By Constance Allen

ZEELAND — Twelve nervous girls sang, danced and played the flute, piano and organ in hopes of becoming Zeeland's Junior Miss Saturday evening. Wavering voices and missed steps gave evidence of the emotions running beneath the were the severest tests of the girls.

It was Ruth Huhta with a strong soprano voice that took the crown and became Zeeland's 1976 Junior Miss. A poised Miss Huhta sang a classical selection, "Victorious" with piano accompaniment. Her bell-toned voice also gained her the award for the best talent presentation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wayne Huhta of South Division St.

Miss Huhta, 17, plans on furthering her education in music at Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, with the goal of teaching music.

Sara De Pree, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce De Pree of Woodlawn Court, Zeeland, was

Miss Congeniality, the award decided by the girls themselves, was given to Bonnie Lutke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lutke of Lake Michigan Dr., West Olive.

Mayor Edward Nagelkirk called the contest an opportunity to "honor what is good and right in America." Harv Huser, chair-

A breathless Miss Huhta said it was the support of her friends, family, escort and faith that gained her the crown.

Power Cut to 4,200 Customers As Insulator Shot Out

A large south area of Holland serviced by Consumers Power was without power from 69 to 82 minutes early Saturday.

Officials at Consumers reported that an insulator on a 46,000 volt line at 112th Ave. and Paw Paw Dr., was shot out by a shot gun blast at 12:02 this morning.

Approximately 1,730 people were without power for 69 minutes and another 2,481 for 82 minutes.

Consumers switched the Virginia Park line with an alternate feed and repairs were being completed this morning.

Trains to Ottawa Beach? Yes, Says Old Paper

Bill Doust, Ottawa Beach, who is with the Conservation Department, has uncovered an old issue of the Grand Rapids Evening Press dated June 2, 1902 with a schedule of The Railroad service between Grand Rapids and Ottawa Beach.

Many Hollanders find it hard to believe there was rail service to Ottawa Beach, but the recent uncovering of old railroad ties reaffirms this theory. The ad in the yellowed old newspaper reads like this:

"Graham and Morton Line, Holland Division, Daily Service, Commencing May 25 train leaves Union Station via Pere Marquette Ry. 9:55 p.m. every night for Ottawa Beach, connecting with the large fast sidewheel steamers 'City of Chicago and City of Milwaukee'." Arrive in Chicago about 4 a.m. Fare, Grand Rapids to Chicago, $1.50, Berths .75 and $1; Stateroom $1.75."

Named to fill the unexpired term of former commissioner William Kieft on the board of health was Dr. John Lown of Coopersville while Carl Noe of Hudsonville was named to fill a vacancy on the mental health board.

The four other openings on the mental health board are regular members whose terms expire in December.

United Way Cuts Agency Allocation

The Greater Holland United Way, facing a decline in pledge payments from the 1974 campaign, is reducing payments to its member agencies by 10 per cent in October and November, it was announced by GHUW president Lawrence Overbeek. It is the first time in the history of the GHUW that payments to agencies are being cut.

Overbeek said it appears the full amount of funds pledged during the 1974 campaign will not be realized because of economic conditions and the final payment to agencies in December will depend on the cash position of the GHUW at the end of the year.

Meanwhile the 1975 campaign has begun to raise funds to support the agencies in 1976 and campaign chairman Donald Hann said the $282,439 goal represents a hold-the-line budget. The goal was reached after requests from the agencies were studied by GHUW panels and the full GHUW board.

Hann said the Holland area has a potential of $500,000 if all potential contributors would contribute to the campaign. He urged those who have not given in past GHUW campaigns to consider their reasons why not and to contact the GHUW office if they have questions.

GRAND HAVEN — Ottawa County Commissioners Tuesday filled vacancies on the mental health board and the board of health and declared four more openings on the Mental Health Board.

Named to fill the unexpired term of former commissioner William Kieft on the board of health was Dr. John Lown of Coopersville while Carl Noe of Hudsonville was named to fill a vacancy on the mental health board.

The four other openings on the mental health board are regular members whose terms expire in December.

$5,706,705 in Revenues

County Launches 1976 Budget Study

GRAND HAVEN — Ottawa County Commissioners Tuesday received copies of the proposed 1976 budget from the finance committee whose members could not agree on the budget.

Chairman Eunice Bareham said the budget was based on a tax levy of 4.575 mills which would yield $3,587,714 in property taxes. When added to state revenues and other income the total anticipated revenue is $5,706,705.

The proposed budget was balanced leaving $158,103 for contingencies.

Commissioner Kenneth Northouse, a member of the committee, admitted he had not attended all the committee meetings because he was on vacation, but took issue with uses of federal revenue sharing funds for general operating purposes and refused to sign the cover letter. Mrs. Bareham and commissioner Kenneth Raak, the other member of the finance committee, did sign the letter.

The budget includes $100,000 in federal revenue sharing funds to be used for the county drain at large program and Raak said it was a one shot deal, not a recurring expense.

Northouse feared what would happen should the federal government declare an abrupt end

Candidates For Council Are Heard

Planning and liaison between the citizens and councilmen were among key issues raised by candidates for Holland city council in Tuesday's election during the candidate's night Tuesday in Herrick Public Library sponsored by the League of Women Voters.

An estimated 60 persons attended the informational event which allowed the candidates a time to express their views and issues and respond to questions from the audience.

Attending were Mayor Louis Hallacy, councilmen - at - large candidates Albert Kleis Jr. and Al McGeehan; Second Ward council candidate John Bloemendaal; Fourth Ward candidates Bill Clay and Russ De Vette and Sixth Ward candidates Harry Jaarsma and Hazen Van Kampen.

Unable to attend was Beatrice Westrate, candidate for the Second Ward.

Mayor Hallacy said long range planning for the city was a necessity and saw amendments needed in the present city charter which is being studied by a revision committee.

He said the Board of Public Works and the hospital are facing expansion plans and the city has applied for community development funds for housing and urban uses.

McGeehan called for charter revisions dealing with the manner in which councilmen are elected claiming the entire city votes in the general election for each council ward.

