Make a Real Effort

If you have tried all kinds of doctors and all the different appliances that treat effects. You have received very little or no benefit. You have become discouraged with those methods and given up the fight. I want to tell you that I have cured cases as bad as yours by adjusting the spinal column. Make a real effort and get well by removing the cause, which is impinged nerves.

The pressure on the nerves checks the life-giving force and disease is sure to follow, release the nerve, health and happiness is the result.

There has been quite a demand for the wonder berries E. H. Terry is introducing here. He has 52 plants and they produced 96 quarts. He sold 85 quarts for $8.50, reserving the balance for himself. The 52 plants cover a space of ground 18x34 feet, and the smallest plant is 3 1/2 feet in diameter, and the largest 9 feet in diameter. The large plant bore 9 quarts. The berries look like huckleberries but are much better.

A wager was made between two Holland township farmers recently as to how much a stalk of corn will grow in a single day. One of them said that a certain healthy stock of corn, about waist high, would grow one inch, while the other wagered that it would grow two inches. A stake was driven in the ground so that its top came even with the top of the highest blade on the stalk. At the same hour the next day an examination was made and it was discovered that the stalk of corn had grown just four inches.

At Slagh's store the stranger purchased a gallon of paint, tendered a fraudulent check on the Commercial bank of Port Huron, purporting to have been issued by the Lockwood Sign company signed, C. H. Lockwood, and was paid the difference in cash. The same scheme was worked on the Lokker & Rutgers Clothing company where the stranger procured a suit of underwear. The checks were honored at the local banks and later were returned from Port Huron marked "No Funds".

Dykhuys will Not be Deputy Sheriff

Hans Dykhuys, who was recently appointed by Sheriff Andre to act as his chief deputy, has decided not to accept the post after all. Hans has accepted a position with the city light system at Holland and will remain there, and has notified the sheriff as to his decision. Sheriff Andre has therefore appointed John Klaver to act as a deputy in the place of Deputy Sheriff Frank Salisbury who resigned. John Klaver may be regarded as one of the veteran police officers of the county. Until a short time ago he had the distinction of holding a deputy sheriffs commission longer than any man in the county and in appointing him the sheriff secures a helper who is thoroughly experienced in the work. John has served in some of the most important criminal hunts in the recent history of Ottawa. Among other famous cases upon which he has been engaged was the Tibbette case in which Bert Tibbette was found guilty of the murder of Humphrey Jackman. The Grand Haven man assisted in piling up evidence against the young man after he had all but convinced certain officers that Hump Jackman died from the kick of a horse and was not murdered at all.

Gave $2,000 for Missions

A $2,000 legacy has been left by the late Miss Elizabeth M. Cappon for mission work in China, which had been her chosen life work. The money will be used for a woman's ward in the new hospital to be erected at Sio Khe, and known as the Elizabeth M. Cappon memorial ward. Miss Cappon was forced to abandon the field three years ago, having contracted a tropical disease which resulted in her death in this city a few months ago.

Rev. Frances Willekes, formerly pastor at Holland, but at present pastor of the Holland Presbyterian church in Milwaukee, has quit the ministry because the salary of $600 a year was too small to support his wife and three children. He intends taking a position with the Prudential Life Insurance company at a salary of $1200.

Harry Beremo of Grand Haven, who is one of the most enthusiastic and most successful of the pearl fishers, in that vicinity has a handsome collection of pearls of all value. One perfectly formed button shaped pearl which he found this summer has been valued at $75. But this not the queen pearl of the season. One was taken from the river this summer which was believed to be of great value, perhaps about $1500. One little dead spot on the otherwise beautiful pearl cut down its value and spoiled the hopes of the finder. The pearls are all found in the clam shells taken up from the river bed. The shells are turned into buttons.

Zeeland.

The joint committee appointed by the classis of Zeeland and Grand Rapids West of the Christian Reformed churches to consider the advisability of organizing a church at North Blendon met at Jenison Thursday afternoon. At this meeting a committee consisting of Rev. T. Vander Ark of Drenthe and Rev. S. Volbeda of Grand Rapids was appointed to visit the parties interested and report at a meeting to be held at a later date.

The Peré Marquette mail clerk slipped a cog last week in throwing off the mail bag from the fast train going through Zeeland. The bag got under the train and the letters were ground to pulp, another reason why this train should stop at a town the size and thrill that Zeeland has.

Edw. Hendrikse who returned for a short visit at home left for Benton Harbor Wednesday, where an ovation was awaiting him, the Benton Harbor band being present on the train and the turnout was immense. Mr. Hendrikse will leave for Dallas, Texas, on February 15 with the New York Giants for a training course. Manager McGraw of the New York Giants is highly impressed with the showing made by Mr. Hendrikse. In one game against a New York city team he held them down to two hits.

