All Victories and no Defeats

IT is said of the Egyptians that all thru the ages these Nile dwellers have chronicled all their victories, but never heralded their defeats. The history of Egypt carved on tablets of stone—from the time of the reign of King "Tut" until the present age—on the face of returns gives a chronology of one grand victory after another.

No mention of the ten plagues or the destruction of Pharaoh's army in the sea. No mention even in modern history of English rule over a once powerful people. If the sphinx could speak what a different story would be told. But at that what an optimistic race these brown skinned Pharaohites must have been with a thought of victory always uppermost in their minds.

From a true historic standpoint the whole idea is foolish no doubt. However we are wondering if a shot of Egyptian optimism and victory virus injected in our veins wouldn't help our situation a little just now. We are thinking in the same way as the Egyptians of old, only we are thinking in the opposite direction. We are shouting from the house tops all our woes, our financial ailments, our reverses and defeats.

It is all defeat and no victory and everything is going to the everlasting Bow-Wows! Not an optimistic thought left, not a cloud with a silver lining on the horizon—we're all in the dumps.

Let's "snap out of it" and let's become prosperity minded. Let's set our faces toward the sun and let's march out of this valley of gloom into these broad fields of endeavor and finally into the sun shine of prosperity.

Your editor was reading in one of the state newspapers an expose of just what was the matter with us. In large bold type it read: "THROW AWAY THE DARK GLASSES". We would like to go one better and say—smash the dark glasses—for we don't want you to find them again.

Anyway a few thoughts from this editorial seems to fit the situation at this time and the News takes this occasion to quote a few of the salient facts reflected in this editorial.

THROW AWAY THE DARK GLASSES

DARK glasses may be very necessary for weak eyes, but when they are worn for weak backbones, the whole world appears gloomy.

During the past eight or ten months, the American people have been wearing dark glasses. They have been playing a game called "We're in a depression, let's all be depressed." They have heard about conditions. They have heard others talk poor until they began to feel poor. They have heard there was no business, and that thousands were out of employment. Fearing their jobs, too, they decided to hang onto their money. Money went out of circulation, and when the people quit buying, naturally thousands who had jobs were thrown out of employment because there was nothing for them to make for people who wouldn't buy.

All right! Let's admit we had a depression. Let's admit it was a bad one, the longest in 50 years. If you like—terrible. What about it? Are we to call an undertaker and all become self-appointed mourners at the funeral, or are we going to throw away our smoked glasses and try to see what is going on about us?

There have been two classes of people who have been wearing dark glasses: the weak-kneed and the timid, the amateur economists and the pessimists who can see nothing but a long era of price decline, business stagnation and painful readjustment; and the smug fatalists who regard the present situation as "just one of those things" that are bound to happen ever so often and will eventually pass.

Business is coming back. The upward swing is here. There is no doubt about it. There are too many evidences at hand, too many genuine indications. All we need to do is to throw away those smoked glasses and use our eyes—unhampered eyes.

But business will come back stronger if the weak-kneed will have faith; if the cravens will acquire courage; if the amateur economists and the pessimists will keep their opinions to themselves; if the smug will contribute more co-operation and less self-satisfaction.

Money must go back into circulation. If you have a job and an income, buy wisely the things you need—without fear. You will not only be making a good investment in merchandise at this time, but you will be doing your share to adjust the country's economic balance.

If you have saved because you were afraid of the future, stop and ask yourself how long you could live on the money you have saved if you DID lose your job. It is a fact that the longer everyone keeps available money out of circulation, the surer are his chances to be out of a job, for every inactive dollar decreases buying power and stops a dollar's worth of production and a dollar's worth of employment.

Multiply a dollar's worth of employment by millions and you have millions of dollars reduction in production and employment and that, in turn, can be translated into hundreds of thousands of workers.

One of the country's leading bankers says: "It pays to be cautious at the peak of business activity (the very time when people are least cautious), but the smart man is an optimist when conditions are blackest, for a change is inevitable. Just as soon as consumption has eaten up surplus production, industrial activity will be resumed and better times will develop."

If you have money to spend, spend it now. If you have money to lend, lend it now. If you have a job to give, give it now. If you have no money and no job, you can at least do your part by joining the procession that is dumping its dark glasses into the River of Faith, and by thinking right and talking right so that others will soon do the things that will put you back on the job and put money back in your pocket.

Just remember that it isn't the size of the dog in the fight; it's the size of the fight in the dog. If the size of the fight in you is big enough, you will understand why America has never learned to beat retreat—and why it is not trying to learn now.

To The Man With A Job and An Income

OPPORTUNITY WEEK,
November 13 to 19 Inclusive

Let's All Buy Something

These six days will be OPPORTUNITY DAYS. They start Thursday morning, Nov. 13th. Let's all buy something.

When you were on the old school's football squad what won the games? Not your speed — but your team work.

To get the most from our present plan the same team work is necessary. Push—with numbers behind it — will put this movement across. That's why we must do our job during the game---and the game starts Thursday. Play it between the kick-off and the gun.

It's up to you now --- no more pep talk---just play ball. And the world is rooting for our side.

Start Thursday, November 13th. Buy all you can of the things you need. Keep it up for the next 5 days. Play with the team---not just on it.

Normal spending guarantees normal business---the kind we want. It assures the continuance of your salary. It will make a job for your neighbor. It will make work for our factories---and lessen the work of our charitable agencies.

Let's put the old dollars back to work. They'll make jobs for us all.

Don't save for hard times. Spend for good times.

Shows Way How Prosperity Can Return

RIETDYKE OF MUSKOGON ADDRESSES 50 MERCHANTS AND MANUFACTURERS

"Faith in God and Faith in Business Go Hand in Hand" — Speaker Says

A luncheon was held at Warm Friend Tavern yesterday noon when H. L. Rietdyke, treasurer of the Shaw-Walker Company of Muskegon, gave a way instructive address. He has made a nationwide reputation with his method of relieving the gloom and making better business conditions, alleviating in a measure the business depression.

Mr. Rietdyke's scheme seems to have taken like "wild fire" for over 600 cities, large and small, have adopted this plan that he inaugurated first in Muskegon. He stated that he noticed first that in his candy business firms were placing small orders, sometimes sending telegrams, costing 75 cents to place a $3.00 order. They seemed timid and surely couldn't have made profit on the goods when a message bill of nearly $1 was taken out of the profits. It seemed that both buyer and seller were holding off.

He stated that banks have never had more money than they have today and that certain classes of people were hoarding "their funds instead of spending them."

The trouble is that money is out of circulation and as soon as buying begins and money loosens up, then merchants will not be timid to buy and will order goods which will see factories going and the cycle of trade will have started its turning.

For that reason they started a "bust the buyer" strike in Muskegon which has brought the sale of at least $200,000 worth of goods during the sales days, and this $200,000 worth of goods and $200,000 worth of money has been magnified into millions considering that money passes from one hand to the other.

One check of $140 was followed through the business streets of Muskegon and at the end of the week it was found that this $140 paid for $18,000 worth of goods. The coal man got it; he took it to the clothing man; and so down the street — it not only paid bills, but paid for new merchandise.

Anyway, the buying week in Muskegon was an unqualified success and it appeared that every luncheon club in the city of Muskegon backed up this project, each man spending $100 for worthwhile merchandise that he needed.

Mr. Rietdyke believes that his method has broken loose in Muskegon alone at least a half million dollars and one can readily see that if this method were used in all cities in the United States the buying of goods and paying of debts would run into billions.

Mr. Rietdyke spoke of one manufacturer who spent $1000 for each of his five children and $2000 for two intimate friends of the family. That $7000 is going to pay a lot of bills and buy a lot of merchandise.

Muskegon folks are already overhauling furnaces and heating plants although they are going on southern trips and might not need them but they want to put the money into circulation. Landscape gardening is going on for next spring. One man built a four foot to help the cause and now four more are doing the same thing in the same neighborhood.

Mr. Rietdyke advises that if you cannot buy just now, at least pay up your accounts and loosen up hoarded money. He claims there is a lot of money hanging around but these are frozen assets just now.

Prosperity week has brought Muskegon a great deal of publicity and many bills have been paid. Collections have improved at least 300 per cent. Manufacturers, too, are placing larger orders in order to get the roll rolling.

Mr. Rietdyke stated that he would seem that the people have lost faith and forgotten their religion in many instances. He said that during the campaign he noticed that the merchants who took their night the hardest were those who did not profess religion. It seemed that they had no faith in their business and no faith in God.

Dick Boter, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided over the deliberations, introducing the Muskegon man. The Holland merchants are putting on a "Prosperity Week" and to give it the impetus this banquet was staged in order that Mr. Rietdyke could give first handed the tremendous success the inauguration of his plans brought Muskegon.

Those who have money to buy in Holland during the next week can buy real worthwhile merchandise at the lowest prices yet quoted over a period of a decade or more. It is well to remember that here in Holland there is an army of men and women who have not yet felt the pinch of hard times. These individuals still have their old positions and their regular pay at regular rates. They are working full time and in many places overtime, and it is here where the buying should begin.

Buying empties shelves and means re-ordering at factories and re-ordering at factories means money in the laboring man's pocket and when the laboring man is prosperous the entire country is bound to be prosperous.

Give them a show and the entire nation will be benefited.

Horace Earl Ross, who died Tuesday in Grand Rapids at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allen Lewis, was a life-long resident of Allegan county, having been born in Montgomery in 1853. For the past 37 years he had been engaged in business at Bradley, the head of the firm of H. E. Ross & Son more than 30 years. Funeral services will be held at the Congregational church in Bradley at 11 a.m. Thursday.

ONE DAY EARLY

The Holland City News is issued one day earlier this week in order to boost along "Opportunity Week." Remember now is the time to buy the things you need while prices are low. It will start things going. Labor employed means prosperity; labor unemployed means stagnation.

GEORGE GETZ AND JACK DEMPSEY ARE NOT GOING TO AFRICA

In an interview last Friday jointly with George Getz and Jack Dempsey, the one-time heavyweight who stated to the News definitely that no African hunting trip had been planned. They were at a loss to know how the story was started and in fact it would be impossible for either of the men to break away on a trip of that kind.

