REV. DE WEERD WRITES OF HIS SEVEN CHILDREN

SOME WERE BORN IN AFRICA,
SOME IN THE UNITED

An interesting letter has been received from Fred De Weerd, a former Holland boy, now an evangelist stating that another daughter was born to them besides giving a history of the birthplaces of his six other children which, by the way, is very extended.

Another unique coincidence is the fact that two brothers, Henry and John De Weerd also have seven children each, making 21 between the three of them.

Mr. De Weerd is the son of John De Weerd living on West 11th St. and his letter follows below:

Dear Friend Ben—

Just a line from a friend in the Hoosier state.

You may inform your readers, many of whom are our friends, through your valuable paper that yesterday, Nov. 8, there came to our home a bouncing baby girl. She seems to like her new home and we have decided to keep her. We have named her Miriam May.

She is our seventh child. Paul, the oldest was born in Ohio. The three oldest girls were born in So Africa; aimes in Illinois and our last—two girls, are Hoosiers.

Sincerely yours,
Fred De Weerd.

Fairmount, Indiana.

ASSAULT IS MADE ON YOUNG G. H. GIRL ON WAY HOME FROM WORK

A young woman in Grand Haven, whose name is suppressed by the police, was accosted Tuesday night at 6:30 near the Old Beach Tree school site at the easterly end of Penneyer avenue. The girl was on her way home from work when a man stepped out from the shadow of the tree and seized her. She screamed and the fellow became frightened at once and ran away into the darkness before the girl could identify him, beyond the fact that he wore an overcoat and cap. Badly frightened the girl hurried home and the police were notified. With no description upon which to work the officers were unable to make much headway in the case.

JURY CONVICTS MAN OF CHARGE IN CIRCUIT COURT

The jury in circuit court late yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty in the bastardy case of the people vs. Charles Rowthorst of Olive. The testimony in the case had been submitted during the day. This morning the assault case of the people against John Knoll was begun. This is an appeal from justice court and it was expected that it would be finished today.

DATE OF HEARING IS FIXED FOR CITIZEN-APPLICANTS

APPLICANTS FOR NATURALIZATION ARE TO REPORT FOR HEARING NOV. 22

Twenty-Three Notified; Most of the Applicants Come From Holland

Twenty-three applicants for citizenship paper have been summoned to appear in circuit court in Grand Haven on Tuesday, November 22 for examination as to their fitness for naturalization. On that day the U. S. Naturalization Examiner will be on hand to conduct the hearing on all applications. County Clerk Orrie Shuter sent out notices to all the applicants whose names are on the list and these men are expected to be on hand on the day designated if they expect to have their applications passed upon.

Several on the list will merely have to complete the steps already taken towards naturalization. In these cases witnesses have already been examined and all that remains is the final qualifications of the applicants themselves.

Others will have to bring their witnesses with them, and go through with the examination before the federal officer. Judge O. S. Cross will preside of course, and pass finally upon the fitness of the applicants to become citizens of the United States.

The following have received notice to appear in court on November 22:

Henry Vender Veen, B. J. Weller, W. J. Kievit, Leendert Verschure, Toopje Van Laanen, John Faber, Samuel Westra, Martin De Graaf, Jan Jansen, Peter J. Knapp all of Holland; Cornelius J. Lemson, of Zeeland; Hilbert Folkstra, Carl L. Phillipi, John Hodal, Arthur E. Fisher, Joseph Gelahoshli, Swante Persson, Odrianus B. Bor, of Grand Haven; Michael Steitzer, Nunica; Harm E. Lange, Daniel Van Rhee of Coopersville; Peter Lex, Spring Lake.

FISHERMEN IN GRAND HOOK AND LINE

NETS DISCARDED FISH SAME AS HOLLAND FISHERMEN HAVE DONE FOR YEARS

It is more like old times around the fishing plants at Grand Haven, harbor, now. With the reopening of the trout season on November 8, activity was resumed by most of the fishing firms in the harbor. The tug C. J. Bos, which is operated by the Ver Duijn brothers was out of commission during the closed season but started fishing again and several other local outfits went into commission for the fall fishing.

Because of the rather poor fishing which has prevailed here for some time, local fishermen grew rather discouraged. Nets and equipment and some of the tugs were sold off and several firms all but quit the business entirely. While better than a year ago, the lake fishing during the past summer has not been particularly good.

However the fall fishing has started with a rush. The tug Bos is the largest craft now in commission and her owners have abandoned the use of nets entirely for the present. The company uses hooks only and the results have been very satisfactory. The tug runs about 25 miles into the lake, and there sets the gangs of hooks.

On Monday's lift there were 2100 pounds of first class trout on the hooks raised by the tug Bos. Yesterday the tug brought in 1600 pounds of fine trout.

Several small fish companies have been formed and all those with available crafts are out fishing with the hook and line system and are making large catches. Fishermen owing to Holland's lone fish tug have fished with hooks for several years using these rather than nets. This system has been described before as being long heavy lines to which are attached thousands of smaller line ends to which baited hooks are attached. The fish are naturally caught when they take the bait.

FARMERS KICK ON PAVING NEAR BRIDGE

SAY IT IS A DANGER TO THE HORSES ON THE WET DAYS

An attempt will be made to find some means of making North River Avenue, near the bridge less slippery. Numerous complaints have been received from farmers whose horses have fallen on that street in wet weather, and the city council Wednesday night looked about for some method of making the pavement less dangerous. The plan of cutting corrugations in the pavement at that point will be investigated by the street committee. From time to time sand has been strewn on the street and this helps for a day or two, but it soon blows off, when conditions are same as before.

MAYOR BREAKS TIE ON POLICE BOARD VOTE

HE DECIDES AGAINST APPOINTING NEW MEMBER ON THE BOARD

The common council will in all probability not name a new member of the board of police and fire commissioners to take the place of Fred Kamferbeek resigned. A vote was taken Wednesday night on whether to proceed to an election or not. There were six votes in favor of settling the matter and six against it. Thus put up to the mayor, Mr. Stephan voted no.

It seems likely that the vacancy will not be filled until next spring when the people will have an opportunity to fill it at the regular spring election.

COLD FEET BY THIEF SAVES A FARMER CASH

ROY LARSON'S HOME IN CROCKERY LOTTED OF CASH AND LIBERTY BONDS

Roy Larson's farm home near the McMann school house in Crockery township was entered recently and $73.23 in cash and $600 in Liberty bonds were stolen. As soon as the robbery was discovered the owner notified the sheriff's office and Deputies Nicholas De Witt and Oscar Johnson went to the farm to investigate.

