In ancient days bonfires were lighted to chase away ghosts and witches expected on Hallowe'en.

The ghost of want is the only one that bothers people and that never appears to folks who religiously save money.

HOLLAND BOYS
BREAK INTO PERE
MARQUETTE CARJUVENILE CASES ARE DIS-
POSED OF BY JUDGE DANHOFF
IN JUVENILE COURT

Probate Judge James J. Danhof, has just disposed of two cases through the juvenile court that indicates Grand Haven is not alone having to deal with the problem of juvenile delinquents although the county seat has had more than its share.

August and Henry Knuth of West Olive were placed on probation in the custody of their parents, August and Agnes Knuth after having confessed to taking automobile accessories from the garage of Clarence Peck in West Olive. These boys at various times took things and when apprehended, confessed, promising to go straight from this time on.

They were, however, made to pay the sum of $60 and $25 costs the first sum going to cover the loss to the owner the second to cover the court's charges. This sum will either have to be earned by the boys or met by the parents and whose future duty is to keep these boys out of mischief.

Another group are from Holland Leonard Barnett, Richard Pixley, Alvin Bateman, Alvin Overweg, Bernard Overweg and Orlo Strong who confessed to breaking into a Pere Marquette freight car and taking a carton of cigarettes on October 21st, 1926.

The first two confessed to having broken into another car and Judge Danhof placed the heaviest burden of replacement on these two boys. In fact they were made to pay $49.71 and $4.13 while the other boys were fined $12.13. The loss to the company was $133.86 while the costs of the courts were $8.50 making in all a fine of $142.36 divided as above. These boys all range in age from 12 to 17 and are in the formative periods of their lives. They were talked to severely by the judge with the stern admonition that if caught again they "go over" and they know clearly what that means.

The parents are named as probation officers with the earnest hope on the part of the judge that they see to it these boys are made to work to earn their fine and to be so employed in the future as to leave no time for petty crime.

COUNCIL MEETING
WEDNESDAY NIGHT
RECORD BREAKERWAS THE BRIEFEST SESSION
HELD IN MANY MONTHS

The meeting of the common council Wednesday night was something of a record breaker for brevity. Usually at this time of the year the council has a great deal of work and the sessions are prolonged, but it so happened Wednesday night that there was almost nothing on the docket. The short half hour that the session lasted was taken up mainly with routine affairs and a discussion of city finances, how best to dispose of city bonds and other financial matters that are of small interest to the general public.

The committee on claims and accounts reported $5,450.00 in claims against the city the past two weeks and the committee on poor reported $124 for temporary aid.

COUNTY AGENT
WANTS TREES AS
WIND BREAKSCAN GET THESE FROM STATE
FORESTRY DEPT
AT COST

Agricultural Agent Milham announces that he has received the forestry list of trees from the Forestry Department of the College. The trees being grown at the College are for windbreak and reforestation purposes and are sold to cities and to farmers at appropriate cost.

Ottawa County has many large areas upon which little is grown at the present time. Many of these areas will grow trees. Timber lands grow in value and beauty with age.

This county should plant at least 100,000 trees each year for twenty years. If this number were planted yearly for twenty years visualize what this county's waste lands would look like and be worth.

Any farmer or city organization desiring trees may secure them direct from the College or through the agricultural agent. White Pine, Norway Spruce, Scotch Pine, Jack Pine, Douglas Fir, Austrian Pine, White Cedar and European Larch constitute the varieties propagated at the College.

"The Vital Things Some Christians Lose", is the subject of the sermon Rev. C. P. Dame will preach next Sunday evening.

The Holland debaters are Alice Boter, Chester Oosting and Cora Van Lier. The subject is Resolved, that the government should own coal mines.

Mr. Maybee, Holland high debating coach and the other school authorities are making a special appeal to the citizens of Holland asking them to attend and encourage the Holland team.

MORE GRAND HAVEN LADS
IN TROUBLESCHOOL BOYS MUST ANSWER TO A CHARGE OF TAKING GASOLINE

Another group of Grand Haven high school boys are in trouble. This time the offense is the taking of gasoline from the car of Seaman Van Weelden. The boys called by the officers to answer for this are James Kelly, James Kinkema, Louis Dornbos, Bruce Betts and John Boomgaard and they were arraigned Wednesday afternoon.

The boys are alleged to have gone into the garage belonging to Seaman Van Weelden living on 7th street, Grand Haven, and using a syphon to take gasoline out of the car in the garage. This was being syphoned into a pump presumably to be used to coal up the lizzie owned by one of the boys when they were disturbed by the officers.

The boys are all school boys, who evidently did not realize the consequences which might arise out of just such a performance. Seaman Van Weelden has lost gas before and suspected that someone was getting the gas from his car. He is the driver of the Co-Op delivery car.

MAY CLOSE SEASON ON THE
FOX SQUIRRELSPECIAL LEGISLATION WILL BE REQUIRED TO BRING IT ABOUT

In line with the general movement to give depleting wild animals in Michigan a chance to come back is this week's announcement of the state conservation department that a closed season on fox squirrels may be ordered.

The open season on the animals now runs with the bird season. Even with this limit in addition to the fact squirrel hunters are few in number, sportsmen report the animal's population is on the gradual decline.

The movement to bring about a closed season received a boost last week when hunters going into the woods for birds found an actual scarcity of squirrels today. To close the season it may be necessary to require a bill of the legislature, it is said. The reason is now up for Supreme Court test and there is strong opposition to it among sportsmen. It is considered advisable to place the matter in the hands of the legislature.

FULL GROWN RAT
FOILS AUTO HORN

Nelson C. Holland, of New York, while spending a week-end recently at his summer home in Belknap, Mass., drove ten miles to Amherst, and all the way going and coming he had trouble with his horn. It simply wouldn't work. At home again today he began tinkering with the thing, and out jumped a full-grown rat.

Further investigation brought to light bits of torn paper around the engine, the beginning of winter quarters in an unusual location.

A plain black fountain pen is one of the most highly prized "relics" at the Michigan State College museum, and occupies the place of honor in the exhibition cases. City Council Complies With State Order By Receiving Engineer's Report

The city council at Grand Haven met in regular semi-monthly meeting Monday night.

One of the most important reports was presented by City Manager P. R. Taylor, prepared by Pease, Greeley and Hansen, Chicago engineers on the sewage disposal problem for Grand Haven. This report is one that is requested by the state where a copy is placed on file. The report covers the layout of the sewage mains of that city, the plans for a plant adequate for disposal of sewage from a community of this size and the pumping station necessary for the diverting of the sewage into one place rather than the three that the city uses at the present time.

While this report does not mean that the disposal plant matter has to act on immediately it does comply with the state's request that a preliminary survey be made and recorded.

City attorney Hugh Lillie reported that the $50,000 damage suit being brought against Grand Haven by the heirs of the two men who were drowned when their car drove off the end of Washington dock at the boat landing had been postponed to the next term of court.

CHURCH FOLK ARE NEAR PANIC AS AUTO BURNS

Worshippers in Graafschap Christian Reformed church were considerably disturbed during the afternoon service Sunday when, during the pastor's long prayer, a reflection of a light upon the windows gave some an impression that the church was afire, causing many to leave the building. Order was restored when it was discovered an auto parked near the church had caught fire presumably from a short circuit. The fire was extinguished.

WRECKING OF HOLLAND
'URBAN BEGINS TODAY

Work of dismantling the Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago railway line will begin at Saugatuck today according to an announcement yesterday from the local office of M. Braudy & Sons, associated with the Heyman-Michael company of Chicago, the recent purchaser at mortgage foreclosure sale. A crew of men are being assembled by a representative of the Heyman-Michael company. A part of the crew will be recruited from the territory through which the line runs, although M. Braudy & Sons have a number of experienced employees, including foremen, who have been sent to the job. One locomotive, cranes and other equipment essential to railway dismantling have been sent to Saugatuck. Several trucks may be required to complete the work.

CURIOSITY LANDS
MAN IN JAIL WHEN TROOPERS SEARCH

Joseph Uphold, 25, of Owosso was curious and today Joseph is in jail, charged with transporting liquor.

Uphold was driving from Flint to Owosso the other night with five gallons of booze in his car. Two state troopers had stopped a sugar beet truck to search it when Uphold came along.

He stopped to watch the search. The troopers, failing to find any liquor on the truck, turned upon Uphold and began a search of his car.

The liquor revealed itself. "I should have minded my own business," was the curious person's only comment as he sat in jail today.

LATEST KIND OF

CHURCH SOCIETY

The latest kind of a party is a feather party and this does not mean chickens either. It's the annual Thanksgiving entertainment given under the auspices of St. Francis de Sales Holy Name church and will be held in the church auditorium Monday evening November 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

The committee in charge has received a consignment of very fine feathers and the friends that attend the party are almost assured of a real reasonable Thanksgiving dinner.

There is going to be an elaborate program, there is no admission charge and, besides, a dainty lunch will be served free.

The announcement reads: "Everybody is invited. Bring your friends, they will be welcome and they cannot help but enjoy themselves."

COOPERSVILLE WILL PLAY ST. CHARLES
FOR STATE TITLE

The class B high school football championship of the state will be decided at Coopersville on Thanksgiving Day in a game between the Coopersville and St. Charles teams. The St. Charles team, which represents a town of about 3,000 inhabitants, won the Class B championship of the Saginaw valley and is credited with being easily the strongest team in its class in eastern Michigan.

Originally it was planned for Coopersville to play Shelby high, but Shelby cancelled. Coopersville is widely excited over the possibility of its high school team winning the state championship. By far the largest crowd that ever turned out to a game here is expected to attend.

CLUB MEMBERS GET
ANATOMY LESSON
FROM PHYSICIANDR. VANDENBERG DISSECTS
HUMAN BODY IN AFTER-DINNER SPEECH

Dr. Henry Vandenberg, one of the most eminent surgeons of the city of Grand Rapids and a son of the late Dr. J. W. Vandenberg of North Holland, and years ago a graduate of Holland High school, spoke before the members of the Exchange Club at Warm Friend Tavern yesterday noon.

After lunch the doctor was introduced by Dr. William Westrate of this city who praised the surgeon's ability in no uncertain tones and introduced him as a Holland product, who had gained fame that resounded beyond Michigan.

Dr. Vandenberg didn't mince words much but went right in to dissect the human body, in this case through illustrations rather than with a knife.

He said that surgery was not practiced much until eighty years ago under the greatest difficulty with untold suffering and with the crudest of instruments. Seventy years ago the anesthetic came into being and that was a great step in surgery.

First Chloroform was used, hypnosis was sometimes practiced, but chloroform brought the great step to the surgical age.

Sixty years ago the antiseptic method of operating was in its infancy. People died from operations at a tremendous rate caused with ignorance lack of care and unsanitary conditions. Today even during times of war there are few fatalities after operations because of sanitary methods and surgical skill.

In the olden days operation was only done when cases were acute. It was the paring way between life and death. In these cases most of them died because of lack of education and crude methods. Today for instance a gall bladder will be removed, and a doctor will also ease this saving the patient a second operation and possibly a third if a doctor finds other parts that need removing.

This can be done with perfect safety today for surgery has gone thru an evolutionary stage like the automobile and the airplane.

The surgeon today must not only be a good surgeon but he must also know how to diagnose his case, in order not to make a mistake. There is no use in cutting out an appendix when the liver or bladder needs attention.

Today the physician has the benefit of much research and has instruments to prove his case, such as the x-ray, blood testers, the metabolism system, etc., and seldom a mistake is made.

