Tuesday the supreme court granted the mandamus of Hoffman vs. Allegan circuit judge. This means the supreme court does not agree with Judge Kelly Searle in dismissing the case and that Henry A. Dible will have to stand trial on the charge of perjury growing out of one of his answers filed in the Grange store cases. Prosecuting attorney Hoffman has Judge Searle's name endorsed as one of the witnesses, so it is hardly to be expected he will be the trial judge. It is not believed that Judge Padgham will try the new case, so a new judge may be expected.

City Attorney Charles H. McBride has been instructed by the common council to begin suit against Contractor Albert Prange of Grand Rapids, and his bondsmen for enforcement of contract relative the Eighth street pavement. The brick pavement was constructed four years ago and all along the line the numerous elevations and depressions show that the leading thoroughfare is fast going to decay. Mr. Prange was given three days in which to submit a proposition as to his intentions, but he failed to appear. The city has never accepted the job and there is still due Mr. Prange $500 on the contract.

As on his former trial for the murder of Martin Golden, William Shimmel made an excellent witness when placed on the stand in his own defence Tuesday. He told a straight story and answered all questions without evasion. He sticks to the story that on the day of the murder he was in the village of Nunica, three miles from the scene of the crime, but swears positively that he drove from Nunica to his boarding place in Slocum's Grove about the middle of that afternoon and arrived at the home of his brother before 6 o'clock. The murder of Martin Golden at Dennison occurred after 8 o'clock that night.

The masons have the brick work on the new Masonic temple about completed and the roof will soon be placed. This building will be the handsomest block in our village and will be a credit to all who have had anything to do with its erection. The stone tablet, which is to be placed in the front of the second story bears the inscription, "Masonic Temple, 1907" with the proper emblems of the lodge. This tablet is a work of art and is from an original design, made by Hon. Henry B. Vander Cook of the Grand Rapids Monument Works, that gentleman kindly donating one-half the expense, on account of his local friends that are interested in the building. A contract has been given by the Masonic building committee for the installing of one of the latest and best gas lighting plant for the whole second story.—Fennville Herald.

Sorrowing for her children, five of whom are dead, Mrs. Charles West drank concentrated lye at her home on the line of the Saugatuck Interurban, just this side of the Comstock summer home Sunday, and is dead.

Mrs. West was born in Ireland in 1836, and married her husband, whose home was in Rochester, N. Y. About a year ago they came to Michigan from Chicago and intended making their home there for the remainder of their days.

Of all the large family of children who had been born to her, Mrs. Reed, wife of Capt. Reed in the service of the government at Chicago, survives. All the rest are dead and over this Mrs. West had long been brooding. Sunday, while Mr. West was out in the barn, his aged wife came to him and asked him to come in, saying she was lonesome. He replied that he would soon be in, but when he went it was to find that his wife had taken a fatal dose of concentrated lye. Death came soon after.

"I don't wish to live any longer," was the last words the woman uttered, and even in them could be seen the longing for her departed children.

The funeral was held yesterday and interment took place in the Saugatuck cemetery.

Heinz to Have Gardens

H. J. Heinz, he of the 57 varieties, with his son, Howard, and his chief gardener, John Miller, of the Muscatine gardens at Muscatine, Ia., were here Tuesday.

The party called here on the way from Chicago to inspect the local plant, which they have not seen since the large additions have been built. But they made the most of the time driving out into the country to inspect several plots of land suitable for establishing experimental gardens for the raising of tomato plants. No land has as yet been purchased for the purpose, but Mr. Heinz declared the gardens would soon be established for the benefit of the farmers and for the indirect benefit of the local plant as a result of the increased yield the farmers would have from using the plants raised in the new gardens.

The idea is to establish gardens in which the tomato plants will be raised from the seed and prepared for methods which the company employs the plants when delivered to the farmers are more fully matured and more hardy, able to stand any kind of weather which might come, and consequently will yield more than those which are grown by less scientific methods.

The plants will be sold to the farmer at a smaller cost than they can raise them themselves. The Heinz company has no desire to make money from the work, but to teach the farmers how to get more results from their labor and a heavier yield from their vines, thus giving a greater product to the local plant.

"We have been in this business for more than 30 years," declared Mr. Heinz. "We operate these experimental gardens at a large number of our factories, to demonstrate to the farmer how to get the largest yield on his land. We have the scientific methods which the farmer lacks, and our only profit through the practice is that we get a greater product for the uses of our factories."

Growing Children

Advice to Mothers of Holland.

Perhaps the most important principle involved in the care of a child is proper nourishment.

How many delicate children do we meet on our streets with colorless cheeks and thin little legs and arms. It is very plain to be seen that rapid growth takes all their strength and their little bodies are not receiving sufficient nourishment to make them well, strong and robust.

We want to say to the parents of all such children in Holland that our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, Vinol, will build up delicate children, fill out hollow cheeks, and make them strong, robust and rosy. Vinol makes new vitality, sound flesh and muscle tissue and pure, rich red blood, and children love it. This is because Vinol is a delicious tasting cod liver preparation without oil, made by a scientific, extractive and concentrative process from fresh cods' livers thus combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body building elements of cod liver oil but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, weak, run down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unequalled. Try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. R. M. DePree & Co., Druggists, Holland, Mich.

Nights Of Unrest.

No Sleep, No Rest, No Peace for the Sufferer from Kidney Trouble.

No peace for the kidney sufferer. Pain and distress from morn to night. Get up with a lame back. Twinges of backache bother you all day. Dull aching breaks your rest at night. Urinary disorders add to your misery.

Get at the cause—cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills will work the cure.

They're for the kidneys only.—Have made great cures in Holland.

Mrs. Edwin McCarty, living at 290 Van Raalte Ave., Holland Mich., says: "My husband is a firm believer in the great merits of Doan's Kidney Pills and considers them worth their weight in gold. They certainly have given him great benefit and he believes they are the only means of making him able to get around and do any work. For years he has suffered with kidney and bladder trouble which caused him great pain and annoyances. At times he would have to get up constantly during the night and would pace the room for half an hour, being unable to rest owing to the pains caused by the irregular and unnatural condition of the kidneys. He tried many remedies without relief and doctors said they could do nothing for him. He finally tried Doan's Kidney Pills and I can truthfully say he obtained more relief from their use than all the remedies he ever tried. He is now using them and is able to work every day. He thinks Doan's Kidney Pills are the finest kidney and bladder remedy obtainable and will stand by them in recommending their use to other sufferers."

