Van Raalte Ave. To Be Paved Immediately

SOME OBJECTIONS TO PAVING
BUT CLAIM IS "MOST PRO-PERTY OWNERS WANT IT"

Rezoning Of River Ave. Gone Over,
Goes Back To Appeal Board

The paving of Van Raalte Avenue has at last been passed, all exception voting in favor with the exception of Alderman Oudemol of the third ward. It is understood that the paving will start as a W.P.A. project under contract. Financial aid received from the government will be 45% of the whole or $25,384 paid on completion. The government demands that work must begin January 11, the project must be well under way by April 11, 1937 and completed by January 11, 1938, which of course can be easily done. Alderman Damson, supported by Alderman Drinkwater, moved that the street be paved. This left the matter open to question and Mayor Geerlings allowed aldermen to discuss the project as well as anyone having property on that street.

Dr. Wynand Wichers, President of Hope College, presented his objections stating in the first place, that ordinarily he would not discourage civic improvements; he stands for progress, but just at this time Hope College has gone through a depression, its revenues from interest-bearing investments have been curtailed, churches, generally supporting the college have contributed less because these too were having their difficulties. It simply meant that Hope College was not in a position at this time to stand that burden. He said that Hope College was one of Holland's best industries. Holland had seldom been asked for a contribution and had given only in a meager way up to this time. Nevertheless, Hope College is a major industry bringing a great deal of new money into the city through endowments, through faculty members and through the student body. He felt that the college was a tremendous asset from a monetary standpoint, not considering the greater asset of an institution of learning right at home with its cultural and spiritual influence.

It was suggested that people who wanted to have pavement, let them have it and exempt the long blocks of vacant property, which has been on the market for years without buyers.

Mayor Geerlings brought the question of whether a change in administration would have any effect on a contract entered in between the government and the city. He asked Attorney Parsons what he thought, but Mr. Parsons was as much "at sea" as were the others, pointing to the experience when the Police Department building was erected and Holland eventually had to pay a large share.

City Engineer, Zuidema stated that such jobs were let by contract and under this method he felt Holland was rather safe in taking on this project. Alderman Steffens stated that the majority of the property owners wanted the paving done and had waited for years and they should not be deprived of this opportunity when with government aid they could get $400-foot pavement which without government aid would cost them $700. While he was sorry that the college was placed in an embarrassing position, he felt that the property owners should be allowed to have their pavement.

He made that as a motion and it passed 10 to 1, Alderman Prins being absent.

The next important question was the rezoning of River Avenue. George Pelgrim of the zoning committee appeared in behalf of that body and he stated that he came with an open mind, that the zoning committee when it opposed the rezoning some years ago, did it with an honesty of purpose, feeling that they had done their duty in behalf of the entire city. He stated that they welcomed heartily any discussion of the matter and any change that might be suggested. Considerable time had passed since the matter came up before and in the meantime different conditions undoubtedly have been brought about. Anyway, he expressed that the board felt that the whole matter could be gone over by everyone interested, since that is what the hearing is for.

Attorney Arthur Van Duren appeared for many of the property owners and he stated that he agreed with Mr. Pelgrim when he was on the appeal board with him namely, that River Avenue as now contemplated, should not be in the commercial zone. He stated that times have changed, however, that a main artery of trade now feeds an already crowded thoroughfare, namely River Ave., and instead of US31 using 17th Street, it directly enters in to River Ave., making it very undesirable as a residence district. He pointed out that 17th Street, before US31 was relocated, was a fine home street but when it became a main trunkline it became very undesirable for a thoroughfare of homes and he pointed out that property actually depreciated. By the same token, residence property on River Avenue, as such, has gone down but turn it into a commercial zone and the property along the thoroughfare, if used for commercial purposes, will rise in value. Mr. Van Duren listed many buildings on River Avenue known as residence property that is being used for rooming houses, boarding houses, college fraternity houses, doctors' offices, oil stations and so on, augmented by several pieces of public property. He stated that in spite of it being called a residence zone, a large part of it was already commercialized.

AGED MAN, 89, KILLED

As the News goes to press, reports come that Marinus Slabbe-korn, aged 89, was struck down by an automobile at a highway intersection between Holland and Zeeland. The old gentleman was hitch-hiking to Zeeland to see one of his daughters when the accident occurred. He made the trip in this manner weekly to see his son, John Slabbe-korn and his daughter, Mrs. Theodore Dalman.

No details are available at this time only that the unfortunate man was rushed to Zeeland hospital where he was operated on for a fractured skull. He died while the operation was in progress. Another daughter is Mrs. Gerrit Van Anroy of Pine Ave., Holland.

COUNCIL NOTES

Mayor Henry Geerlings opened the meeting with prayer.

Alderman Drinkwater made a report that the boilers at the hospital had been thoroughly inspected and they were found in good order.

C. A. Van Lente asked for a permit to open a lunch stand at the West end of 14th Street during the sugar campaign while the Holland Sugar Mill is operating.

Ben Mulder was unanimously voted as representative of the West Michigan Harbor Association for the coming year to serve in behalf of the city. The fee to belong to that association is $10.00 a year for each city belonging. Mayor Geerlings brought the matter up.

City Clerk, Oscar Peterson urged that the local newspapers ask the voters to vote early and avoid a jam at the polls on Tuesday, November 3. The heavy registration of over 7,000 votes indicate that there will be a heavy vote out. The Common Council felt that the heads of the factories should give the men employed an hour extra in which to vote. Some of the factories should give this hour in the morning and others in the evening in order to distribute the vote.

The committee on streets and crosswalks recommended granting a petition asking for the vacating of the alley running from Harrison Ave. to Cleveland Ave. and lying between 21st St. and 22nd St. and that a hearing on the matter be set for Nov. 18. The report was adopted on motion of Alderman Jacob Bultman, supported by Alderman Peter Huyser.

A petition signed by Clarence Nies of 254 West 22nd St. and the Rev. B. L. Post of West 22nd St. was submitted requesting construction of a sewer in West 22nd St. between Washington and Van Raalte Aves. It was referred to the sewer committee.

Clerk Peterson reported that two special assessment rolls of sanitary sewers are ready to be assessed, and Nov. 18 was set as the date for the hearing. The two sewers are the West 22nd St. No. 3 sewer and the Fairbanks Ave. sewer.

Missionary Union To Meet Next Thursday

MISSIONARY UNION TO MEET
NEXT THURSDAY

The Annual Fall Missionary Union meet of the Christian Reformed churches of Holland, Zeeland and vicinity will be held next Thursday afternoon and evening, October 29. The sessions will be held in the First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland.

An interesting and varied program has been prepared, with Rev. A. H. Sells, missionary to China, Mr. Morgan of the Indian Mission Field and Miss Gertrude Holkeboer, of the Way of Life mission of Grand Rapids as speakers. Music will include a Women's chorus and a male quartet.

The evening program will also include pictures of South America and the mission field located there. These are to be shown by Dr. Henry Beets, secretary of the Mission Board, who recently made a trip to this and other fields of labor. This unusual feature will doubtless prove interesting.

It can readily be seen that the program will be much worth while and without a doubt, a large number of ladies and men as well, will attend.

The usual supper hour to be held in the new parish house of the church will also be an enjoyable and worthwhile feature since Mrs. Bernard Hakkens of Holland, missionary to Arabia, is scheduled as the speaker at this time.

Ladies who plan to stay for the supper hour will, as on former occasions, bring their own lunch, coffee being served by ladies at the church.

The afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock and the evening program at 7:30 o'clock.

owner, also spoke on the rezoning from residence to commercial zones. A lady also spoke on the same question. The lady's name could not be ascertained. After everyone who desired, had given their views it was decided to leave the whole matter with the appeal board for further consideration when all the arguments set forth at the hearing will be fully gone over and a final decision will be given to the Common Council to be paid on at a future meeting.

Holland Coast Guards' Picket Boat Is Here

FAST CRAFT VERY ESSENTIAL
AT RESORT HARBORS

Skipper E. J. Clemons of the Holland Coast Guard Station and Fred Slaughter, one of the crew, left for Grand Haven this morning with the large, old surf-boat which they will leave there and will return with a picket boat, which has been promised this port, and which was secured through the efforts of Congressman, Carl Mape and William M. Connelly of the Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Holland Harbor Board.

The craft is 36 feet long, is a power boat capable of making 25 miles an hour, and is assigned to ports where a great many people congregate on the beaches during the resort season. Holland, being that sort of a port, was given a picket boat since it is stated the boat will be used for quick emergency needs.

Captain Clemons and Mr. Slaughter returned to Holland harbor late this evening with the picket boat and it is now ready for service at the Holland Coast Guard Station. The old surf-boat has been assigned to the White River station, Mr. Clemons states.

Comdr. W. W. Bennett recommended the three stations and approval came through the Chicago division.

A protest was made at a recent meeting of the West Michigan Harbors association that the boats assigned are not speedy enough to fill the needs, especially in the summer time when many people flock to the beaches and inland waters. They also protested that there are but three boats assigned stating that each station in the district should be equipped with a speedy boat capable of 40 miles per hour.

Assignment of the three picket boats, recently brought from the Atlantic seaboard for use in the 10th district, was received at 10th district coast guard headquarters yesterday morning as follows: Holland, C. G. 2270; Grand Haven, C. G. 2275; Muskegon, C. G. 2295.

Considerable information relative to a new type of picket boat and also the possible building of a new Coast Guard station on the Ottawa Beach side of the harbor and other marine news is given in detail on page one of section two. The article gives a great deal of information about harbor matters.

REPUBLICAN MEETING MONDAY EVENING

There will be a Republican meeting Monday evening, October 27, at 7:30 o'clock at Republican headquarters in the old Peoples State Bank building on East 8th St., Holland. Everyone is invited and it will be a very worthwhile and interesting meeting.

Prosecuting Attorney John Dethmers will give an intelligent lecture on the Constitution of the United States. His discourse at Zeeland was so able and understandable that he was called upon to give the address at this Monday night meeting.

Circuit Court Judge, Fred T. Miles is to give an address on National and State Affairs. Remember, all are welcome at Republican headquarters in the old Peoples Bank building Monday night.

TO SPEAK AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS TONIGHT

Mrs. Viola Nohr Waters of Madison, Wis., a member of the Wisconsin State Institute commission will speak at a meeting tonight in the old Peoples Bank building on East Eighth St. Mrs. Waters served overseas as a nurse during the war and spent two years in Soviet Russia where her husband was an agricultural instructor. Her appearance here is being sponsored by the Republican National headquarters. Mr. Don Zwemer, Mrs. Jay H. Den Herder and Miss Ruth Nibbelink are in charge of local arrangements. The public is invited to attend.