A good physician first studies his patient, watches certain developments in that patient, and then draws a conclusion.

Dr. Vandenberg cited the case of an old man who had died and the doctors in attendance were severely blamed for the man's death as they had not known the family history and the wrong operation was made. The fact of the matter is, that the man had a complication of diseases discovered after he was opened up, four of which meant sure death.

The members of the Exchange club who had just eaten a hearty meal were told that gas on the stomach does not always come from the food you eat. It may possibly be the food of the bladder, and any food may cause gas. There are three kinds of diseases, the doctor stated that are closely allied. They are for instance, gall bladder ailments, stomach ulcers and appendicitis.

The trouble in one often affects the other and it is well for a man who is constantly troubled to place his hands in the hands of a good physician.

A man's insides are like a bank account. There may be trouble there in one part or another, and there is a great margin for safety, but if not taken care of the body becomes bankrupt and there is no going into the hands of the receivers, other than the undertaker. It is a case of a stitch in time and early consultation with physicians that wards off disaster.

Mr. Vandenberg told of the wonderful work of the anesthetic and he stated, the hospitals of America save its people twelve billion dollars a year, because here lies the avenue to health if there is still hope.

A country without hospitals would be a terrible state of affairs, the doctor said.

GIBSON

Those who attended the concert arranged by Mr. Muller and Mr. De Koning at Gibson church on Friday evening, Nov. 12th enjoyed a real treat.

The program consisted of selections by seven members of the Hope Seminary Orchestra. Between these selections, the leader called on different members of the orchestra to render piano and accordion solos. The male quartette from the seminary interlarded the program with several selections.

On addition to the above there were several readings by another student from the seminary.

OTTAWA JURY
DISAGREE IN THE
RACY CASEHUDSONVILLE MAN CHARGED WITH WRONGING HIS SISTER

The very sensational and racy case of Peter Van Till from Hudsonville charged with statutory rape involving his sister Thedina, which occupied the attention of the circuit court all day Tuesday drawing in its unusualness and highly lurid detail crowds from that section of Ottawa county and Grand Haven as the case became noised around and interest became rife.

Peter Van Till took the stand and testified to his experiences. The father and the mother of the girl he is keeping company with at the present time were the ones very instrumental in bringing this case before the courts that his name, as they believed, might be cleared from the calumny with which it was besmirched.

The Van Tills are a family living in Hudsonville. The mother is dead and a step-mother seems to have had little interest in the welfare of the young people according to testimony on the stand.

Thedina, Van Till's sister, claimed to have been wronged by her brother on December 27, 1925 and alleges he was the father of her child which died within ten days after birth.

Thedina is a small flapper type of individual whose testimony would place her in a category of modern youth which would pale the most lurid and sensational literature this country seems to be at present flooded with.

Witnesses were called in plenty to establish the reputation for and against the principal but the evidences of the chief actors themselves in the case were highly sensational.

The attorneys, in their pleas were the best part of the show, slamming each other roundly.

The case went to the jury about five o'clock and they deliberated until nearly ten, but hopelessly disagreed over the verdict. Judge Cross decided it was useless to hope for a verdict and dismissed them. The case therefore will be retried or dropped according to the discretion of the prosecutor or the satisfaction of the individuals asking for prosecution.

INTERURBAN LINE IS NOW READY FOR THE WRECKERS; CARS ARE IN THE BARN

Holland feels lost today since the large interurban cars fall to appear at their principal streets. For a quarter of a century the big green coaches have been rolling thru every half hour, either one way or another, over the main arteries of travel. This morning the clang of the interurban bell was silenced and the rumble of the wheels was stilled.

At 4 o'clock this morning the last car passed thru the city on the way to the car barns at Virginia Park. Today there is not a car running over 43 miles of track extending from Grand Rapids to Saugatuck.

Many folks living near the Holland interurban who have been watching the cars daily for 25 years expressed doubt that the line would stop running. They were hoping against hope that something would turn up that would keep the condition and would keep the cars going as before. Even some bets were made that cars would be running Tuesday as usual.

Superintendent Clare Taylor of Holland stated that at least 100 men working for the Holland interurban were out of a job this morning, including himself. Mr. Taylor has been with the line for 25 years, coming with Jack Bush, Charles E. Floyd and other pioneers on the line.

Bill Byron of Holland has also been with the road for 23 years. He was a motorman the greater part of the time, but for the last few years he has been in the ticket office at Holland. Even late last night he felt that the road would continue, that something would happen at the eleventh hour. But nothing happened and he reluctantly turned the key in the desk and in the interurban waiting room door for the last time as he closed up shop at midnight.

Rekus Mulder of Holland has been with the line for 25 years and as he has a perfect record he was given the honor to pilot the last car into the barns early this morning. Mr. Brooks has entered the employ of the Goodrich Transportation company, the freight office at Grand Rapids.

"I think I have made something of a record," he said Monday. "I have worked continuously for the line since it was built, in fact, helped build it 25 years ago. I haven't lost a day and I never have been called on the carpet either," he asserted, indicating that he had never had a serious accident.

Mr. Brock's experience goes back to the heyday of the interurban when this line was a popular means of taking an outing, when families with baskets crowded the cars on Sunday and holidays. In those days the line paid well. It was a proud day for Mr. Brock and other operative employees about 10 years ago when the company added the very latest in rolling stock, then considered the last word in electric railway coaches. For several years the Holland line had the reputation of having the best equipment in the country. The coaches, which have been well kept up, are still in good condition.

During the last decade the automobile, the truck and the bus have done their deadly work in taking the cream of the business and employees have watched the volume steadily decline. One year ago the company employed one man car operation on this line, but every month has seen an entry in red on the company's ledgers.

Master mechanic George Clarke at the car barns has been with the company for more than 15 years. Charles Knowlton and Dick Bovee for 15 years, and George Caball has also been employed by the line as station manager at Forest Grove for nearly a decade.

Mr. Taylor stated that most of the 100 men laid off live at Holland, Zeeland, Virginia Park, Forest Grove and intermediate points. Of this number there are 50 in Holland 15 at Virginia Park shops, and several living in the vicinity of Holland at the resorts.

The annual payroll, Mr. Taylor states, was $150,000 at least and the taxes paid by the Holland interurban amounted to about $2,000 a month on the taxes in Holland. He did not include special taxes such as paving between tracks and maintaining streets thru which tracks are laid.

What the 100 men are going to do, Superintendent Taylor, he does not say. He stated that the men were just beginning to realize this morning that they were out of a job, for very few really thought the road would be abandoned. Mr. Taylor stated that he had made plans for the future, that he went out with the rest of the men and had nothing in sight up to this time.

The Holland interurban station on 8th street is locked up and there is no response over the telephone when the old familiar number 5139 is called.

The Holland interurban is ready for the wreckers, if it is ever wrecked.

Turning in fire alarm causes confusion

There were two alarms of fire turned in Saturday morning at 10 o'clock which caused confusion for the firemen. It appears that something got into the furnace register and started a smudge.

The result was the occupants of the home telephoned to the water works instead of pulling box 55, a half a block away. The result was the fire companies went to Goodrich boulevard instead of to 22 E. 1st St.

Chief Blom wishes to impress upon the mind of the citizens that an alarm sent in by telephone is liable to cause confusion, but an alarm sent from a box never fails to be correct.

Goodrich line will operate own busses

Goodrich Transit Co., which maintains year-round investigation of Lake Michigan, making ports as Grand Haven, Muskegon, Holland, Milwaukee and Manitowish, beginning Tuesday will operate truck service from Grand Rapids to its steamers for Chicago as a result of the decision of the Grand Rapids, Holland & Chicago railway to discontinue operation Monday night.

The steamship company according to William Alden Smith, chairman of the board, has purchased 1,000 warehouse trailers and other equipment for its service and part of the trucks and trailers will be in commission here.

The company has leased the Golden & Botter warehouse, Market-av., as the G. R. headquarters which will be in charge of John F. Van Brucklin, formerly with the Grand Trunk railway, while J. A. Johnson of Holland will have supervision of the district from Michigan City, Ind., to Muskegon, including Grand Rapids.

Holland man is honored in Grand Rapids

Paul Scholten, connected with the Associated Truck Lines, has been made president of the Associated Warehouse Company, incorporated. This company has purchased a 447 foot frontage on Market Ave., Grand Rapids, and on this large frontage, covering three streets, a warehouse will be built in which the Associated Truck Lines will operate. Their warehouse will cost in the neighborhood of $65,000 and will be so arranged that the truckers and merchants with outside freight going to Zeeland, Holland, Saugatuck, South Haven and other branches, even as far as Detroit, can unload under shelter for shipment and still have easy exit after the load has been taken off.

The large fleet of United trucks will all start from this warehouse either after receiving a full load or after taking the pickups around Grand Rapids.

This large warehouse will be a sort of clearing house for all the truck lines out of Grand Rapids belonging to this association, of which Scholten Bros. is one and is serving this vicinity.

Scholten brothers have been identified with trucking business for a number of years, starting with two trucks and with the addition of two new trucks recently purchased they will have a fleet of eleven serving this vicinity on regular schedule.

Scholten Bros. of the Associated Truck Lines have offices in Holland and naturally get their share of the business in this field as this comes thru the Associated Truck Lines.

According to a new freight tariff pamphlet just issued, the line covers nearly all of Western Michigan and extends to Indiana, and also goes to Detroit, via Lansing. There are a dozen truck companies allied with this association.

A small pox prevention drive is being held

"Prevention of serious epidemics" is the slogan of the health board that is offering the anti-toxoid treatment and the school children every year. This week the small pox prevention campaign is in progress. Last week the final treatment for diphtheria was given. Several years ago during the time of the epidemic the body was vaccinated but as new people enroll the chance is offered to them to receive this preventive treatment. When the present treatment is finished the students will be almost disease-proof.

The treatments are given at the city hall by doctors employed by the city health board. Last year the doctors came to the high school and the students were vaccinated thru the science laboratory where two doctors were kept busy preparing the treatments.

H. H. Fitzgerald, for years a reporter at Macatawa park and well known in Holland, is to build a new piece of property prior to the sale to be held at the Grand Rapids Hotel, and erect a residence on the property at a cost of approximately $75,000 was announced yesterday. The lots are each 100x324 feet in size and are located at the northeast corner of Plymouth boulevard and San Lu Rue drive, opposite the entrance of the Indian village unit of Ottawa Hills. Individual and joint owners of the piece of property prior to the sale were Cornelius Hoffius, Caroline B. Wilcox, Henry Vinke, Sarah Powers, Mr. Fitzgerald will have plans ready for his residence in a short time. The sale was made through the Fletcher Realty company.

Four Holland speakers at C. E. try-county meet

Prof. Irwin J. Lubbers of Hope college was one of the speakers at a banquet Saturday evening, given in connection with the Christian Endeavorers central-west district convention of the counties of Kent, Ottawa and Allegan, which opened Saturday afternoon in the Reformed church at Forest Grove.

Himble J. Barendse of Grand Rapids was director of the song service and music was furnished by the Gloria Trumpeters of Hope college, young peoples' chorus of the church choir and Miss Cornelia Nettinga and Ted Luidens all of Holland.

Sunday's program included a sermon by Rev. S. C. Nettinga of Western seminary in the morning, an address by Rev. J. C. Willits of the M. E. church of Holland in the afternoon and an address by Rev. H. J. Hager of Hope college in the evening. D. H. Vande Bunte also led the Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30 and Mr. Willits taught the special convention class in the Sunday school. Rev. H. J. Hager is president of the organization and presided at a business session held Saturday afternoon.

