VOLUME 31—NUMBER 45

HOLLAND, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1953

EIGHT PAGES—PRICE TEN CENTS

Regular Session Of City Council Lasts 25 Minutes

In one of the shortest meetings in several years, City Council processed a minimum of routine business Wednesday night, opening the meeting at 7:30 p.m. and adjourning 25 minutes later.

City Manager H. C. McClintock reported on the progress of the municipal recreation building and council authorized payment No. 6 amounting to $35,916.27. To date, a total of $192,744.75 has been expended, the city retaining payment of 10 per cent until completion.

Council also okayed bulletin No. 5 calling for a few routine changes in plans, and further authorized expenditure of up to $500 for a facing and cap of cut stone for the planter boxes at the north side display windows. Previously, plans called for a cement wall. The cut stone will match the stone trim on other portions of the building.

On suggestion of Mayor Harry Harrington, council instructed City Manager McClintock to arrange for parking facilities at Van Tongeren park at Third St. and Pine Ave. The mayor suggested using a part of the BPW property in the area.

Council adopted a resolution for a water main in 27th St. between Van Raalte and Harrison Aves. The city manager explained that the installation would cost an estimated $1,972.29 for the main plus $630.31 for the two fire hydrants. The latter will not be assessed against the property. The recommendation calls for 75 per cent of the actual cost of the proposed main be paid by special assessments upon the lands comprising the benefit district and the remainder of the cost including the fire hydrants be paid from BPW funds. A public hearing was set for Nov. 18.

Council approved the city manager's recommendation to purchase 20 heavy manhole rings and covers from East Jordan Iron Works at a cost of $30 each. East Jordan had entered low bid.

Council denied a request from Jason J. Roels to move a house from 20 West 16th St. to 365 West 17th St. Council was of the opinion that the house would not fit well into the new surroundings. Two neighbors in the locality registered objections.

An application from Essenburg Building and Lumber Co. for a license to construct sidewalks was granted. Council also approved an application for outside fire protection service from Hertel Insurance Agency on behalf of the Rodi Boat Hauling Co.

A petition requesting paving of East 28th St. from Central to College Aves. was referred to the city manager for report.

Mayor Harrington presided at the 25-minute meeting and Councilman Raymond Holwerda gave the invocation. Councilman Anthony Nienhuis was absent.

Local Airman in Germany Fights 'Boredom Battle'

A Holland serviceman is having a unique experience in Germany as one of a small group of Air Force officers and airmen who are fighting a "battle with boredom."

He is A/1c J. Fred Padgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Padgett of 155 Central Ave. He is a member of the small group housed in prefabs on a tiny installation known as Schonfeld Communications Site at Pruem, Germany, in a strategic area that changed hands five times during World War II.

Located right in the middle of the old Siegfried line, the site is within sight of the Belgian border and the region is still covered by unexploded land mines and blasted Nazi bunkers. The unit's immediate site is cleared of mines, but each day, new missiles are uncovered in the immediate vicinity.

Needless to say, this isolated spot has the lowest morale possible, and one visiting officer commented "It's places like this that need entertainment." He promised no waste of time in placing the unit on the Air Force's traveling show itinerary.

Two big morale boosters were in sight when the Padgetts last heard from their son — nightly movies were to begin in the mess hall and an NCO Club was to be organized. Only two women are present on the installation — the squadron adjutant who is a WAF, and one who works at the snack bar.

The "miniature airbase" is complete, however, with its own six-bed hospital (one of the few buildings with central heating), its own air police, PX and snack bar. The only thing it seems to lack is a "place to go."

Aid may be forthcoming, however, as the stranded and bored airmen recently were given a big play in "The Stars and Stripes."

Padgett rather likes the place, though — it's "quiet and not too busy." He enlisted in the Air Force for four years in September, 1950, had basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, was stationed at White Sands Desert in New Mexico, then at Scott Air Force Base for radio training. He left for Overseas in October, 1952, from Donaldson Air Force Base, Greenville, S. C. He went direct to Bitburg, Germany, then to Lyon, France, before being assigned to Pruem.

Second Annual Reports Start on Cancer Research

Volunteer researchers of the Michigan division of the American Cancer society have begun making their second annual follow-up reports on 36,166 in the state who are participating in the national smoking study to determine whether there is a relationship between the use of tobacco and lung cancer.

Of the 36,166 men interviewed in Michigan, 1,334 were interviewed in Ottawa county, according to Mrs. J. D. Jencks, commander of the Ottawa County cancer division. Only 15 men were lost to the follow-up in the entire state last year.

Beginning in January, 1952, volunteer researchers in 394 selected counties in nine states obtained histories of smoking habits of 204,547 men between the ages of 50 and 69. States participating are New York, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Iowa and California.

The major research project was undertaken for two reasons. The first was that studies in the past have indicated that smoking may be an important factor in the cause of lung cancer, and secondly, death rates from lung cancer have been increasing at an alarming rate.

The study was originally planned to continue over five years but may be completed sooner than expected because of the "excellent performance of the volunteer researchers." The researchers traced 99.4 per cent of the men originally questioned and only .6 per cent were lost track of. The study could not have been done without the services of volunteer researchers but would have cost millions of dollars if done commercially.

Local persons interested in cancer control will be interested in a television survey tonight at 10 p.m. EST, originating in New York and extending to medical centers throughout the country to give a national picture of the present status on the research of cancer.

HHS Boys Speak To Rotary Club

Three Holland High School youths spoke at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Holland Rotary in the Warm Friend Tulip room.

David Mulder and John Van Dyk, both high school seniors, reported on their experiences as Holland's representatives at Camp Emery this past summer. From Districts 218 and 219 over 100 boys from all over Michigan attended this leadership conference under the direction of "Stub" Biemer of Muskegon.

The conference featured discussions with outstanding business leaders in which the boys were invited to share their views on matters of business and world affairs. Among the speakers at the evening session were Guy Vander Jagt and Clark Kuebler.

Mark De Velder, Rotary's delegate to Boys' State, described activities at East Lansing last June when approximately a thousand boys participated in the functioning of a democratic form of government. Upon arrival all were assigned to one of two parties. De Velder was a Federalist, the party which was victorious in the gubernatorial race. Following the elections inauguration ceremonies were held at which the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court officiated.

Top state officials were featured speakers at the week-long session: Governor Williams, Auditor General Martin, and Secretary of State Cleary. De Velder, who was made a lieutenant in the State Police force, commented at length on the athletic clinics led by Michigan State mentors.

All the representatives spoke of the benefits derived from having attended the conferences—giving opportunity for meeting and sharing ideas with boys from all over the state.

Next Thursday Dr. Chris A. De Young will speak on "Education for Exceptional Children."

Fleet Backs Spell Entire Difference In High-Scorer

Battle Creek's fast-stepping backs were too much for Holland High to handle at Battle Creek Friday night and the Bearcats won a ding-dong, crowd-pleasing offensive battle by a whopping 41-20 score.

The loss shoves Holland down below the .500 mark for seven games so far this season and brings Battle Creek up to four wins and three setbacks so far.

Holland won in every statistical department but the final score. The locals massed a total of 22 first downs to just seven for the Cats, and outshone the home team in the yards rushing department 244-207, but the lightning speed of Coach Ted Kjolhede's three Negro backs—Rueal Pulley, Ken Griffin and Jim Yore—was simply too much to handle.

Consider the first half as a good example. Battle Creek had the ball for just eight plays from scrimmage in the first 24 minutes and gained a net five yards rushing and didn't make a first down. However, the Cats held a 14-7 halftime lead. Holland's offense was the yard-by-yard type, but it couldn't match the lightning strikes of the Battle Creek backs.

At the end of the first quarter it was 0-0, despite the fact Holland had the ball on 25 out of 28 plays. The first score came on the first play of the second quarter when Co-Captain and Halfback Paul Mack heaved a bulls-eye pass down the middle from the Battle Creek 46 to Quarterback Bob Van Dyke who gathered it in on the Cats' 29 and raced all the way to the end zone, stiff-arming a would be tackler along the way. Van Dyke added the point and it was 7-0. Mack was in a neat protective pocket when he threw and the pass was right on line. It was the conclusion of a 61-yard drive.

Battle Creek was stopped cold after the kickoff and Griffin got off a beautiful punt from his own 30 that rolled dead on Holland's 10. On the second play Ron Van Dyke fumbled after going to the Holland 19, and End George Morris picked up the ball on the bounce and raced over the goal without a Holland man laying a hand on him. Bob Lett added the point and it was 7-7.

