Hope Will Host MIAA Field Day

Hope College will host the MIAA Field Day on May 20-21, 1966.

Al Vanderbush, Hope faculty director, extended the invitation Tuesday at a meeting of the MIAA faculty directors at Calvin College in Grand Rapids and it was approved unanimously.

Athletic Director Gordon Brewer said Hope will host the golf and track events. The golf tourney will be a 36-hole one-day event and will be played on Friday, May 20 at the American Legion Memorial Park golf course.

The track meet will be held at the Hope track on the athletic facility east of Fairbanks Ave. and 11th St. Track events will be run on Hope's rubber asphalt track.

Kalamazoo College will retain the tennis tournament. In case of rain, Kalamazoo also has indoor courts, Brewer said.

It is the first time Hope has hosted the Field Day. One reason Hope wanted to host the Field Day was because it is Hope's Centennial Year.

The MIAA directors turned down a request to have the MIAA golf season during the fall and the golf season will be continued in the spring.

The measure was favored 4-3 but a two-thirds vote is needed for passage, Brewer said. Hope voted in favor of the fall season. Voting against it were Kalamazoo, Albion and Alma Colleges.

Board Briefed On Election

Representatives of the Holland public schools explained the four items which will be placed on the ballot at the Dec. 7 special school election to the Holland Christian School board meeting in regular session Tuesday night.

Supt. Donald Ihrman and board members Russel Fredricks and Harvey Butler outlined the building program needs to the Christian School board. Hil Buurma, secretary of the Christian School board said, "The Christian School board appreciates being informed of the public school building program and the swimming pool proposal. In an effort to promote quality education in Holland, the Christian School Board urges all citizens to undertake a careful study of the plans proposed and urges a responsible vote on Dec. 7th."

The Christian School board also accepted the resignation of the Rev. Wilmer Witte, vice president of the group. Rev. Witte, who is pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, recently accepted the call issued him by the Western Springs Ill. Christian Reformed church.

Ted Hoeksema, president, expressed appreciation for Rev. Witte's service to the Board and the school system as vice president and chairman of the Educational Committee. The Rev. Witte submitted his resignation in person and paid tribute for the work of the Holland Christian Schools. There are no present plans to elect a successor, Hoeksema said.

The planning committee also reported steady progress on the detailed planning of the proposed new Christian High School. It was reported that the board has every assurance that construction will begin in early spring of 1966. It was stated that the architect is making weekly visits to discuss details with the various teachers involved.

All Saints' Guild Plans Pre-Holiday Tea, Fair

Table arrangements will be changed this year with the tea table to be placed in the center of the parish hall and the individual tables around the rooms to facilitate browsing.

At the last guild meeting, members voted to purchase a nativity creche madonna in memory of the late Arthur Shepherd, an honorary member of the guild.

Addition of Federal and Harrington districts to the Holland school district will be recommended in the Ottawa county committee's report in school district reorganization, the Holland Board of Education was informed Monday night.

Dale Mossburg, a member of the Ottawa Area Intermediate School District Reorganization Committee, outlined the work of the committee which has been studying reorganization for well over a year. The county's report to the State Department of Education will be made not later than Dec. 31.

Mossburg was appointed by the Holland Board of Education to the 18-member committee of the county. Five members were appointed by the high school districts in the county and five were appointed by non-high school districts, three by the County Board of Education and five members-at-large by the probate judge. This committee met with each of the 24 school boards in the county and with all superintendents as well as state groups.

Mossburg displayed a county map showing the seven high school districts and 17 non-high school districts. Aim of the committee was to combine the 17 districts into the seven districts, make recommendations to the state and school boards, and then submit it to public vote.

Mossburg said the districts of Federal, Harrington, New Groningen and East Holland were of most interest to Holland people. Federal and Harrington are proposed to be added to Holland and New Groningen, East Holland, half of Sherbourne and part of Allendale to the Zeeland district. The other half of Sherbourne will go to Hudsonville.

West Ottawa district is almost unchanged and the only difference is a slight squaring off of the district, mostly in order that this area too may come in for the county-wide vote which the county committee proposes, probably to coincide with the June vote. The Consumers Power plant at Port Sheldon would remain in the Grand Haven district.

The committee is recommending the addition of a new high school district in the county, namely Jenison. Mossburg said the Jenison people want their own district and have the financial backing for it. At present enrollment falls short of the required 2,000 but this number will be reached in a relatively short time.

Mossburg said the committee had the most trouble resolving the Nunica district, since half wanted to go to Spring Lake and the other half to Coopersville, but they didn't want the district split. After several meetings with school boards and superintendents of the two high school districts, the committee is proposing a split bordered by I-96 and Crocker Creek as the most feasible plan.

Under the county recommendation, there will be eight high school districts for Holland, West Ottawa, Zeeland, Hudsonville, Jenison, Coopersville, Grand Haven and Spring Lake. Mossburg said in 10 years, this number may be down to five districts through further mergers.

He said two non-high school districts in Allegan desire to join Zeeland district, but this cannot be resolved at this time under current laws.

The county-wide vote would be a simple yes-no vote on the total proposition. If this vote does not carry, then each district would hold separate votes.

Addition of Federal and Harrington districts to Holland district would boost Holland enrollment from 4,762 to 5,215 and eventually to 5,419. It also would boost state equalized evaluation from $85,833,000 to $97,622,000 and valuation behind each student from $18,000 to $19,000.

If separate votes do not carry, Mossburg said the work of the committee is terminated at this point and further determination would be up to the state legislature.

The new bids are expected to be opened in two months. The building has been designed by Daverman of Grand Rapids and a one story unit will be erected along Washington St. for the post office and a two story section will be built for office space and other U.S. offices on Fourth St.

