P. H. McBride, prosecuting attorney-elect, on Wednesday at the close of the regular meeting of A. C. Van Rantle Post, G. A. R., invited his comrades to spend the balance of the evening at his home. He was 34 years old and leaves a wife and three children.

President McKinley went all the way from Washington to his home in Canton, Ohio, to vote. While to some this may look as an act of affectation, the majority of his fellow citizens will view it as an act of duty. If every voter would exert himself in like manner, it would do away largely with the necessity of carriages at the polls. Says the Free Press: "It is pretty safe to say that some very estimable citizens of Mr. McKinley's right in Canton did not take the pains to go a few blocks to perform so easy a duty."

The circuit court was in session Monday and adjourned for one week, when the jurors will report for duty. Jos. Brewer was there as stenographer, having been appointed by the court for the present term and until Gov. Pingree shall act upon Judge Padgham's recommendation for his permanent appointment. Chas. E. Soule acted as clerk in the absence of Chas. K. Hoyt, whose illness still prevents him from attending to the duties of his office. The criminal calendar was largely disposed of. The Butterfield case went over the term on account of the doctor's sickness. Henry Verboeks and Drewes Gerber, larceny, pleaded guilty; and so did Wm. Drumgoole, receiving stolen goods. Peter Braamse, seduction, will not likely be tried at this time. The term will be a short one.

Coopersville Observer: The falling of the leaves reminds us that fall with all its beauties is here. Thanksgiving is not far away, and the people have much to be thankful for. The coming of winter is not dreaded as it has been in the past, because the people are prepared for it. Crops have been good and work has been plenty. The beauties of fall will look more beautiful than ever, because the people are prosperous. They are in a situation where they can enjoy the beauties of nature, because they are contented and happy.

Last year, pleased alike with the liberal patronage granted and the satisfaction of our citizens so freely expressed, the managers of the College lecture course pledged for this year "more and better." The College Lecture course for this season will show how the pledge is to be kept. First in the course is America's favorite, original impersonator, Leland T. Powers, in "David Garrick" three acts, requiring the impersonation of nine characters. Second, is the Mozart Symphony Club, of New York, consisting of five members, whose program will excel any musical program ever rendered in Holland. Further announcements will convince any who may doubt this. Third, is Prof. John B. De Motte, who will lecture on the subject, "The Harp of the Senses; or the Secret of Character Building." This lecture is profusely illustrated by stereopticon views in a method highly perfected by Mr. De Motte himself. Last in the course is the orator, scholar and wit, De Witt Miller, on the subject, "Is Uncle Sam Sufficient unto Himself?"

It involves the erection of several buildings and making Holland one of the principal distributing points of the company. Further developments are expected before the close of another week.

The Allegan county annual sundayschool convention met in Holland this year. The sessions, which were held in Hope church, opened on Wednesday evening and continued the next day. The state of the weather interfered more or less with the attendance of delegates. Notwithstanding this nearly fifty were present. The exercises were carried out as set forth in the program, except that Prof. J. W. Humphrey was not present and that owing to the storm the addresses set for the evening were crowded into the afternoon session. The convention at the close elected its officers for the new year and passed resolutions acknowledging thanks for local courtesies extended.

FRIDAY, November 11.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Fennville.

A car of onions and potatoes was loaded here this week for Galveston, Texas. Onions are bringing about 25 cents a bushel. Potatoes are about the same in price, but growers are generally holding them for a raise.

The new Methodist church was dedicated last Sunday with appropriate ceremonies, Rev. J. C. Floyd, presiding elder of the Kalamazoo district, officiating. Although a severe storm was prevailing a large congregation was present.

Douglas.

The pulpits of the high school contributed $2.12 towards the Lafayette monument fund.

The old bell in the M. E. church, which is cracked, will be taken down and recast at a bell foundry, at an expense of about $35, about the same as the old one minus the crack.

Irving Dewey, formerly of this village, but of late years an employee in Grand Rapids has been promoted to the position of railway mail clerk. His route is from Grand Rapids, to Chicago, via the C. & W. M., and the salary is one thousand dollars a year.

The manner of celebrating Halloween at this place was a disgrace to civilization.

Under the efficient management of Supt. Flanagan, the high room has an enrollment of 32.

Allegan County.

Fillmore has a literary society that meets every Monday evening. Officers were recently elected, as follows: President, Clair Hekhuis; vice-president, Albert Kronmeyer; secretary, Edward Hoeland; treasurer, Wm. Kleinhekel.

Rev. Wolvius of Oakland has accepted a call from the Reformed church at Boyden, Ia., and will soon go to his new charge.

County clerk Barrett has issued ninety-seven deer licenses so far this season, and most of the men securing them have gone to the northern part of the state to hunt.

H. E. Earl, an Otsego druggist, was arraigned in Justice Day's court last Wednesday, charged with violating the liquor law. He waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court for trial.

Arrangements have been completed by which the power of the Battle Creek electric street railway, the Battle Creek Electric light company, and the new electric road to be built from that city to Gull Lake and Kalamazoo, will be transmitted from Allegan by the Kalamazoo Valley Electric Co. This is one of the most gigantic electric undertakings ever inaugurated in Michigan. This company has commenced the construction of a dam one and a half miles from Allegan, across the Kalamazoo river, which will provide the company with an enormous water power. The electricity generated will furnish power in Allegan, Plainwell, Otsego, Kalamazoo, Galesburg, Battle Creek, Marshall, Albion and Jackson.

Otsego: Much interest has been manifested in the outcome of the suit instituted by the W. C. T. U., against C. C. Knoblock, charged with keeping his meat market open Sunday morning and which has been set for Wednesday, November 16th. H. H. Pope has been engaged as attorney by the defendant. The L. S. & M. S. Ry., have a force of men at work putting in a big drain near the depot. For some time the rains have raised havoc with their tracks at that point and much damage has resulted to the Bardeen Paper Co. from the effects of it.

Plainwell: John Lent of this place recently received news from a brother who was long supposed to be dead. Fifty-five years ago last September Ward Lent, his youngest brother, left Steuben county, N. Y. and went with a family to Ohio. From there he went to Waupaca Falls, Wis., and was never heard from until last week, when E. K. Lent, of Otsego, received a letter from him from Woodburn, Oregon, in answer to one he had sent, he having learned of his whereabouts by a miracle. He writes that he is well and if living next spring will come to see his brother.

According to law, Prof. J. W. Humphrey resigned his office as county school commissioner before Tuesday of this week, to make the run for state senator. This will result in the county clerk issuing a call for a special meeting of the chairmen of the school inspectors of the several townships, for the purpose of selecting a commissioner to fill the vacancy. Among the candidates for the office are Supts. Flanagan, of Douglas, McDonald, of Hopkins, Nevins, of Otsego, Vroman, of Wayland and Rev. Corbett of Mar- tin. Many would be pleased to see Supt. P. A. Latta of Saugatuck again in charge of our county school system, but he positively refuses to accept the office again. Allegan county has 184 school districts.

Muskegon.

Emma Hammerstorm wants $1,000, for injuries sustained on a defective sidewalk.

During October 48 cases of diphtheria and six cases of typhoid fever were reported to city physician Dove. Of these four resulted fatally and 31 have recovered. There are now about 15 known cases in the city.

Edward DeLange, a car repairer in the employ of the C. & W. M. here, met his death Saturday afternoon in a most horrible manner. He was summoned to the yard to repair a car and while under it, engaged in his work, it suddenly started up. The wheels caught the unfortunate man in the neck and completely severed his head from his body. Death was instantaneous. The head was a ghastly sight, having been so horribly mutilated as to make the features almost unrecognizable. The man was 45 years of age and had been in the employ of the company about six years. Rev. J. I. Fies, pastor of the Turner street Holland church, was notified of the sad accident by one of Mr. DeLange's brother employees, and went to the family residence and notified Mrs. De Lange.

Grand Haven.

The jail building committee extended a general invitation to the public to visit and inspect the new county jail Monday afternoon and evening.

The board of public works have tested one of their new experimental Cook pump wells on the lake shore. The well pumped at the rate of 107 gallons per minute and produced a splendid clear water. It is down 30 feet in course sand mixed with gravel.

The D. & M. dock is being replanked in some places. Station agent Steward rescued a lady the other morning who had fell partly through the dock.

Frank Monroe, a hobo who was in jail for drunkenness, attempted to break all the windows and property in the city lockup and had well nigh succeeded when quelled by the janitor. Monroe done this out of pure maliciousness and devilry and the sheriff at once preferred charges against him for malicious destruction of property. Justice Pagelson sent him to the Detroit House of Correction for 90 days.

Many of the cities of Michigan have recently voted whether or not to accept the new school law regarding free text books and uniform text books, to be governed by a commission appointed by the governor. Every city where the matter has been voted upon has knocked it out by a big majority. Unless Grand Haven votes on the proposition between now and the first of January it will become a law.

In the reorganization of Company F for the state service it is very likely that a large number of the members of the High School Cadets will join the company. A large number of the old members will drop out altogether as they seem to have had enough of soldiering.

No new cases of diphtheria have developed on Sunday and Monday the Sunday schools and the public schools again resumed. The extent of the disease in the city can be gathered from the following extract from the report of Dr. A. Van der Veen, assistant health officer, to the board of health: "When nearly a month ago your honorable body saw fit to appoint me assistant health officer, I found in the city suffering from diphtheria 19 families or a total of 33 children, their ages ranging from 14 to 2 years. Of this number 29 have recovered and 4 have died. Cause of death in each case, diphtheric croup. In three of these cases no antitoxin was administered."

Ottawa County.

Grand Haven town farmers have begun graveling a strip of the river road in Peach Plains.

Dr. C. P. Brown of Spring Lake left Tuesday for a short but somewhat indefinite visit among friends.

Deer hunters licenses have been issued by the county clerk to Chas. Johnson, Grand Haven; Wm. Trimble, Holland; Geo. Howell, Dennison; Clarence Comstock, William Lowing, O. L. Comstock, Otis Lowing and Fred Kort, Georgetown; S. L. Monroe and A. J. Enslaw, Grand Haven; E. Harmer, Coopersville; J. L. Green, Abe Lawrence, Geo. Green and Chas. As a result of the vote in the several school districts in Ottawa county, four districts namely, No. 3 Georgetown, No. 2, 4 and 5 Grand Haven township and No. 4 Spring Lake voted to come under the uniform text book law of 1898, and four namely, No. 10 fr. Georgetown, No. 3 Grand Haven town, and Nos. 3 and 7 Zeeland, came under the uniform law by neglecting to vote on the question, thus making eight districts to come under the law. Ninety-one rural districts and Holland city, voted "Not to come under the law." The following districts are using, or have adopted free text books: No. 3 Allegan, No. 2, 3, 4, fr., 5 fr. and 6 fr., Bledon; Nos. 2, 5 and 6 Georgetown; Nos. 1 and 2 Grand Haven town; No. 7 Olive; No. — Crocker; Nos. 3 fr., 4 and 6 fr., Robinson; Nos. 1 and 6 Spring Lake; Nos. 1, 4 fr., and 8 Zeeland, and the city of Grand Haven. Six of the above adopted free books this year, namely: No. 2 Bledon, 5 fr., Crocker, 4 and 6 fr. Robinson, 6 Georgetown, and 1 Spring Lake.

