White Canes

(Detroit Free Press)

The publicity that has been given to the distribution of white canes to blind persons in Detroit should have been enough to acquaint everyone with the significance of these visible identifications.

Yet the other day, at a busy intersection downtown, where there is no traffic signal, a car was seen to bear down on a man feeling his way across the street with one of these white canes, and with no indication that the driver intended to stop.

A police officer, apparently off duty, who happened to be crossing behind the blind man, threw up his hand and checked the car, and then led the man to safety on the sidewalk.

We mention this incident to remind other motorists, who may have forgotten, that a white cane in the hand of a man on the street is presumptive evidence that the man is blind, and that they should be on their guard against running him down.

An Oyster a Day—

The oyster season is here once more, bringing joy to lovers of the succulent bivalve.

There's a bumper crop this year along the Atlantic seaboard, assuring more than enough to go around, at reasonable prices. The "harvest" in the Long Island area alone is expected to total more than 1,500,000 bushels.

It's comforting to know that oysters are not only good to eat, but good for the system. Scientists have found that they are literally mines of iron, copper and man-ganese.

Oysters are easily digested, and raw, they contain generous quantities of vitamins A, B, C and D.

That's a lot to get in one small shell!

Interesting Report of the Chamber Of Commerce of Holland

ANNUAL REPORT

PREAMBLE

This report is not only a financial statement of the past year's operations but is also a survey of the activities of our organization covering the past three years. On August 1st, 1933, I assumed charge of your reorganized body with the understanding, that your main objectives were to fill the many empty factory buildings, thereby reducing unemployment, and to push a program of needed highway construction; also to carry on any other activities that might be to the advantage of the community but which would not encroach on time required for the major objectives.

At the time you engaged me, Holland was probably one of the lowest towns in the state, commercially and industrially. Our three banks were closed; most of our factories were down and many of them completely out of business, and, of course, our army of unemployed was large and the welfare load staggering. Today we have practically every square foot of manufacturing space occupied. Our banks, which opened under severe restrictions, have paid out their impounded funds much ahead of amortization schedules and the value of their trust securities has risen to surprising market prices. Our unemployment is almost wiped out. According to statistics issued from Washington, Holland stands in the top bracket of retail sales in proportion to population. Our electric plant has reached an all-time peak and our numerous transportation companies report record tonnage. These extraordinary achievements have made us an object of envy of many other cities.

INDUSTRIAL

During the period referred to in the preamble, about one thousand people have been put to work in the new or reorganized industries, resulting in an annual payroll of approximately one million dollars. At this writing three other substantially large new or reorganized industries are about ready for announce-ment. The following is a list of the concerns now in operation, which the Chamber of Commerce has been wholly or partly responsible for securing: Baker Furniture, Inc., employing 250; Charles R. Sligh Co., employing 100; Holland, Inc., 300; Gil-Boat Co., 25; Lake Shore Sugar Co., 200 part time; Security Sportswear Co., 75; general offices, Michigan Gas & Electric Co., 30; Holland Latex Co., 12; Fiasto Products Co., 50. The last two named are just getting under way and we have stated the number of workmen they expect to employ.

Additions have been made to the plants of many of our older concerns. Hart & Cooley Manufacturing Co. has added 12,000 square feet and stepped up employment about 50%. Charles Karr Company now occupies a large addition. The Dutch Novelty Shops has expanded into new quarters with a peak employment of about 125. H. J. Heinz Co. has added to their floor space in the old plant and have recently purchased the Vac-A-Tap plant on the North Side to care for their increasing business. The Holland Aniline Dye Co. is now engaged in the construction of a large brick addition. More warehouse space has been provided at the Holland Furnace Co. The Holland Planter Co. abandoned their old quarters and now occupy a fine new tile building in the east end. The Smith Agricultural Chemical Co. has just let a contract for a 116-foot addition to their plant on the North Side.

Among the new plants that have expanded since coming here are the Hollander, Inc. and the Charles R. Sligh Co. The former began with twelve operators. They abandoned their quarters on River Avenue and now occupy the old Chippewa plant which they have rehabilitated and are employing 300 hands. The additions at the Charles R. Sligh Co. plant has enabled them to step up employment to 100.

HOUSING

Expanding industrial activities and the resulting increased employment has given rise to a new housing shortage. Two of our leading manufacturers called our attention to the fact that a number of their employees were living in adjoining towns and an effort should be made to prevent this situation from becoming more serious. A year ago we began a campaign for new and remodeled homes. Before it got well under way winter cracked down and many houses that were projected for winter construction could not be started. This left us with a good build-up, however, for early spring work and little momentum was lost. We set a mark for one hundred dwellings and are now well in sight of our goal. Our records show seventy-five houses completed or under construction, with many applications for loans being filed. These homes are scattered over the Holland area quite promiscuously, from the Pine Creek School district on the north to a distance south of the city limits and from Virginia Park on the west to the Country Club district on the east. As rapidly as the homes are erected they are photographed and the pictures are posted on a large bulletin board in our headquarters. Anyone interested in this drive is welcome to view the pictorial layout. It is graphic evidence of Holland's growth. These homes vary in value from one thousand dollars to twenty thousand dollars. The investment at this time in buildings, exclusive of lots, is three hundred sixty thousand dollars. The total value, with ground improvements and household equipment, when they are completed, is estimated at a half million dollars.

TULIP FESTIVAL

Tulip Time has grown to be so well known throughout the country that our problem of publicizing the event has become subordinate in importance to that of satisfactory accommodations and amusements. Persons coming from great distances are not content with a mere viewing of the tulips. They expect to be provided with entertainment of a Dutch character, day and night, for the duration of the festival. There is considerable expense entailed in staging these attractions and it is necessary for us to think in terms of gate receipts. Our Dutch Village of two years ago enabled us to finance this year's festival without passing the hat. The revolving fund, however, has been depleted to the extent of about twelve hundred dollars, due to the type of entertainment selected for the 1936 festival. The Tulip Time Committee is now engaged in studying every suggestion with a view of adopting some popular attraction that will permit us to continue the festival on a self-supporting basis.

BERLIN FAIR PAYS
$800 BACK AWARDS

A pledge made in 1933 by officials of the Ottawa-Kent Agricultural society, promoter of the Berlin fair, was being redeemed today.

Three years ago, at the close of the annual fair, the officials found that insufficient money remained to pay $800 in prizes to exhibitors. At that time it was promised that just as soon as times improved the prizes would be forthcoming.

H. Fred Oltman, of Grand Rapids, president of the society, announced today that, with improved business generally, the prize checks are being mailed out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Albers and daughter of Hamilton, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Tucker, 307 West 19th St., Monday evening.

DR. MULDER GUEST SPEAKER AT CENTURY CLUB

Dr. Arnold Mulder, professor of English at Kalamazoo college, gave a resume of the trip taken by him and Mrs. Mulder through Europe, last summer at a meeting of the Century club, Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geerlings, on West 14th St. Dr. Mulder told of the many amusing incidents which enlivened the routine of travel and he described his trip from his arrival at Rotterdam, giving a brief picture of Holland with its beautiful roads and millions of bicycles. He told of the noticeable changes in Germany since his visit there four years ago. The people, he said, are happier and from all classes one sees evidence of sincere hero worship of Adolf Hitler. He told of the slow, quiet life in the Scandinavian countries in contrast to the fevered life of America. He stated that the Scandinavians are not backward but that they are far ahead in many ways particularly in governmental forms. The Rev. Paul E. Hinkamp, club president and former Hope college classmate, introduced Dr. Mulder.

