Holland, Michigan

In the Hope College magazine produced by students, The Excelsiora, there was a statement that “the house east of the Cemetery belonging to A. C. van Raalte, was burned on the 26th of April. They are busily engaged again to rebuild it.” [Why this the house that Mrs. Albertus VR, Jr. was already living in or did she and her children move into the new house? Husband Albertus had disappeared in November/December of 1869. The “A. C. Van Raalte” ship was also mentioned. The Excelsiora, n. p.

ringtons level with rail~~h~~-road track.

The steamer "Sky Lark" came in: this harbor last-Sunday morning for the first-time this season. As we are informed the steamer "Sky Lark" will run here: regularly, and communicate with all the different-places on the Lake-Shore. She is an excellent boat, much larger than the "A. C. van Rualte," and is well fitted and convenient-for passengers; she belongs to the Goodrich line, connecting with all the Chicago and Milwaukee boats. She ~~one~~ day she leaves St. Joseph for G. Haven and arriving here at 10 P. M.; the next day leaves G. Haven for St. Joseph, and arrives here at 3 A. M. that same day.

She lands at Pfansteihls dock.

The Grand Rapids and Holland Rail-Road company are now busy securing the right-of way, and are now making arrangements for the commencement of the work.
