BEEUWKES LEAVES THE LOKKER-RUTGERS CO.

FRED BEEUWKES LEAVES LOKKER-RUTGERS CO. TO TAKE POSITION WITH JAS. A. BROUWER & CO.

Sells His Stock in Clothing Business
After Being With One Firm
Twenty Years

An important business change will take place next Monday when Fred Beeuwkes, for the past twenty years with the Lokker-Rutgers Co., will take a position with the James A. Brouwer company. Mr. Beeuwkes has sold his stock in the clothing company and at the end of the week he will leave that concern to enter upon his new position next week. The stock of the retiring member of the firm was purchased by Jacob Lokker. Mr. Beeuwkes began working for the company 20 years ago when he was 14 years old. He rapidly advanced from the first and when the company was incorporated he was taken in as one of the stockholders, at the age of twenty. Since then he has held the office of treasurer and at the present time he is secretary and assistant manager. No other changes will take place in the Lokker-Rutgers company. Mr. Lokker will continue as manager and in every way the business will continue as before the change.

Mr. Beeuwkes is a young business man of exceptional ability. He has worked his way up from the bottom and the new position he will occupy comes to him in recognition of the place he has made for himself in the business life of Holland by industry and business ability. Not only has his ability been recognized in his own company but he has played an active part in the wider sphere of community life. He has been active in the work of the Business Men's association ever since it was organized and has held every office that body had to grant. At the present time he is secretary. He is at present a member of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. as well as treasurer of that body, and he is also a member of the Board of Education to which position he was elected last summer.

The loss on the building and contents will be at least $300.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vos have been having considerable hard luck of late. Last summer their home and laundry was burned at Ottawa Beach and they sustained a loss of over $2,000.

BOY HAS GONE BLIND BUT DOING NICELY

Russel Nuismer who was shot in the eye with an air gun in the hands of Peter Ras, was taken to Ann Arbor Sunday, and his eye was operated on Monday. Although he has lost sight in that member he is recovering rapidly, and will be home in a few days. His mother has been visiting him this week.

MAIL CARRIER'S WIFE DIED SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Dena Rutgers, wife of Gerrit Rutgers, R. F. D. mail carrier No. 1, died suddenly of heart failure at her home, 659 Michigan avenue. She is survived by a husband and two children.

The funeral services will be held Saturday at one o'clock from the home and 2 o'clock from the Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church. Rev. Hoekstra will officiate.

Hans Dykhuis who received such an overwhelming majority through out the county for sheriff wishes to thank the voters for the confidence placed in him and for the endorsement of his first administration. He asked the news to convey this message to the public.

HOPE COLLEGE ANCHOR WILL BE WEEKLY

HOPE COLLEGE ANCHOR TO BE A WEEKLY

It is needless to say that a fresh, up-to-date athletic column will be one of the features.

The editor-in-chief will be John De Boer and the assistants will be as follows: Associate editors, Catherine G. Hekhuis, '16; George Steininger, '16; Society Editor, Sarah H. Trompen, '16. Subscription Manager, George Peigrim, '16. Ass't Sub. Manager, Martin Eugene Filpse, '16. Exchange Editor, Fred H. De Jong, '16. Business Manager, Marion G. Gosselink, '15. Ass't Business Manager, Henry Lockhorst, '17. Staff Artists, Muriel Fortune, '17; Carl Hospers, '16. Alumni Editor, Adriana S. Kolyn, '16. Local Editors, Georgiana De Jonge, John S. Moore, '17. Athletic Editor, Miner Stegenga, '15.

The paper will be four pages, 12x18, five columns and will be issued from the Holland City News offices with whom the staff has made a three-year contract.

HOUSE CAKES IN AT CENTRAL PARK

Five Persons Have Narrow Escape
Damage Will Be $300

The home of Fred J. Vos called the Cody cottage at Central Park was seriously damaged while being moved last Saturday. John Knoll who had the contract for doing the moving was placing the house so as to cover a new basement which had been recently built. In some unaccountable manner the blocking gave way and the building keeled to one side at an angle of thirty five degrees. The front part of the house which is 15x20, leans clear over while the rear kitchen and dining room was nearly twisted from the main body of the house. Mrs. Vos when the accident happened was working in the kitchen near the stove, and all at once she was thrown to one side, and everything began to tumble around in the kitchen. She thought at first that an earthquake had taken place. A kettle of hot water was thrown off the stove barely striking Mrs. Vos. A bookcase full of books in the dining room and a cupboard full of dishes were practically demolished. The floor of these two rooms has been torn to splinters and the wall are minus the plaster. Both the chimneys on the house were also shaken off. John Knoll, Daniel Vos and Mr. Spyker were doing the moving and Mr. Spyker was under the house when it fell, when he heard the building cave in he laid on his stomach keeping as close to the ground as possible, and no doubt this saved him from being crushed to death.

The loss on the building and contents will be at least $300.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vos have been having considerable hard luck of late. Last summer their home and laundry was burned at Ottawa Beach and they sustained a loss of over $2,000.

Ora Morningstar easily defeated Welker Cochran in a four hundred-point billiard game, 14.1 ball style at the Palace Pool and Billiard parlors. Cochran had but 140 points when Morningstar completed his score. Cochran was a little out of sorts last night and this coupled with a little hard luck in getting his balls together, a few close misses and one foul put him out of the running. Still he showed his quality by the style of shooting and was popular with the crowd. Morningstar played an exceptionally good game. His high run last evening was 126 and at another time he ran 89. The game was 19 innings.

The Holland High school football team easily defeated its old rival Grand Haven Saturday afternoon at Grand Haven by defeating that team 25 to 7. Ashley made three out of the four touchdowns for Holland and was the individual star of the game. He made long gains through the opposing line and was a sure tackler. Sirrine made the other touchdown and with Ashley he starred in the backfield. Stubbman and Miller starred for Grand Haven. Stubbman made their only touchdown on a line plunge of five yards. Bosman kicked one goal out of four chances for Holland.

ALD. PRINS OBJECTS TO ALLEY LIGHTS

COUNCIL WANTS TO CONDEMN
FRED BOONES LIVERY

Failed to Select New Supervisors

The regular meeting of the Common Council was held last evening. All members were present except Alderman King and Steketee. Business was begun immediately. Manus Boone petitioning for license to run a billiard room in Hotel Holland but the petition was referred to the license committee with power to act.

Mrs. James Tilt, stating that she was not in a position to fill the office of moving picture censor, asked that her resignation be accepted. Motion made and supported and her resignation accepted.

Committee on Ways and Means reported that the Edgewater hospital bill was not one that should be charged to the city of Holland and recommended that the report be referred to Ottawa County. This report was adopted.

The committee on Public Buildings and Property asked that the janitor be authorized to purchase weather stripes for the windows in the City Hall. Report was adopted.

Committee on Public Lighting reported that the Police Board had recommended the lighting of alleys in the rear end of business places, and recommended that the boards recommendation be adopted.

Alderman Prins objected, saying that the alleys were private property and should therefore not be lighted by the city. Alderman Slagh said that this was entirely a wrong attitude to take because when subscription lists were passed around, the businessmen were always asked 'to donate' and besides it cost the policeman $2 a week in flashlight batteries, which nearly equals the cost of electric light. Ald. Kammeraad said that each merchant should place a light in the rear of his own building. Ald. Prins objected to this recommendation, saying that if the alleys would be lighted as a protection to the police force, it would also be necessary to light the lumber yards on the southeast end. The question was then called for and the motion was lost.

Alderman Slagh is absolutely right in his contention. These lights should be put in by the city and maintained by the city. There is altogether too much false and pinhead economy going on in Holland. The businessmen who stand the brunt of nearly every project that comes up are entitled to this small consideration.

The Board of Health handed in a resolution considering certain privy vaults as nuisances to the city and asked for a recommendation that said vaults be ordered removed and connected up with sewer. Motion made and supported to refer the matter to a special committee of three, composed of Alderman Van der Ven, Vander Hill and Kammeraad.

The Board of Health handed in a resolution asking that the Livery Stable of Fred Boone be declared a nuisance to the city. The matter was referred to a special committee composed of Mayor protem Congleton, and Alderman Slagh and Prins.

It is thought that these old buildings will be ordered moved out, and that Fred Boone's livery will be replaced by a new one.

Thirty five gas tests for the past week showed an average of 614 B. T. U., the highest being 638 and the lowest 592. Three out of the 35 were below the standard of 600 B. T. U.

In the unfinished business a motion was made and supported to fill the vacancies in the Board of Supervisors caused by the resignations of county candidates, Simon Kleyn, Geo. Van Landegend and Gerrit Kooyers.

In the first ballot cast, J. Arendshorst and Simon Kleyn each received four votes. Four more ballots were cast, Arendshorst receiving five and Kleyn three in each case. A motion was then made and supported to adjourn. No selection was made.

On the face of it, this action seems that the council does not intend that the defeated county candidates who resigned shall be reinstated.

SAUGATUCK PLUMBERS GET HOLLAND JOBS

Terpetra & Sloten of Saugatuck have secured three plumbing jobs in Holland in competition with Holland city firms and will begin on Dr. Yonkers' job this week. The city of Holland requires a license before a plumber can work there, and on account of this firm's extensive experience they found no trouble in getting the necessary credentials. They have just finished a very nice piece of work for Otis O. Hauke.—Saugatuck Commercial Record.

The forces of evil never stay away from the polls.

Before anyone else says it we arise to observe that the Roosevelt party seems to have "beaten to a frazzle."

NEWS from the COUNTY

JENISON PARK

The Holland Interurban company Saturday began work on building a large culvert under the track at the creek just south along the track from Jenison Park. The culvert will be a long one running diagonally under the track and it will take about the rest of the fall to do the work.

