REV. DYKSTRA PROVES KIPLING IS MISTAKEN

EAST IS EAST AND WEST IS WEST DOES NOT HOLD TRUE ENTIRELY

Missionary From Arabia Advises Exchanges To Many Eastern Questions

Kipling's writings that "East is East and West is West," and that the two won't mix should be revised some what according to Rev. Dirk Dykstra missionary from Arabia, who spoke before the members of the Holland Exchange club Wednesday noon.

Mr. Dykstra stated that his experience in the east has been that the Easterner is fast becoming Westernized. Not alone are the women adopting the Western mode of dress, but they are demanding women's rights which in a large measure have been given them. They are furthering different marriage laws, equality with the husband and one husband one wife. The women are being away with the veil and their faces are now exposed like that of any Western woman.

The children of parents too have asserted their independence and in many instances they demand that they be privileged to select their own wives like their Western brother instead of having the father choose for them.

Mr. Dykstra pointed out that in the East they are even electing presidents as has been shown in Turkey recently. Turkey is no longer ruled by the Koran, in reality dictators from Mohammed, the governing law for 1,300 years.

Turkey has adopted its legal code from Switzerland and its criminal code from Italy.

Mr. Dykstra stated that the Arabian, in fact, all Easterners could not understand how Americans could live so happily together, free from superstition and suspicion.

He stated that the inhabitants of Arabia and India were saturated with suspicion.

Rather an amusing incident was related by Mr. Dykstra as this concerns Pres. Harding's death, said as this might have been. Nevertheless it shows how suspicious the Easterners are. The Easterner thought that a prominent American had put president Harding to death, simply because after the demise of Mr. Harding, friends of this American had started a boom for his candidacy as president.

The Arabians suspected that since this American wanted to be president of the United States the best method to do away with the ruling head was to poison him.

To an American this story is very ridiculous since this candidate and Mr. Harding were friends but to the suspicious Arabian there could be no other solution.

Mr. Dykstra advised all Exchanges to study the Eastern question thoroughly that it was an interesting problem not alone but a vital one.

He stated the reason for the tremendous change that was going on could be attributed to the work of the missionary, but that the standards of the East were rapidly changing to Western standards, of which there was no doubt.

SPRING LAKE FEELS BADLY AFTER CAROUSE

VILLAGE WAKES UP WITH BAD HANG OVER FROM HALLOWEEN OF OLD STYLE

In striking contrast to the advanced ideas of celebrating halloween as enjoyed in Holland was the manner in which many of the Spring Lake youths revelled in vandalism damaged property, wagons hoisted to telephone poles, steps carried away and general lawlessness show a poor attitude by the youths of that village.

The windows of the down town stores were one mass of soap and grease, the residents suffered loss from many sources and calls were made for aid from the state police. But that job is purely a local one and not a state duty. The school board there hired an extra man to guard their property and the road commission also took the same precaution.

Barring the burning of a few leaves Holland was fairly free from such rowdiness.

Several high school boys have been rounded up by the Spring Lake police and will have to make good on a bit of halloween exuberance when an egg hit the owner of a Spring Lake home and shattered itself over that unsuspecting individual, the walls and furniture of his home.

The Verwerth house on Wallace street lost its steps, a cement block wall belonging to the Vada property on Sheldon Road was torn down, and a flower box was missing from the Oswald home on Lake avenue.

WHAT DOES THE GRAND HAVEN TRIBUNE MEAN?

Grand Haven Tribune—Holland rivalry had an echo in the Michigan-Illinois game. Nyland played for Yost and William McClure, 20, was a Zuyke tackle. McClure went out with injury in the third quarter.

TWO GHOSTS GIVEN FINES

Peter DeVries and Gerrit Machelley of Berculo, in the southern part of the county, were arrested by the sheriff's officers for disorderly conduct on Halloween eve. They were arraigned before Justice I. N. Tubbs, Grand Haven, and pleaded guilty. They paid a fine and costs of $5.30 each.

Due to the wholesale arrests made in Allendale last year for hoodlum actions that night there were no disturbances reported in that section this year, although the officers were prepared to get after anything of that nature.

Last year 17 young men and boys were arrested for tipping over small buildings and generally raising a disturbance. They were made to pay the cost of repairs amounting to over $80.

POULTRY IS NOT OVERDONE.

Ottawa County is a poultry district known all over the United States. The statement is often heard when poultry goes lagging, that the business is being overdone.

A statement from the bureau of agriculture at Washington D. C., would indicate that poultry raising is just in its infancy.

The bureau says that at least 100,000,000 laying pullets have to be raised in the United States each year to replace that number of yearling and older hens.

STATE GIVEN TREE FUNDS

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT PROVIDES $2,000 FUND TO HELP THIS COMMONWEALTH

The allotment of government funds to be used by states of the Rocky Mountain District in the purchase and distribution of forest tree planting stock has just been made according to John H. Matton, acting service director. The amount of the allotment is $2,000 for the purpose of establishing windbreaks, shelter belts and farm wood lots upon denuded and nonforested lands through the equal cooperation of the federal government and the state in which the work is done.

Reforestation through this means is only part of the national forest policy outlined and put into effect by the Clark-McNary law. Other activities of equal importance are the study of taxation on forest lands and the acquisition of lands by the federal government chiefly valuable for forest production.

Hallowe'en Pranks Brings Much Damage In North Ottawa

HOODLUMS DO MORE THAN $1,000 WORTH OF DAMAGE

The youth in the vicinity of Spring Lake sure were on a rampage on Halloween night. The Spring Lake boys were bad enough but reports from out lying districts are still worse.

It appears that a gang of hoodlums in the locality of the McMan schoolhouse of the Spring Lake and Crocker town line, who have again entered premises and destroyed damaged property during temporary absence of the proprietors and tore up things with a vengeance on Monday night. In one of the vacant houses, located north of the state road they smashed windows and tore out the sashes, broke the doors and windows and cut holes in the floors and wrecked the entire interior. The damage is estimated at $1,000. Other cottages nearby were also damaged. One log cabin occupied by old man Taylor, a hermit who died a short time ago, was completely apart and a total wreck. It is said that the boys are well known to those living there. In that case it should not be difficult for officers to make arrests.

POULTRY SPECIALS TO MAKE TESTS AT ZEELAND

DEMONSTRATION AT HENRY GEERLINGS FARM NOV. 10

A poultry specialist from the State college has been secured by agricultural agent Milham to demonstrate the latest disease and worm control methods on Thursday, Nov. 10th, at 1:30 P. M. at the Henry Geerlings farm 3 miles north of Zeeland.

This demonstration comes at an opportune time for the poultrymen, who have just put birds into winter quarters and those who have not yet done so. In any concentrated poultry area there is bound to be worm and other disease infections and wise poultrymen are practicing modern control methods and greater sanitation. Unless other actions request similar demonstrations this will be the only one held in the county this fall.

Automobile and Pole Burn Short Circuits at G. Haven

Two fires called the Grand Haven city department out Tuesday. One at 2:30 P. M. in the garage of Peter Wiebe, 411 Monroe street, where a Ford sedan was completely destroyed. One rabbit was cremated, his mate getting away.

The fire originated, the chief said, in a short circuit in the car. It was soon a mass of flames as the car caught fire and the inflammable part of the car quickly burned. The twisted and blackened remains of the chassis was left.

The other alarm came at 8:30 P. M. and proved to be an electric light pole at the corner of Clinton and Second street in that city, which was in flames as the result of a short circuit.

