CHAMPION'S SALARY RAISED TO $2,000 A QUIET COUNCIL MEETING

The meeting of the council last evening was an uneventful proceeding. The most important matter, was the change in the raise of Superintendent Champion's salary. The Board of Public Works did not take kindly to the former action of the Council when Mr. Champion was raised to $1800 instead of $2000 as recommended by the board. The matter came to a vote after a communication from the Board was read, and stood as follows:

Against the raise—Ald. Drinkwater, Dyke and Brower.

For the raise—Ald. Lokker, Van Drezer, Mersen, Harrington, Hansen and Sternberg.

The communication of the board follows:

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland, Mich.

Gentlemen:

In answer to the communication of the Council relative to the salary of Superintendent Champion, which was fixed at $1800 by the council, The Board is of the opinion that the action of the Council is irregular, its authority in the matter being to approve or disapprove the action of the Board.

Fixing the salary at a less amount than the Board recommended would be a serious mistake at this time, for the reason that the position is worthy of the salary; and Superintendent Champion fills the position acceptably and is readily worth the salary fixed by this Board in the market.

We therefore, again ask that the Council approve the recommendation of the Board of August 19th last fixing the salary at $2,000.00.

Respectfully,

P. Brusse,

Acting Clerk.

Engine House No. 1 is to have a new fire team, auto trucks not as yet having been tho't of. The Council has recommended that the team of Fred Boone be purchased for $500.00. In part pay Mr. Boone agrees to take the old sorrel team that has done such faithful service for the past 10 years at $150. Judges of horse flesh say that the team to be purchased by the city will be the best yet secured for the fire department.

The gas tests during the past month show an increase in the quality of gas. Out of thirty-six tests, the lowest was 564, and the highest was 640 and an average of 611. Eleven out of the 36 tests were below 600.

City Attorney Van Duren stated that he had secured the assistance of Attorney Cherry Masters former speaker of the House at Lansing to assist him in the gas cases. The case city vs the Gas Co. will come up in the United States Supreme Court on December 11th.

A very commendable proposition came up last evening and was asked for by our librarian, Miss Jennie Kanters. It was the desire of her and others interested in library work to have a children's hour every Saturday from 10:00 to 11:00 o'clock; where children of the ages from ten to twelve years can gather together, and where teachers and able instructors can give the juveniles a kind of "Happy Hour" of story telling, also giving them instructions in connection with library work. The first person who has been secured is the assistant librarian of the Ryerson Library of Grand Rapids.

The Council unanimously approved this course and has set aside a committee room to be used for that purpose.

The motor vehicle ordinance and the tree ordinance reported to come up last night was deferred for two weeks on a motion of Ald. Dyke.

Like the Board of Education in the Vanderveen School case the city will start similar condemnation proceedings against Cor. Vanden Ende. It seems that in the opening of 20th street, from Van Raalte Ave to First Ave., this man has a barn that must be removed. The barn is old and dilapidated and the cost of moving same will be nearly $500. Mr. Vander Ende wishes this removed but the Council does not see its way clear to grant his request, as the barn is not worth one fifth of the price. Therefore condemnation proceedings will be started before Justice Miles unless an amicable settlement can be arrived at.

All the property owners have given their consent on 20th and 22d street to have the street go through. This is true with but one exception. Mr. Douma who runs a truck garden in the vicinity of 22d street will lose sixty-six feet of his ground and the Council decided that he should be paid something for his loss. At first he asked $150, then he came down on his price to $100, but finally the Council agreed to settle with him for $50, which he accepted.

Ald. Brower had blood in his eye when he brought in a communication insisting and demanding that the baseball fence and grandstand be removed immediately. Ald. Hansen took exceptions to Brower's declarations and said that he had a petition signed by 960 names, protesting against the taking down of the fence and grandstand. Ald. Harrington, however, remembered that the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners had long since been given orders to remove said fence and grandstand but had not taken care of the matter. Owing to a former order, action last night by the Council was unnecessary.

No doubt the Police and Fire commissioners will see that the fence is removed in the near future. These baseball grounds have been the bone of contention between the aldermen for the past half year. Neighbors in the vicinity have been complaining that immoralities have been going on and that drinking bouts are the order of the day, and even the nights are made hideous by boisterous participants at the base ball park. The reason given, however, for the removal of the fence, is that it encroaches upon the street and that this should not be allowed by the city.

It seems to the News, however, that short work could be made of this carousing by the Police Department and that such proceedings could be summarily done away with. We do not hear of such "carrying on" in other cities where baseball grounds also exist. There is no excuse for this condition and it can easily be remedied.

H. O. H. MEMBERS LISTEN TO FINE ADDRESSES LAST NIGHT.

All the Speakers in the Holland Language; Members Pass Evening of Good Cheer.

The H. O. H. banquet in Odd Fellows hall last evening was one of the most successful functions of this nature given in Holland this year. About 150 men sat down at the four long tables and the speakers table. Among them were all classes of men, business, professional, and mostly laboring men. The hall had been beautifully decorated with the colors of the Netherlands, red, white and blue bars and with the American flags. Throughout the evening the banqueters were never allowed to forget that they were Hollanders, but the fact that they are Americans as well was also never lost sight of.

The eating part of the banquet was very successful. It has been carefully planned by the officers and the trustees and there was nothing to mar the pleasure of the evening. Those in charge of the whole banquet were William Lawrence, F. Jonkman, John Van Mowrick, R. Poolee, A. Ver Lee, John Vanden Berg and Peter Schure.

The invocation was pronounced by Cornelius Woldring and during the meal Lacey's orchestra furnished the music. Wm. O. Van Eyck was to have been the toastmaster, but he was unable to be present and therefore Wm. Lawrence, the president, introduced Henry Brusse as toastmaster. Mr. Brusse made a neat little speech calling attention to the progress the association had made, having started with 70 members and increased to 260. The financial progress of the organization, he said, had also been rather remarkable.

Henry Geerlings was the first speaker on the program. His subject was "Organization." He showed that all people can do something for society, no matter in what a humble place in life they find themselves. But the ability to help others is greatly increased through organization. By working in company with others and cooperating with them a man increases his efficiency greatly. Mr. Geerlings showed how this was true of the H. O. H. and how the fact that they were banded together for a common end and helped all of them.

Att. C. Vander Meulen gave a very fine address on the "Character of the Dutch People." All the addresses were in the Holland language and Mr. Vander Meulen eloquently told of the characteristics that have made the Dutch people great. They have made a place for themselves among the peoples of the world because of these characteristics, and in America as well as in Europe they have shown themselves always in the line of solid progress.

G. J. Diekema's address was somewhat along similar lines. His subject was "The Hollanders in America." He told of the thriftiness of the Hollander in this country and how he usually succeeds where the American failed. This, said Mr. Diekema, had often been shown in farming in this community. The Hollander usually wrested success from the soil through the very force of character that distinguishes him. The Dutch immigrants are the best that come to America and the make the most desirable citizens. The Hollander has character and on that is based his success. He is as a rule a conservative progressive—never on the cow-catcher because that is too dangerous never in the caboose either, but usually in the middle coach and most often in the smoker. Mr. Diekema called attention to the religious character of the Dutch people. The solid virtues that have made the Hollander great, he declared, should be cultivated so that the Dutch people in America may continue to add to the greatness of this nation.

The banqueters in the course of the evening sang the Dutch national hymn and "America." C. Woldring gave a clever recitation in the Holland language. Mr. Diekema and Mr. Vander Meulen were elected honorary members of the club. After the cigars had been passed all went home at a late hour.

Little Tot Burned to Death

Grace the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett of Douglas, was burned to death today and her mother probably fatally burned while attempting to rescue her.

