Dutch Ambassador Here

Netherlands Ambassador Age R. Tammenoms Bakker, in Holland Friday during a three-day visit to Michigan, compared the Netherlands of over 125 years ago when the Dutch emigrated to America, putting into perspective the role of a small nation that has changed from a mercantile and agricultural country into a highly industrialized one.

At a reception in City Hall hosted by Mayor Lou Hallacy, the Dutch diplomat was pleasantly surprised by the Singing Boys of Holland, directed by Albertha Bratt, singing two Dutch folk songs, selections which the ambassador sang when he was a boy. Some 70 civic leaders were present at the reception.

And this noon, Hope College President Gordon J. Van Wylen and college trustees hosted a luncheon in Durfee Hall for the Tammenoms Bakkers.

At a press conference in the mayor's office, the ambassador who delivered an address at a special convocation at Calvin College in Grand Rapids Thursday night, made public a personal message from Queen Juliana. It recalled her visit to the college and seminary in 1952 on which occasion the college renamed the chair of Dutch language and culture.

Her Majesty said basic values, established when the college was founded 100 years ago, should be passed on, emphasizing that for the formation of the individual and his contribution to society, it is essential that he understand the relationship between man and his Maker.

"May God sustain you in your continuing endeavors to give substance to existence and to form a type of man and woman dedicated to cooperate to the benefit of his country and humanity as a whole," her message concluded.

At today's luncheon, the ambassador spoke of the fundamental changes which the Netherlands has undergone in recent years. He said the Netherlands had a population of 8 million when he went to school, and now has close to 14 million. This factor, he said, set in motion many changes, particularly since World War II, changing the small nation into a highly industrialized country, eliminating many delightful pastoral scenes and producing environmental problems.

Yet with more than 1,000 persons to the square mile, the country follows a disciplined program with high priorities for education and a progressive attitude in employment and social security which is not to be confused with socialism.

He expressed regrets over decreasing influence of religion in the Netherlands, something that might bewilder the Dutch forefathers "but I do not think they would be alarmed."

He said only a few years ago the Dutch economy was so booming that great numbers of workers from less favored countries were brought in. And now, more or less suddenly, the country has 5 per cent unemployment.

"Our whole history, geographical, political and economical, has conditioned us to look ahead. We feel this will enable us to remain in control of developments and bring about the required adaptation in rational, timely and constructive ways, avoiding major controversies," he said.

Task Force Sets Plans For Streams

A series of recommendations designed to clean rivers and streams leading into Lake Macatawa was selected Friday by the Macatawa River Advisory Council and Task Force for use by state agencies in planning for a larger basin area. Members met in the District Court in Holland.

The council recommended all 18 elements in an environmental quality project and two of five elements in a national economic development program.

Rejected were attempts to protect 1,510 acres of cropland in the Macatawa River watershed from flood damage, creation of new water areas for water based recreational development and provisions for hunting on private land through payment to farmers and other rural landowners.

Recommended were maintenance of high level crop production by protecting 17,000 acres of prime agricultural land from scattered urban development and a program to provide public access to 19 miles of stream for boating and fishing in the Macatawa River.

Among the environmental quality aspects recommended were improvements and preservation of upland wildlife habitat and wetland habitat, protection of natural and scenic values of 510 acres of land along seven stream miles of the Macatawa River along M-21 in Zeeland township; reduction of erosion along the river; control of livestock waste runoff; protection of 1,340 acres of forest land near Holland; improvement of fish habitat on 66 miles of streams; development of outdoor classrooms in wetlands and general improvements in water qualities of the streams.

Council chairman William Winstrom of Holland said industry and the municipalities of Holland and Zeeland had done their share in cleaning Lake Macatawa and now it was up to the agriculturalists to take action to clean the streams leading into the lake.

He urged establishment of a sanitary sewer collection system around Lake Macatawa and said that would be one of the items discussed at a meeting Nov. 24 of the entire Kalamazoo - Black - Macatawa - Paw Paw Rivers basin Council in Holland.

