usually looks like a good one when you buy it. That is a failing in the comb business, and it is the reason why so many people pay a good price for a poor comb.

We have recently bought a fine lot of combs that we are selling at fair prices, and, quality considered, they cannot be excelled.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Van Lummek, 317 Land street, a daughter.

Kirkhof & Witvliet are doing the plumbing for F. K. Colby's new store at Macatawa Park.

Rev. Tony Rozendaal, graduate of the Western Theological Seminary, preached in Hamilton Sunday.

Capt. Austin Harrington, Jacob Flieman, Millard Harrington and Albert Beckman are hunting deer in the upper peninsula.

The 40th annual convention of the Michigan State Sunday School Association will be held in the Baptist church at Owosso, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 13, 14 and 15.

John Flieman was arraigned in Justice Van Duren's court Saturday charged with cruelty to animals. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Detroit house of correction for 90 days.

Mrs. Stella Clark will open her dancing class next Monday evening, Nov. 13, in Odd Fellows Hall, above Dr. Gillespie's dental parlors, at 7:30. Children's class, Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5.

The Masonic fraternity of Allegan are planning to form a stock company for the purpose of building a Masonic hall in that village next summer. The capital stock of the company will be $2,500 and the shares will be placed at $10 each.

Among those who went to Grand Rapids last Friday evening to hear the speech of John G. Woolley, prohibition candidate for president were, Henry Van der Ploeg, W. H. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Fairbanks, J. Boggs, Miss Lula Boggs and Charles Stillman.

The death of Mrs. Albert Curtis, wife of Dr. Curtis, occurred last Monday night at the family home, East Seventh street. Mrs. Curtis was 33 years of age. Her death was caused by consumption from which she had suffered for a number of months. She was well known in this city and is mourned by a large circle of friends. Besides her husband she is survived by one son. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the house.

The Young People's Mission Study Union will hold its regular meeting in Hope church next Monday evening at 7:30. Dr. Dosker of the Seminary will speak on the subject: "Willibrod the Apostle to the Frisians." In connection with his address the Dr. will speak of the evangelization of the Netherlands in the seventh and eighth centuries. Everybody is invited to attend this meeting, because the subject is one of vast interest to all of Dutch descent.

At the meeting of the consistory of the Oakdale Park Christian Reformed church, held Monday night, the following trio was named from which the congregation will be asked to choose a pastor to succeed Rev. F. M. Ten Hoor, who has taken the position of teacher in the theological seminary: Rev. Henry Van der Werp of Cincinnati, Rev. S. Keizer of Pella, Ia., and Rev. K. Van Goor of Holland, who has created considerable of stir in that city by pitching into politics and his refusing to retract his statements when asked to do so by the congregation.—Grand Rapids Press

Complete election returns will be found on page 6 of this issue.

Five schooners came into the harbor at this port for shelter yesterday.

President McKinley has designated Thursday, November 29th as Thanksgiving Day.

Grand Haven knifed Dykhuis. It will gain nothing by treating candidates from Holland in that manner. It is a short sighted policy and casts discredit on some of the party leaders of that city.

More pupils are enrolled in the seventh, the eighth grade and the High school department of the public schools of Holland than ever before. The total enrollment is 48 more than at this time last year.

The young ladies of the Methodist church will organize a Young Woman's Foreign Missionary society and a meeting for that purpose will be held Friday evening at the home of Miss Maude Elferdink, 100 West Tenth street.

The Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. John Nies. A large attendance is desired to hear the report of the church furnishing committee, also to plan for a rummage sale to be held in the near future.

Sylvanus Cramer, of Kalspell, Montana, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. H. Mattison. Mr. Cramer formerly resided in this city, but for the last ten years has been a resident of Kalspell. He intends to make his home in Valentine, Mich. in the future and will leave for that place in a few days.

Fire started in the basement of the Holland furniture factory Saturday morning. Luckily it was discovered by one of the employees and was extinguished with the factory hose before serious damage was done. The fire department was called out but its services were not needed. The loss is estimated at $100 fully covered by insurance.

The Ottawa County C. E. Union will hold its annual convention in the Third and Hope Reformed churches, Dec. 7 and 8 next. On the evening of the 7th the meeting will be held in the Third church when several short addresses will be delivered, and on the morning of the 8th a meeting will be held in Hope church to discuss methods of work, and to transact business.

Election returns were received in two places Tuesday night. One place was the democratic headquarters over John Van der Veen's hardware store. The other was the Lyceum Opera house, the republican headquarters for that night. In the democratic camp the atmosphere was decidedly chilly. It was gloomy and cheerless. They were listening to the reading of the death warrant of Bryanism. In the republican camp all was good cheer, exultation, hilarity, and delight. They were listening to the reading of the news that republicanism had triumphed that "progress and prosperity" was the battle cry of the American people and that their leaders, McKinley, Roosevelt and Smith were victorious at the polls. Judging from the decisive blow dealt Bryanism the republicans will have a repitition of their happy gathering in 1904.

The first interurban car to enter Grand Rapids will come in over the tracks of the Grand Rapids, Holland & Lake Michigan line on December 1. This is the plan of the officials of the company and the work of grading has been pushed so rapidly it has now reached a point where, unless something unforeseen occurs, the plan will surely be carried to completion and the people of Grand Rapids will see the first day of winter and the first interurban car almost simultaneously. The power for the propulsion of the cars on the line will be furnished, until the company's power house is built by the local street railway company. The construction of the Zeeland-Holland end of the line is also progressing rapidly and Contractor Curry, who was in the city Thursday, has confidence that he will be able to complete the section of road before winter sets in in earnest.—G. R. Herald.

Grand Ratification Demonstration.

The republicans of Holland will celebrate the recent political victory with a grand demonstration next Monday night. It has been decided to take this means of paying Hon. G. J. Diekema, chairman of the state central committee, a deserved compliment for the good work he has done in placing Michigan at the head of the republican column by one of the largest majorities in the history of the state.

The demonstration will be an event in the political history of Holland. People will attend from every part of the county. Graafschap, West Olive, Port Sheldon, Olive Center, Zeeland and East Holland will be represented and it is expected that many of those places will send detachments on horseback to take part in the parade.

A grand display of fireworks will be given. A number of bands have been engaged to furnish the music. All plans are made on a large scale and a rousing time is assured.

Hon. G. J. Diekema, Congressman William Alden Smith, and several of the state and county officers will be present. Grand Haven republicans will come on a special train.

A cordial invitation to attend and take part in the demonstration is extended to residents of the surrounding cities, villages and towns. Political leaders in the different sections are requested to take steps to organize marching club and see that their community or neighborhood is well represented.

B. D. Kepnel has moved into his new residence on Twelfth street.

Henry J. Dykhuis carried Olive, Tom Watson's home township, by 33.

Frank Miles has accepted a position in Toledo O. He left for that city yesterday.

Capt. Wm. H. Bertch, formerly of this city left Wednesday for Manila with the Fourth Infantry.

The week of prayer will be observed in Hope College next week. Services will be held the last hour every morning.

The Washington Club will give their second annual pedro party on Wednesday, Nov. 14 at the K. O. T. M. Hall. All persons holding invitations are invited.

Some of the democratic leaders of this city have been manipulating the Boer question for a year for political effect. Result—Increased majority for McKinley.

Peter Schoon and Art Drinkwater said the 2nd ward would go republican and the election returns showed they are good prophets. The vote of the 2nd was a surprise to the political leaders as it had always been considered a strong democratic stronghold.

Illuminate Line of March.

It is expected that next Monday's parade will be one of the greatest of a political nature ever seen in Holland. The line of march will include the principal residence district of the city and the houses along the line will be brilliantly illuminated.

Many of the patriotic republicans besides illuminating their houses have signified their intention of giving a display of fireworks. This will be a feature of the demonstration and the members of the party will see that it is a success.