Grand Haven Tribune—A pot to bearing resemblance to Mickey Mouse of screen and funny paper fame, was brought to the Grand Haven Daily Tribune office Saturday by Erhart Mueller of Robinson township, who is well known in German publications as a poet. The potato was grown on the Mueller farm, where the couple, former Chicago residents, have resided for a number of years.

Four Boys were born in Holland hospital, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Jack Tenny and Mrs. A. F. Coxford, next door neighbors in Pennville, became mothers of boys within 10 minutes of each other—the Coxford baby at 8:50 a.m. while the Tenny boy came just 10 minutes later. Mrs. Clarence Jalving of Holland rural route No. 4 became the mother of a boy born earlier in the morning as did Mrs. Reuben Carr of 607 Central Ave.

Final arrangements were made for the "fun night" to be held Friday night in the auditorium of the Woman's club. Games will begin at 8 p.m. with the special feature, a style show of fur coats to take place at 9:30 o'clock, followed by an announcement of interest. Mrs. Winter and Mrs. Clarence Klassen are chairmen for the event.

The travelogue by Mrs. Ben Bush, who with Rev. Ben Bush, has just returned from a trip through Europe, appears as usual in this issue. A vivid description of Russia, it's condition, it's mode of living, it's religious aspect, is being continued this and next week. The travelogue is surely interesting, first-hand information. The letters will continue a few weeks more.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The all important topic of the day is the Holland Fair. Its real name was South Ottawa and West Allegan Agricultural Association, and it was then located on Black Lake on the sites of Kollen Park, Holland Sugar Co. and Holland Shoe Co. and included the Bay View Furniture Co. property. The extreme south end of the race track was along 16th St. Anyway the News of Oct. 2 devotes five columns to the fair, the exhibits, races, and everything having to do with the exhibit in 1886. One highlight of all that has been written will be rather interesting now since the "Tulip Festival" committee has in mind the housing of antiques of Dutch origin together with possibly a Dutch village. Here is what the News states in the Fair article: The Log Cabin—The Pioneers Department was a success as far as it extended. The "log house" made as the pioneers made them in the Holland colony, was constantly filled with curious spectators. Many relics of "ye olden times" were displayed. There were pictures, old books hundreds of years old, and bibles still older. There were farm implements of the crudest type used by our colonists. Cooking utensils largely in copper, household articles typically Dutch, among them old tea pots, wooden shoes, flatirons, foot warmers, copper candlestick, candleholders, coffee pots, fire tongs, strange chairs, tobacco and snuff boxes, cradles for early Dutch youngsters and scores of other articles of pioneer day. In the midst of all these old curiosities stood the venerable Tunis Keppel, who was one of the band of Van Raalte colonists and it was indeed fitting to have him superintend those things he had lived with as a young "trail blazer" in the Holland wilds. Mr. Keppel was the host at the "Log House"; he was the editor and a guest called Tunis was busy preparing a Dutch dinner consisting of black bread, potatoes, beans and "spek" pork, which when ready he seemed to enjoy with a hearty relish. He shared his repast with us and we will say it was substantial. The log cabin and contents as a whole is unique as well as antique.

John Cook and Mrs. Maggie Pauels, both of Holland, were married by Rev. J. Meulendyk. They left on a bridal trip and when returning, will live in a house on West 9th St. Mr. Cook is a grocery clerk at Bastian Steketee's store.

Anton Seif has torn down the frame building on Tenth St. and is replacing it with a large brick building to house his brewery. New machinery, coons and cooling room will also be installed.

Twenty-five years ago today the date for the opening of the New Knickerbocker Theatre (now Holland) will be Nov. 3. At that time Manager Agnew has secured the popular stage play, "Brewster's Millions." The production cannot come to cities the size of Holland usually for the reason that theatres are too small and the stage must accommodate a full rigged ship appearing in one scene in the play. Well Holland's new "play house" has a stage that will take in a ship with sea room to spare. The Holland Board of Trade has promised to sell out the house on the first night.

Is your horse hitched? If not, look out for Chief Kamferbeek and his sleuths. They went in the highways and byways of Holland and herded together 20 or more teams they found not tied to hitching posts. The offenders were given warnings to digress no more. No doubt on the next offense the horse owners will receive a few "half hitches" from the "big Chief." Note—Strange this world—Twenty-five years ago you were given a ticket for not parking and today—well just try it. If the iron horse was only animate.

Miss Mae E. Froden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Froden, proprietors of a hotel at Harrington's Landing, was wed to John P. Pelersen in the city of Chicago. Rev. L. Harrisville officiated.

GIVES OPTIONS ON SALE OF BUILDINGS OF BAKER CO.

(Allegan News)

Henry Geerts, president of the Holland City Depositors' corporation of Holland which owns the factory buildings in Allegan formerly occupied by the Baker Furniture Company, revealed that his company gave an option for the sale of the property to an unnamed person Saturday, October 10.

Mr. Geerts declined to reveal to whom the option was issued or on what terms, but he was certain that a great deal of preliminary work would have to be done before a deal was completed in arranging final terms and prices.

Funeral services for William Benedict, 80, who died at his home, in Central Park, Tuesday, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Langland Funeral home. The Rev. F. J. Van Dyke will officiate and burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery in Grand Rapids. Surviving are three sons, P. V. Benedict of Evanston, Ill., Frank of Syracuse, N. Y., and William Jr., of Chicago.

YOUTH LOSES EYE IN HUNTING MISHAP

Keith Cole, 21, of Allegan, lost the sight of his right eye Wednesday in a hunting accident. He was hunting near Allegan with his brother-in-law, Frank Carpenter.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Bert Tenholt and Anton A. Paris, Holland rural carriers, who used an automobile for delivery of mail, state that this method of travel is better than the horse since it requires less time and expense of keeping a horse. They expect to go back to horses in the winter time. This is the first instance where rural carriers have used the automobile in western Michigan for that purpose.

An applicant for a life insurance policy called on Dr. A. T. Godfrey to make the examination. A suit of clothes used by the doctor while visiting a patient ill with a contagious disease was being disinfected in the bath room where the prospective policy holder was sent. The applicant, thinking this a part of the regular procedure in such cases, remained in the room for some length of time, and when the good doctor investigated he found the man to be examined, nearly overcome with the fumes from formaldehyde. Having passed this "acid test" the doctors considered the patient insurance proof.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Trinity Reformed Ladies Aid surprised Rev. and Mrs. Clarence P. Dame, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. G. Van Dyke graciously presented the pastor and his wife with a beautiful leather rocking chair. The couple were completely surprised, but responded in turn.

James Rutgers of Hamilton, who was a school teacher for several years, gave up teaching and will be a minister of the gospel. He is studying at the Chicago Evangelical Institute.

Miss Jean Bazaan, popular Holland girl, was wed to Dr. Stuart Yntema of Forest Grove. It was understood that the young man was to depart soon for Honolulu therefore the happy couple slipped away to Chicago and were married by the eminent divine, Dr. John Timothy Stone on Sept. 17. The ceremonies took place in the beautiful Fourth Presbyterian Church on Michigan Ave. The lone couple, the pastor and the able pianist organist were present and the mammoth church edifice with the large melodious organ softly whispering Lohengrin's wedding march, added to the solemnity of the occasion.

Miss Bazaan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bazaan, and Dr. Gerrit Yntema of Forest Grove. Miss Bazaan is a graduate from Holland High and is one of the Holland Furnace Co. office staff. Mr. Yntema is a graduate from Hope and Rush Medical College, Chicago. The couple will leave for Sandwich Island in December where the doctor is to be interne in Queen's hospital in Honolulu.

Mrs. Elda T. Van Putten of Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Van Putten, Sr., has been appointed by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church as a missionary to Arabia. Miss Van Putten is soon to become Mrs. Bernard D. Hakken.

Holland now numbers among its citizens a near centenarian, Mrs. Jane Ackerscock of Hamilton, who recently moved here. She is in her 99th year. Note: She would today be 114, but she has passed on long since.

Miss Catherine Selles of 77 East 18th St., entertained on her 13th birthday. Miss Selles is not superstitious for the party was held just the same. Those present were Maxine Vanden Bosch, Harriet Plaggers, Bernice Beeuwkes, Anna Peters, Myrtle Beeuwkes, Ruth Bartels, Dorothy De Goede, Josie Mokema, Bertha Prins and Marjorie Kammeraad. In the games Miss Kammeraad and Miss Bartels won the prizes.

Note—She is now Mrs. Leonard Greenway, whose husband is pastor of the Second Reformed Church at Grand Haven.

Mrs. E. J. Blekkink and Mrs. V. L. Dibble were selected delegates from the Women's Literary Club to attend the 27th annual convention of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs now open in Grand Rapids.

A series of meetings are to be held this Friday at 8:30 to 10:00 a. m., breakfast with the clergy of the city at Warm Friend Tavern. Consistory members also welcome. The subject will be "Scouting and Church Objectives."

At noon the luncheon will be held at Warm Friend Tavern, as stated above. The subject will be "Vitality of Scouting" or "Militant Minorities in a Changing World."

At 7:30 p. m. there will be a meeting for the Executive Board and members of the Council in the G.A.R. hall. The subject will be, "An Adequate Program for National Service." Scouters are urged to be present at this meeting since the message will be a vital one.

At 8:30 p. m. this Friday there will be a meeting of Organization Committees, Commissioners, and all those interested in organization. (Specialization Course on Troop and Pack Organization.)

So you see, this is quite a pretentious program and intended so scout leaders who are present will receive the benefits of these different meetings and the knowledge thus gained will be reflected in scout work in the future. It goes without saying that the scouts, as a whole, will benefit eventually by these activities of Friday.

All the scout leaders of this county will congregate in Holland for the purpose of making plans and listening to a speaker of national note, namely, Dr. Ray O. Wyland, National Director of Church Relationships for the Boy Scouts of America. He will give several talks during the day, today, Friday, taking various phases of Scouting. Mr. Wyland is to be at Warm Friend Tavern this Friday noon and not only will the scout leaders from Ottawa county be present, but some from Allegan County in this vicinity have also been invited.

Boy scouts in uniform Thursday morning sent out "Scout-O-Grams" and the youngsters were the messenger carriers. These messages went to people who are interested in scouting and they are asked to attend the noon-day luncheon. The "Scout-O-Gram" was signed by John De Wilde, local chairman. The scout messengers brought back the messages of acceptance from interested citizens, heads of civic clubs and others.

Dr. Wyland was born in the state of Kansas, April 15, 1890. He is a highly educated man, having received degrees from the University of Illinois, University of Chicago, Garrett Seminary of Evanston and also from Columbia University.