The reports to the superintendent for the first month of school show the total enrollment to be 589, more than 100 more than last year. Of these, 94 are enrolled in the high school proper. There are 35 non-residents.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Meyard were awakened Monday night by neighbors who found the house on fire. A defect in the chimney caused the blaze. If the neighbors had not arrived it is believed that parents and children would have perished. Loss was about $200.

Rev. P. P. Cheff of Forest Grove who has received a call to the First Reformed church of Zeeland, has not decided what he will do in the matter. The members of the Zeeland church are doing all in their power to have him accept. The deacons of the church, with their wives, went to Forest Grove and also deputations for the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor society to ask the minister to accept the call.

Rev. Henry Harmeling and his son Milton of Grand Haven made a short visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Moerdyk Tuesday.

The $16,000 church that the Second Reformed church of Zeeland is building will soon be completed and will be one of the most beautiful structures in that city. Rev. Mordyk is its pastor.

Ben Mulder lies at his home with a fractured leg as a result of the kick of a colt. The fracture is a serious one and Dr. Masselink was summoned to attend him.

Saugatuck

The Douglas High School pupils intend to have their usual lecture course, this fall and winter.

The working forces of the Basket Factory at Douglas are now up the river putting in a supply of logs for the coming season. Their booms are pretty filled but additional stock is desired so that they may be prepared for an emergency.

Grant Fellows spoke on Republicanism in the village Hall last night to a fair sized audience.

A number of citizens, who are interested in keeping the Kalamazoo River open, are getting up a petition to be presented to the engineers for improvements on our stream, which would be to the advantage of the people of Saugatuck and Douglas, as well as the property owners along the river.

It has been noticed that a great deal of sand has been washed into Indian Cut, from the red banks, which threatens the close the channel, to the detriment of navigation.

The engineers are being asked to change the channel, or allow the citizens interested, to do so, so as to make the current run close to the south side of the valley, starting from a point beginning at the bend of the river, above what is known as the Pottawatomie Club ditch and taking a course toward the head of the south arm of the Morrison Bayou and empty therein, also beginning about one fourth of a mile from the north of said bayou and take a westerly course of a few rods back to the Kalamazoo River, which will cut off a very sharp bend and about half a mile of river channel. These changes will cut off the Willow Island Bar, many short bends and other objections in the channels, as well as the Red Banks.

Petitions are at Bird's Drug Store in Saugatuck and in Douglas, besides Wm. Stow at Macks Landing, has one that can be signed.

The little steamer Liberty was wind bound at the Grand Haven piers a few days ago. The weather outside was a little too heavy for an attempt to make Saugatuck and Capt. Brittain decided to stay in shelter until the storm abated somewhat. The Liberty has been carrying fruit from Saugatuck to connect with the Goodrich steamers at Grand Haven.

On Wednesday evening, October 26, at the home of the bride's parents, at Otsego, occurred the marriage of Miss Olive Ludwig to Mr. Ira Koning of Saugatuck. The ring service was used, Rev. Charles M. Taylor of the Congregational church officiating.

Promptly at the appointed hour the sister of the groom, Miss Cornelia Koning of Saugatuck, as pianist, rendered Lohengren's wedding march, as the bride, escorted by her father and the groom by Rev. Taylor, proceeded to a bower of green, where the ceremony which united the couple was performed.

The color scheme for the dining room was white and yellow. Christmas, carnations, dahlias, asters and nasturtiums were abundantly in evidence as decorations all about the other rooms.

The bride wore a gown of white Baby Irish lace and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Following the congratulations a four course dinner was served with carnation favors. None but the immediate relatives and friends were present.

The guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. John Koning and daughters, Misses Cornelia and Cecelia, Mrs. Frank Ludwig, Mrs. James Brown and Miss Jennie Voets of Saugatuck, Mrs. M. V. Selkirk and two daughters, Miss Effa and Vera Selkirk, Misses Frances Ames and Kathryn Waltz of Grand Rapids.

Miss Ludwig has for several years been stenographer for O. and W. Thum Co., of Grand Rapids, where several "showers" have lately been given here. The bride received many beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass, china, linen and furniture.

Mr. Koning is a rising young hardware dealer of Saugatuck, where they will reside.

United States Judge Taylor dismissed the suit brought by Pauline Koeppe against the village of Saugatuck, wherein the plaintiff sought to recover damages for personal injuries received while a passenger on a boat traveling down the Kalamazoo river. The court held that there was no negligence on the part of the defendant shown at the trial.

