H. J. Minnick of Muskegon entertained his Populist friends at the Lyceum Opera House Tuesday evening, by a discussion of the silver question.

The schr. R. Kanter, Capt. B. Van Ry, came in Sunday morning and has gone into winter quarters. The season has not been a profitable one, it was too Democratic.

G. G. Smeenge has opened an establishment in the basement of the residence of John Nies, east Eighth street, and will devote himself largely to the buying and selling of butter and eggs. See adv.

It is remarkable—says Mr. Diekema, who during the campaign now closed has visited various towns and localities in this state—to hear the many encouraging words spoken everywhere by the commercial travelers about Holland, its growth, its commerce, and its prospects.

Mr. E. B. Swift, of Rochester, N. Y., will exhibit the "Wonders of the Microscope and Telescope" at Winants Chapel, Friday, Nov. 9, at 8:00 p. m. Mr. Swift is a man of great experience and ability and has a worldwide reputation. He uses instruments which magnify on a scale never before attempted. It will be the most interesting illustrated lecture ever offered the citizens of Holland. Tickets 25c and 35c. Reserved seats at Breyman's, at 9 a. m., Nov. 8.

The cases of the two 13-year old lads, Chris Kammeraad and William Weenink, arrested last Friday for stealing each a watch from the jewelry store of H. Wykhuyzen, were disposed of Tuesday. County agent Whipple came down and after investigation recommended that the former be sent to the Industrial School for Boys at Lansing, and the sentence of the latter suspended and the boy allowed to go home. All of which was complied with.

President Kollen is in receipt of the gratifying information that the first installment of the library of Hon. N. F. Graves, of Syracuse, N. Y., consisting of over 600 volumes, has been forwarded, and is on the way to this place. It will be remembered that in addition to the beautiful building named after this generous donor, Mr. Graves also presented Hope College with his extensive library. With the letter conveying the above was also a check for $300, to be used in the purchase of such books of recent publication, as in the opinion of President Kollen would be most useful and desirable.

William Alden Smith, the Republican nominee for congress, has made a very successful tour in his district. In this county he made ten speeches and visited the people in their several localities forming a personal acquaintance with the constituency which he expects to represent in the halls of national legislation. Saturday afternoon he spent in this city, and was shown the extent of the manufacturing interests established here, and the relative importance of Holland as the second city in the congressional district. Wherever he went he was accorded a hearty reception, and left the impression that our interests will receive the required time and attention at his hands.

Jacob Van Putten, Sr., is no better. In the Fourth congressional district all the candidates are doctors.

Attorney Root, the opposition candidate for prosecuting attorney, was in the city Thursday.

The Republicans will close their campaign in this city this (Friday) evening, with an address by Senator Patton. As a speaker Mr. Patton ranks among the ablest in this state and in the west. It has long been the desire of our citizens to have the privilege of listening to this distinguished orator, and we congratulate them upon the opportunity thus presented.

On Tuesday night a number of the Holland members of the Knights of Pythias visited Grand Rapids on the invitation of Cowan Lodge No. 89, K. of P. They were given an exemplification of the amplified, form, third degree, after which a sumptuous banquet was spread, which was participated of by all present. The Holland guests were John C. Holcomb, William Swift, F. M. Gillespie, C. Hazen, Ben Bosman, Henry Klein, C. L. Chapman, J. R. Hansen, T. W. Eaton, T. Garry and Will Breyman. They were all exceedingly well pleased with the manner in which they had been entertained.

A number of Holland sportsmen came together on Tuesday evening last and organized what is known as the Holland Target Club. Fifteen members signified their intention of joining and the officers selected for the ensuing year are Dr. O. E. Yates president, M. G. Manting secretary, and Charles Harmon treasurer. The club will probably have their shooting grounds at the foot of Market street, on the marsh, and will use Blue Rock birds. Grand Haven and Zeeland already have organized clubs and some interesting contests are looked forward to between the crack shots of the three clubs. Last week Doctors Yates and Mabbs participated at the Zeeland weekly shoot, and invited the members of that club to come to Holland and show their skill with the gun.

As noted in the News last week the steamer Soo City arrived here on Friday morning last. With a view of introducing her to our merchants and citizens Manager Beach had it announced that she would give an excursion to Lake Michigan in the afternoon of that day. In response to this invitation a party of about two hundred of our leading citizens and businessmen boarded the beautiful steamer and steamed down the bay. The trip was enjoyed by all, and there was a universal sentiment of pride and gratification towards those who were instrumental in securing the boat for this route. And this is not all. It was looked upon, and rightfully so, as a new departure in the material growth, prosperity and prestige of Holland, not only as a shipping point and a commercial center, but also in connection with its resorts. The combination between this new steamboat enterprise and the erection of the extensive and magnificent hotel at Macatawa Park is of vast importance, especially when considered that both are brought about and backed by home interest. While another result growing out of these achievements, not to be overlooked, is that it will place our harbor and its improvement where it cannot be ignored or overlooked.

The season of muddy streets is upon us.

Remember that today (Saturday) is registration day.

Zeeland village needs a public hall and there is some talk of getting one.

W. H. Joslin, a veteran of the late war, died at the Soldiers' Home, Grand Rapids, Wednesday morning, aged 59 years. Funeral on Saturday. Mr. Joslin was for fifteen years a resident of this city, ten of which he was a member of the firm of Breyman and Joslin, jewelers.

We've got a mammoth cabbage in our window, weighs 21 pounds.—Ottawa County Times.