The present culvert is short and is in poor condition. During a heavy rain the culvert can not take care of all the water and the water runs over the track. The new culvert will make the track safe in that place in any kind of weather.

NORTH SIDE

Thursday night a very interesting musical program was given at the Beechwood school under the leadership of Mrs. Wm. Burt and Mr. Gerrit Van Lente, director. The following numbers were rendered: "Star Spangled Banner," audience; prayer, Mr. De Vries; "Praise Ye, the Father," chorus; vocal solo, "Vesper prayer," Mrs. Maris; piano duet, "Damen Tanz," Olive Bertsch and A. Earl Kardux; "Only one Day," Ladies quartet, Mrs. Horning, Mrs. V. Van Dyke and Misses Baas; piano solo, Mrs. Woodward; vocal duet, "Flowers in May," Misses Baas; reading, Miss Cora De Witt; piano trio, "Dancing Cupids," Mrs. Burt, Olive Bertsch, A. Earl Kardux; "God is King," Chorus; "America," audience piano solo, "Dancing Sprites," Mrs. James Van Dyke; "Hark the Song," Ladies' Chorus; reading, Mr. De Vries; selection, Male quartet; "Home," Chorus; address, Henry Hoffs; selection, male quartet; "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," audience.

Miss De Witt proved herself an adept and held her audience, spell-bound while Mr. De Vries' humorous selections were enjoyed to the utmost.

Both the vocal and instrumental selections were greatly appreciated. Mr. Hoffs' address on the "History of Music" was very interesting.

Mrs. Burt certainly proved herself an artist at the piano.

The people of Beechwood greatly appreciated Mr. Van Lente's untiring efforts in directing the chorus.

Waukazo

Judge O. S. Cross returned four findings to the Ottawa County Clerk and in the matter of Henry DeKruif vs. H. Sprick, alleging nonpayment of a long running account in which the jury of the August term found no cause for action, a new trial was denied. Coburn & Misner were solicitors for the plaintiff and W. L. Lillie for the defendant.

The motion of H. A. Tripp, deposed school director of Robinson township, that his disposition by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fred L. Keeler, to be set aside, was denied.

AUTO TURNS OVER AND SLIDES DOWN THE EMBANKMENT.

John T. Vanden Bosch of Noordeloos, suffered a triple fracture of his arm and three broken ribs and a dislocated shoulder. Mrs. Vanden Bosch suffered injury to her back and a son of Mrs. Bishopp, also of Noordeloos, suffered face wounds Friday morning when the automobile driven by Mr. Vanden Bosch, struck a hole in the highway near Boone's river between Holland Zeeland and turned over. Vanden Bosch, who was at the wheel and Mrs. Vanden Bosch were pinned under the machine. Mrs. Bishopp and her son Henry extricated themselves and ran to the home of John Stegeman nearby for aid. The injured man and woman were released from the overturned machine and Dr. Masseling of Zeeland was hastily summoned. Mr. Vanden Bosch is in a serious condition at the Stegeman home while Mrs. Vanden Bosch's condition is not serious.

Just how the accident happened has not been determined. It is supposed the machine slipped when it struck a hole. The accident came near meaning death by drowning to the whole party. It went down the embankment to the river, turning completely over once. It slid so near the water's edge that one wheel was in the river. Had the machine turned over once more the occupants would have found themselves in the water.

A curious part of the accident is that Mrs. Bishopp and the baby of the Vanden Bosch's escaped injury entirely.

HOLLAND BOY GOES BACK TO IONIA FOR 14 YEARS

ARTHUR KIEFT TO SERVE OUT TIME OF OLD SENTENCE

Tells Holland Boys He Expects to Keep His Record Clean There

Arthur Kieft, the young Holland boy who was arrested here a few weeks ago on a burglary charge while he was out on parole from Ionia prison, has been returned to the state institution to serve out his original sentence of from seven and a half to 14 years. Kieft was taken in charge by a deputy warden from the Ionia institution Saturday and he is now back again in the old quarters where he spent many months before he was paroled. The burglary charge will not be pressed now since the former sentence takes effect automatically. Young Kieft has been lodged in the Ottawa County jail for several weeks ever since he was arrested in Holland on which occasion he tried to commit suicide in the Holland City jail.

Some 15 boys from Holland, who accompanied the Holland High school team to Grand Haven Saturday, paid Kieft a visit at the Ottawa county jail just before he left for Ionia. Young Kieft told them that he had made up his mind to make a good record at the State's institution. When he was at Ionia before he had a very good record, and that he expects will count somewhat now that he will be back there. After a year's stay at the institution he will again be eligible to make application for a parole, providing his record is good and he expects to live in such a way at the prison that he will have a good chance to be let out again.

JAY NICHOLS THINKS HIS TREE BORE MORE APPLES THAN ANY OTHER IN COUNTY

According to the statements of the apple growers of Ottawa county, all are trying to outdo the others in the production of apples per tree. Last week it was published in the newspapers that Jay Nichols had a tree of Wagners that produced 45 bushels, but the variety was Holland Queen instead of Wagners. When the pickers were about finished with their task, Mr. C. Hopkins, the mail-carrier, passed the farm and remarked that there were about two bushels left on the tree and so the statement of Mr. Nichols was that there were 45 bushels produced, but when the tree was entirely bare there were nine more bushels taken from it instead of two, hence this tree produced 52 bushels this season. From present reports this is the largest yield of any single tree in this county. Upon resuming the task of picking apples the pickers went to the tree to see if there were any blossoms showing to indicate any signs of another crop.

WAS BRAVE IN THE NETHERLANDS.

SAVED GIRL'S LIFE 12 YEARS AGO—OTTAWA MAN IS GIVEN $9,000

Hudsonville, Nov. 3—Oscar Diermann has become a firm believer in the ternal law of compensation, and that there still remains on this earth glowing examples of gratitude. About 12 year ago, Diermann saved a little girl from drowning in one of the canals in Holland and received for this trouble the thanks of the grateful parents, which was all he expected at the time. Friday he received a letter from Vallenga & Welzen, attorneys at Arnheim, Holland, saying that Aaron B. Vander Bolten of Arnheim was dead and that in the will he left Diermann was remembered to the extent of nearly $9,000 when reckoned in denominations of Uncle Sam's money. This comes very acceptable to Diermann at this time, as he was married only four months ago, and has purchased a farm on which he still owes nearly $5,000. This money, given as a reward of bravery, will place Diermann out of debt and be considerable besides.

How Ottawa County Voted In Choosing County Officers Tuesday

Below is given in tabulated form the returns from Ottawa county on Ottawa county candidates. The figures are given by townships and cities and they are complete with the exception of Olive township, in which complete returns were not made to the county clerk, and Chester township from which no returns have been received.

As the table shows the Republicans won out without a single exception. In most cases the pluralities were so large that there was no doubt from the first. Summarizing the figures given below, Hans Dykhuis wins re-election for sheriff over Fred Kamferbeek by 2295 votes; Jacob Glerum is elected county clerk over Mr. Harrison by 2145; Fred Gordon is chosen county treasurer over Hubbard by 1961; John F. Van Anrooy wins a third term as register of deeds over Clayton, democrat, by 2241; finally Louis H. Osterhaus wins the election over F. T. Miles by 1163. In each case the figures of Chester will modify the totals slightly.

FERRIS WINS AS GOVERNOR LEAD IS SO LARGE THAT MISSING PRECINCTS CANNOT CHANGE IT

Big Rapids Man Receives Endorsement In Spite of the Republican Landslide.

Detroit, Nov. 4.—Returns from 1161 out of 1,523 voting precincts in the state, including 134 Wayne county precincts this forenoon gave for governor: Ferris, 106,297; Osborn, 87,556 and Pattengill, 15,867.

The Republican congressmen and other state officials continued to increase their plurality.

Detroit, Nov. 4.—The predicted split in the Republican ticket yesterday came to pass and assured the re-election of Gov. Woodbridge N. Ferris, Democrat, according to the opinion today of local leaders in the various parties. With 1251 state precincts heard from, more than half of the total vote, the governor has a lead of more than 18,000.

This vote includes 134 precincts in Wayne county, which ran strong for Ferris, but there are still many local precincts to hear from and it is admitted they will only increase the Democratic candidate's lead even if former governor, Chase S. Osborn's followers out in the back sections of the state do come through solid for him as prophesied.

Former Gov. Chase S. Osborn, who ran against Ferris, was the only Republican defeated on the state ticket. His friends say his defeat was largely due to his activity in Progressive party ranks two years ago when he incurred the enmity of Republican leaders.

Michigan Republicans were also jubilant over their victory in the congressional election. On the face of the returns this morning they had won in every district except the First and Second, at the same time defeating Michigan's two Progressive congressmen who sought re-election. The second district was still in doubt early today with Samuel W. Beakes running a close race for re-election against Mark R. Bacon, Republican. Frank E. Dohemus, Democrat, was re-elected in the First.

New York, Nov. 4.—District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, Republican, was elected governor of New York today by an estimated plurality of 110,000 over Martin H. Glynn, Democrat, the incumbent winning a great victory which makes him nominal candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1916.

Wm. Sulzer, who was impeached and removed from office in the fall of 1913, running on the Prohibition and American party tickets, finished third, polling, it appears on the face of incomplete returns, slightly more than 100,000 votes. Frederick M. Davenport, Progressive, ran fourth with approximately 5,000 votes.

James W. Wadsworth, Republican, appears to have defeated J. W. Gerard, democrat, for the U. S. senatorship by about 45,000. Bainbridge Colby, Progressive was third with a vote that probably will not exceed 50,000.