Several homes, the old First Methodist church, an old dentist's office used by Dr. Albert Rysdorp years ago and the G. H. Woman's club building have been sold to the government for $160,000.

STUDY FIRST

We suppose that a number of people whose day begins at eight and runs on for eight or nine hours have wondered how students and professors have so much time to devote to demonstrations. It doesn't make sense. Somebody just isn't tending the store. And now we at least have some words on this.

President Claude Bissell of the University of Toronto has warned students that academic failure because of time lost in demonstrations will not be tolerated. He insists on that rather simple description that a university is concerned with the discovery, transmittal, and enlargement of knowledge. And that puts the whole matter back where it ought to be.

Students who voluntarily decide that their time can be spent in endless extracurricular activities ought to be willing to take the consequences. This is the hard truth that the school doesn't give credit for this.

We aren't interested in discussing the merits of the various causes for which people demonstrate. This is their own affair. But with thousands of students looking for places in our over-crowded schools, there seems to be little reason to give these spaces to those for whom school is little more than an avocation.

We are just as questioning on the matter of the faculty. One wonders just who is teaching those classes which meet during the time the professor is out on another jaunt. There are certain duties for which one is paid, and simple ethics would require that those obligations be fulfilled.

Since President Bissell brought up the matters, and from the point of vantage of a university campus, it seemed rather reasonable that the fellow in the factory and office must be having some trouble understanding the who situation. We are at least glad the problem is recognized.

Investigate 3 Breakins

Ottawa sheriff's deputies are investigating three breakins at cottages along Lakeshore Dr. near Port Sheldon which were reported Monday.

Lester Yoder of Grand Rapids discovered the breakins at his cottage at 6421 Lakeshore Dr. and two neighboring cottages. Also broken into were cottages owned by Gerald Tinch of 186 East 32nd St. and Douglas Dok of Grand Rapids.

Yoder reported that four fishing rods, two electric blankets, a large fish net and a down comforter were taken from his cottage. Deputies are checking with the other two owners to find out if anything was taken.

The Yoder and Tinch cottages were entered by pushing in doors. The doors were pushed in with such force that the wooden frames around the doors were broken. The method of entering the Dok cottages has not been determined.

Sunday School Lesson

Sunday, Nov. 14
Jonathan
I Samuel 20: 12-17; 23:15-18
By C. P. Dame
A Christian friendship can add much to a person's life. The Bible tells us about several fine friendships but the most famous of them all is the friendship between Jonathan and David. This friendship still inspires.

Some fine friendships last. David and Jonathan were both heroes. They met right after David had become a national hero by slaying the giant Goliath who had slandered David's God. David was a shepherd then, Jonathan the crown prince who had at one time won a single-handed victory over Israel's enemy, the Philistines.

The Bible says that, "The soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David." We knit together things that are of the same substance and texture. These two men were similar. Jonathan had much more to give than David—he gave him his sword, bow, girdle and robe. This friendship lasted. It was built on unselfish love. After Jonathan was killed in battle, David sang of his wonderful love, surpassing the love of women.

Jonathan had a woman's friendship lasted because it was built on a common faith in God. Many people find life-long friends in the church.

II Friendships sometimes cost. Jonathan was in a tough spot. Saul, the father of Jonathan became jealous of David and wanted to kill him. Although Jonathan knew that David was to be king he was not jealous at all in spite of the fact that he was the crown prince. Jonathan tried to be loyal to his father and to his friend who was going to take the place he was expected to take. The nobility of Jonathan is shown in his willingness to step aside and give first place to his friend and take second place for himself.

Why was Jonathan able to show loyalty to his father and friend? This was due to his overarching devotion to God. The two friends made a covenant with each other. In the Orient in those days it was the custom to kill the whole family of rival claimants to the throne. Jonathan asked David to show kindness to his family forever. David made the promise and kept it—read II Samuel 9 please.

III. Loyal friends encourage each other. With a band of several hundred freebooters David was hiding himself in the wilderness of Ziph. Saul with an army came down to capture David. Just then the Philistines made another raid and he had to pursue them. While David was in the wilderness Jonathan came to seek David and found him and "strengthened his hand in God" by telling him not to fear Saul who knew that he would be the king in time and that he would be next to him. This was the last meeting of the two friends.

That this visit was much appreciated we can readily understand for David was then a fugitive and an exile. Our true friends can be a great help.

Jesus is the greatest of all friends. His love and renunciation and self-sacrifice far surpass those of Jonathan. He offers the robe of righteousness made white in His blood to all sinners. Teachers and scholars is He your friend?

PROBE WRECKAGE — Authorities inspect wreckage of Navy jet which crashed at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago Sunday night killing Marine Capt. Peter Cupery, 33, of Holland. The plane crashed nose-first as it ap-proached the runway on return flight from Jacksonville, Fla.

Jet Crash Kills Pilot From City

CHICAGO — Marine Reserve Capt. Peter L. Cupery, 33, a Holland, Mich., attorney, was killed Sunday night when his Navy T-33 jet plane crashed during a steep dive at O'Hare International Airport.

Lt. Cmdr. Tom Covill of Glen-view Naval Air Station said Cupery had flown another pilot to Jacksonville, Fla., and was returning to Glenview, north of Chicago, when he was diverted to O'Hare.

Covill said fog had closed down the Glenview airstrip.

O'Hare Watch Supervisor James Rugg in the control tower said Cupery made one ap-proach of the field but swerved off the flight path about a mile from the runway and came around again.

Rugg said he was again given clearance to land. The plane crashed as it approached the strip. There was a small fire in the plane after the crash but airport firemen quickly ex-tinguished it.

The plane bored six feet into the ground.

Cupery was pulled from the wreckage by airport crash crews immediately after the crash. Officials said he had been killed on impact.