Graafschap

John W. Garvelink, one of the most prominent Hollanders in western Michigan and a pioneer of 1847, is dead at his home here where he had resided for more than sixty years. His death was due primarily to old age, although a fall on a icy walk nearly two years ago, through which he sustained a broken hip, made him an invalid.

Mr. Garvelink was seventy-seven years old and had been a prominent figure in the affairs of his township. He represented the third district of Allegan county as representative in the state legislature in 1873-74 and the First district in 1883. He was elected state senator in 1891-92.

In township affairs he had held nearly every office within the gift of the people, serving in the capacities of treasurer, justice, supervisor, and clerk, and was a director of the school in district No. 2, Fillmore township, for more than fifty years. He also had been a director in the First State bank of this city since its organization about twenty years ago and had been an officer in the Holland Christian Reformed church in Graafschap for many years.

Mr. Garvelink is survived by a widow and eight children and his is the first death in the family.

Supposing Mr. Farmer that things went Democratic next Tuesday and you stayed at home and the times would result in the hard old Democratic times of 1894, who would you blame? Is it not worth a few hours of your time to prevent going back to these conditions?

Then drop everything and cast your vote next week Tuesday November 8

Fillmore

Deputy Game Warden Dornbos arrested Jno. Danvelt of Fillmore on the charge of shooting quail out of season. The quail season does not open again till 1914, the government having given the birds a 5 year vacation. The fine for violations of this law is exceptionally heavy and it is the only case with which a Detroit House of Correction sentence or a county jail sentence. A fine of from $25 to $100 can be imposed. Danvelt pleaded guilty in Justice Martin Foote's court in Allegan and paid a fine and costs amounting to $45.

DOING THEIR DUTY

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow:

Urinary troubles, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Holland people endorse our claim.

Thomas Boven, lumber salesman, of 151 W. Fourteenth St. Holland, Mich., says: "For some time I was afflicted with kidney complaint and I suffered severely from pains in the small of my back. My back ached intensely at night and I was subject to dizzy spells. The least cold I caught settled in my kidneys and made me feel worse. Some time ago I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills and in a week they relieved me. The contents of one box effected a cure and I now have no trouble whatever from my kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The farmers of Michigan are especially interested in the results of the coming election. Not only will the decision of the voters on the 8th day of November influence the value of the products of the farm, but it will influence also the value of the farm itself. This changes in the tariff that would inevitably be by a Democratic congress would have for their first purpose the reduction of the price of farm products, and the loss to the factories and the mills of the state would have a further direct and abrupt influence on farm values and products. There is not a farmer in Michigan who could not better afford to give a full week's time in behalf of the Republican candidates than to run the risk of loss which always in past years has come through Democratic victories and which would assuredly come to the farmers of Michigan through such an occurrence this year.

ROOSEVELT FOR OSBORN

The Ex-President Calls Republican Candidate a Singularly Able and Honest Man.

WISHES TOWNSEND SUCCESS

Roosevelt Deeply Regrets That He Cannot Come to Michigan to Take Part in Campaign For Entire Republican Ticket—Calls Republican Candidate For Governor Progressive.

Theodore Roosevelt gives his unqualified endorsement of the candidacy of Chase S. Osborn, Republican candidate for governor, and Charles E. Townsend, Republican candidate for United States senator.

The endorsement is in the form of a letter to Curtis Guild, Jr., who spoke here Saturday night for Mr. Osborn and the state ticket.

State Chairman Knox informed the Detroit Journal that he has been in communication with Mr. Roosevelt endeavoring to secure him for one speech in Michigan. The colonel declared this to be impossible, because his time was completely filled.

Governor Guild was informed of the situation while here and he immediately wired Colonel Roosevelt, urging him to accede to the request of Mr. Knox.

The following letter, which was received by Mr. Knox from Governor Guild, was the result.

To Curtis Guild, Jr.:
I thank you for the telegram. I agree with every word you say in describing the situation in Michigan, and I deeply regret that it is a physical impossibility for me to accept the invitation to go to Michigan to take part in the campaign for the entire Republican ticket as I would gladly do.

I thoroughly understand, as you say, that in Michigan the progressives won a clear-cut victory; that their platform takes a proper stand in favor of a tariff commission and conservation of natural resources. My friend, Chase S. Osborn, the candidate for governor, is a progressive and singularly able and honest man.

Moreover, I also agree with you as to the great desirability of electing Mr. Townsend as senator. Mr. Townsend as joint author with Mr. Esch of the first railroad rate bill, and while I was in the White House, did excellent work for railroad rate legislation, and I heartily wish him success as senator. It is a cause of genuine regret to me that I am not able to go and do all I can for the entire ticket in Michigan.

