program was carried out as announced and lasted an hour and ten minutes.

The chorus was trained under the direction of John Vandervliet, and the concert was the contribution of these singers to the Music Week activities here. The company contained some of the finest musicians in the city.

Mrs. George E. Kollen delightfully read "The Alto's Inspiration," and Prof. Bruno Meinecke played a violin solo. These two numbers were in addition to the concert by the chorus and were designed to give variety to the program.

John Weersing was in Wayland Thursday on business.

LITTLE BOYS LIVE
LIKE ANIMALS
IN A PIGSTY

The city of Holland will be in the position of a foster mother for a week or two, perhaps more, for two little boys of eight and nine years of age, and what to do with them is something of a problem. The two little youngsters occupied the attention of the mayor and the city's 12 aldermen, not to mention the city inspector and other officials, for a considerable while Wednesday evening at the meeting of the council.

The children are named Houtman and they live (or rather exist) in a squalid place on East Eighth-st., about opposite the Knickerbocker Theater. Ald. Blue of the First Ward, who called attention to the matter, said that the place was indescribably filthy and that the children were living in surroundings not fit for a pig to live in. The mother died a few months ago, and the father, though able to work, seems to be making little effort to give the boys a home such as all children deserve. They are still going barefooted, according to the aldermen, and the house is so filthy that it is almost impossible for a person with ordinary sensibilities to enter it.

The county authorities have taken the matter under consideration and the father was ordered to appear in Grand Haven Thursday. The council appointed the city inspector to see to it that he went to the county seat. The boys will probably be taken from the father and sent to a state institution, but there is a good deal of red tape to such a procedure, and it may take a week or two. Meanwhile the boys will be taken care of by the city, if necessary. It was at first suggested to give them a clean bed in the detention room in the city hall, but this plan was immediately abandoned. The city inspector was given charge of the case, and it will be up to him to find a decent home for the boys temporarily, if the county does not take charge of them.

LINCOLN P.E.
CLUB FAVORS
NEW BUILDING

The Lincoln School P.T. club, which held a meeting Wednesday evening, went unanimously on record as favoring the erection of a new Junior high school. The club also discussed the question of furnishing milk lunches to the children, and the president, Mr. A. Kleis, appointed a committee composed of Mrs. Frank Harris, Mrs. Gerrit Ter Vree and Mrs. Rosein, to investigate the matter. A welfare committee, composed of Mrs. Henry Te Roller, Mrs. Arend Bosman and Mrs. Parker, was also appointed.

The Columbia orchestra furnished the music. Miss Evelyn Keppel gave a talk on a trip to Yellowstone park last summer. Henry Geerlings and George Mooi described the necessity of a new Junior high school building. Miss Koertge, city nurse, talked on the milk question.

H. J. Langejans is removing his residence in Laketown.

Mrs. L. E. Van Drezer was a Grand Rapids visitor Wednesday.

A. M. Galentine was a Grand Rapids visitor Wednesday afternoon.

MAY IDENTIFY BODY FOUND ON LAKE SHORE

The mystery concerning the identity of the body found on the shore of Lake Michigan between Holland and Grand Haven last Sunday may be solved, after all. Henry J. Boer, coroner, held the remains as long as possible following its recovery from the lake and then buried it in Lake Forest at the expense of the county. There seemed no possible manner of identifying the body, as decomposition had advanced to such a state that the face was entirely obliterated.

The clothing worn by the unknown man bore no marks of identification, whatever, and there was nothing in the pockets of the dead man save a pipe, some tobacco and matches. It was noticed, however, that the trousers which the dead man wore were patched in somewhat peculiar manner, and his shoes were patched on the soles. These facts were noted by the coroner before the remains were disposed of.

Thursday Coroner Boer received letter of inquiry from Mrs. Isaac MacKenzie, of South Haven, concerning the body. Mrs. MacKenzie stated that Alex MacKenzie, her nephew had disappeared from South Haven about two months ago and since that time nothing had been heard of him. His relatives feared that he was dead and from the description given in the news stories appearing in the state papers, aroused their interest.

She stated in her letter that her nephew was 39 years of age, and was suffering from a serious mental derangement when he disappeared. He had been in the army and when last seen he wore an army shirt and patched bicycle shoes. She believed from the information she had as to the body found her that the remains might be those of her nephew.

Coroner Boer does not know whether or not Mrs. MacKenzie will press her investigation further, but he has given her all of the information possible in the matter. If she wishes to do so she may of course claim the body as that of her nephew and have it removed to South Haven for burial.

1,000 ATTEND
FOOTBALL GAME

An enthusiastic bunch of rooters took in the Holland-Union High game Saturday when the locals defeated their rivals by a score of 6 to 0.

It was a hard fought game in which Ted Vanden Brink was again one of the stars. Holland played a fine smashing attack, and almost scored on their opponents twice besides the lone touchdown. Union apparently anticipated the usual Holland aerial game and broke up most of the forwards. The only touchdown was made by T. Vanden Brink, on a wonderful 35 yard run through practically the entire Union team.

George Van Landegent transacted business in Grand Rapids Wednesday.

Cappy Cappon spent Sunday visiting relatives in Holland.

TERRIBLE RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT AT ZEELAND

A terrible accident happened directly northeast of Zeeland on what is known as the Fairview road where the Pere Marquette railroad crosses it. Cornelius Schermer, aged 21, had taken some children to the home of John Zwaagman, and upon his return states that he was deeply in thought. As he neared the track the 11 a. m. Pere Marquette freight from Grand Rapids was due. The young man who was driving the coupe did not notice the oncoming freight which is plainly visible for a mile at least, and was made aware of its approach by the whistles which the engineer sounded when he saw the man and the machine on the track. Instead of putting on the gas it is said Schermer applied the emergency brake that stalled his car partially on the track.

The result was that the heavy engine of the freight cut the light Ford coupe in two, grinding up the rear end, while leaving the front end intact and uninjured. The young man was thrown some sixty feet and was hastily picked up by the train crew, tenderly carried into the cab of the engine and the train sped on to Holland with all possible speed and the young man was rushed to Holland Hospital, where his injuries were given a thorough examination and medical aid was administered. It was found that one of his legs was broken in two places between the hip and the knee, that his chest was partially crushed and that his right elbow was also crushed.

Mr. Schermer is employed in the office of the Zeeland Furniture Co.

The parents of the young man died sometime ago. He has one sister living in the city, namely Miss Dora Schermer, Holland city librarian.