He said it was possible for the candidate to carry every voter in his ward but not be elected because of the vote from the remainder of the city. He urged the charter be changed to allow voters in the ward to elect their councilmen.

McGeehan claimed the councilman would be more accountable to his ward if elected by the residents of the ward.

Kleis called for updating the master plan which is being done in steps and urged council to continue its priority system toward a controlled growth and development with a sound financial base.

He said the city has always been outstanding in managing its finances.

Bloemendaal voiced fears that the state was beginning to direct the futures of the governmental units and cited moves by the state to take over local cemeteries and zoning abilities. He agreed the zoning and master plan for the city should be updated and cited such other priority areas as truck routes and hospital and BPW expansion.

Van Kampen cited a traffic problem at the River Ave. bridge and said he would like to see the bridge widened or a new bridge and urged council to work with the county and townships to improve the traffic situation.

He also cited as priorities the drainage problem in the Maplewood area of the city and a new truck route.

Jaarsma wanted speedier repairs to streets and utilities and cited the delay in fixing Central Ave. after a sewer line was installed. He called for more public elections to decide key issues for the city and cited the need for bicycle paths in the city.

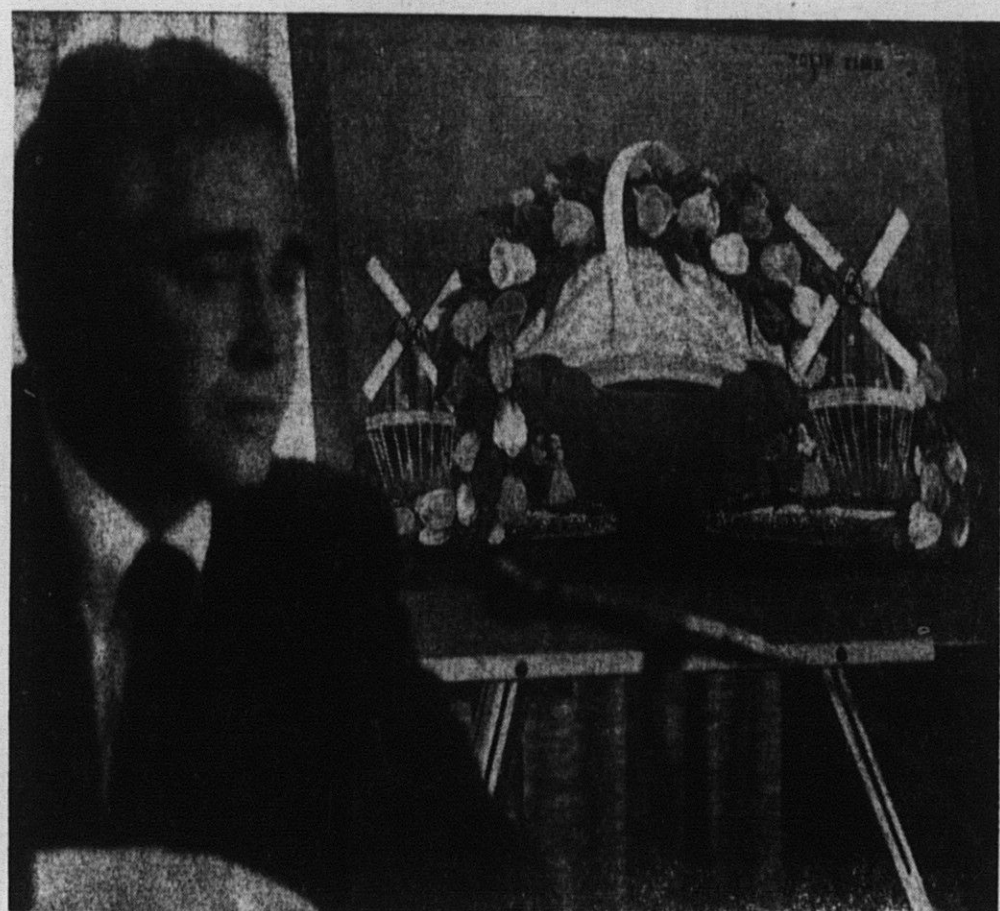

He added a bit of humor to the meeting by telling of campaigning in the city and being bothered by dogs, one of which bit him on the leg.

De Vette said he was not sure issues were important in the campaign because other issues in the future may not be spoken to by the candidates. He said a person should be elected because of his integrity.

He said a candidate should be both a leader and a listener — a leader to bring up new ideas but a listener to become responsive to the voters. He did cite the need for additional recreation and leisure time activities including bicycle paths.

Clay said it was necessary that the community have financial responsibility and called for the charter revision committee to study the relationships of the city manager with the BPW and the hospital boards. He said it was important that councilmen have a grass roots contact with the voters.

Questions from the audience ranged from tax breaks for persons who rehabilitate older homes (Bloemendaal said there was nothing the city could do to lower taxes, it was handled at the state level) to what was being done for senior citizens (Hallacy said Dial - A - Ride was one example but conceded an activities center would be a long range goal.)

FLOAT DESIGN — Mayor Louis Hallacy Wednesday explained the final colored design of Holland's entry in the 1976 Tournament of Roses Parade Jan. 1 at Pasadena. The completed float will measure 50 feet in length, 16 feet in height and 18 feet in width. Windmills at front and rear are replicas of De Zwaan and will be animated. Live tulips in vials will surround the windmills at the base of the float. The words "Holland, Michigan" will appear along the base of the basket and the seal of the State of Michigan will be located on the handle. Colors of the tulips in the basket include yellow, red and violet. The windmills will be covered with chrysanthemums in colors and hues of the real De Zwaan. (Sentinel photo)

Float Design Unveiled

A final artist's drawing of Holland's float in the 1976 Tournament of Roses Parade Jan. 1 was unveiled by Mayor Louis Hallacy Wednesday who announced the base and hanging basket have been constructed by the float building firm.

When completed the float will measure 50 feet long, 18 feet wide and 16 feet high. The tulips in the basket will be 4 1/2 feet in diameter. The windmills at front and back of the float will be replicas of De Zwaan and the sails will be turning in a counter clockwise direction.