Spring Lake: A fire Tuesday evening destroyed Harry Miller's broom factory. He was at Grand Haven at the time and the cause of the fire is unknown. The loss falls heavy upon its owner, as there was no insurance.

G. R. Democrat: Engineer Bunker is hard at work digging out Grand river with the dredge, which has reached a point just seven and a half miles below Grand Rapids. It is thought that in a few days the dredge will cut through into a place that will not have to be dredged for some distance. The work has been quite slow of late, as the dredge has had to cut through what is almost bed rock. By Nov. 30 it is calculated that the dredge will be within five miles of Grand Rapids, but there it is thought the big machine will be compelled to lay up for the winter. When the dredging for this season is completed, there will yet be $10,000 left of the $50,000 appropriation.

At the fourth annual C. E. convention of Ottawa county, held at Lamont on Friday and Saturday last, the program of exercises was as follows:

Saugatuck.

The steamer Glenn is laid up for the winter.

The recent storm put Saugatuck harbor in such a condition that any boat drawing over four feet of water will scratch all the barnacles off her bottom in entering.

The Mackinaw party which left here about three weeks ago for a hunting excursion in the northern part of the state, returned Sunday morning. The Martel, with the party aboard, arrived off the harbor about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, but was unable to get in and ran back to Holland. The boys say they had a good time in spite of the weather, which was about as disagreeable as possible. They were obliged to stop at every port on the east shore on their trip.

Rev. Richtmyer launched his sailing yacht last Monday. It was named "Elsie Ross," in honor of his wife and little son. Mr. Richtmyer and family sailed from this port Thursday, amid farewells and best wishes of their many friends.

The best piece of news the Record ever had the pleasure of presenting to its readers is that the last foot of right-of-way has been secured for the Holland, Saugatuck & Douglas railway, and that the managers of the line have informed the village authorities that it was their intention to commence the grading at both ends of the line and continue the work as long as the weather will permit. Says the Record further: We suggest that when the time comes for moving the first foot of earth, the people assemble and have a jubilee, for we consider it the commencement of the building up of both villages, and the converting of the locality into the greatest summer resort in the state, not excepting one.

S. P. Johns, aged 77 years, dropped dead in the street here Monday, probably of heart failure. Mr. Johns lived two miles from town and has been in the habit of walking to town nearly every day for his mail and was on his way home when he fell.

Zeeland.

The new C. & W. M. depot is receiving its finishing touches and it will be ready for occupancy by Thanksgiving.

Friday Jacob De Fuyter celebrated his 81st birthday. His aged companion is very nearly the same age. Next spring, in April, the 60th anniversary of their marriage will take place.

A new burglar-proof safe for Den Herder's bank has arrived and been placed in position.

Mrs. H. De Kruij, Sr., was taken seriously ill last week, but has improved since.

Mrs. John De Bruyn and two children from Detroit are visiting with the family of R. De Bruyn.

John Goozen expects to move his family to Fillmore in the near future.

Mrs. Marietus De Koers died Friday, aged 65 years. She leaves a husband and several children.

News: John Hamilton Aylsworth, of Blendon, made a pleasant visit here with friends during the past week. Mr. Aylsworth's name will be well remembered as connected with the awful tragedy that recently occurred in Georgetown. He is much grieved over the loss of his two eldest daughters. Mr. Aylsworth stayed with the family of Mr. C. Schaap while here.—News.

Overisel.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Nyhuis last week—a son.

Two lady missionaries from Moody's Institute, Chicago, gave very interesting talks on mission work last week.

Last Friday John Nyhuis' house and entire contents were consumed by fire. The occupants were dining when the fire was discovered, and on account of the severe wind the conflagration raged with such fury the family barely escaped with their lives. The loss is heavy, as there was no insurance. Friends, relatives and neighbors should co-operate to send them relief in their calamity.

At Four Score.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.

UNCLE EZEKIEL OBEAR, assessor and tax collector, Beverly, Mass., who has passed the 80th life mile stone, says: "Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine has done a great deal of good. I suffered for years from sleeplessness and nervous heart trouble. Would feel weary and used up in the morning, had no ambition and my work seemed a burden. A friend recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I purchased a bottle under protest as I had tried so many remedies unsuccessfully. I thought it no use. But it gave me restful sleep, a good appetite and restored me to energetic health. It is a grand good medicine, and I will gladly write anyone inquiring, full particulars of my satisfactory experience."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address: DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

On election day 166 votes were polled, a very light vote for our township—83 straight republicans and 28 straight democrats. On an average the republican candidates received 123 and the democrats 37. How is this for a Democratic township? Simply a proof that the people place confidence in President McKinley's executive ability, and furthermore, that they desire to endorse the present administration.

There is a widespread and false impression that a man, in order to be a good physician, must be more or less heartless. People mistake heartlessness for nerve. The two terms are far from synonymous. A man may have a nerve of steel and a heart as tender as a mother's.

Of all the specialists in the world, there probably are not two that have as wide an experience in the treatment of women's diseases as Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. With the assistance of his staff of able physicians, he has prescribed, in the past thirty years, for many thousands of women. Dr. Pierce is pre-eminently a sympathetic physician. Perhaps more than any other man in the profession he realizes the hardships of woman's work, and the disadvantages under which she labors because of the weak, delicate and susceptible structure of the feminine organism. His immense practice in diseases peculiar to women forced upon his recognition the fact that women would never take the proper care of their health so long as that care required the repugnant "examinations" and "local treatments" insisted upon by nearly all physicians. After years of study he invented a remedy now known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite P. tion that is an absolute and unfailing for the most complicated and obstinate sea of diseases peculiar to women. Th. wonderful medicine cures in the privacy of the home, and does away with the necessity for obnoxious "local treatment." It imparts health, strength, vigor and elasticity to the organs distinctly feminine and fits for wisdom and motherhood.

In paper covers, 21 one-cent stamps; cloth binding, 10 cents extra. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

When any part of the body isn't doing the work nature intended it to do, it puts the whole system out of tune—out of harmony. Sickness in one part of the body is likely to run into all parts of the body. When children stand a row of bricks on end, they knock the whole row down by upsetting one brick. That is exactly what happens to the health when the bowels fail to perform their proper function. Constipation makes trouble all along the line—puts the liver out of order, is bad for the kidneys—bad for the stomach. It holds in the body poisonous matter and because it cannot go to any place else, it gets into the blood. The blood carries it all over the system. That makes sluggishness, lassitude, bad breath and foul taste in the mouth, fills the stomach with gas and causes windy belching, stops digestion in the stomach, causes sour stomach, heartburn and headache. You can avoid all such trouble, for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets CURE constipation and all its attendant evils.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement, I continued to use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bottle. At Heber Walsh of Holland and Van Bree & Son of Zeeland.

The Way They Do In Chicago.

A visitor to Chicago tells how prices of all commodities are reduced by the keen competition existing there. He cites as an example the Boston Store, that being the most representative of wide awake, up to date concerns in the general merchandise business. The firm occupies the immense buildings at 118 to 124 State st., and 77 to 79 Madison st., and carries everything to satisfy the wants of any persons, making a rule to handle reliable goods only, and always keeps its prices just a little under all competition. As a consequence they have the largest regular cash trade in the city. They ship goods to every part of the world, and mail a handsome catalogue free for the asking.

REJECTS THE PEACE PLAN.

Spain Will Not Yield the Philippines on Terms Offered by United States.

NO PLAN FOR A COMPROMISE OFFERED.

Negotiations Are Not Broken Off, as Sagasta Fears the Results—The Premier Says a Renewal of War Means His Nation's Ruin—Our Government Ready to Resume War.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Spanish commissioners, in the course of a two-hour session of the peace conference Friday, flatly refused to accept Monday's proposition by the Americans to take the entire Philippine group and to reimburse Spain for her "pacifist" expenditures there. This negative action was expected. The Spanish commissioners had also a number of positive declarations which filled some 37 sheets of a typewritten presentation. In this statement the Spaniards held that the United States had no ultimate rights in the Philippine islands and could have none save by the consent of Spain in these negotiations and upon terms satisfactory to her. According to the Spanish contention in the formal statement, the United States entertained no thought of annexing the Philippines when the protocol was signed, or it would have been expressed in the protocol as clearly as the conditions regarding the cession of territory in the Antilles and the orient. M. Cambon, before the signature of the protocol, received from Madrid—the present alleged—a cable message clearly setting forth that the maintenance of Spain's authority over the Philippines should not be affected by the protocol, to which reservation the United States made at that time no protest or objection. This dispatch to M. Cambon, as the Spaniards claimed, embodied also the view that the United States had no valid basis for claims in the archipelago. It was further held by Senor Rios and his colleagues that the capitulation of Manila, having occurred after the signing of the protocol, and thus after the suspension of hostilities, was invalid.

Spain Will Not Retire.
Madrid, Nov. 5.—Premier Sagasta, after a long consultation with the queen regent, declared that he hardly expected that the Americans would abandon their pretensions in the matter of the Philippines. The government, he said, had instructed Montero Rios, the head of the Spanish peace commission, to defend Spain's just claims to the utmost, obtaining all possible concessions. The Spanish commissioners, Sagasta said, would in no case retire, because such a step would be equivalent to a rupture and a renewal of hostilities, in which case he feared that the Americans would bombard the Canaries, the African colonies and the Spanish ports.

Calmly Await Results.
Washington, Nov. 5.—The administration is awaiting results from the peace commission with equanimity, in the realization that the government is perfectly well prepared for any turn the negotiations may take.

Will Sign Under Protest.
London, Nov. 7.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says: Spain will sign the peace treaty under protest.

No Break in Negotiations.
Washington, Nov. 9.—So far as the state department knows there has been no break in the peace negotiations in Paris, and if any difficulty had arisen officials say it would certainly have been reported promptly to the department. It is assumed therefore that there must be some purely internal reason for the postponement, perhaps the convenience of the commissioners.

Important to Bicycle Builders.
Milwaukee, Nov. 8.—Judge Seaman in the United States court has rendered a decision of importance to manufacturers of bicycles. The court holds in effect that anyone who wishes may engage in the manufacture of wooden rims used for bicycle wheels, as they are not now a patentable article. The decision was rendered in dismissing the complaint in the suits of the Indiana Novelty Manufacturing company against the Crocker Chair company, of Sheboygan, and the Smith Manufacturing company.

Died at the Throttle.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—While the fast refrigerator train on the Chicago & Alton road was speeding toward Glendale, just east of here, Engineer Richard A. House sat dead in his cab, his hand grasping the throttle and a peaceful smile on his face. Fireman John Varndell did not discover that his mate was dead until he spoke to him and received no answer. House's home was in Forest, Ill.

Curfew in St. Louis.
St. Louis, Nov. 5.—The city council has passed a curfew ordinance providing that children under 15 years of age shall not be permitted on the streets of the city after eight o'clock at night.

Seven Men Killed.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 7.—Seven men were killed and three fatally injured at the Exeter colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company at West Pittston.

Burned at Sea.
New York, Nov. 5.—The steamer Croatan, en route from this port to Wilmington, N. C., was burned at sea off Cape Charles and five persons lost their lives.

Passed Away.
Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Rev. Dr. H. I. Wayland, one of the most eminent Baptist divines, died at Wernersville, aged 86 years.