High Waves Wash Pair Off Pier

2 Feared Drowned At Grand Haven

GRAND HAVEN—Authorities today searched for the bodies of a Grand Rapids man and youth believed drowned when they were swept by high waves from the south breakwater at Grand Haven State Park Monday afternoon. Two others managed to return to safety.

Police said Douglas Middleton, 17, a brother of Duane, was rescued from the rough seas by surfers and spent the night in North Ottawa Community Hospital. John Yonkers, 16, stopped along the pier and returned to shore to summon help.

City police said the four were walking along the wave-swept pier at 5:30 p.m. Monday when they reached the center section. Yonkers was hit by a wave and stopped, holding onto the pier. The other three continued toward the end.

Police said Yonkers told them he saw Brown washed from the pier and then saw Douglas in the water apparently trying to help Brown. Moments later Duane was in the water.

THE ORIGINS OF MAN (Guest Editorial)

Many decades have passed into history since the battle over Charles Darwin's theory of evolution was fought and won. The notion that the human species evolved from other less complex forms of life is now taken for granted by almost all persons with any scientific training. Even so, it is still hard today to comprehend fully the enormous length of time required for this evolution, and the multitude of individual organisms that were born, lived and died while this epic and momentous process of development was taking place.

A case in point is provided by the announcement of Dr. Mary Leakey, one of the world's outstanding physical anthropologists and widow of another pioneer in this field, Louis Leakey, that she has found fossils indicating that members of the human species lived in East Africa almost 3.75 million years ago. If verified, this conclusion extends the known prehistory of mankind almost a million years beyond the earlier accepted limits.

What this means can be appreciated by a simple calculation. A generation is usually taken to be 20 years. On that assumption roughly 750,000 generations of human beings and related species have lived since the individuals represented by Dr. Leakey's new fossils were alive. For comparison we may note that since the time of the Egyptian high culture that produced the Sphinx and the Pyramids, some 3,000 years ago, only 600 generations have lived and died. Put another way, recorded history reflects less than 1/1000th of the time that human beings first appeared on this planet.

The reminder that all human beings alive today are trustees of a biological and cultural heritage accumulated over almost four million years, is a humbling perspective from which to judge today's triumphs and disasters.

Sunday School Lesson

"Finding Strength in Serving God"
Genesis 30:6-12, 16-21
By C. P. Dame

This lesson deals with a subtle temptation and tells us how to conquer it. All are tempted. Every period in a person's life has its peculiar temptations. It is not sinful to be tempted, it is foolish to seek it, and a sin to yield to it.

I. Assets may become liabilities. Joseph had been a favorite and petted son of a rich father. Through the cruelty, hate and envy of his brothers he had become a slave in the household of an Egyptian official. Once he had given orders, now he was getting orders.

Joseph was a handsome young man with a pleasant disposition and with ability which made him likeable. He was given charge of his master's house which meant that he came in contact with the wife which led to temptation. The more a person gets, be it influence, position, power, wealth, popularity in any area of life, the more temptations will come and often the more subtle and attractive. This is true today.

II. There are times to say, "No." Potiphar's wife was a sensual woman and became a temptress — she wanted Joseph to be intimate with her. She asked him again and again but he kept on refusing her. This temptress had much to offer. She was a woman of standing, politically, socially, and made an appeal — with words and looks. By yielding he would win her favor, get physical satisfaction, romance, more freedom, companionship, and a bright future. By refusing there was the possibility of facing the fury of a scorned woman. Joseph faced a choice.

His faith in God made him refuse. His words, "how then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" show that all his adversities had not robbed him of his faith. By yielding he would betray his master which meant sinning against God and besides sinning against self. Sin is not an isolated matter as some young people think. Some middle aged men and women figure that their own happiness counts.

III. Doing the right sometimes is costly. Joseph was charged with attempted rape by the temptress and Potiphar could have killed him but he threw him in prison. "But the Lord was with Joseph." One wonders whether Potiphar believed his wife, for Egyptian women were known for their loose morals.