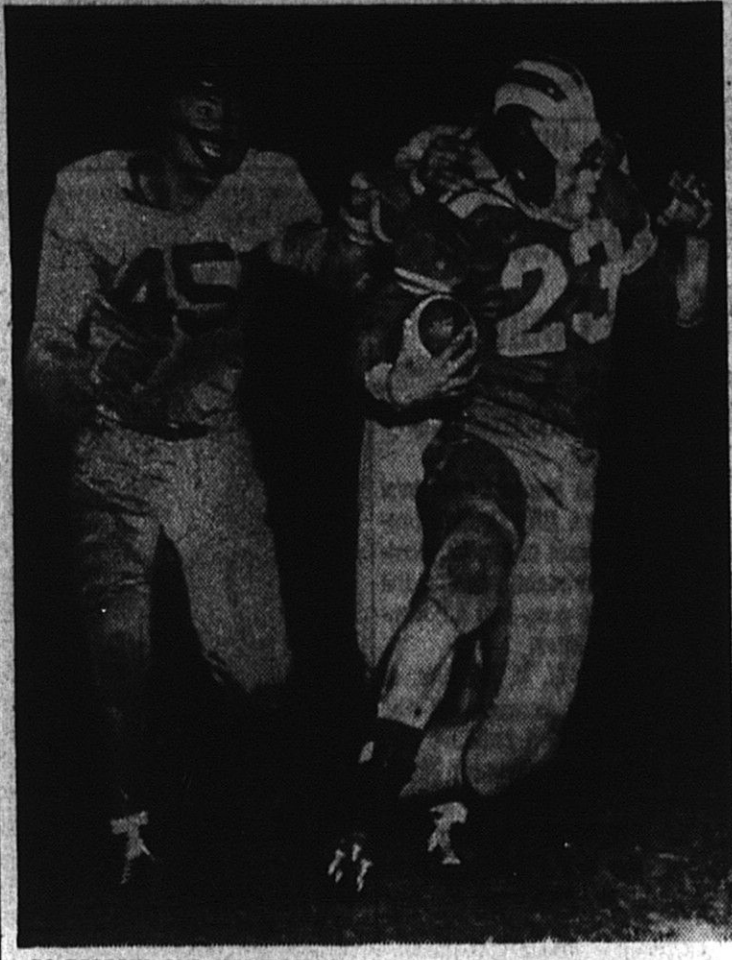

After the kickoff, Holland drove all the way to the Cats' five yard line and on the next play an Irwin Ter Haar pass was snatched by Pulley one yard behind the goal and he ran all the way to the Holland 37 before he was pulled down. On the next play Quarterback Scott Rader flipped a screen pass to big Yore and the burly fullback went all the way. Lett added the point and it was 14-7 when the half ended a minute later.

Holland's second half kickoff rolled out of bounds and Battle Creek had first down on its own 40. On the first play Halfback Griffin ran to his right, but was boxed in for a good loss by about six Holland players. Seeing his predicament, he circled back to the left and raced untouched down the sidelines to the end zone, aided by a couple of nifty blocks along the way. Lett again added the point and it was 21-7. Battle Creek at this point still hadn't racked up a first down, while Holland had 12. This misfortune kind of took the starch out of the Dutch and a few minutes later Yore bulled through center from the Holland 48 and outran the secondary to score. Lett again added the point and it was 28-7.

Holland's offense elicited right back, covering 67 yards in 12 plays for a TD. Delwin Grissen was the clincher when he darted off left tackle and over the double stripe. Bob Van Dyke's kick was wide and it was 28-13.

After the kickoff, Battle Creek backs were reeling off yards like a giveaway salesman and went to the Holland 25 from where Yore again busted the center and sprinted to pay dirt. The boot was not good and the score was 34-13.

Holland covered 70 yards in 13 plays to open the fourth quarter and score its last touchdown. Ron Van Dyke scored the points on a right tackle smash in which he had to spin and twist his way to the goal. Bob Van Dyke passed to End Dick Plagenhoef for the point and it was 34-20.

CO-CAPTAIN AND HALFBACK PAUL MACK is hauled down after a 10-yard gain against Battle Creek in the second quarter at Battle Creek Friday. The Bearcats defeated Holland in the high-scoring clash, 41-20. However, the return of Mack inspired the Holland team in the first half and the locals completely outplayed the home team. Mack was a big gun as he passed and ran on the biggest yard gains of the Holland drives up and down the field. (Sentinel photo)

Battle Creek's speedsters came right back, covering 55 yards on just three plays to put it on the Holland 16. From there Pulley skirted left end for the score. Lett added the point and that was it.

Perhaps the most outstanding feature of the game as far as Holland was concerned was the stellar play of Mack, who was making his first appearance of the season since fracturing his ankle before the first game. Mack was a definite boost to the locals on both offense and defense. Coach Dale Shearer wasn't wrong when he labeled Mack the "best blocker, best tackler and best runner on the ball team." However, Mack tired, as expected, in the fourth quarter and had to go to the sidelines.

Holland's offense crunched out a lot of yards and passes at vital junctions were good—10 out of 23 for the evening—but the Dutch simply couldn't catch the fleet Battle Creek runners.

Hope College Students Organize Chess Team

Hope College students have joined students at many other schools in starting a chess team. Members of the Hope team to date are Herbert Widner, John Duggett, William Elfrink, John Schrier, William Latham, Carl Hease, Ellsworth Ralls, Frank Lightner, R. Korwn and Dave De Jong.

The team is making plans to invite teams to the next meeting and to make a place on the team for them.

College president, Dr. Irwin J. Lubbers, an avid chess enthusiast, is expected to accept a challenge from the chess team upon his return to the campus this week.

It was announced that the Hope regrets the discontinuation of the Holland Chess Club, and unless they hear to the contrary, will assume the amount of $3.07 in that club's treasury as the first subscription toward a public chess and checker table. The table would be placed in a city park and will be built of cement, similar to those found in New York City's Central Park, St. Petersburg, Fla., and other cities.

Dr. Albertus Pieters, former president of the Holland Chess Club, will accept the challenge for a chess game by Herbert Widner. They will play in the next few days. Dr. and Mrs. Peter Pieters will leave Nov. 3 for St. Petersburg, where Dr. Pieters plans to take advantage of chess playing in the parks there.

Henry L. Beach is chess instructor for the beginners.

The fatal accident occurred approximately three-quarters of a mile west of Bauer on Bauer Rd. The two girls were walking home west on Bauer Rd., when they were hit by a car driven by Hama Vander Molen, 66, of route 3, Hudsonville, heading west on Bauer Rd.

Vander Molen told police he saw the two girls walking ahead of him on the highway. He said he honked the horn several times, and continued, thinking the girls would move off the highway.

Vander Molen said before he could swerve, the car struck the girls. The impact carried the Emmert girl nearly 132 feet before she slid from the car to the pavement.

Holland In 1917

(Following is the 580th in the series of weekly articles taken from news of the Holland Daily Sentinel published more than 35 years ago.)

At a meeting held Thursday evening in the City Hall by the Liberty Loan Committee, the War Committee and the business men, plans were made for the actual campaign of the selling of bonds in Holland and in the southern section of Ottawa county, according to a story appearing in the Friday, Oct. 5, issue.

An enthusiastic good roads meeting was held in the Witteveen school house in Park township Thursday evening for the purpose of getting the sentiment of the property owners of that township on the proposition of bonding for about $50,000 for the building of a 16 foot concrete road.

The 19th annual conference of the Woman's Missionary Union of the classes of Grand River, Holland and Michigan, will be held next Tuesday in the Trinity Reformed Church in this city. Some 60 to 65 churches are represented in the Union and a large number of delegates are expected to attend the meeting in this city.

Delegates of Sunday Schools from every part of the county are attending the Ottawa County Sunday School Convention at Coopersville today. Many delegates made the trip by automobile.

The Rev. Henry Pasma and family of Oostburg, Wis., arrived in Holland Thursday night to visit for a few days with Mrs. Pasma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnaby. Rev. Pasma has accepted a call extended by the Reformed Church of Linden, Wash., and the family will go from here to the new field of labor.

Father Wykhoff of Grace Church was in Grand Rapids today to attend the farewell meeting given by the Men's Club of St. Mark's parish in honor of Bishop McCormick who will leave shortly for France.

Local Red Cross officials believe that even in Holland German propagandists are getting in some of their work and are thus interfering with the Red Cross work, according to a story appearing in the Saturday, Oct. 6, issue. The story has been going the rounds in Holland that the articles made for the local Red Cross are not sent to the soldiers free of charge but that they are being sold to the boys and that somebody is pocketing the money. Gerrit Wolbert and Otto Brandt, Jr., left last week for Kansas City, Kans. They expect to be gone about six months.

The work on the West Michigan pike between Holland and Saugatuck is now being pushed as rapidly as possible. Ten to 15 teams are kept busy hauling stone.

The Court placed him on probation for one year and ordered him to pay $35 a week. Mrs. Bosma resides in Holland.

Grandstanding...

Coach Al Vanderbush of Hope College was "very pleased" with his team's play against Albion Saturday and labeled the victory a mighty team effort. He did point out, however, "it wasn't our best football of the season."

"Our ball handling was faulty," he said. The mentor said it wasn't as good an offense against Albion as the Dutch showed in routing rugged Beloit 32-13 a week earlier. However, he added that Quarterback Harry Vody missed a good deal of practice last week because of a cold and it showed up in his timing. Handoffs from Vody were fumbled three different times and were costly to the Dutch effort.

"Our kids were just determined to win and were battling in there all the way," he said.

Guard Ed Stapert, whom Vanderbush calls "one of our best defensive linemen," made the trip and was in uniform, but didn't play because of a pulled muscle in the back of his leg. He tried it out before the game, but just couldn't run on it.

Big Tackle John Hollander saw limited duty because of a leg injury and Tackle Don Van Hoven came out in the second quarter with an injury that kept him benched the rest of the afternoon.

It was a disappointing Dad's Day for Albion. Fathers of team members were at the game and sat on the bench with numbers on their backs corresponding to their respective sons numbers.

