Buchanan Won't Renew Contract Here Next Year

Acting HHS Principal
Feels Undue Emphasis
Placed on Football

Austin J. Buchanan, acting principal of Holland High School, informed the Board of Education by letter at a regular meeting Monday night that he does not plan to renew his contract at the close of the present year and felt he should advise the board at this early date so that there would be adequate opportunity to plan for the next school year.

"I must state that events of the past two months have indicated that I cannot work with maximum effectiveness here. I feel that undue emphasis has been and is now placed on football, and I do not feel that the high school administration has been given adequate time or backing in meeting the issues involved. As one of my major fields was physical education, I have an intense interest in athletics for the welfare of every boy and girl. I dislike the trend toward emphasis on winning," he wrote.

"I want you to know that the high school faculty is composed of loyal, hard working people whose friendship and complete cooperation I have fully enjoyed. The coaches are an especially fine group of teachers who deserve complete support.

"I have enjoyed working with Holland High students throughout my 15 years here and I am sure there are no finer people anywhere. They have been more than helpful in their approach to the crowded conditions this year.

"I hope that your school study will soon culminate in a new facility for them. I have enjoyed my years in Holland and it is not without some regret that I will leave you," Buchanan concluded. His letter was dated Nov. 5.

Board President Wendell A. Miles read a letter dated Nov. 9 signed by high school teachers expressing deep regret and stating that they regarded Buchanan as an able educator and an efficient administrator. The letter mentioned the crowded conditions and the many problems resulting therefrom and particularly mentioned Buchanan's interest in the students.

Supt. Walter W. Scott concurred with the regret and sentiments expressed by the teachers and said he perhaps had an even deeper interest in Buchanan's career in view of having worked closely with him the last six years, grooming and encouraging him in administrative work and seeing him take the position of assistant principal in charge of operations.

Scott pointed out that the board has always given enthusiastic support to every phase of the school program and the board and faculty have worked closely together on all programs.

As an example, he pointed to the series of informal meetings to study the needs of the school program. He said the first such meeting was devoted to guidance study, and shortly thereafter the superintendent's office was moved in order to make room for counseling. These informal studies also took in vocational education, physical education, languages, mathematics and many other subjects to acquaint the board with the total program of the school and he felt that the board has always been concerned with the total school program and anxious that no one aspect be overemphasized over any others.

Last year and this year, the informal meetings on school curriculum were supplanted by many meetings on area study, and Supt. Scott made public recognition at commencement exercises last June of the 100 or more meetings board members had attended on that subject.

Scott said the board's expressions on school spirit at football games last month were correctly quoted Oct. 9 in The Sentinel. This was the article over which Buchanan had indicated displeasure.

President Miles said the communication required no action and he went on with other business. However, he did instruct the secretary to acknowledge Buchanan's letter.

Scouters Attend District Meeting

More than 100 Chippewa District Scout leaders attending the "Roundtable" meeting at Third Reformed Church Tuesday evening heard Robert G. Rescorla, District Commissioner, announce an all-out drive during November and December to increase the use of Boys' Life magazine, official program magazine of the Boy Scouts of America. The magazine promotion program is being conducted in the interest of better reading for the boys in this area.

This includes 33 percent of the Cub Scouts, 77 percent of the Boy Scouts, 33 percent of the Explorers. Hietje's program is aimed at providing this worthwhile reading for all boys.

Boy Scout Leaders met for the first time under the leadership of Chester Smith, newly appointed assistant district commissioner assigned to Boy Scout Roundtables.

Barbara Lampen Addresses Group

The Kiwanis Club of Holland met Monday night in the Tulip Room of the Warm Friend Tavern.

As their guest speaker, Miss Barbara Lampen, teacher at Holland Junior High School, spoke on her experience as an exchange teacher when she traveled to the Netherlands, to teach under the Fulbright System of exchange.

Miss Lampen told about this system of teacher exchange and explained the opportunities for the American teachers to obtain a new experience in other school systems abroad.

"In the Netherlands," Miss Lampen said, "the students do not have any electives, they are forced to take all the subjects that the schools offer. The examinations are given by the government. The students' subjects are much more in detail than the subjects taught in our public schools."

A discussion was held on the political party affiliation during the Dutch elections during 1955, the structures of the different parties and the religious affiliations.

Heeringa, Martin Head Industrial Gifts Committee

Group Has $50,000
Quota in 'Second Mile'
Campaign for Hospital

George Heeringa, president of Hart and Cooley Manufacturing Co., and Ab Martin, general manager of Hermetic Motor Department, General Electric Co., have been appointed co-chairmen of the Industrial Gifts Committee of the Holland Hospital building fund campaign. The goal of the committee is $50,000 in the $150,000 "second mile" drive.

Speaking for the campaign executive committee, Henry S. Maentz, president of First National Bank, said, "We appreciate the important civic responsibility which has been accepted by the co-chairmen and the members of the Industrial Gifts Committee. We feel confident that the industry goal will be made, for our industries can always be counted upon to do their proportionate share."

The gifts of industries represent contributions from the corporations only. Employees will be solicited at their homes during the public drive in December.

Solicitation by the Industrial Gifts Committee will start immediately. Members of this committee include Gerald Appledorn, A. G. Buys, Wilbur Cobb, John Emmick, J. J. French, G. W. Haworth, Ray Kolk, Michael M. Potter, Earl Ragains, LaVern E. Rudolph, Art Schwartz, Robert Staal, R. W. Snyder, Ben J. Sigh, Hans Suzenaar, G. Van Putten and P. D. Winchester.

Concerning the program, co-chairman Heeringa stated, "It is most important that the necessary funds be raised so that the complete expansion plans can be carried out, for it is essential that the people of this area have an adequate hospital. Because of the humanitarian nature of this project, I feel confident that the industry of this area will accept its fair share of responsibility in this urgent 'second mile' appeal."

Co-chairman Martin stated, "I feel confident that this drive will have the whole-hearted support of industry. This campaign deserves the full support of industry because industry is interested in the welfare of its employees and will do all it can to help provide adequate hospital facilities for its employees and for all other people of this area."

New Truck Route Now in Effect

A new truck route has gone into effect that will carry the large semis around the perimeter of Holland.

The through state trucks on River Ave., Michigan Ave., and State St. still remain in effect. The new routes are aimed at taking trucks off the heavily traveled streets and routing them around the outskirts of the city.

City Manager Herb Holt said this also applies to trucks making local deliveries when possible. Warning tickets will be issued for the next 30 days.

Holt pointed to two sections of the Ordinance Code which state: 1. No person shall operate any through truck upon any street of the city except upon those streets designated as truck routes. 2. The drivers of all trucks which to any extent either load or unload within the city shall drive upon designated truck routes wherever possible; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply to the drivers of trucks which are used principally in making local deliveries.

Holt said the entire new truck route has been well marked. Detailed copies of the route are available at the City Hall or the police station.

New Conservation Film Added to County Library

A new color film, "Forest Conservation," and slides have been added to the film service library of the County Education Office by the West Ottawa Soil Conservation District.

The film calls attention to many ways in which man has depleted the forest through greed and ignorance, forecasts the results of this exploitation and suggests what can be done in order to save this great resource.

The West Ottawa Soil Conservation office, working in close contact with the Education office, has emphasized the need for conservation education and has provided booklets, conservation tours and films for use in schools.

The case in question involves damage to the Bowerman home during a "windstorm-tornado" last April 3.

Christmas Festival Will Be Staged Here Nov. 24

Holland will observe its second annual Christmas festival Saturday, Nov. 24, it was announced today by a joint committee representing the Holland Ministerial Association, the Community Service committee of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, and the Retail Merchants Association.

Plans call for much the same program as last year starting with a parade of religious floats at 7 p.m. proceeding west on Eighth St. to Civic Center where a public program will follow. Store windows downtown will be darkened for the occasion except those which have Christmas displays which lend themselves to the spirit of the occasion.

Last year's festival aimed at "keeping Christ in Christmas" was termed a great success. There were overflow crowds at Civic Center. This year arrangements are being made for overflow crowds in the exhibition room where a public address system will be installed.