Dr. Wyland served as Managing Director of United Americans, Chicago, Ill., 1919-22, and directed the Training and Naturalization of 20,000 aliens; also contributed to the Americanization of several hundred thousand foreign born.

Dr. Wyland came to the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, August 1922 as Assistant Director of Education. He was appointed Director of Relationships 1924 and Director of Education, 1930.

As Director of Relationships, Dr. Wyland supervises the cooperative contacts of the Boy Scout Movement with all Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and other religious bodies and all Scouting relationships with educational institutions, civic groups, service clubs, fraternal bodies and other parent institutions which sponsor Boy Scout Troops.

As Director of Education, Dr. Wyland supervises all leadership training for volunteer and professional Scouters. More than four hundred colleges, universities and theological seminaries are offering courses on Scouting Methods of Education in cooperation with the National Educational Service under Dr. Wyland's leadership. Each year upwards of 75,000 volunteer Scout leaders register for training in formal courses under the supervision of the National Educational Service of the Boy Scouts of America.

Dr. Wyland travels thirty to forty thousand miles each year and has visited each State of the Union many times.

A series of meetings are to be held this Friday at 8:30 to 10:00 a. m., breakfast with the clergy of the city at Warm Friend Tavern. Consistory members also welcome. The subject will be "Scouting and Church Objectives."

43 BALLOTS TO ELECT A ROAD COMMISSIONER

After balloting a whole day, or in other words, 43 secret ballots, John H. Van Noord, Jamestown, was named County Road Commissioner. There were eleven candidates in the field, including Nick Hoffman, former Holland restaurant man and William Winstrom of Park Township. It appears that Holland could not muster enough strength to land either one of these men.

It was stated late today that the Board of Supervisors passed the County budget, which is the biggest task at the October session.

Simon Kleyn Of Holland Is Re-elected

Simon Kleyn, Holland, one of the Ottawa County superintendents of the poor, was re-elected by the board of supervisors holding meetings at Grand Haven. Mr. Kleyn received 21 votes, Henry S. Bosch, former city inspector, received four votes. Mr. Kleyn was elected for three years. He has held that position for a good many years.

Charles Velhuis, Coopersville, was re-elected school examiner. The vote was unanimous.

Barend Kamps, a member of the board for the past 14 years, sent a written application to the board for reappointment. John H. Van Noord, Jamestown, was another applicant this morning, which makes in all nine applicants, four of whom are from Holland and vicinity already announced.

Henry Slaughter suggested that the road commission member be paid on a per diem basis instead of a salary as has been the custom since the board was created many years ago. The present salary is $800. This matter will be investigated to learn whether the board has a legal right to make this change.

A representative of the state welfare commission, Mr. Snoddy, appeared before the board to enlist contributions from the board to the Emergency Welfare of the state. The county board at the present time pays 40 per cent of the welfare cost, prorated among the township boards, as this county is under a township unit. The question is whether the widows' pensions are considered a part of the welfare expense. J. W. Eaton, chairman of the Ottawa County welfare board, was present at the opening meeting this week.

Frank Lieveuse, Holland, representing the Board of Security bonding company, offered to reduce the cost of carrying bonds on county officers by about $80 per year, providing he was given the entire business of the county.

HEADS OF ENTIRE COUNTY

A group meeting of the members of the several boards of education in Ottawa County, including Holland, was held in Grand Haven, Tuesday evening. There was a splendid representation from all parts of the county. The session was held in the High School assembly room at the "County seat."

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss principally the third and fourth constitutional amendments. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Elliot, President of the Board of Education of Grand Haven. Henry Geerlings, Mayor of Holland, acted as secretary.

It was pointed out by several of those present that if these amendments should carry at the fall election Nov. 3, the schools of the state would be seriously affected. The third proposal would remove sales tax from the sale of certain foods. It would reduce the general fund about $12,000,000 per year. Welfare, old age pension, and schools would suffer most by this reduction. The State would lose considerable revenue from the sale of food to tourists especially in the purchase of prepared meals. There is no provision made if such a law was passed, for replacing the loss in revenues. It was contended that it would be very difficult to determine whether or not certain commodities were foods belonging to the classes exempt from sales tax or otherwise.

The fourth proposal would eliminate all real and personal property tax assessments or levies after December 31, 1937, except for debt service. It would remove taxes from (Continued on Page 2)

About 35 members of the Holland Elks lodge chartered a bus, Tuesday night, to go to Grand Rapids for the opening program of the three day golden jubilee celebration staged by the Grand Rapids lodge. The program featured the initiation of 100 candidates. The public meeting in the civic auditorium, Thursday, which climaxed the celebration, drew another large local attendance. At this meeting Gov. David Sholtz, of Florida, grand exalted ruler was the guest of honor.

Nelson Vande Luyster of Zeeland, a graduate of Hope college, will instruct German at Michigan State college. Besides attending Hope college he also attended the University of Michigan. He is a grandson of Johannes Vande Luyster, founder of the Zeeland colony.

Landon Speaks To Thousands In California

WASHINGTON AND "TEDDY" ROOSEVELT BROUGHT INTO GOV. LANDON'S GREAT LOS ANGELES SPEECH

Governor Alfred M. Landon evoked waves of applause from a gigantic throng in the Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles, Calif., when he summed up congressional investigations of the Democratic administration as "tyranny" in "flagrant disregard of the rights of our citizens."

It is said that Landon spoke to at least 75,000 people in the large stadium where a few years before the Olympic games were held.

Anyway, this large public place was crowded to beyond capacity and the throng extended far beyond the tunnels that lead into the Coliseum.

The radio announcer gave a graphic picture of the largest gathering ever to congregate at any one place in that vicinity before.

He described Landon's entrance into the arena in a large automobile and a moment later his appearance on the rostrum. The overwhelming reception he received lasted at least five minutes and did not have to be announced—it was evident, in fact it was tremendous.

California acclaimed Governor Landon. Given a tumultuous reception by hundreds of thousands of persons when he led a motor caravan to Los Angeles from Pasadena, the Republican standard bearer was cheered by thousands on his every public appearance, climaxed by a tremendous ovation in Memorial Coliseum of the "movie star" city.

Thronged were gathered even at railroad stations along Landon's route where the Sunflower Special did not stop.

GREETED WITH BANDS

With bands, fireworks and oratory—a profusion of sunflower decorations and their own voices—the Californians expressed their joy over the surprise dash to them of the G. O. P. nominee.

Some of the highlights in the Republican candidate for president's discourse follow:

"Six weeks ago I went to the east coast—to Maine, on the eve of the state election. My purpose was to tell the people there how serious are the issues that face us.

"Tonight, on the eve of the national election, I come to the Pacific coast for the same purpose. I come to talk about a serious issue—abuse of the power of government and its threat to our liberty and our independence.

"The Pacific coast was settled by men and women who possessed the pioneer qualities of self-reliance, courage, love, and independence. They were the children of the people who first settled a 'typical prairie state'. Those who followed possessed the same qualities. In three-quarters of a century you have created on the shores of the Pacific a new economic empire. This has been done and could only have been done under a government which guaranteed economic freedom, political freedom, and personal liberty.

"Protected for 159 years. For a century and a half this freedom and this liberty has been protected under the charter of our government, the constitution.

"Today the usefulness of our constitution is being questioned. We have been told that it is out of date, that the very freedom it guarantees us is the cause of our present trouble. In my opinion, this reasoning is tragically wrong.

"The planned society, which is the alternative to representative government, is spreading rapidly throughout the world. We know only too well how it has worked out in actual practice. It has destroyed freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion. In some countries it has robbed the people of those great guarantees of personal liberty and human rights that we enjoy under the American system.

"I do not believe that a temporary depression is adequate reason for changing our whole form of government.

"Framers Knew of Tyranny. 'The men who drew our constitution knew and feared the tyranny of a centralized government over which they had no control. They were determined that in the creation of this new government that tyranny never could exist. So effective was their work that for a century and a half the American people have not known the meaning of tyranny. We have forgotten that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Too many are inclined to laugh at this truth as a horse and buggy bromide.

"We have forgotten that once the censor forbids us to speak as we please, once the government forbids us to worship as we wish, once the jailer enters our homes without warrant—it will be too late to protest. We no longer will be free.

Men Wanted for nearby Rawleigh Routes of 800 families. Write Rawleigh's, Dept. MCJ-195-SB, Freeport, Ill.

"Our only safety is to return to our Constitution. For our Constitution was the product of long experience in the practice of government. It reflects centuries of striving and of suffering by a people determined to be free.

"When Washington first took his oath of office the colony of Virginia already had 182 years of history, and the colony of Massachusetts 169. Indeed, the greater number of the colonies were older than our government now is, under our Constitution. The framers of our Constitution were practical men. They were stern realists who knew the pleasing guises in which tyranny creeps upon the people. And they knew the bonds of despotism. Schooled in each, they saw through and behind the one. They forsook and forsook the other.

"Yet even these men with all their love for freedom, with all their experience in practical legislation, were unable to frame a document satisfactory to the people.

"In spite of all the safeguards against tyranny which they inserted in the body of the Constitution, the people of the thirteen original states were not satisfied. More safeguards were demanded.

"These additional safeguards are contained in the first ten amendments which are commonly called the bill of rights. They guarantee to the individual freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion, freedom from unlawful search and seizure. They guarantee the right to a trial by jury. And last, but by no means least, they reserve to the people and to the states all powers not specifically granted to the federal government.

"The authors of our Constitution spoke of and for the people. They were not a group of unschooled experimenters. They were not anxious to break away from tradition.

"Their anxiety was for the people and only for the people!"

About That Blue Eagle

"All business men, under the Blue Eagle, were faced with arbitrary enforcements of arbitrary rules—rules not made by Congress but by some appointed subordinate sitting at a desk in Washington and fumbling with the business of the country.

"But the irony of this abuse of the power of government was that the small businessman, in whose name the government had supposedly acted, was the very man who suffered most. He could not afford to keep a lawyer in Washington to inform him of the latest rules and regulations. He could not compete under the monopolistic conditions laid down by the codes.

"In short, the whole plan acted as a millstone around the neck of the little fellow. And what did it do for the big fellow? It had the effect of strengthening his position—it fostered monopoly.

"In this it was a forerunner of this administration's most recent tax bill—the bill which makes it virtually impossible for the little fellow to accumulate the reserves necessary to his protection and growth.

"As I said at Portland, Me., on September 12:

"Government must protect the average man against aggressive exploitation by the strong... Unless government is constantly on guard against competition against abuses, a free enterprise system tends to become an entanglement of vested interests and rigid prices.

"But the solution is not to abandon a free enterprise system for a system of government monopolies. 'The solution is to free the forces of competition—to stamp out unfair trade practices and monopoly. This will allow the American people to resume their steady march to progress.