AMEN, TO BETTER THE HEADLIGHT REGULATIONS

MICHIGAN SHAMEFULLY NEGLECTS THIS FEATURE

The Grand Rapids Press in an editorial under the caption "Blind and Half Blind on the Road," says forth the fact that Michigan highway laws are absolutely dangerous at night because of improper headlight laws and regulations and the lack of method of enforcing what laws we do have.

All sane drivers of cars will say amen to the following editorial.

"Three travelers on US-16 took the trouble Sunday night to count the number of automobile lighting violations between Williamston, east of Lansing and Grand Rapids, west of Lansing. The count was 6:30 and 8 o'clock.

"Thirty-four cars had only one headlights, two cars had no headlights, light and eleven had headlights so badly focused and adjusted as to be almost as bad as no headlights at all.

"This condition is not confined to any one night or any one highway. It is constant and general throughout Michigan. It makes this one of the most dangerous states in the country for night driving. We have a very weak lighting law, but even that law suffers from lack of state enforcement. Drivers put off light repairs with complete impunity, or deliberately carry less than the proper lights for safety. Unlimited speed coupled with total lack of enforcement against reckless driving and against unlighted or half-lighted cars will insure a heavy toll of life and property unless Michigan does something in an administrative way to execute the laws on the books."

GRAND HAVEN COAST GUARD SEARCH CRIB

FAILED TO FIND REPORTED NACK TO NAVIGATION IN RUN UP TO WHITEHALL

The men from the Grand Haven Coast Guard station made a run out into the lake several miles and then north as far as Whitehall looking for a floating concrete crib which was reported lost from the Wisconsin side and which is a great menace to navigation.

The crew fought quite a battle with huge seas which were running and got soaked. They were forced to return at dark but did not succeed in picking up the derelict.

The crib was made in Kewauenee, Wis., and then floated down to Milwaukee where it is sunk at the breakwater. It got away and all stations on this side were on the lookout for it. Capt. William Preston said it probably had sunk by this time although they are made air tight and are capable of holding up for some time.

STATE HENS SCORE AS BIG EGG PRODUCERS

MAJOR SHARE OF CONTEST HONORS WON BY MICHIGAN OWNED BIRDS

Michigan poultrymen scored signal honors on hens entered in the fifth annual egg laying contest which closed recently at Michigan State college.

The contest began November 1, 1926, and continued through 51 weeks. All birds entered in the contest received the same care and are subjected to the same conditions of environment, so that eggs produced are an accurate measure of the productive ability of the hens.

A pen of 10 White Leghorns owned by Harry Brown, Millington, won first place with a production of 2,582 eggs. Third place was won by another pen of White Leghorns, entered by F. G. Dewitt, Grand Blanc.

Other Michigan representatives among the owners of the ten high pens were Karsten's farms, Zeeland; W. C. Eckard, Paw Paw; H. E. Dennison, East Lansing; E. G. Kilbourn, Grand Rapids; and J. P. Harris, Grand Rapids. These men were also owners of White Leghorns.

Michigan poultrymen won four out of the five first places for production by barred Rocks. Honors in this section went to F. E. Fogie, Okemos; John McClellan, Cass City; Herman Berndt, and Charles E. Atwater, Cadillac.

Three out of the first five places in the Rhode Island Red section went to J. Z. and D. H. Ballard, Okemos; C. N. Whitaker, Lawrence; and Mrs. John Goodwin, Charlotte. Birds from Iowa, New York, Alabama, California and Indiana divided honors with contestants from Michigan.

FORMER ZEELAND MAN DIES OF INJURIES

Earl VanKoeveering, 23, of R. B. O' Plainfield township Kent county, died shortly after noon Wednesday in St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids, of injuries sustained when a gravel truck he was driving toppled over, pinning him underneath, near Iwanest Tuesday afternoon.

VanKoeveering, who was employed by the Stover-Robinson contracting firm, was taken to the hospital by passing motorists, where it was learned he suffered a broken neck, bruises and lacerations of the body.

The VanKoeveering's several years ago lived in Zeeland. Ed VanKoeveering the newspaper man and John VanKoeveering the contractor at Zeeland, are uncles of the unfortunate man.

HARD WINTER IS NOW PREDICTED

Detroit Free Press.—The entire eastern half of the United States is experiencing "a very late summer" and this may mean a very hard winter.

Chief Forecaster Charles L. Mitchell of the United States weather bureau, today said he could not predict far in advance, but remarked that a severe winter has been expected for several years and is about due.

The warm weather in many sections is caused by balmy winds from the south, according to Mitchell. But August got its weather from November and the seasons apparently have changed places in the east this year.

TRAMP CAT ROOSTS WITH THE CHICKENS

About three months ago a tramp cat was found huddled in the barnyard of George Deur, 14 W. 18th St. Mr. Deur allowed the cat to remain and since that time it has been associating with the "hiddies," watches over them that the sparrows don't take their food.

Plays and wrestles with them in the chicken pen and at night perches on the roost with them.

The chickens and pussy have formed quite an attachment for one another.

AUTO LICENSES TAGS LIKE "CLOAK MANY COLORS"

AT LEAST 42 STATES CHANGE PLATES FOR 1928

Next Year's Tags to Show 33 Different Color Combinations

With factories going full tilt on the production of license plates for America's 28,000,000 motor vehicles in 1928 the American Automobile association has announced that 42 states have adopted new color combination schemes.

There will be 23 different color combinations, six states and the District of Columbia retaining last year's color and reversing them as to background and letter numerals.

No single color motif can be said to prevail, but whether by preference or accident two combinations tied for first place in popularity, six states selecting a dark blue background with white letter numerals and six selecting green background with white letter numerals.

Five states selected white backgrounds with black letter numerals, four selected yellow and black and four orange and black. The combination of orange and black, which was popular for many years on account of the visibility made for it, has apparently suffered a sharp diminution in popularity, according to the A. A. A.

Following are the 1928 colors for all the states, territories and foreign possessions:

Alabama, black on yellow; Arizona, vermilion red on copper; Arkansas, black on deep orange; California, gold on blue; Colorado, maroon on brown; Connecticut, white on dark blue; Delaware, black on white; District of Columbia, black on chrome yellow; Florida, orange on maroon; Georgia, white on dark blue; Illinois, white on maroon; Indiana, white on brown; Idaho, natural brown; Iowa, black on green; Kansas, dark blue on white; Kentucky, white on green; Louisiana, minimum blue on white, maximum, white on dark blue, truck red on green; Maine, blue on white; Maryland, white on blue; Massachusetts, white on forest green with fish at bottom of plate; Michigan, white on green; Minnesota, passenger, black on drab, trucks, black on gold, dealers, white on maroon; Mississippi, white on black; Missouri, black on orange; Montana, black on orange; Nebraska, white on blue; Nevada, white on vermilion red; New Hampshire, white on green; New Jersey, white on light blue; New Mexico, passenger, gold on light navy blue, commercial, reverse; New York, yellow on black; North Carolina, white on green; North Dakota, passenger, white on black, trucks, white on light green; Ohio, white on dark blue; Oklahoma, black on yellow; Oregon, black on white; Pennsylvania, dark blue on orange; Rhode Island, white on black; South Carolina, black on gold; South Dakota, white on dark red; Tennessee, white on black; Texas, white on dark brown; Utah, black on federal yellow; Vermont, dark green on gold; Virginia, orange on black; Washington, black on orange; West Virginia, white on dark green; Wisconsin, black on orange; Wyoming, yellow on Western Union blue.