The other day our esteemed contemporary, in reviewing the past record of Wm. Alden Smith, charged it up to our candidate for congress that during the late war he stayed at home, while his opponent went out to battle for the Union. Considering that Mr. Smith at that eventful period had barely reached the age of two years, it staggered his friends to account for this break. The above however explains it. Too large a cabbage in the window, and the window too near the editor's desk.

Were you ever visited by friends in the "wee sma" hours of morning? Here is an instance of where and how and why it was done. One night, or morning rather, this week, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson were awakened by hearing at their bedroom window the old familiar words, "Nor Solen tender sine strollet." They enjoyed the singing greatly, but it was not long before the serenaders made a rush for the door, and gaining admittance, astonished the dazed inmates by questions such as: "Did you think we were going to let your tenth wedding anniversary go by without celebrating it?" Others again were happy messengers bearing their greetings on tin. Breakfast was duly served at three o'clock and when the streaks of day were visible the party bled themselves home-ward, well pleased with their early morning jaunt.

Three Leading Scientists

Proclaim the Superior Value of

Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Scientists are devoting closer attention to food products. Recent examinations of baking powders by Prof. Long, Dr. Haines, and Prof. Prescott, were made to determine which powder was the purest, highest in leavening strength, most efficient in service, and most economical in cost. They decide that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder excels in all the essentials of an ideal preparation for household use. They write:—

"Chicago, March 28th, 1894.

We have purchased in the open market cans of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and also of the other leading brands of baking powders, and have submitted them to chemical analysis. We find that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is a pure cream of tartar powder, that it has a considerably greater leavening strength than any of the other baking powders we have ever tested.

The American Farmer as a Wheat Raiser.

CAUSE OF THE LOW PRICE OF WHEAT, AND WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR IT.

Much has been said of late through the press upon the subject of the low price of wheat and its causes. All have agreed on one point, and that is that the price is low, and here they divide.

We are aware that some farmers have in the past often regarded the millers as their enemies, but we will attempt to show briefly why the interests of farmer and miller are identical, and why they should act unitedly this fall in promoting their cause, which is mutual.

The miller is the best customer the farmer has, and is always in the market and always the market price for his wheat. The market is not made by the miller, but is practically made by the Liverpool operator. Except during the first month or two at the beginning of each crop year the millers take the bulk of the wheat brought to market. During the first two months, the movement is very heavy and much is exported, but after this little goes for export from localities where there are mills.

Remove the milling industry from our country, and our wheat must go abroad and come in competition with the poor and cheap wheats of Europe and India. Not only is this true, but the offal is also lost to our farmers.

The foreign miller will not use American wheat until it comes down in price to the poor wheat of Europe and India, but the American flour can be placed in every market in the world, because of its superiority, if not shut out by prohibitory foreign tariffs. It has done this in many markets in the face of their own tariffs.

In talking with a gentleman from Holland, not long since, he said in answer to my query as to how much American wheat their native millers ground:

"They do not grind any, because they can get Indian and European wheat so much cheaper. They are anxious to use your fine American wheat, but can't pay the price and compete in the market with their flour. Of course, their flour is much inferior to your American article, and they realize the fact, but can't remedy the defect. I think they realize that your millers will eventually ruin their business, and therefore they are not asking for a duty on American flour."

This is the situation the world over. The foreign miller will only take our wheat when it is either sold at a price realized for poor foreign wheat, or when their crop is short and they must have it. On account of better wheat and better facilities and having attained a higher degree of art in manufacture, the American miller can produce the best flour in the world. His market is at present narrowed by the maintenance of prohibitory tariff duties by certain foreign countries. If these countries would take American wheat and pay a relatively higher price for it than for the poor quality of the European wheat, then the farmers' interest in the subject might not be quite so great, but the facts are not such.

The millers of this country, through the Winter Wheat Millers' League, an organization formed for the exclusive purpose of extending the markets for American flour, have asked Congress to enact retaliatory laws whereby the luxuries, purchased only by our rich, coming from the countries maintaining high tariff duties against American flour might be charged a double duty until they are willing to make reciprocal treaties to allow our flour to enter their markets at a most equitable basis. Notwithstanding the fact that every barrel of flour exported represented 4 1/2 bushels of wheat, Congress at its last session refused this request and passed a tariff bill in which many of these luxuries were placed on even a lower rate of duty.

The millers further asked that the reciprocity feature of the McKinley law be allowed to remain in force. This was also disregarded, and as a result Spain has abrogated her reciprocity treaty with the United States as to Cuba, and Brazil has given notice that her treaty will be abrogated January 1st, next.

To Cuba the mills of this country shipped last year nearly 900,000 bbls. of flour, where scarcely any had been shipped before the reciprocity was effected. The amount shipped to Cuba last year exceeded the amount shipped the previous year by 80,000 barrels. To Brazil was exported 920,000 bbls., an increase over the year before of over 100,000 bbls. Spain has already advanced her tariff duty on our flour going to Cuba from $1.00 per barrel to $1.75, or 75 cents higher than any other country. Brazil will restore her old duty, which was equal to a prohibition.

The mills have thus lost a market which would have taken this year over 2,000,000 bbls. of flour. Figuring this at 4 1/2 bushels to the barrel, we find a loss to the American farmer of a market for fully 9,000,000 bushels of wheat. Further than this, the flour shipped to

THE BUSINESS MAN'S LUNCH.

Hard Work and Indigestion go Hand in Hand.

Concentrated thought, continued in, robs the stomach of necessary blood, and this is also true of hard physical labor. When a five horse-power engine is made to do ten horse-power work something is going to break. Very often the hard-worked man coming from the field or the office will "bolt" his food in a few minutes which will take hours to digest. Then too, many foods are about as useful in the stomach as a keg of nails would be in a fire under a boiler. The ill-used stomach refuses to do its work without the proper stimulus which it gets from the blood and nerves. The nerves are weak and "ready to break," because they do not get the nourishment they require from the blood, finally the ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked man attempts to find rest in bed.