WEEKLY WAR HISTORY.

Complete Record of Events Told in a Few Lines Covering All Important News.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4.
The Spanish authorities are preparing to close all matters of the administration of the island of Cuba during this month. The Illinois naval reserves who are still in the service have been ordered home to be mustered out. There are about 100 of them.

The American commissioners went to the Colon cemetery, in Havana, and placed flowers on the graves of the victims of the Maine explosion.

The customs receipts in Santiago in October under American management amounted to $28,000, an increase over October, 1897, of over $3,000.

The Spanish steamer Montserrat arrived in Cadiz from Santiago de Cuba with repatriated troops. There were 36 deaths on board during the voyage.

The Sixth Virginia, a negro regiment, mustered at Knoxville, Tenn., because white officers supervised negro officers, who had resigned under pressure.

The Spanish military commissioners in Havana notified the American commissioners that the province of Puerto Principe would be evacuated before November 22.

Maj. Gen. Corbin announced that the war department would proceed at once to bring back to the United States the remains of such soldiers as have died in Cuba, Puerto Rico and at Manila during the late war.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5.
The transport Pennsylvania with the Fifty-first regiment of Iowa volunteers on board sailed from San Francisco for Manila.

It was reported that Premier Sagasta has instructed the Spanish peace commissioners in Paris not to give up the Philippines.

The cruiser Buffalo left Brooklyn for Manila with 700 bluejackets, who will replace the men in Admiral Dewey's fleet who have served out their terms of enlistment.

Secretary Long says that the government will take no further steps to raise the rest of the Spanish warships destroyed by Admiral Schley's fleet off the coast of Santiago.

Admiral Dewey cabled the navy department that the Charleston had sailed from Manila for Iloilo, on the island of Panay. This is the last seat of Spanish power in the Philippines.

The war department has issued a general order for the movement of troops to Cuba. The first troops will leave about November 22, and will comprise a brigade under Brig. Gen. Carpenter.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6.
The transport Chester arrived in New York, having on board 57 trophy guns from Santiago.

Eight companies of the One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Indian volunteers were paid off and mustered out at Indianapolis.

Seventeen Cubans arrived in New York on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm, having been released from the Spanish prison at Ceuta recently.

Advices from the Cuban military commission are to the effect that the Spanish evacuation of Porto Principe will take place earlier than the 22d and that it will be desirable to send troops as early as the 15th.

Spain rejected the United States proposition regarding the Philippines at a joint session of the peace commission at Paris, but the Madrid representatives did not withdraw from the conference. Premier Sagasta, in an interview at Madrid, practically admitted his country must finally yield. The United States is prepared to resume hostilities at any moment and administration officials declare the navy and army in better shape than at any time during the war.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7.
Advices from Madrid say that Spain will sign the peace treaty under protest.

The transport City of Puebla sailed from San Francisco for Manila, carrying 605 men and officers.

Mrs. Russell Sage, of New York, will contribute $300,000 for the building of a military sanitarium in Citronelle, Ala.

Yellow fever is rapidly on the increase in Havana and is causing great anxiety among the American officials.

The Fourth Ohio Infantry, which passed through Washington en route from Porto Rico to Columbus, was paid the complement of a reception at the white house.

The cruiser Maria Teresa, Admiral Cervera's flagship, raised at great expense at Santiago by Lieut. Hobson and added to the American navy, foundered off San Salvador in a storm and went to the bottom. Those on board were saved.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8.
Orders were issued by Gen. Young for the general movement of the Second corps from Camp Meade at Middletown, Pa., to new camps in the south.

Admiral Schley cabled the navy department that Capt. Snow had arrived at San Juan and that he had relieved the admiral of the command of the naval station there.

Spain's argument against the cession of the Philippines to the United States has had the result of making the officials in Washington all the more determined to take the islands.

London papers urge the American people to pronounce boldly in favor of retaining the Philippines. "For otherwise there will be a scramble for coaling stations that will endanger the peace of the world."

Western army surgeons and Col. Turner, of the First Illinois volunteers, told the war inquiry board in session in Chicago that incompetent camp discipline was largely responsible for unsanitary conditions and a consequent heavy death rate.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9.
The transport Newport sailed from San Francisco for the Philippines with Gen. Mer and his staff on board.

The navy department received information that a ship ashore at Cat Island was probably the Maria Teresa, which was supposed to have foundered at sea.

The Spanish government has instructed the Trans-Atlantic steamship line to secure additional ships and hasten the repatriation of the Spanish troops in Cuba.

Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles has completed and submitted to the war department his report covering the entire period of hostilities between the United States and Spain.

The Spanish people in Madrid grow more and more impatient daily to have the Paris negotiations over, and the treaty, whatever it be, signed. The government, on the other hand, wants delay.

The war department has decided that soldiers unable to be present at muster out of their commands could, on presentation of a surgeon's certificate, be granted additional furlough and paid to time of final muster out.

Wanted—An Idea

The election of 1898, like the campaign that preceded it, was marked by the absence of undue excitement, and even the returns failed to arouse any of the old-time enthusiasm, owing no doubt to the fact that the result, gratifying as it is, can hardly be designated as a victory. It was more in the nature of a confirmation of the popular verdicts rendered in 1894 upon the Wilson bill and in 1896 upon the Chicago platform. The country is at ease and satisfied, and the people have decreed that well-enough be let alone.

In the east the sweeping Republican majorities of '96 were reduced just in proportion that the opposition cut loose from Free Silver, and in the west, once the stronghold of Sixteenth-one, Republican gains have rewarded an aggressive adherence to the gold standard. In New York the Democrats, under the lead of David B. Hill, managed to get their leaders together and an offensive and defensive alliance was entered into between the silverites and goldbugs. The condition of it was that Bryan and the Chicago platform should not be obtruded into the campaign. That condition was honored and the Republican majority for Roosevelt was reduced to 18,000. In Michigan it was the reverse. Every fallacy in the Chicago platform, free silver and all, was re-endorsed, and an old-line greenbacker put at the head of the ticket, and the result is that the Republican majority is still growing and increasing as the returns come in.

The times are recovering and the general business outlook is too favorable, compared with four years ago, than that Coin's financial doctrines can longer be promulgated with any degree of success. Such is only possible in times of depression, when a part of the people are willing to resort to most anything for redress. It was the panic of '73 that made the greenback craze that ensued possible, and it was the thrust at our national prosperity by the repeal of the McKinley tariff and the hard times that followed in '93, that paved the way for the demand of an unlimited inflation of silver.

It was a matter of doubt until Thursday, whether or not the Republicans had saved the House. About this there is no longer any dispute. The Senate and House, after March 4 next, are in political sympathy with the administration. The 56th Congress will stand as follows:

| SENATE. | |
|-------------------------|-----|
| Republicans..... | 58 |
| Democrats..... | 27 |
| Populists..... | 6 |
| Silver Republicans..... | 3 |
| Independent..... | 1 |
| HOUSE. | |
| Republicans..... | 185 |
| Democrats..... | 168 |
| Populists..... | 6 |
| Silver Republicans..... | 1 |

The result in favor of the party in power at a congressional election immediately following a presidential campaign, says the Free Press, is rather unusual, "and on this account will be all the more gratifying to the administration, by whom it will naturally be taken as a splendid endorsement. Whatever may have been the congressional victory, whether it was the result of Democratic apathy and division, or a fear of free silver agitation, or of sentiments growing out of the late war, it is certain that the administration will be strengthened in its new policy of expansion by Tuesday's expression of the popular will."

The Republicans have redeemed Nebraska, the home of Bryan, and even Kansas, the hot-bed of Populism. Chas. A. Towne is defeated for congress in Minnesota. Washington elected both Republican congressmen. Jerry Simpson, the Kansas Populist has also been defeated. Indiana remains Republican by 20,000, a very unusual thing in an off-year.

Colorado went for Silver by 50,000, about one-half the majority she gave Bryan in '96. Minnesota elects the Fusion candidate for governor, and a Republican legislature, which insures the re-election of Senator Davis. The Southern states remain Democratic, and, in some localities, have increased their majorities. The general result in the several states is given elsewhere.

The more complete returns from the state place Gov. Pingree's plurality at about 74,000. Two years ago it reached 80,409. It would be difficult to place correct estimates upon the extent of cutting that was done on the vote for governor. In this city it may have reached as high as twenty per cent of the Republican vote, but it was made good to some extent by Populist votes.

The Republicans have elected a solid representation of 12 congressmen by majorities ranging from 1,100 for Corliss in the First district, to 11,000 for Sheldon in the Twelfth. Wm. Alden Smith's majority is the second largest in the state.

The Democrat-Silver party have elected but very few members to the state legislature. The house will stand 94 Republicans and 6 Democrats. The senate will have 5 Democrats and 27 Republicans. On joint ballot the legislature will probably stand, Republicans, 121; Democrats, 11.

Every county in the state has been carried by the Republicans, save Jackson, Ingham and Leelanau. Senator Burrows' election seems assured. His friends claim that Republican candidates pledged to him have been elected in no less than 20 legislative districts whose complexion was such as to give no hope for winning to the Republican nominee. They state in the most positive and explicit terms that, after eliminating the number of legislators-elect whose position on the senatorship matter is in any way rendered doubtful, there still remain 80 whose votes, if he lives and they live, Mr. Burrows will get. A bolt from the caucus is no longer feared.

It was evident during the campaign that congressman Smith would be returned. The manner in which he was received all over the district was a fair omen of his success at the polls. Witness the demonstrations in his honor in Holland on Friday evening, and his own city on Monday evening. He carries every county in the district, and his total plurality is placed at 6,030, to which Ionia contributes 440, Ottawa 1,065, and Kent 3,615. Smith's majority in Grand Rapids city was 1,303, and in the county outside 2,312.

Allegan county returns the following Republican majorities: Pingree 664; Hamilton, for congress, 1,670; Humphrey, state senator, 1,779; Whitbeck, sheriff, 1,519; Barnes, clerk, 1,659; Klomparsen, register, 1,166; Nash, treasurer, 1,555; Thew, pros. atty., 1,486. On the vote for congressman, Allegan gave 67 rep. majority, Fillmore 160, Laketown 70, Heath 39, Manlius 61, Overisel 56, Saugatuck 124.

In Kent county Pingree carries every ward in Grand Rapids, and every town except Alpine. The whole Republican county ticket is elected by pluralities ranging from 1,200 to 3,500. The Republican majorities in Muskegon county vary from 1,600 to 2,400. In Berrien county Pingree, notwithstanding he was severely cut by Republicans, received enough support from Democrats to give him 2,009 plurality, which is 500 ahead of his ticket.

Pingree has carried St. Joseph county by a small majority, probably 50. The rest of the state ticket is also Republican by a small majority. This is a big gain over 1896, when the fusion ticket carried the county by 500 to 700 majority.

The result of election in Eaton Co., exceeds all expectations, several townships showing Republican gains of 100 over the fusion vote of two years ago. At that time the Republicans were about 4,000 behind. This year on the state ticket they will be not far from 600 ahead, showing that the free-silver fusion craze has almost died out.

Ogemaw county elected a woman, Mrs. Merrie H. Abbot, prosecuting attorney.