Mr. Osborn is a man like Stimson of New York, who will clean house from cellar to garret, driving every wrong-doer from office. The effective way to prevent a thorough clean up would be not to elect him, and indeed a failure to elect him would be a genuine calamity from the standpoint of good citizenship.

Mr. Townsend's attitude on the railroad rate legislation is sufficient proof of the desirability of sending him to the senate, and this can only be done by voting for the Republican candidates for the legislature. Michigan Republicans have nominated two progressive candidates and it is imperative that they give them aggressive support at the polls. (Signed)

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 24.

This is the first letter of the kind which Colonel Roosevelt has allowed to be made public in the campaign and indicates the high regard in which he holds Messrs. Osborn and Townsend.

He has actively supported Mr. Stimson in New York and went into Massachusetts to aid Senator Lodge and has also given attention to Ohio, but he has steadfastly refused to promiscuously issue letters of indorsement to candidates, both state and congressional, in various parts of the country.

Immediately after the nomination of Mr. Osborn as the Republican candidate for governor of Michigan the colonel expressed his pleasure in a private letter and expressed his hope that the Soe man would be elected.

While on his last trip west he endeavored to shift a date so that he might enter Michigan to make one speech, but this was found impossible because of his engagements in Indiana. He assured State Chairman Knox, however, of his desire to aid in the election of Mr. Osborn and Mr. Townsend and the letter to Governor Guild is the result.

The indorsement of Colonel Roosevelt will aid in rolling up the majority for Mr. Osborn and assuring a solid Republican legislature," said Mr. Knox. "There has been no question about the election of either Mr. Osborn or a legislature which would name Charles E. Townsend as United States senator, but the strong expression of opinion by the ex-president will aid materially in rolling up old-time Republican majority.

"The Republican party of Michigan is to be congratulated in presenting candidates for governor and United States senator who can be singled out for indorsement by Colonel Roosevelt."

HE TESTIFIED TO THEIR INTEGRITY

Lawton T. Hemans Was Spokesman For Republican Legislators.

As a member of the constitutional convention and speaking as a citizen of Michigan and not as a partisan candidate, Lawton T. Hemans made this statement with reference to Michigan recent state legislatures:

"As one not in accord with the majority of the legislatures that have met in the state of Michigan, but speaking as one who loves the honor of the state and with kindly remembrance of the associations of men who have formed that majority for the last decade, I bear the testimony of a high character, for their patriotism, their integrity and their honor. If there are defects in our system, let us recognize that they have no foundation in want of patriotism, integrity or honor in the law making branch of the great state of Michigan."

Mr. Hemans made this declaration after he had served as a member of the legislature through two terms. He has performed no official service since this declaration was made, and the only incident that has occurred that could in any way have changed his opinion or his point of view was his nomination as the Democratic candidate for governor.

Mr. Hemans is asking the Republicans of Michigan to lay aside their party sympathies and their party loyalty in his behalf, but it is here evident that he is illustrating a degree of partisanship and desertion of his true judgment and honest opinions unequalled in Michigan political history.

If Mr. Hemans' declaration as a member of the Michigan constitutional convention was at all sincere or worthy of any consideration his statements at the present time are evidently compiled by party exigency and over-anxious personal ambition.

SOME SHAMEFUL PAGES.

Were Contributed to Michigan History by Last Democratic Legislature.

In the Democratic legislature of '91 and '92 A. B. Brown of Montcalm county was a member of the senate. Senator Brown was not elected as a Republican and had expected to affiliate with the Democratic members of the senate. But this is what Senator Brown said in explanation of why that expectation was not realized:

"They could not buy me nor drive me." The Democratic leaders did not like that kind of a man.

"There is mighty little danger that that crowd will go back there. Whatever may have been my opinion of the party before, their doings in the last legislature was sufficient to disgust every man who is not determined to follow his party to any extreme.

"You can fool all the people part of the time; you can fool part of the people all of the time, but you can never fool enough people in this state again to put the Democratic party into power."

This letter appeared in the Greenville Sentinel, Feb. 18, of the year directly following the unhappy experience of the people of Michigan with that last Democratic legislature.

NOT HIS FAULT.

Democratic Candidate For Governor Tried For Appointment Under Warner, but Failed to Land It.