In the first place Mr. Getz is busy on at least five different large committees in Chicago; one being the matter of the unemployed. Jack Dempsey is building a large hotel in lower California and will have to look after the management the first year at least. He had to break away from activities there, fly from California to Chicago in order to get here in time for the Legion match.

Now that the hunting trip has been talked about Mr. Getz stated that there might be a possibility of going a year later, that is if prosperity returned in time.

LIVING AND STARVING

State authorities will see to it that more than 25 cents per hour is paid the bridge gang building the new bridge at Grand Haven. The amount claimed paid by the contractors. It is evident that "two bits" won't bridge the gap between living and starving. We are pleased to see Gov. Green taking a hand.

BEET SUGAR CROP SET AT 1,190,000 TONS

Production of beet sugar in the United States this year was estimated Tuesday by the department of agriculture at 1,190,000 short tons, compared with 1,018,000 last year.

GRAND HAVEN HAS HEAVY BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

The football season is nearly over and thoughts are of the basketball games which begin at Grand Haven in December. The high school schedule is unusually heavy with the bulk of the hard games coming in January. Grand Rapids Central opens the season with a game here on Dec. 6, followed by Holland Christian High in Grand Haven on Dec. 12. With Kalamazoo Central there on Dec. 19, the schedule continues until Feb. 21 with the following teams: Grand Rapids South, Dec. 20, here; Muskegon Heights, Dec. 20, there; West State High, Jan. 3, here; Holland, Jan. 9, here; Grand Rapids Creston, Jan. 17, here; Kalamazoo Central, Jan. 23, here; Ben Hur Harbor, Feb. 5, here; Holland, Feb. 13, there, and St. Joseph, Feb. 21, here.

HOLLAND PASTOR PROMINENT IN EVANGELISTIC WORK

Allegan Gazette.—The W. M. church of East Allegan plans intensive work for the last two weeks in November. Nov. 11 the pastor, Rev. A. R. Merrill, will meet a committee in Jackson to arrange a program for the annual meeting of the ministerial association of the Michigan conference. Sunday the 16th will be the beginning of two or three weeks of special revival meetings. Rev. Clyde Meredith of Holland will be the evangelist. Monday, the 17th, will be mission night. Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Banker recently returned from India will be the speakers. Saturday and Sunday, the 22nd and 23rd will be held the first quarterly meeting for this year. Rev. D. T. Perrine of Lansing, president of the conference, will have charge of these services. The Wesleyan church believes in old-time Methodism, full of love and joy, a salvation that makes people pure in heart and holy in life. This is the only church in the east half of the township. It exists for the moral and spiritual as well as the social well-being of the community.

Harry Nelson of Bravo was arraigned before Justice Charles Orther in Fennville Monday, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $58.85 or spend 30 days in jail. Nelson expects to raise the money.

Armistice Day Parade Was Very Inspiring

YOUNG AMERICA CAME OUT IN FORCE AND SHOWED THEIR PATRIOTISM

American Legion Winds Up Patriotic Day With Banquet at Literary Club

One of the most interesting patriotic demonstrations ever held in Holland occurred on Armistice Day. Tuesday, when the pupils of our public and denominational schools, interspersed with military organizations with bands playing and colors flying, passed in review. It was a tremendous procession, taking nearly an hour to pass a given point.

The parade was headed by the Willard G. Leenhouts Post No. 6, American Legion Band and in the parade were two Junior High bands and the big High School band and strange to say, Director Heeter, the leader of them all, seemed to be everywhere at the same time keeping these musical organizations going.

The cars were decked in flags and bunting and was a conspicuous feature of the parade. Then followed the grade school children on foot and each division of children carried patriotic emblems and banners indicative of educational subjects. The Junior High and High school students formed a large part of the parade and conspicuous in the lineup were floats beautifully trimmed.

Pupils from Christian High and St. Francis de Sales school vied with the children of the public school in order to make the Armistice Day parade a success.

The Board of Education, the Common Council, and other city officials also were in the ranks as was Company D National Guards, a few Spanish War veterans, Boy Scouts, Holland Sea Scouts, and bringing up the rear was the Willard G. Leenhouts Post No. 6, under whose auspices the first real Armistice Day celebration in Holland was staged. The Auxiliaries of the different military organizations were also in line.

Two entries in the parade especially attracted attention, namely the Gold Star Mothers in automobiles, the cars being designated in decorations of large gold stars, and several automobiles laden with children from the Open Window school. Among the floats were one of Progress, one picturing the pilgrims and a very interesting float bore the motto "For God and Home and Every Land."

In the evening as a fitting wind-up to an intensely patriotic day which commemorated the closing of the most terrible war this earth had ever seen, the American Legion gave a banquet at the Woman's Literary club last evening.

The principle address of the evening was made by Cornelius Van der Meulen. At least 200 Legionnaires, their wives and invited guests were among those who participated in the banquet.

The program as given follows below:

MILK DRIVER WINS $10,000 VERDICT FROM ALLEGAN JURY

Abraham Van der Velden of Jensen Park was awarded damages of $10,000 in circuit court here Monday night against Benjamin Eddy of Ann Arbor and the William Ford Co. of Highland Park as the result of injuries received when Van der Velden was struck by an automobile driven by Eddy, at that time salesman for the codefendant company.

The accident occurred more than a year ago on US1 south of Holland. Van der Velden, delivering milk about 9:30 p.m., was struck by the car as he crossed the road. Eddy contended the accident was unavoidable.

As the result of his injuries Van der Velden has been paralyzed from the hips down.

HOPE ENROLLMENT ONLY A TRIFLE SHORT

Hope's enrollment, according to figures tabulated from the Students Guide, distributed Monday, totals 465 students. The college proper has 415 and Hope High school 50. Last year's total was 468.

Hope's constituency covers 18 states and several foreign countries, including China, Japan, Korea and Irak. Michigan lists 318 from 33 cities and towns. New York state is second with 43. Other leading states include: New Jersey, 12; Illinois 20; Wisconsin, 19; and Iowa 14.

Holland city is represented by 187, Zeeland by 39 and Grand Rapids by 16. Number of men enrolled, 271; coeds, 194. The faculty numbers 34, including the school of music and librarians.

The names Cook, Mulder and Walwood predominate, five each. Only three Smiths are listed and no Joneses.

James Van Huis of Holland was fined $5.35 for driving with no operator's license.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Another body supposed to be from the Alpena was found near Port Sheldon Saturday. The features could not be identified but since there were no wrecks since the Alpena, it is believed this man was from the "side wheeler." He was about 22 years old, had short, reddish brown hair, had on the suit of a laborer, wore No. 10 Stoga shoes and he had the figure of a ballet girl dancing on a globe tattooed in blue on the right forearm.

President-elect Garfield is a member of two Masonic chapters in Washington, D. C.

The Democratic party is smashed and it isn't worth while to save the pieces after Garfield's election. Note: The editor hadn't heard of Cleveland, Bryan, Wilson and Al Smith.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Surfman George C. Robinson, former Holland life saver, while keeper at Ludington, took part with the crew in rescuing five men and one woman from the schooner Vega. They took the crew from the rigging of the ship where they had clung for hours drenched to the skin and benumbed with cold.

Clifford Harrington has purchased the Knoll homestead on West 10th street.

The Central Ave. Christian Reformed Church will celebrate its 50th anniversary No. 8. Note: The 75th anniversary, it appears, is now due.

HOLLAND GRAND JURORS ARE NOW SERVING

Grand jury at Grand Rapids has finished its work in the Federal Building. There were some 16 li- quor and a few other cases to be considered.

Among those from this vicinity who served on the Grand Jury are Martin E. Nienhuis, R.R. 10, Holland; Harry Plaggenmeyer, Holland; Cecil White, Holland.

The traverse or trial jury followed the Grand jury disposing of the "trial bills" handed down. On the traverse jury some Holland men were also drawn, namely, Ger- rit Ter Beek and former mayor Henry Geerlings.

Judge Fred M. Raymond presided over these cases.

MILWAUKEE MAN STRUCK DOWN NEAR AGNEW

George Evens of Milwaukee, was struck down Sunday night while walking on US-31 three miles north of Agnew by a car driven by Fred King of Grand Rapids. The injured man was taken to hospital. Grand Haven, where it was found he had a laceration over one eye, and leg bruises. He was later removed to the county jail. King said the man appeared to walk directly in the path of his car and it was impossible for him to avoid contact with him. The accident occurred at 5:30 p.m. and it was quite dark.

HOLLAND WINS OF TECH 26-0

Playing its outstanding game of the season, the Holland High school football team Saturday defeated a smooth working combination of the Davis Technical and Vocational school squad of Grand Rapids 26 to 0.

The locals pushed across the Tech goal in every period. In the final period the invaders showed short-lived flashes of a real brand of football, but never did the Grand Rapids team threaten to score.

The Holland backs had no trouble at all finding holes in the Technical line and the Technical ends had a most difficult task in cutting short the end runs.

Capt. Beekman and Ted Van Zanden, Holland backs, were the outstanding offensive players for the team. The major part of the offensive fell on the shoulders of Wisniski and Melita, the latter being injured in the first half. He was carried from the field with an injured ankle.

FORMER MANAGER OF LAKE-SIDE INN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Caroline Thompson, 76 years, widow of Capt. T. C. Thompson, died Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Coy, Park Road.

Mrs. Thompson was a pioneer resident of Holland, coming to Black Lake on vacation trips about 50 years ago. She came to settle permanently about 30 years ago and operated summer hotels for a time. She was the first lessee of Lakeside Inn and later operated the South Shore hotel.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Coy of the Park road and Mrs. Luther H. Baldwin of Hollywood, California.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Dykstra Funeral Home, Rev. J. J. Van Dyke, pastor of Central Park church, officiating. Interment took place in Pilgrim Home Cemetery.

