President Coolidge's expression of desire for a larger representation of public preference at the polls is not to be attributed to a partisan wish for a majority for his party in congress as a result of the elections next Tuesday. He speaks as the chief executive of the country, not as a Republican. There is urgent need of a greater response by the electorate to the summons to manifest the popular will. The president urges that all come out and vote some ticket, regardless of party and thus a more unanimous expression may be received.

STAR HATCHERY IS BOUGHT BY ED BROUWER

WILL MAKE IT A 50,000 CAPACITY CHICKEN PLANT

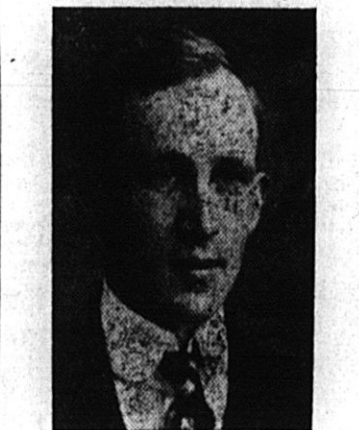

Ed Brouwer, for ten years secretary of the Holland Poultry association, has resigned his position with the Quaker Oats Company with which he has been connected for the past three years, and has purchased the Star hatchery located on the south side of the city, and conducted for many years by Bert Thinholt.

Mr. Brouwer is already putting the plant in shape and when the season opens he will be ready for business with a 50,000 capacity poultry plant. He is even now putting in a new incubator supplementing those already installed in the plant.

The Star hatchery is to make a specialty of the very best English, Hollywood and American White Leghorns, also Barred Rocks standard weight birds, headed by special males, bred by some of the most prominent breeders in this country.

Mr. Brouwer states that he cannot stay away from the poultry raising business. He says that the industry is only in its infancy and a plant properly conducted has great possibilities, and he sees those possibilities for the new Star hatchery.

Mr. Brouwer ought to know what he is talking about if anyone does, if experience is any criterion. For ten years he has successfully handled the Holland Poultry association and the local organization has been growing steadily, while in other locations shows have been discontinued.

He has been secretary of the Holland Fair that has much to do with poultry, and for many years has been one of the superintendents in the poultry department. He has passed two successful examinations in poultry husbandry, after taking two short courses at Michigan State college. He has been repeatedly selected as judge for other poultry shows and was also asked to go on a lecture tour of three weeks in the Ozark regions of Missouri, at the request of the Rock Island Railroad officials, and he at that time spent nearly a month in the Ozark mountains, teaching the natives how to raise poultry.

For nearly four years he has been associated with the Quaker Oats Company and much to do with the major line of that company as this relates to chick feed, which position not only carried with it lectures on baby chick feed, but demonstrations as well.

Mr. Brouwer took charge of these demonstrations, especially in poultry districts and at agricultural exhibitions and at fairs wherever these were held. For some time Mr. Brouwer has been one of the culling squad that went through poultry flocks in Ottawa and Allegan counties taking the non-productive hens out and leaving the egg layers.

Mr. Brouwer undoubtedly is well equipped to direct the destiny of the Star.

Mrs. A. Kerrinns, 177 W. 9th street gave a quilting bee in honor of Mrs. Arthur Nais, formerly Miss Martha Knipe. The quilt was tied with many beautiful colored knots, each a token of best wishes.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Next Wednesday promises to be a big day for the Democrats in Grand Rapids. Gov. Hendricks is advertised to speak there on that day, and no doubt quite a number will go from here to join in the festivities.

Another large streamer is suspended between the building of Mr. L. T. Lanters and the store of Mr. S. Reidsma, but this one reads: "Tilden, Hendricks and Reform."

A hickory pole was raised at Hamilton on Thursday last 110 ft. long. The pole is described as beautiful. Judge Littlejohn addressed the people, and the whole affair is pronounced a success.

Our friend M. K. Best, brother of Dr. Best, of Overisel, will start for Kokouk, Ia., in a few days to take his last course in medical studies. Goodbye! Come back to us victoriously.

A large streamer bearing the names of Hayes and Wheeler has been suspended between the roofs of the city hotel and the building occupied by E. F. Metz & Co. as a millinery establishment.

Last Wednesday another of the old fashioned "Market Days" was held here, but we need no spectacles to notice that these days are fast losing some of their marked characteristics of "the good old days of yore." For instance, farmers nor citizens make as much of a certain kind of business as formerly. But another and still more noticeable fact is, that we do not meet with squads of our "boys" on every street corner, every day for a week before market day, discussing war tactics, preparing for a successful attack upon the "farm-er boys" or to make an attack from the other side. Farmer boys mind their own business now. Some of them get "gloriously drunk" and then go home, and our boys mind their own business, and thus the day passes off quietly.

HOLLAND TEACHERS HAVE PLenty OF SLOGANS

THREE OF THEM ARE GIVEN IN THE SCHOOL BULLETIN

The following was taken from the monthly school bulletin just printed.

There are three slogans which the Holland Teachers' club are to take for their own this year. The first is "Do it for Holland!" Civic betterment, extension of club privileges, and providing of educational entertainment or extension lectures will meet that goal. The second is the motto of Pestalozzi. "Thou that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself?" Professional advancement, reading of books, discussion of educational projects, why not be a learner this year? And last, Mr. Fell says the peepiest slogan is this doggerel:

"It ain't guns and armament, Nor the regiment as a whole, But 'th' everlastin' teamwork Of every bloomin' soul."

Close cooperation wins out in club work. Try it in the Holland Teachers' Club.

FREE POULTRY SHOW IN HOLLAND THIS YEAR

APPROPRIATION OF OTTAWA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS MAKES THIS POSSIBLE

Small Charge Will However Be Made To See the Dog Bench Show

Secretary Ed Brouwer of the Holland Poultry association states that after a meeting of the directors it was decided that the poultry show this year would be free to everyone.

The appropriation of the Board of Supervisors of Ottawa county of $300 made this action possible. Mr. Brouwer believes that with a free show interest in poultry will be increased. Silver cups, cash and merchandise prizes will be awarded.

Free admission, however, will not apply to the pet stock show to be given in the basement of the armory, for which a nominal fee will be charged. The pet stock will include dogs, rabbits and squirrels.

The Holland Poultry association is the pioneer in poultry raising in Ottawa county and although repeatedly appropriations have been requested, county officials as well as heads of Civic Clubs are beginning to realize what a tremendous proposition the poultry industry has become.

Last year the Holland chamber of commerce gave the association a helping hand and this year the board of supervisors is aiding materially.

Twenty-six years ago when the Holland Poultry association was organized there was no concerted effort made in poultry raising and survey poultry was not scientifically handled nor was there any literature that gave any worthwhile information. Today the poultrymen and even the farmers are well read on poultry and poultry methods and this can largely be attributed to the Holland Poultry association and to similar associations of that kind that have put the local poultry raisers in closer touch with reliable sources of information through lectures, moving pictures, poultry shows and poultry literature.

An organization such as the Holland Poultry association deserves the support of everyone, even those who are not poultry raisers but who indirectly derive benefits from this industry that in lower Ottawa alone will total more than $400,000 a year in products turned out.

FILLMORE P. T. HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

HOLLAND FOLKS TAKE PART IN THE PROGRAM GIVEN

The P. T. A. of Fillmore No. 2 school met on the evening of Oct. 22nd. The meeting was called to order by Rev. R. G. Klingbeil, veteran missionary, in the church on Thirteenth street and Central avenue. The subject was, "The Seven Messages to God's Church." The speaker showed from the second and third chapters of this book how God's messages are given. The seven churches mentioned in this scripture, describe the real condition of Christ's first coming until his second appearing. The subject for Monday night, October 23rd, will be "The Book With Seven Seals Opened." Revelation 4 to 8.

STRANGE GOINGS ON IN UNOCCUPIED HOME

Grand Haven Tribune.—The home of Mrs. Charles Morton on Clinton St., Grand Haven, which was supposed to have been closed and unoccupied while Mrs. Morton is away on a visit, has evidently been the rendezvous of a group of individuals who are either most ignorant of the laws of individual ownership or just the work of youths who think they are getting away with something clever.

The neighbors noticed the window shades of the house drawn in careless manner, heard peculiar noises and saw lights at various times, so two of them decided to investigate the matter. They entered the house found evidences of drinking parties with six glasses left on the table and sink.

Cigarette butts empty bottles and general disorder were further proofs that mischief was the order of the day in this case, as nothing seemed to be taken from the home. The police are investigating the affair.

Dr. and Mrs. Jay Vyn a son and daughter living in Grand Rapids were notified and are in that city to look after things, and are now closing the house, against further vicious entering such as this evidently seems to be.

If this flag is to be sustained and a representative government "of the people, and by the people" is to remain—then vote!

KAMFERBEEK SUPPORTERS VISIT HERE

FIFTY AUTOMOBILES LOADED WITH ROOTERS CAME TO HOLLAND

Holland citizens were rather surprised yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to hear a tremendous commotion on 8th street and upon investigation found that a motorcade of 50 automobiles, headed by the Grand Haven band on a truck, came rolling into the city.

The automobiles were well laden with Kamferbeek boosters and apparently there must have been members of other parties in the crowd, for one can hardly count that many democrats in Ottaw county anymore, if the last primary election is any indication.

The band struck up lively tunes while passing thru the principle streets and a rooming of automobile horns kept time with the music even though these were a little discordant in tone.

Every machine was well decorated with flags and bunting, and there were plenty of slogans and Kamferbeek signs, while the guests conspicuously stated "Grand Haven is for Kamferbeek."

The motorcade made a circuitous route of the entire county, coming from Grand Haven here, then on to Zeeland, Zeeland, Jamestown, Jenson, Hudsonville, Marne, Coopersville, Nunda and back to the county seat.

It is estimated that at least 200 Grand Havenites took part in the demonstration in behalf of the Holland man, who at one time was marshal and chief of police of this city, and who was the only democrat elected to the sheriff's office, since the days of Joe Ver Planke 50 years ago, and who is again nominated by the democrats this year.

COUNTY ROAD OFFICERS TO ATTEND MEET

GOOD ROADS SHOW IS PRACTICALLY SHOW FOR ROAD MEN

The Ottawa County Road commission met Wednesday morning at the courthouse in Grand Haven with Austin Harrington, William M. Connelly and Herend Kamps attending. At this meeting the rooms in the Ver Planke building, situated near the junction of M-11 and M-16 were leased for M-11 and M-16 were leased for such time as permanent quarters are erected by the county, for the housing of the police officers, who are to be permanently located in this district.

Some members and attaches of the road commission were given the opportunity of attending the Good Roads Show at Detroit for one day and Carl Bowen, Ray Fox and N. P. Yonkman left Wednesday afternoon.

This show is almost a school of instruction displaying the latest equipment and material for road construction. Those attending are able to hear lectures and discussions on finance, maintenance, construction of roads by the big builders of the state. This show is an annual event, last year being in Grand Rapids, under the auspices of the road commissioners and engineers of the state. It is very worth while and the Ottawa county men will be well repaid for their trip to Detroit it is certain.

SECOND ADDRESS ON REVELATION GIVEN

A second address on the book of Revelation was given in the Dutch language on Wednesday night by Rev. R. G. Klingbeil, veteran missionary, in the church on Thirteenth street and Central avenue. The subject was, "The Seven Messages to God's Church." The speaker showed from the second and third chapters of this book how God's messages are given. INSTALLS NEW STEAM PUMP AT G. H. STATION

A new steam pump is being erected at the Grand Haven pumping station that will replace one of the earliest in the history of that city's station. This new pump bought from J. H. McDou Co. has a capacity of 500,000 gallons a day which is an increase over the old Worthington pump.