MUST RETAIN PHILIPPINES

CONGRESSMAN M'KINNEY TELLS OF THEIR GREAT WEALTH.

Declares the Tariff on Sugar and Tobacco Should Be Removed at Once.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—After an extended tour of the orient, Philippines and Hawaii, Congressman James McKinney, from the Rock Island district, Illinois, returned to this city Friday on the steamer Persia, and will proceed east at once.

As a member of the territorial committee which left here last June, Congressman McKinney visited Honolulu and later the Philippines, where an exhaustive study of conditions was made. According to the congressman, we must never entertain any idea of letting the islands go. He said:

"The resources of the islands are unbounded. Great coal, copper and gold deposits have been found and even greater wealth seems in store for the United States in other respects. The immense timber holdings, for instance.

"There is one thing," he added, "that must be done quickly for the Philippines if America would better conditions there, and that is to remove the revenue on sugar and tobacco."

At Honolulu, Congressman McKinney declared, shipping conditions should be more encouraged, although prosperity was to be found on all sides. While proceeding to Hongkong the congressman experienced a terrible typhoon while a passenger on the steamer Kow Loon. During his stay in Japan he was shown every courtesy and says that he failed to notice any belligerent attitude on the part of the Japanese.

Other arrivals from the orient on the Persia were American Consul J. Boyd from Shanghai, and J. H. Sharp, stationed at Kobe, Japan.

BREAKS FROM JAIL AT ROCKFORD

James G. Dorrance, Sentenced to Prison, Escapes Mysteriously.

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 11.—James G. Dorrance, who had been sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary for an attack on eight-year-old Lester Skelley of South Beloit, escaped from the county jail here. This is the third prisoned to escape from Sheriff Collier this year. Dorrance was to appear in the circuit court Friday afternoon at a hearing for a new trial. When the sheriff went after him he could not be found. With the state's attorney, Sheriff Collier searched the jail from attic to basement in vain. It is not known when Dorrance escaped. He was under $10,000 bonds.

GREAT FIRE IN SUPERIOR.

Flames on Docks Destroy Property Valued at $4,000,000.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 9.—Fire which originated in elevator "A" of the Great Northern railroad in Superior, containing 600,000 bushels of grain, spread quickly, and before it was got under control destroyed property valued at $4,000,000.

The following structures were destroyed: Two Great Northern elevators, Minkota flour mill and elevator, Freeman mill and elevator, Grand Republic mill and elevator, Commander mill and elevator, 20 dwellings and several small warehouses lining the bay front.

YOUNG KRIPPENDORFF FOUND.

Son of Cincinnati Millionaire Discovered in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Albert Krippendorff, missing son of a Cincinnati millionaire, has been found at the St. Francis hotel, where he has been staying since the night of November 5.

When young Krippendorff disappeared from the office of the shoe manufacturing company of Cincinnati, where he was employed as secretary, on the night of October 23, his family supposed that he had been murdered and his body concealed.

CONFLAGRATION IN IQUIQUE.

Two Thousand Persons Made Homeless in Chilean City.

Iquique, Chile, Nov. 11.—This port has been visited by a fire, the biggest since 1882, which has entailed losses amounting to over $1,000,000. It broke out Saturday and seven and a half blocks were burned over before it was under control. The property destroyed was mostly dwellings of the poor and no less than 2,000 people are homeless. The fire was about one mile distant from the commercial quarter of the city.

Man Murdered and Robbed.

Johnstown, Pa., Nov. 11.—Badly mutilated and bearing marks showing that he had been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten, the body of William Cline, a prominent citizen of Fairview, Pa., near here, was found Sunday in a field. The motive of the crime is thought to have been robbery, as at the time of his death Cline had on his person a large sum of money received from the sale of sawmill. This money was missing when the body was found.

Aged Couple Killed by Train.

Terrible Liquor Craving

How Orrine Destroys all Desires For Whisky and Beer.

The terrible craving for liquor is a symptom of disease and to overcome it, the disease itself should be treated in a scientific way. When one has used whisky, beer or other stimulants for a long time, the nerve cells have become accustomed to the effects of the stimulants and demand liquor in order to perform their duties. If the nerve cells are properly treated, the craving for liquor will be destroyed.

It is in this way that Orrine cures alcoholism, by supplying to the nerve cells the strength needed, thus destroying the desire for liquor. It eradicates every particle of the terrible liquor craving, imparts new strength and vigor to the whole system, and restores the general health. "Treatise on drunkenness," free on request. The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C.

So successfully has Orrine been that in every box is a registered guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure. Never before was a treatment for the liquor habit sold in this way. A guarantee like this shows the faith of the discoverer of Orrine and the agents who handle it, the leading druggists everywhere.

Orrine is in two forms, No. 1 which can be given secretly in food or drink; No. 2 in pill form for those who desire to be cured. Either form costs $1 per box, and both are sold under the liberal guarantee that your money will be refunded if Orrine fails to cure.

Orrine is for sale by the Model Drug Store, Holland, Mich.

Regulates the bowels, promotes easy natural movements, cures constipation—Doan's Regulate. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

The Republicans Hold Their Own.

In spite of many adverse influences the Republicans made a fairly good showing in the voting last week in all the localities in which national issues determined the result as indicated by belated returns. The Republicans elected their state tickets in Massachusetts, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Nebraska. The Democrats retained control of Rhode Island and Maryland, though they were compelled to make a hard fight in each state. In Mississippi there was only one ticket, and the Democrats of course carried everything. Mayor Johnson was re-elected in Cleveland, beating Congressman Burton by a small majority. Tammany retains control of New York City, the Republican-Independence league fusion being defeated there, as most persons expected it would be. The Republicans have carried Cincinnati and Louisville for mayor, which are at present presided over by Democrats. In most of the other cities which elected municipal officers the present situation is unchanged. There is nothing sensational therefore, in the election returns.

