Now is the Time To Rake Leaves

Start raking those leaves now if you haven't done so already. The first hard frost Tuesday caused leaves to fall in abundance, and City Engineer Harold Derks is urging all residents to rake their leaves over the weekend.

City trucks have been picking up leaves for several weeks, particularly in the core city which has considerably more trees than the suburbs. Night crews have been at work in the downtown areas where cars are parked during the day.

Next week trucks will maintain heavier schedules in the leaf pickup. Burning leaves is

Train Was On Schedule ... And on Car Too

GRAND HAVEN — The train was on time and Tommy Rone, 25, of Wyoming, was sorry it wasn't late.

Rone drove through a construction barricade at the railroad crossing in Georgetown Township and stopped on the tracks Tuesday.

Ottawa County deputy Corp. Del South saw the incident. South quickly radioed the Ottawa County dispatcher and asked if there was a Chesapeake and Ohio train due on the tracks soon. The dispatcher checked with the railroad and radioed back, "There is one due there right now."

South said he could confirm it — just then the train crashed into the stalled car and demolished it.

Rone had left the car before the crash.

Deputies Cite Driver

Veele, 19, of 206 Franklin Ave., was cited by Ottawa county sheriff's deputies for driving a vehicle with defective equipment (tail or stop lights and no rear view mirror) after a collision with a car driven by Anna A. License Plates On Sale Friday

Passenger license plates for 1969 go on sale at 9 a.m. Friday at the license bureau at 87 West Eighth St.

Fees are up this year (approximately 55 per cent) ranging from $13 to $21 under the new law passed about a year ago by the Michigan legislature, but not effective until 1969, according to Bureau Manager Frances Johnson.

Applicants are reminded to bring in proof of insurance and proof of ownership. They also are reminded not to ask for special numbers and not to submit personal checks.

Plates for 1969 are white on maroon, honoring Saginaw Valley College. The 1968 green and gold combination honored Wayne State University.

Most vehicle owners by now have received prepared applications from the office of the Michigan Department of State.

The 1969 license motto is "Great Lake State," the same as 1968.

Sale of truck licenses for 1969 has been in effect for a month. Truck applicants must have previous registration for trucks and trailers. The previous registration establishes proof of weight.

Motorcycle owners applying for license plates also must submit proof of ownership and proof of insurance.

As in the past, license plates start with RL at the local bureau.

The boost in license fees is based on 55 cents a hundred-weight, compared with 35 cents for 1968. Legislation passed in November, 1967, provides for an extra penny of gasoline tax which was effective Jan. 1, 1968, and a sizable jump in the cost of license plates starting with the 1960 plates.

Flat fee for passenger cars weighing up to 2,150 pounds (Volkswagens included) goes up to $12. Up until this year, plates for Volkswagens cost $5.60.

Production of 1969 plates began in March at the license plate plant of Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson. About 900 inmates work during a nine-month period to produce 4 1/2 million sets of plates.

Ambulance Service Set For Allegan

ALLEGAN — The Allegan Ambulance Service, which had threatened to discontinue operations Friday at midnight, announced today that service would continue without interruption for the nine cities and townships which have entered into subsidy agreements with the company.

Robert Hiscock, owner of the Allegan-based ambulance firm, said six governmental units already have signed contracts and three others have approved them "in substance" and are expected to sign them shortly. Allegan city's share, approved by City Council Monday night, is $1,639.48.

Only Chestre township in the firm's service area has refused to go along with the company's 34-cents per capita subsidy plan.

Contracts have been signed by Martin, Watson, Allegan, Monterey and Valley townships and the city of Allegan. The City of Otsego and Trowbridge township have agreed to contract terms and are expected to sign within a month. Otsego township has indicated it would "go along" with the city of Otsego's decision in the matter.

Hiscock said the firm would continue to serve these units with one ambulance based in the Otsego-Plainwell area and another in Allegan. He also indicated he planned to purchase a third ambulance in the near future.

As recently as Nov. 5, Hiscock had given up on efforts to win approval of subsidy agreements from individual governmental units in his service area. At that time he announced plans to discontinue operations Friday at midnight.

Only one unit — Watson township — had entered into the agreement and the others appeared reluctant.

The firm tried the unit-by-unit approach after the county board of supervisors refused to go along with a request for a county subsidy which Hiscock presented at the August board meeting.

Hiscock credited Watson Township Supervisor Carl Strand with getting other units together on the program.

BPW Gives $288,786 To Holland

A payment of $288,786.18 to the city of Holland's general fund was made today by the Board of Public Works.

The fund transfer represents 50 per cent of the net earnings of the electric department for the fiscal year ending last June 30, according to Guy E. Bell, superintendent of utilities.

In a review of last year's operations, the BPW reported that sales of electricity and water reached new highs. In the electric department, kilowatt-hours sold were up 11 1/2 per cent for a total of 153,561,099 hours. Electric department revenue from sales was up 8 1/2 per cent over last year. However, expenses increased at a rate greater than income resulting in a slightly lower net profit in the electric department for the year. Expenses increased 18 1/2 per cent.

The items which showed the largest increase were fuel, which was up $100,000; power plant maintenance increased $93,000; and the interest paid on revenue bonds was $37,000 above the previous year. Total electric department revenue for the year was $3,183,427.22.