NOTED IRISHMAN FROM MONTREAL WILL SPEAK HERE

The Century club next Monday evening, when it meets at Hazelbank, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Landwehr, will have an exceptionally interesting speaker in the person of Principal James Smyth, D. D., of the United Theological College of Montreal.

Principal James Smyth, D. D., LL.D.

Principal Smyth will deliver his interesting and up-to-date lecture on "Spiritism and Psychological Phenomena."

Dr. Smyth is an Elster Irishman who had a brilliant university career in the old country, being a graduate in both arts and law. He is an exact scholar, an able preacher and lecturer, and a life-long student of the occult. As a young minister in Ireland he lectured to the students of his own seminary on psychology with marked success.

Fourteen years ago Montreal wanted a principal for its Theological Seminary and a deputation was sent to Great Britain with power to act. After an exhaustive search, Dr. Smyth was selected and recommended to the board of management, with the result that he transferred his activities from Ireland to Canada. In recent years he has taken a leading part in the promotion of church union, which is now a reality, and he is the first principal of the United Theological seminary.

Dr. Smyth will be accompanied to Holland by Mrs. Smyth, and both will be guests of their old friends, Dr. T. W. Davidson and Mrs. Davidson, while in Holland.

CITY CONDUCTIVE TO CHRISTIAN LIFE IS DECISION IN DEBATE

The city is the best place for living the Christian life, was the decision rendered by the jury in the debate held by the B. V. P. U. of the Ganges' Baptist church of Ganges Sunday. The subject for debate was, "Resolved that it is easier to live the Christian life in the city than in the country."

The affirmative team, which won, was captained by Miss Gladys Atkins, while the losing team was led by Clayton Fisher. Mrs. Charles Green presided.

FORMER WEST OLIVE PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. John Byron Estelle, old-time resident of West Olive for many years, died Tuesday night at the home of her granddaughter in this city, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomsen, 187 East 11th street. She was 83 years old and was survived by five children: Harry of Muskegon, Howard of Lansing, Walter of Jackson, Paul of Holland, and Mrs. Joe Riedsma of Flint.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Dykstra Funeral Home, Rev. J. H. Bruggers officiating. Interment will be in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

TAKES PARTY CARRYING GUNS

Frank Salisbury, deputy state game warden, of Grand Haven, arrested the following for unlawful use of firearms when they were found shooting in the woods recently, Elmer Mac Intyre, Ray Peterson, Beulah Jackson, and Mary Jersed appeared in Justice Cook's court, Grand Haven, and pleaded guilty and were assessed $10.00.

The law under which these people were arrested is a recent one having been passed on April 3, 1925 and makes it unlawful at any time to be in hunting areas at any season of the year, other than the hunting season and then only those with license, with fire arms. This should be fully understood by all those who of an afternoon like to go into the open or wood for a little target practice or just hitting at a flying leaf or similar object.

CARFERRY MAN BURIED AT G. H.

The funeral of Ole Anderson, car ferry deckhand who died on his post on Sunday morning on the car ferry Milwaukee, was held Tuesday morning from the Boer Mortuary. Six of the car ferry men acted as pallbearers and burial was in Lake Forest. Rev. James De Kraker officiated.

Unless word is sent from the family to send the body to Norway it will remain in the cemetery at Grand Haven. The relatives were notified, but it is too soon to expect a return from that country.

Hope college band has organized with Clyde H. Geerlings, president; William Peelen, secretary; treasurer; William Bonnama, librarian. Thirty members answered the call. The band will be directed by Mr. Johnson of Grand Rapids.

STATE POLICE ARE VERY ACTIVE IN OTTAWA COUNTY

The state police have brought in the following cases within the last few days who were arraigned in Justice Cook's court, Grand Haven: Ewald Henry Robinson, charged with being intoxicated, received a fine of $5 and $5 costs. Louis Meads of Fergusburg, charged with being drunk and disorderly conduct was fined $15 and costs of $3.65. W. S. Woods of Muskegon, charged with driving while intoxicated received a fine of $100 costs and $2.75 and suspension of driving license for one year.

MAKE EFFORT TO CONTINUE INTERURBAN

Whether the Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago railway is to continue in operation or is to be wrecked is to be determined officially by Nov. 1, with a possibility of extension of operation to Nov. 15 under the receivership. Meanwhile M. Braudy & Sons, associated with Hyman-Michael Co., Chicago, in the purchase of the road, are arranging for wrecking operations to begin as soon as possible if such is the decision.

Harold Braudy of the Grand Rapids firm stated to his knowledge no offer had been received for operation of the road and it was advisable to have preparations completed for wrecking the road prior to snowstorms. It is stated that efforts are being made in some quarters to have the road continue, if such a thing is possible.

Much Interest Is Shown In Supper Meeting

A great deal of interest is being manifested by the members of Hope church in the supper meeting to be held on next Thursday night at the church. At that meeting the business men's committee is to report its plan for paying the church mortgage debt. Hon. G. J. Diekema will preside and a large attendance is expected. Members and attendants are urged to notify Mrs. J. S. Dykstra of their intention to partake of the supper.

HOLLAND CHILD BAND TO PLAY IN GRAND RAPIDS

Holland has a new musical organization that is attracting much attention. It is the kindergarten band, composed of groups of children from the several kindergartens of the city. They wear uniforms of blue and white and gold and are led in their performances by an able bandmaster, Robert Vante, of Lincoln school kindergarten.

This band first appeared last June when they performed the parent-teachers' convention here. The entire band of fifty members gave another concert Tuesday morning at the Holland high school where they proved exceedingly popular. On Thursday they will appear before the district convention of the Michigan Educational association, to be held at the Grand Rapids coliseum.

All the usual band instruments are used with the exception of the heavier pieces.

BALLOTS FOR COMING ELECTION BEING ISSUED

The ballots for the coming election which will be held on next Tuesday have been received at the county clerk's office and are in readiness for the township clerks to get that they may have them in readiness for the election, and for absent voters' applications.

Much has been said about turning out to vote and this cannot be too gravely impressed on the citizens of this county. Each year the interest seems to be waning and the voters are not using their privilege of voting. This will materially effect the representation at the state conventions and in times of stress may be felt.

Things may be going to one's satisfaction at the present time, but there is an end to all good things sometime and the time will certainly come when this district will need to be well represented in the state conventions.

ATHLETIC CLUB ENJOYS POT LUCK SUPPER

Members of the Women's Athletic club turned out in full force Tuesday evening to enjoy one of their popular pot-luck suppers, which was served cafeteria style. Just preceding the supper Mrs. Van Kolken played the grand "rush" and a grand rush it was after some two hours of physical exertion.

The early part of the evening was spent in playing various games and pranks. Mrs. E. A. Tansey, the club's physical director, had charge of a very interesting program and the spirit of fun-making was clearly evident among the members. As a fun-maker Mrs. Tansey has surely proven very capable. She could think up enough stunts in a minute to keep all of the members on their toes for an hour and the membership surely appreciated her efforts to make this an enjoyable event.

These parties are proving very popular with the members of the club who enjoy the after an evening's physical exertion. Three new members were added to the membership list amid the cheers of the members present.

GIVES REVIEW OF HEALTH PROGRESS IN PAST CENTURY

That great progress has been made in health supervision even during the past ten or fifteen years was the encouraging statement made by Dr. A. Leenhouts at the meeting of the Social Progress club Tuesday evening. The club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Bosch. Dr. Leenhouts' theme was "Present Social Progress in Health Supervision."

Dr. Leenhouts gave a brief review of the history of public health work during the past century or so, showing that until 75 or a hundred years ago there was comparatively little of the kind of health supervision as we know it today. The movement took a tremendous impetus with the work of Pasteur, Koch and others and step by step the general public's interest was won. Step by step also the great plagues were conquered, such as smallpox, diphtheria, and some extent tuberculosis, and many other plagues.

Today the movement for public health supervision is being pushed harder than ever. It has become plain that the intelligent interest of the average citizen is needed to make the movement completely successful and that interest is being secured in a large variety of ways, through education. As a result the span of human life has been nearly doubled in the last half century and some of the worst enemies of mankind are being conquered.

But while much has been done, a great deal more needs to be done, said the speaker. He pointed out that there still a number of major diseases that can only be conquered if the public will stand back of the great agencies that are doing battle against them. He showed that ten great voluntary national public health agencies have become associated to coordinate their work and this too has resulted in great advance.

Dr. Leenhouts touched on the tuberculosis situation in Ottawa county and pointed out that the piece of public health work is this community's immediate part in this great national and international health movement.

DINNER DANCE IS POSTPONED

In deference to Mrs. Seth Hamlin and family in their present sorrow the Star of Bethlehem chapter will postpone the dinner dance that was scheduled for Friday night, Mrs. Hamlin, until the past few months, was an enthusiastic worker in the chapter and one of its most loyal supporters. The husband loses a devoted wife, the sons a loving mother, and the chapter a loyal companion. And so the chapter will abandon all social activities and mourn with this sad family.

The committee wishes to thank those who sent in reservations for the dinner dance and they will again try in the near future to repeat the invitation.

PERE MARQUETTE TRAIN STRIKES AUTOMOBILE

Four persons were hurt, one possibly fatally, at 7:30 Tuesday night when an automobile driven by Christian Osterby, Grant, northbound Pere Marquette train at the Casnovia crossing near the Ottawa county line.

Most seriously hurt was a son of the driver, Victor, 6, who was brought to Blodgett hospital, at Grand Rapids. The boy's skull is fractured and he is suffering from cuts about the face. His condition was regarded as critical early Wednesday.

In the car besides Osterby and the boy were another son, Iner, 4, and Osterby's mother-in-law, Mrs. C. Jacobs, who lives with them at Grant. Mrs. Osterby had remained at home.

Osterby's scalp was cut, his right index finger was cut off, and he was badly bruised. Mrs. Jacobs and the younger son escaped with bruises, but the aged woman suffered from shock.

With the exception of the eldest boy, all were attended at Casnovia and were taken to their home. Osterby was driving a closed car and was returning north from a trip to the city. He said he did not see or hear the train approach. The automobile was demolished.

HOLD HEARING ON EXEMPTION

A hearing to determine whether the Boy Scouts is an educational or benevolent organization was started at Lansing Tuesday before George Lord.

The hearing is held to determine how much property on the benevolent and educational exemption list should be on the tax rolls.

The Boy Scouts were represented by Fred Z. Paulding. Representatives of the Chicago council which operates a large summer camp near Whitehall, also appeared.

Private college, Y. M. C. A. and parochial schools will also appear to determine how much of their property is taxable. Lord was of the opinion that athletic fields owned by private colleges might be considered taxable.

ALLEGAN ATTRACTS SEVERAL FACTORIES

Mayor Joseph F. Mosier of Allegan has announced several factories wish to locate in that city and the council again has taken up the project of building a dam for Kalamazoo river at Calkins bridge, five miles west of the city.

The proposition is to build a dam and install electric generators to furnish 1500 horsepower. To build this dam and equip it would cost $500,000 and to meet this obligation it is proposed to issue bonds.

The factories wanting to come could build their plants while the dam was under construction. Mayor Mosier is firmly of the opinion the dam can be built and the population double in a few years. The river is a navigable stream from Saugatuck to Allegan but has not been so considered -- the war department. Permission to construct the dam, Mr. Mosier believes can be obtained. Two of the factories proposing to locate there now employ 30 and 500 men, respectively.

