Red Cross Drive Well Under Way Hoffman, Head

C. C. WOOD EXPECTS THAT
A MEMBERSHIP OF 4,000
WILL BE ENLISTED BE-FORE THANKSGIVING

First memberships were received Tuesday in the Ottawa County chapter of the American Red Cross as the annual roll call got under way.

The county committee, headed by C. C. Wood of Holland, has a goal of 4,000 memberships which they hope to have by Thanksgiving day when the campaign will formally close.

Nicholas Hoffman, Jr., is chairman of the Holland drive which is sponsored by the Willard G. Leenhouts post of the American Legion.

An annual county Red Cross meeting will be held Friday night in the G.A.R. room of the city hall at Holland at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. C. C. Wood, county chairman states that Holland has always gone "over the top" and from the fine attitude taken all over the county, more money will be collected outside of Holland than was the case for quite a few years back.

In Holland and Zeeland curb flags are out, alternating with Red Cross flags. The different teams are doing good work and are perfecting a thorough organization.

Every person will be contacted, giving them a chance to contribute to this most worthy cause.

The same effective work is being carried on, not only in other cities and villages, but in the rural districts as well.

Mr. Wood states that two volunteer subscriptions have already come in, each for $25. The nationwide hook-up over the radio, sponsoring the Red Cross Drive, has also been very effective. Some wonderful programs have gone over the network and the most talented artists of stage and movies and musical organizations have given them their time and talents to bring the message of the "angel of mercy" to our very homes.

The Holland and Colonial Theatres are running short movie films on the Red Cross, thanks to Henry Carver, the manager.

From pulpit and rostrum, through pastors and lecturers, the benevolent Red Cross and all it stands for, is expounded.

The quota for Ottawa County is set at $4,000, and with the campaign at the outset, taking a flying start, success is assured without a doubt.

Mrs. Mabel Vanden Berg, permanent head of the Red Cross in Holland, will be found at her offices in the G.A.R. room in the City Hall, where she will take contributions during the entire campaign from November 11 through Nov. 28.

For Holland, contact Justice Nick Hoffman at his office, 30 W. 8th or by phone No. 9445 or at his residence, phone 2005. He can give you added information as this relates to the drive in the city of Holland.

The heads of committees in Ottawa County are the following:

C. C. Wood, Chairman for county; Nick Hoffman, Jr., Holland chairman; Mrs. Laura Dinkel, Conklin; Mrs. John Laue, Coopersville; Mrs. Myrtle Littrell, Robinson Twp.; Lewis Bendak, Agnew; Mrs. F. H. Northquist, West Olive; Mrs. Elhart, Zeeland; Mr. T. W. Van Haltsma, Vriesland; Mr. Lewis Zagers, Jamestown; Mrs. Geo. V. Steketee, Hudsonville; Mrs. A. G. Oelker; Lamont; Mrs. Fannie Thayer, Allendale and Mrs. E. J. Schneider, Marne.

SUNFLOWERS 12 FEET TALL

Burr Morris living on Second St. has just cut down sunflowers 12 ft. tall and 2 1/2 inches at the bottom. The flowers were 8 inches across and attracted thousands of birds.

Mr. Morris has cut up the dried sunflower stalks into kindling wood and he states that it is the best kindling he has ever used. He advises folks with big back yards to plant sunflowers since they are attractive in the summer time and attract many more birds to the city, which are best possible worm destroyers. The goldfinch especially likes the sunflower seeds and these surely are beautiful, welcome birds during July and August.

FROZEN FISH BURNED IN REFRIGERATOR CAR

A shipment of salmon and halibut were burned Monday by the system that was designed to freeze and preserve them.

The fish, which left Seattle, Wash. a few days ago, were consigned to H. J. Dornbos & Bros. of Grand Haven. They crossed the country in a refrigerator car which was carried to Muskegon by a Grand Trunk car ferry. While the car was at the freight house at Grand Rapids something went wrong with the refrigerating unit causing a fire that toasted the frozen fish.

When the shipment was received at the local market yesterday, it was refused. The loss is estimated from $2,500 to $4,000.

HEN ISN'T TO BLAME FOR OFF-FLAVOR EGG

Good eggs, when properly cooked please the taste, but when their flavor is unpleasant—don't blame the hen.

The flavor of an egg depends largely upon what the laying hen is fed and care given eggs, according to the United States department of agriculture. Poultrymen intent upon producing high-quality eggs prevent their flocks having access to strongly flavored vegetables such as turnips, onions, garlic and leek. These feeds are likely to give eggs an unpleasant flavor and taste.

NEW HANDBOOK HELPS CONSERVATIONISTS

A number of constructive community projects that could be conducted by women's groups interested in conservation activities are suggested in a new conservation handbook for women's organizations which is being distributed free of charge by the Educational Division of the Department of Conservation. Audrey C. DeWitt, lecturer of the division, is the author of this publication.

AMERICAN LEGION PUTS ON BIG EVENT NEXT TUESDAY

The Willard G. Leenhouts Post, American Legion, have planned a big event for next week Tuesday afternoon and night when one of the groups of the Major Bowes' Amateurs, who are now on a tour, will appear in person.

These many groups who are turning out to be real trouperes are taking the nation by storm.

Major Bowes, as is known by everyone who tunes in on that broadcast every Sunday night at 8 o'clock, is doing a fine work in developing talent in music and art who hitherto, were unable to get a hearing.

It is these Sunday night groups who are now appearing on the stage everywhere and will find their way in pictures.

Anyway, this most popular and interesting radio program will be given in Holland. It is said to be the "biggest, finest, and most unusual stage presentation yet offered, coming from the National Broadcasting System."

This group will be here in person at the Holland Armory next week Tuesday afternoon and night. See announcement elsewhere for particulars.

Those of Major Bowes' troupe who will appear in Holland are: Meyer Goldberg, The Whistling Grocery Clerk; Leonard Maretti, Collegiate Trumpeter; The University of Missouri Quartette; Leona Howard, personality-plus singer; Harvey Means, The Musical Bell Ringers; Coleman McGonigal, impersonator of celebrities; and Joseph Rogato, The Garbage Man with the Caruso voice.

Dr. J. J. Brower and Dr. M. J. Cook left Thursday morning to attend sessions of the West Michigan Dental Society in Muskegon.

At a meeting of the ministers' conference of Christian Reformed churches held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. Zewier, W. 18th at. Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. L. Van Laar gave a talk on his recent visit to the mission field in "Navaland."

Miss Evelyn Geerlings, former Hope College student and Clayton E. Pierce of South Haven were united in marriage November 9 at Elkhardt, Ind.

