Industrial Nuggets Lack Exploitation

LITTLE DO HOMEFOLKS
KNOW WHAT PRINTING BUSINESS MEANS TO
CITY OF HOLLAND

We hear so much about new factories that have arrived in Holland recently and we forget our mainstay here, and there are several of them.

The case in point just now is the printing industry. There are very few citizens who realize what printing and publishing has meant to the city. All during these years of depression these printing plants and newspaper offices have been carrying on, have not reduced employment perceptibly, have paid substantial wages, and not a murmur has been heard from them.

In the third section of this issue, page four, in other words the board of supervisors' section, you will find among other things a bird's eye view of Holland. You will also find there a compilation of what the collective payroll of the printing industry is annually in the city of Holland, the amount of taxes paid, the amount of people employed, and how many mouths are fed through the avenues of this one industry.

Undoubtedly Holland folks will be surprised that this friendly giant has assumed such proportions. The wages and taxes paid by the printing industry collectively does not begin to represent all the expenditures. There are more than a dozen plants, large and small, spending annually a large amount for running expenses and maintenance, such as coal, gasoline, light and power, gas, repairs, civic obligations and a score more that we might mention.

We are exceedingly pleased to be a part of these collective units and have been for 62 years and we can proudly say the Holland City News is a pioneer, established in 1872.

Holland has every reason to be elated over its recent industrial developments but if you dig under the surface you will find that there are other industrial nuggets that our citizenry does not know much about. This at least is one revelation and undoubtedly if we dig some more we will find other strata of "pay dirt" in other lines of trade, which is not heralded from the house tops.

It would be well to turn to the very last page of this issue in section three and look over this well compiled printers' review so well compiled and neatly gotten up by Steketee-Van Huis printers with the co-operation of the other printers and newspaper men of the city.

We have to get out of the mood that all our factories are empty. The fact is that most of them are doing business considering that we have more than fifty of them. There are only a few left that remain to be filled and that picture will be changed in the not-too-distant future. Simply have patience, a boosting spirit and a kind word or a timely suggestion for those who are doing their very best to favorably change our industrial complex.

HOLLAND MAN HEAD- LINER AT ZEELAND "LIT"

A regular meeting of the Zeeland Literary club will be held next Tuesday afternoon, November 14, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edward Den Herder on Central avenue. Dr. W. Wichers, guest college president, will be the speaker. His subject is "The Hitler Movement." Music will be furnished in the form of a trombone solo by Paul Kline. Members of the club are requested to bear in mind that the club meetings begin at 3 o'clock.

SUGGESTS STEEL BOAT FOR RESCUING

Henry Vander Schel of the local harbor boat suggests that a steel boat with oars be moored in the slip at Kollen's dock for instant use in case of accident.

A case in point was the near teens who were rescued in mid-lake near that point when their boat upset and they were found floundering in the water until they grasped the bottom of the boat in order to keep afloat. Police headquarters under the direction of Chief Peter Lieveense sent Peter Bontekoe and Jack Van Hoff to the scene and when they arrived rescuers were already at work taking the cramped youngsters, who had nearly given up, from the craft. Police cars rushed them to warm places or their homes and they are today little worse for their experience although it was a close call.

Fishermen on the dock were frantic to get to the boys but had no means but an old sailboat without oars. A convenient steel boat could be used by anyone near instantly where now there is much delay.

Many of the boys had been playing football in the neighborhood and decided to play on a gridiron north of the city and were on their way by boat.

PRINS TO HAVE AUTO LICENSES THIS WEEK

Michigan motorists may purchase 1934 license plates November 15, Frank D. Fitzgerald, secretary of state, announced today. He said the plate sale is starting early this year to dispel fears of motorists that they would be obliged to buy both 1933 and 1934 plates within a short time. He also pointed out that 1933 plates now selling at half price will be good until March 1. Fitzgerald said a $1,588,000 decrease in registration revenues proves his contention registration fees should be reduced. November 1 there were 59,685 fewer automobiles operating in Michigan than at the same time in 1932.

The local license bureau in the Vischer-Brooks building on East 8th St. will have plates the latter part of the week, "Heinie" Prins states.

LOCAL PLANT DAMAGED $2,500 BY FIRE AND WATER

A spark from an incinerator is said to have started a blaze in one of the wooden structures of the H. J. Heinz company Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, doing fire and water damage amounting to $2,500 which was fully covered by insurance. The wind from Black lake had fanned the flames but not to such an extent that the fire could not be controlled. Employees who came for the night shift noticed the fire in the vinegar bottling department, turned in the alarm and then began to use their own department which is manned by efficient firemen and plenty of apparatus in the building.

The Holland fire department soon arrived with three trucks and together with the H. J. Heinz men fought the flames for more than an hour when they were subdued. The wooden structure is right alongside the large concrete building and firemen carried the hose to the fourth floor sending streams down on the wooden building below.

Mr. J. A. Hoover, local manager, believes the loss will be a trifle over $2,500. The fire damage is already being repaired and replacements made and the plant is not handicapped in the least because of the fire and shipments are being made as always.

Mr. Hoover stated that the H. J. Heinz Co. has a well-drilled fire squad in the plant and unexpected fire drills are often staged.

IF YOU HATE THUNDER
MOVE TO THE ARCTIC

There is something to be said for living north of the Arctic circle. But one thunderstorm in 10 years is about all you need look for in localities that far north, weather men say.

SPRING LAKE YOUTHS ARE NUMBERING HOUSES

Houses in Spring Lake are being numbered by Dennis Allen and Don DeVries of Spring Lake, to facilitate the location of the residences, which is meeting with great success. The village council platted the city at one time numbering the lots. These numbers are being used to designate the houses. The enterprise is a private one.

WM. KIEFT FORCED TO KILL HIS DOG, WHICH DEVELOPS RABIES CASE

William Kieft of Grand Haven was obliged to kill his fine dog last night as he developed rabies following the bite of a strange dog. The dog was tied up at the Kieft home and was pitched upon by the strange dog and badly bitten. An examination by a veterinarian showed that the dog was suffering from rabies and he was gassed.

VRIESLAND WILL SHIP 100 CARS OF CELERY

Nearly 100 cars of celery will be shipped from Vriesland in the near future. Celery growers report the best crop in three years. Besides rail shipments thousands of pounds are shipped out nightly by trucks. Prices are higher than last year.

HIPPOTAMUS IVORY DOESN'T TURN YELLOW

Hippopotamus ivory, unlike elephant ivory, does not turn yellow with age. For this reason it is formerly widely used in the manufacture of false teeth.

EBENEZER CHURCH TO HAVE CELEBRATION THURSDAY

Next week, Thursday, November 16, Ebenezer church will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. Once during that time the church was destroyed by fire. The first pastor of this church was Rev. C. A. Kuiper, elder in a Pella, Iowa, church. He was, however, ordained as a minister and was the first to serve the church.

The late Dr. Henry Dosker was the second pastor. The oldest living pastor in this vicinity is Rev. James Wayer of the First Reformed church of Holland, who will be the principal speaker. Another pastor on the program will be Rev. Albert Strabbing, who was pastor for a good many years and lives in Holland today.

Rev. J. Molendyke of New Jersey and Rev. J. H. Pettonopol of Iowa, both old gentlemen, sent letters of regret, stating that their hearts are with the church in the celebration but they are unable to be present.

There will be a program next week, Thursday afternoon and evening, and a free supper will be served by the ladies of the church to those who wish to stay over for the evening program.

Rev. John F. Schortinghuis, present pastor, is general chairman and Henry H. Boeve is the historian. The public is welcome to attend these programs next week, Thursday.

Holland Finds Investments Not All Poor

ECHOES OF THE OLD NEW FOUNDLAND WOOD PULP COMPANY OF CANADA IS PLEASING TO HEAR

Ready money these days is about the most welcome thing one can imagine but when it comes from a source that a dozen years ago was considered a flat failure, that is still another thing.

To tell about the great New Foundland deal of nearly a score of years ago is a long story and time and space forbids going over that. It has to do with large tracts of forest in the North covered with trees suitable for wood pulp. Much Holland money was put into the deal together with outside money. The promoters had faith in the project and were honest in their convictions that it would pay big returns. Their faith was well founded and they were indeed honest about the matter, sinking their own money with that of others in the venture.

The property was wonderful but existing laws and the wait for development took too much time and money for the average man to hang on. Many did succeed in staying and reaped the reward. A large English syndicate bought the entire holdings to be paid for over a period of years.

Mr. Henry P. Zwemer, local business man on East 8th St., one of the persons interested, and there were at least a dozen others in Holland, states that $47,000 was paid out early last spring to western Michigan shareholders, most of them in Holland—as one of the cash payments on a ten-year plan. The first substantial payment was made some years ago.

The company purchasing the large tract from Holland and Grand Rapids shareholders have made money and have lived up to every agreement in paying Holland and western Michigan shareholders.

Mr. Zwemer stated today that a meeting of the directors is being held this evening, preparatory to receiving the last payment of $44,500.

At the meeting at the Tavern are C. Owen, Grand Rapids; Secretary Miss Bessie Pfandstiel who has been with the company a number of years, also Henry Peirum, Dr. J. B. Nykerk and Mr. Zwemer.

One hundred and seventy children of Allegan schools were to receive the second dose of toxoid and vaccinations this (Friday) morning, school officials announced. The schedule of vaccinations called for them to begin at thirty-three at the junior high; nine-fifteen at the South Ward school; ten o'clock at the North Ward, and ten-forty-five at the Dawson school. After the vaccination today there still will be about 150 children who are to receive vaccinations.

STATE OF MICHIGAN EXECUTIVE OFFICE, LANSING

As governor of the State of Michigan and as an individual interested in the welfare of every community of this commonwealth, I deem it my privilege and duty to focus public opinion upon the annual roll call of the American Red Cross, to be conducted throughout the nation between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11 to 30.

The Red Cross is no stranger in Michigan. In the last year its sympathetic hand has reached into the homes of thousands of our citizens lessening distress among those in need, assisting service and service men and their dependents, reducing accidental deaths, and promoting good citizenship among youths of the world through its Junior Red Cross. These are among the ideals to which this humanitarian agency has dedicated itself.

Throughout the four years of economic strife from which the country is now emerging, no assigned task has been too great for the Red Cross. With remarkable speed and efficiency it converted huge governmental wheat and cotton surpluses into flour and clothing, and by skillful distribution helped to provide the necessities of life for more than 25,000,000 needy and distressed persons.