"If we would maintain our nation, if we would keep it free, if we would set an example before the world of tolerance and peace, we must brook no tampering with our freedom.

"Let us never forget what freedom means. Let us never forget that without freedom there can be no security. Let us never forget the high purpose in which this nation was founded and for which we still must live.

"Its foundation is just government—a government that does not abuse its powers at the expense of the liberty and independence of the citizen. This larger Americanism was described by a great and fearless President, Theodore Roosevelt. Let me close by reading what he had to say:

"The larger American demands that we refuse to be sundered from one another along lines of class creed or section or national origin; that we judge each American on his merits as a man; that we work for the well-being of our bodily selves, but also for the well-being of our spiritual selves; that we con-vacant lots and vacant property and would promote speculation on these types of properties. It would eliminate approximately $127,000,000 in property taxes levied by counties and townships and school districts and cities and villages. It is doubtful whether any income tax would raise more than one fifth of the amount which would be eliminated by this proposed amendment. Some of the educators who had studied the question said that most of the Primary School Interest Fund would be wiped out as such. It would virtually destroy home rule for cities and would necessitate a biennial rush to Lansing by representatives of the political subdivisions to get their share of the income tax revenue.

Some $147,000,000 in property taxes has been collected annually in recent years by the various political units, it was brought out and all public service companies generally would pay much lower taxes, it was said. It would eliminate approximately $32,500,000 of property taxes for operating school purposes.

A motion was made and unanimously adopted that the third and fourth amendments should be defeated. It was moved and supported that a committee of three be appointed to circulate all the school districts in the county. Mr. J. Elliott, Adrian Van Koeveering and Henry Geerlings, Mayor of Holland were appointed.

It was suggested by superintendent E. E. Fell of the Holland public schools that they should divide the county into sections with Grand Haven assuming the major responsibility in the northern part and Holland and Zeeland joining in initiating the fight in the southern part. This same procedure was followed by the county school officials two years ago when they fought an amendment proposal.

Although each of the four amendments were discussed by the group, there was no vote on the one extending the right of search and seizure nor on the one providing for a reorganization of the county government.

Chairman Elliot, of Grand Haven, opposed the amendments stating these were vicious measures and harmful to our school system while E. H. Babcock, superintendent of schools, Grand Haven, said that adoption of amendments three and four would in effect obviate the necessity of school buildings since the principal sources of school revenue would be wiped out.

Speaking on the fourth amendment which proposes to exempt real estate and personal property from almost all taxes and make possible the enactment of a state income tax, Supt. Babcock said that it is estimated that an income tax would raise only one-fifth of that which is lost and many new forms of taxes would be necessary.

He said that the property tax was the one tax which has come down through the centuries, passed on from one generation to the next as a "good" tax which is certain, can be easily and uniformly spread, and not evasive. However, he pointed out that the trend is for the property tax to be less and in this connection legislation was passed setting the 15-mill limitation.

"There are those who now would go the whole length and do away with it almost entirely," he said.

"The property tax serves as a governor for taxing bodies, he held, and without it 'there would be no incentive for thrift.

Supt. Babcock stated that he was not arguing for more property tax, but believed it would be a mistake to 'throw everything overboard' in exempting practically all real estate and personal property from taxes.

Supt. Fell spoke briefly, stating that 'there are forces really at work trying to pass these amendments,' and urged the group to center its fire on the third and fourth as most vital to the interests of the schools of the county.

Others who spoke against amendments three and four were G. H.

Olsen, principal of the Grand Haven school, principal John Riemersma of Holland, J. E. Holmes of Spring Lake schools, Fred Beuwkes, Mayor Geerlings of Holland and others.

Besides Supt. Fell and Mayor Geerlings from Holland, there were Principal J. J. Riemersma, Irvin Hanson, Fred Beuwkes, George Mooi, Prof. A. E. Lampen and County School Commissioner G. G. Groenewoud.

The group adjourned with plans to meet in the near future at Zeeland.

FINE SERVICE STATION

REALLY BEAUTIFIES CORNER

The John Knapp Super Service Station on the corner of River Avenue and 11th Street is now completed and the grand opening is to be held all day and evening this week Saturday. The service station is a real fine piece of architecture and surely improves that corner, which for years was filled with old, dilapidated, wooden buildings. The service stations of today have grown in beauty and some are really works of art in architecture. Service stations cease to be just a place to get gasoline.

The Knapp Station just opened is one of this type, fine to look at during the day time and beautifully illuminated during the night time, flooding the surroundings, including a part of Centennial Park, with a halo of light. Anyway, John Knapp has created, through the different contractors of the city, a real worthwhile structure which has individuality. There is plenty of room to do things and the unique building is completely shaded by a large elm, which covers it like a huge umbrella, planted when the town was founded and is one of the most attractive trees in the city. Anyway, the opening will take place Saturday and there is going to be flowers for the ladies, smokes for the men and candy for the children, a regular picnic for everyone.

The Knapp Super Service Station will handle Mobilgas and Mobil oil products from the Geerlings Bros. Oil Co., distributors in Ottawa County. The two brothers are Alvin R. Geerlings and Henry A. Geerlings. The latter is not the mayor of Holland but a cousin to the mayor. Anyway, the long-looked-for service station is now complete in every detail.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

October 25, 1936.
Christianity as Love—Acts 18:
1-4; 1 Corinthians 13:1-13.

Henry Geerlings
Paul established a church in Corinth on his second missionary journey. It was the fifth city in which he had labored after reaching Europe. He spent eighteen months in this city, an unusually long period of time for the apostle at one place. He was so discouraged once that he would have ended his labors but for the fact that the Lord appeared to him, telling him that there was much labor for him still to do in this city.

Several years later, while he was laboring in the great city of Ephesus, Paul learned that there were serious divisions in the Corinth church. This concerned him very much. About the same time he received a letter from the same church in which he was asked eight or ten important questions that had arisen after his departure. There are those who think Paul made a hurried trip from Ephesus to Corinth to straighten matters out. We cannot be sure of this. But we know he wrote a letter, the first of two to that congregation. In that letter there appears the most wonderful chapter on the subject of love.

Before starting out for Corinth the apostle spent a little time in Athens. It may be doubted if he ever preached the gospel in any other city with the discouraging results that accompanied his labors in Athens, which has been regarded as the center of enlightenment in science, literature, and art in the ancient world.

His journey to Corinth must have been a lonely one. It would have encouraged him if he could have foreseen the success that would crown his efforts in Corinth. He had no sooner arrived than he met two persons, Aquilla and Priscilla, who were to become warm friends and collaborators until the end of his days.

A common craft drew them together. Since Paul was a tent-maker he probably sought out the street on which the people of that trade lived. It was a good providence that brought Paul and his family together. Having become located he sought out a synagogue and began preaching Jesus. With great zeal he proclaimed the advent of the promised Messiah. His audience was made up of Jews and non-Jews.

The Corinthian Christians had been contending over the relative importance of certain spiritual gifts. They were especially proud of being able to speak in strange tongues; but they seemed to forget that the greatest gift to all is the gift of love; and that is what Paul shows in an incontrovertible manner in the thirteenth chapter.

The Greeks could boast of great orators, and they placed high value on beautiful forms of speech. Now the Corinthian Christians excelled in the gift of tongues and seem to have been proud of it. Each was eager to outstrip the other in the display of this gift. The gift of tongues was an ecstatic utterance, not always intelligible, and needed interpretation, but it made its possessors more conspicuous than more servicable and less showy gifts.

Paul declared that no matter how wonderful our language is if love does not run through it it is nothing but senseless noise.

The newer versions of the Bible read "love" for "charity" which appears in older versions of the Scriptures. The translators believed that the original word is better translated in our word "love." Charity had come to mean chiefly overt acts of kindness and was limited in the thinking of many to mean only kindly deeds of sharing with others. While love is back of such acts, love is something deeper than the spirit which inspires only charitable acts. Love covers our judgement of people and suggests a spirit which should pervade all of life and find expression in many ways.

This chapter on love emphasizes, first of all, that the motives of life are superior to mere outward acts. Only those outward acts which are inspired by love can expect the approval of God.

Good motives must be expressed in good deeds, but only those deeds inspired by love can be called good. Character is basically an inward matter. What we are determines what we do and what credit attaches to anything we do.

Many good deeds are accidentally accomplished from bad motives, and many bad deeds result from good motives. Both of these are to be condemned. What a man is is more important than what he has.

Love does not make a display of itself. Love is not conceited. Love does not seek its own advantage.
Love is not always making a record of insults, slights and offense.

Love is not given to gossip nor to enjoying the misfortunes which come to others. Love does not rejoice in re-telling the faults and weaknesses of others. Love is interested in spreading good news and the victories of righteousness.

Love is anxious to protect the reputation of others and to see the bright side of things. Love is optimistic rather than pessimistic.

All things are temporary but love. It is eternal. It outlasts the foibles of time. The outlasting of love cannot be destroyed or supplanted. As we seek to live this life of love we must acknowledge that we see things darkly and cannot expect to have perfect knowledge in this life. Only eternity will reveal perfection.

In the climax of the chapter
Paul makes a comparison of faith, hope, and love. Faith is confidence in God, hope is expectation of the good. Love is the fundamental spirit and characteristic of the Christian life. God is primarily love and his love was manifested most clearly in the life, teachings and service of Jesus.

Love is the fulfilling of the law.
If we are dominated by the spirit of Christian love, we will fulfill in spirit every rule, law, and regulation. He who has love requires no law; he who has no love would neglect laws.

A farewell service honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Dirk Dykstra, missionaries to Arabia, who left Holland the early part of the week on their long journey to the mission field was held, Sunday evening, in First Reformed church. Rev. Dykstra delivered the farewell sermon and Mrs. Dykstra spoke briefly. The Rev. B. D. Hakken, also a missionary to Arabia on furlough here, conducted devotions and the Rev. James Wayer, pastor of First church, introduced the speakers. The Dykstras are making their fifth return to Arabia.

The Woman's Relief Corps will hold a rummage sale in the G.A.R. room in the city hall tomorrow, Friday, October 23, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M.

At a meeting of the Century club held, Monday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Telling on the Park road, Dr. Bruce M. Raymond, professor of history at Hoge college, recently returned from a year of intensive study and research at the University of Nebraska, addressed the club on the subject, "Some Aspects of British Fascism." Dr. Raymond based his talk on direct information obtained from Sir Oswald Mosley, head of the Fascist party in England. He emphasized that the movement, in England under Mosley's leadership, is a one man movement in regard to financing, organizing and promulgation of ideas. It has not been a success as yet and there is little mass enthusiasm. Prophecy for its future, he said that with better times in England, the movement may fade, though with labor and industrial conditions growing worse, its strength might increase. A musical program arranged by Mrs. J. J. Riemersma, included cornet duets by Donald Lieveson and Julian Arendshorst of Holland high school band, accompanied by Miss Miriam Davis. They played "Second Reverie," by C. Fabre, and "Holy City," Stephen Adams.

The Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp presided. At a short business meeting, four new members, Mrs. W. G. Winter, Dr. William Winter, Dr. and Mrs. Otto Vander Velde, were invited to join the club. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Olive received the members and guests, acting as host and hostess in the enforced absence from the city of Mr. and Mrs. Telling. A social hour was enjoyed, and refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. C. Vander Meulen, Miss Kitty Doesburg and Miss Laura Boyd.

GIRL WIN COAL PUZZLE

The Van Alsburg Coal Company, who in last week's issue of the News conducted a rebus contest, or in other words, a puzzle-picture contest in which the winner became the recipient of a ton of Manhattan Coal, announces through J. D. Van Alsburg that two young ladies won the prizes for the solution of the rebus and the ten-word sentence. The answer the winners and the sentence follows:

"Be on the safe side. Get enough hot MANHATTEN coal on hand now to see you through till spring so you'll be independent in case of a severe winter and more calls for it than can be met." Miss Eunice Potter, 137 W. 15th St. for the statement, "With MANHATTEN in the bin, No winter winds get in," receives a ton of Manhattan free. Miss Lois Voorhorst, R. R. No. 5, Holland, for the statement, "Less waste, more heat—MANHATTEN coal can't be beat," also receives a ton of MANHATTEN free.

Dr. J. Stuart Hydanus of the St. Louis, Mo. Gospel Center, will speak at the Immanuel Church in the armory next Sunday. In the morning he will speak on the subject, "That I May Know Him", and evening, "God's Answer to the World's Perplexing Problem." Kenneth Lovelady will be in charge of the music.

The Republican women of Ottawa County will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. P. Henry De Pree at Zeeland on Friday afternoon, October 30. The meeting will be opened at 2:30 p. m. to discuss Republican issues of the present campaign. Arrangements have been made to have Mrs. Viola Nohr Waters, prominent woman of Wisconsin, speak and also Judge Cora Vande Water of this city.

Miss Vande Water during the last four years has become quite an orator, speaking on widows' pensions and the guardianship of children, who through unfortunate circumstances do not have the advantages that most children have. The Judge believes in giving these children, generally considered bad by many, another chance. This policy she has followed out in Probate Court. Judge Vande Water is now serving her first term and was re-nominated on the Republican ticket at the primaries, the Judge and Prosecuting Attorney John Dethmers receiving the highest number of votes at the Primary election.

GOOD LIGHT IS CHEAP

For 15c you can buy a 60-watt bulb that will give you one thousand hours of good light. That's over 60 hours use for one cent.

During its life this 60-watt lamp will consume less than $2.00 worth of electricity—or better than five hours of good light for a cent.

To obtain the same amount of light from the use of kerosene would cost you about $13, and if you relied upon candles, actually more than $700 would be spent for the same amount of light that this 15c bulb will give you.

Good Light is Cheap!
Use it Plentifully!

Miss Thelma
Solosth and Robert
Van Putten Marry

Miss Thelma Solosth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lars A. Solosth, formerly of Holland, now of Francis Ave., S.E., Grand Rapids, became the bride of Robert Van Putten, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Putten of Newark Ave., S.E., Grand Rapids, in a ceremony that took place in East Congregational church at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Dr. Charles Warren Helsley read the service to 400 guests in a church decorated in oak leaves and chrysanthemums in fall colors with candelabra following the diagonal line of the flower baskets at the altar. Preceding the ceremony Miss Calla Jean Wilson of Jackson sang "Serenade" by Schubert, "Because," "Händelot," and "Until," accompanied by Mrs. Ivan Whan. Mrs. Whan at the organ also played "Romance," Rubenstein; "Traumerei" and "Romanza" Schumann; "Adoration," Borowski; "Ich Liebe Dich," Grieg; and "Wedding Music" from a suite by Jensen.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory chiffon velvet cut on princess lines with full gathered sleeves pointed at the wrists, and covered buttons from the little velvet tie at the neck to the floor. She had a four-foot train and her only ornament was a diamond lavalier, a wedding present from her husband. She wore an illusion veil with a braided tiera of satin caught at each side with a cluster of orange blossoms. A small fingertip lace veil fell over the longer veil which was draped behind. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias, white roses and pinks.

Miss Karen Solosth attended her sister as maid of honor and wore a dress of sea green moire cut in the same fashion as that of the bride, only with short puffed sleeves. She wore a monk's hat of gold satin and illusion and carried pink pinks.

The Misses Lucille Houseman, Margaret Snyder, Doris Campbell and Helen Actor of Detroit wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor save in color, the Misses Houseman and Snyder each choosing rosy peach and the Misses Campbell and Actor deep rust. They wore head bands of braided gold satin and carried rust bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Little Velma Kling, as flower girl, wore a floor length dress of moire taffeta in pale green with a matching hairbow and slippers. Marilyn and Fred Kling, twins, acted as ring bearers. Fred wore long black satin trousers with a white satin blouse and carried the ring on a small silk pillow with lace trimmings. Marilyn wore a

VOTED FOR LINCOLN —
TO VOTE FOR LONDON

William Gleason, sole surviving veteran of the Civil War in Holland, Mich., is going to vote for Alfred M. Landon just as he voted for Abraham Lincoln.

Gleason first marked his ballot in 1864 when he was serving in Company F of the Tenth Michigan cavalry.

"I was only 14 years old when I enlisted," the aged veteran said, "and I was only 16 when I voted. I was supposed to be 21, of course, but I figured if I was old enough to fight for my country I was old enough to vote for the man that was going to run it—so I went in and gave Old Abe a vote. This year that vote is going for Alf Landon."

Veteran Gleason fought through most of the major battles of the Civil War.

floor length dress of white moire taffeta with a matching hair ribbon and slippers. She had a tiny nosegay of white pinks and a pillow similar to that of her brother.

Russell Van Putten attended his brother as best man, and Willard Bartlett, Walter Kook of Niagara Falls, N. Y., Howard Tangenburg and Nelson Stal ushered. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Van Oostendorp completed the wedding party as master and mistress of ceremony. Mrs. Van Oostendorp wearing a dress of coronation blue lace and carrying a corsage of pink pinks and Rapture roses.

Mrs. Solosth chose a dress of deep blue velvet with a corsage of Joanna Hill roses while the mother of the groom wore black velvet with a corsage of Hollywood roses. Directly following the ceremony a reception took place in the church parlors with Mrs. Alfred Collier presiding at the coffee urn and Mrs. Raymond Scully assisting about the rooms.

When Mr. and Mrs. Van Putten departed for a motor trip through the east, she chose a wool suit in hunter's green trimmed in brown fur with green and brown suede accessories. The bride couple will be at home after Nov. 1 in Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The out of town guests numbered at least one hundred. Mrs. Solosth, the mother of the bride, will be remembered as Miss Kate Kuite before her marriage, and was on the Holland City News staff. Mr. Solosth is a brother of Mrs. John Karreman whose husband was at one time Holland City treasurer.

Mrs. Walter Solosth Sutton of Holland is a sister of Miss Martha Solosth, also at one time on the Holland City News staff, now living in Grand Rapids, is also a sister.

Those from Holland attending this outstanding social event were: Messrs. and Mesdames Russell Riselada, Carl Swift, Peter Van Ark, Gerrit Exo and Miss Jacqueline Karreman, Hope College, and Cornelius Kuite and Frank Kuite, all of Holland. Also Mr. and Mrs. John Karreman, formerly of Holland, now of Charlotte; Kenneth Gross, formerly of Holland, now of Saginaw.

TUG OF WAR ALSO BRINGS SNAKE DANCE; JOINED BY CO-EDS

With the sophomores pulling the freshmen of Hope College through the Black river Friday afternoon, after a pull of nearly three-quarters of an hour, the sophomores evened the score with the freshmen, who had won the field games Thursday.

Through the loss of the tug-of-war, the freshmen will be forced to wear the "green"—"pots," ties, ribbons and tams—until the Thanksgiving recess, unless the Student Council decrees otherwise. After the pull students marched over the principal streets carrying the heavy cable. It was a real snake dance, boys and girls participating.

Body Of Suicide Is Found In Home
Five Days Later

Private funeral services were held for Otto Orvis White of Allegan county, who committed suicide by strangling.

After being missing for several days, Mr. White's body was at last discovered behind a bed in a spare room by Mrs. Gifford, a relative of Mr. White's. He had tied a piece of window sash cord around his neck and fastened it to the bed post about three feet from the floor and the body was suspended only a few inches from the floor. The mattress and pillows on the bed concealed the body from the family who had searched the room several times.

He was last seen alive by his wife who awoke and talked to him in bed in the early morning. He complained then that he had not slept and seemed restless. Mrs. White then dozed off and on awakening found him missing. His disturbed mental condition and the fact that his clothes were untouched caused immediate alarm when his absence was discovered. His body, when found, was clothed only in his night clothes and a pair of trousers. Worry over financial troubles and poor health are believed to have caused his act.

The Fireside Forum met Sunday evening in the Girl Scout house with Miss Belle Crichton of Holland as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ivan Bosman. After supper and a social hour, Rev. Wilcox conducted a half-hour Bible study which was followed by discussions of the two major political candidates. That of Roosevelt was led by Mr. Walter M. Kyes and that of Landon by Miss Clara Gray. The next meeting of the Forum will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steketee in Holland.

Dr. and Mrs. John Pieper returned, Tuesday, from Dayton, O., where Dr. Pieper attended a national eye clinic.

The Rooster Would
A-Riding Go!

A White Leghorn rooster, belonging to Leon Kaylor, who lives some twelve miles south of Holland, had a diversion from his farm life last Saturday night. Perched underneath the body of Mr. Kaylor's truck, he (the rooster), accompanied him to Allegan, unknown to his driver and owner.

This adventurous fowl had the habit of using the truck for a roost whenever possible and upon this day, didn't bother to interrupt his nap when Mr. Kaylor and his family went into town to shop and visit friends.

After five rainy hours, someone drew attention to the cold and forlorn chicken. Mr. Kaylor, after viewing his stowaway, laughed and said: "I'll have to send that one to 'Believe It, Or Not.'"

FAVOR THRU LINK
FOR HOLLAND TRAFFIC

Members of the Holland police and fire board have approved the designation of Central Ave. as a through street at the suggestion of Mayor Henry Geerlings, although two members of the board were absent and an official ballot could not be taken.