Ottawa county more than rolled up its old-time Republican majority, and gave the candidates on the Republican ticket a lead ranging from 1,475 to 2,000. Every township gave a Republican majority except Chester and Wright. Pingree carried the county by about 1,475—Allendale, 108; Blendon, 47; Crocker, 122; Georgetown, 48; Grand Haven town, 31; Holland town, 128; Jamestown, 46; Olive, 76; Polkton, 212; Robinson, 20; Spring Lake, 138; Tallmadge, 80; Zeeland, 164; Grand Haven city, 191; Holland, 81.

Congressman Smith received 1,950 majority; state senator Sheldon 2,000; representative Lugers 800, and representative Alward 900.

Sheriff Van Ry was cut in Spring Lake, the home of his opponent, and also in Crocker and Georgetown, but he made an excellent run in this city.

Grand Haven gave the Republican state ticket a majority of 265, Pingree 191, Smith 266, Sheldon 262, Lugers 173, Van Ry 188, Hoyt 311, Brusse 209, Lynn 311, McBride 226.

Wright gave Whiting 43 majority, but Sheldon carried it by 27.

Holland town—Smith 128, Van Ry 117, Hoyt 94, Brusse 96, McBride 98.

Allendale gave Republican majorities ranging from 103 to 109. Blendon is no longer a doubtful township, its Republican majorities vary from 40 to 50. In Crocker Pingree ran ahead of the ticket and had 118 majority. Waite made a big fight there, but Van Ry won by 32. In Georgetown Republican majorities range from 29 to 74. Grand Haven town is 20 Republican. Jamestown is again Republican by about 40. Olive gives a majority to the Republicans of 75. Polkton gave Pingree a majority of 212. Smith 259, Sheldon 257, Alward 199, Van Ry 240, Hoyt 253, Brusse 258, Lynn 251, McBride 259. In Spring Lake Waite beat Van Ry by 66. Lugers defeated Savage there by 66. Republicans captured everything else by majorities of over 100. Tallmadge is Republican by 80. Zeeland rolls up its usual majority of over 300. Peter Brusse carried the town by 352. Pingree was cut there, and was ahead only 164. Robinson gave Pingree 39 and the rest of the ticket 32 majority.

The result of the vote in Holland is given in tabular form elsewhere in the News.

The project for an electric road from Grand Rapids to Holland and Macatawa Park is not dead yet, and its projectors are arranging with the representatives of a like enterprise, known as the Grand Rapids & Belding Traction Co., for a traffic alliance which may be of importance to both projects. The arrangement contemplates a union depot and transfer office in the down town district of Grand Rapids. Through cars will be run from Belding to Holland and Macatawa Park, without transfer of passengers, and the track and loop lines of each company in Grand Rapids will be used interchangeably. The arrangement, in fact, contemplates a close alliance which will make the roads so far as the public is concerned to a large extent one line. The projectors of the Holland line are determined that they will not be forced to domination by the Grand Rapids street railway company and are maturing plans for obtaining an independent line into the city as originally proposed. Further developments may no doubt be expected soon. Wm. T. Hess, one of the projectors of the Grand Rapids-Macatawa road, in an interview at Grand Rapids, the other day, said: "We have all the right of way we may need, except in the city limits, and we have our route surveyed and everything ready to proceed to the business of construction. The common council has done its best to strand us at the city limits and seems to have succeeded quite thoroughly. But we do not propose to let it go at that. Our property is already too valuable and we feel that the project is too favorable to let us even think of dropping it. The ordinance as it passed the council was absolutely prohibitive. We feel certain that the people are favorable to our road as tending to the promotion of their own interests. Of course we appreciate the position of the Consolidated Street Railway company. They do not want any other road to secure a footing in the city and they will do all they can to prevent it—and they seem able to do a great deal. Of course, it would be a pleasant thing for them to be able to levy tribute on any other concern that might desire to do business within the city limits, but they may not be able to retain their present absolute monopoly forever. We can afford to wait, but we dislike having to wait very long."

"NO, MY BOY, THEY WOULDN'T BE GOOD FOR YOU"

Chief Simon Pokagon has completed the history of his father, Leopold, and himself, and his Chicago publisher expects to issue the first edition of 1,000 copies Jan. 1. The volume will consist of 350 pages and will contain his speeches and the early history of his tribe. Pokagon has received a letter from the Interior Department at Washington regarding his claim to over $3,000 worth of property lying between the Chicago river and Lincoln park. The claim seems to be a good one and he expects to receive quite a sum for his interest. The other day Pokagon received an invitation from one of the public schools in Chicago to be present at an entertainment given by the children. Not being able to comply with the request he sent the following response:

Hartford, Mich., Oct. 26.—To the Ray School, Chicago. Greeting:—My dear children, Pokagon's heart rejoiced to receive the invitation to your entertainment, but on account of sickness in his family he could not well attend. It is the one great desire of his heart that the young may learn to know his people better, and thereby remove from their mind that prejudice which has existed against us for years past. Dear children, do not forget this: Your playground was mine sixty years ago. It was wild, uncultivated land, but I loved it, for it was the land of my fathers. May you hold sacred the rich heritage which has fallen to you! I expect great things of you. Please do not disappoint Pokagon. His pride is in Chicago, the city of his father.

The greatest curse that stands with brazen face to lead aside the young in Chicago is "ish-ko-te-ni-bush" (fire water), which, like gip-e-big (snake), lures to destroy, but without the warning rattle. My dear children, this is perhaps the last advice Pokagon can give you. Hear me. Do not taste—no nor touch—the accursed fire water. Promise me you will not.

May Kyi Manito (God) bless you all, and help you always to stand for the right, and never forget that the red man and the white man are brothers and God is the father of all. Good-by.

CHIEF SIMON POKAGON.

The Grand Rapids Carnival of 1898 is over and as the week is being reviewed it is doubtful whether a similar "blow out" will ever again be set on foot in the Valley City. It was a too "wide open" affair, and in balancing up the week's experience, the material benefits derived do not begin to compensate for the moral injuries sustained. For instance, here is the record of one morning in police court: Nineteen cases of plain drunk. Jacob Koolman—d. and d.—pinched a woman on the street. Jay Rose—disorderly—putting arms about woman on the street. Thomas Cotton—same thing. Burt Kontanandiyke—disorderly—hugging women. Chris Borin—disorderly—swearing at his wife. John Lucas—fighting Henry Prince—d. and d.—swearing on the street. J. Kankhoff—disorderly—hugging women on the street. George Boyer—same thing. John De Vries—another. Ed. Hartman—another. Roy Wolf—charged with larceny of a coat. In summarizing the Carnival as a whole the Evening Press reaches the following conclusion: "Much to the regret, and contrary to its expectations, the Press is obliged to acknowledge that the carnival as it was conducted this year was in certain of its features objectionable, mischievous and morally vitiating. It was promised that there should be no exhibitions of an immoral or corrupting nature allowed, and that strict order would be maintained upon the street. Neither promise was kept. Some of the side shows were so disgusting as to excite protests from the most calloused, and the abandon, the rowdiness and vulgarity which ran riot upon the street at times filled even the most indifferent with consternation and astonishment."

All sensible people know that the only way to remove a wart is to rub it with half a potato, which is afterwards to be buried by a cross-eyed negro in the northwest corner of a graveyard at midnight during the dark of the moon. As the potato decays the wart will disappear.

Ladies Tailor-Made Costume.

To one who has made a study of the subject, the increasing popularity of tailor made garments commends itself in many ways.

Today the cutting and fitting of such costumes for ladies has become a distinct art; and the great demand for them is a sure sign that they have attracted public favor, not as a fad or whim of the passing hour, but as a permanency.

The cut and finish of the tailor-made costumes outline and set off the feminine figure to far better advantage than the beruffled and befrilled creations of the dressmaker. Under the management of the ladies' tailor the costume can be made to give the individuality of the wearer's appearance any expression she may desire.—The Tailors' Review.

Calumet Baking Powder

has turned the tables on high price baking powders. The directions on High Price cans are the same as on Calumet cans, viz.: a teaspoonful to a quart of flour, but they say that one can of High Price will go three times as far as any other. Can any claim be more ridiculous? The frantic cry of adulteration, danger and poison made by the high price baking powder people is a blind to intimidate the public and induce them to pay fancy prices for their goods—also to divert attention from this defect in their own goods.

Calumet Baking Powder is safe. Food baked

October 1898, goes on record as a somewhat remarkable month. That month went by with almost every day and on only one date did she allow a sunny smile to cross her features.

The deaths in the state for the year ending September 30 numbered 27,915.
Nearly 30 per cent were under one year old.

By January first Kent county will have paid the last installment of its court house bonds.

Reports from the southern part of Berrien county show that acre after acre of wheat is ruined by a new pest known as the wheat fly. The affected wheat fields have a golden appearance.

The war tramp is now working all over the country. He bilsters his arm with acid and goes up to the back door with a pitiful tale of hardships he has suffered. He exhibits his arm and it seldom fails to bring something.

oners in Jackson state prison are serving life sentences.

stones were tipped over or broken in

Benton Harbor: New York capitalists have purchased the Buss machine works for $13,000, and the new machinery and stock will be moved here at once. The plant when completed will cost $100,000, will manufacture blank books and stationery and furnish employment to from 50 to 150 men.

ated into the mysteries of the K. O.

The Y. M. C. A. of Grand Rapids proposes to take up the teaching of the Spanish language.

A syndicate of lumbermen, composed of J. D. Lacey, the White & Flint lumber company, R. C. Luce & Sons, and A. G. Hodepy of Grand Rapids, Mich., has bought all the lands owned by the Tensas Basin district levee board, lying in Louisiana, aggregating 800,000 acres. The price paid was $30-000. The purpose of the syndicate is to manufacture the lumber on the land and induce immigration from the West to settle on that portion suitable for agriculture.

A sale of United States cavalry horses was held near Chicago last week. The horses cost the government about $125 each and were sold at prices ranging from $25 to $40. They were thin in flesh, but were mostly serviceable and were bought by farmers and country dealers.

The greatest mining camp of the world is Johannesburg, in far-away South Africa, where gold is mined at the rate of $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 a month. The second largest is Butte, Mont., and closely pressing it is Calumet, Mich. Both Butte and Calumet are copper camps, and it is a notable fact that with the sole exception of the Kimberly diamond mines, the most profitable mineral properties of the entire world are those producing copper.

The school book publishers are said to be preparing to raid the public schools of the entire country and make the managers believe it is necessary for the children to buy new geographies and histories, because of a change of ownership of a few islands, growing out of the war with Spain.

An experiment in rural mail delivery is being made in Maryland under the direction of the postal department which may have an important bearing on a matter of growing interest. A sort of traveling postoffice drawn by horses is to be fitted out and driven over a route, running through several small villages and connecting with a railroad at each end of the circuit. The driver acts also as postmaster, mail collector and distributor and sells stamps and money orders. This is even a more elaborate plan than was proposed when the question of a rural mail delivery was first broached. Then it was proposed only to deliver the mail regularly. In the Maryland experiment, however, the mail is not delivered to each house, but to boxes placed along the route. Such a plan presupposes a system of good roads, and such a system will undoubtedly be required before any rural community is given any sort of special mail facilities.

THE INDIAN SCHOOLS.