Many young people face temptations today. Alcohol, following the crowd, wanting to be popular, anxious to be successful, lures some Christians away from righteousness and God. The example of Joseph and others who took a stand as he did have inspired many to say "No" with firmness and keep on saying it even though it cost them a job or suffering or friends. They did not want to sin against God nor to their fellowmen.

The newlyweds will be at home at 8741 Cottonwood, Jenison, upon their return from a Florida honeymoon. The bride, a Zeeland High School graduate, is employed as a programmer at Grand Rapids Metalcraft. The groom, a graduate of Unity Christian High, is self-employed as a truck driver.

County To Study Sharing Police Costs

GRAND HAVEN — The possibility of township paying for police protection by contracting with the sheriff's department has been taken under study by Ottawa County Commissioners.

Commissioner Marilyn Sherwood asked the county administration committee to make a study of possible contractual arrangements whereby townships would pay for sheriff department road patrols. The motion was adopted.

Commissioner Donald Stoltz said the townships of Georgetown, Holland and Park were already sharing in the cost of E units on the roads in their areas and said it was an indication of the townships willingness to share in the police protection costs.

A possible site relocation for the sheriff's branch office in Holland was referred to the county improvement committee. The branch is located in a mobile trailer at the County Branch building on North River Ave. The proposed site is the Kalkman Redi-Mix Co., offices at James St. and US-31. The Kalkman firm plans to vacate that location.

As part of a jail rehabilitation program, the county is to provide a detoxification center for persons taken into custody for being publicly under the influence and commissioners were told such facilities were required by state statutes Jan. 1, 1977.

Sheriff Bernard Gysen referred to a master plan of jail rehabilitation programs and said such a center was in the plans at a cost of $10,000. He said other phases of the master plan were being implemented, including the removal of the sheriff's family from the jail building to make way for added rehabilitation programs.

Commissioner Donald Stoltz of Holland said one of the state rules governing jail operations concerned temperatures of food served jail inmates.

He said state inspectors claimed the food served prisoners from stainless steel dishes was too cold and that covered plastic dishes were being recommended at $12 a dish. The matter was submitted for information, Stoltz said.

Board Asks Return Of $8,000

GRAND HAVEN — After 18 months of study and legal opinions from the state attorney general and county prosecutor, Ottawa County Commissioners Wednesday decided to ask the Red Cross for the return of $8,000 in revenue funds they had given the agency.

"I don't think the commissioners were absolutely wrong (in giving the Red Cross the money)," said finance committee chairman Eunice Bareham. "The intent was good. The board did nothing illegal."

Commissioner in 1974 voted $8,000 to assist the Ottawa County Red Cross in their programs but use of revenue funds was challenged. A state attorney general's office opinion said the funds could be used on a contractual basis or purchase of services under county statutory obligations.

But the county prosecutor said Wednesday in an opinion such efforts went counter to Red Cross policies. The prosecutor said contracted services were explored through the Civil Defense and the Health Department as a means to allow the Red Cross to keep the $8,000.

Commissioners suggested the $8,000 be paid back so as to create no undue hardship on the Red Cross chapter.

Commissioners pledged the county's full faith and credit behind the sale of $5.2 million in bonds to finance a water supply system for Spring Lake town-

Four Backs Gain Over 1,000 Yards

By Leo Martonosi

This year's all-area Sentinel football team, is the most explosive ever.

Never before have we had four runners that picked up at least 1,000 yards in a single season. In fact, there were times when not one all-area gridder reached that figure.

Scott Tubergan of West Ottawa, an all-state choice as a junior, rushed for 1,314 yards this season. Tubergan is joined in the backfield by Rick Elzinga of Holland, who established all rushing marks at the school with 1,090 yards.

Rick Bushee of Fennville gained 1,261 yards on the ground while Jackson, the only junior in the group, has picked up 1,131 yards in only seven games.

Named at offensive ends are Zeeland's Hugh Bartels and Fennville's Marc Moeller, tackles. Joe Fojtik of Holland and Mike Bolles of Saugatuck, guards Scott Vander Meulen of West Ottawa and Jim Lacy of Fennville and center Tony Buschini of Allendale.