TO RAISE MONEY FOR AN ORPHAN

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Ebenezer Reformed church of Holland hopes to give a play entitled, "The Path Across the Hill," on Thanksgiving evening, Nov. 25, at 7:45, in the Fillmore "Town Hall." The male quartet of the church will furnish the music. The purpose of the play is to raise money for the support of an orphan in the Near East, when the society is educating. All the ten characters as well as the coach, Miss Ruth Mulder, are members of the church and have sacrificed a great deal of their time to make the play a success.

SAFETY COACH IS GIVEN FRANCHISE FOR HOLLAND LINE

By unanimous decision of the Michigan Public Utilities commission, the Safety Motor Coach lines of Muskegon was granted a franchise to operate a local bus line between Grand Rapids and Holland, a route over which several concerns had been seeking permission to run. The Safety Motor Coach company was given preference over the others because of it being an established Michigan institution.

In addition to granting this franchise, an old franchise, issued in May, 1925, and later sold to the Insull interests of Chicago, was revoked as well as applications being denied the Michigan Public Utilities commission. The Western Michigan Transportation company, a comparatively new firm, also sought permission to cover this territory but was denied.

The original franchise was revoked because the commission stated, no steps to render service had been taken and ample opportunity for this had been given.

Service on the new line will be inaugurated Tuesday morning, according to officials of the company. Thirteen daily round trips, with 11 on Sundays are called for in the schedule. This will mean the addition of four more coaches on that run as this route is used at present by the Grand Rapids to Chicago Greyhound division. Until this franchise was granted, however, no passengers for Holland nor points enroute could be carried.

By this new schedule the cities of Holland, Zeeland, Jamestown, Vriesland, Hudsonville and Grandville will be served, but no local passengers between Grand Rapids and Grandville can be accommodated, the franchise stated, in justice to bus lines now operating between these points.

The Holland terminal will be the Greyhound station located in Warm Friend Tavern, and the Grand Rapids terminal will be located at the Rowe and Crathmore hotels.

The new daily schedule is as follows:

The first bus leaves the Rowe hotel at 5:15 a. m. The remainder of the schedule is as follows: a. m., 6:15, 7:05, 8:05, 9:05, 10:05; p. m., 12:05, 2:05, 4:05, 6:05, 8:05 and 10:50. Coaches leaving at 5:15 a. m., 6:15 a. m., 8:05 a. m., 9:05 a. m., 12:05 p. m., 2:05 p. m., 4:05 p. m., and 10:50 p. m. will go through Jamestown and Vriesland. Other coaches will make all stops along the M-51 route. Coaches leaving at 7:05 a. m., 9:05 a. m., and 2:05 p. m., make connections at Holland for Chicago. Coach leaving at 5:05 p. m. makes connections for South Haven.

The return schedule, Holland to Grand Rapids, is as follows: a. m., 7:15, 8:45, 10:30, 12:30, 2:30, 4:30, 6:30, 8:30 and 10:30.

FORMER CITY EMPLOYE DIES

J. Hendrik Wassink, aged 76, died Friday afternoon at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Wassink, R. R. 11. Mr. Wassink was a bachelor who has been living in or near Holland for many years. He was born in Germany and came to this country 45 years ago. For many years he was an employee of the board of public works in Holland. He is survived by his sister-in-law and several nephews and nieces.

The funeral was held Monday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. John Wassink and at 1:30 at the Pine Creek Christian Reformed church, Rev. R. Posthumus officiating. Interment was in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

GRAAFSCHAP COUPLE TO CELEBRATE 60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Saturday saw Mr. and Mrs. Hendrikus R. Bouwman celebrating their sixtieth wedding anniversary at their home in the quiet little village of Graafschap. They still are attending the Christian Reformed church, the same in which they were married by Rev. D. VanderWerf.

They came to America in 1865 and have spent most of the ensuing years in Graafschap.

WESTERN SOCIAL CONFERENCE TO MEET IN HOLLAND

Rev. C. H. Spaan of Grand Rapids has been booked as one of the speakers at the Western Social conference, which will convene in Semelink Family hall in Holland next Monday. Mr. Spaan will present his paper on "The Mission and His Books" for the second time by request.

The Holland classis in the Reformed church in America will convene on the same day a special session for the examination of students requesting aid from the board.

The consistorial union of Holland classis, representing eight churches, will meet Tuesday evening, in Seventh Reformed church, Rev. John E. Kuitzen, president of Western seminary, will speak.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Ebenezer Reformed church of Holland will stage the play, "The Path Across the Hill," on Thanksgiving evening in Fillmore town hall. The proceeds will be devoted toward the support of an orphan in the Near East.

AT GIBSON

Eight miles south of Holland, just off from M-11, stands the little Gibson church. This community has been served in Sunday school and recently in church services by local men and women, mostly from Third Reformed church and the local seminary.

Friday night a special program of music and readings was put on to entertain the Gibson people. Third church people kindly donated their cars and seminary students supplied the program. Orchestra and quartet numbers, solos, and readings made a great hit with the inhabitants of the peaceful community. They were not slow in expressing their appreciation of the program and of the Sunday work there. Mr. Ren Mulder presided at the program.

MILES LEAVES COUNTY OFFICE AT END OF TERM

The Grand Haven Tribune, in Thursday's issue, devoted nearly a column to the outgoing and incoming prosecutors of Ottawa county who are both Holland men. The Grand Haven paper tells the story in this manner:

"The ringing voice of Fred T. Miles prosecutor of Ottawa county, is being heard for the last time this term in behalf of the people of Ottawa county and the familiar figure who has championed the cause of the people of the state of Michigan or prosecuted the criminal cases will not longer be seen occupying the prosecutor's seat at this term of court."

At the suggestion of Mr. Miles with Judge Cross' confirmation, Clarence C. Lokker has been made assistant prosecutor until January 1st when he by right of having been the people's choice at the last election, steps into the prosecutor's office. Mr. Miles made this suggestion in order that Mr. Lokker may thoroughly familiarize himself with the duties of the office that he receives all the help and assistance from Mr. Miles that he needs, so that there will be no trying times in the changing of officers, thereby saving the county extra expense and annoyance to patrons.

Mr. Lokker comes to this office with splendid recommendations for the position and an earnest endeavor to prosecute and further the people's cause. He is a young man of about 35 years, a graduate of the Holland city schools Hope college and the University of Michigan law school. For seven years he was associated in the office of his uncle, G. J. Diekema, and for the past three years has been in partnership with Jay DenHerdter. His ten years practical experience makes him a very well fitted man to carry on the duties of the prosecutor's office.

"Mr. Lokker made his first plea in the Mack case this week and demonstrated to all who heard him that he has ability in presenting his case. His earnest manner, expressive of a deep interest in the welfare of the community made a deep impression on the jury, it was very evident."

"Mr. Miles retires from this office after ten years of faithful, conscientious service to this county, many times being the storm center of public opinion, many times having to take stands that possibly were not to his liking, but endeavoring to prosecute offenders from the standpoint of law transgression."

"During his regime the Volstead act was enforced, making this office one of particular stress and he has made it his business, to particularly make the sale, possession and manufacture of liquor a pretty hard thing to get away with in this county. The Robinson case recently recorded in the Del Port news as sheriff with his sensational, all have made this one of the most colorful and spectacular term of office that this county has seen."

"Mr. Miles retires with the satisfaction of having had the largest vote of any county officer at the last election which he entered. From the time of his first entry into the political game he has steadily increased in popularity, the last total vote being over 6,000."

"Mr. Miles will engage in private practice in Holland and frankly admits that for a time he is going to be completely lost without the routine of the prosecutor's office to attend to."

DRINKS 62 CUPS OF COFFEE, TAKES BELT OF WORLD CHAMPION

Gust Comstock, 30, a barber shop porter, of Fergus Falls, Minn., drank himself into a new world's championship, consuming 62 cups of coffee, defeating 11 competitors who passed out at the run at the 27th cup shortly before noon.

Barbers gave Comstock a championship belt studded with 62 coffee beans 56 of which represent previous records established two years ago. Thursday he attended a banquet. He finished the contest in good condition, after 12 hours of drinking, which started at 7 a. m.

Comstock entered the match with special training, which included the drinking of 20 cups a day. No sugar and a little cream was added to each cup to aid the flavoring. During the American Legion Annual day parade "Thursday," the champion was assigned to a special automobile.

"STAR ROUTE" MAIL CONTRACT IS AWARDED

The contract for carrying the mail by "star route" from Holland to Douglas has been awarded to Ronald W. Rosie, Macatawa garage man. This is a temporary service that has been established to take care of the mail formerly carried by the Holland interurban and it began today. After a time it is expected that the service will be placed on a yearly contract basis.

There will be one service between Holland and Douglas and intervening points each way each day. The mail truck will leave Holland at nine o'clock in the forenoon, arriving at Macatawa at 9:15, at Saugatuck at ten o'clock and at Douglas at 10:15.

The truck will leave Douglas at four in the afternoon, arriving at Saugatuck at 4:15, Macatawa at five o'clock, Holland at 5:15.

Arrangements have been made whereby mail that formerly left Holland for Grand Rapids on the interurban at 7:50 in the morning will be diverted to the pouch on the new Saugatuck leaving Holland at five o'clock in the morning. Thus if anyone has a letter he wishes to reach Grand Rapids on the first mail in the forenoon he can place it in the corner box at the post office before 4:30 in the morning and it will go on the five o'clock train.

"UNCLE JOE" IS TAKEN BY DEATH AT AGE OF NINETY

News was received at Holland by radio Friday night that "Uncle Joe" Cannon, at one time speaker of the house at Washington, had passed away at his home in Danville Illinois at the age of ninety years.

Weakening of the heart muscles caused his death but the general depredations of old age had warned his family several months ago that the end was near. He told comrades in the national house when he quit its halls in 1922 that he was going home to die, home to the rambling brown brick mansion which he built years ago for his bride, who preceded him to the grave.

After his retirement from congress he continued his daily walks downtown and the most cartooned face in America was daily visible behind the brown curtains of the Second National bank, which he helped found. But several months ago he was forced to forego his daily walks, and he turned to a daily motoring outing, which he continued until a few weeks ago. His mind faded with his body and he could recall but dimly after his 90th birthday last May the scenes with which his long congressional service were vivid.

Not wanting memory, however, could keep him inactive and his last public act a months ago was to turn the sod for a new church for the St. James Methodist Episcopal congregation.

Born a Quaker, he joined the Methodist church after leaving congress and each Sunday until recent weeks found him at the new church where he had occupied throughout his lifetime in Danville.

An air of reverence settled over the city as news of his death spread. Danville had known for months that its foremost citizens had not long to live and it had filled with honor his declining days.

His 90th birthday was made a civic holiday and he was a guest of the Kiwanis club to which he belonged. He did not try to speak but he stood behind the mammoth birthday cake tilted his picturesque hat at the accustomed angle and smiled genially above his chin whiskers while photographers made a record of the occasion.

He even inserted a cigar between his teeth to make complete the resemblance to the Cannon of old, although he had largely abandoned smoking in his later days and had substituted mild cigars for the stogies which were recognized thruout the land as a part of the Cannon plate.