Representing the ministerial association on the main committee are the Rev. Francis Dykstra of Harlem, the Rev. John Nieuwsma of Fourth Reformed Church and the Rev. Fred Handlogten of Montello Park. Jack Plewes and George Heeringa represent the Community Service committee of the Chamber. The Junior Chamber of Commerce is aiding with arranging the parade and Kenneth Kleis is parade chairman.

To date, floats are scheduled by Prospect Park Christian Reformed Church, Young people of Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church, youth group of Wesleyan Methodist Church, Men's Adult Bible class of Maplewood Reformed Church, Sixth Reformed Church, Men's Brotherhood of Fourth Reformed Church, "Religion for Today" of Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed Church, Men's society of Montello Park Christian Reformed Church, Christ's Ambassadors Assembly of God and Harlem Reformed Church.

The Nativity Scene, which the Junior Chamber of Commerce provided a couple of years ago for Centennial Park, will again be used on the stage of Civic Center for the program.

The impressive candlelight procession, four abreast, by the two choirs of Holland High and Christian High again will launch the program at Civic Center. There also will be group carol singing a meditation by layman and choir selections.

Top three winning floats will be awarded plaques or cups. All others will receive community awards from the Chamber of Commerce.

Committee Selected for New Reformed Church

A steering committee of five members was selected at the third organization meeting of persons interested in forming a new Reformed Church southwest of Holland in the vicinity of 32nd St. About 50 persons attended the meeting Tuesday night in the basement of Trinity Reformed Church, the "mother church" of the new organization.

Plans were made to start services Nov. 25 in Montello Park school. There will be a morning worship at 10 a.m., Sunday School at 11:30 a.m. and an evening worship at 7 p.m. Guest preachers will be chosen.

Serving on the steering committee are James H. Klomprens, chairman; Ernest Post, Jr., secretary; Harold Scholten, treasurer; Gene Vande Vusse, acting Sunday School superintendent, and Frank Meyer. Wayne Jacobusse was named chairman of a site committee.

He shot the ring-neck with a 16 gauge shotgun. Nyhoff has been out hunting several times since the season opened. This is the biggest bird I ever shot," he said.

Board to Make Decision Soon On Annexation

Two Attorneys Present
Opinions on Taxation
Problems in Allegan

The Board of Education held a special supper meeting Monday night preceding the regular meeting to hear opinions by two local attorneys on taxation issues in school districts in adjoining Allegan county. After a two-hour meeting the board adjourned and then pursued the subject again at the regular meeting.

Specifically, the question was: "Would the problems of taxation preclude successful annexation to the school district of the city of Holland any district or districts that may lie wholly or in part in Allegan county?"

Presenting opinions were Atty. Peter S. Boter and Atty. Vernon D. Ten Cate. Both pointed to the complex difficulties in tax bases, assessments and the general difficulties involving 15-mill limitations. Ten Cate's statement was more detailed and tended to point out more obstacles. He favored annexation in Ottawa county, but felt that in Allegan county there would be no solution other than possibly annexing a section to the municipality, and this only with the greatest difficulty.

In pursuing the subject again some hours later, the board decided that it must make a decision very soon on what it will recommend to the local area in the way of school reorganization. Some members felt that the legal tieups would preclude any Allegan school districts in a general school annexation program, and others felt that the area school study has indicated strongly that certain Allegan sections must be integrated into the school program. As one member put it, "You can't build a fence or 32nd St!"

Others felt that the obstacles were not insurmountable, pointing to the reorganization program of Plainwell which took in sections in Allegan, Barry and Kalamazoo counties.

Upshot was that the board will hold another special meeting Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. on the subject. By that time, representatives in outlying sections will have received their copies of the area school study.

In other business, Member James Hallan reported on a meeting of the Athletic Council in which school spirit, the $800 football deficit, band trips, possibility of joining a conference and other subjects were discussed. There was further discussion on having Holland in a football conference, pointing to possibilities of linking certain Grand Rapids schools, Grand Haven, Muskegon Heights, Benton Harbor and schools of like enrollments.

Supt. Walter Scott pointed again to the excellent cooperation between the Board of Education and the Athletic council and said the board on occasion has been under criticism by townsfolk for paying an extra $3,400 above schedule on salaries for football whereas the basketball expenditure is $1,700. Possibility of a parents' organization on the sports front also was discussed.

A communication was read from Buy E. Bell, superintendent of the Board of Public Works expressing appreciation for allowing the BPW to drill temporary wells on school property at 25th St. and Van Raalte Ave. last summer.

The board okayed a contract release for Mrs. Georgia Condon, ninth grade English and citizenship teacher, as soon as suitable replacement is found. The Condons are moving to Lansing where Mr. Condon has taken a new position.

Edward Donivan, administrative assistant, presented his annual school enrollment estimate report of 1956, containing a wealth of material on enrollment in the city and all sending districts as well as a breakdown on public and parochial schools. Projected figures up to 1964 point to even more complicated school problems in the future.

In the buildings and grounds committee report, it was reported that there are 382 students attending eighth grade at present in outlying districts, 178 in public schools and 183 in church schools. Together with city children, it appears approximately 660 would enter the ninth grade next year.

From these figures, more class rooms will be needed the next few years and the committee suggests that a temporary building be investigated to provide the necessary facilities. Perhaps music rooms can be moved to temporary quarters and turning this area over to study halls.

Assistant Principal Austin Buchanan has suggested double shifts with a nine-period day, and the committee recommended that this idea be explored to determine extra personnel needed and extra expense involved. The second alternative is a temporary building and Building Supervisor Arthur Read was instructed to investigate probable costs and to make recommendation as to the location and future use as a warehouse, bus barn, etc.

The board approved a recommendation to provide a watchman at the high school building 365 days per year.

President Miles presided at the meeting. All members were present with the exception of Lester J. Kuypers.

Holland Students Honor Veterans

Rev. Van Heukelom Speaks at Ceremony In the Civic Center

The names of 74 former Holland High School students who gave their lives for their country were read Monday as 1,500 students, parents and guests rededicated themselves to the pledge that they have not died in vain.

Holland High clerk Jo Lee Hurlbut read the list of names, covering the two World Wars and the Korean conflict as the school conducted its annual Veterans Day ceremonies in the Civic Center.

The crowd listened in rapt attention as the names of the persons making the supreme sacrifice were read off and also to several reverent selections by the Holland High band and the a capella choir.

The main speaker, the Rev. Raymond Van Heukelom delivered an address on "America's Most Important Citizen" — the individual who places love of peace and country above his own life.

Vernon Ten Cate of the Holland Exchange Club presented the school with the 28 documents comprising the Freedom Shrine. The documents cover the American heritage from the Declaration of Independence to the present, and are replicas of the original drafts.

Band conductor Arthur C. Hills opened the musical portion of the program after high school Mayor Tom Bos had outlined the observance of Veterans Day.

A stirring salute to the services, the "Host of Freedom" march preceded the presentation of the flag and the pledge of allegiance.

After a solo trumpet played "Taps" and an echo answer to each phrase, a hidden choir group sang "Nearer My God to Thee" as the audience bowed in silent tribute.

A capella leader Willard Fast directed "How They So Softly Rest" and "In Solemn Silence." Rev. Van Heukelom pointed out four duties which he said every individual should realize. The guarding of the American heritage, its culture and history and its abundance by the Golden Rule were listed first.

Explaining that there is a difference between patriotism and nationalism, he said a patriot loves his country while a nationalist hates all other nations.

The championing of international peace, justice and righteousness he named as the third duty of a patriot, and he condemned the use of the veto in the United Nations by saying he feared the world body might wind up like its predecessor, the League of Nations, since the nations of the world apparently do not respect the principles on which it is founded. He also expressed wonder at where world righteousness would come from since the intervention of Great Britain and France in the Middle East.

He called for a new devotion to world righteousness and said a man has nothing to live for unless he has something he would die for.