Mayor Hallacy said he has been designated as the representative from Holland and that the float committee desires to have local persons riding on the float but no decisions have been made. A maximum of seven riders is allowed on the float. Participants will be dressed in Dutch costumes supplied by sources in Holland.

An estimated 6,000 to 7,000 tulip blooms in vials will line the base of the float on which the windmills are located. Float designers will use chrysanthemums, gladiolus, orchids and roses to cover other parts of the float.

The wicker basket will be fashioned from white iceberg chrysanthemums.

Hallacy said a picture of the completed float will be used as the cover of the 1976 Tulip Time brochures.

Hallacy said the Holland float portrays the "Festival" theme of the Bicentennial observance which is being kicked off nationally by the Rose Parade. The theme of the parade is "America, Let's Celebrate."

The theme for the local float was "America, Let's Celebrate Tulip Time" and will represent the many communities, festivals and tourist and historical attractions offered by Michigan.

A $25,000 contract for the float was signed with Herrin-Preston Parade Floats, Inc., which is making all arrangements for the flowers and construction materials.

BPW Accepts Low Bid for Mains

The Holland Board of Public Works approved the low bid for water main extensions in Waverly Rd. from Eighth St. to M-21 at a cost far below the original estimate at its regular meeting Monday.

The low bid from Sloothaak & Myaard, Inc. was $24,454 while the estimate was for $35,999. The recommendation was sent to Council for its approval.

The board also received a request from Laketown township for water and waste services and decided to study the request along with a water extension request from Park township. The board was to seek short term water needs of the two townships.

A hearing on pollution control devices for the power plant was postponed until Nov. 18 by the state. The hearing was scheduled in October.

Tourist Council Plans Highway-Sign Campaign

The second annual Chamber of Commerce Tourist Council meeting for all resort operators in the Holland-Saugatuck area Thursday took an aggressive turn when, by unanimous action, they agreed that the commissioners of the newly-formed Tourist Travel Bureau of Michigan assist operators and owners of tourist attractions and facilities to obtain aid in getting the present road sign law amended.

Edward Mott of Holland, chairman, presided at the meeting at which Ernest Hosier of Lansing and Henry Vander Wier of Grand Rapids, right-of-way agents for the Michigan Highway Department, expected to hear what State Sen. Gary Byker would say about the law.

Sen. Byker called from Lansing the previous evening stating that because of work scheduled Thursday afternoon he would be unable to attend. He did express concern on the sign law. The two agents were subjected to two hours of fact-finding and questioning, many relative to ways of receiving quick action instead of the usual political runaround, and by those attending, which included tourist and resort representatives not members of the Council.

Hosier stated that the law was passed two years ago at the 11th hour, to allow the state to retain Federal aid in its highway program. According to U. S. Bureau of Transportation guidelines, 650 feet was the minimum distance from the highway established for signs. Michigan went to extremes and set a minimum of 3,000 feet. This removed many pertinent signs, especially for isolated and non-highway motels, ski resorts and ranches.

The highway department representatives suggested that letters be sent to the state legislature and members of Congress, but having tried that without success, the members of the local association voted to write each of the commissioners of the newly-formed Michigan Travel Bureau and its director, Jack Wilson to consider this one of the Bureau's first work projects. The council also passed a resolution requesting Roscoe Giles, executive vice president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce to write all the state's chambers of commerce to encourage each tourist group to write or contact the commission.

John Maters, special projects manager for the Michigan Travel Bureau stated there are 536,000 persons employed in tourist-related jobs in the state; 72,000 businesses in the state depend on the tourist trade which is the second-largest business in the state and brings in $120 million in taxes.

The new bureau replaces the Michigan Tourist Council which had been in operation for 30 years and did mostly promotional work. The new Travel Bureau is a 13-member commission, four from regional tourist associations, and nine appointed by the governor, of which four are from convention bureaus.

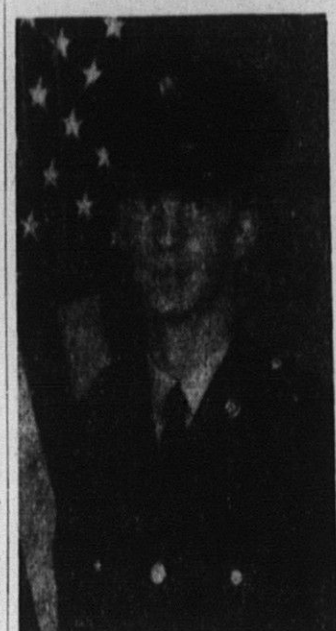

The Bureau's new responsibilities will be travel products planning, which will need research with decisions by professional management for the state's four regional units. The Legislature must develop this part of the bureau's program with technical assistance and grants to aid local and regional agencies to promote and advertise resort, recreation, business, convention and entertainment facilities.

While stating that the future depends on the cost of gasoline, Maters pointed out that 1975 travel was up nearly 20 per cent over 1974. "People will travel," he said, "but they will stay closer to home. We cannot be complacent, as we compete against 48 other states."

In discussing local matters,

Chairman Mott asked that all present aid in securing sponsors for the Chamber of Commerce publication "Vacation Time" which is a year-around selling piece for local tourist facilities, restaurants, places to see, places to stay and interesting facts about Holland.

The matter of the tourist booth, located on the original Wooden Shoe property at US-31 and 16th St. was discussed relative to service rendered by employees, need for an additional phone, employee training for two weeks and that the operation be the full responsibility of the Chamber of Commerce. Signs for proper parking at the booth and the study of a new booth and location to be made by the Chamber were also topics of discussion.

Warm Friend: Transition From Tavern to 'Home'

When Jack Vannette purchased the Warm Friend Hotel ten years ago, little did he anticipate at least one usual problem: the afternoon women took over the male rest room.

The action wasn't really a feminist movement: it was merely a natural movement necessitated by a larger number of woman visitors at Tulip Time requiring the facilities.

The following year, Vannette explains, we posted young people to control the situation allowing women use of the men's facilities at intermittent periods.

But it's only minor compared with the numerous difficulties which have arisen over the years.

Initially the month before Vannette purchased the hotel, expenses had exceeded income by $9,000. But Vannette, typically and optimistically according to his wife, plunged into the purchase.

