TWO HUNDRED CHILDREN ARE VACCINATED

CITY IS FREE FROM SMALL POX; ONLY TWO CASES OF SCARLET FEVER

Co-Operation of Parents, Teachers and Doctors Is Wonderful

Monday morning was the time set when the Board of Health of the city made public through the local papers that a clinic would be held when children could be vaccinated against small pox free of charge.

At the appointed hour 250 children availed themselves of the opportunity and Drs. Kools and VanderVelde had their hands full taking care of all those who applied. There were even some grown people in the number among them, a few teachers from our public schools.

Holland is now free from small pox and there are only two cases of scarlet fever reported thus far. It is especially gratifying to note the wonderful co-operation between the mothers teachers and physicians of this city—all showed a willingness to get back of this movement for the good of their children and the general health of our city.

Dr. D. G. Cook, head of Holland's board of health has been pushing health measures furthering immunity from well known contagious diseases and that he has been successful is evidenced from the number who apply while the clinics have been held at the city hall from time to time.

STATE GETS HIGHWAYS CLEANED FREE

The State of Michigan does not pay a penny to keep its highways free from snow is the startling announcement of a road commissioner. This is not so usual after all. The road commissioner states that during winters when the highways were blocked, there were few cars running, most of them were laid up for the winter. However with the advent of the closed car and the open roads cars are run in the winter nearly as much as in the summer, and the running cars use gasoline and the gasoline tax pays for the cleaning of the highway and more too.

JACKSON GETS OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

HOLLAND HIGH TO SEND TWENTY BOYS UNDER DIRECTION OF MR. A. E. HARTMAN

The twenty-fourth annual Michigan Older Boys' Conference will be held in Jackson, Nov. 26, 27, 28. Every year this conference draws a large crowd of boys from every part of the state and Holland always sends a fair sized quota. Mr. A. E. Hartman, director of physical education at Holland high will be in charge of the local delegation and the trip will be made by bus. The theme of the conference is "My Life and the World's Need," and the slogan is "Face It Squarely." The speakers as usual are of the best and real inspirational meetings are held with the discussion groups following. Many of the larger schools and universities send group leaders and hope college is sending two men for this purpose. Two years ago Hope sent Michigan which had football stars in Steger, Steele and Oosterbaan listed.

Speakers: Dr. Thomas Graham of Oberlin College; Dr. Frederick E. Taylor of Indianapolis; J. A. Van Die, former State Boys' Work Secretary of Michigan will direct World Brotherhood Pageant and campfire Saturday night; A. J. Gregg of New York will train discussion group leaders and direct discussion group work; E. W. Brandenburg, of Chicago, will conduct the course on "Practical Work with Boys"; Ted Evans of Detroit will direct the music and songs; Gordon W. Kingsbury of Detroit, General chair of the conference committee, will officially open the conference and speak on traditions; Fred B. Freeman of Detroit, State Secretary, Y. M. C. A.; E. A. Byrum, Executive Secretary of the Conference; Roy L. Vail, Detroit, local organization.

Holland's delegation is as follows: Harold Boone, Willard Meengs, Frank Harbin, John Wyman, Eddie Wendell, Kenneth Sand, Lewis Elenba, George Fell, Donald Martin, Lester Vanderwerp, Willard Ripley, Charles Verburg, Melvin Van Tatenhoven, Melvin Vandenberg, John Mulder and Allan Brunson. These young men will leave Friday morning and return on Sunday.

"PATH OF DUTY WAY TO GLORY" SLOGAN OF ZEELAND W. L. C.

"The Path of Duty is the Way to Glory" is the slogan for the Zeeland Ladies Literary Club at their afternoon's meeting. The meeting was held in the regular club rooms. Members were welcomed by the hostess for the day, Mrs. J. D. De Pree, after which there was given an unusual interesting program, as follows: Vocal quartet by Mrs. C. J. De Koster, Mrs. J. Wynyard, Mrs. M. C. Ver Hage and Mrs. G. Van Hoven. Organ accompaniment by Mrs. J. Van Pusem. Living pictures, in charge of Mrs. H. Den Herder. Thanksgiving etquette by Miss Margery Keppel.

Turkeys are only half as plentiful this year as last, according to a Benton Harbor market report. Or, to speak more accurately, they are twice as scarce.—Detroit News.

FIRST HOLLAND INTERURBAN CAR TO TAKE PASSENGERS ON JULY 4, 1898

The above picture represents the two first interurban cars that passed over the rails from the Pere Marquette depot Holland, to Macatawa. This was on July 4, 1898. A trial was sent over the line the night before containing M. J. Kinch, the superintendent, Mike Lesselyoung, Henry Bosch now city inspector, Eugene Klone, Henry P. Zwemer, coal dealer, Ed Westfall, James Irvine, and Rusty Wright at least that is the claims of these men and there is little doubt of it. The picture above shows the cars taking the first passengers to Macatawa. The man at the motor was Mike Lesselyoung, while Henry P. Zwemer, standing in rather a dangerous position at the front, was the first conductor.

The man with the derby hat standing in the street, quite alone, with his hands in his pocket is Charles M. Humphrey, of Ironwood, the man who promoted the road, and is the brother of Mrs. Harry Mills who lives in this city today.

The gentleman with arms folded, sober as a judge wearing a white cap, is our old friend Henry Kraker of Kraker Hotel. Henry wore lodge buttons and badges, even in those days.

The second little boy from the right of the four standing in front is Neal Van Putten, better known as Pat McCoy.

The three ladies standing to the right of Mr. Zwemer are the Rootes sisters of Zeeland. The first young lady to be remembered was a bookkeeper at the Cappon-Bertsch Leather company, while the second was a public school teacher. The third lady is Mrs. Dick Boonstra of Zeeland.

The tall man standing just inside the car is Tom Tilma, brother of the man with the heavy watch chain at the rear of the first car. The motorman on the second car is Ed Westfall and the conductor is Peter Sketee.

M. J. Kinch, the superintendent of the man with the heavy watch chain at the rear of the first car. The babe in arms is James Humphrey Mills who is 29 years old today and is general accountant for the General Motors company at Flint, Michigan, the second largest financing corporation in the world. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mills, 289 Lincoln Avenue.

The baby in the arms of Mr. Cockron an Eastern capitalist who financed the road.

The man with the heavy beard on the first car was not "King Ben" as many have tried to make out, it is said to be Mr. Tuttle of West Olive.

No doubt readers can pick out many other familiar faces, however these mentioned are well known to a great many Holland citizens.

At the time when this picture was taken the line had only been built from the east end of Holland to Macatawa park, and Mr. Zwemer to whom we are indebted for this picture, states that the fares collected on the first trip numbered 156. The largest load on record between Holland and the park was 184. The road was then known as the Holland, Lake Michigan and it had quite a financial struggle during the first two years, but at the end of that time the Saultsteek division was built. This added considerable revenue to the company's resources and then the work of extending to Grand Rapids was begun.

Construction operations were started from both ends of the line. When the rails were laid to Zeeland there was talk for a great ball between Holland and Zeeland that ended up in a free for all. It will be remembered. Half of Holland went over to Zeeland via the street car.

There were several cars on the track during construction even as early as 1897, but did not carry passengers, and Mr. Zwemer remembers that on his first trip out, a dynamo blew up, and it took a month for repairs and to get new cars. During that period too, the road on several occasions was on edge of financial disaster, and on July 3, 1898, when the first grading was done up to September, money was slow in coming and later in the fall the road went bankrupt but was revived again shortly afterwards with added eastern capital.

The power house and car barns were burned in December, 1899, and there were no more cars until spring when the barns were rebuilt and new cars secured.

The Holland City News of that date stated that ten cars, the snow plow and sheds adjoining were all burned, and that Engineer Davis, fireman Paxton and car repairer Mulder and motorman Stewart who were in the power house at the time discovered the flames in the last car that had been run into the shed.

There was no adequate fire protection and the entire establishment was soon in ashes, destroying $40,000 in cars, and $30,000 in buildings and equipment.

When the railroad was first built out of Holland, the company also had its sinkhole trouble, directly north of the viaduct on Seventh-st., near the Pere Marquette depot. Cars were first run over a pontoon bridge for every effort to fill the hole was futile and was only accomplished after his logs and stumps were put into it and $35,000 in money was spent.

Harry Mills of this city was the man to install the first power house machinery at Virginia Park, and he was assisted by Fred Fairfield, Holland's City electrician at the time, and who is now living in Grand Rapids.

The promoters of the line were Charles Humphrey; of Ironwood, and son of the late Judge Humphrey. Mr. Cochran from Auburn, New York, E. W. Ferguson of Indianapolis was general manager, Alvin T. Larson of Stockton, Wis., was secretary and M. J. Kinch of Ironwood, Michigan, was superintendent and T. O. Williams of Allegan was surveyor while M. Calaver of Chicago was superintendent of construction.

A few years later the road was reorganized and Strathairn Hendrie, of Detroit was general manager for a great many years.

On December 2 and 3 the seniors of Zeeland High are to offer the pre-holiday play "In the Next Room."

It is stated that "The Bat" or the "Cat and the Canary" have nothing on the mystery play put on by the Zeelanders.

The coaches are, Miss Dora Van Loo and Miss Angeline Poppen who delve ably into the mysteries of stage craft in teaching their cast.

The leading role is to be played by Miss Marguerite Post. The play has to do with a mysterious cabinet around which some unusual things occur. There is a murder mystery that calls for detectives from America as well as from Scotland Yard, England.

A wealthy New York family enters in as does a beautiful home that goes with a play of that kind. This naturally calls for butlers, footmen and other servants kept in an establishment of that kind. The entire play breathes mystery and the unexpected solution does not become apparent until the final curtain.

The cast is composed of Miss Marguerite Post, Miss Ruth Gier, Miss Rosamond Vander Wall, Alvin Bos, John Ypma, Donald Keppel, Ivan Stillwell, Walton Wells, Chester Meengs, Fred Wynyard and Alvin Tanis.

John O. Katt of Holland entered upon his fourth matrimonial venture this week when he led Mrs. Johanna Bolks of Dunningville to the altar. Katt is about 70 years of age. Three of his wives, including his present mate, were widows.

Jack Busby, well known to many in Holland was general superintendent, and also head of construction for the Busby was a born railroad builder, and operated for the Hendries of Detroit, who had a great many railroad street car and transportation interests.

Charles Floyd who was office boy for Mr. Kinch when the road building begun had worked up to the superintendency of the road when he resigned eight years ago.

Under his management the Holland Interurban was a prosperous going concern. It was thru Mr. Floyd's efforts that Jensen Amusement park was first established as a feeder to the local line.

Benjamin Hanchett of Grand Rapids also became associated with the line and did much to help promote its interest. Some twelve years ago the Holland Interurban was leased by the Michigan Railway, running from Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo and Detroit.

Rather an amusing incident connected with the Holland Interurban, showing the inroads of the automobile into its business, was when the last farmers picnic was held at Jensen Park. This was an annual event, but was discontinued nine years ago.