Mr. Lawton T. Hemans, the Democratic candidate for governor, is greatly concerned over the fact that Mr. Osborn, his Republican competitor, accepted an appointment at the hands of Governor Warner. It has not occurred to him to call attention to the fact that he also accepted an appointment from Governor Warner. In 1905 he was appointed a member of the commission to select and erect a monument in Detroit to the memory of Steven T. Mason, Michigan's first governor. He accepted the appointment and served on the commission, and some persons as critical as Mr. Hemans himself in such directions are calling attention to the fact that his expense account was four times greater than one member of the commission and more than twice as large as that of any other member. It will also be recalled by Mr. Hemans' party friends that in 1907 he was an applicant for another appointment at Governor Warner's hands, the office sought in the latter instance being that of member of the state railroad commission. It is certainly not Mr. Hemans' fault that he is not at this time enjoying the privileges of a state administration job.

GETTING WHAT YOU WANT

Many Wish to Prosper, But Do Not Wish It Enough to Make Sacrifices.

You ordered your steak well-done. The waiter brought it to you rare. You ate it, although you do not like rare steak. You could have sent the steak back and had it the way you wanted it. You didn't take the trouble. You wanted well-done steak, but you didn't want it—enough.

That is the way lots of people go through life. They wish to be prosperous, but they do not wish it enough to make the self-sacrifices necessary for saving. They wish to be well-educated, but they do not take the time to read the books that would increase their knowledge. Yet the old German proverb, "What a man wills he can," is true. You can have what you wish, if you wish hard enough.

Suppose you make up your mind that you are going to get to the top in your office. If you really wish to you can. There will be opportunities to master details in positions above yours. If you are really working for your wish, you will grasp these, even if it means unpaid overtime or the sacrifice of personal pleasure.

Map out the course in life you wish to follow, set as a goal whatever place you wish to attain, then keep consistently work-wishing, doing everything you can to attain your end. You will get there every time.—Exchange.

WHEN YOUR WIFE FAINTS

New Method of Resuscitation More Effective Than Usual Way of Applying Friction.

When my wife faints, which is miserably often, I do not apply friction in the usual absurd way—rubbing backward and forward, which must alternately check and accelerate the passage of the blood—but taking hold of one of her hands with my left hand I place the thumb and finger of my right hand tight around her wrist and pass them firmly up toward her elbow.

Having brought them back loosely to the wrist I pass them firmly up again, and when I have repeated the operation two or three times, sometimes on both arms, I have the pleasure of hearing the ejaculation, "I feel better now." When I first had recourse to this means of resuscitating my lady she exclaimed instinctively on two different occasions, without being at all aware that I had had any particular intention, "Oh, that is what I seem to want."

From the invariable and immediate effect of this mode of friction I flatter myself that it is not unworthy the notice of the medical practitioner in the friction of cholera patients, a process which should be much oftener resorted to and more energetically persisted in than it generally is.—Letter to the Lancet.

Du Quesne's First Fight.

A monument of the gallant Admiral Du Quesne has just been provided at Bouchet, where he was buried in 1688, and the story of his first fight is therefore apposite. He was the son of a ship builder, and at the age of 17 was placed in command of one of his father's vessels. He sailed forth, espied a Dutch vessel, boarded it, compelled it to surrender and brought it into port. Not until he had been carried through the streets in triumph on the shoulders of his fellow townsmen did it occur to the officials that France and Holland were at peace. That fact being admitted, legal proceedings had to follow, as the result of which the youthful captain was warned to be more careful another time. Richelieu, however, heard of his exploit, and without considering the comity of nations offered him a commission in the navy.

Favored Age.

When the teacher looked severely at Isadore Levinsky, all ideas fled from him. When asked to name the presidents, he could think of just five—with four long gaps between them. "I am surprised, Isadore," said the teacher, who had left middle age well in the background. "When I was 11 years old, more than a year younger than you are now, I could recite the list of presidents without a single mistake or a moment's hesitation."

"Teacher, yes, ma'am," said Isadore, humbly; then a brilliant and comforting idea came to him. "But there couldn't have been half as many presidents to remember then, was there, teacher?"—Youth's Companion.

The Exiled Bucket.

It can't be possible that this new law affecting drinking cups and other receptacles really abolishes the "old oaken bucket!" It is true, of course, that in several towns of the state the well and its bucket are still in public use, and a man with an inordinate thirst prefers the bucket to the tin cup that generally accompanies it. But for sentiment's sake somebody should have been shrewd enough when the law was enacted to exempt the well-sweep from the clutches of scientific progress. Hail to the disappearance of the public drinking cup, but "weep" for the exiled oak bucket!

Poor Attention to Detail.

Critic—"My dear sir, your story is very much lacking in attention to detail. Here you say: 'He watched with admiration the fashionable beauty as she went up the street with free, graceful, swinging steps.' Author—"Well, what's the matter with that?" "If she was a fashionable beauty, how could she walk that way today?"