TO RE-LOCATE US-31 THROUGH CITY OF HOLLAND

U. S. 31 is to be relocated through Holland in the not distant future, the common council was told Wednesday night by Frank Rogers, state highway commissioner. It was known unofficially that this was to be done and so City Attorney McBride wrote to Rogers on this specific information, with a view of having the city take all the advantage possible of the new trunk line maintenance law.

Mr. Rogers wrote that the question of all trunk lines through cities is to be taken up very soon. Holland is included. There is some question about the constitutionality of the act, he said, and no actual relocating or building of trunk lines through cities will be done until that has been settled. But Holland will know within a few months where the trunk line through its territory will go.

THE SECOND FLOOR POOL ROOM ISSUE UP TO THE COUNCIL

PETITION FIRST GRANTED, THEN RECONSIDERED BY ALDERMEN

Action Is Postponed For Two Weeks After Council Discussion

By means of some very pretty parliamentary procedure, the common council Wednesday night was induced to postpone for two weeks a question that it had adopted earlier in the evening with only a single dissenting vote. Peter Bots petitioned for the right to conduct a pool room on the second floor at 208-210 Central avenue. The committee on licenses recommended granting the petition and all the aldermen, except Thompson, voted in favor.

When the council was about ready to adjourn, Thompson arose and stated his objections, although technically this was out of order, as the mayor pointed out, the time for discussion having passed. He said Holland has pool rooms enough, that pool rooms often become hangouts, that much devilry emanates from them, and that the council should not allow them to be established.

Alderman McLean, chairman of the license committee, said that he personally was against another pool room, stating his reasons, but that the ordinance gives the council no choice; that Mr. Bots is a man of social standing and has a right to all the privileges and protection of the law. That there are already too many pool rooms, he pointed out, is irrelevant; anyone has a right to lose money in any legitimate business venture and the council has no moral right to make any business a monopoly for anyone.

Alderman Laeppe also expressed himself as personally against another pool room but said a public official has no right to substitute his personal ideas for the law of the city as expressed in a duly enacted ordinance.

To make the discussion orderly and give opportunity for full consideration, Ald. McLean moved a reconsideration. Several of the aldermen had their say on the main question, and finally Alderman Van Zanten offered a substitute motion, that the question be postponed for two weeks. This was adopted, with Laeppe and McLean voting no.

WILL EQUIP KOLLEN PARK WITH SPRINKLER

An independent water system will be installed in Kollen Park, to take care of the beautification of that part. The system, which will cost the neighborhood of $5,000, was recommended to the council by the park board, which body asked permission to install it. The aldermen ratified the idea and the plans for installing it will go forward.</

LIGHTNING BOLT DESTROYS BARN OF JOHN Y. HUIZENGA

Shortly after the terrific thunder storm that swept over the city from the northwest at 4 o'clock had passed an alarm of fire was turned in to police headquarters and from there transferred to Chief Blom causing some delay in getting the message through.

The appeal for aid came from the home of John Y. Huizenga, former supervisor of Holland township.

It appears that a bolt of lightning had struck the large 65,000 barn containing the summer's harvest of hay, straw and potatoes and within a few minutes the barn was a mass of flames.

At the time when the bolt struck Dave Huizenga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Huizenga, was working in the barn and the crash struck him to the floor rendering him semi-conscious. The son soon revived and noticed fire all about him. He rushed out of the place and gave the alarm and he and the neighbors present saved stock, besides the farm tools.

Because of the delay in transmitting the phone call to wrong headquarters the Holland firemen did not arrive until twenty minutes after the fire had started. The barn and contents were beyond saving. The local firemen, however, aided in protecting the other out-buildings.

Mr. Huizenga believes that the loss of the large barn filled with the season's crops will be not less than $5,000, partially covered by insurance.

PREACHES HIS FAREWELL AT COOPERSVILLE

Rev. Harry Hoff of the Reformed church of Coopersville, a graduate of Hope college and Seminary in Holland, preached his farewell sermon at Coopersville, Sunday, after an eight-year pastorate. He leaves Tuesday for Roseland, Ill., to accept a pastorate there.

The church membership during Mr. Hoff's pastorate has increased from 190 families to 168. No call has been extended for another pastor and the pulpit will be supplied by students and regular pastors as they are invited.

In 46 years the Coopersville Reformed church has sent forth five ministers, two young women as wives of ministers, one teacher in a mission school and one medical missionary. Another young man is preparing to enter the ministry.

Those who entered the ministry were Rev. John Stetsma, now at St. Paul, Minn.; Rev. J. J. Van der Meer, now at St. Paul, Minn.; Rev. W. Lang and Rev. John De Maagd.

Mr. Hoff was born in Holland, Mich., and was educated at the Reformed church in Holland, Mich., and at the University of Michigan.

With the exception of one, these men and women are all graduates of Hope college and most of the men also graduated from the Western Theol. Seminary.

TELEMETER MEASURES LONG DISTANCE CALLS

The City Sign company is placing in many Holland business places an advertisement "telemeter," by means of which the time of long distance telephone calls can be measured. The instrument consists of a cardboard background, attached to the mouthpiece of a telephone. It takes the time of a call, and when the time limit of calls, to run from one glass to another. Then the card can be turned around and is ready for another three minute run.

ZEELAND HAS BUILDING BOOM

Zeeland is experiencing one of its biggest home building booms at the present time. Twenty homes are under construction and the contractors have orders for several more. Four of the completed houses were constructed at a cost of $20,000 or more, several being erected at the cost of $10,000. Building has advanced rapidly within the last year.

The marriage took place at the Christian Reformed church at Leota, Minn. Dr. and Mrs. Masselink will be at home after Oct. 29, at East 14th street.

LOCAL PASTOR GIVEN OFFER

Rev. J. H. Bruggers, pastor of the Sixth Reformed church, has been offered the position of principal of the Northwestern Classical Academy at Orange City, Iowa. This is the oldest academy of the Reformed church to have been sending graduates to Hope college for many years. There is an agitation on foot now in the west to convert it into a Junior college.

Mr. Bruggers has not yet decided whether to accept the position or not.

THE PEOPLES' BANK AGAIN TO PUT ON APPLE SHOW

The Peoples State bank, of Holland, will stage their fifth annual apple show from November 14 to and including Nov. 19.

The apples will be found in the lobby of the bank as usual on pyramid trays, and the exhibition, as heretofore, will be in charge of Ben Brower, treasurer of the Zeeland fair and connected with that bank.

At least fifty different varieties are to be displayed, a first, second and third prize to be given to winners. The show is free and the public is most welcome.

LEAVES CREATE BIG PROBLEM FOR COMMITTEE

Citizens are creating a real problem for the street committee by raking the leaves from their yards into the street. Chairman Frank Brieve pointed out today. Great heaps of these leaves are piled up along many of the paved streets, the idea apparently being that the city will cart them away.

The city carts away the leaves from the curb space, Mr. Brieve said today, but he takes care of the property owners. The heaps of leaves in the street are stopping up the gutters and clogging catch basins, so that they are creating a real drainage problem. The committee announces that the practice of piling the leaves in the street must cease and that the city cannot undertake to cart them away. The committee making the announcement is composed of Aldermen Brieve, Visser and Van Zanten.

ZEELAND POULTRY SHOW ANNOUNCED

The Zeeland Poultry association held a special meeting at the office of the Modern Poultry Breeder, which Jacob Geerlings was elected president to succeed Ed. Gierum, resigned and Herman Janssen was elected vice president in the place of Jacob Geerlings.

At this meeting the matter of the annual poultry show was discussed with the result that committees were appointed to prepare the work for the annual event.

Another meeting will be called in the near future to get the reports and make final preparations for the show that will be held on Dec. 28, 29 and 30, and January 2nd. At this meeting Prof. Phillips is scheduled to speak.