Cupery, whose family lives at 292 West 28th St., was born in Friesland, Wis., and grew up in that area. He attended high school near Waupun, Wis., and then came to Holland to attend Hope College, working part time as a student at the H.E. Morse Co.

After a couple of years at Hope College, he went into the Marine Corps and was a Marine pilot in Korea before returning to Hope College, graduating in 1958. He then went to Marquette try and many nations, thousands of excited young people initiate one of the great experiences of their lives, that moment of arrival at the college or university of their choice.

Today the pine grove and classrooms of Hope College bustle with activity. The warmth and stimulation of eager, young minds in academic pursuit engulfs the atmosphere. New friends are being made and old acquaintances renewed and the professors who this year returned from their busiest summer in the history of the college are prepared to meet the challenge of each inquisitive mind. All this is a college campus in the fall.

Hope College entered its second century this year, a second century of service to the youth of America and many foreign lands. A great spirit pervades the campus. Although the traditions of the past are anchored with stability, our inheritance from men of dedication and purpose, the campus is modern and alive with vitality, a twentieth century vitality, yearning to be spent in the adventure of learning.

At Hope, young men and women from 31 of our country's states have been joined by young people of many different cultural backgrounds of the world.

It is significant that in Hope's centennial year a record number of international students have enrolled and are rapidly becoming a vital force in the educational program of the college. Students have traveled to Holland from Africa, Japan, China, Ecuador, Syria, Iran, Indonesia, Singapore, Canada, The Netherlands, and many other countries, to study the liberal arts. The face of Hope is changing.

At the same time that these students are bringing an international maturity to Hope College, they present challenges that we must meet with effective solution.

The face of Hope is changing and evidence of this fact was demonstrated this summer when 35 Japanese students were accorded the traditional hospitality of the Dutch at Hope College, and in the Holland community.

Into our midst came 35 charming Japanese students, a new generation — and yet they are the sons and daughters of fathers who waged war with the United States 20 years ago.

From 1930 to 1941 a generation of Japanese and Americans suffered a communications power failure. America's foreign policy, indifferent to Asia's problems and Asia's desire to play a major role as partner in the growth of world trade, coupled with the underestimation of Japanese militarism — as a force to achieve an industrial power objective, resulted in the communications failure. A war was issued!

How can such a communications power failure be prevented in the future? The answer, at least part of it, is to begin communicating! An understanding of our international neighbors is possible right here on College Avenue with Hope's foreign students.

The very presence of these students from far-off lands prompts us to ask some questions. What responsibility do we have to these students from all over the world? Do we have a responsibility to be partners with the United States Government in representing America to our friends and visitors during their college years here? Are we not truly the ambassadors, and perhaps even more, a vital force in their education of our American way of life, democracy, and freedom? How can we "wage peace" here in Holland, Michigan?

It is not time for us to stand and be counted and actively participate in the programs developed for the foreign student on the Hope campus? During the summer many citizens of Holland did just that and demonstrated their support of the one-world concept of international human relations.

The total commitment of each of you to our Japanese students this summer was founded in Christian love — not a passive love, but an active and demonstrative love. You were concerned that these students should understand our nation's genuine desire to be partners with them in the ever present struggle of "waging peace."

It is my conviction that the community and Hope truly are one in purpose and dedication to each of the 1,707 students on the campus of Hope College. The face of Hope is indeed changing, changing to meet the needs of today's youth — preparing them to meet the challenges and problems of tomorrow. The College needs your talents, your interests, and your participation with us in our programs.

Citizens of Holland, welcome abroad for a great adventure!

Kooikers Feted At Farewell by Church Friends

About 80 church friends attended a farewell reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kooiker from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Paul. Hosts and hostesses for the afternoon were Dr. and Mrs. Harry Frissel, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jalving and the Pauls.

Fall colors of gold, bronze, deep rust and green were used for the tea table which was centered with a mum flower arrangement created by Mrs. J. M. Van Alsburg. A companion arrangement on the sideboard was also made by Mrs. Van Alsburg.

The guests of honor were surprised each half hour by the ringing of an alarm at which time a package was presented to them. The packages included a flower box, Michigan soil, fill, fertilizer, tools and bulbs to create a bit of Holland for the Kooikers next May on their apartment balcony in Staten Island, N.Y.

The Kooikers will leave on Friday for New York where Mr. Kooiker will assume the responsibility of production manager for the Eikens Color Co., a division of Holland Saco Color, in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Mr. Kooiker is the son of Mrs. Joseph Kooiker of Holland and the late Mr. Kooiker. Mrs. Kooiker was originally from the Chicago area. The family which includes sons, Dirk and Peter, has been active in church and civic affairs. Mrs. Kooiker is a past president of the Woman's Literary Club.

Nienhuis Infant Son Dies at Holland Hospital

Douglass Edwin Nienhuis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Nienhuis of 396 Mayfair St., was dead at birth at Holland Hospital Monday.

Survivors include the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nienhuis and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vander Zwaag all of Holland; the great-grandfather, John Vander Zwaag and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Dick Knoll, both of Crisp and a great-grandfather, Henry Assink of Holland.

Graveside services were scheduled to be held at Pilgrim Home cemetery at 1:30 p.m. today with the Rev. Garrett Stoutmeyer officiating.

Arrangements were made by Notary-Ver Lee-Langeland Chapel.

GRAND HAVEN — "American people are beginning to wake up to the implications of the Great Society and are becoming aware of some of the serious aspects of over-federalization," U.S. Rep. Robert P. Griffin told more than 100 persons attending a public meeting of the executive committee of Ottawa county Republicans Thursday night in the new county building.

Griffin said many new federal programs are bypassing state governments entirely, and the new poverty programs and the new teachers' corps are slated to go directly to the local level.

While this in itself may sound efficient, many of the new programs passed in this Congress are not clearly defined and many complications are sure to develop, Griffin said.