Annual Report Shows That 23,952
Pupils Were in Attendance.

One Hundred and Forty-Seven Well-Equipped Boarding Schools and an Equal Number of Day Schools Established.

The annual report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones shows a general steady advancement in the condition of the "nation's wards." Education, the greatest factor in solving the status of the Indians, is being pushed forward in the service, and now there are 147 well-equipped boarding schools and an equal number of day schools engaged in the education of 23,952 pupils. The average attendance and enrollment has steadily increased for the last 21 years.
Inquiries made during the year show significantly that 89 per cent. of those pupils who have gone through the schools and returned to their homes are reported to be in good physical condition.

The placing of Indian children in the public schools of the country for the purpose of coeducation of the races does not appear to meet with much success, but a fuller test of its value and practicability is to be made this year.

The school plants in the service are valued at over $3,000,000, and larger funds for keeping them in repair, etc., are urged.

Out of the general school support fund the Indian office contemplates the expenditure of a sufficient sum to radically increase scholastic facilities for the great tribes of the southwest, and to that end adequate additions will be made to the schools now established for the Pimas, Papagos, Navajos, Moquis, Apaches, at Sacaton, Fort Defiance, Kearns Canyon, San Carlos and Fort Apache. There are on these reservations and adjacent thereto thousands of Indians without any school advantages whatever.

SALES IN A QUEER CRAFT.

New York Lawyer Carries His Boat
in a Bundle Under His Arm.

William Douglas More came sailing up to the battery dock at New York city about eight o'clock the other morning in a trim little boat. The craft stood well up to the wind and rode a heavy swell made by passing steamers like a cork, but when she arrived at the pier her owner jumped out and, to the astonishment of the onlookers, began to pull his boat to pieces.

He took out the 12-foot mast and folded it into three pieces, loosened a few pieces of cord and off slipped a duck covering, disclosing an apparently fragile framework of ash, which in a few minutes more was unhooked and neatly tied up in a bundle three feet six inches long. The strange mariner then tucked his dismantled boat under an arm and marched up Broadway to his office, where he practices law when not engaged in sailing his remarkable craft.

RELICS OF MAMMOTS.

Klondiker Says the Frozen North Offers a Field for the Scientist.

Alexander Stafford has returned from Klondike with gigantic relics of prehistoric mammoths of the arctic zone. He says scientists have rich fields for operations there.

In his Klondike claim, after rich pay dirt had been washed out, Stafford found the remains, buried deep. He himself brought to light a pair of tusk ten feet long, seven inches in diameter, splendidly preserved, and a hip bone of the same animal. The socket was like a soup bowl in size and shape, measuring eight inches across the top.
The rest of the skeleton is no doubt still buried.

A skull was also exhumed like that of an American buffalo, but three times as large, with stumps of great horns, only three inches apart across the forehead.

IS EXCRUCIATING TORTURE.

Paris Doctor Who Says Guillotining
Is One of Most Horrible Forms of Capital Punishment.

The Medical Journal publishes the report of Dr. Cinel, of Paris, asserting that guillotining does not immediately affect the brain. The French doctor says the blood first comes from the larger vessels of the neck, and that there is hardly any drain upon the circulation in the cranium. The brain, he adds, finds nourishment for an hour after decapitation, during which time the person decapitated retains his or her senses of hearing, smelling and seeing. Absolute death, Dr. Cinel claims, does not ensue for three hours. Thus, it is pointed out, guillotining, instead of being speedy, is one of the most prolonged and horrible forms of capital punishment.

The Costliest Cough Cure is Change of Climate, and it's a cure that's not often possible and not always sure. There's a better idea about coughs and cures: Why not fit the lungs to the climate instead of fitting the climate to the lungs? It is the power to do this that makes

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral THE BEST COUGH CURE

in the land. It is a sure cure for colds and coughs; a specific for Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough; it prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe; and it so strengthens the lungs and heals the torn tissues that many cases of disease marked by all the signs of Incipient Consumption have been absolutely cured by its use. Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral can now be had in half-size bottles

At Half Price, 50 cts.

"We tried almost everything" for asthma without success. At last we used your Cherry Pectoral and the relief was immediate."
S. A. ELLIS, Keene, N. H.

"When I had almost despaired of ever finding a cure for chronic bronchitis, I derived most excellent results from Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I can testify as to its efficacy."
R. G. PROCTOR, M. D., Oakland City, Ind.

"There were sixteen children in my father's family and there are seven in my own. We have never, since I can remember, been without Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and have never had a case of cold or a cough that this remedy did not cure."
Hon. WM. E. MASON, Chicago, Ill.

"My wife was sick in bed for ten months and was attended by six different doctors. All of them said that she had consumption, and some of them said she could not live a month.
I bought one bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It seemed to help her, so I secured one dozen bottles. Before these were all used, she was completely cured and to-day is strong and well."
J. W. EWING, Camden Point, Mo.

"For more than a year my wife suffered with lung trouble. She had a severe cough, great soreness of the chest, and experienced difficulty in breathing. A three months' treatment with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral effected a complete cure. We regarded it as remarkable, as the other remedies she had tried had failed to even give relief."

SUBSTITUTE FOR RUBBER.

Enthusiastic Individual Who Believes He Has Made a Great Discovery.

David McCullom is organizing a company at New Brunswick, N. J., for the purpose of manufacturing a rubber substitute, asserted to be superior to any heretofore made. It costs nine cents a pound, while rubber costs one dollar.

McCullom says he is backed by the rubber trust, and has letters showing that the Havemeyers and John D.
Rockefeller are in his scheme. He says, too, he has interested Charles R. Flint, of the United States Rubber company, in the matter, and that Mr. Flint advised him to get a corner in the oil which forms a part of the composition of the substitute.

He next consulted with H. O. Havemeyer, the sugar magnate, and declares that he has closed a deal whereby Mr. Havemeyer is to control the raw material for the manufacture of the substitute, provided McCullom demonstrated that he could make the substitute.

STRANGE BUG INVADERS TEXAS

It Is Called Italian Asp, and Serious Results Follow Its Biting.

Within the past two or three weeks
many sections of Texas have been visited by a strange bug. The creature is an angular-shaped affair, something like the body of a patent smoothing iron, with bushy tan or mouse colored hair bristles, which extend from every part of the body. It has not yet been determined whether the hair or the feet do the stinging. Very serious results have followed where persons have been stung. It has become necessary in some homes to keep constantly on guard, and even the beds have to be examined before retiring at night.
These bugs are called "Italian asps."

Where There Are No Wages.

One city has been found in which there is no bicycle craze, and never will be. It is Aden, on the Red sea. A Chicago maker having written to the consul there, asking a statement of the conditions and chances, has been told that the roads are hilly and gullied;
it is always too hot to ride in the daytime; the natives are all too poor to own wheels; there are not more than 25 bicycles in the four towns of Aden,
Little Aden, Steamer Point and Shaik Othman; there is no demand for any more; there is no demand for repairs.

COUNTING VOTES.

Results of the Elections in the States According to Latest Returns.

Close Contests in Many Congressional Districts and for State Offices.

Col. Roosevelt Carries the Election in New York by a Small Majority.

Ohio's Big Republican Plurality for an Off Year—Quay May Be Defeated in Pennsylvania.

Official Count Necessary in Many Cases to Determine the Result of the Election.

New York, Nov. 9.—Practically complete returns on the vote for governor in the entire state give Roosevelt (rep.) a plurality of 1,532.

The democratic plurality in Greater New York was 2,303.

New York, Nov. 9.—Revised returns as they came in early Wednesday made practically no change in those of Tuesday night, which showed the election of Col. Roosevelt, republican, for governor, by a plurality of from 18,000 to 20,000 over Augustus Van Wyck, democrat. As compared with the election of 1896, when Black defeated Porter, this shows a republican loss of from 10,000 to 15,000. Roosevelt came to the Harlem river with 100,000 plurality, and Van Wyck had but 5,000 in Greater New York with which to meet it. The vote outside the city shows that Roosevelt lost 4,000 as compared with Black. In the city his vote was 61,000, smaller than Black's. In the country districts Van Wyck ran about 20,000 and in the city about 54,000 ahead of Porter. The state's congressional delegation will probably stand: Republicans, 15; democrats, 13; a democratic gain of 12. In old New York (Manhattan borough) no republican has been returned, and a feature of the election was the defeat by Capt. William Astor Chanler of Lemuel E. Quigg for congress in the Fourteenth district, where the former overcame a republican plurality of 11,700 two years ago and won by 4,000. The state legislature will be republican on joint ballot by 33 votes, insuring the election of a republican to succeed Senator Edward Murphy, Jr., on the expiration of his term on March 3, 1899. The state senate will stand 27 republicans to 23 democrats, a democratic gain of 9. The republicans will have 59 members of the assembly and the democrats 51. This is a republican gain of 11.

Will Keep His Promises.

Col. Roosevelt said after all doubt as to his election had been removed:

"I appreciate the honor very deeply and I appreciate even more deeply the responsibility involved in the honor. I shall do all in my power to redeem every promise I have made, expressed or implied. I am a good republican and I believe I can serve the republican party by doing everything I can to help it serve the state. I shall strive to administer the office of governor in the interests of the whole people. It is by so doing that I can best show my appreciation of the support given me by the independent and democratic who have themselves put the welfare of the state first, declining to follow those of their own party who would either range themselves outright on the side of the forces of dishonesty or else supported them in effect by standing aside from the real contest."

Ohio.

Columbus, O., Nov. 9.—Additional returns do not materially change the result announced of over 50,000 republican plurality on the state ticket, and 15 republican to 9 democratic congressmen. On later returns the republicans claim the election of White (rep.) to congress in the Third district over Brenner (dem.), making the delegation 15 to 5 a gain of one congressman.

The republicans have historically lost in Ohio in these "off years," except when Cleveland was president, when the democrats had the same experience because of disappointments, dissatisfaction, and while the result may not be regarded as especially significant, it is very surprising to the politicians on both sides in the state, and other democratic managers say that President McKinley is the first republican president to get the indorsement of this state in the "off year" of his administration. Chairman Daugherty, of the republican state committee, attributes the result to the sentiment for such indorsement. Chairman Blacker, of the democratic state committee, says the result was due to the administration successfully conducting the war.

The democratic managers are rejoicing over what they call the "core spots of the victory." It is stated that the state departments or institutions under Gov. Bushnell contributed to the republican state committee, but to the defeat of Huggins in this congressional district, while the plurality of Congressmen was 15 to 9, Springfield, in the Seventh district, the home of Gov. Bushnell, was reduced from 2,200 two years ago, to only 200 Tuesday.

When Gov. Bushnell, ex-Chairman Kurtz, Mayor McKinley was leading a republican bolt in the legislature last January against Senator Hanna, Congressman Weaver headed a delegation of Springfield citizens, who created a scene when they called on Gov. Bushnell here to protest against his course and the whole party administration is said to have been used in opposing Weaver's election.

Illinois.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Election returns for Chicago and Cook county were still incomplete at a late hour of the morning, but enough is known to make certain the election of the republican ticket, with some doubt as to two or three of the judges and one assessor. The indications are that the pluralities will range from 5,000 to 15,000, and that the board of review candidates will lead the ticket.