Expenses including operation, maintenance, depreciation, interest and principal payment on revenue bonds, and other deductions totaled $2,605,854.85. Net income for the period was $577,572.37, of which 50 per cent is allocated for the city's general fund.

Forty per cent of electric revenue from sales came from industrial sales; next category was the residential market with 35 per cent of the revenue; commercial sales amounted to 21 per cent and street lighting and sales to Consumers Power Co. each accounted for two per cent of the revenue. The electric department had 11,545 customers at the end of June, an increase of 150. A new plant peak of 43,600 kw was recorded on Jan. 8.

The water department showed an increase in gallons of water sold, revenue received from sale of water, and net earnings. Revenue from sales increased 9.9 per cent over last year. Expenses were up, but did not increase as fast as sales. Expenses were 8 1/2 per cent higher than the year before. This resulted in the net earnings being increased $23,578 over last year, an increase of 29 per cent. Treated water pumped into the system totaled 2,362,543,000 gallons, an increase of 17 per cent over last year.

Zeeland received 38,543,000 gallons of water from Holland's plant. The water department gained 124 customers during the year, having 6,150 at the end of June. The average pumpage per day was 6,455,035 gallons, an increase of nearly a million gallons per day over last year.

The peak pumpage for a 24-hour period was 11,715,000 gallons, slightly under the plant peak of 12,723,000 gallons recorded in July 1966. Total water department revenues, including interest on invested funds and miscellaneous income was $612,958.27. Deductions from income totaled $510,282.73, leaving net income of $102,675.54.

Sewage department revenues remained about the same as the previous year; however, expenses rose at a 12 per cent rate. Operating revenues were $194,888.00 and operating expenses amounted to $192,286.49.

Accomplishments during the year included the removal of the coal-fired stokers of units one and two at the James De Young plant and the installation of combination gas and oil burners for these units. Also, at the James De Young plant construction continued on the fourth addition to the plant.

A 500,000 gallon elevated water storage tank was put into service in the Hedcor area, bringing to 9,747,000 gallons the total storage capacity of the system.

Zeeland Man Reported Good

A Zeeland man injured in a two-car accident at M-21 and 120th Ave., at 5:38 p.m. Tuesday was reported in good condition at Holland Hospital Wednesday.

He is Earl Glenn Haverdink, 25, of 139 Roosevelt Rd., who received rib fractures and contusions of the forehead and face.

Holland police who are investigating the accident said the car he was driving collided with one driven by Mrs. Isla June Vander Hulst, 31, of 3520 North 144th Ave., as she was about to make a left turn off M-21. Police said both vehicles were heading east on M-21.

Officers reported the Haverdink car rolled over and traveled 159 feet after impact.

Earthquake Is Felt in Holland

Several Holland people have reported feeling the tremors shortly after noon Saturday which shook Michigan along with 23 other states and parts of Canada.

The gentle swaying was unlike vibrations of trains or heavy machinery. There was little alarm and no wholesale calls to the police.

Experts say it probably won't happen again for another 20 years. Saturday's quake occurred when the new Madrid fault shifted enough to register 5.5 on the Richter scale of 10.

Experts said that would have been enough to cause severe damage and inflict heavy casualties had the epicenter of the quake been located in a heavily populated area.

However, the quake was centered near Mount Carmel, Ill., in one of the state's most sparsely populated areas. It lasted only a few seconds, but the millions of persons in 23 states and Canada felt the tremors. Four persons were hurt.

Skyscrapers shuddered slightly in the big cities, a water main snapped at Charleston, Ill., a 30-foot segment of an apartment house wall collapsed in St. Louis and 16 homes were damaged in St. Louis.

George Heeringa, president of the company, said that the combined service record of the members currently working and those retired is 4,094 years.

He also spoke on the growth of the company and the future prospects pointing out that they are now in the midst of an expansion program in which more than 75,000 square feet will be added to the manufacturing facilities.

Club president, Phil Enstam, presided at the meeting. Other officers are Don Slighter, vice president, and Herm Jurries, secretary-treasurer.

Detectives Close The 'Hot' Case Of Traveling Hat

The tidbit that started out as the "hot" case of the traveling hat involving a prosecuting attorney and a jurymen turned out to be a ranking issue on the day's humor list.

It came to air when a jurymen, George Hillis, reported his hat missing after he had served jury duty Tuesday in Holland Municipal Court. He reported the incident to Holland police who referred it to their detectives.

Somewhere in the interim, Prosecuting Attorney James Bussard walked out of Holland City Hall Tuesday, grabbed a hat and stopped off at Holland Police Department before returning to Grand Haven.

In his probably haste, Bussard left "his" hat on a detective's desk. The Hillis hat complaint came to their attention as they were trying to contact Bussard about "his" hat he left behind when they noticed the descriptions matched.

The "chapeau" case was finally closed, but some are now wondering who owns the old dark blue hat that's been seen for some time on the rack at City Hall. No one took it!

Dutch Dominate Season Statistics

Holland High School, in rolling to their first football championship in history and accumulating a 5-3-1 record, outscored their opponents 123-97 or 14.8 points per game to 10.8.