Roy Larson is working for the Ottawa County Road Commission and he was away working on the roads. Mrs. Larson was in the field, at considerable distance from the house early in the afternoon. Before leaving she had locked the doors and hid the key as usual.

When she returned home she found the door opened and the key in the lock. A bureau drawer in which she kept her money was open and a pocket book containing $73.23 in cash and $600 in Liberty bonds was missing. She got word to Mr. Larson as quickly as possible and the matter was reported to Sheriff Fortney, who detailed the two deputies to the investigation.

Deputies Sheriffs De Witt and O. Johnson, scoured the countryside for some clues as to the lotter and the missing pocketbook. A number who might be considered suspects were sought and questioned carefully concerning the affair. A number of other neighbors, whom the officers thought might be able to throw light on the matter, were questioned.

When the Larson family arose the next morning, they found the missing pocketbook lying on the door step of their home. An investigation proved that nothing had been taken from it, and the full amount in cash and bonds were in it also the money had been changed about somewhat, evidently for counting. Mr. Larson reported the return of the loot to the officers but could throw no light on the matter. No one about the house had heard the person or persons who returned it.

Although the money has been returned that does not close the matter as far as the sheriff's officers are concerned and arrests may follow. In the meantime the Crockery farmer is overjoyed to get his money back and he may have learned that the keeping of Liberty bonds and large sums of cash in the house is rather dangerous.

SECOND WARD WANTS A POLLING PLACE

If the present plans go through the second ward will have a polling place of its own. The voters in this ward have been driven from pillar to post, and almost each election is held in a different place from the one used at the previous election, so that the voters never know where they have to go to cast their votes.

Ald. Brieve Wednesday night asked the council to take steps toward getting a permanent voting place, and the aldermen referred the matter of finding a site and getting prices on a building to the committee on public buildings and property, which will report back to the council. The city has a little strip of property on 5th street west of River which may be used for this purpose.

AMERICAN LEGION BAND FIGURING TO GO TO NEW ORLEANS

CONCERTS TO BE GIVEN AND SUBSCRIPTION TAKEN UP DURING YEAR

Members of the American Legion band have not had their fill of Legionaire conventions up to this time. They had such a splendid time at Kansas City that they now wish to go to New Orleans, the place selected for the 1922 convention.

Tony Van Ry, the local grocer, treasurer Henry Geerds, and Prof. Robert Evans of Hope College started the subscription list, each with a five dollar bill.

The New Orleans trip is going to be a wonder from the fact that New Orleans is a wonderful city, and the convention being held late in the fall, bad and wintry weather is obviated from the fact that the Louisiana city is located where perpetual summer prevails.

New Orleans too, has a great many historic spots, such as the old slave market, the French and Spanish quarters, and numerous other show places.

In order to see all these wonderful things the band is planning far ahead. A start will be made when a band concert is to be given in the high school auditorium on December 2, the proceeds to go towards paying the expenses of the convention trip. The concert is to be as good and better than the one given last year with as many and more special features being added.

Holland should see to it that the boys are given this trip.

At the Kansas City convention the local band was the leading spirit in the entire Michigan delegation. Holland was placed very much on the map and thirty boys came back broader and better boosting citizens for their home town as every citizen becomes who sees something of the outside world.

A delegation from New Orleans visited upon the Holland aggregation giving them a special invitation to come to the city of the Southland.

HOLLAND BOYS ON ALL WESTERN MICHIGAN ELEVEN

HERALD SELECTS DAMSON AND VANDEN BRINK OF HOLLAND HIGH

Swanson, sport writer of the Grand Rapids Herald in selecting an All Western Michigan eleven, states that the Herald chooses among the other players, Damson of Holland, as left end, and Ted Vanden Brink as quarterback. He states that Damson captain and end on the Holland team is a heady and speedy player. He is good at catching forward passes and is fast in running down punts. He also is an exceptional defensive player.

He stated that Ted Vanden Brink of Holland and Red Cherry of Union are par as quarterbacks with the edge favoring the former, due to his open field running and passing ability. Another point in his favor is the fact that he has not been bothered with injuries, which has kept Cherry out of the game for the past few weeks. Both men are ideal field generals.

MUCH AGITATION AGAINST CIGARETTES IN ALLEGAN

In the Allegan high school notes printed in the Allegan Gazette it seems that agitation is rife relative to cigarette smoking. Some the authorities wish to expel students who smoke the "dope stick" while another class feel that expulsion would ruin their whole life's career. Then another class say it is the style to smoke cigarettes these days, so what are you going to do about it.

Says the Allegan Gazette: "Investigation has been made in the homes of some of the young people who smoke cigarettes and it is found that in some cases the parents have no command over their children; others do not care; and as to still others, it would do them no good to care, for the question is too great for them to cope with."

"Why do the young people insist upon use of the 'coffin nails'?" It's because public opinion favors them to such an extent that smoking cigarettes is the fashion. Should store keepers, parents, superintendents, principals, teachers, officers of the community and honorable men unite forces and together (because it is impossible to act alone) crush the fast increasing habit, they could at least curb a habit that threatens the future of the nation. Why do some object to the student using cigarettes? Because it is gradually going to kill the future generation. It is noticeable already. The teacher sees it in his classes."

ARMISTICE DAY EXERCISES ATTENDED BY FAIR SIZED CROWD

AT LEAST 350 ATTENDED AMERICAN LEGION BANQUET

Appropriate Armistice Day exercises were held in Carnegie Gymnasium Friday afternoon with rather a small audience of town folks present. The local Post of G. A. R., and the American Legion Post attended in a body. Dr. William Westrate, commander of the local Post of the American Legion, presided.

The invocation was pronounced by Prof. Welmers, of Hope College. In memory of the fallen heroes the audience stood at attention for one minute. The American Legion band then rendered a selection.

Dr. Westrate in his introductory remarks referred to the war three years ago, and the conditions of today—"Bravery in time of Peace is just as essential as during war and is only our civic duty," said Dr. Westrate.

The Hon. G. J. Diekema delivered the address of Armistice Day. Mr. Diekema spoke of the tributes paid to the boys three years ago; and of the tributes the nation is paying to an unknown soldier today. In reference to the disarmament conference which opened Friday, Mr. Diekema stated that it was the voice of the great leader of the United States who called the great leaders of the world into conference. A nation-loving peace more than war may be essential, but there are two schools of thought prevalent in the minds of the leaders today. One says to disarm—that we are only building for future wars, and the quicker we rid ourselves of the implements of war the sooner peace will reign over the entire universe.