Following is the line of march and residents of the streets named are requested to illuminate their houses by all means and give a display of fireworks if they see fit:

FRIDAY, November 9
OUR NEIGHBORS.

West Olive.
The election is over. Now who is elected? Answer, McKinley, Roosevelt and Bliss and our good William Allen Smith.
We would be glad should the weather continue fine until we can get our corn husked.
Mrs. Amos Barnes and two children returned from Okemos, Ingham, Co., last week where she was called on account of illness of her brother, Mr. Smith.
Mrs. Julia Mosser formerly Mrs. Alger, and her husband from Allegan Co., visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Marble Sunday.
Four carloads of rye were shipped from here last week. Grand Haven grabbed 3 and Holland took one.
What a large Sunday school we had last Sunday. Let us all attend church next Sunday and hear a good sermon preached by an eloquent young pastor, Rev. Mr. Cilley.
At the Democratic meeting last Saturday night, four young men of the Hope College glee club entertained the large crowd in good style by singing and three of them spoke. Come again boys, after we enjoy four more years of prosperity.
Henry Garbrecht is very sick this week. Dr. Van den Berg of New Holland is the attending physician.
Mrs. Frank Bliss was in Holland Friday on business.
Wm. Marble returned Friday from near Lake Harbor where he made a business trip.
About 50 people from here attended the Dickema meeting at Grand Haven last Tuesday night. It was the last campaign rally we witnessed and a big one too. There was plenty of music, fireworks and enthusiasm.
Wm. Smith of Ventura, made Babcock Bros., a good visit this week Tuesday.
C. H. Ingersoll will have his new barn finished some time during this month. It can be seen several miles away because of its great height.
"Doc" Norton is back to West Olive again. He has been out buying apples for an evaporator firm in Lima, Ohio. We all hope that he will keep that lock on his chicken coop door until Thanksgiving and then give us a good feast.
Mr. and Mrs. Schoultz who recently came here from Owosso, are living in the house erected by M. A. Taylor.
Our fish man, Peter Dushare continues his business as usual and so does the elder mill. All we want now is an open winter, so we can husk our corn.
What is wrong with McKinley? He's all right.

Flint.
Our town went Republican by a great majority nearly 16 to 1.
Corn husking and sugar beet digging is a thing of the past for many of our farmers.
The excursion to Grand Haven was enjoyed by many of our republican friends. They all report a good time.
Dr. J. W. Beardslee of Holland preached at Ebenezer last Sunday evening. Next Sunday Rev. De Jong from Gelderland, Mich., will preach at Ebenezer.
The merry wedding bells will soon ring in our neighborhood and in a few weeks we will be able to publish their names.
Mrs. G. H. Boeve returned last Saturday from Fremont where she spent a week visiting relatives and friends.

Allegan County.

The first meeting of the Teacher's Reading circle for the fourth district will be held in the Allegan high school room on Saturday, Nov. 10, beginning at 10 o'clock. The district comprises Valley, Cheshire, Trowbridge, and Allegan townships.
During the month of October the superintendents of the poor have granted $1,062.93 for temporary relief; for other orders, $667.20, making the total amount of orders drawn, $1,730.13.

Ottawa County
The receipts of the Coopersville post office for the fiscal year were $1620, being over $500 more than the receipts of the Zeeland office, making it the third rank in the county.
The discovery has been made that a number of cottages have been broken into at Highland Park some of which are owned by Grand Rapids people. It is not known how much loot the thieves secured, because of the absence of the owners. President Koeltz of the park board has offered $35 for the capture of the thieves.

Lake and Marine.
The news of the intention of the Graham & Morton Co., to construct a large new palace steamer had no sooner reached St. Joseph than the business men of that city determined to have the craft christened the "City of St. Joseph" or bust. President J. H. Graham was visited and, it is said, appeared favorably inclined toward the name. He, however, bound himself by no promises.

THE LOVELIEST WOMAN.
Margaret Fuller Would Have Exchanged Her Intellect for Emily Marshall's Beauty.
Margaret Fuller once expressed the willingness to exchange her fine intellect and all her accomplishments for the beauty and attractiveness of Emily Marshall (who had been her schoolmate), writes William Perrine of "The Loveliest Woman in All America," in the Ladies' Home Journal. "Miss Marshall stood before us a reversion to that faultless type of structure which artists have imagined in the past and to that ideal loveliness of disposition which poets have fancied in the golden age," was the verdict of a Boston gallant, one of the fair beauty's neighbors, recorded in after life, when his judgment was unprejudiced. Such was the homage which the people of Boston would sometimes bestow upon Miss Marshall that one night when Daniel Webster, then beginning his career in the United States senate, visited the Federal Street theater the applause which the audience showered upon him was not greater than the cheers with which it welcomed the divine Emily. In New York she caused such a sensation that one morning ten gentlemen at one time were seen in her escort, and 60 left their cards for her. When she went to such summer resorts as Saratoga the crowds at the hotel would form a lane through which she might pass as they waited to view her going to and from her coach, and it is a Philadelphia tradition that when she visited that city one of the schools was closed earlier than the usual hour to give the young girls a chance to see the famous belle. Indeed, women looked upon her with an admiration which they seldom accord to beauties.

AUTHOR MADE A HIT.
He Finally Brought His Novel to a Close in Advance of His First Purpose.
One of the most popular novels of the day had a strange history which might have been considered fatal to its success had it been considered in advance. A New York author whose books are always sure of a certain degree of popularity finished all but the last few chapters of a novel. Try as he might, it was impossible for him to complete the story satisfactorily. So he put the book away and for two years it lay unfinished on his desk, although the author thought of the work from time to time without being able to get any nearer the solution of the plot, says the New York Sun.
Finally he lost all hope of ever completing the work and decided to end it at a point several chapters in advance of that at which he had ceased to write. With this abrupt and unexpected ending the novel went to a publisher, was accepted and turned out one of the most popular novels this author has ever written. One of the most praised features of the book is its unconventional ending, which is said to be just explicit enough to satisfy everybody without going into artistic detail. And the author was at one time so discouraged about the ending of the book that he had almost given up the idea of submitting it to any publisher.

JUDGE AND HIS DOG.
An English Jurist's Love for Animals Brings Him Into Ridicule.
It is learned from the English papers that Baron Brampton, longer and more familiarly known as Sir Henry Hawkins, or as "Old 'Arry 'Awkins"—as the good people of London called him at times—has just celebrated his eighty-third birthday. There is probably none of Queen Victoria's judges, either on the active or on the retired list, who knows so much of the seamy side of life as does Baron Brampton. He is the hero of more stories than have been told of any other occupant of the judicial bench, living or dead. His constant companion, and most devoted friend, a singularly restless and clever little terrier, figures in many of these. For instance, once when the nervous little animal was dragging his venerable master violently along by its leash, a member of the criminal classes, who knew both master and dog very well, indeed, called out loudly: "Why, Bill, don't go it so 'ard, the old 'un isn't blind!" Lord Brampton's excessive love for animals on another occasion prompted him to interpose when a learned counsel had been talking about "evidence to hang a dog" and to ask what would be sufficient evidence for that purpose. "That, m' lud," replied the lawyer, with significance, "would depend very much on whom the dog belonged to!"

Cat Fond of Ice.
A tobaccoist in South Fourth street is the owner of a one-eyed tom-cat, which is an ice fiend. The cat's name is Jerubbaal. He sits on his owner's doorstep every morning and waits for the ice man, and when the latter puts the customary cake of ice on the pavement, preparatory to opening the door, the cat eagerly runs to pick up the little pieces which are generally chipped off. The cat holes the ice in his mouth until it dissolves. On occasions the cat mews until his owner gets the pick and breaks off some pieces for him. Summer or winter, Jerubbaal must have his ice.

Armor for Soldiers.
On the threshold of the twentieth century the British war office has resorted to armor for the protection of its soldiers. Orders have been given for the purchase of a number of small steel shields to cover the vital parts about the heart. The shields weigh about seven pounds and in tests have turned bullets at 700 yards.

