West Ottawa Rescinds Restrictions

The West Ottawa Board of Education rescinded three restrictions which had been placed on the sale of the Harlem School property for $300 in 1962. The action enables the Holland Area Council of Church Women to dispose of the property without further action by the board.

Meeting Monday night in Woodside Elementary School, board members and the audience of approximately 30 participated in a demonstration of the "alpha" program in kindergarten.

The system which is utilized throughout the district exposes children to a unique presentation of letters which can then be remembered because of associations made from the program structure.

In communications from the audience Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill requested that the board investigate allegations of specific and continuing incidents of misconduct on the buses. Board President Ed Haltenhoff directed Assistant Supt. Peter Roan to investigate the misconduct.

In other action the board extended the dental plan to cover 14 administrators and amended policies regarding adults high school graduation requirements alternative program.

A procedure for "unused vacation days" was accepted following a four month study. Employees will be allowed to take not more than five days a year for the next three years.

The board was informed by Duane Hooker of Title IX implications for the district which prohibits sex discrimination in federally assisted education programs. Hooker reported that the district is complying with the five points including publishing a notice of intent to comply.

Also Haltenhoff directed that the district's attorney be consulted in regard to compliance with the political reform act.

Supt. Brad Henson reported that Gov. William Milliken's recommended budget cuts would mean a loss of $65,122 to the district and urged board members to contact legislators regarding the cuts.

Five policies regarding communication with the public were accepted for first readings.

Haltenhoff read the mediator's recommendation regarding a grievance filed by a third year probationary teacher. In action taken by the board five of six recommendations excluding the financial remuneration clause were approved.

The next meeting will be held in the administrative building on Dec. 15.

Ottawa County deputies said the three were in the vehicle which Ten Cate was trying out when the vehicle caught fire while heading down as dune. The three jumped from the vehicle.

Ten Cate ran for help while Warren and Wieling remained behind to extinguish the fire.

The Port Sheldon township fire department, the sheriff's department and the Holland - Park township E unit responded.

Ten Cate was treated for smoke inhalation while Warren and Wieling were held overnight in the hospital for examination and treatment of smoke inhalation.

Bopf Family Goes Dutch For Rose Tournament

PASADENA, Calif. — Last May, Bill Bopf left his post as city manager of Holland, Mich., after 5½ years, but he hasn't forgotten his adopted home town.

Hardly a day goes by that Holland, Mich., isn't mentioned in some way, particularly since Holland is entering a float in the Tournament of Roses parade next Jan. 1.

Bill had handled the initial presentation before the Tournament of Roses committee last May as a convenience for Holland, and since Holland got the bid for the float he and his family have been involved in several official functions. Bill now is city manager of Tustin in the greater Los Angeles area.

Recently, Bill and his wife Maryalice attended a dinner party for representatives of area California cities participating in the Rose Parade. The event was held in the multimillion dollar former Wrigley Gum mansion in Pasadena. The mansion, which dates back to the early 1900s, was given to the Tournament of Roses Pageant and the city of Pasadena in perpetuity. The Rose Parade Festival uses the home for its headquarters and conduct tours throughout the year to help defray the upkeep.

Bill said he sat next to Ralph Helpbringer, president of this year's parade. Helpbringer became president this year after 35 years of association with the Rose parade.

It takes a minimum of 28 years to become president, Bill said. First one must be a sort of gandy dancer or cheer leader wearing a candy-striped vest and straw hat along the line of march. This goes on for about six years, after which the person is assigned to a particular committee. After about 10 years, he becomes chairman and after a few more years may become a member of the board of directors.

There are 10 members on the board and a person ascends through the 10 positions until reaching president of the parade.

Bill wrote: "I was advised that no amount of money will expedite this process. It is deep in tradition and each individual must follow those traditional steps. In addition, it is interesting to note that after a person serves his first six years and becomes a committee member, he is assessed a $20 annual fee as a member of the Rose Parade Festival. Thereafter, the fee goes up, depending on the position occupied."