Grace secured a handful of matches and trotted to the barn. She set fire to a pile of straw and her clothes were soon aflame. Mrs. Bennett rushed into the barn and snatched the body from the flames, but the child was dead. The barn was destroyed.

Whelan Makes Raid

United States Marshal Nicholas J. Whelan arrested D. P. Margette and P. O. Schram who were accused of using the mails to advertise unlawful devices. The Kalamazoo parties are part of a gang of a hundred and seventy three persons who are plying their illegal trade all over the country from New York to San Francisco. At a stipulated time yesterday all the United States Marshals throughout the country were ordered to make a raid on these evil doers. The result of Mr. Whelan's raid was the arrest of the two men at Kalamazoo.

All of the arrests were made for alleged violation of section 211 of the penal code of the United States, which bars from the mail any vile or obscene matter, where sealed or unsealed, any advertisement, letter or circular proposing or suggesting criminal practices, or any packet containing any substance or drug intended to be used for immoral or unlawful purposes.

Approximately ninety of the persons arrested already have been indicted by United States grand juries in various parts of the country and the cases of the others will be presented to grand juries now sitting as rapidly as may be feasible.

Scores of complaints have been received by the department from respectable women, complaining of the receipts of this class of matter.

Approximately 20 per cent of those arrested yesterday are called "pill doctors," men who advertise their practice by correspondence or otherwise and send to their patients either by mail or by express various compounds in the form of pills or powders. Careful analysis of these compounds by the government authorities is said to have disclosed that some of them are wholly innocuous while others are dangerous poisons.

Harriette Williams, Reader, will give a reading as one of the numbers of the M. E. Lecture Course, on the evening of Nov. 25. This was the only number for which the date had not been fixed till now.

SAUGATUCK

Fifty-seven leading citizens of Saugatuck, Douglas and vicinity, gathered at the Saugatuck City Hall and organized the Lake Shore Commercial Club.

It was the greatest civic gathering that community has ever known.

The scope of the work of the new club is large, comprising transportation, industrial enterprise, and local physical improvement, including County wide good stone roads.

The problem of continuing the lake boat service between those ports and Chicago is acute. For the past three years that community has enjoyed this service, but the service has lately been discontinued.

Get To The Cause

Holland People are Learning the Way.

There is but little peace or comfort for the man or woman with a bad back. The distress begins in early morning—keeps up throughout the day. It's hard to get out of bed, it's torture to stoop or straighten. Plasters and liniments may relieve, but cannot cure if the cause is inside—the kidneys. When suffering so, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the tested and proven kidney remedy, used in kidney troubles for over 50 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended by thousands for just such cases. Proof of their effectiveness in the testimony of this Holland resident:

Mrs. M. Van Oort, 28 W. Third St., Holland, Mich., says: Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of disorder kidneys and I do not hesitate to tell other kidney sufferers about them. Last summer I had severe pains across the small of my back which greatly inconvenienced me in stooping and doing my housework. Being told to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and less than the contents of one box cured me. I have had no recurrence of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—doan—and take no other.

NEW HOLLAND

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Meeuwse of Haarlem—a son. Mr. and Mrs. Meeuwse have fourteen children and the question of a name for the new baby was a lively topic but was finally settled by Mr. Meeuwse who has long voted the Democratic ticket. In the last election he was just as anxious to have a democratic leader in the White House as ever. Now that Woodrow Wilson has been elected there is only one name that it would be just and proper to call the baby and so the infant was christened Woodrow Wilson Meeuwse.

WEST OLIVE

On Friday the 15th of November a very pretty surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Danis at Olive Center in honor of their 25th marriage anniversary. Schamper son Harry of Olive Center, Mrs. C. Droeze of Grand Rapids, Mrs. G. Layle and daughter Nina of Bay City, Mr. and Mrs. B. Nykerk of Holland and Mr. and Mrs. J. Schamper and children of Zeeland. All retired at a late hour and reported a very good time.

WILLIAM LEMMERS OF ALLEGAN COUNTY MAY DIE OF HIS INJURIES.

William Lemmers, 70 years old, lies at his home in Allegan county in a precarious condition following a runaway Tuesday in which he was perhaps fatally hurt. The accident occurred three miles southeast of Hudsonville.

The injured man was driving a team attached to a top buggy when he encountered a man named Sprague from Kalamazoo county. Being old friends the men stopped to chat for a moment.

As the auto started up the horses startled, leaped forward and overthrew the buggy, pinning the driver underneath. Breaking into a gallop they tore along the road for half a mile, dragging Lemmers under the wreckage.

Sprague turned the auto around and gave chase, but was unable to head the animals off. He picked Lemmers up as soon as the horses broke loose, however, and hurried him home where a doctor cared for him.

Lemmers' thigh was broken and he suffered internal injuries which may cause his death.

Marriage is Announced

Mr. Cornelius Prins of Indian Creek has issued invitations to the approach ing marriage of his daughter Alida, to Mr. Benjamin Machiela of Boreculo. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents on Thursday afternoon, November 28.

HOLLAND REAL ESTATE MAN IS NAMED AS OFFICER OF LAND DEALERS' ASSOCIATION

Object of New Organization is to Give Land Buyers in Western Michigan a Square Deal.

Issac Kouw Friday was elected secretary of the Western Michigan Land Dealers association that was organized in Grand Rapids yesterday in connection with the Apple show. Following were the officers of the new organization:

President, Judge E. L. Deuell, Harbor Springs; vice president, J. G. Emory, Grand Rapids; secretary, I. Kouw, Holland; treasurer, John W. Cruse, Honor.

Adelbert Branch of White Cloud, B. R. Handel of Manistee, and James Graecen of Kalkaska were elected directors. With the officers they will constitute the executive committee. The directorate will represent each of the 20 counties in the Western Michigan Development bureau. The remaining directors will be chosen at the meeting to be called by the executive committee at Cadillac in the near future, when the temporary organization will be made permanent. The matter of extending the membership to real estate men outside of the 20 counties will be taken up at the next meeting.

The object of the new association is to boost western Michigan and give prospective land buyers a square deal. It has been alleged that land sharks and unscrupulous real estate agencies have sought to take advantage of the publicity created by the Western Michigan Development bureau and the advertising of the state's undeveloped lands, and induced some poor people to buy lands in western Michigan upon general misrepresentation. These people, it is said, have invested such ready money as they have had in the lands, and after taking up their residence on them, have found that they have been deceived as to their real value. The bureau claims that these lands may be made valuable only by intelligent use, and by the expenditure of some money upon them. But it is said the unscrupulous real estate agents do not point out the necessity of the proper development of the lands before any return can be expected. The lands in the district are thus discredited. These points were brought out in the petition.

CHALMERS MILLER APPEARS IN COURT TUESDAY MORNING ON THIS CHARGE

Tuesday Chalmers Miller was arrested on the charge of assault, the complaint being made by his wife. He was arraigned before Justice Miles and stood mute. He was let go on his own recognizance and the date of trial will be set later.

It is alleged that Miller became angry at his wife last night and threw a plate at her which struck her on the forehead causing an ugly wound. Not being satisfied with this he is alleged to have struck her with his fist and knocked her down.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS GIVES MEN A FIVE DOLLAR BOOST.

At the last meeting of the board of public works the petition of the city linemen for a raise of wages was considered. The linemen claim they need and deserve a raise on account of the higher cost of living and moreover they are now more proficient in their work on account of the long experience they have had. Their work is at times very hazardous and they have to pay more for their insurance than men in the ordinary walks of life.

The Board considered these things and decided to grant the raise of $5 a month. This raise will effect between six and eight men.

MANY WED IN HOLLAND ON

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bouwkamp, 31 East 12th street, their daughter, Susie will be married to John Hutzenga.

The marriage of Miss Susan Boeve to Wm. G. Schaap will take place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Schaap, in East Holland.