In making Central Ave. a thru street, motorists would have a direct route from M21 on Eighth St. to M40 leaving the city. The matter will be taken up at the next board meeting.

A communication from E. E. Fell, superintendent of schools, stated that public school teachers in Holland would aid in teaching and enforcing safety. Assistance of the schools in eliminating accidents with children riding bicycles was requested of the board of education by the police board.

WINTER RECREATIONAL PROGRAM SCHEDULED

The winter recreational program again will be held at the Zeeland high school under direction of Lee Kleis, athletic director for Zeeland schools.

Classes will be organized in basketball and volleyball. A tournament will be held at the close of the season.

Women's activities will be under direction of Miss Nina Beckel, faculty member of the local high school. First play will begin on Friday of this week.

The Holland Pointer and Setter club will hold its second annual field trials Nov. 7 and 8 at the Robinson township terrain on M-50. Puppy and derby stakes will be run Nov. 7, with the all-age stake Nov. 8. Dogs under one year of age are classed in the puppy stake and those under two are entered in the derby stake. All of the stakes are open, with trophies being offered for winners of each. The Holland Fish and Game club is donor of the all-age stake trophy which is kept by the winner for one year. Winners of the Dr. H. Maseink puppy stake trophy and the Seery Drug store derby stake trophy will have permanent possession. Plenty of birds, both native and released, will be on hand for the dogs to work on, the club reports, and the grounds are sufficient for each dog to demonstrate his qualities fully as a bird dog. The terrain where the trials are to be held is three miles east of US-31 and five miles west of Alendale. At a meeting of the club board, Monday night, the club made plans for a "Buy a Pheasant" campaign for the week of Oct. 26. Sportsmen of this vicinity will be urged to buy a bird which will be released in Ottawa county to replace those taken by hunters during the current season. A goal of 200 has been set.

Well, Now the Rats Are Going to Have a Banquet — County Agent Arnold
Toastmaster

Farmers have been going through a period in which profits are small. He has fought to have taxes lowered on his real estate. In many cases he could not meet these high taxes, yet year after year he has been losing an average of $40.00 through the destruction by rats. The rat never pays a dividend, never performs a useful service but is always on the job unless definite cooperative steps are taken to get rid of them. Rats migrate from place to place. For this reason an individual alone can do little. It is necessary to kill the creatures over a large area.

In the present campaign the bait will be set out the evening of Nov. 13th. The county distributors have been selected to handle the poison. Farmers who wish to obtain bait must have their orders in by Oct. 30th, he must state the amount needed and name of distributor from whom he will obtain the bait. He can obtain this bait from this distributor on Nov. 11-12-13. Bait will be delivered Nov. 9-10 to all distributors listed below and will be given only to those who have ordered and upon cash payment at time of delivery. All bait will be put out the evening of Nov. 13th.

Here are the list of 18th distributors of rat tid-bits: Agricultural agent's office, Grand Haven; Eastern & Peterson, Niles; Coopersville Co-op.; Conklin Creamery; B. C. Phillips, Harrisburg; Wm. Gross' Store, Wright township; B. E. Jensen Cooperative, Marne; L. & L. Jensen Cooperative, Hudsonville; Jamestown, Vriesland; J. Smallegan & Son, Forest Grove; Zeeland Farmers Co-op.; Holland Co-op.; Bert Beckman, West Olive; Thos. Rosendahl, Agnew; John Koop Store, Bauer; Volink Bros., Borculo; Lowing's Garage on M-50; Chevrolet Garage, Allegan; R. M. Ossewaarde, Eastmanville; Hyma Hardware, Lamont.

Bait for the banquet is prepared under supervision of the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is sold on a non-profit basis, 50 cents for the three cans and full directions for use accompany each package.

County agricultural agents of five counties of Oceana, Newaygo, Kent, Muskegon and Ottawa Counties are putting on a three-course banquet for rats and in Ottawa County, County Farm Agent Arnold will be toastmaster. It is not often rats are honored in such manner. The courses served consist of meat, fish and grain. No rat will be slighted as farmers will cooperate by serving the banquet on their farms in these counties. The rats will not even have to leave their pleasant homes to attend, for the food will be brought to them. Each course will be flavored with a generous dose of red squill. Without doubt the rats will enjoy the banquet but it is expected there will be some very bad after effects. Red squill happens to kill rats but it is not fatal to human beings, dogs, cats or poultry.

Bait for the banquet is prepared under supervision of the Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is sold on a non-profit basis, 50 cents for the three cans and full directions for use accompany each package.

A BIRD IN THE HAND? BUT NOT IN THIS CASE

Nick Andros, Grand Haven merchant, came back from the woods on the opening day of the upland game season with a "Believe It Or Not" for Mr. Ripley.

Andros' dog was running a rabbit east of Coopersville when Nick noticed two cock pheasants in the brush. The birds ran into a ditch and Andros fired at them, getting both birds with one shot.

So Nick came back to the county seat boasting of a few few hunters limit for one day with one shot. It's no fish story for Nick shows the birds.

MEN INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT IN COUNTY

The collision of a milk truck, driven by Elmer Hop, Holland, and an automobile driven by Ernest H. Lawrence, Grand Rapids, caused an accident two miles east and one mile north of Jamestown. Two men, Floyd Dougherty and John Dekkenga, Grand Rapids, riding with Lawrence, were severely injured and were taken to a hospital in Grand Rapids.

The three men in the car were out hunting, the state police reported, following investigation of the accident. No one was held as responsible for the accident.

REPUBLICANS HAVE CAPACITY CROWD
AT ZEELAND

Bartel Jonkman, Kent county prosecuting attorney, addressed the capacity crowd gathered, Monday night, at Zeeland city hall for a Republican rally. Orrville E. Atwood, secretary of state, who was scheduled to address the meeting was unable to appear. Other speakers were Prosecutor John Dethmers, Edward Brouwer and Nelson Miles, all of Holland.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITY

A total of 157 boy scouts were present, Monday night, at court of honor, carried out in Indian manner, held out-of-doors in the woods south of Macatawa Park. Forty-seven awards were presented to Boy Scouts of the west central district, Ottawa County. Following the ceremonies the Scouts and visitors consumed 32 dozen doughnuts and 30 gallons of cider.

SAUGATUCK HAS BIG CHURCH NIGHT TONIGHT

A double celebration is being held tonight at the Congregational church at Saugatuck. A reception is in progress for the new pastor, Rev. H. E. Maycroft, and family, who recently came there from Lakeview. At the same time the congregation is commemorating the seventy-sixth anniversary of the building of the church. The first meetings held at Saugatuck to muster regiments for the Civil war were held in the building. In the early days it also was used as a school.

Many former pastors and members residing in the state are present participating in the program or have joined the large throng that is filling the old edifice.

Following the reception and program a buffet luncheon is to be served in the church parlors.

Marriage licenses returned during the last week to County Clerk Warner include those issued to Lloyd L. Wright of Fennville and Lillian Marie Orr of Brav; Foster Leon Bouwman and Geneva Helena Verburg, both of Holland; George Frederick Chatterton, Bravo, and Bernice Antoinette Warning, Pullman; Harold Richard DePree, Zeeland, and Dora Rankens, Hamilton.

A matter that was brought up, also of vital interest to this locality and to all resort towns where Coast Guard stations are located, was the speedboat. It is understood that there are three picket boats here now and one is supposed to come to this port. It is understood that these picket boats were used during prohibition days as "rum runners," anyway, many of the harbor men present did not think these picket boats were suitable.

but that a speedboat of Chris-Craft type was the proper boat here, and that they should be available at every lake port where thousands of people gather in the summer time, like at Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon, Saugatuck, and so on. This type of motor boat can go at tremendous speed and speed is what saves lives. Some effort is going to be made to see if the Chris-Craft type of boat cannot be substituted.

Mayor F. W. Sewers of Saugatuck gave a delightful picture of Saugatuck's resort season. He stated that Saugatuck and vicinity was very much pleased with the way the government was treating their little port. He said that Saugatuck harbor, for a long time was a broken crutch, but recently and through the efforts of Congressman Clare Hoffman, a real worthwhile work had been started and much of it was completed. He felt that the county, in fact, the surroundings were much benefited by these improvements and these benefits were far reaching.

Another matter that was brought to the attention of many present was the fact that lake port cities were caring largely to yachts, sailing craft and cruisers. Lake coast cities are just beginning to realize what these pleasure craft mean to the city and according to the conversation of the delegates present, building suitable landing places to accommodate large and small boats was the essential thing. It is generally conceded that these cruisers sometimes stay for weeks and supplying a cruiser with food and other necessities runs into a "pretty penny," and what is more, these supplies are purchased from the local merchants and the money from the outside comes in to stay largely. Mayor Sewers of Saugatuck made known the fact that the basin in Saugatuck harbor accommodated all summer upward of 50 boats large and small.

MICHIGAN HARBOR ASSOCIATION GET BACK OF LOCAL PROJECT

Suggest Faster Boats Than Picket Boats for Resort Stations; Benefit of Small Craft to Port Also Talked

A very important meeting was held at Hotel Ferry, Grand Haven, where the West Michigan Harbor Association gathered to discuss the necessities for the different ports on the east shore of Lake Michigan. The harbors included in this association are from the Indiana line to as far north as Frankfort, South Haven, Saugatuck, Holland, Grand Haven and Muskegon harbors in this vicinity are naturally in that group. Practically every harbor along this coast of "Big Lake" had representation and each in turn was asked what their respective needs were.

The editor of this newspaper represented the city of Holland and his plea was that while Holland harbor had a special maintenance fund and improvements were being made annually out of this fund by the government, its paramount need now was a new Coast Guard station. It was advanced by your representative that Holland had done a great deal to lay the foundation, so to speak, for this new Coast Guard station, which had been promised. Mr. Connelly, from the Chamber of Commerce and in cooperation with the Harbor Board, had done the preliminary work and the site across the channel on the Ottawa Beach side had been secured, the state making a transfer of a small part of the State Park to accommodate the new station. The matter was now up to the government, but for some reason, possibly lack of funds, the project which seemed hopeful, lies dormant and needs awakening.

There was considerable discussion by the members at the meeting. It was the general opinion that Holland had a just claim, that a great deal of work had been accomplished and the members are going to aid this particular project through resolution, in fact, all projects from different harbor points are to be brought up through resolution and for that reason a resolutions committee was appointed. Mr. Mulder suggested to the gathering that Mr. Connelly of Holland should be a member of that committee, since he knew our problems and was thoroughly conversant with this Coast Guard station situation. He was therefore named as one of the members of the resolutions committee. A meeting is to be called in the near future and it was suggested that this be held in Holland at Warm Friend Tavern.