Orlie Bishop, advertising and circulation manager of The Sentinel, went to the game, but he was sitting on the other side. Bishop graduated from Albion and besides that, his brother, Louis, has a son that plays guard for the Britons. Jim Bishop is a sophomore and plays a lot of ball. He has started in quite a few games this year, the only sophomore starter for the Britons. Louis lives in Cass City.

A goodly number of Hope fans made the trip to Albion and helped swell the crowd to about 1,500. Some of the local rooters and students sang the Hope victory song, unaccompanied, during the third quarter and again when Hope scored its last touchdown in the last quarter.

It was ideal football weather from both spectator and player angles Saturday. And Hope's sound victory made the day twice as ideal for local fans.

Saturday's game was the 26th in the Hope-Albion series and Hope has won nine, lost 14 and three ended in ties.

Quarterback Bob Friberg of Albion first sprained his ankle in the Oct. 24 game against DePauw. He then reinjured the ankle last Friday night when the Britons were going through limbering up drills on the eve of the big game. Friberg was examined by a specialist just before the game and was able to play, but was hobbling around when he was in there. He wasn't up to par, though.

Albion has a dandy electric scoreboard at its Alumni field. The scoreboard and timer was installed last year and is a gift of the 1949 and 1951 graduating classes and the Albion Kiwanis Club. Albion high school plays its game on the same field and erected a new lighting system last fall.

Walthers League Meets

Delores Sebasta and Owen Carlson assisted in "Christian Service" and Ann Freeman and Nancy Francis will help on "Christian Knowledge," the two phases of the "Christian Growth" program. "Christian Growth" is the aim of the Walthers League group.

Mari Van Dyke chose as her topic for the meeting "Common Courtesy," in which she emphasized the courtesy expected from every Walthers Leaguer as adult members of the church and this society.

The Youth Evangelism program in Nigeria was discussed. The international Walthers League will take part in this program early in the coming year.

Games were played under direction of Jim Steininger. Ann Freeman and Nancy Francis served refreshments.

Stronger Churches Make Better Communities
Acts 2:41-47; Philippians 1:27-30; Peter 2:4-10

By Henry Geerlings

While the gospel has a farther reaching purpose than the reformation of the present social order, it is nevertheless important to recognize that wherever the gospel is received it does change society to the degree that it is received. Even though redemption is the hope of the world's salvation there is no reason why any community may not apply Christian principles of living here and now. There are communities where liquor is not sold, where schools are not atheistic, where public officials are concerned about the good of the people, and where the knowledge of God is an important part of the thinking of the people. There ought to be more such.

In discussing this subject it would seem to us that the logical thing to do is to find out, as far as we can, what the present condition of the churches is. And here we are sure there will be no general agreement. There are wide disagreements about the nature of the church, its ministry and its present status. There are those who think the church has failed, has outlived its usefulness and ought to be replaced with something different.

There are others who declare that the church is marching grandly on, and that it is on the eve of a new era of triumphs. And there are others who admit that the church has a vital mission to perform but that her mission has been confused, disrupted and that she suffers from spiritual lethargy due to ignorance and misunderstanding of her true mission in the world. But in spite of the differences nearly all will agree that there is need for stronger churches and better communities.

In every generation there have been those who have sought to discredit the character of the church and to minimize the significance of its influence upon society. But we know beyond any shadow of doubt, that the church does and can change the life of the community at many points. We know that the church must be in the vanguard of any worthwhile movement that makes for the creation of a better world.

To attempt to transform society without the assistance of the church would be as futile as to attempt to teach a man who has no sense of smell to distinguish the fragrance of flowers.

A strong church has a regenerate membership. A strong church has a vigorous program of evangelism. The basic mission of the New Testament church is to serve as an evangel. There is no excuse for a lack of evangelistic fervor, and the church that does fail to have that spirit will sooner or later die.

Another source of strength for the church is fidelity to the great doctrines of our faith. The Jerusalem Christians continued steadfastly in the doctrine of the apostles. The reason so many fall by the wayside and live lives that are meaningless to Christ is due to the fact that they have not been properly indoctrinated. We should, as Christians, know what we believe and why we believe it. And we should share our belief with others.

Once again, the membership of a strong church enjoys a faithful prayer life. A praying church will surmount obstacles that otherwise would be unsurmountable. And then the strong church will engage in a vital teaching and preaching ministry that will be carried on not only in the formal place of gathering but also in homes and public places.

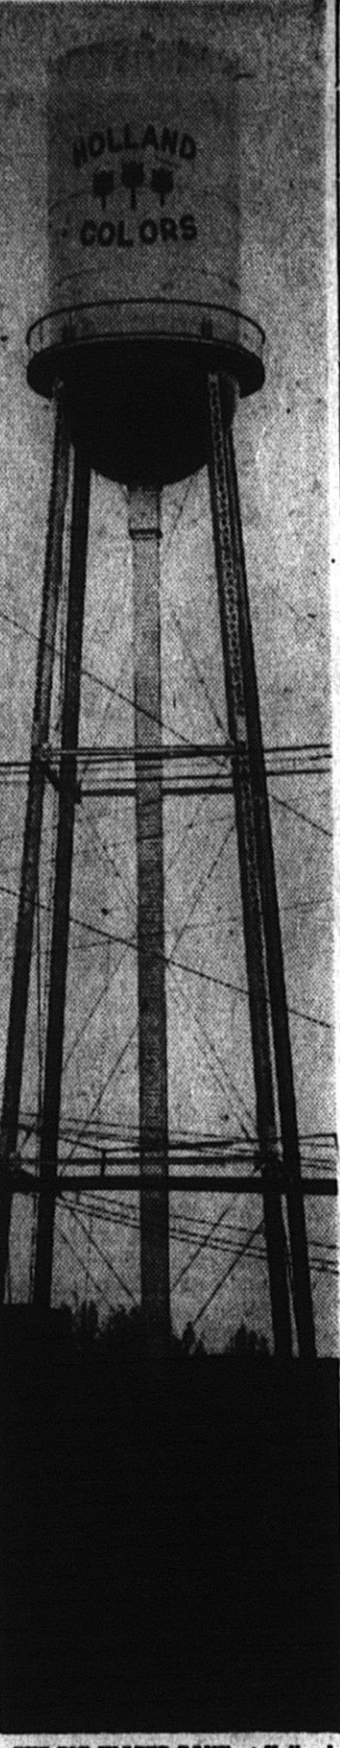

The cause of retrogression in church life is that the church has moved off its Biblical, evangelical foundation and preaches another gospel which is not the gospel of Christ. If we realize that to be the case we are in a fair way to find a remedy. If we have moved off our true foundation, there is only one thing to do, to move back again.

A study of the spiritual history of God's people will show us that it has always been the tendency of man to depart from God and from His revealed will. After the apostolic age of the church went into a decline and darkness. The Reformation brought relief and slight renovation. Many went back to the Bible and the gospel of grace. Then, later, the revival under Wesley relieved the darkness that had spread over the English speaking world.

The only way to have strong churches is to conform to the truth that God has revealed to us in His Word. And that Word is clear and it will become clearer the more we read and study it. The only foundation for stronger churches is to build upon the redemptive work of Christ. This is the rock on which the church is built and against which the power of Satan cannot prevail.

We will have stronger churches and better communities when we practice the oldtime religion and the oldtime faith. The early Christians made an active business of their new found faith. We ought to follow the example of the early church in Jerusalem. The church to have strength must follow faithfully the early New Testament pattern. The elements of strength as reflected in the early churches are crystal clear. One by one, these secrets of a strong church ought to be held up as measuring rods for the strength of our own churches.

Five Go to Jail On Liquor Counts

Five persons started jail terms this week after pleading guilty to charges ranging from tipsy driving to furnishing liquor to a minor. Irving Joseph Antoine, 41, of New Richmond, Tuesday began a five day jail sentence after pleading guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor. Municipal Court Judge Cornelius vander Meulen also ordered Antoine to pay $109.70 or spend an additional 30 days in jail.

Valda A. Lewis, 43, of 24 1/2 West First St. and Ramon M. Paul, 39, of New Richmond, both pleaded guilty to drunk and disorderly charges and were sentenced to five days in jail or fined $29.70 each. Lewis chose jail.

Donald Hulst, 18, of 18 West 17th St. and Eugene Dozeman, 20, of route 3, were each sentenced to five days in jail. Hulst, on two charges of transporting and furnishing intoxicants to a minor, was also fined $50 or 30 additional days.

Dozeman was given the choice of paying $25 or serving 20 more days after entering a guilty plea to being drunk and disorderly. Rosita Milloy, 1930 South Shore Dr., pleaded not guilty to furnishing and selling liquor to minors. Judge vander Meulen set Nov. 10 at 2 p.m. for a trial.

Pullman Church Has First Homecoming

PULLMAN (Special)—Pullman Congregational Christian church had its first homecoming last Sunday, on its 64th anniversary.

Among those attending were four who had attended dedication of the church when it was built a mile west of Pullman. The building was moved to Pullman in 1914.

Charter members were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Shambly, Miss Maggie Shambly, Flora Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Masters, Mr. and Mrs. G. Almack, Alvin Perry, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Will Laraway, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bush, Oliver Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burch. They organized the church in a school house and soon began construction of a building.