"The other thought is not to disarm completely but as long as a nation has the spirit of aggression, we need arms to stop them. In quoting the editor of the 'Outlook,' Mr. Diekema said, 'Just as long as wolves are abroad, the peace loving sheep need good dogs to protect them.' Japan is a nation that needs more land to place her population, and as long as the dark clouds that hover in the eastern skies are not moved, a nation needs protection.

Mr. Diekema concluded by stating that a hopeful outlook may be had as a result of the conference—a real world, and just as the future of the world rests upon the conference now in session in Washington, we may ever look forward to a World Peace.

Mrs. J. E. Telling delighted the audience with a vocal solo, "I know that my Redeemer Liveth."

The audience sang the Battle Hymn of the Republic and the band played a second selection. After the benediction by the Rev. James Wayner, of the First Reformed church, the Armistice Day program ended.

At least 350 Legionaries and guests gathered at the Holland Furnace Company banquet hall to participate in the final event that closed the celebration of Armistice Day in Holland in 1921.

Before the spread was partaken of exservice man Bernie Mulder of the Western Theological Seminary pronounced the invocation. After the festive board was cleared away and the inner man had been satisfied the speaking program was begun.

The exercises opened with singing "America" led by director William Brouwer and accompanied by the American Legion band. Commander William Westrate ably acted as the toastmaster and called upon nearly a score of speakers who graciously responded.

The first speaker called was Earnest Brooks who gave the history of the American Legion button which was a very interesting discourse on what this button stands for. Said Mr. Brooks, "As the button indicates that we served once, it also shows that we are willing and ready to serve again. My toast is to the button and its wearer, 'May it ever remain the pass key to recognition, and let 'Hello, buddy' be the words of introduction of one ex-service man to another."

Dr. Westrate was filled with a large fund of stories, but none turned out so laughable as when one of the waitresses in the kitchen unconsciously aided to make it so. In one of his stories, a sentence went something like this: "If you give me that rose, I'll give you a kiss." Way back from the kitchen in the banquet hall, came the sweet clear voice of a maid, who said, "Alright." The coincidence simply brought down the house.

Al Joldersma was next called on and he in a few words stated that the reason the war was won was because all participants in it stuck together in one common cause. He lamented the fact that folks were already beginning to cool down in their ardent enthusiasm which was demonstrated from the fact that Carnegie hall was only one-fourth filled while the movies were crowded. He left a thought when he said, "Are we beginning to forget Willard G. Leenhouts and the other Holland boys who fell in the great struggle?"

Benny Lieverse, an ex-service man who has seen the great trials in the wastes of Russia fittingly recited a poem, entitled, "The Creation of Russia."

A. H. Landwehr for once didn't have a story to tell. He spoke briefly on the dedication of the new Holland Furnace Company banquet hall and stated that he felt there was no body of men that he would sooner have to dedicate it than the Holland American Legionaries.

John Kolla told the audience in French the delightful words that Marshal Foch had conveyed to him at Battle Creek, after Kolla had chased the great general half way across the continent. The banqueters were especially pleased to hear it said in French, but Mr. Kolla's translation of it in English was much more understandable.

Mr. Kardux of the Spanish-American War veterans was called upon for a talk in behalf of that organization.

The old G. A. R. veteran G. Van Schelven had the following to say:—"I look upon you boys as the successors of the G. A. R., and as such you have a work to do, in educating the people of the city to a proper observance of Armistice Day. We had to pass through the same experience in establishing the permanence of Memorial Day. You owe it to yourselves but it takes perseverance. It is only a question of a few years until you will run the city and I hope you do it well. Keep observing this day and make each year's observance the foundation of the next year's program."

Miss Rose Slooter of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion then gave a fitting talk in behalf of that organization.

Mayor E. P. Stephan illustrated his talk by a story. Not alone was the story to the point, and conveyed a lesson, but also brought out a good laugh.

Hon. G. J. Diekema was good as usual. He never fails to impress his audience no matter when he is called upon to make a speech. He stated that he thought it a privilege and a duty of the Legion organization to teach the citizens how to properly observe Armistice Day. Said Mr. Diekema, "Formerly in reality holidays used to be 'holy days.' We have our Saturday afternoons a half holiday, and Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays, 4th of July and Memorial day should be days of hallowed commemoration. You can teach little by perception, but much by example. When you are willing to sacrifice your pleasures and sports to give proper respect to our holidays the world will follow you."

"Tomorrow in your hands must be a better tomorrow than that of today. As colors when the banner falls are taken up by another and another and still another, so you must carry on the great principles of Christianity, right and patriotism which have been given to you by past generations to another and still another generation." Mr. Diekema closed with a splendid tribute to the flag.

Dr. Leenhouts then arose and asked that a rising vote be given the Woman's Auxiliary for their splendid spread and to Mr. Landwehr for his generous spirit in donating the hall. Three cheers were lustily given.

The band then played "Michigan, My Michigan," in which the audience joined and the banqueters repaired to their respective homes pleased with the evening's celebration.

CALLS NOV. 11 AND 12 RED LETTER DAYS IN WORLD'S HISTORY

Declaring that Harding's speech on Armistice Day will live through the years next to Lincoln's second inaugural address, that the arms limitation proposal of Secretary Hughes the next day was one of the greatest instances in history of a proper combination of idealism and practicality, and that Friday and Saturday were red letter days not only in our own history but in the history of the world, Hon. G. J. Diekema reviewed for the members of the Century Club Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lokker the events that led up to the Disarmament Conference, the conference itself so far as it has gone, and the international problems that made the conference necessary and give it its tremendous significance.

One of the interesting features of the address was a series of "Washington Close-ups" that Mr. Diekema gave of some of the men who thru the conference are making history. Mr. Diekema personally knows Underwood, the Democratic member, whom he called a great, patriotic statesman, Lodge and Root and Hughes, the Republican members, whom he described with similar fervor.

He touched on the history of the past three years and showed clearly how mankind must denature or abolish war or be destroyed by war. He went into considerable detail in describing the Far Eastern problems that are inextricably woven into the arms limitation problem, and then gave a clear-cut review of the Hughes plan as put before the conference Saturday.

Speaking of the conference as a whole, Mr. Diekema intimated that in this conference America would find its real mission of leading the nations of the world into a larger freedom.

Other numbers on the program were two piano solos by John Lloyd Kollen, and four vocal solos by Mrs. J. E. Telling. Mrs. G. W. Van Verst acted as accompanist.