Two groups of violin selections by Richard Keeler, accompanied by Miss Sarah Lacey, were well received by the club. Mr. Keeler played "Tambourin," Kreisler; "Nocturne," Chopin; "Allegro con brio," Strauss; "Air for G. string," Bach; and "Romance," D'Ambrosio. Arrangements for the music were made by Mrs. S. C. Nettinga. At a short business session, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Rhea were elected to membership in the club. A social hour was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Sears R. McLean, Mrs. Martha Robbins, Mrs. H. W. Hardie and Henry Winter.

GIRL IS INJURED AS
AUTO STRIKES TREE

Miss Ardis Bailey of South Haven Tuesday was in Douglas hospital severely cut on the head and with internal injuries as the result of an automobile accident on US-31 near the intersection with the county park road.

Miss Bailey was riding with Irwin Hutchins, 21, of Fennville when the car skidded and hit a tree. Hutchins was not hurt extensively but the car, belonging to his brother-in-law, Don Arnold, of South Bend, Ind., was greatly damaged.

Applications for marriage licenses have been received from the following: Gordon Klomparens, 25, Holland and Althea Warmelink, 19, Holland; John Klaver, 23, Holland and Isla Mae DeGoed, 22, Holland; Bruno Olechnowicz, 21, Grand Haven, and Anna Klein, 18, Muskegon Heights; John Vinkemulder, 26, Holland, and Lillian Kraai, 24, West Olive.

SILHOUETTES FREE

Everett Spaulding of the Spaulding Shoe Store on West 8th Street is putting on a unique feature. All children accompanied by their parents will receive a silhouette free and, of course, will have to pose for the opaque outline productions. The novel announcement is made elsewhere in this issue.

ZEELAND

Mrs. Ben DeVries, former resident of Forest Grove and now at home on furlough from the mission at Amri, India, addressed the Mission circle of First Reformed church, Zeeland, last evening.

Remember that Monday night, November 23rd, is the big night when the Feather Party of the Legion will be held at Boes Bros. garage. The aim of the party is to raise money for the approaching Christmas party. All are invited to attend as a good time is assured everybody. The party begins at 7 o'clock, one week from next Monday, at Boes Bros. garage at Washington and Church Sts.

In selling tickets for the high school opera, "Pirates of Penzance," each pupil was given four tickets to sell. If a class sells tickets amounting to $25.00, they will receive $15.00 of the $25.00, they will receive 6% of this money. The classes are working hard for these prizes.

About 20 Intermediate Christian Endeavor society members met at Second Reformed church last Thursday evening for a chicken dinner. Miss Joyce Den Herder played a piano solo and Miss Dorothy Bouwens read a Thanksgiving poem. The following officers were elected: Olga Baar, president; Rose Mary Winstrom, vice-president; Betty Wyngaard, secretary; and Randall Decker, treasurer. The group was divided into two groups with Willis Hall and Rose Mary Winstrom captains for a peanut hunt. Several games were enjoyed.

OTTAWA COUNTY

C. Plakke presided at a regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association of Beechwood school held last Friday evening. Following the business meeting, a program was presented consisting of two readings by Vivian Tariff, accordion solos by Ethel Brandt, harp and guitar music by Fred Baker and Clarence Simonson and music and singing by Julia and Clarence Simonson. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Art Tors and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennick. A white elephant sale to be held Nov. 24 is being planned by the October and November group of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elders are established in their home on rural route No. 1 following their marriage Nov. 5 in the home of the bride's father on rural route No. 6. Mrs. Elders was formerly Miss Lena Menken, daughter of Harry Menken and Mr. Elders is the son of Abel Elders of rural route No. 1. Vows were exchanged in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends before a blue and white arch banded with ferns. The bride was gown in white chiffon velvet, ankle length and trimmed with rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses, pom poms and sweet peas. The couple was unattended. The Rev. H. Blystra, pastor of the East Saugatuck Christian Reformed church officiated using the single ring ceremony. A reception was held following the ceremony and a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Elders took a short wedding trip.

LOCAL NEWS

In the absence of chairman Henry Ketel, the board of police and fire commissioners were in session for a brief 20 minutes, Monday. They approved repair work on the doors at the No. 2 engine house at an approximate cost of $55. An application as an extra police was received from William Kruthoff now serving as a special officer. No action was taken. A revision to the present city traffic ordinance is practically complete and ready for discussion at the next meeting according to a report made by commissioner Andrew Hyma and Chief of police, Frank Van Ry. Commissioner Cornelius Huizenga presided in the absence of commissioner Ketel.

Harry Doesburg, local druggist, who is at Holland hospital where he was admitted in a critical condition following a stroke, is reported to be getting along fairly well by authorities at the hospital. Mr. Doesburg is a member of the Park and Cemetery board.

A divorce decree was granted to Josephine Farino from Lawrence Farino. Custody of the minor child was awarded to the mother. Mrs. Farino is a resident of Port Sheldon township and Mr. Farino is at present residing in Sioux City, Ia.

The body of Bernard Gruizenga, 5, of Kalamazoo, was recovered, Sunday, from the Kalamazoo river by an unusual method. The boy, who had many relatives in this vicinity jumped from a trestle when trapped by a train. He was found by two volunteers after they had tossed a loaf of bread from the trestle and followed it three miles down the river where the current carried it to the stopping point. The body was located at that spot.

A perfect bowling score of 300 was registered by C. Looman in the second game of his series with the Hart and Cooley quintet in their Major league match with Ver Beek and Zoet Monday night. It was said that J. Mills rolled the first perfect score on the Holland alleys in 1931. Looman rolled 18 strikes in a row, starting in the tenth frame of the first game, continuing through the second game and ending in the third frame of the third game. His team swept all three games.

John Van Bragh, superintendent of parks reported that the work of planting new tulip bulbs for the 1937 Tulip Time festival, in the eight miles of lanes, has been completed. In all there will be over 250,000 bulbs in the lanes which have been mapped over a slightly different course this year. Under the plans for the new lanes, 12th and 17th Sts. from River to Washington Ave. are eliminated, being replaced by lanes along 18th and 16th Sts. State St. from 24th to 32nd Sts. is not included, but with the new US-31 entrance on Michigan Ave., lanes are included along Michigan Ave. from 19th to 28th Sts. The start and end of the route remain the same. Tourists will begin their eight-mile drive along the lanes at River Ave. and 10th St. and will end at 12th St. and Central Ave.

HIGHWAYS

Holland seemed to be unable to get a needed highway construction program under way, either by the state or county. This was due, to some extent, to factions warring over routes. A studied effort was made to iron out these differences which has resulted in the completion of US-31A to Saugatuck, the construction of a substantial portion of M40 to Allegan with prospects for the filling in of the gaps next season and the promise on the part of the State Highway Department that they will finish the construction of the master plan laid out for Holland as rapidly as funds will permit. That department is now engaged in studying the problem of M-21 to Grand Rapids with a view to doing some work at an early date.

The County Road Department has constructed a fine road to Pine Creek School and Port Sheldon which provides a beautiful scenic alternate route to Grand Haven. The next step will be to give this road a bituminous treatment to end the dust nuisance. A new route to Waukazoo and Ottawa Beach, via Pine Creek Bay, has been completed and provides a welcome relief from the congestion on the Lakewood road. A new road is being constructed south from Tunnel Park to connect with the Ottawa Beach road. The gap in the Waverly road between M-21 and the Lakewood cut-off has been given a bituminous treatment. It provides a convenient loop around the northeast corner of the city. Next year we expect to see bitumen laid on the Waverly road from M-21 to Sixteenth Street.