In some of the more important team statistics, Holland garnered 122 first downs to their opponents 89 while rushing for 1397 yards to 1183 for the opponents.

The Dutch were led over the ground by senior co-captain Gary Lound who ran 134 times for 613 yards, a 4.6 yard average. Other leading rushers were, Ken De Boer, 220, Max Glupker, 178, Tom Riemersma, 146 and Tom Moes, 138.

Lound was the leading Holland runner in five of the nine games and enjoyed his best game of the season against Muskegon Orchard View when he rushed for 152 yards in 29 carries.

Holland dominated passing statistics with 741 net yards to the opponents 306.

Glupker completed 51 of 126 attempts, a 40.4 percentage, for 769 yards, eight touchdowns and six interceptions. He averaged 6.3 yards per pass.

Five of Glupker's eight touchdowns passes were to junior (as is Glupker) Larry Lamb who for the season caught 13 passes for 370 yards, a 28.5 yard per reception average. Lamb caught the game winning tosses against Grand Haven and Grandville.

However, senior co-captain Dave Gossele led the Dutch in receptions with 26 good for 277 yards and one touchdown. His average per catch was 10.7 and he was the man the Dutch called upon to get the first down to

Vander Jagt Addresses Tour Group

Clean water for Michigan, the successful Cobe season and the possibility of developing Sleeping Bear Dunes as a national park were among the subjects discussed by U.S. Rep. Guy Vander Jagt (R-9th district) at a joint meeting of the Chain of Festivals and the US-31 Corridor Association in Saugatuck Tuesday noon.

The Congressman said passage of bond issues for water pollution abatement in last week's election is a victory for the tourist trade in Michigan which amounts to a billion dollars a year. The cleanup program which calls for $335 million in bonds plus federal funds also amounts to about a billion dollars.

He defined pollution as "the hastening of the aging process" and said proper sewage treatment would particularly benefit smaller communities as well as preserve natural resources.

Vander Jagt said the Cobe program has increased traffic on US-31 by 200 per cent which means new or better conditioned roads in the US-31 area. He said the Department of Interior had been pessimistic over planting Cobe in Michigan streams but their predictions have proved false on all points. He said that the Cobe and salmon fishing will bring over a billion new tourist dollars to Michigan in 10 years and said the Cobe has already brought more traffic to Michigan than the Sleeping Bear Dunes Park would in 10 years.

Vander Jagt said the Sleeping Bear Dunes, if approved by Congress, would be placed at the bottom of the list for parks and recreational areas and it would be about 20 years before something is done. He said Sen. Philip Hart's bill on establishing the park did not place any monies for tax relief to compensate for taking thousands of acres off the tax rolls. He offered ideas for combining two existing parks in the area, the combined acreage slightly less than the Hart program. He said such a program could be put into effect relatively soon.

G. J. Brooke, chief administration officer in Grand Rapids for the Highway Department, said the federal government has sliced $6 billion from its $38 billion program, forcing delays in the Michigan program.

Corey Achterhoff, president of the US-31 Corridor Association, presided.

The Chain of Festivals group consisting of representatives from Holland to Petoskey affiliated with festivals, homecomings and other community celebrations, met before lunch with Dean Johnson, president of the Saugatuck-Douglas Chamber of Commerce presiding. The group which has been operating for two years approved incorporation as a nonprofit organization.

Claude Verduin of Grand Haven will head the bylaws committee and Roy Swanson of Muskegon will head the publicity committee.

Verduin also was named treasurer and Mrs. Margaret Freeman, executive secretary of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, was appointed secretary. Other officers will be named in January. Yearly dues were set at $20 for active members and $15 for associate members.

David Schneider,

Dr. Barnard To Speak at Hope

Dr. Christiaan Barnard, the doctor who performed the first successful human heart transplant in medical history, will be presented an honorary Doctor of Science degree when he delivers an address at Hope College on Saturday, Nov. 23.

Dr. Barnard, who teaches surgery at the University of Cape Town Medical School in Cape Town, South Africa, and directs surgical research at the school's Groote Schuur Hospital, will speak to an all-college assembly at 10:30 a.m. in Dimnent Memorial Chapel.

His visit to Holland is part of a continuing series sponsored by the Hope College Cultural Affairs committee.

Dr. Barnard will be the first of two prominent personalities to speak at Hope in a period of four days. On Nov. 26 Georgia legislator Julian Bond will deliver an address in Dimnent Chapel at 8 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the address.

Dr. Barnard, 45, performed the first successful human heart transplant in December of 1967 when he implanted the heart of an automobile accident victim in the chest of Louis Washkansky, who died of pneumonia 18 days later.

Her performed a second such operation in January 1968, and the recipient of the heart in that instance, Philip Blaiberg, left the hospital two and a half months later in good health.

There since have been 75 heart transplants performed by doctors throughout the world.

Dr. Barnard was born in the village of Beaufort West, South Africa, where his father was a

Dutch Reformed minister. Dr. Barnard and his three brothers grew up in conditions bordering on poverty. One of his brothers is Dr. Marius Barnard, his chief assistant on the Groote Schuur heart transplant team.