Miss Alida Prins and Benjamin Machiela will be married at the home of the bride's father, Cornelius Prins, in Indian Creek at 2 o'clock.

FOUR OF THEM WILL DO TIME AT IONIA; ONE IS FINED

Two of Them are From Holland; Judge Cross Holds Out the Hope of Parole.

Arthur Kieft, the young Holland boy who appeared before Judge Cross for burglarizing the Pieters' Five and Ten Cent store has been sentenced by Judge Cross to spend from six months to fifteen years at Ionia, with recommendation of parole at the end of six months, if during these six months he shall have proved by good behavior that he is willing to brace up.

John Schoonvelt of Holland, charged with furnishing liquor to an habitual drunkard, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs amounting to $7.20 in default of which he should go to jail for 20 days. Schoonvelt has been in jail about 80 days awaiting appearance in court, and the judge considered his jail term to have been sufficient.

John Resseguy, charged with wife deserting, was also sentenced Saturday. Resseguy who is a good strong looking chap, married a girl about 17 years of age, and failed to support her. Finally he ran away from her altogether and went to Grand Rapids, where he was captured and brought to jail. In response to the interrogations by the court, the prisoner stated that he could not furnish bonds for the support of his wife, and Judge Cross ordered that he be sent to Ionia for not less than three years. The recommendation of the court was one year. The court explained to Resseguy, that during his confinement in the reformatory, his wages for the labor he performed there would be sent to his wife, so that she would be sure of support at least while he was in confinement.

William Dale, an 18-year-old young English lad, who had pleaded guilty to forging a check against the Coopersville State bank, was given a sentence of not less than six months nor more than fourteen years in the Ionia reformatory with the recommendation that the term be six months.

W. Leo O'Hearn of Berlin who also pleaded guilty to the forging of his father's name to a check, received a sentence of from six months to fourteen years, at Ionia with the same recommendation for probation as was given to the young Englishman.

THERE WERE FIFTEEN ARRESTS AND FINES AND COSTS AMOUNTED TO $20.75

During the month of October 15 arrests were made by the police department according to the report of Chief of Police Kamferbeek to the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners. The total amount paid in fines and costs was $20.75. Of these fifteen arrests made ten were on charges of drunkenness, one for violating the city's vehicle ordinance, one for non-support, one for assault and battery, one for violation of the cigarette ordinance and one was a case of insanity.

Four of the fifteen paid fines and costs, five were lodged in the city jail, one was committed to the insane asylum, the cases of two are still pending two were given suspended sentences and the case against one was dismissed.

PERE MARQUETTE IMPROVEMENTS

As a result of their tour of inspection of all the lines of the company, the receivers of the Pere Marquette railway company have given orders for 1,100,000 ties to be laid next year most of them oak. Ties are being laid now and 800,000 will be laid this year, 200,000 more than last year. About 300 miles of ninety-pound rails will be laid during the next twelve months, which will make about 900 miles of new track, the old rails being rerolled and used to replace some of the sixty-pound rails will take the place of lighter ones. Already this year about 750 miles of new rails have been laid in this way. Several crews of men are now doing the new work. This decision, with that of cutting down train schedules and making travel safe, meets the approval of the public.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF THIRD REFORMED CHURCH

The Third Reformed church during the past year collected for all purposes the sum of $9,528.15, according to the financial statement submitted to the annual meeting Monday. Of this amount $3703.34 was given to foreign and domestic missions.

The church was organized in 1867 and is supported by about 200 families. Its Sunday school had an attendance of 550 during the year and collected more than $1,000 during the year. The society is considering the plans for building a new parsonage.

In order to accommodate the many scholars that attend the Sunday school an annex was built to the church during the year at a cost of $2,500.

The following members of the consistory were re-elected last evening: J. P. Huyzer, J. Du Mez, M. Van Dyk, C. J. Lokker, J. Koolker and Henry Geerlings.

JACOB FLIEMAN HAS HUNTED DEER FOR FOURTEEN YEARS.

Party of Three Shot This Time; Also Bagged Much Small Game While on Trip

William Willink, William Hacklander and Jacob Flieman returned Monday from the North woods where they have been hunting deer. Flieman has been in the woods three weeks and Willink and Hacklander six weeks. The party brought home five deer and they consider the trip quite successful. In addition to shooting deer Hacklander and Willink shot ten muskrats, 43 muskrats, one skunk and seven weasels.

The party hunted twelve miles north of Champion, Michigan, on an old right of way of a railroad that at one time ran from Champion to Lake Superior. One of the men declared that although they had bagged a good deal of game the natives of Champion saw to it that they did not make any money out of the hunting expedition. They declared that in former years they hunted in civilized places but that this year they lived among "skinnners." Flieman, who went to the woods later than the others, was charged $4, he declares, for being driven 12 miles and all the other prices correspondingly high.

"I never had more fun on any hunting trip," said Mr. Flieman. "We lived on birds and rabbits and the small game was very plentiful. Twice during my stay I was lucky enough to bring down more than one bird at one shot. I had a fine time in the woods and stood the trip exceedingly well. I did not take a drop of whiskey or beer or liquor of any kind, and I found that I could stand the cold and hardships better than anyone on that hunting grounds who did."

Mr. Flieman was 75 years old last September but in spite of his age he is as sure a shot as most younger hunters. For 14 years in succession he has gone to the North woods to hunt deer and often shot more than one. He estimates that during those fourteen years he has shot about 20. And during all that time he has not had a sick day in the woods. Mr. Flieman expects to go north each year as long as advancing age will permit.

CENTRAL AVENUE CHURCH ADDS MATERIALLY TO SEATING CAPACITY.

New Addition and Stable Erected at Approximate Cost of $5000.00

During the present week the new consistory room of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church will be ready for use and will be occupied by the various organizations in connection with the church. The new addition to the building is added to the back of the church. It very materially increases the capacity of the church building, which before this was already the largest church in the city.

The addition is 45x72 feet while the new stables that were built are 15x40. The two were built at an approximate cost of five thousand dollars. The new addition to the church is divided into four rooms. The largest of these is the so-called consistory room with a seating capacity of about a hundred and fifty. Besides this there are three smaller rooms, one for the library and two rooms for smaller meetings. The activities of the large congregation are so varied that frequently more than one meeting is held on the same evening. With the new arrangements these meetings can be held at the same time and one will not interfere with the others. The new consistory room is equipped with chairs of the latest design and shower lights. Two new Holland furnaces have been installed to heat the church and the new addition. Two drinking fountains have been installed in the hall. A new piano has been purchased to be used in the consistory rooms.

The new stable that has been built has room for forty horses.

The Ninth Street Christian Reformed church is also building a new addition to the main building and this is also nearing completion.

ONE ARRESTED FOR SELLING WITHOUT A LICENSE

Cleanliness Clauses of Milk Ordinance Are Also Being Carefully Watched by Officers

The health officer and police officials of Holland have again been called on to watch the milk dealers. The health officer has found that some milk men are not taking good care of their bottles or milk and do not give their cows the proper feed. The police officers declared that there are men selling milk without a license, and these men are hereby warned to get a license or they will be prosecuted.

Tuesday Dick Brondyk and his employee, Adrian Veele, aged 15, were arrested and brought before Justice Sooy, the former for not having a license and the latter because Health Officer Dr. Godfrey declared he found three red milk tickets in the bottom of a milk bottle. The tickets are said to have been nearly white when found the color having dissolved in the milk.

Mr. Brondyk claims that he bought his milk route from another man that had paid for a license and that he thought this license would be all right for him also. But he found this is not the case, as the city ordinance says that licenses are not transferable. He was ordered to get a license right away and get an older and more experienced milk man or he would not be allowed to peddle milk any more.