Vannette declares there are two reasons he purchased the hotel. "I believed it had financial possibilities — that's the strongest. But I also believed that it could be done on principles I believe in."

The former co-owner of Jack's Restaurants proved his point as he completely renovated the hotel and tavern into a cafeteria and living quarters for 50 residents who call it "home."

The food business has been continuing to improve 15 to 25 per cent over each previous year and Vannette says many people from Grand Rapids come down each Saturday for a meal. "Still anyone in the restaurant business will tell you it's tough."

Recalling the remodeling ten years ago, Vannette said that so much plaster had to be taken down, the desk clerks had to wear bandanas and surgical masks to keep the dust out of their mouths. "But everyone took it good humor."

Marjorie Vannette remembers when members of the family stayed to help through the first Tulip Time. "We just knew we couldn't get it ready but our experienced chef of 41 years pushed and we made it."

Vannette is particularly proud that the present hotel operates on six day basis and has only a desk clerk on Sunday duty, another indication that he doesn't have to compromise his principals to be successful.

Despite the seemingly obvious and endless difficulties Vannette says the purchase has always seemed sound to him. The hotel still accommodates truckers overnight as well as salespeople who enjoy being downtown but has only 19 rooms in addition to apartments.

"We've had many requests to sell window space during the Tulip Time parades, Vannette says, but we've never done that."

GAMING BOARD — This past week members of Holland Hospital staff, department heads and representatives of Caudell Rowlett Scott and Tribrook Inc., have been working together on plans for the hospital Expansion Renovation Program. This was done with the process of gaming and "scatter" boards. Shown working on the

RIGHT ON SCHEDULE—Vern Edwards, board of directors member of the Holland Fish and Game Club reported Thursday that this large 40'x140' new building, is coming along right on schedule. The picture here shows the backside of the new site. The addition will be used primarily for an indoor shooting range for both pistol and rifle. (Sentinel photo)

Will Use Fish, Game Site As Shooting Range

The Holland Fish and Game Club has been working hard to complete its new addition to the clubhouse.

The addition will be used primarily for an indoor shooting range for both pistol and rifle, according to Vern Edwards.

Edwards is general chairman for the project with Rog Vander Meulen acting as construction chairman and Rich Smith as finance chairman.

Edwards reported that the large 40' x 140' building is coming along as scheduled thanks to the many hours donated by members and local businesses.

Said Edwards, "It is just unbelievable that so much cooperation could be experienced in such a short time."

Vander Meulen said that work bees have been scheduled for nearly every Tuesday evening and asked that those who wish to donate a few hours, to give him a call. Interior and target work should begin shortly.

Smith thanked the many people who have donated their time and also requested that those still desiring to help, to contact him.

Smith said that a small loan will be taken out to completely finish the building.

When finished, the range will be used to hold competitive shoots between teams from the club and other clubs.

The building will also be used for instruction purposes in gun safety, hunter safety courses and perhaps conservation or ecology classes from area high schools.

"If plans materialize as planned, this addition should be one of the leading shooting ranges in the state and should also be a real assist to the Holland - Zeeland area by being used to instruct local youth in values," stated Edwards.

Any donations should be sent to Vander Meulen.

Bank Personnel Officer Addresses Local ABWA

Guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Holland "Charter" chapter of the American Business Women's Association Tuesday was Vern Bush, personnel officer at Peoples State Bank. The meeting was held at Beechwood Inn.

While the common denominator of all jobs is the necessity to earn a living, he said, the motive in choosing jobs varies with individuals. Some want routine, some want a certain challenge, others want the upper-mobility of a position and some just want to be with people.

Bush said that while profit is necessary in a free enterprise system and each employee contributes to the profit, other things such as cost of goods, operational and administrative expenses, even employee morale, contribute to profit. Three points contributing to morale, he said, are the feeling of importance and being recognized, communications with co-workers and fair wages for a fair day's work.

Mr. Bush holds a marketing degree from Western University and has been with Peoples Bank since 1971.

Frances Van Slooten, receptionist and switchboard operator at Hart and Cooley Manufacturing Co. was the vocational speaker.

Business was conducted by recently-named President Marilyn Bultman. Other officers are vice president, Lily Geerts; recording secretary, Jane Den Herder; corresponding secretary, Connie Stansby, and treasurer, Lucille Kooyers.

Sunday School Lesson

Sunday, Nov. 2
"From Dream to Fulfillment"
Genesis 27:10-17; 32:24-29
By C. P. Dame

In the study of this lesson take note of the fact that God took the initiative in both incidents. God came to Jacob in the dream and the angel of God wrestled with him. The man forgot God and slighted Him until he was in trouble. God ever takes the initiative.

I. God seeks wanderers. Jacob had left home, not from choice, but due to his sins and hence out of compulsion. He had tricked his brother out of his birthright, deceived, with the help of his mother, his blind father and so got the father's blessing. This angered Esau who planned to kill him. When Rebekah heard about it she talked to Isaac about the Canaanite girls who grieved her and suggested that Jacob go to Haran where Rebekah's family lived. Isaac sent Jacob off with his blessing. The real reason for Jacob's leaving was the threat of Esau.

The young Jacob slept under the sky with a stone for a pillow. He dreamed about a ladder reaching from heaven to earth, God on the top and angels ascending and descending. God spoke to this guilty, lonely wanderer—telling him that He was the God of his father, Abraham and of his father, Isaac. And then God told him that the land on which he was sleeping would be his and his descendants and they would be many and through him and his descendants all the world would be blessed. God promised to be with him and bring him home again.

Jacob was moved to take the stone and set it up as a pillar and poured oil upon it and made a vow—the first one recorded in the Bible. If God would bless him, keep him, return him home again, he would make God his and give Him a tithe. Jacob bargained with God. He called the spot Bethel, meaning house of God.

II. God wins the wrestling. Jacob was a mature man with a large family and great wealth. He had fled from Laban his father-in-law and was on his way home. He heard that his brother Esau was on his way to meet him with 400 men. He had not seen him for 20 years. He was scared, afraid to meet him. He first made plans, then prayed humbly, he should have prayed first. He divided his large company in two groups. And then he planned droves to meet Esau with presents and then he retired to a place alone.