He attended schools in Beaufort West before enrolling in the University of Cape Town Medical School, where he took his M. D. degree in 1953. He worked briefly as a general practitioner in Ceres, a village 50 miles from Cape Town, before joining the staff of the University of Cape Town Medical School as a research fellow in surgery.

Caring for patients during the day, he did most of his research at night under severely limited conditions.

"We had no special laboratory for research, and I did all research in the animal house, in a tiny room," Dr. Barnard recalled in an interview presented over NBC television. "I had to bribe the nurses to prepare my sterile pack for the operation. I had to anesthetize them (the dogs on which he operated) myself. But first I had to fetch the dogs from a local pound with my own car. I would arrive at the medical school with dogs all over me, full of fleas."

Seeking more advanced facilities for pursuing his research and refining his surgical skill, Dr. Barnard journeyed to the United States at the end of 1955 and entered the University of Minnesota Medical School to study under the renowned surgeon Dr. Owen H. Wangensteen.

During his first weeks on the Minneapolis campus Dr. Barnard supported himself by mowing lawns, washing cars, and doing other odd jobs. Before long, however, a grant from the Danzian Foundation for Medical Research freed him from economic distractions, and he was able to complete all the work for a Ph. D. degree within two years.

His area of concentration when he arrived in Minneapolis was gastrointestinal pathology, and he did some pioneering research on the birth defect known as congenital intestinal atresia, or closure of the intestinal passage. But his attention inevitably turned to heart surgery, because the latter field was just opening up at that time and the University of Minnesota Medical School was a leader in its development. Dr. Barnard performed his first heart operation in Minneapolis. Upon his return to the University of Cape Town Medical School in 1958, Dr. Barnard became director of surgical research there. In 1960 he attracted international attention in scientific circles by transplanting a second head onto a dog. After the operation he went to the Soviet Union to discuss such transplants with surgeons who had previously performed the feat there.

Meanwhile, he was concentrating on major heart surgery, and particularly on the replacement of diseased heart valves with artificial valves. In the fall of 1967 Dr. Barnard decided that he and his co-workers were ready to attempt the transplanting of a human heart.

Dr. Barnard is married to the former Louwille Louw, who was a nurse when he met her at Groote Schuur Hospital. The Barnards have two daughters. One daughter, Diedre, is ranked among the six best women water skiers in the world.

nel of the orchestra in which seasoned performers blended well with younger musicians.

Conductor Schermerhorn has worked closely with Leonard Bernstein of the New York Philharmonic had complete control of his 75-piece orchestra, highly successful in getting just what he wanted from the well-disciplined organization and doing it with a grace that could match a ballet dancer.

The program listed only three numbers but these numbers were broad in scope — vehicles that fully demonstrated the talents of the orchestra, classed as one of the 28 major symphonies in the country.

The Dvorak overture "Carnaval" followed the conventional pattern of the sonata form with very free development. A romantic episode in the middle that might suggest Dvorak's wandered had found personal solace for his loneliness.

Demonstrating a wide range of expression was Paul Hindemith's Symphonic Metamorphoses on Themes of Carl Maria von Weber, a contemporary work written in 1943 in four movements with harmonies and contrapuntal voices sometimes energetic and forceful, sometimes dainty and soft.

The second half was the familiar Brahms Second Symphony composed in 1877 and first performed in Vienna. This major work, the most popular of the four works Brahms composed in this form, is characterized by its fluency of expression, its calm serenity, its touch of melancholy and its intermingling melodies and vigorous contrasting phrases.

Two sprightly encores concluded the program.

Data Specialist Tells Rotary Jobs Available

Young people still undecided about careers should consider electronic data processing, according to a computer specialist who addressed Holland Rotary Club Thursday noon at the Warm Friend Hotel.

The current widespread use of computers is barely a scratch on the surface of their possibilities, said James Heuber of National Cash Register Co.

There's no telling what useful applications will develop when the trained computer specialist lets his imagination go, according to Heuber. As an example of imaginative application he cited the popular "computerized" prize fights which are staged over radio between outstanding ring figures who never met in real life but are mythically matched, with the outcome predicted by electronically processed data.

Heuber devoted most of his time to a showing of a motion picture concerning the development and capability of NCR's new Century computer. One of the first century installations in the U.S. is to be made soon at the First National Bank of Holland, he said.

A feature of the meeting was the introduction of Junior Rotarians for November by Loren Howard. They are Scott Boss, Holland High; Randall Vogelzang, Holland Christian; and Barry Haltenhoff, West Ottawa.

The speaker was introduced by James Hoffman. Don Crawford presided in the absence of C. J. Steketee.

Will Start New Duties Next Year

Former Holland Man Heads Central College In Pella Since 1960

Arend Donselaar Lubbers, 37, Friday was named second president of Grand Valley State College, Allendale. The appointment was announced by L. William Seidman, chairman of the GVSC board of control.

Lubbers, who is now president of Central College, Pella, Iowa, will begin his duties at Grand Valley early next year. He succeeds Dr. James H. Zumbeke, who left Aug. 15 to become director of the School of Earth Sciences at the University of Arizona.

"I am delighted to welcome Don Lubbers," Seidman said. "He has a great record as a college president, and I am sure he will continue in the best traditions of Jim Zumbeke. He is a real find for Grand Valley."