SANCTION BUREAU

No department of the Chamber of Commerce is more distasteful to the management than the Sanction Bureau. This bureau, which consists of a committee of three, was formed at the behest of a number of our members who wished to be protected against the numerous solicitations for advertising, sales schemes and donations. While we have not had full cooperation on the part of our members, yet we have saved them thousands of dollars and much valuable time through the operation of this bureau. Holland has earned the reputation of being a difficult town in which to solicit and many canvassers accordingly avoid it.

TOURIST AND RESORT

A very satisfactory summer resort season has just closed. In our report of a year ago, we called attention to the fact that Western Michigan needs one big outstanding attraction for the entertainment of our visitors. Getz's Zoo at Lakewood Farm, served this purpose for many years. Three years ago, we proposed a "Klein Nederland" as a municipal enterprise, but it was rejected. We are still of the opinion that something the nature of a permanent Dutch Village would make Holland a mecca for tourists and would yield big returns on the investment. It should be a municipal enterprise in order that it be properly conducted. The Chamber of Commerce took a leading part in successfully promoting a project for the enlargement of accommodations at the Holland State Park. These improvements, now under way, are being financed through the WPA.

CONVENTIONS

During the first year of our regime, we promoted many conventions. They are worth much in an advertising way, as well as commercially; but, there is considerable expense entailed in conducting them and we have, due to lack of funds, been compelled to limit them to the few that are obtainable at little or no cost.

AVIATION

Park Township is providing this community with an airport. The enterprise of that township board is very commendable. We have many inquiries during the summer from resorters regarding airport facilities and we are sure this port, when completed, will prove a wise investment. As this report goes to press, we have negotiations well under way for an airplane industry, a part of which may be established on the unused portion of the airport site.

COUNTY BOARD

Three years ago, we agitated the advisability of amending the city charter to permit the mayor and city attorney to be members of the Board of Supervisors. Our recommendations were finally adopted by the voters at a recent election and the change will go into effect next spring.

CITY COOPERATION

The outstanding success of the Chamber of Commerce in its industrial recovery program was made possible through the cooperation of the city administration. The financial statement given below is the summary of the complete audit made by Maihofer, Moore and De Long, Certified Public Accountants. The complete audit is available to any member wishing to peruse it.

HAMILTON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kruidhof and daughters from Vriesland visited the Roggen home Sunday.
Farewell services will be held at the First Reformed church next Sunday. Last Sunday 10 young people were received on confession and one on certificate. Rev. Mrs. J. A. Roggen and son, Leon will leave for Maurice, Iowa, after Thanksgiving and will begin their work in the First Reformed church in that village the first Sunday of December.

About 50 neighbors gathered last Tuesday afternoon at the farm of Dr. G. H. Rigtterink, one mile west of town to help raise the barn. The doctor is putting up a large and up-to-date structure to replace the one destroyed by fire several weeks ago. The building will be 64 by 48 with hip-roof. The lower and main part of the building was raised within one half hour and the entire work was done within a few hours.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Rigtterink entertained Rev. and Mrs. I. Scherpenisse and daughter, Betty, Rev. and Mrs. John A. Roggen and son, Leon and Rev. Fred Van Dyke of Central Park at dinner last Tuesday evening.

Correspondents please have your letters at the News office Monday morning because of Thanksgiving Day. We come out earlier.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

An Ambassador In Chains—Acts 28:16-24; 30, 31.

At last Paul was in Rome. He wanted to go there. We do not wonder that a man of his ambition, his world vision, his passion for the kingdom of God, his cosmopolitan sympathies would want to go to Rome. He wanted to be in the center of things. He wanted to preach the gospel in Rome.

We have no doubt that were he living today he would want to preach in New York and Chicago and London and Paris and Berlin and Constantinople and Moscow and Peking and Tokio. His heart would beat in sympathy with every race and he would want to go where the tides of life flow and reflow upon the shores of time.

He came to Rome, but quite differently from the way he had counted on. But this difference did not daunt him. He made the best of the way. He was a master in living above circumstances. If he did not have the environment he desired, he created his own environment. He made music where there were discords. He lighted candles where there was darkness. He commanded angels to move about his dwelling place where otherwise only ghosts of defeated hopes and ambitions stalked. He refused to be a conquered and subdued prisoner.

He was sent to Rome in chains. He made them gold chains about the feet of God. He went to Rome without friends. He made friends. He went to Rome a victim of circumstances. He made his very untoward circumstances ministering servants. He was sent to Rome that he might be silenced. He has been speaking to the whole civilized world for centuries. Ever so it true what we often say in jest—you cannot keep a good man down.

Paul was not content to have his own hired house. In a sense he was a favored prisoner. He was a free man tied to a rope like a horse in a pasture field. He was chained to a series of Roman soldiers who guarded him from time to time. But really they were the prisoners. He was the free one. They were tied down to the circumstances of their little life. He roamed the fields of time and eternity. They were busy with guarding him. He was busy enlightening them. Never had they guarded such a prisoner before. Never had a prisoner opened their eyes to such wonderful visions. Never had a prisoner so stimulated their minds and given them such an outlook on life. Never had a prisoner revealed to them that they were worth so much and never had a prisoner assured that that life was such a glorious purpose and such a far-flung goal.

We suspect that while they guarded him they walked the streets of the New Jerusalem and they fed on the manna that comes down from heaven. We feel that it was impossible for these Roman soldiers to be just the same men after they were with Paul that they were before. It was one of our great literary men who said you cannot stand under a door-stoop on a rainy day with a man and not feel his power. Personality is power. Personality is one of the most eloquent somethings this side the throne of God even when it does not say a word. Thus Paul was in Rome in more ways than one. He was physically there, but he was also there in a vaster way than that. He was there with his great mind. He was there with his great soul. He was there with his great passion for the kingdom of God. He was there as a radiant something. He was there as something that made itself felt just because he could not help it. You might as well try to silence the roar of the sea as silence a great soul. Paul was the great irrepressible.

He was the great, gushing human geysers. He made Rome feel he was there. He got Christianity into the wicked city and it did not know that hearts with gratitude. A great light is breaking through the darkness of yesterday. A new vision rises upon the horizon of America's future. Under a leadership which is guided by the wishes of the people, mighty plans are being conceived. Fruitful seeds are being planted. Ours is a republic dedicated to cooperation, to love, to kindness. We live in a land where the government recognizes that its first duty is to protect the weak, feed the hungry, clothe the naked and shelter the homeless.

We live in a country where each can worship God as he pleases. Protestants, Catholics and Jews live in peace and harmony. We can still speak and write with full freedom. A nation dedicated to religious liberty, political freedom, economic cooperation, cannot be crushed by any calamity.

We can show our gratitude by sharing with others. Every one can brighten some corner. We may not be able to give money. Not many of us have much of that now but we can give of ourselves. We can warm somebody's heart with a

An Unusual Party That For Vance Mape

many years, should pay tribute to the guest of honor. Mr. Kirchen said, "I have been given a difficult task to perform. I must express my well wishes in behalf of this club and myself to a man with whom I have been closely associated for a decade and a half. I call him my friend because he is my dear friend, in fact he is a friend of everyone and everyone is his friend. 'Vance' was always ready to do his part in civic affairs and carry his portion of the civic load. As president of the Rotary Club his interest was intense. Vance radiated good will wherever he went and his happy, sunny disposition would dispel any gloom. I know and feel that Holland as a whole will miss him greatly and surely the members of the Rotary Club will perceive his absence. I wish at this time to express the best wishes of the Holland Rotary Club, augmented by my own best wishes, which we extend to Mr. and Mrs. Mape. We wish them God-speed on their journey and we say, 'Au Revoir.'"