A short course for commercial fruit growers will be held at the State College November 17-21. Soil management, spray practice, diseases, insects, fungus diseases, fertilizers and similar subjects will be taken up in lectures, discussions and work will be carried on in College laboratories. A folder on this and other short courses offered by the College are available at the office of the agricultural agent in Grand Haven.

Peter Spagnoli, an Italian fruit dealer, was murdered in his bed at the rear of his store on East eighth street. The News gave a two-column story on this tragedy and printed a picture of Officers Tubbergen and Night Watchman C. J. Dornbos with two suspects taken at the city jail.

The Wolverine Boat Co. of Holland has received an order for a 45-foot passenger boat for Montevideo, Uruguay, South America.

George Steinger of Woodhaven, N. Y., will represent Hope college in the State Oratorical Contest to be held at Hillsdale. Note: George not only won but was voted the most popular student at Hope in his day.

Deaths during the week were those of Edward Doesburg, Miss Jeannette Steffens and Miss Bernice Harriet Hoffman.

The Holland Furnace Co. is adding another big building to their local plant. It will be 90x120 feet.

Mrs. Rudolph Habermann died at her home on Maple avenue and Ninth street. She was the wife of the former alderman and member of the Board of Public Works.

BIG TIRE OF NEARLY TWO TONS COMES TO HOLLAND

The big Goodyear tire, the largest tire in the world, that has traveled over 23,000 miles, made Holland a visit when men from the company first stopped at the Holland Vulcanizing Co. and then paraded about town with this rubber sphere as big as an elephant. The tire is 12 feet high and 4 feet wide. The tube weighs 125 pounds and the tire 3,900 pounds. It took 45 minutes to blow it up and it was a real curiosity as it traveled behind a motor car built for that purpose.

Charles Van Zyl, the local dealer for Goodyears, supervised the Holland exhibition.

The big tire also visited Zeeland and has gone to nearly every city of importance in Michigan.

There are two such large tires, one traveling the coast district, and the other the middle and central states. It was quite a sight to see the big lumbering thing roll along.

GRAND HAVEN COUNCIL WILL CONSIDER MATTER OF RADIO INTERFERENCE MADE BY APPLIANCES

Grand Haven Tribune.—Radio interference complaints have been coming in thick and fast lately and City Electrician Wieskes has been doing some hunting to find the cause. Much of the trouble is said to be due to use of electrical appliances, which are claimed to be of health value. When they are turned on, it is claimed, a roar in radio receiving sets results which completely shuts out all reception. In some parts of the city Saturday a number of radio owners were unable to get the broadcasts of the football games.

City authorities stated this morning that the city council is considering the passage of an ordinance which will provide for the elimination of all radio interference. The city will make illegal the use of all appliances which cause such interference and persons who purchase them will be out of luck.

City authorities, today, also suggested that before purchasing any altered electric health appliance, local people will be better safeguarded if they will first consult their physician as to the value of such instruments in safeguarding health.

NOTES FROM ALLEGAN COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S OFFICE

It is of the utmost importance that every means be used to bring the findings of the White House Conference on Child Health and Protection to the attention of all rural communities. The initial step is to make local groups fully aware of the situation as regards child health and protection and what may be done to improve it. To this end the several national agencies concerned are encouraging their local branches and units to meet in convenient groups and places to LISTEN TO PRESIDENT HOOVER'S address opening the Conference at Washington on the evening of Wednesday, November 19, and to the address of SECRETARY WILBUR, Chairman of the Conference, who will summarize the work of the Conference at its close on Saturday noon. These will be probably two of the most important broadcasts ever made on child interests. In this way, millions of people in the United States may attend the Conference and have their interest in child-hood stimulated thereby.

The time for President Hoover's address on Wednesday evening, November 19, is given below.

Eastern Standard Time: 9:00 P.M. Central Standard Time: 8:00 P.M. The time for Secretary Wilbur's address, November 22, is: Eastern Standard Time: 12:30 P.M. Central Standard Time: 11:30 A.M. Saugatuck.

Grand Haven Bond Issue for Sewage Plant is Defeated

RECOUNT DETERMINES THAT PROPOSAL FAILED TO CARRY BY 1.6 VOTES

Grand Rapids Herald.—Grand Haven's proposed $225,000 sewage disposal plant bond issue, the fate of which has been hanging in the balance since last Tuesday's election, was beaten by 1.6 votes, it was definitely decided at a recount here tonight. The issue failed by that small margin of obtaining the three-fifths majority.

With the city council sitting as a board of canvassers and Atty. Tom Robinson of Holland representing the faction adverse to the bond issue, the recount was made with final figures announced as 1094 favoring the issue and 732 voting against it.

Defeat of the proposed measure was blamed on failure of election officials properly to mark and initial more than a dozen ballots, most of which were favorable to the issue and which, if they had been counted in the recount, would have carried the bond. Seven "yes" votes in the third ward, three "yes" votes in the fourth ward, two "yes" and two "no" votes in the fifth ward and two "no" votes in the first ward were thrown out for improper labelling. Had these been marked correctly, the bond issue would have been carried by a six-vote majority.

Initial reports last Tuesday night disclosed that the move had been defeated by one vote while a later hastily check-up overturned this result, carrying the measure by three votes.

Believing it had carried, city officials had advanced plans for the sewage plant and were prepared to start it immediately, which would have furnished work for hundreds of Grand Haven's unemployed.

The bond issue was defeated by 61 votes in the September primaries.

Unofficial reports tonight held two possibilities for adopting the proposal, one in calling a special election within a few weeks and the other in bringing the state to order the immediate construction of a sewage disposal plant as an anti-pollution step.

SUNDAY EVENING SONG SERVICE

On Sunday evening there will be a special program of music at Hope church presented by a large choir of young people. There will be several fine soloists also taking part. Dr. T. W. Davidson will close the service with a short discourse. Prof. W. Curtis Snow will be in charge of the organ and choir and the song service will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

CLINIC AT HOLLAND FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Opportunity for a free examination by an Orthopedic Specialist will be given the children of Ottawa County. Thursday, November 20th, 1930, when the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission will conduct a clinic in Holland.

Grand Haven and Holland Radio Clubs in co-operation with the County and City Nurses are making local arrangements for the clinic.

Children suffer from three general classes of deformities, congenital deformities, crippling caused by disease and that caused by accident. Specialists assert that 50 per cent of cripples need never have been handicapped and that half of the remainder might have been cured or greatly helped if they had been treated in time.

Dr. John T. Hodgen, Orthopedic Surgeon, will be the examiner at the Clinic at Hope Church, Thursday, November 20th, 1930, from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. All children from birth to 21 years with any physical handicap, even the slightest, are cordially invited and urged to attend.

TULIP ARRANGEMENTS TO AID HOLLAND POOR

In providing work for the unemployed, Mayor E. C. Brooks' plan will aid in beautification of the city. The city parks will be groomed for the annual tulip time in May, while tulip bulbs are being planted along the curbs throughout the town.

FORM GIRL SCOUTS IN ZEELAND SCHOOLS

The organization of Girl Scouts has been completed in Zeeland High school. Miss Marian Kette of the junior high school faculty will be lieutenant of the new troop. Corporals are: Evelyn De Bruyn, Evelyn De Haan, Sena Ver Hagen and Dorothy Plewes. Sixteen freshman girls have joined.

MERCHANTS CAN ALSO HELP IN OPPORTUNITY WEEK

Dick Boter, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, is taking part in Opportunity Week by ordering merchandise which he will not need until next spring. Yesterday he ordered $1,000 worth of merchandise and he is going through the remainder of his stock and expects to place an order of probably twice that amount within the week.

Mr. Boter usually places these orders in the spring but is purchasing the goods earlier in order to start the wheels of industry rolling. If the other merchants would follow Mr. Boter's example many of the unemployment problems would soon be solved.

The following have paid fines into the local traffic court: H. H. Tyler, $10.00 for speeding; H. Mulder, $1.00, parking without lights; Phillip Schipper, $1.00, no lights; John Hacklander, $3.00, running the red light; Robert Chittenden, $30.00, reckless driving.—Grand Haven Tribune.

PRESIDENT SENDS FLOWERS TO WHELAN FAMILY

The floral tributes sent in respect to the late Mrs. Nicholas J. Whelan of Washington, D. C. formerly Miss Jeanne Blom of Holland, were possibly the most elaborate ever seen in this city.

Naturally there were many flowers from friends and loved ones from Holland and vicinity, however, those tributes from Washington, D.C., were many and elaborate. One large basket was sent by President and Mrs. Hoover and another by Col. Frank Knox, general manager of twenty-eight Hearst papers; also from A. B. Chivers, assistant manager. There were also flowers from eighteen departments of the Washington Times and Washington Herald of which Mr. Whelan is the publisher.

Mr. C. J. Clegggett and Mr. Philip Koffin, president and vice-president of the Bell Telephone company at Washington, F. W. Kohler, head of the Kohler Aviation company, Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Floyd of Detroit, Mrs. Eleanor Medill Patterson, one of the foremost lady editors of the United States, John Cushing of the Boston Record and several other men of prominence sent beautiful tributes.

The Elks Lodge of Washington, D.C., and the Washington Chamber of Commerce, to which Mr. Whelan had just been elected director, sent magnificent flower pieces. One floral offering was especially appreciated coming from the Suburban Circulation Managers and 884 newboys of Washington, D.C., handling the Herald and Times circulation.

The Blom home on River avenue could not begin to accommodate the floral offerings from this city and from abroad, which reflects the esteem in which Mrs. Whelan was held.

JOHN VAN ANROOY, GRAND HAVEN ASSESSOR, ANNOUNCES FIGURES FOR DECEMBER TAX

December taxes in Ottawa County will be based upon a rate of $27.00 on an assessed valuation of $1,000. The total amount to be collected here is $227,791.96, which will include state, county, road and school taxes. The total rate, including the city tax, which was paid in the summer, is $42.90, which is 50 cents less than the 1929 tax rate of $43.40. The rate in 1928 was $39.15.

The rate in 1930 for the summer city tax was $15.90. This is 60 cents less than in 1929. The above figures were made known recently by the city assessor, John Van Anrooy, following the apportionment of county and state taxes.

