BUILDING PERMITS
ARE LIMITED
AS TO TIMECOUNCIL ESTABLISHES THIS PRINCIPLE AT MEETING
LAST NIGHT

When the common council issues a building permit it does not mean that that permit is to be good forever. This principle was established at the meeting Wednesday night. A permit had been granted for an oil station about a year ago and no building operations have yet been started.

It was pointed out that conditions are always changing and that it is not wise to leave such a permit stand open indefinitely. In this case the owner of the permit will be informed that it will be revoked unless he can show cause why it should remain open. And as a general principle those who secure building permits will be expected to make use of them within a reasonable time after the permits are issued or have them revoked.

EDUCATION IS
SAYS WALDOPRESIDENT OF THE WEST-
ERN STATE NORMAL, MAKES PLEA FOR SUPPORT OF SCHOOLS

"What Must We Do To Be Saved?" was the subject of a stirring education week address delivered Wednesday noon before the Holland Exchange club by President Waldo of the Kalamazoo Normal. The subject did not refer to the soul's salvation, as it usually does, but to the salvation of American civilization.

President Waldo humorously enumerated a number of panaceas that have been urged for saving society, from bath tubs to patent medicines, and the connotation of his remarks was that most of the things that are brought forward as panaceas are not such in fact. But he declared that in a country that depends on the intelligence of its people for continued existence, as America does, popular education is fundamental and American civilization can survive only by supporting the education of the people to the utmost.

He enumerated five essentials in the educational program; high and growing standards, the enactment of those standards into law, adequate publicity for education, adequate remuneration for the teacher, and enough teachers' training institutions properly supported to train these teachers.

President Waldo emphatically asserted that the children of today get better schooling in the fundamentals than the children of a generation ago, but that the standard of education in America is still so much in its infancy that 550 years from now people will be ashamed of what is being done today in support of education. The standards of today are higher than the standards of a generation ago but the standards of the next generation will be higher than those of today.

Those standards must be made effective in law so that the teaching personnel shall be high class. Education needs publicity and it is getting much more than that in the past. All sorts of men are becoming interested in education and that advertises it naturally. The teacher is as important to society as the manufacturer and should be as well paid, he said, and the training schools must be supported so that the teaching force will not fail. Prof. Waldo was introduced by Principal J. J. Riemersma.

When disaster strikes bewildered victims of calamity turn to the American Red Cross as their natural protectors and the only organization in the United States equipped to handle not only the immediate relief work but the ultimate rehabilitation of the stricken area.

In the confusion and despair which follows the juggernaut of disaster the Red Cross workers bring the beginnings of hope, of order and of plan. Quickly and completely they supplement the provision already made for emergency relief—the care of the housed, the clothing and feeding of refugees. In some quiet place, apart from the turmoil of first aid and first relief, the leaders of the community sit in council with the personal representative of the vice chairman of the American National Red Cross. They hear from him the experience of other stricken communities now restored, they receive and accept his proffer of Red Cross cooperation until their own rehabilitation shall be complete, and they designate authorized representatives to serve on an advisory committee.

Six months or a year later this committee and the Red Cross representative survey the results of the labor of rehabilitation. They look upon a community rebuilt and restored, wherein the actual needs resulting from the disaster having been fully met in every family. An audit by the War Department assures them that every cent of the relief fund has been spent properly for disaster relief. Except for the irreparable loss of loved ones and the results of serious personal injuries the community stands restored, rehabilitated, its homes rebuilt and refurbished, the widows and orphans of the disaster provided for, farms restored, business better than before.

Such has been the uniform experience of hundreds of American towns and countryside since 1905. The development of the knowledge, the skill, and the technique that can assure such a result is one of the outstanding achievements of the American genius for organization and perhaps the most spectacularly recent development in social work.

The outstanding characteristic of the disaster technique of the American Red Cross is its efficiency. It works in the varied emergency situations to which it is applied. It is at once the conclusive vindication of the "case work" method and the most convincing evidence that this method is not rigid. Disaster case work is stripped to the bare essentials, and experienced disaster case-workers proceed with rapidity surprising to first observers, and with equally surprising sureness. The fourteen points of the disaster face sheet, competent, covered and competently judged, result almost invariably in just awards, the rightness of which the family worker can demonstrate to client, business man, or fellow social worker. The best proof, of course, is the uniformity with which clients build back, return, and again take up their former lives with the assistance granted. This excellence of disaster case work appears to be the striking development of disaster technique within the past ten years.

MUZIO WHO WILL BE AT CARNEGIE HALL NOV. 23RD

CLAUDIA MUZIO in one of her thrilling moments as Madeleine in "Andrea Chénier," by Umberto Giordano. About the only omission in the way of blood curdling incidents of the French revolution is the actual guillotine, but there are moments in the course of the opera when you almost believe that you actually see it.—Chicago Tribune.

NEW CHURCH
TO BE BUILTBAPTISTS TO ERECT PLACE
OF WORSHIP CORNER
19TH AND PINE

Another church building is soon to be erected in Holland it will be the first building that will be erected by the Baptist denomination. The congregation, through its officers, petitioned the common council Wednesday night for the right to erect a basement of what will eventually be a church on the corner of 19th street and Pine avenue. The plan seems to be to cover the basement with a roof, as has been done with other church buildings and use it as a place of worship, later adding the superstructure. This was not said in the application for a building permit, but it is deduced from the fact that only a basement was asked for in the petition.

The size will be 40 by 55 feet and the cost will be approximately $4,000. The council readily granted the permit. The congregation has been holding services in the W. L. C. hall.

"THE FIRST YEAR"
WILL BE RATHER
COMICAL PLAYEXPERIENCES OF NEWLY-
WEDS TO BE TOLD IN FARCE
BY ZEELAND SENIORS

Zeeland seniors are to present for public approval a farce entitled "The First Year." The play will present the many trying and comical situations that a first-year married couple have to contend with on a nature. The skit holds its store "oceans" of side-splitting laughter for an appreciative audience.

Miss Mildred VerHage will be the leading lady and Mr. Stanley De Free will play opposite. In other words the two are to be the newlyweds on the stage of course.

Robt. De Bruin will be an absent-minded father while Miss Bina Boonstra will portray the domineering mother of the supposedly happy couple. There must be a rival and a villain naturally and Chester Van Loo does this stunt to perfection. Other actors are Dick Walters, Raymond Brummel, Miss Elizabeth Heyboer and Margaret Miller. The play is given on December 9 and 10. It wouldn't be half bad for the Zeeland troupe "barn storm" Holland for a night. Holland folks would sure be there.

ELKS TO GIVE
USUAL THANKS-
GIVING PARTYPAID A SPECIAL PREMIUM TO GET REAL BIRDS FOR NOVEMBER 24

John E. Klekentveldt, secretary of the B. P. O. E. Elks No. 1315 announces in a circular letter to all members, that on the Tuesday previous to Thanksgiving day, which this year is November 24, the usual Thanksgiving party will be held.

At that time turkeys will be given away, and this will be an interesting feature. The committee in charge has selected prime birds, paying a premium to get nice young stock well fed.

Naturally there will be a program and a good lunch and plenty of smokes. Members are privileged to take friends along for an evening's entertainment. Sixty pounds of turkey are to be turned into sandwiches and that sure will make some pile.

Remember the time is Tuesday Nov. 24 and the place is under the tower clock, the party starts promptly at 8 o'clock.

FAVORS UNIFORM
TRAFFIC LAWCOUNCIL VOTES TO TAKE THIS ATTITUDE ON TRAFFIC PROBLEMS

The common council went on record Wednesday night as being in favor of a uniform traffic ordinance. The secretary of the uniform traffic ordinance association sent the council a copy of the tentative ordinance passed recently at the Grand Rapids meeting where Holland was represented by Ald. Dykstra and Arthur Van Duren. This ordinance will come up for further consideration at the meeting called by Herbert Hoover in Washington in January. The secretary asked that Holland indicate its position and the aldermen gave the clerk instructions to write that Holland favors a uniform traffic ordinance. This does not bind Holland to any particular ordinance but shows that it wants uniform regulation of traffic throughout the state.

EDUCATIONAL PARADE
TOMORROW AT 1:15 P. M.

Tomorrow at 1:15 o'clock 2,650 pupils, the teaching staff of the Holland Public schools and possibly a few bands will form a parade and march thru the streets of Holland, starting from 15th street going north on River avenue, east on 8th street, south on College Avenue to Fifteenth street where the parade will disband.

MODERN POULTRY BREED-ER NOW STATE CORP.

During the past week the Modern Poultry Breeder, Michigan's poultry magazine, printed at Zeeland, became a state corporation, when it was incorporated under the laws of the state of Michigan. The action took place at its office in the Zeeland Record building last Friday when Mrs. R. S. Rathmer, Jay P. Garlough and A. Van Koeveing formed the new corporation.

Under the new order of the company Mrs. Rathmer is president, Mr. Garlough, vice-president, and Mr. Van Koeveing, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Rathmer remains managing editor, and Mr. Garlough becomes advertising manager.

HOLLAND HIGH
PLAYS LAST GAME
OF THE SEASONWILL GO TO KALAMAZOO SAT-URDAY MORNING FOR AF-TERNOON GAME

The last game of the season for the Holland high football team, is scheduled for Saturday with the Normal high at Kalamazoo.

There is more than the usual interest displayed in this out-of-town game, and a large number of fans will either go by interurban, automobile or Greyhound.

The boys will leave at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, on the Greyhound, and the game is to start 10 o'clock Kalamazoo time, which means 12:00 o'clock Holland time.

Grand Haven naturally has to enter into the play indirectly. Hinga's men want to win from Kalamazoo for the reason that the Normal high played Grand Haven to a nothing to nothing score.

Another reason for the unusual interest is that this is the last game that many Holland stars will be in the lineup on a Holland high football team, since this is their last year.

Only 29 days to shop before Christmas.

DRUKKERS
HAVE REASONS
TO CELEBRATEREV AND MRS D. W. DRUKKER
OF ZEELAND COMMEMOR-
ATE MANY THINGS

The month of November is a month of celebrating in the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Drukker, formerly of Holland but now of Zeeland. On November 18th they were privileged to commemorate their 20th wedding anniversary, and one half of this score of years was spent in Holland and one-half in Zeeland with the exception of three years in Kalamazoo. Tomorrow they will celebrate the 7th anniversary of their affiliation with the Third Christian Reformed church at Zeeland. It was seven years ago when Rev. Drukker came to this struggling congregation with only forty families. Today it is a prosperous church, with 120 families, and during the time that Mr. Drukker has been in charge, a modern church edifice has been built followed by a fine parsonage for the deserving minister and his family.

During this month Mr. Drukker can also celebrate the 35th anniversary of his ordination as a minister of the gospel.

Other reasons for rejoicing in the Drukker family, is the ordination of Raymond Drukker as a minister this year, the son entering into religious work following in the footsteps of his father and grandfather. They also witnessed the marriage of their son this year. Mr. Drukker has not served as many charges as some pastors, although he has not been lacking for calls. Often there have been two and three calls for consideration at one time. During the past thirty years he has served pastorates at Midland, N. J.; Drenthe, Friesland, Holland; First Christian Reformed, Kalamazoo; and Third Christian Reformed, Zeeland. At this time he is entertaining a call from the United Presbyterian church of Beigraire, Ohio, which everyone in Zeeland is hoping he will decline.

YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY
ALLIANCE GIVES FIRST
LECTURE COURSE NUMBER

The Young Men's Society Alliance will give the first number of their lecture course on "The Giving Night." In the auditorium of the Christian High school, the so-called "student four" of Calvin College are coming to render a program that is a sure hit everywhere.

These versatile young men feature in voice and instrumental music, and the program will be replete with solos, duets and quartets.

John Weidenauer the famous reader and orator of Calvin College is to be on the program for several selections. There will also be a skit in the Friesian dialect that is coming to the extreme West. Rutgers the well known voice soloist is also scheduled to appear.

The program will be interspersed with tableaux and offerings and pantomime.

Board of Health
Will Pass On
T. B. Patients

Health Officer Cook reported two more tuberculosis patients in Holland who wish to take advantage of the system of being given treatment at a sanatorium at the expense of the city. The council decided to refer such cases to the board of health, with the understanding that the board shall pass on each individual case to see whether the patient is deserving of aid or can finance treatment himself. A bid in all deserving cases the city will come to the rescue.

WHAT HERMAN
DE VRIES SAYS
ABOUT MUZIOPRIMA DONNA WILL BE HERE
ON EVENING OF NO-
VEMBER 23

The following is from the pen of Herman De Vries, art critic of the Chicago American:

"With the first phrases in 'Aida,' I, and I think the public too, was completely subjugated. Muzio has every grace, every charm, every talent that nature and art can bestow. Her voice, while it does not sound by its power, caresses you with its luscious, warm, liquid softness, and thrills with a note of tragedy or drama, without departing from its loveliness in euphony. Her every pose has plastic beauty of line, never a fawning movement, yet never impressing as a striving for effect. Her musicianship is faultless, and she never sings out of tune. Her ability is here in ample measure, and an analytical intelligence to create her own characterization independent of precedent. Youth, enthusiasm, personality—all are hers.

"When critics write of Muzio they must needs dip their pen into honey and perfume. 'Aida,' 'Trovatore,' 'Pagliacci,' 'Tosca,'—what matters the rule? Everything Muzio attempts is a legitimate triumph!

"Her return next season is as certain as that the admiration of her new-won public will be royal and lasting."

Muzio comes to Holland November 23 at 8 P. M. at Carnegie hall.

SLIPPERY CROOKS
GET AWAY FROM
ZEELAND OFFICERSHOODWINK A FEW OF OUR NEIGHBORING CITI-ZENS

Two slippery crooks managed to slip away from Zeeland officials on Tuesday of this week, meanwhile gathering in some $12.00 in cash from the unwary public.

The two young men came from nowhere in an automobile and proceeded to sell magazines in Zeeland city. They finally struck the public schools where they installed the teachers subscribe for their publications, demanding one-fourth down, the balance to be paid to the publishers directly after the paper was received the first time. After the attention of Supt. Denison had been called to the matter the young men made their exit on double quick and succeeded in leaving to parts unknown before they could be gathered in by the police.

The net results, as far as officers were able to learn, is that they managed to collect about $12 in checks which they cashed with Zeeland dealers. Payment on these checks were stopped at the banks but not before the crooks had cashed them at some store and it is possible that the merchants may be the sufferers.

HOLLAND TOWNSHIP MAN
WEDS WESTERN GIRL

Wilson Stegeman, medical doctor, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stegeman, residing at Scholten's bridge, Holland Township, writes that he is now located in Portland, Oregon, where he is now working with Dr. R. Coffey, the most noted surgeon of the north-west. Mr. Stegeman is a 1924 graduate from Rush Medical college, and has served his internship in Santa Barbara, California. On September 1st, 1925, he was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Osborne, a University of California girl.

CONSCIENCE MONEY IS PAID TO FORMER
HOLLAND MANTWENTY-YEAR OLD
BILL IS PAID

Twenty-four years ago when General A. Kanters was engaged in business in Holland, Mich., a woman purchased a box of goods at his store amounting to $16.81. The account was charged. Days and weeks passed and the account was not settled. Months passed and then years until Mr. Kanters decided he might as well forget the amount.

However, a few days ago he received a communication from a woman who now resides in Flint, Mich., asking him if he had the party to whom she was indebted, and upon being apprised of this fact that he was the same man who had sold her the bill of goods she immediately sent him a check for the full amount.

Friends with whom Mr. Kanters has talked about the incident have told him it is a most unusual case and in their opinion happens not more than once in 1,000 times considering the length of time.—Wasconsin Racine Journal-News.

TO SEND TWO MEN TO RIVERS,
HARBORS MEETHOLLAND WILL AGAIN BE REPRESENTED AT MEET-
ING IN WASHINGTON

Holland is again to be represented at the national rivers and harbors congress that is to meet in Washington in December. The meeting this year will be of unusual importance because of the fact that the funds for river and harbor work are practically depleted and unless congress can be persuaded to pass appropriations for this cause, much river and harbor work will have to be stopped.

For that reason an appeal has been made for a large representation from all cities that are directly interested in this work. Holland the past few years has been sending two delegates to the meeting in Washington and the common council Wednesday night authorized Mayor Kammeraad to appoint two delegates this year. The mayor has not yet announced his appointments.

ANNIVERSARY NUMBER TO BE PUBLISHED

For the last two months Secretary Brouwer of the Holland Poultry association has been preparing copy for the 25th anniversary number of the Holland Poultry association. Some very interesting facts will be given, beginning 25 years ago, when the poultry association was first organized in Holland.

The charter members, the different officers of the association from year to year, the development of the Holland organization as well as the poultry industry of Ottawa county will be fully described.

There will be many interesting side lights about the Holland Poultry association, and the book will be full of poultry information, past and present. There will be several illustrations that are fitting for a souvenir of this kind.

A great deal of the information that Mr. Brouwer gathered during the past summer was taken from back files of the Holland City News, covering a period of more than 25 years. It took Mr. Brouwer several months to gather and then compile this poultry resume.

There will be sixteen columns of it and the history is very complete. Mr. Brouwer states that he has already received several requests for these souvenirs. He states that the book will be ready to issue in about ten days, and the members of the association are supplied, other requests for souvenirs will be taken care of.

He states that first come first served. Any request by mail will bring a souvenir soon afterwards. No attention will be paid to phone calls, only to written requests, and that is only as long as the supply lasts. All letters or postal cards should be addressed to Edw. Brouwer, Secretary of the Holland Poultry Association, Holland, Michigan.

Preparations for the big anniversary show on Dec. 15-19, are going steadily on. It will be held in the new armory at that time.

Rev. Albertus Pieters, D. D., is giving a course of missions at the local seminary, in addition to his regular Bible work at Hope college. Last Wednesday evening the mission class was entertained at his home at supper and many interesting "inside views" of the work were given. This afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Pieters hope to meet the young ladies connected with the class.

Dr. and Mrs. Pieters spent more than 30 years in foreign mission work, having been members of the Japan mission of the Reformed Church in America.

The following statement was issued today by Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, chairman of the Red Cross membership campaign which opened here yesterday, explaining the different kinds of membership and the disposition that is made of the money.

There are four different types of membership, she stated, "involving $25, $10, $5 and $1 membership fees. From each membership only fifty cents goes to the national headquarters of the Red Cross to carry on its national and international work. The rest of the money remains in the treasury of the local chapter to finance the work in the community. Therefore, from a $25 membership, $24.50 is spent locally, while fifty cents goes into the national Red Cross treasury. Similarly, with a $1 membership, fifty cents goes to national headquarters and fifty cents remains for our chapter. The Red Cross holds no tag days. The roll call is its only means of support for either the local activities or for the work of the national organization. The details of organization have been completed and all plans effected for a speedy solicitation of the entire community. Red Cross officials state that prospects are good for a record enrollment, and they confidently expect this year's membership to be a substantial increase over that of last year.

Mrs. F. D. Smith of Coopersville, has a flag over 60 years old in her possession, that she used to decorate her window with Armistice day. It floated in the breeze over her father's (Capt. C. Neal) tent in Knoxville, Tenn., during the Civil war. Mrs. Neal was captain of the 1st Michigan Light Infantry, and participated in the battle of Bull Run; also in two captures of the rebel John Morgan, at Buffington Island, and at the siege of Knoxville under Burnside.

He was presented with a handsome silver mounted sword by the members of his company, which is now in the possession of his son's wife, Mrs. Fred Neal, of Akron, Ohio.

The first acquittal in four criminal trials in the November term of district court, now being presided over by Circuit Judge C. S. Cross, occurred Friday night when a jury sitting in the case of the people vs. Harry Emsink, 24, of Zeeland, found Emsink not guilty of a charge of violating the prohibition law.

Emsink was arrested on an affidavit furnished by a liquor purveyor who first made out affidavits for two other parties. Later it is alleged that he changed his story. The discrepancy was salient point in the defense.

In the board of supervisors report just printed it appears that a M-51 from Holland to Zeeland should be relocated. An application has been made to the State highway department for a preliminary survey for relocation, which includes a route through the City of Zeeland via Washington street instead of Main street. Numerous accidents have occurred at the bridge at the Vriesland sink hole and the state has been importuned to give immediate consideration to the construction of a permanent bridge at this point.

Attorney Thos. W. Robinson has returned from a business trip to Chicago.

Is our public library well patronized, Listen. During October, 1925, 4749 books and magazines were circulated for home use, as compared with 3707 for October, 1924. The total evening attendance in the reading room for the past month has been 1264.

Ed Leeuw of the Hudson-Exeter, Co., Nick Hotaten and Frank Lieveens left for a two weeks' trip through the northern peninsula. They intend to go to Ishpeming in the heart of the deer country, 600 miles north of Holland.

The hunters are well prepared for their outing, Ed Leeuw having converted a large house into a sort of house on wheels. This contains cooking outfit, sleeping quarters, dining room, water tank, ice box, tool box, gun rack, chairs, a table, smoking outfit and even a phonograph and radio combination. In that wooded country hunters are often 50 miles from any civilization but via the radio they are in constant touch with the civilized world.

Mr. Leeuw tells of an occasion this summer when the brook trout season opened when he also used the house car, and he stated that some evenings when the isolated fishermen were listening to a Chicago program, via K. Y. W. station, miles from nowhere, Mrs. Leeuw was listening to the same program at her home in Holland, which goes to show that the world today is not so very large after all, owing to the wonderful inventions that are now in general use.

Rather a unique way to go to Florida and one that may become rather popular, if there is time to spare, is an excursion via steamboat. The steamer "United States" left Grand Haven Friday forenoon, and intended to Muskogee to get an added load of excursionists and proceed to Milwaukee, where still more people who wanted to go to Florida by water.

The steamer is now on its way to Detroit via the Great Lakes, and when it arrives there another crowd of excursionists will be found ready to go aboard.

This winter, the steamer Arizona will be on the run. She left Milwaukee Friday at about eleven o'clock in the morning after having been in drydock at Manitowoc, Wis., fitted out for the winter traffic. The Arizona is an excellent passenger carrier and has an immense amount of cargo space for freight. She is also a good boat in the ice, it is stated.