TAKES VICTORY QUIETLY.
President McKinley While Gratified Has Little to Say Regarding His Re-election.
EXCHANGES MESSAGES WITH ROOSEVELT
Leaves Canton for Washington—Mr. Bryan While Admitting Defeat Refuses to Make a Statement Until All the Returns Are In—He Will Take a Long Rest.

Canton, O., Nov. 7.—President McKinley was up and about at an early hour Wednesday morning, for, after a few hours' respite from the excitement of Tuesday night, the home was again besieged Wednesday morning by an army of messengers bringing congratulatory telegrams and by friends and neighbors anxious to express their satisfaction. The president breakfasted at eight o'clock with Mrs. McKinley and Secretary Cortelyou and then went to the library where he enjoyed a smoke while he ran over the morning papers and listened to the dispatches as Mr. Cortelyou picked them up from the thousands received. They came from all quarters of the country and the world, many being cablegrams from ambassadors and ministers abroad. Secretary Hay, Secretary Root, and, in fact, all the members of the cabinet had been heard from. The president early took occasion to answer Gov. Roosevelt's congratulatory message. Senator Hanna and many of his associates of the Union club, of Cleveland, joined in a message expressing their satisfaction. All the dispatches breathed a spirit of personal devotion to the president and a patriotic sense of the results.
The presidential party left in the afternoon for Washington, going over the Pennsylvania road by the regular train. The two private cars "Olympia" and "Mercurio" were attached to the train for the accommodation of the party.

Exchange Congratulations.
The congratulatory exchange between the president and Vice President-elect Roosevelt is as follows:
"Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 6.—President McKinley, Canton, O.: I congratulate you and I congratulate far more the nation. I feel the most heartfelt gratitude over the result.
(Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
"Canton, O., Nov. 6.—Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Oyster Bay, N. Y.: I heartily appreciate your kind expressions and congratulate you upon concluding in health one of the most memorable campaigns in our political history.
(Signed) "WILLIAM MCKINLEY."
Cheers for McKinley.
Alliance, O., Nov. 7.—President McKinley passed through here Wednesday afternoon en route to Washington, and the populace turned out en masse to greet him. Fire bells and shop whistles joined in the welcome.
Hanna Calls It a Landslide.
Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.—Senator Hanna did not reach his office until nearly noon Wednesday, having remained up until a very late hour Tuesday night hearing the election returns. Mr. Hanna found a perfect deluge of congratulatory telegrams upon the result piled on his desk.
"It's a veritable republican landslide," he said. "It's even better than we expected especially in Indiana and Nebraska. The general result is indeed most gratifying."
Mr. Bryan Is Silent.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Mr. Bryan said Wednesday morning that he would not make any statement as to the result of the election until later. He gave as his reason for not making a statement at this time that he had received no new information, and said he desired to have as complete returns as were procurable before announcing any conclusions. He therefore declined to make even a verbal statement for publication. However, he has no doubts as to the reports of defeat, and, in private conversation with friends, admits that further delay in the public announcement of his acceptance of the result is a mere matter of form. He is not building any hopes upon later returns, and evidently in all ways except by word of mouth concedes practically all the republicans claim.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were in a cheerful mood Wednesday morning. He said that he had slept well and was in excellent health. Referring to his plans for the immediate future, he expressed a determination to take a good rest.
"I shall not even attempt to answer letters for the present," he said, "but will postpone that duty for a few days. I am not exhausted at all," he added, "but I have had plenty to do for several months and will take it easy for a time."
Croker Message to Bryan.
New York, Nov. 7.—Richard Croker sent Mr. Bryan a telegram informing him that though the state had gone heavily republican New York county, which in 1896 gave McKinley 23,000 plurality, had been carried by the democratic electors by 33,000, a gain of 56,000. Mr. Croker was also quoted as saying: "No power on earth—nothing but his death—can prevent Mr. Bryan from remaining the natural leader of the people."

Fatal Collision.
Mansfield, O., Nov. 7.—A head-end collision of Baltimore & Ohio freights, numbers 23 and 24, occurred at Belleville, 15 miles south of Mansfield. Conductor John Oatman and Engineer Henry Hall, of No. 24, were killed and the engineer and brakeman of the other train are missing.

Young Woman Murdered.
Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 7.—The dead body of Pearl Forbes, aged 20 years, was found in a ravine near her home in this city. Marks on her throat indicated that she had been murdered by strangulation.

to the stomach that is irritated and sensitive. Nervous disorders of the brain irritate the stomach nerves making it weak and easily deranged. That's why so many people who suffer from headache have weak stomachs. All nervous troubles, whether of the brain, stomach or heart yield most readily to Dr. Miles' Nerveine.
"Starting from a small spot in my brain the pain would steadily increase until it seemed that my head would split open. I would be dazed sick at the stomach, would vomit terribly and many times have gone from 24 to 36 hours without food or drink. After suffering from these spells for 13 years was completely cured by six bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerveine." Mrs. J. M. WHITE, At Drug Stores, Williamston, Mich.

Six Frightful Failures.
Six terrible failures of six different doctors sent Wm. H. Mullien of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, including Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup, Whooping Cough, 50 cents and $1.00. Magnificent Republican Victory.

President McKinley 380 majority, William Alden Smith 372 majority. Thus reads the election returns of the city of Holland.

It is a magnificent showing on the part of the republicans. Four years ago President McKinley's majority was 179, and William Alden Smith instead of having a majority, polled 95 votes less than Geo. P. Hummer, the democratic nominee.

It is well nigh impossible to overestimate the significance of this great change in politics in this city. In the early part of the campaign the republicans would have been satisfied with a bare majority. The party had been in power for four years subjected to the sharpest criticism from their political opponents, and it was thought that misleading statements by the

G. J. Diekema Chairman.

The glorious victory of the republican party in Michigan is due to a great extent to G. J. Diekema, chairman of the republican state central committee.

During the campaign he was the leader of the party. His word was law in every part of Mich., and upon him devolved the task of marshalling republican forces for active and decisive work in the political field. If failure resulted, upon him would rest a great share of the blame, and now that success has been attained to him should be given the greatest credit. His responsibilities were great but he was ever ready and eager to bear the brunt of the attacks of his opponents and lead in the struggle for political mastery.

His duties were manifold. He directed the fight through able lieutenants. His advice was sought on every question of party policy. He had to keep in touch with the leaders in different sections and stand ready to lend a helping hand if the necessities of the occasion demanded it.

The Prohibition ticket received the following vote in the city: 1st ward, 9; 2nd ward, 8; 3rd ward, 8; 4th ward, 8; and the 5th ward, 4.

democrats would induce some of the members of the party to renounce their allegiance. The democrats had been trying to make political capital out of the Boer question long before the campaign opened and it was thought that their loud protestations of sympathy and their bitter denunciation of the policy of President McKinley and the course of William Alden Smith would cause a falling off in the Holland vote.