In presenting the Freedom Shrine, Ten Cate noted "there is no greater time to rededicate ourselves to the principles of these documents."

Following the formal presentation of the Freedom Shrine, the audience again stood as the band played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Christian School Receives Replicas Of Famed Documents

The presentation of the Freedom Shrine of 28 replicas of famous documents in United States history and a tribute to war dead featured Veterans' Day services Monday at Holland Christian High School.

Gerald Mannes of the Holland Exchange Club presented the documents to the school and also gave the main address, which was based on the sixth verse of the 16th Psalm: "the lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage."

Principal Raymond Holwerda received the Shrine and read off the names of Christian High alumni killed in service.

Student council President Norman Boeve spoke for the students and thanked the Exchange Club for the documents.

In his address, Mannes traced the national as well as the spiritual heritage of the country and said "they are inseparable."

Noting that this is National Educational Week, Mannes also emphasized the part played by parents in the nation's heritage.

Holwerda read the names of Marvin Lamer, Henry Blacquire, Kenneth Klaasen and Leonard Vos as the Christian High war dead and remarked that their blood helped purchase some of the documents which the school had received.

Concluding the program, the band played "Taps," "The Star Spangled Banner" and the audience joined in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Finally, the band and audience joined in "America."

Several townspeople and Raymond Smith, president of the Exchange Club attended the ceremonies.

One Person Injured In M-21 Bypass Mishap

One person was injured and two cars damaged in a collision Sunday night on new M-21 and Paw Paw Dr.

Roderick Mooney, 19, Grand Rapids, was treated at Holland Hospital for scalp lacerations and released.

Holland High's football team had the ball just three more plays than their nine foes this year and came up 28 yards short of the opponents' yardage, official team statistics revealed by Coach Dale Shearer showed today.

The Dutch, in compiling an unusual 3-4-2 record had the ball 346 times while the foes had it 343 times. Holland picked up a total of 2,012 yards and the foes 2,040 yards.

On the ground, Holland picked up 1,411 yards and lost 216 while the opponents had 1,823 rushing with 219 in losses. This gives Holland a 3.33 yards per try mark and the foes 4.28 per try.

The Dutch were definitely king in the air where 817 yards were collected on 30 completions of 112 passes. Four aeriels were intercepted while Holland intercepted six of the 69 enemy passes thrown, of which 23 were completed for 436 yards.

The opponents out first - downed Holland 100-86. The foes picked up 21 in the first quarter, 31 in the second, 18 in the third and 30 in the fourth.

Holland's first quarter was best with 26, while the first downs declined by two in each of the other three periods. The second quarter was 22, the third, 20 and the fourth 18.

Unfortunately Holland lost 13 out of the 22 fumbles while the foes, who fumbled 33 times, recovered 14.

Holland had five kicks blocked this year and returned 31 punts for 67 yards. The foes had four blocked and returned 37 for 71 yards.

The Dutch returned 30 kickoffs for 291 yards but several of the kickoffs were picked up near the 30-yard line. The foes returned 26 for 315 yards.

Holland was penalized 375 yards including 36 five-yarders and 13 15-yarders. The foes had 20 for five yards and 18 for 15 yards.

Holland's best period for scoring was the third quarter where 39 points were chalked up. Their opponents found the fourth quarter for their liking, racking up 54 points in that stanza. Cumulative quarter totals:

Foes 13 48 32 54 — 147
Holland .. 20 23 39 19 — 111
Shearer used an average of 29 boys in every game. The smallest number to play was 24 and the biggest group was 38.

As for next year, Shearer expects Holland will have a "good nucleus" and should have "a lot more depth."

Fired-Up Holland Wins Finale, 19-14

Dutch Explode For 2 TD's in 3rd And One in 4th

Doing as their coaches hoped they would, Holland High's football team exploded for two quick touchdowns in the third period and another booming tally in the fourth period to down Grand Rapids Otawara Hills, 19-14 in the season's finale for both clubs Friday night at Riverview Park.

About 2,500 cold fans saw the Dutch come roaring back with a "win this one for the seniors" attitude after the half and erase a 7-0 Otawara Hills lead. The Indians picked up a final touchdown in the last minute and a half.

Kelth White, the smallest of the Dutch front line men, started it off by recovering an Ottawa fumble on the Indian 35 on the first scrimmage play of the second half.

Eight plays later, seven cracks through the line and a 15-yard pass from Tom Stoel to Terry Oting gave Vern Teske, a sophomore who has gained a lot of stature, a chance to crash over from the three. Tom Aye missed the kick and the Dutch trailed 7-6.

But with the force of the eight-play drive, the Indians experienced what happened to Holland in the St. Joseph game. They were on their heels the rest of the second half.

Four minutes later the Dutch were home again. This score followed a 53-yard drive in only six plays, but the pattern was the same. Consistent cracking of the line, including a 18-yard break through by fullback Wes Kuyers, plus short tackle punches by Teske and again a ace in the hole, a 26-yard pass from Stoel to Terry Oting made up the combination.

This time Stoel sneaked through center from a yard out for the six pointer to put the Dutch in front 12-7. Aye's kick was partially blocked.

Ottawa was stunned and with four minutes gone in the fourth quarter the Dutch had put the game on ice.

This time, Aye pounced on another Ottawa fumble on the Indians 35. After a five-yard gain, a 15-yard penalty pushed the Dutch back to the Ottawa 45 where Stoel threw a long pass which Larry Alderink came up and grabbed on the Indian 25.

The completion proved another push. And with the right side of Al Hill and Ted Van Zanden, who again played a fine game, opening a big hole and Wes Kuyers ripping through, the Dutch captain shook a few tacklers and headed for home. This time Aye converted.

Ottawa, which hadn't passed all season in winning second place in the Grand Rapids City League, opened up in the final quarter and threw six and completed three for 60 yards.

One aerial gave the Indians a first down on the Holland 49, the second put them on the Dutch 36 and the third, thrown from Steve Graves to Chuck Bohner, finished on the Holland 40, setting up the score. Dick Hill crashed from the score. Dick Hill crashed from the score. Dick Hill crashed from the score.

Ottawa had scored its first touchdown on Frank Breen's recovery of a Tom Stoel fumble on the Holland 21 yard line. With the help of a couple blockers, Breen, the last of a long-line of outstanding Ottawa prep athletes, scooted straight down the middle of the field for a touchdown. The play came with 1:45 left in the first half. Waters kick was good.

In the first half, both teams got to their foes' 12 yard line but couldn't score. After Ottawa's Jack Engen intercepted a pass on the Ottawa 22 and with Tony Bott leading the way, the Indians marched pell-mell to the Holland 12 in eight plays.

Engen fumbled on the 12 and Lavern Bronkema, Holland's junior tackle, recovered.

Later in the first period, guard Terry Feddick recovered another Ottawa fumble on the Ottawa 46. In ten plays, all on the ground, Holland made it to the Indians nine, but on the next play halfback Keith Bosch fumbled, and Ottawa recovered on the 13.

Holland ended the season with a 3-4-2 record while Ottawa Hills had a 4-5 mark.

Holland High School Seniors Learn By Doing in Local Stores, Industry

For the eighth straight year, Holland High School seniors are earning money and credits toward graduation by working part-time in Holland area industries, stores and offices in conjunction with the cooperative training program.

This year 89 students are taking advantage of the program, which is designed to train students in occupations which fit their abilities, aptitudes and interests.

The 41 employers which this year are supplying the work don't just keep the students busy at helter-skelter jobs, but provide a planned program. The school provides the instruction related to the work and the business takes care of the experience.

The program is now divided into two divisions — trade and industry and distributive education and office practice. Myles Runk handles the trade and industry coordination while Donald Gebrad is in charge of the distributive and office practice part. "The entire program is directed by Robert L. Slocum, head of the school's vocational education.

Under the program, available to seniors as the equivalent of a single class, students work three to four hours a day at their jobs. Some of them work mornings, some afternoons.

This week, the school presented plaques to the participating businesses by way of thanking them for their cooperation in enabling students to obtain practical experience in fields which the students feel they may like to enter.