James McCracken acted as master of ceremonies for the program, which was followed by a dinner at the Pullman IOOF dining room.

Present from out-of-town were Carlton Dunn of Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Orren Snider and mother, Mrs. Cora Woods of Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overhiser and mother, Mrs. F. Burrows of East Casco, Mrs. Katie Liggett of Fennville and Jay Burch of Fennville, who gave a talk on the church and its members when he was a boy.

The Rev. Willard Kline is pastor of the church and many improvements have been made in the building since he took over the pastorate in 1932.

The origin of the word novel, meaning book, comes from an Italian word, meaning tale.

Anderson Quits Albion Grid Helm

ALBION, Mich. — Football Coach Delmar Anderson resigned unexpectedly Tuesday in the wake of Albion's 20 to 7 defeat by Hope College and resulting team indignation.

The resignation was announced by Academic Dean Emil Leffler who said it was "entirely voluntary and stems from disagreement on policy."

Leffler declined further comment on reasons for Anderson's sudden departure. However, it was known that upper class team members have held a series of "indignation meetings" of their own that later branched out into meetings with faculty members and Anderson. The protests stemmed from Albion's defeat by Hope College of Holland last Saturday and involved Anderson's decision to use injured Quarterback Bob Friberg in the crucial league game. Albion's defeat virtually eliminated it from the MIAA championship race.

"This resignation has come as a complete surprise to me," said Leffler. "I have always found Mr. Anderson to be energetic, hard-working and enthusiastic in the conduct of his work."

Leffler announced that the school's athletic program would continue. Two games remain on the football schedule — Hillsdale and Adrian. An announcement was expected later on who will direct the team.

Library Adventures

By Arnold Mulder

I have been more than casually interested in the editorial reaction to the award of the Nobel prize for literature to Winston Churchill. The early comments at least were so unanimously favorable that they sounded like unconsidered judgments. It was as if the editorial writers told themselves that Churchill's books must be great literature because the Swedish Academy had crowned them with the Nobel prize.

It seems certain that at least some of those who came to this conclusion had not actually read Churchill's books. They seem to have reasoned that because World War II Memoirs yielded him some three million dollars, therefore those books must be great literature. There is an obvious fallacy in such reasoning.

Or when the writers had actually read the Churchill books they have sometimes confused "literature" and "publicity." Here is a typical quote: "The sixth volume of his great war history is scheduled to come out the last of next month. Those who have read any of the previous volumes will agree that the work represents great history and erudition."

I happen to have read all five of the "previous volumes" but I do not agree that they represent "great writing." I can't even agree that they represent "great history," although that term would be somewhat more reasonable than the term "great literature."

The I's of this little article sound egotistical. What I am trying for is an impartial, objective comment on Churchill as a writer of literature. I am not at all trying to pontificate. Since I have read his books I have a right to express an opinion, a right that some commentators do not seem to have earned for themselves, judging by the internal evidence of their words.

Junior Welfare League Welcomes New Members

Members of Junior Welfare League welcomed 12 new members at their annual New Girls dinner Tuesday evening and also celebrated the league's 21st birthday. The event was held in the tea room of the Woman's Literary club house.

Mrs. Lincoln Sennett, president, introduced the new members and presented an autumn corsage to each. They are Mrs. Ed Boer, Miss Irene Boer, Mrs. Ben Bowman, Mrs. Lawrence Green, Mrs. John Karsten, Mrs. Fred Meppelink, Mrs. Don Olthoff, Mrs. Maurice Schaap, Mrs. Lewis Vandebunte, Mrs. Ed Van Eck, Mrs. Paul Van Eck and Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte.

The dinner, a potluck affair, was planned by co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Wolbrink and Mrs. Bruce Mikula. Mrs. G. S. MacKenzie and Mrs. William Bradford were in charge of decorations, which featured an autumn theme using mums, cornucopias and white tapers. Corsages were made by Mrs. Stuart Padnos.

In observance of the birthday anniversary, and to acquaint new members with the background of Junior League, three charter members presented an entertaining skit, "It Happened to Us."

Mrs. Clarence Becker arranged the program and was assisted by Mrs. John Stryker and Mrs. John Winter. The three, who now are associate members of the league, appeared in a present-day setting and "relived" many events leading up to founding of the organization and related many comical situations in the organizing of the group. Junior League had its first meeting on Nov. 3, 1917, with 19 members present. Membership requirements at that beginning were age under 30, a college degree or its equivalent and the applicant had to be jobless.

In their reminiscing, the three women reviewed some of the early projects, situations which led to constitution changes and other entertaining experiences in league's "growing up" period. The group now numbers 75 and completes many projects for the benefit of local children, especially through the purchase of equipment for Holland Hospital.

Mrs. Don Williams, chairman of the Christmas Bazaar, reported on a television appearance Monday by three members. Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Bill Venhuizen and Mrs. William Bradford displayed bazaar articles and gave details of the project on a Kalamazoo show. The bazaar is scheduled for Dec. 4 and all proceeds will be used to purchase an isolette incubator, used in the care of premature babies, for Holland Hospital.

Materials for the annual Christmas candy sale were distributed by Mrs. James Brooks and Mrs. Don Winter, co-chairmen. After the program, the group played bridge.

Mrs. Hartman Speaks To Epsilon Fellowship

Using "Building Your Kingdom on Common Sod," as her theme, Mrs. E. V. Hartman spoke to the Epsilon Fellowship of First Methodist Church Tuesday evening.

She told of the typical village which the missionary visits. Especially effective is the Frank Laubach plan which is erasing living conditions. The village missionary has much hardship and sorrow especially when children must be turned away from the mission school because of lack of funds or room, she said.

Entire Indian villages join church at one time, but the new church member must prove himself of good character and intentions before he can join.

The missionary in India has brought about immense changes in the social life of the Indian people, she said. Some of those changes are an awareness of the dignity of women, betterment of labor and social services, prohibition of intoxicants, breakdown of the caste system, poverty and illiteracy. In just a short time, freedom and peace has come for all and women are allowed to take part in government. Madam Pundit of the United Nations is an example.

Miss Claribel Wright conducted devotions based on Peter's "Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven." Mrs. Paul Tammer and Mrs. Gary Marsh served refreshments.

Chicken Coop Burns

The Graatschap fire department was called to the Henry Lubbers farm, three and a half miles south and a half mile east of Holland, at 10 a.m. Tuesday when a chicken coop caught fire. Members of the family were fumigating the coop when they noticed flames overhead. The fire was confined to the roof.

Copper is believed to have been the first metal used by man.

Hope Win Snaps 39-Straight String Of Albion Britons

Hope College's cross-country team paced by diminutive Ron Den Uyl of Holland, performed a feat no other team has been able to do in 39 consecutive MIAA matches — beat Albion.

The Dutch eked out the close 27-28 win at Albion Saturday to write finis to one of the most successful athletic days in the local college's history.

Albion's string included six consecutive MIAA championships and the Britons were in hopes of meeting a record of seven straight titles, set by the Kalamazoo College harriers from 1926 through 1932.

Coach Larry Green's crew now leads the conference with four victories and one loss to non-league Central Michigan. The victims include Calvin, Adrian, Hillsdale and Albion.

Den Uyl's time over the tough four-mile course was 23:17, which is good considering the route includes a lot of rolling hills.

Den Uyl was far ahead of the field when the men finished at the 50-yard line during halftime. Others across the line in order were: Jesse King (H); Elmer Morehouse (A); Harry Gibson (A); Dick Cooley (A); Bob Probst (A); Ron Reinink (H); Glenn Straatsma (H); Byron Aldrich (H); Dick Fluke (A); Dick Lawson (A), and Phil Glatfield (A).

The course at Albion goes through a park, down a cow pasture and around a 40-acre tract of land and ends up at Alumni Field.

Green's squad has meets this week with MIAA foes Olivet and Kalamazoo.

Trinity Church Scene of Rites

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Kammeraad

Miss Eleanor Jane De Weerd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter De Weerd of route 1, Pullman, became the bride of James E. Kammeraad Friday evening in Trinity Reformed Church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kammeraad 234 West 20th St.

The Rev. John Hains, assisted by Gerrit Dykman, performed the double ring rites before a setting of ferns, palms, candelabra and two baskets of white mums and pompons. White bows marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and Chantilly lace featuring a lace pointed collar, lace covered buttons to the waist and lace inserts from the shoulders falling into panels of the full skirt. The long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists. A Dutch cap, covered with seed pearls and trimmed with orange blossoms, held her fingertip veil edged with Chantilly lace. Her jewelry was a pair of pearl earrings, gift from the groom. She carried a white Bible with white roses and satin streamers.

Mrs. John De Weerd assisted as matron of honor and Mrs. Henry Dubbink and Miss Beatrice Deters were bridesmaids. They were similarly attired, the honor attendant in Nile green net over tulle and the bridesmaids in orchid and yellow, respectively. They wore boleros over the strapless bodices. They carried cascade bouquets of pompons and roses.

Jack Kammeraad attended his brother as best man and John De Weerd and Philip Kammeraad were ushers. The Rev. and Mrs. Gerrit D. Schutt of McBain assisted as master and mistress of ceremonies.

Music for the ceremony was provided by John Swieringa, organist, and Mrs. Tony Laurtsema, aunt of the bride, who sang "Together, Life's Pathway We Tread," "God Gave Me You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. De Weerd wore a dress of gray lace over pink tulle with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories and a pink rose corsage.