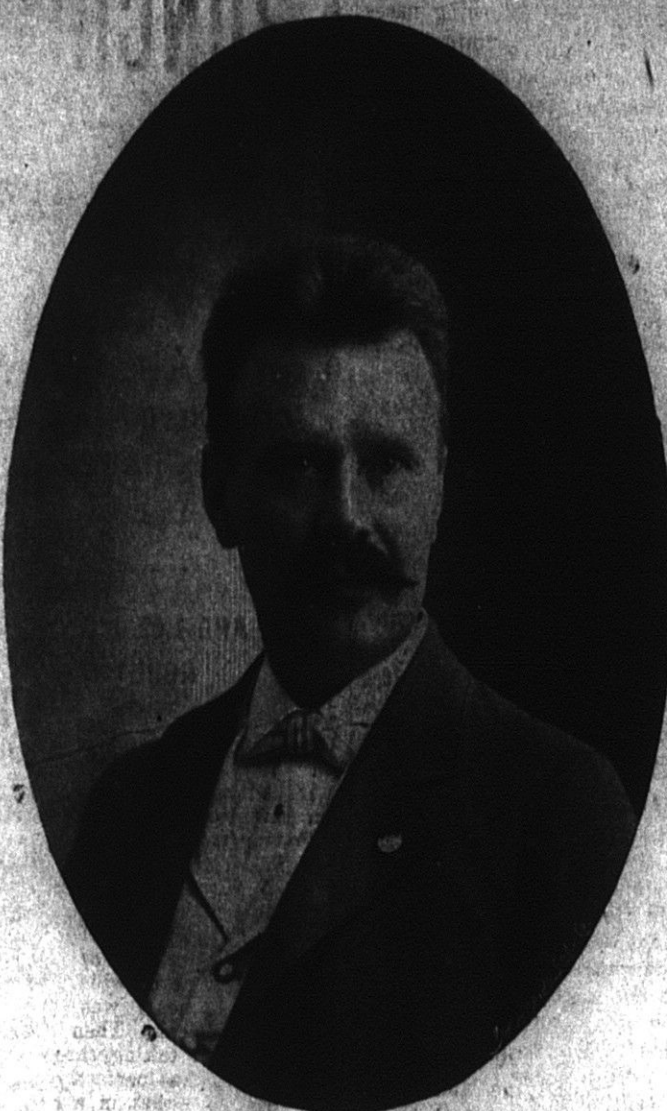

For the reasons stated above all was joy in the democratic camp. They were jubilant and boastful. But a change was soon manifest. It was found that the people of this city were not misled by empty promises and hollow protestations of Boer sympathy. It was found that the Hollanders were keen enough to discover that the democrats were using the Boer question for effect, that they were playing political foot-ball with it.

The republicans awakened to these facts. They awakened to the fact that the republican administration had been a grand success, that under its policy prosperity had come, that the nation had taken giant strides in the onward march of progress. They decided that a party like this should be accorded hearty support, that President McKinley, Congressman William Alden Smith and the republican leaders should be continued in power.

Then the word was passed along the line that a spirited and aggressive campaign should be conducted. And the mandate was obliged to the very letter. The party organization was perfected, the McKinley-Smith republican club was organized and the campaign was begun in earnest. Soon the political sky began to change. In stead of being rose-hued for the democratic party it became bright with promise of republican success and now it can be said that after one of the most spirited campaigns in the city of Holland the greatest of republican victories has been gained.

recognized as one of Michigan's best political generals and his services will be sought in the future.

His friends in Holland are glad to hear of his success and it is their wish that he may receive future honors at the hands of his party.

Congressman Smith's Plurality.

Congressman William Alden Smith was re-elected congressman according to the correct returns, which are now practically complete, by a plurality in the district of 6,500. The total is distributed among the three counties of the district as follows:

Kent county	3,448
Ottawa county	2,048
Ionia county	1,007
Total	6,503

Mr. Smith's plurality in Grand Rapids was 1,108, and his plurality in the townships of Kent county was 2,337.

In 1896 Congressman Smith's plurality in the district was 4,064, and in 1898 it was 5,957.

Result.

Ottawa county is republican by the greatest majority in its history. The national ticket is ahead by a majority of 2,200. Smith's majority in the county will be 1,950. Bliss will have 2,100. Kelly carries the county by 2,100 and his majority for senator in the district will be over 4,000. Luke Lugers is re-elected to the legislature by 1,000 in the first district of this county and Robert Alward carries the second district by 1100. The Republican county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 1,850 for Henry Dykhuis for sheriff to over 2,200 for Judge Goodrich. Mr. Dykhuis was cut heavily in his old home town of Grand Haven by renegade Republicans and lost the city by 4. In Holland, however, his majority is an immense one and his majority in the county is substantial enough. Four years ago Frank Van Ry carried the county by 142. The successful candidates for county offices are: Judge of Probate, J. V. B. Goodrich; Sheriff, Henry J. Dykhuis; Clerk, Chas. K. Hoyt; Treasurer, Frank Fox; Register, Peter Brusse; Prosecuting Attorney, P. H. McBride; Court Commissioners, Chas. E. Soule, Geo. E. Kollen; Coroners, Thomas J. Kiel, Oscar E. Yates; Surveyor, Emmet H. Peck.

The townships of the county as heard from report as follows:

Allendale—This township went Republican by a majority double of that four years ago. McKinley has 165 majority in the town, Smith 158, Kelly 163, the county ticket by about 160, Frank Fox had 194 and Dykhuis 94.

Blendon—Blendon is another town that came to the front with a largely increased Republican majority. The ticket gets a plurality of about 78 all the way through.

Chester—Here the Republicans make wonderful gains. Four years ago the Democrats carried the township by 150. Tuesday it went Democratic by 40 only.

Crockery keeps up with the Republican procession and shows a big gain. The head of the ticket, Smith and the state officers get 165 majority.

Georgetown went Republican by 24, an increased majority over four years ago.

Grand Haven city gave the head of the Republican ticket 242 majority. C. K. Hoyt had the largest in the city viz., 273.

Grand Haven township is Republican by an average of 85.

Holland township shows a decreased Republican majority. McKinley won there by 199 and Smith had 199.

Jamestown is the township that pleases the Republican committee men the most of any. Bryan carried the town by 11 in 1896. This year McKinley wins it by 37. Dykhuis carried the town by 27. Strunk the Democratic candidate for the legislature in the second district, carries his home town by 16.

Polkton also shows great Republican gains and goes Republican on the National ticket by 294.

Robinson township cast a small vote. The majority gained by the Republicans is about 18, with the exception of sheriff. Watson carried the town by 11 over Dykhuis.

Spring Lake fooled the Democrats badly. They figured on a serious defection among the Republicans but McKinley carried the township by 166.

Tallmadge makes great Republican gains. McKinley carries it by 54, Bliss 53, Smith 63.

Wright, one of the two Democratic ballwiks of the county goes Democratic by greatly reduced majorities. Bryan captured the town by 68 as against 113 four years ago.

Holland City gave McKinley 380 majority, Bliss 348, Smith 372, Goodrich 363, Dykhuis 684, Hoyt 395, Fox 391, Brusse, 398, McBride, 404.

Olive township gave McKinley a majority of 126, Bliss 120, Smith 110. Zeeland as usual is strongly Republican. McKinley carried it by 350, Smith 328, Goodrich 390—G. H. Tribune.

At the parsonage of St. Mary's church the marriage of Miss Mabelle Van Zee and Franz Cramer was solemnized by Rev. Father Shreute at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, only members of the immediate families being present. The bride was gown in a beautiful white Swiss and wore a veil. She carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Lottie Reed, wore white Swiss trimmed in lace, worn decollete and carried maidenhair ferns. Paul G. Behnke acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, No. 304 Jefferson avenue, twenty being seated at the table. A reception was given later in the evening, the bride and groom receiving their many friends in the parlor before a palm-banked window. Miss Martha Blom of Holland, who was gown in black silk with American Beauty roses, served at the punch bowl, which was arranged in a bower of green. The Misses Emma and Katherine Keating, Grace Simmons, Elizabeth Pieper and Nellie Blom of Holland served in the dining room, which was adorned with palms and American Beauty roses, made a pretty table adornment. The young ladies were dressed in pink and white. Newell's orchestra played during the entire evening. Mr. and Mrs. James B. McInnes acted as master and mistress of ceremonies. Ushers were Herold Bertleson and Clara Peterson. Mr. and Mrs. Cramer left that evening for Chicago, where another reception was tendered them. The playing of the West Michigan band has been one of the features of the campaign in this city. It has shown such marked improvement under the leadership of Prof. Armstrong that the people of Holland are surprised at the remarkable progress. The boys have reached such a point of excellence that they feel able to give public concerts and are arranging for an entertainment to be given at the Lyceum Opera house during Thanksgiving week. One of the best quartettes in the state has been engaged to take part and an excellent program will be rendered.