PRESENTED WITH FINE SET OF BOOKS

Through the generosity of Mrs. J. C. Post the Biological Departmental Library of Hope College has come into possession of a splendid set of books "The Natural History of New York" in 21 large volumes.

The volumes cover the fields of Botany, Zoology, Paleontology, Geology, Mineralogy and Agriculture, and are fully and most beautifully illustrated, often in natural colors.

As the flora and fauna of New York state differs little from that of Michigan, the books are invaluable to students of Botany and Zoology. The volumes in Geology, Mineralogy and Paleontology, with their fine illustrations and clear, concise descriptions, will be very helpful in identifying the numerous unclassified specimens in Hope College Museum.

Louis Agassiz, the great comparative anatomist and paleontologist and founder of the Agassiz Museum of Harvard University, said of these volumes, that had he known of their existence he would have found it unnecessary to leave Geneva and come to America. Hope College is very proud to be in possession of these books and appreciate very much the generosity of the donor, Mrs. J. C. Post.

"HOME VOLUNTEERS" IS NAME OF NEW CLUB

The "Ministers' Club," which was recently organized upon the college campus, has adopted "Home Volunteers" as the name for the new organization. The constitution was also adopted, and the program committee is busily engaged getting various speakers for the club's programs. Dr. J. E. Kuizenga addressed the men on the subject "The Romance of the Ministry."

MORE THAN 300 PLEDGE TO BOOST FOR HOSPITAL

If there is a sentiment in Holland against the building of a new hospital, the need of which is so imperative, it was not reflected in the gathering of more than three hundred at the city hall Monday evening. Men and women from all walks of life were present and the dominant idea that prevailed was that Holland greatly needs and must have a new hospital to take care of its suffering ones.

Mayor E. P. Stephan opened the meeting and stated briefly the object of it and gave an account of the hard work and exhaustive investigation that had been made both by the hospital board and the common council. He told how the committee had gone down to Owosso and had looked over an ideal hospital there and how they were promised cooperation of many of the Owosso citizens, should Holland decide to go into this project. He then threw open the meeting to the gathering and called upon Mr. C. M. McLean, president of the board, who, he stated, had done more hard work and made more unselfish sacrifices in time and money for the present hospital than had any man in the city, and he no doubt could tell the audience of the great need in the way of a new hospital.

Mr. McLean stated that when a hospital was first thought of in Holland the limit was placed at nine beds. The committee as well as many citizens surely thought that that number would be ample to take care of Holland's sick and emergency cases for a long time to come.

It was only a short time however when these nine beds were filled, and still there was more clamor for admission. Authorities were at their wit's end to find ways and means of taking care of Holland's suffering ones. A steady stream of patients, and a waiting list in fact, was an eye opener to the committee. A large room was thrown into a ward, in which six beds were placed. Extra beds were installed wherever this was possible until 18 adult patients could be taken care of at one time. Of course the babies too had to be taken care of, "for these surely are worth saving," said Mr. McLean. Conditions have become so congested at the present hospital that only emergency and surgery work is possible.

Mr. McLean stated that the hospital did not fill the needs of Holland, that the building was never intended for hospital purposes, has no laboratory, no elevator, nor any of the usual equipment essential to the care of the sick and the injured when these must be so tenderly, and at the same time so quickly taken care of.

Mr. McLean also pointed out that since last Thursday four frightful accidents have taken place, and these cases are being taken care of at the local institution; and it is only natural as the city grows, the number of such cases will increase. Mr. McLean stated that the entire board cannot help but feel that the building of a new hospital is an absolute necessity.

Mayor Stephan then called upon G. J. Diekema who went into the faulty phases of the present hospital. He stated that in the first place the present hospital building was not fireproof and that we are housing our loved ones, helpless as they are, in a fire trap. There is no elevator in the building, the patients must be carried up and downstairs, subjecting them to jolting, inconveniences and possible injuries.

For maternity cases there is only one room available, with a long waiting list ahead. The result is that there are scores of cases where the mother cannot receive the proper attention at the home that a well regulated hospital does offer.

Mr. Diekema stated further, "The members of the hospital board have given this matter long and well considered thought and study, and we feel that our conscience will not permit us to allow this board to let hospital conditions remain as they are."

"The board has done considerable planning, has gone into the estimated cost of the hospital, and at first, considered that $150,000 would build a fifty bed hospital. Plans were submitted to Mayor Stephan and members of the Common Council and the mayor stated that it would hardly do to scribble on the amount necessary with scarcely enough to complete the project. He stated that he preferred to put the matter up to the people fairly and squarely at $175,000, and he would trust the voters with the proposition after the project had been put up to them plainly and understandingly."

"Who in this audience owning $1,000.00 worth of property is not willing to give 75c a year of this amount through assessment, to aid a noble project such as this has proven to be?"

"Who in this gathering possessing $2,000.00 in property is not willing to sacrifice $1.50 a year to relieve the sufferings of loved ones?"

"I know Holland will not be found wanting; it exemplified its christian spirit during the war, going over the top in every war drive. Just recently Holland showed that it stands for Christian civilization when it so nobly and generously stood by famine stricken China."

"In the earlier days Dr. Van Raalte gave us our beautiful park, gave us our college campus, he gave us the heart of Holland. Could he afford to do it? He could not. He was financially 'broke,' and had to depend upon friends in New York for financial aid. Today the benefits of this Christian civilization are reflected in Centennial Park and Hope College—the sacrifices made by an early pioneer and a founder of this beautiful commonwealth."

"The test is again to come to Holland citizens, and I know that its manhood and womanhood will uphold and foster this same christian civilization so nobly exemplified by the man who laid the foundation of this city."

Other speakers were Jacob Lokker, who spoke heartily in favor of the project, telling of how members of his family have been benefited because of it.

John DuMex, Arie VanDriel, Tony Van Ry, Peter Brusse, Alderman Ben Wiersma, A. Peters, Charles Mc Bride, D. B. Keppel and others all stood wholeheartedly for the project.

D. B. Keppel, however, for the sake of the neighborhood put in his plea to have the location of the hospital changed, stating that the effect of a hospital on that corner was very depressing to the neighborhood, that the groans of the sick, that the weeping of the sorrowing and that the taking away of the dead, while absolutely unpreventable was not a happy condition to live in constantly. That while he was in favor of a hospital, no matter where it was put, he asked that a motion be passed by those present, suggesting another place from the present site.