The "States" has been chartered for the Florida run this season and after discharging her excursionists, will run out of Tampa until next May when she will return to the lakes. She was previously fitted for salt water so that there will be no changes necessary in fitting her out.

ZEELAND MEN ARE INVOLVED IN FRAUD

An auto insurance fraud was uncovered Friday at Grand Rapids, police allege, with the arrest of three men who are charged with conspiring to defraud an insurance company by arranging the "theft" of an automobile to collect the insurance.

The three held are Harm Boomstra, 39, of 411 Fairview Ave., N. E., Grand Rapids, owner of the machine; Casey Schermer, 35, and Henry Van Haltsma, both of Zeeland.

Arraigned in police court, Schermer and Van Haltsma waived examination and expressed a desire to plead guilty. Boomstra, however, denies any complicity in the plot and demanded examination, which was set for Saturday morning. Bond was fixed at $5,000.

Boomstra reported the automobile stolen from in front of his house on Nov. 7. According to a confession signed by Schermer, however, Boomstra had arranged with the two to keep the car in Zeeland for two months while he collected $600 insurance from the Camden Insurance company. They were then to receive $100, he said, and Boomstra was to have the car back.

The scheme went awry, however, when Chief of Police William Hietje of Zeeland wondered at the acquisition of the automobile by Schermer and Van Haltsma, in view of his acquaintance with them.

When Chief Hietje confided his suspicions to detectives Caudle and Taylor of Grand Rapids, the two were questioned, and admitted the scheme, the officers said. Boomstra, who is a former police department chauffeur, dismissed in 1923 on a misconduct charge, was then lured to headquarters by a ruse and arrested.

Boomstra maintains he had no part in the conspiracy. Pleas of guilty were entered late Saturday afternoon in Grand Rapids before Superior Judge Leonard D. Verdieb by Casey Schermer, 35, and Henry Van Haltsma, 34, of Zeeland, when arraigned on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Camden Fire Insurance Co. of $600 insurance on an automobile about driven by Boomstra, 39, of 411 Fairview Ave., N. E., Grand Rapids, also formerly of Zeeland.

The information alleges the men arranged with Boomstra, a former chauffeur on the police department that he should leave his automobile on Fairview Ave., that the two men should drive it away and hide it until Boomstra collected the insurance and then would return it to him. They were to receive $100 of the insurance money, it is alleged. The men were remanded to jail to await sentence.

Ottawa county has a Czechoslovakian farmers club in flourishing condition. Few people may be aware of the fact, but the club exists none-the-less, and it has a membership of eighty, all of whom reside in this county. The organization is composed entirely of people of that nationality. Many of them were born in the old country, and others are direct descendants of natives of the land of Czechoslovakia, or the territory now included in that country.

Members of the Czechoslovakian club are in the habit of recalling some of the old national customs of the homeland, but all are good Americans either fulfilled citizens of the United States or well on the way towards complete naturalization.

The club has planned an interesting Czechoslovakian play, which will be presented at St. Patrick's school auditorium at Grand Haven Saturday evening of this week. The play will be presented in native costume and it will be interesting both to the general public and those who are familiar with the folk customs of Czechoslovakia.

Arrangements for the club play are in charge of Frank Henry, Leopold Brazda, Robert Svoboda and John Benes.

Russell James, alias Jesse James, 23, arrested recently by Grand Rapids officers and held for the Ottawa county sheriff's office who wanted him on a charge of chicken stealing confessed or in the parlance of crime "came clean" Friday in regard to the affair. He told Prosecutor Fred T. Miles and Sheriff Fred Kamferbeck that he had taken the 37 chickens stolen from a Tallmadge township farm, while on an intoxicated lark. He will be sentenced by Judge Cross in circuit court later but Clemency is expected to be shown.

By confessing, James secured the release of Arrie Roehenger, in whose garage the stolen property was said to have been found. Roehenger has been held in the county jail for two weeks, officers believing him the man until James was taken in custody and told his story. Roehenger was let go Friday.

Has Eyes Open While On Visit In Zeeland

Editor De Vos of the Coopersville Observer paid Zeeland a visit a few days ago and this is what he found out.

"During our recent visit in Zeeland we learned some unique facts. This city has no pool room, no dance hall, no motion picture theater, no soft drink parlor, no smoke house, no lodge or secret organization of any kind, no Methodist, no Catholic, Jews or colored people. A Zeeland Baptist and Congregationalists reside in the city which is largely made up of people of Dutch descent and members of two branches of the Reformed church.

LOCAL POLICE CLEAN UP ON CAR STRIPPERS

Early Friday morning patrolmen Modders and Stiekete arrested Jason Boyington and James Vander Veen, both 35 years old, and living in Grand Rapids. The local officers saw a strange looking Dodge sedan parked on 6th street near the baseball park at 3 o'clock in the morning. They also saw two men in the car half asleep, and then they gave the car a thorough inspection and found it full of aluminum ware, auto parts, three batteries and many other auto accessories. The car was loaded full with this junk, and when the men were questioned their stories conflicted.

One of them stated they had just driven in from Cedar Springs, Michigan, and came to Holland to dispose of the junk. They arrived at 3 o'clock, however, and were waiting for daylight. The officers did not believe the men, locked them up in the city jail, and took them before Chief Van Ry in the morning.

Mr. Van Ry immediately got in touch by telephone with Chief of Grand Rapids and within an hour received information that the junk had been stolen in Grand Rapids and to hold the men.

Friday afternoon detectives O'Leary and Wilmoth arrived and inspected the load of stolen goods, found that these were the auto accessories that were missing, and the men the ones that they wanted.

The load and the thieves were taken back to Grand Rapids. The Grand Rapids Herald, in giving the details of this Holland case, gives the Grand Rapids detectives all the credit. Holland or the Holland police are not even mentioned nor are they given any credit whatever.

The fact is the local officers did all the work, and the Grand Rapids detectives simply came here, inspected the stolen goods, and took the men, who were locked up, back to Grand Rapids.

The amount of goods stolen, the Grand Rapids paper states, is about $200.00 worth, and most of it was taken from the Zeeland Auto Wrecking company, of 1156 Plainfield Ave. Leon Ranch, the proprietor, reported earlier in the day that the place had been entered during the night through a basement door and the metal carried out.

The severe wet and cold weather prevailing during the last week of October did not increase the amount of damage to the celery crop in the Hamilton region, froze some apples before they had bene picked, did some injury to potatoes yet undug, and greatly delayed work on the farms. One farmer, it is reported, who was less than a week from harvesting his trees in order that they might get the right color, lost as many as two hundred bushels. The fair weather following permitted the farmers to finish digging their potatoes and to catch up with some other of their farm work.

Besides the damage done to the celery by the snow and the cold, the work in the fields was made unpleasant and difficult by the heavy rains, and the repeated rain and snow of the early part of last week had likewise increased the damage to the celery and made the work of harvesting still more disagreeable.

George Getz, Sr., Mrs. Harry Getz, George Getz, Jr., of Lakeview Farm will leave Nov. 25 for a trip around the world. They will sail on the steamer Helgeland that leaves New York the latter part of November. The trip covers 132 days and all the points of interest will be touched by the ocean grayhound.

Former Senator and Mrs. Wm. Alden Smith will join the boat at Cairo, Egypt, in March. The Smiths planned to take the trip from the beginning but later postponed it when they received word from their daughter, Mrs. Richmond Temple that she and her children were coming to Grand Rapids from their home in London, England, for a visit, Feb. 1.

A driver of the county road scraper used on the Beeline road between Holland and Hamilton was heard to say a short time ago that he is convinced that a gravel road can not much longer be kept in condition to sustain the increased traffic. Only a concrete roadway with a deep and firm foundation will meet the demands of the increasing number of heavily loaded trucks. This is a conclusion to which many other careful observers of traffic conditions and requirements are coming.

Police Chief Arthur Smith of Muskegon Heights was certain Saturday that Martin J. Durkin, Chicago killer, died at the American hotel at Muskegon Heights Friday night. Chief Smith said one of his men recognized a man in the hotel as Durkin. He summoned the chief, who was taken to the restaurant, and also was certain the man was Durkin. Smith made efforts to call Prosecutor R. Glen Dunn, who was out of the city. He said the man sped away in a roadster with two women and three children, all dressed in the height of fashion.

DEPOT CORNER STONE SEEMS TO BE LOADED

The Pere Marquette magazine, about to be issued and sent broadcast to the traveling public, will contain an account of the corner stone laying at Holland's new depot. Mr. E. B. Rich, local agent, must have used every inch of space in the corner stone judging from the number of articles deposited therein.

In a letter to the magazine in question, when a demand was made for an account of the corner stone laying, Mr. Rich sent in the following:

Rev. C. P. Dame, in commemoration of his seventh year as pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, preached a sermon Sunday on the subject, "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," in which he recalled the achievements of the past, stated the conditions of the present, and visualized the possibilities of the future of the church.

Trinity Reformed church was organized May 1, 1911, with the enrollment of 45 families, a total of 87 members. Rev. John Van Peursem, now of the Zeeland First Reformed church, was the first pastor. His successful pastorate closed after a ministry of more than 6 years, at the close of which there were 155 families, a total of 377 members. He left in the spring of 1918. Nov. 14, 1918, Rev. C. P. Dame came from the Calvary Reformed church of Grand Rapids to take up the work in Trinity church. Since that time the church has grown in numbers and strength, many changes in the building were made, and many new members were added. During the last seven years 245 made confession of faith and 280 came by letter, in all 524 were added to the church rolls.

The church now numbers 695 members, including 250 families. It has the largest week-day church school in Michigan. An enrollment of 800 in the Sunday school. Another valuable organization of the church is the Men's Relief society, which is a sick benefit society for the men of the church. The pastor asked the congregation to cooperate with him by being loyal members, builders in the church, and to pray for the welfare of mankind.

"In accordance with federal and state statutes, and in keeping with the national custom and because every person has some reason for joining in a proper observance of the day, I hereby designate Thursday, Nov. 26, 1925, as a day of public Thanksgiving."

Mrs. Hannah Smeenge, aged 62 years, died Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Vander Yacht, 131 Fairbank-av. She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Vander Yacht, Mrs. Daniel Huggers of Lansing, and Mrs. Leonard Regnerus of Holland; also by one sister and two brothers: Mrs. J. H. Hoekje of Fillmore, Henry Kiehn of Grand Rapids, and John Kiehn of Grand Rapids.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at the home (private), and at 1:30 at the Dykstra Funeral Home, Rev. J. H. Bruggers and Rev. J. C. De Vinney officiating. Interment was in the Graefschap cemetery.

J. William De Cook of Grand Haven township was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriffman, trustee of Ottawa county, for having neglected to send his children to school regularly. He pleaded guilty before Attorney Hugh R. Lillie of Grand Haven and paid the fine and cost amounting to $5.00.