(As speaker Mr. Cannon knew how to control a turbulent body. Holding the gavel in his left hand—for he was left handed—he gave the alab of his desk a glancing blow that sounded like a cannon shot, and brought unruly members to attention. Curses frequently were flung at him as members surged out of the chamber but invariably he smiled and smoothed the ruffled feelings of a member denied recognition by having his chair before him was Cannon's way, and while they hated him in the chair, they loved him in the lobby.)

"Uncle Joe's" features were often said to be of the Lincoln type. From ears to chin he wore a fringe of close-cropped beard, the upper lip clean shaved.

Hon. Joseph Cannon was speaker of the house at Washington longer than any man before him or since.

TRUCK BURGLARS ENTER EIGHTH STREET STORE AND GET AWAY WITH MUCH LOOT

The new firm of Mead & Westrate, dry goods dealers, who opened up in the new Meyer building recently, suffered a big loss thru burglary. A well organized gang of professionals ran a truck into the dark alley back of the store sometime during Thursday night or Friday morning and loaded up with expensive dresses, coats and other articles from the new store.

The burglars entered thru a rear window which had not been safeguarded by locks and bars, since the building is hardly completed, the firm having moved in before the contractor had finished his work. When the proprietors of the store opened up Friday morning a hasty inventory showed that sixty silk and woolen dresses, twenty cloth and fur-trimmed ladies' coats, 15 Paragon and Marshall-Field ladies' rain coats, assorted colors were gone. Burglars even took in nice new cash register, mahogany color, the number being 25,77157. There may be more goods missing for only a hurried inventory could be taken.

Chief Van Rye has offered $50 reward to anyone who can give information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the burglars. He has wired every city along the main highways as well as Chicago, giving a list and description of the goods stolen.

This particular alley is unlighted and a "cave" going in with high heels could not be seen. Police believe it is an organized gang that has been raiding stores in other cities and unless caught red-handed these truck-load thieves are difficult to capture after they leave a mark of operation, because of the many other trucks on the highways with which the burglars soon mingle after their work is done.

It is stated that the loss, which falls heavily on the new firm, will be not less than $2,000, and as one of the managers stated, "We have every other form of insurance but no burglar insurance."

Friday noon the cash register was found in a ditch near Zeeland, seeming to indicate that the robbers had gone in that direction in making their get-away. The cash register was damaged to some extent but was returned to the local store.

LEGION TO TAKE ANOTHER TRY AT THEATRICALS

The local post of the American Legion has decided to take another fling in theatricals by staging a minstrel revue at the Holland theatre about the middle of December.

According to all reports, this promises to be one of the highlights of the year in amateur theatricals, owing to the fact that the Willard G. Leenhouts Post has secured the services of the John E. Rogers Producing Co. of Foresta, Ohio, who are well known producers of minstrel shows.

This minstrel revue is said to be not only elaborately and scenically equipped but contains many novelties which will be new to Holland. Commander Knapp has organized a named his committee to manage this production, and John "Dugan" Van Vyven is working on the cast, the fun producer part of which he expects personally to take.

The success of last year's Legion minstrel show, produced by the same people, assures Holland people of another clean, high grade entertainment.

ALLEGAN MAN HAS A PAUL REVERE LANTERN

Ernest C. Hunter of Allegan has obtained possession of a lantern similar in construction to that carried by Paul Revere on his memorable night when he rode to awaken the colonists and call them to arms. Hunter's lantern is upwards of 100 years old.

LITTLE BOY IS BURNED TO DEATH UNDER BIG AUTO

A frightful accident occurred Sunday noon about a mile south of the Vandenberg Bros windmill station on the Saugatuck road. Jerry Buijwit and his 11-year-old son Herman, who were driving from Chicago to Muskegon, ran off the highway and the machine, a large Haines touring car, ran into a mudhole at the side of the road. The car was completely thrown clear of the machine but the unfortunate little son, who was pinned under the machine, was soon covered with gasoline which took fire.

The screams of the boy brought the father to his side but he was unable to budge the heavy car and in a frenzy ran to a neighboring house and got help, but by that time many machines had stopped and the heavy Haines car was lifted high enough to take the burning boy from under the wreck. Volunteer helpers extinguished the fire in his clothing and he was made as comfortable as possible until an ambulance from Holland took him to Holland hospital where physicians were called to give aid.

The young lad was so terribly burned that he died shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. His legs were practically burned to a crisp, one arm was also badly burned, and he suffered many face and body burns.

The body was taken to the Nibbelink-Notter morgue awaiting instructions from Sheriff Lugten of Allegan county and Coroner Benson, also of Allegan, who were here making an investigation. After this has been done, no doubt a coroner's jury will be drawn to go into the matter.

The father claims that he was going at a slow rate of speed, but this seems rather doubtful since the car went end over end and did not turn turtle sideways as is so often the case.

Hundreds of people from Holland went to the wreck at the roadside that was still burning last night. Nothing remains of the large car but some twisted iron framework.

Mr. Buijwit, who is a Pole, lives at 448 Lakewood Ave., Chicago. The car had an Indiana license but it is stated that the home is in a Chicago suburb near Hammond, Indiana.

One person whose name was not learned was praised today by another who arrived at the scene. He was a motorist in an Essex coach and disregarding everything he got down into the mud, rubbing his clothes, in an effort to aid. He was also the first to offer to rush the injured boy to the hospital in his car. His spirit of helpfulness won the hearty praise of at least one person who asked that it be given recognition.

SAYS COOLIDGE, IF HE WISHES, CAN BE NOMINEE

That Coolidge will be the Republican nominee in 1928 if he wants the nomination; that in case Coolidge withdraws, Louder of Illinois has a very good chance; that Borah will try for it but will not make the grade—these were some of the predictions made by G. J. Diekema in a very interesting and eloquent address on the subject "1928," before the Century club Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McLean. Mr. Diekema declared that in his opinion Al Smith would have no chance for the Democratic nomination but that if Al Smith went into the convention with a majority, the chances were that the rule would be superseded by the majority rule and then he would have a very good chance at the nomination. Mr. Diekema mentioned the other present Democratic aspirants but he made no positive prediction as to what their relative standing would be in 1928, confining himself with saying that at the present moment Al Smith is the favorite.

Mr. Diekema opened his address with some predictions about members of the Century club and followed this with a consideration of the crime problem in America, asserting that the home, the church and the school have in a measure failed in dealing with this problem. These institutions have begun to realize that they have failed and are making efforts to recover their lost ground. By 1928, the speaker said, this movement will be in full swing.

Speaking of the wet and dry issue, Mr. Diekema predicted that by 1928 the country would be ready for a general referendum on this question. He based this prediction on the outcome of the state elections on the liquor question this month.

Turning from domestic problems and domestic politics to the international situation, Mr. Diekema pointed out that there are at present two major currents in the world that must fill every thinking man with considerable concern. These currents are parliamentary government and autocracy. There seems to be a reaction in many lands, Italy as a chief example, where parliamentary government seems to be in eclipse and where autocracy is in the saddle. Granting that a dictatorship for the moment, said the speaker, what is leading to? Where is Mussolini leading his people and what trouble is he preparing for the world? The Kaiser's regime, also meant a dictatorship for Germany but all the time he was preparing tragedy for his country and for the world. Parliamentary government, when looked at on a world scale, seems to have lost ground, said Mr. Diekema, but he predicted that by 1928 the tide would have begun to run in the opposite direction.

The address was a highly interesting excursion into prophecy, and it was prophetic that was solidly based on known elements of today, making it altogether reasonable.

The music was in charge of Miss Kittle Doesburg. A new talent was introduced to the club in the person of Felix Moser who played a violin solo, "A Theme and Variations" by de Periot. Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte charmingly sang "One Day" from "Madam Butterfly," and "Now Falls the Crimson Petal," by Quilter. Mrs. Martha Robbins was the accompanist for both artists.

OTTAWA GIRL INJURED TWICE IN SHORT TIME

Agnes De Kline of Forest Grove, freshman in the Zeeland high school, has figured in two accidents since opening of school and is forced to go about on crutches. The first injury was received when she was stabbed in her arm by a classmate following an altercation and it required several stitches to close the wound. Then she slipped on a wet board fracturing a bone in her right ankle.

TWO ZEELAND PASTORS QUIT POSTS THIS MONTH

Zeeland churches will lose two of their pastors this month. Rev. D. R. Drukker November 21 will preach his farewell sermon of the 3rd Chr. Ref. church and Rev. Van Vessum will sever his pastoral relations at the First Chr. Reformed on Nov. 28. Drukker will go to Passaic, N. J. and Van Vessum will locate at Comstock.

Both ministers are veterans in the service. Drukker was ordained in 1892 and has served six churches while Van Vessum was ordained in 1887 and has served eight fields. Drukker has served his present congregation eight years and Van Vessum his field eleven years.

THE POST OFFICE CLERKS ARE HOSTS SATURDAY NIGHT

The post office clerks of the Holland post office were hosts Saturday night to a delightful dinner given by the clerks to give aid.

The young lad was so terribly burned that he died shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. His legs were practically burned to a crisp, one arm was also badly burned, and he suffered many face and body burns.

The address was a highly interesting excursion into prophecy, and it was prophetic that was solidly based on known elements of today, making it altogether reasonable.

The music was in charge of Miss Kittle Doesburg. A new talent was introduced to the club in the person of Felix Moser who played a violin solo, "A Theme and Variations" by de Periot. Mrs. D. B. K. Van Raalte charmingly sang "One Day" from "Madam Butterfly," and "Now Falls the Crimson Petal," by Quilter. Mrs. Martha Robbins was the accompanist for both artists.

HOLLAND MILITARY CO. AIDS IN G. H. CELEBRATION

Holland was well represented at the Grand Haven armistice day. It was rather a colorful observance of the day and an elaborate program was staged.

After a morning of preparation and activity, business houses and factories closed and Grand Haven folk went to the harbor, where a demonstration was given by National guardsmen from Grand Haven, Grand Rapids, Muskegon and Holland.

Members of Co F of Grand Haven city were joined by the guards from Muskegon headquarters company and the howitzer company and Co. M of Grand Rapids, Co. D of Holland and the Muskegon machine gun company. In the afternoon the guardsmen paraded the downtown section headed by the 31st band and followed by Spanish Legion units and a large delegation from the American Legion.

Company D, some sixty strong, headed by Capt. Geerds, left the city early by trucks, also containing machine guns and other fighting equipment.

About 3 o'clock the guardsmen were in a position on Harbor avenue with machine guns, automatic rifles and howitzers trained on the snow-capped hills across the harbor. Guns started and the intermittent boom of the howitzers was filled in with the steady rattle of machine gun and automatic rifle fire.

A long line of balloons on the shore across the harbor soon were unstruck and another line on one of the hill ridges was lowered down one by one by the howitzer company. These balloons were to represent an enemy skirmish line. Firing was directed by officers communicating by means of field telephone erected in haste by the headquarters company.

In the evening the guardsmen were guests at a smoker and later at a dance under the auspices of the local unit.

HEALTH VITAL SAYS DOCTOR TO STUDENTS

"If you are going to be healthy and live straight and be right, you must pay the price," Dr. Leenhouts told the high school students at the final assembly in observance of American Education Week. Friday was physical education day and Dr. Leenhouts, well-known to all the school, gave a short talk on health, combining in a few words many vital things pertaining to this wide subject.

"We cannot be efficient in life without health," he said, impressing upon the students the necessity for an abundant supply of energy and strength.