NEW CHILDREN'S GAME DANGEROUS

A local meteorist, who came within a narrow margin of striking a child, Friday afternoon, warning to parents and children in regard to the danger of a new sport that some of the youngsters in Holland are indulging in. He was driving along in a park street and meeting another car, turned to the right side of the street, quite near the curb. Suddenly he saw a little boy diving into a huge heap of leaves so that he was completely submerged and out of sight.

It was a game called "leaves" and the boy had thrown a large pile of leaves over his head and was trying to avoid hitting the child but it was a close call.

He is calling attention to the incident, believing that other children may be indulging in this sport at this particular time when heaps of leaves are plentiful. The danger of the game is obvious.

CAN MORE MORE THAN 100 CANS OF PEARS

The annual fruit drive for the American Legion hospital at Battle Creek is again on at Zeeland. This hospital is practically maintained by the American Legion posts and units in Michigan and they are again appealing to the public for help. Because of the liberal donations of several merchants the women of the Zeeland Auxiliary were able to can 115 cans of pears. With over 200 patients in the hospital and many suffering from tuberculosis, it can be realized that this amount will not go very far.

DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Teunis Den Uyl, aged 60 years, died at his home at 21 W. 15th street after a long illness early Friday morning. For 30 years he has been employed at the H. and J. De Jong grocery store on E. 10th street but he was forced to relinquish his position about six months ago.

He is survived by his wife and three sons, Simon of Detroit, Daniel of Jefferson City, and Teunis, Jr., at home; also by two daughters, Nellie, a nurse at Blodgett hospital, and Evelyn at home; five brothers, Benjamin, Henry, and Louis of Grand Rapids, John of Milwaukee, and Simon of California; three sisters, Mrs. Adrian Nagelkerk of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Arle Vander Hill and Mrs. Vande Linde of Holland.

The J. and H. De Jong store on East Tenth street was closed on Monday afternoon from 12:00 to 4:30 o'clock, on account of the funeral of Dr. Teunis Den Uyl. Mr. Den Uyl has been an employee in this store for many years and the closing was a mark of respect to his memory.

The Holland Musicians' club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Mills Wednesday afternoon. The subject of study was music in its primitive state in the early ages. Mrs. E. B. Champion read a very interesting paper dealing with the subject and illustrated at the piano by Mrs. Martha Robbins. This was followed by a general discussion of the subject. Mrs. Ruth Koster reported on the junior music club that had been approached by a number of teachers of their respective pupils to become members and take part in recitals. The outlook for the junior club is very encouraging.

MAN WANTED IN SEVERAL PLACES CAUGHT AT LAST

The Holland police last July arrested Charles E. Betts and he was wanted in Newport, Kentucky, on two charges of swindling. It appears that Betts was selling stock in a fox farm scheme, a business he has endeavored to promote in different parts of the United States. Betts is a great talker, and promised tremendous profits in fox farms at least on paper.

Last July Betts was arrested on a fugitive warrant in Holland. Police of Newport, Kentucky, demanded his surrender. Betts fought extradition but gave a bond before Justice Chas. K. Van Duren of $1,000, signed by Mr. Nixon, a Holland man. Mr. Betts had been a boarder at the Nixon home for some months.

The matter was to have come up before Governor Green, July 29, the prosecutor and attorney of Newport, Kentucky, were at Lansing to take back their man but Betts had jumped his bond and disappeared, leaving Mr. Nixon, his new found friend, flustered.

Chief Van Ry had not forgotten the incident and Friday morning he was instrumental in having Betts arrested in El Paso, Texas. Mrs. Coffee, of the chamber of commerce, had received a wire from the secretary of the El Paso chamber of commerce, asking for information on a man by the name of Betts who was promoting a fox farm proposition there.

Mrs. Coffee took the wire to Mr. Van Ry, who immediately sent two wires. One was to the chief of police of El Paso to hold Betts and the second was to the chamber of commerce giving the pedigree of Betts.

In the meantime Mr. Van Ry also wired to Newport, Kentucky, advising the prosecutor there what he had done, for according to Mr. Van Ry, Betts is wanted there for at least two large swindles.

Mr. Van Ry has the warrants in his possession asking for the arrest of Betts for fraudulently selling and misrepresenting stocks. A second charge is selling securities without being a registered dealer in the state of Kentucky.

The chief states that the warrant was sworn to by Dr. E. H. Sheer, a prominent Newport physician, who was taken in for $4,000. It is alleged. Several others were involved, but Dr. Sheer was the only one to swear to the charges. Betts was in Holland for many months, putting over advertising schemes and was quite a familiar figure on Holland's streets.

He is not wanted in Holland as there is nothing he is wanted for here aside from the jumping of the Nixon bond.

GROWTH SHOWN DURING HIS TERM OF SERVICE THERE

Rev. J. L. Harker, pastor of the Graafschap Christian Reformed church, died Sunday at his home in Holland, Mich., after a long illness. He was born in Holland, Mich., and was educated at the University of Michigan.

During his term of service there, the church has shown a marked increase in membership and the congregation has grown from 120 to 180 members.

He was a man of great energy and was very active in the church and community. He was a member of the Holland city council and was very active in the city's affairs.

OFFICERS ARREST IN BOAT HOUSE

Alphonsus Alger, about 60 years old, living on the river at the foot of Third street, Grand Haven, in a boat house, was arrested by city and county officers for violation of the liquor law.

The officers thought he lived alone until suddenly, warned by the owner to "watch out," they saw a big pole cat, one of a group of five which the man keeps as pets.

The officers made no quick moves but quietly waited until "kitty" had departed. If the man had started a scuffle the story might have been different.

Alger admitted he kept the animals, feeding them in the house and making perfect pets of them with no disagreeable consequences. The officer took him at his word but hurried from the house as soon as possible.

He was arraigned before a Grand Haven justice and waived examination. Bonds were fixed at $300 which he did not secure Friday. He will appear in circuit court. Meantime the little animals will have to shift for themselves, although the officers appeared Alger by telling him they would be looked after. He seemed most concerned for their care and protection.

CAR IS BADLY SMASHED NEAR FERRYBURG

A smash up occurred about 3:30 Friday when a Maxwell sedan driven by Mrs. John J. Otten of Muskegon Heights and a milk truck, driven by A. G. Smith, came together on U.S. 31, five miles north of Ferryburg.

In the Maxwell were Mr. and Mrs. Otten and their infant child. Mrs. Otten, who was driving, was seriously injured and the other two were slightly hurt. They were all taken to Mercy hospital in Muskegon.

The driver of the truck was not injured and the truck was not badly damaged. The Maxwell, however, was almost demolished and it seemed a miracle the occupants were not killed.

The state police were called to the scene and with the aid of a passing motorist helped the injured away. Neither driver was held. As far as could be learned it was a case of lost judgment regarding the amount of space used for passing.

LITTLE RUMBLE SEAT STUMPS FIREMEN AND COPS; PLUMBER WINS

All the police in Burbank with the able cooperation of the fire department couldn't all the bill in an emergency case Friday—so they called a plumber.

The alarm was turned in by a pedestrian who noticed an extremely hot woman squirming desperately in the rumble seat of a parked automobile.

"There ought to be a law against these silly little seats," she replied to inquiries. "I'm stuck."

The huskiest police officer tugged vainly. The firemen came and went away. The plumber cut away the rear of the automobile body and freed the lady.

BIG PERCH NOW BITING EAGERLY

Muskegon Chronicle—Lake Michigan perch have moved up into Black Lake, White Lake and other connecting waters along the western Michigan shore on their annual autumn drift into inland waters, and some excellent catches have been made the past week or two.