State Sales Tax To Be Added To Dec. Light Bills

MUNICIPAL POWER USERS
MUST PAY 3% MORE. HOLLAND IS INCLUDED

An extra three percent to the municipal light and power bills to cover the sales tax will be added next December in the City of Holland.

In the event that the courts decide that municipally owned plants are not subject to the three percent sales tax, the money collected next month and in future months will be refunded to the users. It is believed, although that is not positive.

The board decided a short time ago to collect the tax and pay it to the state under protest.

The gross revenue from the light and power plant per year is about $254,000. A three per cent sales tax on this amount totals $7,620 per year which the users of light and power must contribute to state funds, providing the courts uphold the order.

Charles Vos of the Board of Public Works stated that the amount would be near $6,000 per year since there are some lines of power that are exempted under the state law. Up to this time the local board has only a partial exempted list but expect the full list in detail within a few days.

The three percent tax will be included in the total light and power bills and every bill will have printed on it, "This bill includes, where applicable, the 3% Michigan Sales tax."

Holland is not the only city so affected. Grand Haven has also protested and with Holland and other municipal plant cities, has taken the matter to the supreme court for a final decision.

According to Mr. Vos the matter was started in 1933 when the Michigan State Board of Tax Indemnity decided that a municipal plant was not operated for the purpose of personal gain. In 1935, however, the board changed its opinion and the ruling was that municipal plants are conducted for gain. Since that is the case the 3% tax is now being enforced unless the courts rule otherwise.

Mr. Vos stated that in his opinion, if the courts upheld the cause of the municipal plants it might take another legal battle to secure the tax money already paid while the first suit was pending. That is a matter for conjecture, however and the future will tell whether or how they paid December light bills with the tax added, will get their money back.

Charles Vos is a member of the Michigan League of Publicly owned Utilities. For several years he was secretary and treasurer and a few months ago he was elected president of the organization. It is this organization, comprising cities with municipal plants, that brought this tax fight to the supreme court of the state of Michigan.

Anyway, light and power users in Holland and elsewhere will begin to pay the tax during the Christmas month adding materially to the state's "strong box." So remember if your light bill is three dollars it is going to cost you nine cents more. If it is five dollars the price of three cigars will be added.

PRESIDENT'S TURKEY FLIES TO WASHINGTON

A turkey tipping the scales at 50 pounds with its feathers left Utah by plane Wednesday bound for President Roosevelt's dinner table. The gobble's traveling crate was a miniature in the White House, fashioned by F. L. Clawson, Ogden Utah.

He is employed in Detroit at present, but said he was behind because of unemployment. His former wife and child live in Zeeland where Fox also lived some time ago.

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

George E. Hunt, the nobby well dressed ticket agent at the Holland depot, has just purchased for his sister a fine cabinet grand Fischer piano. It is one of the first in the city of that type. Note: Holland of any kind were not in planes of half century ago. Most home musical instruments were parlor organs.

Mr. Hunt is still living. He is now a high official in the Pere Marquette system.

Thursday evening last, Peter Kleis left his meat market for a few moments in charge of his two sons, ages 13 and 9 years respectively. The older boy was playing with a "slingshot," shooting a lead pencil against the wall, the younger boy watching him. In some unaccountable manner the pencil deflected from its course toward the young lad, striking him in the right eye near the pupil, inflicting a wound which has destroyed the sight of that eye. Note: The young lad in question was our former alderman, Albert Kleis, and his father, too, was an alderman of the First Ward for years.

John R. Kleyn is erecting a beautiful dwelling on the hill west of his factory, the Keystone planing mill. The home will cost Mr. Kleyn $5,000 and he himself is building it. Note: This dwelling is still standing but is about ready to fall as is the old Keystone mill to the east, located just across from the stand pipe at the light plant. In its day it was considered one of the finest residences in Holland.

The Keystone plant, too, was about the busiest factory in this city at a period of Holland's most rapid house building development. After the death of the contractor several members of the family connected with the plant also passed on and the property has long ceased to be a busy place. Today these are only landmarks of a prosperous past.

Our wood pile is getting low. Will one who has promised us wood on subscription bill to the News step forward and supply our needs? Note: It was common for farmers to bring in wood for subscriptions. Father Mulder had a regular wood lot set aside to take care of the subscription wood. This lot contained more wood by mid-winter than is today stacked up in all the coal yards in Holland put together. Everyone burned wood and coal was very little used.

The general price for splitting wood here was 25 cents per cord. Father Mulder burned the first ton of coal in Holland. He had purchased a newly invented upright engine with boiler attachment to run his new De Grondwet press and coal was necessary to get up steam and Teunis Keppel imported a few tons as a trial. Mr. Keppel was the founder of T. Keppel Sons, still doing fine business at the old stand at College Ave. and 8th St. The engineer of that first engine for a time was your editor, who thought the black-and-white and the face the better the engineer, at least in his young, important mind.

Hope college is about to erect a home for the president of the college on the knoll on campus located on 10th St. across from the home of Kommer Schiedde, ex-mayor of Holland. James Huntley, the contractor, has the lowest bid of $4,800. The place will be heated by steam radiators, a new kind of heating system. Note: The building is still in the beautiful home but how it could be built for the above price is a conundrum. Today the brick, lumber and hardware couldn't be purchased for that price. The building has housed the following presidents and families: Dr. G. J. Kollen, Dr. Ame Venne-ma (both have passed on), Dr. Ed Dimmet and now Dr. Wynand Wimers and family. The contractor, James Huntley, built many beautiful buildings in Holland, including Graves hall and Winant's chapel. The Holland City State Bank and others. His factory was on River Ave., the building later turned into the Colonial theatre.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

A fire drill was held at the Maple Grove school house Tuesday afternoon and the building was clear within 1 1/2 minutes of 350 pupils. The fire drills in this school are said to be remarkable. Note: This is now Longfellow, on the hill.

A basket full of paper near the furnace caught fire in the Christian school on Central Ave., near 15th St., but was promptly extinguished. However, not before the fire drill had been thoroughly tried out showing that in actual danger children can be marshaled out of the school building in a few minutes.

Roelof Van Raalte came into the Second Ward polling place Tuesday and called Alderman Art Drinkwater aside, saying, "For 60 years I have voted the Republican ticket. I want you to go in the booth with me to see that I do not make a mistake as I am getting older." The man's age is 85 years and he proudly voted for Chase S. Osborn for governor and the rest of the state and county Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kemme and son, Wallace, and Miss Caroline Kemme, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tenckinck, of Zeeland recently.

A meeting of the Washington Bluebird Camp Fire girls will be held today at the home of Connie Hinga.