A graduate of Hope College, in 1953, Lubbers received his MA in history from Rutgers University in 1956. From 1956 to 1958 he was instructor in history at Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio and in 1958 returned to Rutgers to complete residence for his doctorate.

He was appointed vice president for development at Central College in September, 1959, and inaugurated as its president in October, 1960.

During his administration at Central, the enrollment of the college grew from 400 to 1,200. He was instrumental in obtaining, through private and government sources, funds for construction of 11 new buildings, purchase of 40 acres of land for campus expansion, and major campus landscaping projects and outdoor athletic facilities, tripling the book value of the physical plant.

He was also responsible for developing additions and revisions to the curriculum, including all-college academic seminars featuring nationally-known guest lecturers, off-campus and foreign study programs, teacher education internship programs, and the establishment of the college's first major research program.

"The rapid and successful development of Grand Valley State College is an example of fine cooperation among faculty, students, board members, legislators, administrators, and the public," Lubbers stated. "The progress during President Zumbeke's administration is impressive and points to a hopeful future for the college. I am honored by the offer of the Grand Valley presidency and pleased to accept it."

"My impression of the people associated with Grand Valley is that they have and want to perpetuate an institution of high quality, one that is sensitive to change and ready to innovate and experiment in the interests of improved education. So often the success of a college depends on its ability to know which past methods, procedures and values to keep and which to discard. Grand Valley has made some wise decisions in its first five years of existence. To participate with others in continuing this tradition is a challenge to me."

"Colleges should strive to be responsible institutions in our society where people learn from one another, develop for themselves and their college community a proper balance between freedom and order, formulate effective decision-making procedures, devote themselves to a disciplined improvement of their minds and learn to respect the rights and dignity of others. Grand Valley, I believe, tries to be that kind of college and I am interested in becoming part of it."

"I look forward to my return to Michigan, and to western Michigan in particular with my family. For eight happy years I was a resident of the State and it will be a homecoming for me."

Lubbers was selected by "Life" magazine as one of the nation's top 100 men in 1962 and was one of 50 national and international figures named to receive the Golden Plate Award from the Academy of Achievement the same year. He served as president of the Iowa College Presidents Association (1962-63), and serves on the board of Governors of the Iowa College Foundation.

He helped organize the Iowa Association of Private Colleges and Universities and works actively on the legislative committee of that organization. He serves on the Advisory Committee of Public Community Colleges and Junior Colleges of the State Department of Public Instruction and is a member of the Educational Committee of TENCO, Southeastern Iowa's regional development organization.

Lubbers is a member of the Reformed Church in America, Pi Kappa Delta, Phi Alpha Theta, and Rotary International. He participated in the Harvard Business School's Seminar for College and University Presidents and regularly attends the Conference for College Presidents organized by Dr. Earl J. McGrath, formerly of Columbia Teachers College.

Lubbers was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the son of Irwin J. and Margaret Van Donselaar Lubbers. His father was president of Hope College from 1945 to 1963.

Deputies Warn 'Leaking Lines' May Be 'Big Line'

Ottawa county sheriff's officers Friday warned area residents, particularly the elderly, not to be taken in by persons posing as utility employees to gain entry to their homes.

The warning comes after an area resident reported a strong box missing from an upstairs bedroom closet after two men who had said they were Consumers Power Company employees went through the house in an attempt to "find leaks in the power lines."

The strong box was noticed missing Thursday, two days after the men had "inspected" the house.

Sheriff's officers said the routine followed a pattern in which, after the two gained entrance, they separated, one checking the upstairs and the other the downstairs.

One imposter was said to have loosened a light fixture and disconnected the wire, assuring the occupant that "high light bills would be taken care of."

Similar incidents have been reported in the city and the same warning is reiterated by Holland police.

HEALING THE WOUNDS

President-elect Richard Nixon stated all through his campaign that his primary objective was to bring this country together when and if he becomes president. The meeting between himself and a defeated contender Hubert Humphrey the other day was the beginning of healing the political division that was evident during the campaign.

It is indeed heartening to see the two men who fought a hard political battle against each other join in vowing to pull together for the good of the country as a whole, to see them one party to another without violence, bloodshed or recrimination. If there is anything astounding in the American system, and anything that mystifies those of other countries, it is that we can have honest and deep political differences in this country, but that we can shift from one administration to another without revolution and violence.

If others in the political arena will take their cue from the behavior of these two leaders, it may well be that under President Nixon we can bring this country back together. Surely this is what we need.

Walking in the Light
I John 1:5 through 2:6
By C. P. Dame

We will study three lessons from the epistles of John, the son of Zebedee, who first was a disciple of John the Baptist, then became a disciple of Jesus and then an apostle. His epistles belong to the group called General or Catholic. In addition he wrote the gospel and the book of Revelation.

The epistles were written in Ephesus about 90-100 A. D. John was concerned about false teachers and teaching and believing a pastor he warned the believers. This, today's pastors should also do, but some fail to do. Christians should walk in the light and thus show that they have fellowship with God who is light.