REPUBLICANS WIN SEATS IN LEGISLATURE AND STATE SENATE

Kooyers and Hofma Win

Both the republican candidates won out in the race for representative from the first Ottawa district and state senator from the 23rd district comprising Ottawa and Muskegon counties. G. W. Kooyers was chosen as representative and Dr. Edward Hofma of Grand Haven was chosen state senator. Some precincts are missing in the count in each case and definite figures are not yet obtainable. However both have won out by safe margins.

OSTERHAUS DEFEATS HOLLAND MAN BY A MARGIN OF 1163 VOTES

Louis H. Osterhaus, republican candidate for prosecuting attorney defeated Fred T. Miles in Tuesday election by a margin of 1163. Altho the total vote of Osterhaus is so far ahead of the total vote of Mr. Miles, the defeat of the Holland man is not as complete as it would seem at first sight. He ran far ahead of the ticket on which he ran for the office. Practically all of the voters who voted for him had to split their ticket and cross the line to do so, which somewhat mitigates the defeat.

The vote of the county on the prosecutorship was as follows not including Chester:

	Miles	Osterhaus	Misner
Allendale	27	99	11
Sp. Lake	70	181	62
Crocker	5	133	29
Zeeland Town	81	92	31

Wright	10	63	111
Olive	106	67	39
Hol. Twp.	210	122	54
G. H. Twp.	9	42	22

The city of Holland as well as Holland township and Olive township stood by Fred T. Miles in the fight for the prosecutorship. In Holland Mr. Fred T. Miles had a lead over his republican rival of 105. Holland township proportionately did still better than Holland city, giving the Holland man a lead of 88 over Osterhaus. In Olive, Miles led Osterhaus by 39. Following is how the city of Holland voted on prosecutor by wards:—

	Miles	Osterhaus	Misner
1st ward	170	136	56
2nd ward	38	61	33
3rd ward	144	116	39
4th ward	126	153	67

The chorus of the Third Chr. Reformed church under the direction of their pastor have commenced practicing the Christmas cantata "Zion." Their first meeting was held Wednesday evening.

CARL MAPES IS RE-ELECTED TO CONGRESS AFTER VERY EASY FIGHT

Both Ottawa and Kent Counties Gave Him Substantial Leads

Congressman Carl E. Mapes received the endorsement of the republicans of the 5th Congressional district at the polls Tuesday when he was re-elected for a second term by a safe margin.

As had been expected Holland gave Mapes a large vote, his opponents making very little of a showing. The first ward gave Mapes 232. Taylor 80 and Ewing 40. In the second ward Mapes received 77, Taylor 40, Ewing 11. In the 3rd Mapes received 181 Taylor 63, and Ewing 44. The 5th ward second precincts gave Mapes 132 Taylor 85, and Ewing 26. The fifth ward, first precinct gave Mapes 181, Taylor 63, and Ewing 44. The 5th ward second precincts gave Mapes 132, Taylor 33, and Ewing 44.

Mr. Mapes made practically no canvass for his re-election, having remained on the job at Washington until congress adjourned a week before election. This was the strongest argument that was advanced for the re-election of the young congressman namely, that he stuck to business. His democratic opponent, Thaddeus B. Taylor, tried to minimize this argument by saying that it was nothing in Mr. Mapes' favor that he had merely done what he was paid to do, but the voters seemed to feel that his staying on the job was an indication of the character of the man. His record in the lower house during the past two years has been very satisfactory.

Mapes ran ahead of his Democratic opponent in every section of his district. Except in one or two hard and fast Democratic townships he carried every precinct in Kent county and every precinct in Ottawa county. Ottawa with three slow precincts missing gave Mapes 3,466, Taylor 1,428 and Ewing 512. This is a much smaller vote than was expected from Ottawa county.

Mapes' vote in Grand Rapids with two precincts to be heard from was 7,779. His Kent county township vote with two missing precincts was 3,415. Taylor polled 3,722 votes in the city and 2,291 in the townships. Ewing had 6,84 in the city and 357 in the townships of Kent.

Mapes plurality in the county therefore is 5,181 and this will still further boost the margin of victory.

CITY'S VOTE ON OSBORN AND FERRIS VERY NEARLY EVEN.

That Ferris and Osborn quite even divided the allegiance of the voters of the city of Holland was shown by the vote in the the present election. Osborn has the best of it, by 157 votes, but Mr. Ferris received a very handsome vote. Both men have spoken in Holland a number of times and both have warm friends here who admire them in other ways than as politicians. Pattengill also has many warm friends here, friends who admire him as an educator but who did not seem to look upon him as the best man for the governorship. Following is the vote in the city on the three men:—

	Osborn	Ferris	Pattengill
1st Ward	180	136	48
2nd Ward	58	62	11
3rd Ward	143	111	42
4th Ward	161	159	30
5th Ward
(1st Precinct)	145	111	38
(2nd Precinct)	117	68	39
Total	804	647	208

Contractors Dyke & Oosting have started the construction of two modern resort homes for H. M. Liesveld and James Leenhouts of Grand Rapids at Elmwood station, near Jenison Park. The homes will each cost between $3,500 and $4,000.

SEVERAL FACE JUDGE CROSS

Five Arraigned on Charges in Circuit Court Tuesday Afternoon; Two Plead Not Guilty.

Frank Kuite, this city, was arraigned in circuit court Tuesday on a charge of chicken stealing and entered a plea of not guilty. He was returned to jail in default of bail.

Peter Stykstra, also of this city, pleaded guilty to the charge of furnishing liquor to a minor. Arthur Kieft, who was returned to Ionia a few days ago, was named as correspondent. Stykstra was returned to jail to await trial.

Simon Jonkman, arraigned on a charge of being an habitual drunkard entered the plea of not guilty. Jonkman's case came from Justice Robinson's court, this city, where the defendant is alleged to have been suspended on a parole of one year.

George Scott, the man arrested at the time of the Berlin fair for the alleged theft of a concertina from a Bowery dance hall of that place, entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of grand larceny.

Frank Majeewski, held on charge of carrying concealed weapons pleaded not guilty. The defendant stated that he was unable to furnish attorney fees and asked the court to provide the same. The court refused to provide an attorney upon the grounds that Mrs. Majeewski was the owner of a farm in Robinson township.

The case of the people vs. Thomas Mahan was announced ready at the beginning of the session.

THE REV. JOHN MEETER, RE- CENT GRADUATE OF LOCAL SEMINARY DIED TUESDAY EVENING

The Rev. John Meeter, pastor of the Ebenezer Reformed church, died Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, aged 34 years and ten months.

He graduated from the local seminary in 1912 and served Reformed church at Decatur, Mich., for one and a half year and Ebenezer for ten months. He is survived by a wife and parents. The funeral will take place Friday at 9:30 a. m. in Ebenezer Reformed church. The Rev. G. J. Hekhuis will have charge of the service at the church. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. P. P. Cheff and addresses will be made by Dr. J. W. Beardslee, Sr., and Rev. Isaac Van Westenburg of Grand Rapids, a classmate. The pall bearers are Revs. M. E. Broekstra, G. Tyssse, B. Horman, G. J. Hekhuis and Henry Mollema.

The body was taken for burial to Corsica, S. D. yesterday.

BUSINESSMEN TO ENJOY SPREAD TOMORROW EVENING

The recent movement started by the Board of Trade and the Holland Businessmen's association to join forces and form a Chamber of Commerce will be followed up with a "Get Together" luncheon which is to be held in Hotel Holland Cafe on Friday evening of this week. Invitations to the luncheon have been sent out and the committees are very busy making preparations for the feast. The function is not to be an elaborate one although the refreshment committee will see to it that all are well taken care of.

Interest centers chiefly in the speakers and in the purpose of the meeting. The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Grand Rapids has been secured to give an address on how the commercial association of that city does its work. There will be a number of local speakers, who will give their views on the proposed amalgamation of the two associations in Holland.

Since the movement was started it has made considerable headway and many have expressed themselves as favoring it. It is expected that at the luncheon Friday night the sentiment will result in definite action in the near future.

INTERURBAN TRUCK LOADED WITH LUMBER TAKES JOUR- NEY ON ITS OWN HOOK

Car Runs Away

A runaway interurban car is a rare sight, but it was a sight enjoyed by many people along the Saugatuck Interurban line Monday. The car was loaded with lumber and it ran a distance of nearly two miles before it decided to stop.

The car was standing on the track near the Williams place where a new home is being built. Some workmen tried to move it to a spot nearer the house. They started the car but were unable to stop it. The grade is downward there toward Saugatuck and when the car had once started it put on speed as it went along. It finally came to a stop near the Tourists' Home in Saugatuck. It so happened that no other car was on the track so that no harm was done.

CHIMNEY SWEEP GOES TO POOR HOUSE

Fred Griffin, better known as "Fred the Glimp" was taken to the Ottawa Poor farm Monday by Alderman B. Slaght.

Griffin has been supporting himself for several years doing odd jobs about town. Recently he fell from the hay loft of the Kuite barn and suffered injuries that made him completely helpless for the time being. He has no means of support and the county will take care of him until he regains his health.

CHICAGO EDITOR IS GRATEFUL FOR PART HOLLAND TOOK IN MOVEMENT.

James Keeley, editor of the Chicago Herald, the newspaper that originated the Christmas Ship movement in the United States, has written to Mr. J. J. Cappon a letter of appreciation of the contributions made to the cargo by the people of Holland. Mr. Keeley says in his letter:

CHICAGO HERALD
November 2, 1914

John J. Cappon,
268 Maple Avenue.,
Holland, Michigan.

My dear Mr. Cappon:—

Permit me to make most grateful acknowledgement for the generous gifts contributed by the people of Holland. They form a splendid addition to the Christmas ship cargo.