The result, on the whole, is favorable to the Republicans of the nation. Several influences worked against them. The money scare undoubtedly diminished the Republican vote in all the states which had elections. Any sort of a business setback, however trivial it may be, always injures the party in power in the national government. The present financial disturbance made no perceptible difference in strongly Republican states like Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, but it had some effect in close states like Maryland, Kentucky. It counted for something in New Jersey and Rhode Island also, where the Democrats are always strong. Many negroes voted against the Republicans on account of the Brownville incident. The record made by many of the trusts which carry charters granted by the Republican state of New Jersey injured the Republicans to some extent, in every state which voted. In the Cleveland contest the Republicans were injured by the fact that their candidate, Burton, had offended the Fcraker element of the party, and he was also impeded by the belief that his nomination, in some degree, was dictated by the administration at Washington. Mayor Johnson is a strong campaigner, and he was making the fight of his life, and he knew it. He was fighting for prominence as a national figure, and he gained it, though that is not likely to aid him in any ambition he may have for higher office.

So far as the elections have any national bearing they are favorable to the Republican party. It is evident that the country is still on the Republican side. Nowhere have the Democrats made any headway. It was hard for the Republicans to arouse enough interest in Pennsylvania or Massachusetts to get out a large vote because their supremacy was not endangered. Even in New Jersey, Maryland and Kentucky the Republicans do not seem to have supposed that the result this year would be much of a straw in the political wind for the presidential canvass, and they made no special exertions to get out a heavy vote. It is easy to see that the long period of Republican supremacy is likely to be lengthened out to the extent of at least four years more. The Democrats have been unable to take advantage of the money scare, which some of their leaders said would be disastrous to the Republicans. There is not the slightest indication in the returns that the Democrats, as a national organization, have rallied to any material degree since 1904, when Roosevelt overwhelmed Parker. Possibly the result of 1907 will strengthen that movement in the South which aims to knock out Bryan. As the Democrats see that they have no chance in 1908 in any case, many of the northern element of the party will be willing to let the South have the candidate next year. Most of the prominent Southern papers have been making a declaration of independence recently, and calling for a revolt against Northern dictation. As the North seems to be as strongly opposed to the Democracy now as it ever was, this will look like a good time for the South to assert itself in the National Convention, and put up a candidate of its own. The returns have had a bracing effect on American stocks on every course in the world where those stocks are dealt in. The party which carried Congress in 1894 and in every election since then, and which has held the presidency ever since 1896, is to continue for many years longer to give the law to the country.

To Enlarge The Canal.

The enlargement of ten feet in the proposed width of the Panama Canal locks, making them 110 feet, instead of 100, is urged by the Navy Department. This looks like a very small concession to the demand for increased accommodations to the coming big vessels. It is to be presumed that the naval officials have gone over the matter carefully, and have taken some account of the changes for future craft, which will be very much larger than any which are now afloat. Yet the average layman who remembers the great expansion which has been made in the length and the width of vessels in the past quarter of a century will be apt to think that the proposed addition of ten feet to the water space in the canal will be far too small to meet coming requirements.

Our canal builders must keep in mind the fact that we are building for centuries, and not for decades. The biggest vessels of thirty years ago look like tenders when placed beside the Lusitanias and the Dreadnaughts of today. When the Great Eastern was launched it looked like a freak craft, which could never be put to practical use. And, so far as regards that particular vessel, the judgement was correct. That boat was a failure, and became almost a total loss to its builders. No vessel closely approaching it in size appeared on the ocean for thirty years after that vessel made its first trip across the Atlantic.

But the advances which have been made in engine construction and in general appliances which not only increase the speed but add to the seaworthiness and the safety of vessels have put larger boats than the Great Eastern upon the seas. The Lusitania exceeds in length and in tonnage the monster of the later 50's, and the Mauritania, which is soon to appear, will be somewhat larger than the Lusitania. The frigate Niagara, then the biggest vessel in the United States Navy and in the world, which assisted in the laying of Cyrus W. Field's Atlantic cable, would look like a canal boat if placed beside some of our recent battleships. There is no good reason to suppose that we have closely approached the limit as to dimensions of merchant or war vessels. Some of the ocean craft of 1907 may as far exceed those of 1907 in size as these do those of 1857. Let us build the canal so large at the outset that it will not have to be widened or deepened within the lifetime of anybody now here.

Nobody seems able to explain or define what is called "the panic." It may go into history with the qualifying word "alleged."

The times are out of joint for bucket shop patrons, but they always show unbounded ingenuity in finding something to relieve them of their money.

The recent reduction in the price of meat was only temporary. After a few days' trial the packers restored the old figures and added a fraction to cover losses. The only hope of long life and contentment rests in vegetarianism.

In a recent speech in New York Col. Bryan had something to say about "those who are crushed by poverty." No such tone as this pervades President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation. That is one reason why he was elected president. It is one reason why Col. Bryan can not be elected.

The price of champagne has been advanced which furnishes another argument for prohibition.

Because a horse stepped on his face, a Washington man is suing for $10,000, giving us an idea of what is meant by "face value."

The Kentucky Democrats engaged Mr. Bryan for a whirlwind tour, and now are planning how to rebuild their fences and reshingle their barns.

The American apple crop is reported to be 24,000,000 barrels short of last year total. If future big apple crops are properly appreciated the failure of 1907 will serve a useful purpose.

Though in poor health ex President Cleveland was driven in a carriage to the polls and cast his vote. As long as the American citizens recognize the fact that the ballot is the supreme fact in politics the government will be in a hopeful way.

The epizootic has made its appearance in this city. Thursday of this week it was discovered in H. Boone's livery stable, several horses being affected. It appears to be a mild form of influenza or diptheria, but little danger is feared with proper treatment. No bleeding or purging is necessary nor do not the force the horse to swallow anything. A bran mash two or three times daily, and later in the disease an application of a mild counter irritant liniment to the glands of the face and neck. It is all important that great care is taken to prevent the horse from taking cold, as then it proves fatal.

We find a great deal about the productiveness of some farms out west in some of our newspapers, but we want to put in right here that one of our farmers in this region, J. Verhage, has reaped 7,090 pounds of corn from one acre. This is from that Vriesland swamp, at which so much jeering has been done. Mr. Verhage has 50 acres in winter wheat also. To our readers out west we would say, how is this for farming in the woods.