The speaker developed a sympathetic interest in these underprivileged citizens by showing not only how they live but why, because of conditions beyond their control, they live as they do. He added that these people respond favorably to better conditions as was proved by those who have been fortunate enough to have moved into the new New York City project apartments.

Mrs. Robert Crockery conducted the devotions using as her theme, "All for Christ." A special collection was taken for the support of the Sacramento Community Church.

Mrs. John Van Zomeren, president, conducted the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. I. T. Schuppert and Miss Helene Pelgrim.

CLARE HOFFMAN PERSONALITY

It occasionally happens that a politician is more a person than a mere public man. This is not often the case but when it happens it is sure to attract attention.

Clare Hoffman, of Allegan, is an example. He has never been merely the congressman from the Fourth Michigan District; he has always remained, first and last, Clare Hoffman, who did his own thinking, his own praising and his own damning (the latter sometimes in language that was unconventional, to say the least).

The average Public Man (the capital letters are necessary) is a person who has his ear to the ground. He maintains a public relations machine that informs him what the voters want him to say, how they want him to think. Occasionally between elections he may develop the gumption to step across one of the lines he has found marked out for him by what he thinks of as his "public opinion," but as election day approaches he is increasingly ready to become a "yes man" to his constituency.

The run-of-the-mill politician is not noted for personality, that quality that distinguishes him as a human being from others. He is far more inclined to be a reflection of a party or a group than of his own separate individuality. Only now and then someone enters politics who is a man first and a Public Man second.

Clare Hoffman was always a man first, a personality rather than a mere Public Man. In some districts this could be fatal; the voters often like a representative who merely reflects them instead of himself.

In the Fourth Michigan District it worked for some twenty or more years. During all that time the voters loved the cantankerous congressman who was not merely a voting convenience but a personality. Some of them considered him a freak, some felt that there were elements of the clown in him, but they did not ignore him and there were elements of the clown in him, but they did not ignore him. It is hard for a mere congressman to gain a national reputation; there are just too many congressmen for that. The Allegan solon succeeded, not so much because of stonemanship as because of sheer personality. He was for years about the only Michigan congressman who was known nationally. In a national sense he was often reviled, but he was never ignored.

Personality is a mysterious thing. It is what is popularly called "it." Some have it, others don't; that's about all that can be said. Except that the 5 county districts has elected Clare their Congressman for another 2 year term.

The Beatitudes
Matthew 5:11-12
C. P. Dame

(Based on copyright outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. and used by permission.) Some of the greatest things ever written are found in the Bible. The sermon on the Mount is the best sermon ever preached. No one can apply the teachings of this sermon unless he has the spirit and power of Jesus Christ.

I. Christ is the greatest of all teachers. The Lord taught, preached and healed when he was upon the earth. Jesus taught the multitudes as times and at other times he taught his disciples. In this lesson we are studying a part of the Sermon on the Mount — a sermon which Jesus, according to tradition, preached on Mt. Hattin. The beatitudes form the first part of that sermon. In these beatitudes, Jesus pronounces certain people happy or blessed. According to Jesus happiness does not depend upon what a person has or does but upon what he is. Paul sang in a dungeon while Belshazzar trembled in a palace. Both the crowds and the disciples heard this sermon. We read, "And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain" and "when he was set, his disciples came unto him" and he "taught them." The sermon was meant for the disciples.

II. The teachings of Christ are much needed today. Jesus calls the poor in spirit blessed. Luke says, "Blessed are the poor." The poor in spirit are the humble, the teachable people who know their limitations, shortcomings and sins. Prosperity, success, power often foster pride and a feeling of self-sufficiency. Jesus also praises the mourners. The kind of mourner Jesus praises are those who mourn for their sins and who grieve because of the havoc of sin in the world. Those who are sorry because of the power of sin know what tragedies sin causes. The Lord commended the meek. He said that the meek would inherit the earth. In a time of planes and bombs it is good to stress this truth. The Soviets will not inherit the earth. The Hitler and the Stalins fade away.

Hungry and thirsty people look for satisfaction. Jesus said that the people who hunger and thirst after righteousness will be satisfied. Food satisfies physical hunger and water quenches physical thirst. Those who thirst after righteousness — who want to be right with God and man, they will be satisfied. The righteousness of which Jesus speaks is a gift of God — it is given to guilty sinners who have no righteousness of their own but who are made righteous through faith in Christ.

The merciful are shown mercy. People who have experienced the mercy of God in their own hearts and have received a pardon for their sins are ready to show mercy.

The word "pure" appears 28 times in the New Testament. The pure will see God, the Holy One. They see God in his works in the world. Early Christianity was marked by chastity and charity and both were uncommon in those early days and they are still not common enough. Purity is the condition of vision.

We are living in a day when we always seem to be on the brink of war. Jesus called the peacemakers blessed. He himself is the Prince of Peace. A person must first have the peace of God in his heart before he can do anything to promote peace. The Russians talk peace but plan for war. A man must first be at peace with God before he can seek peace among men. No one likes to be persecuted and yet Jesus calls the persecuted blessed.

We live in a world that is hostile to the reign of God and hence it is to be expected that there should be persecution. Jesus was persecuted. People are still persecuted "for righteousness' sake" and for "the Lord's sake. It is good to remember that the Lord rewards those who suffer for him, both here and in heaven.

Tirrell Asks Long-Range Plan on College Level

Backing up his statements with a wealth of statistics, Dr. John E. Tirrell, dean of Grand Rapids Junior College, pointed to the need of a long-range plan to chart educational needs in the future when he addressed the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon on the subject, "Quality and Equality in Higher Education."

With a rapidly increasing population and a growing percentage of young people attending colleges and universities today, Dr. Tirrell said education is one of the last frontiers in a country which at one time had many frontiers. "Brainpower today is one of our most important resources in America," he said.

With rapidly expanding institutions of higher learning, Dr. Tirrell pointed to the difficulties in maintaining quality at a yet have equality in colleges today. In 1900 some 238,000 young people or 4 percent of the age group were in college. By 1940 this number had increased to 1.5 million or 18 percent, and by 1950 there were 2 1/2 million in higher education or 31 percent. Since then, the enrollment has increased one percentage point each year.

This trend in education was reflected in high school enrollments which increased from 15 percent in the World War I days to 75 percent in the late 30's.

Educators differ on the two approaches to meeting today's problem. Some believe enrollments should be selective and others believe that higher education should be made easily available for everybody with the ultimate goal of easy steps in elementary training, high school, college, graduate school and professional training. Dr. Tirrell pointed out that not everyone must have a professional education. He favored being somewhat selective with consideration for merit, but insisted that the framework be such that potential talent get proper encouragement.

Dr. Tirrell mentioned the continuation of the industrial revolution, commonly called automation, and called attention to the fantastic numbers of persons required to make the machines and to certain managerial jobs. He quoted one large manufacturer who currently employs 150,000 men and women who said instead of the 300 college graduates now in his employ, he expects eventually he will be employing 7,000 graduates each fall.

To maintain quality, Dr. Tirrell said facilities must continue to screen out students who are not college material to maintain quality and integrity. He said parents hardly expect a college athletic

Thanks Be To God
Col. 3:17; II Cor. 9:8-15
by Darrell Franken

When are you the most thankful? Is your thanksgiving felt more keenly during a struggle or after you are the victor? Does your sense of thanksgiving bubble over more during an examination or after it is all over? These questions serve to illustrate the fact that it is rather difficult to be thankful at all times. Each day there are times when discouragement, bitterness, and disgust enter our minds. When this happens, thanksgiving makes its exit.

But after every storm the sun seems to shine more brilliantly than before. These are the times in which thanksgiving and praise are most welcome to God's ears. Yet, how often do God's people stop in the midst of such radiant experiences of thanksgiving to offer a prayer.

We are thankful when something makes a difference in our lives. When good satisfies hunger, when loneliness is filled with friendship, and when defeat is followed by victory and success. It is at such times, when an urgent need has been fulfilled, that our hearts are thankful to God for what he has done.