Bill said one of the unique provisions reserved to the festival president is selection of the grand marshal of the parade. Helpbringer recently announced that Kate Smith will serve as grand marshal in 1976, a closely guarded secret until the day of its final announcement.

"You can imagine that the selection of grand marshal often depends on the schedule of very famous persons who may have to be contacted several years in advance. Of course, oncoming presidents have good reason to believe that they will eventually become president and hence can make some early commitments in that regard," Bopf wrote.

While attending the dinner party, the Bopfs received a number of inquiries about the city of Holland "and we were quite proud to tell them as much as we could about its heritage. They had all seen the float rendering and were impressed and anxious to welcome Holland's participation. Please let me assure you that those of you in the community who have worked extensively to help bring this participation to fruition, can feel assured that it is truly a worthwhile event and will bring a great deal of favorable publicity and credit to the city of Holland."

He mentioned that the television coverage of the parade is only a part of the entire program. "Your float will remain on display for several days thereafter, and movies will be circulated throughout the country to be played hundreds of times for many additional people. In addition, there are several replays at least on the West Coast and considerable exposure is provided. The amount of money that will be invested by the community is very minimal compared to the national coverage of television, newspaper and movies that will be obtained through this effort."

"I can assure you it will be a proud day for our family to observe the Holland float and we look forward to sharing this experience with as many of you as possible. For those who cannot make the trip, I can state that the west coast is fast becoming aware of the fine community of Holland, Mich., and will be sincerely appreciative of its participation in the festival."

The Bopfs and their three children, David, Susan and Lisa, represented the city of Holland at the Rose Parade press day Nov. 8, the children wearing Dutch costumes. Later they will be observing construction of the float and are scheduled to attend a preview about Dec. 5.

"Let me assure you that our time spent in Holland is extremely rewarding to us and this tie during the period of the Rose Parade is extremely dear to us and reminds us of our many friends in Holland," Bopf said.

Zeeland Asks Ideas For Park's Future

ZEELAND — City Council Monday approved a request from the Huizenga Park committee to assess public opinion concerning the future of Huizenga Park.

Voters Nov. 4 rejected a proposal for $142,500 in park improvements including use of a federal grant. City Clerk Leon Van Harn said the group wanted to learn from the public what action should be taken concerning disposition of the property which is outside the corporate limits of the city.

Council was told by the city superintendent that a number of property owners on the east end of the city had refused permission for the city to make an engineering survey through their property for a study being made for proposed sanitary sewer improvements in the southeast area of the city.

The superintendent said that alternative routes for the sewer trunklines were being considered but the project might be delayed until mid 1977.

A public hearing was to be Dec. 15 in a request from Robert L. Foote of East Lansing to rezone 7½ acres of land on north State St. south of Roosevelt Rd. for multiple housing uses.

The firm proposes to erect one and two-family moderate income rental housing units for 48 families with an additional 48 units in the future.

The superintendent and clerk were directed to develop information concerning adjustments requested in vacation, pension and overtime pay. A bid of Houting & Meeuwse to remove a dwelling on cemetery property along East Lincoln Ave. was approved. The cost is $845.

An increase in the charge for water main extensions from $4 to $7 per front foot was approved on the recommendation of the Board of Public Works. The increase would more fairly reflect the cost of water main construction, the BPW said.

Fire in Filter Bags Damages Laundry Firm

Damage was estimated at $1,700 in a fire at 1:30 a.m. today in a basket of filter bags at the former Model Laundry building, 97 East Eighth St.

Holland firemen said there was some fire damage to the floor and a table. The cause of the fire was under investigation.

A city manager report on improving and resurfacing 1½ miles of 64th St. east of Ottawa Ave. listed low bid of $121,551.25. Bids were received for study and an informal meeting with affected property owners in the area will be scheduled before formal action is taken.

Council adopted a resolution amending the longevity payment

Many Subjects Face Council

Largely routine matters occupied City Council at a regular meeting Wednesday night in City Hall.