I. "God is light and in Him is no darkness at all"—this is a fact John states. Anyone who says that he has fellowship with God and walks in darkness lies. The word light suggests splendor and glory and purity and love and truth. Light reveals. God has revealed Himself in Jesus Christ. Life and darkness are in constant conflict. When light appears the darkness disappears. In the Bible darkness stands for ignorance, superstition and sins of all kind. Now we either walk in darkness and have no fellowship with God or we walk in the light and fellowship with God. It is either or.

The person who walks in the light is in agreement with God, fellowships with Him and his fellow believers. The more a person walks with God the more conscious he becomes of his sins. And then what? He remembers that the blood of Christ keeps on cleansing sinners—if he repents and confesses.

II. Through Christ we may obtain the forgiveness of sin. In John's day some said that sin does not alter one's relationship to God, others said that they were not responsible for their sins and then there were some who said they had no sins. John teaches that anyone who confesses, which implies acknowledging sin, may obtain forgiveness because of the death of Christ. Confession must be followed by keeping the commandments.

III. Warning against sin is necessary. "And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous. In spite of warnings believers do sin. What then? We are to remember Jesus our advocate, our lawyer. He is in heaven. Before going there He made propitiation for our sins and for the sins of the whole world. Sin is a world problem. Our newspapers tell us that constantly.

If a person says he knows God and does not keep His commandment he is a liar. We may obtain forgiveness through Christ. And we show it by our obedience. Love and obedience go hand in hand. And thus we fellowship with God even as Jesus had fellowship with Him, and walk with Him, even as Jesus did. All who do what Christ wants them to do will learn to love God more and more. Make it a habit to walk and talk with Jesus daily.

UNDER PRESSURE — Hope quarterback Groy Kaper (11) gets off a pass despite the pressure from Chuck Draga (84). Kaper set a Hope record for total yards passing in one season, 1,203, breaking the old mark held by Ron Schipper. Kaper's two touchdown passes also brought to 11 his total for the season, tying the mark set by Harlan Hyink in 1963. Kaper also added to his record for most completions in one season which he set last week. He concluded the season with 84 completions. The old mark was 70 set by Schipper in 1951. Hope was defeated by the Eagles 54-13 and conclude the season with a 4-5 record. (Hope College photo)

Hope Ends Year With 4-5 Record

It took Ashland College 13 seconds to set the pace for Hope College's football finale here Saturday before a Parent's Day crowd of 3,500 fans.

In 13 seconds Dennis Boyd fielded Dennis Stacey's kickoff and raced 90 yards up the north sidelines to quickly thrust Ashland into a one touchdown margin.

Hope, apparently undaunted by this, drove 59 yards in four plays to tie the score at 7:15 of the first quarter. The last two plays were passes, one of 44 yards to Rich Frank and the 15-yard scoring strike to Bill Bekkering, both passes tossed by Groy Kaper.

Ashland took the lead for good on a 34-yard scramble out of the pocket by quarterback Mike Healy.

Ashland hit the scoreboard two more times before halftime. The first followed a pass interception by Ed Schaaf with Mike Norman scoring on a one-yard plunge to cap a 51-yard drive.

Midway in the second quarter Chris Cox intercepted a Kaper pass and the Eagles went 67 yards to score on a 12-yard run by Dave Gray. The big play in the drive was a 48-yard pass play from second string quarterback Ron Lab to Bill Seder.

Lab entered the game following a knee injury which Healy incurred on a rollout run.

Lab and third string quarterback Jeff Williams certainly didn't hinder the Eagle's attack as they connected on 10 of 17 passes for 204 yards and three touchdowns.

Kaper threw well for Hope when given adequate protection, but he also got thrown for losses totaling 48 yards and all his interceptions occurred when he threw hurriedly to avoid a strong rush.

Ashland added to their 28-7 halftime lead the first time they controlled the ball in the second half by marching 51 yards in seven plays with Gray tallying on a 19-yard run.

On the ensuing kickoff Ashland recovered a Hope fumble and drove 38 yards to score on an 18-yard pass from Lab to Bob DiFranco.

Ashland scored their 20th point of the quarter after a bad snap on an attempted punt gave the Eagles the ball on the Hope 20.

The score came on a 17-yard pass from Williams to Boyd to up the margin to 48-7.

Ashland scored their final touchdown with 7:33 remaining on the clock when Williams hit Jay Hoover for 32 yards.

With 1:53 left Kaper hit Harry Rumohr for a 51-yard score bringing the final tally to 54-13.

The pass enabled Kaper to break the season record for most yardage passing.

In completing 13 of 32 passes for 227 yards he upped his seasons statistics to 84 completions in 161 attempts for 1,203 yards and 11 touchdowns.

The 1,203 yards passing breaks a 1951 record of Ron Schipper, who is now the head football coach at Central College in Pella, Ia. His 84 completions adds to the record he set last week, breaking the old mark of 70 held previously by Schipper. And the 11 touchdown passes ties the mark set by Harlan Hyink in 1963.

Junior end Bill Bekkering caught four passes Saturday to add to the record he set last week before. His total receptions for the year were 37 eclipsing the old mark of 31 set by Jon Schoon in 1962.

Kaper, who had suffered only eight interceptions in 129 attempts going into the game, had four picked off by Ashland.

The main reason was the fact that Hope didn't establish a rushing game which allowed Ashland's front four, led by 250 pound tackle Mike Loury, to pour in on Kaper.