DEER MUST HAVE HORNS

Lansing, Nov. 18.—"With a law that prohibited the killing of any but horned deer, the mortality rate in the deer season would be decreased to a minimum."

This was the declaration of Game Warden Oates, who has just returned from an investigation of conditions in the upper peninsula, where he declared scores of deer hunters have either been killed or wounded this season, the same as they have in Wisconsin.

The shooting of only horned deer would mean that a hunter would have to look twice before taking a shot.

THOUGH A DEMOCRAT HE IS POPULAR IN REPUBLICAN CITY.

Kalamazoo, Mich. Nov. 21.—Berend Kamps, who is serving his tenth term as mayor of Zeeland, Mich., visited friends in Kalamazoo yesterday. Mr. Kamps recently made the run for state senator on the Democratic ticket in Ottawa county and was defeated by 160 votes in a district which usually gives the Republican candidate a majority of 1600.

The mayor of Zeeland is authority for the statement that there are less than one dozen American families in that city which has a population of more than 2,000. The inhabitants of Zeeland are Hollanders.

Mr. Kamps has served as village clerk, village trustee, president of the village and mayor of the city. The city is overwhelmingly Republican and it is considered some achievement for a Democrat to be elected to any office. Mr. Kamps is one of the officers of the Zeeland Brick company.

MORE FLAG FURLING PROPOSED

The Democratic leaders in Congress favor the enactment of a law, in the short session this winter, giving independence to the Philippines. They aim to get a measure of this sort out of the way before President-elect Wilson enters office, as they believe that he will have more than enough work on his hands during the time, short or long, in which the Democrats contrive to retain control of Congress. Independence for the Philippines was urged in the Baltimore platform, and, presumably, is favored by Mr. Wilson. Unquestionably it is not favored by the present president, and is not likely to get a majority in the Senate. If Philippine independence comes the Democratic party will be compelled to shoulder responsibility for it, and it will have to come in the Congress which enters existence on March 4 next.

Mr. Cleveland did a piece of flag furling in the early part of 1904, when he lowered it in Hawaii, after President Harrison. In the latter days of his term, he set it up. This was one of the acts of the first part of Cleveland's second term which drove the Democrats out of power just as soon as the people could get at them, and Cleveland had a Republican Congress during his last two years in office. In 1898, while the Spanish war was under way, the country formally annexed Hawaii, and it has been ours ever since. Its possession by us has not only aided its people, but it has added much to our resources, and has given us an outpost in the Pacific which may be of large strategic value to us in the conflicts of the future.

This Philippine elimination programme by the Democrats may give rise to the query as to what they may do to other pieces of outlying territory. Will they restore Hawaii to its former status, and undo the work of development which has gone on with considerable activity in the fourteen years in which it has been under the flag? What will become of Porto Rico in the new dispensation? Will that island also be cast out? By treaty, we have a protectorate over the republics of Cuba and Panama. Will this be allowed to stand through Democratic days? How about the Panama Canal? Will we be compelled to give up our lease on the canal zone and hand the control over to the little isthmian republic, or invite Columbia in to regain its hold on that region? Some picturesque possibilities in the way of "anti-imperialism" are involved in that Democratic victory the other day. Even our title to Alaska may be challenged.

A CANADIAN VIEW OF WILSON'S VICTORY

Democratic success in the United States means that the Woodrow Wilson tariff reform policy, if any, will give Canada everything that was promised in the reciprocity treaty without requiring Canada to give anything in return—From the Evening Telegram of Toronto, Canada.

As danced in Europe the Turkey trot is a rather rapid affair.

The least those eight electoral college delegates can do would be to send President Taft a souvenir postal card.

President-elect Wilson has already discovered that it is a difficult matter to please more than one or two people at a time.

"B's" VICTORIOUS OVER THE "A's" IN THE SECOND ANNUAL CLASS RUSH

Early on the morning of November 19th, the "B" class of Hope College proved itself to be superior to the "A's" in the second annual class rush. For some time the "B's" had been expecting this to occur, hence they were not asleep by any means. Near midnight it so happened that three of the "B's", Vos Yntema and Poppen, spied the "A's" in the act of planting a greased seventy-five foot section of the old flag pole, to which was fastened the banner of the redoubtable "A's". The "B's" are not at all slow of comprehension and they squirmed around until they found a pair of "Eastern Climbers", or in other words, plain linemen's spikes.

About four o'clock four of the "B's" TerBerg, Vos, Steketee and Bolks, crept stealthily from among the college buildings toward the pole. Several times they tho't they were surely discovered by the sentinels of the enemy, who passed and repassed within ten feet of the crouching but ever slyly hurrying "B's". At last when the sentinels were about thirty feet from the pole, the "B's" made a dash, and TerBerg equipped with the "Eastern Climbers" started up the pole, while his companions warded off the opposing men, who fought furiously but all in vain; for TerBerg with the quickness of a squirrel climbed rapidly, and by the time the "B's" were no longer able to keep back their opponents the number of whom increased every moment he was safe. The "A's" sounded their signal for re-enforcements but at that late hour all their efforts were of no avail, and the clever strategy of the "B's" left them paralyzed with surprise and chagrin.

Meanwhile Ver Berg, slow but sure, strove to reach the banner, waving far above him in the fresh morning breeze, and after fifteen minutes of strenuous climbing he finally succeeded. He tore the flag immediately from its bearings, and being provided with matches, proceeded to burn it strip by strip, saving only a remnant, which he carefully tucked under his sweater. Pieces of this were afterwards given to his classmates to serve as souvenirs.

Below on the campus, the companions who has fought so valiantly in the cause were being overpowered and fastened, hand and foot. One of them managed to get away unnoticed and when he returned with some dozen classmates they too, were overpowered and bound, as there were about three "A's" to every "B". All this was done while the banner was being destroyed and even after it had apparently been completely done away with for the "A's"—something after the fashion of the "Invincible Armada"—could not find it in their hearts to acknowledge that they were actually defeated. As they were a little ashamed to have anyone know of their almost inhuman treatment of the "B's", they took their captives, bound and helpless, to the Meliphone Hall. Here a few escaped although it was no easy task to elude the vigilance of the many "A's".

When the few "B's" who had managed to get away, finally returned with more recruits, the "A's" confessed themselves defeated and then set to work freeing the unfortunate "B's". At the arrival of the "man higher up" in the person of Prof. Kleinheksel, the vanquished ones took down their poles to which poor TerBerg was still courageously clinging.

The victory, a singularly laudable one, was accomplished through pure strategy and not mere brute strength. The "A's" has long been sure of winning because of the small class they had to contend with, but they must always keep in mind the old age that "The dog who laughs last, laughs best."

A "BEE".

The members of the class who participated in this rush were suspended for two days by Prof. Kleinheksel, acting president during the absence of President Vennema. All colleges are discouraging class hazing and rushes and the faculty of Hope has used this method of suspension to show their disapproval and to prevent a recurrence of the same. Editor.

WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO ENQUIRE ABOUT FUND FOR CLUB HOUSE

Tuesday was "Literature Day" at the Woman's Literary club. Two excellent papers on the Beginning of American Literature and the Puritan Writers—Cotton Mather and Jonathan Edwards were given by Mrs. Granniss and Mrs. Cotton. Mrs. McLean read "The Phantom Ship" Longfellow, which was a versification of a legend taken from Magnalia Christi Americana by Cotton Mather. The question of building a club house was discussed and a motion was made and carried unanimously that a committee be appointed to investigate and determine whether the necessary funds can be obtained for the purpose.