ECHOES GIVEN OF CONVENTION HELD BY STATE WOMEN

On Tuesday afternoon a regular meeting of the Woman's Literary club was held in the club house with the president, Mrs. Joseph Rhea, presiding. She first called upon the legislative committee for a report, which was presented by Mrs. M. C. Lindermann, and was a resume of the activities and accomplishments of the last session of congress, which adjourned during the summer.

The president then asked Mrs. Sears R. McLean, the vice-president, to take the chair while she presented a report of her trip as delegate to the 32nd annual convention of Michigan federation of women's clubs, which was held at Ann Arbor Oct. 19-22 inclusive. After her interesting and comprehensive report, Mrs. G. J. Diekema, who was also a delegate, gave in a delightfully informal way.

The theme of the convention was "The American Home and Education" and the keynote was found in the following quotation from Mrs. George G. Hunter, the president of the Michigan federation: "The word home has in it the elements of love, rest, permanency, and liberty; but besides these, it has in it the idea of an education, by which all that is purest within us is developed into nobler form for a higher life."

The Tuesday afternoon session was a series of department conferences and the formal opening was held Tuesday evening in Hill auditorium with Dr. William Mather

Lewis, president of George Washington University, as the speaker. His address, "What Youth Needs," was an earnest and sincere defense of the youth of today and he stated that the chief need of youth was leadership in education, in courtesy, in economic affairs and, most important of all, in citizenship.

Wednesday morning was devoted to the reports of committees which revealed a deep interest and untiring efforts toward these goals: 1. More honor to the American home maker and her work; 2. Better opportunities for all our children; 3. Higher standards of education, housing and public health; 4. Protection of women and minors in industry; 5. Wider influence of the arts; 6. Promotion of good citizenship; 7. An international program for peace.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. H. A. Burnham of Massachusetts spoke on "The Three R's of Home-Making, Religion, Rhythm and Rinsing." Her plea for more religion in the home particularly stressed that when religion means love of man, daily Bible reading, daily prayer to God, it makes us better, makes us stronger in sorrow and happier in joy, and goes far toward solving the daily problems as we meet them. This daily contact with Bible precepts cannot fail to make better citizens. Under the head of Rhythm she stressed the aesthetic side of life and under Rinsing she urged the cultivation of a sense of humor in oneself and in the home.

John D. Sherman, president of the general federation, was the speaker at the Wednesday evening session and she was the honor guest at a reception following the meeting. Mrs. Sherman spoke forcefully upon "Federation Needs" putting particular emphasis upon active co-operation of club and federation responsibility of individuals and a study of the needs of the community so that the activities of the club may suit these needs and promote the welfare of the community.

The outstanding features of the Thursday sessions were talks by Mrs. W. R. Alvord on "Training the Citizen," by Mrs. H. G. Sherman, president of the League of Women Voters, and by Miss Dorothy Detzer, of the school of International Relations, at Geneva, Switzerland. All three made a plea for more interest in affairs of state among the women of the world, for the good of the family, the home and civilization.

During the convention there were many rides throughout the city, tours of the buildings on the campus as well as a conducted tour through the new state hospital, and teas, luncheons, and dinners, so that the six hundred women from all over the state of Michigan were kept busy and happy.

After these enlightening reports the attention of the club was called to the rummage sale which is to be held Saturday in the club house. A special plea for rummage was made by the committee in charge of this semi-annual event, and any and all articles which one may wish to donate, will be gratefully received. The club has spent a large amount of money in redecorating the club house and in the purchase of new draperies, rugs, deventports and lounge, which have beautified the interior. The basement also needs dressing up and the proceeds from the rummage sale will help defray the expense of this venture.

Mrs. Diekema announced that the first meeting of the book review club will be held in the lady's club at 2 o'clock on Nov. 9th, when Mrs. Henry Winter will review Edna Ferber's "Show Boat." Further announcements of this meeting will be printed at a later date.

IE DESERVING ROAD PROJECT NEEDS SUPPORT

eland Record—There is one fact on foot in this county that is the earnest support of every man in the county as well as in Grand Rapids and Kent city. That is the extension of a road M21 from its terminal Grand Rapids west to its junction with M-11. Not only in this section of the county given the project much thought, nevertheless it has a great deal of merit and will mean much to a lot of the county now very much in need of such a highway. It has no recognition from the state and it is very necessary that be established as a state road project that the project may be completed within a reasonable time.

line of state road M21, as proposed, would cross Grand Rapids west side on Bridge street, and out on the Bridge street road to west until it intersects M11 point, about one-half mile west of Agnew. It then would turn south on Pearlina, then south on Robinson and Agnew, with a turn on Bass River only a short distance on side roads.

county road commissioners expended considerable effort providing this section south of Grand Rapids with roads comparable to the other sections but the available are inadequate to permit the work as quickly as desirable. At the present time road is under construction, a stretch of four miles being now under contract for a concrete road from the Kent county west to within one-half mile of village of Pearlina.

ch included the crossing of river with a large amount of filling on the west bank. On the line and two miles of the road is completed and in use, the fill-in will not be until it has settled sufficient. The bridge across Grand Rapids river completed, the floor being under construction at this time, may now be made on the new bridge constructed last year.

The road from Pearlina west here it ends at the intersection of Waverly road, a distance of miles is fairly good gravel and nicely carry local traffic but not as a through highway as is necessary. From Waverly junction it is still a trip of more than ten miles into Grand Rapids. If it were carried to Grand Rapids it would be four miles to no road exists now.

th this proposed M21 adopted, larger part of the county would have easy access of a state road, and with the road funds now available Ottawa county should in short time be completely furnished with the best of highways.

ASK CLOTHES FOR SOLDIERS AT CUSTER

The request for men's clothing made by the American Legion Auxiliary to be sent to the Veterans' Bureau No. 100 at Camp Custer, where mentally disabled ex-service men are being cared for, met with a quite generous response. However, before packing the clothes thus far received, it has been decided to give opportunity once more to any who may not have been able to contribute anything earlier. Next Monday, Oct. 25th, Mrs. Hoek, chairman of the rehabilitation committee, will be at the armory in the afternoon, specially to receive contributions. At other times the janitor will gladly take them and see that they are properly packed. Houses for the time being with us just now it is hoped that many articles of men's clothing may have been discovered which will help to make presentable and comfortable some ex-service men who may now own no better an outfit than a pair of overalls or an eight year old uniform.

CITIZENSHIP THE THEME OF W. C. T. U. MEET

Good citizenship was given the theme of the W. C. T. U. on Friday afternoon. The large attendance indicated the interest the women of the union take in this subject.

Dr. A. Pieters explained the four amendments to be voted on at the next election; also the fifth issue for a revision of the state constitution. Dr. Pieters is president of the Voters' Information club and was well informed on political issues.

Miss Smith, principal of junior high, spoke along the line of what should be learned before one is 21. She gave 15 points for good conduct, which those in the reform school wished they had known and obeyed. Among them were: to take care of one's money, form good habits, reap what we sow, follow not to take older people's advice, value of good education, live to serve not merely money getting and obedience to the Ten Commandments. She praised Holland school methods for developing good citizenship.

Mrs. Huisenga led devotions, Mrs. J. Koelker sang two solos, "Crossing the Bar," and "Boat Cradle Song," while Mrs. Mary Steketee and committee served tea. Not the least enjoyed was a piano and xylophone duet by Majorie and Francis Selby.

Out-of-state speculators who attempted to start a Florida boom in Michigan last spring have migrated south ahead of the wild ducks and geese, leaving many Wolverine farmers with frontage on lakes and streams to hold the bag.

They came into the state last Spring and took options at high prices on many large tracts of re-sold property, expecting quick turnovers and large profits. But Michigan's resort boom was different from Florida's. It was less speculative and the speculators have faded out after inflating values.

Overjoyed by the prospect of receiving good prices for their property, many farmers forgot to keep the option prices to themselves. They told their neighbors about their contracts, options and sales to purchasers. Their neighbors told the supervisors, and the supervisors shovled up the assessed valuations on the property. Some tracts now are assessed two, three and four times the old assessments according to these reports.

Now what appears to have been good deals for these farmers are not turning out as well as farmers still are holding the bag with their former assessments doubled, tripled and quadrupled.

Farmers have complained that increasing the assessed valuation of the property before the options have actually been taken up and possession given threatens to confiscate their property. The increased taxes in two to five years, the life of the options and leases, will more than eat up the $500 payments which the "shoe string" speculators paid them last spring to bind the agreements.

These farmers now wish they had consulted a lawyer before they gave options on their farms. In many instances the $500 option payment has been spent but the taxes still remain to be paid.

Olle Anderson, 56, deckhand on the ferry Milwaukee of the Grand Trunk line fell dead while at work early Sunday morning. Anderson was putting up a line of jacks just as the steamer was leaving Milwaukee at about 3 a. m. when he fell dead, striking his head upon an iron brace of the car under which he was putting the jack.

At first it was believed the blow caused death but Coroners' inquest showed that the death was due to apoplexy. The body was carried thru to Grand Haven.

A silver medal has just been awarded to Raleigh's Toronto's Lou of Pennville. In 305 days this young Jersey cow produced 411.13 lbs. of butter fat and 7945 lbs. of milk. She was started on this official production test when she was two years and one month of age and carried a calf for 156 days of the ten months, qualifying for her medal.

Lou's sire is a silver medal bull, Raleigh's Toronto 5th. Raleigh's Toronto Lou is owned and was tested by John Barren & Sons of Pennville, Michigan.

William Loosemore of Spring Lake arrested for driving while in an intoxicated condition was fined $100 and costs by Judge Cook of Grand Haven.

STATE PURSUES SEPARATE ROAD BUILDING PLAN

All indications are that Michigan has only just begun in the construction of good roads. This policy was enhanced about one year ago when the state accepted the responsibility of bearing the total cost of constructing state roads. It is probable that the trouble previous to the adoption of this policy, between the state highway department and the Ionia county board of road commissioners, did much toward furthering the state's policy in this direction.

At any rate, the state has since January first, last, followed that policy and it has during that period constructed, state highway, M-16 across Ionia county.

The adoption of this policy was not with the purpose of relieving the taxpayers of any one county from the burden of road building but so as to give the state highway department a free hand, incidentally relieving the counties from the state road burdens. However, we should not jump to the conclusion that less road funds will be demanded. The state expects that in exchange for this relief the county shall devote its time and finances toward the improvement of the county road system.

The revenues derived from automobile directly, is mounting each year so that highway construction may largely be extended from this source of revenue without greatly encumbering the taxpayer through direct taxes, and now that the state has relieved the counties from the state road burden, the money received in returned automobile tax may be entirely devoted to local road improvement. The total sum returned to the several counties this year amounts to some six millions of dollars. The weight tax in the state during the first nine months of 1926 was more than sixteen millions, while the gas tax totaled more than eleven million.

With the receipts from automobile and gasoline tax constantly increasing it is probable an effort will be made at the next session of the legislature to have the weight tax rate reduced. This move will be strongly opposed by the state highway department and most of the county road boards. Ottawa county is well situated when it comes to good roads but there are many counties that are still looking for much road construction.

TO RELOCATE STRETCH ON M ELEVEN

The state administrative board at Lansing Thursday approved relocation of M-11 between Stevensville and Sawyer on the route laid out by the highway department, according to a United Press dispatch.

The relocation will be from one-half mile north of Stevensville to one-half mile west of Sawyer—a distance of about twelve miles.

With the exception of short stretches between Stevensville and Bridgman, no existing road bed will be used. None of the present route of M-11 between the two points is to be included.

The relocation eliminates two railroad crossings and eight right-angle turns.

The new route will be part of the Lake Shore highway, rivaling the Dunes highway in Indiana. A similar re-location is planned above Benton Harbor.

The dispatch did not indicate when paving will begin, but of course none will be laid this year.