The 54 points of Ashland were the most Hope has allowed since 1921 when Western Normal University, now Western Michigan, routed Hope, 65-0.

Coach Russ De Vette's Flying Dutchmen concluded the season with a 4-5 record compared to last seasons 2-6 mark.

With only five seniors on this years squad Hope will have a sound nucleus to build around next season.

Dutch End Season With 5-3-1 Mark

Before a small crowd here Friday night Holland and Godwin fought to a 7-7 tie in the season finale for both squads.

The game, played on a cold, muddy field left both teams with 5-3-1 season records.

Godwin received the opening kickoff and marched from their own 29 yard line to the Dutch 21 where the Wolverines were stopped on a fourth and four play.

This was Godwin's deepest penetration of the first half while the Dutch could advance no further than Godwin's 42 yard line.

In the first half Holland totaled 30 yards offensively while Godwin gained just 66.

Both defenses played good hard nosed football and gave the offenses little chance for a scoring opportunity.

The third quarter began just as the first half had ended, with the defenses controlling the game.

Late in the quarter Holland gained control of the ball after halting a Godwin drive at the Dutch 23.

In nine plays Holland covered the 77 yards with Max Glupker running for 22 yards and passing for 38 in the drive.

The touchdown came with 1:21 left in the quarter on a 28 yard pass from Glupker to Fritz Steininger. Bernie Rosendahl converted and Holland led 7-0.

Following the kickoff Godwin struck back moving 57 yards in 16 plays for the score.

There were two key plays in the drive. The first was a fourth and eleven situation on the Dutch 32. Quarterback Jose Hernandez hit Kenn Rosek for a 17 yard gain to keep the drive alive.

Then with fourth and three from Holland's eight, Hernandez rolled left and behind a beautiful block by Gary Harmsen moved to the Holland four for the first down.

Two plays later, with 7:02 left in the fourth quarter, Hernandez plowed into the end zone. Godwin ran the extra point and succeeded on an off tackle belly play by John Lamancusa.

Holland moved to the Godwin 45 and with five minutes remaining gambled on a fourth and one play. The Dutch attempted a dive by Gary Lound, a play that had averaged six yards a try throughout the game, but Godwin held.

Neither team threatened the remainder of the game as Holland got the ball once more on their own five with 4:01 left.

The Dutch controlled the ball until the final gun thus capping the season.

Kempker noted after the game, "We didn't come through in two or three key situations," in reference to the Godwin touchdown drive.

However, Kempker felt "it was a good hard football game. I thought Gosselaar played a whale of a game both offensively and defensively. We had some fine efforts from some of our guys."

Kempker added, "This team (Godwin) did nothing we didn't expect from them. They're aggressive."

Holland concluded the season with a tie for the VCC championship following Muskegon Mona Shores' 35-13 triumph over Grandville Friday night.

Kempker, who was assisted throughout the year by line coach Ray Backus and end coach Clyde Line felt this was the Dutch's best effort since the upset victory of Mona Shores.

PASS COMPLETION—West Ottawa flanker Tom Kruitthof (43) latches on to a Jim Visser aerial at the West Ottawa field Friday night, in the Panthers 19-13 victory over Zeeland. Zeeland defender Bob Lamer makes a mid-air tackle but can't prevent the completion.

The Panther victory enabled West Ottawa to conclude the season with a 6-3 record the same as Zeeland. West Ottawa, which finished 3-3 in the O-K League Red Division, won all their non-conference games and enjoyed their finest season in history.

West Ottawa Beats Chix In Final

The West Ottawa football team closed out its season with a victory over the Zeeland Chix before a home crowd Friday night. The win gave the Panthers their most successful football season in the school's history.

The team was led by Jim Visser on offense and Dennis Wilson, who led the team with seven tackles, on defense. Visser's passing accounted for two Panther touchdowns and set up a third as West Ottawa gained 188 yards through the air.

The Panthers received the opening kickoff on their 48 yard line and drove down to Zeeland's 13 yard line. This was the deepest penetration for either team in the first half as the game was dominated by a tough defense.

West Ottawa tried two field goals but each was no good as the Panthers tried desperately to put some points on the scoreboard before the half. The first half ended with the score knotted at 0-0.

The statistics showed the story for Zeeland as they were unable to gain any first downs. The Panthers piled up nine first downs but were hampered by fumbles.

The Panthers opened the scoring early in the third quarter. Quarterback Visser hit halfback Tom Kruitthof on a 20-yard touchdown pass. Darryl Mitchell kicked the extra point putting the Panthers ahead 7-0.

On the next series of downs, West Ottawa forced the Chix to punt and took over on their own 46 yard line. Four plays later, Kruitthof scored on a 40-yard jaunt making the Panthers lead 13-0.

In the closing seconds of the third quarter, Zeeland came back and narrowed the score on a 25-yard draw play by Henry Wyngarden.

The conversion attempt by Wyngarden was no good leaving the score 13-6.

West Ottawa controlled the ball on all but four plays in the final quarter.

The Panthers came back and scored following the kickoff. The drive, which covered 74 yards, ate up five minutes of the clock in 17 plays. West Ottawa's final touchdown came on a fourth and inches situation when Visser passed to Kruitthof for his third touchdown. The extra point was no good.