For Congress—Diekema or Sweet?

The congressional fight in the fifth district is being waged by both political parties in a firm and determined manner but there seems to be little doubt among the leaders that Mr. Sweet of Grand Rapids will again be unable to do what he failed to do two years ago, namely, defeat Mr. Diekema of Holland.

Mr. Diekema has the natural strength of the republican party back of him in a district of a state that has always been largely republican. Mr. Sweet in part has the support of the largest city of the district, Grand Rapids, of which city he was at one time mayor. Mr. Diekema however has one great advantage over his opponent and that is a record as a congressman that is respected throughout the district. Mr. Sweet has no congressional experience whatever. The record of Mr. Diekema has commanded the respect of the entire district, the people of the district are fully informed concerning it since it was made the issue of the bitter primary fight of two months ago at which time the republican voters placed the stamp of approval upon that very record. So forcibly was the record of Mr. Diekema presented to the voters that even the old Grand Rapids slogan, "Keep

Grand Rapids on the Map!" has lost its force and effect in this campaign, the people of Grand Rapids feeling and realizing that not only Grand Rapids but the whole fifth district is on the congressional map. Mr. Diekema has while in congress represented every portion of the district to its satisfaction and also to the satisfaction of the majority of the Grand Rapids voters.

Mr. Sweet has no experience, no accomplishments for the district to rely on, and outside of the district is practically unknown. Mr. Diekema on the other hand has throughout a long period of service in Washington acquired knowledge that no new man could hope to gain in several terms in congress. Furthermore he has a state wide reputation gained as Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives and during his long term as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. As a member of the Spanish War Claims commission Mr. Diekema gained many friends among the distinguished men in Washington and now in the event of his return to congress, his ready wit, striking personality and eloquent speech, his qualities of leadership, and parliamentary skill indicate that he is highly qualified to fill that great office for which he has been repeatedly mentioned—Speaker of the National House.

Mr. Sweet can show no such life of public activity as this. It does not glow with the fire of achievement and enthusiastic accomplishment as does the life record of Mr. Diekema.

Today in Washington, old customs and old forms are being cast into the crucible. It is a day of chance. Everything and everyone that can not prove worthy is cast aside for newer objects that can. The affairs of state need more than ever before to be placed in the hands of wise, time-tried men. The congressman of tomorrow must match his skill with powerful national enemies and cope with gigantic national dangers. He must be absolutely honest and absolutely fearless. Everywhere the legislature is met by new difficulties that call for rare acumen, intellect, and legislative experience. New legislation must be passed to meet new needs, old laws must be revised or repealed; a new speaker is to be elected in the house; new rules are to guide him in his conduct before that body; tariff revision, under the advice of the commission recently created, will require attention. Seldom in the past has there been such need in Washington for congressmen who have proved their worth.

Mr. Sweet and Mr. Diekema are both good men. The news does not wish to question the integrity of either. But Mr. Diekema is more than a good man, he is a good statesman as well. He is better qualified than Mr. Sweet to serve the district and nation, for Mr. Sweet is not a statesman.

A Party of "Words and not of Deeds."

The promise of the Democrats of Michigan to perfect a state primary law is a very peculiar proposition to come from a party that thus far has treated that law with absolute disregard. In four-fifths of the counties now possessed of the primary privilege the Democrats made little or no effort to make use of the primary system in selecting their candidates, and in nine out of the twelve congressional districts the Democratic nominees for congress were selected by congressional committees instead of by the party voters at the primary election. In most cases this disregard of the primary election was with the deliberate intent of having the nomination made behind closed doors by the Democratic party leaders instead of in the open by the voters of the party themselves. Possibly the sort of assumption that declares the only good Indian is a dead Indian is that which is in the minds of the Democratic platform makers of Michigan when they promise to perfect the primary election law. Herein again the Democratic party shows that it is a party of "words and not of Deeds."

Admits would be a Figure Head

The voters of Michigan are interested in one very important admission made in the campaign book issued by the Democratic State Central Committee, and that is Mr. Hemans will be "utterly helpless" with out a legislature to back him. In other words, the election of a Democratic legislature involving the election of a Democratic United States senator is necessary in order for Mr. Hemans to put into operation a single sentence of his many pledges of promised reform. He will be utterly helpless, Mr. Hemans admits Mr. Osborn as governor will not be utterly helpless. He will have a legislature pledged to the same improvements in state affairs which the Republican state platform sincerely promises in behalf of all its nominees. There is not the slightest value in any desirable direction which would attach to votes cast for the man who in advance of his election admits that under circumstances certain to exist he will be "utterly helpless" to affect any state legislative or administrative betterment.