Congressman Carl Mapes was also present and he stated that he would do his best to help perfect the plans of this Coast Guard station at Holland and asked to be called in on any other harbor project, no matter what congressional district it might be.

Congressman Clare Hoffman of Allegan County was unavoidably absent, but in a letter, stated that they could bank on him to use his influence in backing that long meritorious harbor development in Western Michigan. Carl Mapes also stated that it was local units who have officials who know one another and who have many harbor problems in common, who can do effective work by cooperation and collaboration. He felt that this organization could do a great deal for one another, it was not an unduly body but an organization that could go right to the crux of its own necessities.

A matter that was brought up, also of vital interest to this locality and to all resort towns where Coast Guard stations are located, was the speedboat. It is understood that there are three picket boats here now and one is supposed to come to this port. It is understood that these picket boats were used during prohibition days as "rum runners," anyway, many of the harbor men present did not think these picket boats were suitable, but that a speedboat of Chris-Craft type was the proper boat here, and that they should be available at every lake port where thousands of people gather in the summer time, like at Holland, Grand Haven, Muskegon, Saugatuck, and so on. WANT COPIES OF OLD BUT DISCONTINUED PUBLICATIONS IN OTTAWA COUNTY

The month of October will always be memorable in the annals of the history of Holland, for 65 years ago on the 9th of October, 1871, the city of Holland was swept by the fire that laid waste about 350 dwellings and caused a property damage of nearly $900,000. Rev. A. C. Van Raalte, father of the colony, standing amid the ruins gave voice to these prophetic words: "With our Dutch tenacity, and American experience, Holland will be rebuilt." Inspired by such a leader, slowly the Holland of today rose from those blackened embers and heaps of ashes.

As is the case in most disasters many of the losses sustained could never be replaced. This fact has taken on added significance as workers on the Survey of Historical Records, under District Supervisor Willard C. Wichers, are attempting to complete newspaper files prior to that time.

Among the records destroyed were those contained in the files of De Hollander, one of Holland's oldest publications, printed in the Dutch language and Democratic in its affiliations. It began life under the guidance of Hawks and Basset, publishers. Early editors who helped determine its policy and guide it through its formative years were H. D. Post, G. Vanderwal, Doeburg and Sons, and H. Van Eyck. These men were all representative of the best in the journalistic field of that day, and did much to mold and keep public opinion in constructive channels, during a period inclined to be chaotic with the uncertainty bred of a new environment.

Following the fire William Benjamin became publisher and continued in that capacity until the paper merged with the De Grandt in January of 1896. Merging as it did with a republican paper De Hollander promptly lost its identity.

The first files of the paper have been located. These are in five bound volumes and cover the dates from December 28, 1850 through May 25, 1880, excepting for the period from December 18, 1860 to May 27, 1874. The last paper before the merger has also been located and is dated December 24, 1895.

There are without doubt other copies of this paper in existence, and if people having these papers will communicate with the office of the Survey of Historical Records in the City Hall at Holland or with Ben Mulder, editor of the Holland City News, government representatives will call and list the papers in private possession and if the owner so desires suitable arrangement will be made for their safe keeping.

Especially valuable in this connection, are records of publications in Ottawa County that are no longer being published, and information leading to the discovery of such papers will be greatly appreciated and promptly investigated.

Ruth Madder.

September of 1936 was the wettest September for Allegan county, according to United States weather bureau reports, since September of 1896. A total of 9.86 inches of rain fell throughout the month, which almost doubled the normal fall and almost five inches more than last year's record. Mr. A. D. PAIR WHO STOLE FROM FORMER HOLLAND MAN'S STORE SENTENCED Octavio Serna, 28 years old, and Marie Durand, 27 years old, both of Detroit, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny from a store and were sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs of $7 each, and to serve 136.50 each, the cost of suits stolen from the Golden Rule Clothes shop at Grand Haven recently. If they do not pay, Serna faces an 18 months to four year term at Ionia reformatory, and Miss Durand the same sentence in the Detroit House of Correction. Both appeared before Circuit Judge Fred T. Miles of Holland.

The store mentioned belongs to Mr. Veining, for years a resident of Holland. The woman entered the store with the pretense of having a suit altered and was taken to the tailor shop by Veining.

In the meantime the man remained in the front and when the woman returned, her companion was gone, so were seven suits of clothing found to be missing after the woman too had left. The couple were seen to hurriedly enter a waiting car with the motor running and rush north. A large truck barred the way for a short time and Grand Haven officers caught up with them and the missing clothes were found in the car.

Travelogue on Interesting European Trip

By Mrs. Mae Van Drezzer Bush

August 8th, Moscow.

Dear Ones:

One of the things that is scarce in U.S.S.R. is paper, so please excuse this crumpled stationery which I found tucked in one of the pockets of my bag. You see Russia is importing only the most important things. Paper was formerly made in Poland and when she lost Poland, she lost her paper factories. Now she is rebuilding them as rapidly as possible and only imports very special kinds of paper. This illustrates one of Russia's policies, her policy of making herself self-sufficient. What she can't make and grow she does without. She is making rubber from potatoes and a volcanic stone and expects in two years to have all the rubber she needs.

About an hour after we arrived in Moscow we heard a band and looking out of the window, discovered a parade. It proved to be the annual demonstration against Fascism which Russia hates with all her might. I heard Anna Louise Strong (writer of "I Change Worlds") say Fascism is "the use of violence to maintain a worn out economic system." About 120,000 people marched to the Kremlin and there listened to speeches. The parade this year was dedicated in a sense to Spain, to encourage the fighting Republicans there.

Yesterday we drove to a Pioneer Camp. It took us about an hour and a half to get there but every step of the way was interesting. The countryside is a mixture of old and new Russia—old wooden buildings and dwellings with elaborately carved window frames and balconies, many in a sad state of dilapidation; soldiers' barracks, factories with apartment houses located near by for the workers; a very large concentration camp surrounded by a high fence and guarded by soldiers. This camp was for political prisoners. They are working on the water system for Moscow, connecting the Volga and Moscow rivers. A tall tower in the center guards the camp and soldiers watch all activities from that vantage point. They further insure themselves against loss of prisoners by forbidding them passports. Everyone here has a passport. You can't get anywhere without one.

This Pioneer Camp is maintained by the newspaper Pravda for the children of the workers. All unions, organizations, etc., have camps. Seventy per cent of the children of Moscow leave the city during the summer at the expense of factories, shops, organizations. At this camp yesterday there were 180 boys and girls with a paid staff of 30 people. Their ages ranged from 10 to 16 years. They stay a month and study dramatics, music, dancing, games, etc. Special attention is paid to physical culture, mass games, etc. A doctor and nurse look after their health. The personnel of the staff was very attractive. I understand they aim to secure attractive leaders. All this with no expense to the parents.

There is one great difference between this camp and the German camps we visited. In Germany the emphasis is on the military, drill, salutes, regimentation. In the German camp the boys all carry knives stuck in their belts on which is inscribed these words, "Blood and Honor." In Russia there is military drill or regimentation.

Yesterday was Rest Day, a day free from work for most of the people. Cars and buses and subways ran, stores were open, but all unnecessary work stopped. For example, we couldn't buy stamps at the hotel stands. People went into the country in crowds. This rest day comes every six days—thus doing away with Sunday. Another method they have employed to do away with Sunday is abolishing the use of week days. They never say Friday or Monday, they say the 7th or the 10th. They say Religion is gone in Russia, but there is some doubt about it. The churches are in a sad state. We have driven into the country twice since our arrival in Moscow and the churches are literally falling into decay. Their belief in God as well as their buildings seems to be crumbling. Under the Czars the church was supported by the State. Now they are giving that devotion to Communism. Communism is their God, although they will not admit it.

We visited a Collective yesterday afternoon. We drove about 30 miles into the country and all the way one saw evidences of this new order. An immense tractor station, a huge chicken collective, factories and communal dwellings for the workers. The collective we visited was about 2,500 acres and had 250 families living there. They started with 9 families in 1928. All stock and equipment are owned by the community. Each family, however, has a little plot of ground for its own use, about 1/2 of an acre, a cow, poultry. They may use or sell the surplus as they like. They have built a bath house, school, nursery, barns, etc. They get tractors and heavy machinery from the nearby tractor center. They also have free medical attention from a nearby clinic.

The children have the best. They come first and they surely are a healthy, happy looking group wherever you go. Everywhere you go now, people are talking about the new Constitution. You can buy copies in English for 15 kopeks, about 3c. Every union, club, collective or organization in Russia has copies and they are urging people to discuss it. Letters are pouring in from all over Russia, suggesting, criticizing or commending this new document. When the government finds a center not responding, it sends agitators to that district to stir up the people and get them to discuss this new Constitution.

We have a little time before dinner so I shall try to finish my letter. You must excuse my fragmentary letters. I write in such a hurry usually. Speaking of dinner you will be interested in knowing that we breakfast at 9:30, have dinner at 2:00 or 3:00 and have supper at 9:00. One night we finished supper at 11:00. Most Russians have supper at 10:00 o'clock.

This afternoon we visited the anti-religious museum. Here they have on display all the tricks and deceptions practiced by the church. I am sure if you could see it, you would understand why the Russian revolutionists overthrew the church. For example, a casket supposed to contain the bones of a saint with healing powers, upon being opened contained bones of animals. An ikon of the Virgin wept when collectives were introduced. The revolutionists discovered a tank with a rubber tube behind the picture. Upon pressing a button, red fluid came out of the Virgin's eyes and ran down the ikon. Three hundred to two thousand people visit this museum every day and guides carefully explain every mistake and fault of religion. They say, "the church teaches the world is flat." On the other wall will be pictures showing how science proved the world is round, and the church today thinks the world is flat and laugh in their great wisdom in knowing the world is round. Every believer ought to visit that museum and search his soul.

Immediately after this visit we went to the Red Square. The crenellated walls of the Kremlin stood out in relief against a dull sky. In the center near the Walls stands Lenin's tomb. It is of black marble and red porphyry. It is impressive in its simplicity. The tomb is open only 2 hours a day from 5:00 to 7:00 in the late afternoon and never open on Rest Days. People stand two abreast in great lines waiting their turn to enter; at least 5,000 people were in line yesterday. Fortunately for us we did not have to wait in line. All a foreigner has to do is present his tourist book and he can enter at once. As we entered the marble tomb, there was no sound except shuffling feet. Lenin's body lies in the center of the tomb in a glass case, brilliantly lighted. The procession passes slowly and silently around his body. He lies there dressed in a khaki uniform. His head rests upon a red pillow and his right hand is closed as if in salute—you know the raised fist is the communist salute. Summer and winter alike Russians visit his tomb.