The last part of the program was "Ye Olde Folkes Concerte," in charge of Mrs. A. Diekema and Mrs. B. C. Hubbard and was greatly appreciated. The following program was rendered: Chorus, "Silver Threads Among the Gold" by all ye singers; selection, by Gertje Ver Driet Schorendyke; organ solo, by Priscilla Nimblefinger; Ye Spoke Piece "The Angelic Husband," by Dame Maria Angelina Switchell; vocal solo (She will choose it) by Dame Mary O'Garrity; duet, Dutch National Hymn, by Mynheer Hans Slabbercorn, Frou Anna Ver Driet Schorendyke; a solo on the fiddle, by Dame Eunice Felina Stringman; Ye Spoke Piece, "Song of the Spinning Wheel," by Dame Jerusha Pettit; Double Part Time, "Yankee Doodle" by Dame Belinda Bellette Cornette; Dame Katrina O'Toole, assisted by the orchestra; "Auld Lang Syne" by all ye companie. N. B. All ye goodly companie are invited to stand up and make ye welkin ringe by joining in ye last piece.

The following ladies were appropriately costumed and participated in the entertainment:

Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, Dame Jerusha Pettit; Mrs. B. C. Hubbard, Dame Mary O'Garrity; Mrs. R. N. DeMerell, Dame Maria Angelina Switchell; Mrs. J. A. Vander Veen, Dame Belinda Bellette Cornette; Mrs. Jane Boyd, Mynheer Hans Slabbercorn; Mrs. A. C. Keppel, Frou Anna Ver Driet Schorendyke; Miss Lois Keppel, Gertje Ver Driet Schorendyke; Mrs. F. J. Gowdy, Dame Eunice Felina Stringman; Miss Florence Taylor, Dame

Hope Merrythough; Mrs. J. S. Dykstra, Dame Lucinda Linderella Plakstra; Mrs. A. Diekema, Dame Prudence Pettitgill.

The introductions and announcements were made by Mrs. A. Diekema. The "Concerte" afforded a great deal of amusement.

ALLEGAN GIRL MURDERED

Judge L. L. Thompson received word this week of the shooting of Ida Parker, colored, daughter of the old colored "colonel" whose "horseless carriage," an ox that he drove about the town gathering swill, made him famous. The girl worked a number of years in Judge Thompson's home and attended high school to within a few months of graduation. She was an exceptionally bright girl. She entered the employ of a family of north ern Michigan who met and hired her at Macatawa park. When the family went south this fall to Louisville, Ky., she accompanied them and it was there that she was killed last Monday night. The first telegram to Mr. Thompson said she had been shot and was in a critical condition; the second, that she was dead; and a third from the chief of police, saying that before she died the girl asked that Judge Thompson be notified so her mother could know. The mother is living with other children on the Saugatuck road in the western part of the city. Judge Thompson immediately made effort to have the body brought here for burial but that could not be done. He has written for particulars of the killing. The murderer's name is Hilliker.

POSTAL SAVINGS NOT A SUCCESS

So far the postal savings banks are not successful. The deposits amount to twenty-eight million dollars made by 290,000 people, and average $96 per person. They are made in 12,773 postoffices. The system can not pay expenses until one hundred million dollars are deposited. Probably that sum never will be reached, and it is very doubtful if the scheme will prove to have been worth while in any respect.

ALLEGAN MILKMEN CHARGE 7cts.

The Allegan milk dealers this week raised the price of milk to seven cents per quart. Not being a dairyman we do not know if this was really necessary or if it was simply done because everything else that people need to live on has increased in price. The reason given is that a representative of the Kalamazoo creamery is buying up all the milk in sight around Allegan and pays so high a price that they are compelled to pay high for what they must buy.

NOT ENOUGH APPLES REPORTED

It has been reported from Fennville that the apple crop in that vicinity amounts to about 60,000 barrels of first-class fruit. That figure is probably a little high. It is estimated that the vicinity of Allegan produced about 15,000 barrels; one buyer said 18,000 barrels. It was estimated in a dispatch from Holland, last week that the entire crop of Allegan county was 60,000 barrels. Probably there were three times that number.

AT POWERS' THEATRE

"Everywoman" should be seen by everybody. Walter Browne's remarkable play is a charming novelty, a delightful entertainment, a forceful drama, a beautiful spectacle and a soul stirring sermon. At Powers, Monday evening it revealed a score of rare amusing qualities so diversified that Everybody's most exacting taste is bound to be happily gratified. Nothing like it has been seen here before. Anybody who misses it will feel like Nobody when this week's engagement has passed into local theatrical annals as one of the extraordinary events of the season.

Everywoman's quest for King Love is filled with adventures, some gay, some touched with exultation, some tingling with excitement, some leading to the brink of disaster, some surging with riotous pleasure, some tinged with regret, some made somber by sorrow and some glorified by Truth—but all presented with a dramatic skill that holds interest through five kaleidoscopic acts. There are no dull moments in the ever changing career of Everywoman, for when her personal joy of living burns low its very faintness is emphasized by the sparkle of the life from which she is cast out when Beauty and Youth have been taken her.

"Everywoman" opens almost an opera, with the big special orchestra playing an overture that creates the proper degree of expectancy. Then the quaint figure of Nobody appears before the heavy velvet curtains to deliver the prologue. The curtains part and here is a dainty picture of Everywoman's boudoir, with Everywoman's graceful companions, Youth, Beauty and Modesty joyously singing and dancing as they await her waking. This act seems like a bit of pretty fairy extravaganza. The second act, taking place on the stage of a theater, plunges us into a musical comedy atmosphere, with later just a touch of opera and a thrill of drama when Passion tempts Everywoman.

In the third act we have the giddy feast wherein Everywoman entertains Wealth, Greed, Age and other passions, while Conscience sings to dying Beauty. When Beauty dies Everywoman in "desperation" flings herself into the arms of Wealth. The fourth act is a riot of frolic, gaiety and dancing, showing the New Year's eve celebration on Broadway. It is touched with tragedy for Everywoman, as Time slays Youth and leaves Everywoman alone with Truth and Nobody.

The fifth act is pure romance, showing Everywoman's return home with Truth there to find King Love awaiting her. It is an impressive play—a play not to be missed by those who seek the better things of the theater.

Henry W. Savage has sent here an excellent presenting organization, all parts being effectively and convincingly played and every incident being given due value.

Adele Blood brings to the part of Everywoman personal pulchritude and artistic ability. In every phase of Everywoman's career she is in keeping with the part.

Eugene Ormonde plays the strange role of Nobody, H. Cooper Cliffe having been suddenly recalled to the eastern company. Mr. Ormonde handles the part splendidly. Youth, Beauty, Modesty and Conscience are capably played by Marion Dentler, Lea Leture Ruby Rothour and Betty Marsden, who seem incarnations of the parts, Kathleen Kerrigan is strong as Truth, Lydia Crane is alluring as Vice. There are nearly thirty speaking characters in the play.

"Everywoman" will be at Powers' all week. If the enthusiasm of Monday evening's big audience is as contagious as it should be it will be an engagement of crowded houses.

Jury Returns Verdict of "Not Guilty" and Attorneys are Wondering How it Happened.

Another decision was rendered by the jury in circuit court Thursday that was almost comic and that has created a great deal of comment among the Ottawa county attorneys and among those who attended court. It was in the case of the People vs. Edward Keets, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Prosecutor Osterhouse appeared for the people and Walter I. Little defended Keets.

The case against Mr. Keets was a rather odd one and arises from the assignment of a mortgage for $300 to George E. Kollen and others. Mr. Keets who is a resident of Conklin some time ago held a mortgage for $300 against a man named John Vinkemulder. The circumstance had been forgotten by Mr. Keets until according to his testimony the record of the mortgage was called to his attention by Mr. Kollen. An offer was made for the purchase of the mortgage which was finally sold by Keets for $350. Later it is alleged it was discovered that the mortgage had been assigned to another party, previously the no record of transaction was found. Mr. Keets claim is that the transaction had completely slipped his mind.