Chase S. Osborn's Record

Reference to the records of our state in connection with the railroad commissioner's department show that more was accomplished during the years that Chase S. Osborn was state railroad commissioner than during any other similar period in the history of Michigan.

One of Mr. Osborn's very first acts in connection with his desire to throw every possible safeguard around trainmen and to prevent accidents was to create a new division of his department for the exclusive consideration of overhead wire matters.

Through the prompt work of that division during the first year of his incumbency 7,000 wire crossings were inspected, 5,000 of which were found defective and repairs and changes compelled.

From the first day of his term of office as railroad commissioner, until his last hour of service, Chase S. Osborn was constant in his efforts to require the separation of grades for railroads and this effort extended to electric roads and street railroads and wherever possible to highway crossings.

"There is absolutely no way to adequately protect life and property at railroad crossings except by separation of grades," he declared, and on that declaration was based an activity such as Mr. Osborn always gives to matters concerning which he is thoroughly in earnest.

In one year he secured separation of grades at twenty-three different points accomplishing more in that direction during that one year than had been accomplished during all the previous history of our state.

It is also true that more was effected through Mr. Osborn's efforts in the way of securing the adoption of railroad safety appliances than had been brought about through all past years.

Through Commissioner Osborn's efforts in the matter of requiring all that was due to the state in cases of doubt and controversy, extra receipts for the state treasury from railroad taxes were secured to an amount in excess of the entire cost of maintaining the state railroad department, including salaries and the expenses of all its officials.

It is further very well remembered by the people of Michigan that it was during Mr. Osborn's term as state railroad commissioner that the special charters of all Michigan railroads were repealed.

And they will further recall that more was accomplished in the way of reducing railroad fares through his efforts and through his energy than had ever before been brought about.

Mr. Hemans, the Democratic candidate for governor, is devoting much of his time to calling attention to the expenses of the railroad commissioner's office during Mr. Osborn's term, but he is not referring to the more important fact that the expenditures he refers to brought better results, dollar for dollar, than any money ever expended on state account.

The records fully warrant the claim that during Mr. Osborn's term of office as state railroad commissioner, more desirable legislation and more important results in the way of life saving requirements and railroad betterment were brought about than during all the years that extended back through Michigan's history.

The era of doing things, of getting results and the period of important permanent accomplishment in connection with matters with which he officially had to do was the period of Chase S. Osborn's term of service as Michigan's state railroad commissioner.

Mr. Clark's Reply to Mr. Wilde's Second Tirade

MR. JOHN F. WILDE,
Coopersville, Michigan

Dear Sir:—

Replying to yours of the 24th inst. in which you suggest that my communication be directed to Mr. Voter, will first call your attention to the fact that Mr. Wilde admits that he can not understand the Democratic platform, by saying that the Statements of either party platform might be construed a dozen different ways and so he forsakes the party under whose flag he sails and launches out upon the political wave in what he chooses to call "His Platform," made up principally, of republican and democratic planks but put together with Socialistic nails.

He sacrifices Mr. Winship by pledging his support to Mr. Townsend and after having been put on a Slate made up at Grand Rapids by a few of the leading democrats of the county (whose friendship, I by the way value most highly) and thereby having evaded competition, the prime feature of the Primary law, declares himself in favor of Direct Nomination and the extending of the present law. Perhaps he can explain to you how it happened that the same signatures appear upon each and all of the democratic petitions, practically without a slate having been made.

Mr. Voter can you understand the reason for both Mr. Wilde and Mr. Brusse, pledging their support to Mr. Townsend, and being so emphatic about it unless it is a ruse on the part of the Democratic party to catch Republican votes and thereby get control of the State Legislature?

Mr. Wilde gives as his reason for sacrificing Mr. Winship, that Mr. Townsend received the majority of all the votes cast at the primaries and therefore should be elected. If that is the case why should not the same rule apply in my case as I was nominated by a majority of more than 50 votes over those received by all other candidates?

Ask Mr. Wilde and Mr. Brusse, if they did not advocate the "Free Coinage of Silver at the Ratio of Sixteen to One;" the principle of Government Ownership of Railroads etc.; The principle of "Free Trade or Tariff for Revenue, only" if they have not always stood for everything that was contrary to Republican Principles and if so why do they merit the support of the Republican voters.

I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to request of my friends that may not be in position to watch the political moves that are being made, that you be on your guard against the "Grand Stand Plays" that are being made, more particularly during this campaign than there has been for years past.