Did you ever notice that we are often only thankful when something has happened to change our feelings, our fortune, and our future. A fellow gets into a close scrape with his car. He misses getting hit by inches. He is thankful. He is thankful because, for a moment he thought he was going to be hurt. Then things changed and he was safe. The change prompted him to be thankful.

Unless Jesus Christ has changed your heart, there isn't much use in praying a prayer of thanksgiving for what he has done. Unless you have been changed by Him or helped by Him in some special way, your thanksgiving is rather hollow and meaningless. To be sure, we are thankful for the common gifts which He gives to the sinner as well as to the saint. Therefore, our prayers of thanksgiving should go far beyond the often mentioned gratitude for food, clothing, and shelter. Is there anything special in your life for which you can give thanks?

Who is the most thankful to God? Is it not the one who has been helped the most by God? If this is true, and you do not have a very keen sense of thanksgiving, maybe it is your fault. If you do not feel a deep sense of gratitude to God, maybe the blame should be placed on your shoulders. Maybe you haven't called on God enough for the help and guidance you need. Because you haven't called, He hasn't answered. Because He hasn't answered, you have nothing specific for which to be thankful.

The bride is employed at Herman Miller Furniture Co. and the groom at Chris-Craft. In December he plans to attend Davenport Institute.

Local Radio Station Comes to Puppie's Aid

Garrit Frens of 638 Myrtle Ave. had a problem. What to do with five adorable half-bred Cocker puppies?

Thinking immediately of the Ottawa County Humane Society, he called Mrs. Harold DeVries, membership chairman of that organization. Unfortunately, the society's new shelter is not quite ready to receive tenants. Mrs. DeVries and Mrs. P. T. Cheff had a brainstorm and called WHTC.

The station seeing a chance to perform a public service broadcast an appeal for homes for the pups. A telephone call this morning from the ex-owner of the litter, Mr. Frens, reveals that all five have found new homes through the joint action of WHTC and the Humane Society.

Library Looking Glass

HEAVEN AND HELL, by Aldous Huxley — The name Aldous Huxley sends many readers into a state of fright regardless of whether or not they have opened one of his books. A pity, too, that this should be the case. He is an intellectual, a giant in his field and he also can be understood and more important, enjoyed. To those who say that this simply can't be true, I recommend Heaven and Hell. It is short, the print is not too small, and it is exciting. Fiction, drama and the mystery are exciting too, but this is real.

Most adventures deal with the unknown. This is an adventure of the mind, that part of the body least understood and so intangible as to be actually evasive. All the more fun . . . for the explorer and the reader. Heaven and Hell explores human consciousness and its visions of light, clarity, and particularly color. It deals with the fascinating details of visionary experience and its overall implications.

There is the "Other World of Vision." Heavenly vision is experienced through drugs, hypnosis, in religious experiences, and in jewels and flowers.

Bright, pure colors are characteristic of the Other World, hence man's love for jewels, bright objects d'art, flowers. All this is sometimes difficult for modern man to understand or realize because his age is so abundant in color.

In the past . . . "before every pair of eyes was only the dark squalor of the family hovels, the dust of the village street . . . Hence a desperate thirst for bright pure colors" which were evidenced in the churches or in court. In our modern world there are quantities of paints, inks and dyes but — "Familiarity breeds indifference. We have seen too much pure, bright color at Woolworth's to find it intrinsically transporting."

But sanity is a matter of degree and there is also a visionary Hell. "Everything that, for healthy visionaries, is a source of bliss brings to one insane fear and a nightmarish sense of unreality." Heaven and Hell. Man has forever thought about them and imagined them in his own mind. Huxley concludes with his own ideas on this subject. He considers the posthumous state to be like . . . "a heaven of blissful visionary experience" . . . also a hell of the same kind of appalling visionary experience suffered by the insane; . . . and there is also an experience, beyond time, of union with the divine Ground." — J. P. O.

Hope Finishes Third in MIAA With 25-20 Win Over Alma

Dutch Build Up Early 3-TD Lead But Scots Scare

Hope College built up a comfortable three touchdown margin and then let Alma College score three times to result in a close 25-20 MIAA football win Saturday afternoon at Riverview Park.

The victory gave Hope third place in the MIAA with a 4-2 record as Kalamazoo took over second place with a 20-13 win over Albion. Hillsdale won the crown with a 6-0 mark and Albion finished fourth with a 3-3 record.

Brilliant Dave Kuyers, Dutch co-captain, added a final laurel to his impressive list by mixing several long gains and some fine plunges to come up with 159 yards and end the season with a net of 508 yards in six conference games, good for the individual league rushing championship.

Kuyers carried the ball 78 times against MIAA foes to chalk up his mark and went into Saturday's game trailing Hillsdale's Nate Clark by 98 yards. Sparking his 19 carries Saturday, he ran 42 yards for a touchdown on a quick opener on Hope's third play from scrimmage in the first quarter and reeled off another 47-yard gain on the first play of the second half.

But Kuyers needed his big total Saturday to beat out teammate Merv Vanderlin. Hope's blond "Mr. Outside," who himself accounted for 70 yards and a season's total of 458 yards gained in six MIAA tilts.

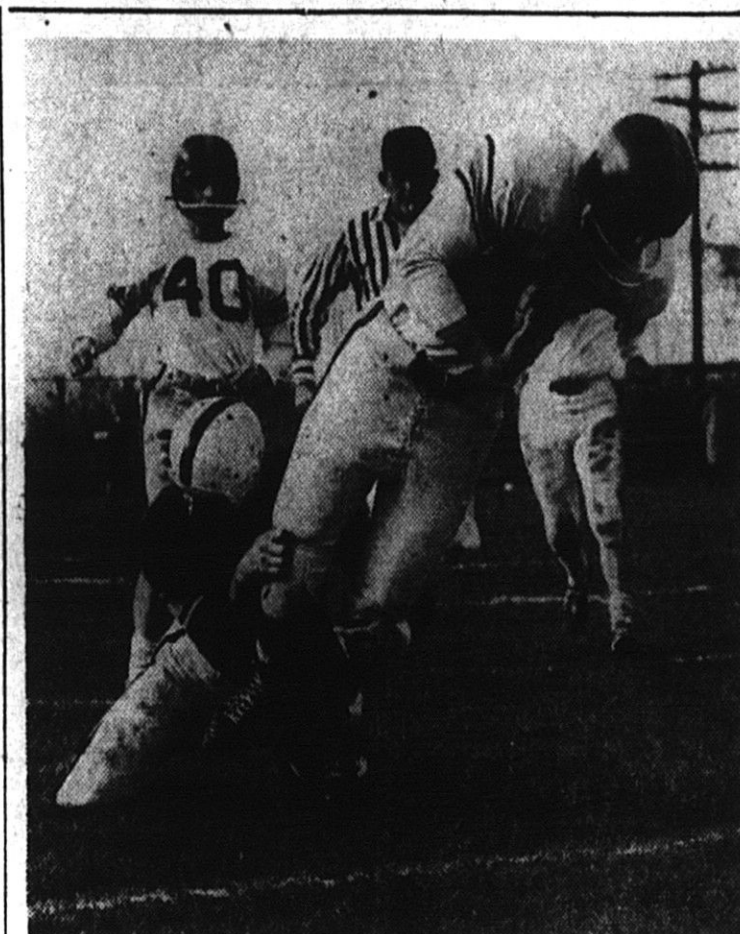

Vanderlin also topped Clark, although it took a 13-yard scamper in the final two seconds of the game for the junior halfback to surpass the Hillsdale star. Hillsdale met Lewis State outside the conference Saturday, so whatever Clark did could not add to his MIAA mark.

It took Hope only 16 plays to build their three-touchdown lead in the first half.

Center Bill Broekstra recovered an Alma fumble at midfield on the Scots' first play of the game. Two line plays later, Kuyers made his 42-yard scamper and Hope led 6-0 with 2:10 gone in the game.