This was objected to by many, who stated that the meeting was not called for that purpose, and that the gathering did not represent all the people of the city.

Mr. Diekema, Mr. McLean and Mr.

Van Ry felt that the matter of location could be safely left to the common council and the city fathers could be guided by suggestions made by the citizens after the hospital project was an assured fact.

The gathering felt that it was poor business policy to think of a site before the money, with which to build a hospital, was assured. Mr. Keppel then promptly and graciously withdrew his motion.

Upon the suggestion of Mr. Diekema a rising vote was taken asking all those who were favorable to the project to give it their wholehearted support from now until election. Not a man or a woman in this representative audience remained seated.

Assessing officers and supervisors from all parts of the lower peninsula have been invited by the legislative tax investigating committee to meet in the capitol November 29 and 30. The purpose of the meeting, according to Rep. Geo. Lord of Detroit chairman, is to find out what the constituents of these officers want in the way of tax reform.

The board of supervisors of Allegan county decided to retain Miss Woodworth as home demonstration agent and appropriated $900 on the next year's work. Other appropriations made were $2000 for Red Cross work $200 each to state commonwealth and the Michigan Hospital School for Crippled Children and $200 to the Michigan Children's Aid society at St. Joseph.

The Hayden-Kardux Auto Co. have sold this week cars to ten different purchasers. Dr. C. J. Fischer is the proud possessor of about the nicest Coupe—an Oakland Six—in the city; Wm. J. Goelke, of the C. P. Lambert Co. is driving a new FB. Chevrolet Sedan; while the rest of the cars sold were Chevrolet 490's and International Trucks. Mr. Hayden says the time for the closed car business is here and those who anticipate obtaining them at an early date, had better see him at once to insure a prompt delivery. The factory manufacturing the lines this firm handle are working night and day to fill orders now on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrington, Carl Harrington, and Misses Edith Cappon and Miss Van Drezer motored to Ann Arbor to attend the football game there.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Scott have left their Jensen Park home and are now occupying the Scott homestead on the corner of Columbia and 9th. Their new telephone number is 2202.

Dick Huizenga who recently sold his general merchandising store at Hamilton to John Vander Ploeg of Zeeland has moved to Zeeland and now occupies a house on West Main street. Mr. Vander Ploeg took possession of the Hamilton store some time ago.

Mr. Hays, advance man of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which is to be shown at the Strand Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, was here Thursday making preparations for this big picture. Holland is the fourth city in the state in which the picture has been shown, and the first small city in the state.

A new plan proposed by the Muskegon city commission to provide insurance against accident on the jitney buses now operating, is to accept a mortgage on the 17 buses and to create a fund into which the bus owners would pay until the amount has reached a total of $15,000.

Rev. Colenbrander to whom was extended a call from the First Reformed church of Zeeland to become its pastor, has declined to accept the call.

Gerrit Rozema and Miss Hattie Kamps both of Zeeland, were quietly married one day last week. They are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rybak.

Word has been received here of the death at South Haven of Frank Grussinger, a member of the crew of the U. S. Dredging Steamer Gen. Meade.

Gerrit J. Schuurman, 70, a resident of Holland and vicinity for more than 50 years, is critically ill and hopes for his recovery have been abandoned. Schuurman has been a farmer, carpenter, lumberman, real estate dealer and has been connected with various enterprises. He was associated with the late M. L. Scott for years in the old Phoenix Lumber mill and is a member of the of Scott-Lugers Co. and vice president of the Michigan Tea Rusk Co. For some years he made his home in Fremont, but returned to Holland four years ago.

Mrs. Robert Meldrun of Ganges was seriously injured Sunday evening when the car in which she was driving crashed into one driven by J. Bush of Holland. Mrs. Meldrun was cut on the face and arms by the flying glass from the broken windshield. Mrs. Helen Kitchen was injured slightly. The accident happened on the West Michigan pike 5 miles south of Douglas. The Bush car was further injured when it was hit by a third machine as Mr. Bush was backing his car out of the ditch into which it had plunged after the crash.

A hallowe'en party will be given by the Erworth League of the Methodist church Saturday evening. Where the party is to be held is a deep secret, but all those who take part are asked to come to the church at 7 o'clock, wearing old clothes and carrying ten cents in their jeans. The "fourth vice department" is preparing a big program and a big time for all. All young folks who are members or the friends of the church are cordially invited.

Levi Fellows, Ed Fellows of Olive, and Charles Janas, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, left Monday night for the north woods near Marquette. These men have never missed a deer hunt in 35 years, and they have gone early in order to be well established on November 10, when the deer season opens. Time was when these nimrods could take home all the deer they could shoot, but under the law only one deer is allotted to every hunter.

Anthony Rosbach was in Muskegon Tuesday attending a meeting of the Emeritus Board of the Christian Reformed church.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon Monday approved and signed regulations for the manufacture and sale of beer for medicinal purposes. The regulation has been held up pending action by congress on the Willis-Campbell beer bill. Secretary Mellon came to the conclusion that his department has no longer the right to withhold regulations that were required by existing law, it was stated.

A week-end party was enjoyed immensely at Cardeau Beach by the following girls: Norma Kardux, Mildred Bentsch, Rose Amrooy, Elizabeth Kraal, Mildred Slagh and Jeanette Hoffman. The girls were ably chaperoned by Jean Klumper, and all reported that they had the time of their young lives.

A real old-fashioned hallowe'en party was given Tuesday night in of Miss Janet Van Tongeren, who is soon to become a bride. She was given a beautiful electric toaster by the ten girl friends present. Needless to say, the evening was much enjoyed—just few enough girls to wreck the chance of formality—just many enough to carry out a lot of peppy Hallowe'en stunts.

Castle Lodge No. 153 K. of P. will give a Hallowe'en party on Thursday evening, Oct. 27. There will be cards and dancing, the card games starting at 7:45 sharp. Music is to be furnished by Lacey's five piece orchestra.

The painting of the Vander Veen building on River avenue and 8th street which, by the way, has improved that corner to a marked degree, has started other business firms to use the brush. The Notier, Van Ark Co. is painting its front white and the improvement is very evident.

Miss Margaret Bilz, of Spring Lake, lecturer and traveler, left Sunday night for a lecture tour. She will visit the state Sunday school convention at Kalamazoo, Chicago and the states of Colorado, Wyoming, and California. She will give lectures on her recent trip to the orient.

According to the state board of health there were 26 deaths from tuberculosis in Ottawa county in the year ending July 1. During that period Allegan reported 11 deaths from this cause and Muskegon 55.