Pastor's Wife And Cooking Range Are "Warm Friends"

Rev. J. A. Roggen of the First Reformed church of Hamilton has declined the call recently extended to him from the Reformed church in Newkirk, Iowa. The members of this church in Hamilton, of which he has been the pastor for four years, are well pleased that he has decided to continue to serve them. As an evidence of the appreciation in which both the pastor and his wife are regarded by the membership of the church, the morning following his announcement that he would remain in Hamilton the members of the consistory of the church had a fine new cooking range delivered at the parsonage and placed in the kitchen. Mrs. Roggen and the range became warm friends at once.

Adolph A. Bolliak is charged with stealing a Winchester rifle from the Nieu Hardware store. Two Poles from the northside entered the place Saturday evening, and it is stated one held the attention of Mr. Nieu, while Bolliak walked out with the rifle. On checking up after the men were gone, it was noticed that the rifle was missing. Mr. Nieu called up the police department, officers Bontekoe and Sweeringa went to Bolliak's room on 4th street and found the gun standing in one corner. Bolliak was arrested and bound over to circuit court, on the charge of shoplifting.

Six Ottawa and Muskegon county towns were in darkness Sunday, the result of the undermining of the Crocker creek dam of the Ravenshoe.

A sudden rise of the creek, due to heavy rains, and the dry condition of reservoir holding the water were factors that resulted in the falling of the dam, according to Supt. Moon.

The water Moon said, seeped thru the ground that had been dried out due to lack of water and tore away the "fill" underneath the dam. The dam and the power plant were not greatly damaged and the cost of repair will probably be about $15,000.

The plant had a 350-h. p. producing capacity and furnished light and power to Ravenshoe, Conklin, Marne, Walker station, Lamont, and Eastmanville.

The approach to Bailey bridge near Ravenshoe was cut away by the deluge that swept down the creek when the dam after went out and even the steel railing of the bridge was bent by the force of the rushing water.

Officers of the power company were unable to say when lighting service again could be given the six towns.

Never a mourner followed the body of George "Dutch" Anderson to the Evergreen cemetery vault, Muskegon, where it was interred Saturday. Corner Tiede Clock said the criminal's body will be held at the vault for a few weeks, so that friends or his lawyer, William Baker, of Rochester, N. Y., will have an opportunity to claim it. Should it not be claimed, then it will be buried in the potter's field.

Bill Mattison of the Covered Wagon, Maurice Huyser of the Hudson's Bay, Dr. G. A. Stegeman, Gerrit Lemmon, and Hoon and Quirinus De Vries of the Grand View Hatchery of Zeeland John Moeke of the Moeke Lumber Co. of Zeeland, Bert Berghorst of the Berghorst Plumbing Supply Co. of Zeeland, Martin De Jonge, a Zeeland Contractor, and John and Gerrit Wyngarden of the Wyngarden Hatchery of Zeeland have formed a hunting party and are now in the north woods after deer. They are located about 70 miles from the Soo and about 40 miles from a railroad.

This is how one of them described the party in a letter to a friend here: "Bill Mattison will do his stuff as chef, Maurice Huyser will carve the venison, John Moeke will superintend the construction work, and Mart De Jonge will build the bunkhouse. Dr. Stegeman will be on the job if anyone gets a toothache; he is minus his instrument, but can use the pliers and screw drivers of the car. De Vries is going to study botany and ornithology as well as shoot deer."

The Red Cross roll call in the Holland banks started out well on Saturday. There was a booth in each bank and the following enrollments were secured: Peoples State bank, Mrs. Wm. Wagner in charge, $2; First State bank, Mrs. A. Leenhouts in charge, $2; Holland City State bank, Miss Mildred Sligh in charge, $4.

Jack Knoll, barber of Holland, agreed to be in trouble again, and this time he was taken in custody by the Muskegon police. The Muskegon officers claim that on Sunday night Knoll was drunk, and they charge him with driving an automobile while being intoxicated.

The officers said they learned the man figured in an automobile crash a short distance out of Muskegon Heights on the Grand Haven road and that he abandoned his machine and fled, riding into Muskegon on a truck.

Six veterinarians are in Gun Plains, Otsego and Trowbridge townships, Allegan county, testing cattle at the rate of over 2,000 every week. There will be two veterinarians for each township. Each farmer is notified as near the time of arrival of the veterinarians as is possible. The cattle can then be in the barns and the farm home. In this way all the cattle along the road are tested without having to retrace steps.

One of the good things in regard to the testing is the fact that as yet there has not been a single criticism coming to the county farm bureau office about the testing. The supervisors are confident in every way possible to make the work progress smoothly.

J. B. Mulder was in Muskegon Friday calling on Rev. Anthony Karrenman at Hackley hospital. Mr. Karrenman is slowly improving.

FIRST STATE BANK TO HAVE FLOWER SHOW

The finest display of flowers ever shown in Holland or at the Holland fair will be exhibited at the First State Bank next week. The exhibition will open on Nov. 17 and close on Saturday, Nov. 21. Beginning Tuesday night the bank will be open every evening next week to give the public an opportunity to see the flowers.

The flowers are to be furnished by the Shady Lawn Florists and they will also be arranged by that firm. The arrangement will be on a special design. The flowers will not be placed in the lobby of the bank as individual plants but they will be grouped on an artistic design, with a central motif expressed in flowers and all the plants arranged with reference to the main theme. In this way the beauty of the individual plants will be enhanced by the arrangement, much as the individual flowers in a bouquet gain by juxtaposition with other flowers blending in color and size and shape.

There will be about twenty different varieties of flowers in the exhibit, with many chrysanthemum to give volume to the display. The entire lobby of the bank has been placed at the disposal of the Shady Lawn Florists and the place will be a bower of beauty next week.

The bank will be open from seven to 8:30 each evening, beginning Tuesday night and the people of Holland are cordially invited to see the exhibit.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Adrian J. Klaasen, 38 East Third, Holland, was appointed a member of the University of Chicago concert band according to an announcement made public on the University campus today. The Holland lad has been a member of the regular university band since the beginning of the season, and accompanied the Maroon team on most of its athletic journeys.

Klaasen is an accomplished musician, and has played a band instrument for several years. He is considered a great asset to the university musical organization, which was selected after tryout of several hundred musicians. The band is used for radio broadcasting, university tours, receptions and general student gatherings. It is one of the best college musical organizations in the country, although considerably smaller than the Michigan band.

A very pleasant gathering took place Thursday evening when the D. A. R., S. R., and guests met at the home of Mrs. Martha Robbins and Miss Florence Cotton on West 14th street. Mrs. Robbins, accompanied by Mrs. Telling, opened the program with the following solos beautifully rendered: "Fairy Cradle," by Carew, "Love's Coming," by Mane-Zucca, and "Butterfly," by Robinson.

The recent Miss Post, gave a very interesting paper on John Quincy Adams. That his sterling qualities as statesman and politician might well inspire some of our present-day politicians. The program closed with three solos by Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte, accompanied by Mrs. Robbins, "My Beaming Eyes," by McDowell, in the "The Rose," by Rechart, and "Take Joy Home," by Wells.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. V. R. Hungerford. In spite of the inclement weather a large gathering was present and spent a delightful evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Floto, wife of Andrew Floto of Spring Lake, was convicted Thursday morning by circuit court jury on a charge of selling liquor. Mrs. Floto was arrested over a month ago by the sheriff officers and Mr. Floto was taken at the same time. He will be tried later on a charge of keeping a place where liquor is sold.

The trial occupied the entire morning and the jury brought in its verdict after a short deliberation Thursday noon. Mr. and Mrs. Floto and Deputies Den Herder and Salisbury of the sheriff's department, testified as well as Martin Shanto, private detective, who with another man and a woman made the "buy" or purchase of liquor that has caused criticism in the past is of special significance," he continued. "Although never embodied in the constitution of either association before, these standards have governed the industry for years. But the significant feature now is that within a period of five years objectionable outdoor advertising structures will either have been eliminated or relocated to the satisfaction of the public."

Mr. Vandenberg said that the new rules adopted by the newly consolidated association provide that:

1. No outdoor advertising structures shall be erected that shall constitute hazards to traffic, that is, block the view of dangerous curves or intersections.

2. Structures are not to be erected upon state-owned highway lands, and only upon land leased or owned by the companies.

3. No structures are to be erected which destroy scenic beauty.

4. No structures are to be erected in purely residential districts.

"In addition," continued Mr. Vandenberg, "the outdoor advertising association of America will have the authority of the state of Michigan and the state of Michigan as it has done in the past to see that any structures which violate either or any of these self-imposed rules or city or state regulations are removed."

"I am sure the people of Holland will be pleased to know that rigid rules controlling the type of copy to be used in outdoor advertising have also been adopted. They provide that no copy which offends public morals or leads to the violation or infringement of the constitution of the United States or any other laws shall be printed or displayed upon structures owned by the members companies of the association."

Corner Stone At Pere Marquette Depot Is Laid

The corner stone of the new Pere Marquette depot was laid Wednesday by local agent E. B. Rich, with Peter Smith, the local mason and prominent fisherman, handling the trowel.

It was an informal affair and was not advertised as a public meeting.

Two large glass jars were placed in the stone containing data relating to the railroad, some history of Holland, and a Holland Daily Sentinel, Holland City News and De Grandwet were placed inside of the jars.

VRIESLAND MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Many people in Zeeland as well as in Vriesland were shocked Tuesday when they learned the sad news of the sudden death of one of its pioneer residents, Aren Van Zoeren, at his home in Vriesland at the age of seventy-two years and ten months, death being due to heart failure.

Mr. Van Zoeren was born on a farm in Vriesland and was the son of Gerrit Van Zoeren one of five brothers, original pioneer settlers of Vriesland. He has lived on a farm there all his life until a few years ago when he retired from farming and made his home with his son, Dr. William Van Zoeren.

At the time of his death he was busily engaged in unloading haled hay from a truck, when he suddenly sank to the ground and life had gone before any assistance could be given.

He is survived by two sons, Dr. William Van Zoeren, and Gerrit Van Zoeren, both of Vriesland, the latter living on the old farm homestead. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. S. Yntem of Forest Grove and Mrs. J. Huizenga of Jamestown.

The funeral services will be held at the home on Friday afternoon at one o'clock and at 1:30 o'clock at the Reformed church of Vriesland. Interment will be made in Vriesland cemetery.

Prof. J. Jans Hilder, instructor in Voice, presented a number of his pupils in a song recital given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Du Mez, Graves Place. Mr. Helder introduced eleven students in the following program:

Jans Helder, Mrs. Marie Du Mez and Miss Gladys Cooper assisted the singers at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ewing of Grand Haven left Thursday for their house car for a trip to the southern states. They will visit Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and parts of Florida, before returning in the spring. On this trip Mr. Ewing will introduce the Imperial Manufacturing company's famous cedar candy chest in the south.

"Outdoor advertising in all its phases will benefit immeasurably, and all industry will reap a great profit as the result of the merger of the poster advertising and painted outdoor advertising interests in the outdoor advertising association of America at Kansas City," declared Vaudie Vandenberg, manager of the Wolverine Advertising company, who, with H. G. Vandenberg, returned from Holland from the big Kansas City convention recently.

"From the standpoint of the public, the action of the convention in adopting a high standard of practices which will tend to eliminate the 'bushy' or 'bushy' nature in the past is of special significance," he continued. "Although never embodied in the constitution of either association before, these standards have governed the industry for years. But the significant feature now is that within a period of five years objectionable outdoor advertising structures will either have been eliminated or relocated to the satisfaction of the public."