Kindly present my personal thanks to all our friends who co-operated in this good work.

With kind regards, I am Faithfully,
J. KEELEY.

MEMBERS OF POLICE BOARD GO ON RECORD AS BEING AGAINST SALOON LUNCHES

Cannot Prevent Practice But Hope To Discourage It By This Action.

That the Police Board will frown upon a saloon being converted into a semi-restaurant or eating house was demonstrated Monday when Police Commissioner Ben Mulder told the Board that some of the drinking places in the city were now serving lunches and soups for which the customer paid a small sum when purchasing drinks. At the meeting Monday night Commissioner Mulder said: "The fact has been made known to me that lunches are being served with drinks in some of the saloons in this city. While these men may be strictly within the law and while this board may be powerless to do anything in the matter, still I believe this body should put its stamp of disapproval upon the saloon lunching. A few years ago the state passed a law prohibiting free lunches in saloons, this law was put on the statute books for a purpose, namely to prevent the lunches to act as an attraction and an inducement for people to enter these places. I think the serving of lunches at less than cost is only a subterfuge to evade the law and weakens the object for which it was intended. The Chief of Police tells me that the saloon men who are going into the saloon lunch business are some of the new men, and that those who have been in the liquor business in this city before will not consider any such proposition. I feel that every saloon man should live up to the spirit of the law as well as the letter, and while this board may not be able to accomplish anything by legal measures, still their discouragement of this system will no doubt stop it immediately. However, if not, it certainly will have a great bearing on whether such an individual would get a license in the future, and therefore, I ask that this action be taken."

Thereupon Commissioner Brusse moved that the board be placed on record as disapproving of lunches in saloons, which motion was seconded by Commissioner Van Dommelen and unanimously passed by the board. There is an ordinance in this city now practically a dead letter, which requires licenses from hotels and restaurants at a cost of $5.00 a year, but this law has long since been in the pigeon-hole. No doubt it could be resurrected to curb the saloon lunch business, but it would at the same time strike the legitimate eating houses in the city.

WATCH WHITMAN

The most striking feature of the elections returns was the remarkable run made by Charles S. Whitman in New York. His election by a plurality that indicates a landslide toward him means much more than the mere carrying of a state election, because the governor of New York is always a presidential possibility and in Whitman's case the old rule is peculiarly potent. He has won in the face of Mr. Roosevelt's emphatic opposition and he has carried with him a senatorial candidate against Mr. Wilson's urgent request.

The man who could win the Empire state in the face of powerful influences such as these, and especially against the fight by Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Wilson, will bear watching.

Republicans all over the country have been looking longingly for a new figure who could lead them in 1916, and the New York election may have developed what they sought.

Keep your eye on Charles S. Whitman. He will be heard of yet. If he makes as good a governor as he has made a district attorney he will stand out vividly in the presidential possibilities of 1916.

CAPITAL AND LABOR

It is curious how the abuse of words tends to bias our reasoning. The misuse of the term "capital" is responsible for no end of mischief.

In economic literature and every day speech it is common to use the phrase "labor and capital" as if the two were antagonistic—opposed one to another.

As a natural result all sympathy veers to the side of labor and a false issue is created.

Why?

Because labor is human and capital is material, and when the impression is conveyed that labor is arrayed against capital, sympathy inevitably flows to the human side.

Capital is simply wealth used to produce more wealth. It is at the service of anybody and everybody; capital would exist just the same in a socialistic community.

Labor may have a quarrel with employers, whoever they may be, but not with capital.

Labor and capital are required to produce wealth, just as a man and a spade are required to dig, and there is no more antagonism between labor and capital than between a man and the spade which is his capital.

WARMEST OCTOBER IN 14 YEARS

The month of October was the warmest October in 14 years, according to the report of the weather bureau. The mean temperature was 55 degrees as against 50 degrees for the months for the past 33 years. October 1879 with an average of 58 degrees and October, 1900 with an average of 57 degrees are the only Octobers which were warmer in that period of years.

The highest temperature during the recent month of October was 76 degrees and the lowest was 29.

CHURCHES ARE MAKING BIDS FOR SEVERAL PASTORS IN THIS VICINITY

Overisel and Graafschap Ministers In Trio

The Rev. J. H. Geerlings of Oakland is one of a trio of ministers from which the Christian Reformed church at Manhattan, Mont., will select one to whom a call will be extended to become their pastor. The Rev. T. Vander Ark of Drenthe is one of a trio from which the First Christian Reformed church at Patterson, N. J., will select one to whom a call will be extended. The Rev. M. Van Vesselom of Graafschap is one of a trio of ministers from which the Central Ave. Chr. Reformed church at Holland will select one to whom a call will be extended. The Rev. R. B. Ref. church at Seely, Ia.

COMMITTEE WORKING HARD TO SECURE BOULEVARD LIGHTING SYSTEM

The committees of the Holland Businessmen's association in charge of the movement to secure boulevard lights for 8th street and River avenue are working harder than ever on this proposition. They have had blanks printed which are to be used in securing pledges from the property owners along the two streets. These blanks are now ready and about today the committees will begin the work of seeing the property owners and getting promises from them to support the venture financially.

CENTURY CLUB PRESENTED THREE ACT COMEDY AT W. L. C. HALL MONDAY

Club's Talent At Its Best In Play And In Musical Program

Monday night was guest night at the meeting of the Century club and many of the members entertained friends. The gathering was held in the Woman's Literary Club Hall. The feature of the program was a 3-act comedy, "Wanted, a Chaperone" by Paul Leicester Ford. This number on the program was in charge of Mrs. L. M. Thurber and Mr. H. G. Post, and the epilogue was spoken by Mrs. Thurber. The play was ably presented by members of the club, the following being the cast of characters.

Lydia Greenough, Miss Marguerite Diekema; Mrs. Traverse, Lydia's aunt, Mrs. C. H. McBride; Moreland, Mrs. Traver's servant, Mr. Walton Sutphen; Allen Murchinson, a bachelor Mr. H. G. Post; Richards, Mr. Murchinson's butler, Mr. John Diekema; Monica, Mr. Murchinson's housekeeper, Mrs. J. G. Sutphen; The Policeman, Mr. C. J. Dregman; Mr. Traverse, Lydia's uncle, Mr. C. H. McBride.

The musical program was in charge of Prof. J. B. Nykerk. The following numbers were given:

Vocal duet—"Under the Greenwood Tree" (Words by Shakespeare) (Liza Lehmann) Mrs. M. J. Hoffman, Prof. J. B. Nykerk. Vocal Solo—An Irish Folk-song (Arthur Foote) Mrs. M. J. Hoffman. Piano solo—"Magic Fire Scene," from "Walkure" (Wagner-Brassin), Mrs. H. Robbins. Quartet—"Tis Thy Wedding Morning," (Cowen), Miss Browning, Mrs. Hoffman, Dr. McCreary, Prof. Nykerk. Vocal solo—"Zigeunerlied," (Bizet), Mrs. Hoffman.

FOOTBALL DOPE MAKES THINGS LOOK BLACK FOR HOLLAND HIGH

Harold Lage sprained his ankle while practicing football with the Holland High school team yesterday afternoon and he will be out of the game Saturday with Grand Rapids Union High school at that city.

Coach Drew is putting the team through a strenuous week of practice with the hope of giving the Union team a good run at any rate. According to dope Holland should get swamped by Union. Union defeated Muskegon. Holland tied Benton Harbor and Muskegon defeated Benton Harbor by over 50 points. In spite of these odds a good representation of Holland rooters will accompany the team and a close game is predicted.

Incomplete Returns Indicate They Did Not Pass

Incomplete returns indicated the defeat of the constitutional amendments authorizing the legislature to bond the state for road building and also the defeat of the amendment of freeing fraternal insurance companies from control by the state insurance department. The returns on the other two amendments are still too meager to indicate whether they passed or not.

JUDGE CROSS ORDERS HAZEL AVENUE AT Waukazoo RE-OPENED

The controversy between the Waukazoo Resort Company, Waukazoo property owners and E. H. Golds over the closing of Hazel avenue at Waukazoo resulted in a victory for the property owners Saturday morning when Judge O. S. Cross handed down a decision ordering Hazel avenue re-opened. The decision came after a week's deliberation on the part of the circuit judge, the attorneys for both parties in the controversy having submitted lengthy briefs covering a couple of score of typewritten pages.

As a result of Judge Cross' decision Hazel avenue will remain the outlet of the interior resort lots to Black Lake on the Holland side. The property owners made the claim that the closing of the avenue would damage their property to the extent of ten thousand dollars.

The later part of this week Harry Knipe, manager of the Central Garage will drive the Cummings automobile, which turned turtle with seven occupants last Saturday night near Hudsonville, will be taken to the Jackson Automobile plant in Jackson, Mich., to have an entire new body, a new radiator and several minor parts put on. Nick Hoffstein and Lee Cummings will accompany him.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS MAY SUPPLY LIGHT TO OUTSIDERS

Acting on requests that have come in recent years from people living outside the city, especially from Montello Park the Board of Public Works has laid down a set of general rules that will govern the supplying of electric lights from the city power plant to places outside of the city. These rules are that the revenue derived from granting the service during the first year must equal the cost of putting in the system. To insure this the residents must agree to deposit an equal amount to the cost of the system. The cost of light will be about 50% more than the people in the city are paying.

The deposit will insure the prompt monthly payment of light bills. Central Park people also hope to get light but the cost to them will be larger. It is now up to the non-residents.