The application of common sense in the treatment of the stomach and the whole system brings to the busy man the full enjoyment of life and healthy digestion when he takes Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to relieve a bilious stomach or after a too hearty meal, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify, enrich and vitalize the blood. The "Pellets" are tiny sugar-coated pills made of highly concentrated vegetable ingredients which relieve the stomach of all offending matters easily and thoroughly. They need only be taken for a short time to cure the biliousness, constipation and slothfulness, or torpor, of the liver; then the "Medical Discovery" should be taken in teaspoonful doses to increase the blood and enrich it. It has a peculiar effect upon the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, toning up and strengthening them for all time. The whole system feels the effect of the pure blood coursing through the body and the nerves are vitalized and strengthened, not deadened, or put to sleep, as the so-called celery compounds and nerve mixtures do—but refreshed and fed on the food they need for health. If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, and any of the ills which come from impure blood and disordered stomach, you can cure yourself with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which can be obtained at any drug store in the country.

those markets was all made from winter wheat, no spring wheat flour going there. It is a well known fact that neither of these countries have flour mills, so that a market is absolutely lost to the winter wheat farmer for that much wheat. In view of these facts, is it any wonder that wheat remains at the present low price? Candidates for Congress should be committed to extend the markets for American flour.

That the surplus wheat we have can be most profitably worked off through the mills is self evident from facts given above. Therefore, it seems as if the farmers should be with the millers on such a proposition.

Another political sensation was uncorked last week Friday, when a letter from Timothy Nester, of Marquette, one of the wheel horses in the Michigan Democracy, was made public in the Detroit Journal, in which he openly charged that a deal was on between the Don M. Dickenson wing of the Michigan Democracy and the Pingree wing of the Republican party, by which they combine in the election of members of the State Legislature and secure a vote that would enable them to choose as senators, Mayor Pingree of Detroit, and Assistant Secretary of State Edwin F. Uhl, of Grand Rapids, in place of Senators McMillan and Patton, whose terms are about to expire.

Nester's letter is addressed to Elliott G. Stevenson, chairman of the Democratic State central committee, who recently wrote to Nester taking exception to an interview in Chicago in which Nester had prophesied that the Republicans would carry Michigan by 40,000 majority, and that Spencer O. Fisher, Democratic candidate for Governor, had made a deal with the A. P. A. to secure its support. Nester adduces proof that such a deal was really made, and that besides the election of Fisher as Governor it had for its object the selection of two Senators by the next Legislature.

The plan was for the Dickenson Democrats and the Pingree Republicans of Detroit to fuse on legislative candidates, and make an effort, by sacrificing local and State tickets, to secure a majority in the Legislature on joint ballot. Then this majority was to elect Mayor Pingree and Edwin F. Uhl to the Senate.

Nester gives dates and places in his letter to prove the deal and closes with a fierce criticism of the Democratic management in Michigan by Don M. Dickenson and his referee friends, and the declaration that he cannot under any circumstances vote for its state ticket. As Nester is known as one of the most influential Democrats in the Upper Peninsula and has given his time and money freely in former years to the success of his party his letter carries great weight and increases the panic which has struck Michigan Democratic managers.

To relieve headache, correct disorders of the stomach, and increase the appetite, and for the cure of liver complaint, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They are perfectly safe to take, and invariably promote a healthy action of the digestive and assimilative organs.

PERFECT CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS.

Its extraordinary curative power manifests itself almost immediately it is taken. On this point the evidence of those who have taken it is uniform and positive. They say they can feel the effect of every dose doing them good. It is a powerful nerve invigorating tonic, imparting its restorative influence through the medium of the nervous system to every organ and tissue of the body. It makes but little difference whether the constitutional vigor has been undermined by acute disease, overwork, or certain mischievous indiscretions; or whether the broken down condition is called by one name or other, so long as there is nervous exhaustion, general or local weakness—so long as enervation and debility are the type of the ailment, this is the remedy.

THOSE WHO SUFFER

from the results of over-mental or physical exertion, hardship, exposure, hidden drains, caprice, or who have brought upon themselves a series of afflictions by ignorantly or wilfully violating nature's laws, will find in CATON'S VITALIZER and NERVE TONIC the remedy for their certain relief. It readily removes all evidences of prostrated physical debility, and restores the enfeebled energies to their natural vigor.

WHENEVER THERE IS

any weakness of the vital organs, nervousness, prostration of the physical or mental energies, confusion of ideas, lack of self-control, irritability of temper, melancholy, cowardice, weakness of the knees and the back, palpitation of the heart, dragging pain in the loins, headache, irritation of the kidneys and bladder, milky urine, porosities and hidden wastes, resulting in a failure of the mental and physical power, constituting an impediment to success and unfitting him or her for the duties and responsibilities of life, it is the remedy par excellence. A six glass package will be sufficient to inaugurate the work of regeneration, and cure in many cases. But stubborn cases often require more. It will be sent post-paid, secured from observation, for $1.00 per package, or 6 packages for $5.00. Address all orders to Political Revelations and Gleanings.