Attorneys Thomas N. Robinson and Edgar Parsons have been trying cases at Allegan the greater part of the week.

SUPERVISORS WON'T AID THE POULTRY SHOW

Muskegon Chronicle—The supervisors Saturday denied the request of the Michigan East Shore Poultry and Rabbit Fanciers' association for an appropriation of $300 to aid in staging the annual show. Such an appropriation had been voted in the past.

The motion to grant the appropriation failed by a vote of 13 to 14, 17 votes, or a majority of the members elect being necessary. Supervisor Vincent A. Martin moved to reconsider the action Saturday, but it was voted down again. The rural members opposed it.

Mr. Martin said he believed that the country should aid the men who are trying to improve the poultry industry. He pointed out that Ottawa county appropriated $800 this year to aid in staging such shows.

(By Nell R. Lemmer, Ottawa County Nurse)

Turning the keen searchlight of science upon the problem of the growing child and his needs, parents and teachers, doctors and nurses, have discovered that the school child who has hot, nutritious food at noon suffers less fatigue and restlessness during the afternoon, ranks higher in scholarship and has a lower rate of sickness for the year.

Progress has followed swiftly in the wake of this discovery and many ingenious plans are being developed for providing hot luncheons for the youngsters at a minimum expenditure, if indeed any expenditure is required.

In small schools each mother provides in turn some dish which can be reheated easily at school, such as thick soups, meat loaf, creamed vegetables, baked beans or scalloped potatoes. These are used to supplement the usual luncheon of sandwiches, fruit, milk and dessert.

Another plan is to have the family contribute food stuffs to be prepared at school—potatoes to bake, vegetables for soup, milk for cocoa and canned products. The teacher and a committee plan the menus for several weeks ahead and arrange the articles to be contributed by each family.

HOLLAND MAN SUES MUSKEGON REALTORS

Suit has been started in the Muskegon court by Abraham Peters of Holland against J. J. Fagan and A. M. Larsen, doing business as J. J. Fagan & Co.

The plaintiff says that he purchased property for $7,377 from the defendants and made a down payment with the understanding that the title was to be perfected by August 1. Mr. Peters says that the defendants have not perfected the title and he seeks to recover his down payment, which was around $4,000.

Notice of appearance has been filed by the defendants.

SAYS HOLLAND MAN MARRIES N. Y. ACTRESS

A story of the marriage of Harry C. Bannister to a famous actress appears in the New York Times. Mr. Bannister's home is given as Holland. There is no such name in the directory however. The story follows:

Miss Anna Harding, now appearing in "The Woman Disputed" at the Forrest Theatre, was married to Harry C. Bannister, who is playing in "Yellow" at the National Theatre, yesterday afternoon at the Church of Transfiguration. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Randolph Ray, rector of the church.

Mrs. Robert Nash, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Louis Calhern was the best man.

The bride, who assumed the name of Ann Harding for the stage, was born in Texas. She is the former Miss Dorothy Walton Gately, daughter of Colonel Geo. Grant Gately, U. S. A., and Mrs. Gately. Her father is stationed at Fort McDowell on Angel Island, Cal. Mr. Bannister comes from Holland, Mich.

Miss Harding made her first success here in "Tarnish," by Gilbert Emery, which was produced at the Belmont Theatre, Oct. 1, 1923. Since then she has appeared here in "Thoroughbreds," "Stolen Fruit" and "Schweiger." She played in the "Green Hat" when it was first produced in Chicago, but gave up this role to appear in "Stolen Fruit." Harry C. Bannister has appeared here in a number of productions.

The state administrative board at Lansing Thursday approved relocation of M-11 between Stevensville and Sawyer on the route laid out by the highway department, according to a United Press dispatch.

The relocation will be from one-half mile north of Stevensville to one-half mile west of Sawyer—a distance of about twelve miles.

With the exception of short stretches between Stevensville and Bridgman, no existing road bed will be used. None of the present route of M-11 between the two points is to be included.

The relocation eliminates two railroad crossings and eight right-angle turns.

The new route will be part of the Lake Shore highway, rivaling the Dunes highway in Indiana. A similar re-location is planned above Benton Harbor.

The dispatch did not indicate when paving will begin, but of course none will be laid this year.

Attorneys Thomas N. Robinson and Edgar Parsons have been trying cases at Allegan the greater part of the week.

Another plan which has proved highly popular in rural schools is to have each child bring from home a glass jar containing food to be reheated. A pan large enough to fit on the top of the stove is provided with a low wooden rack upon which the jars may stand immersed in water.

In some schools two-burner stoves have been purchased as "heaters" while an ordinary Blue Monday variety of washboiler is used as a container for the water and jars. When the children arrive in the morning the jars are put in the boiler; at eleven the fires are lighted and at twelve hot dishes which supplement the luncheon are ready.

Larger schools, boasting domestic science in addition to the usual curriculum of reading, writing, 'n' arithmetic, sometimes use this plan which, it cannot be denied, admirably relates theory to practice. Members of the domestic science class themselves prepare a warm luncheon which is sold to the children at cost. This scheme has been highly approved by a number of school authorities. By this outline of various well-established plans to solve the problem of the school child's luncheon, the fact that the hot luncheon is no longer an experiment is amply proved. Both pupils and teachers in schools that have initiated it would not give it up for it lightens the burden of the entire school day and has proved so effectively reduces the amount of time lost by sickness.

MAIL PROBLEM IS CREATED BY SALE OF INTERURBAN

The sale of the Holland Interurban line has brought up another problem, namely the question of giving satisfactory mail service between this city and Macatawa, Saugatuck and Douglas, until now taken care of by the interurban. Postmaster Westveer has received a communication from the department relating to this problem and he is asking men in the city owning trucks to make bids for carrying the mail on a temporary basis. He asks that all such persons see him at Holland postoffice by November first or Nov. 15th, depending on when the interurban service is discontinued.

Since the letter from headquarters to Mr. Westveer gives the details of the plan it is printed herewith:

It seems very likely that by Nov. 1st or by Nov. 15, we will have no more electric service on the Grand Rapids and Saugatuck CP line.

I would like to have your opinions as to the most satisfactory service by truck between Holland and Saugatuck at the least possible cost. There will probably be two separate schedules, one for the summer and another for the winter months. How large a truck will be necessary to handle this mail? Schedules should be arranged, if possible, to connect Grand Rapids & Chicago trains which handle the bulk of the parcel post.

It is very likely that the Department will much prefer a single round trip during the winter, probably with additional service during the summer, and the trucks will undoubtedly be scheduled to run past all postoffices which will cancel all present Mail Messenger Service.

Will you kindly canvass the truck owners in your cities, and secure as many bids as possible? The price should be made on the basis of the winter schedule, and when additional trips are scheduled in summer they will be paid on a pro-rata of the mileage, that is to say, two trips in the summer would pay twice as much as one trip in the winter. There will be no objection to the contractor carrying small package freight and express, or passengers, as far as the Department is concerned, provided preference is always given to the mail, and a satisfactory schedule is maintained.

I would also appreciate your statement of the exact mileage required to cover the distance including any detours necessary to take care of the present Messenger Service.

Vote for Republican State Candidates on November 2

For GOVERNOR

They Understand State Problems

A vote for Republican candidates is a vote for progress—Roads, Conservation, Sound Government.

Republican State officers can best serve Michigan because they are affiliated with the party that is in national power.

Fred W. Green typifies the ideals which the people of the State desire to find in a Governor—he is the man the people want.

The affairs of the State in all departments including administrative, legislative, and judicial are assured intelligent, conscientious, vigorous attention by the election of the Republican nominees of 1926.

GEORGE F. GETZ DINES COAL DEALERS OF DETROIT

Detroit Free Press—A man who seems to get his greatest pleasures in doing things for others was a visitor in Detroit Saturday. He is George F. Getz, of Chicago and Holland, Michigan. One of the conspicuous figures in the coal trade of this country, his country estate just outside of Holland is one of the show places of the state.

It was there that as expression of friendship to Fred W. Green, Republican nominee for governor, whom he had known for many years, that Getz staged one of the most remarkable demonstrations last summer that has ever occurred in Michigan in the interests of any candidate. He literally invited western Michigan to come to his place, join in a monster barbecue, and listen to Green tell of his candidacy. Thirty thousand responded.

Getz has always been interested in politics, though he has not been active in that line except occasionally in behalf of his friends. The late Fred W. Upham, of Chicago, for many years treasurer of the national Republican committee, was a partner of Getz in Chicago. Gov. Al Smith of New York, has also been a business associate of Getz.

The Getz family, as he calls his many acres near Holland is more than a farm. In fact it really seems to belong to the public rather than to Getz. Thousands visit it every Sunday in the summer time. It always is open to the public and fronting on Lake Michigan, with one of the most complete private zoos in the country on the premises, it has become a popular recreational objective.

Getz was in Detroit Saturday to entertain several score of the city's coal merchants at a dinner in the Book-Cadillac hotel, and in addition invited many of his friends outside of the trade, including Mayor John W. Smith, former U. S. Senator William Alden Smith, C. E. Warren, former ambassador to Japan and Mexico; Fred W. Green, Judge Ira W. Jayne, State Treasurer F. D. McKay, former Congressman G. J. Dickman, E. W. Smith, former U. S. attorney, northern district of Illinois; E. D. Stair, A. H. Vandenberg of Grand Rapids; J. H. Brewer of Grand Rapids; John S. Haggerty, republican nominee for secretary of state; William J. Gray, Frank Book, Benjamin S. Hanchett, regent of the University of Michigan; Fred A. Chapman, of Iowa; E. D. Stair, Jr. and Major Perry K. Heath of Grand Rapids.

The Free Press then goes on to give the names of at least 300 coal dealers who were also the guests at the banquet at the Book-Cadillac Hotel.

Hope orators have started preparation for the next M. O. L. contest, under tutelage of Prof. J. S. Nykerk, head of the department of public speaking.

Russell D. Damstra of Holland, member of the class of 1927 and winner of the Raven contest, will represent Hope in the men's contest and Miss Sandrine Ann Schutt of Sioux Center, Ia., also a senior and winner of the Adelaide contest, will be entered in the women's contest.

Hope orators have won 10 state contests in the past 15 years and first honors in either the men's or women's contests during the past 6 years.

GREAT CONCERT OPENS COLLEGE LECTURE COURSE

The Hope college lecture course opened Friday evening in Carnegie hall with a concert by one of the greatest lyric sopranos ever heard in Holland, Ethel Mason of Chicago. Miss Mason came here with an international reputation and she fully lived up to the advance notices. The concert was a great treat for the music lovers of Holland.

To make the concert perfect in every way Dr. J. L. Nykerk, the manager, had secured from the Bush & Lane company a new piano, kindly loaned for the occasion by that firm. Annotated programs were passed out to the audience, by means of which the audience could follow the singer through the various numbers. These annotations gave some brief remarks about the composers and gave a hint of the atmosphere of the song.

The concert was a good beginning of a course that bids fair to make lecture history in Holland. It contains very high class talent and no effort or expense has been spared to give the people of Holland a course that they can support with enthusiasm.

Miss Mason's program was: "Le Violette," by Alessandro Scarlatti; "Have You Seen the White Lily Grow?" Old English; "I've Been Roaming," Charles Edward Horn; "Romance," Debussy; "Fantoches," Debussy; "Off in My Garden" and "Floods of Spring," Sergei Rachmaninoff; Waltz Song from "Romeo and Juliet," Charles Gounod; "Immer Leiser Wird Mein Schium," Brahms; "Vergebliches Standchen," Brahms; "Allerseelen," R. Strauss; "Serenade," R. Strauss; "Shepherd's Song," Watts; "At the Well," Richard Hageman; "The Cuckoo Clock," Grant Scharfer; "April," Frank St. Legere; Entrance Song from "Madame Butterfly," Giacomo Puccini.