Dr. G. A. Stegeman attended sessions of the West Michigan Dental society held Thursday in Muskegon.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO TODAY

Rev. Henry J. Veldman, pastor of First Reformed church, presided at a double wedding at New Holland when Cornelius Brewer and Miss Nellie De Vries and Miss Alice Brewer and John De Boer were married. Miss De Vries wore a gown of silver gray and Miss Brewer was dressed in "king blue satin." Miss Jeanette Van Tongeren of Holland played the march from Lohengrin and the marriage was performed under an arch of chrysanthemums in an evergreen setting. Gerrit Kraag was master of ceremony. The whole countryside was present.

Attorney George E. Kollen invited a group of men to his home and perfected a newly formed "Men's Brotherhood." The officers elected were: President, C. J. Drennan; vice president, George E. Kollen; secretary and treasurer, Henry Winter; chairman, membership, Con De Pree. The organization is for the purpose of promoting and interesting young men in social christianity or the application of gospel theories to present day conditions. Mrs. Kollen added her husband in giving a welcome to those present and served light refreshments during the evening.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The corner hardware made an unusual Armistice display in their show window through the efforts of the two partners, Richard Van Tatenhove and Arend Sierema. They secured many photographs of the possible World War soldiers from Holland and environs. Soldiers who had made the "supreme sacrifice" during this terrible strife. Among them was Willard G. Leenhouts, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. Leenhouts, who was killed in France and whose name honors the local post, American Legion. The pictures that could be secured and were displayed are: Joe Meidema, Cornelius Barkema, Mr. Dykstra, Joe Brieve, George Butterfield, Gus De Vries, John Knoll, Willard G. Leenhouts, George Prins, Tienan Schepel, Henry Walters, Clarence Weed, Carl Staplekamp, Marine Bishop, Arthur Voland and Joe Gunst. Note: Undoubtedly there were more from this vicinity although the boys had difficulty securing the photos. The Henry Walters mentioned died overseas, and his name is today perpetuated through the Walters Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, organized in Holland a few years ago.

A fox farm has been organized north of Holland at the West Michigan Pike (now U.S. 31) and Monday Wallace Kuite, James Kelley and Arend Smith drove through from Muskegon to the local farm with a single load of silver fox worth $20,000. This is breeding stock to start the farm. Mr. Kelley of the Muskegon farm recently sold one pelt for $2,200. The members of the new company are Dave Blom, Arend Smith, Lee De Feyter, Ed De Feyter of Holland and Jim Kelley of Muskegon. Note: The fox farm, it appears, did not pay here and the farm has been discontinued some years ago.

Attorney Arthur Van Duren was celebrating his 47th birthday Saturday treating his friends at the "Koffie Kletz." Mr. Van Duren is just as old as his friend, Geo. Alex Groesbeck of Detroit, who is also celebrating in double fashion, namely his birth and his election, both being closely allied—no birth or election. Mr. Van Duren and the governor were classmates in Michigan law school. Note: Well, "Art" is now 62.

At the celebration the occasion was surrounded by all his children and grand-children and sweet Mrs. Van Duren, together with the much beloved mother Katherine Van Duren.

A cablegram was received by the mother of Miss Tena Holkeboer stating that she had arrived safely in China. Note: That was the first time she set eyes on the orient, going as a missionary of the Reformed church. She has made two return trips to this country since on furlough and this fall left Holland again for her life's work, carrying the gospel to the Chinese.

The strong Muskegon football team failed to win the necessary game to win for them the state championship. The smaller, scrappier Holland High team held them down to a scoreless game. The individual stars on the Holland team were Capt. De Pree, Beuwkes and Vanden Brink. Note: Space forbids giving a two-column write-up but it was a battle that stunned the Muskegon football fans who came 1,000 strong. The Holland lineup included Beuwkes, Van Vest, Yonkman, Houtman, Merit, Boyd, De Pree, Van Duren, Vanden Brink, Damson, Lordahl, Referees—Pop Church, Grand Rapids; South; umpire, Brooks, Chicago; linesman, Lichtner, Michigan.

Mayor B. P. Stephan issues the Armistice proclamation. It was a real inspiring message.

Ray Smith and J. F. Sundin from Holland Joe Zwemer and Earl Sundin from Saugatuck, are spending ten days at North Blue lake where they are deer hunting. They have a cosy lodge up near Kalkaska.

From Forest To Shelves Of Printers

HOLLAND PRINTERS SHOWN
PAPER MAKING "MOVIES."

The Holland job printing firms and their employees were the guests of the Carpenter Paper Co. of Grand Rapids, who treated the "men of the stick," 26 of them to a steak dinner at Warm Friend Tavern Tuesday evening.

The chefs of landlord Lillard gave the printers the best they had to offer, and that means a very fine repast.

Part of the dining room was turned into sort of a printer's fair showing wonderful samples of the printers' art—and real works of art they were. Nothing can surpass the printing done in the United States. However, one unique feature in this display was printing done in Europe—some of it from the Netherlands. It was real fine work, but as a representative of the Carpenter Paper Co. stated, "They take their time about a printing job in any European country, but in the United States customers are generally in a rush, as they are in everything else, to get the job quickly." There is no doubt that that in the United States the most wonderful work is done in spite of the fact that the customer harries the job along.

After the dinner a three reel motion picture showing how paper was made, was thrown upon the screen. The chopping of the trees in the forest, the floating of the logs down the river, the loading of cars to the paper mill, the grinding of the logs into thin chips, the dissolving of these chips into pulp, and the endless processes and different stages that the wood and pulp go through before they are turned into bond and book papers, is an intensely interesting procedure, and most educational.

Even the printers present, who handle carloads of paper each year, were given an edifying treat that will stand them in good stead.

Herbert Goethels, representative of the Carpenter Paper Co., introduced Lee Mulnix, general manager, who welcomed the Holland guests and made a short introduction as this relates to the art of paper making.

Russel Scuyler of the sales department, projected the picture on the screen and explained the different stages in the operation of paper making.

Louis Steketee, chairman of the Holland Printers' Association, in behalf of the printers of Holland, thanked the Carpenter Paper Co. for their pleasing evening of educational entertainment and banquet.

Ben Mulder was called upon to say a few words, as the dean printer of Holland, and he gave a short review on Holland printing history.

He said that he was entering his 44th year with the Holland City News and hoped to continue for some time yet. He also thanked the printers hosts for the very fine evening.

After the films had been shown, the printers were given the opportunity to ask questions and half an hour was devoted to questions and answers that brought out much added information on the paper making industry.

The mill shown in the picture was of the Hammill Paper Co. mills of Erie, Pa., the owners of the reals.

Those present were: John Poppel, Grand Haven; Abe Van Hoven and sons Arnold and Harvey from the Zeeland Print Shop.