I will make you no rash promises, but if elected will endeavor to look after our mutual interests, as best I can, and assure you that I am not tied in any way to a political faction more than to support the republican principles and candidates so far as it is at all times consistent with honest convictions to do so.

Hoping that you will not find the dozen or more ways of construing the above, that you do the democratic Platform, I am very sincerely,

Walter H. Clark, Republican candidate for [Representative, 2nd District, Ottawa County.

He will vote for Townsend

Charles H. McBride, Republican candidate for the Legislature of the First District, is one of the popular young Republicans of Ottawa County. Born in Lansing in 1874. His parents moved to Holland when he was two years old, and he has lived here ever since. Always a party worker he has established a friendship which assures him his election. His reputation for honesty and integrity has never been questioned, and in this city, where he is known better than anywhere else, the McBrides are always referred to as the honest lawyers.

For the last fourteen years he has been engaged in the practice of law, and has built up a clientele that anyone can be justly proud of. For four years he was City Attorney of the City of Holland. At the time he was appointed to this office there was great doubt in the minds of many whether he could fill an office previously held by an attorney of established reputation. He fully proved himself to be equal to the occasion. During the four years he was in office he made for himself an enviable reputation. There were many changes made necessary by the growth of the city, in fact the city had outgrown the garments of its youth and had to be dressed anew. Under his guidance and advice the new city charter was drafted under which we are now governed, which among many other things provided for the establishment of a Board of Police and Fire Commission, and gave the voters the privilege if they so wished, to pass upon any franchise or privilege before it became effective. This changing of the charter made it necessary to rebuild almost entirely the city ordinances, and the laws under which we are now governed were drafted by him. So well was this work done that in not a single instance was the legality of any of them successfully attacked.

He brought about a settlement of the old Eighth street paving contract, which had been pending for years, and by his efforts the contractor was forced to pay over to the City of Holland about $2500. In this action alone he saved the city more than he received in salary during his entire term of office.

Another result of his work of more recent date, and which decidedly benefitted a large body of our citizens was the litigation which he directed against the Citizens Telephone Co. In this he was stubbornly fought by the best legal talent in the State, through the highest Courts. The direct results of this litigation as we all know, has been the settling of a condition brought about by the blunder of a former administration, and the establishment of a satisfactory rate for years to come.

In many other instances he has saved the city much needless litigation and expense usual to municipal administration, and it was universally regretted when he retired from the office.

The Republicans of the State are vitally interested in the election of Charles Townsend to the United States Senate. He received a magnificent majority in the Republican Primary, which was a glowing tribute to his work as a Congressman.

But the fact must not be overlooked that Mr. Townsend is only nominated as the Republican candidate for United States Senator. He is not yet elected.

Under the law, he will be elected by the next Legislature if it is Republican.

The Democrats nominated Winship at the last primary election.

Under the law, he will be elected by the next Legislature if it is Democratic.

Do not be deceived by the promises of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature who say they will vote for Townsend. They cannot do so.

Charles H. McBride has been first and last a Townsend man, as well as a Republican, and if elected, will cast his vote for Townsend. He is fully able to discharge the duties of the office.

He will make a good legislator, honest, fearless, and always on the alert for the welfare of the whole people, and no breath of scandal or suspicion will ever be wafted against him.

An Tribute Unsolicited

Louis H. Osterhaus, Republican nominee for Prosecuting Attorney, should not only receive the votes of all the Republicans of Ottawa county on November 8th., but he is deserving of consideration at the hands of the voters of all other parties.

Although a young man, he has, by hard, faithful work and study achieved much success in business and in public life, and is well along the road to better and greater things.

His mother dying when he was six and his father when he was but eleven years old, he afterwards made his own way in the world, attending the public schools at Grand Haven and working nights and during vacation for his support. After leaving school he entered a law office and began the study of law with such energy and application that in October 1906, when he took the bar examinations before the State Board at Lansing, he was the only successful candidate in a class of eleven. At the same time he took, with three others, an examination on various high school subjects, before the same Board, and of the four he was the only man to pass these examinations. He was afterwards admitted to practice in the United States Courts at Grand Rapids and the United States Court of Appeals at Cincinnati. In August 1908 he was nominated Circuit Court Commissioner, in Convention, by a vote of 194 to 29 for the opposing candidate. Since May 1909 he has served as City Attorney for Grand Haven.

Mr. Osterhaus has shown himself to be hard worker, a good lawyer, a loyal Republican and a staunch friend. He has made a good City Attorney and will make a better Prosecutor, and, in his hands, the duties of the latter office will be capably and economically administered, with honor and credit to himself and the county.—Grand Haven Tribune.