The Republicans closed the campaign in Ottawa county last night in a blaze of glory, and Grand Haven witnessed the greatest political demonstration in its history. Nothing like it ever was held here. The fun started with the arrival from Holland of a 14 coach excursion, carrying nearly 1,200 people, including two bands, the McKinley marching club, the Diekema club of Hope College and a large number of the fair sex. The Holland visitors were met by the local Republican club and many marchers. Shortly after arrival the parade started, going from the depot to Fifth street, thence to Washington and down Washington to the Opera House. Nearly 1,500 people participated in the parade, which was several blocks long. It was a grand sight indeed as the marchers came down Washington street with fireworks in air and colored lights along the way. It was in every respect the grandest night pageant ever seen in Grand Haven. After the meeting the Holland visitors repaired to the train, which got away at 11 p. m. There were very few disturbances, the large crowd considered, everyone of whom was full of good nature and came down for the good time which they got.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The trust indenture and first mortgage of the Grand Rapids Holland & Lake Michigan Rapid railway was filed Tuesday in the office of the city clerk of Grand Rapids. It was made out to the American Trust and Savings company of Chicago and is for $1,500,000. The holdings of the company in Grandville, Zeeland and the various townships along the line are covered by the terms of the mortgage as well as the rights of the corporation in the Saugatuck, Douglas & Lake Shore and the Holland & Lake Michigan roads. The $1,500,000 will be divided into 2,250 bonds, $750 of $1,000 each and 1,500 of $500. The first issue, which will be of $100,000 will be made when the company finishes the building of the power house at Jenison, the second of a like amount when the car house is established and the remainder when the company puts the line in operation over the double track with all the outfit in place.

A crowd of 1000 people went to Grand Haven last Monday night on the excursion train to take part in the closing demonstration of the republican campaign in Ottawa County. They went to hear G. J. Diekema make the closing address and to bring words of encouragement to the Grand Haven republicans. The excursion was given by the McKinley-Smith Republican club and was a great success. On the arrival of the train at Grand Haven a torchlight procession was given and a grand display of fireworks took place. It was a rousing night for Grand Haven. Music was furnished by the McKinley-Smith martial band, the West Michigan band, the East Holland band, the West Olive martial band and the Grand Haven band. One of the features of the parade was the Diekema republican club of Hope College. In number they were 75 strong and their college yell was at least a thousand strong.

BRONCHITIS

We Know is Hard to Control.

Our Vinol is Making a Wonderful Record in Curing This Dangerous Disease.

CALL AND LET US TELL YOU ABOUT IT.

Here is a letter that has just come to our attention. It will interest people suffering from bronchial troubles. It is from Mr. Geo. W. Brown, of So. Hanover, N. H., and reads as follows:

"I have suffered with bronchial troubles for over a year; tried two doctors and have taken three or four kinds of medicine, none of which did me any good. At times I was so hoarse I could not speak. Then I heard of Vinol. After taking three bottles of it my voice has perfectly returned to me. I can see that in a short time I will be all right. When I began to take it I was very weak, but it has built me up and given me a good appetite."

This is what Vinol always does. This is the way Vinol accomplishes its mission of doing good.

Vinol, as we wish every one to know, owes its power of accomplishing the cures that it effects to the fact that it contains the most wonderful medicinal elements known to science for the cure of all wasting diseases, as well as being in itself a marvelous tonic. These medicinal properties exist and have heretofore been found only in cod-liver oil. Vinol contains these elements. For by a scientific process the necessary curative properties of the cod-liver oil have been separated from the fat and grease which formerly made cod-liver oil preparations so objectionable.

As long as Vinol does not contain any of the vile-smelling oil, and is prepared by combining the sought-after properties with a delicate table wine, it is a most delicious and palatable preparation.

We know of what we speak when we recommend Vinol, and because we do know that Vinol does all we claim for it, we unhesitatingly endorse it, and guarantee at any time to refund the money paid for the remedy if you are not satisfied it will do all we claim for it.

Nebraska Claimed by the Republicans But Is Probably Democratic.

Kentucky Carried by the Democrats by a Small Margin—State Offices Still in Doubt.

Illinois and New York Go Republican by Large Majorities—The News by States.

Washington, Nov. 7.—William McKinley has been reelected president of the United States by an electoral vote greater than that received by him in 1896, and the indications now are that he will have 284 ballots cast for him in the electoral college. The house of representatives will be safely republican. There are several districts where the vote is close, but there is no doubt that there will be a splendid working majority to support the administration.

An analysis of the returns shows that the efforts of the anti-imperialists in the New England states was not without effect, and Massachusetts, Connecticut and even Vermont give a reduced vote for the republicans compared with four years ago.

Changes in the West.

In the west, however, there have been some surprising changes since Mr. Bryan was last a candidate. In Colorado, the great silver state, the democrats have lost over 100,000 votes and losses are reported from the entire mountain district. In some southern states the same condition prevails to a certain extent, notably Virginia. Missouri comes to the front with an old-time democratic majority. St. Louisans there are jubilant because the world's fair project has carried. This amendment permits St. Louis to bond the city for $500,000 and provides for a $1,000,000 state exhibit.

Kentucky has gone democratic and Nebraska is in doubt. In several states, notably Illinois and Michigan, the gubernatorial candidates have run far behind the head of the republican ticket.

bers of congress from this state, but the official count may be required to decide in one or more close districts.

Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Later returns indicate that Pennsylvania gave over 200,000 plurality for the republican ticket, exceeding even the record breaking plurality of 205,027 in 1896. Of this plurality Philadelphia furnished over 125,000 and Allegheny county, including Pittsburgh, nearly 50,000. Bryan carried 15 of the 67 counties in the state.

Returns are not yet complete, but the indications are that the next Pennsylvania delegation in congress will stand: Republicans, 28; democrats, 4, as against 20 republicans and 10 democrats in the present congress.

The result of former Senator Quay's effort to secure control of a sufficient number of members of the incoming legislature to insure his return to the United States senate is yet in doubt. There is no disputing the fact that the attempt of his opponents to defeat him in certain counties by fusing with the democrats was practically a failure.

Columbus, O., Nov. 7.—The Ohio election returns are still incomplete, but the democrats concede about 60,000, and the republicans claim about 80,000 for their national and state tickets as compared with 51,109 for McKinley in 1896. The only dispute is over the Third, Twelfth and Twentieth congressional districts, and the republicans claim the election of Nevill in the Third and of Tompkins in the Twelfth, which will make 17 republican and 3 democratic congressmen and 1 doubtful. The Ohio delegation in the last congress stood 15 republicans to 6 democrats.

Hamilton county, including Cincinnati, gives McKinley 55,428; Bryan, 40,223. McKinley's plurality, 15,205. In 1896 his plurality was 19,470.

The result of the election in Niles, O., where President McKinley was born, was as follows: McKinley, 1,066; Bryan, 456. McKinley's plurality, 610.

Cuyahoga county, including Cleveland, gives McKinley 45,146; Bryan, 42,227. McKinley's plurality, 2,919.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Although complete returns from down-state counties in Illinois are coming slowly, sufficient information has been received by the republican state committee to show that McKinley has carried the state by at least 100,000, and that Yates' plurality will be between 65,000 and 75,000. Returns from 53 counties are in, which, with reports from 36 other counties—a total of 89 out of 102 in the state—indicate that McKinley has upward of 90,000 plurality. The 13 counties missing are expected to raise the total to a round 100,000.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 7.—The latest figures give President McKinley a plurality in Michigan of 32,017. Col. A. T. Bliss, of Saginaw, the republican candidate for governor, ran considerably behind his ticket, receiving 69,430 plurality. The state legislature will be overwhelmingly republican, the returns showing a solid republican senate and but 11 democrats in the house. There was little, if any, opposition to the constitutional amendment authorizing the taxing of railroad and other corporations on the cash value of their property instead of their earnings, as at present, and it was adopted by probably the largest vote ever cast for such a measure.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Latest returns from Indiana indicate that the republicans have carried the state by from 23,000 to 32,000. The republicans will have probably elected 11 of the 13 congressmen. The legislature is safely republican.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—With limited returns from 600 precincts, McKinley's majority in the state will be 80,000 over Bryan, and may not vary much from that figure when the official count is received.