The fishermen use minnows and some of the perch are running unusually large. A string of 37 pulled from Crystal Lake a few days ago weighed the scales to 30 pounds after they had been dressed and the heads removed.

Good catches of big perch are also reported from Black Lake at Holland where the fish are said to be biting readily. A trip to any of these lakes connecting with Lake Michigan during the next few weeks should net a good day of fishing, with excellent prospects for a good catch.

BEEKEEPERS TO HOLD MEETING

On Monday afternoon, November 7th, at 1:00 P. M. Mr. Lewis Ewell of the beekeeping department of Michigan State college will hold a convention in winter packing of bees at the home of Mr. L. G. Root, just south of Allegan on M-40.

Every beekeeper in Allegan is invited to attend this meeting as plans will be discussed for the county cleanup of American foul brood, which has already been started and will be continued in the county next year.

All beekeepers who make plans for cleaning up their own beeyards may save colonies which would be destroyed if left until inspectors examine them.

CORNELIUS KLAASEN GOES INTO THE REAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Cornelius Klaassen, for some years associated with the Arendshorst real estate company, has gone into business for himself and will start actively in real estate handling city real estate.

Some years ago Mr. Klaassen also did considerable real estate business in Holland and is now returning to Holland to continue the work several years.

He states he has some fine properties in Holland and is now looking for a partner who would like to buy some of the properties.

HALLOWE'EN NIGHT IS VERY UNUSUAL

It was a fine hallowe'en night Monday from the standpoint of weather and the night walked in nearly every part of the city. There were many hallowe'en parties and white-faced figures and well lighted pumpkin heads were in evidence everywhere.

Chief Van Ry gave his usual warning asking that young folks and their parents cooperate with the police to make it a safe and sane hallowe'en night and so it was, with the exception of one instance on 12th street, where some youngsters had heaped up leaves on the pavement and then set fire to them, but nothing unusual occurred. Officers quickly extinguished the blaze before it got any headway.

No gates were lugged off, since gates are long out of style. A few sewer pipes and other loose objects were piled up on porches, but no little door bell ringing, but no coating of windows or other mean tricks were practiced.

Chief Van Ry put on two extra deputies as a precautionary measure and the police reported trouble and the Holland police are well satisfied.

There were a few hallowe'en stunts pulled in the theaters. A large proportion of Holland's population was at the U. S. Navy band concert, and taking it all in all hallowe'en 1927 can be put down as a sane celebration of the ghosts and goblins.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL MADE BY LOCAL FIRM

The Kinsey-Buys realtors, of Holland and Grand Rapids, through their representative, Henry Oosting of this city, made a deal whereby Henry Oosting of Zeeland, residing in Muskegon, Grand Rapids, Zeeland and California property for 126 lots in what is known as the Harrington addition on 24th street and Van Realte avenue, which is to be developed soon.

Mr. Oosting states the deal involved approximately $47,000.

Hat Shop Damaged By Fire at Grand Haven

A small blaze in the Al. Munson building at the corner of Third and Columbus streets, Grand Haven, on Sunday at 3:30 P. M., called out the fire department and drew a great number of spectators.

The fire was first discovered by William Van Schelven, living near the corner, who smelled smoke and discovered its source and then turned in the alarm. The fire was confined to some wood piled in a doorway and the loss is reckoned to be about $75.

The greatest loss will be to the Jena York Hat Shop located in the corner store which was filled with smoke, although, due to the care of the department, little water damage was done.

Among those who went to Urban and saw Illinois University defeat Michigan were John Gallen, Harold Vander Bie, Frank Essenburg, Van De Pree, Dick Miles, Herman Vander Brink, Wm. Vandenberg, Ethel Dykstra, Harvey Kleinhekel, Stanley Kleinhekel, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lindermann.

Chinese Magazine Gives Space To The Exploits of a Former Holland Man Now In the United States Navy

"The Chinese Sphere," a magazine published in English in Tsingtao, China, devotes a good deal of space to John (Windy) J. Windemiller. A copy of the magazine has arrived in Holland. In addition to a cut of the former Holland man in the uniform of the United States navy, the magazine prints a cartoon of him as a fight manager, with the legend, "Windy, the Beaver Pug Manager," under it.

Windemiller joined the navy some years ago and he has been prominent in boxing promotion on the battleship "Beaver." He was formerly a fighter of considerable Michigan fame and was trained many years ago by Chris Korose of Holland. His time in the navy is up next May, when he expects to return to Holland.

"The Chinese Sphere," in its article about the Holland man, says: John (Windy) J. Windemiller, Chief Gunners Mate of the good ship Beaver, was born, when he does not state, so long ago, he wants to forget the date, in the good old state of Michigan and joined the United States Navy about the time 'salt home' was eliminated as a steady diet for navy ships, and with but a few short years, darn long to him too, he has since then continually worn the navy blue and white.

"Windy started to wallop the whole United States Navy pug and did pretty well at that as he held the heavyweight belt for the Atlantic fleet in 1919 and also the belt of the 6th navy district in 1921. He has also held the state of Michigan heavyweight belt in 1916, after which Windy did his fighting on the water. "He came to China on the Beaver when she joined the Asiatic fleet on April 15, 1925, and since then he has been training the Beaver 'pugs' to use their fists and he has succeeded very well indeed."

Several automobiles were stalled last night during the heavy down-pour of rain.

The Fast Nobe Grands club will meet at the home of Mrs. Blanche Barker, 508 West 15th street, on Friday afternoon. Mrs. St. John will assist the hostess.

HOME

If home is to have that gripping influence that holds us secure in life's most treacherous storms, it must be cozy. Some folks live in homes—others in houses. And it is not difficult to tell to which class a person does belong, is it?

The person whose life is strengthened by a happy, cozy home is one that we all admire.

He is one that can smile in the face of any struggle. He is a person who fills the rest of us with confidence. That is the kind of character that we all want to have.

So let's strengthen our home influence all we can. Let's start with the HEART OF THE HOME.

YOUNG MEN FROM
TWO FORD AUTOS

Car stealing is an easy matter these days and running out of gasoline in the stolen car simply means the picking up of another that carries a liberal supply of gas. That at least is the contention of the police. They find that many cars stolen are run by thieves pick up the next car.

A case in point came to light in Holland Wednesday afternoon when a lady living near the high school on 5th street called up the police stating that two young men with grips had run a Ford car into her driveway, walked across the street, placed the grips in another Ford car, and had driven away.

The lady thought that this was strange and told Chief Van Ry so. Mr. Van Ry quickly got in touch with Grand Rapids police and found that in an hour before a Ford car had been stolen with the license number distributed.

The police then went to the high school but could get no clue until the pupils were dismissed and one of them would find that the other Ford car was stolen.

When the pupils did leave an hour later Miss Ruth Lugens, R. R. found that her Ford was missing.

Where the young men have gone is a problem for the police, although possibly the Ford has been abandoned long before this and a third car, filled with gasoline, has been stolen to take the thieves further on their journey. Mr. Van Ry wired all the cities in the neighborhood, however, and is also offering a reward. Chief Van Ry has often warned motorists to lock their cars when attending meetings, shows, etc. They've been in just such places where they now car owners will remain for some time, and before the owner notices that his car is gone the thief has a long drive home.

The chief can get action quickly enough to trace an automobile that comes mixed up in a traffic or homicide case.

CRESTON MOB
RUSH STORES

Grand Haven Tribune—Football enthusiasm was carried to excess in the downtown section Wednesday afternoon when the football game with Creston high. Several merchants suffered from the crowds of gangs of outside high school rosters.