For example, he said the federal rent aid for people could be construed in New York to pay 75 per cent of the rent for "low income families earning $8,100 a year and having sizeable assets."

He recalled that it was at commencement exercises at the University of Michigan that President Johnson first outlined his Great Society program, and many people did not grasp his new concept of co-operation which largely ignores and bypasses state government. Invariably, the new programs do not refer to governments but to "leaders" in the local areas, he said.

Griffin said Republicans in Congress do not unite 100 per cent on issues, but generally around 90 per cent, whereas the Democrats who outnumber Republicans more than 2 to 1 vote about 70 per cent. Yet, only 73 per cent of the Democratic vote is needed to pass an issue, putting up tremendous odds for effective opposition from the GOP, he said, pointing to the uphill job Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford Jr. faces.

He said the odds also are stacked on other fronts, such as in the House Education and Labor committee of which he is a member. The committee itself consists of 20 Democrats and 10 Republicans, but of its 45-member staff, only four help the Republican program. Aside from that nearly all the employees in the big departments are hired by Democrats.

On Viet Nam, Griffin said the U.S. position is much better than before, and felt confident that the emphasis in the nation's press on the radical element would eventually level off. "Demonstrations by our academic community don't help us a bit in Viet Nam, but these people have a right to disagree. If most people burned their draft cards, it would cease to be news."

On the U.N., Griffin said it was strange that the intense argument of one man-one vote is never associated with this body in which the tiniest nation has equal voice with the largest.

He said he was happy over Lindsay's election as mayor of New York City but did not regard it as any great GOP victory but a personal victory for Lindsay. "But it presents encouragement and likely will generate hope and enthusiasm in many quarters," he said.

Also speaking were State Sen. Harold Volkema of Holland who briefed the people on Senate functions and State Reps. Mel De Stijger of Hudsonville and James Farnsworth of Plainwell who talked about House functions. Mrs. Julian Hutton, county chairman, presided. Reports were given by Michele Meany and Tom Selles and Don Reynolds of Holland on attending a four-day teenage Republican (TARS) camp near Battle Creek early in September.

Hudsonville Wins Over West Ottawa

Passing with deadly accuracy Hudsonville quarterback Greg Gerkin threw for another touchdown and ran for another to lead his team in a 20-0 victory over West Ottawa Panthers Friday night at the West Ottawa field.

A crowd of 1,500 watched the Eagles blank the Panthers at West Ottawa thus preventing West Ottawa from entering the win column in the O-K League this year.

For coach Ron Wetherbee's Panthers it was the seventh loss in a row after winning the opening game of the season. The Panthers were once again frustrated in their efforts to get their offense moving. Throughout the entire game West Ottawa picked up only one first down and a total of 46 yards rushing and passing.

The Panthers game plan was to take to the air but even that proved unsuccessful as only one out of eight passes was complete and two were intercepted by the Eagles.

The Panther defense on the other hand performed quite admirably and West Ottawa linebackers intercepted four Gerkin passes and held the Hudsonville Eagles twice deep in Panther territory.

The decisive factor was Gerkin. His first touchdown came with 4:14 left in the first quarter. The Eagles drove 70 yards in eight plays for the score. Two of these plays were passes of 28 and 25 yards placing the ball on the West Ottawa two yard-line where Gerkin dashed around end for the score. The conversion attempt was broken up by Jerry Klomprens as he threw Jim Cooper for a loss.

On the kick off Panther halfback Greg Gorman almost duplicated his 79 yard touchdown run of last week as he ripped up the middle shaking off Hudsonville tacklers, almost breaking into the clear only to be brought down on the Eagle 40 by determined defensive play. On the next play the Panther fire was extinguished as Eagle linebacker Jim Van Geest intercepted Dan Bauer's pass and returned the ball to the 42 yard line. This interception set up the second touchdown.

Gerkin threw a 28 yard pass to end Bruce Van Klompberg who was brought down on the Panther 30. Dan Kuiper lugged the ball to the 21 where Gerkin tossed to Schut on the five. Then Gerkin hit Mark Bolhuis who was alone in the end zone for the tally. It came with 11:12 left in the second period. The conversion attempt was good on a Gerkin pass to Schut and the Eagles led 13-0.

The Panthers were threatened by the Eagles late in the second period as Gerkin again bombarded them with his passing. One pass was caught out of bounds of the end zone and was called back. On the next play Gerkin's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Panther halfback Mike Graves for a touchdown and the Panthers broke up the Hudsonville scoring threat.

Both teams played on even terms during the third and fourth quarters. The Panther defense led by John Oonk, Frank Houting, Mike Graves and Klomprens broke up several scoring attempts by Gerkin and company.

Major penalties marred the play throughout the second half. West Ottawa found themselves in good field positions twice in the second half but failed to follow through both times.

With only 1:26 left in the ball game, Gerkin threw his final touchdown pass to Schut. West Ottawa, deep in its own territory, was forced to kick. The ball was blown dead on the Panther 34, where Hudsonville took over. In three plays, the Eagles were on the 12-yard-line where Gerkin fired an aerial to Schut in the end zone. Gerkin then ran around end for the conversion and tucked the game safely away for Hudsonville.

Bonsai Demonstration Intrigues Garden Club

A new art form for the discriminating gardener with a flair for the unusual is the little Bonsai. Members of the Holland Garden Club attending Thursday's meeting at the Women's Literary Club readily agreed with guest lecturer Robert L. Maxson of Grand Ledge, that the little Bonsai is unique and fascinating. Appearing with Mr. Maxson was Leo Smeltzer also of Grand Ledge, who is a Bonsai fancier and who "grew" a Bonsai before the audience.

The Bonsai, a woody plant in a small container and trained to suggest an attractive aged tree, has captured the fancy of people from Maine to California. Mr. Maxson feels it has tremendous possibilities for home gardeners with artistic talents, and contends it presents "a much more satisfying challenge than the usual house plants."