Vern Tanis and Harold Klassen from the Klassen Printing Co. Ed Brower Printing Co. John Schreier and Representative H. Brower.

Holland Printing Co.: Louis Van Hartesvelt, Phil Van Hartesvelt, Gerald Tinholt, Clarence Oosting, Arthur Miles and James Ploof.

Steketee-Van Huis Printing Co.: Louis Steketee, John Van Huis, Niel Steketee, George Schreier and Martin Inderbitzin.

De Pree Co.: Henry Van Oort. Holland City News: Cy Vande Luyster, Herman Bos, Ben A. Mulder.

WORLD WAR DRAMA "THE ENEMY" TO BE PRESENTED HERE THANKSGIVING EVENING.

Holland citizens will have the opportunity to witness Channing Pollock's thrilling World War drama, "The Enemy" on the evening of Thanksgiving Day when that stirring play will be treated at Holland High school by The Thespian club, dramatic group of Calvin college, Grand Rapids.

The club is presenting the drama in Grand Rapids on Friday evening of this week, and from advance press notices the advance ticket sale for the presentation in the "furniture city" is going over big.

The drama is being directed by Stanley Albers, dramatic director at Union High school, Grand Rapids, who is producing the play for the fourth time, which speaks well for his ability as a director.

Tickets for "The Enemy" will be on sale in Holland beginning Saturday of this week at Selles Jewelry Store, East 8th street and at James Heerspink Jewelry Store at 450 Washington Square.

Russel Looman and Russel Michershausen are on a trip to northern Michigan.

The City mission property on Central ave. has been acquired by the Salvation Army it is stated.

The mission, headed by Supt. George Trotter, has obtained access to the Walter Walsh brick block on East Eighth at, where its regular schedule of services will be continued, beginning Sunday.

Members of the Sitan club were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Vree. Those attending were: Misses Dorothy Van Oterloo, Gertrude Hulsebos, Alyda Kapur, Neils DeGroot, Joan Logers, Dorothy, Mary and Marjorie Matchinsky, Clara Witteveen and the hostess.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Blekkink left Wednesday for Los Angeles, California, going via automobile, taking in the southern route. They plan to stay for the winter.

ONLY A PIECE OF RED PAPER, NO FIRE

A piece of red paper fluttering on the roof of a farm building on the New Richmond road Sunday morning looked like flames to an excited neighbor, who turned in an alarm at the Fennville fire department. The fire boys responded promptly, picked off the flame colored distress signal and went home laughing—no damage except a distressed farmer who didn't know his barn was burning and it wasn't, only he thought so when the fire truck arrived.

FRANK KNOX AHEAD IN PRESIDENTIAL POLL

Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, of the Daily News leads all aspirants for the Republican presidential nomination in 1936 in a poll of 3,000 newspaper editors, it was announced Wednesday by the magazine Liberty.

Mr. Knox is well known in Holland and was Cap reporter with Senator Art Vandenberg on the Grand Rapids Herald years ago.

ROBINSON TOWNSHIP IS SCENE OF HOLLAND CLUB'S EVENT

Local Dogs Win First Stakes

The Holland Pointer and Setter club held its first annual fall field trial Saturday on the Robinson township terrain 3 miles east on M-50 from the intersection of U.S. 31 and M-50, where the club has reserved a large area and is maintaining it as a game reserve under an arrangement with the farmers and land owners of that section.

The Derby stake was run in the morning. Winner was Penny Royal Lady, English setter bitch owned and handled by Ed Leuw of Holland. Second place went to Tulip Belle, owned by Dr. H. Masselink, Holland and third to the Tazelaar's Patsy, Irish Setter owned by Dr. M. Hamelink.

Dr. Otto Vander Velde's Irish Joe of Holland was given first place in the all-age stake which was run in the afternoon. Second went to Freshie, an English setter owned by Jacob Lawrence of the Holland Game Club, and third to C. Seery's Gertrude Denty, an English Setter.

Dr. Samuel Volveda of Calvin Seminary will conduct both morning and evening services. Next Sunday at Maple Ave. Christian Reformed church.

SEND FRUIT TO MEMORIAL HOME

About fifty bushels of fresh fruit were collected this week at Fennville by the committee, to be sent to Clark Memorial Home in Grand Rapids. The "fruit belt" makes this an annual event and it is a most pleasing remembrance each year.

TIPSY DRIVERS GET FINE AND SENTENCE

Two youths, arrested by Chief of Police Bosma on drunk driving charges were brought before Justice Hustable, one to receive a 30 day jail term and the other to pay a fine and costs of $10.30.

TO EXPLAIN TOWNSEND PLAN

Edward Guy Giljillan of Kalamazoo will speak in Holland High school auditorium tonight, Friday, at 8 o'clock when he will discuss the Townsend Plan as this relates to "Old Age Pension" Holland and vicinity is invited. Mr. George Trotter will offer the invocation.

The speaker will take Wells Ann, an "old fashioned" band from Kalamazoo.

HOLLAND ATTORNEY HONORED

According to a United Press dispatch, Orien S. Cross of Holland Wednesday was named one of 21 commissioners for the integrated bar provided for in an act of the last legislature. The commissioners will meet in December to elect officers.

PAST AND PRESENT FOOTBALL

The curtain will fall on the 1935 football season in Holland Saturday with Hope college opposing a strong Michigan Normal eleven of Ipsilanti at Riverview park. The kickoff is at 2:30 o'clock.

Members of the American Legion post and auxiliary and the Legion band will be guests of the college athletic association at the game. Post officials will be present each senior football player on the Hope squad with a bronze medal.

Fans are in for a look at one of the strongest college teams that has ever performed in the city, as Michigan Normal boasts of a powerful eleven that has compiled a great record this season.

Holland football fans are trying to forget about last Saturday's nightmare. The high school team took a 25-to-7 licking at the hands of the Muskegon Big Reds in the season finale.

Meanwhile in Detroit, Hope submitted to a 16-to-0 lacing at the hands of Wayne university.

In spite of the high school's defeat, Coach Gerald Breen's team completed the third best season Holland has had since 1918. Records reveal that the mark of four victories, three defeats and a tie will stand up against any records except Bud Hinga's 1925 and 1929 seasons.

Breen's team also went through six of its eight games without allowing the opponents to cross its goal line.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

Don't forget the next Post meeting on Wednesday the 27th. After the business we will have a few games and see who wins the feathers.

And keep next Tuesday open. The is turning out to see Maj. Bowes Unit No. 2 at the Armory.

We saw a number of the old timers at the banquet on the 11th. Some of the faces haven't been seen at a Post meeting since Heck was a pup; if someone had jotted down a few names and made a few personal calls this week, we could bulge the walls of our meeting place.