LAW AS A MEANS OF SAFETY

The chief effort for safety in street and highway traffic seems to be directed just now toward uniform laws and rules for the regulation of that traffic.

As an increased measure of safety, however, that is probably of very doubtful value.

The variation in traffic laws and rules in the various states and cities is the least possible concern
of the careful driver of an automobile.

Thousands of such drive up and down and across and around the 48 states and Canada all through the year without the slightest trouble or inconvenience, and without ever hearing anything about
rules and regulations.

Laws and rules are little bother
to the man who travels with regard for the rights and safety of others
and with courtesy to those with whom he comes in contact along the way.

Uniform laws would be likely to facilitate enforcement in some measure, and are desirable certainly for other and general reasons, but safety is to be secured by elimination of the careless and reckless driver.

200 JOBLESS PLACED ON HOLLAND REGISTRY

More than 200 of the city's unemployed swarmed to the offices in the city hall today, when registration of jobless was started. Aldermen William C. Vandenberg, Henry Prim and A. P. Kleis were in charge of the enrollment.

Because of the great number of unemployed, the committee announced that heads of needy families would be cared for first. All city work will pay 44 cents per hour, with a minimum wage for other work set at 35 cents.

LOCAL GIRL WINS STATE CONTEST

Miss Margaret Rotschafer,
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rotschafer, was awarded first prize
in the state W.C.T.U. contest.
Miss Rotschafer is a senior at Holland High School and during her junior year wrote the essay,
"Business Advantages in Keeping Free from Alcoholic Liquors." She was awarded first prize of $5 by the local W.C.T.U. Her essay was then entered in the state contest and Saturday she received the news that she had won first prize of $15.

STEWARDS OF THE KING

When days are dark and life is
dear.

When friends forget and foes
their traunts renew.

When phantom hosts instill the heart with fear.

Or when our deeds seem much
too small and few.

It soothes to say, "I'm still a steward of the King."

When hope to preach for crowds is lost.

When only with one soul we dare
to plead.

When for a hundred poor we'd bear
the cost.

And have the meager means but
one to feed.

It soothes to say, "I'm still a steward of the King."

When flowers we have brought are thrown away.

When words of truth are met
with stones and grins.

When only with a sigh we've strength to pray.

"O Lord, forgive their thoughtless sins."

It soothes to say, "I'm still a steward of the King."

Politics Goes to Sleep
Sixteen Billions a Year
Selsaie Gave a Party
A Surprise for Smith

The voting and the nuisance are out of the way, heaven be praised,
and the people can attend to real
business far removed from politics.
Whether the election suited you or not, comfort yourself with the thought that nothing is important except what the people themselves
do. If the 123,000,000 will get to work without waiting for the new year or a millennium and keep their courage, we shall get out of our temporary difficulties.

Politicians get jobs, but don't do much. By the time they get over the excitement of being elected, it's time to be elected again.

Have you any idea what crime costs the nation? The total amount is $16,000,000,000 a year. There are about one million professional criminals in the country, including the crop of prohibition supercrimi-nals.

The government could pension
them at the rate of $10,000 a year
each, break even financially and save the lives taken by the criminals. Or the chief criminals could be profitably pensioned at $10,000
a year each, leaving plenty for small fry.

It costs the nation $16,000,000,000
to take care of 1,000,000 criminals.
And $100,000,000,000 less than one-third of the crime bill, is the amount spent on 50,000,000 children
in their parks, their schools, their playgrounds, and all welfare work.

That's a very nice picture of American civilization.

Observe crime, working on a small scale. John Passelli, twenty-five-year-old racketeer, called "The Ape," went to the hospital in Newark, N. J., with his head cut open.
said he had fallen and asked to remain overnight, although doctors
said he ought to go home.

Later three gunmen walked up to his private room. One held the nurse, while the other two shot Passelli to death in his bed. They left, threatening to kill anybody that interfered. Nobody interfered.

Marvelous, wonderful, amazing,
far beyond the adjectives of any writer of circus advertising was the crowding of Halle Selsaie I
as emperor of Abyssinia at Addis Ababa.

His superior, you must know, is a direct result of the visit that the queen of Sheba paid to King Solomon. She had a baby when she came home. That baby is Selsaie's ancestor. This may be mentioned, as Sheba has been dead
2,000 years and more.

The emperor and his wife, powerful, heavy woman, sat up all night praying. In the morning
they washed, and meanwhile the supply of water was cut off from everybody else in Addis Ababa,
that it might be kept pure for the monarchs.

Abyssinian princes wear silk satin, gold, and carried shields of rhinoceros hide and medieval swords hundreds of years old. Six snow white horses dragged the emperor in a carriage that once belonged to the German kaiser.

Finally the emperor fed 25,000 of his tribesmen with the raw meat
of 5,000 head of cattle, and as much as they could drink of wine made of fermented honey. A real party.

Sydney Smith, British wit, fairly well satisfied with himself, as is customary with British wits and non-wits, asked this question:

"In the four quarters of the globe, who reads an American book or goes to an American play, or looks at an American picture or statue?"

The witty Smith would be surprised if he could come back. He would find all London going to American plays, musicals and others. He would find the pictures of John Sargent, an American, selling for more than any British artist's picture ever sold for within a century of his death, and he would read in the morning newspapers that the Nobel prize for literature, worth $46,250, goes to Sir John Lewis, an American. He would also learn that Mr. Love-books, their author still alive, have sold 2,000,000 copies and are popular with "highbrows" in England,
Sweden, Germany and elsewhere.

You know that France and England can't agree on the question of armament. France tells the nation
she needs more ships than Italy,
as she fronts on the Mediterranean
and the Atlantic, Italy on the Mediterranean only.

Mussolini replies in substance:
"Italy was a great nation when you were nothing, and we don't mean
to take second place."

Mussolini and his government
vagueant sur un volcan "are erising on top of a volcano," as the famous French bull has it.

A million conspiracies and hat-
reds are plotting the dictator's downfall. Prominent Italians, professors, former government officials, scientists and others have recently been arrested in connection with one conspiracy.

Mussolini is well aware of conditions, but fears them not at all,
apparently believing in his "star,"
as Napoleon and others believed in theirs. He and his government live in danger every day, as he drives
his own car through the streets of Rome, unprotected, relying on the terror that his name and face inspire.

LEGION COMMITTEE WITH JACK DEMPSEY

The man in the foreground in this picture holding his hat the wrong
way is Jack Dempsey, the manassa
mauler, who flew from California to Kansas City and then took the train to Chicago and an automobile
for Holland for the sole purpose of refereeing the boxing match at the Army, of which the proceeds go to disabled soldiers.

The men in this picture with few exceptions were on the committee appointed by the American Legion
to handle this affair.

In the front row are Ben Lie-

vense, chairman of the Boxing Show committee, Ben is only half on the picture, unfortunately, but believe us, he was all on the committee when it comes to work. Next is Bernard Keefer, an enthusiastic fan, then your editor on publicity
who had just had an interview with Jack Dempsey. Next is "Jack," then Louis B. Dalman, adjutant of the Legion, Emerson W. Dickerson, sport writer for the Grand Rapids Herald, and Henry Oosting, local real estate man, and also on the committee.

The back row shows Gus De
Vries of Holland, Tommy Myska,
Grand Rapids heavyweight, Chester
Van Tongeren, Henry Zet, George
Manting, commander of the Willard
G. Leenhouts Post American Legion, Dr. Wm. C. Westrate, and Benny Touchstone of Detroit, who won the decision over Joe Lohman,
the veteran from Toledo, who is credited with 300 battles during his fighting career.

The picture was taken in front of the Van Ark Building, ticket
headquarters.

Getz-Legion
Boxing Show
Great Success

BANQUET PRECEDES BIG
SPORT CARD WITH DEM-
SEY AS REFEREE

Armory Was Filled to the Rafters
With Sport Fans Who Came
Largely to See Jack Dempsey
Referee

The biggest sport card of all time in Holland, staged by George Getz, under the auspices of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post American Legion, proved a tremendous success. The large armory was crowded to the rafters and sporting editor Emerson Dickerson of the Grand Rapids Herald gave a short address setting forth the reasons
for the event.

Preceding the boxing show, Mr.
George Getz was host to 50 stanch
friends from Chicago, Michigan,
and Holland. Governor Fred Green sat at the left of "Mine Host" and Jack Dempsey, at one time world
champion, was placed at the right
of Mr. Getz. Former Senator William Alden Smith, the representatives from three Chicago papers,
two Grand Rapids newspapers, one
from Detroit, one from Lansing,
one from Kalamazoo and the Sentinel and Holland City News representatives were among the guests present.

Several of the officials of Holland Civic Clubs participated in the banquet and Mayor Earnest Brooks gave a word of welcome to the visiting guests and a "thank you" to Holland's liberal host and friend.

It was not a speech making banquet and aside from a few words
of appreciation from George Getz thanking the friends for coming to this little spread, there were no other talks. However, it was the most elaborate banquet or rather a chicken dinner that has ever been given here.

The large banquet hall also was decorated in unique fashion. In front of the speakers' table a miniature square ring with miniature boxing figures was the center of attraction. There were flowers in profusion and the African jungle
effect was also brought into play
for at intervals gorillas, small animals and tropical birds were placed in jungle settings and were staring down upon the festivities but no danger, for they had been in the hands of the taxidermist, Mr. Andy Peterson and his aids were responsible for this unusual banquet background.

Mr. Getz, at the conclusion of the fest, read the names of all those present and each in turn was asked to stand up and were given a hearty handclap. At a given signal all the guests arose, stood at attention behind the American Legion band,
awaiting in the lobby of Warm Friend Tavern, and in a body the assembly marched down Main street
over River Avenue to the Holland Armory where ringside seats were provided. The Armory was already filled when the guests arrived and when all were comfortably seated
the boxing show was opened.

George Manting, commander of the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, thanked the assembly "present and Mr. Getz and Mr. Dempsey for their thoughtfulness in making possible
an event where the proceeds were to be turned into a fund for disabled ex-service men.