Since the general election two years ago, the election laws have been slightly amended. One of the amendments, with reference to the marking or stamping of the ballots, is this: Heretofore, when an elector desired to vote for a candidate not on his party ticket, after marking his ticket at the top, it was necessary for him to strike off the name of the candidate for the same office on his party ticket and also make a cross in the square before the name of the candidate for whom he desired to vote on the other ticket. All that is required now is to make a cross in the square before the name of the candidate for whom he desires to vote on the other ticket, except in cases where there are two persons to be elected for the same office. Like circuit court commissioner, in which case he must make the erasure, by drawing a line through the name of the candidate on his party ticket, in addition to marking a cross on the other. Where an elector desires to vote a straight ticket he simply stamps a cross in the circle under the name of his party at the head of the ballot, the same as heretofore, and nothing further need be done. Remember, the Republican ticket is the first on the ballot, with the picture of Lincoln and the flag at the top.

Two amendments to the state constitution will be submitted to the electors on Tuesday next. They will be found at the foot of the official ballot.

A year ago or more, the supreme court decided that under the provisions of Sec. 5, of Art. VII, the veterans who are inmates of the Soldiers Home at Grand Rapids have no legal home or residence there, and hence are deprived of the right to vote. Practically these old soldiers there are disfranchised. One of the proposed amendments restores to these men this franchise. The fitness thereof needs no commendation or argument. No patriotic citizen will hesitate to vote "yes" on a proposition to give to the crippled veterans of the late war the privilege so highly prized by every American—the right of suffrage.

The amendment reads as follows: Sec. 5. No elector shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his being employed in the service of the United States, or of this state; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of the state, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any seminary of learning, nor while kept at any almshouse or other asylum at public expense; nor while confined in any public prison; except that honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines who have served in the military or naval forces of the United States, or of this state, and who reside in soldiers' homes established by the state, may acquire a residence where such home is located.

The other amendment relates to the qualification of electors and their right to vote, and affects both the native and foreign born. The proposition is to amend Sec. 1, of Art. VII, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 1. In all elections, every male inhabitant of this state, being a citizen of the United States, every male inhabitant residing in this state on the 24th day of June, 1835, every male inhabitant residing in this state on the first day of January, 1850, every male inhabitant of foreign birth who, having resided in the state two years and six months prior to the 8th day of November, 1894, and having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States two years and six months prior to said last named day, and every civilized male inhabitant of Indian descent, a native of the United States, and not a member of any tribe, shall be an elector and entitled to vote; but no one shall be an elector or entitled to vote at any election unless he shall be above the age of 21 years, and has resided in this state six months and in the township or ward in which he offers to vote, twenty days next preceding such election: Provided, that in time of war, insurrection or rebellion no qualified elector in the actual military service of the United States, or of this state, or in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his vote by reason of his absence from the township, ward or state in which he resides, and the legislature shall have the power, and shall provide the manner in which, and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the canvass and return of their votes to the township or ward election district in which they respectively reside or otherwise.

One change involved in this amendment, and which affects all, native as well as foreign born, is this, that at present a residence in the state of three months, and in the township or ward of ten days, entitles an elector to vote, while the proposed amendment doubles this, requiring a residence of six months in the state, and twenty days in the township or ward.

Michigan has been very liberal, more so than most of the other states of the Union, in prescribing the qualifications of its electors with reference to the time of residence. Several states require a year's residence in the state and thirty days, or more, in the township or ward. It is said that this liberal provision, made when the state was young and scarcely populated, was inserted as a special inducement to settlers, to enable them the more readily to start the machine of local government. The necessity for all this however has ceased to exist, and the privilege is now being abused along the border lines of the state, and in some of our large cities, by what is known as the "colonizing" of voters. To the bona fide resident, a six months residence in the state and a twenty days residence in the township or ward, as proposed, is still a very liberal inducement. While at certain times and places the increase may have a wholesome tendency in promoting the purity of elections.

The other change applies to the foreign born male inhabitant only. As the constitution now is, any foreign born male inhabitant of the state, of the requisite age, and who has resided in the state two years and six months prior to any election, and who has declared his intention of becoming a citizen six months prior to any election is a qualified voter. The amendment proposed requires that hereafter a foreigner must have resided in this state and declared his intention two years and six months before the 8th of November, 1894, in order to make him a voter.

The practical effect of this amendment, if adopted, will be that after this fall (Jan. 1, 1895) no foreign born inhabitant can vote, unless he is either a full fledged American citizen, one who has taken out his second papers, or unless he has declared his intention (first papers) and was a resident of the state two years and six months prior to Nov. 8, 1894, that is prior to May 8, 1892.

It will be seen that this amendment is far reaching in its effects. Not only will it do away with all voting on "first papers" taken out after May 8, 1892 and regularly thereafter, but it will also for a limited period disqualify some of those who this fall vote for the first time on their first paper.

Judging from the tone of the state press, there seems to be no doubt in regard to the adoption of the amendment. It is demanded by the radical change in the character and calibre of the emigrating classes. The immediate environments of the News may render this a delicate matter for endorsement, nevertheless the large influx in our day of certain undesirable foreign elements make it necessary that the American government should be by and of its own citizens—not aliens, or half-citizens.

Vote for both amendments.

Speaking about referee-ism, there is no question but what there will be some startling surprises Tuesday evening in this state, and this modern innovation is destined to get a fearful black eye. Thousands of Democrats have made up their minds that this is a good year to put on file their individual protests against this system which has been riding rough shod over established party usages and methods. They know that the Republicans are going to carry the state anyway, and they will not feel badly if the Republican majorities run above the most sanguine Republican's estimates. They are determined upon one thing, and that is that the referee system must go.

The fact is no more clearly understood anywhere than at the headquarters of the referee state central committee, formerly known as the Democratic state central committee. It is well known there that the issue of refereeism is a mighty live one in this campaign, and that all over the state the feeling is intense and bitter, and has been growing more so every day between the two factions of the Democratic party. The referees, their agents, and the federal office holders are doing their utmost to pacify the anti-referees with promises and palaver, but the anti's are not to be moulded as clay in the hands of the potter.