A group of 29 members of the Auxiliary went to Camp Custer on Wednesday, November 13th to the Birthday Party. This party was put on by the 5th District for all the Boys in the two hospitals whose birthdays come in November. Each Unit contributed to the program, Holland having Mrs. Helen Karsten at the piano, and Mrs. Ruth Miller and Mrs. Weller singing a group of songs. Candy and cigarettes and a gift to each man having a birthday this month were distributed.

Andy Rutgers, our efficient Finance Officer has been confined to his bed for the past few days.

Be sure to be at the City Hall Saturday the 16th at 1:45. The Band will lead the parade to the football game. The Post will raise the colors and between halves will present the graduating members of Hope's team with the Legion Tokens. Tickets to the game will be given each Legionnaire that parades.

"Heinie Geerds" has gone into the North woods with a party to bring back a deer. He says if he is fortunate enough to get two, we will have a venison supper. Heinie is a generous lad.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, have a very neat window at the DeVries & Dornbos store. It is a war-zone scene with barbed wire and trenches. A grim reminder of seventeen years ago, and very realistic.

We'll be seeing you at noon this Saturday and next Tuesday night. See above paragraphs for explanation.

Remember Major Bowes' program in the Armory next Tuesday. Matinee for children in the afternoon.

On Tuesday, November 19, the Willard G. Teenhouts post of the American Legion will sponsor a show put on by one of the units of the amateurs of Major Edward Bowes of New York City. Alfred C. Joldersma, general chairman, is asking that all veterans unite in making the event a successful one. The entertainment, of 11 acts, will be presented at 3:45 p.m. for school children and at 7 and 9 p.m.

Jack Leenhouts, Gordon Groenewoud, George Plakke and Palmer Martin visited over the week-end in Chicago.

HORSE PARASITE CONTROL TO BE EXPLAINED AT FARM MEETINGS

A schedule of horse parasite control meetings covering all districts of the county has been drawn up in the county agricultural agent's office by Mr. Arnold and aids. Meetings will be held throughout four continuous days, November 19-22. Dr. B. J. Killham, veterinarian of M.S.C. will discuss the project with farmers. The actual work of administering medicine to eradicate internal parasites will be done by local veterinarians. Application blanks will be distributed at meetings. Farmers who wish the work done should sign the application stating the number of animals to be treated. These will be sent to the county farm agent's office. A meeting of veterinarians will be called to make out a schedule for farm visits which will start early in December. Treatment will be given at the very reasonable rate of 50c per horse. Such low cost may be possible only because it will be an organized project in which many horses will be treated. Last year the work was carried on in only two communities and over 900 horses were treated. Farmers were well pleased with results. It is felt a greater number will be treated this winter. The carbon disulfide used to treat the animals is 100% efficient for removal of young bots which is quite common. This bot fly attacks themselves to the walls of the stomach and cause a great loss of vitality. In some cases practically destroy the stomach causing mortality.

The bot fly has a definite life cycle and right now is the best time to strike at the cycle. Frosts have eliminated the mature fly which lays eggs on the hair of the horse. All eggs should be removed about 30 days previous to treatment. They may be clipped off or much better be destroyed through an application of a 2% solution of carbolic acid or of compound creosol solution. The legs and chest should be soaked with the solution after which a brisk rubbing with sponge or cloth.

Thousands of horses have been treated in various states under just such a program as the one being put on. It has proved to be one of the most popular of extension projects. The following meeting are scheduled for Southern Ottawa County.

Nov. 19, Georgetown township hall, 10 a.m.; Smallegan's Hall, Forest Grove, 1:30 p.m.; Vriesland Township Hall, 3:00 p.m.

Nov. 20, Holland township hall, 10 a.m.; Blendon Township Hall, 1:30 p.m.; Olive Township Hall, 3:00 p.m.

Man Eighty Years Old Hears Life's Span Given in Verse on Birthday Anniversary

80th BIRTHDAY, GERRIT J. BROWER

Gerrit J. Brower, living down Hamilton way, has reached his four score and the anniversary was properly celebrated. Mr. Brower had a very eventful life judging from the poetical resume which comes from the pen of his brother, Herman Brower, formerly identified with the Hamilton Bank.

This "Longfellow" formerly of North Allegan County, now of Holland puts into verse the life span of his brother Gerrit covering eighty milestones—from 1855 to 1935.

The poem follows:—

It was in eighteen fifty-five,
In Fillmore town you did arrive
Four children were already here
And four more still yet to appear;
This latter fact was still unknown
So you were given Dad's name to own.
The home and family name to carry on,
Thru daylight, darkness and the dawn
You've done this faithfully and true
And found out much he never knew
Yet you have left for other kin,
Dad's name to carry on for him.

This is perhaps as it should be
The you have had of boys full three;
Their history we might explore
If time was given us galore
But just a word or two of each,
Is all the time within our reach.

There's Rich, who lately took himself a wife
Altho it seemed he'd batch for life,
And Bert a preacher of renown
In far off Orange City town;
Some other time, another day,
We may have more of them to say.

But George, he is the oldest son,
With him we ought to have some fun.
Of stature small, as you all know,
He's got the stuff in him to go,
Altho a plumber-man by trade,
Of other work he's not afraid;
He's strong of body, mind and limb,
Tho not much over five, and thin;
He used to rent a house of Jane,
The rent came due in shine or rain,
Twice fifteen bucks a month for sure
Enough to make a lean man poor.

And then he bought a piece of land,
Consisting mainly of some sand,
And moved an old, old house on there
With hopes to build a home somewhere;
Depression hit him as it all,
His pile began to look so small,
One day he said to wife, in fear,
You know what I have thought of dear,
We'll fix up the old old house,
We'll clean out every pecky louse,
And put a ceiling overhead,
A floor for table, chairs and bed;
Electric lights we'll put in too
And other things with which to do,
We'll fix the place up good and nice,
And even bar out all the mice.
A matter of some fifty bucks,
Will get us out of debt; Oh shucks;
We'll fix old Jane with all her rent
And not pay her another cent.

Said she to him, Oh George said she,
The thing o'erhead, it is so low
It is scarce six from top to toe
The people all their heads will bump,
And on their pate create a lump,
What will they think of us my dear,
If we should settle down in here.

Well, then said George, upon my life,
That's why I choose you for a wife,
I could not use one that was tall,
But had to have one that was small;
It's plenty high for you and me,
There's plenty room for us all three;
And if perchance there'd come one more,
There'd still be plenty room for four;
That's just the beauty of it all,
And we'll not have to feed them all;
And if the preacher man should call,
He's small like us and not so tall.
Then like a faithful wife she said,
There's room for table, chairs and bed.
And if it's good enough for you
I'll take the blame upon my head
Like Ruth of old, I'll go with you
And if the roof be low or high,
I'll stay with you until I die.
And so I was left; you ought to see
How snug they fixed a home for three;
This shows that George is not so small,
Considering his brains and all.