Mr. Vandenberg said that the new rules adopted by the newly consolidated association provide that:

MONEY OF R. C. DONOR IS REFUSED

The zoning commission census shows that there are 3,400 homes in Holland and the 12 S. census bureau shows that there are over 13,000 persons in the city. The Red Cross quota for Holland is only 2,000, and Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, roll call director for southern Ottawa, points out that that quota ought to be easy to secure. If one person in seven gives a dollar for the Red Cross roll call the quota will very nearly be reached. The quota for Holland is considered very low and it is believed that it will be considerably oversubscribed.

How some people regard the Red Cross was illustrated Friday when a man visited the Red Cross office and laid down $3.00 for his family. Mrs. Van Duren happened to know all the family's circumstances—costly operations, misfortunes, various circumstances that make it hard for the family to make ends meet and that necessitate a mortgage on the home to pay doctors' bills and other expenses. Under the circumstances, Mrs. Van Duren could not accept the money so generously offered, but it was with the greatest difficulty that she persuaded the man to take it back. He wanted to do his part to help the Red Cross. Mrs. Van Duren assured him that there are plenty of others in Holland who can afford to make up Holland's quota and that he needed his money urgently for his family. Finally he consented to take the money back on condition that he could make it up to the Red Cross some other year when he was in better condition.

"If all the people of Holland could have witnessed that little scene of devotion," said Mrs. Van Duren, "I am sure Holland's quota would be subscribed voluntarily in half an hour."

There will be Red Cross booths in the three banks Saturday: the Holland City State bank in charge of Miss Mildred Slagh, the First State bank in charge of Mrs. A. Leenhouts, and the Peoples State bank in charge of Mrs. W. Wagner. The Shady Lawn Florists have built a fine Red Cross window display in their store, corner College and Eighth. This was done without solicitation as a way of helping the Red Cross. The Shady Lawn Florists also had a window display last year.

During the past week the owners of the east end concrete block factory, Mrs. Zeeland, Mrs. Heuvelhorst & Elhart, sold their business and equipment to Kamps Brothers who will continue the business at the old stand, having taken possession Monday of this week. Heuvelhorst & Elhart have conducted the block business during the past six years, and one of the Kamps brothers has been employed there for two years, thereby already having become familiar with the business.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Charlotte Karel on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Karel, 123 East 16th street.

Those present were: Gertrude Steketee, Hilda Karel, Charlotte Karel, Mildred Slagh, Florence Karel, Gertrude Beltman, Steve Wiersma, Elmer Oudemolen, Dave Wiersma, Harold Slichter, and Harry De Groot.

Games were played and a two course luncheon was served. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.

The department of commerce at Washington has just issued a statement of farm census for Ottawa county for 1925, and compares these with figures for 1920, as of January first. The number of farms is given as 4,353, an increase over 1920 of 13 per cent. Farm owners numbered 3,998, an increase of 4 per cent, managers and tenants decreased from 17 to 13, and 338 respectively. The acreage devoted to farming decreased considerably, more than 9,000 acres having been withdrawn leaving a present tillable acreage at 297,481. Of this, nearly 20,000 acres lay idle. Woodland, not pastured, totaled 6,611 acres. Farm lands decreased in value from $16,829,955 to $14,420,025, but farm buildings increased in value from $10,053,570 to $13,587,350, netting a farm real estate value increase of more than $1,000,000.

Live stock values as well as numbers fell off in considerable numbers. Horses, mules, cattle and swine figured in the loss. The loss over all was about 10 per cent. The numbers now stand, horses, 9,672; mules, 146; cattle, 62,622; swine, 12,853.

The principal crops also dropped in acreage very materially and the crops suffered less than the acreage would indicate. Corn acreage fell off by half as did the crop. The 1924 crop standing 233,551 bushels; oats fell off in acreage by 1500 acres but the crop nearly doubled over 1915, with 1,038,393 bushels for 1924; wheat acreage fell nearly 1000 acres but the crop was greater by 46,000 bushels, 649,779 bushels being harvested. Barley and rye fell off in proportion to reduced acreage, while hay in both acreage and tonnage increased, 61,283 tons being harvested from 50,707 acres.

Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Mullenberg, formerly of Holland, and now of South Holland, Illinois, have just returned from a trip to the holy land. They went by way of New York, visited the Azor Islands, then went to Portugal, Lisbon, Spain, Gibraltar and saw the British fortress. They crossed the Mediterranean to Algiers. At Athens they inspected the ruins of an Ancient civilization that flourished 5000 years before Christ. At Elbert the party left the ship for the trip into the cradle of christianity. Over Lebanon and to Damascus they went through to Cana and Nazareth and into the holy city, itself. Six days were spent in the presence of sacred memories of Calvary and the garden.

MANY RARE PLANTS AT THE FLOWER SHOW

The flower show in the lobby of the First State Bank is attracting a great deal of attention. The Shady Lawn Florists are taking this opportunity to furnish some information about some of the unusual flowers on display at the bank this week.

There are three new kinds of begonias never raised before in this country; they are called "Mrs. Peterson," "Melior," and "Cincinnati." The first one is a white flower, which variety was given first prize at the national flower show last year. There are also several varieties of geraniums, and several varieties of cyclamens, including the beautiful Rex begonia.

There is a very fine collection of tropical plants, such as cacti and orange plants, which were sent from Florida and which the Shady Lawn Florists are raising as a novelty. There are also sansevierias, rubber plants, four varieties of palms, and pandanus.

Poinsettias, the very tender yet popular Christmas plant, may be seen in the collection, two varieties of dracaenas, and a large and varied collection of ferns. Because of the fact that the fern is a plant that everyone is interested in, the Shady Lawn people have during the past year made a special study of ferns and they now boast of having an especially large and healthy collection. They have one very large specimen of the tree fern, and all fern fanciers agree that it is a beauty. There is also a cyprus, and auricularia, and a bird's nest fern, a peculiar fern, which as it grows forms a bird's nest in the center.

Another group is composed of cacti, Chinese primroses, and anemones. These have been arranged so that they serve as a border plant of the collection.

There is an achanthus, three varieties of flowering maples, geraniums, a fine and varied collection of cut chrysanthemums in baskets and vases, and pampas in plants as well as cut flowers.

A humorous feature of the show is a perambulator and cradle containing baby dolls.

The bank will be open every evening from seven to 8:30 and on Saturday evenings from six to 8:30.

IS AWARDED FINE POSITION IN OREGON

Dr. Wilson Stegeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stegeman of Holland township, has been honored in the west by being offered an assistantship to Dr. R. C. Coffey, noted Portland, Oregon, surgeon. Dr. Stegeman was serving as school physician of the University of Oregon but he has been released by that institution to be able to accept the new position which is considered a very desirable one and a great opportunity for a young man.

Dr. Coffey is everywhere conceded among surgeons to be the best surgeon west of the May Clinic. Dr. Stegeman has many friends in Holland and during his career at Hope college he took a prominent part in athletics. After graduating from the prep school in 1915, he spent two years at Hope and graduated from the University of Chicago in 1919, taking honors in football and basketball as well as in scholarship. He coached two years at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., graduated from Rush Medical in 1924, and served as interne in Santa Barbara, California, hospital. Last September he married Miss Margaret Osborne of Santa Barbara and then became school physician at the Oregon university.

UNION P. T. MEETING DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

A large crowd attended the union meeting of the Parent-Teacher club of Holland held last night in the high school assembly hall. A fine program was enjoyed. Music was furnished by the high school and junior high school orchestras and by the five kindergarten bands in costume. Small sailors, highlanders, old fashioned children, pilgrims and Dutchmen earned much applause with their respective selections.

The speaker of the evening was the Hon. G. A. Diekmann who gave a very forceful talk on character building in the home and school. He stressed the parents' and teachers' responsibility. The chairman of the evening, Mr. Wm. Vander Veen, commended singing was led by Mr. Maybee of the high school.

Hope Museum Adds Collection From South Africa

Among the recent contributions to the Hope college museum is a show case filled with souvenirs of South Africa, collected and presented to the Western Theological Seminary by Mrs. Hazenberg. The collection was handed over to the college museum and will be on display in the better facilities for display. The case is labeled: "Hazenberg Collection, given to the Museum by the Western Theological Seminary." The museum is open to public Thursday, Nov. 19th, 1-5 P. M., also on 24th and 26th, 1-5 P. M.

George Bender submitted to an operation for prostate last Friday at Mayo Bros. Hospital in Rochester, Minn. The operation was successful.

Many Attend Bible Conference In Zeeland

Many local people are attending nightly a Bible conference held at the Second Reformed church at Zeeland, the meetings being conducted by Mr. Leon Tucker, editor of "The Wonderful Word," a religious magazine printed in New York City. The lectures are given in lesson form, and a descriptive chart on the platform is constantly in use for reference. "Muzio" also plays a very important part, since Mr. Tucker states that good music aids in religious uplift, and for that reason he has a large company of artists present, who render this sort of music at intervals during the sessions.

POULTRY MEN TO GATHER FOR SOCIAL HOUR

As a forerunner to the 25th anniversary celebration of the Holland Poultry Association, a large meeting is called for Thursday evening of this week at the city hall. Secretary Brouwer states that there is going to be something else besides a program, for the refreshment committee is preparing liberally for the wants of the members of the association and their visiting guests. Invitations have also been sent to the Zeeland Poultry Association and to the associations at Grand Haven and Muskegon. Responses have already come from those associations stating that representatives from these respective cities would be present. The program for the evening has not been fully made up, but the 25th anniversary celebration and the coming show in December will take up some of the time. Besides the members, those interested in poultry and in the association that has meant so much for Ontario counties, are cordially invited. The meeting is called for 7:45 Thursday evening at the city hall.

ALMOST MAKES BUSINESS OF PRIZE WINNING

Ralph Schepers of Holland is becoming an expert solver of puzzles and a winner of prizes. A few months ago he won a prize in a contest put on by a California firm, and in which contestants from all parts of the United States took part. Today it was announced by Cooper, Wells & Co., of St. Joseph, Mich., dealers of Iron Clad hosiery, with factories in St. Joseph and Albany, Alabama, that Mr. Schepers had won a double prize in their cross word puzzle contest.

In Holland the contest was put on through the Lokker-Rutgers company, local representatives of the Cooper, Wells & Co. product. Mr. Schepers not only won a cash prize of $10 but also a box of Iron Clad hosiery for the best puzzle solver in Holland.

Other prizes in the contest announced for Holland today are: second, Miss Eva M. Clark; third, A. M. Hyma; fourth, Mrs. G. H. Dubbink; fifth, Mrs. N. Frank; sixth, H. Poelakker.

PIKE TO RUN OVER HIGH PRICED LAND

To complete the West Michigan Pike between Sawyer and Stephenson, Berrien County, the state must buy the highest priced land it has ever condemned outside of cities. The strip is 11 miles long by 100 feet wide. It runs through a vineyard district where land has been selling as high as $1,000 an acre, says Commissioner Frank F. Rogers of the State Highway Department.