ARMISTICE PROGRAM AT THE HIGH SCHOOL AN EVENT

Armistice Day was observed by Holland High school with a most impressive and inspiring program. "Onward Christian Soldier", "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" were enthusiastically sung by the student body, after which all joined in repeating "The American Creed" led by the mayor of the High school, George Damson. Supt. E. E. Fell read a chapter from the Bible and offered prayer.

Mrs. George E. Kollen very beautifully expressed the significance of the day in a brief address interspersed with reading of several modern patriotic poems.

The high school male quartette sang two numbers. This is the best male quartette which the high school has had for many years. The boys are to be commended for their excellent work.

Prof. Wichers of Hope College, in a very straightforward and lucid manner, set forth the problems confronting the Disarmament Conference. He told the students of the conditions existing in the world today and ended with the plea that all peoples should begin at once to prepare for and think, talk and pray for peace instead of war.

Holland high school students and faculty paid their respects to the ex-service men of the faculty, Mr. Riemersma, Mr. Martin, Mr. Bennet, and Mr. Slater by presenting each with a basket of carnations. George Damson, mayor, made the presentation speech and four high school girls presented the baskets to the abashed veterans. Each one responded in fitting words expressing his appreciation of the token.

Mr. Slater, the new director of physical training for the boys, in his remarks, especially impressed the students with the sentiment of love and honor for the soldiers still resting in France. Mr. Slater entered the Canadian army in 1914 and experienced one of the first gas attacks by the Germans before gas masks were invented. He remained in the service for six years. He spoke with earnestness and from a bitter experience that war does not pay.

The program ended by the singing of the hymn when he told the high school of America.

FAIR ASSOCIATION SHOWN TO BE IN GOOD SHAPE

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Holland fair association held Wednesday evening, an examination of the assets of the association showed that the property is worth $40,000.00. The buildings are valued at $32,000.00 and the real estate, composed of 32 acres is valued at $8,000.00. Over against this valuation is placed a debt of only $13,000.00, showing that the association is in very solid financial condition.

That the people patronize the fair better now than formerly is shown by the fact that up to 1913 the average gate receipts amounted to approximately $3,200 a year, while now they amount to about $8,000 a year.

There was a mortgage of $5,000 on the property, and if no new permanent improvements had been made this year, this mortgage could have been reduced to approximately $2,000. But a new grandstand cost nearly $9000 and other permanent improvements were made amounting up to more than $2,000, so that an additional loan of $8,000 was added to the $5,000, making the total $13,000. But the new grandstand brought about $700 more than it could have done, and all the improvement are of a permanent nature that can be spread over a long period of years to come. Taking into consideration the permanent improvements, the association this year paid off $3,266 in spite of the fact that the weather was unfavorable. This shows a successful year financially.

Only a partial report of the year's business was made by Mr. Arendshorst, since all items are not yet in. A full report will be made a little later. The receipts and disbursements, as shown in this partial report, are as follows:

Receipts
1920 bank balance	$ 324.43
Gate receipts	7739.30
Grand Stand	1418.00
Art Hall	806.50

What can be Done for Chronic Throat Trouble

Health Talk No. 28
By JOHN DE JONGE, D. C.

The technical name for sore throat is pharyngitis. It is another name for cold in the throat or catarrh of the throat. The attack when of the acute variety begins with dryness and soreness of the throat, slight chilliness and fever. The fever may not run over 102 degrees. There is a constant desire to clear the throat. When the trouble is chronic there is constant cough, clearing of the throat and hoarseness.

The chiropractor finds tenderness of spinal nerves in the lower neck region. This tenderness is traceable from the spine around to the region of the throat where tenderness is general. Chiropractic spinal adjustments to lift the pressure of bone upon nerve tissue at the spinal nerve opening are usually followed by a feeling of relief almost immediately. In the following news item, what happened by accident is what the chiropractor is bringing about constantly by science and skill.

Voice Lost in Blast is Recovered in A Dive.
London—Thomas Clunwaring, of Silvertown, who lost his speech in the Silvertown explosion, which killed his mother, sister, and brother, came to Baldock to search for work. A poor swimmer, Clunwaring went in at Letchworth and dived into the deep end by mistake. Finding himself in danger he shouted and became violently active. He was helped out and found he had recovered his speech. —Chicago Herald and Examiner, August 2, 1921.

"Small favors gratefully received"

THE saying is old and threadbare, but it never fails to "smack" of courtesy.

Do not think because we are nearly a three million dollar bank that our business has assumed such proportions that we are not looking after or anxious to get the smallest depositor among our list of business clients.

The small one dollar savings account means as much to us as does the larger one, for some day that one dollar saver is going to be a big depositor. He simply can't help it after he gets the habit.

Little ones or big ones, we treat them all alike. They all belong to the First State Bank family and for that reason we still adhere to the time worn slogan, "Small favors are gratefully received."

At a joint meeting of committees for the board of trustees of the Methodist church and Congregation- al churches of Grand Haven, arrangements were made for the occupancy of the Congregational church edifice by the Methodists for a period of six months. The arrangements are in no way construed as a merger of the two churches, however. The Methodists pending the erection of their own church building at the corner of Washington and Fourth streets, have been renting the Unitarian church. However, the Congregational church now has no pastor, and there seems little prospect of engaging one for at least six months.

Mrs. Jacob G. Van Putten passed away Monday evening at her home at 18 E. 12th street after a very short illness. Mrs. Van Putten, granddaughter of Dr. A. C. Van Raalte, founder of the colony, was born in June, 1861. In June, 1890, she married the late Mr. Jacob G. Van Putten.

Mrs. Van Putten has carried out the Van Raalte traditions of usefulness and the spreading of happiness to those about them, exerting her influence in a quiet way. Her many relatives, her neighbors, and a large group of intimate friends testify to her many evidences of generosity and kindness. Her influence has also been felt in Hope church of which she has been a member for many years.

Two sisters, Mrs. B. D. Keppel and Miss Wilhelmina Van Raalte, and a brother, Mr. A. C. Van Raalte, survive Mrs. Van Putten.

The funeral was held from the home on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

Hope college began its annual week of prayer this week, commencing Sunday evening with a meeting in the chapel, led by the college pastor, Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp. These meetings are held each morning from 11 to 12, under the auspices of the Joint Christian Associations. Every student is expected to attend these meetings, which are held in order to help those students who are yet undecided as to their life work and to uphold the spiritual environment upon the college campus.

The program follows:

A proposal to "disarm" parks in American cities by removing the ornamental cannon was made to the American Civic association at Chicago by Horace J. McFarland, its president in his annual address. His suggestion was offered however, not as an aid to the disarmament conference but on the grounds that outworn captured guns and dinky band stands add nothing to the beauty of public places.