On Saturday evening, November 9, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Brower of Hamilton were pleasantly surprised by their children who gathered to celebrate Mr. Brower's 80th birthday, which occurred on Sunday, November 10.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Folkert and family, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ver Melle and family Mr. and Mrs. George Brower and son, Glen J., Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Millard and family, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bartels and family Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boeks and family.

On Monday morning congratulations came from Rev. and Mrs. Bert Brower and daughter Mary Ellen of Orange City, Iowa. Mr. Brower is a son of G. J. Brower.

And now of girls, there are just five,
Thank God, they still are all alive,
I was many a time we were in fear,
The oldest one would not be here
This night of all the nights for you
And all of us and mother too;
But God in mercy spared her life
As daughter, mother and as wife,
And should we try her worth to tell,
And of the other four as well,
I would be a task beyond our skill,
Tho we went at it with a will,
And even tho we could succeed,
I would be a tale too long to read.
Sometimes no doubt they've made you sad,
But much more often made you glad,
They've proved a blessing from above,
And all have showered you with love.

Now, as to brothers, sisters, all,
Two of them went as children small,
Within one week they were laid away
To wait the resurrection day,
One more in flush of motherhood,
Long years ago was laid away,
It is by us not understood,
Why such things happen just that way;
And one a mother of fourteen,
Her task all ended and well done,
Did need some rest as can be seen,
Before the setting of life's sun;
But disappointment is life's way,
Her worn out frame became a prey,
To fatal illness which ere long
Took her away to join the throng.
So these have left, the sisters four,
And brother Henry makes one more;
And four are left of all the nine,
And all are old, the feeling fine.
The oldest one has passed by five,
The end set forth in holy writ,
With cares and work he's all alive,
It's work and work, not time to visit or to sit,
Tho he were king upon a throne,
He still would work, the work alone.
We hope there'll be some work in heaven fair,
Or else he never could be happy there.

As to the youngest two of our clan,
According to the age of average man,
Their chance to reach the goal of eighty years,
Seems quite remote upon this vale of tears.
Yet there is one besides these nine, whose name
We have not told.

Who also thinks a brother's claim and right to hold,
For mother took him in when he was almost dead,
And he was nursed and cared for and well fed,
From mother's breast, the food that he did lack,
And when he'd grown, each year he would come back.

To claim a kinship that he felt was his,
And as he as a person somewhat harmless is,
And Boers' blood flows thru his veins, the same
As ours.

Why not let him a brother be, thru sunshine and thru showers?
We think to-night also of neighbors true,
And memories of friends of old we knew,
If we could turn back time by fifty years or so,
And visit these again that once we all did know,
O what a blessed time we'd have I'm sure,
And never care that once we're rich or poor.

Now you alone remain to be discussed,
A tale that will not be too long we trust,
You're not the first nor yet the last
In between, the pivot round which turned the rest,
Sometimes we've even thought you were the best,
But this I know you will disown,
For errors, faults and foolish things, you've known,
You're not in any man to perfect be.
Of all our faults that might be named,
I trust we're very much ashamed,
And daily try to starve them out,
Until at last they're put to rout.

You've reached last

Internationally Known Choir from Princeton, N. J. at Grand Rapids Next Monday.

Few choral organizations have ever achieved the immense popularity which the Westminster Choir of Princeton, N. J. has won in the cities of the United States and Europe. This choir will appear at the Grand Rapids Civic Auditorium next Monday, November 18.

BITTER QUARREL BETWEEN DEPARTMENTS TURNS OUT TO BE FARCE. BEAUTIFUL GIFT A REALITY

An unusual and at the same time a unique way in bringing about a surprise fell to the lot of Fire Chief Cornelius Blom, Jr., who recently celebrated his 52nd year as a member of Holland's volunteer fire department, starting more than half a century ago with the old Eagle Co. No. 1 when the old hose reel drawn by man power was the full equipment of the station.

The boys of the fire department, wishing to commemorate these many years of faithful service which include 27 years as assistant chief and chief, planned to bring about an affair that is long to be remembered.

There were years in the olden days when there was real blood between Eagle Hose Co. of the 2nd ward and Columbia Hose Co. of the first. Rivalry was bitter for years and there was practically no association between the two companies.

But this was at the time when Mr. Blom was in the ranks and was not chief. Since Cornelius has been at the head of the fire department, he straightened out these "ruffles" and during these many years there has been a most amicable relationship between the two companies. In fact, there was no discord, but concord.

Imagine the surprise of the chief who had gathered with members of Engine House No. 2 for a business meeting and an evening's chat as he does often in the local stations, when in rushed the members from Engine House No. 1, apparently with blood in their eyes and full of combat.

The members of Engine House No. 2 weren't slow in putting chips on their shoulders and got into an argumentative mood in a big hurry. The supposed fracas appeared to be a difference of opinion over the duties of the two departments.

For a time the arguments became so heated that Chief Blom feared more forceful tactics than arguments would be brought into play. Cornelius harked back to yesterday when every exhibition of skill in laying hose and every fire brought nasty "gibes" and wisecracks between members of the two companies.

What stunned the chief was the fact that, covering a period of years, there had been no discussion or differences between the members of the fire companies and they had worked together most harmoniously.

That a right-about-face came so suddenly was hard for him to conjecture. After the matter had gone far enough the members gave a hearty laugh, with plenty of back-slapping, and crowding around their chief, they gave him the second big surprise in the form of a mahogany wall plaque inscribed with the names of "his boys" as a reminder of the anniversary that brought about the surprise of the evening. This they presented to their chief, bearing the names of thirty faithful "fire ladders."

On a silver name plate is written, "to our beloved chief, Cornelius Blom, Jr., from the Holland fire department." On smaller plates around the side of the plaque are engraved the names of the men headed by Lane Kammerling, assistant chief, and Captains M. Vander Bie, M. Brandt and E. Vande Water.

Chief Blom was visibly affected, first because he was so cleverly taken in by the unexpected quarrel, and second that the manufactured storm of dissension had turned into sunshine of accord. And then followed the beautiful gift which gave Chief Blom's vocabulary a stunning blow for the moment.

When it was over he said, "The boys certainly got me. I simply couldn't understand the sudden change, but I am surely happy that this beautiful gift from these warm-hearted boys is a reality. I feel proud of this volunteer fire department. I take pride in the work of every 'man jack' of them, and I feel happy that our beautiful Holland is constantly protected by these two fire departments. You may be sure they will not shirk their duty. They have been tried too long for that."