The wonder is that such an offensive and arbitrary a system could have been so successfully established in the ranks of the Jeffersonian Democracy, and that its promoters were permitted to gain control of the party organization. They started out in open hostility to the regular party organization, and flipped their fingers in the faces of the regularly chosen party representatives. Boss rule has prevailed every time in the matter of federal appointments, and the referees in their minds became complete masters of the situation.

They intrigued and planned and plotted against the Canpau state committee, stuffed their state convention with their obedient servants, the federal appointees, put up a referee state ticket and organized a referee state committee. They said they had everlastingly "squashed the Canpauites" and with ghoulish glee exchanged referee rib-pokes over their conquest.

This was a few months ago. It is different now. At the very present time the referees need nothing so much as party harmony. They are even willing to forgive the anti-referees for kicking against the bossism of refereeism if they will come out and give earnest support to the referee ticket. But the anti's don't seem to want to be forgiven. They prefer to keep on kicking until refereeism is kicked out of existence and their party is reorganized on an anti-boss basis. And they look as if they are going to do it.

One of the most telling points made by Wm. Alden Smith in his address in this city was the abrogation of the reciprocity features of the McKinley law with reference to the exportation of flour. The features of the Wilson bill strike the American miller hard, because it shuts them out of the most desirable foreign markets. Their loss in Cuba alone will be over 1,000,000 barrels of flour annually, by reason of Democratic legislation wiping out reciprocity. Other foreign ports are closed to American flour for the same reason. The result will be the loss of many millions of dollars yearly to this one great American interest.

Census statistics show "that the milling industry is the largest in the United States in point of capital and help employed," and American flour has hitherto represented the most of the wheat exports from this country, but has now declined fully 67 per cent. The abrogation of reciprocity has practically closed the best foreign markets to American flour, and the American millers are a unit in demanding an early correction of the terrible blunder made in the name of "tariff reform."

The blow to the home milling industry falls with equal force upon the American farmers and wheat growers. To cut off the foreign demand for our flour is to curtail the demand for our wheat, and the result is ruinously low prices for the product. The lowest price on record has been reached since congress killed the reciprocity act. This is a fact which every farmer knows to be indisputable, and the American millers not only represent their own industry in protesting against such ruinous legislation, but they represent the interest of every wheat grower in the United States.

The aim of the free trade tariff legislation seems to have been to narrow down the limits of American operations in every field of enterprise. Certainly this is the effect of its vigorous legislation, let the aim be what it may. "Almost every American industry is thus seriously affected, agricultural as well as industrial. Wool, wheat and nearly all farm produce are hit hard, and those of them not now on the free list the Democracy proposes to put there. At least such is the threat."

On Tuesday next the people in most of the states of the union will have a chance to be heard, and if a mighty protest does not go up from against the destructive policy of the Democratic party, the present signs are woefully deceptive.

Among the cherished projects advocated by the People's party is the government control and ownership of railroads. In doing so however our Populist friends fail to realize, in the first place, the fabulous sum it would require to purchase them—all the way from seven to nine billions of dollars, besides an additional sum for the purchase of the telegraph lines, which would inevitably follow should the government take hold of the railroads. At present rates and amount of business the returns would not pay interest on the purchase money. The next thing to consider is the political corruption incident to having more than a million men on the government pay-rolls and the playing of political parties against each other for their votes, all of which would be accompanied by all kinds of extravagance in expenditure. There would be demands for big salaries, and for the construction of side lines, not because they would do a paying business but for the reason they were wanted by the people near them. The building of new machine shops in different localities, and of locomotives and other rolling stock, would be demanded by powerful coteries, irrespective to the need for them, and multitudinous repairs would absorb tens of millions, and in this and other ways the government, that is the people, the taxpayers, would be cheated and robbed at every turn. The stockholder's motives for the practice of economy in railroad management that now keep down expenses, would then be lacking and probably within a year or two 25 to 50 per cent would be added to the cost of management. A little longer and it would be doubled, and the current expenditures and income on the purchase price would necessitate a heavy taxing of the people in one way or another for the support of the army of tax-eaters. Government ownership of railroads may be feasible and work all right in a monarchy, where the government is paternal in character and in practice, but in this country it would soon prove to be inimical to our institutions and impracticable in its operations.

Mr. Herbert Taft Root, the opposing candidate for prosecuting attorney, in a communication in the Independent, confesses the one and only accusation make against him by the News, of writing to Gov. Altgeld, "commending him for doing what he thought was right." Mr. Root admits the charge, pleads justification, and then wheels around and calls us an "unmitigated liar." Nothing was said by us directly, or by innuendo, affecting the mental or moral worth of Mr. Root; therefore the balance of his communication will be dismissed without further notice. The only objection that we have raised, and it is a tenable one, is that Mr. Root with his avowed and admitted predilections is not the right man to elect to the office in question, that of prosecuting attorney. Had he been a candidate for some other office, such as register of deeds, or treasurer, the question might not have been worth raising. But it is because of the very nature of the particular office he is aspiring to that we insist on the objectionable feature in his candidacy. Says Mr. Root: "When he (Gov. Altgeld) was being shamefully abused by so many of the newspapers of the country, I wrote commending him for doing what he thought was right, irrespective of public opinion." That public opinion was and is the patriotic sentiment of the American people, and what the law abiding people of Ottawacounty desire and need is a prosecuting attorney who is in sympathy with that sentiment. We do not want the bitter experience of Muskegon county repeated in old Ottawa.

BE SURE TO VOTE.