The victory of the republican county ticket, though not absolutely conceded by the democrats, is assured by the returns on all the candidates except those of some of the judges and one of the assessors. Later returns reduce republican plurality on state ticket to between 20,000 and 30,000. In the county republican lead likely to be less than 5,000, although republican county managers claim plurality of 10,000. Several congressional districts still in doubt.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 9.—Congress—Fifteenth district, Ben. F. Marsh (rep.) probably elected.

Fourteenth district, Joseph V. Graft (rep.) elected.

Twenty-first district, W. A. Rodenberg (rep.) elected.

Florida, Ill., Nov. 9.—A private dispatch from Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the prohibition state committee, claims 23,000 votes in Illinois. He also claims that Reagan, of Rockford, is certainly, and Burleigh, of Grundy county, is probably elected to the legislature.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—The next Pennsylvania legislature, which meets in January and elects a successor to United States Senator Quay, will consist of 254 members on joint ballot, 128 votes being necessary to elect a senator. The friends of Senator Quay claim that they have 131 votes on joint ballot. This estimate they say is independent of the members favorable to Senator Magee in Allegheny county and the followers of David Martin in Philadelphia.

The anti-Quay people in this city dispute these figures and claim that they have elected sufficient members of the assembly to defeat the reelection of Senator Quay.

Sensor Quay in a telegram from his home conceded the election of two democrats to the legislature from his home county of Beaver by 400 majority. This is a democratic gain.

Incomplete returns from the state of Pennsylvania give William A. Stone (rep.) a plurality of nearly 150,000 for governor over George A. Jenks (dem.).

Swallow, the prohibition and honest government candidate, received unexpectedly light support and his total vote will probably not go much above 100,000, against 115,000 last year.

Later returns make the congressional contest close. The democrats now claim the election of Davenport by 200 plurality.

Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 9.—The results of the state election are unchanged by any late returns or estimates. Gov. Pingree's plurality is placed at about 8,000. It nearly equals the town with governor's plurality of two years ago proportionately to size of the vote cast. All the congressmen elected are republicans. The legislature, which is to elect a United States senator for full term, stands politically about as follows: Senate, 22 republicans, 3 democrats; house, 24 republicans, 7 democrats.

The present legislature has six democrats in the senate and 19 in the house. The contest for senator will be between Senator Burrows and Albert Pack of Detroit. Mr. Pack is the Pingree candidate.

Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—Election returns received up to three o'clock Wednesday morning, though far from being complete, indicate that Gov. Edward Scofield (rep.) is sure of election by at least 20,000 plurality. Republican Chairman Treat still sticks to his claim of 40,000. The Sentinel says at least 30,000, while National Democratic Committeeman Wall says Scofield might have from 9,000 to 10,000 plurality, though he would not concede this, having heard from but ten per cent. of the precincts in the state.

Milwaukee county complete with the exception of the village of Cudahy gives Scofield 562 plurality. This county also elected a republican ticket with the exception of sheriff, which went to the democrats.

Republicans elect congressmen in every district except the Second, which is still in doubt. The legislature is overwhelmingly republican, the senate consisting of 31 republicans and two democrats and assembly 77 republicans and 23 democrats—a republican majority on joint ballot of 53.

John J. Esch (rep.) is elected to congress from the Seventh district. Plurality, 8,350.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—The returns indicate the certain election of Overstreet (rep.) in the Indianapolis district, to congress.

The democrats concede the republicans a majority in the state of about 10,000. The republicans claim more than this.

This (Marion) county, where a bitter fight has been waged, looking for a republican victory, has been conceded to the democrats by the possible exception of the auditor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—At ten o'clock, with one-fifth of the precincts of the state heard from, the indications are that the republican plurality will be 15,000. It may vary 2,000 either way from that estimate. The democratic state committee early Wednesday morning conceded that the republicans had won in the state. Large democratic gains are shown by some counties, while other counties show large republican gains.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 9.—It was estimated at one o'clock this morning that republican plurality on the state ticket will be about 45,000. Chairman Hancock, of the republican state central committee, is confident that the count will show 50,000. The democratic state committee, however, claims a republican plurality of 25,000. Chairman Townsend refused to concede from the following signed statement made very early in the morning: "We confidently claim the election of Gen. Weaver in the Sixth district and believe that full returns will show the election of other democratic congressmen from Iowa."

Dubuque, Ia., Nov. 9.—D. B. Henderson (rep.) was reelected to congress from the Dubuque district by 6,000 majority. Dubuque county democrats elect their entire ticket by majorities ranging from 1,200 to 1,900.

Missouri.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—Returns from all over Missouri are coming in slowly, and though far from complete, everything received points to the election of the entire democratic state ticket by at least 30,000 majority, and the selection of a majority of members of the legislature, insuring the election of United States Senator Cockrell.

Three republican congressmen in St. Louis have been reelected, and it is probable that all the 12 congressional districts outside the city will be represented by democrats, though final returns may change this somewhat.

In St. Louis the republicans elected their city ticket by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 7,000.

A call at republican and democratic state committee headquarters at 11 o'clock revealed the fact that only scattering returns were still being received. No claims were made by the republicans, but the democrats gave out the statement that enough of the result in each of the 12 congressional districts outside St. Louis was known to make the election of their candidates an assured fact.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 9.—The election in Kansas is in doubt, with both sides claiming the state by a small majority. It will probably require the complete returns to decide the result.

Secretary Frank L. Brown, of the republican state committee, made the following statement:

"Mr. Stanley is undoubtedly elected governor, as is the entire state ticket. The precincts heard from are largely in the cities and towns. Of the country precincts reported the gains are remarkable. If the county precincts continue to show increases the ticket will be elected by about the majority predicted by the committee last Saturday."

Chairman Taylor Riddle, of the populist state committee, says:

"Incomplete returns from all parts of the state would indicate that Leedy and the entire fusion ticket are elected by 8,000 plurality. Five populist congressmen and Currier's election is conceded by a reduced majority."

Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 9.—Unofficial and incomplete but apparently reliable returns indicate that John Lind, fusion candidate, has been elected governor of Minnesota by a plurality of 10,000.

Five out of seven congressmen are surely republican. Sixth and Seventh districts are in doubt, and are claimed by both sides.

James Gray (unionist) was elected mayor of Minneapolis by perhaps 5,000, the largest plurality ever given in this city to a candidate not a republican.

Winona, Minn., Nov. 9.—Congressman James A. Tawney (rep.) is reelected in the First Minnesota district, easily defeating Milo White, fusion candidate.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 9.—The election of the fusion candidate, John Lind, in the Sixth district, Charles A. Towne, is claimed here by 2,000 majority. The republicans do not concede it, but they are making no claims.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—In the Third district, John P. Heatwole (rep.), reelected, and in the Fourth district, Frank M. Eddy (rep.) is reelected.

Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—With returns from less than a third of the precincts in the state the result in Nebraska cannot be foretold to a certainty. That republicans have every reason for confidence cannot be denied. Returns at two a. m. from 212 precincts, showed a net republican gain of 4,421. This is an average gain to the precinct of 19, which if maintained for the state would show an aggregate of 54,000, insuring the election of Hayward for governor by not less than 4,000.

Chairman Blaughter maintains that the balance of the state ticket will not fall below 1,000. Nearly the same number of precinct returns have been received on legislative candidates and while comparisons cannot be made with the same accuracy as for the republican majority on joint ballot, there are no changes in previous estimates for congressmen.

Chairman Gaffin made a statement at two a. m. claiming the election of the fusion state ticket and legislature and four or six congressmen.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 9.—With only two small towns to hear from, Bruce (dem.) for governor, has 107,495; Wolcott (rep.), 100,233. Wolcott's plurality, 8,262. The state legislature stands 21 republicans, 21 democrats, 7 house—republicans, 14; democrats, 6; social democrats, 2; independents, 5; the 2.

Delaware.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 9.—Revised returns show that the senate will be democratic by 9 to 8 and the house republican by 21 to 22.

The control of the state senate by the democrats will prevent any partisan legislation by the republicans in the assembly without respect to the veto power of Gov. Tamm, who is a democrat.

The republicans will thus elect a United States senator in place of Gray (dem.).

Colorado.

Denver, Col., Nov. 9.—The entire fusion state ticket, headed by Charles S. Thomas for governor, is elected by a majority approximating about 30,000. This is by far the largest majority ever given a candidate for governor in Colorado, but is less than half of Bryan's majority for president. Arapahoe county, including Denver, gave about 10,000 fusion majority, and El Paso county, including Colorado Springs, about 8,000. The republicans won in only the counties in the eastern part of the state. Of 17 hold-over state senators it appears the republicans have secured two, and in three districts the result is doubtful. The fusionists have an overwhelming majority in the legislature.

California.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—California has gone to the republican column with more emphasis than ever before. The entire state ticket, with the exception of the secretary of state, has been elected, according to republican claims.

In San Francisco 221 precincts out of 308 gave Gage (rep.) for governor 20,033; McGuire (dem.), 15,022.

In the fourth congressional district Kahn (rep.) gets 11,245; Barry (dem.), 9,300. Fifth district, Loud (rep.), 7,438; Craig (dem.), 7,235. There are still a number of precincts to hear from in these districts.

The count this year throughout the state has been unusually slow, and it will be several days before the complete figures are received. The republicans claim all seven congressmen and the legislature.

Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 9.—Wyoming has gone republican on state and congressional tickets in majorities ranging from 1,000 to 1,800 votes. The legislature is also undoubtedly republican and will elect a republican senator to succeed C. D. Clark. Returns from 31 precincts out of 287 districts in the state are now in. These gave 290 majority for Mondell for congress in the first district, 522 for Tully, a net gain of 269 votes. In these precincts Richards (rep.) for governor, has 334 majority, a net gain of 134 votes.

Nevada.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 9.—Washie county has gone republican on governor and legislative ticket. Returns from the state indicate McMillan (rep.) elected governor. McMillan's plurality is seven precincts. Washie is 212 over McCullough (populist); Sadler (silver), third in the race.

Returns from the seven precincts mentioned give a plurality for the republican legislative ticket.

Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 9.—The democrats have elected Roberts to congress and carried the legislature, which will elect a United States senator. Returns from 52 districts in the city and state gave Haskin (dem.) for supreme judge, 5,520; Zana (rep.), 4,824.

Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 9.—Twelve precincts reported at three o'clock give Hepburn 201; Wilson, 362; Gunn, 182; Moss, 255; Steunenberg, 481; Anderson, 62.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 9.—The Post-Intelligencer claims that the republican state ticket is elected by at least 2,000 majority and that the legislature will be republican on joint ballot.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 9.—Returns received by the Ledger from all over the state indicated a great republican landslide. Populist counties east of the mountains have turned completely over. Indications are that F. W. Cushman and L. W. Jones, republicans, are elected to congress by at least 2,000 plurality as against about 12,000 fusion plurality two years ago.

The legislature will be republican and elect a republican senator to succeed Ben Wilson.

Montana.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 9.—Campbell (dem.) is elected to congress by a plurality of 4,000. The legislature is democratic by a decided majority. Complete returns will not alter materially the situation as stated.

North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 9.—A special from Wilmington to the News and Observer states that the election passed off quietly, from 10 o'clock to 11 o'clock, and that four o'clock was in Asheville, where a negro shot and slightly wounded three whites.