Mrs. Charles Stanley and Walter Stanley have been entertaining several members of the Walker Whiteside company, who have been at Powers theater for the last half of the week, at their home and Sunday evening several friends from Holland came in informally to meet the guests.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Irving White, Jack McGrath, Paul Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Seldeemann, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O. de Moriae and Mrs. Martin Bos of this city—Grand Haven Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Olive were in Grand Rapids Tuesday.

J. A. VanderVeen of the Holland Furniture Co., motored to Grand Rapids Wednesday.

G. H. HUIZENGA & CO. NOT GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

The impression seems to have gone out that the Geo. Huizenga jewelry company on East 8th St., is going out of business.

Mr. J. Huizenga, proprietor and manager of the store, stated emphatically that this is not the case, but that the auction now being held is for the sole purpose of reducing the stock quickly.

He stated that the large crowds that attend each day cannot help but reflect the fact that the sale is worth while, and he purposely secured Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Nathan, high class jewelry auctioneers, for that reason.

He said that the sale will continue for some time longer, but that the firm of George Huizenga and company, that has been in business for a quarter of a century, will be in business to continue to be in business.

The reduction of the stock, which was heavier than a store of that kind should carry, was the sole reason for the auction now being held.

WON A TRIUMPH LAST YEAR AND WILL COME BACK

One of the greatest triumphs that a musician ever scored in Holland was won last year by Harry Farberman, violinist. The great Muzio was won in Carnegie hall but a cold caused cancellation of her concert when it was too late to notify the concert patrons. The burlesque Farberman in her place and he played under the most discouraging conditions possible.

His train did not arrive until 10:30 and the audience was worn out with waiting. His name meant nothing to the audience, not a single person present ever having heard of him.

In two minutes he completely captivated the 200 persons who had not gone home and he held them for over an hour with his superb playing. At the conclusion of the concert the audience was practically unanimous in demanding that he be secured for a regular number of the course this year.

Dr. Nykerk has secured Farberman for the evening of November 3rd. Farberman is today considered the greatest American-born violinist before the public. He will play four groups and it is certain that it will be a great concert.

Associated with Mr. Farberman on the program will be Jurien Hoekstra, considered the greatest baritone of Dutch descent of the American stage today. Mr. Hoekstra's grandparents were born in The Netherlands and his parents speak the Holland language. He himself has perfect command of English, French, German and Italian. Last year he created a sensation before the St. Cecilia society in Grand Rapids. He will sing a group of four songs.

This concert promises to be the most popular that has been given under the auspices of the college lecture bureau and a crowded hall is expected because of the character of the program and the low prices.

Troop 12 under the leadership of Scoutmaster Frank Fazakerly is developing splendidly, and will be reckoned with by other troop from a competitive standpoint.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT Whose Birthday is Oct. 27th

He was found faithful over a few things; he was made ruler over many; he cut his own trail clean and straight and millions followed him toward the light.

He was frail; he made himself a tower of strength, he was timid; he made himself a lion of courage. He was a dreamer; he became one of the great doers of all time.

Men put their trust in him; women found a champion in him; kings stood in awe of him, but children made him their playmate.

He broke a nation's slumber with his cry, and it rose up. He touched the eyes of blind men with a flame and gave them vision. Souls he secured for a regular number of the course this year.

How To Be A Leader

To be a snappy patrol leader you must do more than attend meetings. You must read up on your "Job." The real LEADER is up on his stuff, and in order to be there he must READ a little bit.

One of the best ways to learn is from the experience of others and in the matter of Patrol Leadership

there is no better way. There are several good Patrol Leader's Leadership Manuals but the following are among the best for every real patrol leader to read. Here they are:

"The Patrol Leader Method Pamphlet," by National Headquarters.

"Patrols and Patrol Leader's Leadership," by Stuart Walsh.

"Little Leads to Leadership," by Cheley.

"The Scoutmaster and Patrol Leader Pow Wow," by Chas. Smith.

A scout who really studies one or more of these real chuck full of leadership books cannot help but become a leader. Who wants to be a follower? See Headquarters about them. You need 'em. What say? The Duffel Bag.

The Senior Patrol Leader

Ten of the most active and successful young assistant Scoutmasters in Seattle recently said they were reluctant to give up their rank as S. P. L. to become A. S. Ms. They said the S. P. L. post was more responsible and more enjoyable. Whether they're right or not, here's something good that Ned Meany has to say about the S. P. L.

With the senior patrol leader the scoutmaster has a very intimate friendship. He tells him all he knows of scoutcraft. He confides to him all his hopes and disappointments; he wonders whether the boys are really getting the scout heat, and he asks the S. P. L. what he thinks about it.

In turn the members of the troop pass on their troubles and hopes, their thoughts and questions which they might hesitate to express to the scoutmaster. To the S. P. L. He knows their point of view, because he is still one of them.

So the S. P. L. is a sort of connecting link, an interpreter, occupying a post of great responsibility between the boys and the scoutmaster connected with the troop—Cedar Chips.

When Port Huron's Junior college football team cancelled its game with Hope college, scheduled for Saturday at Riverview Park, coach Schouten immediately opened up communications with Kalamazoo Normal in an effort to obtain the Yearlings for a game here.

Port Huron evidently got cold feet when the management learned that the Orange and Blue warriors were glorious in defeat at the hands of the big Detroit city college aggregation. The Kazoo Junior which has the best team in the school's history, lost at the city, 14-0, the score going against him in the last quarter. To say the least Hope will have more than a game with the first year squad. Every week quite a number of first team men are declared ineligible and they go out with the yearlings to try their hand. Some mighty fine talent is found on the squad and they have plenty of coaching as these men fit right into the varsity the second year. For the most part they are former high school stars, and every year the normal school corals a lot of them. Shaulding, a former Allegan star, is performing in great style this season on the squad and many others are also fighting for positions. Several all state men landed near Buck Read and if they do not make life more than worth while for the local collegians, we miss our guess. Hope came out of the Detroit game with few bruises and the men were given a light work-out Monday and Tuesday nights. The mentors are now at the bottom of the trouble it seems and they are changing the signal callers. Van Lente has been selected for the position of general and this end is far from dumb when it comes to calling the right plays. Very few people know that Van Lente checked the Holland high quarter-backs for the past two years. Japenga was checked last year by Van Lente and this method is now being tried by the local college coaches. Van Lente will call the signals without any one questioning him in the next game and results are bound to be forthcoming. All the men were out to practice with the exception of Van Zanten who is in with a bad cold. The game here Saturday afternoon should cull for the greatest crowd that ever attended a Hope football game. Although the Detroit game was played on Friday, nearly 400 were in attendance and the week-end date should call for the extra rooters.

Hope went down hard before the Detroit City College eleven here Friday afternoon when the visitors came off with a 3-0 victory. Breaks, bad judgment and the kicking of a certain Mr. Visketley were enough to give the Detroiters the victory. Hope out-played, out-gained and out-fought the Holmes outfit for three quarters but they simply lacked the punch to win. Three times the Orange and Blue colors were found inside the ten yard line and three times some kind of luck turned them back. Detroit won quickly, scoring in the first three minutes of play. Nettinga fumbled as he tried to run the ends and Sadov recovered. This happened on the third play after the initial kick-off and although Detroit drew a fifteen yard penalty, Visketley booted a neat kick from placement, which proved to settle all the scoring. In the second quarter Hope threatened twice, once losing the ball on a fumble on the eight yard stripe and once time was called with the oval one yard from goal, when Steffens had carried it after blocking a kick. The last quarter saw Hope again fall to score, after having a splendid opportunity. To Steffens Overweg and Cook, three former Holland high men, goes credit for Hope's stellar line work. Cook smashed the plays left and right, while Steffens blocked two punts. Overweg refused to allow gains around his flank and was on the receiving end of some nice passes from Japenga. Rehm, Blum and Lewis surely were hard to gain through, but the Detroiters' backfield men were a great aid to the forward wall, which yielded many times to the locals' onslaughts. Very few outstanding plays were recorded as the generals seemed unable to open their bag of tricks.

The editorial is entitled "What's Sporting," and it reads as follows:

"Mr. Walter Eckersall, speaking of the Notre Dame football team, warns its opponents that their players will be cut down legally as long as the ball is in play and that they must expect to be hit a little."

Louis Elenbas, the Holland football player who made a sensational run recently that catapulted him into state football fame, now seems destined to achieve fame on the further court of the injury he received recently. A day or two ago a writer in the Grand Rapids Press made him the subject of a "Public Pulse" article and Friday the editor devoted an editorial to him. While he is not mentioned by name in either article, it is plain that he is meant.

Well the expected happened. Hinga's light in-experienced eleven had a bad day and the Grand Rapids South team took advantage of the occasion and trimmed the locals by a 29-0 count. In all it was a bad afternoon for the H. H. lads who went into the game, minus their main cogs, while it was a gala affair for the visitors, especially Boelen, who romped around the field like a regular Red Grange. Newspapers and fans have been over-rating the local aggregation, which has played nothing short of wonderful football considering the material the mentor started the harder than usual." As Mr. Yost of Michigan says—he has very similar principles to those of Mr. Rookne of Notre Dame—"Boys, when you hit 'em, ding 'em in the slats." The opinion of these coaches seems to be that extra hard hitting—though not dirty playing—is all in the game, and part of smart football. Wearing down, as well as outplaying opponents is included in their programs.

"The other side of the question is presented by a Public Pulse writer who cites with praise the case of a high school coach who removed his lads from the game because they were playing too roughly. This writer objects that too many coaches stress the elimination of stars from the opposing team as being more important than playing football." In other words, tackling and blocking harder than the immediate play requires, concentrating and landing on star players, cutting down the margin from the center of play until the last blow of the whistle, are not regarded as "sporting." There is perhaps no definite rule against it—any more than there was against purposely passing Babe Ruth in the world series—but it's unfair just the same, even if not foul.

the season with. But the bad day is over and with Captain Exo, Elenbas and Spencer slated to come back soon the chances for the rest of the schedule appear very bright. Coach Gettings and his well oiled machine simply could not be stopped. In the first few minutes of play they received a break, Maxey blocking Breen's punt, which rolled back to the fence. Here Gray fell on it, and South was given a touchdown. Later when the officials realized that they had made a mistake, they allowed South a safety which added two points. Holland should have received the ball on their own 20 yard line, but instead South kicked again.

Word received from Detroit gives out the information that Hope's football team will stack up against a heavy aggregation here Friday afternoon.

is what caused suspicion and a youngster told the police enough to implicate the others. Although seven lads were in the deals, only four of them are already in the reformatory school. The other five will be turned over to the juvenile authorities and most probably will be placed on probation. On account of their tender age, being between 11 and 13, the names of the boys will not be mentioned.

NEW CARFERRY SLIDES DOWN THE WAYS SATURDAY

The launching of the beautiful big car ferry, Grand Rapids, to sail daily out of Grand Haven harbor, was accomplished per schedule with all the arrangements fitting together in nice manner at Manitowoc on Saturday at 11:30 a. m. at Manitowoc, Wis.

Former Mayor Tish was the formal representative from Grand Rapids and a beautiful set of colors was given by that city to the boat as is the customary thing.

Miss Merlyn Bowker, of Detroit, daughter of the general manager of the Grand Trunk lines, christened the boat with the proverbial bottle of champagne. At least that is what the party thought it was.