"Physical education in the schools merely steers the child in the right channels and does supply sufficient play and exercise for the growing youth." To the youth who does not get his required hours of sleep he said, "If you violate the laws of rest, it will be all right for a time but later we pay dearly for our carelessness. A foundation of simple, correct health habits formed in youth will do away with many illnesses of later life. The slogan of the medical profession today is, 'Keep your hands clean before eating,' since much trouble is caused by infection resulting from this source."

Hendrik J. Klompars, 83, prominent resident of Hamilton since 1847, died of the flu at his daughter, Mrs. Alice Brower, in that village, Friday afternoon. He had filled many positions in Allegan county, having been register of deeds and county supervisor and chairman for several terms. He long was active in county Republican circles.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Fannie Stegink of Muskegon and Mrs. Brower, and one son, Albert J. of Hamilton, as well as a brother, John, of Hamilton. Funeral services will be held at the home and at the Hamilton First Reformed church at 1:30 Tuesday.

Humphrey, of Los Angeles, California, travels all over the United States and he is looked upon as the bishop of every mission in which he hangs his hat, no matter where it may be. He helps out and stirs mission to renewed enthusiasm wherever he goes.

TAKES AGENCY FOR NEW RADIATOR FLUID

Claude Wheaton of this city has taken the agency, both wholesale and retail, for "Polar-O," a new non-freezing radiator fluid. This fluid is a new conception manufactured by the Polar-O Company of Grand Rapids and it is being rapidly put upon the market. It is said to be non-evaporative, non-explosive, odorless and harmless. The fluid is made for that one filling lasts the entire season. Unlike alcohol, it is not mixed with water in the radiator but takes the place of water, the entire radiator being filled with it.

With some 225 men and women and even one baby seated at the banquet board, the Armistice day program of the Willard G. Leenhouts post, American Legion, was held in the armory Thursday night. It was the first time the banquet was held there and the place proved ideal for such an event. There was plenty of room and a most delightful banquet was served by the ladies of Trinity church. It was a happy event and the impressive affair vividly recalled the anxious days of war.

After the invocation by Chaplain John Vander Ploeg and the serving of the meal a surprise was staged when Toastmaster Al Van Lente announced a vocal solo by W. E. Andre. Mr. Andre is a newcomer in Holland and has made Holland his home. He sang not only one solo but was forced by the applause of the audience to go on and on until he was nearly exhausted.

Toastmaster Van Lente handled his part in the program well and introduced each speaker with some apt anecdote. Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, representing the Auxiliary, was the first speaker. Mrs. Van Duren revealed herself as a clever story teller but she also mingled the serious with the comic and made a stirring plea for the Auxiliary. She pointed out that the Auxiliary has already collected $2,000 by entertainments of various kinds for a war memorial. She said that no memorial can adequately honor what the service men did for America and for the community but that the Auxiliary is making every effort to secure a memorial that can at least suggest that service to future generations.

G. Van Schelven represented the A. C. Van Raalte Post, G. A. R. Mr. Van Schelven was the only member of that post present at the banquet. He declared that comparisons between 1861 and 1917 were highly interesting but somewhat out of place at a gathering of this kind. There were great similarities as well as great contrasts, he said, but in the case of both wars the object was the same and the spirit in which the men fought was essentially the same. He called upon the Legion to keep up its organization, not for self-glorification but to safeguard American institutions, to save the community. He fielded a sermon by a pacifist and repudiated its sentiment, declaring that although everybody abhors war, there are some wars that are necessary and no one can ever say that any apology is needed either for the Civil war or for the World war.

Mr. T. Eastman, representing the Spanish War veterans, gave an address in which he recalled the part played by the men who went to the defense of the country in 1898. He also urged greater respect for the flag and advised training in etiquette of the flag.

Jack Knoll, former commander of the Legion, made a plea to the service men themselves, for a larger membership of the Legion pointing out that there are many who are eligible but do not yet belong to the Legion.

After John Ter Beek had given a number of vocal solos Captain H. A. Geerds, representing the National Guard, declared that there was significance that the war had stopped at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. It was symbolic of the fact, he said, that civilization had been saved in the nick of time. And he declared that it served as a reminder that the nation at the eleventh hour on the question of preparedness.

Con De Pree, in an informal talk, recalled the first armistice day when America and the world went wild with joy and indulged in a delirious riot. He said that he had never witnessed before and would never witness again. He paid a tribute to Mrs. G. J. Van Duren and said her services deserved to be remembered a thousand years. He recalled the services of the men of the Civil war and of the men of the Spanish war and declared that while all these wars were different the spirit of America was the same in all of them, the spirit that does not give up and the spirit of good humor in trying circumstances. He paid a nice and appropriate tribute to the Legion by service men first of all but by all citizens, declaring that the Legion has won the reverence of the American people and that the organization must make it its aim in life to continue to merit that regard by working unselfishly for the community and for the nation. He illustrated the strength there is in united effort by quoting Kipling's poem about the law of the jungle that the strength of the wolf is the pack.

At this point in the ceremonies another surprise was staged when the toastmaster called on Dr. Wm. Westrate for a speech. In responding, Dr. Westrate called on Earnest Brooks, Dr. Wm. M. Tappan and Ben. Deventer to arise. In the name of the Legion he commended these three past commanders for their untiring services for the Legion and presented them each with a past-commander's badge.

Al C. Joldersma, who at the fifth time at an American Legion banquet, presented a "budget" under the title, "Bursts and Duds." A large number of the service men and guests were subjected to the wit and humor of the speaker and added zest was given to this festive year by reason of the recent battle over the armory lot. Mr. Joldersma called the conflict "The Battle of 11," eleven years, and he told of the installation of a red and blue light system on each aldermanic desk, one calling for a "yes" vote and one for a "no," operated from a single desk. Many another good-natured joke was pointed at the recent conflict.

H. Landwehr was the last speaker on the program, his subject being "Business War and Business Peace." He declared that the perpetuation of peace should be the great business of the future. Pointing out that the war had cost the world 311 billions of dollars and many millions of lives, he declared that war has become so destructive that in mere self-defense the civilization must find other ways of settling disputes. He sketched the probable methods of civilization that will spell disaster to civilization, and he said such ruin must be prevented.

Not peace at any price but peace for the preservation of the world, he declared, must be the study of the future. And the trend is already in that direction, Business is building its foundations on faith in the future sanity of the world in avoiding a repetition of the World war and the idea must be implanted in the mind of everybody that in the long run only the righteous nation can endure. Love of home, popular education and real citizenship are the three essentials of national progress and the Legion has a great work to promote these three principles. He called upon the Legion to stand together to do for the country in peace the same thing it did for the

The four present were Mrs. De Vries, Mrs. Leenhouts, Mrs. Bliss and Mrs. Weed, and each of them was presented with a bouquet of at 10 a. m. Thanksgiving day.

EVERY GIRL TO BE ADMITTED FOR ATHLETICS

Last night at a meeting of the business and professional women's club it was decided to open the athletic department of the club to every girl interested in athletics in the city of Holland. An invitation is open to all business girls, not members of the club, to all factory girls and to girls of any other employment.

Holland has long needed an organization of this kind in the absence of a Y. W. C. A. Heretofore membership in the athletic class has been limited to members of the girls' business club only, but they realizing that other girls not in the club might be interested and benefitted thereby, will sponsor this organization. Miss Beatrice Osborne has kindly consented to instruct the class.

Miss Francis De Weerd has been appointed general chairman. Tickets for ten classes at a special rate are on sale and can be purchased by any girl interested. A committee will canvass the city in an endeavor to reach every girl and it is hoped that this organization may be developed into something worthwhile that will benefit every working girl in Holland.

SPRING LAKE MAN FATALLY INURED AT GRAND HAVEN

Harry Edward Anderson, who with a party of friends went out for a Sunday boat ride in the 36 foot launch "Good Luck," met with a frightful accident in the big lake about 200 feet beyond the Grand Haven piers.

Harry Anderson, Robert Snay and Nielson Anderson and a party of other friends from Spring Lake and Ferrisburg had taken out the cruiser of C. W. Merkle of Hastings, who was not present but is a summer resorter at Spring Lake, and started for a trip to Lake Michigan. They had gotten just beyond the harbor's mouth into big lake when the occupants of the boat, eight of them, including two women, saw Harry Anderson fall overboard. He got tangled in some ropes and as the boat proceeded he was dragged back of the launch and whirled into the propeller wheel.

Those in the boat were so surprised, and horrified that they forgot to shut off the engine and it was Anderson's cries that made them come to. After much difficulty and with the help of the members of the Grand Haven coast guards, the unfortunate man was taken to a dock nearby and the police ambulance rushed him to Hutton hospital, where he died soon afterward.

It was found that both of Anderson's feet had been cut off at the ankles and that his legs were badly mutilated by the blades up to the hips. The young man was conscious while he was on the dock in blankets after he had been taken from the water.

Anderson has been employed at a Grand Haven factory for twelve years and is the son of Mrs. Katherine Anderson of Spring Lake.

Coroner Gilbert Van de Water of Holland was called to Grand Haven late Sunday afternoon and not only was a coroner's jury drawn but a thorough investigation is to be made. The jury selected were E. H. Nixon, Sam Fuller and George Mulder of Spring Lake, Sidney Justina, Henry Chasmer and Jacob Poel of Grand Haven. The jury was sworn in Monday morning and will meet the latter part of this week.

Anderson is survived by his mother, two sisters, Miss Hilda and Mrs. French of Spring Lake, and two brothers, Carl of Detroit and William of Muskegon.

Nielson Anderson spoken of as one of the occupants of the boat, is no relation to the unfortunate man.

William H. Silvers, 70, died on Thursday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harvey Watson, of Conklin. Funeral services were held from the residence of the daughter Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Burial was in Marne.

GIRLS CLUBS ARE TO BE ORGANIZED

Miss Ruth Featherly, organizer of the Boys and Girls clubs from Michigan State College, has been in this vicinity where she has been conducting training centers for Grand Haven leaders at Coopersville and Zeeland.

There will be twelve of these clubs established in Ottawa county this winter where things of particular interest to growing girls will be fostered and planned for.

TWO BOARDS ARE APPOINTED BY THE MAYOR SATURDAY

Mayor Nick Kammeraad Saturday made two important announcements in regard to the appointment of members of boards authorized some time ago by the common council. One of these is the delegation that will represent the city of Holland at the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington. Holland is each year represented at this congress by two men. This year Mayor Kammeraad has appointed G. J. Diekema and City Attorney C. H. Mc Bride. They will go to Washington to help work out the general policies for water transportation that the National Rivers and Harbors Congress is back of. Mr. Diekema has been on this delegation for a number of years and last year he was chosen head of the Michigan delegation.

The other announcement coming from the mayor's office today was the appointment of members on the city playground commission. This commission was authorized by the common council several weeks ago and Mayor Kammeraad has taken his time to make the appointments feeling that the commission is a very important one and that it will mean a great deal to the city of Holland. The plan is to have the commission work out a general supervised playgrounds policy for Holland and to have the work in such shape by next spring when the long vacation begins that it can be applied to the playgrounds then.

By provisions of the resolution passed by the common council, the commission is to be made up of five aldermen and four other citizens.

As council members Mayor Kammeraad has appointed Andrew Hyman chairman, Charles Dykstra, Arthur Drinkwater, Alex Van Zanten, and Oscar Peterson. He has appointed two members of the board of education, feeling that that board ought to be represented. These two are Dr. A. Leenhouts and George Mool. The other two members of the commission appointed by the mayor are C. J. McLean and Earnest Brooks.