The entire congressional delegation in the state is republican and democratic losses are reported in nearly every county.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—Forty-three counties complete out of 99 in Iowa give McKinley 131,300, Bryan 82,103. If the remaining counties go the same way, McKinley's majority will reach 100,000. All republican congressmen are elected.

Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Democratic leaders here on unofficial advice from over the state claim Bryan has carried the state by upward of 15,000, and that Beckham is elected governor by over 7,000. The defeat of Hall (dem.) for appeals judge is conceded. This gives the republicans a majority on the appellate bench, the highest court in the state.

Complete returns from this (Franklin) county give Bryan 1,081 majority over McKinley, and Beckham 1,064 majority over Yerkes.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—At one o'clock Mr. Yerkes, republican candidate for governor, said: "From the figures furnished me by Chairman Combs, I am of the opinion that my election is assured by a majority of 2,500 to 3,000. The election of the national ticket being absolutely certain, the small margin in my own race is not a matter of great concern—I believe my majority will be counted and a certificate issued."

Gov. Beckham would only say that he had been elected by at least 10,000 and was perfectly satisfied.

Ex-Gov. McCreary, chairman of the democratic state campaign committee, said: "I am satisfied that Kentucky has gone democratic by from 6,000 to 10,000. I have received returns from 74 counties from chairmen of the county campaign committees. I have also heard unofficially from 24 counties; and, giving the republicans in the counties not heard from the majorities received in 1896, which were higher than they were in 1896, Beckham is unquestionably elected."

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—While the democrats claim Beckham's election for governor by from 4,000 to 8,000, the republicans, though making no claims, do not concede Yerkes' defeat. The republicans concede Bryan has carried the state.

Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—The result of the election in Nebraska is still in doubt. About 825 precincts out of 1,611 have been heard from, and these show very substantial republican gains. The republicans claim they will give McKinley a majority and the democrats are equally sure of the result. The changes, however, have been so diversified that it is well-nigh impossible to make an estimate.

With a corresponding result in unreported precincts to those already received McKinley will have a small plurality.

The legislature is also uncertain. In the close counties out in the state, the republicans have made material gains. In Douglas county, which is the largest assembly district in the state, the count will not be completed until late in the day, and the democrats are the missing precincts, which are in South Omaha, will elect the fusion legislature candidates in this district. The state democratic ticket is running slightly ahead of Bryan.

Chairman Edmiston, of the populist state central committee, telephoned from Lincoln at 10:30 o'clock that Bryan would have a plurality in the state of about 5,000 with the state ticket running close to these figures. Returns now coming from South Omaha indicate the election of the fusion delegation to the legislature, which will in all probability determine the complexion of that body.

Colorado.

Denver, Col., Nov. 7.—The fusion of democrats, silver republicans and populists made a clean sweep in Colorado. Bryan's majority, according to the returns received up to 7:30 a. m., which are far from complete, will be 35,000 or more. The entire fusion state ticket, headed by John B. Orman, for governor, is elected by smaller majorities than that of Bryan. The fusionists will probably have a large majority in the legislature, but it is impossible as yet to give any figures on the result. The leaders of the fusionists will concede, but 12 of the legislative ticket to the republicans, which, if correct, will eliminate Senator E. C. Wolcott from the race. All over the state there was much scratching of ballots.

The returns up to 10:30 a. m. indicate that the fusion ticket has carried 46 out of the 67 counties in Colorado, and Orman's net plurality for governor over Goudy (rep.) is estimated at 27,000.

Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from Milwaukee county give McKinley a plurality of 8,973 and La Follette (rep.) for governor, a plurality of about the same figures. The figures from the state at large will not be known for some time, but a fair approximate shows that the republicans will have a plurality of at least 110,000. All the republican congressmen are elected and the legislature is overwhelmingly republican.

Montana.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 7.—Although the returns are incomplete Wednesday morning, the fusion democratic-populist union labor ticket has been elected, and the friends of W. A. Clark (dem.), candidate for the United States senate, seem to control the legislature. Of the counties heard from decisively he has a clear majority in the house.

Caldwell Edwards (pop.), who ran for congressman on the fusion ticket, is undoubtedly elected.

Minnesota.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 7.—The only uncertainty in the Minnesota election results is on the governorship, both parties claiming it by small figures. McKinley's large majority seems rather to increase than decrease as the fuller returns come in. All the republican state candidates, the seven congressmen and a large majority of the representatives are elected by big figures. Chairman Blxby adheres to his claim of 10,000 to 12,000 for Van Sant, republican, for governor and Democratic Chairman Rosing has come down to 5,000 as his claim for the reelection of Gov. Lind. Much fuller returns will be necessary before it can be known positively.

California.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—It will be several days before the complete result in California will be known. Enough of the vote is in, however, to show that McKinley's plurality will be at least 20,000 and that all seven republican congressmen have been elected. The only doubtful district is the Second, where Sprull (dem.) may beat Woods out, though the latter has a small lead so far. The count of the vote in San Francisco will not be finished until noon.

Utah.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 7.—It is estimated the republicans have carried Utah by 4,000 majority for both the presidential and state tickets. Incomplete returns from 16 out of 27 counties in the state give McKinley 22,240; Bryan, 20,463.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—Returns received are so incomplete as to make close figures impossible. That McKinley has carried the state by a good majority there is no doubt. Both parties claim the state, and it will take the official count to decide. It is believed Cushman and Jones (rep.) for congress, have been elected.

Idaho.

Boise City, Idaho, Nov. 7.—The Statesman at 2:30 o'clock a. m. says: The 27 precincts already counted give the following figures: McKinley, 2,572; Bryan, 2,492; Morrison for congress, 2,639; Glenn, for congress, 2,780; Standford, for governor, 2,832; Hunt, for governor, 2,808. These precincts in 1896 gave Moss (rep.) for governor, 1,421; Steuneger (dem.), 2,451. The net republican gain on president is 11 per cent. If the percentage should continue McKinley would carry the state. It is likely to continue, for none of the heavy republican precincts is included.

Nevada.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 7.—Bryan's majority in the state will be considerably increased over Tuesday night's figures. When the state returns are all in his majority will not fall far short of 1,500, while Newlands (dem.), for congress, will carry the state by not far from 2,000. The democrats elected R. D. Jackson state senator from Washoe county. The senatorship in Humboldt county is still in doubt.

The Dakotas.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 7.—The latest returns received seem to confirm the claim of the republican state committee that the state has given McKinley over 10,000 plurality and that the entire republican state and congressional ticket has been elected by safe majorities, while the republican majority of nearly 20 in the legislature will assure the election of a republican to succeed United States Senator Frank Pettigrew.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Returns are coming in very slowly, but those received seem to indicate a republican plurality over rather than under 10,000 for McKinley, while the republican state ticket is elected by a somewhat smaller figure.

Wipperfman (dem.), for governor, runs ahead of his ticket, but it seems probable that Maj. White (rep.) will pull through for that office.

Oklahoma.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 7.—Territorial election returns are coming in slowly, but enough is known to show that Dennis T. Flynn (rep.) is reelected delegate to congress over Robert A. Neff by a majority of not less than 3,000. The republicans claim six members of the council and the election of E. Duffy, anti-fusion populist in the Fifth district, who is expected to vote with the republicans. The lower house is claimed by the republicans by 18.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—On the basis of the limited returns from the state republicans claim Kansas by 25,000 for the national ticket and 30,000 for the state ticket; the election of every republican congressman with the possible exception of the Third district. Republicans claim the legislature by a safe majority on joint ballot, insuring the election of United States senator. The populists concede that republicans carried Kansas and practically admit that they have little show except for the election of a congressman in the Third district. Two hundred and eight-two precincts out of 2,300 give McKinley 13,413; Bryan, 14,156. Same in 1896 gave McKinley 15,721; Bryan, 15,000.