Grand Rapids, of the Grand Haven skating rink, reported 80 competitors at once, swooping down upon the baked goods in sight. While the "thieves" were vainly trying to supply their wants others lifted cakes and without paying for them.

The same boys were seen going down the street with whole cakes, which they were selling along the sidewalks. The merchants selling whole cakes reported the same thing and are really incensed over the lawlessness that has prevailed.

The rush came to suddenly there was no time to call the police.

EIGHT O'CLOCK
MEANS 8 O'CLOCK

IN U. S. NAVY

"The United States Navy band, in addition to giving a concert, gave the people of Holland a lesson in punctuality," said a Holland business man who attended the concert Monday night. "The band started the music at exactly 7:50. In other words, they were scheduled to start at eight and they did not start at 8:05 or 8:10 or 8:20. Their training in the United States navy is such that eight o'clock means exactly eight o'clock."

A considerable number of people showed that they did not get that sort of training, coming trailing in singly and in troops after the concert had started, interfering with the leisure of others who had paid their money for uninterrupted enjoyment of the concert. The seats in Carnegie hall are so close together that when any person comes late it makes quite a disturbance. As a result the first couple of numbers were spoiled for many in the audience because others did not come on time.

"The fault is not to be laid entirely at the door of the late comers. It is so seldom that a concert or any other meeting starts on time that people have learned to be late. They feel that even if they are late here on the dot, they will still be early enough. It would be a fine thing if all those in charge of concerts and other meetings could give a lesson from the United States Navy band and begin when the meeting is supposed to begin. If that were done a local public would learn to come on time and then the pleasure of those who do arrive before the opening would not be spoiled."

OLD HOLLAND PIONEER
WILL BE 96 ON NOV. 13

Jacobus Dyke, living on West 14th street, is planning to celebrate the ninety-sixth anniversary of his birth on Nov. 13. Dyke has lived in the same neighborhood for three score years and the only time he changed was when he moved from one house to another on the same lot.

Dyke was born in The Netherlands in 1821 and came to Holland in 1866. He was a farm hand in his boyhood days and later, became a carpenter, which vocation he followed for nearly 50 years. He built more than 150 houses in this city and vicinity.

Peter J. Ogil, He was the father of 11 children, 8 of whom are now living. Dyke is in good physical condition but his hearing is defective and his eyesight is faulty. He seldom has been sick. Mrs. Dyke died in 1916. Since he retired from active service he has made his home with his daughter, Contractor Frank Dyke.

He followed the trade his father taught him and has erected some of the finest buildings this city can boast of.

DRUNKEN DRIVER FINED
ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Huizenga Jewelry
Are Located

The sheriff's department of Ottawa county was notified Saturday of recovery at Detroit of four watches answering to the numbers of some of those lost in the robbery of the Huizenga jewelry shop in Holland some time in September. The watches were listed for the watches amounting to $12 and they can be recovered by payment of that amount. The watch Joe Kooker, was notified and will confer with the sheriff on the matter.

The notification came in answer to a number of letters sent out by the sheriff immediately after the robbery, which was made by a break-in through the store window and a quantity of jewelry swept from the display window.

OTTAWA COUNTY
IN A FALL RYLL

One hundred scout leaders of the Ottawa county council gathered at the Presbyterian church in Grand Haven Wednesday night for the annual fall scout leaders' rally. Good citizenship was the keynote of the first part of the meeting. This was followed by a splendid dinner served by Mrs. Kooze's circle of the Presbyterian church, and with the help of whistles, balloons, paper bags, and other exhilarating entertainments.

Seventeen of the eighteen troops in the council were represented by a average of four leaders each. These delegations were supplemented by a group of councilmen and by delegations from several communities not affiliated with the council.

The chairman of each troop committee gave a brief report and introduced other members of the troop staff. These reports revealed substantial progress since the last assembly. In connection with the introductions each individual was obliged to make himself with a speech of his own, drawn by a not too sympathetic fellowman across the table.

Troop one of the Presbyterian church, one of the council's best troops, demonstrated a troop meeting program and an investiture ceremony in a condensed form. An interesting feature of this troop is its patron, a local business man, who has established and furnished a headquarters and club room of its own. These demonstrations were inspected by the visitors with much interest. Senior Scoutmaster Robert McCracken directed the demonstration under the supervision of Deputy Area Commissioner Richard W. Hoeven and Scoutmaster Wm. Baxter.

A conference period followed and the following subjects were presented: "Planning for the Future," by Frank Levens, deputy area commissioner; "The Troop Committee Responsibility," by Edward Hildner, community commissioner of Holland; "Experiences with Scouting in the Home," by Chas. Velthuis, superintendent of schools and scoutmaster; "Cooperation," by community portmaster, Andrew Hyma, of Holland; "Service to the Church," by Dr. J. De Kraker, chairman, publicity committee of the church; "Training Patrol Leaders," by V. R. Hungenford, chairman leadership and training committee; "Concerning the Grand Court of Honor," by P. J. Geisler, scout executive; "The Troop Plan," by Jay Dykhouse, community commissioner of Holland; "Activities and Outline of New Plan of Council Organization," by council president O. T. Schubert.

Scout Commissioner Chester L. Leach directed and presided. Music was provided by a phonograph loaned by the John Boer and Son Furniture Co.

Funeral services for Dr. Joseph A. Leasler, prominent Grand Rapids specialist, who had been associated with the medical profession in this city for more than a quarter of a century and who died Monday of a heart attack following a prolonged illness, were held Wednesday at 2 P. M. from the residence, 360 Fuller avenue.

Dr. Leasler was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1892, and in 1900 moved to Grand Rapids, where he had since specialized in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. In 1894 Dr. Leasler married Miss Alice Alward of Hudsonville. His wife survives. Also surviving are two brothers, Lewis Leasler of Palm and Dr. W. G. Healey of Zeeland; a sister, Mrs. A. Patterson of Allenton, and several nephews and nieces.

Next year's convention of the Michigan "Letter Carriers" association will be held at East Jordan. It was unanimously decided Monday following the visit of a delegation from that association which studied the facilities for handling the membership.

East Jordan put in a strong bid at the convention in Ludington the last summer and the delegation was given to insure the accommodation for the meeting will be held on July 24.

Burning leaves has become quite prevalent on the city streets this week and small bonfires all over the city are making a smoky, hazy atmosphere during the beautiful fall weather. If garden folks only knew how valuable leaves are as a mulch for winter and next spring, they would rather save the leaves than burn them. Those who know not only gather their own leaves but take up those of their neighbors.

After two hours of debate the Michigan State exchange meeting at South Haven sidestepped the McVay-Haugen farm relief plan Thursday in the closing session of the annual convention. The assembly adopted a substitute measure urging the national organization to join other farm organizations in any plan of farm relief on which all could agree. The Grange convention ended Friday night after a four-day session.

There will be a half-day chest clinic Thursday afternoon in the hall. Dr. Wm. Vis of Grand Rapids will be in charge. All persons in Holland and vicinity who are physically run down are invited to attend. The clinic will begin at one o'clock. It is under the auspices of the civic health committee of the W. L. C.

WHILE AT WORK

For about fifteen minutes, shortly after 10:30 o'clock this morning, all electric lights in the city went out and just at that time a life was also being snuffed out.

Fred Wise, living at 180 East 20th Street, Kelley Kosten and Oscar Ming were working on top of a pole near Seventh street on College avenue when in some unaccountable way Mr. Wise came in contact with two live wires and instantly 2400 volts of electricity shot thru his body, killing him instantly.