OTTAWA CO. HAS 143 CRIPPLED CHILDREN NOW

Numbered among the 47660 inhabitants of Ottawa county are at least 143 crippled children who, if found, can be treated and partially or completely cured.

This is the estimate of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children, with headquarters established for the past five years in Ann Arbor. Starting Thanksgiving week, the organization will make an appeal for members to all of Michigan—its men, women and children. Ottawa is expected to enroll 1430 members, which is ten persons for each crippled child. The society expects to start in an aggressive manner a movement that will, it is expected, place Michigan among the first in finding and caring for its crippled youngsters. County chapters are being organized to this end, all over the state.

One dollar will purchase a year's membership which will finance the local work and assist with the statewide program. The general movement deals with preventing conditions which create new cripples and bringing educational facilities to those now receiving care.

Sometime ago the Holland Rotary club sponsored a clinic for crippled children, under the chairmanship of Dr. R. H. Nichols. Forty-nine cases were examined at the clinic held May 28, 1926. At present B. P. Donnelly is chairman of crippled children's work in Ottawa. The county chapter when organized will assist with this work and strengthen it by making its needs generally understood.

Hugh E. Van de Walker, Ypsilanti, is president of the Michigan chapter. Paul H. King, Detroit, is treasurer, and Miss Alberta Chase, Ann Arbor, executive secretary.

TELLS OF TRIP TO EUROPE

Last evening one of the largest and most interesting meetings of the business and professional women's club was held in the literary club rooms. The president, Miss Geneva Van Lente, called the meeting to order and reports were given by the corresponding secretary, Miss Marguerite Huntley, and by the treasurer, Miss Jeanne Baker.

Miss Beatrice Osborne, formerly of this city now teaching in Grand Rapids, talked for a few minutes on the needs and benefits of athletics. Miss Mary Pieper interestingly told of her summer spent in Europe.

A short play, entitled "Why Not Tell the Truth?" was very ably given by Miss Mildred Slagh, Miss Stella Mol, Miss Jean De Koster and Miss Georgia Atwood. Delicious refreshments were served by the social committee.

The Fox and the Mask

A Fox had by some means strayed into the store-room of a theatre. Suddenly he observed a face glaring down on him, and Mr. Fox began to be very frightened; but looking more closely he found it was only a Mask, such as actors use to put over their faces. "Ah," said the Fox, "You look very fine; but there is nothing behind you."

THE MYSTERIOUS 'KING' BENJAMIN HAS BEEN CAUGHT

Benton Harbor, Nov. 17.—Benjamin Purnell, fugitive "king" of the House of David, religious cult, missing for four years, was captured Tuesday by Michigan state police.

Arrested with the "king" were two men and three women, one of whom was identified as Myrtle Tulk, who disappeared with Purnell in 1922.

The identity of Purnell is established beyond doubt, state police said.

The arrest was made in a house known as the administration building, which stands back about 100 yards from the road, in a natural screen of shrubbery and trees.

Purnell moved into this house, according to Mrs. Bessie Woodworth, who accompanied the raiders, shortly after the charges of immorality were brought against him.

The lane leading to the house was closed, state police being forced to drive their cars in over the lawns.

Entrance to the house was gained by crashing in windows and doors with axes and clubs.

Accompanying the raiders was a young girl and her husband, who, they say, were married at the order of "King" Ben.

The raiders had assembled at the state police station at "King" Purnell's residence in Paw Paw, carrying to the scene of the raid an automobile load of floodlights, which they planned to use in examining the scene and to prevent escape of the inmates of the houses on the grounds.

First information of the plans made for the raid came shortly before the officers started from their station in Paw Paw. Arrangements were made carefully and in secret to avoid a slip-up and allow the escape of the fugitive leader if he was in hiding with his people.

Telegrams were exchanged between state officials on Lansing and Fort Worth, Tex., police Tuesday, when Fort Worth officials reported the arrest of a man suspected to be Purnell. The man was released when identification failed.

The state had received many tips relative to the missing "king" from various sections of the world, all of which have proved wills of the wisp.

The raid was the first active move made by the state against the colony for three years. A raid was carried out several years ago in co-operation with county officers but members of the cult were aware of the plans and were waiting to receive the officers when they arrived at the colony grounds.

Purnell was believed to have fled the state in 1922, after warrants charging him with assault on girl inmates of the colony had been issued. In addition to criminal

MAYTAG FESTIVAL TO BE GIVEN AT W. L. C.

A Maytag festival will be held in the W. L. C. hall on Friday evening, Nov. 19, at eight o'clock. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of De Vries & Dornbos. The following program will be given: selection, Van Duren's orchestra; address, Van Duren; singing by a male quartet; selection, Van Duren orchestra; reading, Miss Ethelyn Metz; singing by male quartet; Gulbranson registering piano; selection by Van Duren's orchestra; stereoscopic views, Maytag slides; address, punch and cigars.

The Royal Neighbors will give a card party at their hall on Friday afternoon. All friends are invited.

charges pending against him, Purnell is named by the state in connection with receivership suits started against the colony.

The state charges that Benjamin and his wife, Mary, converted valuable property to their own use; that they thus far fraudulently secured control of property valued "in excess of $50,000"; that the colony has in effect set up its own government, which it holds to be greater than the state; that members have been deluded by conveying property to Purnell by "fantastic promises of immortality"; and that immoral acts were induced and permitted under the guise of religious discipline.

The state is now attempting to throw the colony into a receivership and dissolve its membership.

The girl who accompanied the raiders, Bessie Woodworth, told officers and Judge Harry J. Dingeman of Detroit, who conducted a grand jury investigation into the affairs of the cult three years ago, that Purnell has continued to direct the affairs of the colony.

She said that he still maintained residence in a house included in the cult grounds and it was her story that led officers to institute the raid.

Mrs. Woodworth declared the "king" was attended by Myrtle Tulk who disappeared with Purnell in 1922.

Both Mrs. Woodworth and her husband have relatives living at the colony, among these being their mothers.

Asking but few questions, the troopers gathered the flock together and rushed them to Berrien county jail for questioning.

The raid was made as a result of information given the police by two members of the cult and complaints against the rule which holds members under sovereign sway of the king, self-styled "brother of the Savior."

Torn from his realm and faced by his accusers and acquaintances of former years, Purnell broke under the quizzing of police and admitted his identity.

Four men members and three women were arrested with "King Ben," the former charged with obstructing justice. Purnell's examination was set for Dec. 22.

GREYHOUND TO SERVE CITY ON THE LOOP PLAN

Although the new bus system to Grand Rapids, taking the place of the Holland Interurban, is running quite smoothly, considering that everything is new and there must be adjustments, the Greyhound officials have already thought of better accommodations for the Holland traveling public, especially in the residential district.

A sort of a loop will be made. Every passenger bus coming from Grand Rapids will leave on schedule shortly after its arrival at the Warm Friend station. From this station they will go north on Central Ave. to 7th street, west to River Ave., south to Ninth street, west to Maple Ave., south on Maple Ave. to 14th street, east on 14th street to River Ave., turning on Ninth street east, heading to Grand Rapids and intermediate points.

All Chicago busses, as well as the Muskegon busses, will also take this circuitous route. These busses may reverse this route according to whether the car goes to Muskegon or to Chicago and intermediate points. All cars will be well labeled with large signs designating where the car is going.

Within this loop passengers will be picked up at all street corners when halted on this line. Lawrence drug store on Maple Ave. and 13th street will be the Greyhound residential headquarters, while Warm Friend station will be the downtown headquarters.

More seating accommodations will be placed within a few days in the downtown station. The Warm Friend Tavern, especially, is a convenient location and Lawrence drug store is also centrally located for passengers coming from that district.

LOCAL SEMINARY AT CONFERENCE

The second annual conference of the League of Evangelical Students will be held this year in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26-29. The local seminary is a member of this league, which embraces a majority of the orthodox evangelical churches in the United States and Canada.

Speakers such as Mevin Grove Kyle, D. D., famous archaeologist, of Xenia seminary at St. Louis, Mo., and Clarence Bouma, Ph. D., of Grand Rapids indicate the type of conference to be held. Josh Hoogboom and Richard Van Farow will represent Western Theological Seminary.

OBSERVE LADIES' NIGHT AT MASONIC TEMPLE

Tuesday night was ladies' night at the Masonic temple and 250 Masonic ladies and gentlemen were present. It was an informal affair with cards, dancing and refreshments. The prize winners at bridge were Mrs. Harry Dunn, and Mr. J. C. Riedenour, and at "500" Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heyboer. The Eastern Star ladies, chapter no. 49, furnished excellent refreshments, while the music was in charge of Russell Smith and orchestra. It was a real frolic, with everyone having a good time.

OLD EMPLOYEE PASSES AWAY

Henry Bos, Sr., aged 75, died Tuesday at his home at 59 East 18th street. Mr. Bos, who was the oldest employee of the Charles P. Lambert Company, was popular among the men of that institution and he had many friends in Holland. He is survived by his wife, and one son Henry, and 13 grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at the home and at two o'clock at the Berean Reformed church. Rev. J. A. Van Dyke officiating. Interment will be in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

INJURED NEAR ZEELAND, DIES AT GD. RAPIDS

John Zeilstra, aged 40 years, who was hit by an auto while walking along M-51 between Zeeland and Hudsonville on Nov. 5, died at a Grand Rapids hospital at 10 o'clock Tuesday night due to abdominal injuries received when he was run down on the pavement.

Zeilstra's father, Gerhard Zeilstra, aged 82, died at the Holland home, Grand Rapids, who was blinded about 12 years ago by poisonous fumes while at work in a factory in that city, was called to the hospital early in the evening when physicians said the injured man could not live.

The accident victim left Grand Rapids about noon on Nov. 5, intending to walk to Holland, friends said, but turned back and was on his way through the rain to Grand Rapids again when a "hit and run" driver struck him. Zeilstra was found on the road later by a Zeeland driver, who took him to his home at 188 Monroe Ave., Grand Rapids. A few hours later his condition became worse and he was taken to the hospital.

There will be a big Masonic dance Friday evening at 8:30 at the Masonic temple. Everybody is invited.

LOCAL BANK IS TURNED INTO A CONSERVATORY

The lobby of the First State bank does not have the appearance of a conservatory of flowers, but rather of a conservatory of flowers. It is doubtful if there ever has been a display of ferns, palms, flowers and potted plants that can surpass the First State bank collection.

The side walls are banked to the ceiling with posies and the trimmings on pillars and standards are oak leaves setting off the riot of colors that the flowers bring.

It was impossible to count all the different kinds but there are hundreds of them. Even the center of the lobby is filled, leaving only enough room for an aisle to the cashier's windows and the private rooms to the west.

There are daisies and chrysanthemums, lilies and asters, plants with large leaves in beautiful colors and posies in season and out of season. Through the mixture of flowers here and there, healthy looking palms raise up their heads from large urns set on pedestals.

There is festooning in greenery and flowers from pillar to pillar and the doorway of the bank is more in the shape of an arbor leading to a garden than a place where money is exchanged and business deals are handled.

A great many of the customers today call the bank a garden of Eden, smilingly casting their eyes upon the last cage where Miss Anna Heinicke holds sway, for she is the only woman connected with

COLLEGE COEDS MUST CHOOSE OWN SOCIETY

Every new girl who desires to become a member of one of the five girls' societies on the Hope college campus must give to Mrs. Durfee before 6 P. M., November 19th, a list of the societies in the order of her choice. Each list must be properly signed.