Council relaxed last year's restrictions on outdoor Christmas lighting to allow two lighted trees in Centennial Park and a lighted tree in the courtyard area of the police-court complex. A transfer of up to $150 was approved in the park department budget for light strings replacement.

Accepted as information was a city manager report on the 1975 paving program in the amount of $103,811.50. Final change order documents have been submitted by West Shore Construction Co. in the amount of $92,046.27 which is $11,765.23 less than the initial contract awarded.

A letter from Atty. William W. Coupe objecting to the 130 no-parking signs posted along both sides of South Shore Dr. had several Council members in agreement. City Manager Terry Hofmeyer said he had conferred with District Court about a previous 150-foot requirement and was informed the court agreed 300 feet between signs would be reasonable, reducing the number to about 60. The matter was referred to the city manager with power to act. Atty. Coupe who was in the audience thanked Council for prompt action.

Purchase of 11 patrol sedans, one patrol station wagon and one investigative car for use by the police department including trade-in of 13 existing vehicles went to Ver Hage of Holland at a net bid of $44,804.66. Bids for 52 regular tread and 13 mud and snow tread, steel belted radial ply tires for police department vehicles including trade-in of tires on new vehicles went to B.F. Goodrich Co. for $1,040, plus purchase of 11 additional tires for $410.

Purchase of four traffic counters for the street department was authorized at a cost of $3,134.80, designating Streetier Amet Model MR101 plus related accessories.

A city manager report on improving and resurfacing 1½ miles of 64th St. east of Ottawa Ave. listed low bid of $121,551.25. Bids were received for study and an informal meeting with affected property owners in the area will be scheduled before formal action is taken.

Council adopted a resolution amending the longevity payment schedule adopted at budget time to include parttime A employees. These employees had been excluded, perhaps inadvertently, but funds had been appropriated. Hospital employees are not included in the longevity program, preferring a wage increase to the program.

Council approved a request of Holland Hospital to apply for state and federal funds to help finance a radio communications system with ambulances, as recommended by the West Michigan Comprehensive Health Unit. Equipment and installation is estimated at $16,587, with state providing 70 per cent and local sources 30 per cent. Of the $4,976.10 cost locally, approximately $1,900 would be paid by the hospital and $3,100 by two ambulance firms, Dykstra and Notier-Ver Lee-Langeland.

Also approved were permanent improved facilities for Tulip Time office functions in Civic Center at a cost not to exceed $5,000.

Council tabled a request of the police department to submit a proposal for state and federal funds to establish a planning and research unit to provide operational planning for the department and support continuation of a computerized police records system. Funding would be paid 95 per cent by state and federal funds with 5 per cent locally through the first two years and equally divided the third year.

Council acted to renew underwriting possible liability involved in a $100,000 loan to the Inter-County Drain Board for design development of the Maplewood-Lela Relief Drain project. The agreement had expired Nov. 15, 1975. An additional $100,000 is needed to cover billings from Engineers Prein and Newhof, payment of condemnation awards and recording legal documents. The $200,000 figure has been negotiated with a new interest rate of 4.7 per cent effective through Nov. 15, 1976.

A public hearing was scheduled Dec. 3 on a request of De Witt H. and Marilyn Doan to establish an industrial development district for real estate located at 588 East 40th St.

Council confirmed a certification from Councilman James Vande Poel for recreation department purchases from Superior Sports Store totaling $177.38.

Claims against the city from Russell A. Brown, Dirkse Motor Sales and Donald Plasman were referred to the insurance carrier and city attorney.

A Human Relations Commission annual report for 1974-75 was filed.

Licenses to solicit funds were granted the Salvation Army from Nov. 28 to Dec. 24 and Ottagan Alcoholic Rehabilitation Inc. from Nov. 10 to Dec. 31.

Oaths of office for Councilman Kleis and Frank Whitney as members of the Planning Commission were filed.