Four huge hawsers held the boat and at the moment designated these were cut, the cables parted and the ferry slipped down broadside, noiselessly to the waters as Miss Bowker struck the bottle over her prow and named the craft "Grand Rapids." A few of the officials and heads of the construction company were aboard also. As she took the water huge waves broke on the shores of the basin which holds big boats and it was sometime before the waters were calmed.

This ferry is the largest and the most beautiful boat of its type ever built. She is 368 by 60 feet caloused to preventable death beam. Her cabin room is not as large as the present car ferries as the passenger business is not a large one. Every part that is possible is steel with the exception of the interior of the cabins. Her lines are said to be particularly fine with more grace than is customary in this type of boat.

She will cost when equipped in the neighborhood of a million dollars and is conceded to be the finest car ferry afloat. She will be in Grand Haven about the first of the year making her daily trips with the rest of the fleet.

Not far from where this big boat is being built is another of equal size and cost, on the ways for the same company and will make in at four car ferries for the Grand Trunk. She is at present about one-third completed. The plans are to get her going about March.

Tony Meads, driving a Ford touring car, was picked up by the state police Saturday morning while he was in an alleged intoxicated condition trying to start his car. The car was stalled near Ferryburg on M-11 and the police were called to look after the man who to all appearances was not himself. The car license revealed the fact that it did not belong to Meads but to Chester Thoren of Holland. The man was too far gone to tell when, where or how he obtained the car. He is awaiting arraignment in the county jail.

GIRL HURT IN CRASH AND TWO TRUCK DRIVERS ORDERED INTO COURT

Two interurban truck drivers were ordered early Friday to appear in court as the result of a collision on M-51 at Hudsonville Thursday night in which a girl was injured.

A car driven by Herman Brink of Grandville struck the rear of a truck driven by Claude Burch of Benton Harbor. It was reported, Miss Jennie De Boer, riding with Brink was cut on the face by wind shield glass. Dr. Henry Moes of Hudsonville attended her and she was taken to her home at Vriesland.

Constable Albert Hopp, Georgetown township, ordered Burch and his son, who was driving another truck to appear before Justice J. N. Clark of Zeeland Monday to answer charges of driving trucks not bearing tail lights.

OCEAN GOING SHIP ARRIVES AT SO. HAVEN

Captain Alexander A. Wood of the S. S. Hillbrook, a vessel that has docked at South Haven, tells of his trip from Cohn (Queens-town) Ireland, with a 1700-ton load of clay for the United States. Thirty-four hours out of Cohn the circulating pump broke down forcing them to return to harbor for repairs. They were disabled for 26 hours and forced to spend 16 days at Cohn for repairs before starting out again for the United States, arriving at Sydney, Nova Scotia, Oct. 5th, thence to Montreal where they discharged 400 tons of clay for local trade. This was also necessary due to the fact that the St. Lawrence river will not take boats with a heavier draught than 13 feet 9 inches. Arriving in Detroit for fuel they proceeded to Milwaukee where an additional 1,000 tons of clay was discharged.

The trip from Milwaukee to South Haven was uneventful except that the high seas prevented the ship from coming into port there until daylight. They arrived outside of the mouth of the harbor about 2:30 Monday morning after leaving Milwaukee at 8:30 Sunday night. The Hillbrook will be unloaded and ready to leave South Haven sometime Tuesday evening.

A total of 16 freight cars are needed to haul the clay to the paper mills at Kalamazoo where they will use it in the manufacture of high grade book papers with a fine coated finish. This clay is essential to securing the lustre found on all expensive papers used principally by deluxe edition book publishers. Captain Wood is restocking his ship from the South Haven stores with an enormous quantity of merchandise for the return trip. The route the S. S. Hillbrook will take from South Haven will be to Chicago for a cargo, then to Montreal and then the West Indies.

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren has appointed Mrs. T. R. Van Wert to be in charge of the Red Cross roll call at Montello Park.

THE SANATORIUM ISSUE TO GO OVER TO NEXT SESSION

The Ottawa county board of supervisors went to Allegan county for a conference with the supervisors of Allegan county over the much talked of question, the tuberculosis sanatorium, on Thursday. They found the Allegan supervisors very much interested in the question, but one in which there had been little or no activity on the part of the citizens of Allegan county, and nothing that in an official way had been brought up before that board.

Talks were given by members of the board on both sides, and a thorough idea of existing conditions along each side. Allegan reports only twelve cases in the county. They have no county nurse and evidently the section is particularly healthy or there are numbers of unreported cases in the county. After all exchanges of ideas and figures on the subject, the meeting adjourned.

The action taken on the question Friday morning was to table the petition until the January term during which time an exhaustive search will be made in both counties to see if there is a real necessity and one which will warrant the expenditure of the amount asked for.

In justice to the supervisors who are having to decide this question it must be said they are giving it a great deal of thought, investigation and consideration.

The members do value human life above all things and in the vast expenditures spent on the eradication of tuberculosis cattle, have shown that they are willing to begin at the source of the trouble which is without question largely contracted through the tuberculous cattle.

The results of this campaign as relates to human life will not be seen in a year or two. The infected individual sure not to be eradicated in a few years.

It is being proven that tuberculated in a few years. Daily when children and mature individuals are not subjected to infection through this one source, and figures will show materially in a few years.

The supervisors have increased the revolving fund from $5,000 to $7,500 and feel that for $25,000 they can take care of all of the tuberculous cases in this county with the Muskegon sanatorium near enough to serve the county adequately.

They have the people of the county very much at heart, they declare and do not wish to burden the well with any unnecessary expenditures, that to the over zealous sometimes seems to be a parsimonious attitude. They are alive to the fact that contact is a large factor and are showing their willingness to aid cases immediately by increasing the revolving fund.

Due to the large interest and pros and cons of the matter the board may decide to submit it to the vote of the people in the April election.

OLLIE'S GET SUPPLY OF DEER HUNTING LICENSES

A supply of deer hunting licenses has been received at Ollie's Sport Shop and prospective hunters who expect to go to the north woods this fall to shoot a deer can secure them there. This service is for the hunters' convenience so that they will not have to travel to Grand Haven for a license. The first man to secure a deer hunting license was Peter Lievesen.

REQUESTS LIGHT ON AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION

Dr. A. Pieters, president of the Voters Information club, makes the following request for information in regard to the proposed "Excess condemnation amendment":

To the Editor of the Daily Sentinel, Sir: Will some one who understands the matter please give us a clear statement of the reasons why it is advisable to adopt the proposed "excess condemnation amendment" to the state constitution? The essential part of that amendment reads as follows:

"Subject to this constitution, the legislature may authorize municipalities, subject to reasonable limitations, to condemn and take the fee to more land and property than is needed in the acquiring, opening, and widening of boulevards, streets, and alleys, or for any public use, and after so much of the land and property has been appropriated for any such needed public purpose, the remainder may be sold or leased," etc.

I have made a number of inquiries of people well informed on such matters, but have not succeeded in getting a clear idea why this proposed legislation should be either desirable or right. I understand that as things are now, any municipality may acquire land in two ways: (1) By ordinary purchase. (2) By condemnation proceedings. This second method is required only in cases where the owner is unwilling to part with his property. It is then taken, by right of "eminent domain", and a fair price is paid for it.

This seems all right, where the land is required for public use, so long as no more is thus taken, against the owner's will, than the said public use requires. But now the purpose of this amendment is to enable the municipality to take more than it needs, and that against the owner's will. Why is that either necessary or right?

Mr. Fred A. Grimes, in the "Grand Rapids Press" or yesterday, gives the following argument in favor of this proposal:

"Under the present provisions of the constitution, a municipality may take only such land as is actually needed for a public improvement. As a result, often houses are split in two, and much valuable property greatly depreciated in value. If the city were permitted to go beyond the actual amount needed, much valuable property could be salvaged and resold, and in many instances the cost of the improvement to the taxpayers would be greatly reduced through the increase of the value of property and resale by the city."

An instance of this is in the condemnation by the state of excess land needed for certain portions of the wider Woodward improvement. A profit of more than $500,000 has already been realized by the state through resale, and the total will reach $1,000,000.

It may be that it is because I am not familiar with such business, but to me this argument is very unconvincing. If a city, in widening a street, runs the new line through a house, certainly the owner should be indemnified for his entire loss not merely for the portion of his house on the street side of the line, but is that not done now? So also, if he owns a strip along the street thirty feet deep, and the city takes twenty-five feet of it, the remaining strip, five feet wide, is worth nothing; but can he not be properly compensated in the purchase price of a low value will he not gladly sell it, without condemnation proceedings?

Remembering that condemnation never takes place except against the owner's interests, as he sees them. I quite fail to understand how "much valuable property could be salvaged" by enabling the city to take it away from him.

As to the remaining argument, that the city can make money out of such transactions, that is an outrage. By the power of "eminent domain," the city forces a man to give up his property, not for a needed public improvement, but to make a profit by reselling it! Is this what we are invited to approve?

Very sincerely yours, ALBERTUS PIETERS, President, "Voters' Information Club." Saturday, Oct. 23rd, 1926.

TEN YEAR OLD BOY DIES FRIDAY

Ten year old Howard Welling, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Welling, 22 West 17th street, died Friday night at the home of his parents. The boy had submitted to an operation some months ago and appeared to be on the road to recovery when death suddenly intervened. He is survived by his parents and one brother, Willard. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 1:30 at the home and at two o'clock at the First Reformed church, Rev James Weyer officiating.

the cough or take away the sputum which comes up with the cough. They stand and look from afar at us and say, "Are you all over it now?" And if the dirt grew on us an inch thick they wouldn't take water to wash it off. But then they dare to say, "Can't you wash yourself?" And at the table it is the very same way. We afflicted ones with TB are always given a black look all the time. I am sitting between bed in chair but they are on us all the time. And it is very hard to keep the children away from me, but we must realize too it is for their own best.

I don't want to have my name mentioned in the papers for fear of trouble with relatives or friends but I just want to tell you a little what life a TB patient has in the home, when they are so they can walk around. Here is one thing I will mention. I have an aged lady here and she had a book of her own; my husband asked her if she could look in it and she answered, "Yes, that is all right but be careful that your wife don't touch it with her hands, as I want to keep it myself." After I left the room in my own room, I sat down and cried because these things are hard on us. Just think! To be afraid of a book! And so it goes with more. Well I must close and if you write a plea again in the paper just put some of this letter in it, so others can see the life of a TB patient at home. Fight hard for a TB hospital.

I am not going to give no name or number. I remain a TB patient.

HAIR NETS PROVE BIG AID TO APPLE GROWER

Hair nets are a drug on the market since bobbed hair became the mode but Louis Glazebrook of Washington, found a new use for them. He has been feeding carefully selected trees of choice apples for exhibition purposes. To insure perfect fruit it is essential the apples do not fall. Around each of about 100 apples he has fastened a hair net in such a manner the frail texture will support the fruit yet not injure the coloring nor skin. Threads, cords or cloth would in some way ruin the perfect development of the fruit.

GRAND RAPIDS UNION MAY DROP HOLLAND

Grand Rapids Press.—Rumors that Holland high, the class 8 team which held Grand Rapids Union to a 14 to 7 score a few weeks ago, will not be on the 1927 schedule of the Grand Rapids school are rife here following the announcement that an out-of-state team has been given the date usually held open for the locals.