He was quick to point out the difference between the Bonsai and the Ming tree found in many flower shops. The Ming tree is artificial, produced from driftwood, dried moss and sometimes plastic, whereas the Bonsai is a living thing, requiring air, sunlight and water, which grows and reflects seasonal changes of nature.

The Japanese are credited with bringing this art form to the world, although it originally began in China. Here plants and trees were grown in pots, and as they grew too large for their containers, they began pruning and shaping them, thus beginning a craft that was handed down from father to son, and became the national art craft of Japan.

In 1912 Japanese immigrants brought the art of Bonsai to the United States, but it wasn't until after World War II that interest in this country became nationwide.

Mr. Maxson said that the Bonsai is not an exact miniature replica of a mature tree, as many believe, but one with lines, shape and form, created to suggest an aged tree in a natural landscape. There is no secret to growing Bonsai, just regular horticultural practice. He suggests starting with a plant grown from a seedling or cuttings in a container, a container that should be in perfect balance with the finished tree, and should not detract from the plant.

Some types used for Bonsai work are Japanese maple, elm, beech, junipers and pines. Leaves should be small and the trunk should have an interesting bend or twist.

"It is not what a plant is, but what it suggests" that make a true Bonsai. These plants usually require daily care, but anyone owning one feels the little care needed, is small compared to the great pleasure received from them.

Following the lecture, slides were shown taken from many places in the world, with many varieties of Bonsai shown. At this point Mr. Smeltzer demonstrated how and what to use for creating a Bonsai tree. It was emphasized that the Bonsai is basically an outdoor plant, and belongs on a table or bench, off the ground, with free air circulation. It may be brought into the home for display, but should not be considered a house plant.

Mrs. William C. Vandenberg presided at the business meeting. She announced the landscape design study group would meet on Nov. 8 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Earle Wright.

The flower arranging study group will meet on Nov. 11 at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Mollwain. ## Show-Cause Order Issued By Judge

ALLEGAN — Attorney Leo Hoffman, who refused as a court-appointed counsel to represent a convicted slayer seeking a new trial, will be ordered to show cause as to why he should not be held in contempt of court.

The show-cause order, authorized by Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith Thursday afternoon, is in the nature more or less of a test case to determine responsibility of court-appointed attorneys under the new Michigan constitution.

It probably will reach its conclusion in the Michigan Supreme Court.

In asking Prosecutor Ervin L. Andrews to prepare the order for Hoffman's arrest and show-cause appearance, Judge Smith said it was an attempt to clear the air on the matter of automatic appeals under the new constitution.

The defendant in the case is Ernest B. Sandefur, 47, now serving a 20-year term on second-degree murder charges in the slaying of his son, Gaylon, 21. Sandefur was sentenced in 1962 and appealed under the new Michigan constitution providing for the right of appeal under the "quickie justice" act.

Under a section of the new state constitution persons convicted of felonies are given the right of appeal as "a matter of right."

Atty. Lester J. Tooman was appointed as Sandefur's new attorney Thursday by Judge Smith.

Hoffman contended after studying the case recently that he could not conscientiously defend Sandefur and that the new Michigan constitution granting the right of appeal had been interpreted too broadly.

He said in his opinion, Sandefur was not entitled to a new trial.

Detail School Improvements, Swimming Pool

Preliminary plans for improvements at three elementary schools and for the indoor swimming pool at the southwest corner of 22nd St. and Maple Ave., all included in a forthcoming special school election Dec. 7, were approved by the Holland Board of Education at its monthly meeting Monday night.

The special election Dec. 7 lists a $1 million bond issue to replace the old sections of Longfellow and Van Raalte elementary schools plus a new Maplewood school, a $500,000 bond issue for the swimming pool, a quarter-million for three years for pool operations, and a proposition to consolidate bonded indebtedness in the Holland district.

These resolutions were drawn up at a special meeting of the board Oct. 27 and were reaffirmed Monday night.

The election will be held in all 14 precincts of the city, except for that portion near the southern border of the city which has been transferred to the Hamilton district.

Only property owners and their spouses may vote on the first two propositions. All qualified voters in the school district may vote on the last two propositions.

The bonded debt assumption proposition would consolidate current indebtedness of the Holland district and the former Lakeview and Van Raalte districts. This lists the current balance of $2,695,000 on series 1 and $105,000 of series 2, year 1960, of Holland district; $184,000 of Van Raalte district, year 1962; and $225,000 of the Lakeview district, year 1962. The total would be $3,209,000.

Blueprints of preliminary plans for the three elementary schools and the swimming pool were exhibited.

The old buildings at Van Raalte and Longfellow are worn and obsolete and have been condemned by the fire marshal, the report read. They are of wood construction with brick veneer.

Each has eight classrooms, open stair wells and ventilating shafts between floors, worn flooring, deteriorating window cases, obsolete toilet rooms, cracked plaster and obsolete roofs, heating systems and lighting.

For each school, plans call for eight new classrooms, a new library; a new multi-use room to be used for audio-visual room, music room, arts and crafts and drama, and other services. The library and multi-use room would also serve as tornado shelters and would be designed with extra strength accordingly. The multi-use room also could serve in the summer recreation for the city.

The 1950 additions containing seven classrooms at Longfellow and three classrooms at Van Raalte will continue to be used. Each 1950 addition also contains a gym which will continue to be used.

For Maplewood, there is a site at 37th St. and Central Ave. about four acres in size, in a rapidly growing and expanding residential area. The site is across College Ave. from the city-owned Maplewood playground. The existing school building south of the divided highway will remain and will continue to be used for school purposes.