Following a public hearing, Council amended its Unemployment Compensation System ordinance to comply with state law. At the close of the meeting, on suggestion of Councilman Vande Poel, Council will oppose SB 1191 which would abolish local control of unemployment compensation.

Mayor Lou Hallacy appointed Councilman Russell De Vette as Council liaison with the Good Samaritan Center.

Council formally adopted previously read resolutions of appreciation for former members Robert Dykstra and John Bloemendaal.

Regular rules were suspended to allow the regular meeting a month hence to be held Tuesday, Dec. 16, instead of Wednesday.

The invocation was given by the Rev. William Vander Haak of Prospect Park Christian Reformed Church. All Councilmen were present. The meeting lasted about 50 minutes.

Transformer Fails At Power Plant

PORT SHELTON — An electrical fault caused a power transformer to erupt at the Campbell generating plant of Consumers Power Co. at 8:15 a.m. Monday, tripping a generating unit.

Bill Turpin, plant manager, said the power generator would be shut down until Tuesday while the cause of the transformer failure was studied. He said the shut down created no power interruptions to Consumers customers in the system.

The transformer outside the northeast corner of the building was used to supply power for plant uses and the fire was extinguished when Port Sheldon township firemen arrived. No injuries were reported.

Trinity Women Mark Centennial Of Mission Work

A hundred members and guests of Trinity Reformed Church Women's Guild attended a centennial dinner last Monday evening at the Woman's Literary clubhouse. They celebrated 100 years of Reformed Church women in missions, and also presented their "blessing bags," a project begun a year ago, to the Mission Service Fund for 1975. The gift was more than $500.

Highlight of the program was a play by Mrs. Fritz Sennett, entitled "You've Come A Long Way, Baby." The story unfolded in three sections, beginning with the early church and martyrdom of early Dutch Protestants, the establishment of the Reformed Church in America in 1628, the start of women in missionary work and establishment of the first missionary society in 1861. Mrs. Judy McClain portrayed Ida Scudder, the missionary doctor. Voices were done by Mrs. Betty Oonk and Mrs. Betty Schapp.

In the second part, the three main characters, played by Mrs. Gertrude Arends as the mother, Mrs. John Van Dyke, grandmother, and Mrs. Karen, Van Hekken, daughter, reviewed old minutes and scrap books of "women in mission." Mrs. Sibyl Kalkman, in a brown satin wedding dress of the 1911 era, portrayed Mrs. A. Vanden Berg, first Trinity Aid president.

The final section updated the ways in which "women in mission" today participate in all fields of endeavor.

Mrs. Betty Schapp, president, welcomed members and guests and Mrs. Mildred Van Oostenburg, Spiritual Life chairman, led devotions and the depositing of "special blessings" in a small antique barrel. Mrs. Doris Oosterbaan was in charge of dinner arrangements and antique table decorations.

North Central Evaluation Slated at High School

Twenty-four educators are making an on-site evaluation of Holland High School Tuesday through Thursday of this week, according to Principal Fred Bertsch. The NCA evaluation team is chaired by Dr. G. Sutherland Hayden, University of Michigan professor and chairman of the Michigan North Central Committee.

Purpose of this external team evaluation is to help the school look at itself objectively. For the last ten months the school has been engaged in a comprehensive self-study, not only seeking to identify its strengths but also to determine those areas in which constructive change would seem to be desirable. The NCA team will bring an outside professional viewpoint to the evaluation and will assist the high school's staff in its pursuit of quality education for its students.

In preparation for the visit, 25 subcommittees have been at work since last February in an effort to examine every aspect of the school — student activities, curriculum, personal services, instruction materials, faculty, administration, physical facilities and others.

Each subcommittee made a preliminary report to the full faculty for discussion and suggestions, after which final summaries were written and compiled in book form. Also included in the book, a copy of which member of the NCA visiting team, are the results of the numerous questionnaires used in the study, including those which sought the opinions of students and parents of students. Copies of this book are available for examination in the high school library.

Following the evaluation visit, the NCA team will prepare a detailed report of its findings, and will deliver copies of this document to the school for its use in improving the school program. These will be available to all interested persons in the high school library in about a month.