Mr. Blom, as everyone knows, has preached cooperation in both of his companies and this attitude had reached the goal of perfection. It was no wonder that Mr. Blom was stunned when just the reverse seemed evident before his very eyes.

Assistant Chief Lane Kammerling made a fitting presentation speech when he graciously handed the plaque to his chief in behalf of the members whose names follow below.

The night men are: Sam Althuis, Ted Wyma, Russell Risselada, Gerald H. Bonnette, John Van Nul, L. Ten Brink, M. Vande Water, Dick Brandt.

The following are the members of the Holland fire department: Chief Blom, Assistant Chief Lane Kammerling; captain of ladder truck, Marine Brandt; captain of pumper No. 1, M. H. Vander Bie; captain of pumper No. 2, Bert Vande Water; drivers, Joe Ten Brink, Fred Zigterman, Sam Plagendoef and Ed De Feyter.

Other members of the department are Abel Smeenge, Andrew Klomparsen, Peter Michels, Ted Wyma, Jack Knoll, Henry De Meest, Sam Althuis, Egbert Beekman, Russell Risselada, Gerald Bonnette, Louis Ten Brink, Martinus Vande Water, Dick Brandt, Maurice Kuitte, John Van Nul, John Beintema, George Zuiverink, Egbert Streur, John B. Veldheer, Joe Greengood and Bert Ten Brink.

The beautiful mahogany plaque is now on exhibition in the show window of the Sells Jewelry store on East 8th st.

Holland Building New Model Homes

"TULIP TOWN BUNGALOWS" TO COST $3,500 (Grand Rapids Herald)

The second lap in Holland's home construction program is under way. John Arendshorst is building the first of a number of low priced homes to be known as "Tulip town bungalows."

The contract has been let for the first of these homes, which will be erected in the hill district, a desirable residential section in the southern part of the city.

The first bungalow is to be 24 by 35 feet and will consist of a living room, dinette, kitchen, two bedrooms and full bath.

The houses will have full basements with laundry tubs and warm air heating plants and are to be insulated throughout. They will be in the $3,500 class.

It is planned to open them for precompletion inspection in order that the visitors may observe the type of construction and insulation.

Industry Building, Too The program under the FHA, conducted by the chamber of commerce with John Good, the chairman, have seen 14 homes completed at an average cost of $5,000. Many remodeling projects are already finished, the banks having loaned $200,000 under the FHA for that purpose. Many other remodeling projects are under way and the outlook is for a real building boom.

In addition to the home building in this city of 18,000, seven Holland manufacturers are building additions to their plants that will aggregate a sum of $50,000. Many new automobile service stations are under construction. The department of conservation, under the WPA, has started the enlargement of the parking facilities at the Holland state park at Ottawa Beach.

Walks will be constructed to take the pedestrians off of the roadway and the refectory and bath house will be enlarged. A site has been given the federal government for a new coast guard station to cost $62,000, but this program has not yet been approved.

ONLY THREE OF 68,000 TREES IN HIGH SCHOOL TRACT ARE DEAD

The biology department in Holland high school has been unusually successful in planting one of the first planned forests, outside of state and government-owned woodlots.

In a tour of the 40-acre tract, over half planted, only a few blank spaces and three dead trees were discovered in 68,000 trees, already set. One tree is planted every three paces in rows six feet apart. The tallest ones, planted three years ago, are 12 to 14 inches tall and about three-eighths of an inch in diameter.

The tract, located on the north side of Lake Macatawa, is surrounded on three sides by wide fire lanes and on the north and east by hills. Blow grass has been planted and these are covered by branches to prevent sand from covering the section.

The work is supervised by Miss Lida Rogers, head of the biology department, supported by heads of state departments. The land was generously donated by Albert C. Keppel, East 10th street.

YOU CAN'T SELL BLUEGILLS

Sportsmen who observe the law do not buy bluegills in Michigan. It cost J. T. John, 50, of Ada, O., a total of $31.85 to find that out. C. G. Cole, conservation officer of Branch county, learned that John had purchased game fish. At the respondent's cottage Officer Cole not only obtained an admission of the offense but the bluegills, 144 in number. The fish were given to needy families, while John pleaded guilty in justice court and paid fine and costs.

The wild geese, that annually attract visitors to the Jack Miner bird sanctuary, near Kingsville, Ont., can be seen at close range from Nov. 10 to 30, says Jack Miner. The sanctuary is about 50 miles from Detroit.

SHOOTS HEIFER FOR DEER BUT FARMER GETS NOTHING

John Peterson, 55, a Reed City farmer, is doubtless greatly embarrassed. The "eyes" he saw in the reflected glare of a spotlight weren't those of a deer at all, but it seems he didn't know that. When another farmer discovered that his two-year-old heifer had been shot by mistake, he consulted W. C. Kidder, conservation officer. Peterson was taken into custody on a charge of hunting deer with artificial light and pleaded guilty. He was given his choice of a fine of $50 and costs of $10 or ninety days in the county jail. He selected the jail term. Since the heifer died the farmer only got the hide.

Ma's Big Family

A search through the names of the students and teachers of high school and junior high reveals fifteen members of the "Ma Family." John J. Riemersma, high school principal, is the best known to all. Besides him there are at least two students by that name; namely, Edward Riemersma and LeRoy Riemersma. Then there are also Buursma, Joldersma, Luidema, Poppema, Tjalma, Wiersma, Zuidema, Harringsma, Dykema, Schuitema, and Bylsma.—Holland High Herald.

DEER BREED IN NOVEMBER

The mating season for deer begins in November and this is the best time to keep out of the way of these animals. For bucks, particularly, are of decidedly uncertain disposition at this time of year and may attack human beings without provocation.

FAMILY IN ALLEGAN COUNTY STRICKEN BY BOTULISM, IS REPORT

A family named Cook living in Allegan county, that previously lived in Ottawa, has been reported to the local Health Unit as suffering from Botulism, a food poisoning resulting from eating canned spinach. Dr. Ralph Ten Have was called to the home and he together with other physicians diagnosed the disease. The symptoms are similar to infantile paralysis. This is the first case of the kind reported here at the health unit. It has occurred in other parts of the country and death results in a large percentage of cases.

There are six in the family, four of whom are stricken including two adults and two children. A general paralysis occurs which may be permanent. The family ate spinach that had been canned in the home. An exceedingly high temperature of long duration is necessary to can the vegetable against the spore, which even though killed, often creates the deadly toxin, said Dr. Ten Have.