Allendale's all-state candidate Mark Wiersma, was the quarterback recipient in an all out battle with Zeeland's Doug Wabeke.

Wiersma, an all-area basketball choice as well, has completed 33 touchdown passes in his career for 2,440 yards, including 16 TDs this year for 1,013 yards. He's only been intercepted eight times in three years.

Selected to the all-area first

NILES — Mary Long and Tammy Paaue of Holland, were named today to the Big 7 girls' all-league tennis squad. Also on the first unit are Ann Kercher and Salle Hanselman of Kalamazoo; Loy Norrix and Cathy Daras, Holly; Hokstra and Carol Oudeema of champion Portage Northern.

of Hudson's. I'm not saying we could beat them but they would definitely know they were in a game if we played this year."

"They wouldn't be able to stop quarterback Mark Wiersma and running back Robert Jackson for ever, that's for sure."

Two other coaches, Bob Larson at Zeeland and Gary Frens of Fennville were also considered for coach of the year honors.

Larson's Chix enjoyed a 6-3 season and Fren's Blackhaws were 5-3.

Holland, West Ottawa, Saugatuck and Hudsonville ended with 4-5 campaigns while Hamilton was 2-7.

Allendale won't be participating in the state playoffs which is a shame, but it's going to be even worse for the Falcons, when Friberg calls it quits. He may do that soon and football won't be the same at Allendale when he does.

Second Time for Friberg

By Leo Martonosi

Bill Friberg of Allendale, whose Falcons just missed making the state's first prep playoffs, was named the area's coach of the year.

Friberg becomes the first coach to repeat as top mentor since we've been at The Sentinel. His 1974 club was also 8-1 and last year 6-2.

A setback to Hopkins hurt the Falcons chances of reaching the playoffs but Covert's dropping the sport, killed all hopes.

"It's just a shame that we didn't have the opportunity to show what we could do in the playoffs," replied Friberg. "I honestly feel that we were one of the best four teams in the state in Class D."

Friberg, 37, is a 1956 graduate of Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills and a 1960 graduate of Albion College. His two older brothers Bob and Dick are head coaches in football and basketball respectively at Kentwood.

One of Friberg's first Falcon squads, lost to mighty team defense were: end, Mike Busscher of Hamilton; tackles, Don Dubbink of Hamilton and Gene Kraai of Zeeland; linebackers Brian Bouwens of Holland, Jon VanderJagt of Zeeland, Larry Hall of Allendale and backs, Ross Nykamp of Holland, Jim Hutchins of Saugatuck, Paul VanderJagt of Zeeland and John Witkowski of West Ottawa.

For the first time, the Sentinel selected an all-area kicker in West Ottawa's Sam Angell and punter in Holland's Dennis Lawson. Both players were also standouts at guard-tackle-linebacker and end respectively.

Zeeland's Coach Bob Larson called Wiersma, "the best" quarterback he's seen at that level in their scrimmage at the outset of the season.

Falcon mentor Bill Friberg adds, "Mark is definitely a superb college prospect, not only in football but in basketball as well."

Hall, the slotback of Allendale, also led the team in tackles from his linebacking position, and was all-area last year at slotback. Buschini is considered very tough and quick by Friberg and Jackson is a blue chipper all the way.

Saugatuck Coach Jack Lampen said that Hutchins was "the best" defensive back he's seen all year. Hutchins is also an excellent running back.

Opening the holes for Saugatuck's backs this season was Bolles, an all-league choice at fullback last year for the Indians. Bolles, a 6'1" 195-pound senior, just loves to hit, according to Lampen.

Marc Moeller, another all-area choice in basketball, grabbed 16 passes this year for 323 yards and eight TDs and was one of the leading tacklers on the team from his defensive tackle position.

"If I had to pick one kid in our league to start a team with, I would take Moeller," offered Lampen.

Lacy and Vander Meulen played tackles but were so good, that we didn't feel it would be fair to leave them off our team, and placed them at guards. Lacy led the Hawks in tackles (12 per game) from his linebacking post.

Coaches, Deb Nolan at Fennville and Gary Frens at Zeeland, indicated that both gridgers would probably be standouts at any position they played.