We visited the Church of Revelation late this afternoon. It is a large Greek Orthodox Church where services are still held. The church was filled with beautiful ikons in magnificent gold settings. There were two choirs and the antiphonal singing was indescribably beautiful. We always go to hear Russian music whenever possible. I could hardly realize as I stood listening to that heavenly music that I was in Russia at last and hearing Russians sing their matchless music. The entire service was chiefly musical and I shall never forget the lilting soprano voice nor the tenor and baritone solo voices accompanied by the a capella choir. But this is the interesting thing. The church was almost filled. People stand during Russian service and we were packed together. Nor is that all. The worshippers were not all old people as we had been told. Half or more were young people or in early middle life. The church can't be quite as dead as we have been told. It takes courage to be a Christian in Russia.

We visited the Marriage and Divorce Bureau today. It is all so simple. A man and woman wishing to marry, sit down at a table and answer a few questions asked by a woman clerk—their name, nationality, age, occupation and address. They are asked whether they understand the law regarding marriage, whether they have informed each other regarding their health and whether they are marrying of their own free will. Then they pay 3 roubles (60c) and that is that. There is no ceremony of any kind. Not all people take the trouble to register. If they live together and tell someone they are living together, that is considered a marriage.

It is getting quite late, so I'll say goodnight. We plan to visit the Kremlin tonight at midnight to hear the bells. I think of you often. At midnight it will be 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon in America. America—what a beautiful place! To appreciate America, one must see Germany, Italy or Russia. Goodnight everybody.

Lovingly, Mae

"Although you don't know it yet, young man, here is one gift that will stick with you as long as you live—if you let it."

"You'll get too big for tiny spoons and boots, your toys and clothes will get too small—but you won't outgrow this Savings Account I've opened for you. In fact, some day you'll grow right into it and take over yourself the job of saving."

VITAMIN D FOR HENS ADDS 58¢ PROFIT FOR YEAR

Farmers were advised today by Pennsylvania State College that giving a hen two-and-a-half cents worth of cod liver oil vitamin D per year will add 58 cents net profit per year to egg receipts, with 30-cents-a-dozen eggs.

The figures were based on feeding 6,000 for four years with the concentrate. It raised egg production 20 per cent and increased hatchability of eggs 10 per cent.

Persons who burn leaves are urged by City Engineer Jacob Zuidema to co-operate in protection of Holland's streets. ## MANY INJURED IN AUTO CRASH NEAR HOLLAND

Several persons remained in Holland hospital Monday for further treatment of injuries received in a head-on collision between two automobiles on U.S.-31 three miles north of Holland Sunday evening. They have now been discharged.

William Wieringa, 18, of 1038 Baxter St., S. E., Grand Rapids, driver of one of the cars, was not injured. He allegedly pulled out of the line of traffic and crashed into the car operated by Charles Brouwer, 45, of Holland.

Riding with Wieringa, all from Grand Rapids, were Miss Jane Gilmore, 16, of Diamond Ave., and Virginia St., who was very severely injured. The mother of the groom chose a dress of wine colored crepe with gold lace, while the mother of the bride wore black crepe. They both wore corsages of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. De Pree the latter a sister of the bride, were master and mistress of ceremonies for the informal reception which followed the service. Wedding refreshments were served in the dining room. Assisting were the Mesdames J. E. Telling, W. G. Winter, C. M. McLean and John Bosman. Miss Eleanor Stryker, sister of the groom, was in charge of the gift room, and Miss Myra Ten Cate and Bruce Van Leeuwen presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Sears, R. McLean arranged the decorations.

The bride and groom left on a motor trip to Chicago. They will make their home at 1420 Plainfield ave., Grand Rapids, where Dr. Stryker is practicing dentistry. Both Dr. and Mrs. Stryker attended Hope college and were members of Sorosis and Knickerbocker Societies respectively. Mrs. Stryker also attended Tiffin, O., Business university and for the past few years has held the position of private secretary to Hugh Lillie of the State Administration board in Lansing. ## Prospects for a Coast Guard Station Brighter

The federal engineering office at Milwaukee, addressed the meeting in the afternoon, explaining the procedure necessary to obtain a federal appropriation. Mr. Holcomb is occupying the place of Lieut. Col. H. M. Tripp, who is on sick leave and is confined to a hospital in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Holcomb gave an interesting discourse on how to go at the work of presenting a harbor project to the government. The proposal is submitted and if the undertaking has merit a survey is ordered. If the U. S. engineering department starts and finishes harbor projects only if these will give adequate returns.

A harbor's needs is not always judged by its tonnage for tonnage might naturally come to a lake port if the harbor were good, but the harbor when bad is shunned by mariners the same as an impassable highway is given a wide berth by the motorist. A bad harbor, like a bad road, is bad for a city. Lieut. Glenn Trester, executive officer of the U. S. Cutter Escanaba, talked on the cutter branch of the U. S. Coast Guard service, and said if the severity of the coming winter seasons matched the one last year it would be necessary to have another cutter of the Escanaba type stationed on Lake Michigan as it was impossible for one ship to answer the calls which were received last winter for assistance in ice blockades and to rescue those caught in the flocks.

Gerald Dobben, Muskegon, secretary to Congressman Albert Engary, said an employer regretted being unable to attend. He said he was glad to have been present as he learned many details connected with harbor improvement procedure which he believed will be useful to him in the future as many of the details of that type of business were left to the secretary to a congressman.

Lieut. Col. George L. Olsen, chairman of the Grand Haven harbor commission, was re-elected president of the association. Delegates from West Michigan ports from St. Joseph north to Harbor

RAILWAY EXPRESS SHOWS INCREASE IN BUSINESS HERE

Local agent, A. L. Jackson, of the Railway Express with headquarters at the Pere Marquette Depot, has received a letter of congratulation from the General Superintendent, E. J. Flanagan, congratulating him on the fact that there has been an increase in business in the local station of 13.1% for the month of September and he extends thanks of appreciation to him and the employees for the showing made. New York newspapers have much of this information giving a full column to the showing made by Holland and other agencies in Michigan. Holland's increase, however, is outstanding.

The Railway Express agency has inaugurated a nation-wide plan for sales promotion. In this plan the 50,000 employees of this company constitute a part of the sales force and schools of salesmanship have been inaugurated. Kenney N. Merritt has been appointed to direct this new department, with the title of General Sales Manager. Anyway, it appears that the Railway Express is promoting its own business, but what is more gratifying is the fact that there has been an increase in shipping from here and to here, which means that Holland is doing better business, and that's a healthy sign.

Mrs. J. D. French and children spent the week end in Mt. Clemons. They attended the air races at Selfridge Field on Saturday.

ANDERSON-STRYKER MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Olive on Maple Ave., was the scene of a simple wedding last Thursday afternoon, when Miss Marian Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson of Kansas, Ohio, became the bride of Dr. John A. Stryker, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Stryker of Grand Rapids. The Rev. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Church, performed the single ring ceremony at 4:00 o'clock before an improvised altar of palms, ferns, yellow roses and a lighted candelabra, in the presence of approximately 50 guests. The wedding music was played by Miss Cornelia Stryker, violinist, and Miss Margaret Stryker, pianist, sisters of the groom. The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. Olive, was lovely in a floor length gown of antique blue velvet cut on Victorian princess lines, with train, tiny velvet buttons, and puff sleeves, with collar and cuffs of starched lace. She wore a halo cap of the velvet and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley with soft pink bows. There were no attendants. The mother of the groom chose a dress of wine colored crepe with gold lace, while the mother of the bride wore black crepe. They both wore corsages of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. De Pree the latter a sister of the bride, were master and mistress of ceremonies for the informal reception which followed the service. Wedding refreshments were served in the dining room. Assisting were the Mesdames J. E. Telling, W. G. Winter, C. M. McLean and John Bosman. Miss Eleanor Stryker, sister of the groom, was in charge of the gift room, and Miss Myra Ten Cate and Bruce Van Leeuwen presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Sears, R. McLean arranged the decorations.

FITZGERALD UNHURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Gov. Fitzgerald narrowly escaped injury in an automobile accident near Fowlerville, Mich., while en route to the National Union for Social Justice rally there.

Mr. Bray started to make the turn and his automobile crashed into the rear wheel of the governor's car, which was pushed off the pavement and careened down the dirt shoulder of the highway for about 10 yards before Dagen straightened it out safely.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

By ANN PAGE

THE winter supply of potatoes can now be laid in if a cool, dry place to store them is available. Onions, too, are plentiful and cheap and keep well in a dry, well-ventilated atmosphere. The numerous members of the cabbage family are particularly attractive in both quality and price as are the various salad greens. Apples and grapefruit offer the best fruit values. All meals are comparatively reasonable including poultry. New crop turkeys of from 8 to 11 pounds are already being marketed. Eggs are considerably higher. Here are three menus planned for different budget levels.

Low Cost Dinner
Swiss Steak Potatoes
Creamed Onions
Bread and Butter
Chocolate Layer Cake
Tea or Coffee

Medium Cost Dinner
Broiled Beefsteak Mashed Potatoes
Green Beans
Bread and Butter
Fruit Gelatin Cup Cakes
Tea or Coffee

Very Special Dinner
Fruit Cup
Roast Stuffed Young Chickens
Sweets or Yams Cauliflower au Gratin
Celery Cranberry Sauce
Rolls and Butter
Prune Whip Orange Cake

Spings attended, the latter port became a new member of the association.

Lee A. Musser of South Haven was elected vice president, a new office this year, and William L. Stribley, secretary of the Grand Haven chamber of commerce, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. The directors elected include C. D. R. Mulder of Muskegon, Jacob R. Swartz of Leland, Ben A. Mulder of Holland, Mayor H. L. Hill of Manistee, William J. Ellers of Montague, Harold E. Gwillan of Pentwater, Alex J. Wallace of St. Joseph, E. J. Thompson of Ludington, E. R. Luedtke of Frankfort, Robert J. Roe of Harbor Springs, Frank A. Sewers of Saugatuck, Tracy Grosvenor of North Manitowish, and Mr. Musser.

The Resolutions Committee is composed of Wm. M. Connelly of Holland, fifth district; Harold Gwillan, Pentwater, ninth district; L. E. Musser, South Haven, fourth district; and Ford Barnett, Grand Haven, member at large.

Lieut. Col. George L. Olsen and William Stribley were appointed a committee to draft a resolution expressing to Col. Tripp appreciation for his long and faithful service and for his interest and assistance to West Michigan ports to secure improvements.

The meeting was concluded with an invitation to the group to go aboard the cutter Escanaba.

The banquet consisted of a fine fish dinner such as Grand Haven and the Hotel Ferry is noted for.