Missouri.

St. Louis, Nov. 7.—While complete returns have not been received up to 3:30 a. m., it appears probable that Bryan and Dockery, democratic nominee for governor, have carried the state by reduced pluralities. No complete figures can be given for some time.

St. Louis gave a handsome majority for the world's fair amendments, and reports from all over the state indicate there was no opposition to speak of. This insures the carrying out of the project to hold a Louisiana purchase exposition here in 1903.

Returns from all but 67 precincts out of a total of 333 in St. Louis give McKinley 46,384; Bryan, 47,583; a plurality of 1,199 for Bryan. In 1896 the city gave McKinley a plurality of 15,717. Most of the missing precincts are republican. Flory (rep.), for governor, received 47,991, and Dockery (dem.), for governor, 45,354.

Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 7.—Bryan has carried 73 of the 75 counties in Arkansas by average pluralities of 800 and gets the state by about 55,000. Back county returns may slightly increase the figures. The vote is turning out smaller than expected.

Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7.—The next delegation to congress from this state will be wholly democratic. The state is conceded to Bryan by 45,000.

Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—Returns from every district in this state show that two counties are republican, Coffee and Liberty. The state gives Bryan a plurality of 40,000. Every democratic congressman was elected.

Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 7.—The Bryan electors are elected in this state by 25,000 majority. Sparkman (rep.), for congress, and oarotic members of congress, are reelected. Sparkman by 14,000 majority and Davis by 11,000 majority.

South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 7.—It is not considered probable that Bryan's majority will fall short of 30,000 in the state. Every democratic congressman was elected.

Louisiana.

New Orleans, Nov. 7.—Twenty-two thousand five hundred votes were cast in New Orleans out of a registration of 41,463. Bryan's majority is 15,500. The entire six congressional districts in the state are strongly democratic, the Lily White republicans having been swamped in the three districts in which they put up candidates. Bryan's majority in the state, based on scattering returns from the country and the result in the city, will be in excess of 30,000.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—With scattered precincts in various counties of the state to hear from, Maryland's plurality for McKinley and Roosevelt was 14,146, with a probability that the official count will swell the total to 15,000 or more. Besides placing Maryland's eight electoral votes in the McKinley column, a solid republican delegation to the Fifty-seventh congress was elected with handsome majorities.

Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—A recapitulation for Virginia indicates a democratic plurality on the presidential ticket of over 30,000, and the election of the democratic candidate in every congressional district. In nearly all the cities and towns and many of the counties Bryan ran behind the congressional ticket.

West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 7.—Both state committees have ceased to receive returns, but it is conceded that the republicans have carried the state. The republicans claim 15,000 plurality. The legislature will be republican on joint ballot by eight or ten.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 7.—The republican committee claims the state by 20,000 for McKinley; the legislature is overwhelmingly republican; the committee claims all four republican congressmen elected.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The plurality for Bryan in Tennessee is estimated at the headquarters of the democratic state committee at 30,000, and it is claimed that the majority for McMillan (dem.) over McCall (rep.) for governor is about the same. The democrats have elected eight and the republicans two congressmen. The legislature will be largely democratic.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate the reelection of Hon. John A. Moon (dem.) to congress from the Third district of Tennessee by a small majority. Republicans are claiming irregularities and threatening to contest.

SOUTHERN MINE DISASTER

Terrific Explosion in a Colliery at

Berrysburg, W. Va., Kills

Eleven Workmen.

LARGE CROWD HURRIES TO THE SCENE.

The Sight Appalled Them—Scores of Homes Filled with Sorrow—Dynamite

Caused the Disaster—Force of

Shock Threw Men Sixty Feet from

Mouth of Mine.

Phillippi, W. Va., Nov. 5.—The Southern

Coal and Transportation company's coal mines at Berrysburg, six miles from here, was the scene of an awful catastrophe about 1:30 Saturday morning. A terrific explosion, heard for fully a dozen miles around, was the signal that alarmed the neighborhood and caused hundreds of people to hurry to the scene to see what had happened. The sight appalled them.

Eleven men are known to be dead, and the list may prove to be much longer.

The explosion was not of gas, but was caused by dynamite. There had been a fall of top rock in the mine and in clearing this up dynamite was being used. Several shots had been prepared and one of these produced confusion sufficient to discharge 27 sticks of dynamite which were lying on the ground in too close proximity.

There were 129 men employed in the mine, most of whom were negroes who live in the neighborhood with their families.

Men Thrown Sixty Feet.

The force of the explosion was so great that two men were found 60 feet from the mouth of the mine. An hour after the explosion hundreds had visited the mine. The call for relief brought every physician in Phillippi to the scene. The sight was a most horrible one. Strewed along the main channel and about the opening were the arms, legs, hands and other portions of the bodies of the dead miners.

Fathers and mothers were frantically hunting for sons, and as fast as a body was recovered they would glance at it, and recognizing it, would give hysterical screams. The hotel was turned into a hospital, and those still alive when brought out were taken there.

Thirteen Dead.

Phillippi, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Thirteen persons are dead and three fatally injured as the result of the explosion in the Berrysburg mines.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L.

Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at three a. m. at his residence in this city.

(William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1827 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with differ-

MULDER BROS. & WHELAN Holland, Mich

Holland vs. Grand Rapids.

The Holland foot ball team went to Grand Rapids Saturday and in a game in which they did the best playing and received the worst end of every decision were defeated by a score of 12 to 0. The Grand Rapids Democrat gives the following account of the game: "If James J. Jeffries had witnessed the football game between the Holland Independents and the Grand Rapids High school team at Reed's Lake Park Saturday afternoon he would have gone home with the impression that pugilism is a mild sport compared to football. There have been a dozen or more prize fights in Kahler's pavilion, just across the street from the park, in the past year, but it is doubtful if in all of them put together there was as much genuine slugging as there was in the last fifteen minutes of play Saturday afternoon.

Holland boys had the ball and were pushing it through Grand Rapids' line until they reached within twenty yards of the coveted goal. Something must be done and done quick to save High school honors, and Coach Dayrell replaced White, who had been putting up a great game. "Boys, anything to stop them?" were Dayrell's words, and the fun began. Like lions at bay the locals made a stand, kicking, biting slugging and every method known to fierce playing was resorted to by both sides, and the crowd went wild as Holland lost on downs, with the ball less than five yards from Grand Rapids' goal. The first half was a beautiful exhibition of football. Holland had things all its own way in the first ten minutes of play, then seemed to tire as the locals took a brace. Game to the core Holland fought every foot of the ground, but trick plays mystified them and there were ten minutes yet to play as Crossman plunged through the line for a touchdown, Palmer kicking goal. Five minutes of fast play shot Morton across the line for the second touchdown, on which Palmer kicked goal. Time was called with the ball in Grand Rapids territory. The fifteen minutes rest seemed to do both teams much good and it was nip and tuck to the finish, with Holland putting up a little the strongest game, but not enough to score. It was a great game and for excitement will not, perhaps be beaten this year. The visitors demonstrated that they are fit to cope with any team in the state, and showed a thorough knowledge of the game."

COULD NOT BE PHOTOGRAPHED

When Miss Helen Gould visited the tenth annual convention of the railroad department at the Young Men's Christian association at Philadelphia some weeks ago the newspaper artists were bound to sketch her as she appeared at the reception. To this Miss Gould objected strenuously, but the artists were not routed until the railroad men threatened to demolish the photographers' expensive camera and tear up the artists' cardboards. A score of newspaper photographers and artists appeared at the Y. M. C. A. building early and were informed that they could not enter with their machines.