Next Tuesday the Time for the People to Speak in Favor of Good Government.

VOTE THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET

And Thus Perform a Patriotic Duty.— This is Business This Year, and Not Politics.—There should be no Republican Stay-at-Homes.

When you go into the booth on Tuesday next you will find the following vignette at the head of the Republican column on the official ballot:

The kindly face of the martyr Lincoln who first led the Republican party to victory; the stars and stripes you love so well; your patriotism and your personal interests, will all demand of you a vote for the whole Republican ticket. In this way you will register your condemnation of Clevelandism, of the last two awful years of blight and distress in the United States; you will protest against that masterpiece of "perfidy and dishonor,"—the Wilson-Gorman-Sugar Trust, Tariff Bill—which strikes so severe a blow at the farming, mining, manufacturing and all other interests of Michigan; you will put yourself on record as in favor of the United States and of a return to better times than we have had since 1892.

It is an easy and a pleasant thing to do— Just stamp or mark a cross (X) in the circle under the Republican vignette. That is all. If you desire to vote a straight Republican ticket nothing further need be done.

Labor's Loss.

The Michigan labor bureau, in its inspection of factories under the law of 1893, has revealed many a sad fact as to the condition of labor in this state, during the general paralysis of business interests by Democratic national policies.

There have been inspected during the past year, up to the present time, 100 carriage and wagon factories, located in Michigan and turning out Michigan products. The reports of these inspectors to the bureau also show that those 100 factories, when running full, employ 2,919 men, but that they actually employ only 1,817 people, or a falling off of 1,102.

These 1,817 men who have work have received, monthly, $17,173, or an average of $39.17 each, while the loss of wages, suffered by those 1,102 idle employees, at the same ratio, would aggregate the handsome sum of $43,165.34. Here is a loss to labor, in these Democratic good times, of 39 per cent in one industry alone; enough to comfortably care for the poor of Detroit for the next four months.

But this does not complete the story. Those 100 carriage factories would run 6,000 hours per week if running full time, but they run in fact, only 5,574 hours per week. Here is a loss to labor of 426 hours, or 42½ days each week, as compared with full time. Figured by the same ratio, the loss from this source is $275 per month; and this amount added to the $43,165, lost by the men who are compulsorily idle, gives us a total loss from labor unemployed of $43,440 a month in these 100 factories alone.

It is all very nice for unprincipled demagogues and Democratic newspapers to blabber about "good times" and "revived industries," to the people who do not know that they are willfully and wickedly deceiving honest voters to serve their own personal ends; but in the light of these headheaded facts, which are open to public inspection, it is about time that Candidate Fisher and his disciples gave some authority for their assertions of business revivals in Michigan industries or ceased to stand before their audiences as convicted liars.

It may be added to this already damning showing that the operatives in these 100 carriage factories have suffered the same average reduction of wages, since April, 1893, as the furniture workers, viz., eleven per cent. Every workman in Michigan is interested in these facts, and should not only read them, but show them to his neighbor.

Money for Wilson.

The following statement made by the correspondent of a Democratic paper, who has recently spent ten days in Representative Wilson's district, shows what class of persons are most interested in the Democratic tariff bill:

"I have never seen such an open use of money to influence elections as can be daily witnessed on behalf of Mr. Wilson in his district, and I am a very old campaigner. There seems to be an abundance of money. There is common report that the money is from Mr. Isador Straus, of New York, who has made large collections among the importers of that city who, possibly, brought with him from London, where he accompanied Mr. Wilson on his trip, a considerable amount of British money. The rest of the money is attributed locally to the sugar trust as a corporation, but in greater part to the individual members of the sugar trust. That organization is understood to be exceedingly anxious to aid the Democratic party in preventing the defeat of its leader and champion, the chairman of the committee on ways and means. Wherever the money comes from there is an abundance of it."

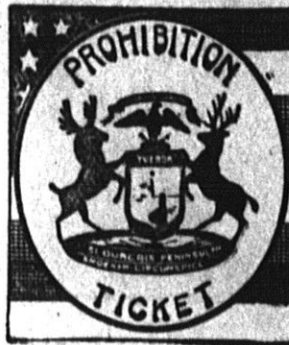

INSTRUCTION BALLOT.

INSTRUCTIONS.—In all cases stamp a cross (X) in the circle under the name of your party at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote a straight ticket nothing further need be done.

When only one candidate is to be elected to any office, and you desire to vote for a candidate not on your party ticket, make a cross in the square before the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket.

When two or more candidates are to be elected to the same office, and you desire to vote for candidates on different tickets for such office, make a cross in the square before the names of the candidates for whom you desire to vote on the other ticket; also erase an equal number of names of candidates on your party ticket for the same office for whom you do not desire to vote.

If you wish to vote for a candidate not on any ticket, write or place the name of such candidate on your ticket opposite the name of the office. Before leaving the booth, fold the ballot so that the initials may be seen on the outside.

CATARRHAL DYSPEPSIA.

A DISCOURAGED INVALID RESTORED TO HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

Catarrh of the stomach causes a condition known as dyspepsia or indigestion. It usually results from catarrh in the throat, but sometimes occurs in people who have never had catarrh elsewhere.

The symptoms of dyspepsia are: liver complaint, biliousness, sour stomach, water-brash, bloating after eating, constipation, piles, and, in every case, low spirits, dizzy head, sympathetic heart palpitation, pain, indigestion, and looseness of the bowels. Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, taken according to directions on the bottle, will cure every one.