The picnic brought farmers for miles around living all along the Holland Interurban line, and Holland merchants helped to make the affair a success by serving and giving a program of sports.

The last picnic brought very little money in the interurban treasury, for Jensen Park was filled with automobiles, each coming well laden with "hungry farmers." That opened the eyes of the railroad officials and killed all farmers' picnics after that.

So much has been said of the inroads the automobile and bus and truck lines have made on interurban business, finally giving the local line its death blow, that it is unnecessary to add to the story.

The picture and early history of the road cannot help but be of intense interest to everyone living in this vicinity.

Despite their combined efforts, however, bootleg tickets were reported sold briskly at prices ranging from $30 to $40.

For fear of wrecking the discipline of a dozen big industrial offices and at least two college campuses the mayor's committee for the entertainment of cadets and midshipmen will not reveal the names of the girls invited to the Army-Navy ball next Friday night.

In distributing the 1,700 invitations, the committee is said to have allotted one-third to business girls, one-third to the universities and one-third to the society list.

Although the names of the girls and their escorts will be guests at special performances in two theaters.

FEW FROM HERE WILL SEE ARMY AND NAVY GAME

GEO. GETZ OF LAKEWOOD WILL GIVE DINNER IN CHICAGO AFTER GAME

Tickets to Big Foot Ball Game Are Selling At A Very High Figure

A score of Holland folks will see the big Army and Navy foot ball game at Chicago next Saturday and although the biggest stadium on earth was selected in which to play the game enough would-be patrons have applied for tickets to fill more than a half dozen stadiums.

The large new stadium on the Lake Front will hold 100,000 people and more than a week ago 600,000 had made application for seats.

Although seats cost $10 each those who were fortunate enough to get tickets can re-sell them for at least $50 a seat.

Those from Holland who were fortunate enough to secure seats are Con De Pree, Herald De Pree, Attorney Thos. N. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kitchin, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duffy, Edgar Landwehr, Adrian Van Putten, Ed Robinson, Capt. William Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Diekema, and Ben Mulder.

These folks are planning to attend the game next Saturday.

The preliminaries before the game will be the most colorful ever presented. Troops from West Point Army school and navy men from Annapolis, headed by their representative military bands will be on dress parade and this feature will be a show in itself since Marshal Foch of France and Queen Marie of Romania have both acclaimed these soldiers as being the finest bodies of marching men on earth; their performance at the football game will indeed be an added feature of interest to the patrons of the game.

A dinner will be given Saturday night after the game at the Blackstone hotel by the Holland group.

His party of 50 will include Gov. Al Smith of New York, Mayor John Smith of Detroit, Governor-elect Fred W. Green and Mrs. Green of Iowa and the following from Grand Rapids: Former Senator William Alden Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Deane, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. McKay and Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Diekema of Holland.

A dispatch from Chicago says that internal revenue department agents were in the office of various ticket brokers today checking up on tickets to the Army-Navy game next Saturday. They were cooperating with the Chicago South park board in an effort to halt scalping.

The federal men would mark the price of sale upon the ticket, and identification which the park board would cause refusal of admission.

Despite their combined efforts, however, bootleg tickets were reported sold briskly at prices ranging from $30 to $40.

WOOD RADIO ANNOUNCES IT WILL QUIT AIR

The Grand Rapids radio station WOOD is out of the running; with tonight's program completed the station closes for good. A fine 1000 watt transmitter station was built recently on M 51 East of Hudsonville.

The announcement was made yesterday by Marie Wetzel, director-announcer of the station, and was concurred in by Leo Robinson, chief engineer, and Don Gilder, vice president.

Failure of Grand Rapids to properly support the station was given as the reason for this decision by Wetzel. "While we feel that we would be able to go forward for another year with the support of the Furniture Manufacturers' association, we do not see any future and for that reason we have decided to close the station. At the present time it appears that the action is permanent," said Wetzel.

"It takes money to operate a broadcasting station," continued Wetzel. "We have struggled along on most inadequate means for the last two years, bringing the station from an obscure 20-watt transmitter to its present state of 1,000 watts. We have felt that Grand Rapids would get behind the station and that it would be possible for us to present to radio fans programs that would bring credit to not only the station but to Grand Rapids."

With the advent of our new 1,000-watt transmitter we have entered the sphere of big broadcasting stations. This increase in power has added to our scope and has enabled us to present to radio fans programs that would bring credit to not only the station but to Grand Rapids."

"By virtue of this increase in power and subsequent increase in listeners we feel that we should expand our programs and provide our thousands of listeners with something more than we have been able to do in the past. We find this impossible for the present and rather than endeavor to continue to put up with a bad situation, we have decided to cease operations entirely."

ZEELAND PASTOR
LEAVES FOR A NEW CHARGE

On Sunday evening, November 20, the twenty-first, Rev. D. R. Drukker delivered his farewell sermon to the Third Christian Reformed church, in Zeeland, the congregation which he has served as pastor since Nov. 20, 1915, making his stay there extend over fully eight years.

When Mr. Drukker became pastor of the Zeeland church it was a little struggling congregation of thirty-five families and a few individuals from which it has grown in these eight years to a strong flourishing church, four times as strong in membership and financially many times what it was then.

The church was formally organized on March 12, 1914, under the guidance of Mr. Drukker, who was then pastor of the First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland, and it was by permission of this mother church that the church of Zeeland was organized.

Classis Zeeland that about forty members organized the first English speaking congregation of the Chr. Reformed denomination in Zeeland. Nearly all the charter members are still connected with the organization. A few have died and a few have left for various reasons.

PICKS VIOLETS
IN HOLLAND
IN NOVEMBER

Mrs. Edward Morlock, 141 W. 19th street, has picked violets in November. She writes:

"Imagine picking violets in our Michigan garden the week before Thanksgiving! We picked about fifteen full-blown perfect blossoms, all told, and found several that had already blossomed before being discovered."

The plant is of the sweet smelling variety and one sent to Mr. Morlock last Christmas by her brother from Louisiana, who is doing research work for the Louisiana State Geographical and Research Society."

FEW NATURAL-
ALIZED AT TERM OF COURT

The naturalization class which was presented for admission by the Ottawa county circuit court Thursday for full privileges of citizenship was particularly small this time but the inspector remarked that it was a particularly bright and well informed class.

He made some preliminary examination for several of the whole and then proceeded to the regular class. Due to the congestion of the court at this time the examinations were made in the county clerk's office, and the following were admitted to the court room where the judge completed the formalities and received them as full fledged citizens.

"The banner day," was the way the inspector termed the whole proceeding again remarking that in all his work of this kind he never met a class that seemed better informed and more capable of being received as citizens.

The following are those admitted: Joseph Plutik, Grand Haven, R. P. D. No. 2; John Radepeler, Grand Haven; Mike Horvath, 1635 Columbus St., Grand Haven; Martin Woudstra, Holland, William Sten, Hudsonville and Warner De Leeu, Holland; Rosarin Leclerc, 244 Penoyer, Grand Haven was asked to continue study as was William Hoogenboom of Holland.

The usual formalities of a speech and pinning an American flag on the newly made citizens by a committee of women from Holland, was dispensed with on account of the rush at this court time.

The Royal Neighbors will give a party and dance with a Turkey for everybody on Thanksgiving night at the Woodman hall. Everybody welcome. Card playing will start at 7:45 sharp.

HAMILTON P.T. CLUB NOW HAS MEMBER. SHIP OF SEVENTY

The Hamilton Parents-Teachers club is very active these days. There is a steady gain in membership and much interest is shown in the organization. The October meeting was in charge of the fathers and the last meeting was in charge of the mothers.

Sponsored by the P.T.A. is a club of mothers of children of pre-school age, who meet occasionally to discuss their particular problems. The association, which now numbers nearly 70 members, is headed by Mrs. H. J. Potter, Vice president and the last meeting was in charge of the mothers.

SCHOLTEN BROS. BUY INTERURBAN FREIGHT HOUSE

Paul Scholten, manager of the Scholten Bros. truck lines covering Holland and vicinity, through the associated company, has purchased the Holland interurban freight house on West 8th street and Rapids avenue.

No alterations were necessary as the place is well equipped to handle all freight and the company moved in Friday morning. All freight will be handled in the future from that point.

Scholten Bros. are associated with twelve other companies, united in what is known as the Associated Truck Company. Each company serves its territory alone formerly but it was found that by associating all of the truck companies out of Grand Rapids it would facilitate the handling of freight. There was more responsibility and the interchange of freight could also be more easily accomplished.

The Associated Truck company is already building a large new freight house on Mary St., Grand Rapids, and Mr. Scholten is the president of that company.

APPLE MARKETS RATHER INCONSISTENT

Fennville Herald—Elmer Goodwine shipped a big car load of apples this week to Indiana. This seems to be the only way growers can dispose of fruit at a profit. Here the best grades of apples are worth about 50c per hundred pounds and in the cities the consumer is paying about 8c a pound for this same fruit. A lot of people would like to know if these two facts are consistent. Mr. Goodwine will leave today for Indiana to sell out the car of apples.

TWO HOLLAND MEN ENROLLED AT OHIO U.

COLUMBUS, C., Nov. 20.—Asia, Africa, Europe and North and South America have contributed this fall to a record breaking enrollment at Ohio State University here, but more than 30 per cent of the students claim the Buckeye state as their own. Total enrollment is 9308.

Within the Union, all but five states, as well as the Philippines, Porto Rico and Hawaii have sent students here. The enrollment is the most representative geographically speaking, in the history of the University.

All of the 88 counties of Ohio, all of the cities of the state and scores of the smaller communities are represented in the student population. The registration records, just received, show two students from Holland, Mich.

With the colleges in which they are registered, they are: Bernard Harvey, Shoemaker, Graduate School, Justin Lloyd Byssies, Engineering.

GIVES ADDRESS ON TEMPERANCE AND MISSIONS

The main feature of the W. C. T. U. meeting on Friday was an address on "Temperance and Missions," by Mrs. Grace Hazenberger Cadman, a missionary from India, visiting her old home city.

She stressed the Christian obligation of helping win the world for Christ, and the gospel of temperance principles. She spoke of the pleasure of seeing no saloons and drunken people in the cities of the U. S. she passed through from the far west, and east. In Toronto the Christian people are striving to make the province dry. She also spoke of the industrial prosperity in this country due to prohibition and the danger of the attempt to modify the Volstead act.

Mrs. Leddick spoke on legislation, the bills introduced in the last session of congress to strengthen the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment.

Miss Moore and her junior chorus gave two selections, "Rockin' Time," by Rhys Herbert, and "The Canoe Song," by Pestalozze. Miss Dorothy Hofstee gave the reading, "Too Many Parties and Too Many Pals," very effectively. She favored with an encore.

Mrs. Sharpless, the national worker for purity, solicited the Union's interest in the meetings to hold in the city following week.

The next meeting is to be a mothers-daughters banquet on the evening of Dec. 3 at Third church parlors. Attention was also called to the declaration contest on Dec. 10th at the high school, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

FEW NATURAL- ALIZED AT TERM OF COURT

The naturalization class which was presented for admission by the Ottawa county circuit court Thursday for full privileges of citizenship was particularly small this time but the inspector remarked that it was a particularly bright and well informed class.