The schooner Kate Howard was severely damaged and finally beached while attempting to run into the harbor of Michigan City, during the gale of last week. She struck the pier hard, knocked over part of the lighthouse, carrying away her foreboom and foresail and severely injuring Capt. Waring's daughter. Force pumps of immense power have been procured from Chicago in order to get her afloat again. We sincerely regret the loss sustained by her owners, who were seriously embarrassed before this trouble, but are now worse off than ever.

"Pete" Kane is taking orders for Thanksgiving turkeys. He says that it is a little out of his line of business, but he feels satisfied that there is money in putting Canada oat meal fed turkeys on the Michigan market. All orders should be left with him at the store on or before next Monday, Nov. 21.

Allegan really claims to have a genuine oil well and a wagon load of dynamite has been brought from Ohio to prove it. At last accounts the directors reported that there was a pipe down 1,300 feet or more, a subterranean cavity had been formed by the promiscuous use of high explosives, that there was more or less oil in the pipe with prospects of more in the immediate vicinity, and that stock had advanced to $100 per share. We might add that the contractors who sunk the well have been paid off in full and have capitol sufficient left to sink a 1,200 foot hole in some other Michigan village.

It is hard to tell what another year will bring forth for by looking over the calendar it will be seen that next February contains twenty-nine days a very significant fact among the marriageable young ladies. A matrimonial association has already been formed among the Holland ladies which has a membership of over twenty. Only those over sixteen and under thirty-five years are admitted to the organization and it is proposed to elect corresponding and recording secretaries. This is only one of the branches of a national organization which accomplished much good and formed many happy alliances four years ago. Would it not be well for our young men to take time by the forelock and organize a mutual protective society.

"Talk about the versatility of newspaper reporters," said Rev. E. C. Oggel the other day, "why the fact of a reporter seeing Ling explode the bomb in his mouth last week is only a circumstance, and it is always safe to make allowance for what appears in a Chicago newspaper. I preached there a short time ago and some two or three hours after my sermon and just as I had finished a very hearty dinner, there was a ring on the door bell and a news representative sent up his card. Upon being admitted he stated that he had been detailed to write up my sermon but had overslept himself and consequently had missed it. He said, however, that he had heard me preach once before, and remembering my style had written up a column or so which he asked me to look over. I did so and was really surprised to find, that while it embodied but little of my sermon, that the report contained many really bright thoughts and much sound reasoning. To tell the truth I was so much pleased with it that I told him to go ahead and print it.

We are pleased to be able to mention this week another addition to our industrial interests. J. Huntley has leased the old planing mill and sash and blind factory of the late R. K. Heald and will hereafter run the factory to its full capacity.

Last Wednesday evening Gee's musical class tendered the Hon. John Roost a serenade. Quite a large crowd had gathered in front of Mr. Roost's residence on Ninth street and the boys had soon gathered a sufficient quantity of drygoods boxes and barrels to make a bonfire of considerable importance. Mr. Roost thanked them very kindly for their outburst of patriotic enthusiasm over his election and thought they would have plenty of opportunity to rejoice when the full returns came. On the whole the speech was good, as it lacked in that "unnameable quality" which generally characterizes them. We wish our fellow townsman well with his hard and honorably earned honors.

To give "more light" to the enterprise of town, our "village dads" have had naphtha lamps placed at every corner and in the center of each block of three of the most traveled streets. Jim, the sea lion who escaped from Lincoln Park, Chicago, a few weeks ago, and who was seen the other day off Ludington, dropped into Milwaukee harbor last week. After escaping from Lincoln Park safe to make allowance for what he swam south and began to explore the Chicago river. Where he has been since is a matter of conjecture. About 7 o'clock Friday morning he called on the Cream City. He first visited the Milwaukee Dry Dock company's slip, and the men at work there greeted him with a shower of stones. He barked his disapproval of this reception and swam off toward the rolling mills. Half a dozen Polish laborers secured the same number of shot guns and started after him, firing a number of ineffectual shots. Thoroughly disgusted Jim turned tail, made for the lake, and headed north.

Somehow or other it did not meet with success, and it would be difficult to ascribe this to any one leading cause. No doubt the late depression in all kinds of manufacturing comes in for due share.

There is one thing not settled by the election last week, and that is whether or not sixteen-to-one will be made a leading issue in the elects of '98. Upon this the political doctors do not agree. Bryan and his immediate following insist that they have not lost any ground, but there are others who think that they have followed this phantom about as long as is consistent with their political health and fortune.

As soon as the standpipe has received its last finishing touches, in the way of amending small leakages it is the intention of the board of public works to have a public test, or rather an ocular demonstration of the extent of our present water supply and the capacity of the works and mains. The presumption is that they will be able to throw as many streams of water as lines of hose can be laid down by the fire department. It will take a few days yet before they are ready to announce the day, and in the meantime Eighth street may be better able to withstand a little soaking than just now.

PLANS FOR CRUISE NEARLY COMPLETED

EVERYTHING WILL BE READY ON THE SAILING DAY, DE-CEMBER 16.

Tests of Provisions—Methods of Preservation and Packing Will Be Tried —Small Arms Target Range Is Wanted on the Coast.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Every detail in the preparations for the sailing of the battleship fleet to the Pacific ocean is now well in hand and by December 16, the date on which the vessels will pass out of Hampton roads in review before President Roosevelt, members of his cabinet and other officers of the navy, all arrangements for the comfort of the men en route will have been attended to.

At all of the navy yards the work of making necessary repairs is being pushed, and these will be completed by December 1; provisions are being stored aboard the vessels and their coal bunkers are being filled to their capacity. Upon the recommendation of Admiral Evans, four anchors will be carried by each vessel, so as to be ready for any emergency.

Will Test Provisions.
The cost of provisioning the fleet is estimated at about $375,000, contemplating the feeding of a force of 15, 000 men for 100 days. Only this week contracts were awarded for head cheese, Frankfurter and other sausages, and veal.

Advantage will be taken of the two-ocean cruise of the battle ships to make several tests with the provisions aboard—their preservation, packing and handling. It is desired to find some suitable form of bagging in which to carry dried provisions, as it is believed bags will afford the advantage of compactness and greater facility in handling in difficult places than if their contents were carried in boxes and barrels.