The following is a specimen of the letters received from patients:

O. S. McQuillan, Spring Hill, Iowa, writes:

"Four years ago last fall my stomach, without any previous warning, refused to perform its functions, and I soon lost strength. During the time food was forced through my stomach by using cathartics. With flesh wasted away, strength exhausted so that it took all my energy to even get into a bath tub, hopes all gone, I began to take Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, following free advice which Dr. Hartman gave me. In a short time I could eat nourishing food, and the piles, kidney troubles, and constipation disappeared. Flesh, strength and a splendid appetite returned and I went to work."

For treatises on catarrh, coughs, consumption, and all climatic diseases in winter, send for Family Physician No. 2.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect, can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years experience can tell that.

Prof. Birkholz, the well-known German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or a beard can consult him in private, and free from all charge.

After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, he will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not dead we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay.

Call or address Prof. Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago. Hand this notice to any first-class druggist and he will get the remedy for you at once if he has not got it in stock.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Weishton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise this must have been to the sufferer.

Such cases are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by Heber Walsh.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local treatment, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure in the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.

Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. 41-1m OBITUARY.

The death of Mrs. Merton Angel occurred Monday, November 22, at her home near Lamont, after a brief sickness of two weeks.

Mrs. Angel, better known as Etta Van Nett, was but seven months ago one of Ottawa's most useful and beloved teachers. After a few years of hard work in the educational field Miss Van Nett resigned her position as teacher of the Blakney school, Allendale, last March. She was married to Merton Angel in April, and has since that time resided in her home among her many friends and relatives. She was one of those beautiful christian characters reared in the enjoyment of the many blessings of a loving home. She was awake to the value of the ennobling influences of intellectual and religious training.

The funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church by the Rev. Adams. The remains were followed to the final resting place by a band of mourning pupils. As one looked upon the silent teacher, it was easy to conclude that "love was a great beautifier of the face." It moulded those soft white hands of charity; it sweetened that voice of sympathy; it breathed still in that spirit of piety—its result, the beauty of the heavens of heavens. It is the flower of the spirit which blossoms on the tree of everlasting life.

It is amusing to look over the columns of the Independent and see how the Republican party is shrinking—according to the calculations of the editor. We don't know of but one or two persons in this vicinity who advocate their doctrine, and they are conceded to be somewhat cranky. This we believe will hold good all over the country. Why, just look at the delegations that come down here to the Populist meetings from Holland. They are mostly made up of the dissatisfied Democrats who are ashamed to come on over on the lord's side.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds and croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon affected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Heber Walsh.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the superior medicine. Try it this month.

Olive Center.

The Town Hall here was packed of enthusiastic people last week day evening, who came to listen at forcible speaker from Springfield, Mr. John B. Porham. His pan of the advance of the Great Republic under Republican rule and protection was grand, and his talk to the people from a business standpoint and in a business-like manner, was appreciated and well received. The cheers at the conclusion showed that the people are alive to their own interests. The doubtful ones, who were quite plentiful some time ago, are getting scarce, and straight-out Republicans are on the increase. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Republican Club of Olive Center.

Every one remarks: "What a nice fall."

Mary Northrop died Monday, Oct. 22, of consumption of the blood. She had been sick for some time, but died happy in the Christian faith. Mary was but 21 years of age, and was married three years ago last June to Clarence Northrop, whom she leaves with one little daughter to mourn her untimely departure. Friends from Newaygo county, and Illinois were here to attend the funeral. In this connection Mr. Northrop wishes to thank those who have helped him bear his burdens during the sickness and after the death of his wife. W. W. Rork of Newaygo, preached the funeral sermon at the Olive schoolhouse, Wednesday, 3:00 p. m.; many could not get into the house, so large was the attendance. Hence and his father have had a hard time the last year, with so much sickness and finally death. They give the wide-spread sympathy that accorded them.

A WIZARD'S FEAST.

Queer Surprise That Chinese Hosts Perpetrate on Their Guests.

"I once attended a well Chinese banquet, and was not a little surprised at the way in which some of the delicacies were served," said Walter F. Logan, of Sacramento, Cal., at the La Clede recently. "After we had discussed the most substantial portion of the repast and dessert was being served, oranges were placed before each guest, the skins of which had apparently not been broken, yet from which the pulp had in some mysterious manner been removed and four or five different kinds of jelly substituted in its place.

"The guests expressed a good deal of astonishment as to how such an operation had been accomplished, but their amazement was only increased when a dish of eggs, the shells of which appeared to be perfectly whole, was placed upon the table. Examination showed the contents of the eggs had been removed and the shells filled with nuts and candy.

"Our host smilingly refused to tell us how such wonderful results had been accomplished, and we left the house completely mystified."

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the first symptoms, and treatment is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. In a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after a rough cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail. Scrofula

Miss Della Stevens, of Boston, Mass., writes: "I have always suffered from hereditary Scrofula, for which I tried various remedies, and many reliable physicians, but none relieved me. After taking 4 bottles of SSS I am now well, and I am very grateful to you, as I feel that it saved me from a life of untold agony, and shall take pleasure in speaking only words of praise for the wonderful medicine, and in recommending it to all."

"Many of the citizens of Rainsville Ind., are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds and croup in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by Heber Walsh.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. The same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Heber Walsh.

Attention.

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it. "Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would not more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

DISASTER IN A MINE.

Collapse of a Roof Kills One Man—Heroic Rescue of Eleven Others.

IRONWOOD, Mich., Oct. 28.—Thursday afternoon, at the Pewabic mine, No. 1, the sandstone capping which overhung a room gave way with sufficient force to crush the timbers without any warning. The settling began in an old room above the third level, about 100 feet in height. One man was killed, and his body was soon recovered. Eleven others were entombed. The work of rescue, which was extremely difficult, began at once, as large a force as could be employed being placed in the narrow shaft to clear away the rubbish.