In a lonely spot an angel wrestled with Jacob for a long time that night. Jacob would not let go but was compelled to do so. The angel won. Jacob was defeated. On that memorable night Jacob was given a new name, Israel. "God striveth." That night Jacob learned that it is better to trust God than to rely upon one's own resources and tricks.

Jaycees Hear Three Welfare Reform Views

Surmising that welfare persists, in part, because the public demands welfare persons be fed, Larry Hildore, director of the Ottawa County Department of Social Services stated that this is the first generation in the U.S. raised without the right to starvation.

"Starvation is the biggest motivator in the whole world," Hildore declared following a documented history of welfare in the world.

Hildore was the first of three speakers which also included George Welsh, special assistant in public affairs for the Whirlpool Corp., and Ed Fredricks, 54th district state Representative who addressed the Holland Jaycees on welfare reform Tuesday night at Car-

Otto H. Bosma Dies at Age 68

ZEELAND — Otto H. Bosma, 68, of 24 Lawrence Ave., died at his home early today following a lingering illness. He was a member of Third Reformed Church and a former consistory and choir member. He was also a former member of the Zeeland Christian School Board and of the Zeeland Lions Club. He owned the Cream-Top and then the Community Dairy in Zeeland for 30 years and for the past ten years had been Zeeland representative for a dairy equipment company.

Surviving are his wife, Janet; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Bonnie) Dolfin of Grandville and Mrs. Bruce (Brenda) Brouwer of Zeeland; a son, Robert of St. Louis, Mo.; five grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. John (Nancy) Kaat of Zeeland.

Mrs. Anna L. Wozniak, 72, of Pullman, died in Holland Hospital Monday following an extended illness.

Born in Broman, she had lived in Richmond, Va. for several years and moved to Pullman 20 years ago, where she lived until she became ill two months ago. She had been staying at the Restwood Inn, South Haven.

Surviving are two sons, John H. Briel of Grand Rapids and Clarence Briel of Amarillo, Texas; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Kennedy of Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. Herbert (Florence) Johnson and Mrs. Virginia B. Parker, both of Grand Rapids; 18 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

ousel Mountain Lodge. "We like to think we open doors for people to get off welfare," Hildore said expressing his frustration with a bureaucracy that stifles incentive programs. "We tried to require participation in our rehabilitation programs for eligibility to receive welfare," Hildore explained but the project was defeated because it denies recipients their constitutional rights.

Hildore chastised the public for its negative reaction to public assistance for individuals but acceptance of programs which contributes millions of dollars to bail out huge corporations. "We haven't put the brakes on welfare in Ottawa County but we've stopped the acceleration," Hildore said crediting the county's ability to motivate and rehabilitate. Ottawa County has the lowest case load in the state, three per cent compared with an average of eight per cent in the state, Hildore said.

Concurring with Hildore on the starvation premise, George Welsh noted that it's difficult to motivate people who can say no to any job and know they will not starve. Welsh addressed himself primarily to the gross inequity of taking care of the poor stating that Michigan can no longer afford to be the dumping ground for welfare.

"A family of four which receives $60 in Mississippi, receive $420 in Michigan. They are coming to Michigan and they are coming with problems. We are paying taxes in this state to the refusal of other states. We pay the premium," Welsh said.

"We must bring the payments into alignment nationally. It's not going to change until people are determined to change it," Welsh concluded.

Fredricks, a member of the social services committee, affirmed that the state is losing its business tax base and taxes have now reached 40 per cent of income. And I am fearful of the point when we have 50 per cent of the people receiving benefits," Fredricks said.

"Unfortunately the government doesn't react until a crisis and then often with a meat axe approach. The legislature has to get away from the country club pace," Fredricks said.

Fredricks encouraged the Jaycee membership to contact their sister clubs in the state and write legislators from those districts. "Legislators vote with their constituents."

The Rev. Bill Hoeman gave the invocation.

Dutch Turn Lights Out on Foe; Wildcats Upend West Ottawa

Holland Records 4th Win in Row

By Leo Martonosi

The lights were turned out twice on Battle Creek Lakeview Friday evening at Riverview Park.

First, due to a power shortage, the lights at the north end (by grandstand) were not in working order at pre-game time and second and most important, the Dutch of Coach Ray Backus darkened the highly regarded Spartans, 14 - 0.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Dutch and it came on Band Night, as more than 500 Holland youngsters turned in a strong performance like the football team, did at the intermission.

Lakeview has Michigan State's nickname but wears the University of Michigan helmets (though not same colors) and catch this-their school song is the same as Notre Dame's.

Battle Creek even had a big sign made up to ram through as they made their way out of the Riverview Park dressing room. The sign said "Send the Dutch back to the Netherlands."

It would have been more appropriate if Holland fans had prepared a banner which indicated that the Spartans were being sent back to Greece by the mighty Dutch.

Rick Elzinga, Holland's greatest single season rushing runner, put on enough fakes to gain over 100 yards for the seventh consecutive outing. Elzinga and his mates had their work cut against the Big Seven's top defensive eleven but this Dutch team, is not only one of Holland's better clubs, they also have heart.

The game started out with the league's No. 1 offensive team, the Dutch taking on the No. 1 defense, in the Spartans.

You would have never known that Battle Creek was first in that department, as center Richard Walczak, guards Brian Bouwens, Steve Hoffman and Fred Lamb and tackles Joe Fojtik, John Miller and Paul Nolton, were moving Lakeview's big men without almost any trouble. It was really something watching Fojtik handle Lakeview's all-state tackle.

Holland went 79 yards the very first time they touched the ball for a score. The Dutch ate up over nine minutes, as they went 17 plays for the touchdown.

John Hosta came off the bench and dove into the end zone from one-yard out for the TD. Todd De Young's extra point kick gave Holland a 7-0 lead with 29 seconds left in the first quarter.

Lakeview was faced with a fourth and 20 situation on Holland's 31 midway through the second period when defensive end Loren Schrottenboer threw Rick Perry for minus 10 yards on a screen pass.

A great catch by Steve Van Tongeren of 21 yards from De Young, put the ball on Lakeview's 10-yard line. Van Tongeren's catch was as good as you would ever see on Sunday afternoon on the tube.