Hope and Ferris elevens will clash on the local gridiron Saturday. The game will form a double header with Kalamazoo Central and Holland high school.

At least 35 gathered at the county Y meeting held at the high school for the purpose of starting two classes in gymnastics, one for the older men and one for the younger men. The meeting was full of pep and Director Smith who will have charge of the classes outlined his program for the coming winter. The board of education has donated two nights a week for this purpose when men who need exercise can do stunts with the medicine ball, the volley ball and other kindred sports to his heart's content. It surely is a new departure worth keeping up.

Corporal Ford Wise, 16 year old lad, who gave up his life for his country in France, was buried in Lake Forest, Grand Haven, Sunday. Services were held at the armory in charge of Rev. J. J. De Kraker.

The following election inspectors were appointed by the common council for the special election on November first: First ward, Jacob Lokker; second, John Woltman; 3rd Herman Garvelink; 4th, Gerrit Woltman; 5th, F. N. Yonkman; 6th, Herman Stegelder.

The average city gets revenue from many sources but the council had a new one sprung on it Wednesday night when Chief Van Ry turned in $4.50 to the city treasurer which represented money he had confiscated in a crap game. The game took place on the G. & M. docks.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Van Appledorn, E. 32nd street—a girl.

Ald. Brieve, chairman of the committee on poor, reported to the council Wednesday night that the sum of $98.36 had been expended for temporary aid the past two weeks.

Deputy Sheriff Oscar Johnson today served warrants on F. Miller and E. Howard of Geogretown and H. Donnelly and P. Kummel of Jamestown on the charge of not paying their dog licenses.

A hearing for the laying of curb and gutter for the paving of 19th-st., from Columbia to First was held Wednesday night and the work was ordered done, there being no objections to the improvement. The total cost of the improvement is $32,866.35, and work will begin early in the spring. The laying of the pavement on that street will be a separate job to be passed on later.

A car driven by Albert Streur going south on River avenue ran into a car driven by Mrs. Stroop going east on 12th street Wednesday evening at about 7 o'clock. The fender and running board of the Stroop car were smashed and the Streur car was also slightly injured. None of the occupants of the two cars was injured.

The replacing of old cribs at the Grand Haven harbor with concrete has been halted and the crews set to preparing for dredging harbors. The sea-going dredge, Meade, will complete the dredging of Frankfort harbor, where there is ferry traffic all winter, then go to Muskegon and later to Grand Haven, according to Assistant U. S. Eng. L. W. Goddard.

The total enrollment of students at Hope College is the largest the institution has ever had. The number has become so large that the faculty has found it necessary to have separate devotional exercises for the college and the preparatory departments so that the chapel may accommodate all the students. The college students meet with the faculty and those of the preparatory school at 10. Upon special occasions, when the entire student body assembles, the Y. M. C. A. annex is necessary to seat the studentry. The total enrollment in the College and Preparatory departments, exclusive of the music school is 491.

By classes the enrollment is as follows: D—42; C—29; B—33; A—24; Freshman—147; Sophomore—86; Junior—75; Senior—55.

ADVERTISING THE HOLLAND FURNACE.

When telling the world about the Holland Furnace we pass on the written or spoken words of our customers. As will be supposed, we often receive letters in which we are told that it will be a source of pleasure to the customer, if we will repeat in print the fact that he or she has at last found how delightful it is to live in a REAL cozy home.

One of the most likeable characteristics that home-lovers have, is the genuine wish that everyone else could live in cozy homes, too. They realize that they have greater strength and happiness because of their good homes, and it is only natural that they should pity those who are not so well fortified. Surely that must be the reason why they ask us to print their words of praise, rather than just their appreciation of having received a full, round measure of Service.

Whatever it is that prompts our customers to express themselves, makes advertising the Holland Furnace a pleasant task.

As a basis for it all, we must forget, of course, that or so much thereof as may be necessary to create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem the above bonds at maturity and said taxes in the sums above mentioned are now so levied for the years above mentioned; and said taxes or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the principal or interest of the above bonds, shall be paid into a separate fund to be known as "Series A Hospital Bonds," Sinking Fund, which fund is hereby established.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That all moneys collected from the above taxes together with any and all other moneys which the Council may appropriate for the payment of the principal or interest of the above bonds, shall be paid into a separate fund to be known as "Series A Hospital Bonds," Sinking Fund, which fund is hereby established.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the moneys assessed and collected as above set forth constituting said "Series A Hospital Bonds" Sinking Fund shall be used for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of said above described bonds as above provided and only for that purpose.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and the City Clerk, and to be negotiated at such times and in such manner as the Common Council may direct but at a price not less than the par value thereof.

WHEREAS IT IS NECESSARY and the Common Council deems it advisable to submit the proposition of raising said amount by the issuing of bonds, to the vote of the electors of the city:

THEREFORE, Be It Further Resolved:--

First. That the proposition to raise the amount of One Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($175,000) Dollars by loan and to issue bonds of the City of Holland, therefor, as hereinbefore determined and proposed, and for the purpose hereinbefore determined and set forth, and to be payable at the time and in the manner hereinbefore set forth, be submitted to the vote of the electors of the city of Holland at a special election, to be held on Tuesday the first day of November, A. D. 1921, and said day is hereby designated a Special Election for such purpose.

Second. That the substance of the question thus submitted be printed upon a separate ballot, and be set forth substantially in form and words as follows:

"Shall the City of Holland raise by loan the sum of One Hundred Seventy-five Thousand ($175,000) Dollars to be used for the purpose of erecting and equipping a municipal hospital suitable for the needs of the City, and the purchasing of a new site should the Common Council determine to change the present hospital location, and shall the bonds of the City of Holland, one hundred seventy-five in number, to be termed "Series A Hospital Bonds," be issued therefor in denominations of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars each and to be numbered from one to one hundred seventy-five, both inclusive, and to be payable as follows: Bonds Nos. 1 to 5 inclusive Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1922; Nos. 6 to 10 inclusive, Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1927; Nos. 11 to 15 inclusive, Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1928; Nos. 16 to 20 inclusive, Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1929; Nos. 21 to 25 inclusive, Five Thousand ($5000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1930; Nos. 26 to 30 inclusive, Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1931; Nos. 31 to 35 inclusive, Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1932; Nos. 36 to 40 inclusive, Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1933; Nos. 41 to 45 inclusive, Six Thousand ($6000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1934; Nos. 46 to 50 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1935; Nos. 51 to 55 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1936; Nos. 56 to 60 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1937; Nos. 61 to 65 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1938; Nos. 66 to 70 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1939; Nos. 71 to 75 inclusive, Seven Thousand ($7000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1940; Nos. 76 to 80 inclusive, Eight Thousand ($8000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1941; Nos. 81 to 85 inclusive, Eight Thousand ($8000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1942; Nos. 86 to 90 inclusive, Eight Thousand ($8000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1943; Nos. 91 to 95 inclusive, Eight Thousand ($8000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1944; Nos. 96 to 100 inclusive, Eight Thousand ($8000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1945; Nos. 101 to 105 inclusive, Nine Thousand ($9000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1946; Nos. 106 to 110 inclusive, Nine Thousand ($9000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1947; Nos. 111 to 115 inclusive, Nine Thousand ($9000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1948; Nos. 116 to 120 inclusive, Nine Thousand ($9000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1949; Nos. 121 to 125 inclusive, Nine Thousand ($9000) Dollars, Sept. 1, 1950; together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of March and September of each year."

LOCAL LEGION BAND SURE TO GO TO KANSAS CITY

It is now a settled fact that the American Legion band of this city will go to Kansas City to attend the national convention of the American Legion as the representative of the 5th Michigan District. Dr. W. Westrate was in Grand Rapids Wednesday and learned that Grand Rapids will foot the bill for a share of the expense, while Holland will be called upon for a donation also. A committee has been at work on the matter for some time and there is no longer any doubt about sending the band to the convention, according to Dr. Westrate.

The national convention of the American Legion will be one of the most significant meetings of that organization. Most of the famous admirals of the fleets of the Allied nations will be at the gatherings, as will a number of generals of the Allied armies.

While the band will represent the fifth Michigan district, it will also represent Holland and its journey will be one of the finest bits of advertising Holland could possibly get. Kansas City has appropriated $156,000 for the entertainment of the convention, and the American railroads leading to Kansas City have made arrangements for parking a large number of Pullman cars there that can be converted into temporary hotels to help provide room for the many thousands of delegates who will attend the convention.

Neither is the threatened railroad strike bothering the former soldiers. "We are not worrying about that," one of them said; "we'll run the trains ourselves, if there is no other way."

The band boys from here and the other delegates from this section are looking forward to the biggest convention in the history of the American legion. The local party will go in the company of the national commander, Major J. J. Emery of Grand Rapids.

"FOUR HORSEMEN" SMASHES RECORDS

The long-awaited Rex Ingram production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," is coming to the Strand theater next Monday and Tuesday. This is the picture that cost Metro $1,000,000 to make, and from all accounts the $1,000,000 was well spent as critics agree that all other efforts at production on a grand scale have been surpassed and record runs have been made in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities where the pictures have been previously shown. Fifty principals and 2500 extras were engaged in the filming of the photo drama, an entire French village and an elaborate chateau were erected to be destroyed under the artillery bombardment of the German invaders, and more than 125,000 tons of machinery, steel, lumber and furniture were used in creating background that are said to reproduce with the absolute fidelity the shifting panorama of the story.

"CAPPY" CAPPON TO GET A SHOW

Local football fans and especially those who went to Ann Arbor Saturday are laud in their praises of "Cappy" Cappon. Local fans however would be biased in their enthusiasm for a local boy.

This cannot be said however of the outside public. Men who attended the game Saturday stated that everywhere around them Cappon's work was being talked of. Strangers would say, "Who is that number 7?" "He's a wonder."

James De Pree, who is a personal friend of Coach Yost authorizes the statement that Yost personally told him that if Michigan had an eleven composed of "Cappys" and "Robys" two Holland men, there would be nothing that could beat Michigan's team.

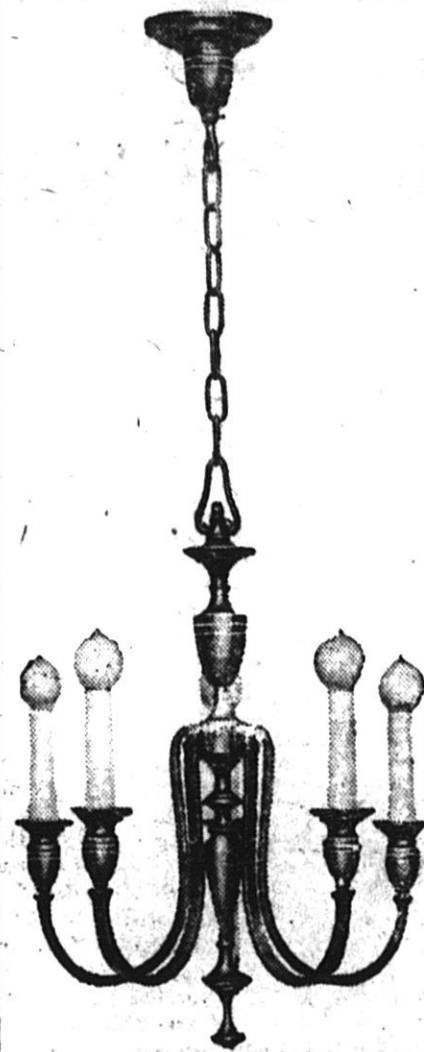

The item in the Chicago Tribune would indicate that Yost is recognizing the ability of Mr. Cappon at least, and is going to place him in a position where he can give a good account of himself, and you can bet that the modest Franklin from Holland will be heard from.

The item in the Chicago Tribune follows:

Ann Arbor, Oct. 25--With the return of Leroy Nesch, tackle candidate, who has been out of the game for the last month with injuries, Coach Yost moved Cappon into the back field in a long signal drill today. With Cappon in the backfield Yost will be assured of another good line plunger, and if he shows well Yost may use him permanently in this position.

Capt. Dunne, Kipke, Bank and Wilson were not on for practice today, but all but Bank's are expected to be in the game Saturday.

WINSTROM ELECTRIC CO.

You probably spend more time in your living room and dining room than in any other two rooms of your home. Here you have your pleasures and receive your guests. Certainly, then, these rooms should be attractive and comfortable. No other furnishing will give you the pleasure and add to the attractiveness of a room more than a beautiful chandelier.

Shaded silver, with gold lines, is the finish of this Colonial candle chandelier, which, in conformity with design, enables it to increase the attractiveness of a well-appointed dining room or living room. Silk shades may be added for a touch of color. Other equally attractive pieces can be seen at our display rooms, or we will gladly call with illustrations.