He made some preliminary examination for several of the whole and then proceeded to the regular class. Due to the congestion of the court at this time the examinations were made in the county clerk's office, and the following were admitted to the court room where the judge completed the formalities and received them as full fledged citizens.

"The banner day," was the way the inspector termed the whole proceeding again remarking that in all his work of this kind he never met a class that seemed better informed and more capable of being received as citizens.

The following are those admitted: Joseph Plutik, Grand Haven, R. P. D. No. 2; John Radepeler, Grand Haven; Mike Horvath, 1635 Columbus St., Grand Haven; Martin Woudstra, Holland, William Sten, Hudsonville and Warner De Leeu, Holland; Rosarin Leclerc, 244 Penoyer, Grand Haven was asked to continue study as was William Hoogenboom of Holland.

The usual formalities of a speech and pinning an American flag on the newly made citizens by a committee of women from Holland, was dispensed with on account of the rush at this court time.

The Royal Neighbors will give a party and dance with a Turkey for everybody on Thanksgiving night at the Woodman hall. Everybody welcome. Card playing will start at 7:45 sharp.

HOLLAND HIGH SCHOOL TEAM IS DEBATE WINNER

Holland high school auditorium was comfortably filled Friday evening when the preliminary debates between the Holland high team and the team of Central high presided at the debate, while Miss of Grand Rapids.

Attorney Thomas N. Robinson Anne Lindblom, of Kalamazoo Normal school, was the only judge, who gave her reasons fully why she awarded two points to the Holland high team and one point to Central, pronouncing the debating team the winner of this contest.

The subject for debate was, "Resolved, That the United States government should over the seas maintain a policy of non-interference." The Holland team upheld the affirmative side of the question while the Grand Rapids team discussed the negative side.

Miss Alice Boter, Miss Cora Van Lier and Miss Gertrude Oosting constituted the Holland debaters, while Grand Rapids team came with Alma Van Atta, Max Crocker and Tys Terwey. The Grand Rapids team also brought a small number of boosters who took an interest in the Central high team.

Friday night 225 schools in Michigan were discussing this same subject, and this illuminating debate will be in progress until even after the holidays and the final debate will take place in Ann Arbor where the winners will receive their prizes and other honors.

Last year's team did exceptionally well, remaining in the running until near the close. This is the first real debate and Holland starts out with a winning, but the local team still has several debating hurdles to go over with other schools before the final.

Some of the schools that are in the first preliminary series are the following:

Kalamazoo Normal vs. Albion; Kalamazoo Central vs. Grand Rapids Union; Lansing vs. Ann Arbor; Bay City vs. Saginaw Central; Saginaw Arthur Hill vs. Flint; Hastings vs. Grand Rapids South.

FARMER INVENTS BARREL MACHINE

After three years of experimenting, D. W. Wadsworth of Fennville has perfected an apple barrel facing machine which promises to remove the backache from the job of facing apple barrels and make it easy to obtain a uniform pack. The machine has been successfully tried out in the packing house of the Fennville Fruit Exchange.

The apples are double faced by women or girls. After facing and before placing in barrel, an inspection can be made, and any imperfect specimens which may appear may be removed and replaced with perfect fruit. Then the machine quickly places the face apiece in the barrel, its capacity is around 500 barrels in a 10-hour day.

Wadsworth's machine is of simple construction and places a double tier "face" of apples into the barrel in one operation.

Owing to the construction of the barrel, other inventors have never attempted to devise a mechanical facer for use in packing barreled apples. Packing houses at present depend almost entirely upon hand labor to face apples in barrels.

Wadsworth has no plans for the manufacture of the machine but several distributors of packing house equipment have inspected the outfit in operation here this fall. The machine is patented by patents in the United States and Canada and patents in other nations have been applied for.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 and the general public is invited. A collection will be taken for the benefit of missions.

DEFICIT OF $5,250,- 000 NOW FAC- ED BY SESQUI

The deficit of the Sesqui-Centennial exposition at Philadelphia when it closes December 1, will be about $5,250,000.

This includes construction items of approximately $4,900,000, according to reports, and unpaid maintenance, operating and equipment bills that will reach $350,000.

The deficit will be partly financed through diversion of city funds to settlement of the Sesqui bills. The transfer of the money was authorized at the polls.

A meeting of the directors is to be held today, at which the question of opening the exposition next year will be taken up. At the meeting the report of Albert M. Greenfield, one of a committee of three appointed to consider the proposed re-opening will be read.

At the second trial of an automobile personal injury suit in Kalamazoo circuit court this week brought by Joanna M. Van Keuren against Harold Rowe, the jury for the second time brought in a verdict of no cause of action. Both parties are former Allegan residents.

The American Legion auxiliary of Allegan has elected: President, Leola Boyce; vice presidents, Mrs. W. H. Long, Jr. and Mrs. Ernest Annis; secretary, Vinnie Robin; treasurer, Mrs. Margaret Ream. Officers will be installed Dec. 15.

TWO DRUNKEN DRIVERS ARRESTED ON M-11

Adam Dunny, 400 Eighth st. and William Stoffer, 2280 Lincoln ave., Muskegon Heights police on charges of driving while drunk. Dunny was picked up two miles south of that city after he had driven his machine into a ditch. Both Stoffer and Dunny were arrested on M-11 inside that city by traffic officers, who said he was unable to keep his machine from cutting figures on the road.

BEREAN CHURCH TO HOLD BIBLE CONFERENCE HERE

On Thursday of this week an evangelical Bible conference will be held at the Berean Reformed church in Holland. The conference will open at 9:30 in the forenoon and following will be the program: prayer and song service; Thanksgiving day sermons by Rev. J. A. Van Dyke and Jan Jansen; singing by male chorus; address by John Wellings; dinner and social hour from 12 to 2 o'clock.

The afternoon conference begins at two and following is the program: prayer and song service; address, Rev. W. Zwier, "Prohibition in Connection with the Signs of the Times"; singing by male chorus; address by Rev. H. Bullema, "The Mystic Union"; answers to the question, "Why must Jesus Reign as King on Earth?" Five persons will give talks of five minutes each; singing of hymns, "My Redeemer" in both the Holland and English language; singing by male chorus; address in English by Rev. Henry Bullema.

Opportunity for refreshments will be given from five to seven o'clock. The evening meeting will open with an address by Rev. K. Kuitert, followed by an address by Mr. De Boef, an evangelist.

SHOWS VIEWS OF HER TRIP THRU EUROPE

On Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Post, the Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter of the D. A. R. and their guests enjoyed a delightful social evening.

Mrs. George E. Kollen, with the help of her splendid collection of lantern slides, led her audience over the route which she and Mrs. Ossewaarde traveled during their three months' tour of Europe the past summer.

The way led through the Scandinavian peninsula to the "Land of the Midnight Sun," with all its glorious scenery; south and across thrifty Denmark; then the beauty spots of Germany, Baden Baden, Heidelberg and the Rhine; Holland and before passing in Belgium, France with Paris and the lovely Riviera; and the many beauty spots of sunny Italy. Under the spell of Mrs. Kollen's gracious eloquence the storm out-of-doors was forgotten, and for some her heart relived with her the outstanding experiences of a delightful vacation.

Two sweet singers, the Misses Mabel and Gladys Moeke of Zeeland, accompanied by Miss Geraldine Waalvoort, furnished the music of the evening.

The singing of "America" by those present brought the meeting to a close and carried out the note of patriotism always stressed by the Daughters of the Revolution. Miss Post was assisted by Mrs. Howard Lane.

WHOLE STATE TO BE ORGANIZED IN THE CHILD DRIVE

"Help me a dollar's worth," the appeal for Michigan crippled children, will be heard throughout the state the week of November 21, when the first Thanksgiving enrollment and campaign for organization of counties will be undertaken.

In Holland both the Rotary club and the Exchange club have endorsed this movement. These two clubs have appointed a joint committee composed of Dr. R. H. Nichols, Dr. J. B. Nykerk, and Father Ryan for the Rotary club and A. L. Cappon, John Koonker, and Dr. W. J. Van Kersen for the Exchange club. A. L. Cappon has been named chairman of this committee. Dr. Van Kersen secretary and Henry Winter treasurer. The committee is now making plans for the drive locally.

The Michigan Society for Crippled Children with headquarters in Ann Arbor is establishing county chapters whose purpose will be to find and care for crippled youngsters, estimated at from 12,000 to 15,000 who are in the state. Every child in the state is invited to join his county chapter of the state society. The membership fee is one dollar a year.

Paul H. King, of Detroit, state secretary and treasurer, reports that the counties are organizing very rapidly. More than 40 are already establishing themselves and making plans to seek out their children in need of examination and treatment.

Reports from all over the state that men and women's clubs are joining their county chapters as units, bringing hundreds of persons to the cause both with their prestige and financial assistance.

The objective of the Thanksgiving enrollment is 125,000 members. That would mean an average of 10 persons for each child that can be located. It will also mean that each child when found by his home chapter will be watched and helped and followed through until he can be treated and cured and educated while receiving hospital care, so that when he is discharged he can take his place along with normal children.

"Reports from everywhere indicate willingness to tackle the problem of our crippled children," Mr. King said. "Everyone seems to appreciate at once that if a child with a twisted body is not helped when he can be, he becomes a charge upon someone and a sorrowful burden to himself all his life. Help for these youngsters is the best kind of economics as well as genuine humanitarian service and is within reach of everyone."

YOUNG MOTHER DIES AFTER A MONTH HERE

Mrs. Richard Smith, aged 30, died Friday morning at her home, 135 East 16th street. The family, coming from Sioux Center, Iowa, had been living in Holland only a month. Mrs. Smith was survived by her husband, five children, Henry, Gertrude, Lucille, and Richard, Jr., also by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Van den Berg of Sioux Center, three brothers, John, Gerrit and Bert, of Sioux Center, and one sister, Mrs. Raymond Lubbers, of Albany, N. Y.

Friends in Holland were given an opportunity to see the remains until Saturday forenoon at 11:30 o'clock at the Dykstra Funeral Home. Then the body was taken to Sioux Center for burial, the funeral taking place on Tuesday.

Some time ago a Grand Rapids man mailed us a few handkerchiefs and asked us to send one dollar. He has written us quite a few times since that. We hope that he realizes that the handkerchiefs are awaiting a call. Then, a few days ago we received some neckties from a blind man, and he wants a dollar for them. We like to see a blind man have a hunt around for a dollar or his neckties and so we will send him a dollar and mark it "charity."

Only with the understanding that he sends no more ties. However, we wish to announce to the world that no one but a blind man would mail us unsolicited merchandise if they expect to reap any profits.

C. D. M. in Muskegon Chronicle.

The ladies auxiliary 1594 will give a card party and dance on Friday evening, Nov. 26, in the Eagle hall.