MAKING UP IN ENTHUSIASM what they lack in size, Allegan's newly-formed "municipal band" — just three weeks old — is typified by Wilson Hitchcock, Dr. John David, and Robert Chandler, who get together for a little post-practice jam session Monday night. The band, just an idea three weeks ago, now numbers 17 and is growing every day.

Municipal Band Idea Skyrockets in Allegan

ALLEGAN (Special) — Allegan's "municipal band" has grown from a "why-don't-we" conversation into a 17-piece organization in the brief span of three weeks.

Spark-plugged by two brothers, Elmer and Forrest Wedge, who were members of the old Cheshire band, the Monday-night sessions already rate top priority for 17 musicians.

And the 17 are enthusiastically beating the bushes for more. Their primary need at the moment is for a director with a lack of sheet music running a close second.

The present combination is remarkably well balanced for a voluntary affair, but members agreed there'll be a "bounty" for clarinet players. At present, the flute, baritone, clarinet, trombone, cornet, trumpet, bass, drums, saxophone and even a flugel horn — something of a rarity to the younger band members — are represented.

The group held its organizational meeting Monday night in the hall over the Massey Music Studio. Lawrence Nyberg was elected chairman, Mrs. Michael Strazanac, secretary-treasurer, and Forrest Wedge, librarian.

Wedge said more than 40 ex-bandmen have indicated an interest in the organization and each new member is supplying one or two names for the list of prospects. The band is drawn from at least three generations, united by an interest in music.

A concert band is their goal and

THE BIRTH OF A "HERO"

A Virginia mountain boy, 23 years old, is America's current "hero." He is none other than Cpl. Edward S. Dickinson, the boy who first wanted to stay behind the Iron Curtain, then renounced Communism and came home.

Dickinson has been given the plaudits of millions. The legendary Man from Mars, coming on the American scene unprepared would get the impression that young Dickinson was a man of extraordinary courage. He is being lauded and feasted and praised and romanticized.

The American people are of course pleased and relieved that this young man saw the light in time and renounced Communism before it was too late. He deserves commendation for coming to his senses. But it is hard to see how he can classify as a "hero."

It is in order to remember that there were many thousands of young Americans captured by the Reds in the same war in which Cpl. Dickinson was made a prisoner. Those thousands of upstanding Americans refused to pay attention to the Red propaganda. They laughed at the promises of Utopia with which their captors tried to beguile them. Many of them faced torture and the threat of death because they refused to renounce common sense and their faith in American democracy.

Those thousands, the real heroes, are only statistics to the American public. None but their immediate families know their names; few take the trouble to remember for two days after they land in the home ports what they were up against.

If Cpl. Dickinson had been one of them; if he had stubbornly resisted the blandishments of his Red captors; if he had borne witness behind the Bamboo Curtain to the blessings of democracy as he had known them during all the 23 years of his life in his Virginia mountain home—if he had done all that, he would have been a real "hero" but no one would ever have heard his name.

"Heroes" have become almost completely synthetic. The time may come when it will be considered a discredit to be called a "hero." If the public continues to sentimentalize pseudo-heroism the word "hero" will lose its meaning.

We are familiar with this same phenomenon in other ways. The man who remains sober and law-abiding and hard-working all his life is ignored as a humdrum plodder. The drunkard and wastrel and no-good reformer is worshiped by millions. It's a queer world. But we the people seem to like it. It is a good thing to remember that reports show more than 14 thousand Red troops refused to return home.

Halfback Adams Scores All Three Hope Touchdowns

What was reputed to be the football "game of the week" in Michigan proved to be just that every second of the way here Saturday as the Dutchmen from Hope College turned back the defending MIAA champion Albion Britons, 20-7.

The precocious victory, No. 5 of the season against one loss to out-league Michigan Normal, puts Hope in a commanding lead in the MIAA chase with two games left to play, Kalamazoo and Alma.

Albion had been beaten just once this season going into Saturday's showdown battle, also by a non-league foe. Thus Hope is in the No. 1 spot and the Britons are runners up with Hillsdale and Adrian left on the schedule.

Halfback John Adams scored all three of Hope's touchdowns on brilliant runs of 8, 53, and 34 yards. Two came in the first quarter and one in the fourth. Albion scored its lone marker with one minute and 41 seconds left in the game on a 12-yard play that clicked against the Hope reserves.

Aside from Adams' scoring jaunts, it was a rugged defensive battle all the way and Albion thoroughly outplayed the Dutch during the third quarter, gathering 71 yards running and 45 passing to a negative 5 rushing and 37 passing for Hope.

Albion keenly felt the loss of Quarterback Bob Friberg from Grand Rapids, who, although he played off and on for three quarters, wasn't in top form because of a badly sprained ankle. Friberg, the offensive spark of the Britons and the best passer in the MIAA, was finally put out for good in the fourth period.

However, Hope too had its share of costly injuries. Fullback Dave Kemper suffered a knee injury in the opening minutes and was sidelined the rest of the game, except for about a 30-second stint on defense. And Quarterback Harry Voss wasn't at top strength because of a cold that kept him away from practice three days last week.

But don't kid yourself that Friberg is a one-man team. The Britons have some sweet backs in James Murray, George Clifford, Don McIntrye, Larry Byle and Bob MacDonald.

Adams scored the first touchdown with the game just four minutes and 13 seconds old on an eight-yard sweep around left end. John Brannock set up the score when he intercepted Friberg's pass on the Albion 22. The big end from Benton Harbor raced in and hit Friberg and then grabbed the ball as Friberg let go a desperation effort. Bud Prins' kick for point was wide and it was 6-0.

Albion gambled and lost on a fourth-down play on the Hope 35 a short while later and the Dutch took over at that point. Four plays later Adams again swept left end and went 53 yards to score, aided considerably by a key block by Tackle Don VanderToll. This time Prins kicked the point and it was 13-0 with 6 minutes and 15 seconds left in the first quarter.

From then until the fourth quarter it was an up and down battle of defenses. At one time in the second quarter Hope drove all the way to the Briton 4 where a fumble by Halfback Frank Talarico was recovered by Murray on the Albion 7.

Offside penalties nullified two Albion touchdowns, one each in the third and fourth quarters. After the penalties in each case on fourth downs, Hope held and took over, once on the Dutch 6 and the other time on the 11.

Adams used the same play to go 34 yards for the final score early in the fourth quarter. Prins again added the point.

Albion's score was a 12-yard pass play from third string Quarterback Tom Schwaderer to Halfback Norm Weir in the waning moments. Guard Jon Dean added the point and Albion made good an on-side kickoff, but time ran out seconds later.

It's hard to single out any outstanding player on Hope's team. Aside from Adams on offense, it was a terrific team effort and Coach Al Vanderbusch congratulated every one of the regulars who came out in the fourth quarter. Vanderbusch played every man on the bench, except two, one of those because of an injury.

The defensive line especially was outstanding, with Jim Van Hoeven, Vander Holl, Herm Niemi, Brannock, Bill Heydon, Bruce Springsteen, Ken Van Wieren, John Hollander and Maurice Marcus playing along the way. Dave Kuysers from Zeeland spelled Kemper at Fullback and turned in a good performance. Talarico was always good for a few yards and the leading scorer in the state was a constant threat that Albion linemen watched plenty close. Second-string Quarterback John Holmlund replaced Voss a few times and turned in a good effort.

Murray, MacDonald, McIntyre, Byle and Cedric Dempsey were great for Albion. Those first mentioned backs were fast, shifty and hard runners.

Hope now must get ready for Kalamazoo, who, although not boasting an impressive record, always manages to give Hope a tough time. That game will be played Saturday night at Riverview Park.

Gifts and Pledges Not All Reported, But Past $39,500

Marks the First Time Campaign Has Gone Over in Same Month

Holland's Community Chest went over the top Saturday. It was the first time in several years that a campaign was completed the same month it was started, and Campaign Director Pomeroy Van Til was jubilant over the results.

He said gifts and pledges totaled $39,827.18 or more than $325 over the assigned quota of $39,500. He expects the final sum will be boosted even further since all reports are not in.

Van Til gave one qualification on the total, stating that it includes the full quota of the public employees division. Actually, all the money has not been turned in but Division Chairman Ray Reidema said some city and federal employees were waiting for pay day the first part of the week to make their contribution. Reidema assured Van Til that the full quota of $590 will be reached.

Van Til and his co-chairman, Bernard P. Donnelly, today thanked the hundreds of volunteers who contributed freely of their time and efforts to aid those deserving of help. "It's most gratifying to see the accomplishments of such a fine group of civic-minded volunteers," they said. Between 400 and 500 volunteers participated, the chairman said.

More than half of the total sum was raised by the industrial division which reached its goal of $23,900 a few days ago. The bulk of the money was pledged through the Single Solicitation Plan, a program providing payroll deductions in local firms with all gifts matched by management. A total of 56 plants are enrolled under the SSP which has been in operation for three or four years. SSP covers not only Community Chest but also Red Cross and Polio.

Other divisions that went over the top were the business and professional division with a quota of $6,560, the National Corporations division headed by Mayor Harry Harrington which collected well over its quota of $395, and division 7 which solicited homes on the north side. Division 8 which covers the south side is expected to go over the top today. Division 6 which covers the home canvass inside the city was only $71 short of its $2,765 quota today.