At 6 p. m. Friday evening the rescuers had advanced so far that the imprisoned men could be heard signaling with hammers. By 4 o'clock a. m. on Saturday it became known that all were still alive, as the rescuers were near enough to talk to them, and at 5:30 they were taken out of their living tomb.

The imprisoned men had an exceedingly narrow escape from drowning. Soon after the crash came the water rose about them until it was waist deep. A hole sufficiently large to permit the water to partly run off was drilled after much labor, but the men still suffered greatly from the cold. Not until Friday afternoon did they have real hope of rescue. Some of them assert that they have done their last mining.

TWO WOMEN FATALY HURT.

Unknown Man Breaks Into a House at Columbiaville and Attempts Murder.

COLUMBIAVILLE, Oct. 31.—At 3 o'clock Tuesday morning an unknown man broke into Fred Skinner's house, about 3 miles from here, and attempted to murder Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and the latter's mother, Mrs. Standley. The man entered the house through the cellar, went first to Mrs. Standley's room and struck her with a hammer, crushing her skull. He then went to Skinner's room, struck Mrs. Skinner three times on the head and face and attempted to brain Skinner, but the latter warded off the blow with a pillow. The murderer then ran from the house, and has so far eluded capture. Mrs. Standley's husband, from whom she separated some time ago, is suspected of the crime. He was seen in Columbiaville Monday. His home is near Pontiac, and the sheriff has left for that place. Both women will die.

MICHIGAN NAVAL MILITIA.

Complimentary Report on Their Work Made to the Navy Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—"We consider that this division would be of great value to the United States on the lakes from their efficiency as an armed force and their knowledge of marine affairs in these waters; and also that a trained body of this class of men of such spirit as they display must of necessity be a valuable adjunct to the United States navy in time of war." This is the substance of a long report made to the navy department by the board of naval officers detailed to inspect the First Division of the Michigan State Naval brigade. The board has much more of a complimentary nature to say in reporting upon the maneuvers of the militia, which took place October 16, 17, 19 and 20 on the Michigan. Its men were of good physique and bearing, exceptionally intelligent, and filled with zeal.

IT FAILED.

An Altruistic Colony Located Near Flint to Be Abandoned.

FLINT, Oct. 30.—Nine months ago Chauncey W. Church started an Altruistic community on about four hundred acres of land south of here. The colony began with about forty souls and worked entirely on the cooperative plan, their main dependence for support being a creamery, basket factory, live stock raising and farming. For a few months affairs prospered. Now, however, it is announced that the scheme is a failure. Jealousy and dissatisfaction have resulted in driving the members of the colony away until now a bare half dozen are left. It is likely that the scheme will be abandoned at once. The profits to each member of the colony for the past six months, exclusive of living expenses, were $73.

Chapin Mine Lease Sold.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Oct. 30.—A thirty-year lease of the Chapin mine, together with all buildings and machinery and 2,000 shares of stock in the Hydraulic Power company, were sold Monday by Court Commissioner Hammond to M. A. Hanna & Co., of Cleveland, for $88,973. Only a few years ago the property was sold by the Vandikes, of Milwaukee, to Ferd Schlesinger for $2,000,000. The indebtedness represented by Trustee Flanagan aggregated $648,782.

Must Stay in Prison.

LANSING, Oct. 27.—The supreme court quashed the writ of habeas corpus Friday by which William H. Thatcher, the Benzonia wife poisoner, sought to gain his liberty. No written opinion was handed down in the case, the simple announcement being made. Thatcher may now bring his case before the court on a writ of error, but it is believed his last hope is gone.

A Deadly Blow.

HARRISON, Oct. 31.—James Doyle killed Charles Buck in a drunken brawl at the Greenwood lumber camp Saturday night. The men were attending a dance and became involved in a quarrel. Prompted by jealousy and whiskey Doyle struck Buck in the neck with his fist, killing him almost instantly. Doyle is in jail.

Button Makers Strike.

DETROIT, Oct. 31.—The eighty employees of the cutting department of the Standard Pearl Button company struck Tuesday in remonstrance against the employment of John Bell as foreman to succeed William Stevenson. Bell, it is said, was formerly a foreman in a prison shop at Chester, Ill.

The Dyspeptic's Dream.

By the dreamer.

He was a tall, cadaverous, dyspeptic-looking man, and he was before the magistrate upon the suit of the landlady for a week's board. The fact having been proven conclusively, that he had occupied the quarters for the time named, the judge, a very severe looking old gentleman, asked, as I supposed merely for form sake, what the defense was, if any.

The lean man replied that he had what in his opinion, he considered a good defense:

"That when he went to the lady's house to board, his first question was, he being a confirmed dyspeptic, if the bread was good. He had been assured that it was, but upon taking up his quarters he found that it was not only not good but was sour and heavy, and that by reason of this he had suffered tortures, and had declined for this reason and no other, to pay his board, and here he rested his case."

The judge had listened with much interest, and upon the gentleman taking his seat, delivered himself of the following:

"I have listened with interest and feeling (having once been a dyspeptic myself) to the statements and defence of the gentleman. In these days when Horsford's Baking Powder is so easily obtained, there is no excuse in the world for landladies giving their boarders sour or heavy bread. It is as much their duty to keep up with the improvements of the age, to protect the health, if not the lives of their customers, as it is for the railroads to adopt patent air-brakes and other appliances for the protection of their passengers, and taking this view of the case I find for the defendant, and give notice that I will so find in every case of this kind brought before me."

Here I woke up, and as a consequence, lost the remainder of the proceedings.