The words of Mr. Kirchen were deeply felt by all those present, and were followed shortly after by a response from the honored guest. Mr. Mape was visibly affected when he said, "I am simply overwhelmed with this reception given in honor of Mrs. Mape and myself. Words are entirely inadequate to express the appreciation for the many kindnesses shown me by the people of Holland. You folks have all been good to me. I have enjoyed living here. I am loathe to depart."

"During the score of years that I have been among you I have seen days both good and bad but whether good or whether bad, I have enjoyed them all with you. You take a great pride in this city and you have every reason in the world to be proud. I will always feel that same pride, as will Mrs. Mape. I am sure. We have reared a family in a city that can be pointed to as one with the most wholesome environments in which to bring up children. I am leaving good folks here, associations that I will always cherish as long as God lets me live, and that is just the kind of folks I expect and hope to find in the Golden West. I want to thank you all from the bottom of my heart for the many kindnesses shown my family and myself and I surely will promise to be back to visit you. I wish to thank Mr. Kirchen, my associate, for his kind words and I wish to say emphatically, as he expressed it, that it is 'Au Revoir and not good-bye.'"

Mr. Mape emphasized his feeling by relating a story in closing, for Vance can never give a talk unless there is a story mixed up somewhere. Here is the story: During the gold rush when prairie schooners took the winding Western trails, the driver of one schooner saw a prospector panning for gold. The covered wagon driver was rather curious to know what kind of people lived over on the other side of the hills. The grizzly miner said, "First let me know what sort of people live where you come from."

The following day another prairie schooner came trundling along and halted his team where the prospector was still panning gold. His destination, too, was the Golden West and he, too, was curious to know what sort of people he was to mingle with. The miner asked the same question, "What sort of folks live where you come from?"

The trail blazer said, "They are fine people, they are the 'salt of the earth,' and I hated to leave them." "Well, my good man," said the miner, "you'll find just such folks on the other side of the hills." It is obvious that this story points out that a man helps make the community's attitude toward him just what he makes it in his attitude toward the community. This was the serious period during the banquet activities and naturally this was the thread of sadness that the parting of real worthwhile friends often brings about.

The Sage of Mankato AULD LANG SYNE

Sage Party "Wise Cracks"

"Bill" Connolly interspersed the program with the following take-offs on guests. We will call them "Wise Cracks."

The wives of all Rotarians are called the world over "Rotary Anns." But it appears that Mrs. John Arendshorst is the only Ann in the lot. I perceive that among the ladies here there are eight Margarets, but not one Maggie. Mrs. Frank Duffy's maiden name is Miss Coine. Now we know where Duffy gets the "dough."

"Ade Van Putten, you are singing altogether too loud. I fine you 50 cents for the crippled children's fund." Ade paid.

John Eaton, your arm around Wilma at this time is uncalled for. John, without asking, handed the toastmaster a "buck." Laconically Connolly said, "I was going to fine you a half, but we give no change."

Henry Oosting, why do you attempt to sing tenor when you know you're a basso—50 cents please, and undoubtedly a rise in real estate.

John Good had just returned from an exit from the dining room a short time before. Connolly spied him and fined him 50 cents. John protested and offered to sing a solo should the fine be remitted. This chosen was "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," to the discomfiture of Mrs. John at his side, but it was a "scream" with the audience. Can John sing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart"?—he cannot! He was fined 50 cents for his lack of artistic temperament.

Here it was discovered that Mrs. Tiesenga had come to the party without Neal, her "hubby," and for so doing she was requested to hand to each lady a pound box of Holland made candy. That was quite a penalty but the Rotarians had candy hidden away so the fine was readily remitted. She bravely rotated among the ladies and passed the sweets amid much merriment.

In presenting the real Rotary Ann, Mrs. Arendshorst, Mr. Connolly adroitly presented her with the latest cook book with his compliments and the advice to use it generously so her "hubby," Johnny, might flesh up a little, instead of eating mince pie with brandy sauce at the Tavern club.

Frank Duffy paid plenty to the crippled children's fund when it was found that Mrs. Duffy, as a girl, had the name Coine. It reminded the toastmaster of "Coin's Financial School" and Duffy's stipend was 16 to 1. Good for the children!

Vance Mape had to go through one ordeal during the evening. He was arrested on trumped-up charges and hauled before Judge Orie S. Cross and prosecuted by ex-prosecutor Clarence Lokker, so he was in bad hands. Having no money, the Judge gave him council and Dan Ten Cate was named, but Mape said, "I'll plead my own case."

Witness after witness was called but they all seemed "dumbbells" and got their dates mixed. Howard Lillard, the stuttering farmer boy, made the best witness when it came to fun, but the worst as a convicting witness. The case over, the Judge discharged the prisoner stating that all the witnesses being mentality-minus were not able to give evidence-plus. Mape beamed upon the Judge and was again happy, being extricated from a trying situation.

Vance Mape has been called the Sage of Mankato. Mankato is not in China, but it is where Vance Mape comes from in Minnesota and where it is 45 below zero in the winter time. You'll immediately be disillusioned that the Sage has anything to do with the bush in the desert. This Sage is a "wise cracker" and it seems that the Rotarians picked up a few dozen of the sayings of genial "Vance." He simply bubbles over with them and below are a few.

Sayings of the Sage of Mankato "We'll go down standing up." "It's as pass as a hoop skirt." "Shame on you for ninety days." "I'm sitting in the better now." "His dishes are cleaner than ours." "You led with your chin that time." "Another frog skin comes back home." "It's a long lane that has no ash cans." "Going for the bananas this time, boys." "Run up the flags and blow the whistle." "Tainted money: 'tain't yours, 'tain't mine."

MAPE SENDS ROTARY LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Vance Mape, who is leaving with his family to San Francisco, California today in two automobiles, left this letter with the secretary of the Rotary Club, which was read at the noonday luncheon Thursday noon. There is no misunderstanding the deep feeling that this letter conveys. It follows:

Vandie Vanden Berg, President, Holland Rotary Club, Holland, Mich. Dear Vandie and Fellows: My emotions in the closing minutes of Thursday evening's program were such that I feel I failed to adequately thank the club, and the various committees responsible for the fine farewell tendered me. The memory of last Thursday evening will always stand out as one of the bright spots in my life. While I am not leaving Holland with a great deal of the world's goods, you have made me feel, through your kind expressions of friendship, that I possess a wealth of true friends that would be the envy of many having great material possessions. Your fine tribute to me was more than I deserved, and was appreciated more than you will ever know.

The beautiful plaque presented to me will always hang in my office as a constant reminder of the happy days spent with the Holland Rotary Club, and the good fellows making up its membership. Thanks for everything. Right from the heart, boys, it is goodbye, good luck, and may God bless each and every one of you. Sincerely yours, VANCE.

"Spend your money and sleep in the streets." "Pay now boys—it only hurts for a minute." "He's been sleeping in the back of our saloon." "The colored troops fought nobly but they lost." "Haven't won a pot since the fall of twenty-nine." "Not tonight, them other night, but not tonight." "One (a) cent—that's what the skunk got the circus on." "Bring me a cold glass of water from the bottom of the well; there's a fire in the marsh." "Said the good old Irish mother: 'Tis sure me boys don't drink when they're out, because they drink so much ice water at home the next mornin'."