George Getz responded in his business like and whole-hearted way, stating that he loved the American Legion, that he loved the people of Holland who had co-operated with him 100 per cent in his every effort, and that as long as he was at Lakewood the same kindly feeling would always exist.
Jack Dempsey surprised his audience in a quaint little speech in which he stated that he made many friends in Holland and what he had seen of the city in the short time
that he was here was to his liking
and he promised to come again if
Mr. Getz and Holland would take him in.

Each short address was greeted by tremendous applause. People simply seemed to like Jack Dempsey for he proved to be a very modest man, in fact a big school boy and grabbed the hand of every kid near him. It has always been known that Jack Dempsey was a great lover of children and where ever he is he is constantly surrounded by them.

After the preliminary introductions, the sport card was on. The members of the Michigan Boxing Commission were mostly present;
the participants of the different

bouts had been examined and weighed in at the office of Dr. Westrate and all was ready for the go.

The following is the way a special sport writer from the Grand Rapids Press handled the bout story.

George F. Getz, genial host at the popular Getz farm and zoo and frequent booster of Holland civic enterprises, brought his friend, Jack Dempsey, here to referee an American Legion boxing show benefit Friday evening, but, without discredit to Gentleman Jack, fight fans, including Gov. Green and lesser notables, had plenty to repay
their efforts in the furious main go between the veteran Joe Lohman of Toledo and Benny Touchstone of Detroit.

These heavies provided one of the fastest and most interesting battles of the ring ever seen, with the final result entirely in doubt up until the tenth frame, when the heavier Touchstone finally performed that most difficult of feats,
flooring Lohman for a count of nine
and causing the crafty veteran
many a shoke of his oft-battered head before he could clear it sufficiently to chance rising to his feet.
It was that staggering blow and little else, except possibly his greater aggressiveness, than won for the Detroit.

Frequently Touchstone opened up strong at the start of a round
and appeared to have Lohman entirely bewildered by his many lefts
into the face and on the head. It looked like Touchstone's fight
easily each time but the experienced survivor of approximately 300 ring encounters, in almost every case, finally became aroused sufficiently to open up with that roundhouse swing of his to land sufficient punches to even up the situation before the round was over.

The Holland legion post had a great card lined up and there was no doubt that it pleased every one of the crowd that packed the Armory here. The patrons were pleased even before the main bout
—and that settled the question beyond a doubt — as was evidenced
when Announcer E. W. Dickerson introduced, if that was necessary,
Mr. Getz to his "home folk" of Holland. The popular Dempsey had been given a great hand just before
but it was nothing compared to the ovation extended the Chicago coal dealer who chooses Holland for his recreation hours when he is not hunting in Africa. The audience rose as a man to express its appreciation to the millionaire sportsman.

Albert Engle of Twin Lakes has shown to better advantage in other performances than he did in losing to Bob O'Siganc of Benton Harbor,
who knocked down his opponent in the sixth round and won Dempsey's
nod. Alex Miller of Kalamazoo easily outpointed Bob Young of Detroit, fighting as lightweights.

Glen Shepherd of Kalamazoo won
a technical knockout of Myrle
Wright of Fremont in the fourth stanza of probably the least interesting of the evening's contests.

Orrie Mosier of Muskegon, a 135-pound southpaw, outslugged and
outmaneuvered Peter Lacasse, Grand Rapids neophyte and knocked his man out in the fourth round. Reuben Edmans easily won his match with John Purchase of Holland in a four-rounder, although the local lad with the big frame assimilated one goodly portion of punishment.

Two "feaweight" exhibitions added to the interest of the evening's entertainment. The Stickley boys of Grand Rapids showed some real boxing prowess with Bill, 9, knocking out his brother, Leo, 10, in the final frame in what had every ear-
mark of being a clever hippodrome stunts. The boys were clever boxers as well as actors with the younger showing no outward signs of his pride in having the great Dempsey as his second.

Buddy Franks and Renus Baursma of Holland put on the other special and Dempsey stalked around in his usual pantherlike fashion as referee just as energetically as if two of the biggest boys in the game
were at it tooth and nail. Johnny Wirth of Grand Rapids and S. D.
Hicks of Lansing shared in the refereeing.

The following special story was taken from the Chicago Herald &
Examiner:

George Getz' American Legion
show here last night was a big success. George established a record as a "Michigan commissioner and promoter" when he succeeded in making all persons who entered the hall, save the fighters, pay for their tickets, and this included Governor Green of Michigan, Mr. Getz himself, Jack Dempsey, Gen. Clin-nin, the members of the legion and even the members of the press who came to write the story. Yesterday afternoon Getz entertained a number of Michigan business men,
statesmen and clergymen at his 300-acre farm, better known as Getz' Zoo. Lincoln Park has nothing on Mr. Getz' farm. When it comes to beauty, scenery, etc.,
few places in America compare with the Getz Zoo. He has countless trophies of his various trips to the wilds of India and Africa.

Besides being a boxing commissioner, prominent Chicago
business man and chairman of Governor Emmerson's board for the unemployed, Mr. Getz is a royal host. I have known George for many years, have seen him operate, but I must truly say I have never before seen him in his true color. Mr.
Getz is a big man, does things in a big way and for a man of his years

displays the pep and enthusiasm of youth. America could use more men like George Getz.

LOCAL SCHOOL PLAYS
SOUTH HIGH SATURDAY

One of the most interesting football games of the season will be played at Riverview park Saturday afternoon when the Holland
High boys will meet the South
High team of Grand Rapids. South has not been defeated this year in football and is one of the five teams left in the running for the state championship.

A proposal to specify division of the county road fund amounting to $105,000 into allotments of $36,000
for construction, $59,000 for maintenance and $10,000 for equipment,
was tabled until the January session.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS

The following arrests were made
for violating the city traffic ordinances. Henry King was fined $3
for not stopping at a marked street; Fred Gritzinger paid a $3
fine for passing another car at an intersection; Gilbert Zigterman, $3
for failing to observe traffic light;
Stanley De Neff, $3 for having no lights; Charles Crow, $5 for speeding; James L. Heard, $10 for speeding, and John Gristen, $10 for operating with dealer's plate.

Russell Kempers submitted to an operation for appendicitis at Ann Arbor.

A special congregational meeting
of Trinity Reformed church was held Friday evening at which time
a second call was extended to Rev.
H. D. Ter Keurst, 720 Lockwood street, Grand Rapids.

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM
GIVEN AT W.C.T.U. MEETING

A special Armistice Day program
was given at the W.C.T.U. meeting Friday afternoon. The meeting was opened with group singing
led by Miss K. Post. Mrs. M. Kolyn took charge of the devotions.

Miss K. Post had charge of the special patriotic exercises which included the flag salute, the reading of the American Creed and also two poems on the American flag
and closed the exercises with the reading of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. E. J. Blekkink gave a very interesting address on "The Dawning of a New Day."

It was decided at this meeting
that the W.C.T.U. be represented
in the Armistice Day parade.

Genuine Gas Coke

100 Pct. Fuel

Is Guaranteed to Burn and Heat to Satisfaction.
You can be the Judge.

Genuine Gas Coke is an easy fuel to learn to fire properly and economically. Expert information and instruction is offered free. It will yield splendid results in any properly designed heating plant.

Being free of smoke and dirt, it does not clog pipes and chimney with soot.

Furnaces can be used over long periods with infrequent cleaning.

The house will be cleaner when coke is used because there is no fine dust to be tracked through the house.

No excuses must be made by the user of Genuine Gas Coke to his neighbors—he does not pollute the air of his neighborhood with soot, smoke and grim.

Genuine Gas Coke is today the most economical solid fuel on the market. Will you allow us to prove to you that your season's heating bill will positively be less this year if you burn GAS COKE?

ZEELAND

Joe Nederveldt, 82, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. A. Elenbaas of Zeeland. Nederveldt was a pioneer resident of this section and was a veteran employee of the city of Zeeland, having served the public when the village still was presided over by presidents. He also worked under nine mayors. At the time of his death Nederveldt was in the employ of the city, having just rounded out 30 years of service. He was widely known and loved by all. Born in Zeeland, The Netherlands, he came to this country when a child. Until two years ago Joe Nederveldt and his sister, Mrs. Fred Keift of Grand Haven, held the Ottawa record for being the oldest twins in the county. Mrs. Keift died in 1928 almost on the same date her brother did two years later. Survived.

HOLLAND LAUNCHES OPPORTUNITY WEEK DRIVE TO RECAPTURE PROSPERITY

Grand Rapids Press.—Taking the cue from L. H. Rietdyke of Muskegon, who successfully sponsored a big trade boost in his home city, Holland merchants at a dinner Tuesday launched a prosperity drive as their part in ending the depression. Rietdyke told the merchants the only way to return prosperity is to dissolve the buyers' strike and bring money back into trade channels.

Holland merchants have taken "Opportunity Week" as their slogan. The drive will begin Thursday and continue for at least one week. Within a few weeks Holland banks will disburse approximately $150,000 in Christmas savings and this as an added impetus will help in restoring trade.

Mayor E. C. Brooks' plan for registration of Holland's unemployed was launched Tuesday and more than 200 men appeared at the city hall seeking jobs. Heads of most needy families will be given first consideration and the customary wage scale of 44 cents per hour will be paid for all city work.

Several churches are providing relief for the poor. The annual Christmas basket distribution will be made from the Community Chest, Inc., $2,000 having been provided.

Mrs. Earnest Lindburg has been able to return to her home in Waukazoo after spending a week in the Holland hospital.

Heinz Radio Banquet Was Unusual Affair

MR. J. A. HOOVER WAS TOAST-MASTER AT WARM FRIEND TAVERN

President Hoover's Address From the White House Portrayed Historic Connection With Big Firm

In every detail the world-wide radio banquet put on by the H. J. Heinz Company, dedicating a large theatre and recreation building as a manifestation of 61 years of friendly relations with 11,000 employees, proved an unqualified success.