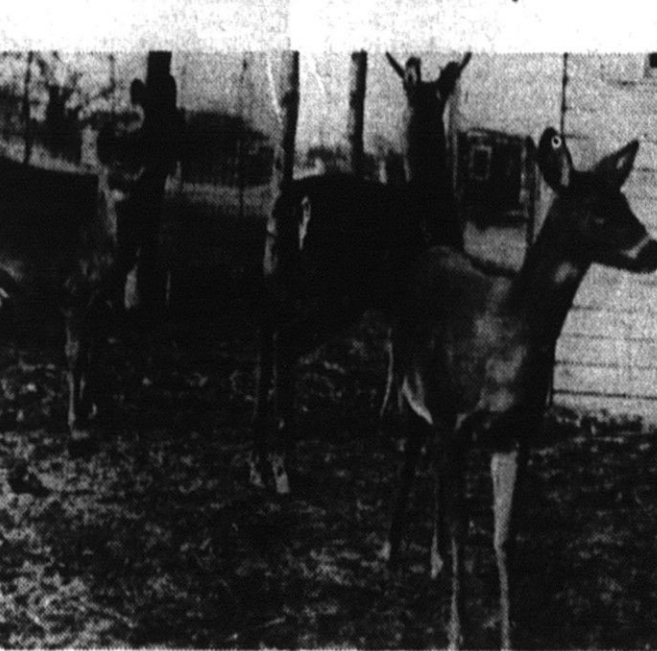

Although the first skirmishes against the war on depression already have been won, there shall be no truce for the Red Cross. Disasters in this country will continue, and health education tomorrow will be more vitally necessary than ever as a result of reduced family budgets of today. The Red Cross is an indispensable part of our community life and so will be remembered in both lean and prosperous times.

In humanity's name I urge the citizenship of Michigan to respond wholeheartedly to the approaching membership campaign of the Red Cross, which is of and by the people and thereby dependent upon individual support.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state, this ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-three, and of the commonwealth, the ninety-seventh.

(Signed)
WILLIAM A. COMSTOCK, Governor.
FRANK D. FITZGERALD,
Secretary of State.

Deer Hunting Season in Michigan Opens Next Week Wednesday

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Tuesday evening Rev. J. W. Beardslee of Constantine, Mich., will lecture in Hope College chapel. Subject: "The Perils of Freedom." Note: This was some time before this wonderful man came to Holland. Later he became head of the Western Theological Seminary and remained in this city until his death some 15 years ago. The library building on the seminary campus and many of the volumes therein are a gift from Dr. Beardslee and there are many other instances where his benevolence was shown. Holland always loved and respected Dr. Beardslee and looked upon him as a man of dignity, of loyalty, with a deep sense of right and wrong and with a most sincere religious Christian gentleman. His son, John W. Beardslee, Jr., followed in the footsteps of his father, graduating from Hope College and seminary and now holds a most important position on the faculty of New Brunswick Seminary in New Jersey.

Last Saturday Constable Charlie Odell of the First ward and Cornelius Blom, Sr., of River St., shot a fine deer in the "Big Swamp" near Port Sheldon. The deer weighed 202 pounds dressed.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schoon—a boy. Note: This must be "Jim," a former Holland printer, now in the same business in Grand Rapids.

Nov. 10 is the 400th anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther and in the Reformed churches of Holland and Zeeland preparations are being made to commemorate this event. Rev. N. M. Steffens, Rev. B. Van Ess and Rev. Peter Lepeltak will be called upon for addresses featuring the celebration of Luther's birth and the reformation period from which the Protestant church dates. Note: At that time Reformed churches in the east as well as in the west gave outstanding programs, some lasting for two days. Today, Friday, marks the 450th anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

It is unlawful for any person to kill more than two deer—or to kill a red coat or fawn in spotted coat—or to kill a deer while it is in water—or to use dogs or artificial lights.

Jacob J. Van Dyke, an old soldier of Co. D, Eighth Michigan Infantry, in the Civil War, died at his home on the north side at the age of 73 years. Two brothers were also veterans of the Civil War. The News devotes considerable space to this death as the family was well known among the early citizens here.

Judge Edward P. Kirby, Republican, Grand Haven, was returned to the office of Judge of Probate by an overwhelming majority. The late Hon. D. B. K. Van Raalte, Holland, was elected representative to Lansing at the November election. Fred M. Warner was elected governor; Andrew J. Ward, Holland, Register of Deeds; Hon. G. J. Diekema, Holland, as congressman of the Fifth District. He received a 5,000 majority. Cornelius Andre of Georgetown was elected sheriff of this county. Note: Yes, there were such things 25 years ago. Today the land has disappeared and "then the deluge."

WRIEDEN SPEAKS ON NRA TO EXCHANGE CLUB MEMBERS

Arthur W. Wrieden, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce and general of the local NRA movement, addressed the members of the Holland Exchange club at their luncheon at Warm Friend Tavern Wednesday noon.

Mr. Wrieden pointed out a number of reasons why the NRA is being retarded, one of which is lack of faith. Race, religious and party prejudices were severely criticized by the speaker, and the third retarding factor of the NRA was shown to be individual selfishness.

Mr. Wrieden also told a number of benefits already realized since the NRA has been inaugurated.

governor of Indiana, is a nephew of M. S. Marshall of Holland. Note: It will be remembered that Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were engaged in the hotel business both at Holland and the resorts and lived here for many years. Tom Marshall, who, by the way, was a Democrat, later became vice president of the United States.

Martin Van Doorn and Nick Hofsteen, Holland, while hunting duck in "big bayou," Black Lake, brought home 20 in the morning's hunt. Note: No such limit now.

Cummings and Schaftenaar is the name of the new firm at 13 East 8th St. doing electric shoe repairing. The building was occupied by the Mouw Music store. This is one of the first machines installed in this part of the state and the first in Holland.

Mr. Schaftenaar has learned shoe making at the Holland Shoe Co., where he was employed for some time. Note: Cummings has long since left the firm but Mr. Schaftenaar and his son are still at the old stand but they call it a "Shoe Hospital" now and have deservedly built up a good business in doctoring up sick shoes and, believe us, there are many these days.

Miss Jennie Roest of 9th and River Sts. has gone to Middleville, Ohio, where she has accepted a position in the public schools.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Born—To Rev. and Mrs. Willis G. Hoekje of Morioke, Japan—a daughter, Jean Alexandra. Note: The Hoekje family are now in Holland on a furlough of a year and the children are studying here.

Stephen G. Oudemolen has sold his two-year-old colt to Albert P. Kleis and has now purchased a five-year-old from Martin Franzburg. "Steve" is getting quite a reputation as a horse trader. Note: Today he might make a good auto salesman.

George F. Getz, owner and founder of Lakewood Farm, goes to war. He desires to do something more than buy Liberty bonds. He offered his services to the Red Cross and left New York and is expected to be on the western front within a few days. He will have the army rank of major. Mr. Getz is way over the age limit for a soldier, being 53. His son, George, Jr., is 11 and James, 8 years. Mr. Getz stated, "I am bound to do something more than sign checks for Red Cross and Liberty bonds. I want to get near the front where our boys are and make myself directly useful." Note: The News gives at least a column on this story with a picture of Mr. Getz.

Among the several babies listed during the months of August and September it is shown that the stork flew plenty. There are at least a column of the little folks reported. We will pick a few at random: A daughter, Dorothy Mae, to Mr. and Mrs. Marius Mulder; a son, Ned Carlton, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shaw; a daughter, Jane, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Visser; a son, Clarence John, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lokker; a daughter, Marjorie Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bolhuis; a son, Harvey, to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Van Dort; a daughter, Marie Esther, to Mr. and Mrs. John Looman; a son, Frank Marcellus, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lievense; a daughter, Margaret Mae, to Mr. and Mrs. John Dykema; a daughter, Wilhelmina Elizabeth, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Witteveen.

ABOUT 1,800 PLACES TO HANDLE ROD LICENSES

General rod licenses for the calendar year 1934 will be in the hands of about 1,800 license agents before January 1, the department of conservation has announced. Licenses now held by almost 300,000 Michigan anglers do not expire until December 31. Under the general rod license law, adopted by the last session of the legislature, the department pointed out, residents engaged in fishing in any fisherman must have a 50c license. One fishing in season, and spearing in season, is not excepted.

Maurice Kuite of Holland conservation officer, will soon announce the places in Holland and vicinity where licenses can be procured.

Zeeland Boy Meets Sudden Death In Creek

WATCH STOPS WHEN ACCI-DENT TAKES PLACE; DIES
FROM BROKEN NECK

A terrible accident occurred south of Zeeland Tuesday morning when Gerald Boelens of that place was instantly killed when the car he was driving turned turtle in Black river creek some 2½ miles south of Zeeland on the Overisel road.

Boelens was on his way to Hamilton, going to the Stalkamp Egg exchange, he being employed by Mr. L. G. Stalkamp of Zeeland who has exchanges in two places. When the young man reached the top of the slight grade as he approached the creek, the car tracks showed where he had struck and slewed in the loose gravel, evidently losing control of his machine. The tracks of the car led toward the left side of the road where the roadster had overturned a post before leaving the bridge abutment, turning end over into the creek, pinning him submerged in the water beneath the car.

The accident was discovered by Marvin Geerlings, a neighboring farmer, who was driving ahead of him in the same direction. In glancing in his rear vision mirror he missed the car that had only a minute before been following him and upon closer view discovered it upside down in the creek, only the wheels visible.

He at once notified Zeeland police headquarters and a wrecking car and several men were rushed to the scene, including Chief of Police Fred Bosma, L. G. Stalkamp, and an assistant, William Looman, Tony Romeyn, Mr. Geerling and a neighboring farmer, Mr. Boers.

When the men waded into the waist-deep water and turned the car over, they found the lifeless body of the young man in the driver's seat.

By that time Coroner Gil Vande Water arrived from Holland from where he had been summoned and took possession of the body, and upon investigation declared that Boelens had died from a fractured neck when he was crushed under the weight of the car, and death had been almost instantaneous.

The accident happened at about 9:30 o'clock, according to Mr. Geerlings, and this time was also indicated on the young man's watch, which stopped showing that time. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boelens of this city, and four sisters, Sena, Grace, Lucile and Gladys Boelens, all at the parental home; also his grandfather, Johannes Boes of Zeeland.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home on Taft avenue, and 2 o'clock at the Second Reformed church, Rev. R. J. Vanden Berg officiating, and burial will be in Zeeland cemetery.