Despite the high costs of land, state highway officials believe the 11-mile right of way should be completed. Traffic on the West Michigan Pike, they point out, has made a rapid increase. The Pike runs from Michigan City, Ind., to Mackinaw City, Mich. The Sawyer-Stephenson strip will make a near-straight highway south of St. Joseph. It will eliminate two railroad crossings and several bad curves.

Questionnaire Sent To Allegn Farmers

A questionnaire has been sent to all Allegn county farm bureau members and those that are not members for 1925. The first one to be returned came from G. G. Chapman of Fennville. If everyone would return these promptly, said county farm agent Gregg, it will aid very materially in formulating the program for extension work in the county for 1926 as well as assure assistance to those filling out this questionnaire.

Christopher Smith of Grand Haven was arrested for being intoxicated Saturday by Grand Haven police. He paid a fine and costs totaling $9.50 to Justice Lillie Tuesday.

JUNK THIEVES ARE GIVEN PRISON TERMS

Jason H. Boynton, 23, of 734 Ionia av. NW., and James Vander Veen, 21, of 627 Ottawa ave. N. W., Grand Rapids, were committed to state penal institutions Tuesday by Superior Judge Verder for theft of $50 worth of vacuum tank and storage battery metal from the Creston Auto Wrecking Co's garage at 1156 Plainfield ave. NE., of which Leon Ranch is proprietor.

Boynton was sent to the state prison at Jackson for two to five years and Vander Veen was sentenced to the state reformatory at Ionia for one to five years.

Boynton and Vander Veen were captured by Officers Steketee and Modders near Riverside Athletic field, where they had parked their car. The affair looked suspicious to the Holland officers, especially when the men stated they had run in from Cedar Springs, had gotten here at 3 o'clock in the morning, and were waiting until daylight in order to sell their junk. Officers took them to the jail, where they remained until morning, when Chief Van Ry called on Chief Carroll and it was found that the men were wanted for stealing parts from a Grand Rapids garage.

Two detectives were immediately sent to Holland and they identified the men and the junk. They were taken back to Grand Rapids and according to a later report pleaded guilty and were sentenced.

Miss Muzio is now in this country, and will appear here in concert Nov. 23, under the auspices of Hope College Lecture Course.

In Paris and Monte Carlo, during her recent foreign tour, she scored in "La Traviata," "Tosca," "Il Trovatore," "Aida" and "La Boheme."

At her last appearance in Monte Carlo, which was in Traviata, the management was so impressed by her beautiful singing and her histrionic ability that, following a most enthusiastic demonstration on the stage, she was presented with a silver laurel wreath.

In Buenos Aires, Miss Muzio completely captivated the music loving Latin Americans with her repertoire, including "Manon."

Toscanini, the great opera conductor at La Scala, Milan, recently called Miss Muzio, asking if she could give some special performances there next season. This flattering offer Miss Muzio had to forego, owing to her contract with the Chicago Civic Opera and her extensive American concert tour.

ALLEGAN FARMER TOO POOR TO PAY DOG TAX

The 1925 bumper corn crop does not signify all farmers are blessed with an abundance of ready money.

This was illustrated Tuesday when a Trowbridge, township farmer was haled into Justice F. E. Fish's court for non-payment of taxes on a dog four months old. The farmer stated he had a large crop of corn in his cribb all ready for market but could not sell it because it had not cured sufficiently for millers to handle it and did not have a dollar to pay his fine and costs of $7.70. Sickness had wiped out his wheat money.

Investigation proved his statements to be true, so the justice granted him time to dispose of enough of his crop to meet present wants.

Deputy Sheriff Ekbert Beekman arrested Lambertus Mejjans of North Holland on the charge of reckless driving on M-51. Mejjans pleaded guilty when arraigned before Justice Den Herder and paid a ten dollar fine.

JUST WATER AND ONE BEAN IN SOUP DIVORCE CLAIM

Charges that when he asked his wife to cook some soup she boiled water with one bean in it and served it to him, was brought out in a contested suit for divorce filed by Louis Chesnow, an architect of Detroit.

Chesnow also alleged his wife interfered with his business and once threw a steak at him. In counter charges Mrs. Chesnow alleges her husband forced her to live in quarters so small that she was forced to use the bathtub as a bed for their boy.

Repairing the fill at the Ravenna plant will not be made immediately and even may be postponed until spring, depending largely upon the weather, it was decided Monday.

Waste Now and You will Want Later

THIS is a truth that many men and women fail to realize in the early part of their lives, but the truth of it comes all to soon when youth and earning capacity are gone.

Q LIFE is a serious business at best, but, taken seriously, it is a pleasurable business if due diligence is exercised.

Q To the careless man, the man who lacks foresight, life for a time is just one round of pleasure; but how that man pays in after years! He wastes now but wants later.

Q Be thrifty, not stingy; save, don't pinch, and the serious business of life will assume new brightness.

The dark clouds of the future will take on a silver lining.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL IN COUNTY JAIL

Sunday afternoon, at the Ottawa county jail, a band of Salvation Army workers knelt before their God in a meeting attended by many prisoners and by Sheriff Fred Kamferbeck and Mrs. Kamferbeck and by Deputy Salisbury and Mrs. Salisbury. Captain Glassbrook and his jail workers preached the Word of God to the little throng at the close of the services, fourteen men came huddled to the front and asked God to forgive them for their sins. Others received the Word when asked to do so later by Sheriff Kamferbeck and his deputies.

In another part of the cell block were two girls who had fallen. They were visited and received the Word from Mrs. Glassbrook who with both arms about them, told them of the reward to come from mending their ways. The Salvation Army workers in Ottawa county feel that a Divine spirit is directing their services in this county toward the saving of lost souls.

At the evening meeting of the Salvation Army in the jail hall much was enjoyed, a young man, a girl and a man from Grand Rapids and a Grand Haven girl, received the Word and were saved. This lends tone to the statement of Sheriff Kamferbeck Monday morning that the Salvation Army work is inspiring.

The sheriff was much impressed by the work of the Army in quieting the prisoners, many of whom were "hard" when brought in. There were no after "sneers" at the religion and it was accepted in the simple spirit of faith according to the sheriff. The county jail was a quiet place Sunday night, according to the sheriff, who stated that usually riotous laughing, quarreling and in some cases, profanity is used by the prisoners who are held there. Sheriff Kamferbeck believes in the doctrine of reformation and every effort is made to make the prisoners see the error of their ways and become useful members of society.

"IRON HORSE" IS APPROPRIATE FOR EDUCATION WEEK

The manager of the Strand Theater points out that the picture now appearing on the Strand, "The Iron Horse," is the most appropriate education week picture that could possibly be selected. This picture is the Strand's contribution to education week which is now being celebrated in Holland.

The picture is an attempt to make history come to life. Many of the famous public men of the sixties are in the picture, including Lincoln, and the life of the time is vividly portrayed. The picture is a review of a period in American history when great events were taking place, and it portrays the westward march of progress which helped to make this the greatest nation on earth. The opening of the west by the coming of the railroad was not a mere episode in American history but was fundamental to our life.

Hence the picture is educational in the true sense and is appropriate for education week, the Strand manager suggests.

The Welcome Corner class held their annual election of officers on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Sandy. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mr. Ben F. Harris, president; Mr. John Spencer, vice president; Mrs. Lemuel Harris, secretary and Mrs. Earl Soper, treasurer. The class is in a flourishing condition, with a membership of more than sixty. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stauffer and committee.

Release of P. S. Moon as manager and superintendent of the Kalamazoo-Conklin-Berlin Power Co., and making of arrangements to secure temporarily service from the Consumers Power Co., were the principal actions taken at a meeting of the board of directors of the former company Monday evening. The meeting was called to consider the situation that developed with the washing out of about one-third of the fill at the power plant's dam on Crocker creek several miles south of there Saturday afternoon. The washout forced a shutdown of the plant and left Kalamazoo, Conklin, Nunda, Eastmanville, Marne, Walker Station and Lamont without lights.

C. E. Bottom, resident engineer for the firm that built the dam, after going over the situation Monday told the directors he believed the washout occurred because of a defective tile drain placed two years ago to take care of a backwash. He asserted weakness of the drain should have been in evidence at least a week and that the man in charge should have noticed it.

Supt. Moon also came for consultation for being away from the plant and leaving no one in charge Saturday when the water was very high from heavy rains and snow. A Consumers man was expected Tuesday to go over the ground and arrange rate charges. It is hoped connections which require reductions from 50 to 20 cycles can be made within 10 days.

STATE TO SPEND $60,000 TO KEEP ROADS CLEAR

The equipment will include 25 tractors, 10 V-plows, 1 rotary plow and a three-ton tractor. The equipment will be added to that now owned by the state and is expected to be sufficient to keep all highways on the removal program clear when the state takes over the work Jan. 1.

Allegan Farm Agent Tells About The Seed Corn

Allegan county farm agent Gregg has sent the following advice to farmers about their seed corn for 1928.

"Corn is a bumper crop even though it is not all husked yet. It has been a wet fall, consequently the ears are full of moisture. When they contain over 12 per cent and hard freezes occur, poor germination results. It is best to select your seed corn, therefore, and dry in a warm well ventilated room. Ears should be stored on racks or wires if possible. In selection the ears should be picked with deep kernels, rows tight together, of flinty rather than starchy appearance with rather small cobs. 16 rows to ear is about right. This year the ears should be of the medium size for it has been a very favorable season and the shovels to mature has ripened this year and if one selected the largest ears these would be much more apt to mature late in an unfavorable season."

GRAND HAVEN WILL RETURN TO OLD TIME

Grand Haven will return to standard time. At a meeting of the common council a strenuous protest was sent in and a demand was made to return to the central standard time schedule. There has been quite a kick not only in Grand Haven but also in Grand Rapids, especially among the business element and storekeepers who claim that it hinders shopping hours away. There are many other reasons advanced why the clock should be changed back and these were so numerous that the council unanimously voted to make the change.

Accordingly the clocks in Grand Haven will be put back one hour beginning Saturday at midnight. It was decided to remain on central standard time until April first and then go back to daylight saving time for the spring and summer months.

Holland did the sensible thing, the Grand Haven paper says, and made the change when the change should be made, in spite of the other cities in Michigan, like Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Grand Haven who voted to continue.

Grand Rapids is trying the experiment until the latter part of December, and there is considerable agitation to change back at that time. It is very doubtful whether Grand Rapids will change, however, since the date set will be during the holiday season, when children are not going to school. Grand Rapids merchants also oppose a mix-up in time in the most of the holiday shopping season. On the other hand if the change is put off until later it will be harder to make the change for the days will be steadily getting longer and April first the time to change back will be closest hand. Spring Lake and Ferrisburg, suburbs of Grand Haven, have also made a demand to go back to central standard time, the same as Holland.

On account of the serious illness of Mrs. Tien Vander Water, the tea party of the Spanish-American War Auxiliary will be postponed indefinitely.

CAUSED CHILD TO GO WRONG; IS JAILED

Two men and one woman were brought into court by the Holland police for contributing to the delinquency of a young Holland girl, under 16 years of age. It appears that Jane Davis, living on Fairbanks Ave., and Henry Vandenberg, living on 4th-st., and a young girl also living on Fairbanks, were in the habit of going wild, Clarence Hoffman, living near Zealand on short jorriden out in the country.