Midway in the first quarter, Alma failed on a fourth down attempt and Hope took over on the 50. In eight running plays, including a 21-yard end sweep by Vanderlin, the Dutch were home. Pete Watt, smallest of the Hope backfielders, cross-bucked the Alma left tackle for a 12-0 lead with 1:34 left in the period.

Alma received the kickoff, but tried only two plays before Jerry Hendrickson intercepted one of the

ON WAY TO MIAA RUSHING CROWN—Dave Kuyers (43), Hope fullback, concluded a brilliant four-year career Saturday by winning the MIAA individual rushing crown with a total of 508 yards in six games. Here, Kuyers carries for a typical gain in the 25-20 conquest of Alma at Riverview Park. Kuyers carried 19 times for 159 yards in the game. Teammate Merv Vanderlin (40) coming up from behind, finished second to Kuyers in the rushing derby. The blond junior had 488 yards, including 70 in the Alma game. (Sentinel photo)

29 passes Alma tried during the afternoon and the Dutch had a first down on the Alma 46.

Jack Zaber, Zeeland sophomore, came into the contest at this point and, trying the same first down pass strategy which worked in the Olivet and Albion victories, heaved to Hendrickson. The big halfback went up with Scott defender Tom Johnson on the 20. Both boys came down with the ball, and, wrestled for 19 yards before Hendrickson came up with it on the Alma one-yard line as the quarter closed.

Hendrickson was rewarded for his struggle by being given the ball to crash over on off-tackle plunge. Hope led 18-0 with three seconds gone in the second quarter.

Watt's first conversion was wide; a bad pass from center prevented the second kick and another bad pass stopped Hendrickson's try.

The middle portion of the second quarter saw Alma advance once to the Hope 11 and again to the seven. The first drive was halted by Ron Weatherbee's pass interception and the second ended when Dyke Rottschaffer pounced on an Alma fumble.

Taking over after a punt on Hope's 43, the Scots clicked on two passes for their first score. Johnson hit halfback Bob Hill for 13 yards. Hill then sneaked away from the Hope defense to take a Johnson pass on the seven and streaked into the end zone. Hill tried the conversion, but it was wide.

Kuyers electrified the crowd of 1,200, including the parents of Hope players sitting behind the Hope bench, with his 47-yard dash to open the second half. But the possibility of another Hope score was stymied when Watt fumbled on the Alma four. Alma punted out to their own 42, and the Hope ground crew went to work again. In eight plays, the Dutch were back to the five, where quarterback Del Gris-sen shifted to the air, hitting Watt in the end zone. With 7:10 left in the third quarter, Hope led, 24-7.

Giving up trying to kick extra points, Grissen pitched to Curt Menning who retraced Watt's steps and Hope led 25-7.

From then on, the fans' thoughts turned to the MIAA individual rushing race, while Alma became concerned with pulling a last-quarter upset. They added ammunition to this idea by scoring on a 26-yard end sweep by Frank Lawrence in the final minute of the period.

Lawrence threaded three tacklers in reaching the Hope goal. Bill Kleck, best punter in the MIAA converted, tightening the score to 25-13.

After Hope failed to make a first down on their own 40 midway in the final stanza, the Scots set up their last touchdown drive. It took eight plays, climaxed by a 10-yard end run by fullback Pat Brzdy, for Alma to creep within a touchdown of Hope with 4:35 left in the game. Kleck's kick narrowed the gap to five points.

Hope took the kickoff on their 10 and never relinquished the ball, driving to the Alma four yard line as the game ended.

They did lose the ball for one play on the Alma 15, but Vanderlin intercepted a pass to literally keep the ball rolling.

Four Hope seniors concluded their careers in the contest but only two of them, Kuyers, and guard Tom Harris played. Center Earl De Witt and quarterback Harry Voss were out with injuries.

Alma, too had only four seniors on the roster, and can be expected to be tough next year.

Christian Lists 18-Game Schedule

An 18-game basketball schedule for Holland Christian High School was announced today by Athletic Director Raymond Holwerda. The Maroons are scheduled to play nine games at home and a like number, away.

Christian's schedule corresponds in the way of opponents on last year's card. Holwerda said. Six of the games are with class A schools 101 with class B, and two with class C. Single games are played with four schools, Niles, Dowagiac, Portage and Grand Rapids Creston. This year, under a two-year contract, Niles and Dowagiac come here while the Dutch travel to the other two.

This year is also the year for the locals to be at home for the annual afternoon New Year's game with Muskegon Christian. Playing on this afternoon has almost become tradition with Holland Christian teams throughout the seasons.

Scheduling difficulties send the Maroons away for their first four games of the season which begins Nov. 23 at Kalamazoo Western State High. The Dutch don't open their home card until Dec. 14 with Allegan. Christian will be playing at the Civic Center before that however. This situation occurs inasmuch as Zeeland's "home" tilt with the Dutch is again listed for the Holland Civic court. This game is scheduled for Dec. 4.

Meanwhile Coach Art Tuls is getting down to hard work with his squad this week. Most of the work the previous week centered around conditioning and drills to determine the personnel of the squad. Tuls made a squad cut, Tuesday and is now pointing sessions to the hard grind of offensive and defensive patterns.

The complete schedule lists:
Nov. 23 — Western State, away; Nov. 30 — Muskegon Christian, away; Dec. 4 — Zeeland, away (Holland Civic Center); Dec. 7 — Portage, away; Dec. 14 — Allegan, home; Dec. 21 — Western State, home; Dec. 27 — Grand Rapids Christian, away; Jan. 1 (afternoon) — Muskegon Christian, home; Jan. 8 — Zeeland, home; Jan. 18 — Dowagiac, home; Jan. 22 — Muskegon Catholic, home; Jan. 25 — St. Joseph, away; Feb. 1 — Grand Rapids Creston, away; Feb. 8 — Allegan, away; Feb. 12 — Niles, home; Feb. 15 — Grand Rapids Christian, home; Feb. 22 — St. Joseph, home; Feb. 26 — Muskegon Catholic, away.

Dog Notes

Obedience Training

If you want your dog to be dependable, obedient and safe, don't fondle him constantly and don't permit him to do as he pleases. Overindulgence may lead to unpleasantness and regret when you discover you have an unruly dog who may bite someone or destroy a neighbor's property. You should restrain and punish him when he misbehaves and keep him firmly under control at all times. Of course, be considerate in your demands, and a certain degree of kindness should prevail always. Never give a command to your dog unless you want him to obey; having once given the command, do all in your power to make sure he complies. Never give unnecessary commands and then not follow them through. A dog will get as much pleasure from carrying out your wishes as from having his own way. In fact, the canine mind is so constructed that your dog is happiest when he is obedient and faithful.

Amount to Feed a Dog

Not only does the novice dog owner have trouble in trying to figure out what to feed his dog, but the problem of how much to feed also confronts him. Even the experienced dog owner sometimes either overfeeds or underfeeds his dog.

When it comes to how much to feed a dog here is a good rule to remember: Feed a dog daily one-half ounce of food for each pound he weighs. For example, a dog weighing 64 pounds should receive two pounds of food daily.

Your Dog's Age

Again I am forced to repeat my formula for determining a dog's age in relation to that of a human being. Hundreds of requests have come in asking for me to outline again this formula. So here it is once more:

The more or less accepted method is to multiply the animal's age by seven. Based on this theory a dog 3 years of age compares with a human 21 years old. However, this is not a very active formula to use.

Dogs attain maturity much sooner than you or I. At one year of age a dog attains the same maturity as does a man in his early twenties. Eleven to 15 years is the normal life span of a dog. Bearing these facts in mind you will find my "times 4 plus 20" formula the most accurate to use.

For example, a dog one year old would be considered to be as old as a 24-year-old human (1 times 4 plus 20 equals 24). A 5-year-old dog compares in age to a man 40. A 15-year-old dog compares in age to a man 80. The extremely rare 20-year-old dog is as old as the very rare human of 100.

By using this "times 4 plus 20" formula, how old is your dog?