Benj. J. Baldus, the welding man, 7th Street, has added a new department to his line of business. He is not alone repairing radiators that got the worst of it in a "headon" so that the injuries to the car are not recognizable, after the job is finished, but he is now making a radiator complete, in other words, manufacturing radiators.

He has put the necessary equipment for this work and is already having considerable success.

ANDREW WASN'T SURPRISED; HE WAS ONLY DUMBFOUNDED

Many a time Andrew Klomparsens, local manager for the Holland Furniture Company, has claimed to his numerous friends that, though they might be able to spring surprise parties on others, they'd never put it over on him. He'd find out ahead of the party. He'd let the whole bunch know too, and all that sort of thing.

Andrew couldn't be surprised but he forgot the word "dumbfounded." He wasn't surprised Monday night when he entered his home. A surprise does not render a man speechless, nor does it tend to make him hysterical. Well, Andrew wasn't exactly hysterical, but he was at least as near to it as to surprise.

The friends were crowded on the darkened stairway. All was serene and in order, quieter than usual perhaps. But as Andrew gave the signal unknowingly by innocently opening his door, the human avalanche poured down his own stairway. Poor Andrew, or why poor Andrew, with so many well-meaning friends?

So there is another man wiser today than yesterday. Both Andrew and his friends are wiser. They were both right. Andrew wasn't surprised but he was taken off his feet and then some. There are several tired Holland citizens today. They are Mr. and Mrs. Milo DeVries, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lievense, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lievense, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lievense, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Van Zanten, Mr. and Mrs. George Tinselt, Miss Martha Smith and Miss Zera Vrieling, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Klomparsens.

They are not only tired but filled with enough good things to last almost until time for another victim. Should it be doubted that Andrew was really a victim and not just pretending, he is the proof. He won all the booby prizes. Just what they were is a secret, but his said they were appropriately chosen for the lively games that made a long evening seem short.

A very interesting Parent-Teacher club meeting was held in Longfellow school Tuesday evening and the meeting place was crowded to capacity. A very interesting program was given with Mrs. Martha Kollen rendering two readings and Super, Fell and Principal Rieckers, and Miss Minnie Smith of Janier High school giving the parents some heart to heart talks.

Community singing was indulged in and the second grade pupils also rendered some pleasing selections. Chairman Dick Beter presided over the meeting, while Secretary, Mrs. George Schmitz and Treasurer, Mr. Overweg, gave some very interesting reports.

Selections by the P-T club quartet were also well received. The club intends to take up the matter of milk for children providing the parents of the pupils generally favor a milk course in the school. In order to find out the sentiment, the parents will be notified to express their desire in a note, "milk or no milk," "yes or no." This same method was used in Van Raalte avenue school and this week Tuesday "Bottle" was connected up with that school, and the pupils are having their regular milk diet daily.

The club also decided to spend some of their surplus money for the installation of a tennis court on the Longfellow school grounds. There has been considerable demand from the pupils for a court, and their hopes will now be realized.

The auction bell will also ring at Longfellow the first part of December.

Parents and pupils are making merry Christmas things and these will be auctioned off to the highest bidder, the proceeds going to such causes as the club may deem beneficial to the pupils of Longfellow school.

TEAMSTERS' STRIKE SETTLED; BOATS TO RUN AGAIN

The management of the Graham and Morton Steamboat company has been right on its toes to give Holland and vicinity the best of service in the way of transportation.

The service has always been good but this year it was exceptionally fine. We are therefore pleased to state that the tri-weekly connection with Chicago will be kept up far into December provided ice does not block Holland harbor.

It was reported Tuesday that the Holland boats would be discontinued because of the teamsters' and truck drivers' strike in Chicago, which prevented the Graham and Morton Co. from clearing their ware houses and docks on the Chicago end and seriously impaired the hauling of Chicago freight to the docks for shipment to Holland and Grand Rapids.

The teamsters' strike however was settled Tuesday night and the Graham and Morton company have decided to change their plans and will continue to run their Holland-Chicago boats as long as weather permits.

Local Agent, Mr. Johnson states Wednesday that the company wanted to give Holland the benefit of the boat service as long as it was able to do so, and while last year the boats discontinued running November 10, he hoped that this year over a month could be added and that the boats would still be running far into December.

This is very unusual but it surely meets with the approval of Holland shippers.

While still a few passengers travel, freight business to and from Chicago has been unusually heavy, which would indicate that business is looking up.

While Mrs. G. J. Van Duren has charge of the southern half of Ottawa county in the annual Red Cross roll call, the Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, has again taken it upon itself to conduct the drive in the city of Holland. The post has been taking charge of this drive the past year or two and they will organize it along the same lines as last year.

Mr. Louis Van Huis, aged 70, of 143 E. 16th street, died Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the Holland hospital, following an operation. Born in Urum, Province of Groningen, Netherlands, he came to this country 30 years ago and lived in Holland 28 years. He was employed at the Holland Furniture Co. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. C. Stoketee and Mrs. Bert Van de Water, and one son, John L. Van Huis and three brothers, Henry, Albert of Holland and Jacob of East Saugatuck. The funeral will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from the home. Please omit flowers.

E. P. Stephan, manager of the Holland Furn. Co. Wednesday gave the following appreciation of Mr. Van Huis; and also placed the flag on the Holland Furniture factory at half mast:

"Mr. Van Huis has been an employee of the Holland Furniture Co. for 18 years. While holding a minor position in the factory, he made himself valuable by taking care of the work entrusted to him faithfully and well. The Holland factory was his factory and he was as proud of it and took as much interest in it, as any official or stockholder. He was a good man and we will miss him. Men like Mr. Van Huis are the salt of the earth. A believer and humble follower of the Saviour of mankind, he had learned the great lesson of how to live and be happy and content. If men everywhere were inspired with the same ideals that this lowly and humble man exemplified what a better and happier world this would be to live in."

The Holland Christian Endeavor Union held its annual business meeting in the Fourth church parlors on Tuesday night. New officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Jay De Koning, of the Third church, president; Cornelius Roos of Trinity church, treasurer; and Bertha Olges of the Fourth church, secretary. The reports for the fiscal year show that the Union is in a flourishing condition.

After the business session, a short program was rendered consisting of a reading by Miss Geneva Van Lente, and a humorous stunt. With these preliminaries well taken care of, the evening was spent in a social way, in which the refreshment committee did their part of the entertaining.