Mrs. Alice Beukema has served as chairman of the steering committee having overall responsibility for the direction of the evaluation. Other members of the committee are Robert Achterhof, Joyce Bertrand, Tom Carey, Judy Mastenbrook and Al Osman. This committee will continue its leadership in a follow-up effort on the part of the school to evaluate further the resulting recommendations and to implement them where acceptable and feasible.

Members of the visiting team are contributing their services to the school as a part of a North Central program to insure that each member school engages in comprehensive self-evaluation at least every seven years.

The north Central Association is a voluntary association of schools and colleges in a 19-state area having as a goal the development and maintenance of high standards of excellence. Holland High School has been accredited by the North Central Association since 1910.

CIGARETS AND PUBLIC HEALTH

Federal Trade Commission tests show that there are 31 milligrams of "tar" per cigarette in one brand, only 2 milligrams in another brand at the low end of the scale. This freshly supports the familiar conclusion that tobacco manufacturers can produce low-tar cigarettes when they want to.

Thus far they have not wanted to badly enough to proceed with some form of industry regulation. If the industry does not undertake to do this, the federal government should step in.

The public health justification for such a move is clear, after more than a decade of annual surgeon generals' reports noting the connection between cigarette smoking and cancer and other grave illnesses. The latest word on this subject comes from Dr. Gio Gori, deputy director of the division of cancer cause and prevention in the National Cancer Institute: "There is a direct relationship between the amount of tar inhaled and the risk of cancer. If you double the amount of tar you double the risk."

The tobacco industry has never acknowledged anything of the sort. Instead, it has fought a continuous rearguard action against acceptance of the great weight of scientific findings on the subject. If it persists in this self-serving attitude, refusing to curb cigarette tar and nicotine content voluntarily, government curbs should be imposed as a public health measure.

Sunday School Lesson

"Placing Others Before Self"
Genesis 41:18-23, 30:34.
By C. P. Dame

In the Bible there are several splendid addresses and short speeches. This lesson gives an opportunity to study a heart-moving short talk which got results. Human nature does and can change. This truth needs to be told again and again in a world of changes.

I. A person can change. This lesson portrays Judah at his best. He was making a plea for his brother to his brother. This he did not know. Several events took place between the lesson of last week — the selling of Joseph as a slave. This brought Joseph to Egypt and to a high position. A famine in Canaan led to the coming of Joseph's brothers to Egypt to buy food. Joseph recognized them and gave them several testings. When the cup was discovered in Benjamin's sack all were stunned. The brothers all returned to Joseph's house. They stuck together. In a conversation among themselves they recalled selling Joseph.

Before returning to Egypt for the second time Judah had pledged to his father that he would be surety for Benjamin. This indicated a change in Judah, who had suggested selling Joseph. Chapter 38 tells how Judah for about 25 years after the sale of Joseph had broken away from the family and was a prodigal living like Canaanites, adopting their ways. He got tired of those sensual ways and went home again. And now he was concerned about his father whom he had grieved and about his younger brother. Judah had changed. People can still change.

II. Words can be effective. Judah was deeply sincere. Earnestness counts. He had an aim. He pled to save his brother for his father. He was speaking for a verdict. In the closing part of his address he told about himself, the promise he had made to his father to bring his brother back again and offered to be a slave in Benjamin's place. Joseph was deeply moved by Judah's words and self-forgetting offer and could not restrain himself and after he ordered all others to leave he made himself known to his brothers by saying, "I am Joseph, doth my father yet live?" The brothers were stunned.

Judah won. Great was the contrast between the Judah who used his lips to sell his brother and the man who used his lips to plead on behalf of his brother. Judah was the son of Leah, the love-starved wife of Jacob and Jesus came from the tribe of Judah. In his farewell "thou art he whom thy brothers address Jacob said, of Judah: shall praise." Jesus, a descendant of Judah, gave his life for his brothers. Teachers and preachers need Judah's passion and pleading note.