The Holland banquet was the second largest but it goes without saying that it was as successful as the largest at the manager J. A. Hoover and committee and the Warm Friend Tavern force got through staging it. At least 150 employees and guests sat down to tables laden with the good things of life. At each cover was a beautifully engraved program gotten out in Pittsburgh, showing the exterior and the interior of the beautiful structure. Also a replica of the bronze tablet placed in the foyer of the new building presented by the employees. In raised letters the following inscription fills the copper plate: "This tablet is placed here by the employees of H. J. Heinz Company to mark sixty years of continuous friendly relations and to record their appreciation of this auditorium and service building dedicated to their use, comfort and happiness, 1930."

In Holland a real chicken dinner was served and it was said that the same menu was given at every Heinz center in America, Canada, Spain, England and other foreign countries. Rather unique was the dessert and especially the ice cream which came in forms of the products of the farm. There were images of turkeys, corn, tomatoes, melons, etc. — rather an interesting side dish and very appropriate on an occasion of this kind. The tables were decorated with fall flowers and one large basket of blooms was presented by the First State Bank.

The evening activities in Holland began promptly at 5:30 o'clock with Rev. J. C. Willis, pastor of the M. E. Church, giving the invocation. Mr. J. A. Hoover of the local plant gave the address of welcome, thanking the guests for being there and told of the object of this celebration.

Then followed the nation-wide hook-up with the central banquet hall at Pittsburgh, Penn., where the beautiful new building was dedicated and the banquet was in progress. Mr. Howard Heinz, president of the company, opened the speaking program. He gave a

The law which brings us to the goal of a perfect human relationship is never conceived or created by man, but is a restatement of Divine Law discovered by man. Its spirit is the essence of the solution of right relationship in industry, as in every other thing in life. The Golden Rule is a rule so clear and simple that a child may understand it, and its truth so profound and its purpose so all inclusive, that it commands the admiration of a sage. That other great fundamental rule truth of service was put into a couplet by the Founder when he said: "We learn to love by serving, and by serving, love will grow." President Hoover spoke for about ten minutes delivering his message from the White House. He pointed out that the friendly relations between the H. J. Heinz Company and its employees for 61 years was an example to follow and that these relations were not only reflected in the prosperity of the company, but in the prosperity and contentment and hopeful future of 11,000 employees, an object

Plant Perch In All Lakes In Michigan

STATE TAKES 2-INCH PERCH FROM RIVER; PLANTS THEM IN INLAND WATERS

Hundreds of thousands of two-inch perch are being taken from the mouth of the Boardman river from Grand Traverse Bay up the inland lakes of both peninsulas. A crew from the Fish Division of the Conservation Department is seizing the fingerlings as they run from Grand Travers Bay up the river. These fish are being shipped as rapidly as caught for inland lake planting.

While it is not known just how long the "run" will continue, the Fish Division expects to obtain about a million fingerlings.

The Division's railroad car the "Wolverine" has been assigned to exclusive duty of hauling the cans of fingerling perch to the various lakes, in the upper peninsula. Trucks are being used for lower peninsula plants and numerous shipments are being made by railroad baggage car. All of the railroad transportation service is given free to the state.

While millions of perch fry are hatched by the state each year, and are distributed about the lakes, the cost of raising perch to the fingerling state has been considered too high to be practicable.

In 1921 the Fish Division first took advantage of the "run" of perch fingerlings up the Boardman River. These fish, all running almost uniform in size, each fall run up from the Bay for a short distance in the river, probably attracted by the difference in water temperature. Each year since 1921 that the "run" is sufficiently heavy, a crew has seized the fingerlings, transferred them to cans and has shipped them for restocking lakes. The only cost to the state is the expense of a small party who use the seines, and the cost of trucks and planting.

The "run" now being experienced is the heaviest in several years. Fingerlings will probably be taken until the middle of November.

OTTAWA FARM BUREAU ELECTS AT MEETING

The annual meeting of the Ottawa County Farm Bureau was held at the Methodist Church at Grand Haven. C. L. Nash of the State Farm Bureau, in his talk before the group in the afternoon, stressed the value of such an organization especially in trying times like the present.

C. P. Milham, county farm agent and Miss Esther Lott, county demonstration agent, also spoke on their work in the county and urged strong centralization and organization to accomplish improvements. The officers were re-elected as follows: Maurice Lidsens, Holland, president; Gerrit Yntema, Jamestown, vice president; A. J. Knight, Robinson, secretary and treasurer. The following directors were elected for two years: Mrs. C. C. Lillie, Coopersville, Clarence Ulberg and Claus Erhorn, Crookery.

Several forest fires were brought under control in Allegan County, Sunday, after stubborn battles by volunteers working under direction of Conservation Officer Harry G. Plotts. Careless hunters were blamed in all instances. One in the northeast part of Heath township burned over nearly a section of land, including a log barn, before it was brought under control after an all-day battle that lasted until 10:30 Sunday night. Another fire was reported in Monterey township, near the Belden schoolhouse. Several miles north considerable difficulty was experienced in saving the buildings on the farm of Joe Enanilla. Timber was burned in Valley township several miles west of Allegan but no buildings were affected.

Holland Organization Presents Attractive Program for Year

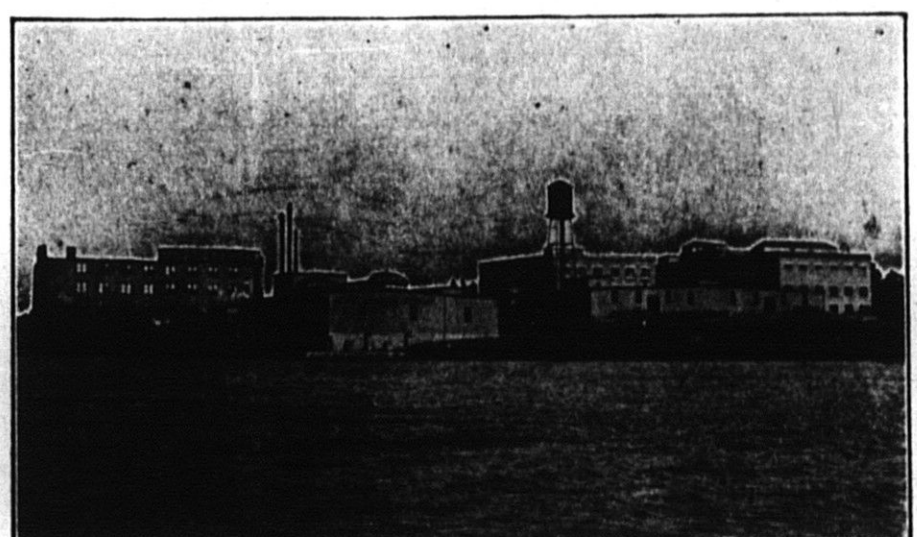

The Century Club, one of Holland's leading organizations, has announced its programs of entertainment for the year. The club was organized in 1897 and limits membership to 100.

Officers are: President, Mrs. William J. Olive; vice president, Mayor E. C. Brooks; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Albert Diekmann; executive committee, Mrs. W. J. Olive, E. C. Brooks, Mrs. W. J. Garrod, Henry Geerlings and Mrs. Albert Diekmann. Meetings are held on alternate Mondays at the homes of the members.

The program will feature an address by Raymond Mercola, youngest member of the Byrd Antarctic expedition, Nov. 17; a musicale by the Arion trio of Grand Rapids Dec. 1; Passion play by Mrs. George E. Kohn Dec. 15; a Christmas program in charge of Mrs. S. R. McLean Dec. 29.

The new year will open with an address by Dr. A. Leenhouts Jan. 12, a program by charter members in charge of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLean Jan. 26, book review by Dr. T. W. Davidson Feb. 9, a play in charge of Mrs. W. M. Tappan and Mrs. George A. Pelgrim Feb. 23, "Scandal about the Great and Near Great," by Dr. Arnold Mulder March 9, address by Mrs. Allen G. Miller of Grand Rapids March 23. The year will close April 6 with a banquet.

Archie E. McCrea, editor of the Muskegon Chronicle, will be the chief speaker at Fennville for the fall meeting of the Allegan County Brotherhood organizations to be held at Fennville. Mr. McCrea is a member of the national committee of the Y. M. C. A. Allegan county has churches of the Methodist denomination in Allegan, Otsego, Plainwell, Wayland, Martin, Hopkins, Saugatuck, Glenn, Ganges, Dorr and Fennville. The meeting will be held in the Methodist church house at Fennville, with dinner at 6:30 p. m. The program will follow.

H. J. Heinz Co. Holland Plant

greeting to the 11,000 Heinz employees and pointed out how, thru inventive genius all these different Heinz centers could participate in this wonderful radio banquet. He pointed out the exceptional relationship that existed between employer and employees covering a period of 61 years. He also mentioned how his father, three decades ago conceived the idea for the first employees' auditorium. He portrayed the great love and respect that his father had for the entire Heinz family of workers.

Continuing, Mr. Heinz said, "During the sixty-one years this business has been in existence, the weapon of industrial war has never been drawn. There have been mutual problems, the solution of which has been found in mutual efforts. Bitterness and malice have been absent. Mutual respect, faith and confidence have kept relations harmonious."

"The rule of reasonableness on the part of employer and employee has supplanted entirely the rule of force. Methods of reasonableness have been supported by good will, by sympathy, by the recognition of mutual rights. This way has led to peace, progress, happiness and content."

"Business must make a profit or it cannot exist. But in making that profit, business should recognize the fact that the most important element in which it deals is not plant or machinery, but men and women, the human element, and enlightened business will follow those policies and principles which will develop and improve its man power, which will raise the standard of their living and thinking, which will give them more of the comforts of life and protect them against their own ignorance or improvidence — in short, business should recognize the fact that employees are human beings, are entitled to respect and the opportunity to maintain their own self-respect. Labor and capital are partners. Partners need to know one another's viewpoint if they are to get along well together. The old view that labor is a commodity, is a part of the equipment, is something to be bought and sold, is no longer sound."