Dubbink led Hamilton in tackles with 10-15 a game with Busscher second at 8-10. Coach Bob Stiel admits he will have a hard time in replacing these two seniors next fall. Both weigh in at around 195 pounds.

Bartels, is not only a fine offensive end but was very tough on defense too. In fact, Larson said that many of the teams, ran the opposite way because of him.

Bartels hauled in 23 passes and has been a three-year starter for the Chix. Zeeland's Kraai was second in tackles with around 12 a game while the VanderJagts — Jon and Paul — were standouts at their spots.

The MIAA did not have a unit that could beat Hope College but if this year's all-area Sentinel team played together, the Dutchmen would be in big trouble.

Jon and Paul stood head and shoulders above everyone else on our team at linebacker and defensive halfback," claimed Larson. J. VanderJagt paced the Chix in tackles.

Witkowski enjoyed many fine games for West Ottawa with one of his finest coming in the season opener when he kept knocking down passes to Holland's giant ends Loren Schrotenboer and Lawson.

"He's a good one, no doubt about that," insisted Nolan.

Angell holds the career field goal and extra point records at West Ottawa. Against Grandville, the Panther co-captain booted a pro-like 49-yard three pointer.

You can be sure that Coach Ray Smith of Hope, has his eyes on the soon to be graduated Angell. Smith will have to replace senior Jim Miller at that position and would love to have Angell on his side in 1976.

Smith will also be trying his best to persuade Tubergan and Elzinga to attend Hope College. The two backs are definitely worth somekind of all-state mention.

"Sure I'm pushing Rick for all-state," stated Holland mentor Ray Backus. "As far as we can tell, no one has picked up more yardage than him at Holland."

Elzinga is one of the big reasons the Dutch improved their season record to 4-5 this year.

One of the reasons, Elzinga gained so many yards, was because of the torrid blocking of Fojtik, who showed he knew what the game was all about, once he got the chance to start. This is the first time in four years, that the enthusiastic Fojtik has started. Although Backus claims that he would have started some games last year, if he hadn't broken his leg.

Bouwens and Nykamp, were two of the hardest hitters on the Dutch "squad. No one on the team even came close to Bouwens in tackles, as the 6'1" 207-pounder, averaged around 15 per game.

Pound-for-pound, there was probably no one that hit harder on the team than Nykamp. Nykamp, who also played at offensive wingback, tips the scales at 170 but hits like he weighs 230. And catch this, he's only 16.

Some of the other players that the coaches mentioned as possible selections were Richard Walczak, Schrotenboer, Dan Molenaar and Todd De Young at Holland, Jamie Bloemendaal and Dave Beckman of West Ottawa, Gary Bazan, Wabeke and Terry Brinks at Zeeland, Jerry Overbeek of Hamilton, Mike Jones at Saugatuck and Dave Dawson, Warren Potter, Wade Pratt, Randy Knoper and David Perales of Allendale.

The only underclassmen to make the first teams are Vander Meulen, Witkowski, Kraai, Buschini and Jackson.

The MIAA did not have a unit that could beat Hope College but if this year's all-area Sentinel team played together, the Dutchmen would be in big trouble.

Seven Team Records Set By Dutchmen

By Leo Martonosi

Records are made to be broken. And that was just the case for Hope College's most successful football team on a beautiful Saturday afternoon at Riverview Park.

The Flying Dutchmen of Coach Ray Smith closed its 1975 campaign with seven records in bombing De Pauw University, 48-22.

Never before has a Hope eleven had an undefeated season as Smith's unit had. Hope's eighth triumph of the year equals the previous high set by the 1958, 1959 and 1974 clubs.

Hope also established team marks for the most touchdowns in a season (37), the old mark was 33 in 1971; most points, 271, previous high was 248 in 1959; most field goals, five by Jim Miller, four was club high set last year by Miller; conversion kicks (32) by Miller broke team mark of 24 set by the 1958, 1973 and 1974 Dutchmen; fewest passes intercepted (6), old mark was seven in 1956.

Smith was happier than a rat locked in a cheese house after the game.