A banner has been donated by the C. E. Union to be given in custody to that society which has the largest representation at the various union meetings. Fourth church received the award of the banner, having 95% of their enrolled members present at the meeting. Trinity church had the second largest delegation there. The banner which has been ordered recently, has not yet been received, but will probably be presented at the next union meeting which is to be held November 25. This date has been set as Rally day for the local societies and it is expected that a good deal of enthusiasm will usher in this event. Clarence Hamilton, a representative of the Christian Endeavor World, known to be a prominent and forceful speaker will address the Union members at that time.

Mr. Hamilton has served as a Y. M. C. A. worker overseas, and is at present making a tour through Michigan in the interests of the Christian Endeavor World. He is an intimate friend of Rev. J. H. Bruggers, pastor of the Sixth Reformed church and advisor of the C. E. Union. A part of his work is to solicit subscriptions for his publication. From the interest evidenced Tuesday evening it is expected that Mr. Hamilton will have a large hearing when he addresses the C. E. societies in First Church, Friday evening, Nov. 25.

A "Tell-Tale-Tip" is noticeable in the Waverly building where three large signs flare out from the second story window telling the story of "Tel-Til-Tips". Henry Mokma and Jim Boer have started a Holland Shoe department and are selling exclusively Holland Shoes. The two young men were formerly employed at the local factory and are going to try out this new venture.

No other Phonograph can do it!

No difference!

No other phonograph even dares the test which the New Edison underwent last Thursday, before a large audience at Main auditorium Woman's Literary Club.

That fact is something for you to think about.

The test of comparison with living artists is the only phonograph test which means anything. It is the only way in which a phonograph can irrefutably prove its realism. It is the most drastic of all phonograph tests. To sustain it, requires absolutely perfect realism—nothing less.

Last Thursday, the New Edison stood by Glen Ellison's side in Main Auditorium, Woman's Literary Club.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Any official Laboratory Model you buy in our store will positively sustain the test made at Main Auditorium Woman's Literary Club. We will give you our guarantee to that effect.

Come in and hear this instrument in some further tests of its realism. Let H. C. Cook, manager of our Holland store, explain how you can have an Official Laboratory Model of your own, on a very small cash outlay. We will make a gentleman's agreement with any music lover.

L. D. HAGERMAN WILL MAKE A SURVEY OF POTATO GROWING IN SOUTHERN STATES

With the hope of discovering a new field for western Michigan certified seed potatoes, L. D. Hagerman, former Ottawa county Agricultural agent and now agricultural agent of the Pennsylvania R'y, is planning to make a general survey of the potato growing centers of Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky. He will spend some time in the south investigating potato growing conditions.

While there is a big field for the northern grown seed in the south, Mr. Hagerman believes that most of the demand is for varieties not extensively grown in Western Michigan. Many Irish Cobbler and other early varieties are grown in the southern states, he believes. According to the bureau of markets only 700 bushels of certified Irish Cobbler were produced in Michigan this year.

In the two years in which certified seed has been produced in Michigan there has been no difficulty in disposing of the crop. The bureau of markets report shows that 750 acres were certified in Michigan this year as against 270 acres last year. Varieties raised besides the Cobblers were Rural Russet type of Late Potatoes, 105,000 bushels; Greer Mountain, 9,000 bushels; Sir Walter Raleigh, 2,205 bushels.

GRAND HAVEN BEATS HOLLAND BY 14 TO 7 SCORE

Saturday afternoon Holland High's football team went down to defeat before the heavy Grand Haven team by the score of 14 to 7. Holland's lineup last Saturday was the weakest of the season. Vander Hart the star tackle, was out on account of injuries received in the Allegan game, this necessarily meant a shift of men on the line. Grand Haven took advantage of the weakness of Holland's line and ploughed thru for substantial gains. It was in straight football that Grand Haven excelled. The Holland team played a remarkable game in spite of this handicap and with the odds entirely against them. The county seat team were in tent on piling up as large a score as possible, but were held down by the plucky and scrappy Holland team. In the first half Grand Haven received the scare of their lives when Damstra intercepted a Grand Haven pass running thirty-five yards for a touch down after getting away from four Grand Haven tacklers. The score at the end of the first half, Holland 7, Grand Haven 0. At the opening of the second half the county seat lads played through Holland's line repeatedly and scored their first touch down in the third quarter. They resorted to this style of play in the final quarter and scored their second touch down. Holland resorted to the aerial attack in the final period. One pass of 30 yards from Vanden Brink to Zanden was completed, on the 15 yard line, where Holland lost the ball on downs. In the preliminary game the Holland Reserves held the Grand Haven Reserves to a C to 3 tie.

WOULD BAR FRESHMEN PICTURE FROM MILESTONE

The Freshmen of Hope College had a group picture taken for the college annual "The Milestone." But a good many of the Freshmen were not wearing their green caps when they were "shot," and a good many of the girls were not wearing the regulation green ribbon. Failure to wear these signs of verdancy is looked upon by upper classmen as a serious infringement of rules.

So some of the upper classmen are now circulating a petition setting forth this state of affairs and calling upon the editor of the "Milestone" to exclude the Freshman picture from that volume. In the petition the Freshmen are called "law breakers" and "Bolshevists." And in order to put teeth into the petition, those who sign it are making the threat that in case the offending picture appears, they will not support the "Milestone" and will not buy it. The petition is being liberally signed and it is confidently expected that it will have influence enough to exclude the picture.

OTTAWA FARMERS GIVE TO NEAR EAST FUND

During the past week Ottawa county, according to the bulletin of the Near East Relief, has contributed $800 for the purchase of grain for the starving people in the famine district. This money is contributed by Ottawa county farmers, either directly as money or as grain. The quota for Michigan farmers is 100,000 bushels of grain and it is expected that this quota will be reached before long. Contributions continue to come in, a total of $5,000 having been added during the past week.

TIME is MONEY

To gain time, busy men willingly pay extra fares on limited trains. They forego the comforts of home and travel at night in order to gain time while they sleep. They hire taxicabs to save time. They speed up operations to prevent idle time from eating into profits.

It is just such saving of time that is gained by our plan of building and when one builds, he or she is like a kid with a new cart, "wants it right away." Of course these things are impossible in building. It takes time to build a substantial structure, but the way saves at least one half of the time which also means a saving of money. It saves you more money because by virtue of this method, building is done considerably cheaper.

Contemplating builders have been taken up with this new method of building, during this short time it has been introduced by us, and we would be only too pleased to explain the HOLLAND IDEAL HOME plan to you.

It's a money, time, and worry saver. Nearly 200 plans and specifications with photographs are open for your inspection.