WYNGARDEN-SCHUITEMA MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE

The home of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Heeren at Vriesland was the scene of a simple wedding last Saturday evening, when Miss Agnes Wyngarden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wyngarden of Vriesland, became the bride of Mr. Albert Schuitema, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schuitema of Grand Rapids. The Rev. E. E. Heeren of the Reformed church of Vriesland performed the ceremony at 5:30 o'clock.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given for the newlyweds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schuitema at New Groningen. A delicious three-course lunch was served by the hostess. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wyngarden and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wyngarden of Vriesland; Mr. and Mrs. John Van Zoeren of Holland; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schuitema; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wyngarden and Lloyd of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schuitema, Mr. and Mrs. James Schuitema, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schuitema, Mr. Edwin Schuitema and the Misses Delia and Viola Schuitema and Edna Plagenhoef.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuitema will make their home in Holland where Mr. Schuitema is the proprietor of a dairy route.

Mrs. Ed Wilterdink was the guest of honor, Tuesday evening, at a birthday supper given by her daughter, Mrs. Jim Van Iwaarden, 344 East Sixth St. The rooms were decorated in pink and white. Later in the evening Mrs. Wilterdink was surprised by a group of friends who called at her home. A social time was spent and refreshments were served.

Donald Ver Hey, of 36 East 26th St. spent Wednesday, in Grand Haven, with relatives.

SHOOTING DOGS

Dogs running deer in northern Michigan during the current open deer hunting season may be shot by anyone without civil or criminal liability, conservation authorities here assert. As an accessory in deer hunting, the dog was outlawed in Michigan by legislative act in 1887 and at no time since has it been legal to hunt deer in this state with a dog.

LIONS AT HOLLAND CONTINUE BLIND AID

The Lions Club of Holland will continue its work this year for the blind of Holland and vicinity. The club, through John D. The club also has given white canes to several blind persons in Holland, Zeeland and nearby.

HOLLAND DAIRYMEN WILL MEET FRIDAY

The Holland Milk Producers association will meet Friday at the Maplewood school in Allegan county to discuss milk prices and arrangements with dealers. Milk dealers of Holland recently announced an increase of 1 cent a quart in milk prices. The producers do not feel they are getting their share of the increase. They are not in favor of the consumer paying more for milk but want dealers to pay producers more.

Death of Turner Show Early Day Politics Here

WAS COUNTY CLERK FOR YEARS; WAS BEATEN BY THE POPULIST AND DEMOCRATS UNITING

Predicted Roosevelt Election Month Before; He was Republican, Son a Democrat

The funeral of one of the best known men in Ottawa county for many years, namely, George D. Turner, took place Sunday afternoon at Grand Haven.

Mr. Turner, former Ottawa county officer and a leader of the Republican party in this county for many years, died early Friday morning at his home on Howard St. after a few days' illness with bronchial pneumonia. He was taken ill last Friday but he had one of his last desires fulfilled and that was to live to see the results of the last general election.

A keen political analyst, he predicted the election of President Roosevelt, although he was a staunch Republican and followed with intense interest through radio and publications the political battle which ended Nov. 3.

For many years he was chairman of the Republican county committee, his entry in politics dating from his election to the office of county clerk in 1881, an office he held continuously for four terms or until 1888. He became secretary of the Republican county committee in 1882 and four years later was elected chairman, a position he held until 1904 when he resigned.

He was defeated for the clerk's office when the Populists and Democrats united to place all the candidates for office except sheriff. Four years later Mr. Turner was back in the clerk's office, winning by 141 votes against the Populist-Democrat coalition. Two years later he won by 2,200 votes, and held office until 1896.

The following year he was appointed special deputy collector of customs at Grand Haven harbor, and held that office until it was abolished in 1913. In the meantime he had acquired the abstract books from Jacob Baar, a former Grand Haven mayor now living in Chicago. Mr. Turner had worked for Mr. Baar during the time he was out of the county clerk's office. He conducted the business as the Turner Abstract office with the late Mrs. Nellie G. Squier as office manager. She was succeeded in 1910 by Miss Williamina Young, who at the present time is the manager of the Michigan Title company here.

Retires in 1919 In 1919 Mr. Turner retired from active business when he sold the abstract books to Orrie J. Sluiter and Lieut. Col. George L. Olsen.

He was born in Canton, N. Y., June 11, 1849, and came to Michigan in 1867, locating with his parents at Marne. At that time Berlin was the name, however. The place was renamed after the World War. Like throwing the German language out of colleges, as it were. His father, the late John W. A. Turner, and his brothers, Eliphalet and Isaac, built the first bridge over Grand river and the Turners took 40 acres of land for their pay. Some time after his death Marvin W. Turner came here to make his home with his father, having lived in the west for many years.

Strange to say, the father and son differed widely in politics, the son becoming one of the leading Democrats in Ottawa county, who was an applicant for the position of postmaster when death took him one Sunday as he was listening to a baseball game at his home with his father.

Although the two men were wide apart in their political faiths, they were very companionable and the last years brought them close together. Mr. Turner was a man of rugged health and exceedingly strong personality. Coupled with this was a voice of unusual vibrance and strength. Mr. Turner often told a story of a former pupil who had not seen him in 40 years and knew when he heard him speak he knew in a moment that it was his former Turner St. at Grand Haven, is named for them, Mr. Turner used to say.

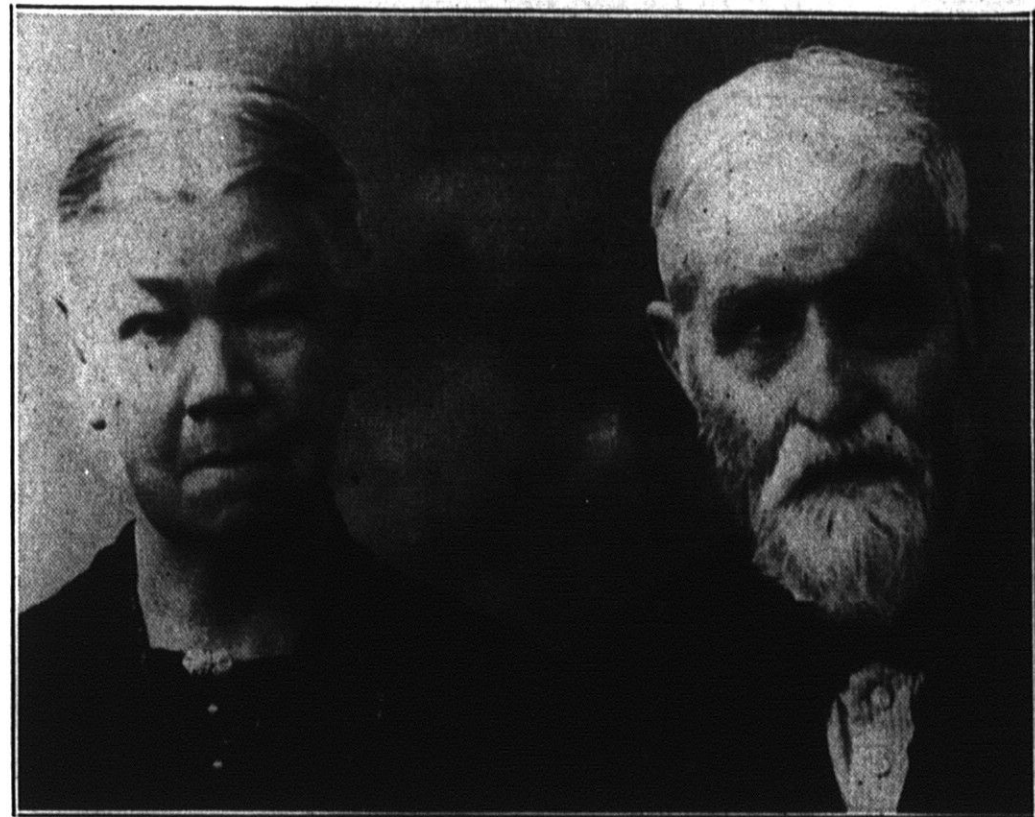

The Turners eventually bought 60 acres of land in Tallmadge township and George D. Turner worked with his father in the summer on the farm and taught school in the winter. He eventually became principal of the Berlin school and held that position until 1880 when he was elected county clerk. He came to Grand Haven in 1881 and has lived at his home corner of Howard and Fourth Sts., since. He was appointed to the board of supervisors by William H. Louttit when he was mayor of the city. He was one of the organizers of the Peoples Savings Bank, Grand Haven, and served as a director from 1910 until 1926.