The Dutch coaches wanted Ron Brondyke to score and he did just that, moments later from one-yard out. De Young's kick closed out the scoring at the half and it is turned out for the game at 14-0.

Battle Creek which only lost by 10 points to Kalamazoo Central, the No. 4 rated Class A team in the state, mounted some serious scoring drives in the second half, only to be stopped by the determined Dutch.

First it was tackles Jaime Hinojosa and Fojtik, then it was linebacker Brian Bouwens, backs Ross Nykamp and Dan Molenaar middle guard John Miller and in most cases, just outstanding team defense.

Bouwens came up with a diving interception of a Jon McIver pass in the fourth stanza, to kill off any hope's of the Spartans end of scoring.

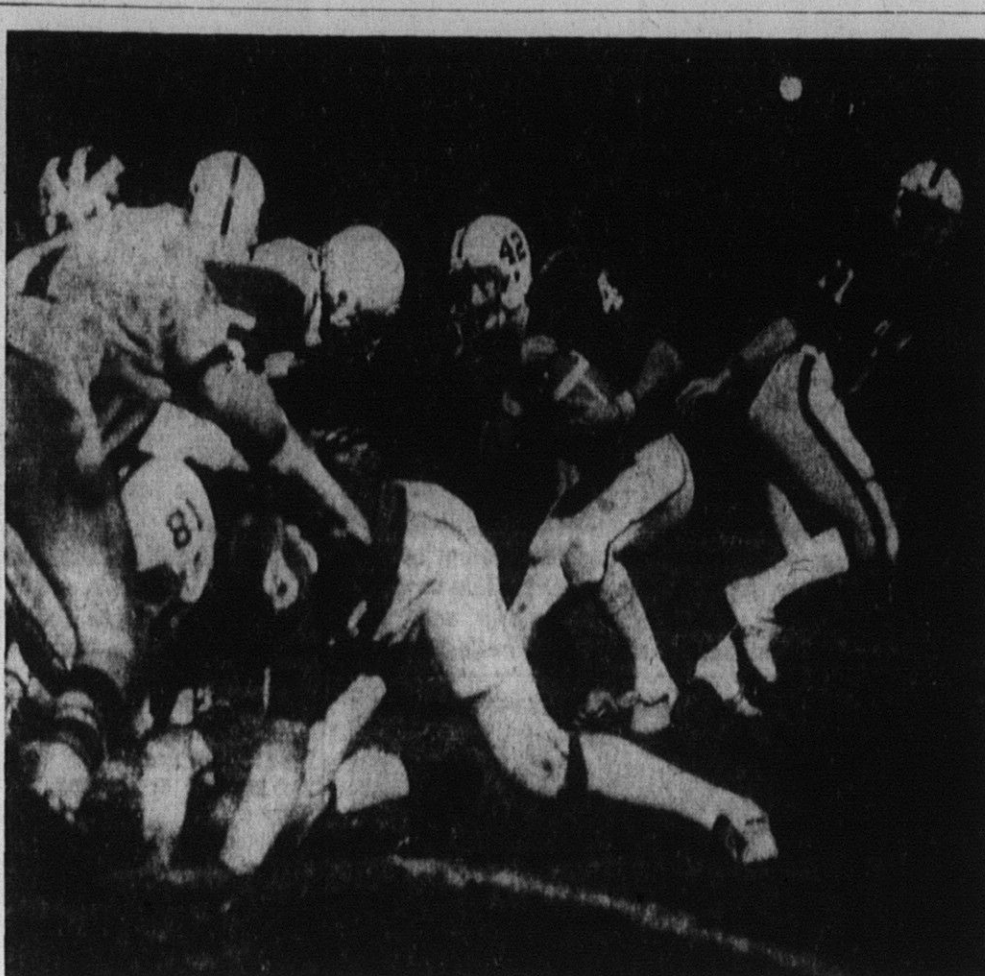

An unheard of decoying (bating) the offense penalty on a fourth down punting situation for Holland, gave Backus' squad, a first down in Lakeview territory.

The Dutch moved close for the score behind the play of De Young, who was running the option to perfection.

However, Battle Creek stopped De Young's field goal bid when Holland had a fourth and eight on the visitors 11-yard stripe.

Not only did Backus' heart almost stop (basketball Coach Don Pierma too) when standing end Dennis Lawson was injured and taken to the hospital for x-rays, as the first half ended. It was feared that Lawson had broken his shoulder. But fortunately it turned out to only be a slight injury.

"It was a team effort all the way for us," said a elated Backus. "Our interior people did a job on their big people. Our offense did the job in the

Fired Up Chix Defeat Central

GRAND RAPIDS — The name of the football game Friday for Zeeland was "teamwork," as the Chix knocked off the previously O-K White's top team — the Forest Hill Rangers, 24-15.

Upping their record to 5 - 2 overall and 4-2 in the league, Zeeland stands in a three-way tie for second place with Central and Kenowa Hills. Kenowa was the team that squeezed by Zeeland Friday night a week ago 19-12. Yet, even after a defeat that dims most all hope for a league title, the fighting Chix bounce back and played what head coach Bob Larsen considers their "best game" all year.

The night started a little on the slow side as an interception on the Chix 41 set up the Rangers first score. With 4:24 left in the opening quarter Brian Gary plowed in for the score from one-yard out and Pete Rink split the uprisings with the extra point.

Four minutes later Zeeland's quarterback Doug Wabeke sprinted 11 yards into the Ranger end zone and after his extra point kick tied the score at 7-7. The score capped a nine play, 77-yard drive.

Late in the third quarter another nine play 70-yard drive put the Chix in front as Wabeke scampered 42 yards on an option play.

In the fourth quarter Wabeke again tallied a score, this time a 28-yard field goal.

Zeeland's final score of the night came on Paul Vander Jagt's 24 - yard interception return.

With 1:39 left in the game, the Rangers drove 70 yards in 12 plays as Gray again bulled over from the one. The two point conversion was good on a Pete Rink to Dave Schrock pass. The Chix defense held the once beaten No. 1 team under 100 yards rushing as a good rush fine secondary work cut down the efficiency of the Central passing attack.