For Small-Arms Practice.

Incidental to the visit of the fleet to the Pacific coast, the navy department is making arrangements to obtain a place for small arms firing there, so as to give the men an opportunity for experience in that direction. It may be that improvised targets will be established at Magdalena bay, where there is to be considerable target practice, but the preference is to secure land for the establishment of ranges to accommodate 2,000 men a day as at Guantanamo.

LIVED AS MAN SIXTY YEARS.

Catherine Vosbaugh Dies in Colorado
After Long Masquerade.

Trinidad, Col., Nov. 12.—Catherine Vosbaugh, who for nearly 60 years passed as a man, died at a hospital in this city Monday.

Miss Vosbaugh was born in France 83 years ago. When a young woman she found it difficult to make her way on account of her sex, and, adopting men's clothes, she obtained employment as a bookkeeper in Joplin, Mo.
This position she held for nine years,
and then accepted a position in a St.
Joseph (Mo.) bank. While in St.
Joseph she married a woman, with whom she lived for over 30 years.
The woman was in trouble, and "Charles" Vosbaugh married her to protect her. The two women, still masquerading as man and wife, came to Trinidad two years ago.

After the death of her "wife" Miss Vosbaugh worked here in various capacities until she became feeble, and last year was taken to the hospital. It was then that her sex was discovered, but even after her recovery she refused to change her clothing.

QUAKE'S VICTIMS ABOUT 14,000.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—The first great earthquake at Karatagh, Russian Turkestan, about three weeks ago, reached this city Sunday from a correspondent who accompanied the relief expedition sent from Jamarkan.

Telegraphing under date of November

pletely destroyed. The victims number about 4,000 in Karatagh and about 10,000 in the adjoining district of De-nausk. All the villages in the vicinity were wrecked. It is probable that business portion of that town was destroyed Sunday night by a fire which started in a grocery store. The town was entirely without protection and the flames were necessarily permitted to go unchecked until all the buildings on the main thoroughfare had been destroyed. The loss will exceed $100,000.

BURGULARS TORTURE OLD WOMAN

Burn, Beat and Kick Her Until She Is Near Death.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Burglars on Friday night broke into the residence of Mrs. Stella Mauthner, an aged woman who lives alone near the state road, in the town of Perinton, and subjected her to terrible tortures in an effort to force her to reveal her savings. She was discovered Sunday by neighbors and is not expected to recover.

Two men forced an entrance to her house at midnight. They seized the aged woman, bound her to a chair and held lighted newspapers close to her eyes, allowing the flames to burn her hands and arms. Then they ransacked the house and finding only four dollars, they vented their rage by beating the woman and kicking her into insensibility.

Shake Ingredients well in Bottle to Mix.

To relieve the worst form of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime.

Fluid extract Dandelion one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription, states a well known authority in a Cleveland morning paper, forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisoning waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism. As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple receipt will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it, you want it badly. Our druggists here say they will either supply these ingredients or make the mixture ready to take, if any of our readers so prefer.

SAD TRAGEDY IN THE TOMBS

FORMER ITALIAN ARMY OFFICER HURLS HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Deserted to Marry, Failed to Earn Living in West and Was Refused Aid by Brother.

New York, Nov. 11.—Giovanni De Chichicia, who, until he was compelled to choose between love and duty, was a lieutenant in the Italian army, committed suicide in the Tombs Sunday. His imprisonment had been brought about by his brother Luigi, a banker of this city. The latter believed Giovanni insane.

According to the police records, he fell in love in Italy, and, unable as an army officer to support his wife as he wished, deserted and sought his fortune as a cowboy in the American west. The venture was not a success and finally, leaving his wife in their new home, he came to New York to get a fresh start. Again unsuccessful and penniless, he asked financial aid of his brother. The meeting of the brothers was not amicable and at a second interview Giovanni was alleged to have peremptorily demanded first $1,000 and then $2,000 from the banker. He exhibited a revolver and it was charged, threatened his brother's life. The banker wished to have Giovanni detained as insane, but the court would not entertain this charge and the former soldier was held for trial on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. In the Tombs Giovanni became despondent, complained bitterly of former friends and constantly grieved for his girl wife, left alone in the west.

When the doors were opened to permit the prisoners to go to the yard for their daily exercise Sunday, Giovanni, who occupied a cell on the third tier, stepped quickly out upon the balcony, sprang upon the guard rail and dove headforemost from the staging.

FIVE DIE IN HOTEL FIRE.

Blaze in the Garde at New Haven Is Fatal.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 12.—Five persons, at least, lost their lives as a result of a fire in the Hotel Garde Tuesday morning, and several others were injured.

The fire broke out shortly after one o'clock in the servants' quarters on the fifth floor of the north wing and here four persons were suffocated to death. Another man lost his life by falling from a rope which he was using as a fire escape.

The fire was confined to the fifth floor where it started and the one below. It was out shortly after two o'clock. The damage, it is thought, will be over $25,000, although no estimate could be given.

Rome, Nov. 11.—Emanuele Giannuccio, the Italian minister of public works, died here Sunday from cancer. He was born in 1857. The pope inquired daily concerning the condition of Signor Giannuccio during his illness, and on Saturday sent the dying man his benediction. These inquiries were the first example of solicitude from the papacy toward a minister of the king since the fall of the church from temporal power.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 11.—John Bjorlin, butler at the Hillair farm, the country home of Paul G. Thebaud, New York commission merchant, killed himself Sunday, after he had shot and dangerously wounded his employer's son, Paul, Jr. The latter, who alone can explain the shooting, is unconscious.

STEAD'S LOGIC MAY BE FOUND FAULTY

GOV. DENEEN WILL TRY TO OUST THE ECONOMY COMPANY OF JOLIET.

Says New Conditions Make Law—Illinois Executive Determined to Carry Waterway Litigation to Highest Court if That Is Necessary.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—Law arises out of new conditions, and conditions now may be such that the court will modify its former views.

This apothegm, uttered Monday by Gov. Deneen, sets out the principle under which the executive will proceed with the hope of finding a legal method for forcing the Economy Light & Power company of Joliet to abandon work on its new dam across the Desplaines river at Dresden Heights.