ZEELANDERS GOING TO HUNT DEER

(Zeeland Record)
Among those from this community who will leave in the near future on a deer hunting trip, and who have secured licenses are James Van Volkenburg, John Timholt, Gerrit D. Wyngarden, Q. De Vries, John D. Wyngarden, Bert Wiersma, Siebe Wiersma, Albert Winstrom, John Danielson, Dr. John Van Kley, Joe Chamberlain, B. J. W. Berghorst and Harold Berghorst of North Blonddin; Frank Karst of Allendale; G. B. Lemmen of Holland and Jacob Van Hoven of Jamestown.

DELAY FURLOUGH DUE TO FINANCES

Rev. and Mrs. D. Dykstra, Reformed missionaries in Arabia since 1906, have postponed their furlough to America, due in 1934, for one or two years, due to financial stringency by the board of foreign missions.

Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra (Minnie Wilterdink), were married in Arabia. Dykstra left Holland upon the completion of his college course at Hope and later took his seminary course at Western Theological seminary while on furlough.

"Mrs. Dykstra was sent out by First Reformed church of this city.

HEAD OF BEET SUGAR CROP REPORTS ON CROP FOR YEAR

E. Wilson Crosse, managing director of the Farmers' and Manufacturers' Beet Sugar association of Columbus, Ohio, estimated that 872,000,000 pounds of refined sugar, dried beet pulp and molasses will be produced this year by some 31,600 farmers in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin.

Hyma High Lights BY JOHNNY HYMA

I am playing in Canton, Ohio, now, the home of our martyred president, William McKinley, the Spanish-American war president. (I met a Spanish war vet and asked him what he was doing when Dewey took Manila? He said "I took chocolate.")

I just heard of a politician dog here in Canton. A politician dog is one who doesn't vote but hangs around the polls.

I heard a fish song today, "Me and My Shad-roe." (You just play the scales.)

What did Bicarbonate of Soda say after it landed in the stomach? "Whyncha come up sometime?"

ARMISTICE DAY

I would be remiss in my duties if I did not call to the attention of our home folks that Saturday, November 11, was the day when Armistice was declared, ending the most bloody conflict of all time. This world's strife sent the flower of this nation's manhood to foreign shores to battle for what they thought was the Savior of democracy. This is not a time for discussion but a time to commemorate. Every locality in this grand country of ours felt the scars of that war through the loss of loved ones.

Holland was no exception. Markers designate the graves of soldiers brave overseas as well as at home. Two military posts fittingly honored two brave young men from this city—one a neighbor boy with whom I was intimately acquainted.

Armistice Day up to this time has not been recognized by our government as a legal holiday. I would like to leave the thought that strong efforts be made when next Congress meets that this day be legalized as a holiday, the same as other national patriotic days.

I, nevertheless, urge that Saturday, November 11, be declared a legal holiday beginning with the "silent hour" at 11 o'clock in the morning and I suggest that all who can possibly do so respectfully and prayerfully commemorate this day or a part of this day which has exacted a most terrible sacrifice from this nation as well as the peoples of the earth—a sacrifice that will be felt by generations yet unborn. I further request that the flag be unfurled over the city hall and that citizens generally display the colors next Saturday.

Respectfully,
NICODEMUS BOSCH,
Mayor.

C. R. SLIGH GETS FIRST ORDER AT HOLLAND PLANT

Charles R. Sligh company, which began operations here this week, is now hustled into activity with an initial order for 70 suits of its new line. Sample production has been under way the last few days and in two weeks the company will go into active operation.

Baker Furniture company, which will be operating by Dec. 1, employed 97 laborers during the week to speed improvements at the plant. At the Holland Shoe factory 165 workmen returned to their jobs awaiting some NRA labor adjustment.

Merchants Hear of Beets And Sweets

WILL GO INTO SUGAR CAM-PAIGN AND BUY HOLLAND
ALSO CHANGE CODE
HOURS

Rather a sizeable audience of merchants gathered at the city hall Monday evening to hear several speakers and to transact other business. The principal speaker was William Connelly, industrial director of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Connelly gave a resume of what had been accomplished by the Chamber and also what its program for the future is.

Mr. Connelly stated that he was adverse to having too many speaking dates; that it diverted his energies from the proposals and the purposes he was hired for, and rather than tell about it, he preferred to have his work speak for itself.

In short, Mr. Connelly spoke as follows:

"Now that I'm here we will go into this matter of rebuilding Holland's business structure. Often speaker prefers to talk of something he knows nothing about. I don't know anything about your business but I do know something about the job I've been hired to do. You don't expect to have you tell me how to do it, and I won't pay any attention to it if you do. I've been hired to extend your some leadership and a leader can't heed the chatter of every private in his army and succeed.

"A news item stated that a man who had been married five times will marry a woman who had been married five times, the invitations read: 'Be sure to come, this will be no amateur affair!'

"If I don't do a good job for you it will be because I haven't profited by experience. I am not an amateur in industrial promotion.

"Let us review the work of the Chamber of Commerce of the past three months. During the first three weeks in August while I was, figuratively speaking, getting my feet on the ground, we brought a series of conventions to town. While this was going on we were building up a campaign for industries. We are not going at this thing in a headlong or planless manner.

The Lake Shore Highway

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Although grading in preparation for a highway between Grand Haven and Holland along the lake shore is but a part of the routine relief work of the county road commission this year, the project itself is actually of more than ordinary importance. It is something to agree upon a job that will greatly aid in the re-employment program during the few months; but we wonder whether many appreciate what this highway project really means from the standpoint of developing our resort business.

Highways are taken for granted nowadays. People a few years back, though, found themselves greatly handicapped by the poor highway transportation. It was not so long ago that scores of communities in Michigan were virtually isolated because of the lack of decent roads. And this particular highway along the lake shore gives us some impression of how it used to be, for there is not much but a sand trail at present. Tomorrow summer homes and touring cars will dot the entire stretch of country. A whole scenic area will be opened to the resort public; also to the general public that goes between here and Holland for business and social purposes.

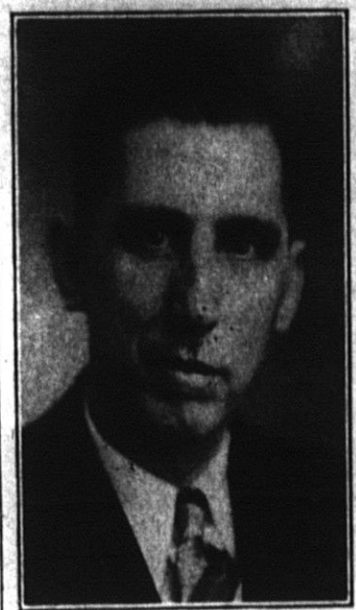

Good roads come first. Normally there must be a reasonable demand for a road, and not always is there actual development along a new highway. But along the lake in this county there cannot help but be a gradual growth, because of the proximity of an attractive strip of Lake Michigan. The economic demand is apparent when we realize that US-31 is one of the busiest highways in Michigan and is at present, between here and Holland, so badly worn that either extensive repairs or a new highway would have been needed. Now we are getting the beginning of a new highway.

The road commission was wise to select the lake shore project at this time. Nothing offers more employment than highway work, nothing is better from the standpoint of broadening our social and business horizons. By building a little each year every road commission could avoid the criticisms which attend the more elaborate projects and at the same time ultimately supply each county with an adequate highway system.

Now if Grand Haven city can institute something in the way of welfare relief comparable to that which the county has given, labor here can feel protected during the winter. Right now the lake shore project is helping several of the townships in both ends of the county. We hope the coming election will enable this city to match the road commission's work by giving us a new hospital and city hall project to work upon.

GEORGE SCHULING AGAIN NAMED SUPT. OF S. S.

George Schuling, president of the Ottawa County Sunday School association, was elected general superintendent of the First Reformed church Sunday school for his nineteenth consecutive year, at an annual meeting of officers Friday evening.

Other officers named for the year were Ray Lemmen, assistant superintendent; Walter Vander Haar, secretary, and Dick Schafer, treasurer.

The school, the second largest in the denomination, reported an enrollment of 998, with an average attendance throughout the year of 681. A total of $2,000 was collected during the past year, exclusive of separate work done by some of the other classes of the Sunday school.

GRAND RAPIDS READER APPEARS IN HOLLAND

A regular meeting of the Women's Literary club was held Tuesday afternoon in the club rooms.

Mrs. Myrtle Koon Cherryman, noted reader of Grand Rapids, read "The Late Christopher Bean," by Sidney Howard, which was one of the outstanding plays of 1932. Gehardus Lindemulder, also of Grand Rapids, assisted Mrs. Cherryman, reading some of the masculine character parts.

Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte sang a group of three numbers. She was accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins.

Mrs. J. H. Den Herder presided at the business meeting. Announcement was made by Mrs. L. Van Hartesveldt that the annual Thanksgiving collection for the county home will be taken next week.

Following the club meeting Mrs. George E. Kollen entertained the officers of the club at tea in honor of Mrs. Cherryman and Mr. Lindemulder.

GEORGE BRANDERHORST, 76 DIES OF HEART DISEASE

George Branderhorst, 76, native of The Netherlands, died of heart disease Tuesday afternoon at his home, 50 East Seventh street.

Mr. Branderhorst was born in The Netherlands on April 5, 1857, and came to America in 1893, settling in Holland where he was married. The couple then moved to Maxwell, New Mexico, where he was in charge of a tuberculosis sanitarium for two and one-half years. They also lived in Colorado and Nebraska, returning to this section about 19 years ago to make their home in Harderwyk. Thirteen years ago they moved to Holland during which period Mr. Branderhorst served as janitor of the Holland City State bank. He resigned as janitor of the local bank on October 28.

Mr. Branderhorst was a member of the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church. He served as elders in churches while in the West and also at Harderwyk.

Surviving are the widow; one son, Arnold, and one daughter, Mrs. Peter Kaashoek, both of Holland, R. F. D. No. 6, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home with Rev. N. J. Monma, pastor of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, and Rev. A. Keizer, retired pastor, formerly of Ninth Street and Harderwyk Christian Reformed churches, officiating. Burial took place in Holland township cemetery.

The Holland City State bank closed at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) in respect to the memory of George Branderhorst.

"Bill" Connelly Makes One of His Pithy Speeches

PUPILS AT HIGH SCHOOL ASSEMBLY HEAR ONE OF THOSE TALKS THAT CREATE A GALE OF LAUGHTER AND LEAVES THE ROOM IN MEDITATION

William M. Connelly, director of industry of Holland, was asked to speak to the pupils of the high school and incidentally hooked up the coming "sugar week" campaign as an incident to the rest of his talk. "Bill" can't make a speech without a few hundred laughs interspersed with more serious stuff but then those talks are listened to with interest rather than with a big yawn. This is what Connelly told the students:

Mr. Chairman, Sophomores, Ladies and Gentlemen:

That was a more flattering introduction your chairman made than one accorded me a few nights ago at the Armory, when I was introduced as Holland's Spark Plug. If I recall correctly Spark Plug was Barney Google's old sawy back horse.