In the evidence there was no question about the fact that Keets had really sold the mortgage twice. He admitted this by saying that he had forgotten the transaction. When asked why he did not pay the money back after he discovered the double sale he is said to have declared that not think he could be compelled to do so and hence would not do so. All these facts were established in the court and there was no dispute about them. Those who attended the trial confidently expected that the jury could not do anything else but return a verdict of guilty. The jurymen were out six hours and last night at about 9 o'clock returned a verdict of not guilty.

In talking the matter over later several of the attorneys were wondering how they arrived at this conclusion. One of them suggested that the secret lay in the fact that it was a jury of farmers. "A farmer" he said, "usually thinks a lawyer is composed of about 95 per cent shrewdness. I suppose they argued that if Keets could 'put one over' on a man of that profession he should be allowed to get away with it. All agreed that that seemed a plausible explanation for the strange verdict."

Messrs. Charles Odell and C. Blom returned safe and sound from their hunt on Saturday last, and brought with them two deer killed the day before their return. They report game plentiful up north and having had a good time. We return them our thanks for a fine mess of venison of each, the buck as well as the doe.

At a session of the Common Council held on Wednesday evening last, the following transactions are deemed of sufficient importance to extract from the minutes of the proceedings: The committee on Fire Department reported a new method for giving the alarm of fire, consisting of a number of successive rapid strokes for a first general alarm, on the fire bell, then stop a few minutes and then as many strokes as the number of the ward may be where a fire is raging, repeating the number strokes several times. This has been adopted, and if carried out strictly, will be a step ahead. This fire bell was on the engine house located at the north west corner of Centennial Park, then used as an engine house, council rooms and jail.

Among the losers of the recent severe weather on Lake Michigan we find that Mr. G. Vijn, of Zeeland, is a heavy loser. He shipped a cargo of white ash lumber on the scow D. G. Williams, which struck the breakwater at Chicago and was beached, and the lumber was strewn in all directions on the beach. By great personal effort he was successful in getting together about 60,000 feet, of 125,000, of which the cargo consisted. Mr. Vijn's loss is about $2,000 without any insurance to cover it. This was a sad blow to wind up a season's work with and we sincerely hope that Mr. Vijn may escape such calamities here after.

As their are only two seniors on the team the bunch next year will be equally as good or better than this year's team.

The basket ball men were out for practice for the first time last night and Coach Robinson was very much pleased with the showing the men made. All of last year's basket ball team is back except the center and there are many contestants for this position. The Lyceum Rink will be used as a gymnasium and all the high school games will be played there.

CLASS PRESENTS A RAAK WITH HENRY "COMMENTARY."

Thursday night a pleasant surprise which indeed was a surprise was perpetrated on Mr. Albert Raak at his beautiful suburban home at Montello Park.

The Ladies' Adult Bible class of the First Reformed church of this city met in a body, numbering 31, at the residence of Mrs. F. Van Etta, on West Eighth street, and from there by vehicle wended their way to the home of Mr. Albert Raak, who as their instructor and teacher, has met every expectation, where Mrs. F. Van Etta in a few well chosen words, suitable for the occasion, presented Mr. A. Raak with "Matthew Henry's Commentary" as a token of their esteem; which without doubt convinced Mr. Raak of the good feeling existing between himself and the class.

Mr. Raak was not alone a surprised but at the same time a very much delighted man, and this "Commentary" was a very fitting tribute to his work as instructor. Mr. Raak was very much pleased, and in no uncertain way expressed his appreciation.

A short program was rendered, dainty refreshments served, games indulged in, and an evening spent which will long be remembered by both instructor and class.

LOCAL MEN IMPRESS THEM WITH ADVANTAGES OF OTTAWA BEACH FOR M. N. G.

An inspection of the proposed permanent camp site at Ottawa Beach for the Michigan National guard was made Thursday by members of the commission, local officers and others interested in having the National guard's location near Grand Rapids. General Wm. T. McGurkin, president of the commission; B. G. Appleby of Saginaw and Judge H. H. Hart of St. Clair, members of the commission, were accompanied by Major Earl R. Stewart of the state military board, Major Walter G. Rogers of Lansing, Captain F. L. Wells, Eleventh Infantry, U. S. A. and Captain John H. Schouten, George C. Bickie, E. B. Gansser and M. D. Hoogesteger.

The trip was made in a special interurban car. Accompanying the party were Paul King and Chas. A. Floyd. At Holland Mayor Bosch, N. J. Whelan and a number of other business men joined the party, who made the trip over the proposed camp site in automobiles.

They drove north of Ottawa Beach between seven and eight miles to Port Sheldon, then returned over another road, thus making a thorough inspection of the site. Paul King had prepared charts and figures showing the advantages to be gained by locating the National Guard on this site.

The party were entertained at luncheon by Mr. King and Mr. Floyd at the Marquette club, after which the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed site were discussed. Major Stewart pointed out some disadvantages and spoke of some arguments that might be used against its selection, as was requested.

At the Marquette club, G. J. Diekema was the toastmaster and the following Holland men spoke, as well as the members of the visiting delegation; Mayor Nicodemus Bosch, C. H. McBride, J. B. Haddon, J. J. Cappon, N. J. Whelan, Chas A. Floyd.

As was shown by Mr. King and others the choosing of this location would mean much to Holland and to Western Michigan. It would also have great advantages for the National Guard. Greyling is the place that has received chief consideration by the commission next to Ottawa Beach and the reason for this is that at Greyling a free site of 10,000 acres has been offered to the state. This of course is a great inducement.

The offer was made on condition that Crawford county in which the site will be located set the spot aside as a park to be used by the people of the county during the time when soldiers are not using it. But Mr. King had numerous maps and charts showing the advantages of the site. The fact that it would be a military and naval concentration point for the Middle West makes it advisable to have a spot near the lake and have the mileage to Ottawa Beach is very Mr. King showed that the units of the volunteer militia are located within a much shorter distance from Ottawa Beach than from Greyling. They are stationed at South Haven, for instance, and at Benton Harbor and at other Southern Michigan points. Mr. King had a chart with lines drawn from all these points and covering at Ottawa Beach. Then he showed another chart with lines running to Greyling. By comparing the distances to the two points he showed that the mileage to Ottawa Beach is very much less than to Greyling. The transportation of the soldiers and their equipment would cost $5000 a year less if the local site should be chosen than if Greyling should be fixed upon. This would mean the interest on a hundred thousand dollars at five per cent; and although a free site is very desirable, Mr. King represented that the cost of transportation cuts just as big a figure if not a larger one.

Moreover—Greyling has no harbor and is located in the "pine barrens." The Ottawa Beach site is an ideal spot for the manoeuvres because of the topography of the country. What the soldiers need for their training is not a spot that is all level ground. They need level ground, hilly country fringes of woods, rivers, etc., and all this the local site has. These are conditions that are met in actual warfare and for these the local place would be admirably adapted.

Because of the splendid harbor here this would be a good rendezvous for ships of the U. S. Marine and the chain of lakes connects this harbor with the world.

The site suggested would take in the territory south of the Ottawa Beach railroad up to the so-called resort property. On the west it would be bound by the lake; on the east by the line running due north from the Grand Haven bridge and on the north by the line running through Port Sheldon. The whole tract would be about 10,000 or 12,000 acres. It would mean much to Holland as it would bring from 25,000 to 30,000 people to this city each year.