MIS COBBLER HOLLAND FOR NEARLY 50 YEARS

After an illness of several months, Hendrik Hlohan, one of the best known cobblers in western Michigan, died Wednesday at the home of his niece, Mrs. Gerrit Raman, 748 Allen street, Muskegon. Mr. Hlohan until some months ago was an industrious cobbler in a little shop on East 8th street in Holland and in the course of a long lifetime he cobbled more shoes than probably any other man in America.

He became a cobbler when he was still a little boy in the Netherlands, learning the profession as soon as he was old enough to wield a cobbler's hammer. He followed the profession in The Netherlands for many years and about fifty years ago he came to America. During most of that time he has lived in Holland and has maintained himself by cobbling in the old-fashioned way. He saw the introduction of electrically driven machinery to make shoes but he himself did not go over to the new way. He did his work as he had learned it in The Netherlands some seventy years ago and it had been done for centuries before that.

His figure on the cobbler's bench on East 8th street was almost like a figure out of another age. The leather apron, the cobbler's stool, the various tools and instruments that he used were exactly like those that were used three hundred years ago when all shoes were made by hand and when machinery had not yet standardized the shoe maker's profession. In spite of the fact that machinery drove out nearly all of the old-style cobblers, Mr. Hlohan continued in the old way and he had a large number of customers who remained loyal to him and patronized him.

Mr. Hlohan was 84 years old and he is survived by his wife. The funeral was held on Saturday at two o'clock at the Dykstra chapel, Rev. L. Velkamp, pastor of the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church, officiating.

SAME OLD STORY
-TURKEYS WILL BE SCARCE

In the spring the peach crop is ruined several times during the season and still there always is crop enough to go around.

By the same token, in the fall, about two weeks before the Thanksgiving turkey is due, the crop of turkeys is short and cold storage holdings of dressed turkeys are greatly below the five-year average.

Here is the dope this year: "Turkeys for Thanksgiving and Christmas will come high this year. The crop is short and cold storage holdings of dressed turkeys are greatly below the five-year average."

An indication of prospective holiday prices was given last week when local produce dealers announced their opening bid for the big birds. They offered farmers 40 cents a pound, live basis. This price is about 10 cents a pound higher than the opening quotation a year ago—another short crop season.

In order to get the jump on out-of-state buyers, who usually come into the State and contract turkeys, local dealers have sent their men into the field to line up supplies about 10 days earlier than usual. In the past buying never got nicely under way much before Nov. 1, and sometimes not until Nov. 7 or 8. But the situation is different this year. Turkeys are known to be a short crop and the holdings in storage are known to be below normal. This forecasts a strong competitive market and local produce dealers are anticipating their requirements early.

"Some farmers are hesitant about agreeing to sell so early, but their objections are being met, it is reported, by the dealers agreeing to take the birds at "market prices" on day of delivery. That is, if prices should go to 50 cents a pound live basis on Nov. 23, the day of delivery, they would be paid that price. If the price declined to 30 cents, they would lose 20 cents a pound. But farmers in general seem confident that this is one year when prices are likely to advance instead of decline.

"The storage holdings, according to the last government report, totaled 2,674,000 pounds, compared with 5,712,000 pounds a year ago and a five-year average of 4,500,000 pounds."

TRAP WAS LAID TO CATCH YOUNG HOLLAND BURGLAR

Dewey Derks of Holland, a young man 19 years old, is again in trouble. He was caught red-handed Monday night robbing the Vandenberg oil station at the East 8th street limits.

Wm. O. Vandenberg, the manager, Deputy Sheriff Wm. Van Etta, and Deputy Edwin Plagge, laid a trap for Derks on Sunday night. Mr. Vandenberg having missed money from time to time at that station. The young burglar did not bite Sunday night, but shortly after 11 o'clock Monday night he broke in, stole money from a change purse, put it in his pocket when the deputies, who were in hiding, surrounded him and after giving him a thorough grilling, accused a confession that he had stolen money from this station at four different times. The haul last time was only small, $1.15, at one time more than $10.00 was stolen. Mr. Vandenberg believes that not more than $16.00 was taken altogether.

Some time ago young Derks was arrested and convicted of forging several checks on the Peoples State bank; the bank officials noticing the forgery as soon as the checks were presented for payment. Derks and he was placed on parole. This latter difficulty means a violation of this parole.

Derks was taken to the office of Justice Charles K. Van Duren where he was arraigned Tuesday forenoon. He waived examination and was bound over to circuit court by Justice Van Duren. Bail was fixed at $1,000 but Derks was unable to pay it and so was taken to Grand Haven this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Beekman and lodged in the county jail. The plan is to have him tried at this term of court.

Mr. Vandenberg stated that Derks did not have anything to do with the blowing of the oil station safe more than a year ago. This job was one done by professionals who know the safe cracking business.

BUSY MEN'S CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Holland Busy Men's club, which meets weekly in the armory, has organized permanently and has elected its officers. The president is Tony Groeneveld, vice president Nick Wassenaar; secretary and treasurer, J. Koolek. These men, together with Harry Klomparsen and Marinus Van Ark, constitute the board of directors.

The Busy Men's club now has sixty members and there is a five o'clock and a 7:30 o'clock every Tuesday night.

Volley ball is the chief game played and at 5 o'clock six teams play at one time, and half a dozen teams more also play at 7:30 on Tuesdays.

There are three courts to accommodate the teams. The club has purchased new nets and new balls and they are well outfitted to give the business man a thorough workout at least once a week.

Anyone interested can apply for membership with anyone of the officers or call at the armory on meeting night.

GRAND RAPIDS WILL ORGANIZE A BIG BAND

Grand Rapids is to have a 200-piece industrial band, Arthur Gable of the Grand Rapids Show Case company, is organizing the band and rehearsals are to start soon. The factories interested and their representatives are:

Grand Rapids Show Case company, H. M. Klees, chairman; Leonard Refrigerator company, W. J. Duker, vice chairman; Stickle Bros. company, John Welmers, secretary; Widdowson Furniture company, D. Rodenhuis; Grand Rapids Body company, Nicholas Lovells, assistant treasurer; Luce Furniture company, Maurice J. Chapell, assistant secretary; Herkey & Gay, Edward Baker; American Seating company, Henry A. Williams; Blum Carpets, Sweep company, Fred W. Hall; American Box Board company, R. H. Dilley.

LAKEWOOD FARM FIRST TO REPORT IN THE ROLL CALL

The Lakewood Farm district was the first one to turn in the membership list in the Red Cross roll call in southern Ottawa county. The Lakewood Farm district was in charge of Charles Jackson of Lakewood Farm and he turned in to Mrs. G. J. Van Duren at the Red Cross office today the sum of $24.

In each district in the southern part of the county some person has been placed in charge of the roll call and there is friendly rivalry among them to be first and to turn in large amounts in proportion to the population covered. This year Lakewood Farm was first seen which district has the largest roll call in proportion to population.

LICENSE SALE TOPS MILLION

Approximately 1,200,000 automobile license plates will be sold by the state of Michigan during 1927, Secretary of State Charles J. DeLoe said today.

More than half of this number already have been shipped from the state penitentiary factory at Jackson where the plates are manufactured.

The greatest shipments will be 350,000 plates to Detroit and 75,000 to Grand Rapids. There cities maintain their own warehouses for storage of the tags.

Of the 1,200,000 plates manufactured, 900,000 are for passenger cars and 300,000 for commercial vehicles.

EAGLES TO HAVE A CHRISTMAS TREE

At the regular meeting of the Holland Aerie of Eagles held Monday evening arrangements were made under way for the annual Christmas tree for the children of members, time and place to be announced later. These entertainments have met with a great success, and as the membership has increased it is expected that this year will surpass all previous ones. All Eagles are asked to keep this event in mind and bring the children out and have a good time.

POULTRY CATALOGUE TO BE OUT BY MONDAY

The annual poultry catalogue of the Holland Poultry association will be printed and ready for distribution by Monday. Secretary Brouwer states. This book of 56 pages gives prices and poultry information and says the show at the armory will be free, with the exception of the bench dog show in a different part of the building, where a small entrance fee will be charged. The book lists many cash prizes, special prizes and at least 50 cups, together with the names of the donors. With the poultry show there will be two new departments, namely pet stock and dogs.

At the last session of the board of supervisors a liberal donation was made by the members of the board in order that this exhibition might be free. The board wishes to evertage the raising of poultry in Ottawa County. Poultry raising means much to Ottawa county. There is more than $3,000,000 disbursed by the poultry raisers collectively, and $150,000 is paid to farmers annually for eggs that hatcheries use.

These selected eggs must come from recognized flocks and of course no higher premium is paid on these eggs than on eggs that are marketed in the regular way.

CHRONICLE AT MUSKEGON TO HAVE NEW HOME

Definite announcement was made Monday that the Booth Publishing company plans to start early in 1927 with the erection of a new home for The Muskegon Chronicle to be located at the northwest corner of Clay avenue and Third street, across from Hackley park and the old hotel property. Architects are now working on the plans for the building, which will be devoted exclusively to the publishing of Muskegon's daily newspaper.

Present plans call for a two-story building with a three story effect. The building will face Clay avenue and Third street. Every effort is being made by the architects to make the new building the last word in newspaper homes.

WILL PRESENT HOLLAND COUNTRY CLUB TROPHIES

The annual meeting that will close the year 1926 for the Holland country club will be held at the club house next Wednesday evening, the night before Thanksgiving. A buffet luncheon will be served after which a business meeting will be held for the purpose of filling the vacancies in the board of directors. The various trophies that were won by members during the year will be presented by the president, W. A. Diekema. Among the trophies will be the president's trophy, won by Frank Whelan, club champion. The vice-president's trophy, won by George Pelgrin, will be presented by the vice president, C. Vander Meulen.

After the business meeting there will be a dance, with Van Duren's orchestra furnishing the music.

NORMALS TAKE 13-0 DEFEAT FROM HOLLAND

One sweet looking football team rushed out on the field Saturday afternoon and fought its way to a 13-0 victory over the Kazoo Normal aggregation. It was simply a case of determination and better coaching that won the game as the Hollanders would not be denied. Sensing that end runs were out of the question, Breen called for a smashing game and all the jacks responded. Straight thrusts at the line, with a few passes gained ground continually, and the smashing attack was one of the best seen here this season. The Normalites simply could not hold together with Hinga's line-men opening up huge holes for the secondary. Doll got the first down for his team, when he ran around right end for the first play of the game. After that Kazoo lost on nearly every play, the playing of the locals being vicious. It was a jolt thrill to watch the Hollanders solve the play, take their man and down the ball carrier way behind the line of scrimmage. If Doll had not lived up to his reputation as one of the State's best kickers, the ball probably would have crossed the line for more touchdowns. It was the last appearance of Breen, De Weerd, Paulus, Exo, Westrate, Steketee, Mendell, Rolste and Spencer. Every Holland man showed his true mettle, while Doll was the Kazoo bright light. The game play by play is also found on this page.