"After all, it is not true that industrial peace rests upon a fundamental basis of mutual good will?"

lesson that might be safely emulated by other industries of like proportion. Mr. Hoover harked back to the war period when he was appointed as head of the Relief Squad overseas when food and clothing were necessary, when soldiers had to be fed, when sustenance had to be given to hungry women and children. He stated that he often called in the heads of the H. J. Heinz Co. and received their wholehearted co-operation and the help of their entire organization. There were other prominent speakers on the program and the musical features were given by grand opera stars. The program as arranged follows:

The community singing in Holland was in charge of F. A. Schoonard and many of the popular songs were printed and placed at each cover. Mr. Schoonard's method was rather unique, letting the ladies and gentlemen sing separately and at the wind-up he joined them in one vast chorus. The radio reception was excellent, all the speakers on the program at Pittsburgh and the address of President Hoover at the White House being distinctly heard in Holland. J. A. Hoover, manager of the local plant, presided at the speakers table where the following men were seated: Austin Harrington, Charles A. Gross, Dr. John C. Willis, who offered the invocation, Wynand Wichers, M. H. Baskett, George Morris, R. A. Howlett, D. B. Hoag of the Sentinel, Ben Mulder of the News, C. B. McCormick, Henry Geerlings and R. Erikson. The following menu was served: Chilled tomato juice, cream of pea-

POULTRY SCHOOL AT HAMILTON, NOV. 20

Mr. J. A. Hannah, extension specialist from The Michigan State College Poultry Department, will conduct a one day Poultry School at The Hamilton Co-op. Garage, on Thursday, November 20th. Mr. John Brink and The Hamilton Co-op. will serve lunch at noon and the people will have a chance to look over the new feed mixing plant that will be in operation at that time. On Friday, November 21st, Mr. Carl Hoffman who has been doing Dairy Experimental Feeding at Michigan State College for the past eight years, and Mr. George Taylor who has charge of the College herd will be at The Hamilton Co-op. for an all day meeting to discuss feeds and feeding and the effect of different minerals on the growth of live stock. A lunch will be served at noon to all who are present at this meeting and the dairymen will also have a chance to look over the new feed mixing equipment.

The Bradley Laundry truck that picks up laundry at Hudsonville, was struck by the Pere Marquette flier on the crossing near that village. The driver stated that he looked before he started across the track, but saw no train, and just as his car got on the track it stalled. While he was trying to start his motor he glanced up and saw the flier coming and jumped to safety, as the train struck the truck. Laundry was strung along the track for a great distance. It sure looked like a wash out on the

Grand Haven Will Witness Boxing Show

The Grand Haven Athletic Club will stage a boxing card at the Grand Haven Armory on Friday night, November 14.

The management of the club has secured some high class fighters for the card which should prove interesting. Grand Haven has not had a boxing show in the last ten years and much enthusiasm has been aroused over the program.

In the main go Ruben Edmunds of Muskegon will fight Martin Houck of Pontiac. Both of these boys are hard hitters and a good fight is anticipated. In addition Harold "Big" Lett of Grand Haven, who is the only fighter to hold a knockout over Bill Scheffler of Kalamazoo, Michigan's most colorful heavyweight, will battle Jack Hardy, Memphis, Tennessee. This bout will go six rounds.

Two other Grand Haven boys will fight. Sam Cuti, who made quite a name for himself in an amateur tournament last year at Muskegon, will fight Robert McShannock in a four round match at 148 pounds. Billy Meadly, also of Grand Haven, will fight Billy Howe of Ludington. They will weigh in at about 120 pounds. The management expects to add one or two more bouts.

Appointment of Martin DeGlopper as business manager of the state highway department, effective Jan. 1, was announced Friday by Highway Commissioner Grover C. Dillman.

NOTES FROM ALLEGAN COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENTS' OFFICE

Shortage of hay has caused many dairymen to feel that spending money to buy additional roughage will bring too little return to justify such an expenditure. Herd improvement records show that about one to one and one-half tons of hay are needed per cow per year. The good cow will return from $100 to $150 above cost of feed providing she is fed properly.

One of the necessary elements of a good ration is a good roughage. The smart dairyman will not withhold the roughage even though it costs from $10 to $15 more than it did last year. This additional expense in roughage cost is offset with a lowered expense in grain cost and cheap protein that can be purchased in cottonseed meal.

Summaries of herd improvement records in Michigan show that when legume roughage, silage and grain are fed, the average production of nearly 4,000 cows was 70 pounds fat more than when no roughage was fed and grain alone with pasture was the chief feed.

A tricolour Christian Endeavor rally, comprising Kent, Allegan and Ottawa Counties, will be held Saturday and Sunday in Third Reformed church. Seventy-five societies are listed. The program will be featured with conference groups and a banquet, at which State Secretary E. S. Marks of Detroit will outline plans in a model Christian Endeavor. A union meeting will be held Sunday evening.

INDIA and Its Peoples

By Capt. L. R. Cloud Robinson

Jungle Thrills

THE Indian jungle is both beautiful and fascinating, but it also has its discomforts. I have vivid recollections of a long night's vigil. A panther had killed a goat on the edge of a small clearing. A friend and I rode out from camp, 15 miles on horseback. Leaving our horses in a village nearby, as the sun was setting, we climbed into a tree not very far from where the dead goat still lay. The sun sank and the short Indian twilight descended with a curious hush on the land.

Soon the silence was broken by the strange noises of the jungle. Mosquitoes buzzed around us and bit relentlessly. Pea fowl, with their absurdly pompous gait, strutted to the water of a neighboring pool. Parrots screamed and swooped from tree to tree. Suddenly, just as dusk was turning to darkness, a blurred outline appeared for a moment in the undergrowth 20 yards away. Immediately the sound of jungle life ceased, and then altogether unexpectedly there broke out on all sides a wild chorus of jabbering. The branches above our heads were wildly jerked and shaken; heavy bodies seemed to be hurling themselves from tree to tree. They were, of course, monkeys, and for an hour or more they chattered and jumped and jibbered, exhibiting in the frenzy of their hereditary enemy that preyed upon them.

As for ourselves, we knew for the time being that hope was dead. We stretched our cramped limbs and scratched our bitten hands and necks until we were nearly mad with irritation. But at last silence came once more. A faint light from the moon trickled through the branches. Tense and not daring to whisper or move, we strained our eyes to the farthest visible distance. Yet when the panther put in his appearance again we neither of us saw him come. His movements were absolutely noiseless, and not until he was actually on top of the goat's body did we realize his presence. He would have been difficult to miss, and my companion, who we had agreed was to fire first, shot him. We carried him back in triumph—115 miles in the dark on the back of my protesting horse.

After the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The Parent-Teachers Club of the Waverly school held their first regular meeting Friday evening. Arthur Kragt, president, had charge of the devotionals. A short business meeting was held at which time the following officers were elected: Arthur Kragt, president; Ben Kragt, vice-president; Miss Katherine Kragt, secretary; N. Kamphuis, treasurer. A well arranged program was given and consisted of the following numbers: A drill by a group of small girls; Lawrence Veltkamp rendered two solos; a short dialogue entitled "Three News Boys" was given by three school boys followed by a duet by two of the students; a solo by Lawrence Veltkamp, a Dutch dialogue by Miss Grace Van Tatenhove and Miss Marjorie De Vries; Duets by Misses Dorothy and Nellie Plaggenhoef, a reading by Leonard Dekker and a three-act play entitled "That Awful Letter" by Mrs. G. Van Dyke, Miss Wanetta Alofs, Miss Jennie Dekker and Mrs. Bernice Wiersma. After the program refreshments were served. The Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Sixth Reformed church held their annual business meeting Friday evening in the church parlors. The following officers were elected: Miss Alma Vanderbeek, president; Miss Eleanor Wierda, vice-president; Wallace Hietje, secretary, and John Hietje, treasurer. A program was given after which a social time was enjoyed.

GRAND HAVEN CONSTANTLY LOSING THIS YEAR

Coach Wally Weber's fighting Benton Harbor Tigers pushed over two touchdowns in the first half against Grand Haven at Benton Harbor Saturday and coasted to a 14 to 6 victory. The game, witnessed by 3,000 persons, was played for the benefit of charity and welfare work at Benton Harbor.

Grand Haven has lost practically every game this year and doesn't seem to be up to usual fitness.

Uncovering Old City

Excavations of a new must doubtless agitate the spirits of these Hesperides, these beautiful maidens who in Greek mythology guard the golden apples which cause the Earth, produced as a marriage gift for Hera, wife and sister of Zeus. In Morocco, near a legendary garden of the Hesperides, archeologists are making fresh excavations of the ruins of ancient Luxus. This city was founded more than 2,000 years ago by the legions of the Caesars on a hillside of Larache. There is profound interest among scientists in what valuable remains of the old Roman civilization may be brought to light. A group of prominent French and other archeologists just completed an inspection of Luxus already uncovered.

Guideposts of Stone

The variety of metal and wood sign posts to be seen along the road for the guidance of the automobile public are being displaced in England for those of stone which are said to be much more durable and more satisfactory in other ways. They are, of course, very substantial and are of a height which renders the inscription to be easily seen as they are about on a level with the driver's eyes and they are not too high to be seen at night by the illumination of headlights. The presence of the stone markers is said to be an addition to the landscape, whereas that cannot be said of many of the markers at present in use.

NORTH HOLLAND

Mrs. C. Bosman is well on the road to recovery after an illness of several weeks.

A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schilleman and they named him Jasper Hugh.

The drain digging machine has been moved to Allegan after completing the Bosch-Hulet drain. Our new prosecuting attorney, John Dethmers, is indeed popular in this vicinity. He was recently featured in a PTA gathering and made a hit with the folks of the entire countryside.

North Holland is pleased to know that their new pastor will be here soon from Sheboygan. For nearly two years this flock has been without a regular shepherd to lead them. Rev. H. Maasen and family will be well received at North Holland.