CIRCULATE PETITION PROTESTING AGAINST THE FISH LAW

A petition to the State Game and Fish Commissioner, drawn up by former Mayor N. Bosch, protesting against the proposed enforcement of the thirty-limit perch law on Black Lake was put into circulation in Holland Monday. The petition immediately gained a large number of signatures and it is hoped to make the list a really imposing one. Then it will be sent to Lansing. The petition may be found in various places about the city and all persons interested are asked to sign it. The petition reads as follows:

Holland, Mich.,
Nov. 14, 1921.

To the State Game and Fish Commissioner, Lansing, Mich.

We, the undersigned citizens of Holland, wish to call your attention to the fish law that limits a catch of perch in inland lakes to thirty and the size to seven inches. The announcement has been made by your deputy game warden here that the law will be applied to Macatawa Bay against which we wish to enter a most earnest protest.

We are not trying to evade a state law but we maintain that Macatawa Bay is not an "inland lake" in any except a technical sense. It is connected with Lake Michigan and its fish population is constantly being replenished from Lake Michigan. There is no more reason for applying the law to Macatawa Bay than there is for applying it to Lake Michigan.

The enforcement of the law on Macatawa Bay is an unnecessary hardship on Holland and Grand Rapids people who enjoy fishing as a sport. Hundreds each week come from Grand Rapids to Holland to enjoy a day's fishing, but the enforcement of the law with regard to Macatawa Bay will stop that. This will interfere with the legitimate business of more than one concern not only, but it will deprive many citizens of modest means, factory workers, who of necessity are compelled to make such a sport as fishing a substitute for golf, of their one healthgiving recreation.

We respectfully request that you take this matter under consideration with a view of determining what steps can be taken to prevent this injustice.

NEW YORK WORLD PRINTS THE VIEWS OF HOLLAND MAN

A telegram expressing the views of Dr. E. D. Dimment, president of Hope College, on the disarmament conference is printed in the New York World. To sound the opinion of the men charged with superintending the higher education of the American youth who must father and mother the fighters in the country's future wars, and bear the tax burden of future preparedness or strife, The World sent telegrams asking for telegraphed statements from the heads of 423 American colleges and universities in all parts of the country. Dr. Dimment was one of those whose ideas on this subject were asked for and he answered in the following message:

"Nations must have police and military safeguards adequate to the defense of their possessions and honor. With these assured, emergencies can be cared for by extraordinary measures, and every people strong in their leadership and their individual nationalism will rise to the demand. More than this minimum is little short of criminal and a hazard giving rise to international jealousies, unnecessary trial wars and eventually bankruptcy. The success of the Limitation Conference is absolutely necessary for America's future and to further civilization, international trade, comity and brotherhood. Idealistic vagaries are impossible, but practicable compromises and honorable agreement now will lead to progressive achievements along the same lines in the future. Success is imperative."

Other Michigan college presidents whose replies to The World's telegrams are printed in the same issue are Samuel Dickie, president of Albion College, H. L. Stetson, president of Kalamazoo College, and Jos. W. Mauk, president of Hillsdale College.

Mrs. J. G. Van Putten, 18 W. 12th street, is seriously ill.

LOCAL COMPANY HOLDS CONTEST TO SECURE A SLOGAN

"Home" Fires Burn Brightest has been adopted as the official slogan of the Home Furnace Co., of Holland. The company has just issued a neat little booklet called "The Proof" in which it gives the history of the choosing of the slogan. Some months ago it was decided to adopt a slogan and in order to make it representative of the opinion about the Home Furnace held by Home Furnace users, it was decided to hold a contest.

Every Home Furnace user was given an opportunity to enter the contest and many hundreds of replies were received, according to the booklet. The judges finally awarded the first prize to Mrs. A. W. Selden of Pontiac, whose "Home" Fires Burn Brightest was considered the happiest slogan in the lot.

Second prize, "It Takes a 'Home' to Make One," was won by Mr. F. G. Dennis, Glenview, Ill. while 3rd prize "Home is What the 'Home' Folks Make It," was won by Mr. Ralph Schepers of Holland. The fourth prize, "Home Furnaces Make Better Homes," was awarded to Mr. S. C. Herrema of Grand Rapids.

The name of the Home Furnace Co. gave the contestants an opportunity to mix a lot of sentiment with business in choosing their slogans. Almost every one of the hundreds of slogans submitted tried to make a play on the word "home" either directly or by implication or allusion one of them going so far as to use the word four times: "Home in Your Home, is Home, Sweet Home." The idea of the once popular war song "Keep Your Home Fires Burning" was also much exploited. One contestant gave in his slogan an echo of a popular magazine story of the days when prohibition first went into effect, his slogan being, "The Best Sellers in the Best of Cellars."

BELIEVE GAS BROUGHT END TO SCHOONER

It is believed by the west shore marine men that the wrecking of the schooner Rosebelle and the drowning of her crew of ten men was caused by an explosion of the gasoline tank which was stored in the lazaret of the craft. The wreck is believed to be a case parallel with that which occurred aboard the schooner Josephine Dresden a former Racine craft while she was lying in the harbor at Sheboygan about eight years ago.

The new theory was announced, and it is now believed that the motor boat suspended from the davits at the stern, and just over the lazaret was blown from her fastenings and lost. If that was the case, then the members of the crew who survived the effect of the explosion were unable to leave the schooner except by possible use of rafts. It is conceded that a roughly constructed raft could not exist in the storms which followed for more than an hour.

No trace of the bodies of the seamen who manned the boat had been obtained and the search for bodies on the wrecked schooner had been practically abandoned.

It was announced that Edmund Bulley, the House of David colony representative who spent two days at West shore ports had disposed of the lumber in the hold of the boat as well as the wreckage. The entire outfit was sold to the H. and M. Body corporation, which has use for maple lumber such as composed the cargo of the Rosebelle.

One of the officers of the above company stated that there would be an effort made at once to recover the lumber still in the hold of the boat. The old schooner will be towed out of Racine and then beached at a point north of the harbor light station. A platform will be built from the beach to the boat so that workmen may carry the lumber to shore.

It is stated that the gasoline tank stored in the lazaret of the schooner, was of 100 gallons capacity. It is probable that some of the gasoline was used previous to the boat's sailing from Benton Harbor and again while awaiting the load at High Island. From all estimates given, it is believed that from 50 to 75 gallons of gasoline were still in the tank at the time of the wreck.

That the supply exploded seems to be the theory of Capt. F. W. Van Patten, Federal inspector of hulls at Milwaukee and who inspected the wreck. Just how the explosion was caused is guess work, but it is thought to have been a case much like that which occurred aboard the Josephine Dresden.