The same evening the societies will make out similar lists of the new girls in the order of their choice, and also give them to Mrs. Durfee. A disinterested party will make the adjustments and return the lists to the societies at 8 A. M., November 20th.

This preferential system of election has been in vogue on the Hope campus for the past three years and has proved to be very successful.

HOPE COLLEGE WANTS TO FORM ANOTHER BAND

Hope college is again endeavoring to organize a band. It appears that with vacation time and since last graduation the band has disappeared, as many students dropped out of the organization because of graduation and for other reasons. Hope's football team has been very unsuccessful this year and many students feel that the pep was lacking because the band was gone. In the Hope college Anchor appear several communications asking that a band be organized before the basketball season opens.

A scoreless tie is the verdict of the Holland High-St. Joseph battle at the twin city, Saturday afternoon. With a dry field both teams would have scored as they each had chances with Holland falling three times inside of the 20 yd line. A wet field made end runs nearly impossible and line plays were in order. The Howe aggregation was glad to play safe all the way and they never dared to pass.

FUNERAL OF HAMILTON PIONEER TOOK PLACE TUESDAY

Funeral services for Hendryk J. Klomparsen 88, former register of deeds of Allegan county, who died at the home of his daughter, was held in the First Reformed church in Hamilton Tuesday. Born in The Netherlands, Mr. Klomparsen had been a resident of Hamilton township since 1847. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Herman Brewster, Hamilton, and Mrs. Fanny Steink, Muskegon, and a son, John Klomparsen, Hamilton. Mr. Klomparsen served as chairman of the board of supervisors several times and was prominent in Republican circles for many years.

On Thursday evening of this week at eight o'clock the young ladies' mission society of the Maple Avenue church will give a play, "Civil Service," by Walter Ben Hare, in the armory, for the benefit of missions. It is a play with many a laugh and an occasional tear. It depicts the joys and sorrows, the struggles and temptations of a group of government employees working in a small town post office in the middle west.

The play is put on by a cast of Grand Rapids people, with one from Holland, Ruth Westveld. The cast is: postmaster, George Donkoe; postmaster's daughter, Ruth Westveld; young money order clerk, Manly Konyndyk; mailing clerk, Harry Lamberts; country boy, John Mulder; collector, Margaret Molenbeek; old R. F. D., Martin Waalkes; a hired girl, Janet Haan; little stamp clerk, Wilfred Bylans; inspector, Arthur Haan; lady of importance, Jeanette Slaughter.

There will be a regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Friday afternoon at three o'clock at the W. L. C. hall.

Kent county clerk has run out of deer licenses. Up to Monday 600 were issued but since that time the number has climbed up to 920 and the blanks are all gone.

The officers and members of Holland Chapter have been invited to go to Allegan for a school of instruction this evening. They will leave the Masonic temple at five o'clock this afternoon.

Marion Butties of Holland and Angeline Van Plank of Zeeland were united in marriage on Nov. 15 at the Presbyterian parsonage at South Bend, Ind. They will make their home at Macatawa park.

The United Spanish War Auxiliary will hold a regular meeting Friday night. Nomination of officers will be held. Members are urged to be present as there will be initiation. Sister Wagoner will be here for inspection. Members are asked to wear their badges. Refreshments will be served.

The dentist office of U. P. Devries has been moved from 36 East 8th street to 26 East 8th. The change was made because the building in which the office was located is to be torn down to make room for the new Peoples State bank building. Dr. Devries has been located in the same office for 28 and a half years.

Dr. S. M. Zwemer spoke at the first annual banquet of the Reformed Union of men's organizations of Grand Rapids last night, at which 800 men were present.

Those who attended from this city were: Dr. W. J. Van Kersen, Henry Pelgrim, A. H. Meyer, B. Du Mez, G. Mool, A. Steketee, G. Schulling, Peter Notter, J. P. Luidens and Henry Geerlings.

Harry Brower and Merton Dangremont, both of Hamilton, sustained injuries when their car skidded and collided with an interurban on one of the main streets of Holland. Dangremont was knocked unconscious and suffered several other injuries. Brower, who was driving, suffered two fractured ribs.

Herman Miller of Wilmington, Ohio, nationally known as "Dusty" Miller, was the headliner at the annual ladies night meeting of the Holland Rotary club, held at the Warm Friend Tavern last night. The subject of Miller's address was "Explosions." This talk was among the best ever heard in Holland by any after dinner speaker, the every day problems of every day living being handled in a manner that stamped the speaker as a philosopher and humorist of the first rank.

The contagious enthusiasm of the speaker was reflected in all of the events of the evening. An orchestra, led by Miss Constance Dulin of Grand Rapids, contributed more than its share to the spirit of the occasion. Prof. Walter Ritter led the club singing with excellent results, and Mrs. D. E. K. Van Raalte's vocal selections, Mrs. Martha Robbins as accompanist, were encored repeatedly.

John Arendshorst provided a good laugh when he paid a fine of 50 dollars and a half that had been assessed against him for advertising at a previous meeting.

The Rotary fund for crippled children was increased by that amount by the receipt of a hand-painted check three feet long, one foot wide drawn on the Peoples State bank and containing all of the considerable advertising matter that Mr. Arendshorst carries on his regular checks.

The committee of the club in charge of all arrangements and events was composed of E. P. Davies, Vaudie Vandenberg and John Good.

The work of collecting the pledges for the boy scout work in Ottawa county for the coming year is in full progress. Holland's quota of the county budget is about $4,500 and a considerable share of this amount has already been collected. The work of gathering in the rest is now being carried on.

It was explained by officials of the Ottawa county council today that the boy scout budget has not been merged with the community chest fund in Holland by reason of the fact that last year when the county scout movement was reorganized the budget was prepared on a five-year basis. At that time, when anyone made a pledge, it was for five years, so that there might be no interruption in the work and so that the period might be long enough to give a fair chance of success.

Hence the financial policy for the organization is fixed for four years more and during that length of time at least the scout fund will not be merged with the community chest. What will be done at the end of the five year period will be decided when the time comes.

All subscribers to the boy scout fund have received notices that the pledges are due and that the money is needed to carry on the work of the coming year.

The boy scout movement has been more successful in Ottawa county during the first year after the reorganization than even its most enthusiastic supporters had dared to hope. Many who were rather lukewarm at the start have become enthusiastic supporters of the scout movement and the organization has grown steadily.

The aim has not been merely to make a spectacular showing but to grow in a permanent way on a solid foundation.

With the money supplied for the second year's work, that year promises to be even more successful than the first.

An audience which taxed the capacity of the room attended the meeting of the Froebel P-T club Tuesday evening and enjoyed the program which had been prepared: John Van Vyven led the group in community singing and presented some of his humorous numbers in his characteristic style. Lomme china Heldema, of the first grade, charming in her Dutch costume, sang several Dutch songs, which were enthusiastically applauded.

The outstanding feature of the program was a talk by Wynand Wichers upon the subject "Education, What Is It For?" In his opening remarks, Mr. Wichers said that everyone who made any pretense at all of being interested in the affairs of the country had to be interested in the education of the children of the country, because it is being stressed in every form of modern literature. In answer to the question, "What education for?" he pointed out five distinct reasons. These were for information, appreciation, obligation, vocation and vacation. Under these headings he urged the parents to begin at home with preschool training of the child's intellect so that the teacher would have something upon which to build. He emphasized the cultivation of the open mind,—training it to be always on the alert, to absorb as large a store of knowledge as possible. To learn how to discriminate between these types of information and choose the best is another object of education so that one may take his place in the world.

Below are the names of the teams with their managers: Steketee & Van Huis, L. Steketee; Chrysler-Marvin, Stegelder; Holland Furnace, W. Kramer; Heinz Piche, Buck Hill; National Guards, Don Pluma; Y. M. C. A., G. Swieringa.

A year or two ago the federations of women's church societies in Holland gathered a fund to send to Africa for the erection of a leper hospital at Inhambane. This hospital was erected and has been in use for some time. It is called the Christine Van Raalte Gilmore Home, in honor of Mrs. Gilmore.

Rev. C. J. Stauffacher, in charge of the work, has sent the following letter describing conditions at the home:

Bix 41 Inhambane P. E. Africa August 2, 1926.

Mrs. G. J. Boer, Holland, Mich.

Dear Ladies of the Federation of Women's Church Societies:

Your letter so full of hope and encouragement came to us after some delay of mails. I could not help but say that the days of miracles are not over and I mutually that the response to the leper work here at Inhambane is far more than can be put to the account of human efforts. I believe it is our Master's work and the Master is working here and in Holland in your society. Let us first of all sincerely thank you for your noble sacrifices and our earnest prayers go up that God will fill your hearts with joy for your deeds of mercy and love.

Now just a word or two about some of our leper friends, white, clothes that he made by his from your society, was taken into the church last April as full member. I wish you could have seen the little service, Dr. Terill, our district superintendent and three pastor teachers and myself with a group of lepers out under the trees. David who was dressed in white, clothes that he made by his own hands, for we teach the lepers to do as much work as possible with their own hands so as to make them feel they are worth something in this life and to keep their minds from their disease, was asked to make a confession of his faith and why he wanted to join the church. As I looked at the little fellow, how my heart did beat, when his answers came, I said to myself, "This was his all and knowing that for the past months his life backed up his statements, I could not help but feel it was worth while and also realizing that some day this little fellow would be back to his people clean in heart and pure in body. And as one of the lepers said the other day as I was talking to her, "I might not have heard of the Gospel if I did not go to the camp Christians and that is what we are working here for after all."

The other day just outside the camp another scene and another meeting under the trees. A pastor teacher who had traveled five days was bringing his wife to be left here in the camp. Her relatives were with her and her children, she a leper, four children, a sad goodbye. First of all they had a little prayer-meeting service, then her relatives shook hands with her and left. Then she took each of her little children in her arms and they went away and then the husband took her few belongings and carried them up to the camp, then he went away and said he would be back in three years. And we are hoping that they will not be disappointed at the end of that time.

Just a few days ago I met a man in the road. I did not know him. I was given to squishiness but the sight of the man fairly turned me inside out. It looked as if the disease had gotten the last grip on him. With tears in his eyes and a pleading voice he begged me for the sake of God to help him for he took him in a looked pretty hopeless, but we did our best. In four weeks he is much better and his relief is great. His name is Fastella, meaning light-house, and some day we hope to have more to tell you about him.

So, these cases give you an idea of some of the suffering and some of the joy that comes to these outcast lepers. So I say again God bless you noble women for following the command of Christ to cleanse the leper.

I am enclosing two views of the society and assume his full duty in civil and social affairs. To instill a love for work and to inculcate the idea of improving the leisure hours are other important aims of education, and in this connection Mr. Wichers stressed the value of religious training without which no education is complete and no life well rounded.

After a few remarks by the president of the club, Mr. Clarence Lokker, and a brief business session, the meeting adjourned to the kindergarten room where the parents of the fifth grade served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

The Holland City court league has been officially organized with C. C. Steketee, Jr., as president and W. Tansey as secretary. This organization is going to be a big thing for Holland as it will give about 75 men a chance to play the court game once a week, and a large crowd of fans an opportunity to watch some exciting battles.

The first games will be played Dec. 1st, on Wednesday night, and every Wednesday for twelve weeks the six teams will be found in action at the armory. The league enjoyed quite a bit of popularity last season but will go a lot stronger this winter as the officials are capable and the rules will be rigidly enforced. The eligibility rules call for no professional players and ex-college players will also be barred. Former high school players will be allowed to play and many will be found on the different rosters.