GOLDEN WEDDING CROWNS HAPPY MARRIED LIFE

Very impressive and at the same time very interesting wedding nuptials were solemnized on Saturday evening when Rev. G. B. Fleming performed fitting ceremonies again joining Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Henry Fairbanks, who fifty years ago on October 22, 1871, were wed by a former Holland pastor, Rev. William A. Bronson, who was at that time pastor of the M. E. church in this city.

The recurrence of the wedding on Saturday was the crowning golden event that spelled happiness of fifty years of congenial married life, and Rev. Fleming in conducting the ceremonies Saturday dwelled upon the solemnity of such an occasion, but naturally could not help but inject some humor wherever this could be fittingly done.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Rev. Fleming sang the old time favorite song "Sweet Genevieve" accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Fairbanks, followed by a duet by Mrs. Wm. Van den Berg and Rev. Fleming, "Long, Long Ago." Bridal couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Mrs. E. J. Fairbanks.

The old homestead on 27 W. 13th street, was especially fitted out for the golden wedding, and the home was appropriately decorated with potted plants, palms, yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds. After the ceremonies, congratulations were in order and relatives from far and near passed before the happy couple offering their good wishes and Godspeed during the evening of their married life.

The history of the Fairbanks family is unusually interesting. Isaac H. Fairbanks is the son of the late Isaac Fairbanks who came here about the same time as did Dr. Van Raalte, settling as a pioneer and a trail blazer in what is now Fillmore township.

The old gentleman Fairbanks located in Fillmore in 1846, one year in advance of the main Van Raalte colony.

The late Isaac Fairbanks who came from Massachusetts stock dating back to Revolutionary times, had received a government commission, delegating him to teach Indians in this vicinity, how to farm.

Holland at that time was nothing more than an Indian trading post.

The son who was born in Fillmore although coming from English stock can talk the Holland language nearly as well as his native tongue and is still well versed in the Redskin "jargon". For in his boyhood days he associated much with the Indians whom his father taught in the wilds of Ottawa and Allegan counties.

The home occupied by Mr. Fairbanks at 27 W. 13th street for nearly 50 years, was formerly the parsonage of Rev. William A. Bronson, and many church social functions were held at the parson's home.

It was at one of these social events that Mr. Fairbanks met and wooed the vivacious Miss Elizabeth Goodrick.

Hydro-Toron TIRES

GUARANTEED FOR 10,000

Miles Against Stone Bruise, - Rim Cut - Blowout

No risk - no guessing - no doubtful adjustments when you buy Hydro-Toron tires. They are made by such advanced processes that they are not to be confused in any way with ordinary tires. The Internal Hydraulic Expansion Process and the Toron fabric result in a tire of extraordinary quality and long life.

Big as Cords Better than Cords

Toron fabric is so proof against water that moisture seeping through a cut in the casing cannot rot it. There is more rubber in every Hydro-Toron tire. More mileage is certain because the tire stays whole; the common weakness that causes most tire troubles are completely done away with. Come in and get acquainted with these super-tires. Let us have the pleasure of proving that they are all that is claimed for them.

HYDRO TIRE & ACC. CO. Cor. Central Ave. and 7th St.

The happy young couple married two years later and a few years afterwards acquired the home in which their acquaintance began which resulted in a happy union.

Ten years ago Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks moved to a farm near the spot where his father had lived with the Indians and he as a boy associated with them.

A daughter, Mrs. William Vanden Berg now occupies the old home.

Surely the event of Saturday is a fitting sequel to a period of fifty years of happy married life, and although the pot of gold at the end of a rainbow is a myth, there was really a pot of gold at the end of the bow of happiness reflected in the nuptials of Saturday, as was shown by the many gifts and remembrances from relatives and friends.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Henry Fairbanks are five, all of them being present. They are: Mrs. A. G. Baumgartel, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Toward Line, Milo I. Fairbanks, Mrs. Wm. C. Vanden Berg and Edson Fairbanks of Holland.

SPEAKS ON "THE PASSING OF THE FREEBOOTER"

Prof. J. E. Kuizenga was the speaker at the Rotary Club Luncheon Thursday noon. The members all agree that it was an intellectual treat. His subject was, as A. H. Landwehr, Chairman of the day said, admirably adapted to the altruistic, philosophic man who chose it. The professor's subject was "The Passing of the Freebooter."

The illustrations that the professor used were historic facts. He brought to memory the disasters of both nations and individuals whose aims and efforts had been put forth only for the winning of empire and gold. He is of the firm belief that the time has come when the strong nations must help protect the weaker, if the world is to have peace. The fortunate, powerful man must be interested, he said, in the less fortunate brothers for their sakes—not for his own. He maintains that the personality of every wage-earner is a precious thing, and quite worthy of all the development that it can possibly have.

Prof. Kuizenga paints a very optimistic picture of what he believes the future has in store. He feels that the captains of industry are more and more becoming interested in the development of their employees' individualities and that the biggest of all men find pure enjoyment in a man-to-man helpfulness which they can pass on to associates less fortunate than themselves. He believes that men are becoming fairer, braver, more unselfish, and that the quality of man's work though temporarily demoralized during the war, is decidedly on the upward trend. He believes too, that our desires for pleasures are correspondingly to be cleaner and more wholesome every day.

After the address, which was received most enthusiastically, a short discussion of the hospital problem took place. This is one of the issues it was decided, that every good citizen and clear thinking voter of Holland will be glad of the opportunity to vote for. It's an issue that will be a great help to the weaker from the stronger. Nearly any member of Rotary club can afford to go to an out-of-town hospital, but they realize that the majority of us cannot afford it. Every member of the Rotary club favors the building of the new Holland hospital, even though the increased tax to cover the bonds will hit them harder than any other body of men in the city. This increase in tax however, is to be exceedingly light, if the people do decide to go through with it. When the exact figures are published, it will be seen that we cannot afford to be without it.

PURCHASES PRACTICE OF DR. H. C. WILLS

Dr. E. J. Hanes has purchased the osteopathic practice which has been conducted by Dr. H. C. Wills in this city for several years. Dr. Hanes will devote his entire time to the Holland practice. As soon as he is able to find a satisfactory dwelling, Mrs. Hanes and their children will join him.

Dr. Wills has for several years been conducting offices in both Grand Rapids and Holland, making his home in Grand Rapids. He will now confine all his attention to the Grand Rapids work.