'Your Land, My Land' Thrills Literary Club

By Cornelia Van Voorst

A Bicentennial tribute in the form of a slide presentation entitled "Your land and My Land" by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swank of Holland proved to be a real treat for the Woman's Literary Club Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Swank as narrator divided the slides into six categories, history, the variety of terrain, man's accomplishments, God's gifts, America's two newest states, and a finale.

The Swank slides portrayed the early history in Indian remains of the cliff dwellers more than a thousand years ago in Colorado, the adobe homes in New Mexico, the Navajos in the Grand Canyon, the July 4 powwow in Flagstaff, Ariz., the Blackfoot Indians in Glacier National Park in Montana and the Seminoles in Florida.

Other historical matter showed monuments at Plymouth, Mass., for the 1620 arrival of the Mayflower, scenes in Williamsburg, Fort Michillimackinac at Mackinaw City, Concord Bridge, Monticello, Mt. Vernon, the steamboat sternwheeler, Fort McHenry, Gettysburg, Washington monuments, Arlington Cemetery and Mt. Rushmore.

The terrain category showed slides of exquisite beauty from the rocky coast of Maine to the grain fields and the mountains, and man's accomplishments portrayed railroads, mountain switchbacks, bridges, ships, Hoover Dam, churches, highrise buildings, the Unisphere at the New York World Fair, Disney World, airlines, submarines and Cape Kennedy.

Under God's Gifts, Mrs. Swank refrained from comment and played a tape of "America the Beautiful" for a succession of slides on flowers, geysers, giant trees, caverns, the four seasons, sunrise and sunset.

Slides were shown of Alaska and Hawaii, picturing island flora of excellent beauty.

An emotional finale showed the New York harbor and the Statue of Liberty while a tape was played of Kate Smith singing "God Bless America" on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. Sustained applause followed.

NOSE Tips By Leo Martonosi

Wait Was Worth While
For three years, he sat on the Hope College bench waiting patiently for football Coach Ray Smith to call his number.

And now four years later after getting his share of splinters, this fellow ended up with the MIAA's most valuable player award.

In case you haven't guessed his name by now, it's Tim Van Heest, a truly outstanding young man.

Van Heest led the league in total offense with 528 yards for a 105.6 per game average and was first in passing as well with 508 yards on 37 completions out of 65 attempts. And catch this, Van Heest had only two aerials picked off.

The 21-year-old Van Heest is a 1972 graduate of Bethlehem Central in Delmar, N.Y. Several athletes in Bethlehem's conference are attending or have attended Hope College.

When it comes to Hope College, there can't be any one family with more tradition at Hope than the Van Heests. Tim pointed out that his dad graduated from Hope in 1949, his mother from the college in 1951 and both grandparents on his mother's side.

His grandfather, John Van Heest, who attended his first football game this year when the flying Dutchmen played Adrian College, is a graduate of Calvin College but he sent four daughters and two sons to Hope.

"Grandfather was probably the black sheep of the family," laughed Tim. J. Van Heest was born in the Netherlands and like all the fellow Van Heests, is now a minister. Tim plans on attending Western Seminary after graduation.

Tim's younger brother Greg, is a sophomore and participates on the Dutchmen tennis team.

"Yes, you can say I was greatly influenced by my parents to attend Hope College," Tim replied.

While sitting in the Hope bench wasn't Tim's bag, he did learn an awful lot from Bob Carlson, who we're also sure, learned a lot from him.

"When I came to Hope, I wasn't choosing the college to better myself in football," added Tim. "Sure, I wanted to play right away and I wasn't happy sitting on the bench. But I had other college interests that didn't make my wait seem so long. Now, if we hadn't been so successful, it would have been much harder sitting on the sidelines."

Even though he only started one game as an underclassman, his teammates voted him tri-captain along with Bob Lees and Dave Yeliter. "That really boosted my confidence," sighed Van Heest. "It prepared me mentally for the coming season."