PRACTICALLY EVERY VOTER SIGNED PETITION TO SPLIT FIFTH WARD INTO TWO WARDS

Petition Will Be Sent to Legislature For Ratification; Plan Under Way for Some Time

If the people of the Fifth ward can have their say, no longer will that ward be known as the "bloody fifth" on election night, but it will be the Fifth and Sixth wards of the City of Holland. Alderman Steketee and Alderman Vander Hill of that ward have been busy for some time circulating petitions to have the 5th ward divided into two wards. There are some ten petitions being circulated and it is understood that practically every voter in the ward has signed the document. It is very probable that the petition was submitted to the council soon. The council will send it to the legislature and there is little doubt but that the legislature will act favorably, as the fifth ward is much larger than any other ward in the city and is twice as large as some wards.

The division line of the ward—if the division is made—will be on Central avenue, the same as the division of the first and second precincts of that ward are now. The First precinct will be the Fifth ward and the second will be the Sixth ward.

For some time the dividing of the Fifth ward into two wards has been under discussion in the city but until now no definite action was taken. When the new charter was submitted to the people this subject came up for a lively discussion among the men engaged in drawing up the charter but there were not enough in favor of making the change at that time.

MRS. J. VANDER VEEN OF GRAND RAPIDS DIES.

Mrs. Minnie Vander Veen, 55 years old, wife of J. Vander Veen, teller of the Kent State Bank died Sunday morning in Grand Rapids. She is survived by her husband and four children, Mrs. C. De Boer, E. C. Vander Veen, Detroit, Mrs. Lucile Vander Veen, Grand Rapids; and Mrs. W. L. Melis, Pueblo, Colorado. Mrs. Vander Veen was a daughter of G. Slenk of Holland, Michigan. The funeral services were held at the residence, 6 Oakley court, Tuesday at 10 a. m. The body was taken to Holland for burial accompanied by the relatives who left on a special interurban car at 12:15. The body arrived at the Lincoln Avenue switch at 1:30. From that place the carriages went to the Pilgrim Home cemetery where Dr. A. Vennema conducted a short service.

CONFIDENCE MAN THAT DE- FRAUDED LOCAL SEXTON GETS PRISON SENT- ENCE IN ILLINOIS

The clever confidence man who sometime ago defrauded Sexton Van der Water of the Pilgrim Home Cemetery to the extent of about $35 by giving him a bogus check for some lots was found guilty of several similar offenses in other parts of the country and now begun a prison sentence of from one to ten years, imposed upon him by a Pontiac, Illinois judge. He gave his name as David C. Herbst. He may be arrested for other jobs after he has finished his present sentence at Joliet.

OTTAWA MAN ONCE IMPRISON- ED FOR SHAKING HANDS WITH EMMA GOLD- MAN

That Miss Ema Goldman would take the trouble to stop at Hudsonville and walk about a mile to visit an old man is not generally known but it is a fact. She goes to the home of William Buwaldo, a man who, while a soldier in the U. S. Army, was sentenced to a long term of imprisonment for shaking hands with this famous preacher of the gospel of no government. Through the efforts of Miss Goldman Congressman Diekema secured a pardon for Buwaldo from President Roosevelt. She then offered Buwaldo a purse of $1,000 but he refused it. Now Miss Goldman seldom comes to Michigan without visiting the man who served a prison sentence to shake her hand.

The Junior class of Hope College enjoyed a masquerade Thursday evening at the home of one of the members, Miss Christine Van Raalte, living a half mile east of the city. The class left the city in three divisions, the first party blazing the trail with confetti. The trail led thru the graveyard, where the parties were held up for an inspection by a score of grewsome ghosts. The program was arranged nicely to the occasion. The refreshments were of a Halloween nature. A fine time was reported by all. Prof. and Mrs. Hoffman were the guests of the evening.

A prohibition class has been organized at Hope College. The class numbers about twenty. Prof. Wichers has consented to instruct the pupils. The text-books to be used are "Social Welfare and the Liquor Problem." As the books have arrived, the class will begin its work immediately meeting every Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Is Interpreter of The Music of the Magyars

Helen Ware Who Will Appear at Carnegie Hall on November 11

Helen Ware who appears on Wednesday, November 11 on the Hope College Lecture Course is among America's greatest violinists. Miss Ware is one of the very few who are able to interpret Stovitt-Hungarian music at all and she does it so successfully as to win praise from the most noted Hungarian artists. An indication of her standing among American musicians is the fact that the editor of Musical magazines such as "Musical America", the "Violin World" consider her the best authority in her line in the United States. Helen Ware's music will appeal to everyone and a treat is in store for Holland's music lovers. Tickets can be obtained as usual at Hardie's and the box office. Although the concert is of very superior order the price of tickets will remain 50c and 35c. Some very desirable seats for a musical are still open.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER
THIRTY FIVE YEARS AGO

Mr. G. Winters and family arrived back from Iowa on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Winters reports things as rather mixed out there. He says that farmers mostly run in debt to such an extent that a succession of failures of crops, by grasshoppers and other causes, makes poverty and ruination stare many in the face. The condition, of course, applies mostly to those who started in with out money. On the whole, he thinks, Michigan farmers are much better off, and he would prefer 40 acres around here to 200 in the region he recently came from.—Editor, News.

—Land today in Iowa is worth $200 an acre and the men who stuck have become wealthy.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

A big carrot was brought to our office this week by Mr. K. De Witt, of Fillmore. It measured ten and one half inches in circumference at the largest place.

Delusions:—The Charlie Odell is not the "hottest" republican in the city; that F. G. Churchill is not the best political organizer; that Dr. Yates is not the biggest, republican in this part of the country; that Alderman M. W. Rose is not the most earnest democrat; that Alderman L. T. Kanter is not the best worker and wire puller; that De Hollander is not an independent, democratic journal; and that every voter in this city will feel perfectly healthy next Wednesday morning.

The Republican demonstration of last Wednesday evening was the biggest event of this campaign in this city. The procession was the largest and most elaborate and consisted of first, fifty mounted knights bearing torches, followed by the Zeeland Cornet Band which headed the Blaine & Logan Club of this city and the "Juveniles" and the Hope College Republicans. Then came the drum corp heading the Blaine & Logan Club, of Spring Lake, who were about fifty strong. The entire number of torches in line, as counted by a spectator, was two hundred and ninety-two. The whole line was one blaze of light and the frequent showers of rockets and roman candles added much to the display. At the hall, as the whole line were massed before it, various colored lights were burned and the procession presented a grand appearance. The meeting was addressed by Hon. Geo. A. Farr and G. W. McBride of Grand Haven spoke to the vast assemblage on the political issues of the campaign and suggested their subjects in a masterly and thoroughly able manner. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity with attentive listeners who were charmed by the oratorical effects of the two "black" men from our neighboring city.

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

It is remarkable—says Mr. Diekema, who during the campaign now closed has visited various town and localities in this state to hear the many encouraging words spoken everywhere by the commercial travelers about Holland, its growth, its commerce, and its prospects.

The old Koenigsberg place on Eighth Street has been leased by R. N. Jones, who will run it as a boarding house.

President Kollen is in receipt of the gratifying information that the first installment of the library of Hon. N. F. Graves, of Syracuse, N. Y., consisting of over 600 volumes, has been forwarded, and is on the way to this place. It will be remembered that in addition to the beautiful building named after this generous donor, Mr. Graves also presented Hope College with his extensive library. With the letter conveying the above was also a check for $300 to be used in the purchase of such books of recent publication, as in the opinion of President Kollen would be most useful and desirable.

EARLY DUTCH COLONY HISTORY

Judge Cahill of Lansing Tells of Early Days in Holland City.

I have been asked to furnish a brief account of my sojourn in Holland, sixty years ago, when "the colony" from Old Holland was laying the foundation of what has since become one of the most prosperous settlements ever made by emigrants in Michigan.

In the winter of 1853 and 1854, my father, being in poor health, sold his farm on Grand Prairie, about three miles west of Kalamazoo, and began to look about for a new home. Before deciding where he would settle, my mother wanted to visit her two brothers, Drs. Wells R. and Charles P. Marsh, who were living in Holland, practicing their profession.

Accordingly, my father and mother drove in a sleigh from Kalamazoo to Holland for a visit. It is easy to imagine that the journey, though for the most part through a wilderness, was an easy and pleasant one in the winter. As a result of this my father and mother decided to make Holland their future home.

They returned to Kalamazoo to settle up their affairs, packed their household goods upon wagons, and, early in April of 1854, started upon what we children, two boys and four girls, regarded as a long and venturesome journey. The family rode in an old ark of a carriage, very comfortable on good roads, but not well suited for spring travel over the kind of road we had in the then sparsely settled portions of Michigan. I was a boy of ten, and I remember that I preferred to walk or to ride perched upon one of the wagons with goods, rather than to be smothered in the family ark. Our first day's journey was to Allegan, where we were hospitably entertained at the home of Mr. Jacob B. Baily, who had a sawmill at Holland and whose acquaintance, I assume, my parents had made on their visit a few months before.

I remember very little of the incident of our stay in Allegan, beyond the fact that Mr. Baily had two daughters whom I thought very pretty and whom I afterward knew as charming women. One of them married a Mr. Breese, for many years a successful and highly respected lawyer in Kalamazoo. A young sister married Mr. George H. House a very successful insurance man who lived some years in Lansing and later in Saginaw.

I do not recall that we had any difficulties with the roads until we left Allegan. From there on and until we drew near to Holland the settlements were few and the road ran through an almost unbroken wilderness. Much of the way it was only recently cut out, and the marks of travel wound in and out among the stumps of giant trees whose roots, the size of a man's leg, made travel a slow and tedious process. Then there were deep holes where the goods wagons were mired, and long corduroy stretches over marsh and swamp. I do not know how many hours we were on the road, but I remember it was long after dark before we reached Holland, about twenty-five miles from Allegan.