HOLLAND MAN LOSES A CAR WHEEL

O. B. Gums of Holland driving a Chevrolet delivery truck, was stuck in the Challenge Machinery Co. plant, Grand Haven, Saturday morning and took off a wheel. The car, of course, was incapacitated and had to be drawn to a Grand Haven garage. The police were called to assist and the man was delayed for a few hours while repairs were being made. The slippery condition of the streets was the cause of the accident, so the driver claimed.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Mrs. A. E. McClellan has returned to Holland after a visit with friends in Lansing, Battle Creek and Marshall.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL IS NEARING ITS FINAL DAY

The Red Cross is in the final week of the roll call and this week will see the completion of the work. The roll call is officially from armistice day to Thanksgiving day, but the tag ends of the work will not be completed in Holland until Saturday. Since however the Christmas seal sale will not begin actively until next Monday, there will be no overlapping.

As announced Monday, the members of the American Legion will not make a house-to-house canvass but they will endeavor to cover the city in other ways. Mrs. G. J. Van Duren, on behalf of the Legion, announced today that the Legion will make a canvass as follows: all the factories; all the business places along Eighth street and River avenue; all the offices, upstairs and downstairs along these two streets; the high school; and all the contractors.

It is believed that by covering the city in that way, together with the opportunities given in the lobbies of the banks the past two Saturdays to enroll, everybody in the city will have been given a fair chance to become a member. Here and there persons may have been overlooked. All such have an opportunity any time to call at the Red Cross office at the city hall to enroll. To make it easy for all such persons as may have been overlooked, Mrs. G. J. Van Duren announces that she will be in her office on Saturday and the week from Friday to enroll, everybody in the afternoon and from 6:30 at night until 8:30. Any person who has not been called upon in one of the divisions named above is cordially invited to call at the city hall with his dollar and receive a Red Cross button.

GIVES CONDITIONS FOR ENTERING HEAVEN

In the church on East Thirteenth Street and Central Ave., Rev. R. G. Klingbeil gave a lecture Sunday night in the Dutch language on the announced subject, "What are the conditions to enter God's everlasting Kingdom?" The speaker introduced his address by reading Matt. 7:21-23: "Not those who confess to be Christians and say, 'Lord, Lord' shall enter the Kingdom of heaven, but they who do the will of the Father in heaven."

The will of the Father is revealed in His holy commandments, said the speaker; they reflect His character. Adam was sent forth from paradise because he transgressed God's holy commandments. From Hebrews 8:10 the speaker showed how the Lord will write under the New Testament His laws into the mind and the hearts of His children. He will give them His Holy Spirit, that they may walk in His statutes. These obedient children of God shall enter the gates of the holy city and have right to the tree of life. Revelation 22:14. The subject for Wednesday 7:30 P. M., Nov. 24, was announced: "How

REV. A. KEIZER, RETIRED PASTOR, IS HONORED

Rev. A. Keizer, 118 22nd street, Holland, who recently joined the ranks of retired ministers in the Christian Reformed Church in America, was the guest of honor at a birthday anniversary party given Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Jones, 320 3rd street. Keizer left Holland last week to preach in a church at Roseland on Sunday.

Mr. Keizer was 69 years old Monday. He served 39 years in the ministry. His ministerial career was unusual as he served nine churches within a radius of 40 miles, covering three counties. Since his ordination in 1886 his pastorate covered five fields in Ottawa, three in Allegan and one in Muskegon county. He was pastor of the old Van Raalte church here for eight years. He last served the Christian Reformed church on the Alpena Road.

MUSKEGON JUDGE WARNS LAWYERS AGAINST DELAY

In order to expedite court proceedings, Circuit Judge John Vanderwerp of Muskegon will send jury home if attorneys are not present or are not ready to try their cases when called, he told lawyers Monday morning.

The two lawyers were arraigned Tuesday morning when the court opens for the November term. The judge and Ben Peterson, probation officer, were busy all day receiving reports from nearly 200 Muskegon county probationers.

The jury will be brought in Tuesday, Nov. 30.

REFORMED CHURCH MISSION FUND IS PLACED AT $455,000

The board of foreign missions in the Reformed Church in America has set $455,000 as the minimum goal for the support of its foreign work in 1927.

The increase asked for in its annual budget was concurred in by the general synod to meet the increase by larger contributions.

SNOW FENCES BEING PUT UP ON THE ALLEGAN CO. ROADS

The county road commissioners have erected 10,000 feet of snow fence in the past week on several county roads where snow has drifted badly in previous winters. The commissioners attended a meeting of those interested in a Covert road running from Hamilton to Overisel and further gave permission to build the road, which will be done next year.

WEATHER SLOWS BEET HARVEST, ALMA PLANT CONFRONTS SHUTDOWN

Unless the weather conditions change this week, permitting farmers to harvest and haul their beets the Alma plant of the Michigan Sugar company will be forced to shut down shortly, officials said Monday.

Rain and snow have kept the fields and roads soft for several weeks and it is probable some of the crop cannot be harvested. The plant began its "season" this fall with a greater tonnage of crude stock on hand than ever before, but owing to the inability of farmers to market the rest of the crop, the bins at the plant contain only enough beets for a few days' operation.

HE RIDES "DEAD" DEER TWO MILES

Eugene Guzzo, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., while hunting with a friend, saw a deer lying in the snow. Thinking it was dead, Guzzo grabbed its horns and hoisted it on his back. He was taken for a two-mile dash through the woods before the animal, leaping a creek, became mired under the double weight, but escaped when Guzzo leaped off its back.

GRAND HAVEN LAD FIGHTS TO GET AUTOMOBILE

The Potter Garage of Grand Haven staged a used car sale on Saturday and their advertisement of the first car sold at $9.99 drew the determined attention of a young man, Carl Holcomb. He came at nine o'clock, grabbed hold of the door handle and stuck as long as he could then he hired Donald Rogers about nine years old to hold the fort for him while he had two streets; the high school; and all the contractors.

He hung to that door. A crowd gathered all with the same purpose, and when they saw this little boy in the way attempted to pry him loose. To no effect, he was there first and there he would stay. His remuneration was sufficient, for if there ever was a determined youngster, it was Donald and what's more he won out and proudly rode away with Holcomb in a Dort touring car bought for the sum of $9.99. Bargain table stories which the ladies rush have nothing on this crowd of men who sought for the car bargains and before noon a crowd extending into the street had collected.

SPEAKERS TO BE HEARD FROM ALL PARTS OF THE U. S.

A bulletin issued by the National Rivers and Harbor Congress gives a preliminary list of speakers for its 22nd convention, which is to be held in Washington, D. C., December 8th and 9th. Holland will be represented at this congress by C. J. Diekema, C. H. Keizer and James H. Polhemus.

As is fitting for a national organization, the speakers come from all parts of the country and the addresses deal with ocean ports, the Great Lakes, inland rivers and matters of general interest to waterways and water transportation.

Speakers for whom no subject is yet announced include the Secretary of War, the Mexican Ambassador, Senator Heflin, of Alabama, and Hon. John H. Small, former president of the Congress. The present president, Hon. Riley J. Wilson, will speak on "The Congress and Its Work." J. Gordon Bohannon, chairman, the state port authority of Virginia, will speak on "The Port of Virginia." Hon. James H. Polhemus, general manager and chief engineer, the port of Portland (Oregon), will speak on "Portland, the Port and Harbor," with illustrations, supplemented by a short address on "From Portland Harbor to the Sea" by Maj. R. T. Colner, U. S. district engineer. R. J. MacLean, of Detroit, will give some surprising facts and figures on "The Great Lakes and Their Traffic."

W. W. Morse of Minneapolis, will tell of "Huge Barges on the Upper Mississippi," and H. J. Perdue of Monroe, La., of "Restoring Navigation on the Quachita," while Lt. Col. Harold C. Fiske will describe "The Survey of the Tennessee and Its Tributaries," the most complete survey ever made of any American river and showing enormous water-power possibilities.

Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, will discuss "Making Statistics Tell the Truth," and Gen. J. W. C. Smith, president, American Association of Port Authorities, will speak on "Line Haul vs. Terminal Charges." Gen. T. Q. Ashburn will tell of the progress of the Government Barge Line.

"From Deficits to Dividends," Hon. James Francis Burke, of Pittsburgh, will picture "The Future of American Waterways," and Carl J. Baer, of St. Louis, will describe and illustrate his new—and different—type of boat, "The Water Catapult."

The liveliest discussion at the convention will undoubtedly be started by the papers of J. N. Teal, of Portland, Oregon, on "Shall the I. C. C. Control the Waterways and Highways," and A. H. Ferguson, of New Bedford, Mass., on "Federal Regulation of Water Lines."

Among the notable guests at the banquet, on Wednesday evening, December 8, will be Vice President Dawes, who will act as toastmaster, a granddaughter of Gen. U. S. Grant, a granddaughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee, Gen. John J. Pershing, and Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, Commander of the U. S. Marine Corps.

FRUITPORT HAS TROUBLE IN SCHOOL DISTRICT

An opinion handed down Monday in circuit court by Judge Vanderwerp in Muskegon circuit court holds that the action in creating school district No. 6 of Fruitport was illegal, and that proceedings must be started over. The opinion closes a two-year battle in the new district, unless an appeal is taken.

Five suits have been started in connection with creating of the district. The opinion Monday came as a result of a mandamus action brought by Auer Berson and other officers of the new district against members of the Fruitport township board, seeking to force a division of the property to the district.

Judge Vanderwerp held that certain legal actions had not been followed in denying the mandamus asked.

FALL FELLOWSHIP DINNER OF THE SCOUTS PLANNED

Announcements of the fall county-wide fellowship dinner of the boy scout organization were made today by F. J. Geiger, scout executive. In a mimeographed announcement, showing the picture of a bugler making the announcement, Mr. Geiger says:

"THIS TIME the bugler is telling us a good story, and is not the pest that he sometimes is claimed to be.

"Yes the fall county-wide fellowship dinner will be held on Monday evening, November 29th, in the Holland Third Reformed Church, on the corner of Pine Ave. and 12th St. Arrangements for the meeting have been made by Al. Faasen, chairman of the troop 7 committee. And he says that now the only thing necessary is to learn how many will be on hand.

"Remember the peppy affair we had in Coopersville last Spring, at the close of the leadership training course. We had about ninety out, and good fellowship there. The scoutmasters were guests of the troop committeemen and councilmen. Now the troop committeemen have completed a short training course and they will be guests of the scoutmasters. Fair enough isn't it? We want councilmen there too, and all those who took the scoutmasters' training course.

"This is the big event of the season, and the success of it will determine to a large degree the success of our next season's work. On this one occasion troop meetings and all other activities should be side-tracked. The spirit that we catch from this get-together will more than make up for what is lost.

"The fee will be sixty cents per place, to be paid by each individual. Although the committeemen are guests of the scoutmasters, it has not been considered appropriate to ask the scoutmasters to stand the price for their guests in the light of the huge contributions that they are already giving to the cause. Each individual will therefore pay his own. Dinner will be served at 6:30 P. M.

"Every troop will be called upon for a one minute report, especially stressing the troop's plans and objectives. Let us hope that in no instance the spirit of the occasion will be drenched by a troop failing to report. Let's make it 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, etc. It is suggested, but not absolutely required, that the committee chairmen make this report. Arrange that among yourselves.