Unofficially it is stated that Hinga may be offered an earlier date by Union, but the Holland mentor is not certain he wants his team to meet a stronger eleven so early in the season and risk injuries.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM

When the people of Michigan cast their ballots on Tuesday, Nov. 2, for Republican candidates for State offices, they will be voting for, and actually will put in force and effect in this State, the following principles which are pledged in the Party's platform:

"ADMINISTRATIVE Board." Our purpose is to give the Board power to over-rule the Governor's veto. "Accounting," to be under the control of the legal auditor, the Auditor General. "Taxation," to be reduced by economy. "Primary Law," no changes to be made in it which would deprive the people of final decision in the selection of candidates. "Law Enforcement." We stand for swifter and sterner justice and for respect for and obedience to all law. "Pardons and Paroles," only when reformation is a fact, after consultation with trial officers and prison warden. "Welfare Work," in which the State cares for its wards. "Education," with liberal appropriations for buildings and equipment. "Highways," a comprehensive highway building program, with due regard for the tax burden. "Public Health," Michigan has made splendid progress in this direction in co-operation with the medical profession. This policy should be continued. "Conservation," a program that calls for education rather than punishment. A forward-looking plan for its promotion. "Agriculture." The influence of farmers will be joined with that of Republicans of all classes for legislation favorable to agriculture. Michigan should lead in the work of assuring the farmer a profit. "Labor." Representatives of labor must be given more recognition on State Boards, the workmen's compensation act strengthened and made adequate. "Women." It is our purpose to apply in practical-manner recognition of women in Public service. "Soldiers," a square deal. "Candidates and Party." Faith in the protective tariff and a sound currency; in the leadership of Coolidge, and in Congressional, Legislative, and County candidates.

(Signed) REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

RURAL DISTRICT IN OTTAWA TO BE BENEFITED

The Ottawa County Road Commission is getting its equipment all lined up for the coming of the snows and the opening of highways supplementing the state lines that were kept open this past year. The snow fence is being taken out of storage where it is rolled and piled. One hundred feet lengths are rolled and carefully put away in the spring of the year. This is now being unrolled and put up in the districts where the greatest snow drifts are liable to collect. This method of combating snow has been found very effective and each year the county adds to its equipment in this line.

Twenty-seven thousand feet of the snow line fence is now in use and this is to be augmented by three thousand feet more. A car load including eight thousand feet has just been ordered which will have to be used on the roads where the snow removal will be put in force.

The new plan of the road commission is to open up 85 miles of road to connect with the state lines thus reaching localities that have heretofore almost entirely been shut out from the highways in the dead of winter.

Allendale, Eastmanville, North Holland, Boreau, Jamestown, Blendon, Nunica and Conklin are small communities that will be able to make use of their cars practically all winter.

While this plan is more or less of an experiment on the part of the county board, and the amount of snow falling will be a large factor in the success of this plan, it is certain it will be of great benefit for many months at least.

The snow removal scheme in the north has been definitely proved to be practical and a huge success and this is almost certain to be the case in this county.

HOLLAND FOLKS FIGURE IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

Three men, two women and a child were injured Friday when a car driven by William Thompson of Port Wayne, Ind., going toward Muskegon and another driven by Fred Bertsch, Macatawa drive west of Holland, collided on M-11, three miles south of Muskegon Heights.

Mr. Bertsch, traveling south, endeavored to pass a truck going in the same direction and when past way past the truck realizing that he could not get by, he headed for the ditch. The Thompson car clipped the truck, then careened into the Bertsch machine already off the highway.

Thompson and George Laforge of Three Oaks, a passenger, were thrown to the pavement, the former being hurt about the head and the latter suffering a broken collarbone and possibly internal injuries. Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Laforge and the Laforge child may have sustained internal injuries while Frank Vorsew, also of Three Oaks were but slightly hurt. Mr. and Mrs. Laforge and Mrs. Thompson are confined to Hackley hospital. The Bertsch car was quite badly damaged.

TAKEN ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Harry Nies of Holland was arrested Saturday by Officer David O'Connor on Central Ave. He is charged with possessing and carrying liquor in a car. Officers claim they found one pint of moonshine and three pints of beer in the Nies' car. Nies demanded an examination which was set for next Saturday at the city hall.

Albert Prins was also arraigned before Judge Van Duren on a larceny charge brought by a young girl from Georgetown, where Prins lives. Prins demanded an examination which was set for Friday at the city hall.

Many rodents were slaughtered Wednesday when workmen dismantled the floor and basement of an old frame building on River-av. Hats popped out from nooks and corners and were killed with shovels and other tools as fast as they appeared. The rodents numbered 63 by actual count and most of them were of good size.

The bounty on rats had been removed some time ago and the usual ten cents per head could not be collected.

The state police who have been stationed at the temporary quarters at Ferry field at the junction of M-11 and M-16 (the Grand Haven-Ferryburg bridge) are soon to move into winter quarters which will answer for this year or until satisfactory quarters can be built for this post which is to be permanent.

The apartment over the Verplank garage and filling station near that point is to be occupied by Sergeant Baugh and his wife and daughter who he is bringing to Gr. Haven now that he is definitely located there. The other officers Corporal Peck and M. Roberts will live at the same location. Mr. and Mrs. Verplank who have been occupying the apartment are leaving for Florida.

Arlo Baylor who was established there during the summer has been transferred and M. Roberts is taking his place.

The state police have been carrying on a safety campaign among the schools of the following counties: Kent, Newaygo, Muskegon and Ottawa and Oceana counties still to cover. Lack of literature sent by the state has prevented the officers from finishing this very educative work.

FERRY GLEE CLUB HAS MANY CONCERTS

The Ferry Glee club of Ferryburg, Michigan, of which John Vanderluis is director, will be very busy during the month of November, as they have been invited to give concerts in Muskegon, Coopersville, Fremont, Zeeland, Grand Haven and Spring Lake.

This club is made up of fourteen men all from Ferryburg. The club has already given three concerts in Muskegon to crowded houses. It is possible they may give a concert in Holland at some future date.

STATE PARK AT OTTAWA BEACH GETS $5,000.00

The yearly budget for the county of Ottawa has been passed by the supervisors, which in the aggregate amounts to $338,082.52. This sum of money is divided in various funds.

The largest amount goes into the general fund amounting to $55,000.00; general expenses included $24,000.00. Relief and national fund of $50,000.00 includes the mother's pension of $33,000. The state park at Ottawa Beach receives $5,000.00; care of the inmates costs, $7,500.00; the poor fund receives $10,300.00. Interest on bonds $47,440 which also includes a $25,000 sinking fund for the retirement of bonds.

The Covert Road fund receives $50,154.52 and $800 as temporary relief, brings the total to be raised by the county to $238,082.52, added to this $100,000 for the Ottawa County Road Commission and the entire amount comes to the above named figures.

H. KNOLL ARRESTED FOR STRIKING ROAD MASTER

Justice Charles K. Van Duren of Holland issued a warrant Thursday for the arrest of Harm Knoll, owner of a hatchery on the north side of Macatawa bay, charging him with assault and battery upon Albert Timmer, overseer of highways for Park township and foreman on county roads.

Timmer was inspecting the snow pack on this highway when he saw Knoll trimming a tree. Later he found Knoll cutting down the tree, which started an altercation. Timmer threatened to report Knoll, when Knoll, it is alleged, struck Timmer a vicious blow which sent him sprawling upon the pavement. Timmer was removed to his home. He sustained a serious wound on his head and still is in a dazed condition.

Knoll said he was removing the tree because it obstructed a driveway and Timmer asserted he had no right to cut the tree without permission from the Ottawa county road commission.

BAKING COMPANY HOLDS BANQUET AT THE TAVERN

The dinner and smoker given by Holland Baking Co. last week was a complete success. Covers were laid for eighty-six guests. T. Warner, of the firm of Westing & Warner, was the toastmaster of the evening, handling the job in his usual able and efficient manner. Mr. Wynand Wichers, cashier of the First State bank, gave a very inspiring talk. The speaker gave an interesting account of his trip to the bankers' convention, mingled with some good clean stories. His principal topic was centered on the "Community Dollar", just what it does and what it accomplishes by being kept in its own community. The guests were unanimous in their opinion that this talk was one of the best ever given at any of the dinners that they have attended here and in different parts of the state.

Mr. Paul Gezon of Wyoming Park, Grand Rapids, was in his usual good form. Being a grocer, he could talk from the standpoint of a grocer. He brought out many interesting facts which concern the local grocers of today. Bringing out their faults, also their good points, telling them how to remedy their faults and add to their good points. This address was deeply appreciated and the guests were loud in their praise for Mr. Gezon as a very able speaker. His subject was "What I Have Learned from the Chain Stores."

The Holland Baking company considers itself indeed fortunate in having such able speakers who were willing to contribute their time and efforts to help make the dinner a success. The Colonial Orchestra was in its usual good form and if the rounds of applause mean anything then the music was certainly enjoyed.

The Maple Avenue church quartette gave four selections which were very good. If this is the kind of singing that they will continue to give in the future, their fame will be spread throughout the land.

Rein Visscher gave two very good solos, accompanied by Mr. De Pree at the piano, and from now on Mr. Visscher will be in much demand as an entertainer by different organizations who contemplate having the services of a high class singer.

One must not forget the readings given by Mr. Walter Mattison. They were humorous as well as serious. The rumor is around that the Albee-Reth interests are about to book him for the winter. All in all, a good time was enjoyed by the guests. The Vander Schel Brothers desire to thank the manager of the Warm Friend Tavern, Mr. Leland, for his able efforts in making their guests feel at home; also the following whose efforts were largely responsible for the splendid success of the event: Mr. T. Warner, toastmaster, Mr. Wynand Wichers, Mr. Paul Gezon, Mr. Walter Mattison, Mr. Dick Miles, Mr. Joe Raton, Mr. C. Kostor, Mr. Rein Visscher, Michigan Tea Rusk Co., Vanden Berg Oil Co., and the very efficient and courteous corps of waiters of the Warm Friend Tavern.

Electric traffic signals similar to those used in the downtown sections have been installed on River-av. at 15th and 16th streets by the city council to prevent congestion of the noonday traffic at these points. In the past the traffic caused by the dismissal of school at noon was undirected and many narrow escapes and several accidents resulted. Recently the student government of the Holland high school solved this problem by authorizing a squad of eight student officers to take turns directing the dinner time rush of hungry children. Now their work will consist of reporting those motorists who disobey or fail to see the new signals.