What is my subject? Doctor Riemersma asked me to talk about my Chamber of Commerce work. Prof. Wm. C. Vandenberg, or rather may I say Dr. Beet Sugar Vandenberg insists that I speak on the subject—and I prefer to talk about Mae West or Sacro-Iliac Sublaxation.

I don't crave flattery. Flattery is an unearned praise. Every normal human being craves for the praise and adulation of his fellow man. Especially if it can be coupled with some gate receipts for which he will even parade his unusualness, which is a polite word for misfortune or deformity. There's Joe Brown with a mouth that Mae West could put her head in. Snoodle Durante with a nose that they design automobiles after and Gracie Allen who is so dumb she said a pretzel is just a piece of stale bread with convulsions.

Well, we are going to give you the opportunity to receive public notice.

You are all going to be given an opportunity to bid for public acclaim by the staging of a Sugar essay contest. In not more than 1,000 words you may submit an essay on "Why Beet Sugar?" It will be judged first on its sales appeal, secondly, diction, then spelling, penmanship and neatness. In turn you may begin next Monday, papers must be in Friday, November 17th. Credits will be given by the English department of your school and prizes from the Chamber of Commerce.

First Prize, Senior—$3.00.
First Prize—Junior, $3.00.
First Prize, Sophomore, $3.00.
Second Prize, Senior—10 lbs. Michigan Made Beet Sugar.
Second Prize, Junior—10 lbs. Michigan Made Beet Sugar.
Second Prize, Sophomore—10 lbs. Michigan Made Beet Sugar.

A grand prize of 25 lbs. will be added to the cash prize for best of the three firsts.

Here is an opportunity to write a sales talk—prepare advertising copy or a radio broadcast.

Extol the economic, culinary, dietetic, food, confection and even the therapeutic value of beet sugar. Strive for flawless English. Society will tolerate any sloppy style in conversation but not so when they pay for it. The radio and movie industry which ignites a highly compressed charge of gas that explodes and the resultant force from the explosion of that gas depresses a piston to which is attached a connecting rod that sets up a rotary motion in a crankshaft that propels the wheel that may be attached to a motor car, a printing press, a sugar mill, an infinitum.

Now I find myself getting serious, which I usually avoid. I liked Sherman Rogers' brand of seriousness but his NRA line is nothing new—it dates back to the 17th century when Daniel De Foe put his Robinson Crusoe under a code. Crusoe was a chiropractor but he never worked on Friday.

I am digressing—getting back to that Spark Plug idea. The business end of a spark plug incidentally discharges a static flash of electricity which ignites a highly compressed charge of gas that explodes and the resultant force from the explosion of that gas depresses a piston to which is attached a connecting rod that sets up a rotary motion in a crankshaft that propels the wheel that may be attached to a motor car, a printing press, a sugar mill, an infinitum.

In other words, the wheels of industry are set in motion by that electric spark, whether it be the amplified voltage from a storage battery or the enthusiasm of a community of people.

16,000 people who must supply the current. Faith and enthusiasm are the ingredients needed to maintain the voltage. Send your moral support and we will soon have a city that will provide an opportunity for a livelihood for each of you when you finish school and I'll have you paying dues into the Chamber of Commerce.

Holland has a large investment in each of its 700 high school pupils. We do not wish to see this investment dissipated by your leaving this city to man the establishments elsewhere. We can avoid this only by increasing our own industrial and commercial activities at a rate that will absorb the maturing boys and girls from year to year.

Dates Are Set For T. B. Tests In Ottawa Co.

CHILDREN IN RURAL SCHOOLS TO PASS THROUGH TUBERCULIN CLINIC

A schedule has been prepared for a series of tuberculin testing clinics to be held over the county. The schedule has been made by the Ottawa county health unit. These clinics have been so arranged that all who are interested in taking the test will have an opportunity to do so. All clinics listed will be held in the public schools.

Bulletins have been distributed to the school children explaining the test in detail. It is expected about 25 per cent of the grade children and 40 per cent of the high school students will react positively.

Tuberculosis is the most frequent and widespread of all major infections. It is found in cattle, in chickens, in monkeys in zoos, and man, who is housed in dwellings. It is the cause of 9 per cent of all deaths and 30 per cent of the deaths between 15 and 60 years. In 1931 there were 2,500 deaths from tuberculosis in the age group of 1 to 50. It heads the list of all causes of death between 15 and 40 years.

Tuberculosis is a community problem. Tuberculin testing has proved to be one of the most valuable methods of finding cases of tuberculosis. By it one may determine the presence of an infection of tuberculosis in the body long before any other type of examination would be able to detect it.

It is expected that arrangements will be made for X-ray examinations of all those who react positively to the test. Clinics for this will be announced later.

Following is the schedule:
November 13, Group I—9 to 10 a. m., Nunica (all Crocker); 10 to 11:30 a. m., Coopersville (all Polkton, Lamont, Wright 1 and 3); 11:30 a. m. to 12 noon, St. Joseph; 1 to 1:30 p. m., Conklin; 1:30 to 2:15, Lutheran (all Chester, Wright 9 and 4); 2:15 to 3:15, Marne (Wright 4, 2, 8, 6); 3:30 to 4 p. m., Delaney (all Tallmadge township except Lamont and River Bend); 4 p. m., River Bend.
November 14, Group II—9 to 9:30 a. m., Jamestown (all Jamestown except 5 and Georgetown 4); 9:30 to 10 a. m., Zutphen; 10 to 11 a. m., Hudsonville (Georgetown 5, 7, 8, Hudsonville Christian); 11 to 11:30 a. m., Jenison (Georgetown 1, 2, 3, 9 and 10); 11:30 a. m. to 12 noon, Jenison Christian; 2:15 to 3 p. m., Borculo (all Blenden except 1, 6, 7 and Olive 1, 2, 3, 4); 3:15 to 4:30 p. m., Allendale (all Allendale, Georgetown 10, Blenden 1, 6 and 7).

November 21, Group IV—9 to 10 a. m., Spring Lake (Spring Lake 2, 8) 10 to 10:30, Ferrysburg (Spring Lake 1, 4, 6); 10:30 a. m. to 12 noon and 1 to 2 p. m., Grand Haven City; 2:15 to 2:45 Peach Plains (Grand Haven 1, 2, 5, 6 and Robinson 3, 4); 3 to 3:30 p. m., West Olive (Grand Haven 4, 3 and Olive 9); all Port Sheldon township) 3:45 to 4:30 p. m., Maplewood (Robinson 1, 5, 6, 7 and Allendale 7).

WILCOX THROWN BY ROY MILLER AT TEMPLE

In the main bout of the wrestling match held at the Masonic temple November 6, Roy Miller of Ypsilanti defeated Harrison "Curly" Wilcox of Kalamazoo in two out of three falls in a two-hour time limit affair. Wilcox gained the first fall in 23 minutes on a scissors and full Nelson. Miller evened the match in 12 minutes with the self-strangle hold. Wilcox was the aggressor in the final fall, tossing Miller to the mat from outside the ring with hard body slams. However, Miller managed to win the match after 9 minutes, using the reverse strangle hold.

Curly Wilcox is popular with the local fans and it is hoped that he may appear here again in the near future.

In the semi-windup Jimmy Melin of Port Wayne threw Russell "Buddy" Wedderburn of Battle Creek. Melin took the first fall in 18 minutes and the second in 18 minutes of a one-hour time limit bout.

Promoter Pat Conroy has signed Chief War Eagle, a full-blooded Iroquois Indian, to wrestle Roy Miller in a bout November 12. On the same card will be Dicky Gerber of South Bend, Indiana, who pleased the fans in the first bout of the season. His opponent has not yet been announced.

These matches will take place at the Masonic temple.

SCHOOLS OBSERVE EDUCATION WEEK

American Education Week is being observed throughout the nation this week. The general theme for programs is "Meeting the Emergency in Education."

The Holland junior high school observed Education Week with an "open house" for parents on Tuesday night. A program was presented in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock and concluded with a conference between teachers and parents.

Talks were given by Miss Tricie Moore, Richard Martin, Miss Lavine Cappon, Miss Henrietta Hekhuis, Francis Drake, Miss Bernice Bishop, Miss Hazel Albers and Miss Beatrice Denton. The speeches were interspersed with songs by the junior high school girls' glee club and the boys' glee club. The junior high school band, under the direction of Eugene F. Heeter, played several selections. In addition to the open house program daily programs are being held in each room.

The senior high school is observing "Parent Night" tonight, Thursday. The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock, after which a conference will be held between parents and teachers. The program includes numbers by the high school orchestra. The mixed chorus will sing under the direction of Miss Tricie Moore. Mrs. Sears McLean will give an address on "Problems Confronting Education." A one-act comedy "Rosalia" will be presented, followed with selections by the girls' double sextet.

A patriotic program with the American Legion is scheduled for this Friday.

TIRES WEAR LESS IN COLD WEATHER, SURVEY SHOWS

Automobile tires applied in the early or early winter, average day over WENR Chicago at 11:15 approximately 30 per cent longer a m., central standard time, and WJR Detroit, at 9 a. m., central standard time.

This surprising statement is based upon information resulting from a study by Goodyear technicians, of the operation of tires on hundreds of buses in all parts of the United States.

"The reason for the increased mileage is quite obvious when some of a tire's peculiarities are known. Tires' greatest enemy is heat. In summer time, the combination of hot weather and fast driving, generate sufficient heat in a tire to greatly stimulate wear.

"In the fall and winter seasons, however, rain, snow and cold definitely add to the life of tires by keeping them cool. Then, too, average driving speeds are lower during the winter months and this contributes further to increased life of tires.

"The net result is that motorists who replace tires in the fall and winter have the advantage of safe, antiskid traction when driving conditions are most hazardous and have tires practically as good as new for the summer months.

"There are so many arguments in favor of replacing worn tires during the fall and winter that there actually is no logical advantage in attempting to make old, smooth tires last another season," Mr. Van Zylsen said.

RADIO VOICE

When Josephine Gibson, radio voice of a large food concern, recently announced that her home economics department was at the service of her audience, she was taken very literally by an Italian farmer, who lives near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. In her mail she found this letter:

"Dear Lady: My wife, she went away for six weeks and I have nobody to pickle six bushels of tomatoes. When can you come out and pickle them?"