FATHER OF OTTAWA COUNTY CLERK DIES

Jacob Sluiter, a resident of Grand Haven for more than half a century passed away Thursday at the Holland Home in Grand Rapids. Mr. Sluiter went to Grand Rapids several years ago taking rooms at the Holland Home, where he had since resided. Tuesday he was stricken with paralysis and his sons went to Grand Rapids immediately.

DUTCH MINISTER TO U. S. VISITS HOLLAND THURSDAY

Holland had a distinguished visitor Thursday in the person of Dr. J. C. A. Everwijn, recently appointed minister plenipotentiary from the Netherlands to the United States. Dr. Everwijn was the guest of Hope College Wednesday forenoon at a special meeting of the student body. He came to Holland during a visit to Grand Rapids because he wished to become acquainted with the Holland American communities in Western Michigan and wished to see for himself what the Hollanders and their descendants have been doing in the line of education.

Mrs. Henry Brunse was visiting in Grand Rapids Wednesday.

Nicholas Vyn and Miss Marian Pellegrum were united in marriage Tuesday evening at the parsonage of the First Reformed church. The marriage service was performed by Rev. RED CROSS DRIVE TO START ARMISTICE DAY

WILL BE TAKEN HOLD OF BY AMERICAN LEGIONNAIRES

The regular subscription of $1.00 a head will be collected in this city for the Red Cross of this county.

Mrs. L. M. Thurber who is at the head of the Red Cross in Holland and in Ottawa county has enlisted the services of all ex-service men who will take up these burdens, organize soliciting squads and endeavor to get Holland to go over the top 100 per cent.

An endeavor will be made to have managers of factories take this matter up with employees and thus endeavor to get a full quota in each and every factory.

The drive will open on November 11, Armistice day, and will last until after Thanksgiving day.

The guns ceased firing at 11 o'clock on November 11, 1918, but the ex-service men are still being cared for by the Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross at the rate of $126 every month. That is why efforts are being made this year to have the "Annual Roll Call" bring in 150,000 memberships.

TWO WELL KNOWN MEN TO GO TO WASHINGTON

At a recent meeting at Atlantic City of the National Furniture Men's association, two well known men were placed on a very important committee.

E. P. Stephan of Holland Furniture company and Chas. R. Sligh of the Sligh Furniture Co., who spoke at the Exchange club luncheon yesterday, have been chosen to go to Washington for the purpose of coming before the congressional committee on tariff to discuss the matter of tariff on glass. All case goods manufacturers are intensely interested in the importation of glass, and wish to see that justice is done furniture manufacturers, along this line.

Strong competition with other countries especially Germany make it imperative that the tariff on glass be readjusted.

Another member of the committee is Mr. Steinman of Steinman & Meyer, large manufacturers of Cincinnati.

The Holland Rifle club held its final shoot of the season and good scores were made despite the strong wind blowing of which Wm. Woldring scored 178 out of a possible 200. Henry F. Koop and Henry Van Eyck each scored 170; C. A. Bigge 164; Sam Alkhuus 160; E. O'Connor and D. Van Tatenhove each scored 154; A. Sierma 153 and H. TenCate 150.

The trophy cup given by the National Sportsman for the best rifle shot in Holland was won by William Woldring, who broke all records for the season's shoot with C. Van Zyl being his closest rival, which made the season's shoot very interesting from the start to finish and also one of the best in its history.

The examination of John Tinhoft charged with perjury was held Tuesday at the city hall and a greater part of the day was devoted in submitting evidence gathered by Prosecutor Miles and Sheriff Portney.

Attorney Thos. N. Robinson and Jay Den Herder appeared for Tinhoft. One of the bits of evidence upon which the prosecutor based his perjury charges are said to consist of a piece of wadding that is alleged to have come from the cushion of the auto that was blown to pieces when the shot from the gun penetrated it.

It is claimed that this wadding was found near the Waverly bridge instead of a mile east of John Y. Huizenga's home, the place where Tinhoft contended at the trial the first scuffle between him and his stepson took place.

A local druggist was also involved in the trial when Tinhoft claimed he purchased the Beef, Iron & Wine at this place of business, purchasing one bottle. The druggist denied this on the stand stating that he had not sold the patent medicine to Tinhoft. Anyway Justice Brusse considered that there was enough evidence to bind the Zeeland man over to circuit court which he did.

BENTHEM NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. George Rutgers of Kalamazoo, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chennelles of Olivet visited Mrs. G. Rutgers and family last week.

Mrs. H. T. Damelang took care of Mrs. T. Damberg last week.

John Damberg was an Allegan caller Saturday.

The Social Progress club of Holland met Tuesday evening at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Waltz on Macatawa Park road, and were given a royal good time by the genial host and hostess.

Dr. A. T. Godfrey was on the program for a paper, his subject being "A Neglected Opportunity."

It was Mr. Godfrey's opinion that Holland fails completely to take care of its tourist trade, and consequently is not getting nearly its share of business that would come to it over the West Michigan pike from Chicago and from the south and west.

Mr. Godfrey pointed out what a great many other towns are doing, and have done in the way of attracting this traveling transient trade. He stated that elsewhere are to be found auto parking camps, good hotels, information bureaus, equipped with road maps, and other innovations that would help the traveler.

Holland because of its natural advantages, located as it is on the main highway between Chicago and Mackinaw is in a position to get a great deal of trade because of this ideal location.

Mr. Godfrey also stated that the merchants of Holland are neglecting an opportunity when they do not foster this project more, and cater in a larger measure to this tourist trade.

After Mr. Godfrey had read his paper a very vigorous discussion relative to its merits was indulged in.

The new hospital and new school propositions were also thoroughly discussed from every angle and it was the sense of the majority of the members present that both were very necessary projects.

The members in the future will also have to pay more money into the club treasury, the annual dues have been raised from one to two dollars a year.

The following pupils of Junior High school are on the honor roll, having had an average standing of 95% or above: 8-2—Marie Dykstra.

Mabel Essenberg, Raymond Steketee, John Tate. 8-1—Evelyn Steketee, Leona Nystrom, Russell Smith, Gerrit Tyse, Isabel Yonkman. 7-2—Edward Wendell, John Aldus, Charles Verburg Kathryn Risselada. 7-1—Maria Kulte, Ivan Stringer, Ruth Vanden Berg, Josie Mokma.

These lists will appear often and the aim of the pupils is to get their names on the list and see how long they can keep them there.