As has been stated before, the purpose of the league is not to make money but to give men a chance for exercise which they otherwise would be deprived of entirely. With each of the six entering teams consisting of 10 players, twenty men will get a chance to play every week, as all teams play one game a week. The officials are now looking for referees and umpires who can handle these affairs. A large number of capable men are available and about four will be selected to alternate at the games.

One big thing that will surprise the fans is the fact that season tickets can be purchased for $1.00. This is exceptionally low, for the class of competition will be fast. At least 500 of these tickets will be sold so that expenses can be cleared. The different teams will be backed up by their supporters and the Furnace workers, Heinz and Steketee-Van Huis quintets have a large following. The schedule will be printed in Tuesday's Sentinel, so that fans can look over the names of the teams with their managers:

Steketee & Van Huis, L. Steketee; Chrysler-Marvin, Stegelder; Holland Furnace, W. Kramer; Heinz Piche, Buck Hill; National Guards, Don Pluma; Y. M. C. A., G. Swieringa.

Just a few days ago I met a man in the road. I did not know him. I was given to squishiness but the sight of the man fairly turned me inside out. It looked as if the disease had gotten the last grip on him. With tears in his eyes and a pleading voice he begged me for the sake of God to help him for he took him in a looked pretty hopeless, but we did our best. In four weeks he is much better and his relief is great. His name is Fastella, meaning light-house, and some day we hope to have more to tell you about him.

So, these cases give you an idea of some of the suffering and some of the joy that comes to these outcast lepers. So I say again God bless you noble women for following the command of Christ to cleanse the leper.

I am enclosing two views of the

Christine Van Raalte Gilmore Home. Not very good snaps but you will get an idea and we hope to have better ones later.

Now just a word of our appreciation and thanks. It was truly a great surprise to us your personal gift of ($100.00) one hundred dollars and the message and prayers that went with it. You will never know what all these mean to missionaries just to know that women like you in the homeland are backing us with your money, your prayers and your time. It gives us an inspiration which makes us more determined to do our best for our Master. This gift of remembrance helped us to bring home home for vacation. Ruthless sixteen year old girl must attend school about a thousand miles away and traveling in Africa is expensive so we appreciated this gift doubly for having the joy of having her with us through her vacation.

I wish some of you could see the work here and have a chance to talk with some of our lepers then I am sure you would realize that it is the Master's work but just writing it is so hard. It is so hard to help you see it especially when one has so little time because the sick are everywhere. So we pray that the Holy Spirit may help you to understand and see the needs here. If at any time you would like to know anything definite about the work, write us and we will tell you.

Yours in His service,
C. J. STAUFFACHER

Troop Nine Wins S. W. District Round-Up

Troop Nine of Hope Church carried away high honors at the district Scout roundup last Saturday afternoon. The troop won first places, one second place and one third place a total of 54 points.

Troop Ten of the Methodist Church ranked second with one first place, two second places and four third places, a total of 15 points. Troop Twelve of the Trinity Reformed Church ranked third with three third places, a total of 9 points.

Troop Nine was present almost 100 percent strong, led by its two leaders Scoutmaster Edward S. Hildner and Assistant Scoutmaster Russell Welch and Frank Moser, and accompanied by their Pastor Dr. Davidson and three members of the troop committee.

The activities started with an inspection and review by Scout Commissioner C. L. Beach. The events that followed were contests in knot tying, first aid, dressing race, tent pitching, water boiling, fire by friction, fire with flint and steel, signaling, life buoy throw, bugling, neckerchief drill, and pyramid building.

Troop Committee Take Training

Sixteen troop committeemen are taking the training course given for them by the county council in the south part of the county, and twelve are taking it in the north end of the county.

The men have organized into patrols and are learning along regular Scout methods. The final session will be held in connection with the Scoutmasters' fellowship dinner next week. The theme of course has been "How to make the Scout troop of greatest service to its parent institution."

Dr. James J. De Kraker, Council president, was the principal speaker and instructor at the last sessions.

Troop Eleven Shows Real Stuff

Troop Eleven of the Sixth Reformed Church of Holland is showing some real "Get up" lately. It has just registered seven new Scouts. Two of them are old timers returning. Scoutmaster Peter Van Eyck is proving himself to be a real leader. The troop's annual Charter presentation will be held on Tuesday December 7th.

Troop Fifteen of the Grand Haven First Reformed Church plans to get under way within a week or two. John Joldersma will act as Scoutmaster. For several months he and troop committee chairman Absa Elzevier have been training boys to serve as patrol leaders. Mr. Joldersma is a graduate of the Scoutleaders' training school.

Hildner, City Commissioner

Edward S. Hildner, Scoutmaster of Troop 9 and Commissioner of the second section of the S. W. District has been promoted to commissioner of the city of Holland. As such, Mr. Hildner will direct all activities that are distinctive to the city. He will among other things, direct the civic service activities of Holland Scouts.

Mr. Hildner has proved himself to be an excellent leader of boys, having developed one of the finest and most progressive of Scout troops.

His principal of Froebel school and as such establishes a desirable contact between the public schools and Scouting.

Court of Honor

A new method of Court of Honor procedure has been adopted. Hereafter the court will convene only every three months for the purpose of awarding the higher Scout advancements.

District boards of review will convene monthly to review candidates for second class, first class, and Scoutmaster. The certificates will then be sent to the candidates Scoutmasters to be presented at troop meetings.

The former plan was found impractical in such a scattered territory requiring extensive traveling to reach the place where the court convened.

Citizens Meet in West Olive

Last Friday evening about seventy-five citizens of West Olive and vicinity in the Methodist Church in that village to learn about Scouting and discuss the question of making it available for West Olive boys.

Rev. Silas Wiersma of the Harlem Church presided and presented a paper on the subject. The certificates will then be sent to the candidates Scoutmasters to be presented at troop meetings.

ADVERTISING MAN SPEAKS TO GD. RAPIDS CLUB

Grand Rapids Press—That newspaper space has proved the most fruitful of Holland Furnace Co. advertising was the statement of C. D. Karr of Holland, advertising manager of the company, speaking at a dinner meeting of the Advertising Club of Grand Rapids at the Pantiand hotel Friday noon. Mr. Karr's visit to Grand Rapids was arranged by Chris Becker, local branch manager.

"Our advertising in building trade papers never was effective with the builder or contractor until we advertised in the newspapers. Then both types of advertising made a great big impression. We still are sticking to the principles of advertising we adopted as a company in the beginning. First of all we made up our minds to consider the effect of our advertising on our own organization. And frankly, that seems to me to be the most interesting thing of all about advertising. It was especially important for the Holland Furnace Co., inasmuch as the nature of our business demands a large organization and one that is in close touch with the individuals who buy."

"Of course our advertising is followed up very intensively by our representatives and any advertising that tends to build confidence in us and so in our heating service, does make selling easier, whether you call it direct or indirect selling."

"The fact is we sell 80 per cent of the inquiries we get in the regular way. We have received as many as 2,000 inquiries from a single page advertisement run at one time in a number of newspapers. As soon as these were counted we would sell approximately 1,600 installations."

"Every advertiser has his own problems. I have not had experience with a good advertising medium that did not when used well, but some mediums will surely pay for any particular thing advertised."

MUSICAL PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT THE W. L. C. MEETING

On Tuesday afternoon a delightful and inspiring musical program arranged by Mrs. D. B. K. VanRaalte was presented at Women's Literary club by a group of local musicians. In spite of the inclement weather, a large audience gathered to hear and enjoy the splendid program.

The colorful corsage bouquets and lovely chrysanthemums which graced the platform, contributed a note of cheer to the dreary atmosphere which a rainy day always produces.

In her introductory remarks Mrs. J. C. Rhea, the club president, spoke of the universal appeal which music has had and continues to have for all peoples and nations, whether they be highly civilized or savages in their most primitive state. Such an important factor should be fostered and stimulated by education to the end of lifting every day life to a higher plane of thought and activity.

The program which contained a pleasing variety, consisted of violin selections by Mr. Harvey Fairbanks, accompanied by Mr. Gerard Hanchett, vocal selections by Mrs. J. E. Telling, accompanied by Mrs. Martha Robbins, and piano solo numbers by Mrs. Robbins.

The arrangement of the program was as follows:
Songs My Mother Taught Me, Dvorak-Kreisler, Capriccio, Scarlatti, Mr. Fairbanks; As In A Rose Jar, Cadman, Shepherd Play, a Little Air, Sickles, At the Well, Hageman, Mrs. Telling; Valse in A Flat, Imprimont, in F Sharp, Black Key Study, Chopin, Mrs. Robbins; To Spring, Grieg, Valse Bluette, Drigo-Auer, Mr. Hanchett; Moon Marketing (A Fantasy), Powell Weaver, Fairy Cradles, Molly Carer, Mrs. Telling.

All the numbers were artistically and efficiently rendered and were received by an audience which was enthusiastic in its applause. A program such as this tends to engender a sense of musical appreciation which is such a vital factor in the life of every community.

Preceding the recital donation gifts for the county home were received. An announcement was made in regard to the book review club which will meet next week in the balcony, preceding the regular meeting. The book to be reviewed is "Return of the Native," Thomas Hardy, to be given by Mrs. Milton Hinga.

HAMILTON

Too late for last week
The Girl's Mission Band numbering 16 girls met at the home of Pauline and Janet Potter last Saturday afternoon. They have decided to send a box of dolls and Testament to the Indian Mission at Winnebago, Neb.

A member of the state police called at the local school last Thursday and gave a talk to all the rooms on the matter of safety on the highways. He also organized a Junior Police Patrol to see to it that school children obey the safety rules.

The Willing Workers class of the American Ref. church, a class of 12 boys, held their bi-monthly meeting last Friday evening at the home of Allen Dangremond.

The Lecture course of the local high is coming to its own. The first number was a decided success in more ways than one. More interest has been shown in this course this year than ever before shown by the fact that the students themselves have sold more tickets and also a larger percentage of the students themselves have secured tickets. Single admission at the door for the first number amounted to $15 and the total amount received to date is nearly $200.00.

The school takes this opportunity of thanking the community for the hearty support given.

Monthly examinations were enjoyed by all the pupils Thursday and Friday of last week. The report for the month ending Nov. 5 is as follows: Total number absent—48.5, total number tardy cases 39, percentage of attendance 98.1. Margaret Roggen was the only perfect speller for the month in the Intermediate room.

Schutmaat introduced the subject with short but very interesting talks. Mrs. H. D. Strabbing was chairman of the meeting. It is hoped that other meetings of this kind will be held.

The Consistorial Union of the Holland Classis met in the First church last Monday afternoon. The pastor had charge of the devotion. Dr. Willem H. Holland delivered an inspiring address on "Spiritual Leadership." He based his message on the words of Christ to Peter: "Feed my sheep," and stressed the words of leading and feeding, both becoming a possibility for us only after we have taken time to be alone with God. Rev. F. Van Dyke, former pastor of the local American Ref. Church now at Central Park, eloquently pleaded for "The Boyal Partnership," bringing out greatness of being partners with God in all things. He said that people too often thought that especially in business and in the business part of the work of the church, God was to be given no part or consideration. Money in the church, so too many say, is our concern and not God's. Owing to the late hour the discussion was omitted. The new officers elected for coming year are as follows: Pres. Martin Nienhuis of Overisel; Vice Pres. Gerrit Oonk of East Holland and as Sec'y, John Kronmeyer of Hamilton. The ladies of the local church served refreshments.