The blonde home economist did not make the trip to the farm, but she did write and tell the farmer how to pickle his tomatoes.

Miss Gibson in her hostess counsel talks gives concrete assistance on food and entertainment problems that confront women in their own homes. Her talks are heard each Monday, Wednesday and Friday over WENR Chicago at 11:15 approximately 30 per cent longer a m., central standard time, and

WHY THE BEACH ROAD WILL BE A BENEFIT

Saugatuck Commercial Record—A few reasons why the road project should be voted for:

It will furnish work for our unemployed this winter; that is the object of the government in offering the loan on such easy terms.

It is an essential part of a summer resort to have a good beach and road thereto.

It will bring added business to the resort owners next summer.

It will complete the picture of Saugatuck as an up-to-date resort town.

The rate of interest on the loan is the lowest this community will have an opportunity to take advantage of.

RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BEGINS SATURDAY

The annual membership drive roll call for the American Red Cross will be carried on in this city and county from November 11 to November 30 in conjunction with similar drives throughout the United States of America. Elaborate plans have been made by the local chapter to make a determined effort to attain the quota set up by the national organization for Ottawa county. If this result is to be achieved Holland city must produce a membership of not less than 1800.

There has always been the very closest co-operation between the American Red Cross and the American Legion. In the plan of membership campaign for this year members of the American Legion will make a complete canvass of the residential district in the city of Holland Monday evening, November 13, so that everyone who is able and willing will have an opportunity of renewing their membership in and connection with the American Red Cross. As in war, so in peace the American Red Cross must depend entirely upon volunteers and it is hoped and expected that everyone will feel their individual responsibility in accepting the offer of membership which will be presented in this drive by members of the American Legion. Members are $1, $5, $10, $25, $50 and $100. While the larger amounts, of course, will be gratefully appreciated, yet the $1 membership is most earnestly solicited in order that a goodly number of our citizens may have an actual connection with the Red Cross as members.

It is expected that in most cases the solicitor will be identified by the American Legion cap which he will wear in the canvass on Monday evening. Everyone solicited should receive the canvasser promptly and courteously and be prepared to sign the roll, pay the membership fee and receive the card and button.

In this connection the Honorable Edward Hayes, national commander of the American Legion, says: "One of the finest traditions that has grown out of our world war experience is the continued co-operation and spirit of helpfulness that exists between America's two great service organizations—the American Red Cross and the American Legion. Both chartered by congress for definite purposes of unselfish helpfulness to their nation, each has one great duty in common—sympathetic interest and devotion to the welfare of the disabled veteran."

"In some communities the Red Cross chapter and the American Legion post are almost synonymous in their officered personnel. The legionnaire always lends his shoulder to help the Red Cross carry on its work."

"The chapter and the post have been the two most important factors in hundreds of countries in upholding the morale of the people with their unemployment relief work in the past three years."

"The American Red Cross holds its annual roll call for members beginning Armistice Day and ending Thanksgiving Day. I urge the whole-hearted interest of all legionnaires and ask that they join their Red Cross chapters."

Merchants Here Of Beets And Sweets

enthusiasm over the Klein Nederland project so the mayor vetoed it—but you are going to get back of some plan to provide an industrial fund or we will have grass in the streets instead of tulips.

"You people sought me, I didn't ask for this job, and I'm not going to stay on it if I can't deliver the goods. We've been at it three months and have three factories to show for our efforts. One a month, that's the task we have set and if we can't maintain that rate until we have used up the useable buildings then there is either something wrong with me or you have not furnished me with what I require, and I'm not going to ask for the impossible."

"I haven't sobbed about the let-down on the harbor loan, nor the divided sentiment over road improvements, nor about the Klein Nederland veto because I know that you hired me to get factories, but I'm going to do some red-hot sobbing if I don't get support where I ask for it for the factory program."

"I'm not scolding—I'm just getting you set so I won't have to scold later on. I want every man and woman at hand soon at a wage that will permit them to pay their taxes, their merchants and live decently again, and somehow, down in the bottom of my heart, I believe we are going to bring it about."

Another interesting talk was by Field Manager Kelley of the Holland Sugar Company who told of the coming sugar campaign, and invited merchants to see the plant in groups, for then all could be shown at the same time, while it would be impossible to spend the time on individuals. He pointed out that buying Holland sugar at home and in surrounding districts meant a tremendous saving of freight rates, and that saving would reflect in the amount the farmer got out of his beets, and the farmer in turn could have more money to spend right here at home.

He stated that the sugar company meant much to the merchants, meant much to labor, but the all-important thing of the sugar company was that they have the co-operation of the farmer because if the farmer wouldn't grow any beets the sugar company couldn't run and, therefore, we must bend our every energy to see that he gets the just remuneration for his beets.

The merchants also, after some discussion, decided to change the retail code, setting the time of closing at 5:30 instead of 5 o'clock, with the opening hour remaining the same for various classes of business. The merchants were also urged to give support to the basket ball team that will represent the city in the state amateur league this winter, by Charles Van Zyl, president, who presided at the meeting.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

WILLARD G. LEENHOUTS POST

Tomorrow, Saturday, the 11th, is the big day. The parade starts at 1:30. Meet at the city hall. Wear your cap and get your friends out. At 6:30 is the banquet. As you know this is a pot-luck affair and if you have not already made up your mind to go, call 2856 and make your reservation. There is still time.

The Post bowling team is playing every Friday at Skinny's place. Charlie Miller is at the head of our team. Last Friday in the first game he flopped so they scratched him for the second game, but he worked back on the team in the third game. He would. Doc Westrate is showing up fine. If they let him use a beach ball he might make the second team.

Our band received first place up at the celebration in Muskegon last Saturday. Those boys have got something to blow about. The Holland float ran off with second prize under Lievens's training. Where did you get all those tulips, Ben?

Heinie Geerds was to contribute something of interest to this column this week. But he was on time as usual (a day or so late).

The next Post meeting will be on November 22. If you have a good idea for a program call Marine De Fouw.

The auxiliary announces that dues are now payable, and that the treasurer will accept them at the banquet. How gentle and yet how forceful. We join them in making the same announcement.

The ladies are turning out Saturday to march with us in the parade. Don't let them outnumber us, gang! Call out the guard, the reserves and the K. P.'s

Have any of you fellows thought any more about attending a Post meeting? If not, why not? We can't afford to put on a homecoming meeting or we would and have a regular party.

Now then, don't forget, Saturday at 1:30 at the city hall, legion and auxiliary in parade clothes. Everybody out.

Last of all put on a clean collar and be at the banquet at 6:30, with your ears pinned back and lard in your hair. We'll be looking for you.

CARPET OF SNOW ON CITY MONDAY MORNING

The first appreciable snow of the season fell Sunday night before midnight and about a half inch was visible Monday morning on the rooftops, sidewalks and surrounding territory, which disappeared later in the day. There have been several snow flurries during the past week, but this is believed to be the first snowfall which warns people that "winter is just around the corner." All Monday night there was a terrific downpour of rain.

Local Officials Were The Guests Of Muskegon

SEE GREAT DEMONSTRATION.
WATERWAY PROJECT AND ARE GIVEN DINNER

Holland's Band and Float Win Signal Honors in Large Parade.

Many from Holland were guests Saturday of the city of Muskegon and it surely was a royal welcome that Holland received. The official delegation consisted of Mayor Nicodemus Bosch and the aldermen who attended were Albert P. Kleis and Henry Prins of the First ward, John Woltman and Peter Brieve of the Second ward, Al Van Zoeren of the Third ward, Bert Habing and Benjamin Steffens of the Fourth ward, Fritz Jonkman and Peter Huyser of the Fifth ward and Al Van Lente of the Sixth ward. There were but two aldermen missing who could not go because of other circumstances. Members of the harbor board represented were Andrew Klompars, Henry Prins, Henry Vander Schel and Ben Mulder. Other members were unavoidably absent. At least 100 others from Holland went besides the Holland American Legion band, which again took home the bacon, winning first prize, being the best band in the parade.

The man who took Holland's official delegation in charge was Major R. Adams, who engineered and completed the entire Muskegon waterfront project which cost $1,250,000. Mr. Adams personally took the Holland folks through the entire project which consists of large warehouses, cold storage plants, a tremendous assembly hall which in the main is used for a public market but which within a few hours can be turned into a convention hall, a public dance hall, an ice skating pond, a public fair or scores of other uses.

The hall will accommodate at least 10,000 people and the floor is so arranged with ammonia pipes that an inch of water can be frozen within two hours, suitable for ice skating. It has a large side gallery and band stand that will easily accommodate 3,000 people to watch the skaters or dancers as the case may be.

The large building is wonderfully lighted and is connected throughout with an up-to-the-minute radio and loud speaker sets. All the very latest conveniences in the way of rest rooms and refreshment parlors are well arranged. It is a revelation to see the many uses this building can be put to other than simply a large convention hall.

In the early morning trucks can back in through large doors and the market place in the winter time is sheltered from the weather.