A beaming Smith, "It just feels great to achieve the best record in the history of Hope. We're just proud of all our kids. We came to play today against a fine team."

"Yes, it was definitely my most satisfying season of coaching."

On the other side of the ledger, Tom Mont, the coach of DePauw and a member of the NCAA Division II voting board, came away quite impressed with the Dutchmen.

Mont's Tigers lost to Indiana Central, the No. 5 rated team in the nation, 27-0 (Hope is tied for seventh) and compared the Dutchmen with the Indiana team.

"Hope is an excellent football team," replied Mont. "They just kicked the heck out of us. We went into the game feeling we could win but they sure had other ideas."

Quarterback Tim Van Heest enjoyed another outstanding game in his finale. The first-year starter and a likely all-MIAA choice, was on target 11 times in 21 attempts for 200 yards and one touchdown.

Dave DeZwaan hauled in five of Van Heest's aeries for 86 yards while speedster Kevin Clark grabbed three, including one for a TD.

Senior defensive end Doug Holwerda of Grand Rapids, blocked two punts which resulted in touchdowns of 15 yards by Brian Guth and a six-pointer by Bob Lees.

The Hope fans witnessed something unusual at the outset, as the Dutchmen punted the ball twice in less than three minutes. However, for the game, Hope only kicked the ball three times.

After hitting Bill Blacquiere for 12 yards and Dave Teater for 20 more, Van Heest sneaked for the game's first score at the 6:35 mark of the period. Miller added the first of his six consecutive conversions.

Miller's longest three-point boot ever, 40 yards increased the count to 10-0 at the end of the quarter.

Kurt Bennett ran six yards for a score in the second stanza, Clark tallied on a pass of seven yards from Van Heest, and Miller popped a field goal of 21 yards, as this writer's arm was getting sore from writing in the second period.

Guth added his score at the 8:24 mark of the second quarter. Second string DePauw signal caller, Rick Boling fired a perfect TD bomb to Mark Moon for the Tigers first TD. The play covered 76 yards.

Bruce Berkheimer plunged one-yard for DePauw's second touchdown of the second afternoon. John Jewett converted after each tally.

Steve Lorenze's fall on a DePauw fumble after Clark's TD set up Miller's 21-yard field goal.

Mike Skelton also recovered a fumble in the first half and freshman back Tom Mays, fulfilled his season by picking off a DePauw aerial in the fourth stanza.

Mays had his arm sewed back on a few years ago and the doctors said he would never play football. However, this dedicated athlete from Livonia, proved them wrong.

Lees scooped up Holwerda's second blocked punt in the end zone at the 10:18 mark of the third quarter and Blacquiere closed out the Hope offensive fireworks with a three-yard TD run almost five minutes later.

Boling's 19-yard run on a keeper play made the final score closer than it actually was in the fourth period. Randy Wells hit Mike Dolinski for the two points.

All of Hope's eight seniors played brilliant games in their finale. They include middle guard Dave Yeiter, defensive tackle Craig Van Tuinen, Holwerda, Lees, Miller, Van Heest, linebacker Jim Vander Meer and offensive guard Leonard Fazio.

The eight will be honored at the Hope College Quarterback Club Wednesday at the Holland Country Club.

Holland Girls Capture Big 7 Swimming Crown

PORTAGE — Tremendous depth in every event resulted in a romp for the Holland High girls swimming team here Saturday as the Dutch captured the Big Seven Conference swimming and diving championship in Portage Central pool.

It marked the first Holland team to win a conference crown. The Dutch began Big Seven competition in all sports this year. Coached by Barb Bos, the girls were also unbeaten in 16 straight dual meets including the dunking of the six league foes. "It was a super team effort," Coach Bos said.

Holland scored 308 points while Portage Northern had 203 for a distant second. Battle Creek Lakeview had 158 followed by Kalamazoo Loy Norrix, 152; Portage Central, 144; Niles, 136 and St. Joseph 47. The Dutch qualified 14 swimmers and three divers.