Following a long conference with Attorney General Stead, in which was reviewed the attorney general's opinion that the Economy company has a "claim" on the water-power developed at Dresden Heights, Gov. Deneen began the formulation of plans to circumvent the Joliet corporation, notwithstanding the contrary advice of the legal department of the state.

The governor does not question the sincerity of the Stead opinion and he has high regard for the legal ability of its author. He does believe, however, that the attorney general's logic is not incontrovertible and he is convinced the state should not give up the fight until finally defeated in the highest courts.

Public Policy Should Count.

Friends of the deep waterway project are of the opinion that in the consideration of a proposition of this magnitude, the question of public policy would enter largely into the supreme court's decision. Unless the law is positively against the state's contention, it is believed the court would be slow to defeat an enterprise of these proportions by declaring the water-power incidentally created belongs to private interests, instead of to the public.

Exception particularly is taken to the implied deduction of Attorney General Stead that the Desplaines river is not a navigable stream. Lyman Cooley, civil engineer for the internal improvement commission, created by the state in 1905, considers this river to be navigable and believes the courts will hold it so, notwithstanding the fact that "navigable" is defined as capable of floating vessels engaged in useful commerce.

Wants the Bill Passed.

Gov. Deneen will set to work at once collecting evidence for the suit to be prosecuted by the state to oust the Economy company from the Dresden Heights dam work.

In the meantime, the executive will insist upon legislative action upon the Allen-Lantz navigability bill. His theory is that the legislation will be harmless if the courts declare it ineffectual, while on the other hand, great injury would follow if the legislation were lacking when it would be effective.

SHAW TALKS ABOUT MONEY TROUBLE

WEAKNESS OF THE AMERICAN SYSTEM IS THAT CURRENCY IS NOT ELASTIC.

He Suggests a Remedy—Would Permit National Banks to Issue Additional Circulation Without Collateral When It Is Needed.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 12.—Former Secretary of the Treasury Shaw addressed the chamber of commerce Monday night on the financial situation.

In the judgment of Mr. Shaw, the only weakness of the American monetary system is that the currency is nonelastic, that its volume does not respond to changing seasons and the varying needs of trade.

"There were indications as early as August," said Mr. Shaw, "that people had been listening and in response were withdrawing money and locking it up. It was the incipient symptom of a disease which always first shows itself in this way. In addition, increased commercial activity incident to the return of business men from summer vacations, a ripening crop, and the inflating of stocks of merchandise, caused an unprecedented demand for money. Still, the aggregate volume remained fixed, inflexible and nonelastic.

Mr. Shaw's Remedy.
"Had the national banks been empowered to issue additional circulation equal to 50 per cent. of their capital without a deposit to secure its redemption, but subject to a tax of five per cent., an aggregate increase of $400,000,000 would have been possible and $200,000,000 would very likely have been issued. The people would have carried to their safe deposit vaults or taken home for concealment a national bank note as readily as a gold certificate, and they would have been just as safe.

"The redemption of the existing national bank note is now guaranteed by the government for it is secured by a deposit of government bonds which are direct obligations of the government. I grant that it is illogical for the government to guarantee bank notes, but the people have become so accustomed to money bearing in one form or another the obligation of the government, it would be willing to concede the guarantee to this suggested additional issuance of bank notes."

New Orleans Exchange Closed.
New Orleans, Nov. 12.—The Louisiana stock exchange decided to remain closed for the week. This was at the request of the clearing house.

Bank in Ventura, Cal., Closes.
Ventura, Cal., Nov. 12.—The bank of William Collins & Sons, of this city, closed its doors Monday and a statement was given out that the bank is taking advantage of the day-today holiday. The bank has long been considered one of the most substantial institutions of this county. It has deposits of over $400,000 from the farmers and business men of this section, but its assets far exceed this amount. Hauf $3,000,000 Through Streets.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Three million dollars in gold was carried through the streets of Chicago Monday in four express wagons, attracting much more attention than would ordinarily be displayed at the sight of the 50 policemen who guarded the money marching down the street. The gold was transferred from the Chicago treasury to the First National bank. It constitutes the largest single draft for gold ever made upon the sub-treasury, according to Cashier Russell, although larger sums of gold, have been transported through the streets at various times when a bank moved from one building to another.

GETS ONE YEAR FOR BIGAMY.

Albert Bates Admits Guilt, Making an Ingenious Excuse.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Nov. 12.—Albert Bates was sentenced Monday to serve one year in the penitentiary for bigamy. He acknowledged that he had been married often, but thought he had always waited long enough for the preceding wife to get a divorce before he married the next one. He did not inquire about the divorce, but took it for granted that one would be obtained.

A sister-in-law with whom he eloped, was the latest venture in matrimony undertaken by Bates. He was arrested a few days ago on a house boat in the Mississippi river.

D. M. Ferry, Seed Man, Is Dead.
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 12.—Dexter M. Ferry, head of one of the greatest seed firms in the United States, which bore his name, and prominent in local business enterprises, was found dead in bed at his home here Monday. He retired last night in apparently good health and died from heart disease during the night. He was born near Rochester, N. Y., in 1833. He came to Detroit when a young man and amassed a large fortune, being one of the wealthiest men in Detroit. He was a prominent Republican.

Three Persons Badly Burned.
Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Three persons were badly burned, one probably fatally, and a number of others had thrilling escapes from the upper floors of a building in east Main street which was damaged by fire early Sunday morning.

Dr. Vennema in Wreck

On his return from the West, where on Tuesday evening he preached the sermon at the installation of the Rev. James F. Zwemer, D. D., as professor in the Western Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, the Rev. Dr. Ame Vennema, of this city, was in the wreck of train number fourteen of the Lackawanna road and had a narrow escape.

The train, as told in yesterday's news dispatches, collided with a West bound freight which had jumped the track. The accident occurred about midnight of Thursday. The engine of the passenger train rolled down a fifteen-foot embankment with the tender on top of it. The mail, express and baggage cars were reduced to kindling wood, as were also four or five cars of the freight train. Wreckage was scattered for a long distance on both sides of the tracks. The first sleeper in which Dr. Vennema was, ran over the ties for a way, then buried the front truck in the road-bed so that the platform of the car rested on the rails. A flat car of the freight stood on its side and was leaning against the second sleeper. The engineer of the passenger train was buried under the debris and lost his life. The fireman had his legs cut off below the knees and will die. One of the mail clerks had his skull fractured, several other employees were badly scratched and bruised, but none of the passengers were injured. Dr. Vennema reached home about 6 o'clock last evening. Passaic Daily News.