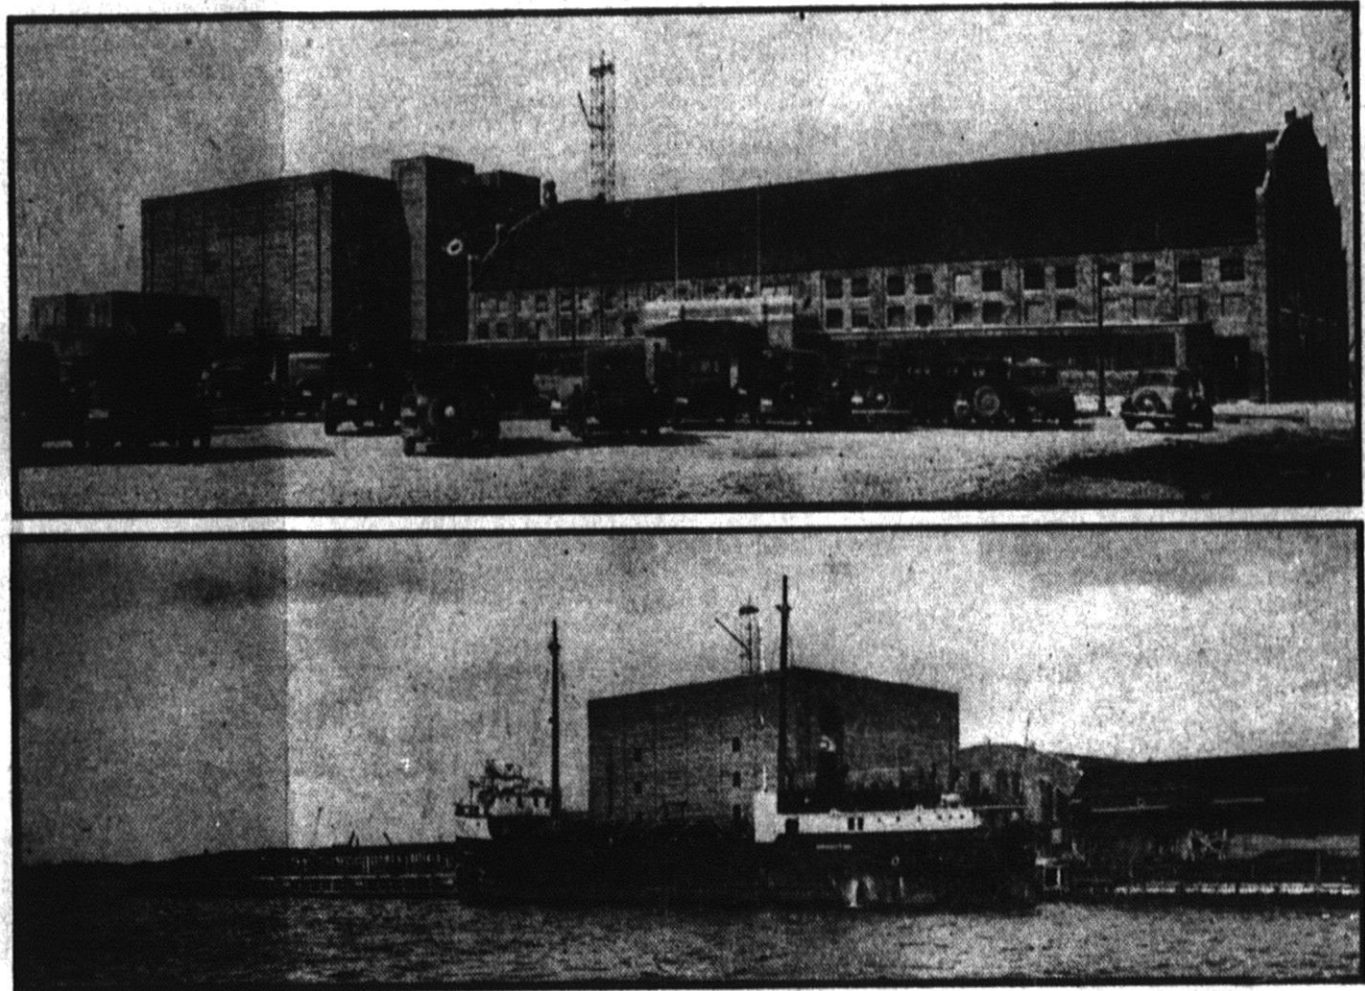

The dock warehouses have also been a marvelous undertaking. Mr. Adams, for instance, took the delegation in one large cold storage room with the temperature at 46 degrees where 25,000 bushels of apples were stored and could we smell apples? The most marvelous feat of this undertaking was the large expanse of many acres of dockage, all concrete, to accommodate bulk freight. There was one heap of coal of 65,000 tons that was more than 70 feet high. There were rows of these like the pyramids of Egypt.

However, the most amazing thing about this engineering feat was the fact that nine months before large boats anchored where this dock is now but through levees and sand suckers the outer harbor beyond the docks was deepened and the sand, earth and mud was pumped behind the levees and what was once deep water is now solid earth covered over with concrete, an expanse at least as large as our Holland fairgrounds.

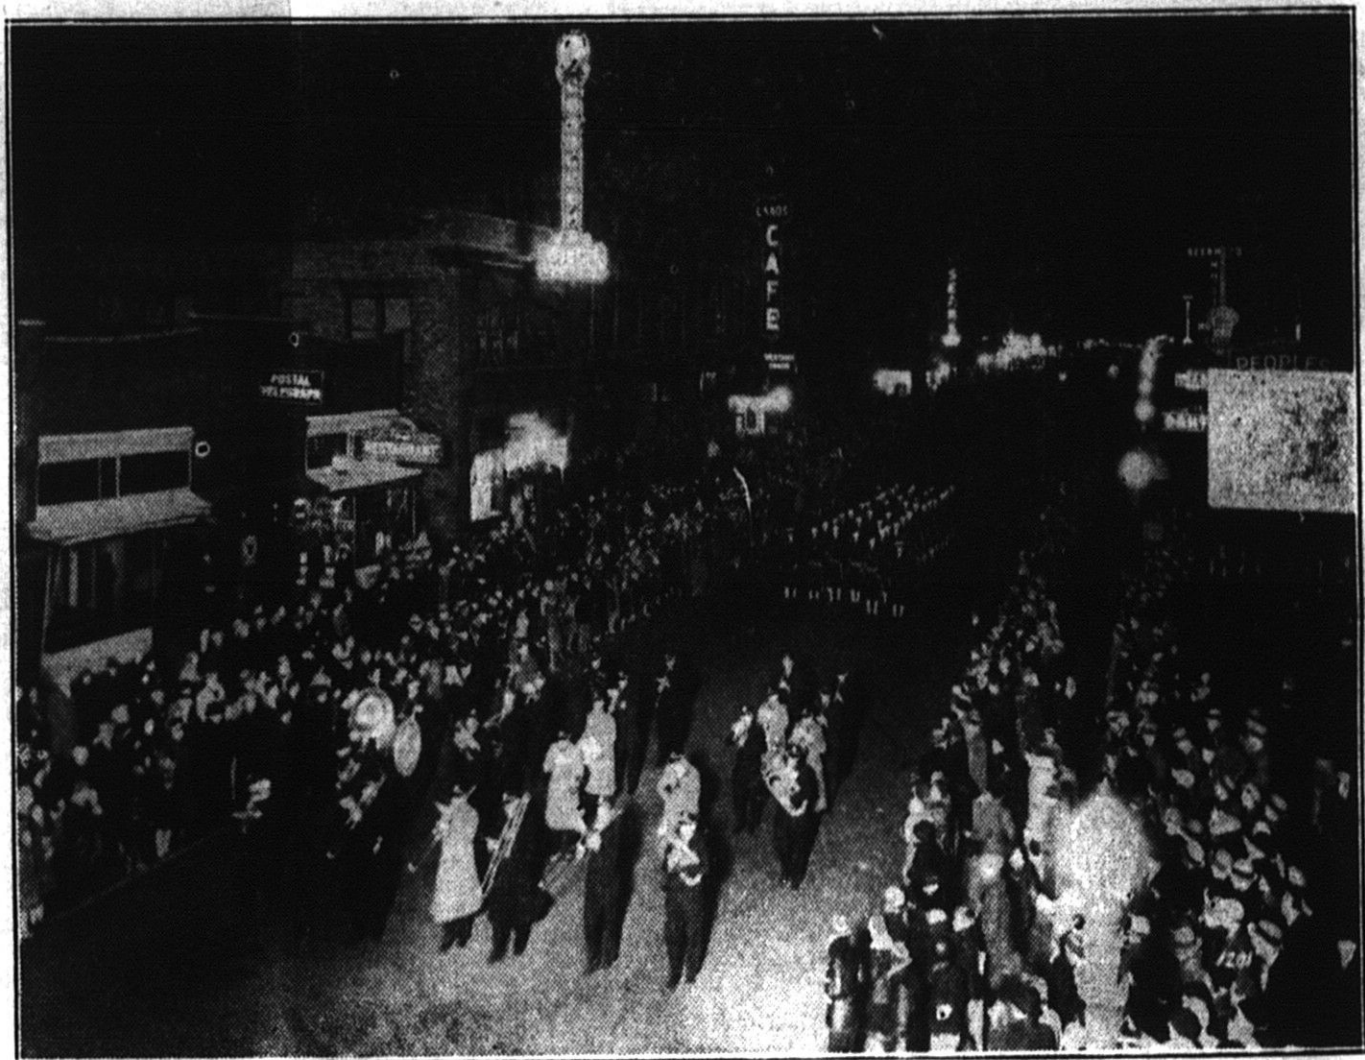

These docking facilities will accommodate ocean-going freighters as easily as New York harbor. Already large boats were tied up and unloading at these tremendous docks.

It took at least two hours to go over the projects and then Mr.

What The Official Holland Delegation Saw During the Great Demonstration at Muskegon

Muskegon has taken time by the forelocks, confident that the St. Lawrence seaway will become a reality and has built these tremendous structures together with large docks to accommodate ocean freight and freights. The large auditorium and market building is pictured above while the cold storage structures together with large age plant is in the picture below.

Down Western avenue came the Grand Trunk Port Huron band and a shore unit of Jackies from the U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Escanaba, ranking branch of the U. S. government service in the first division of "Western Michigan's Great Demonstration" shown in the above photograph. This view of Muskegon's main business street lined with the judges and honored out-of-town guests viewed the five-mile long parade.

A replica of an early wood-burning locomotive and passenger coach of the Grand Trunk Western railroad, one of the more unique entries in the huge Muskegon seaway parade Saturday night, is shown above. It was brought to Muskegon by special train Saturday afternoon with a company of officials headed by C. G. Bowker, vice president and general manager.

Greater Muskegon as a leader in the fight for completion of the St. Lawrence seaway after the great parade and formal dedication of the West Michigan Dock and Market corporation's $1,250,000 port terminal attended here Saturday night by more than 60,000 persons.

"The monster celebration, heralded as 'Western Michigan's Greatest Demonstration,' far exceeded the expectations not only of local residents but also of thousands of visitors from throughout the state.

"Brilliantly lighted with red flares, flashing electric lights, spot and flood lights and the electric signs and windows of downtown merchants the parade was truly a pageant of transportation such as

U of M Symphony Orchestra Will Join Chorus

"MESSIAH" WILL FEATURE
SEVERAL NOTED
SOLOISTS

Coming here December 11 and 12, the University of Michigan Symphony orchestra will join the Holland Civic chorus to present the "Messiah" in the Hope Memorial chapel.

The same orchestra and soloists that sing the "Messiah" at the University of Michigan will present a symphony concert on Monday, December 11, under the direction of Dr. Earl V. Moore, who is assisted by the University of Michigan string trio, Prof. Wassily Besekinsky, famous violinist; Hanns Pick, cellist, and Joseph Brinkman, pianist. Included in this group is Arthur Hackett, well-known tenor in operatic and concert fields.

Last year's concert was a huge success and this year's presentation will attract a much larger and more enthusiastic audience. Professor Snow states that this will be one of the best, if not the best, treat that the city of Holland and Hope college has ever witnessed.

has never before been seen in western Michigan.