P. Vander Jagt led in tackles with 13, Ron Essink followed with eight unassisted stops. Ken Auwerda, Tom Barensse and Jon Vander Jagt each had seven. J. Vander Jagt also picked off a Central pass setting up the third quarter field goal.

With the help of a fired up offensive line, Wabeke was six of eight passing for 42 yards and rushed 19 times for 117 yards.

Next week, the Chix venture to Wyoming Park in the final league encounter of the season.

Mustangs Down Dutch In Overtime

Holland's girls' basketball team lost an overtime 52 - 50 squeaker to Portage Central here Thursday evening.

The game was tied at the end of regulation 46 - all, thanks to a two-pointer at the buzzer by standout Sue Bush. Diane Wester of Portage won the game by sinking two foul shots after the clock ran out.

Earlier in the season, the Dutch defeated Portage, 55-53 in overtime.

Bush pumped in 18 points, Sally Rozeboom 17, Patti Ebels eight and Kerri Armstrong seven. Dawn Israels was high in caroms with 14. Linda Ellisworth and Wester paced the winners with 23 and 20 markers in that order.

Coach Virginia Borgman pointed out that Rozeboom hit nine of 11 free throws.

Holland's reserves lost, 26-20 compared to an earlier 38-20 count to the Mustangs. The Dutch held the winners scoreless in the fourth stanza.

Cindy Ter Haar and Kerri Israels were high in rebounds with 11 each. Margie Helton and Ter Haar threw in eight points apiece.

Chix Stay Undefeated

ZEELAND — Zeeland's reserve football team stayed perfect Thursday night by downing Forest Hills Central, 22-6. Carlos Alvarez ran 11 yards for Zeeland's first touchdown in the opening quarter. Tom Hop ran the PAT and came back moments later to sprint 87 yards for a TD. Alvarez ran the conversion, as the Chix led at the half, 16-0.

In the third period, Alvarez plunged one-yard for a TD to up Zeeland's lead to 22-0. Central tallied its lone score midway through the fourth period.

Hop, a swingback, carried the ball three times for 111 yards. Linebacker Chuck Kraai and reserve halfback Herb Wybenga led in tackles with 13 and nine respectively.

Panthers Score First In 4th Loss

By Roger Kuiken

Northview's Wildcats, displaying a speedy offense and stingy defense, handed West Ottawa a 20-12 football setback Friday evening to record their fifth victory.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff and got the ball to the 48-yard line on a fine return by John Witkowski, then promptly marched down on a 52-yard drive to score. The big play of the series was a fake kick by Scott Tubergan on fourth and 20. Instead of punting, Tubergan ran it for a first down. A 15-yard pass from Dave Conklin to Dave Beckman put the ball on the four where Tubergan took it in for the TD and a 6-0 lead.

But from that point on, it was all Northview, who completely dominated until the final quarter. The Wildcats had the ball for 68 plays compared to West Ottawa's 28 and rushed for 214 yards while allowing the Panthers only 64.

Gary Hogeboom is an excellent quarterback for the Wildcats, as he also passed for 100 yards including a 19-yard TD with only 37 seconds to go before the half. Northview's first score came early in the second period on a six-yard sweep by Al Slayton, a real fast runner. Actually, the Wildcats got a break just before they scored when West Ottawa recovered a fumble, but an off-side penalty against the Panthers gave the ball back to them.

Northview passed for a two-point conversion and owned a 14-6 lead at the half, still anybody's game. But the Panthers couldn't get an offense together in the third period and Northview was really opening up the holes for its speedy backfield. Bert Pierson scored Northview's third TD on a six-yard run making it 20-6.

West Ottawa staged a good defense in the final period on some nice plays by Jamie Bloemendaal, Bob Monhollen, Jack Barrett, Tom Rewa, Brian Driesenga and Tubergan but the offense couldn't get going soon enough. It wasn't until 3:39 to go that Bloemendaal stepped back and rifled a nice pass to John Van Eenennaam for 17 yards and the Panthers second TD. The two-point conversion try was no good.

This put the Panthers back in business but an on-side kick failed and the Wildcats were content to let the clock run out, and the final score stood at 20-12.

Using the Bicentennial for its theme, all of West Ottawa's bands put on a very nice half-time show under the direction of Gary Lucas.

Considering the amount of plays that Northview ran, and the first downs piled up, 18 in all against the Panthers' seven, the score was pretty close. Injuries also continue to plague the Panthers as Joe Doornewerd was not suited up for the game. It was strongly evident that the Wildcat defense was keying in on Tubergan.

The Panthers' passing offense outgained their ground game. West Ottawa had four completions in eight attempts for 78 yards while the Wildcats were eight of 16 good for 100 yards.

Northview's overall record now stands at 5-2 while the Panthers are 3-4. It was the fourth straight loss for the Panthers, who will try to get back in the winning way next week when they host Grandville.

Olivet's Win Gives Hope Title

By Leo Martonosi

Adrian College had upset on its mind Saturday afternoon at Riverview Park but the nationally-ranked Hope College Flying Dutchmen ended up not only winning another Homecoming football game but the MIAA championship as well.

Hope's 12th consecutive win, a 13-0 decision before the Homecoming fans, might have not been too convincing but it was good enough to give the Dutchmen their 21st win of their last 22 games. The whitewash was the third straight for the undefeated locals, a first since the 1946 season.

Thanks to Olivet's win over Albion, the Dutchmen, now 4-0 in the league, won their second undisputed MIAA crown in the past three years.

"We weren't too convincing but we got the job done," stated head mentor Ray Smith after the tilt.

Members of the H-Club honored seven graduates Saturday at a luncheon. The seven received all-MIAA awards during the 1950-51 school year.

Recognized were Lloyd Beekman of Fruitport, an all-league tackle; Ron Appledorn of Holland, an all-MIAA halfback; Gene Nyenhuis of Grand Rapids, all-league tackle; Dr. John Van der Velde of Ann Arbor, an all-loop end; and Tom Van Wingen of Grand Rapids, the league's MVP at fullback. Also honored were all-MIAA basketball players Andrew Bremer of Grosse Pointe Farms and Gerald Jacobson of Whitehall.