My father had rented a house in which, in a few days, we were settled, for our new home. My boyish recollections of it is that it was quite a sizable house, with a hall running through it from south to north. On the east side of the hall was a parlor and bedroom, on the west side a dining room, kitchen and bedroom. The roof was quite steep and the bedrooms, on the second floor were open to it. The partitions between the rooms were of rough unplanned boards, standing on end, and reached only about seven feet, and it was a favorite amusement for us children to toss our shoes from one room to the other, over these partitions, regardless of where or upon whom the missile would fall.

Our house was on what was then and still is the main street of the straggling village, which, as I remember, ran east and west. If so, the house fronted south and in front and rear there were comfortable porches where, during the summer, the family generally gathered. At the back of the house was a good size garden which we soon had planted with all kinds of vegetable for our own use. I remember that at the foot of this garden we discovered a spring of delicious soft water, a novelty to us. This we housed in and from it obtained our family supply.

Our house was located a short distance, rather less than a block, west of "the corners," which I can best describe by telling how they were occupied. On the corner east of us was a residence, then occupied by Manly D. Howard, and with whom, when we first reached them, I think, both my uncles, Drs. Wells R. and Charles P. Marsh, boarded. Directly across the side street to the east was Henry D. Post's store. Across the main street south was Pfanstiehl's general store.

The last time I was in Holland there was little left to identify my old home. The house itself had gone and on the lot where it stood was a business block. On the corner where Mr. Howard lived was a fine block occupied by a bank. (Holland City State Bank).

There were three general stores at that time, Pfanstiehl's, Plugger's and I am not sure about the name of the other. It was on the north side of Main street, several blocks further east.

There were two flourishing sawmills, Bailey's which was at the east end of the lake and had in connection with it a three or four story, rude, unpainted frame structure, known as the "boarding house," in which his employees lived, and on the south side of the lake, about half a mile from our house, was White's mill, if I remember right present site of the West Michigan furniture factory.

The only newspaper was printed in the Dutch language and was edited and published by H. Doesburg. Mr. Doesburg also kept a small school for instruction in the Dutch language which I attended for a time.

There was a large frame building standing on the square where I think Hope college now stands, in which a Mr. Taylor, with one or more assistants, had a school for instruction in English. Whether it was a public or private school, I do not know (this was the beginning of the Holland academy, now Hope college), but I remember Mr. Taylor very well. He was an elderly man, with a long gray beard and a severe aspect. I know I stood in great awe of him, for he greatly resembled the prophet Elijah whose picture was in our family Bible. I think he closed his last term in June 1854, and was succeeded as principal by a Presbyterian minister, whose name I can not recall. He was, I think, American born, although he may have been of Dutch descent. Associated with him in the school, was Mr. James A. Ostrom, who was a favorite teacher of mine. I have a small copy of Pilgrim's Progress which he gave me as a reward of merit in school. At least it was so inscribed on the front leaf, under his own signature. As a further mark of his confidence, although I was but eleven years old, he used occasionally to assign me to hear some of his younger classes in reading. I doubt whether that was a prudent thing to do. He is, however, long past criticism in this world.

Years afterward, in Kalamazoo, at his house, I made the acquaintance of his niece, whom I afterward married, and we last month celebrated the forty seventh anniversary of our marriage.

My doctor uncles had a practice extending over a wide territory, including all the settlements of "the colony," Zeeland, Graafschap, Overisel, Holland, etc. I used often to ride with one of them on these trips and never failed to go in at places where he called, because I soon learned that the hospitable house frau was sure to have something put away that she knew would please a hungry boy. It was there that I permitted myself to drink coffee, which I was not permitted to do at home. That was always ready, or quickly made ready, whenever a visitor called.

Speaking of hospitality, I have never since seen that virtue better exemplified than in the old colony days. I remember an old man and his wife who kept a bakery on the corner, near where Mr. Diekema's first law office was when I was last in Holland. There was a small shop in front and the bakery and living rooms were at the back. We boys used to play about their corner a good deal, and the popularity was due largely to the fact that the good old lady (Mrs. J. Binnekant,) was likely, at almost any time to bring out a batch of freshly baked cookies for the boys who happened to be there. I never remember going into the house of one of my boy friends without getting a treat of some kind from the good mother.

One other thing impressed itself indelibly on my recollection, and that was the immaculate cleanliness of the houses. The native American in those days had grown up in a crude and somewhat haphazard way. He had never been trained nor had the time to put the polish on himself or his surroundings. The American housewife cleaned house occasionally, and generally to the disgust of her husband; but those Hollanders had just come from an older and denser civilization, where cleanliness and orderliness were necessities, and when they brought their habits into the wilderness they shone like a lamp set in a dark place.

There were only a few native America families in Holland in those days. Henry D. and Hoyt G. Post, Manly D. Howard and his family, Dr. Wells R. Marsh and his family, Dr. Charles P. Marsh, a bachelor, the teachers I have alluded to; and our own family are the only ones I can recall who actually lived there. I think the sawmill owners were Americans but lived elsewhere. I know Mr. Bailey continued to live in Allegan.

Soon after we settled there Mr. Howard and my father formed a partnership and started in to build a sawmill on the north side of Black lake, where they had bought considerable land. They planned also to lay out a town and build up a settlement there. They had the mill well under way in August when my father was suddenly taken ill, and on the 3rd day of that month, 1854, he passed away.

My mother was thus left with six children, the eldest being less than thirteen, and with very little except the wild land in which my father had invested the money realized from the sale of his farm. It can be easily realized that this sudden loss of our protector and guide was a terrible tragedy to all of us. My mother's father and mother and several of her brothers and sisters lived in Kalamazoo, and so, after a few months of loneliness, she determined to go back to her old home, which she did in the spring of 1855.

I will conclude these hastily written lines with a brief reference to the remarkable man who founded "the colony," and who, when it was there was and continued to be so long as he lived, the first citizen. I refer, of course, to Dominie Van Raalte. In the sixty years that have passed since I knew him three generations have been born and have grown or are growing to manhood and womanhood in "the colony." Most of these never saw the "Founder," and only know him by tradition. He was a great man, whom everybody who came within the circle of his influence respected and loved. He had a gentle but a most persuasive personality. He was a gentleman of the old school; but he was more than that, he was one who loved his fellow-men and labored unselfishly for their good. May his memory be forever kept green in the colony which he founded, and which has done so much for the welfare of this state of their adoption!

T. R. TELLS A REAL "TEDDY BARE" STORY

Colonel Roosevelt's visit to Bay City recently resulted in two things: he made a speech and he told a real "Teddy Bare" story.

H. Clifford Buck, a young shoemaker of Bay City, was one of the first to greet the Colonel at that time.

"Do you remember the Potomac?" he asked.

The Colonel knitted his brows. He was trying to recall Buck.

"Are there any ladies around?" said the Bay City man.

"By George," the Colonel laughed, "I remember now."

In 1906, when Colonel Roosevelt was President, he went for a stroll one afternoon along the Potomac, accompanied by Ambassador Jusserand of France. The President wanted a swim. So did the diplomat.

"Are there any ladies around?" shouted the Colonel to two young men passing by in a canoe. One of them was Buck.

"No," replied the canoeists.

The Colonel undressed and in real "Teddy Bare" fashion entered the water. The Ambassador did likewise.

"Except," said the Bull Moose chief, in relating the story for the first time at Bay City, "the French diplomat wore gloves. He started to paddle around before I noticed them."

"Why the gloves?" I asked. "Well, you see, some ladies might suddenly appear," he said, "and—and, well, I want to at least have something on."

The Rev. D. R. Drukker, pastor of the 3rd Chr. Reformed church of Kalamazoo will conduct the services at the 14th St. Christian Reformed church of Holland, November 8.

The Rev. R. L. Haan Bids Adieu to Local Congregation Sunday

Two exceptionally large audiences gathered in the Central Ave. Christian Reformed church Sunday afternoon and evening when the Rev. R. L. Haan preached his farewell sermons, in the afternoon to his own congregation and in the evening to the general public. The services in the afternoon were marked by the fact that ten children were baptised and six united with the church on confession of faith. Mr. Haan gave two touching farewell addresses. Sunday the family made preparations for leaving for Grand Rapids.

Mr. Haan presided over the congregational meeting which was held Sunday evening for the purpose of calling a pastor from the trio recently nominated: Rev. H. Beets, Rev. J. Groen and Rev. M. VanVessem. He left for his new field in Grand Rapids late Monday night and will enter upon his pastorate of the Grandville Avenue church by preaching his inaugural sermon next Sunday.

It Really Does Relieve Rheumatism

Everybody who is afflicted with Rheumatism in any form should by all means keep a bottle of Sloan's Liniment on hand. The minute you feel pain or soreness in a joint or muscle, bathe it with Sloan's Liniment. Do not rub it. Sloan's penetrates almost immediately right to the seat of pain, relieving the hot, tender swollen feeling and making the part easy and comfortable. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.—Advertisement.

FORMER HOLLAND BOY INJURED SPINE IN FALL IN A FACTORY IN GRAND RAPIDS AND DIES

Ray Hoogenstein, former Holland boy, died in Grand Rapids Monday at the home of his mother, 633 Lettler street. He is the son of the late James Hoogenstein of this city. The funeral was held yesterday at the home in Grand Rapids.

Death was caused by a very peculiar accident in Roden Tannery, where Hoogenstein suffered a fall which injured his spine. He fell over a wheelbarrow and struck his back on another machine. Although the best medical skill was brought to bear to save the boy, he died six weeks after the accident.