Washington, Nov. 9.—A Star special from Wilmington, N. C., says: "The democrats carry the city and county by about 1,250. In the city proper the majority for the democrats is about 1,000. The republican majority for congressmen two years ago was about 600. The republican leaders assert there was a want of votes, but that they counseled their followers not to resist it."

"The Sixth congressional district is democratic by probably 4,000 majority. Two years ago it was carried by the republicans and populists by 3,000."

Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 9.—The state will elect a solid democratic delegation to congress. All the ten democratic nominees have been elected according to returns received late Tuesday night and Wednesday. The hardest fight was in the Ninth district where Joe R. Rhea was probably defeated Walker by 1,000 to 1,500 majority. The other democrats won by from 2,500 to 12,000.

West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 9.—The election of Johnson (dem.) for congress in the Third district is conceded by Houston, chairman of the republican committee. Dovenor (rep.) is elected in the First district.

Second and Fourth districts still in doubt, but probably carried by republicans. The senate republican, and lower house democratic. The vote on joint ballot still in doubt.

Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 9.—John L. Burnett (dem.) elected to congress from Seventh district in Alabama.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The democrats of Kentucky won a sweeping victory Tuesday by electing nine and possibly ten congressmen out of 11, and prevented the republicans from gaining control of the court of appeals.

Democratic congressmen were elected in the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth districts, and while the vote is close in the Ninth, it looks like William H. Rouse, democrat, has a certain gain of two congressmen, with a possible gain of three. The present congressional delegation stands seven democrats to four republicans.

The biggest victory, however, was in the Third appellate court district, which was carried by McKinley in 1896 by 2,300 majority. Hobson, the democratic nominee for judge, not only overcame this majority, but has won with about 5,000 votes to spare.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The majority of McKinley (dem.) for governor over Fowler (rep.) is estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000. The democrats have a majority of the legislature. The republicans have carried the First and Second congressional districts, the other eight giving democratic majorities.

In the First congressional district Walter P. Brownlow (rep.) was elected, his majority being less than 3,000; loss, 8,000. In the Second district Henry R. Gibson (rep.) was elected with a majority of about 4,000; loss, 14,000.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 9.—The congressional election in Arkansas was the quietest held in many years. In Little Rock, out of a voting population of about 7,000, only 500 votes were polled, and that in the ratio of about one to ten throughout the state. All of the old congressmen were reelected, Dismore, in the Fifth district, being the only candidate who had opposition. The personnel of the Arkansas delegation is as follows: First, Sixth, and Seventh districts, all of whom are free silver democrats.

First, P. D. McCulloch; Second, J. S. Little; Third, Thomas O. State; Fourth, W. L. Ferry; Fifth, H. L. Dismore; Sixth, S. Brundage.

South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 9.—The 27 precincts in the Black Hills show a net republican gain of 600 up to six in the morning. The fusionist situation in the state, but it is not certain that the republicans have it on the state and congressional ticket.

Texas.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 9.—The foregone certainty of the election of the democratic state ticket deprived the election of any exciting interest. Outside of the Tenth and Twelfth congressional districts, and a few counties where the populists were in control, there was nothing to draw out a big vote. Probably 400,000 votes were polled and of these Maj. Sayers, the democratic nominee for governor, has a majority estimated by Chairman Bell, of the democratic state committee, at 200,000, and it will not fall very far short of that figure, judging by the returns at hand. Every district returned a democratic congressman with the exception of the Tenth, and an official count will be necessary to decide this district.

Era of Good Feeling.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Rt. Hon. Lord Farrer Herschell, chairman of the joint high commission representing the United States and Canada, who is visiting Senator Fairbanks here, said that in his opinion the era of good feeling between the United States and England had arrived. "Whatever is felt here," said he, "is quite reciprocated on the other side. I think perhaps you people of the states are more demonstrative than we. The only thing that has held our people back from greater demonstration of this sentiment is the fear that the matter is being pushed rather than allowed to develop itself."

Carries Relics of the War.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Orders were sent from the navy department to the commander of the Leonidas at Norfolk to bring that vessel to Washington, so that a great quantity of valuable relics of the war, and particularly of the naval battle of July 3, may be transferred to the national museum here. The Leonidas has a number of five-inch rifles aboard and all the ordnance of the Maria Teresa, except the big 11-inch turret guns, which could not be removed without lifting the turrets off the ship.

A Fatal Shot.

Bryant, Ind., Nov. 9.—Robert Lowe, single, was shot and fatally wounded here by James Eden, Jr., a Kentuckian and one of the owners of a drug store. Lowe, who had been drinking, was in an altercation with James Eden, Sr. The elder man and Lowe were struggling over the possession of a poker, when young Eden stepped from the store and fired four shots, two of which struck Lowe, one passing through his body. Lowe was taken home and is at the point of death. The Edens were lodged in jail to await the result of the victim's injuries.

Wrecked by Gas.

Greenfield, Ind., Nov. 9.—While men were repairing a gas leak in the two-story brick block belonging to William Frazier the gas exploded and wrecked the building. The four walls were blown out and the second floor and the roof fell to the first floor. The adjoining building, belonging to Mrs. W. S. Gant, was also wrecked. Houses were shaken for blocks and plate glass broken in adjacent buildings.

"The Players" Stranded.

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 9.—"The Players," a theatrical aggregation under the management of the postmaster of Ben Davis, a small station in Marion county, stranded here after playing a week's engagement. Their baggage was attached by the Parker hotel. The members of the local order of K. of P. stood good for the board bill and the company departed for Winchester.

Factory Burned.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 9.—The large box and egg case factory and mill of John W. Vail were destroyed by fire here. The loss is over $10,000; fully covered by insurance. This was the largest manufacturing establishment in this city, and a large number of people are now thrown out of employment. The plants will probably be rebuilt.

Gets a New Name.

Denver, Col., Nov. 9.—The Denver & Gulf railroad, which is to be sold under foreclosure November 18, will be rechristened the Colorado & Southern railway when the reorganization is effected. This title, it is announced, has been accepted by Receiver Frank Trumbull, who is to be president of the new company.

May End in Death.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 9.—An election quarrel ended in a shooting affray. A ball passed through James Decker's hat, grazing his scalp. Three of his ribs were also broken and he is in a critical condition. The assailant is still at large. Decker borrowed a revolver from a liveryman and was prepared for a fight.

Shot in the Stomach.

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 9.—Edward Bass (colored) came here from Middletown just in time to find his sister, Mrs. Ed Smith, leaving home in company with Will Isley, a white man. Bass objected and was shot in the stomach, just under the heart, by Isley, who fired twice and then left with the woman.

Smallpox at Richmond.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 9.—A case of smallpox developed here, the patient being Pearl Pierce, a young man aged 19. A strict quarantine has been established. No one except members of the Grey family, with whom Pierce boarded, has been exposed, and no spread of the disease is feared.

Don't Go It Blind.

THERE'S NO NEED TO IN HOLLAND—
THE WAY IS ALMOST HEDGED WITH GUIDEPOSTS.

Have you ever read a newspaper article, a glowing account of some accident told in elusive words to lead you on and found it ended up with a proprietary medicine advertisement? Made you mad, didn't it? And were you convicted of the merits of the article? We think not, because it told the experience of some stranger in a far off town and to take his word for it was like going it blind. It's a very different thing when a statement is prescribed from a citizen: from people we know and that's the case here:

Mrs. E. Mulder, living five miles east of Holland, near Ebenezer, says: "I have been a sufferer for years from deranged condition of the kidneys. The secretion from those organs were irregular and unnatural, I could not rest comfortably at night and rose in the morning feeling tired and unfreshed. The least cold or a strain always aggravated the constant, heavy aching pains through the small of the back. I had heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended that I made up my mind to try them and procured a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. I felt better after the first few doses and in a short time I was entirely rid of the trouble. The pills also acted as a good general tonic in my case and I can recommend them very highly to anyone needing such a remedy."

THE INSIDE FACTS.

Cause of the Indian Outbreak in Northern Minnesota.

Whisky is at the Bottom of the Trouble—Developments Since the Difficulties First Arose Six Months Ago.

The Indian outbreak in Minnesota, like so many other troubles, grew out of whisky, and affords another argument for temperance advocates, says the Chicago Record. The Pillagers are a band of the Chippewa nation, and have a reservation in Cass county, in the northeastern part of Minnesota, almost directly west from Duluth. They are partially civilized, cultivate the soil, raise cattle, cut lumber, and wear "store clothes." They have also adopted other features of civilization, such as the use of whisky, and of late years have given the authorities a great deal of trouble by carrying on a contraband traffic.

Fourteen of them were arrested about six months ago and taken to Duluth, where they were convicted by the United States district court of selling liquor without license, selling liquor upon an Indian reservation, and selling liquor to Indians, and were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment from 30 to 90 days.

The ringleader of the whisky trade was Bush Ear, the chief of the tribe, who escaped arrest last spring, but when they came down to the agency a few weeks ago for their annuities he and other offenders were arrested. The next morning, while the deputy marshal was attempting to take his prisoners to Duluth, a band of Indians rescued them, and there was quite a serious riot. Fearing that the deputy marshal would bring a posse, the Indians retreated to Bear Island in Leech lake, about 18 miles from Walker village, in Cass county, and have since remained there, sending messages of defiance to the authorities.

United States Marshal O'Connor has been trying to persuade the Indians to submit peacefully to arrest, but without success. The war department was called on for help, and Lieut. Humphrey and 20 men of the Third United States Infantry were sent from Fort Snelling, near St. Paul, to Walker. After looking the ground over and finding there were 300 Indians, fully armed, on Bear Island, more troops were asked for, and Gen. Bacon, Col. Wilkinson, and 80 men left Fort Snelling for the scene, when the battle took place.

ADORES "MUMMY FACE."

Latest Society Craze at New York That Has Been Started by a Returned Traveler.

The latest society craze, which was inaugurated by Mrs. James P. Kernochen on her return from abroad, is to pose for a photograph in a mummy frame. This startling fancy originated in Cairo, Egypt, in which place Mrs. Kernochen spent last winter. To obtain a mummy case in Cairo is a comparatively easy matter. The enterprising photographer there keeps one in stock for his American patrons.

To have the picture taken the subject steps into the cage, which is placed on end, and the lid is then closed, leaving an opening just large enough for the face.

The fad has obtained such popularity, however, that many persons are not waiting for a tour of the east in order to see a picture of their own faces peering out at them from a mummy case. New York photographers prepare a picture of a mummy case and simply insert the face of the person desirous of obtaining such a photograph.

DIAMONDS IN HEAP OF REFUSE.

Four Hoboken (N. J.) Boys Strike a Mysterious Mine Yielding Jewels.

From among a pile of refuse outside the Powhll Paper company's plant at Hoboken, N. J., four boys during the last week dug diamonds, emeralds, rubies and other precious stones.

Had not a jeweler to whom was offered one diamond, over a carat in weight, thought the stone stolen, this New Jersey Kemberley might still be yielding up treasures unknown save to its discoverers.

The plant of the paper mill is one of several which has during several years past been established on the Hoboken meadows. Paper stock in bales is received from all over the country, so it will be a difficult job to discover whence came the treasures unearthed by the boys.

LIFE IN A PALACE.