His fellow employees saw his body become rigid and instantly knew what had happened. Ming quickly climbed down the pole, telephoned the central station to shut down since in no other way could the man, whether dead or alive, be taken down. The plant was stopped instantly.

After the current had been turned off the body was let down by means of a line and resuscitation measures were applied but Wise had been dead for at least ten minutes, according to physicians.

The body was taken to the Nibbelink-Notter morgue and Superintendent R. B. Champion and Mr. Nauta of the board of public works brought him to the city hospital.

Fred Wise is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wise, 342 River Ave., and he had been employed by the board of public works off and on for at least 15 years.

For a time he was a lineman with the Citizens Telephone Co.

According to Abe Nauta, Wise climbed between two live wires and when a close inspection was made of the dead man's body it showed that he was caught at the thumbs and the chest since these were badly burned.

Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

MAYOR URGES ALL
TO JOIN R. C. IN THE ROLL CALL

Mayor N. Kammeraad made a statement calling upon the citizens of Holland to renew their allegiance to the United States Red Cross during the eleventh annual roll call which opens Nov. 12.

Mayor Kammeraad points out that there can be no better celebration of the true meaning of Armistice day than that offered by enrollment in the American Red Cross.

The five million members which the American Red Cross is asking for this year is an increase of nearly two million over last year's figures, he stated, but is not in any sense an unreasonable request, because every American citizen should join the American Red Cross. His statement in part follows:

"The American Red Cross is soon to open its eleventh annual roll call for members, a momentous people's duty to enlist in its ranks so that each may share in the advancement of its work both at home and in foreign lands."

"Membership in this great humanitarian army should be considered a privilege and an obligation. The most democratic organization in the world, the Red Cross is dependent for its very existence upon the support it receives from the rank and file of the people who, at roll call time, pay their dues and receive the certificate of membership."

"These dues, offered by the rich and poor alike, form a fund which enables the Red Cross to go immediately into action when a tornado strikes or when a Mississippi flood drives thousands from their homes."

"It enables the United States to play the role of philanthropist among nations. Countries poorer than ours, crushed by disaster, are helped by your dues and mine, and international bonds of friendship are welded that surely must lessen the danger of war."

"In addition, Red Cross dues finance the work of Red Cross public health nurses; programs of live saving and first aid that have done so much to reduce hazards from accidents; it helps finance the Junior Red Cross, that international alliance of school children; and it brings aid and comfort to the disabled veteran of the World War."

"I strongly urge every man, woman and child in this community to become a member of the Red Cross during the present roll call. Our local chapter is enlisting an amazing 3000 members at least, and when the campaign is ended, if we go over the top, it will be a great personal satisfaction to me and a satisfaction to Holland to know that we have played our part in boosting the membership of the national Red Cross—a figure it certainly deserves to attain."

The pleasant summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Q. Vos on the banks of Grand River near Eastmanville, was the scene of a happy gathering, over the week end, when they were at home to their relatives and friends. The invitation to this affair had been sent out in clever verse composed by Mr. Vos which brought every bidden guest there.

A buffet supper was served with a table decorated appropriately to the season and centered with a birthday cake proclaiming Mr. Vos was born in Grand Haven and spent his boyhood and early manhood there, but for the past years he has lived in Grand Rapids, where he has been associated with the Kent State bank.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Kachler, Mrs. Bonna V. Ornell, Mrs. Frances and Miss Wynne Cornell of Grand Haven, Miss Anna Vos, Isaac Baker of Muskegon, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Knothuisen, Miss Laura Knothuisen, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lokker and the Misses Anna Van Putten, Maggie Van Putten, Miss Mabel Anthony, Holland; Mrs. Keenan, Miss Tazel and Miss Mabel Keenan, Miss Adeline Walker, Mrs. Wanda M. FRANK DYKE GETS CONTRACT FOR TRINITY CHURCH ADDITION

Trinity Reformed church has awarded the contract for its new addition to Frank Dyke at an estimated cost of $20,000. The addition will be 16x56 feet and will increase the seating capacity of the church to about 900. Work was begun Monday and the structure will be under roof in about six weeks.

Trinity church has experienced a wonderful growth. Organized in 1911 with 45 families the congregation now numbers about 285 with a communicant membership of about 700.

Fifteen months after its organization the congregation had grown to its new home erected at a cost of $20,000. The building of an addition became imperative as every Sunday the church was packed to the doors. Rev. C. P. Dame has been pastor of the church for about 10 years.

LARGE AUDIENCE
U. S. NAVY BAND

It is too early to say whether the Holland hospital is to receive any benefits from the United States Navy band concert given Monday afternoon and evening, but whether there be money left or not, the officials of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, deserve credit for bringing to Holland the most wonderful band that an appreciative audience was ever privileged to hear in this city. From leader down, it is a fine bunch of men and their rendition of their several numbers was perfect.

Lieutenant Benter showed unusual ability as a director and was more than liberal with extra numbers, for which there seemed to be a great demand from the audience. Mr. Benter is also a composer, since many of the offerings of his encores numbers were composed and set to music by him. "The Lore of Alaska" was an outstanding number by Lieutenant Benter.

An offering that seemed especially to take well was a melody of plantation music of an earlier time. It was entitled "Reminiscences of the Plantation." It wasn't difficult to picture the negro of slavery days and many historic events that surrounded the Civil war period. This offering appropriately wound up with "Way Down South in Dixie."

"The Blue Danube Waltz" also was a favorite with the audience. However, the hit of the evening was "Circus Days," portraying true music coming to town of a circus and interpreting the coming in of the circus early in the morning.

The pitching of the tents, the opening of the sideshow, the inspecting of the animals and the things under the big top, in the ring and on the trap. It was a clever melody of sounds that one hears with the circus.

The U. S. Navy band plays no jazz but it has a jazz band nevertheless. A dozen of its members quickly organized into a jazz band Monday evening and gave a short program that seemed to delight the audience as early in the morning.

The drummer boy, with his antics made a real hit. The xylophonist, Louis J. Goucher, was a wonder and considerable demand was made for extra numbers.

During the intermission a surprise was sprung not so much on the audience as on the members of the band. Al Jolderma, commander of the American Legion, presented the leader of the band, Lieutenant Benter, with a basket of flowers in behalf of the Holland Lions club and they called upon the sea scouts, who were invited to entertain their little offering. This presentation brought a gleam of laughter when director Benter was given a pair of wooden shoes by a scout leader, and other shouts passed in among the members of the band, giving each a smaller piece of the fun.

Lieutenant Benter, who as a rule does not make speeches during a musical program, could not refrain from voicing his thanks. He said, "We have been in a great many places, we have had some fine audiences, but this is the very kind to us, but no where have we received a more cordial reception and nowhere have they done such nice things for us as in Holland. The flowers are beautiful but we go away early in the morning and it will be difficult to keep them, therefore in turn we present this basket of flowers, in behalf of the United States Navy band, to the patients in Holland hospital. The shoes so thoughtfully given, we will take away with us as a remembrance of a pleasant evening in your city."

A program then continued until eleven numbers, with as many encores, had been played. The closing number was "The Star Spangled Banner," with the audience rising.

The program as given follows:

1. Overture—"Mighty Men of the Sea"; 2. Suite de Ballet—"Copellia"; 3. Solo for Cornet—"Arbuckle's Polka"; (Musician George Unsinn); 4. Grand Scene and Ensemble from the Opera—"Andrea Chénier"; (Unsinn); 5. Fantasy—"Reminiscences of the Plantation"; W. Pals Chamber; 6. A few minutes with "The U. S. Navy Jazz Band."