Rev. Hager is a graduate of Hope college and Western Theological Seminary and is a prominent divine.

CHUMS, OVER 80, KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR. ARE UNHURT

Grand Haven's well known octogenarian chums, Jurgen Ball and Gerrit A. Bottje, who have been lifelong friends, escaped unhurt Sunday when a car being backed out of a driveway by a neighbor knocked them down. Mr. Ball and Mr. Bottje were returning from the First Reformed church service at the time, both under the same umbrella. They did not see the car and the driver failed to see them but was proceeding slowly.

Mr. Ball and Mr. Bottje got up, retrieved their umbrella, assured the driver of the car they were unhurt and went home. Neither had a scratch.

Mr. Ball is observing his 83rd birthday today by being on the job in his department store, now in its 60th year under his ownership. Mr. Bottje, who for years conducted a hardware business next to Mr. Ball's store, retired in 1918. He was 82 years old Oct. 1.

Holland fans consider that Neal Ball and "Johnny" Lavan were the outstanding stars in Holland's baseball constellation. Both leaving Holland to make remarkable showings in National and American league line ups. Both were short stops and Ball was one of three men who during the inception of big league baseball made a triple play unassisted.

Former Holland Boy Makes Good As Broadcaster

JOHN MULDER HAS BECOME PROMINENT ATTORNEY AND PUBLIC SPEAKER IN THE CITY OF CHICAGO

It is always pleasing to chronicle the successes of young men and women from Holland who have gone on "their own" elsewhere, in strange fields, and have made good. Many such items have appeared in the Holland City News during your editor's regime of more than 42 years and we hope to continue to boost our local young folk some time longer, for it certainly is pleasing to do so.

The young man in this instance is John Mulder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe J. Mulder, 21 W. 14th St.

Mr. Mulder was very popular at school and college, graduating with honors from Hope College in 1920. He was editor-in-chief of the Hope Anchor during 1927-28. He then left for the East and in 1931 graduated from Harvard Law School.

Mr. Mulder then cast his eye to the metropolis of the middle west, namely Chicago, and as a young and still unsophisticated lawyer, he cast his lot with the attorneys of that big city.

Mr. Mulder has a wonderful voice, a pleasing approach and is proving to be an outstanding orator. Lately he has been called upon to do radio announcing as secretary of "The Republican Club" who declared in radio speech that America lacks unity of purpose. He presented the club's platform to radio audience.

Secretary of the Republican club of Cook county.

Many from Holland tuned in on his broadcasts during the latter part of October and found that his enunciations were excellent and his talks not only inspiring but educational.

The "Illinois Observer" devotes more than two columns and a picture to the broadcast of Mr. Mulder and other Chicago and Cook County newspapers gave notice to his broadcast.

Mr. Mulder dwelt at some length on the constitution and climaxed his speech when he said, "Preserve our liberty and save the constitution."

When Mr. Mulder came to Chicago he was noticed by Robert C. Crow, prominent Chicago attorney, who saw possibilities in the young man and he became associated with the firm of Crow, Gorman, Sherman, Mulder and Wessink. This law firm is considered a leading one in Chicago and Cook County.

Mr. Crow, everyone knows, was at one time Cook County state's attorney and founder of the Republican Club of which Mr. Mulder is now secretary. Judge Robert E. Crow was a former chief justice of the circuit and criminal courts of Cook County. Gerald R. Gorman, another member of the firm, is master in chancery of the circuit court of Cook County.

It is rather interesting to note that Mr. Wessink, mentioned as one of the junior partners, was also a graduate from Hope College back in 1925.

Undoubtedly Mr. Mulder's political incentive was inculcated early in life when he was elected mayor of Holland High School, and believe us, even these stump speeches and political strategy were necessary.

As secretary of the Cook County Republican Club, Mr. Mulder is giving himself with the biggest political battle of the century, and having some idea of politics in and around Chicago, John Mulder, a Holland boy, will have his hands full. You can bet, however, that the game will be clean even though the battleground is Chicago.

DEER, AS A RULE, ARE SHY BUT NOT IN MUSKEGON

Deer sometimes have an exasperating habit of keeping from view when tourists go sightseeing, but not at Muskegon state park.

When a visitor arrives at park headquarters and indicates a wish to see some of the wildlife, Nick Trierweiler, park superintendent, rings a bell.

In a few minutes five or six deer will appear from the woods, trot up to the superintendent of the park, and nuzzle his hand. They may even eat the grain he offers them.

Each evening for the past several weeks Trierweiler has called his small deer herd into headquarters by ringing the bell. Invariably their response is prompt and eager.

"SUMATRA" LEAVES 3,000 TONS OF COAL AT SPRING LAKE

"Sumatra," a large coal freighter, docked at the Spring Lake Ice and Coal dock at Ferryburg, Ohio, unloaded 3,000 tons of coal.

This is the last boat expected by the Spring Lake company this year. There have been three large boats at that dock this year which have brought in about 9,000 tons of coal for delivery in this section.

HOLLAND READY TO START ANNUAL CARP FISHING PROGRAM

Jacob N. Lievense, president of the Holland Fish and Game club, has announced that the fall and winter program of carp fishing in

Lake Macatawa has been completed. Arrangements have been made with the Severs Brothers of Saugetuck to have charge of operations. Club officials are anticipating a successful season, though the water level has dropped and many of the favorite haunts of carp are disrupted. The Saugatuck fishermen have purchased a 1,600-foot net for operations. Profit will be used for extension of the program of restocking the waters of Ottawa and Allegan counties with bass and bluegills.

"The Sermon of the Red Cross"

As I sat beside the Red Cross desk awaiting an important call, My eyes were focused on the Red Cross emblem pasted on the wall.

The Red Cross seemed to come to life and grow larger as I gazed. It seemed to raise an appealing sermon as I sat—amazed!

I am the emblem of mercy and charity, your guiding star of love. Give to all—as I gave for you—support the Red Cross without delay.

Scatter seeds of human kindness as you journey from day to day. Stretch out your arms, as I have mine and scatter those fruitful seeds.

Each seed will grow as you sow, bearing gracious deeds. Spread words of cheer, lend a helping hand and let joy fill your heart.

For as you travel along this way in life each one must do their part.

Don't let false pride stand before you—give and do the things worthwhile.

Lift up the emblem of the Red Cross and do it with a smile! Give freely of kind words and deeds and of money you can spare—

For I stand for Mercy and Charity. I go—Everywhere! To be giving, Merciful and Charitable—the Red Cross lives that creed.

Join today, don't delay in this critical time of need— And then—the Red Cross grew smaller, was just an emblem on the wall.

But I had heard its appealing sermon—Give! do your part—was its urgent call.