Friday afternoon the children of the intermediate grades of the North Holland school enjoyed a program. John Veenhoven acted as chairman. Each fourth and fifth grader recited a Bible verse. Each member of the sixth grade gave a poem. The seventh graders each told a story they had read. Afterward pop corn, contributed by Chester and Marvin Weststrate, was served.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sas entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chris Sas and family at a Halloween party Friday evening. Games were engaged in and refreshments served in the living room which was appropriately decorated in Halloween style. Miss Ruth Stegenga also attended as the guest of Miss Anna Sas.

Corn husking and silo filling is practically over.

Within a few weeks those fat turkeys will be lead to the chopping block.

North Holland is enjoying a fall that is unusual for warmth.

Upon examination in Justice H. Huxtable's court Friday Nicholas J. Danhof of Zeeland, former automobile dealer, was bound over to circuit court on a grand larceny charge preferred by the National Discount Co. of Grand Rapids. The Grand Rapids firm contends that Danhof appropriated $410 of its money that he had in his charge. Justice Huxtable set Danhof's bonds at $1,000, which he furnished. Circuit court will convene Nov. 17.

The Zeeland high school annual the Stepping Stone, this year received all-American rating, the highest possible for any annual publication, according to information received by Faculty Sponsor R. Muller Tuesday. The annual publication issued by last year's senior class was given the highest honors of any ever published by the local school. The scoring of 930 points out of a possible 1,000 placed the book as a leader in the United States. This is the third year the annual has received all-American honor rating.

A fast game of ball in the first two periods gave Zeeland the edge over Grandville High school's eleven on Friday and also gave the Zeelanders a 12 to 3 win. A forward pass from Bouma to DeVries after a smashing game to the 20-yard line gave the locals their first score. In the second period DeVries again went over the line on a hard off-tackle smash. Grandville registered its only score in the third period when it placed a very difficult kick over the bars, DePuit kicking the goal. The work of Geerlings at guard and Doerner in the backfield for the locals was the best seen this year. For Grandville Boydon played a real game. Grandville presented a much crippled team as Capt. Lane was out because of injuries and Dick Muller, star back, was found to be ineligible. This is the first win of the year for the Zeelanders.

Zeeland High school was given a unanimous decision over Caledonia High in the preliminary debate on the state question Thursday evening. Caledonia was represented by Gertrude Herman, Alvina Mulder and Vera Johnston. Zeeland speakers, who upheld the affirmative, were Alice Kette, Lester De Koster and Lester Wolterink.

Master Gerald Vande Vusse of Zeeland, boy soprano, was at the Sparta revival meeting Sunday.

The senior class play this year will be staged Nov. 20 and 21 in the local high school auditorium. She play, "Am I Intruding," is a three-act mystery comedy. The leads will be played by Alice Kette and Gerald Bouma. Others in the cast are: Marjorie Van Koevoering, Helene Lage, Esther Lage, Gertrude Van Hoven, Joanna De Vries, Kenneth De Young, Earl Goosen, Harold Berghorst, James Johnson and Albert Janssen. The production is being coached by Miss W. Hyma.

A Bank Is A City's Clearing House

A solid banking institution is a tremendous asset in any community. A bank furnishes the financial motive power that helps industry, that promotes commerce, that reflects prosperity on the farm, and safeguards the home. This bank is doing a real service in all these avenues of endeavor. Your savings set the wheels of prosperity going.

We notice that the Holland Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants Association are bending their every energy and are putting forth their best efforts to stimulate business. For that reason the next six days will be termed "Opportunity Week" in Holland, in order that those who have money to spend will now buy the things they need.

This gesture is an effort in the right direction, and we hope for it the greatest success.

The time to buy serviceable merchandise at a most reasonable price was never better. A general trend in a buying direction will soon set the wheels of industry going full time, which cannot help but be reflected in future prosperity.

We commend "Opportunity Week" as a Thrift measure.

FIRST STATE BANK

HOLLAND, MICHIGAN

is elected Register of Deeds for a term of two years commencing January 1, 1931.

GRAND HAVEN MAN FINDS OLD PENNY DATED 1803

Fred Peterson of Grand Haven digging under the basement of his house at 208 Third street, found a penny dated 1803. The words "Union Forever" and the date were very legible. The old coin, 127 years old, is probably worth many times its original value and Mr. Peterson is very proud of his find.

FROGS, MUSKRATS AND SNAKES SUFFER BY DROUGHT IN MICHIGAN

One crop seriously affected by the prolonged drought in Michigan, to which most farmers give little attention, is that of frog legs, according to Ray Smith, Oxford, who earns his living by providing the legs for metropolitan epicures. Smith says that never in his experience have frogs been so scarce as this year. Hundreds may be found in dry swamps, he says. He predicts the loss this year will seriously curtail the number to be served next year.

Not only frogs have suffered from the drought, but muskrats are dying by the scores because of the unnatural conditions the extended dry weather has imposed upon them. Snakes have also been forced from the swamps and swamp rattlers, usually extremely shy of man, are to be found in spots where never before seen. At the edge of a swamp at Pound Lake near Milford, more than a score of the small rattlers have been killed this year because they were forced from their hiding place in the inaccessible depths of the swamp.

Pathetic Death Message

A death message of pioneer days which never reached its intended recipients was revealed at Dover, Ohio, with the finding of a heart shaped stone, on which the following inscription had been laboriously scratched: "Let me be known if found. I'm bound to death. May 1818.—W. F. R." The entire surface of the stone was occupied by the message, which was almost effaced by erosion. The stone was found near a culvert where it is believed to have been uncovered by recent high waters.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for November 16

THE BELIEVING CENTURION, A GENTILE WHOSE FAITH JESUS COMMENDED

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 8:5-13. GOLDEN TEXT—And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. PRIMARY TOPIC—A Man Who Believed Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Man Who Believed Jesus. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Being Faithful to Other Races. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Overcoming Racial Prejudice.

I. Who the Centurion Was (v. 5). His name is not given. His title was derived from the word meaning "a hundred." He was, therefore, officially the commander of a hundred men. "The ordinary duties of a centurion were to drill his men, inspect their arms, food, and clothing, and to command them in the camp and in the field."

II. The Centurion's Need (vv. 5, 6). He had a very dear servant who was gravely afflicted with the palsy, and at the point of death (Luke 7:2). This slave was highly valued for this character and ability. We are not told in this account as to whether the centurion had employed doctors. In all probability they had been employed and were unable to give help. The centurion had, no doubt, heard of the wonderful power of Jesus to heal. Therefore, he came to him as the only one who could help.

III. The Centurion's Request (vv. 5, 6). It was that Christ would come and heal his servant (Luke 7:3). From the account in Luke we learn that the centurion first sent the leaders of the Jews. Being a Gentile, he doubtless believed that he could best secure the attention and consideration of Jesus through the mediation of the Jews. The leaders were of good report among the Jews. The leaders who were sent testified to the good reputation which he bore in the community. They especially mentioned his benevolent deeds to the Jews.

IV. The Centurion's Humility (vv. 7, 8). As Jesus was nearing the centurion's house the friends were sent to say to him that he was unworthy for him to come under his roof, but because the case of his servant was so grave, he brushed aside all difficulties and personally appealed for help. Jesus is pleased when men realize their utter helplessness and appeal to him for help.

V. The Centurion's Faith (vv. 8-10). In spite of his unworthiness he committed his case to the Lord. He believed that if Jesus would he would be healed. It is most interesting to note his philosophy of authority. He said, "I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this man, 'Go,' and he goeth, and to another, 'Come,' and he cometh, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he doeth it." He believed that disease was under control, that Christ could order it about just as he ordered his soldiers about. By faith he saw Christ as completely in authority over the most violent malady as he himself was in control over the soldiers under him. His faith was so unusual that Christ marvelled at it. He did not marvel in the sense of being surprised at it, but marvelled at its intelligence. His faith was based upon the true philosophy of the universe; namely, that the universe is based upon a law and Jesus Christ is the Director and Controller of that law. So greatly was Christ pleased with his faith that he declared that it exceeded anything found among the Jews, that many Gentiles would have a place in the kingdom to the exclusion of many Jews.

VI. Christ's Wonderful Power (v. 13). He said to the centurion, "I will come and heal him" (v. 7). Note his perfect confidence in himself. He did not say, "I will come and see what I can do," but "I will heal him." He knew that all power was given unto him by the Father. He did not need to go and touch the centurion's slave, but needed only to speak the word, and it was done. He could heal from miles away as well as when in the presence of a sick person. How wonderful is the power of the Lord Jesus Christ! Let us trust him at all times and under all circumstances.

HOPE IS CONTINUING TO GATHER GOOSE EGGS

Kalamazoo college defeated Hope here Friday, 14 to 0. Deehr, quarterback, scored both touchdowns and Persons added the extra points. Hope failed to get beyond Kalamazoo's 20-yard stripe. Fox and Wynyard led Hope's squad. Hope finished the season without a victory in six games and collected 12 points for the season's total.

Religion

The religion that makes people respect other people's religion; the religion that makes people tell the truth and pay their debts; the religion that keeps people from gossiping about their neighbors; the religion that makes men honest and upright; the religion that is a part of people's everyday life, exemplified in kind deeds, charitable acts, cheering words, is the kind of religion the world needs today. MANY NEED WORK

Grand Haven Tribune.—There are 150 applications for work at the local employment bureau. There have been 20 jobs available. Secretary Stribley and the Civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, urge the citizens to vote "Yes" on the bond issue for a sewage disposal plant. If the measure goes through, W. E. Baumgardner, city manager, says work will be started in two weeks and absorb much of this demand.

Leaving the Farm

If you were willing to be a farmer, and to sense the joys of carrying the gods of life and laurel and myrtle and the flowers of the season, and to see your parents' graves and to see the world from grapes and a handful of milk whenever you milked it. Goats! But now you scorn the country and farming and are always singing the praises of the triple-ringed helmet and the shields you love. As if you were some Acarnanian or Mullan mercenary. Don't, my son, come back here, and stick to a peaceful life (for farming is sure and safe, and has no battalions, or ambushes, or refinements) and be our support in our old age, preferring assured comfort to an uncertain life.—Aldrich