Moments later, West Ottawa threatened again. Following a pass interception by Wilson, the Panthers drove down to Zeeland's one yard line but were stopped on a fumble which Zeeland recovered in the end zone.

Zeeland's quarterback Dirk Schrottenboer capitalized on a break by tossing a 59-yard scoring strike to Doug Barene. The extra point was good on a pass from Schrottenboer to Barene making the score 19-13. For the final four minutes of the game, the Panthers controlled the ball gaining the necessary first downs to run out the clock.

Coach Ron Wetherbee singled out the fine work of Visser on both offense and defense. He was also pleased with the work of Kruitthof and Wilson.

West Ottawa ended the season with a fifth place finish in the OK League Red Division with a 3-3 record. Overall they were 6-3 in compiling their finest season in the schools eight years, of football action.

'Everyman' Plays To Full House At Seminary

"Everyman," the classic morality play of the middle ages, was presented Tuesday night in the Mulder Chapel of Western Theological Seminary, by The Inspirational Players (Pacific Repertory Company). A capacity audience was seated for the one evening performance of this medieval drama.

The abstract of mankind portrayed by Keith Erickson as Everyman came across with many startlingly true commentaries on life when he approaches his "friends" to go with him on his day of death.

His appeal to Betty Jo Gallow, who presented the characters of Fellowship, Cousin, and Beauty went unheeded.

Everyman's plea to Charles J. Golden and Carl Press in the other roles of Kindred, Strength, Greed and Discretion also, fell upon closed ears.

All was not lost for in the end Miss Gallow as knowledge and Jacquelyn Wiersma as Good Deeds, did accompany him to his inevitable end — Grave.

The versatility of the actors was extremely fine as they changed character at least three times during the performance. This dramatic event in the lecture schedule of the Seminary can be marked a success.

Federal Bus Problems Are Aired

The Holland Board of Education had completed its agenda in a quick 20 minutes Monday night in Holland High School library when President James O. Lamb asked for comment from the audience.

And for the next 55 minutes, representatives of the Federal district discussed their transportation problems and their resentment at turning over two school buses to the Holland board and receiving no transportation for their secondary students.

Then followed questions and answers, a touch of recrimination and cooperation with the upshot that Supt. Donald L. Ihrman and a group of Federal parents will meet with private transportation authorities to see if a program can be worked out similar to those arranged by other outlying districts facing similar transportation problems in the past.

The old basic problems were patiently outlined — particularly the board's long-time offer to place a millage issue on the ballot after Federal and Harrington districts were annexed to the Holland district. But pending litigation challenging the validity of the annexation has not been resolved and on advice of counsel and state educational authorities, the Holland school district withdrew the issue from the August ballot after the Court of Appeals in July denied emergency consideration on the case. Requests asking the three challengers to withdraw were not successful.

The board was asked what is being done with the two buses of Federal district and the four buses of Harrington district, and Buildings and Grounds Supt. Ed Prins explained that one Federal bus (10 years old) is on standby service and the other is used for transporting special education students in the enlarged district, and for elementary students in some other schools.

Prins said one Harrington bus has been leased to the Christian Schools (nonprofit corporation) which transports students in the Harrington district to Christian high school, and the other three are used for elementary students in Harrington district, Apple Avenue, Federal and Holland Heights.

It was again explained that Holland district cannot provide transportation to selected outlying districts without providing transportation to all students in the district qualifying under the rules. The transportation millage issue was to provide funds for this enlarged service.

Elementary students at Federal would not ordinarily qualify for transportation since it is a relatively small district, but transportation is provided because of high speed roads and hazardous travel. Similar transportation is provided in Harrington area for kindergartners living over a mile from school and elementary children 1½ miles from school and for those crossing busy highways. For this, the school budget has a transportation budget item of $24,760, compared with around $5,000 last year caring for special education students.

President Lamb assured Federal representatives that he and the board are "very cognizant" of the transportation problems and several trips had been made to Lansing over the stated annexation program which complicated the transportation setup.

He explained again that the Holland board is operating Harrington and Federal schools on instruction of the attorney general and the superintendent of public instruction and pointed to the backlog of cases in the Court of Appeals. Supt. Ihrman said a Cass county case was decided last week after being in litigation 1½ years.

John Keuning said keeping the lines of communication open is always a wholesome sign and hoped both sides had a clearer picture of the problems faced. "We are not allowed by law to do what we would like to do. We are not blind to your problems and we are not ignoring your problems," he said.

During the regular meeting John Dykstra, who heads the adult education program, explained progress in the program which was revived this year for the first time in several years. At present, 69 are enrolled in machine shop, blueprint reading, typing, art and basic electricity and electronics, 34 of them studying for high school credit.

Among courses to be offered after Jan. 1 is a home ownership course of six weeks geared to site selection, zoning, codes, planning and building, contracts and obligations, finances, obligations, insurance and legal aspects of home ownership.

Other courses to be offered include woodworking and construction, parliamentary procedure, ceramics, typing, neuro muscular relaxation, bridge, drafting, computer programming and conversational Spanish.

There also was a discussion on possible fixed millage for schools in the county, and the new setup of the Board of Supervisors operating after Jan. 1 with 21 members.