"Capt. Belknap, the beloved scout committeemen of the Grand Rapids council, will be one of the speakers, and it is hoped that one of the regional executives may also be secured.

"On previous occasions a great deal of inconvenience has been experienced through the failure of men to turn in reservations. Many say, 'I didn't think it necessary, or I thought you knew I would be there.' But, how do we know? The ladies of the Third Reformed church are going to do a little effort to accommodate us and they must know how many to prepare for. So will you please be so kind as to send in the enclosed postal card at once stating whether or not we may expect you? If you later decide differently, you can inform us.

"Guests of scoutleaders, troop committeemen and councilmen are more than welcome if reservations are sent in advance.

"Please send the card at once; just say 'I will be there' or 'I can't be there' and sign your name."

The ladies aid society of Trinity church will hold their annual bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 27 in the VanderVeel Bldg.

There is no further reduction at midnight

An evening reduced rate is now effective from 7:00 p. m. to 8:30 p. m.

HOLLAND STEAMER LOSES ITS ANCHOR

The Goodrich steamer Illinois lost its anchor when nearing the wharf on West Eighth street Saturday on its trip from Chicago. The coast guard was notified and began dragging operations near the South American dock. The anchor was located, but the service crew was unable to raise it owing to the heavy sea. It was recovered Sunday.

HOLLAND FURNACE OFFICE BANQUETS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Holland Furnace company office force was given their annual banquet at the Warm Friend Tavern Wednesday night. There were 150 in the party and in spite of the similar occasions in the past, all of which were great successes, the consensus of opinion seems to be that Wednesday evening's affair was the finest of all.

The Holland Furnace company spared no effort or expense in arranging for this joyous time. There was an abundance of fun and hilarity from the moment the Warm Friends sat down until the big boss, A. H. Landwehr, closed the meeting with his smiling "good-night."

Music was furnished by the Wolverine Four of Grand Rapids and as usual no one seemed to get enough of their excellent talent. Addresses were made by Mr. A. H. Landwehr, Mr. J. P. Kolla and Mr. Ralph Parlette.

Mr. Landwehr brought out the need for a look into the future, on the ground that the present great prosperity could easily be effective in a downward direction as well as in an upward direction. He stated that in America, those who ignore the influences that tend toward perpetuating good times. He stated that although bank deposits are greater than ever in this country, increasing abundance and resources as great as ever, if society failed in the matter of efficient production the bill would have to be paid by all of society.

Mr. Landwehr further stated that the Holland Furnace company is so co-operative and efficient, each one in his own department, that it would be possible for Mr. Landwehr to be gone months at a time without any detrimental results. An organization, he said, must prove itself not to be dependent upon any one person.

Mr. Kolla gave a little historic sketch of the company's development, bringing out most of all the interesting fact that 18, 19 and 20 years ago the problem was to sell the few furnaces that were being made at that time, in contrast to the problem of producing all the furnaces that are being sold.

Mr. Parlette of Chicago, a dramatic speaker, both clever and forceful, entertained his audience with an inspiring talk, entitled "The Snake." He said that the same serpent of jealousy and selfishness, which began to upset things in the beginning of human affairs, was still squirming around in the affairs of men today.

He went on to say that every man, woman and child must recognize the need of combating that serpent in order that there may be true co-operation and increasing abundance of good life resulting from organized efforts.

Mr. Parlette also made the interesting statement that everything that anyone does in this world is done selfishly. He backed up this truth by saying that anything that a person does is done to gain happiness for that person primarily. He told many incidents of his own life and amusing anecdotes. He said that the greatest happiness was the man who got the most pay.

ZEELAND GIRL MARRIES YOUNG HOLLAND MAN

Henry Poppen, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Poppen of Holland and Miss Anna Goorman of Zeeland were united in marriage Monday evening, Nov. 15th, by Rev. H. E. Costendorp, at the parsonage in Zeeland.

The newlyweds left immediately for a trip to Reading and Detroit, Michigan.

They will be at home to their friends after Nov. 25, 1926, at 176 East 18th St., Holland, Michigan.

ROTARY ENDORSES TWO DRIVES IN CITY OF HOLLAND

During the luncheon given by the Rotary club at Warm Friend Tavern Thursday noon Chairman Thomas N. Robinson brought Red Cross matters and the fund for crippled children to the attention of those present.

Henry Winter and Superintendent of Schools E. E. Fell were appointed as a committee of two to draw up suitable resolutions endorsing the work of the American Red Cross generally and the Ottawa County unit in particular.

There is also a statewide movement in Michigan to aid crippled children and chairman Robinson appointed Dr. R. C. Nichols, Prof. J. B. Nykerk and Father Fred Ryan as a committee to lay out a plan of campaign.

The men appointed on the two committees got busy immediately and every member of the Rotary club and several guests present planned a dollar bill to a pledge found at each plate and these dollars were handed to secretary Arendshorst, who will see to it that the money goes thru the proper channel. This is the initial move to the drive that is to follow in this city. The Red Cross resolution reads:

"The Rotary club of the city of Holland endorses the work of the American Red Cross and appreciates the fact that Ottawa county holds a place of prominence in the state of Michigan in point of membership, due to the devotion and untiring efforts of Mrs. G. J. Van Duren and her associates. The good offices of the American Red Cross in alleviating suffering in time of war and in time of peace entitle it to the support of every American citizen. We the Holland Rotary club, pledge anew to this great cause our loyal devotion and continued efforts."

W. C. T. U. CONTEST TO BE STAGED ON DEC. 10TH

Plans are being made for a declamation contest in which pupils of the sixth grade in each of the local schools will take part. The declamation will be on the subject "Alcohol and Safety First," and the contest will be under auspices of the Holland W. C. T. U. The pupils will write their own declamations and each school will hold a preliminary contest in which the teacher will pick the school's winner.

These six winners will then take part in the final contest for prizes. This will be held on the evening of December 10 in the high school auditorium. Each winner will be accompanied by a delegation from the school represented and an interesting contest is expected. The winner will receive a prize of three dollars and the second prize will be two dollars. There will be five judges in the final contest.

SERVICE MEN NOT TO MAKE A HOUSE TO HOUSE CANVASS

At the three Holland banks Saturday afternoon, and evening, the collected amounts were collected for the Red Cross roll call: Holland City State Bank, in charge of Miss Katherine Post, $52.75; First State Bank, in charge of Mrs. A. Leenhouts, $46; Peoples State Bank, in charge of Mrs. William Wagner, $20. At the Red Cross office in the city hall the sum of $22 was collected.

Announcement was made today by Mrs. G. J. Van Duren that the previous announcement, will not make a house-to-house canvass this year. Some other method of making the roll call will be devised. Meanwhile all persons who wish to join in the Red Cross by taking the money to the Red Cross office in the city hall or seeing some representative of the Red Cross. Opportunity will be given at Tuesday's meeting of the W. C. T. U. to enroll before and after the meeting, and similar opportunity may be given at other meetings.

GET REMINDERS OF HOLLAND LONG AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Tyson, formerly of the Warm Friend Tavern, are now in Chicago after making a 3,000 mile automobile tour. They have not forgotten Holland, but, according to a letter from Mr. Tyson, met with reminders of Holland all along the line.

"Since leaving Holland, October 6th," writes Mr. Tyson, "Mrs. Tyson and I have motored nearly 3,000 miles, visiting some fifty cities. In many it was my pleasure to meet persons who had been patrons of the Tavern. On my trip I registered from Holland, Mich., and several of the clerks would say, 'That is where they built the Warm Friend Tavern,' or 'That's where that furnace that makes warm friends is manufactured.'"

"Nearly everywhere we went we would see things to keep us close to Holland. On the highways we would see Holland Furnace Co. bill boards, in the cities their branch offices; at the corner drug stores a San-Tox display; and in northern Indiana the farmers were hauling sugar beets, which I suppose, went to a Holland-St. Louis sugar plant."

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wheaton, a girl.

GIVES ADDRESS ON IDEALISM AT THE ROTARY MEETING

The members of the Rotary club were given a surprise at their weekly luncheon Thursday noon when it was made known that Ralph Parlette, noted humorist and afterdinner talker, was to be the guest of honor. Mr. Parlette had made a bit here more than a year ago when he was the headliner at the Exchange club ladies' night.

At the invitation of chairman Robinson and the other officials, a hasty bid was extended to the members of the Exchange club also to join the Rotarians at their luncheon and the result was that the large dining room was well filled with members from both clubs.

A. H. Landwehr is responsible for Mr. Parlette's coming here. Parlette spoke at the Holland Furnace company banquet Wednesday evening and appeared again at the Holland Teacher's club and Mr. Landwehr, inviting Mr. Parlette to take lunch with the members of the local club, was an after-consideration and the nationally known speaker said on opening that he did not have a set speech but he was just going to ramble around a little.

Mr. Parlette talked principally upon idealism. He said you have a class that you raise a hue and cry against idealism but they are simply short changing themselves out of so much happiness.

Mr. Parlette said, "When you see a man who does not believe in idealism you generally bump up against a pessimist. He is a person who stands alone, often friendless. Our gathering here in a social hour was brought on through idealism. Why are you helping a crippled child? Why is the Red Cross? These ideals simply bring earth nearer to heaven. The whole world is like a gymnasium," said Mr. Parlette. "Many of us dumbly need help and the more fortunate in a helpful manner swing the unfortunates back in line. Your pay for doing good and practicing your ideals is the joy of doing things, not the monument that might be yours some day."

Mr. Parlette added, "You sometimes run across a man who has grown sour and feels that the people do not appreciate him. Such a man is really been an asset to the community but he has the wrong conception, he shouldn't wait for appreciation, but he must feel content that he has done something for others and he must delight in the feeling."

"There is an ideal in everything in life, but all ideals are worked out from a copy line, like a youngster who first starts to write. He copies after the model line at the top of the sheet quite carefully. However, the farther he gets from the top the poorer his writing becomes. He has lost sight of the copy line."

"This beautiful model, fine as it is, no doubt, does not begin to compare with the beauties presented in the architect's drawings, the man who dreamed the building and then sketched it."

"Idealism does not find its expression in stone and steel only in everything in life, in literature, in art and in an endless lot of things."

"I take off my hat to accomplishment," said Mr. Parlette, "sleeping up on his subject. The salary is only an incident. What drives a man on is to accomplish something, to perfect something, but there is always a copy line to follow and some achievement beyond that. But in accomplishing you always find some hindrances, those who throw obstacles, in the way, those who criticize."

"Even the church has these criticisms, members who protest earnestly at the lameness here and the weakness there, losing sight of the ideals of religion, forgetting all about the rock, the foundation of strength upon which the superstructure is built. This is true about schools and business as well."

"What is happiness?" said Mr. Parlette. "I believe happiness is the music of our growth. A man who does not grow, a man who does not advance, ceases to be happy."

"In business, I believe that supply is not the big word; demand is. You must bring about conditions that create a demand for the things you create."