The schools and colleges division was a bit slow this year, "due mainly to interrupted schedules and a particularly busy season." This division covers mainly the teachers and other employees, although at Hope College a special offering taken at chapel Friday morning yielded $67.72 from college students.

Van Til and Donnelly urged all captains to submit their final reports as quickly as possible so that all accounts may be completed.

Community Chest campaigns often have run well into November before goals were accomplished, and Chest leaders this year are particularly happy the work was done promptly.

Auxiliary to Buy New Hospital Library Cart

Funds for a new hospital library cart were raised by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary Wednesday afternoon when they staged a "Silver Coffee." The event was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Boer, Maple Ave.

Profits were netted from a baked goods sale held during the coffee. These will be used to purchase a new library cart to replace the one now in use at Holland Hospital. The Auxiliary maintains the cart for the use of all hospital patients. Twice a week two members of the group take the cart to patients' rooms and provide them with current magazines and books.

Mrs. Walter Milewski, Mrs. Ed Nyland, Mrs. Don Gilcrest, Mrs. J. C. Petter, pouring, Mrs. Myron Van Oort, president of the Auxiliary, and Mrs. Ed Boer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Aldrich (du Soar photo)

Wedding vows were spoken at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday by Miss Lucille Ariene Rowell and William Charles Aldrich. The double ring ceremony took place in First Methodist Church, with the Rev. John O. Hagans officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Rowell of 116 West 19th St. and the groom, who is a Navy radioman third class, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Aldrich, 566 Howard Ave.

A cross of white shells and a candle arrangement centered the lovely wedding setting, which featured an altar banked with yellow, bronze and gold mums with autumn leaves, flanked by candelabra. The pews were decorated with ivory ribbons and bronze mums.

Judson Leonard sang "Because" and "O Promise Me" before the rites and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rudolph Mattson, church organist, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride made her own wedding gown, which was fashioned of chintilly lace over ivory satin. The gown featured a scalloped yoke and scalloped hemline and long lace sleeves pointed over the wrists. A Juliet cap of chintilly lace held in place her ivory net veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of ivory mums and pompons with ivory streamers and velvet cords. She carried her grandmother's wedding handkerchief. The groom's gift to the bride was a pair of pearl earrings. Mr. Rowell escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride's sisters were her attendants, Mrs. Rose Mary Swihart of Van Wert, Ohio, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Lorraine Beeson of Otsago and Miss Andrea Rowell as bridesmaids. They made their own gowns which featured fitted bodices with scalloped bertha collars and full skirts. The matron of honor wore a tea-length gown and the bridesmaids, toast brown and nilegreen, respectively. They carried cascade bouquets of contrasting mums and pompons. Byron Aldrich assisted his brother as best man. Ushers were Leonard Rowell, brother of the bride, and Stephen Scott, the groom's cousin.

Mrs. Rowell, mother of the bride, wore a plum colored dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white roses and yellow pompons. Mrs. Aldrich wore a blue dress with black velvet accessories and a corsage of scarlet mums and pompons.

A reception was held in the church parlors for 175 guests. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Garold Marsh at the punch bowl, Misses Yvonne Smith and Barbara Knoll, in the gift room; Mrs. Cameron Crammer, in charge of the guest book; Miss Mame Ewald and Miss Clara McClellan, who presided at the coffee table, and Mrs. Louise Krum who cut the five-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Egbert Israels and her group were in charge of kitchen arrangements. Misses Angie Lam, Ruth Dogger and Gracie Steenbick served.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Florida and other southern states. For going away, the new Mrs. Aldrich wore a suit of blue and brown weave with brown velvet trim, matching accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich will be home after Nov. 23 in Boston, Mass., where he is a radio instructor in the Naval Communications Building.

The bride, a graduate of Holland High School, attended Hope College. The groom, also a Holland High graduate, enlisted while a sophomore at Hope. He was a member of Knickerbocker fraternity.

Starting Lineup For Hornet Tilt Marked by Hurts

An injury riddled Hope College team is ready to show MIAA grid fans that they have the real stuff of which champions are made.

Coach Al Vanderbush is going to have to brace his hard charging line with several reserves, and find replacements for at least two of his starting team.

Tackle Don Van Hoeven is definitely out. Fullback Dave Kemper will be operating with a heavily braced knee; reserve End Ken Van Wieren has a hand to a cast because of a clipped bone; reserve End Ron Boeve will have to contend with an aching elbow—so sore that he couldn't move it earlier this week.

Thus this week shapes up as another big effort if the Dutch want to be assured of coping the MIAA football title. The Albion

TACKLE DON VAN HOEVEN contest, won by a 20-7 margin, had been the high point up to this time.

Kalamazoo has not had a terrific season, but on a couple Saturday afternoon's they have shown a power that if things started clicking could give the Dutch trouble.

Early in the season Kalamazoo romped over a strong North Central Illinois squad by a 34-6 margin. Twice they were beaten by wide margins, against Wheaton of Illinois 33-0 and Albion 39-12.

But Adrian edged them by a 21-19 score, and Olivet by one touchdown 26-19. Their final loss was to Alma 13-0.

Kalamazoo was hard hit by graduation and eligibility losses. In fact, pre-season publicity from the college said "Prospectus for 1953. Very dim." Under their new mentor, Rolla (Red) Anderson the Hornets have fielded a much stronger squad than was indicated.

For the Dutch, the big problem is to keep up the spirit and punch which has been the margin of victory in several of this season's contests. Coach Al Vanderbush rates the material of this squad as no better than many of his others, except for a tremendous spirit and drive.

Anyway, the Dutch are the team other MIAA schools are gunning to beat. This means every week-end is a "big" game, with no letup for breathers.

Emphasis will be on working out a defense to stop the Hornet single wing attack. The wing is traditionally powerful to the strong side of the unbalanced line, and well adapted to their hard running backs.

Pass defense too, will get a workout although the defense shown in the Albion game was about the best of the season for the Dutch.

Game time is 8 p.m. Saturday at Riverview Park.

Council Approves Light Purchase

ZEELAND (Special) — Zeeland City Council took several matters under advisement at their regular session Monday, but few final decisions were made.

Council approved purchase of new lights for the Council chambers, with plans to use the present lights in the basement. Total cost will be about $200.

A report on completion of the new city parking lot behind Bonstra's store was also approved. The section has been graveled and graded recently.

Bad water conditions were listed as the reason for exceptionally slow progress in the West End Sewer project by engineers. The water level is particularly high in the west Central Ave. area.

Council announced it is accepting application blanks for Chief of Police to succeed Chief James Flint who resigned recently.

Attention was given to the possible opening of a new street from Lee St. between Central and Main Sts. The new street would be only a court.

Plans for a luncheon meeting of members of the Sewer committee with contractors for the West End Sewer project were also completed.

Pranksters Fined

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Two Halloween pranksters were brought to justice Tuesday when they appeared before Justice T. A. Husted, Charles Philip Sutton, 21, route 2, Grand Haven, and Gerald Blasky, 18, 1238 Franklin St. Grand Haven, were charged with throwing rubbish in the street in front of the post office building Saturday night. Each paid $5 fine and $4.85 costs. City police made the arrests.

LONGFELLOW SCHOOL'S shirt-tail football team was the Holland Recreation Department sponsored league title recently by defeating Van Raaie, which had won the crown for two consecutive seasons. Both Van Raaie and Longfellow were undefeated in league play until the playoff. The winning Longfellow team (standing left to right) includes: Richard Haworth, Jerry Jacobs, Earl Hamlin, Stephen Kolan, Larry Nixon and Ronald Ricketts. Kneeling left to right are: John Chester, Roger Knapke, David Sandahl, Jerry Van Slooten, Kenneth Taylor and Jack Van Lier. (Sentinel photo)

Grandstanding...

Football takes some crazy bounces, and the one at Battle did—against Holland.

Holland rolled up 12 first downs, 114 yards rushing and 98 yards passing in the first half to no first downs, five yards rushing and 37 yards passing for Battle Creek. But the Dutch trailed at halftime, 14-7.

Two bad breaks—an intercepted pass in the Battle Creek end zone and a fumble that bounced right into a Battle Creek player's hands—made the difference. Then to add insult to injury as it were, Holland players were closing in on a Battle Creek ball carrier on the first play of the third quarter at the Battle Creek 38. But he circled back, ran to the opposite side and went all the way. It wasn't until five minutes later that Battle Creek scored its first first down of the game.

Had Holland scored a couple of more times, as the Dutch should have, in the first half, it might have changed the complexion of the game.

Holland's band traveled to Battle Creek for the game Friday, but didn't get there for pregame ceremonies. The bus carrying the bandmen broke down in Plainfield and the musicians were held up for about an hour. However, when Holland did perform at halftime, the locals received a hearty ovation from the partisan Battle Creek crowd.

Among the Holland fans at the game was Myra Brieve, who you will remember was homecoming queen at Western Michigan College last week-end. She drove over from nearby Kalamazoo to see her alma mater play.

Three Holland cheerleaders, riding in a car driven by Mrs. Dale Shearer, had an unexpected police escort for a short distance and right into the field.

It seems as though Mrs. Shearer asked a cop for directions and saw the flashily-dressed cheerleaders and cleared the way. It was getting late.