He was married to Miss Lillian C. Marvin, Sept. 14, 1873, and two sons were born to them, the late Marvin W. Turner, who died here suddenly in the summer of 1936, and a younger son, Lynn, who died in 1901 when he was attending the University of Michigan. Mrs. Turner died in 1924. She suffered a stroke in 1916 and for the last five years of her life Mr. Turner was her constant companion. teacher and came up and made himself known.

Interested in Politics, History, Baseball One of his keen delights was baseball. He followed all the big league games and the local games when Grand Haven had teams of note years ago. In later years he was devoted to the radio programs that told the story of the big games. He was a constant reader and was versed in history and politics to a remarkable degree.

He was one of the stalwart Republicans in this county who was known to most of the leaders in the state having become a member of the party which was organized in Michigan just a few years be-

Death Cuts Short a Planned Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. GERRIT GROENEWOUD

The fifty-fifth marriage anniversary which this aged couple had hoped to celebrate November 5 proved a sorrowful disappointment, when Mr. Groenewoud suddenly became critically ill on the preceding Saturday and died at Holland Hospital within a few hours of the planned commemoration. The aged parents, the children and grandchildren had anticipated the happy anniversary event at their home in Holland, but their happiness was soon turned to mourning by the sudden turn of events. Mr. and Mrs. Groenewoud were residents of Zeeland for several years, living on E. Washington St., but of late had lived in Holland to be near their children in the evening of their lives. Mr. Gerrit G. Groenewoud, Ottawa county school commissioner, is a son. The fine old gentleman was 85 at his death.

COAST GUARDS SAVE CAPSIZED DUCK HUNTERS

The duck hunting season always means more work for the coast guards. Strong winds and heavy seas are the rule during the duck hunting season and the coast guards must be on the alert for hunters in distress. When a sudden wind kicks up a high sea, the coast guards do not wait for calls of distress, but pay visits along the shore of Muskegon lake, where the blinds are located to see if any of the hunters are in need of aid. Frequently, when a heavy sea is rolling they tow the duck hunters to shore or stand by while they are making their way.

The Muskegon coast guards saved the life of at least one duck hunter this season. His boat capsized and he clung to it in a heavy sea for more than one hour. The coast guards out on the round of the blinds spotted him and took him to shore. The hunter said that he could not have hung on much longer. It is not unusual for a boat of a duck hunter to fill with water or capsize during a heavy sea. The blows were especially severe on Muskegon lake during the recent duck hunting season.

STRANGE ACCIDENT

Thursday evening Mrs. Bertha Howland of Fennville suffered a peculiar accident. After having been seated in a chair for some time she went to arise and her feet were "asleep" and she wrenched her left foot in such a manner as to fracture the bone on the side of her foot. She will be confined to her home several weeks with her foot in a cast.

OTTAWA YOUTHS PAY FOR HUNTING

Four Ottawa county youths changed their pleas of guilty before Justice Henry Huxtable Thursday evening on charges of hunting on posted grounds. They were arrested by Deputies Fred Bosma and Lester DePree on complaint of Ray and Ed VanHaften of Jamestown township, owners of the posted land.

Bert and Richard VanKlompberg and Jerry and Gerrit Kuipers, all residing on Hudsonville R. F. D. No. 2, paid fines and costs of $12.10 each.

PLAN TRAINING COURSE FOR SCOUTING LEADERS

A training course for Boy Scout leaders under direction of Dr. Ebert Winter of Hope college, will be held Tuesday evenings and will continue for 10 weeks. The meetings are to be held in First Reformed church. More than 35 men have signified intention of attending the sessions.

NEW PRIEST AT DOUGLAS

Father Cornelius Bates is the new pastor of St. Peter's Catholic church at Douglas and St. Basil's at South Haven. Father Adolph Oser, who has been acting as pastor, has been transferred to St. Joseph, Mich., as an assistant.

Mrs. John Sterenberg and Miss Elizabeth Plockmeyer were hostesses at a dinner-shower given, Wednesday evening, at the Copner Lantern Tea room honoring Mrs. Don Schipper, formerly Miss Lena Marcusse. Following the dinner the guests were entertained at the Plockmeyer home on West 19th St. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Miss Althea Sterenberg, Mrs. Fred Vander Ploeg, and Mrs. William Vander Veere. The guest of honor was presented with many gifts.

fore he came to this state to make it his home.

He is the last member of his immediate family and is survived by two grandchildren, Lynn Turner, now in Lyons, Colo., who has spent considerable time at his grandfather's home and a granddaughter, Mrs. William Stellwagen, of Ann Arbor.

Funeral services for Mr. Turner were held from the family home, corner of Howard and 4th Sts., Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. V. Roth officiating. The Masons were in charge of the services at the grave at Lake Forest cemetery. The body was taken to the Kinkema funeral home where it lay in state until Sunday morning.

"MUTT" AND "JEFF" ARE BACK IN JAIL AFTER A ONE-DAY VACATION

(Allegan News) Ivan Nichols and Pete Slater, better known as "Mutt" and "Jeff," will not spend the winter in Florida as they planned when escaping from the Allegan county jail early Monday morning, but will continue their residence as guests in the county bastille for some time to come.

The pair were arrested last Monday night by Muskegon detectives who located them at the home of relatives. After they have completed the balance of their 75-day sentence on which they had served 26 days for stealing potatoes from a Wayland farmer, they will probably be re-tried for escaping jail, according to Welborne S. Luna, Allegan county prosecuting attorney.

Officials at the jail were extremely reluctant to give any details of the escape, but it appears that somebody left the door from the cell block to the attic unlocked. The men, who were inseparable pals and jail trusties, were sent upstairs Sunday evening after eating their supper. Mrs. Lena Martin, a nurse at the jail, heard somebody moving around in the attic about 2 o'clock in the morning but thought it was the sheriff coming in from a midnight moon hunt. Instead, it appears, it was "Mutt" and "Jeff," who picked up four coon skins belonging to the sheriff that were drying up in the attic, took the clothesline that was hanging there for a rainy day, doubled it up and slid from a window to temporary freedom.

CALVIN-HOPE BASKETBALL RIVALRY ENDS

After many years of basketball rivalry, the teams of Hope college and Calvin college will not meet this year, it was revealed Thursday afternoon by Coach Bud Hinga when he announced that he had received a letter from Coach Al Muyskens with the Grand Rapids school's decision.

The reason given by Coach Muyskens was that Calvin had joined the Michigan-Ontario league, with a 12-game schedule, and the school athletic heads had elected to face Olivet and Grand Rapids Junior college for the four remaining dates, giving Calvin 16 games which, the athletic department officials decided, was a long enough schedule.