TRUSTY ESCAPED FROM JACKSON INCARCERATED 24 YEARS AGO

Committed Crime in Allendale and Has Spent Nearly Quarter Century in Prison

The escape of Edward Russell, lifer from the Michigan state prison at Jackson the other day is of particular interest to Ottawa county residents, especially those who followed the circuit court proceedings of a score or more years ago. On November 13, 1888, Edward Russell, having pleaded guilty to the charge of rape, upon complaint of one Fannie Rotman 20 years old, of Allendale, was sentenced to be confined to Jackson prison for the rest of his natural life. The sentence was passed by Judge Dan J. Arnold and the case was presented by Walter I. Lillie, who was then prosecuting attorney. In the records now on file at the court house, the entries made by George D. Turner, then county clerk, of Ottawa, give a brief history of Russell's case.

That was 24 years ago. Edward Russell went to Jackson as an inmate where his very existence had been forgotten by all save a few who were personally acquainted with him or who were connected with him through relationship. For nearly a quarter of a century he has been buried alive as a penalty for his crime against humanity and the law. He was 24 years old when he left home, and his legal death took place.

Ten years ago he became a trusty a plodding hopeless trusty, with only the prospect of prison life looming up before him for the remainder of his life. Of late he has had all of the freedom which can be granted to a convict. He was trusted upon his honor to wander about the prison farms, and there was no surmise that he would run away. But the snuff of the free air, the call of the world beyond the prison confines, became too strong for a soul starved of liberty for half a century. The other day he quietly wandered away from the west farm at Jackson and his absence was not noticed until he had made good his getaway. The cell which he had occupied was vacant, and Russell was wandering away, perhaps aimlessly in the free world once more.

But he has probably overestimated the joy of being free; today he is a hunted man, and cards bearing his picture and his description have been scattered broadcast over the land. The 25 years of prison life have left their brand upon Edward Russell, however, and no matter how hard he tries to disguise it, he will without a doubt be captured and taken back to the only home he has known for these many years, there to spend the rest of his natural life.

Harriette Williams, Reader, will give a reading as one of the numbers of the M. E. Lecture Course, on the evening of Nov. 25. This was the only number for which the date had not been fixed till now.

HOPE COLLEGE

The three men's literary societies of Hope College were highly honored Friday night by a visit from a large number of the young ladies of the college. Owing to the fact that the young ladies gave their program before the Literary club in the afternoon they held no meeting in the evening and took this opportunity to visit the young men. The young ladies were chaperoned by Miss Martin and Mrs. Sutphen.

A most delightful social affair was held Friday afternoon when the young ladies of the Sorosis and Delphi societies of Hope College entertained the members of the Ladies Literary club at Voorhees Hall. In the receiving line were Mrs. Durfee, Miss Agnes Visscher, Miss Hendrine Hospers, presidents of the Sorosis and Delphi and the vice presidents of the two societies, Miss Mary Lokker and Miss Jeanette Vander Velde.

Mrs. Durfee made a few remarks introducing the program after which the following numbers were rendered:—chorus—Nine Sorosis girls; story—"Among the Lillies" written by Jeanette Oltmans and read by Nina Lendeman of the Delphis; mandolin solo—Pearl Bingham of the Delphi society; reading—Della Ossewaarde of the Sorosis; vocal solo—Ethel Dykstra of the Sorosis; stunt—Midget Dance by Delphi Girls.

There were about one hundred and fifty present. The ladies were very much pleased with the program and an enjoyable time was had by all.

The question for the triangular debate between Hope, Alma and Olivet will be Resolved. That a federal board of arbitration be established for the settlement of all labor disputes.

As in former years Hope's teams will be chosen from the three college societies. In the last week of January the Fraternals, affirmative, will meet the Cosmopolitans, negative and a few weeks later the Knickerbocker affirmative, will meet the losers of the first debate.

A most exciting debate was the one held Friday in the Junior English class of Hope College. The question was "Resolved, That Labor Unions are detrimental to the best interests of the laboring man. H. Van Vranken L. Mulder and John Flight presented the affirmative arguments while J. Muyskens, L. Potgerter and Clarence Lokker upheld the negative. When put to the house the negative was victorious, both on the merits of the argument and merits of the question.

That our home merchants are able to compete with outsiders in prices and quality of goods was shown when the A class of the college bought their sweaters from a local clothier. The class got prices from three or four large houses outside but decided that the proposition made them by the local dealer was the best they could get.

The Sophomore class of the High school will entertain the Freshmen with a reception in the Harrington hall Friday evening. This reception is an annual affair and is practically the Freshman introduction into the social doings of the high school.

Manager Vandenberg of the Hope College Basketball association has practically completed the dates for winter schedule. Ten games will be played at home and five abroad. The season will open on Dec. 6 with Mount Pleasant as Hope's opponent on the local gymnasium floor. Manistee comes here on Dec. 12 and these will be the only two games before the holidays.

The schedule will comprise contests with Albion on Jan. 10, Grand Rapids Y. on Jan. 17, Detroit Rays on Jan. 24, Northwestern college on February 7. Games will also be arranged with M. A. C., Alma, Kalamazoo, Chicago university and Traverse city.

During the holidays the team will take a trip abroad and play at Grand Rapids, Cadillac, Traverse City, Manistee and probably Hackley five of Muskegon.

Drops Into Third Column, While National Progressive Party Gets First Place in Michigan.

The National Progressive party will get first place on the official ballot for the next four years in Michigan. Owing to the fact that the moosers polled more votes for presidential electors in this state than any other party, the first column will be theirs at least until the next presidential election.

There are several other states in which the moosers get first place, and they will have the second column, the republican party having to contend itself with third place in nearly every state.

This is the first time in the history of the republican party in Michigan, since it was organized 50 years ago, that the G. O. P. has been forced out of first place on the Michigan ballot. The democrats remain in the second column.

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY AT TEND INITIAL MEETING

Enrollment is 151; Much Interest Shown and Venture Seems a Success.

That Superintendent Fell and the Board of Education had not judged wrong when they decided at their last meeting that there was enough demand in Holland for a night school to warrant establishing one was shown at the 1st meeting when about 250 people gathered in the High school assembly room to show their interest in the movement and to enroll in the classes that are to be organized. The school authorities had hoped that the number might reach from 50 to a 100, and even at that they believed that the work would be fully worth while. But when the audience was about three times that number they were naturally very much gratified.

The total number of pupils enrolled last evening was a 151. Of the other hundred people who were present, a number will be enrolled later provided the proper arrangements can be made for them. For instance in the southern part of the city there are about thirty or thirty-five Hollanders who are anxious to learn the English language. They asked that a class be organized to hold sessions in the Van Raalte avenue school.

These arrangements could not immediately be made but the chances are that later this class will be organized. It is expected that the full enrollment will be at least two hundred as soon as the work is well under way.

No classifications were made last evening since it was merely preliminary meeting to find out what the people of Holland wanted. The pupils who enrolled were divided into groups, according to what courses of study they desired to follow, as follows: 22 asked for domestic science; 12 for manual training; 23 for high school courses; 22 for 8th grade work; and 72 for elementary work. About one third of these who asked for elementary work are Hollanders who are anxious to learn the language of this country.

There were about fifty women present at the meeting and about thirty-five have been enrolled to take courses. Naturally the twenty-two who will study domestic science are all women, while there are others who will take other courses as well. Some of them are married women, and quite a number of the men that have enrolled are married men. In fact there are quite a number of pupils who are middle-aged and who are anxious to make up what they missed during youth. The ages range all the way from 16 to 50, although the largest number are from 18 to 25 years old.

The meeting was very gratifying to the school authorities. It was an inspiring thought that many people, who have passed the school age, are anxious to become better educated. If the night school work proves as satisfactory as the beginning was satisfactory, the courses can be of incalculable value for this community.

DISCUSS VARIOUS PLANS AT MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Committee to Confer With the Committee of Council as to What Plan to Pursue.

A meeting of the Holland Merchants association was held Monday night in the K. of P. hall and the question of boulevard lights was given prominent place in the discussion.