DAR Chapter Hears Talk On American Indians

"The American Indian is one of the minority groups which has been by-passed by our government, especially the Michigan Indians," Mrs. E. C. Beck of Mt. Pleasant told the Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. F. E. De Weese.

Mrs. Beck's subject was "The American Indian Today and His Tomorrow." She asserted that the reason for government by-passing falls into four categories. One is sentiment, another historical. She cited the Lewis and Clark expedition in which an Indian woman, the wife of a Frenchman, chose the right route. She said Indians have helped with all American wars.

Mrs. Beck said the third reason was art and cited basket making. She explained how the Indian must cut a black ash log and spend days in the weaving of one basket with the whole family cooperating. Only until recently was he paid a nominal sum for his labor.

The fourth category was explained in Mrs. Beck's title, "The Indian Today and His Tomorrow." She said there are 7,000 Indians in Michigan. They are not on reservations, just communities.

Mrs. Beck said the "competent" were by-passed 100 years ago when the "incompetents" were sent to reservations. In Isabella county, the government reserved land 20 years ago and "competents" were given 40 acres with the right to sell. This land being poor, the Indian could not raise crops and some turned to the woods. Those living in industrial counties are able to care for themselves. There are three tribes in Michigan — the Chippewas, the Ottawas and the Potawatomies.

As state chairman for Indian work, Mrs. Beck explained the national school at Springfield, S. D., where one Michigan Indian girl is attending on a DAR scholarship. She also mentioned Bacon College in Muskogee, Okla., where scholarships enable Indian students to continue education.

On the state level, nine Indian girls are attending various high schools throughout the state on DAR scholarships. There are two in nursing centers.

Mrs. Beck said the India is a high type of citizen and interest is being revived all over the country through resolutions adopted by the Continental Congress and presented to the national government.

Mrs. Benjamin Van Lente, chaplain, led devotions on the appropriate theme of freedom for all peoples. Mrs. Earl Price presided at a brief business meeting and Mrs. Harold Niles, national defense chairman, said that the Refugee Relief Act had been supported by the DAR Congress.

Hostesses were Mrs. W. L. Eaton, assisted by Mrs. T. P. Noble, Mrs. R. F. Keeler and Mrs. B. Van Lente.

Mrs. Hinkamp Reports On American Indians

Mrs. Paul E. Hinkamp outlined the work of the Reformed Church with the American Indians at a thank offering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Hope Church Wednesday afternoon.

She said the bureau at Washington is now encouraging Indians to locate in places away from the reservations and the Reformed Church is aiding in this project. The church has an extensive evangelism program with Indians both on the reservations and in the cities.

Mrs. Jay H. Den Herder led devotions and Mrs. I. J. Lubbers gave a summary of activities at a meeting on the Brewton, Ala., campus recently. Mrs. W. C. Kools reported that the box for the East Harlem church had been sent. Mrs. Gerrard Haworth was announced as a new member.

The thank offering this year goes to mission work in New York City. Mrs. Milton L. Hinga presided and Mrs. Dallas Ruch and her committee served dessert.

Girl Who Shot Husband Gets 1 to 15 Years

Judge Recommends Minimum Sentence For 17-Year-Old Wife

GRAND HAVEN (Special) — Seventeen-year-old Helen Thomas who was convicted of manslaughter Oct. 25 in the fatal shooting of her 24-year-old husband, was sentenced Friday to serve one to 15 years in the Detroit House of Correction, with minimum recommended.

In pronouncing sentence, Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith said he had taken into consideration the fact that young Mrs. Thomas had spent almost three months in the county jail, and credited her with this time spent in arriving at the recommendation for minimum sentence.

Mrs. Thomas, who was convicted of manslaughter by a jury of six men and six women following a two-day trial Oct. 24 and 25, accepted the verdict calmly. She had just had a private conference with the Rev. Harrison A. Wingar, pastor of the Diamond Springs Wesleyan Methodist Church located six miles east of Hamilton. Rev. Wingar had been a faithful visitor while she had been in jail and had provided religious recordings.

Mrs. Thomas wore a dark brown skirt, pink pull-over sweater with a coral colored cardigan. She carried a dark brown purse, and wore white bobby socks, black slippers and a bracelet with a large charm which had been given to her by friends.

Judge Smith said the verdict of the jury was the best one, although a verdict for second degree murder could have been justified. He added that no one has found fault with the verdict as rendered.

"We have here a case of unjustified homicide and one which those of us who are acquainted with the situation can easily understand the facts, so we characterize it as being one which we understand but cannot justify. We have here one who is little more than a child, but yet has reached an age where the law says she is responsible for her acts," Judge Smith said.

Before sentence, Mrs. Thomas made known through her attorney that she was satisfied with the verdict. To reporters, she said she was especially grateful to Sheriff Jerry Vanderbeek and his wife, the matron, for the kind treatment she had received while in jail.

She said she had received many visitors in jail, some coming from as far away as St. Clair, Mich., and Canada. These persons had read about the case in newspapers and made special trips to Grand Haven. On visiting days on Tuesdays and Fridays, she sometimes had five to seven visitors, and also was allowed visitors on other days.

On the day her murder trial opened Oct. 24, she received gifts consisting of earrings, two necklaces and two slippers, one with a $5 bill attached. Some Spring Lake residents raised $45 for her personal use.

Mrs. Thomas will be turned over to the jurisdiction of the Michigan Corrections Department at 10 a.m. immediately.

At the two-day trial, Mrs. Thomas' defense was based largely on mistreatment and the drinking habits of her 200-pound husband, Emmerson, whom she shot last Aug. 13 in their modest frame house at Jensen Park near Holland. She was represented by Atty. Randall Dekker of Zeeland who was appointed by the court.

Kuipers said he climbed the ladder alone carrying a can of barn paint and told Sears he was willing to pay $25 to have the lettering removed.

Late-Season Improvement Pleased Reserve Coaches

Holland High's reserve football team put away its gear today on somewhat of a happy note, looking to the future and not back to the dismal one-seven record.

The reason for the optimism, as described by Coach Loy Lovitt, in his first year as reserve team coach, is the good showing the reserves made in their final two games and the way they ran against the varsity in a heavy scrimmage Wednesday.

"We showed a lot of improvement in the last two games and if we would have played football four quarters every game, things would have been different. As it was, we made more yardage in the second half against every team but Grand Haven," Lovitt said.

Holland had nine boys who missed more than half of the games because of injuries and two of the top men were promoted to the varsity after a couple of games.

The Dutch out first — downed the foes, 64-60 and completed an impressive mark of 42 passes out of 85 attempts while the foes had 25 completions out of 61 tries.

But in the fumbles department, the Dutch really fell down. A total of 28 bobbles were made and Holland fell on only nine of them while the opponents fumbled 21 times and recovered seven.

Ron Dorgelo and Bob Teall, full-back and halfback, who took over the ball totting duties following the loss of Vern Teske and Ken Hill to the varsity, and were responsible for most of the rushing yardage.

Dave Bonnette, Jim Van Putten, Teall, Bob Damson, Joe Gutierrez and Hubby Harrington did most of the passing and Russ Prins, turned in a good job at end, catching several aeries.

Jan Nienhuis, a hard — hitting tackle, led the team defensively along with Dorgelo, Lovitt reported, while Bonnette, Kent Rowder and Van Putten were other defensive standouts.

Bob Visschers, who took over at center at midseason, did a good job at the post and had a better than 38-yard average for punts. Dorgelo and Prins also punted for 35-yard averages.

Bob Gordon was named the "most improved player" by Lovitt.

"He was outstanding at defensive end and in the South and Benton Harbor games and didn't let the varsity run his end in the scrimmage. He is going to be all right," Lovitt said.

Jim Schaap was also listed as showing improvement at guard and Ken Vander Molen improved with every game as a defensive linebacker, along with Bonnette. Nienhuis and Dorgelo were elected honorary co-captains to replace Teske and Hill, who were kicked before the season.

Clark De Koeyer, Duane De Neff, Rowder, Schaap, Steve Slag, Gene Van Heukelom, Larry Vlien and Harold Wise all missed more than half the season because of injuries while several other missed at least one game.