Maplewood plans call for eight classrooms, a kindergarten room, library, gym, a multi-use room which would be used for audio-visual room, music room, arts and crafts, and drama. The gym and multi-use room could be used for summer recreational programs for the city. The multi-use room and the stage for the gym also could serve as a tornado shelter area.

Russell Fredericks, chairman of the buildings and grounds committee, said estimates by Architects Kammeraad and Strop come within the $1,000,000 proposed in the bond issue. This would include furnishings.

Harvey Butler, chairman of the swimming pool committee, submitted plans for the proposed pool to be erected at the southwest corner of 22nd St. and Maple Ave. at a cost not to exceed $500,000.

Plans call for a swimming pool 46 by 76 feet, a separate diving well 25 by 45 feet, a spectators' area accommodating 500, dressing rooms, rest rooms, lobby, director's office, a separate heating room, and basement storage under the spectators' area.

Butler said the plans reflect advances in pool planning of the last two years and incorporate several new state regulations. He said the preliminary plans already were approved by the pool committee which has representation of the Holland Inter-School Council.

the high school. Millage rates have decreased the last couple of years through rising valuations.

Dutchmen Compile 4-4 Season Mark

It was a dreary ending for Hope College's football team here Saturday as the Flying Dutchmen dropped a 23-6 decision to Bluffton College in Riverview Park on a foggy, damp day before 2,000 disappointed Parents Weekend fans.

Scoring three times in the second quarter, the Beavers ruined any Hope thoughts of closing out the season with its fifth victory in eight starts. Bluffton added a final jab with a fourth period safety in recording its sixth win in eight starts.

While Hope did a fair job of stopping Bluffton's anticipated running game, the winners took to the air and scored two of their touchdowns on aerials and set up a third.

The touchdown was made a 24-yard pass from quarterback Art Tuel to end Jim Sommer with 5:29 left in the second period. The tally came after a four-play, 43-yard drive, highlighted by a 14-yard Tuel to Ed Herring pass.

Hope took the kickoff and failed to make a first down on its own 44 and the Beavers took over. Five plays later Tuel threw five yards to Eldon Gerber for the score with two minutes left in the half. Herring slashed tackle for 21 yards and Tuel passed to Sommer for 13 for the big gainers in the drive.

The Flying Dutchmen returned the next kickoff to the Hope 35 where a second down pass was snatched by tackle Doug Court back on the Hope 25 and he ran to the 20.

Mike Goings plunged from a yard out to 1:34 to play after Tuel passed 12 yards to Sommer and Gerber had ripped tackle for seven. Dave Enz converted after the three touchdowns.

Hope scored with 8:47 left in the third quarter on a four-yard Harlan Hyink to Bill Hultgren pass after Paul Wasenaar had recovered a Bluffton fumble on the Beavers four Hyink was tackled on an attempted two-point conversion. The losers had two fine chances to score in the fourth period. Bill Beebe, Rog Kroodsma, Paul Oakes and Wasenaar gang tackled Bluffton's punter Rod McDaniels on his own three following a high from center.

Two runs put the ball on the one where the Flying Dutchmen fumbled and Bluffton recovered. After the winners punted, Hope got the ball and Hyink completed a 23-yard wobbly pass to Keith Abel on the Bluffton seven. But a fumble on the next play squelched scoring thoughts.

Hope's final try came after a Bluffton punt which Tom De Kuiper returned from the Bluffton 35 to the 19. But the losers advanced only a yard in the next four plays.

Bluffton completed a pass that covered 41 yards in the closing seconds but an attempted lateral was fumbled and Vern Plagenhoef recovered for Hope on his own 35. But on the second play Gary Frens was tackled in the end zone for the safety.

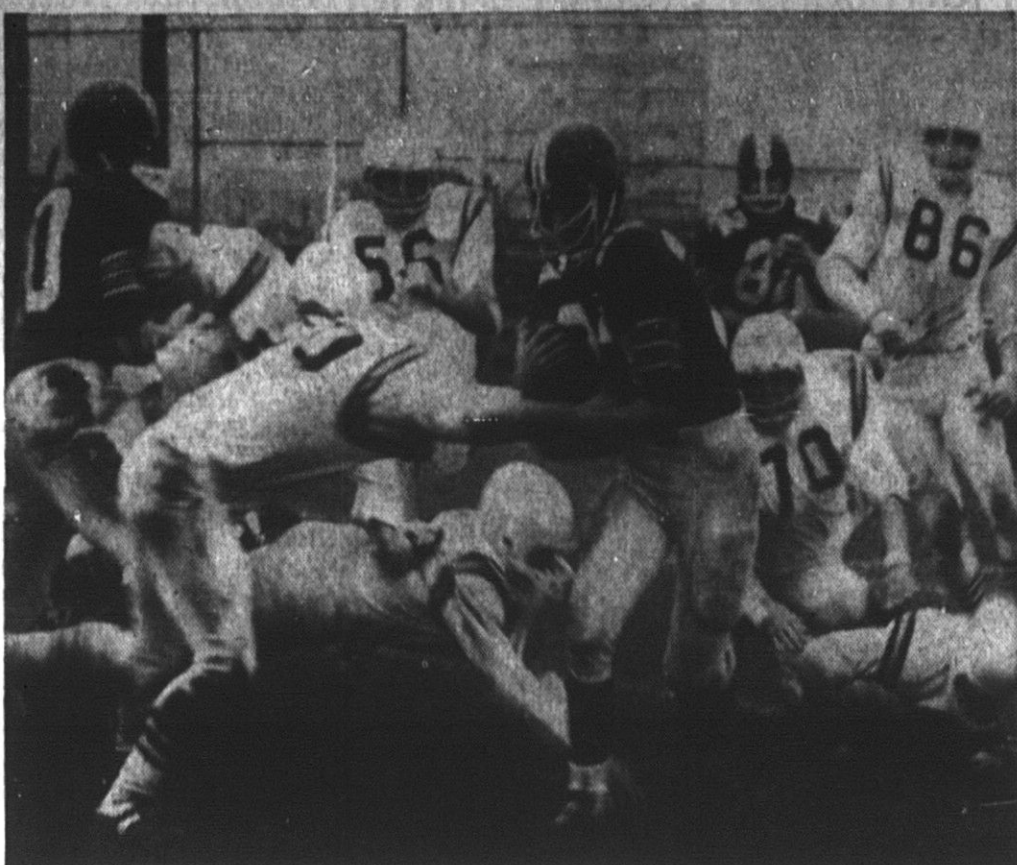

The Hope rushing game was held to a net 40 yards with Denny Wilder leading 29 in ten tries while Bill Keur gained 16 yards in seven attempts. Hyink closed out his college career with 10 of 22 passes for 175 yards.