"Water, rail, air and highway transportation from their early beginnings to the perfection of the twentieth century were depicted in the floats and banners moving down Western avenue between the long lines of cheering watchers and waving street flags.

"Boats of every description, including canoes, rowboats, pulling boats, sailboats, speedboats, tugboats, cruisers and replicas of steamboats, carferries and other water craft were in keeping with the waterway theme of the parade.

"The blare of bands, the rattle of drums and the clear notes of bugles pierced the shouts of the spectators as they cheered section after section of the monstrous demonstration.

"Official representatives from Milwaukee, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Port Huron and thirty western Michigan communities from Holland to Manistee marveled at the beauty of the parade, the size of the crowd and the enterprise which made possible this second great Michigan demonstration for the Seaway.

"From the start of the five-mile parade to the program of welcome and entertainment dedicating the terminal buildings the evening was judged a success by thousands of commentators who today continued to talk of the celebration as the "greatest in the history of Muskegon." Other celebrations paled into insignificance in comparison.

"Long before the parade with its 16 bands, 80 floats, 50 marching delegations including scores of cars and thousands of marchers began to form along Terrace street south of the courthouse square every available parking space within a radius of 10 blocks from Western avenue was occupied by the automobiles of the thousands of spectators.

"Eight or nine deep the thousands lined the sidewalks for more than a mile along Terrace street and Western avenue. Hundreds more gained vantage points in second, third and fourth story windows while a few were ready to view the great spectacle from higher office windows in the Hackley Union National bank and Occidental hotel buildings.

"In the first six divisions were the visiting delegations representing Milwaukee, Detroit, Port Huron, Grand Rapids, Grand Haven, Holland, Ravenna, Fremont, Hesperia, Newaygo, Whitehall, Montague, Shelby, Hart, Pentwater, Ludington, Manistee, Frankfort and rural communities through mid-western Michigan.

"Frankfort, one of the chief port cities in Western Michigan, won first prize with a float upon which was mounted a large model of Ann Arbor Car ferry No. 7, and the slogans 'Here We Come—Gateway to the U. P. and the Northland.'

"The second prize-winning float was one of Holland's several entries, a miniature Dutch windmill surrounded by beds of tulips and carrying several Holland maids and lads in typical Dutch costumes. Holland's American Legion band also won first prize with the Grand Rapids Metropolitan club band second. A special prize was awarded to the Detroit drum and bugle corps."

"The Muskegon Chronicle goes on to give the list of all the prizes won and this is what it has to say about Holland:

"Holland's American Legion band was awarded first prize of $25 among 16 musical aggregations with the Grand Rapids Metropolitan club band taking second prize of $15.

"Holland, port city to the south, was awarded second prize of $15 for its beautiful float displaying a miniature Dutch windmill surrounded by beds of bright-colored tulips and attended by several Holland maids and lads in typical Dutch costumes."

The Muskegon paper devotes more than three pages to this great event but this write-up in the Holland City News in a mass-untone portrays the magnitude of the celebration and where Holland has been fitting into the picture.

Bishop Cannon, Jr. Delivers Speech On Prohibition

On Thursday morning of last week, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., an internationally known upholder of prohibition, addressed the student body on "The Eighteenth Amendment—What Is It?"

Bishop Cannon, the chief bishop of the Methodist Church south of the Mason-Dixon line, is the man most hated by the liquor element in the United States. Several threats of law suits have probably only increased his enthusiasm for the cause of prohibition. He is a most powerful orator and debater and refutes immediately any argument which the wet forces may present to him. It is in Dr. Cannon that the prohibition workers have placed most of their hope of convincing the American public of the evils of the liquor traffic.

Dr. Cannon discussed, first of all, the most significant word in the amendment—"intoxicating." It refers to all those liquors which cause a man to lose control of himself, to degenerate into a brute. He is unable to perform his duties as a citizen and is a menace to society.

"The social order, the duty toward the other fellow is the keynote of the amendment. The intoxicated driver who leaves a trail of death and destruction after him is a menace to society and should be removed.

"The Eighteenth Amendment is said to be nonsense, war-folly, a mere impulse. On the contrary, it was the result of fifteen years of continued effort, especially by the women; it was the fruit of the American conscience at its best. Intoxication has laid its slimy hand upon the police force, upon congressmen, upon government officials.

"But," Dr. Cannon protested, "the Eighteenth Amendment is the best way devised to protect the young lives of the nation. Only nine out of three hundred presidents of leading universities have denied that intoxication was on the decline among the students.

"Prohibition at its worst," concluded Dr. Cannon, "is better than vice at its best. The only way to prevent the return of the old saloon is to develop public sentiment against it."

MAN AFIRE PLUNGES HIMSELF INTO WATER

Clarence Christie, age 21, Grand Rapids, narrowly escaped with his life on Saturday night from both injury and burns, when his car crashed through the guard rail at Crocker creek, Ottawa county, and catapulted into the air, turning over twice and catching fire before it struck the bottom of the gully. Christie was thrown out of the car with his clothing burning. Although badly stunned he sensed the danger enough to crawl to the creek and immerse himself and put out the fire.

He was taken to Hatton hospital, Grand Haven, where he was treated for minor bruises, cuts and burns. He told state police that he was traveling east on US-16 about 8:50 p. m. when he lost control of the car and it crashed through the rail. He said the car caught fire almost immediately and his clothing was covered with fire when he was thrown clear.

The car, in turning over twice, landed on its side where it was partially consumed by fire, the little remaining being badly damaged by the crash.

This is approximately 22.2 per cent of the average annual acreage for the past five years and 12.8 per cent of the growers who have signed under the agricultural adjustment program to reduce 1934 and 1935 seedlings of wheat this year the reduction is 15 per cent.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM

By C. P. Milham

James Kelly from the Jackson school 4-H club at Coopersville won a place on the state judging team in the contest held at East Lansing. This entitles him to two days of judging training at the state college and a trip to the National club congress at Chicago in December with all expenses paid. Much of the success of the boys in grain judging work this year is due to the interest and training given the boys in grain judging work by local leaders of the clubs, especially Mr. F. C. Hambleton, who coached the boys preceding the contest at Lansing. The other boys who entered the contest from Ottawa county placed well up the list and will try again next year to win the coveted honors. Other boys who competed in the contest from Ottawa county were Allan Hambleton from Coopersville, Merion Henry from Marne and Edwold McMillan from Allendale. Judging contest winners from Ottawa county in previous years were Leonard and William Weststrate and Ralph Brown.

The following communities have organized 4-H handicraft clubs and are carrying on woodworking or manual training under the direction of local leaders: Berlin school has 15 members led by Floyd Yeomans; McDiamond school has 9 members, led by Lewis Schereneel; Beechwood school has 15 members, led by Raymond Lamb; Harrisburg school has 7 members, led by Bernard Isenhardt; Star school, Allendale has 9 members, led by John Bosker, and the French school has 11 members, led by Gordon Moore.

New schools that have not had club work before that expect to organize clubs this winter are West Robinson school, Lugers Lakeview school, DeWitt school, Bell school, Jamestown; Lamont school, and the Borello school.

This is the largest number of new communities requesting club work in many years. Any community wishing to organize a club should inform Agricultural Agent C. P. Milham at Grand Haven and assistance and information will gladly be given.

November 1, 1933.

TO THE HONORABLE

The Common Council of the City of Holland.

Gentlemen:

It has been brought to my attention by the Property Owners' league of our city that inasmuch as our school board elections are held at a different time than our regular city elections, that there is a great deal of added unnecessary cost to the city of Holland. Furthermore, there is a great detriment in having this election in July as the vote is always small in comparison to our regular city elections.

Our school board is an extremely important body of our city government, and in the election of its members should secure the largest number of the voting populace. This is only possible by holding this election at the same time we hold our regular city elections.

The Property Owners' league has requested me to propose to you gentlemen such an amendment to our city charter, and I am heartily in accord with them.

If three-fifths of the members elect of the council propose an amendment to the city charter, then such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the city, in accordance with law at the next primary, regular, or special election, which shall occur not less than thirty days after the proposal of such amendment.

I, therefore, recommend that this council by a three-fifths vote propose an amendment to the city charter, to provide for the election of members of the school board to be held at the regular spring elections.

Respectfully submitted,

NICODEMUS BOSCH, Mayor.

Ald. Kleis spoke on the matter and expressed himself as being heartily in favor of such an amendment.

Mr. P. F. Koopman, Secretary of the Property Owners' League, being present, thanked the Council for their action and stated that this matter had been considered by the League for some time and so are very glad to know that it would

Twelve Checks of unusual value

Of all the services that we are privileged to render, we can most heartily commend our One-Year Monthly Income plan.

After the death of the insured we deliver twelve checks, one every month for a year. A favorite amount is $100 monthly.

These ready dollars in that trying first year are beyond valuation. They furnish comfort and assurance; a chance to collect thoughts, revive courage and lay new plans.

The premium, paid once, twice or four times a year, runs about a nickel a day at age twenty, a dime in the early forties or a few cents more if you start later in life.

Larger amounts or longer periods can be arranged. A choice of policy forms is available. Premium referred to above is for "Endowment at Age 85."

Set up this safeguard for your home circle and they will never be caught unprepared. It will make an ideal supplement to your lump-sum insurance.

"AN EXTENSION TELEPHONE IS SUCH A TIME-SAVER" says Miss Aileen Spafford

MISS SPAFFORD, well-known Detroit Free Press writer, is an enthusiastic exponent of convenience in the home. Recently, in an article in the Women's Pages of the Free Press, she wrote:

"Only people who possess a telephone extension in the kitchen know what a time-saver such an arrangement is."

A kitchen extension telephone makes it easy to place and answer calls, no matter how busy you are, without taking your eyes from the stove, or running to another part of the house. And it affords privacy for your telephone calls when you have guests.

An extension telephone makes an ideal Christmas gift, and costs less than 3c a day. Any telephone business office will take your order. Installation will be made at any time you specify.

Reverend Irving

Is Guest Speaker

For Sacred Week

NATIONAL COUNCIL EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A., HONORS HOPE

Special Discussion Groups

Featured.

Dr. George Irving is speaking daily at 11 o'clock this week to the Hope student body, developing his general theme for Prayer Week, "The Centrality of Jesus." The class schedule has been arranged so as to occupy the first three hours of the morning from 8 to 11

in order that the last hour before noon may be devoted to the chapel exercises.