It was brought out that Hoffman furnished the automobile provided Jane Davis furnished a girl. The arrangement was brought to the attention of Chief Van Ry and the police arrested the four shortly afterwards.

Hoffman was given a fine of $50.00 and costs, Henry Vandenberg was given 90 days in the county jail, while Mrs. Jane Davis was given sixty days.

The case of the young girl is now in the hands of Judge of Probate James J. Danhof, who is also, head of the Ottawa county juvenile court and who will see to it that the child is properly taken care of.

Justice G. Van Schelvela did not fail to give the trio a much deserved scoring before he passed sentence.

Henry Vandenberg, it will be remembered, is the young chap who was vamped out of an automobile about two years ago by Bertha Allen of Chicago.

Pretty young Bertha came here to resort, struck up an acquaintance with young Vandenberg, and he insisted on marrying her, even securing a license from Richard Overway, on the promise that Miss Allen would marry him. She insisted on first visiting some friends to advise them of the coming marriage and borrowed the automobile, belonging to Henry Vandenberg's father. The girl and automobile disappeared but the local police apprehended both in Chicago a month later.

The young lady was taken to the Ottawa county jail, remained there several months awaiting trial, and is now on probation. Judging from the recent episode VanBosch up to this time hasn't his lesson learned.

Mrs. L. V. Drago and son Roy of Fremont and Mr. Bryan Drago and family of Chicago are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Drago, 270 College avenue.

SPORT NOTES

A pass over the goal just as the final whistle sounded saved St. Mary's high school team of Muskegon from a shutout at Zealand on Friday in a game with the high school eleven. The Zealand squad won 25 to 7. A 65 yard run by Lokkers on the first play of the game gave the Zealand crew its first score and provided the greatest thrill of the encounter. Bouma, the Zealand back, proved the greatest ground gainer of the day.

Holland high's football team gave St. Joseph's eleven a severe trouncing Saturday afternoon at Riverview Park. The score, 19-7, fails to show just how far Howe's gang was pushed in the mud, as the local team lost over 100 yards on penalties. Three times the down were taken from Holland, one after Cook had smashed thru guard for 6 yards and taken the ball over. From the very start the local veterans, who were playing their last game, seemed determined to give the home crowd a fine remembrance of their ability.

How does this sound for a 1926 Holland high eleven: Ends, Paulus and Vosse; Tackles, De Weerd and Ego; Guards, Harbin and Tibby; Center, Du Mez; Quarter back, Breen; Halfes, Spencer and Ottipony?

Last year in the G. R. South game Scheerhorn, Holland line-man, got his leg broken. This year Eddie wanted a help but couldn't play so Hinga made him trainer. Scheerhorn has worked faithfully and kept the men in good shape. He deserves credit for his fine spirit of helpfulness and loyalty.

Catholic Central's Reserve team lost 6 to 0 to Coopersville high at Coopersville Friday afternoon. The only score came in the first three minutes of play, when the Reserve made the ball on downs on their own ten yard line fumbled on the second play, the ball rolling over the goal line, where a Coopersville player fell on it.

A large crowd should follow the high school team to Kalamazoo to lend support. Hinga has one victory over a celery city team and he needs another to claim class B championship.

SENTENCES PASSED OUT AT ALLEGAN

Friday was sentence day in circuit court in Allegan and Judge O. S. Cross passed out a number of sentences.

Martin Bartz, Mat Harig, Henry Grombke and Michael Bieker were arrested in the raid in Dor by state and county officers. Bartz was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, costs of $8.05, and to serve six months to one year in Ionia. The judge took into consideration his good character and industry. Grombke did not fare as well, being fined $200 with costs of $8.05 and being sentenced to the same term in Ionia. Bieker, who stood trial also, got the advantage of good character. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, costs of $51.25 and serve six months to a year in Ionia. Harig, an old man, asked the judge to let him go home and claimed the doctors wanted him to use liquor at times. The judge talked kindly to him, explaining that he must be punished for his offense but adding that probably he was too old to be changed, and advising him not to drink "moonshine" as a medicine, but to get his liquor under a doctor's prescription if he must have it. He was fined $50 and costs of $8.20 and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

Henry Albert of Allegan was joined not have anything to do with liquor. He will spend six months to a year in Ionia meditating on this good advice and will pay a fine of $100 and costs of $21.10. Elmer Taylor got the usual penalty, $100 and costs of $67.05, and six months to a year in Ionia.

Ralph Huntington of Saugatuck drew a special lecture. A large number of friends had been to see the judge, urging his good character and high standing in the community and Judge Cross stated that he had formed a high regard for Huntington during years of acquaintance. The sentence was a fine of $200, costs of $7.05, and six months to a year in Ionia.

William Herman, charged with violation of the liquor laws, who had deposited a cash bill of $800, did not appear.

Cecil Lockner charged with perjury in an affidavit for a marriage license, was treated with leniency because of good character and because he had not lived with the bride, a girl of 14 years. Her parents did not wish a sentence of punishment. He will work on the highway six months on an honor system, and then be placed on probation two years. Ernest Olson, statutory rape, was given a similar sentence because of mitigating circumstances.

Manch Johnson and Robert Bailey pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal exhumation. He was sentenced to pay costs of $15.25 and serve six months to a year in Ionia. The woman was sentenced to pay a similar cost and go to the Detroit House of correction six months to one year.

The Alma plant of the Michigan Sugar company closed its doors Monday for the second time during the present campaign and it likely will not open again this season. The factory closed because weather conditions have made it virtually impossible for farmers to harvest their beets and deliver them.

Out of a total acreage of 9,000 under contract to the Alma plant, it is estimated more than 2,000 acres of the beets are still in the ground, with few, if any, prospects of lifting, topping and hauling them before winter sets in. Heavy precipitation has kept the earth so soft that in some quarters it has not been possible to get into the fields with teams.

Due to the fact the Alma plant is about midway between the Saginaw and Owasco plants, beets in that locality will be shipped to those factories to allow them to run more near capacity.

Only under the most favorable weather conditions during the next few days is there any chance of sufficient beets being harvested there to warrant re-opening of the plant. The St. Louis plant, of the Holland-St. Louis Sugar company, has not yet experienced any great trouble, but the fear that more than 1,500 acres under contract could not be harvested is impelling that plant to close Tuesday to allow the factory workers to aid farmers in the harvest. The St. Louis plant will probably open again in a week or 10 days.

Mr. Allen, of the Alma plant, says the present season is the worst he has experienced in his 27 years' connection with the beet industry in central Michigan.

Should a cold wave strike within the next few days, resulting in freezing in any of the more than 3,000 acres of beets of the Alma and St. Louis factories, farmers of the county would lose thousands of dollars.

Two hundred men are thrown out of work by the closing of the Alma plant, which ordinarily would run for another month and a half.

That the life of Anatole France, who at the time of his death a year or two ago was considered the leading literary figure in the world, sums up the last part of the nineteenth and the first quarter of the twentieth century was the conclusion reached Monday evening by Mrs. Cornelia Steketee, hostess of Grand Rapids when she gave an address on Anatole France before the Century club. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Walsh.

Mrs. Hurst illustrated her address by readings from the works of France in which his development was clearly shown step by step.

The music, which was in charge of Mrs. B. J. De Vries, consisted of several pieces by Mrs. Mary Robb and several violin solos by Walter Riker, accompanied by Mrs. Robbins.

Anderson's Ford Is Found Abandoned By Toledo Police

The Ford car owned by George "Dutch" Anderson has been discovered in Toledo, according to information received Monday by Chief of Police Hansen of Muskegon.

The chief of police at Toledo holds an automobile there, and recently he wrote to the chief at Lima, O., asking for information. It developed that the license of the car was issued to Charles P. Davis there several months ago. This was the license certificate found on the person of Anderson, when he was killed by Detective Charles D. Hammond two weeks ago.

The Toledo chief has been notified that the license of the car was issued to Anderson. Chief Hansen expects to get in touch with the Toledo chief in regard to the matter.

Muskegon officers at first believed that Anderson drove the car to Muskegon as the keys to the machine were found on him. He apparently abandoned the car in Toledo, however, before coming to Michigan.

The youth peoples' meeting at the Sixth Reformed church Monday evening drew a large crowd of C. E. society. A good program was given consisting of the following: a talk on C. E. work by Rev. J. H. Bruggers; song by the junior choir; reading by Annette Zee; talk on "Why We Should Be C. E. Workers" by Benj. Lemmen, president of the Holland C. E. union; song by the choir; reading by Dorothy Duiman; play by Evelyn Hietje; Eleanor Hietje; Earl Waterwater, Adrian TerLouw and John Van Voorst.

Holland churchgoers will have the privilege of hearing a pastor of India preach in Third Reformed church Sunday morning, Nov. 29.

Rev. Simeon Cornelius has come to Holland to make a tour of Reformed churches during the winter on behalf of the board of foreign mission. "The Indian church," says Mr. Cornelius, "no longer is an infant, but is in the adolescent stage."

Claudia Muzio, prima donna soprano with the Chicago Civic Opera Co., and noted concert artist who will be heard here in concert Monday evening, Nov. 23, has lived in the atmosphere of opera almost from babyhood.

Born in Italy, at the age of two she was taken to London, where her father was a member of the staff of the Covent Garden Theatre. A few years later the family came to America, where Claudia's father occupied the same position with the Metropolitan Opera in New York. Owing to her father's close association with the opera, the child Claudia spent many hours daily in watching and listening to the great singers in rehearsal and in public performances.

Her father insisted upon the little girl memorizing difficult operatic lines for line. Her task, while a very difficult one, was one for which in later years, she was most grateful.

Until she was sixteen, Claudia Muzio was not permitted to sing. Her only media of musical expression were the harp and piano. When it was finally discovered that the young Claudia possessed such a remarkable voice, she was sent to Italy, where she studied under some of the best known teachers there.

Miss Muzio's progress was rapid. Her debut was made in Milan, and later she sang in Covent Garden, London. Reports of her success in those two cities were so gratifying that she was engaged by the Metropolitan Opera Co., New York, and later by the Chicago Civic Opera Co.

Her splendid triumphs with both these opera companies are widely heralded. In concert appearances, both in this country and abroad, she evokes rapturous ovations of praise.

Four hundred seats are offered at various prices. Sale has opened at Van Zeng's Jewelry store.

America had its "monkey case," but Holland is now having its "serpent case," as a parallel to the trial at Dayton, Tenn.

Dr. Vangeelkerken, a clergyman of the Calvinist church, has been summoned to appear shortly before a special synod to answer charges of having cast doubt on the conversational ability of the serpent in Genesis. The Dutch preacher's sermons, in which he questioned the fact of the famous reptile's talkativeness with Eve in the Garden of Eden, have caused a sensation both in the press and church circles. As a result he now faces the possibility of dismissal unless he appears before the synod and subscribes to the latter's fundamental beliefs.

In the meanwhile the press is holding considerable discussion as to what language the serpent will say, and whether it will be Hebrew or Syriac, or merely accept the general trend of the serpent's remarks as translated into the Dutch Old Testament.—Chicago Tribune.