After the regular routine of business, resolutions were passed in regard to the recent death of Fred Stekete. Other motions were made but they were all tabled and then the committee that was to report on the street lights, with Wm. Arendhorst as chairman, made its report.

The committee said that it had looked up how the boulevard lighting system was conducted in other cities and reported that in most cities the lights are maintained by the city; in other cities the Merchants' association has started the thing but after a short time the city has taken charge of it; in still other cities the Merchants' association and the city jointly keep the lights in condition. The merchants committee was allowed to continue and a request was made of the council to appoint a committee to meet with this committee and discuss different propositions that had come up.

John Rutgers and Mr. Vrieling who have been in the city for some time in the interests of the new Dutch colony that is being founded in California left Tuesday for California with a party of home seekers, some of whom expect to locate there if they find conditions favorable.

MANY REPRESENTATIVES FROM OTHER CHURCHES GATHER IN LOCAL CHURCH.

The Central Avenue Christian Reformed church was crowded Thursday when an entertainment was given there under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Alliance of the Classes of Holland and Zeeland. Delegates from practically all the Christian Reformed churches in these two cities as well as from most of the rural churches in the vicinity of these two cities were present.

The program opened with an organ voluntary which was followed by the singing of Psalm 1, verse 1, by the congregation. The invocation was pronounced by the President of the Alliance, the Rev. M. Van Vessel of the Christian Reformed church of Graafschap. The Central Avenue Chorus sang "Blessed Be the Name of the Lord."

A thoughtful and highly instructive address was delivered by the Rev. H. Beets of Grand Rapids on the subject "The Danger of Our Times and the Young People We Need to Overcome Them." The Central Avenue Double Quartet sang "Silent Night" and Miss Clara Zwemer gave a recitation in the Holland language entitled "Ter Ellder Ure" ("At the Eleventh Hour"). The Central Avenue Chorus sang "I will Bless the Lord."

MOVEMENT STARTED TO PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT FOR NEXT SUMMER

Attempt Will Be Made to Sell 500 Tickets For Week of Lectures and Entertainments.

At a meeting held in the Mayor's office this week and it was decided that Holland will take advantage of the proposition explained to the Merchants association last evening and if present plans are carried out Holland will next summer have a week of chautauqua entertainments. Representatives of the National Lincoln Chautauqua System were in the city Monday and Tuesday trying to close the contract with local business men and other public spirited men who have felt for a long time that a movement of this kind would be of immense value to Holland. They will remain for two days to canvass the city. Practically all people who are familiar with the chautauqua plan in a general way and can understand without further explanation what a movement of this kind will mean. Its great educational value is undoubted and the National Lincoln Chautauqua System is among the highest class in the country. This company has operated for seven years in the state of Illinois and last year they covered eight states. The entertainments are all guaranteed to be highly moral and of great educational value.

Allegan is one of the cities in Michigan that has signed a contract for the entertainments next summer. The entertainments will be held in a large tent, the size of it to vary according to the number of tickets sold. One tent is 80x120 feet and another is 80x140 feet. The seating capacity is from 1600 to 2800.

The engagement in Holland will last six days and on each day two programs are to be given. Moreover each program is to be a double program is to be a double program, consisting of an entertainment musical or otherwise, and a lecture by a well known lecturer. Each program will last about two hours. The exact date of the engagement here has not yet been fixed upon but it will be in the usual chautauqua season, some time from July fifteenth and August 15th. It is possible that the large tent will be erected on the vacant lot where the postoffice will be built, or some other location may be found.

Local merchants have enthusiastically fallen in with the plan. The local people have agreed to sell five hundred tickets at a dollar and a half a piece and many of the business men have promised to buy all the way from five to fifteen of the pastebards to help the cause along. Only a few however have been seen and it is expected that the tickets will go fast. The newspapers in town have promised to give the venture all the publicity necessary, the interurban company will help with all kinds of street car advertising. Various other concerns will help in various ways. And the sale of the required number of tickets will be pushed with all the vigor possible so that there may be no falling down on the proposition. This is not a money making scheme on the part of the local people who are helping the matter along. If the local people play even, financially they will be highly satisfied. They realize however that the chautauqua will be of immense educational value for a city like Holland and patriotic motives are at the bottom of the venture. Those who are in the habit of patronizing the lyceum courses that are being given in Holland each winter will realize that in view of the fact that this course gives twelve double programs of very high class numbers, the price of $1.50 a course is extremely low.

The following programs will be given by the entertainers:

First day—Judge Estelle of the Juvenile court of Omaha, Neb., who is an authority on juvenile court work, second only to Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver. b—The Wehrman Concert Co. This company consists of five ladies, all of them well known soloists. One of the company, Miss Brand, is a reader and an interpreter of childhood of very high standing.

Second Day—a. James S. Corkey will be the lecturer. He is a noted Presbyterian divine. He is an Irishman and his lectures overflow with the characteristic Irish humor. b The entertainer for this day will be James R. Barclay, the crayon artist, who appeared in the M. E. lecture course about a week ago. Moreover on the entertainment number of this day will appear a noted soloist and contralto.

Third Day—a Dr. E. L. Eaton is the lecturer. He is especially strong on science and has several popular illustrated lectures on astronomy. They are not technical, like most scientific lectures, but are popular with all classes of people. b The Clarke Walker company will give the entertainment number on the third day. This company is composed of four noted musicians, C. Edward Clarke, Miss Sadie Walker, Miss Ethel Garret Johnson and F. W. Kirkbush.

Fourth Day—a The lecturer for this day is perhaps the star number of the entire series. Miss Belle Kearney, lecturer, writer and traveler, will deliver the address of the day. She is a traveler who has visited all corners of the earth. The late Count Tolstol gave her a welcome to his home shortly before his death. While in the Netherlands she was welcomed to the home of Dr. A. Kuypers, prime minister of the Netherlands, and was entertained by three countesses.

Fifth Day—a Dr. Aaron S. Watkins will deliver the lecture. He was the vice-presidential candidate of the Prohibition party twice and he is an authority on this subject. b Prof. Louis Williams will give demonstrations of the "Wonders of Electricity" and Albert C. Linquist, soloist, will appear on the program.

Sixth Day—a The Hon. Charles H. Poole, a member of the New Zealand parliament, will deliver the lecture. From a governmental point of view New Zealand is perhaps the most interesting country on earth, and Mr. Poole is thoroughly familiar with all the new ideas in democracy that have been tried out there. b The Imperial Bell Ringers will appear on the entertainment part of the program. This company consists of a double quartet, experienced in Glee club work, and they are said to be among the best bell ringers in this country.

George Kronmeyer left Friday for Chicago. After spending a few days there he will go to South Dakota where he will join Isaac Tulip and Tim Tietema also of this city. The trio then expect to go south to spend the winter.

be made that will get around a condition of this kind, so that the office can be kept open all the time.

The Board of Public Works sent a communication to the council announcing that that board had turned over the work to the treasurer, without compensation. Previously the council had provided for compensating the treasurer for the extra work, and there was some discussion as to whether this money should be paid out of the city funds or out of the funds of the board. Ald. Van Drezer held that the board should pay for this and some others agreed with him. It was represented however that this was merely a temporary matter. The salary of the treasurer cannot be raised at this time, but compensation can be allowed. In next year's appropriation bill the matter can be disposed of in the regular way and then the money can be taken from the proper fund.

that the change was necessary because of the new system of bookkeeping that has been installed. Under the old system the books could not be properly audited. The city's money, he said, should be accounted for daily, not once in three or four months. In order to do this the collections must be made by the city treasurer and not delegated to a city board. The treasurer is under bond, the funds are under bond, and this is the only way of keeping proper track of the funds. The treasurer and the Board of Public Works are now checks upon one another. Grand Rapids and other cities have followed Holland's example.