Coaches honored included Russ DeVette, Al Vanderbush and Ken Weller.

A special presentation was made to Dr. Otto van der Velde, of Holland, who was team doctor to Hope athletic teams for more than 40 years.

Sophomore fullback Bill Blacquire was just awesome against the fired up Bulldogs. The former South Christian star, rushed for 177 yards in 26 carries and tallied both touchdowns. His yardage was the high of the season for a Dutchmen griddier.

Kurt Bennett managed 91 yards against Adrian while Duff DeZwaan hauled in four passes for 64 yards and Kevin Clark three for 48 from quarterback Tim Van Heest and Mark Boyce.

"Oh! I sure wished I knew why our quarterback fumbled the exchange from center David Zessin so often," Smith commented. "If we knew, we sure would have corrected it right off the bat."

One of the reasons might have been that Van Heest, wasn't up to par because of a wrist injury suffered last week against Alma.

"No, I didn't take him out because he wasn't moving the club," added Smith. "He took himself out."

Van Heest, the MIAA's top passing quarterback, had his first pass intercepted in the first half. Usually the opposition makes the turnovers but Saturday it was Hope. The Dutchmen had two passes intercepted, one off Boyce and lost two fumbles, both by Bennett.

For the first time anyone can remember, the Dutchmen didn't score the first time they touched the pigskin at Riverview Park this season.

The wind was definitely a factor and Coach Tom Heckert of Adrian, pulled a Smith, by taking the wind, and kicked off.

The move seemed to pay off, as Hope wasn't able to score until the final play of the period, on a five-yard run by

Cronkite Defends 'Fire
Alarms of Civilization'

By Ann Hungerford

Vindicating the news media for their seeming preoccupation with "bad" news, Walter Cronkite theorized Saturday night that "we won't solve the problems unless we know about them."

Even though depressing, news stories are the "fire alarms of civilization," Cronkite declared.

The highly touted and universally respected newsman confirmed just why to a large crowd in the Grand Valley field house for an hour and a half as he candidly answered questions from the audience following a short but highly optimistic address to students.

Citing challenges faced by students of college age, the initial speaker in the 1975-76 Premier Series stated that students are destined to play a part in a "revolution just as profound as the first."

"We are more alert to the dangers to democracy. We are stronger. No administration will commit us to another war without united support," he said explaining that the recent trials of the Vietnam war strengthened the United States.

"There is a cry for change — to make things work for the benefit of all. That's where this generation of college students comes in" he said. "It's unacceptable that we can't solve the political, social and economic problems of the world."

Cronkite challenged students to "take apart institutions, to examine which will serve in the century ahead. It is their choice to make."

Hedging only on opinion questions which he felt would jeopardize his image as an impartial newsman Cronkite abbreviated answers to questions follow:

Israel — The media are not biased in Israel's favor. Israel is just more cooperative and aware of public relations than the Arab nations.

On Retirement — Did Dan Rather or Roger Mudd send you to ask that?

Energy — It's hard to find the facts on energy because it's controlled by so few companies.

Ford — I give him high marks for sincerity and approach to the job. He's had tremendous impact as an honest and sincere man. He's doing the best job he can within a given ideology. He may be what the country wants or needs.

Kissinger — I have great respect for Kissinger but he carries the state department in his hat and that's not good.

Nixon — I hope Richard Nixon on continues to make news so we get the whole story but I'm not in favor of buying or selling the story. He owes the story to the people of the United States.

Kennedy Assassination (news event most profoundly affected Cronkite) — I kept working, kept reporting. I choked up. I make no apologies.

News media being used — We're always going to be used. How else can special interest groups get their points across?

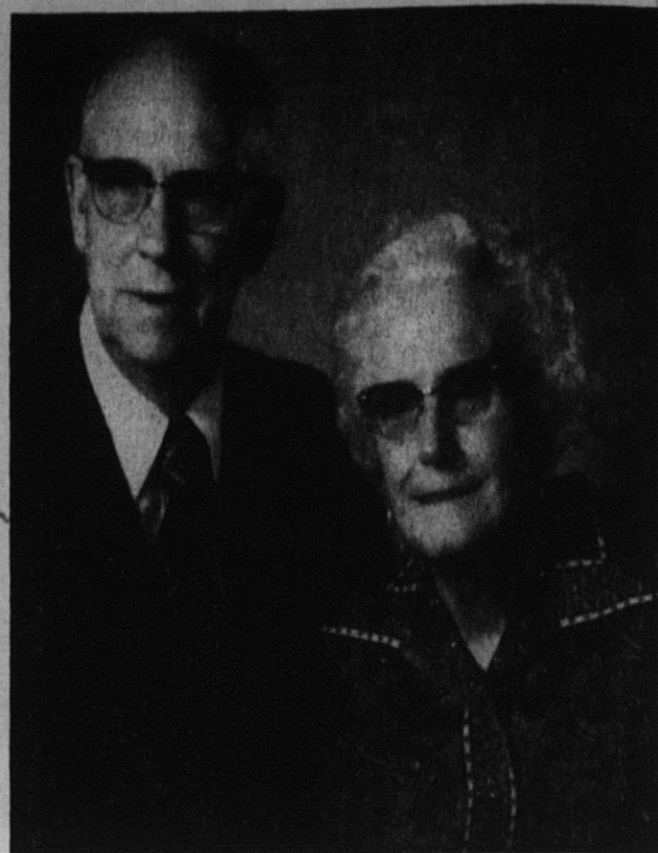

Alan Shephard — I asked him what he was thinking about the minutes before he took off on the 15 minute pop. He said he just looked at all the instruments and thought — "this thing was built by the lowest bidder."

Suppressing coverage of crimes — There's every chance we will still have epidemic crimes but the crime of suppressing can be far worse.

Quality of news coverage — Higher quality, more responsible than ever. I dislike thigh slapping, kid the weatherman news programs.

Changing opinion on Vietnam War — The reason I stepped out my role (as unbiased newsman) is that I felt the American people were not being told the truth about the war, about the depth. I saw a pattern of lies about the involvement. We were told no more than 46,000 men would be sent to Vietnam and yet when I slipped into Cam Ranh Bay it was