MAN WANTED IN SHOOTING OF OFFICER NOW SOUGHT IN ARKANSAS

(Grand Rapids Herald) The man who shot down Nick Matkin, Little Rock, Ark., store manager, last Saturday may be one of two sought by Michigan officers for the shooting of Police Chief Fred Bosma of Zeeland last July, in the opinion of Frank J. O'Malley, local superintendent of police. O'Malley recently received a description of the murderer from Little Rock police and has written them he believes the man they seek is Harold F. Brest, 21, Pittsburgh, an ex-convict, wanted for the shooting of Bosma. Harry J. Logan is said to be the second man wanted for the Bosma shooting.

In Little Rock the murderer is said to have entered the store and taken $500. The manager chased him around a corner and jumped upon the running board of the bandit car and was not dented. Brest and Logan also are wanted here on warrants charging them with the robbery of the Burkhead Drug store, 1160 Chicago Dr., S. W., the night before Bosma was shot.

Women of Grace Episcopal church held a parish supper in the guild hall, Thursday evening. The honored guest was the Rt. Rev. Lewis Bliss Wittemore of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Ernest Penna entertained a group of children at a birthday party, last Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Judith, who celebrated her third anniversary. Games were played, the most interesting one being a peanut hunt. A birthday cake with lighted candles featured the refreshments which were served at a table with a color scheme of green and white. Balloons were handed out as favors to the children. The little guest of honor was presented with many gifts.

SCOW SINKS IN BIG LAKE OFF GRAND HAVEN

A gravel scow owned by the E. W. Bickers Co., of Muskegon, foundered in Lake Michigan sometime this morning between this port and Muskegon, according to a message received by the 10th district U. S. coast guard headquarters.

The scow was being towed by a small tug, "Red Devil," from Muskegon, south. When it reached a point in the lake opposite Bronson's park, the sea encountered apparently overturned the scow and she was reported sunk. A part of the Grand Haven coast guard crew under command of Capt. Wendell left about 10:30 a. m. and by 2:30 p. m. had not returned. It is believed there was no one aboard the scow and the tug was not damaged.

The sinking of the scow no doubt gave rise to a story early in the day that the American gravel freighter leased by the Construction Aggregates company, had gone down. The company ofice reported the American had attempted to leave port but due to the heavy weather returned and left again about 2:30 a. m. bound for Milwaukee and is safe.

NEW BUS LINE TO HOLLAND

Crockery Man Killed Sunday Accidentally

BULLET FROM GUN OF WOODROW ALMAN, GRAND HAVEN.

Frank Viebrock, age 55, well known farmer in Crockery township, met accidental death late Sunday afternoon at his farm when a bullet from a gun held by Woodrow Alman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alman of Grand Haven, pierced the right shoulder of Viebrock and traveled into his neck, severing a large artery.

The accident occurred as Viebrock was chopping wood in the yard preparatory to going into his home to get the evening meal started on the fire. Young Alman sat a few feet away on a log, his gun, with which he had been hunting, lay across his knees. He said the button of his coat sleeve caught the trigger of the gun as he was resting his elbows on the gun as he was watching the older man at work.

Sheriff Ben Rosema was notified of the accident by Deputy Nelson Baldus of Nunica, who was the first officer at the scene. Gilbert Vande Water, coroner at Holland, was brought to the scene.

Together the officers questioned young Alman who reenacted the scene which led to the fatal shooting. Sheriff Rosema assumed the position the younger man was in and actually pulled the trigger of the gun in exactly the same way Alman had described the accident. Coroner Gilbert Vande Water rendered a verdict of accidental death and there will be no inquest.

Young Alman was said to be a friend of Viebrock and had worked for him at times on his 40-acre farm in Crockery where he had lived for many years. The youth was prostrated with grief over the accident.

After the shot was fired Viebrock staggered with the help of the lead toward the house a distance of about 50 feet. He fell and expired as they were going in the direction of the home. Alman quickly dragged the body into a shed and then ran to the home of a half-brother of Viebrock, John Siefert, for help and soon relatives and neighbors filled the place.

Mr. Viebrock was born in Crockery township Feb. 23, 1881. He had farmed in the township all of his life and lived alone as he was never married.

The funeral was held Wednesday at Spring Lake, Rev. S. C. De Jong, pastor of the First Reformed Church officiating.

RUSSIAN PRODUCTION IS OFFERING AT HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL

"The Cossacks are coming"—a cry of terror in the Middle Ages to the tribes of heathen inhabitants that fringed the Russian Steppes, means today but one thing—the pacific advent of a band of singing men who have been thrilling Europe under the name of the Don Cossack Russian Male Chorus.

These men, former officers in the Imperial Army, "The Singing Horsemen of the Steppes" as they are now appropriately called, thirty-six strong, are under the leadership of Serge Jaroff.

Their appearance in Holland is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 21 at Hope Memorial chapel.

No other chorus, possesses such marvelous sonority, such a phenomenal compass—their voices descending to incredible depths, the tenors soaring to heights of lyrical enchantment. To these men, their homeland on the banks of the "quiet Christian Don," as they affectionately call the wide river that flows southward through the Steppes, is always a living memory. This memory is stirred to a passionate intensity when they sing the songs of their homeland.

The men march upon the stage in military formation. The military effect is further carried out in their dark-blue Cossack uniforms, the trousers trimmed with broad red stripes. Knee-high leather riding boots serve to remind that the Cossacks were a cavalry unit. Standing at attention, the men await the signal from their leader. Then, without any "giving of the note," they begin to sing, achieving effects in crescendo and diminuendo that few, if any, other choruses can hope to approach.

These men have mastered every variety of choral singing. There is a wild beauty in their voices that belongs to no other chorus. Everything about them is dramatic, even to the electrifying realism of some of the songs with their outbursts of fierce yelling and whistling. In startling contrast, is the devotional effect which these men produce in their singing of religious songs.

All that they sing is in Russian—native folk-songs, and both secular and religious choral numbers, all of which are explained in well-detailed translations.

After one has heard the Don Cossack Russian Chorus, one is convinced that comparisons are futile.

The concert is under auspices of Holland Choral Union. Tickets are 75 cents and may be obtained at Hope College office.

gifts. Prizes, in the games played, were awarded to Geraldine Roelofs, Aleta Palmboos and Sophia Van Dam. A two-course lunch was served.

The cast for the Christmas play to be given by members of the Junior Welfare League at the Woman's Literary club in December, was announced Monday night at the regular meeting of the welfare group. Miss Adelaide Dykhuizen will direct the performance. Mrs. Adrian Klaasen is chairman of the Thanksgiving dance to be sponsored on Thursday evening, Nov. 26, in the Warm Friend Tavern.

Miss Gertrude Bussies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bussies of Holland, and Arnold Ditmar of Belding were united in marriage Saturday, Oct. 31, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Justin L. Bussies, at Whiting, Ind. The Rev. J. O. Bouwsma of South Holland, Ill., officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ditmar will make their home in Belding, Mich., where Mr. Ditmar is manager of the Belding Bake Shoppe. Mrs. Ditmar was formerly employed in the office of the Holland Furnace Company.

Familiar is the electric device that shocks earth worms out of their subsoil homes so that the angler may gather bait with the least exertion.

Victor H. Schmidt, of St. Louis, had one of these devices—it consisted of a hand-cranked magneto and two steel rods which were stuck in the ground.

When the crank of the magneto was turned, Lethecho was charged with brandishing a gun at a picnic at Hudsonville. He had a permit to carry the gun, investigation showed.

Armistice day was observed at Saugatuck with a parade in the forenoon. The parade included all war veterans, Legion post and auxiliary members, Boy and Girl Scout troops, Camp Fire Girls, school band and school children. For the first time no Civil War veterans were in the parade. Joshua J. Brown, 92, the only Saugatuck survivor of that war, was not able to participate. A supper was served all members and families at Legion hall at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fairhead of Saugatuck are still confined to the hospital at St. Joseph. Both received injuries in an automobile accident last week. Mrs. Fairhead has two fractured legs, a broken nose and several broken ribs. Mr. Fairhead received a crushed chest and internal injuries.