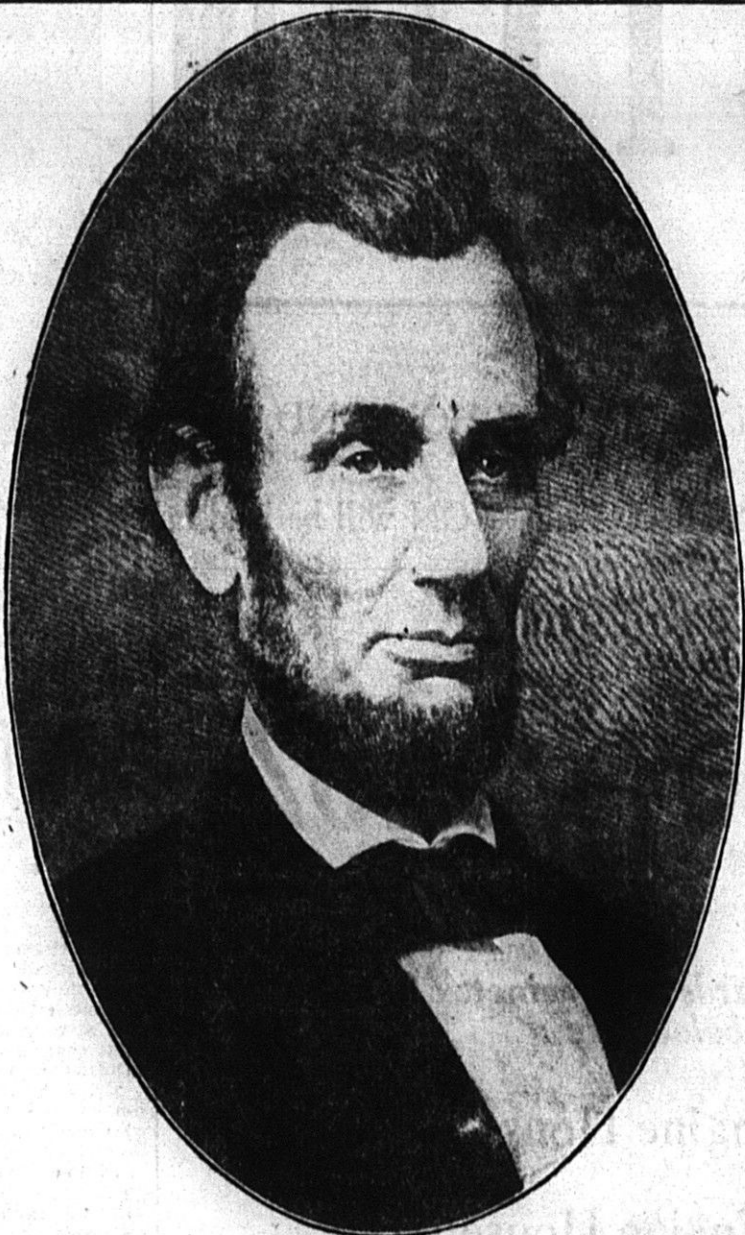

The Party of Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt is the Republican Party.--Vote Next Tuesday

WILLIAM MCKINLEY

CALVIN COOLIDGE

Vote for Republican State Candidates
ON NOVEMBER 2

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

CHAS. G. DAWES

The Republican party born Under the Oakes of Jackson has seen the dominant party of this nation for nearly seventy-five years.

The greatest progress of this nation has been made under Republican rule.

The Republican party is the party of our martyred presidents Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley. It is the party who elected Grant, Harrison, Roosevelt and Coolidge.

The prosperity of this nation has been so great and the development of this country has been such and outstanding factor under Republican administrations, that it has been the wonder of the rest of the nation's of the globe, and the people's of the earth marvel at the progress of the American nation.

A party with a record of this kind is a safe party to tie to, and the men put up for office in this party are safe men to elect.

Nation has Confidence in Coolidge

One of the greatest compliments that could be given President Coolidge comes from a special Washington correspondent, who in a review of the political situation in the nation prints the following:

"Both the Republican and Democratic chiefs, at their several headquarters in Washington, New York, and Chicago, are frankly admitting they are in a state of worry over the apathy of the voters. It may as well be confessed that no one of them has yet succeeded in working out the magic formula which will bring the voters to the polls. In diagnosing the situation, however, leaders of both political parties have reached one common conclusion, namely, that a considerable part of the apathy among the voters is because of the confidence which the said voters have in President Coolidge, his days and ways."

"The Democrats, with a rather sour grimace, are admitting that they have been frankly obliged to abandon anything which hinted at an adverse comment on the president. They say they have tried it in various instances but the reaction was so strong that they wisely abandoned that course, and began to deliver their wrath and indignation at the managers of the Republican campaigns, and at the individual candidates whom they were opposing. They admit privately a considerable number of Democrats have so fine an admiration for the president that, while pledging their party alliance for future contests, they have really determined to remain away from the polls and not even vote for the Democratic candidates in the coming contests."

"On the Republican side, confidence in the president has really solidified the activities of the most earnest enthusiasts. In brief, satisfaction with and confidence in President Coolidge is so general that the people have relegated the congressional elections to the side lines, and are refusing to become excited."

"President Coolidge's expression of desire for a larger representation of public preference at the polls is not to be attributed to a partisan wish for a majority for his party in congress as a result of the elections next Tuesday. He speaks as the chief executive of the country, not as a Republican. There is urgent need of a greater response by the electorate to the summons to manifest the popular will."

"At the last two elections only fifty per cent. of those eligible to vote cast their ballots. This is a poor showing in a republic with a practically universal franchise."

"The individual vote is what makes up the total. Many candidates have been elected to office by what has come to be known as the "stay-at-home vote." Unworthy men have been named to office because of the feeling on the part of conscientious electors that there was no use in their going to the polls. Political craftsmen count upon this lethargy or feeling of hopelessness to work their schemes, and many of the ills that this country has suffered have come from their success."

They Understand State Problems

A vote for Republican candidates is a vote for progress—Roads, Conservation, Sound Government.

Republican State officers can best serve Michigan because they are affiliated with the party that is in national power.

Fred W. Green typifies the ideals which the people of the State desire to find in a Governor—he is the man the people want.

The affairs of the State in all departments including administrative, legislative, and judicial are assured intelligent, conscientious, vigorous attention by the election of the Republican nominees of 1926.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks

GOLDEN WEDDING BRINGS A SCORE OR MORE TO HOLLAND

Saturday was an eventful day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Fairbanks, 232 First Avenue, for this was their golden wedding day and seventy guests were present, among them four generations of the Fairbanks family who wished the happy couple Godspeed, and presented them with gifts of gold and a very liberal purse of gold coins, coming from the five living children, who were also present.

Mr. Fairbanks is the youngest son of the late Isaac Fairbanks who came to these parts even before Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, settling in Fillmore township where he conducted a trading post, bartering with the Indians for their furs in exchange for groceries and other necessities.

The old barn is still on the site where the Fairbanks homestead stood although the trading post which was in the home was torn down some years ago. Mr. Fairbanks stated that he played around with the Indians camped along the large creek, winding its way through Fillmore township, and that in one of the living rooms where Squire Fairbanks did his trading, a path had been worn in the board floor in front of the counter where the red men with moccasined feet had come in with furs and left with food supplies.

It was the father of Charles W. Fairbanks of Fillmore who had aided Dr. A. C. Van Raalte in dealing with the Indians at Holland and at Fillmore as well. This was said by Mr. Fairbanks, who was born in Holland, last June.

The Indian village in Holland was located on the bluff and inlet where the Heinz Pickling company is now located.

Mrs. Charles Fairbanks before her marriage to Mr. Fairbanks was Miss Emma Caudle. Miss Caudle came here at the age of six when the Caudle family drove from Indiana to Holland in a covered wagon. The father had employment in a brickyard located at that time southeast of the Bush & Lane piano company on the Vanden Belt property. This was many years ago and this plant has long since disappeared. It is still in evidence along the creek, flowing at the base of the hillside.

She had met Mr. Fairbanks at the Fairbanks homestead, and they were wed at 23 W. 9th St. directly east of the Wolverine garage; the house still remains where the marriage took place fifty years ago. Mrs. Fairbanks was the oldest of four children in the Caudle family, and fifty years ago she was married to Charles Fairbanks, youngest son of this early pioneer of Fillmore.

Mr. Fairbanks is 71 years old and Mrs. Fairbanks is 67. The event Saturday was indeed a happy one, for the Fairbanks family is a talented one and the program arranged for the celebration was replete with musical and reading numbers rendered mainly by Fairbanks' talent. There was enough to go around and to spare, for there is scarcely a Fairbanks living who is without talent along these lines.

Miss Jeanette Caudle, a niece of Fairbanks, pleasantly gave two readings which were enjoyed by all. The home was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and potted plants and the whole affair was surely a happy reunion.

Pioneer stories were retold, and altogether it was an eventful occasion of a family that had much to do with Holland's early history. The Fairbanks family sent its quota to help Lincoln in the Civil strife, and the younger generation was also represented in the World War when the nation needed men.

Elaborate refreshments naturally played a part in the festivities. Mr. Fairbanks has one brother and one sister, namely I. H. Fairbanks and Mrs. Nancy Wood, both of Holland. They have five children, three boys and two girls. The sons are Clarence and Earnest of Holland, and Raymond of Findlay, O. The daughters are Mrs. John Faasen of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Walter Perschbacher of Grand Rapids. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson and family of Edmore, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Orin Mayo and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mayo both of Fremont, Mrs. Amanda Wood of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Mayo and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward of Muskegon; Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perschbacher of Grand Rapids; Mrs. R. C. Grimm, Saginaw; Mr. J. E. Caudle, only brother of Mrs. Fairbanks, and daughter Jeanette and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Travis of La Porte, Indiana; Mr. R. E. Fairbanks and daughters, Emma May, Grace, Lucile of Findlay, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John Faasen, Indianapolis, Indiana; Mrs. F. Nivison and daughter Wanda, only great grandchild present at the reunion and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wood of Scottville, Michigan.

County Clerk William Wilds has issued marriage licenses to the following couples: Martin Beute, 21, Ellenbrook, and Jeanette De Vries 20, Georgetown. Geo. L. Pelton, 22, Grand Haven, and Ella M. Geimbauer, 23, Casnovia and Ada De Frell, 22, Coopersville. Hilbert S. De Kleine, 26, Hudsonville, and Elizabeth Brummel 19, Hudsonville, Rfd. James Strick, 25, Hudsonville, Rfd. 4 and Grace C. Troost, 22, of served by Mrs. Van Anrooy and committee.

B. BLOEMENDAAL DIES AS RESULT OF A STROKE

Mr. Bernard Bloemendaal, retired, died Monday forenoon as the result of a stroke that he suffered last Friday evening. Death came to him at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rosbach, 218 East 12th street, where he had been living for a number of years. Mr. Bloemendaal had many friends in Holland and not only in all parts of the world where Hope College graduates live. For 23 years he served as janitor of that institution and hundreds of graduates of that college remember him as their friend.

He was born in Doetichem, Gelderland, The Netherlands, and he came to this city in 1871, two weeks before the big fire. He retired from active work about 10 years ago. Mr. Bloemendaal would have been 80 years old in December. He was prominent in church work, having served as an elder of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church for years. He is survived by one brother, J. W. Bloemendaal, of Holland, and two sisters, Mrs. Anthony Rosbach of Holland, and Mrs. Wm. Rottschaefer of Grand Rapids. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 at the home and at two o'clock at the Central Ave. church, Rev. L. Veltkamp officiating.

Mother Buried With Her Baby In Her Arms

Last Saturday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Harry W. Hopkins took place at 143 West 11th St. A sad incident connected with this funeral is the fact that the child born a few days before also died and the little one was buried in the same casket, clasped in the arms of its mother.

Dr. T. W. Davidson pastor of Hope church officiated at the funeral and John S. Dykstra was in charge.

REF'D CHURCH COUPLE MARRIED 76 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Demarest, well known in Holland but living at Wyckoff, N. Y., who are respectively 98 and 95 years old, and who recently celebrated their seventy-sixth anniversary, probably are the oldest married couple in the world, according to officials of the Allegheny school. An American which prides itself that the two are numbered among its membership. Mr. and Mrs. Demarest have visited this city often.

MAPLEWOOD P-T CLUB MEETS

The meeting of the parent-teachers association of the Maplewood school was held at the school house on Friday evening. After a short business session a very helpful and entertaining program was given by Gerrit Schuurman and committee. Talks along the lines of co-operation of parents and teachers were given by Mr. Henry Sagers, president of the school, Mr. Ter Kerst, principal of the school, and Mr. Killen, superintendent of the Allegheny schools. Miss Anna and Master Leonard De Groot gave a few ukulele selections. A side splitting play under the auspices of Mr. A. Van Zanten was put on by seven business men of Holland. It represented a Dutch farmer trying to get naturalization papers and he brought his son with him as interpreter. Several good stories and Dutch songs given by these gentlemen rounded out the program. Coffee and cake was

A huge Halloween party will be given for the children of Grand Haven by the Community club. The features will be a parade, vaudeville in Central park, and moving pictures at the high school.