Junior diver Robbin Kuite and the 400-yard freestyle relay team of sophomores Jean Vande Bunte and Dawn Mugg, senior Anne Clark and junior Diane Helmink took the Holland firsts.

Kuite set a varsity, junior and conference record for 11 dives with 357.55 points. Senior Sue Lightfoot, who held the Dutch mark, finished third with 326.15 while Junior Pam Brower was eighth, 291.85.

Holland Ends With 1 More Win in 1975

By Leo Martonosi

MUSKEGON — Holland ended its football season, the same way it started the campaign here Friday evening, as Mona Shores rolled past the Dutch, 32-6.

The Dutch entered the game in hopes of finishing with their first winning season in four years. Instead Holland closed the year at 4-5. However, that mark is one game better than the 1974 team mustered.

Neither team could generate an offense in the first period, as Holland managed one first down and Mona two. But the Sailors must have thought they just came on loud in the second quarter by registering 20 counters while holding the Dutch to zero points.

Holland had some crucial play option fumbles in the half with one of them resulting in the game's first touchdown.

After the Sailors recovered the second Todd De Young fumbled pitchout on the 29, Dave Windatt went nine yards on a counter play for six points. The boot never got off, as the snap was high and John Hosta smothered the kicker.

A big 33-yard pass play from Larry David to Randy Smith set up Windatt's second TD of 14 yards just moments later.

The Sailors again took the ball 45 yards in three plays for the score. Again it was Windatt, who broke a couple tackles and raced 37 yards around right end for the TD. David hit Scott Dillard for the two points.

Holland could only gain two first downs at the intermission against the LMAC Sailors.

Mona went into the contest with the same record as Holland's but it was quite evident that the Sailors were much hungrier than the Dutch.

With 4:46 to play in the third stanza, Brian Jones plunged two yards for a touchdown from Holland's two-yard line. The TD came on fourth down.

A big 36-yard pass from De Young to Loren Schrotenboer put the ball on Mona's 14-yard stripe but on the next play, Holland again coughed up the ball.

David, was sort of like Goliath, as he fooled the Dutch by scampering an unheard of 82 yards for a touchdown on a quarterback sneak. The kick again was no good but the Sailors' marching band, the largest in the state (229 members) kicked up their heels.

Mike Hernandez recovered a Mona fumble to set up Holland's lone TD with 3:43 left in the contest.

A pass interference penalty on Ross Nykamp, gave the Dutch the ball on Mona's 11 where De Young closed out his career by arching a pass in the end zone to Dennis Lawson. The pass for the PAT was incomplete.

Lawson, who injured his shoulder against Battle Creek Lakeview, only played on offense versus Mona.

The Sailors held Holland's greatest single season rushing leader Rick Elzinga to 69 yards. Elzinga capped his outstanding year with 1,090 yards.

Star linebacker Brian Bouwens, who turned 17 Friday, once again led the Dutch in tackles with 13.

"I guess the law of averages caught up with us tonight," stated Coach Ray Backus. "Up to tonight, we never fumbled on the exchange from quarterback to tailback. Mona was a good team but naturally, I never thought they would beat us 32-6."

Seniors that played their final game for Holland were De Young, Nykamp, Ron Brondyke, Elzinga, John Miller, Richard Walczak, Bouwens, Rick Ter Haar, Joe Fojtik, Steve Hoffmann, Paul Nollon, Ray Schumacher, Ron Brownson, Schrotenboer and Lawson.

Coach Mike Bos' junior varsity team dropped a 27-0 decision to the Little Sailors Friday afternoon.

It was only the third loss in six games for Holland. The Dutch finished second in the Big Seven, just one-half game behind champion Lakeview. The Spartans were 4-1-1 and Holland 4-2.

Hope Coeds to Compete In Nykerk Cup Contest

Women of the freshman and sophomore classes at Hope College will participate in the annual Nykerk Cup competition Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the Civic Center.

The contest, which features competition in drama, music and oratory, is an annual highlight of Parent's Weekend at Hope.

Admission is free and the event is traditionally performed before a capacity audience.