Capt. Olander said that the engineer of the Dresden struck a match in the lazaret where the gasoline was stored and that he lost his life in the explosion which followed and which tore away a large part of the schooner's stern.

BAD STRETCH OF ROAD AT SOUTH HAVEN IS NO MORE

South Haven is celebrating the fact that 12 miles of 18 foot concrete road between Ganges and that city is now complete. It took four years of constant pounding however to get any satisfactory results. This paper in repeated articles has pointed out the facts that there was altogether too much delay upon this road and that Holland and its resorts were damaged because 12 miles of the most wretched road in the state, just north of South Haven, remained incomplete.

Besides taking the matter up with state authorities we also asked our readers to take matters up with Mr. Rogers, who promised that results would soon be obtained.

We understand that the South Haven community club has had a banquet with many prominent speakers present and the completing of the West Michigan Pike was duly celebrated.

Good roads now extend from the Indiana line, in fact from the city of Chicago through Holland to Petoskey with a small stretch of bad road near Hart.

Motorists can go from here to Chicago from now on with ease and comfort, and tourists to Michigan from the West and South will be able to come over the West Michigan Pike to Holland without striking a foot of poor road.

The 12 miles north of South Haven surely was the last word in bad roads, while now this same 12 miles is the last word in good roads for which we are duly thankful and from which this community will benefit materially.

BUILDING OF LARGE ADDITION TO CHURCH EDIFICE BEGAN MONDAY

Monday morning contractors and builders were on the job beginning on the excavation necessary for the erection of the large new addition to the 14th Street Christian Reformed church of which Rev. J. M. Vander Kieft is the pastor.

At a congregational meeting held in August it was decided to build an addition to the church at a cost of approximately $16,000. The alternative was the erection of a fine church but as this project was rejected by congregation in favor of enlarging the church by adding a section to the building. A new church large enough to accommodate the congregation would have meant an outlay of about $40,000.00.

The addition will consist of thirty feet built on to the west of the church increasing the seating capacity by 170. The present church building seats 480 persons, but for a long time the church has been too small for the congregation, and each Sunday many found it impossible to find seats. The crowded condition of the auditorium on Sundays so increased the fire hazard that it became imperative to build a new addition to the church.

Not only will the auditorium be enlarged but more Sunday school rooms will be added in the basement, and a new heating plant will be installed, the vapor system being used. The main entrance will be changed from 14th street to Central avenue and all the entrances will be of the new inside type. There will also be a new and larger entrance on 14th St. and the church will be made completely safe as to fire hazards.

The contract for building the church has been let to J. Boomers and Abe Smeenge.

The building committee is composed of the following: J. Steggerda, T. Warner, J. Harmsen, E. S. Holkeboer, G. Wanrooy, L. Dykema, and J. Boomers.

The Hope College Athletic Association has arranged for the league basketball teams which began their work Tuesday. Each team is composed of nine men. A supper will probably be "set up" as in former years by the members of the league for the winning team.

Unity Lodge No. 191 F. and A. M. have scheduled Wednesday evening December 7, as a night when election of officers will take place.

Last Tuesday night a surprise party was given in honor of Miss Gertrude Scholten at her home on Rural Route 8. About 25 friends participated.

The banquet to the Grand Haven high school football squad, including both the first and the second teams at the Gilmer hotel Saturday night, developed into a real jollification over the first defeat of Holland high at football since 1914. Members of the football squad, coaches, alumni and faculty were present seated at tables decorated in blue and gold, with a gridiron laid out in the center of the table. The members of the first team occupied the seats of honor, and those who were battered in the afternoon's game came to the party bandaged, injured and all. In giving a resume of the season Coach Hutton declared that he would rather have seen Grand Haven defeat Holland than to see Harvard defeat Yale, and that is saying a great deal for a loyal Harvard man.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Rev. G. C. Lexington, D. D., of New York City will lecture at Seminary Hall on Friday at 4 p. m. on the subject "Some of God's Requirements for His Ministers." The public is invited.

Steinfert, niece of the bride, and Mr. Gerrit Nykamp, who will be wed tonight at the home of the bride's parents which is going to be an elaborate affair, it is said.

D. B. Thompson, the Olds man and A. F. Collins of the Hamilton Oil Co. of Texas left for the north woods on a deer hunt. They will meet a large party of hunters at Escanaba from where the nimrods will start out for deer.

Coach Yost of Michigan has selected his men to be used in the Minnesota game Saturday. Among the list is found both Cappy and Roby as full and half backs. The venerable coach is putting a great deal of reliance on the Holland boys.

BELL PHONE CO AT G. H. PLANS ADDITIONS COMING WINTER

The Michigan State Telephone Co. will make large additions to the Grand Haven plant during the coming winter. An estimate has been approved covering the placing of 14,400 feet of aerial cable, which will relieve congested districts in the City, and enable the company to promptly supply demands for telephone service.

All the materials have been ordered and it is expected that work on these plans will start early in January.

Grand Haven exchange has been showing a substantial growth during the last few years and available facilities have been pretty well filled up. Due to the War and consequent lack of materials, the Michigan State Telephone Co. has found itself with a large construction program on hand, to furnish delayed facilities, and there is a large demand for service everywhere.

TO KEEP RIVER AND EIGHTH STREETS CLEAR

The early snowfall has made Holland's principal streets look like those of a country town the past week or more. The street committee is in the habit of ignoring the first snowfall because it usually melts within a day or two, but this time the sun was not so obliging and the snowfall stayed for more than a week. It was piled up on River and Eighth streets so that traffic was difficult. Mayor Stephan called the committee's attention to it at the meeting of the council Wednesday night, and after this even the early snow will be carted away if it remains on the ground more than a day.

Supposing you bought a house for $3000 and a real estate man would give you a second house for a penny, you'd snap up the bargain quickly. The sale now going on at Haan Bros. Rexall Drug store is not on such a large scale, but on the same plan. See what the plan is on page eight of this issue.

A quiet wedding took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harris, when Mr. Harris' mother, Mrs. Nora Harris, was united in marriage to Mr. William Vande Water. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Ghysels pastor of the Ninth Street Christian-Reformed church. Mr. and Mrs. Vande Water will be at home to their friends at 230 Lincoln avenue.

Though each of the contracting parties is in the neighborhood of 70, they gave the younger generation a lesson in how to keep a secret. The children of the pair were expecting a wedding about Thanksgiving time. But Tuesday night the groom appeared at the home of Mr. Harris accompanied by the minister and sprung a complete surprise on the bride's family. Nor did the children of the groom know anything about it. They did not hear of the event until Wednesday morning when the new groom apprised them of it himself.