He is survived by a mother, three sisters, and by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hoogenstein, 76 West Seventh street. Hoogenstein was 22 years of age. His brother died at the age of 16 last April, and his father a little over a year ago.

The Harvey Watson, owned by Chief of Police Frank Van Ry was pressed into the fishing service again Monday. The season opens November 1, after a 20 day closed season. During the closed season the Harvey Watson was thoroughly overhauled at the Manistee dry docks.

CENTRAL AVENUE CHURCH DECIDE TO CALL REV. JOHANNES GROEN.

The Rev. Johannes Groen, pastor of the East Street Christian Reformed church of Grand Rapids, was extended a call by the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church of this city at the congregational meeting Monday. The call was extended on the first ballot, the choice being so nearly unanimous that it was not considered necessary to take another vote. The other pastors on the trial were the Rev. H. Beets of Grand Rapids and the Rev. M. Van Vessel of Graafschap.

Mr. Groen is one of the best known pastors of the Christian Reformed denomination. The church he is serving at present is the largest in that denomination in America, the Central avenue church being the second largest. Before he occupied his present charge, Mr. Groen was pastor of the First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland. He acquired considerable notoriety about two years ago by coming out publicly in favor of woman suffrage. He is a forceful pulpit orator and a man of progressive ideas.

Maude Adams at Powers' Theater, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Matinee and night, Wednesday, November 11. A great double bill—"The Legend of Leonora" and "The Ladies' Shakespeare."

It is pleasing to announce the coming of Maude Adams to Powers' theater, Grand Rapids, Mich.

If the mention of this apparently frail, but tremendously strong personality calls to mind the Scotch dramatist, J. M. Barrie, it is all right, for it is in one of his plays that she is to be seen. Author and actress have been closely associated together in their work of late years that the mention of one naturally calls to mind the figure of the other.

The new Barrie play in which Miss Adams is to exercise her skill and charm is "The Legend of Leonora." She gave the work early last winter in New York and it did something more than please the critics—it pleased the public and so remained all season.

From the variety of the plots of his plays Barrie is undoubtedly a dreamer and one is certain of it after witnessing "The Legend of Leonora,"

For his heroine he takes an old-fashioned young woman who is a blend of many types. She is combination of all the women that you have ever met or studied. She is charming, lovable and exhibits the usual feminine tendency to see but one side of a subject. Leonora was in a railway carriage with her little daughter. A beast of a man opened the window. The day was raw and the child is not strong. The man refused to shut the window and so Leonora pushed him off the car, he falling to his death. The play is based on this tragic episode and in its workings out the boasted courage and strength of man in face of woman's charm and attractiveness is proved to be a myth. Leonora throws herself on the chivalry of the Judge, jury and prosecutors. She feels she did no wrong. She is so child-like and irresponsible. She dominates the proceedings at her trial and everybody is anxious to commit perjury so as to save her despite her honesty. When the jury retires she insists on accompanying its members so that no mistake might be made. Of course she is acquitted. The humor of the courtroom scenes is double edged, and there is some irony and a little pathos. The play is in three acts and opens at a dinner party. The role of Leonora is one of the best that Miss Adams has had. In her company are Arthur Lewis, Charles Hammond, Morton Selton, R. Peyton Carter, Fred Tyler, Wallace Jackson, Elise Clarens and Leonora Chippendale. The play is effectively staged.

In addition to "The Legend of Leonora" Miss Adams will also give "The Ladies' Shakespeare" which is in one act, contains three scenes and is described as "being one woman's reading of a notorious work edited by J. M. Barrie." This little big play is supposed to be a modernized version of "The Taming of the Shrew."

Van Putten and Gilbert Make Boys
Toe The Mark

In order to insure cleanliness and neatness among the campers. Mr.
Van Putten, Mr. Gilbert and the officers of the day inspected each tent every morning at 8:30 when the boys are in camp. Here is one of the incidents which occurred recently:

Mr. Van Putten: "Good morning" Scout: "mornin'" (forgets to salute).
Mr. V. P. (to Mr. Gilbert): "Take off a half point for not saluting, and five points for not having bed made neatly." (To Scout): "Have you brushed your teeth?"
Scout: "Yes, sir."

Mr. V. P.: "Did you say your prayers last night?"

Scout: "Yes—no!—well—I tried to—but—talked so much I lost track."
Mr. V. P.: (to Mr. G.) "Five off!"
(to scout): "let me see your hands."
Mr. V. P.: "Two off for dirty hands." "Did I see you out of your tent after taps?"

Scout: "Yes, sir, I had a stomach-ache on account of eating that cheese, so I got a drink."
Mr. V. P.: "Why didn't you put in a sick call?"

Scout: "Because I didn't like cas-er-ol or quinine pills!"
Mr. V. P.: "All right." (They salute.)

Rapids will carry with him a token of esteem from the consistory of the local church of which he has been pastor for ten years. The members of that body and their wives surprised him, at his home Thursday night and presented him with a gold-headed umbrella.

NEW NORTH END MISSION IS BEING BUILT NEAR FIRST STREET; WORK BEGUN SATURDAY.

Work was begun Saturday on erecting a chapel on River avenue between First and Second streets. The chapel will be used by the North End Mission conducted by the Christian Reformed churches of this city. During the last few years the mission has been conducted in a house but the chapel will give better accommodations and was made necessary by the growth of the work.

The contract for erecting the building was let to Henry Door & Co. and the chapel is to be completed about the middle of December. It is to be erected at a cost of $1350. The chapel will be equipped with furnace, electric lights and other conveniences.

At present Sunday school is held at the North End Mission every Sunday evening. Similar services will be held in the chapel when it is completed.

HEALTH OFFICER TELLS MILK- MEN TO BE VERY CAREFUL.

In view of the cases of typhoid fever in the city at present Health Officer Godfrey Saturday issued the following to all persons selling milk in the city:

"All persons are warned to take extra precaution in sterilizing milk-bottles and each and every utensil used in handling milk. Where live steam can be used the outside of the bottles should be exposed to it as well as the inside. If boiling water is used even more care should be taken than with steam.

"Enjoin all persons to thoroughly cleanse their hands immediately before milking.

"Milkmen should be sure that the handling of the milk they sell has the very best care and has not been infected by a case of infectious or contagious diseases on the farm.

"Every one is interested from the farmer to the consumer."

ALLEGAN COUNTY TO SPEND $8,000 FOR THEIR HIGHWAYS

The greatest contest at the meeting of the Allegan county Board of Supervisors was the question of the amount to be raised for roads.

There were a number of the supervisors who favored the expenditure of $80,000 but it was finally decided to set aside $30,000 for that purpose.

The township charged back $210-95 taxes to the City and Township of Allegan which had been paid out of the county treasury.

Claims were allowed amounting to $445.49.
The Soldiers' Relief Commission
submitted their annual report, showing a total expenditure of $820.07 during the year.

The annual report of the superintendents of the poor showed the total aid in the several townships for the past year to have been $3,981.59 the house and farm expenses $9-266.68 and that the year closed with a balance on hand of $1,092.71.

The committee on roads, bridges and drains reported out the county road commissioner's report and the same was adopted including the provisions for the raising of $30,000 for road work for the coming year.

The finance committee reported the state tax apportionment for the county at $78,366.56, the county tax $60,300, and the county road tax $30,000.

The committee reported the expenditures of the drain commissioner's office as $12,118.96 for the year.

In addition to having provided many boxes of clothing and much money for the children of Europe, the Christmas ship movement has incidentally provided much clothing for poor families in Holland. Many people in Holland contributed second-hand clothing out inquiry at the headquarters brought the information that no second-hand clothing could be received for the Christmas ship. But the local committee will keep the clothing contributed and at the annual distribution of supplies to the poor families of the city at Christmas time they will add the clothing to the other supplies to be collected then.

FRED LAMPEN ARRESTED FRI- DAY NIGHT ON COMPLAINT OF BROTHER OF ZEELAND

He Is Charged With Forgery.

Fred Lampen of Zeeland was arrested in this city Friday night on a charge of forgery and he was lodged in the city jail, unable to furnish the bonds for $500.

Saturday when arraigned before Justice Robinson he demanded an examination which was set for this afternoon.

Complaint was made by his brother,
George Lampen. In the complaint
Fred Lampen is charged with forgery his brother's name to a promissory note for $200. The note was dated May 30 and was payable six months from date. The note also called for seven per cent interest.

MRS. VAN DUREN ACTIVE IN RED CROSS SEAL SALE WORK IN OTTAWA

CIVIC HEALTH COMMITTEE MAK- ES ARRANGEMENTS WITH STATE ASSOCIATION

Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, chairman of the Civic Health committee of the Woman's Literary club, is making active preparations for the Red Cross seal sale, in Ottawa county. She has made arrangements with the State Anti-tuberculosis association to have the state nurse, sent out by that organization, come to Ottawa county during the month of February. One county was ahead of Ottawa and secured her for January. The nurse this year will be under direct charge of the state association. The nurse this year will be a Miss Wilson of Detroit.

So far the state association has not offered premiums for the sale of the seals, but the secretary informed Mrs. Van Duren that later in the campaign some prizes may be offered. Mrs. Van Duren announces that in a week or two she will call on the business men and manufacturers of Holland in the interest of the seal campaign.

Mr. Cappon's letter reads as follows:

Oct. 31, 1914
Mr. James Koeley,
Care Chicago Herald,
Chicago, Illinois.
Dear Sir:—It is with a great deal of pleasure that we write you the result of our efforts in helping out with the Christmas ship for the unfortunate women and children of Europe, as per your call in the Chicago Herald.