Of the 196 yards gained passing by Bluffton, 133 came in the first half. The winners gained 110 yards rushing, 59 in the second half but most of it came in the closing minutes as Hope's defense improved in the third and most of the fourth period.

Coach Russ De Vette commended defenders Pelon, Kroodsma and Oakes for their work. Bluffton's passing surprised Hope and De Vette felt the club wasn't ready to put pressure on the passer. Hope lost Joe Kusak with a pinched neck nerve while deep back Walt Reed pulled a hamstring muscle.

LITTLE DAYLIGHT — Bill Keur, Hope College halfback, finds a small opening in the Bluffton defense during Hopes final football game of the season against Bluffton in Riverview Park last Saturday. Keur led the MIAA in scoring this fall with eight touchdowns and ranked second in rushing, just six yards behind Pete Boroday of Albion. Keur gained 320 yards in 64 carries for a five-yard average in five league games. (Sentinel photo)

Keur Wins Point Crown But Loses Rushing Title

Hope college senior Bill Keur won the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association's individual football scoring title, but Keur and quarterback Harlan Hyink lost out on bids for the rushing, passing and total offense titles.

Albion and Adrian met in the league's final game last Saturday and the Britons' Pete Boroday unseated Keur from the rushing leadership and Albion quarterback Dave Nielson edged Hyink for the passing and total offense crowns.

Keur wound up with eight touchdowns in five conference games for 48 points, while Albion end John Ellinger caught six touchdown passes for 36 points and second place.

Nielson, a senior, completed seven of 16 passes for 111 yards last Saturday to become the only repeater from 1964 by winning the passing title with 32 of 68 passes for 459 yards, well below Hyink's MIAA record of 769 yards set in 1963.

Hyink finished with 25 of 70 passes for 417 yards and a total offense figure of 398 on 417 passing and minus 19 rushing. Nielson won the total offense title with 459 passing and minus 22 rushing for 437.

The total offense individual figures this year are unusual in that there was not a single passer with a good rushing average. In fact, Rick Russell of Kalamazoo was the only quarterback with a plus rushing total. Russell was third in total offense with 357 yards on 53 rushing and 304 passing.

Boroday edged Keur for the rushing title, 326-320. Keur gained his yards in 64 carries for a five-yard average, while Boroday averaged 3.7 yards in 89 attempts. Boroday, a senior, was not among the league's top 25 rushers a year ago. Boroday was fourth in total offense with 326 yards and Keur fifth with 320, both figures achieved entirely on the ground.

Ellinger was the defending pass receiving champ and Keur, Langeland, Feit, Frens, Plagenhoef, Reed, Abel, Wilder, Myers.

Deer Sets Up 5-Car Crash

LAMONT — A deer bounding onto the highway at 7:30 p.m. Monday set in motion a traffic pileup which resulted in damage to five cars, two of them catching fire, injuries to seven persons and one dead deer.

It all happened on M-45 at Aman Park in Tallmadge township.

The deer bounded into the roadway and was struck by an eastbound car driven by Grace Jelsma, 51, of 9774 Perry St., Zeeland.

Then a car driven by Nelson Bosker, 21, Allendale, struck the rear of the Jelsma car.

A third car driven by Gary Scholten, 22, of 9517 Port Sheldon St., Zeeland, came upon the scene and pulled in front of the Jelsma car.

A fourth car driven by Warren Vander Meulen, 17, Marne, pulled up in front of the Scholten car.

Then a fifth car, driven by Lonnie Eickhoff, 17, Lowell, came over a slight hill and struck the Scholten car in the rear, pushing it into the Vander Meulen car, starting a fire.

Both Scholten and Eickhoff cars were damaged extensively. The Marne fire department was called to extinguish it.

Gary Scholten, one of the drivers, received bumps and bruises, and Yvonne Scholten, 20, received head injuries. Kelley Scholten, two years old, was released after examination.

Gertrude Scholten, 44, and Crystal Scholten, 13, both of 5285 Port Sheldon, Zeeland, received bumps and bruises and Crystal also received possible head injuries.

Nancy Neale, 15, Lowell, riding in the Eickhoff car, suffered bruises, and Beverly Barnes, 38, also of Lowell, received lacerations of both legs. Seven others were not injured.

Mrs. J. W. Lang Reelected to Camp Fire Board

CHICAGO — Mrs. Joseph W. Lang of 162 West 12th St., Holland, was re-elected Tuesday to the board of directors of Camp Fire Girls, Inc. The election took place immediately following the annual meeting of the Youth organization's National Council.

Mrs. Lang has been active associated with Camp Fire Girls since 1947 when she first served as a volunteer leader. She is currently chairman of Camp Fire Girls region II which includes Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia.

Long active in community affairs, Mrs. Lang has held office in the Greater Holland United Fund, Michigan United Fund, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, and Holland Garden Club. She is a past president of the Grand Rapids Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Among the past receiving leaders were Bruce Menning, ninth with five catches for 79 yards; Roger Kroodsma, 10th with four for 77 and Bill Hultgren, tied for 14th with four for 63.