A benefit concert will be given by the M. E. church choir in the church at Pennville Nov. 20. The choir, consisting of fifteen voices, has been receiving special training under direction of Mr. C. Barille, well known violinist who studied in France and Italy.

The Fruit Exchange at Fennville finished its season's pack of fruit at the local plant last Saturday. Processing of Bartlett pears was also completed last week at the canning factory after six weeks work on them. Kiefer pears are being packed and it is expected this year's work will extend the longest it has been in several years.

A crew of 87 men are at work on the paving of the M-40 relocation at Dunningville and 69 men are still at work sodding the shoulders along new US-31A. Intermittent rains which keep washing away the shoulders before they can be completed, have delayed this phase of the project, it was learned at the state highway department office here.

LEFT-OVER LEGACY

When you inherit slim leftovers from yesterday's feast of ham, invest the principal in this recipe for Mexican Spaghetti. Brown together in a buttered frying pan 1 cup of diced cooked ham, 1 medium onion, minced, and 1 medium green pepper, chopped in slim shreds. Use a sizeable skillet so you can push the meat to one side and heat 1-21 oz. can of spicy Cooked Spaghetti in Tomato Sauce on the other side. You can center the bright spaghetti on a large platter, surround it with a border of Fresh Cucumber Pickle Slices and finish with a frill of the browned meat. Tuck a few parsley sprigs in the crevices for a crisp garnish. Investment doubled!

EVENTFUL APPLES

Women are still tempting men with apples—successfully, too. In this latest version the modern Eve stuffs plump red apples with tantalizing Mincemeat. Why try new tricks? The old ones dolled up a bit work just as well. For a scintillating success wash and core 6 large apples. Be careful not to cut through to the bottom of the apple lest the rich juices escape. Then pierce with a fork in sundry spots to permit escape of steam, and arrange in a shallow baking dish. Fill the core holes full with a sugar syrup made by boiling together for 6 minutes 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups water and all the apple cores. Better strain the syrup before adding it to the apples to eliminate seeds and such. Sprinkle the apples with sugar and bake in a hot oven (400° F.) until tender. Baste often with this sweet syrup.

SEN. ELECT BROWN HAS NOVEL WAY OF
TAKING VACATION

Prentiss M. Brown, Michigan's new junior senator-elect, who badly defeated Wilbur Brucker, took a three-weeks' vacation today insured by law of restful quiet.

United States Senator Brown voluntarily entered his home to join his wife and five children who were quarantined when his 14-year-old son became ill with scarlet fever last week. Two other children are away at school.

The quarantine will be lifted in three weeks.

Well, that will save him passing the smoke and will halt the drove of office seekers.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker of Ottawa Beach of the marriage of their daughter, Pauline, to Edward Behrendt of Chicago. The ceremony took place Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Covington, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Behrendt will make their home in Portsmouth, Ohio.

Warmth is what we dodge about half the year and seek in the cold months in our homes. Included in the simple projects which can be done at home to insure more warmth with less fuel is weather stripping around doors and windows, suggests County Agricultural Agent L. R. Arnold. Three types are commonly used. The wood and felt strips are cheaper and easier to install than metal but usually do not remain efficient for so long a time. Appearance also is a factor. Most of the stripping is hidden when properly placed. Temporary protection can be obtained from the use of such materials as old inner tubes, old felt hats, cloth or paper. When windows are opened at night, a long narrow sandbag laid in front of the bedroom door will prevent currents of air from chilling other parts of the house.

Third St., between River and Central Aves.

West 21st St., between Cleveland and Ottawa Aves.

East 12th St., west from Fairbanks Ave.

Approved and date of hearing set for Dec. 2, 1936.

Clerk presented communication from the Appeal Board relative to the rezoning of River Ave., from 12th to 17th Sts., from Residential to Commercial district. In the communication from the Appeal Board, they unanimously reaffirmed their previous action in opposing the rezoning of this district at the present time. Mr. George Pelgrim, Chairman of the Board, presented a lengthy communication setting forth the several reasons which prompted this action. The communication called attention to the underlying principles of zoning, viz., the best interest of the city as a whole rather than for the benefit of individual groups which might profit by such change of classification.

The Board felt that a change in this particular district now would detract from the beauty of the approach to the city, and instead of improving this section, small businesses would spring up in the homes along this street. The communication further stated that there is practically a fifty-fifty split in the opinions of the property owners along this street in regard to rezoning. Their attention was also called to the fact that the property owners immediately adjacent to River Ave. were very much opposed to such change at this time; further, that it is very possible that within the next few years there would not be as much through traffic along this street as at present. They felt that in the near future Trunk Line 21 would be routed around the city and the same might possibly be true of through traffic on U.S.-31, and if a change were once made to a lower bracket, it would be impossible to bring it back to a higher classification.

Attorney Clarence Lokker spoke in support of those property owners who are opposed to rezoning this district. He stated that he was convinced that there should not be any change until there is an urgent need for it. It was his contention that before the city opened up this district into a Commercial district, they should make a real effort to have the old unsightly commercial wooden structures torn down that are now standing on River Ave., between 8th and 11th Sts., and some real buildings constructed in their place. In other words, he felt that the city should grow commercially from within where there is an opportunity to do so rather than add new territory when there is plenty of room for expansion in existing territory. Mr. Lokker also commented on the fact that the fire insurance rates on all residential property adjoining this commercial district would be raised considerably if the section were rezoned. He also commented on the fact that there is a division of opinion that is practically evenly divided among those who are for rezoning and those who are opposed to it. He also called attention to the fact that the recommendation of the Appeal Board is sincere and that they are acting simply for the good of the city as a whole and had no personal interest in the matter.

Attorney A. Van Duren then spoke on behalf of the property owners who have petitioned for a change. He stated that he felt it was much more important to rezone this district than it was to change 10 blocks in the south part of the city from Residential to Commercial. He further stated that if the territory were rezoned, it would be the duty of the Council to insist on proper fire-proof structures and should not permit the construction of so-called shacks. It was his contention that some of those who oppose the rezoning are actually now conducting semi-commercial businesses and therefore had no right to object. Mr. Van Duren further stated that the logical place for extending a commercial district is on River Ave., and although it might inconvenience some of the present property owners, they could not stand in the way of progress, and that as conditions change, these conditions must be met, and that River Ave. is the only logical available place to extend the Commercial district.

The Mayor then called upon the Aldermen to see if they wished to make any further comment. It was moved by Ald. Oudemool, seconded by Steffens.

That the recommendation of the Appeal Board be approved and the district remain Residential.

The motion prevailed by Ayes and nays as follows:

Ayes: Alds. Prins, Vande Lune, Drinkwater, Oudemool, Steffens, Damsen, Vogelzang—7.
Nays: Alds. Kalkman, Huyser, Bultman and Smith—4.

- THIS weekend is the time to take stock, plan, order and start preparing for the Thanksgiving feast. Now perishable foods such as white and sweet potatoes, which, boiling onions, yellow turnips, squash or pumpkin, cranberries, citrus fruits, apples and nuts may be laid in. Bread for stuffing should be bought and allowed to get stale. The turkey may be ordered, pie crust made, mince meat made or ordered, and cranberry sauce or jelly made.
- Fork is the best value for this week-end's roast and it looks as though turkey prices were to be unusually easy on the pocketbook this year. Here are three holiday menus to suit different tastes and pocketbooks.
