Western Theological Seminary
Records, 1885, 1964-ongoing. 2.25 linear ft.

Abstract

Formerly known as the Development Office. This collection consists of correspondence, church files arranged by Classis, reports, and “Expand Western” campaign slides and audiotape cassette (narrated by I. John Hesselink) in 1979. Most of the material deals with financial issues of Western Theological Seminary and New Brunswick Theological Seminary from 1970-2003 including the "The Campaign for Western: Mission in the 21st Century," 1996, the twelve million dollar fundraising project for Western Theological Seminary endowment, the campaign for the building of the De Witt Theological Center, 2002-2003, and the Our New Day capital campaign to construct a new entryway, offices, learning center (former library) and renovate the kitchen, commons, hallways, and windows.