Members of the sophomore class will sing "To the Class of '78, 'Because'." Their coach is Norma O'Brien, senior from Petoskey, and assistant director Lynn Berry, a sophomore from Fairfax, Va. Accompanist will be Kathy Mason, sophomore from Albion.

The freshman class will sing a musical collage based on the songs "Music Alone Shall Live," "Sing," "Make Your Own Kind of Music," "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing" and "I Believe in Music." Members of the cast include Dee Faller of Milwaukee, Cherie Beak of Grand Rapids, Blythe Denham of South Holland, Ill., Leslie Van Dop of Grand Rapids, Charita Ford of Chicago, Kathy Forman of Lansing, Audrey Veldman of Austin, Tex., Anne Powell of Wheaton, Ill., Diana Lutterbein of Edgerton, Ohio, Nancy and Linda Nordstrom of Zeeland.

John Witkowski put the ball on the six and from there it was Scott Tubergan who got the final score on a one-yard plunge. Then it was the big two point pass play that failed and the final score ended at 14-13.

Getting back to Tubergan, let's review some of the stats in his great football career for the Panthers. He set a school record with 1,314 yards this season. In this game, he had 137 yards and overall a 6.1 yard average in 216 carries. Fantastic that's for sure and he will be missed next year.

It was parents' night and all the parents of the players were introduced prior to the game. Eleven seniors played their last game for West Ottawa. They included John Van Eenennaam, Dave Beckman, Tom Rewa, Allen Vander Yacht, Sam Angell, Bob Monhollen, David Hulst, Tom Goodrow, Joe Dooneewerd, Glenn Ridder and Tubergan. Every one of these seniors did a fine job for the Panthers and there's absolutely no doubt they will all be missed next year.

The good news for Coach Nolan and the Panthers will be the return of several fine juniors. VanDer Meulen, a defensive leader, has been an excellent player opening up good holes in the line on offense and stopping the opponents with several driving tackles in his defensive line-backing duties.

Also returning at quarterback will be Conklin who came back nicely from an injury early in the season. Then there's steady Bloemendaal and Witkowski who gave the opponents all kinds of fits. Jack Barrett, Mike George, Jeff Van Dyke and Lloyd Selover also return to the backfield. There's good experience at the center position with Greg Ferrel, Mike Torp and Nate De Young. Good guards in Rick Brink, Mike Dekker, Jeff Kaake, Tim Rusticus and rugged Brian Driesenga all return.

In the tackle department it will be Larry Nieboer, Tom Knowles, Ron Allen and Van Der Meulen. Although rugged Dave Beckman and Van Eenennaam will be gone at the end position, Mark Haltenhoff and Bruce Patterson return.

During the season, Nolan had seven underclassmen as starters on both offense and defense and that's a better than average nucleus to work with.

Nolan told this reporter last week that he was concerned about the running of Nuiver and he wasn't kidding. With time running out on the Panthers in the final period, they got a big break as the Eagles fumbled on their 24-yard line and West Ottawa recovered. A fine pass from Dave Conklin to Both schools had identical 4-4 records going into the finale and the game went right down to the wire. With only 2:10 remaining in the game, Coach Deb Nolan was faced with going for a tie, or winning the game. Nolan's decision was right of course. Who wants a tie, its like kissing your sister. The Eagles were faced with the same situation against Holland High and lost.

The Panthers were in complete control of the first half, scoring on a beautiful sustained drive the first time they had the ball. The score came as West Ottawa lined up for what looked like a field goal but Glenn Ridder, the holder for Angell, faded back and passed to Jamie Bloemendaal for a 27-yard TD with Sam Angell kicking the extra point putting the Panthers out front 7-0. The first half ended at that score as the Panther defense led by Scott VanDer Meulen held the Eagles scoreless.

Then something happened to Christian in the third period. They began to move the ball and Jack Nuiver went 20 yards around the left side for the Eagles first TD. The PAT try was no good however, as Bloemendaal blocked the pass attempt, giving the Panthers a slight 7-6 lead. The next time Christian got their hands on the ball, Nuiver went around the end for 46 yards and a TD. This time the two point conversion was good making it 14-7.