Son of Former Probate Judge Returns to Ottawa

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Edward P. Kirby, son of a former Ottawa county probate judge, and his family have moved to Grand Haven with the expectation of setting up a law office. He was graduated from the University of Michigan law school last summer and expects to take his state bar examination next April.

His father, Judge Edward P. Kirby, served probate court from 1901 to 1916 and later was in private practice here for five years. He died in 1935 in Detroit. His wife died in Detroit in 1946.

During World War II Kirby saw action with the U. S. Army infantry in the Italian, French and German campaigns. He was wounded twice, once at Anzio and again just before the Battle of the Bulge. His wounds required lengthy hospitalization. His wife, the former Rose Butler, is a former Army nurse. They have two sons.

Parents' Day Set At Allegan Schools

ALLEGAN (Special) — Parents of Allegan area school children, given an opportunity to suggest topics for the annual Parents' Day program Nov. 12, indicated an overwhelming interest in such questions as:

Are the 3-R's being taught? How do today's teaching methods compare with those when we went to school?

How do you go about "understanding teen-agers?"

Others thought a tour of the high school and vocational buildings, display of text books and more time for individual conferences with teachers would be beneficial.

As a result of a questionnaire mailed parents, next Thursday's Parents' Day program will include much more time for parent-teacher conferences with an open question and answer session set for the afternoon.

Superintendent of Schools Arthur Kaechele indicated that some prominent educator would be obtained to help answer questions about the 3-R's, teaching methods and teenager problems.

As is customary for the event, pupils will not attend school during the day, but the school buses will make their regular rounds to pick up the parents instead. A luncheon will be served at noon.

Let's Plant Beauty; More Formal Gardens Are Becoming Popular

"There is an increasing tendency toward more formal gardens," said Charles Mann in his series of lectures on "Planning Outdoor Living Areas." The balanced formal design is usually more appropriate for city and suburban property because of their size, whereas the informal garden is better adapted to large estates and parks where native plants may be grouped for naturalistic effects, especially farther from the house.

The person who demands the utmost satisfaction from his garden will not be just a plant collector but will plan it so that it has good proportions and design and that it will create a picture from his terrace and windows.

The formal garden is usually rectangular, with lawns and garden evenly balanced; a depth which is twice the width makes a good proportion. A walk of flagstones, softened with grass joints, will add pattern and direction, he said, and garden features, such as walls, steps, a pool, and outdoor furniture add a great deal of interest. He emphasized also that one should strive for variety in texture of foliage in selecting shrubs and trees citing as examples the glossy convex leaf anise yew, the dark green needed Japanese yew, the grey-green fine leaved Russian olive, and the bold textured Soulangeana Magnolia, Rose of Sharon, and white fringe tree.

From the American Rose Society we have these suggestions for the winter care of roses. They recommend that after a killing frost hybrid teas and floribundas be pruned to a height of about 18 inches. The soil should then be mounded around the base of each plant to a height of eight inches if sub-zero weather is expected a layer of evergreen boughs, straw, or leaves will provide extra insulation.

Climbers withstand temperate fluctuations better. The most important thing with this class is to anchor the canes firmly to their supports to prevent "whipping" in high winds. Stronger, healthier plants next spring will be your reward for a little added protection this winter.

Allegan Council Okays Two Issues

ALLEGAN (Special) — City Councilmen voted to go ahead on two improvements after hearings Monday night.

Affected property owners were about evenly divided, for and against the proposed Ely St. sanitary sewer extension. However, sufficient support was indicated when the council agreed to set up the special assessment in 10 annual installments.

The second project, widening and addition of curbing on Grand St. was also approved, with no objections from property owners. The work will cost an estimated $25,000 with the state highway department paying half as a truckline. Of the remainder the city will pay $7,200 and property owners $5,213. A hearing will be held Nov. 16 on the special assessment roll.

The council approved the application of Harding and White, Inc. for an S.D.M. license after City Manager P. H. Beauvais reported that the distance between their market and the nearest church was sufficient under state law. Renewal of Clarence Sweet's S.D.M. license was approved.

The council accepted the bid of the Abrahams Aerial survey company of Lansing, for aerial maps and atlases of the city at a cost of $700. The work will be done this fall.

The meeting concluded after a long discussion of ways and means of financing extension and improvement of water service in the city.

No Need for Depression, Sligh Tells Literary Club

"There is no need of a depression or a deep recession as the result of peace in Korea," Charles R. Sligh, Jr., Holland, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, told members of the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon.

The NAM president who has traveled 90,000 miles the past year in the United States, Hawaii and Europe, said the depression question is close to the top of all the questions asked him in his many appearances. In all, there are eight to 10 common problems voiced, and he chose to confine his remarks Tuesday afternoon to two of them, Korean recession and world trade.

While he gave an emphatic "no" to the question of a depression, Sligh added, "I don't say we can't have one. Newspapers lately have been somewhat pessimistic and we can talk ourselves into one. There will be some readjustments in individual businesses and communities, and we'll be in a seller's market and that will be good. That calls for technological advance and better production methods, and the result can be a more solid economy and a better standard of living."

He explained only 15 per cent of the defense budget had gone for Korea and that the defense program would continue as planned, cutting only waste and unnecessary spending. "Instead of questioning the peace in Korea, just thank God for it and pray your sons won't have to fight again," he said.

He quoted some statistics on employment, production and savings—all of them highly optimistic. He pointed to future possibilities in the electronics and atomic power fields, and lest his listeners did not take seriously the possible impact of such things on daily living, he asked them to think back six years about television. "Did you think it possible six years ago that nearly every home would have television today? There are more TV sets in Boston and Chicago than bathtubs or home telephones," he said.

As for foreign trade, he assured the women they would hear considerably more about it in the next few months. "It's the most important question in Europe today, and Europeans are concerned whether America is sincere over the slogan, 'Trade, Not Aid.' There is only one other subject they ask about often and that's McCarthy. They're afraid he might be another Hitler."

Sligh, while advocating free trade between Europe and the U.S., said abolition of tariffs could be disastrous to both countries, sending the economy into a downward spiral that could spark off a depression. He felt Europe could not solve its trade problems without first cutting down economic barriers in her own country. He said most Europeans look to the U. S. with its 160,000,000 population as a great potential market for European goods while almost overlooking the 225,000,000 population in Western Europe which needs the goods far more desperately.

He said the United States should set up a long-term consistent program and that this country must take the lead in re-establishing multi-lateral trade. He said Europeans understand the American free enterprise system only to a point and can't seem to understand the competitive fight for the consumer's dollar. It's hard for them to understand that this competition results in better products at less cost with benefits to both the producer and the buyer.

He said the Netherlands, Belgium and West Germany are beginning to understand better the free enterprise system but said other countries have a long way to go. He said he was particularly depressed over the situation in Norway where the government on one hand decides what the manu-

Getting Home Big Problem of High School Athletes

Transportation home appeared to be the biggest stumbling block why more high school students, living in the suburbs, were not out for athletics.

That was the consensus of opinion from 10 area principals who met Monday night with faculty and administration members of the Holland high school system.

The principals were guests at a dinner meeting in the Warm Friend Tavern for a discussion of mutual problems. Superintendent of Schools W. W. Scott pointed out that about 54 per cent of the high school enrollment comes from outside the City of Holland.

Because the students from outside Holland live many miles away, in some cases, they are unable to participate fully in extra curricular activities, such as athletics, Dutch dance and others, Scott said.

Scott said that plans are presently underway that may provide transportation to outlying areas that will allow interested students to remain in Holland for these activities.

Board of Education member J. A. Hallan said the transportation problem was a real one but they were working on it and may have a solution soon. He told the group that students from suburban areas are good students and arrangements should be made to allow them full participation in all school activities.

He said these students pay their full way and should be given equal opportunities with high school students living in the city.

Athletic Director Joe Moran said the present bus problem is hurting school athletics. With more than half of the students from outside the city at least that per cent should be in athletics, Moran said. Such is not the case, and as a result, the high school teams are suffering, he said. Moran called upon the sending school districts to encourage the boys and girls to participate in athletics.

Holland coaches representing all sports from football to golf outlined the individual problems of their respective groups and called upon the principals for their assistance and suggestions.

Following the discussions, movies of Holland high football games were shown. The meeting lasted three and a half hours.

Attending were Bill Boss, North Holland; Harold Ortmann, Maplewood; Ted Boot, Van Raalte School; Albert Luurtsema, Federal; Bill Norlin, Waukazoo; Dave Scobie, Pine Creek; Ties J. Pruis, Montello; Herbert Maatman, Montello; Lloyd H. Van Raalte, Beechwood; Don J. Van Ark, Lakeview; Harold J. Mouw, Harrington.

Ford Addresses Trinity Men's Club

U. S. Representative Gerald R. Ford, Jr., spoke Monday evening at a dinner meeting of the Trinity Reformed Church Men's League at the church. About 125 were present to hear congressman discuss his recent trip to the Far East.

In commenting on his trip, Ford said that transportation advancement and improvement have changed our relative position on this globe. In the Far East, he said, there are millions of people who are important in this struggle between communism and free people. We should be interested in the Far East because of the availability there of raw materials not obtainable elsewhere for a peace-time and war economy.