"Many years ago Indians were living here. You often hear some people say that the lives of the aborigines would be a happy state of affairs. That sounds good in story books and is often beautifully pictured but there was no pushing forward, there was no progress. The only thing the Indians demanded was tomahawks, beads and bows and arrows."

"Your Holland Furnace Co., the wonderful plant that I visited this morning, would have had electricity in the Indian days, as would any other product that you manufacture. The furnace would have been easy to produce but what good would the production be without the demand?"

"Education has brought demand, has brought progress, has brought better living conditions. People want better things, that is why demand is the great word."

"I believe in idealism because a man who has an ideal in life is a man who is possessed of a heart and a soul and is a man who is looking upward and not downward."

DISTRICT C. E. ELECTS OFFICERS

LOCAL MAN WINNER IN GRAND HAVEN APPLE SHOW

The Peoples Bank of Grand Haven is holding its first apple show in the lobby of the counting room. One hundred and twenty-five trays of fruit are on exhibition. Lucas Zagers from Holland won 18 first prizes, four second prizes and two third prizes. The second place winner was H. Schafer, whose orchard is near the county line. Out of 16 trays he took 16 prizes. Nine firsts, six seconds and one third. They were judged by H. M. Wells of the state experiment station at Grand Rapids.

WEDDING TAKES PLACE THURSDAY IN HOLLAND

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Karel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Karel, 129 East 16th St., to Mr. Cyrus Vande Luyster of Zeeland, occurred at high noon Thursday, Rev. L. Veltkamp, pastor of Central Ave. Christian Reformed church, officiating.

The bride was prettily gowned in pink satin crepe trimmed with roses and carried a large bouquet, while the groom wore a French serge suit in dark blue. The wedding party was unattended and the ceremony was witnessed by only the very immediate members of the family. In the evening a wedding reception was given at the Karel home, attended by 75 guests.

The couple will make their home at 252 1/2 3rd street. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Zoren and daughter Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Karel and daughter Reka, Mr. Bert Vanden Berg all of Grand Rapids; Miss Elsie Stum of Eastman, Mich.; Mrs. Wm. Van Kovering, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Van Hoven, Mr. and Mrs. John Vande Luyster all of Zeeland.

SPEAKER SAYS THE CHURCH IS SALT OF THE EARTH

Before a fair-sized audience in Hope church Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Jennie Sharpless, international secretary of the Purify League, spoke on the subject of "The Church is Salt of the Earth." The meeting was opened by Dr. T. W. Davidson and closed by Dr. J. B. Nykerk. The next meeting will be announced later. Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock there will be a meeting for men only in the Third Reformed church.

At her meeting in Hope church Sunday afternoon Mrs. Sharpless said:

"Ye are the Salt of the Earth." Christ used this metaphor to impress upon his followers the kind of influence they were to exert in the world. He said that not only his immediate followers but those who would become his followers and make up his church thru all the coming centuries, Salt is a preserving agency; it is the salt of life, it keeps from rot and decay. What salt is in its sphere, said Christ, my church is to be in human society."

"Every true church is a great barrel of salt which cleanses and preserves from decay the life about it."

"Take the church out of the world and human society would soon become a petrified mass. We have cause now to be alarmed at the selfishness of human society and human life as manifested in the waste of crime. If it were not for the presence of the church with its saving and restraining influence, we would indeed soon be overwhelmed by a tidal wave of lawlessness and violence that would drown us in perdition. The church is the only force in our midst that can resist and hold back such a tidal wave."

"Not only is it essential in food, it forms a considerable proportion of our bodies, it is absolutely indispensable to our physical existence. This is equally true of the church in the sphere of human society. Without the church society we could not live. Without it we would soon break down in our moral and spiritual life, and that would mean our breakdown in everything else—education and social service, in politics and government."

"But if the salt has lost its savor where with shall we be salted? If the church has lost its hold and influence, it may as well be taken out of the world for Christ? 26,000,000 young men and women under 25 years of age are out of church and 60,000,000 children never attend Sunday school. The estimated population of the United States is 116,000,000. Of this number 46,883,755, or less than one half, are members of our churches, including Protestants and Catholics. The gain in church membership the past year has been 8,000."

Mrs. Sharpless described the cause of many of the social evils existing today and gave the purpose of her work in the State of Michigan. She told of 13,000 crippled children in Michigan alone and said we must eradicate the cause of a large percent of them.

The weekly attendance at the movies in the United States now exceeds the entire population by fully 14,000,000. What a tremendous force for good or evil! In talking to 300 young criminals, under the age of 18, 225 said they got their education at the movie."

The sex problem was discussed in connection with the auto and suggestive dress. Mrs. Sharpless laid the blame on home and church. She asked for the establishment of the old family altar in the home, teaching of sex hygiene early in life, in all its beauty and sacredness. To be a member of church means nothing, she said; one can go to church, pray long and loud, if their everyday lives are out of harmony with their professions, it is all lost."

"When we let Christ into our hearts and lives," she said, "this great problem of purity will disappear as mist before the rising sun, the home will be assured of permanency the nation of life and activity and civilization will reflect the glory as well as honor of God the father and His son Jesus Christ, the prince of purity."

Joe Reznay of Grand Haven was arrested Sunday morning on a charge of not sending his boy to school. The truant officer claims the boy is 15 years of age and therefore has no longer to go to school, while the father claims he is sixteen years old.

John Huizinga entertained several of his close relatives in honor of his birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Huizinga was presented with a beautiful blooming plant.

JOINS IMPORTANT SHOE CONCERN IN BROCKTON, MASS.

T. Frank Whelan of the Holland Shoe Company has left for Brockton, Mass., where he has assumed a position with the Howard & Foster Shoe Company. Mr. Whelan recently left the Holland Shoe company, with which company he had been connected for a number of years, and he has been named vice president of the new corporation in Brockton. The Whelan family will probably remain in Holland until spring.

The importance of the new concern of which Mr. Whelan has been elected vice president can be estimated from the fact that the "Brockton Times" gave the formation of the concern a seven-column headline in a recent issue. About Mr. Whelan the article said:

"Mr. Whelan is recognized as one of the outstanding men in the men's shoe world of today as a designer of styles, features, as well as being one of the finest shoemakers the country can boast of. Brockton should feel proud to have a man of his caliber joining their fold."

The article continues: "A new organization consisting of the younger members of the old company has been formed as Howard & Foster, Inc. to carry on the Howard & Foster traditions, with P. Thomas as president; Hector E. Lynch, Jr., as treasurer; Christopher O'Neill as secretary; and T. Frank Whelan, late of the Holland Shoe Co. of Holland, Mich., as vice president."

"John P. Thomas, Hector E. Lynch, Jr., and Christopher O'Neill have been in the Howard & Foster organization for a period of many years, and are widely known and highly regarded by all connected with the shoe industry."

"The Howard & Foster Co. was organized and started business on Jan. 1, 1887, and would have been 40 years old on the coming New Year's Day."

"Charles Howard and Charles H. Foster, both deceased, were the members of the original company. Hector E. Lynch, Sr., joined the firm 37 years ago and two years later Mr. Nute became an associate."

"The firm first started the manufacture of shoes in a factory at Ward and Montello streets and about 20 years later the present factory on Spring street was built and occupied."

DEER HUNTERS READY TO MOVE TO DEEP WOODS

The number of deer hunting licenses issued in this county are on par with the many counties of the state which this year have recorded a greater number of licenses than ever before.

"The army of hunters crossing 'the straits' at this season of the year is said to be thirty thousand strong all seeking the meek brown-eyed animal that stands as the epitome of hunting prowess in this state."

One hundred and forty licenses have been issued thus far in Ottawa county with just a few left in the books issued by the state at the beginning of the fall season. Licenses have been sold in various parts of the country for the convenience of patrons and they have been generously patronized.

The number of deer leaving for the wild places of the north increases each year and if every hunter came back with his buck the supply would soon be permanently ruined. As it is, it is doubtful just how long it will be before the ban will go on deer by the conservation department."

ZEELAND MAN SELLS MARKET

During the past week negotiations were completed whereby Milan Huyser sold the City Market in Zeeland to Messrs. Wm. De Boer and John Huyser of Grandville, who will continue the business at the old stand.

Mr. Huyser has been in the market business at this stand for the past seventeen years, at which time of purchase he succeeded his father-in-law, Cornelius Bouwens, of that city. Also during these seventeen years, his brother-in-law, John Bouwens, has been associated with him, who will now remain with the business. What Mr. Huyser intends to occupy his time with has not been announced.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Stegeman of Zeeland left for St. Charles, near Saginaw last week to take up their residence there, where the doctor will begin the practice of his profession. Mrs. John Stegeman, mother, is spending the winter at the home of her son, Paul, at Midland. Mr. De Boer and family of Holland will occupy the Stegeman residence in Zeeland during the winter months.

POINTERS ON SINGING

Voice Building and Its Relation to Singing

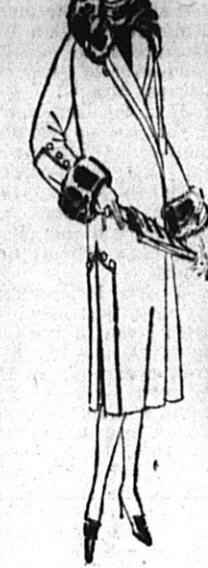

No voice is beautiful until it is brought out. "Voice Culture" means, among other things, the building up of voice.

Many singers believe their voices are small, when if properly brought out, as built up, these singers would realize that what they formerly considered as singing in full voice, was in reality only half voice.

I do not believe in sacrificing quality for quantity, but style and interpretation in singing are out of the question, unless the singer is able to increase or diminish tone, such as the occasion may demand.

The four rural mail carriers will leave the Fennville postoffice at 9 o'clock and all mail in the future for these routes must be in the postoffice by 8:30 a. m. A number of the bad spots in the roads traveled by the rural carriers, have now been repaired, but there are still a few more that must be put into condition before winter. Failure to make these repairs will necessitate some changes in the delivery of rural mail. This is in the hands of the postoffice department. If the patrons do not want to miss mail this winter roads should be repaired at once. Fennville rural carriers have been warned repeatedly by the postoffice department.

The five Grand Haven high school boys involved in the alleged larceny of gasoline from the car owned by Seman Van Weelden, appeared before Justice Bernard Cook Thursday. After consultation with the parents and the prosecuting attorney, it was decided to make these boys pay the costs of $10.30 and put them on probation. The probation officer named was Tony Pippel, Grand Haven chief of police. The terms of the probation included paying of the officer and filing once a month, a regular report either in person or writing. The boys are also required to be in the house at 10:30 each night.

Locals

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Stegeman of Zealand left for St. Charles, near Saginaw, the early part of the week to take up their residence there, where the doctor will begin the practice of his profession. Mrs. John Stegeman, his mother, is spending the winter at the home of her son, Paul, at Midland. Mr. De Boer and family of Holland will occupy the Stegeman residence at Zealand during the winter months. —Zeeland Record.