A dozen burly railroad men were appointed to smash all cameras found inside the building and tear up all artists' materials. The picture men then waited outside. When Miss Gould arrived with Mrs. Sage a flank movement was made and their carriage was driven around to a side entrance.

The men of pictures rushed to the side door, but upon arriving there found the women surrounded by over 50 tall men, who formed a bodyguard clear into the building, shutting the cameras out completely.

In the crush to close out the picture men Miss Gould and Mrs. Sage were almost crushed themselves. They seemed amazed at the excitement at first, but soon learned the cause and helped to deprive the picture men of snap shots.

HOME FOR SCHOOL-TEACHERS.

Switzerland Will Found a Place Where They Can Spend Their Vacations.

The Swiss educators are taking active measures looking toward the founding of a lehrerheim, or home for school-teachers during their holidays, upon the model of the admirable eisenbahner-heim, or home for railway workers, on the Grubisbalm, upon the slopes of the Rigi, midway between Vitznau and the Kaltbad, says a foreign correspondent of the Chicago Chronicle. The hotel on the Grubisbalm, which owes its initiative entirely to a committee of workers on the Swiss railways, has now been open for three or four years. Any railway man, or member of a railway man's family, may be excellently lodged and boarded there at a cost of three to three and one-half francs a day. The economical question is exhaustively treated in a little pamphlet circulating amongst the teachers in the Swiss common schools. If the railway workers can "help themselves" to so successful a cooperative hotel and pension, why cannot their educators do the same? asks Herr Walt, the writer of the pamphlet. The railway workers' home on the Rigi not only pays its expenses, but at the end of the last season showed a profit of 1,300 francs, which is expected to increase as it becomes more widely used. The German school-masters in Silesia have already provided themselves with a similar cooperative hotel and pension in the Schreiberhau.

ALL WANT TO BE HEROES.

Rivalry Among British Soldiers Upon the Veldt in South Africa.

A great rivalry exists among the private soldiers in South Africa for the honor of performing the most heroic deed of the campaign. The most dramatic feat of the war, perhaps, was the hoisting of the union jack over Pretoria, and it is interesting to note that this was done by a man who is often described as the richest man in England—the duke of Westminster. It is the first notable thing the young duke has done since his accession, and he well deserved his reward—a cigar handed to him by Lord Roberts on behalf of a lover of the weed at home. The flag at Bloemfontein was hoisted by Viscount Acheson, son of Lord Gosport, though the honor has been claimed for Lord Herbert Scott. The first man to enter Mafeking on its relief was "Karri" Davies, who received £50 from a Liverpool merchant as his reward. It is pleasing to know that Davies is an Australian, as was the first man to enter Bloemfontein, Mr. Donohoe, a correspondent. The first colonial V. C. was Trooper Morris. So far nobody has succeeded in winning the £25 offered in Melbourne to the man who would first lay his hands on President Kruger.

NEW ARMORED TRAINS.

Are Designed to Traverse a Country Where There Are No Railroads.

Two new armored trains, intended for use in a country where there are no rails or permanent ways, have lately been placed upon the establishment at Aldershot. Each consists of a locomotive or traction engine, and four trucks, all of which are painted the now familiar but ever unlovely khaki. The locomotives, which are of exceedingly powerful construction, are completely cased with steel, the vital parts being especially protected. An ingenious arrangement of prisms and mirrors, somewhat after the manner of the camera obscura, enables the driver inside the cab of the engine to see without being seen or in any way exposing himself. The trucks are built with high sloping steel sides, which are pierced and slotted at intervals to enable the occupants to fire through them. They are also provided with slides at either end to permit of guns and wagons being run into the trucks. The steel sides of the carriages are so constructed that when necessary they may fall inward and lie flat on the platform of the truck, which can then be used for ordinary transport purposes.

SIBERIAN CITIES.

Though Prospering They Nevertheless Seem Dull and Depressing.

Perhaps the most curious feature of all Siberian cities and villages is the quiet of them, says Anna N. Benjamin, in Ainslee's. The American finds it depressing. The places seem half dead, yet they are alive and thriving. Our conception of prosperity in new cities is so associated with the clang of the trolley, the smoke of the factory, the weird writhings of the steam siren, and the bustle of the population, that it is hard for us to realize that prosperity may exist in a place of dead calm.

Vladivostok, Khabarovsk, Blagovestchensk and Irkutsk all present the same features. Blagovestchensk, in the heart of eastern Siberia, on the junction of the Zeya river with the Amur, is, perhaps, the most interesting city. On the central square of the city, where the market is, face two large department stores which for size, beauty of architecture and variety of stock would do credit to any American city. The bank buildings, the museum, and other business and government houses, are of brick or stone. Good schools have been established, so that it is possible for a boy here, as well as in all Siberian cities, to receive a thorough education. In Vladivostok a training school for eastern diplomats turns out graduates accomplished in oriental languages to begin their careers as interpreters or secretaries of legations.

Prince Henry of Prussia, Who Astonished the Captain of a Trading Ship.

Some time ago when Prince Henry of Prussia, who, as all know, is the grandson of Queen Victoria, was at Hong-Kong, the captain of a British trading steamer sailing out of that port was walking around the graving dock in which the prince's flagship was being brushed up, when he saw an officer standing near the gangway leading from the quay to the ship, and being curious to have a look over the vessel, he saluted with a "Good-morning, sir," and asked if he had any objection to his having a walk through the ship.

"Not at all," replied the officer, "I shall be delighted to escort you round." After showing him over the different parts of the warship the officer took the captain into his cabin. He offered him a cigar and a glass of wine, and they had quite a friendly chat together. Before leaving the captain happened to glance round the cabin and saw a photo of Victoria. Said he to the officer:

"I notice you have a photograph of the queen of England."

"Yes," said the officer, "I always carry one of my grandmother's pictures with me."

What the captain's feelings were when he found that he had been enamored with the admiral, Prince Henry of Prussia, can be better imagined than described.

RAINED BATS AND HAWKS.

Bats Blew Aboard the Ship from the East, and the Hawks from the West.

The steamship Curityba, which arrived at New York the other day from Cuban ports, had a weird experience with winged things on her trip up the coast. When she was off Matanzas an off-shore gale, permeated with tropical moisture, piled the combers about her. On the blast came thousands of land birds and big bats. Mate Bregman says the bats literally covered the ship, roosting on all the rails. He says they appeared to be a "cross between a vampire and a squirrel." When the weather moderated and dawn came the bats were near enough to one of the Bahamas to venture leaving the ship.

A hundred or more miles off Florida the Curityba was visited by what the seventh mate, who is English, declares was a flock of "heagles." The eighth mate says he believes they were "howls," and the ninth mate positively asserts that they were "awks." Whatever they may be called, Capt. Hoppe and his men captured two of them, which measure, according to the new ultramarine reporter who was sent out by the ship news experts to get the yarn, "about eight feet from tip to tip." There were altogether 20 eagles or hawks or owls in the flock.

BRITISH LIKE CHEAP PAPERS.

The Increasing Popularity of Half-Penny Sheets May Abolish Reading Rooms.

The revolution which the half-penny newspaper has wrought in this country was one of the questions raised at the Library association's meeting held in Bristol recently. Sir Edward Fry gave the presidential address and urged those who have the control of libraries to discourage the frivolous use of books and to stimulate serious effort in the pursuit of knowledge.

During a discussion on the subject of lectures in public libraries, which are at present regulated by act of parliament, it was urged that the time had come to liberate library authorities from the restrictions at present imposed upon them, says the London Mail. The half-penny newspaper topic was broached by Sir William Bailey, of Galford, who said that in these days of cheap half-penny papers reading-rooms might very well be dispensed with in public libraries and their space utilized for lecture purposes. His experience showed that in many cases news rooms were the resort of men who went there with the object of reading nothing but betting intelligence.