He discussed U. S.-Russia relationships, pointing out that although we are well in advance of any nation in atomic energy and thermo-nuclear devices, Russia is making rapid strides along the same line.

In describing the recent exchange of war prisoners, which Ford personally witnessed while in Korea, he said he was especially impressed by the fact that of the first 75 boys who came back from Red POW camps, all but one spent part of that first day with chaplains of their faith. "I think that is significant, because it tied in with discussions I had where the consensus was that it isn't the strongest individuals but those who have inward conviction and belief who have strength far greater than muscular or physical ability."

"We must build that kind of conviction and belief to the maximum in our youth," he said, "because as long as we have the diabolical people currently in control of the government behind the iron curtain, we will have equally bad or worse treatment of free peoples." Ford emphasized the importance of this country's maintaining its moral standing in the world.

State Rep. George Van Peursem of Zeeland introduced the speaker, Daniel Vander Werf, Jr., president.

Ice, the solid form of water, is lighter than water, while steam, the vapor form, is heavier — because both trap air in the change.

Volley

Mrs. Clyde Geerlings, wife of State Sen. Clyde Geerlings, was talking to Mrs. Homer Ferguson, wife of U. S. Sen. Ferguson, who was visiting Holland Tuesday.

"How do you ever remember so many names?" Mrs. Geerlings asked.

"Well, it's hard sometimes, but I usually associate a person's name with something or try to remember the face," Mrs. Ferguson replied.

The senator's wife went on to explain one snafu, however, when her system caused her considerable embarrassment in Detroit after a symphony concert. She thought she recognized a Mrs. Robinson in the crowd and went up to exchange pleasantries. "How are you, Mrs. Robinson?" she said.

The curt reply was, "Why, I'm afraid you're mistaken, I'm Mrs. Cruse."

Mrs. Ferguson had a full day here Tuesday, speaking before a Literary group, appearing at a Community Chest Coffee kletz, attending a tea in Zeeland, and yet managing to hear her husband deliver two addresses.

She also had a chance to visit with her cousin, Mrs. Howard Douwstra, local school teacher, who hasn't had chance for a good visit in several years. Mrs. Douwstra accompanied her to most of the functions.

In the evening they joined about 15 women at dinner in Hope Church and before going in to hear her husband address the Men's Club, Mrs. Ferguson insisted on helping the women wipe the dishes in the kitchen.

Everybody had a lovely time.

Mrs. Harry Wendt, route 4, said she picked several nice fresh red raspberries in Pine Creek woods a few days ago. She said there were some dried berries but also some blossoms in bloom.

Besides that, she says her forsythia bush at home has a dozen blossoms. That's not so unusual as the raspberries, but it is unusual to have forsythia blossoms among colored leaves.

"Holland seems to follow us on all our trips," writes Mrs. Chester Van Tongeren from California where she is currently visiting her mother.

She enclosed a clipping of a Kaiser ad showing Holland's Windmill Park in the background.

That Godfrey LaRosa fracas happened almost two weeks ago, but the smoke hasn't entirely settled yet. Since Julius LaRosa is under contract to Cadence, Records in which both Marvin Lindeman of Holland and Bud Moss, formerly of Holland, have interests, a lot of the whirl descended on that office in New York City.

Marve was there earlier this week and it was so busy it was hard to get his work done. So Bud came back to Holland with Marve. Here there was peace and quiet. They could work.

A Sunday school teacher was telling the story of Moses to a class of wide-eyed five year olds. "Now," she asked dramatically, "who do you suppose the beautiful Egyptian princess found to take care of the little boy she had discovered in the bulrushes?"

Without hesitation a little girl answered: "A baby sitter."

A man trying to explain relatively to a woman asked her to imagine the following conversation between a blind man and his friend:

Friend: Oh, I wish I had a drink of milk.

Blind Man: Drink I know, but what is milk?

Friend: A white liquid.

Blind Man: Liquid I know, but not white.

Friend: White is the color of a swan's feathers.

Blind Man: I know what a feather is, but not a swan.

Friend: A swan is a bird with a crooked neck.

Blind Man: Neck I know, but what is crooked?

The friend now seized the blind man's arm and stretched it out. "That is straight," he said. Then he bent it at the elbow.

"That is crooked."

"Ah," replied the blind man, "now I understand what milk is."

Vows Spoken in Zeeland City Hall

Mr. and Mrs. William Stiefler (Penno-Sas photo)

In a double ring ceremony performed Saturday at 8 p.m. in Zeeland City Hall Miss Ruth Lois Wiersma daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiersma of 416 West Main St., Zeeland, became the bride of William Stiefler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stiefler of Blasdel, N.Y.

The Rev. Peter Pell of Grand Rapids performed the rites before a background of ferns, palms, candelabra and two bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of white satin with lace bodice and long lace sleeves. Featuring the full skirt was a short lace overskirt. A fingertip veil was held in place with a headpiece of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and snapdragons.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Isla Wiersma who was attired in a green gown and carried yellow and white mums. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Wiersma and Miss Margaret Helmer. They wore rust and gold gowns, respectively, with matching headpieces and carried bouquets of rust and yellow mums. Flower girl was Marcia Wiersma who wore a mint colored gown and carried a small colonial bouquet. The ringbearer, Wayne Wiersma, wore a white jacket and navy blue trousers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wiersma wore a plum colored dress with a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Stiefler was attired in a brown dress and wore a yellow rose corsage.

The couple will make their home at 4 Marlowe Ave., Blasdel, N.Y., following a wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and New York City. For traveling the bride wore a pink dress with blue accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Grandstanding...

Hope College Line Coach Ken Weller has played in a lot of football games, and coached in even more. But the Albion game will probably go down in his books as the hardest.

It seems Weller was about due these past few weeks to become a father, and this being number one he was just a bit nervous. Just in case, Weller drove his own car down to Albion arriving at Alumni field only minutes before the kickoff.

Sweating through the first half was made easier by Hope's two-touchdown lead, but during the intermission his father called back to Holland learning that his wife was in the hospital.

Assured that there was still plenty of time, Weller held on until Hope made its final TD early in the fourth quarter. Then Coach Al Vanderbush noted the wistful look in his eyes and bade him farewell and good luck.

P.S. He made it.

P.P.S. It's a boy.

The resounding victory over Albion was wonderful, but also costly from the injury standpoint. Hope is sure to lose Tackle Don Van Hoeven for the rest of the season, and it's doubtful if Fullback Dave Kempler will see much more action.

Van Hoeven, one of the big guns on the Hope line, was helped off the field during the second quarter of the contest. "He claimed to be okay but the coaching staff thought it better not to use him."

But that night it took a shypo to get him to sleep, and Sunday morning he was taken to Dr. Howard Scheubel, noted Grand Rapids specialist. Scheubel said Van Hoeven's knee had hemorrhaged as well as torn internal cartilage. He removed 60 cubic centimeters of blood from the swollen knee.

He put on a cast almost from hip to heel, and told Van Hoeven that football was over for the season.

Better known as "Doc" on campus, Van Hoeven is a graduate of Wyoming Park High school. He is a sophomore at Hope.

Incidentally, Dr. Scheubel is also a Hope grad, class of '38.

Kempler, who has been bothered with minor hurts all season, also has a bad knee and whether he plays will be ruled on by doctors later this week.

Sligh Gives Intimate Talk to Century Club

Charles R. Sligh, Jr., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, gave members of the Century Club a stimulating and intimate glimpse of many facets of his work Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ten Cate and Daniel Ten Cate.

Telling his audience the NAM is the most "misunderstood" group of businessmen in the country, Sligh gave some pertinent facts and figures about the organization.

In his travels around the country he has spoken to thousands of businessmen and from their reactions has reported back to President Eisenhower. He has had four meetings with the President since the election.

Sligh gave some interesting word pictures about the men in the Cabinet and others close to the President.

Controversial tax measures were explained, and Sligh said the NAM favored a manufacturers excise tax of five per cent on the "end products" manufactured. This tax would eliminate the present discriminatory taxes now in effect, he said.

Kenneth DePre, president, who introduced the speaker, conducted the brief business meeting. He announced that Mrs. George E. Kollen and Henry Geerlings, longtime members of the club had been made honorary members.

For the musical portion of the program, Willard Fast of the Holland High School faculty sang three selections accompanied by Mrs. W. Curtis Snow. His first number was an Italian song "Come raggio di Sol" by Caldara. "At the Brookside," Grieg and the lovely "Still As the Night," by Carl Bohm, completed the trio.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bosch and their committee were in charge of the social arrangements.

Small Group At Coffee Kletz

A small number of Chamber of Commerce members gathered in the Warm Friend Tavern Tuesday afternoon to chat informally with U. S. Rep. Gerald R. Ford and State Rep. George Van Peursem over state and national affairs. State Sen. Clyde Geerlings also was invited to join the group but spent the day at the state capital.

Among subjects discussed over the coffee cups were the current farm issue and the differences of opinion in Benson's reorganization program, the surplus food program for schools, the Taft-Hartley bill changes which are not expected to be too drastic, and the St. Lawrence waterway.

Rep. Ford said it would not be necessary to write to Senators Homer Ferguson or Charles Potter since both are for the waterway. He said the House won't take action until after the bill is passed by the Senate.

The legislators were introduced by James E. Townsend, chairman of the legislative and national affairs committee. The coffee kletz lasted an hour.