A Unique Wedding Anniversary.

Can any one beat this remarkable matrimonial record. It is that of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baum. Mr. Baum is the logical successor of Mother Goose and is enshrined in the hearts of the younger citizens as Father Goose. To the grown ups he is known as the author of the verse in "The Wizard of Oz."

Anyhow Mr. and Mrs. Baum are going to celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, and their Michigan friends (they have many, as they spend each summer at their summer home at Macatawa) will be glad to learn of their brilliant matrimonial career. Invitations to the Baum doings are as unique as Baum himself and Baum's jingles.

The marriage certificate is reproduced in full, signed by 162 guests at the wedding and is re-enforced by the above record of their married life.

This brilliant record is preceded in the pamphlet by the following informal invitation:

"We'd like you to come and see us on Nov. 7, for on that date we have been married a quarter of a century, and we want to celebrate it. 'My! how time flies, and we are so young, too!'"

"There is nothing formal about this affair but the invitation."

"Drop in and shake hands and let's have a good time."

The little booklet is done in white and silver and is held together with silver cords. In one corner appears the date 1882, and in the other corner, 1907, and the name Baum is embossed in the middle.

Mr. and Mrs. Baum are just back at their home on Michigan avenue from their summer place, the Sign of the Goose, on Macatawa Bay.

Incidents in the Father Goose story are reproduced in this summer retreat, life sized. Flocks of excited geese chase each other around the frescoing, and a large animated goose forever flaps its wings over the entrance of the porch. A whole swarm of them in accommodating attitudes not as a rule assumed by geese in real life, constitute the furniture of the house, and others in colors that no decoy goose would ever dare assume do service as sugar bowls, andirons and souvenir spoons.

Lake and Marine.

The steamer Puritan of the Graham & Morton Transportation company, which has sailed on the Holland and Chicago line for several years, will emerge from the dry dock at Manitowoc, Wis., next spring practically a new boat.

The owners will enlarge her capacity this winter by adding 50 feet to her length. The number of state-rooms will be increased by from 50 to 100, with a corresponding increase in her freight carrying capacity and the steamer will have a length of 300 feet.

The Puritan has the record of being one of the fastest steamers on Lake Michigan and can easily maintain an average speed of from 18 to 20 miles an hour. Although her speed has never been tested throughout an entire trip, the distance between Holland and Chicago is covered in five and one-half hours.

Five Holland Men on Shimmel Jury.

When the attorneys on both sides of the case had announced themselves satisfied the following jury was sworn in by County Clerk Fred McEachron in the Shimmel case: John Vanderbelt, Wm. Van Koevinger of Zeeland; Rufus Cook, Wm. DeKraker, Johannes Pyl and Thomas Marsilje all of Holland; Clarence Hague, Georgetown; Clyde Welton, Robinson; Lyman Wilson Blendon; Jacob Tibma and Lewis Nelson, Grand Haven.

The same arrangements were announced for taking care of the jury as in the previous trial. They are provided with sleeping quarters in the supervisors' rooms at the court house and are furnished with their meals at the county jail. M. A. Sooy, attorney for the defense made a strenuous objection to feeding the jurors at the jail protesting that the influence upon them might be detrimental to the prisoner's case. He was overruled by the court however, who explained the situation to him.

Shimmel appears in court every day in his seat and appeared to take an interest in the selection of the jury which was to try him. He had little to say to his attorney and although his face wore a careworn expression, his physical condition is evidently much improved.

Very little news has been added in the case other than appeared in the News at the last trial. It is simply a repetition of the former trial.

The Funeral of Harley Phillips

The funeral of the late Harley J. Phillips, took place Thursday and the services were held at Grand Haven, at the home Franklin and Seventh street at 10 o'clock. The services were attended by a large number of the friends of the deceased and were very impressive.

Circuit court adjourned at ten o'clock in respect to the memory of Mr. Phillips and Judge Padgham, the attorneys and the county officers and employees attended in a body. During the hours of the funeral, the court house where the deceased was a respected and beloved officer, was closed and the shades were drawn.

The Rev. Wilson of the Methodist church officiated and the service and sermon were brief but impressive and appropriate. Mrs. Koster, Mrs. Squire and Mrs. Pardee sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Just as I Am."

The services at Lake Forest were brief and simple and Harley Phillips was lowered to his last rest with the sighing of the forest pines as his requiem.

The following friends of the deceased served as pall bearers: Lawrence H. Vanden Berg, Dan F. Pagelsen, Joseph H. Kirby, Louis H. Osterhous, P. H. Benjamin, Kingsbury Scott.

Hope College News.

Anthony Verhulst

Hope college defeated the Grand Haven high school eleven in a well played game on the college gridiron Saturday afternoon by the score of 6 to 4. No scores were made in the first half, although Hope was within three feet of goal when time was called. In the second half the visitors made a place kick from a 30-yard line, while Rottschaefer scored a touchdown and Gebhard kicked goal for Hope.

Oltmans starred for Hope through persistent playing and fine runs. The sensational end runs by Veenker and Gebhard for Hope were features. Referee Koonts of Grand Haven made himself obnoxious with both players and fans through biased decisions, and Referee Helmers demonstrated several times to the satisfaction of the crowd that Koonts was ignorant as to the rules of the game.

A regular meeting of the Alpha Gamma Club was held Friday evening at the home of Miss Henrietta Bloemendal. The following program was given:

Recitation. Florence Taylor

The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way. Delightful refreshments were served.

Council Proceedings

The auctioneers' ordinance passed the council Monday with but two dissenting votes, Prakken and Damstra. The rest of the council so thoroughly jumped upon Ald. Prakken when he opposed the measure in committee of the whole that he declared it useless to try to get an amendment through.

The ordinance, as stated in the Sentinel recently, is so drafted as to make it difficult for the outside sellers of cheap goods to come in here during the holidays and undersell the local merchants. It makes it possible for the council to prevent the annual auction sales entirely if it is desired.