A French newspaper publishes a description of the home life of the czar and czarina, which, it says, is very simple. The czar, it appears, often remains at his desk until late at night and frequently receives his counselors and ministers at midnight; but, the paper adds, they rarely find him alone, as the czarina is generally seated beside him, embroidering or sewing. When a stranger appears she picks up her scissors and spools and prepares to leave the room. The emperor thereupon begs her not to go, but to remain with him, and the czarina silently returns to her needle, while her husband discusses affairs of state.

DIAMONDS IN HEAP OF REFUSE.

Four Hoboken (N. J.) Boys Strike a Mysterious Mine Yielding Jewels.

From among a pile of refuse outside the Powhll Paper company's plant at Hoboken, N. J., four boys during the last week dug diamonds, emeralds, rubies and other precious stones.

Had not a jeweler to whom was offered one diamond, over a carat in weight, thought the stone stolen, this New Jersey Kemberley might still be yielding up treasures unknown save to its discoverers.

The plant of the paper mill is one of several which has during several years past been established on the Hoboken meadows. Paper stock in bales is received from all over the country, so it will be a difficult job to discover whence came the treasures unearthed by the boys.

LIFE IN A PALACE.

A French newspaper publishes a description of the home life of the czar and czarina, which, it says, is very simple. The czar, it appears, often remains at his desk until late at night and frequently receives his counselors and ministers at midnight; but, the paper adds, they rarely find him alone, as the czarina is generally seated beside him, embroidering or sewing. When a stranger appears she picks up her scissors and spools and prepares to leave the room. The emperor thereupon begs her not to go, but to remain with him, and the czarina silently returns to her needle, while her husband discusses affairs of state.

Treasure of the Khalifa Is Safe. The report that the treasury of the khalifa, valued at $10,000,000 ($10,000,000), had been found and was being forwarded to Cairo, is without foundation.

Unable to Sleep.

AN AFFLICTION THAT MADE A WOMAN A BUNDLE OF NERVES.
Mrs. James Arthur, of Spokane, Suffered Excruciating Agony—Her Condition Creates Much Discussion.

From the Spokesman-Review, Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. James Arthur, of 1021 Augusta Avenue, Spokane, Wash., who suffered excruciating agony from rheumatism has created much discussion among her many friends. She told a reporter the following story of her sufferings and cure:

"From August, 1895, to the following January, I suffered from rheumatic pains. For weeks at a time the pain was so excruciating I was nearly crazy. Night after night I walked the floor unable to sleep. From a healthy woman weighing about 160 pounds I became a weak, thin bundle of nerves, unable almost to perform any ordinary household duties. Every time we had a spell of bad weather the awful agony would begin.

"Prior to August, 1895, I had doctored with Dr. Power. He said I had catarrhs and muscular rheumatism. He gave me some medicine that seemed to do me good. Any way it stopped the pains at that time, but in August they came again worse than ever. I did not go to him again thinking he had made some mistake in his diagnosis of my case. One day while gleaning over a San Francisco paper, I noticed an article regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and that they contained in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. The article contained an account of a case similar to mine that had been cured and I decided to try the pills. I went to the wholesale drug store, the Spokane Drug Company's place, at the corner of Sprague and Howard and bought a box.

"The pills are wonderful. I took two doses and the pain ceased. My limbs and feet were swollen and the agony was intense, but after taking the pills, the swelling went down and the pains ceased. I continued taking the pills until I had used two boxes, I think, and felt I was cured. The pills I found also gave me renewed strength and a better appetite, which was poor before.

"My lady friends who knew of my sufferings were much surprised to see the change in me, and frequently asked how it had been accomplished. I used the pills when I thought necessary for over a year before I told them. Now several of my friends are using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on my recommendation, and they all tell me that the results are satisfactory.

"It is marvelous. I would not be without the pills. The other day while I was cleaning house, a lady friend called and found me scrubbing and washing. She knew I had been subject to rheumatic attacks and was astonished at seeing me thus engaged. When I explained to her how Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had helped me by stopping the rheumatic pains and also by giving me strength and could be had for 50 cents a box, she at once decided to give them a trial, which she is doing with much benefit.

"I am 48 years old, but feel much younger now than I did a year ago, and I did considerable more work this spring than I have done for five years.

If any one should desire to hear more from me regarding the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I will answer any letters they may send me. They certainly give marvelous relief."

The day Mrs. Arthur was interviewed by the reporter was one of a series of rainy days which came so unexpectedly after a period of bright warm weather. It was a day when rheumatism ordinarily would appear in its most agonizing form, yet Mrs. Arthur was busily engaged preserving fruit. She had every appearance of being in excellent health.

Lake and Marine.

At and near Grand Haven considerable wreckage has washed ashore. The lifesavers got two or three life preservers having the name of the steamer Doty and the wreckage picked up was undoubtedly of that ill-fated steamer. Several persons got the panels of doors and cabins. Saturday morning life boat No. 1 of the steamer L. R. Doty was picked up on the beach two miles off Grand Haven harbor. It was in good condition.

Monday morning the body of Lawrence Goss, Bay City, steward on the steamship Doty floated ashore at Ganges. The name of the man was on his hankchief and he had on a Doty life preserver. He was well dressed, overcoat, gloves and Macabee pin. The body was well preserved and it had over $20 in money when discovered. The discovery of the body of the steward of the lost steamer Doty on the east shore of Lake Michigan, led many vesselmen to believe that the big steamer had been driven across the lake and had foundered in the vicinity of Holland or Grand Haven, as it was hardly probable that the body would drift so far from the spot where the steamer was supposed to have gone down, near Kenosha, Wis.

At Holland harbor also some cabin wreckage, painted a sky blue color, and a life preserver labeled H. R. Doty, with the shoulder straps severed as though from strain, were washed ashore. The breast straps were not tied, which makes it look as though it was put on in great haste.

Among other wreckage washed ashore near Holland harbor are several pieces of walnut cabin wood, which have been identified as parts of the cabin of the ill-fated steamer Chicora.

The old time revenue cutter Andy Johnson has been abandoned by her new owner, George H. Walker. She is now tied at a dock at Cleveland, where her machinery is being taken out.

A syndicate of residents along the beach between Grand Haven and Holland have picked up $200 worth of lumber the past two weeks.

The harbor at Michigan City is still badly blocked by the wreckage of the steamer Tuttle. This blockade is seriously interfering with the lumber trade from Michigan points, and an appeal has been made to the government officials for relief.

The top of a compass box marked "Schooner Alabo," and the spar of some schooner have come ashore at Muskegon, with other wreckage. It is believed the schooner has foundered. The Alabo was of 550 tons and was owned by Marquette.

The life savers at Grand Haven harbor have picked up a piece of a steam boat spar, about 20 feet long, painted terra cotta, and thought to be of the steamer Tuttle. Also a pall rack with a mark.

The U. S. revenue cutter Morrill is on the way from the Atlantic coast to Lake Michigan, to take the place of the Gresham, which will not be returned here on account of its size.

Grand Haven: Deputy state game warden Brewster went out into the lake with the little tug Geo. D. Sanford Monday morning to secure evidence against a local fishing tug for violating the fishing law. It is understood that action will be taken at once.

The large barge Aberdeen, laden with barley, which was towed into Grand Haven harbor two weeks ago for repairs, is again beached. Monday afternoon she was ready to resume her journey to Buffalo, and as she was being towed into Lake Michigan by the Crosby liner Nyack, to meet the big steamer Philip Minch, which was towed to her to Buffalo, she had the misfortune to break her tow line. The result was that the Aberdeen drifted onto the beach about 600 yards from the north pier. The prospects are that she will be totally wrecked. The life saving crew took off the crew of the Aberdeen. The G. H. Tribune gives the following particulars of the wrecking: The loss of the Aberdeen was too bad and in some respects unaccountable. Monday morning the big steam barge Philip Minch appeared off the harbor and made known the fact that she was waiting for the Aberdeen to tow her down to Buffalo. At once the captain of the Aberdeen bargained with the Nyack to tow him out in Lake Michigan to the Minch. The Minch was heavily laden with grain and drawing eighteen feet of water, and did not attempt to come in. Consequently the Nyack started to tow out the Aberdeen and had just about started when she ran onto a sand bar in the river near the fish shanties. After working for two hours the Nyack released the Aberdeen, and started out. Near the harbor mouth Capt. Cartwright went aloft to see if he could see the Minch, but she was not in sight and the Nyack continued on her way with the intention of dropping the Aberdeen when out in the lake. The captain of the Aberdeen however concluded to remain at the pier until his big consort came in sight. It was to tie up however, and while working away the frail tow line parted. The Aberdeen narrowly missed the north pier and swiftly drifted on the beach. She is hard aground in about twelve feet of water, broadside to the lake. If the wind comes up strong from the southwest nothing will save her. If she is leaking, and there is every reason to believe she is, the barley in her will swell and she will split open. The Aberdeen was towed in here after two weeks ago a terrible experience. She was lost by her consort, the Tuttle, and the latter is now a wreck at Michigan City.

About the time that the Aberdeen went ashore Monday noon, four men, part of the crew of the barge Rand, loaded with lumber, bound from Ludington to St. Joe, came into the harbor in a yawl boat. These four men were drenched to the skin. The engine of the Rand was disabled when about fifteen miles off Holland. The wind carried her to within about eight miles of the harbor, and the four men mentioned volunteered to go ashore after assistance. There was a heavy sea outside the land, and the wind blew hard from the south. But the men went at the task bravely and arrived in safety. They were warmed and given a change of clothing at the life saving station. Later on in the afternoon the little steamer J. S. Crouse came in from the southerly. She had hold of the disabled barge Rand, but the tow line parted twice. The big steam barge Edward Buckley, which had also just arrived to shelter here, laden with shingles, at once put back into the lake again and returned with the Rand in tow. —G. H. Tribune.

The schooner D. S. Austin, laden with bulk salt, was beached at Ludington Monday afternoon and now lies a hopeless wreck in one fathom of water. While entering the harbor a second consort to the barge Tice, she parted her tow line and in spite of ready assistance of tugs, went quickly aground. A gale was blowing at the time from the southwest. The crew was rescued by the life savers in their surf boat after an unsuccessful attempt to shoot a line over the schooner. The vessel will be a total wreck. She is owned in Milwaukee and carried no insurance. She had 650 tons of bulk salt on board.

The underwriters allowed the steamer Nyack $2,000 for picking up the barge Aberdeen shortly after she parted company with the steamer Tuttle and towing her to Grand Haven.

E. G. Crosby, of the Crosby Transportation Co., has purchased the fore and aft compound engine and two boilers of the steamer Horace A. Tuttle, recently wrecked at the Michigan City harbor entrance, for the extremely low sum of $1,000. As the hull is completely broken up, no great difficulty will be experienced in recovering the machinery.

The big wrecker Favorite arrived at Grand Haven Wednesday evening to attempt to rescue the Aberdeen. She commenced work Thursday morning but had to abandon it on account of the storm. The barley will be pumped out of her into the lake. About 6,000 bushels have already been thrown overboard. It is thought that after she is lighted the ship will be saved.

The body of an immense black Dane dog was found on the beach near Pigeon Creek Tuesday. The dog is believed to be from the Doty.

A large number of people from this place went to Holland Tuesday evening to hear the returns of the election.