The report of the officers showed that the society is in splendid condition financially and in every other way. Witvliet; vice president, Fred Van Lente; secretary, Bert Vander Poel; treasurer, Wm. Dinkeloo; trustee, John De Oer.

One hundred and fifty people enjoyed the fine program and supper given by the parent teachers club at the Van Ralte school on E. 16th street where Miss Alice Holman and Mrs. Albert Hyma are teachers. A vote of thanks was given to the Biscuit Co. for their generous donation toward the supper. The next meeting will be held on Jan. 15, 1926.

86 OTTAWA HUNTERS NOW AFTER DEER

Ottawa county is sending a small army of hunters into the north woods into the deer country and if each hunter brings home his deer there will be 86 less deer in Michigan for that many hunters are now stalking the woods, according to the number of licenses issued by County Clerk Orris Slusher.

Holland has 36 hunters there, while Zeeland sends seven and Grand Haven 19. West Olive, Coopersville, Spring Lake and other localities also send quite a number and possibly now the number of licenses issued from Ottawa county will be over 100. Thus far there have been no licenses issued to woman hunters. Other years there were always one or two, but this year it seems the women have no representation.

Those from Ottawa county who have gone to the deer country are: Deer Licenses Up to Nov. 15, 1925

Holland Man Not Guilty of Drunken Driving He Avers

Jack Knoll, 30, of Holland, Monday pleaded not guilty when arraigned on a charge of driving while intoxicated before Justice Henry A. McNitt at Muskegon.

Knoll was arrested after his car had figured in a smash-up on the Grand Haven road Sunday night. The police believe that Knoll caught a ride to Muskegon after the accident to allow suspicion while Knoll says that he was not in the car when the accident occurred.

He told the police Monday that he picked up a foreigner, who gave him a couple of drinks, Knoll says he left the machine for a few minutes and then the other man drove the car away. He then caught a ride to the city, he said.

The formation of a lake shore league or conference of high schools for foot ball schedules is suggested by the Grand Haven Tribune. The Tribune says:

"It would seem that the very logical thing to do in the way of schedule making would be to consider the matter of a lake shore league or conference of the high schools. With the exception of Muskegon, all of the lake shore high schools are now in Class B, and all will be until the enrollments go over 700 students. Most of the towns are growing, but there is not a vast difference in their sizes. Games between these lake shore high schools under proper organization should make capital athletic competition. Beginning at Manistee and coming south, there would be Ludington, Grand Haven, Holland, South Haven, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor—seven schools in Class B schools, all of which have athletics under fine school control.

"Could these schools be brought together into a Lake Shore conference, the interest in the competition between them would leap to a year with the contest for the conference championship. Clean, healthy rivalry would be fostered and a fine spirit of sportsmanship between the cities and the schools would shortly be developed. The athletics in the lake shore conference of Michigan high schools would be brought under the best of school control.

"The cities suggested are not at great distances from one another. All are located on the new famous West Michigan pike, and all within a few hours of one another. Students could make the trips easily and it is safe to predict that both students and the more matured lovers of the game in all cities would not care to change back to the haphazard schedules, once the conference plan was in smooth working order.

"Organization in the schedule making could satisfy all the needs of the time. There could be at least three conference home games in each team's schedule each year. In fact there is no estimating the possibilities of conference competition in football, basketball, track and perhaps basketball. Interscholastic institutions should, of course, adhere to, with such further rulings as the conference schools care to adopt.

"On the face of it, there seem to be few obstacles to such a plan. The action must come from the school authorities of course, and the quicker steps are taken in this direction, the nearer will the lake shore schools be to quite an ideal situation."

Bill Watkins of Hopkins Creamery and O. I. Gregg were Allegan county representatives at a meeting at Chicago nearly a year ago when the idea of having all milk and cream coming into Chicago be from cows that were free from tuberculosis. Recently the board of health of Chicago has passed a ruling that this be put into effect by July 1 anyway and possibly by April 1.

Three representatives were in Allegan Sunday talking the matter over with representatives from the different producing sections.

It was pointed out by the county agent that Hopkins, Otsego and possibly Pearl, Allegan, Martin, Wayland and Fillmore could be made receiving stations for milk to be shipped in tank cars to Chicago. Since Allegan county cows are already being tested for tuberculosis it puts the county right in line as being the nearest county to Chicago that have started this work in Michigan.

Edgar Lee Masters, who for many years did most of his writing at Spring Lake, Ottawa county, author of "Spoon River Anthology," offered an impressive tribute at the funeral of Hardin W. Masters, his father, Monday, at Springfield, Ill.

"If there coming into the world," he said, "I could have chosen my father and chosen him with all the understanding I have today, he is the man I would have chosen for my father. What I have inherited from him in strength or health or gifts or understanding of life, I count as more precious than all the riches of the world."

The elder Mr. Masters also spent many summers at Spring Lake.

While Richard De Heer and his family of Peach Plains were in Grand Haven at the Salvation Army Saturday night, an unknown thief in a big automobile, entered the home and ransacked it from cellar to attic. The only booty taken was a gold watch and a valuable pin. Neighbors spotted the big car and the family called the sheriff's department on arrival home.

There were no clues available and although officers are working on the case chances for apprehension of the criminals are slim. Mr. De Heer is a milk vendor.

Sale of the Elmann property at 6th and Clinton-sts., Grand Haven, to the Christian Science church organization has been announced. It will be converted into a church house and reading room. It is probable a church may be erected at a later date.

TODAY the paramount question among all classes is that of Health. How to get Health—how to keep healthy. The magazines and newspapers are crowded with Health Hints. The nation as a whole has awakened to the indisputable fact that to maintain its supremacy above other nations health is an absolutely necessary possession. For more than a quarter of a century the Science of Chiropractic has been accomplishing wonderful things. The fact that it has endured for that length of time is positive proof of its worth, and our readers would be surprised at the number and tone of the hundreds of voluntary testimonials which we receive from time to time. It has saved many a person from a premature grave; it has put many an ailing child on the road to health, enabling that child to become a useful member of society. This is to impress upon your minds that Chiropractic is a real Health Science, and that the one mission of the practicing chiropractor is to "get sick people well."

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

A MESSAGE at this time, to the buying Public, advising them to shop early for Christmas, may seem a little premature since we have't even eaten our turkey yet, but is it?

Q At this season of the year you can shop at your leisure, can save money and can save nerves, which after all is most essential. Now you can make selection from a large assorted and a complete stock.

Q Last minute Holiday shopping is never satisfactory. You shop grudgingly and with a bad temper for the reason that you get into a jam, and are compelled to take the leavings besides.

Q It surely does not engender a Christmas spirit and besides Christmas shopping in a rush is hard work and the shopper simply goes into it to perform a duty or an imaginary obligation.

Q Giving is a wonderful thing to do if you feel the gift as it were. By shopping early you can get what you want and what your friends or loved ones desire, not simply something to "take the curse off".

Be a happy shopper.

For a Real Merry Christmas. This can be Done only by Shopping Early and that is NOW.

WHY FARMERS BAR HUNTERS

"No wonder farmers strenuously object to trespassing on their property by hunters when in one day during hunting week I found three wire fences that had been deliberately cut in order to allow the sportsmen's dogs to get through," remarks a Detroit hunter. "More consideration of the property rights of others will go a long way toward stopping posted hunting lands especially throughout the district adjacent to Detroit."

HAMILTON

H. W. Schutmaat, Harry Brower and George Heneveld of Central Park were in Hamilton trying to get some of the wild game.

A band concert was held Monday evening in the community hall. There was an excellent attendance. The proceeds are to be used for wiring of the hall so the place may be lighted electrically.

The two snowmobiles ordered by H. D. Strabbing and Marvin Koolker for their mail routes 1 and 3 are now at the Edging garage and will be in readiness for services soon.

Quite a number of Hamilton music lovers went to Kalamazoo to listen to the celebrated Galli Curci, noted Italian prima donna. Mrs. G. H. Rietveld and her daughter Miss Julia were among those who attended.

Rev. J. A. Roggen of the First Reformed church has declined the call recently extended to him by a Reformed church in Newkirk, Ia. The members of his church at Hamilton, of which he has been the pastor for four years, are well pleased he has decided to continue to serve them. As an evidence of the appreciation in which both the pastor and his wife are regarded by the membership of the church the morning following his announcement that he would remain in Hamilton the members of the church had a fine new cooking range delivered and placed in the parsonage kitchen. Mrs. Roggen and the range became very warm friends at once.

The company of young women known as the league for service of the First Reformed church, were entertained royally by Rev. and Mrs. Edward Tanish in their home in Holland recently.

With the advent of the new light and power plant the vendors of electric washing machines and other electric appliances have learned that Hamilton is to become an open market for their products and some of their representatives are already beginning to hunt for prospects.

Some people are wondering why John Kronmeyer, mail carrier on Route No. 2 has not, like all the other carriers, ordered a snowmobile. The fact is that Mr. Kronmeyer has to keep a span of horses for farm work during the summer and that he believes it is economy to have the horses earn their keep during the winter by using them on the mail route which would indicate that Mr. Kronmeyer is a sensible mail carrier.

A driver of the county road scraper used on the Beeline road was heard to say a short time ago that he is convinced that a gravel road can not much longer be kept in condition to sustain the increasingly heavy traffic. Only a concrete roadway with a deep and firm foundation will meet the demands of the increasing number of heavily loaded trucks. This is a conclusion to which many other careful observers of traffic conditions and requirements are coming.

The school report for month ending Nov. 6 for Hamilton shows: Gaugs taught, 18, total enrollment 142, total attendance 2,514.5, total absence, 41.5, per centage of attendance 85.3.

Martius Ten Brink sprained his ankle in playing soccer ball one day last week, making it necessary for him to be absent from school several days.

Severe wet and cold weather prevailing during the latter part of October did an incalculable lot of damage to the celery crop in this region, froze some apples before they had been picked, did some injury to potatoes yet undug, and greatly delayed work on the farm.

One farmer, it is reported, who was leaving some of his late apples on the trees in order that they might color, lost as many as two hundred bushels. The fair weather following permitted the farmers to finish their digging of potatoes, and catch up with their farm work. Besides the damage done to the celery by the snow and the cold, the work in fields was made unpleasant and difficult by the heavy rains, and the repeated rains and snow of the early part of this week have likely increased the damage to the celery and made the work of harvesting still more disagreeable.

At a meeting of the parent-teachers association the organization took place. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. A. Roggen; first vice-president, Mrs. Emma Van Voorst; second vice-president, Miss Mary Weaver; secretary-treasurer, Arthur A. Kaechele. It was decided to hold meetings once per month. The date of the next meeting will be announced later. It was also decided to affiliate with the state and national P. T. A. Mr. Fales and other members of a quartet from Allegan gave some enjoyable song numbers and Mrs. Roggen gave several humorous readings. After the programme and business were transacted everyone enjoyed the social period and the ice cream and wafers. It is hoped that most of the parents and teachers and friends of the school will interest themselves in the organization and attend the meetings. It is hoped, too, that others will join the organization, initial enrollment which is now thirty-eight.