We have succeeded beyond our first expectations. The sympathy of the people was so great that when the call came everybody seemed to respond at once. We have purchased everything new for our shipment to Brooklyn consigned to the Christmas ship; and will say that had second-hand clothing been accepted, our contribution would have been considerable larger.

We shipped on the 29th, 15 boxes of clothing and eight boxes of shoes, as per enclosed bill of lading. The same will go forward transportation free.

The work in our city was divided into two parts. Consequently the boxes from the two departments were numbered differently. The boxes are numbered from one to fifteen inclusive. We enclose herewith an itemized list of the contents. The other boxes are marked from A to H inclusive; and contain goods as follows:

Box A—Shoes.
Box B—Ladies' Coats.
Box C—Coats and suits, womens' coats and mens' caps.
D—Knit caps and sweaters.
Box E—Dress shirts, comforters, blankets, yarn, pillows and shoes.
Box F—Underwear, hosiery, to- ques and gloves.
Box G—Blankets.
Box H—Children's Caps and to- ques.

We trust that the shipment will arrive in time and safely. We have no doubt of its being gladly received.
Had we been allowed to send provisions, we would have been pleased to have included a considerable quantity. The boxes were all marked for the Christmas ship, Bush Terminal, Brooklyn, as coming from the people of Holland, Michigan.

Yours very truly,
JOHN J. CAPPON,
In Behalf of the Committee.
The campaign for the Christmas ship inaugurated in Holland one week ago, has been nothing less than own hearts.

a magnificent co-operative movement in which thousands of people—men, women and school children, have enthusiastically participated. Inde-it is doubtful if there is a family in Holland that has not in some way had a share in this great philantrop-ic enterprise. The cause itself of relieving the sufferings of the widows and orphans in Europe—has made its own urgent appeal to the hearts of the people, and their quick response with money, time and service, has made possible the munificent contribution that was sent forward for this cause on last Thursday afternoon.

The twenty-three boxes that were packed at the Woman's Club House and the store at 210 River Street contained hundreds of shoes and thousands of garments and were a veritable cargo of comfort.

Very many of these were purchased with the money contributed for that purpose. There were also splendid donations from factories and stores and not least of all, more than 300 warm garments made by the women at the club house, and in aid societies and homes.

As these boxes were piled high on the dray that conveyed them to the freight depot, one fact was clearly in evidence. Every box bore in plainly stencilled letters, this significant address:

"For The Christmas Ship
(Bush Terminal),
Brooklyn, - New York."
"From the People of Holland, Mich."

The work is now done. The shipment is enroute to its destination.
The promptness and heartiness that have characterized all individual and collective efforts connected with this splendid achievement are seldom equalled. The churches, the college, the public schools, the Woman's club, the Business men and their employees in factories, stores and offices, the women who have come out en masse to the various meetings appointed for cutting and making garments, all these have worked harmoniously together to promote the success of this noble enterprise, and all are now rejoicing not only over the Christmas gift that has been made to the suffering in Europe but also in the blessing that has come to their

ABOUT CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORK.

The first man over the wall of Pekin, when the relief column of the allied nations broke the Boxer siege, was Titus, an American and an active Christian Endeavorer.

Carlton Jencks, who went down with the Maine, was not only an active Christian Endeavorer, but the organizer of several young people's societies on naval vessels, and one of the foundations of the Christian Endeavor Sailors' Home in Japan. The Christian Endeavor movement has followed the flag around the world, and today aggressive local war vessels and in increasing numbers among the soldiers on shore.

For thirty-three years this organization, which ministers to the youth of all Protestant Evangelical churches, has emphasized loyalty and love of country. Millions of men and women are today intelligent, practical Christian citizens, the constructive reformers of the State, and living as heroically for their country as Jencks died for it, because Christian Endeavor gripped their lives and trained their minds and hearts for the service of God and native land.

That the patriotism of Christian Endeavorers is not narrow, nor unduly martial, is evidenced by the fact that the conferences between representatives of North and South China, which resulted in the establishing of the Chinese Republic, were held in the home of Rev. Edgar S. Little, treasurer of the United Society of Christian Endeavor for China. In every land Christian Endeavor has spoken a ringing message for universal peace. No man has contributed more largely toward the brotherhood of the nations than the founder and president of the World's Christian Endeavor union, Dr. Francis E. Clark.

The first citizenship superintendent of the United Society of Christian Endeavor was Dr. Samuel B. Capen, who until the time of his death in China while on a world tour. In the interests of missions, was one of the most eloquent and honored peace advocates on the North American Continent.

In Brooklyn, N. Y., Christian Endeavor has for years helped build a better citizenship by providing a summer camp for hundreds of poor children. Cleveland erected a score of public drinking-fountains, and led them until the city's new water plant was completed.

In California the coffee-club idea and the first coffee club originated in the fertile mind of a Christian Endeavorer. Today in a number of cities of California and Oregon the evil influences of drinking resorts are being counteracted by these coffee clubs, which are in the truest sense of the term "The poor man's club."

In a dozen State penal institutions, and in many city jails and reformatories, Christian Endeavor is helping to reclaim the outcasts of society. The largest Christian Endeavor society in the United States is in the penitentiary at Frankfort, Ky. This society has over 600 members. It is the proud boast of prison workers that no prison Endeavorer, after being pardoned or after having served his term, has ever returned to prison.

The great Chicago Union of Christian Endeavor launched the movement that resulted in the nation-wide closing of the post office on Sunday, and more recently this same union gave to the continent "Go-to-Church Sunday."

When the moving pictures of an infamous prize fight, between a white man and a black man, threatened to stir the race prejudices of the country and to pollute the minds of the youth, General Secretary Shaw of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, telegraphed messages of protest to the governors of the several States. As the result of this protest, in less than twenty-four hours the great cities, as well as the smaller towns of the United States, were closed to the fighting pictures.

In 1911, the Canton, O., Endeavorers stopped Sunday automobile racing, and then marshalled the moral forces of the city and country to re-elect the law enforcing sheriff, who was opposed by the united liquor and vice interests.

These are a few of the number of illustrations of Christian Endeavor patriotism. Today, wherever a fight is on against political corruptionists and in the interests of good government, in the midst of the conflict will be found strong-bodied, fearless, clean-minded men and women, who have received their training and inspiration for larger service in the Young People's society of the church.

At the present time the United Society of Christian Endeavor is presenting to its more than three million young people two epoch-making campaigns. Both were launched at the Atlantic City International Christian Endeavor Convention in 1911. One has as its motto, "A Saloonless Nation by 1920," the other is the campaign for a continental Good-Citizenship Sunday. In the movement for National Prohibition the Christian Endeavorers are uniting with all other temperance and general reform organizations that have as their common goal the final solution of the liquor problem. With posters, bill board advertising, window displays, electric signs, kite-flying contests for Juniors and literature distribution, State and city unions are conducting scientific educational campaigns against beverage alcohol and the saloon.

The Good-Citizenship Day movement has, from the beginning, received the support of the leaders of public affairs in the United States and Canada. The President of the United States, and representatives from nearly every other department of organized society, have given the plan their enthusiastic endorsement and support. Sunday, October 18, has been designated as Good Citizenship Sunday for 1914, and the third Sunday in October will be permanently celebrated as Good-Citizenship Sunday.

This article is the eighth and last of a series that have been published this fall, telling of the great work being accomplished by this world wide society. Copies of the early articles of this series or other information and printed matter about the Christian Endeavor society, can be had by sending a self-addressed envelope, with the request for information, to Secretary Karl Lehmann, 31 Mount Vernon Street, Boston, Mass.

PROPOSED LATERAL SEWER

Eighteenth Street between Van Raalte Avenue and Maple Avenue

CITY OF HOLLAND, MICHIGAN:

City Clerk's Office, October 29, 1914

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Holland at a session held Wednesday October 21, 1914, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved that a lateral sewer be constructed in Eighteenth Street, between Van Raalte Ave., and Maple Avenue, that said lateral sewer be laid at the depth and grade and of the dimensions prescribed in the diagram plan and profile and in the manner required by the specifications for same, provisionally adopted by the common council of the city of Holland October 21, 1914, and now on file in the office of the clerk that the cost and expense of constructing such lateral sewer be paid partly from the general sewer fund of said city, and partly by special assessments upon the lands, lots and premises of private property owners abutting upon said part of Eighteenth Street, and being adjacent to said lateral sewer, and such other lands, lots and premises as herein-after required and specified, assessed according to the estimated benefits therefrom determined as follows:

Total estimated cost of lateral sewer, $1,842.75.

Amount to be raised by special assessment on private property according to estimated benefits received, $1569.75.

Amount to be paid from the general sewer fund $273.00.

The Bill of Complaint in this

That the lands, lots and premises upon which said special assessment shall be levied, shall include all the private lands, lots and premises lying within the special assessment district designated by a red line in the diagram and plat of said district by the common council, in connection with the construction of the sewers, all of which private lots, lands and premises are hereby designated and declared to constitute a special sewer district for the purpose of special assessment, to defray that part of the cost and expense of constructing a lateral sewer in said part of Eighteenth street in the manner hereinbefore set forth and as heretofore determined by the Common Council, said district to be known and designated "West Eighteenth street special sewer assessment district, No. 2."

Resolved further that the city clerk be instructed to give notice of the proposed construction of said lateral sewer and of the special assessment to be made to defray part of the expense of constructing such sewer, according to diagram plan and estimate on file in the office of the city Clerk, and of the district to be assessed therefore, by publication in the Holland City News for two weeks and that Wednesday, November 18, 1914, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. be and is hereby determined as the time when the Common Council and the Board of Public Works will meet at the council rooms to consider any suggestions or objections that may be made to the construction of said sewer, to said assessment and assessment district, and to said diagram, plan, plat and estimates.