Monday morning began the week of meditation and devotion. On that morning, after a vocal solo,

Neidinger's "Spirit of God," was sung by William Vander Ven of the class of 1936, and after preliminary Bible reading by the college pastor, Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp, the speaker of the week was introduced by Rev. Hinkamp and immediately took up his theme with the opening topic, "The Christian and Shame." In his talk, Dr. Irving presented four necessities of overcoming shame of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, thus laying a foundation for his speeches which were to come on the other days of this week. He said that it is necessary for an individual to de-dedicate himself completely to God, so that he is able to place broad margins between what is right and what is wrong and to wait faithfully for the fullness of time to unveil his life, in order to overcome that great fear which Christians have of being called "old fogies."

Knowing the depths of Christian experience, he says, a true Christian will not care what men think of him.

Yesterday morning Rev. E. Paul

McLean opened the chapel hour with Bible reading, and a trumpet solo entitled "Du bist die Ruh," by Schubert, was offered by Miss Evelyn Beach, a member of the Hope music faculty. Dr. Irving then continued his theme with the topic, "Some Certainties." First he stated that when a person is young there are many uncertainties, but as he grows older he finds them turning to sure beliefs, and that his certainties are strengthened as the years go by.

He named three absolute certainties—the sureness of real and lasting friendship, the necessity of self-discipline, and the fact that Jesus is the way.

This morning the opening reading was offered by Rev. Walter Van

Saun and special music was offered by Carlyle Neckers. Dr. Irving's speech of the day was called "The Power of a Bad Memory" and he stated that there are many things a man may be thankful for not remembering. Three things he named which it is well to forget are hurt pride, self-pity and failures.

He advised that the way to forget things is for one to fill his time by becoming interested in other things. He stressed that it is not well, however, for anyone to forget his successes; but the main point is to keep away from self-centeredness so as not to think too much about himself at any time.

Dr. Irving is available to individuals who wish conferences with him every morning between the hours of 9 and 11, and each afternoon from 2 until 4. He is leading a general discussion for everyone tomorrow evening in the Y. M. C.

C. A. room at 7. All students are urged by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. and the faculty to come out to this very important meeting.

Correlary to the work of Prayer

Week, various student discussion groups met last evening at various meeting places under the direction of several capable leaders chosen for the purpose by the "Y" cabinets.

The general interest aroused by the nudist trial is shown by two letters received this week by Judge Miles, coming from two outside states. In one the writer criticizes the raiding of nudist colonies, suggesting that the coming frosts would take care of them. "Why don't you get busy putting pants on dogs and cats?" he queries. In the other the writer declares that nudists are insane and should be placed in asylums. One humorous local attorney, commending Judge Miles' exclusion of expert opinion evidence, says that all that should have been allowed in testimony was the "bare facts." It is probably not generally known that before the trial Prosecuting Attorney Luna received a letter threatening to get even with him if he pressed the case.—Allegan Gazette.

The Ganges Woman's Home Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Roy Nye Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8, this being the annual thank offering meeting. Mrs. Alva Hoover had charge of the program.

An unusual happening at Fennville occurred when John Martin, aged 77, was killed as a result of an accident at the Fruit Exchange. His horses took fright, he lost control and was thrown to the ground and the wheels of the wagon passed over his ankles. He regained control of the horses, however, and then proceeded with his business. The team shortly afterward ran away again and this time the wheels of the wagon passed over Martin's body. He died as a result of his injuries. Mr. Martin was one of the largest holders of real estate in Fennville. He was a student of Indian lore and had a large and interesting collection of relics at his home. He has a son living in the Philippines. It is rather unusual to report a horse run-away these days and especially one with such serious results.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
AUDITOR GENERAL'S DEPT.
Lansing
September 7, 1933
To the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ottawa.
Sir: You are hereby notified that a State Tax has been apportioned to your county for the year 1933 according to the last returns of the aggregate valuation of taxable property therein made to this office and as equalized by the State Board of Equalization at their session in August 1933.

The amount of the State Tax apportioned to your county under the various acts of the Legislature is as follows, to-wit:

Second Day's Session
The Board of Supervisors met pursuant to adjournment on Tuesday, October 10, 1933 at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Chairman Mr. Heneveld.

Present at roll call: Messrs. Dragt, Heneveld, Harrison, Hering, Plaggemeyer, Hendrych, Hyma, Smallegan, Stegenga, Heneveld, Marshall, Baumann, Graham, Whitcomb, Slaughter, Martin, Mohr, Heap, Ryenga, Rosbach, Van Ark, Van Eyck, Van Tongeren, Brower, Damstra, De Pee and Roosenraad.

the number of part time employees, but it is estimated at 400 men.

Re-employment With Federal Welfare Funds
Previous to June 15, 1933, Grand Haven City, Holland City, Grand Township and Park Township made applications to the State for a loan of Federal funds. These loans were secured for the period to May 1, 1935. Holland City had made some direct loans in which the County was not concerned. Beginning May, Federal regulations required all loans for townships and all loans for cities having a population less than 20,000 persons, to be made through a county committee. The loans so made were an obligation against the county and the security for repayment was delinquent taxes of 1922, 1930, and 1931.

The Board of Supervisors by resolution instructed the county committee to obtain similar security from each political subdivision making application. The total amount of this County's obligation is $3,330.00. This is in turn secured by the following units and in the following amounts: Grand Haven City, $3,330.00; Holland City, $861.00; Grand Township, $628.23; Park Township, $781.45. During this period and until June 1933, the State Highway Department was in a better position to obtain similar security from each political subdivision making application. The total amount of this County's obligation is $3,330.00. This is in turn secured by the following units and in the following amounts: Grand Haven City, $3,330.00; Holland City, $861.00; Grand Township, $628.23; Park Township, $781.45.

Dr. Ten Have of the health unit addressed the board and submitted his annual report verbally.

Mr. Damstra moved that the report be referred to the committee on public health which motion prevailed.

BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS
County of Ottawa, Mich.
Grand Haven, Mich.
September 30, 1933

To the Board of Supervisors:

In conformity with a recommendation of the board of supervisors we have prepared our report in mimeograph form. We have endeavored to present the usual information relative to the road work in the county in a slightly different form when using the mimeograph. There have been several new laws enacted by Congress and the State Legislature affecting road construction and maintenance. The passage of the fifteen mile limitation and the suspension of the Covert Act has practically ended our road construction and reconstruction on our program. Although there have been some petitions received by the Commission this year there is no recommendation in this report for a road construction budget.

A special committee was appointed by your board on a bond refunding plan. Acting on the authorization from your board after a report of the special committee, the following bond refunding plan has been established:

Covert Bonds
The $38,500.00 par value of bonds due May 1, 1932, May 1, 1934 and May 1, 1935 were refunded into substantially equal annual installments for a period of not exceeding ten years from the date of said refunding bonds were dated May 1, 1932 and bear interest at the same rate as the bonds which were refunded. The refunding bonds mature May 1, 1932 and the entire issue of refunding bonds matures as follows:

The very importance of the work done by the County Health Unit has been fully demonstrated during the past year. Greater work at a less cost has been accomplished. The total cost to the county has been less than $1,000.

The report furnished by the Health Unit clearly establishes the necessity of this work in our county.

We therefore ask that the usual appropriation of $6,000 be made for the continuance of the unit.

State Emergency Welfare Relief Commission of Michigan

Lansing
October 5, 1933

Board of Supervisors,
Ottawa County, Mich.

Gentlemen:

Funds for welfare relief are fast diminishing. The sum total now in sight in Michigan is far from sufficient to properly care for the known needs. The Federal Administration at Washington estimate that by Mar. 1, 1934 their entire appropriation will have been expended. Disbursements of welfare funds continue at the present rate. What is available will be used. Supplemental funds must be forthcoming.

Very shortly your honorable body will have funds which are available for relief purposes. The Kulp Act provides that a portion of the weight tax may be used to augment Federal and State funds. The July apportionment of the weight tax to your county approximates $70,000.00.

The success of the Federal and State plan for relief depends upon local co-operation, upon having county share in the cost. We respectfully urge you to set aside the weight tax for the relief of the needy.

Men on your welfare rolls may have to be taken off unless you contribute in part to the cost of their support. They will be employed by your Road Commission. Your county will thereby require just that much less assistance from State and Federal funds. With all counties co-operating we will be enabled to carry on through the winter and provide for all.

We respectfully urge your unanimous adoption of the enclosed resolution, and its immediate return to us signed, thereby giving us assurance of your whole co-operation in providing for the needy.

Respectfully yours,
F. R. JOHNSON
State Relief Administrator

Probes Kidnaping

Marge Devere, 25, left, and Jane Edwards, 22, right, have been jailed at Marshall, Mich., for questioning by federal authorities in connection with the kidnaping and robbery of Louis Brooks, top, millionaire manufacturer and former mayor of the city. The women are alleged to have been the companions of two ex-convicts, who are being hunted as the two men who kidnaped Brooks and forced him to give them cash and jewelry estimated at $35,000, from his safe. Brooks later was released.

TALKS TO PARENTS LISTENING

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH

"Children should be seen and not heard," seems to be a part of the far distant past and though the point of view which produced the adage may have been extreme, the present state of affairs seems hardly more desirable.

There is something to be said for the education which a child gets by listening to older people talk. It may be only lessons in human nature that he receives, or it may be valuable and interesting material. That occasionally he should join in with a comment or a question is good practice, and teaches him gradually to take part more and more in adult conversation.

But too often this is not the custom. What the child says is listened to with intense interest, his opinions are discussed, his criticisms accepted. The attitude of his elders is often apologetic as if they feared to cross or displease him in any way.

Eventually the parents are neither seen nor heard, for they find themselves unable to converse with the opinionated youngsters who throng their home, and who, with contempt for the past, propose to remake the world on broader lines.

If those of the older generation have lived to any purpose they have much to give, and their exchange of views and ideas could be of great value to those who will one day step into their places. The youngsters, for the most part cannot contribute much to conversation when their experience of life is still limited in time and breadth.

The child must feel his family's interest in his thoughts and doings, but he must not be permitted to take and hold the stage with a recital of matters which concern only himself. A few minutes may be his, and after that it is better for him to listen than to talk.

HOW MILK TRUCKS ELUDE FARM STRIKE PICKETS

This photo depicts a daily scene on roads in Wisconsin where striking farmers have established pickets in an attempt to prevent farm products from reaching markets in the cities. Gathering at a pre-appointed spot, these milk trucks are preparing to run the gauntlet of motorized farm strike pickets with the aid of deputies who ride along as guards of the motorcade.

My Beauty Hint

ADELE PEARCE (Screen Actress)

At the studio a player's hair is waved every day by the set hair-dresser.

When not at the studio, however, a similar result can be attained by running a thin waving fluid through the hair each night, pressing the waves into place.