This was a year of defense in the MIAA. Total offense for the league season was 6,145 yards, while the six league teams rolled up 6,748 yards last season, a drop of about 10 per cent.

Hope finished second in passing offense, rushing offense and total offense, first in passing defense and fifth in rushing defense and total defense.

The Flying Dutchmen edged Adrian for the pass defense title, 358 to 362. Hope gave up 710 yards rushing, while Albion yielded just 299 yards on the ground. Albion also led in total defense (791 yards), while Hope gave up 1,068 yards.

Hope gained 704 yards rushing to Albion's 838 and 548 passing to Alma's 627. Albion led in total offense with 1,311 yards with Hope second at 1,252.

GRAND HAVEN — Eugene William Roswell, 17, Spring Lake, arrested Monday night by Ottawa sheriff's officers in connection with a break-in at the Henry Bosma home in Spring Lake, waived examination later Monday when arraigned before Justice Eva O. Workman on a charge of breaking and entering. Unable to furnish $200 bond, he was committed to the county jail for his appearance in Circuit Court Nov. 18.

The alleged offense involves breaking into the Bosma home at 15822 Cherry St., Spring Lake, at 3 p.m. Saturday. The Bosma home is near the Rosewell home.

Officers said about $44.50 was taken.

Mrs. Hostetter Speaks To North Holland Group

Mrs. Paul Hostetter, missionary on furlough from Pakistan, appearing in native dress, addressed members of the Guild for Christian Service of North Holland Reformed Church last Tuesday. She told of her work there and the extreme poverty of the people.

In speaking of her loyalty to older people, she told how one young husband and father, on meager wages, often takes the responsibility for the support of his parents, grandparents and perhaps even aged uncles and aunts.

Mrs. Hostetter formerly taught school in the West Crisp district. She is the daughter of the Rev. Harry Hager of Chicago.

Mrs. James Brower, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Jack Nieboer was in charge of devotions featuring the theme "Worry." Special music was presented by Barbara, Judith and Cynthia Baumann who presented accordion and vocal numbers.

Car Hits Deer

A car driven by Ruth A. Woudyk, 25, of route 5 struck a deer on 96th Ave. north of Ottawa St. Friday evening according to Ottawa sheriff's deputies.

Lubbers Hails Hope's Impact On Education

Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers, former president of Hope College and presently president of the Iowa Association of Private Colleges and Universities which regulates financial aid for private and public schools, returned to Hope campus Tuesday to deliver the second in a centennial series in education.

This series has as its theme "Teachers, Agents of Renewal," and Dr. Lubbers centered his talk about Hope alumni and the general impact of the local institution.

Contrary to early popular belief, Hope College was not founded as a training school for ministers, Dr. Lubbers said, pointing to a quotation of Dr. Wykhoff at the first commencement exercises.

Dr. Wykhoff long ago had said: "We are now in the age of science and Hope College must be a school that teaches science. This is a shrinking world and we must teach the languages of the world, and a person majoring in a given language should try to spend some time in a country where that language is spoken."

Dr. Lubbers said Hope graduates invariably are at the center of important endeavors. Of the 120 theologians studying the Interpreters' Bible, four were Hope graduates, and in a five-man commission to determine rules and policies for American college athletics, two were from Hope. The latter is all the more significant because Hope College is not an athletic power, Dr. Lubbers added.

"Tension and tolerance are two qualities necessary to the atmosphere of Hope College," he said. "When all people think alike, nobody is thinking. When people think, there is tension. We need something for creative thinking. But there also must be tolerance to make creative thinking produce the desired effect."

Hope College has always been characterized by poverty and many people who have studied college finances have been astounded that Hope has accomplished so much with so little. He quoted Chesley Manley of the Chicago Tribune that "Hope College, in spite of poverty, or Manthey, who recently completed his basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, has been selected for training at Chanute AFB, in Illinois, as an Air Force flight training equipment specialist. The airman, a 1965 graduate of Saugatuck High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Manthey of Douglas.

because of it, is a great institution."

Dr. Lubbers felt that one of the factors in this elusive quality which has made Hope distinctive despite lack of funds was the fact it had produced dedicated men and women with consciences to carry out their assignments.

He also quoted a Hope alumnus, Larry Fabunmi, now Nigerian ambassador to the United Nations, in stating, "Hope College isn't a place, it's an ideal. Once you get caught in it, you can't get out, and it will change your whole life."

Dr. Lubbers also compared Hope College to the burning bush in the Old Testament.

"The burning bush is the symbol of the indwelling spirit which is also a symbol of Hope. So long as Hope College keeps people inflamed it will produce as it has," he said.

Police Cite Driver

Holland police ticketed James L. Schaap, 21, of 652 Whitman Ave. for failing to maintain an assured clear distance after his car struck the rear of an auto driven by Garlin L. Farrabee, 50, of 14995 Ransom St. on River Ave. at Eighth St. at 6:33 p.m. Sunday. The impact of the collision forced the Farrabee car into a third car driven by Linda Brewer, 22, of 208 Elm Lane.

Permits Available To Keep Deer Killed by Cars

GRAND HAVEN — Harold Bowditch, Ottawa County conservation officer, said today all of the police agencies in the county have application permit forms which can be filled out at the scene of a car-deer accident.

Bowditch said those applications filled out at the scene are sent to him and he in turn sends the permit to the motorist hitting the deer. This permit, good for 30 days, allows the motorist to keep the deer.

He warned motorists to be extra careful of deer crossing the road during the next few weeks because this is the deer mating season.

Bowditch said a total of 22 deer were killed by vehicles in Ottawa County in October. Of this number, 12 were claimed by the motorists. Kent County had 28 deer killed last month.