Miss Angie Ver Plank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ver Plank of West Central Avenue, and Marion Butties of Holland were united in marriage at South Bend, Ind. They will make their home at Macatawa Park. Miss Ver Plank is one of Zealand's prominent young ladies and a graduate of Zealand high school. —Zeeland Record.

The Michigan potato crop is nearly 6,000,000 bushels greater than the 1925 crop but the apple crop of the state is 300,000 bushels less than it was last year.

All Banks, public buildings and places of business in Holland will be closed tomorrow Thanksgiving Day.

Holland's churches, representing both the Reformed and Christian Reformed denominations, will feature Thanksgiving day services with special offerings largely in support of denominational benevolences.

Last year the churches collected about $8,000.

Dr. W. L. Chandler, parasitologist at Michigan State college, discoverer of the iodine vermicide treatment, gave a lecture to Michigan poultrymen at the Zealand City hall Tuesday evening on worms in poultry. Chandler will give a demonstration of treatment.

A special Thanksgiving dinner is to be held at the U. of M. for all foreign students, not including those of native birth who can get only two lines of the Star-Spangled Banner. —Detroit News.

Thanksgiving day service at Hope church on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock when the pastor Dr. Davidson will preach on "The Ministry of Thanksgiving." You are cordially invited to be present. The offering is for the poor.

The chemistry class of Fennville school spent a very interesting afternoon in the Holland Sugar Plant last week. The different steps in the manufacture of sugar were discussed by the head chemist of the plant. —Fennville Herald.

Allegan county stood ninth according to government census on crop reports recently given out. The volume of the crop was $4,437,000.

Every mail train thru Holland will find mailmen well armed aboard. This is brought about because of a recent order from Uncle Sam, thus protecting valuable mails from train robbers. Every train in the United States is manned with soldiers and since the Marines have guarded trains there have been no robberies.

HAMILTON

The funeral service of Mr. Henry J. Klompars was held last Tuesday afternoon at the First Reformed church. A large number of friends and relatives filled the church. The pastor spoke in the Holland language and Rev. Potter in the American language. Mr. Klompars was born in Graafschap, Hanover, Germany on Jan. 8, 1839, at the time when Hanover was a separate kingdom ruled by a blind king. At the age of 7 in the spring of '47 his parents came to America closely following the Dr. Van Raalte company. For a long time he worked for A. B. Wallin, owner of the tannery at Saugatuck receiving wages of 50 cents and later $1.50 per day. For several years his parents resided in Laketown township, later moving to Fillmore. While living there the family were members of Overisel church which he served for a number of years as deacon. He was also a member of the consistory. He served also for many years as a member of the school board and Justice of the Peace for 14 years he filled the office of supervisor and then was elected Register of Deeds for Allegan county for 4 years.

Since that time he has resided at Hamilton but remained active in community and church work, serving the First church as elder for some years. Since the death of his wife, he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Herman Brower.

In the death of Mr. Klompars the community loses one of its most prominent citizens and the First Reformed church one of its most faithful and able members. The attendance at the funeral services reveals the high regard and esteem in which he was held.

Miss Edie Buss, student at Hope college, spent the week end at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Roggen. Miss Buss is a member of Rev. Roggen's former congregations.

The ninth graders are rejoicing since the new literature books have arrived for study next week. Edna Wakerman was absent from school Monday owing to tonsillitis.

The school is now supplying with a new drinking fountain.

The high school representatives Josephine Tucker and Laura Casson were at the P. T. A. brought in their report Wednesday morning. Gladys Borgman will spend Thanksgiving with her grandparents in Kalamazoo.

LARGE SQUAD REPORTS TO THE COLLEGE COACH

HOPE WILL ENTER M. I. A. A. RACE FOR THE FIRST TIME

Joy reigns again on the Hope campus for the season has rolled around for the court team to swing into action. Basketball is the sport that holds the interests of all students as the team stands high always and victories over the best in the state make for quite a thrill. Teams which defeat Hope in other lines of sport come here to take a good licking in the court game and so the local collegians are the favorites.

With the football season of 1926 closed, the disasters in the grid sport seem to be closed as the next aggregations are bound to be winners.

The entrance into the M. I. A. A. race adds considerable interest to the Holland sport life. The teams of such colleges as Albion, Kazoo, Alma, Olivet, Hillsdale and Ypsilanti are rated high and Hope will look horns with fast opposition. The championship banner is much sought after and means considerable prestige to the winner. All of these teams are looking forward to their best years so Hope will have to step fast.

As yet no captain has been selected for the quintet, several tie votes having been taken. Kiles and Stabers lead the field and one of these men will be selected. These two veteran forwards will be aided by such worthies as R. Japinga, Dean Martin, Prakken, Diephouse, Van Zanten, B. Japinga, B. Cook, Van Lente, P. Nettinga, Winter, Damstra, and several others. Things look fair at the first sessions but little can be said until the team gets a real test.

Here is the schedule manager Diephouse has arranged.

Sport Notes

Grand Haven also closed its foot ball season on Saturday against Tom (Vroeg) Dewey's Greenville eleven, the count being 27-0. Cohrs will have the following players to return: Speiss, Pellegrom, Dykshuis, M. Elliott, J. Elliott, Pippel, Strahburg, De Kler, Van Loo and several others. Six of these men were in the last Holland game. Holland has Tyssse, Tanis, Elenbas, Sandy, Tibbits, Wassenaar, and Brown to match this crowd.

Every Holland high basketball game will be played in the arduous this year giving fans a fine chance of seeing fast play as the floor is one of the finest in the state.

The state championship football race will no doubt be decided on Thanksgiving Day when G. R. Central takes on the Redmond team at Muskegon. Coach Chapman said that he expects his team to win. Two eight grade teams put up a fine exhibition of football. It is the training these boys get in their first years in school that makes them ripe for competition when they reach their 10th grade. A better 1927 aggregation is predicted at Muskegon.

MACATAWA

Neighbors saved the home of Jacob Zoerman at Macatawa Park from destruction by fire by using sand when water was not available. The fire presumably starting from an electric floor lamp had a good start in the living room when discovered and the fire fighters, armed with shovels scooped the sand upon the porch, smashed a front window and threw the sand on the flames.

The Zoerman family returned home just as the blaze had been smothered. The loss is estimated at about $1,000 and was covered by insurance.

HAMILTON

A Consistorial meeting of the Classis of Holland was held at the First Reformed church of Hamilton recently. Interesting addresses were also given by Rev. F. J. Van Dyke of Central Park. A large number attended from the surrounding churches.

The school pupils of the Hamilton schools also held an election recently and voted the Republican ticket overwhelmingly.

The boys of Hamilton school received a new pigskin ball and the girls a new volleyball.

At a recently mothers visiting day at the school sixteen attended. After school hours a meeting was held and refreshments were served.

The following are the pupils wearing safety patrol badges: Kenneth Blenc, Justin Sale, Martin Johnson, Marvin Kaper, Gail Gaevel, Edwin Kovord, Willie Timmerman, Lavina Borgman, Elton Drenten, Donald Kolvoord and Bernard Voorhorst.

Rev. F. J. Van Dyke of Central Park Holland was a recent visitor here.

Mrs. James Visscher of South Bend who has been the guest of Mrs. Jacob Eding has returned to Indiana.

Those from Holland who visited Hamilton recently are Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Maatman and son who visited Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Maatman and Miss Henrietta Ten Brink who spent a few days with her parents.

NORTH HOLLAND

The Crisp Community band will repeat their program which they recently gave. At this time it will be given at the North Holland school on Friday evening, November 26, at 7:45. Many tickets have already been sold.

Mrs. C. McIntyre and Mrs. Mulder and two children from Coopersville called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knoohuizen on Friday day; also attending the afternoon services here.

Miss Anna Looman who has been staying at the home of Mr. Gerrit Van Dornik for the past few weeks has left their place. Mrs. Van Dornik is recuperating from her recent illness and plans are being made for her to be taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Vinkemulder where the Van Dorniks expect to stay for a while.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the morning on Thursday beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Nelhuis entertained several of her friends at her home on last week Saturday afternoon when she celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Nelhuis Miss Johanna Knoohuizen Mrs. Edna Knoohuizen and Mrs. Hattie Nelhuis. Katherine was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Ben Terhaar and Clarence Raak spent last Monday at Grand Rapids driving through a new Star coach.

Ed Brower, poultry man from Holland has been in this vicinity culling different flocks of chickens.

Mrs. Henry Coeling, sr., of Boreculo, our local music instructor has returned from her trip to Chicago where she visited with her relatives and friends. She has again resumed her work with some of her pupils the past week.

A miscellaneous shower was given on last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vander Poel at Holland. Among those present from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Dornik and family. Mr. and Mrs. Boerman received many beautiful and useful presents.

Mrs. Kileterp is confined to her bed on account of a stroke she had last week.

A public auction will be held on Wednesday, November 24, commencing at 1 o'clock on the farm of Mr. Gerrit Van Dornik located 2 miles northwest of the Grand Haven bridge on the Bee line road.

L. Diepenhorst of Holland is at present staying at the home of his son, Martin Diepenhorst, northeast from here.

NEW GRONINGEN

Miss Georgana Lemmen entertained at her home in New Groningen the Vigvivors club. This club was organized on Thursday evening. Those present were Misses Betty Boonstra, Mary Staal, Mary Van Loo, Hoida Esterbeek, Maggie Bouwens, Elsie Schermer and Harriet De Winter. Dainty refreshments were served and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

ZEELAND

During the past week negotiations were completed whereby Mil- an Huyser sold the City Market to Wm. J. Damsa and John Huizenga. Grandville, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Huyser has been in the market business at this stand for the past seventeen years, at which time he purchased the stand from his father-in-law, Cornelius Bouwens, of this city. Also during these seventeen years, his brother-in-law, John Bouwens, has been associated with him, who will now remain with the new firm. What Mr. Huyser intends to occupy his time with has not been announced.

A farewell party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. Geerlings at their home on South State street, near Zealand, Mr. and Mrs. Geerlings are leaving the farm and expect to become residents of Zealand. The following neighbors were present, Mr. and Mrs. John Mulder, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boonstra, Mr. and Mrs. R. Root, Mr. and Mrs. G. De Jonge, Mr. and Mrs. S. Boonstra, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mulder, Mrs. Ed Wagenveld, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brummel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wagenveld, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stegeman, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kianer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schultz and Mr. and Mrs. R. Nykamp. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Zealand farm implement dealers, Isaac Van Dyke Co. and The Van Hoven-Vereke Co. together with a few of their farmer friends have succeeded in securing the International Harvester Co. short course at Zealand at the Exchange club of Zealand presented their plan when several committees were appointed to carry out the work of putting on the program. The program will cover the subjects of agriculture, horticulture, gardening and home economics and will be held here at some date to be announced later. The only purpose of the meetings will be to discuss, from a purely educational standpoint, important problems of the farm and home.

John J. Elhart left Zealand for Charlotte to enter upon his new duties as state inspector to accredit flocks for next season's hatching eggs.

At the congregational meeting held at the First Christian Reformed church Zealand, a call was extended to Rev. J. Masselink, pastor of the church of Muskegon.