The first fall meeting of the P.T. club of Froebel school was held on Tuesday evening and was well attended and an unusually interesting program was arranged for. Neil Vander Meulen giving his "Poor Relations" speech which made a hit.

George Mooi and Fred Beeuwkes members of the board of education were present, each giving short talks upon the absolute necessity of the building of a Junior high school. The club went on record as favoring the project.

A program of music was next in order when Miss Olam McClellan and Mrs. William C. Vanden Berg favored the gathering with a vocal duet. John Vandersluis led in the community singing and Edward Stephan ably presided at the piano, furnishing the music for all the singing.

A business meeting was then held when the matter of milk for the children was discussed. The cost and ways and means will be a matter that will be taken up at the next meeting.

The P.T. club will also hold an auction sale, the proceeds to go to the paying of a piano, the board of education and the club going "fifty-fifty" on the expense. William Vanden Berg was made chairman of this committee.

The successful meeting ended after the refreshments were served.

The annual election of officer of the Holland Rifle club was held with the following results: President, H. F. Koop; vice president, D. Van Tatenhove; treasurer, Jacob Fris; secretary, Wm. Woldring; executive officer and range manager, Henry VanEyck; assistant range manager, Sam Alkhuus.

On last Friday night the Forward Movement Club met at the home of John Homfield on W. 13th St. The principal subject for consideration was "What attitude should be taken towards the interurban truck and taxi business in competition with the steam and electric roads."

In the discussion it was brot out that the club considered this an up-to-date and legitimate competition, but favored strict laws forcing these concerns to take out bonds sufficient to protect the riding public, and the paying of a tax for the upkeep of the roads, which they are now using free of charge, and also the use of a standard size car.

There is no doubt but that the city attorney, Mayor Stephan and the common council have gone the limit in fighting the new rates established by the Michigan Railway between Holland and Macatawa Park and elsewhere along its line.

The decision handed down by Judge Orin S. Cross apparently ends

WANTED—Oilers and patchers, cabinet makers and hardware trimmers on cabinet work. Steady work for competent mechanics. No labor trouble. Apply The Brunswick-Balke Collender Co., Dubuque, Ia. N5-3w the fight, for this decision is based upon a ruling of the state supreme court and upheld by the United States Supreme court, and while the city could fight further it would be a useless waste of money and an endless litigation which would bring Holland nowhere. City Attorney McBride states it all in a nutshell, when he says, "You are done when you bump up against two unfavorable decisions handed down by the highest tribunals and law authorities in the land."

Mr. McBride stated however that officials of the Michigan railway had sent representatives down to find out whether some amicable solution of the situation could not be brought about. A better understanding may be the result of such a conference.

Basketball already is the center of considerable attention at M. A. C. Coach Lyman Primodig has been relieved of his duties with the varsity football line by Del Vandervoort of Lansing and is now devoting his time to the court squad. With the possible exception of Eddie Gilkey the entire team from last season is back. Gilkey is not in school this fall, but is expected to return for the winter term. His running mate at forward, Doc. Heasley of Zeeland, is captain for the coming season.

At the regular meeting of Crescent Hive No. 374 held Tuesday evening the following officers were installed: Deputy Great Commander Flora Wetherby acted as Great Installing officer, Blanche Burrows, great M. at A. and Sarah J. McClellan, great chaplain.

VANDER WERF-KALKMAN

A simple but very impressive wedding took place Tuesday, Oct. 25 at high noon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. VanderWerf of 112 W. 10th street when Miss Cora Vander Werf was married to Mr. Kryn Kalkman, both of Holland. The bride's father assisted by Rev. Wm. Van Kersen, performed the ceremony. A beautiful arch of red autumn leaves was banked with palms. Miss Lucile and Alyda Vander Werf, sisters of the bride, presided at the piano and Mrs. H. Vander Werf of Muskegon, sang "Beloved, it is morn." Miss Jeanette Van Tongeren was maid of honor and wore a pink crepe de chine dress. She carried a bouquet of pink columbine roses. Little Nellie Kalkman, the ring bearer wore a white organdy dress trimmed in pink ribbon. The bride was gownned in white crepe de chine and looked very charming in her long veil which was fastened to her hair by white rose buds. She carried a beautiful bouquet of pink Othelia roses. The best man was William Bos of Zeeland. A wedding dinner was served for all the guests, about thirty in number. The decorations were pink and white and were in charge of Miss Lucile Vander Werf, cousin of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Werf of Grand Rapids acted as master and mistress of ceremonies. The bride and groom left for Grand Rapids where they will spend their honeymoon. Prior to her wedding, Mrs. Kalkman was guest of honor at a number of showers and other entertainments and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Miss Jennie and Marie Kalkman were in charge of the gift room.

For the name selected as best, we will pay $250. For the second, third, fourth, and fifth choice, we will pay $100, $75, $50, and $25 respectively.

Anyone may enter the contest, but only one name from each person will be considered.

All names must be received by December 15th, 1921. In case of ties, the full amount of the prize will be given to each tying contestant. Do not send your cake. Simply send the name you suggest, with your own name and address, to the

ROYAL BAKING POWDER COMPANY
149 William Street, New York

How to make it

Use level measurements for all materials

1/2 cup shortening
1 1/4 cups sugar
Grated rind of 1/2 orange
1 egg and 1 yolk
2 1/2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 cup milk
1 1/4 squares (1 1/4 oz.) of unsweetened chocolate (melted)
1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream shortening. Add sugar and grated orange rind. Add beaten egg yolks. Sift together flour, salt and Royal Baking Powder and add alternately with the milk; lastly fold in one beaten egg white. Divide batter into two parts. To one part add the chocolate. Put by itself in one pan, alternative dark and light batter into three 9-inch layer cake pans. Bake in moderate oven 20 minutes.

FILLING AND ICING

3 tablespoons melted butter 2 tablespoons orange juice
3 cups confectioner's sugar 1 egg white
(Powdered sugar may be used but does not make so smooth icing) 3 squares (3 oz.) unsweetened chocolate
Grated rind of 1/2 orange and pulp of 1 orange

Put butter, sugar, orange juice and rind into bowl. Cut pulp from orange, removing skin and seeds, and add. Beat all together until smooth. Fold in beaten egg white. Spread this icing on layer used for top of cake. While icing is soft, sprinkle with unsweetened chocolate shaved in fine pieces with sharp knife (use 1/2 square). To remaining icing add 1 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate which has been melted. Spread this thickly between layers and on sides of cake.