Wyoming Park Unleashes Passes In Surprising 34-7 Win Over Chix

WYOMING PARK (Special) — Wyoming Park's anticipated aerial game materialized here Friday night as the Vikings scored through the air five times and trounced the Zeeland Chix 34-7 in the season's final game for both teams.

All of the touchdowns came on long passes as the Viking receivers succeeded in getting past the Zeeland defenders and grabbing the ball over the shoulder and then speeding away.

The Vikings completed 13 out of 26 passes in the contest and probably would have hit on a few more if the receivers had been able to hang on to the ball. Several passes squirted away from the Viking ends.

The first of the aerials came with only two minutes gone. Wyoming took the ball on the Zeeland 35 after downing Ron Beyer, who was trying to punt. Two plays later a 24-yard pass from Bob Van Dam to Frank Lehnen zoomed over the line.

Then with eight minutes left in the second quarter Bob Ver Strate hooked Denny Busch on a 66-yard pass play which gave the Vikings their second touchdown.

Zeeland was definitely in the ball game in the first half and with five minutes left scored on a Ron Beyer to Ron Komejan six-yard pass. The Chix had driven 74 yards in 10 plays to set up the score. Ron Bekins led the drive with six carries, including a 22-yard jaunt. Komejan converted to make the halftime score 14-7.

But the fired-up Vikings came back in the third period and with nine minutes gone Wayne Ver Strate connected with Lehnen. This one traveled 24 yards and Wyoming Park led by two touchdowns.

Wyoming tallied twice in the fourth quarter. This time, John De Lot threw to Ron Hoffman for 29 yards with six minutes left. Then, rubbing the wound deeper, the Vikings whipped another 35-yard aerial from Wayne Ver Strate to Lehnen in the final six seconds.

The winners passed for three extra points and plunged for a fourth. It was sweet revenge for the Vikings following their last-second 19-14 loss to Zeeland a year ago. Zeeland had one more scoring chance in the game but Terry Kelder, who intercepted two Zeeland passes, nabbed a forward pass on the Viking five late in the fourth quarter.

Rog Yntema, Zeeland tackle, set a new school record with 25 individual tackles. Marv Fenstra also turned in a good defensive game.

Zeeland ends the season with a 3-5 record and Wyoming concludes with a 2-5-1 mark.

Coached by Con Eekstrom and John Spurgeon, the 33 lads really went at it much to the pleasure of the 2,500 fans.

The Reds won the game on 55-yard off tackle dash by Wayne Wiersma on the second play. The try for point was not good.

Outstanding in the Grey backfield was Ron Conklin, who got off several long runs, but couldn't push the ball over the goal.

Hope Grid Notes

NOTES — Alma used a line spread most of the game with quarterback Tom Johnson being the tailback about 10 yards back. The direct pass would go to Johnson many plays and he would pass, run or lateral. Hope followed the script identically to 1955 with three victories in the final three games and ended with a 4-2 mark. Although the Dutch were not as prolific scoring as a year ago when they totaled 129, the Dutch did score 102 points. Following Kuylers and Vanderlin in the rushing race was little Watt with 54 yards on nine carries. Hendrickson had 18 yards on seven carries and third-string Jim Menzer 12 yards in one try to give him 67 yards in six tries this season. Menzer, with this total, is Hope's yard per carry champion. Alma was not penalized in the game. Hope was penalized 25 yards, but 20 came in the last quarter. Lawrence led the winners with 56 yards in 12 carries while Johnson had 28 in two runs, both starting from his deep spot and Brady, the workhorse, made only 14 yards in 21 yards but seemed to be the ballcarrier if the Scots didn't pass. Hope's rationed its pass completions to exactly one per quarter.

$162 for Turkey They Didn't Get

NUNICA (Special) — A turkey hunt proved expensive to three Muskegon men when they picked a thriving turkey to try their luck. Raymond Martin, 18; Richard Krehn, 23; and Sherman Moore, 23, each paid $54.30 before Justice Eva Workman when arraigned on charges of simple larceny.

Ottawa County deputies said the three had selected Leslie Timmerman's Turkey Farm near Nunica to pick up a turkey. Timmerman noticed their car driving by several times.

The last time they cruised by he spotted one of the trio near the turkey pens and yelled for the car to stop. They didn't and he fired one shot from a deer rifle which blasted the right rear tire off the wheel.

Deputies were called and picked up one man hitchhiking near the farm and the other two farther down the road where they were forced to leave their car.

In the getaway the turkey apparently jumped out of the car and wandered back to the farm during the weekend.

We had had word from the seed companies that the alfalfa and clover seeds are rather scarce this year. We would suggest that you purchase your seed early. If you have not been too well satisfied with your alfalfa in the past, you might want to try the new variety called Vernal. It is more rust resistant than any other variety and on tests it has outyielded most of the other varieties. It would be worth a try.

Bob Van Klompenberg, our assistant agent, is carrying on an extensive program in Mastitis control in the county. He is working with one herd at the present time along with Dr. Reed, extension veterinarian at Michigan State University. A vegetable and small fruits marketing agent has been hired by Michigan State University to serve Ottawa and Kent counties. This man up to the present time has been employed as marketing specialist in the state of Nebraska. He will start his job on the first of the year and arrangements have been made to have him housed at the City Hall at Zeeland. We hope our vegetable and small fruit growers use his services. He will be here not only to help producers put up a better quality pack but also he will help dispose of these commodities. We will keep you informed from time to time as to the activities of this worker.

Just another reminder that now is the time of the year to get your shrubs ready for the winter. As we mentioned before, the extreme dry weather we have had in the late fall will not allow the shrubs to come through the winter unless additional moisture is supplied. In the process of freezing the moisture is drawn out of the roots if there is no available moisture in the soil and as a result many of our shrubs die. Be sure you soak down all your shrubs well before winter sets in. That is the best winter protection you can give.

Speaker Tells Of Mideast Crisis

The Rev. Harold Englund of Zeeland outlined the history of the Middle East trouble-spot and gave Holland Rotarians an analysis of current events Thursday noon.

Englund said he believed Israel, created by the United Nations, should abide by the requests of the organization and withdraw its troops from the Egyptian soil.

He added that both countries have been guilty of incidents and both believe themselves to be right. However, he said responsible Christian leaders are of the opinion there is a definite spirit of aggression in Israel.

The Arabs, on the other hand, he said, are ruled by a powerful minority, with the great mass of the people being ignorant, disease ridden and poverty stricken. He called them a passionate people, easily aroused to a fighting fury. Egyptian President Gamal Nasser he called a dictator who does not represent the will of the people.

Both the Middle East and the west are dependent on oil and the East has its economy geared to its production. With Russian interference feared and Nasser inciting Arabs to exterminate Israel, Britain and France, Egypt nationalized the Suez Canal in the interests of national survival, since England said, Egypt is unwilling to trust its survival to an impotent U.N. organization.

Englund said he felt the U.N. itself is on trial in the present crisis. The three belligerents have been asked to leave, not on Egypt's account, but on principle, he said. With Russia constantly inciting the Arabs, the strength of United States policy will determine the survival of the world unit as an organization of value, he stated.

OUR COUNTY NEEDS A HUMANE SOCIETY

Through private donation, the Ottawa County Humane Society has built this modern shelter. This shelter represents the latest developments in the sheltering and care of small animals.

What will the Humane Society do for our community? Like all Humane Societies, our Society above all seeks to abolish cruelty. In specific terms our most obvious and important job is the recovery of lost animals and pets. We hope to place these "foundlings" into homes for adoption. We not only pick up stray and unwanted animals, but try to locate new homes for them. That's not all the story — we work with local law enforcement agencies and lend support to new laws that might aid the cause of humane treatment. The Society will have a Humane Officer to operate the shelter, closely assist the Sheriff's Department, and supervise the Society's field services. We plan to operate an animal ambulance in the county.

These community services cost money. We feel sure that the citizens of our county will want to support this useful program.