When the measure came up in committee of the whole, Ald. Stephan moved that the committee rise and report to the council, recommending the passage of the ordinance if there were no objections. None had been raised during the reading of it.

"Well, there are objections to it," declared Ald. Prakken. "It is rotten and is drawn to protect the merchants alone. It's all one sided and is for the benefit of the merchant crowd only."

"This ordinance does not consider the buyer at all. It makes it possible for the merchants to keep their prices up, but gives the people no chance to take advantage of a bargain. I call it rotten. I am not much on buying at these kind of sales, but I did buy a watch once which two weeks before the auction I had priced and was charged $36 for it. I bought the watch in the auction for $24. I believe those who want to buy should have the opportunity for getting these bargains. This ordinance I strongly oppose."

The storm then broke. Practically every alderman in the council chamber had something to say as to why the ordinance should pass, all declaring it to be the proper thing for the merchants. Ald. Nies was presiding over the committee, and asked if Ald. Prakken desired to amend the ordinance.

"I don't see any use in trying to," declared the alderman. "I think the ordinance is one sided and unfair, but I see I can't accomplish anything more."

The committee then rose and reported to the council recommending the passage of the ordinance. The roll was called and Ald. Prakken and Ald. Damstra were the only ones voting "No."

A tilt took place between the mayor and the mayor pro tem Monday night and things were sizzling in the council rooms for a minute.

Ald. Stephan calling upon the commission which had the spending of the $50,000 bonus fund to make an immediate report.

"Don't go to bringing that up in here," cried the mayor, excitedly. "It is none of our business what the commission did with the money. It was given to them to spend as they pleased, and they did so. Your resolution is out of order."

"I beg to differ with you," declared the alderman. "The money belonged to the people, and was raised by them for a certain purpose. They have a right to know if the money was used for the purpose, and this report has been hanging fire for a year or more. It is time the report were made, and my resolution is in order and is all right."

"Your resolution is not in order," declared the mayor more emphatically still. "All it will do is raise a lot of hard feeling. It is none of our business what the commission did with the money. I will say, however, that the accounts of the commission have been audited, and a report drafted, which is now in the hands of the printer. It will be made public as soon as it is printed and everything will be found straight and satisfactory to all concerned. The report will show all about the money given to the piano factory and the Prospect park matter, and all the rest. But this is no place for this resolution and I rule it out of order."

"I insist that the resolution is not out of order," retorted Ald. Stephan. "but if the commission is preparing a report, that is all I want. If, however, the report is not made soon I give notice that I shall renew my resolution."

The board of police and fire commissioners met Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and allowed the bills and transacted the regular routine of business. The chief put in a request to have the board arrange for a women's department in the city jail, but nothing has been done as to his request. Monday night, Nov. 11, Mrs. Haskell delightfully entertained the patrons of the Lecture Course. The audience was thoroughly sympathetic, whether the artist presented humor or pathos. Mrs. Haskell's ability in using the southern dialect is of the highest type. Miss Stone's harp solos were well received, especially her rendition of Foster's Negro Melodies.

Women's Literary Club

Art and artists were discussed at the Women's Literary club Tuesday. The first paper of the afternoon was an interesting and instructive treatise on modern German art by Mrs. O. E. Yates.

Mrs. Yates presented that period of German art extending from the death of Albrecht Durer, the father of the German school of painting, in 1528, to the opening of the twentieth century. There are several distinct schools of art in Germany at present but in no one of them is there a concentration of the national art, for Germany is a confederation of states, each preserving its own identity.

It is thought by many art critics that the development of art in America will also be rather by states than national. Probably the most famous of the German art schools are those of Munich.

"Modern German art is equal to the demands of the present century, which asks not only for perfection of drawing, form and design, but beauty of color and warmth."

The musical numbers of the program was charming. Mrs. G. W. Van Verst playing a "Sonatina" by Raff.

Mrs. C. C. Wheeler gave a graphic description of the beauties of Germany's art capitals. Artistic Germany has developed along three lines: Architecture, sculpture and painting. As the nation became Christianized magnificent cathedrals were erected, civilization manifested itself in noble sculpture, and the aesthetic culture of the people is shown in their numerous and splendid collections of paintings. Germany's greatest art treasure is the Listine Madonna, brought to Dresden by the king of Saxony. Emperor Wilhelm has refused $5,000,000 for this painting, saying that it is of more educational value than anything else in his kingdom. Dresden is considered the art center of Germany, and Berlin is rich in architectural triumphs.

Among these is the famous Brandenburg gate, which forms the beginning of the well known "Unter den Linden." This gate is very imposing, being some 70 feet high and 200 feet in breadth, and is surmounted by a bronze statue of Victory. It has had a remarkable history. Beyond the portal is the Thiergarten, Berlin's beautiful park. The Royal museum, founded by Frederick William III, in 1824, is a splendid structure, containing, among other valuable works of art, a series of frescoes by Kaulbach, which invariably attract the attention of the traveler.

The program closed with a reading by Mrs. R. N. DeMerell from Schiller's "The Artists," a poem addressed to the builders, sculptors, musicians and artists of Germany. Interesting discussions of the various papers presented were a pleasing feature of the afternoon.

Alleged Swindler's Written Comment on J. P. Morgan.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 13.—B. C. Smith of Fort Smith, Ark., is in jail here on suspicion of having practiced forgery in various cities.

Local detectives claim that Smith is wanted in Kansas City, the Bankers' association of that city offering a reward of $2,000 for his arrest, on charges of forgery.

A visiting card and bogus letter from Charles M. Schwab, it is alleged, introduced Smith to Levi P. Morton, and opposite Morton's name is written: "Stung him for $4,500." Thomas E. Edison's name was used to gain audience with J. P. Morgan and the comment on the great financier is: "Too cold; couldn't touch him."

A check on the Union bank of Chicago for $100, payable to Paul Hallway and signed Temple H. Hamilton, was among Smith's effects, as was also an autograph photograph of Mr. Hamilton.

Concerning the second Thaw trial, Miss Simonton said: "I will go to New York and will testify in the Thaw case. I have not been subpoenaed but will answer a summons from either side. My testimony will change the whole complexion of the case. The story told by Mrs. Charles J. Holman of her being deserted in London is true. I will not say which side my testimony will favor."