Intermission

7. Descriptive—"Circus Days"; Harp; 8. Air—"B. Excerpt from the Opera—"Countess Maritza"; Emmerick Kalman; 9. Xylophone Solo—"Coming Through the Rye"; (Musician Louis J. Goucher); E. S. Thornton; 10. Vaudeville Concert—"The Jazzy Blue Danube"; (Johann Strauss); 11. Rhapsody—"The Second Hungarian"; Franz Liszt; "The Star Spangled Banner."

Soloists: George Unsinn, Mus. 1st Class, U. S. N.; Cornetist and Louis J. Goucher, 1st Mus. U. S. N. Xylophonist and Louis J. Goucher, 1st Mus. U. S. N.

The program to women and children and one to just fit an occasion of that kind. It was well patronized by pupils of all schools and at least 150 women also attended.

Among the men who were outstanding figures in making this concert a great event in this city were Al Jolderma, commander of the American Legion, Jack Knoll, retiring Commandant; Ben Levensen, Roy Zoda, Charles Van Lente, Al Van Lente and others.

The Michigan Bell Telephone exchange in Allegan became the property of the Tri-County Telephone Co. Tuesday morning.

The company operates in Chas. VanBuren and Allegan counties with headquarters in Grand Haven. Dr. O. M. Vaughn is president; Albert B. Chase of South Haven is vice president and general manager; George B. Monroe of South Haven is secretary and treasurer. No change in the management of the Allegan exchange will be made at present.

DOPE SHEETS ARE NO GOOD

GRAND HAVEN FOOTBALL FANS CAN'T RELY ON COMPARATIVE SCORE METHOD

Grand Haven Tribune—Grand Haven and Holland figure pretty evenly by the customary reckoning of comparative scores and dope. Takiri early season games, the Havenites defeated Coopersville 68 to 12 and Holland only beat the boys in Green 29 to 0. This gives the locals a dope edge of 25 points which is heretofore as so much apple sauce by those who have watched the two eleven's perform.

A little better way of figuring the standings is thus. South topped the Chisholms 6 to 0 and Holland trimmed South 12 to 6. Thus by this means of figuring, Holland is 12 points better than Grand Haven. However Holland has beaten 6 to 0 by Muskegon Heights and tied by Iowa to 0.

Here's another connection that is a little farther away but will serve to illustrate the fallacy of dope. South was just beaten by Grand Rapids Central, 6 to 0. Central beat Lansing, 8 to 0, apparently making South 2 points better than Lansing. Lansing beat Kalamazoo Central 20 to 7, making South 15 points better than Kalamazoo, but Kalamazoo beat Holland 14 to 12. South should have been about two or three touchdowns better than Holland but instead a scarlet and gold avalanche gave them a 12 to 6 trouncing.

The day of "dope" is apparently done and its knell has been sounded by advanced methods of coaching and up to date equipment possessed by even the smallest schools. In addition the teams from the smaller towns are playing better ball and in many cases are better conditioned than city teams. Every team has good coats, uniforms, headgear, cyma, lockers, showers and all the latest of modern football.

Thus it is that the favorite pastime of fans and sport writers, figuring things out ahead, is going into the discard and the old fashioned scores of larger schools against smaller schools are getting fewer and fewer.

Office of The Teacher Given Much Honor

Those in charge of children's week observance today contribute the following from Benson's "An Introduction to Child Study":

"The office has been more highly magnified in Scripture than that of the teacher. God has created a countless multitude of world's-sums, sums, system upon system, universe upon universe, immensity beyond all comprehension. Yet the inspired writer in endeavoring to magnify the reward of the Sunday school teacher, all earthly comparisons and likenesses the brilliancy and permanence of her work to the greatest things of which the mind could conceive: 'They that be teachers shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever.'"

"The teacher built a temple, He wrought it with grace and skill; Pillars and groins and arches; All fashioned to work his will. Men said as they saw its beauty It shall never know decay. Great is thy skill, O builder! Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher built a temple with loving and infinite care. Planning each arch with patience, Laying each stone with prayer. None praised her unceasing efforts. None knew of her wondrous plan. For the temple the teacher builded Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple, Crumbled into the dust; Low lies each arch and pillar, Food for consuming dust. But the temple the teacher builded Will last while the ages roll. For that beautiful unseen temple Is a child's immortal soul."

—From Benson's Introduction to Child Study.

Paris Gasoline Contains One-Third Alcohol

The high cost of gasoline in Europe has encouraged the use of heavier fuel by the bus lines abroad. Paris is probably the only city, however, which uses alcohol in the mixture. The fuel of the buses there is one-third gasoline, one-third petrol and one-third alcohol. One reason for the addition of the alcohol is that France has a high duty on all imported articles, but as alcohol is a home product its use in the mixture greatly reduces the duty. At the Paris company had considerable difficulty in getting the alcohol to mix with the other ingredients, but now has no trouble. The retail price at commercial filling stations for gasoline in Paris is about 12 francs for 5 liters, corresponding to about 35 cents a gallon. The total cost for fuel for the bus lines in Paris amounts each year to about 40,000,000 francs (about $1,600,000). By a coincidence this is approximately the same that is paid each year for the electricity to operate the street cars.

HAMILTON

A Sunday school conference was held in the Overisel Reformed church last week Wednesday evening. The churches represented were those of the north central district of Allegan county. Rev. Wm. Pyle and students Veldman of the Western Theological seminary gave very inspiring addresses. The attendance was not as large as expected but the busy season. It is the result of the busy season. It is too bad, however, not more could have heard the splendid messages. The annual dinner given by the ladies of American Reformed last Friday was well attended and the ladies gave a "big" dinner for a "small" price. We have not heard about the amount received but it is no doubt a large amount.

Little Don's Hinson has been quite seriously ill for several days. Henry Verhulst, local dealer in hardware and shoe repairs, has sold out and has bought the store at Grand Haven. The new owner is busy getting the store in shape. We are sure to think of Henry as being tied to this community for good. All those who have automobiles have also cut deeply into the ham and business. Henry was not agree with his health. The community will lose him and his family but our best wishes go with them for success in his new venture.

A large number took advantage of visiting day at our local school last week. The teachers report the largest number of visitors on record. This is a fine thing and we believe that it is continued, it will be our school work all the way from teachers to parents.

Mrs. Henry Kruidhof and children, of Drenthe were visitors for several days with Mrs. J. A. Roggen last week. The Wolters garage is busy lately having in and repairing cars. Last week Friday they were called to the Dan Koether farm where two cars had figured in a head-on collision. A Ford gravel truck started to skid and struck a Buick driven by John Strick of Otego. Both cars were damaged considerably and had to be hauled in. Monday evening another call came in for help when a Hudson coach driven by Roger Strick, of Holland, collided with the Chevrolet coach driven by Mrs. B. Haakma, of this village. It seems that Strick tried to pass a team and failed to see the Haakma car coming from the north. In the case the latter was in the wrong. One result of the new law removing a speed limit is very evident. Some drivers are living up to the no limit part. It is not an uncommon thing to see cars go through town far beyond the old 35 mile speed limit.

The other day a little chap had heard two men on the street talking about the Dutchmen, of Holland. When he came home he said to his father, "Daddy, what are the Dutchmen in Holland?" On receiving the reply that there were, he asked seriously, "Will Dutchmen hurt white people?" Dick De Horg and his sisters, Matilda and Gerarda, of Onondaga, N. Y., were week end visitors at the First Reformed parsonage. After their visit here they motored to Grand Rapids, where they will remain for the winter.