Van Heest had the reputation of being more of a passing quarterback than runner but he says that's really not true.

"I ran almost twice as much as I passed the ball when I was a senior in high school." Tim's had many outstanding games this year but two of them stand out in his mind. The first against Olivet and the second with Albion.

"Our most satisfying win came against the Comets," added Tim. "For one, because we avenged our only loss of the 1974 season."

It's hard to believe that Tim played so brilliantly he last three games when you consider he suffered a sprain and bone chip in his left wrist.

"The doctor said the injury was similar to the one Joe Namath had," continued Tim. "In fact, he said I was very fortunate to even be able to play."

Said Smith, "Tim is a very coachable fellow. He was an excellent leader and had just an outstanding season for us. He is very deserving of his all-MIAA and league MVP honors. We're really going to miss him next year."

Even though the Dutchmen cannot participate in any post-season bowl this year, Tim is optimistic about the MIAA changing its philosophy in the near future.

"We wanted to play in a bowl this year and were hoping the MIAA would have given us the opportunity to do so," said Tim, who is on the school athletic committee.

It's not fair that the tennis, cross country and track teams can participate in NCAA action when the football and basketball teams can't.

Tim indicated that the NCAA would pay their expenses to a bowl game and that the cross country team had to pick up its own tab on their trip to Boston, Mass. last weekend.

Zeeland 8th Graders End With Perfect Mark

ZEELAND — The eighth grade girls' basketball team at Zeeland finished the season with a perfect 12 - 0 record by beating Grandville 36 - 28 recently. The victory also gave the Cougars the tournament championship to go along with their second consecutive league championship in the Kent Otawa Conference.

Zeeland's win was highlighted by tremendous team play and great defense. Rhonda Vredenveld led the way with 17 points while Laura Vander Plaats and Karen Smith scored 6 points apiece with Lynn Van Orman adding 3 points. CoCo Klamt and Audrey De Vries also contributed to the team's 19th consecutive win over two seasons with their aggressive play.

The Cougars averaged over 37 points per game this season while holding their opponents to under 20 points per game. Lynn and Rhonda were the leading scorers this year, both averaging 10 points per game. Other team members included Deb Blackburn, Tracy Cook, Lori Disselkoen, Imelda Flores, Dawn Hoezee, Lori Meeuwssen, Jane Mehriens, Val Vanden Bosch and Cathy Van Ommen.

CETA Programs Aren't 'Handouts'

By Constance Allen

Frank Reyes puts in a long day on Mondays through Wednesdays. Besides his week-long job from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. doing maintenance work at the Helping Our Youth office at 370 Central Ave., he is preparing for the General Educational Development exam for high school credit by attending classes three nights a week.

Reyes quit school in eighth grade and now at age 30 he has decided to try for his high school diploma through the GED program. When asked about the reaction of his family and friends to his decision to finish his studies, he replied with his dry sense of humor that they commented, "It's about time."

Three months ago, Reyes, of 201 West 14th St., was unemployed and at the urging of a friend he went to the offices of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act for Ottawa County, 12451 James St.

He was hired under Title 1 of the act with the purpose of providing "job training opportunities for economically disadvantaged, unemployed and under-employed persons, and to assure that training and other services lead to maximum employment opportunities and enhance self-sufficiency," according to the local CETA office.

All CETA clients are evaluated for need on a priority point system. Points are given to veterans, minorities, women, the handicapped and others. Selection for the Work Experience program is based on a need to upgrade work record, vocational skills and or education level. It is designed to eliminate barriers to employment. Wages are paid by CETA or the employer, who must be non-profit, is reimbursed.

Reyes' preference to work rather than receive unemployment and his desire to find a better job requiring a diploma were the main factors in his decision to go to CETA but he admits that finishing his education will add to his self esteem, too. He mentioned a change of attitude since beginning work at the HOY office, a community service program. "Before, I was the kind of person who didn't ask for help from anybody. Here I see people helping people," he commented. Reyes is taking it one day at a time but he hopes that he can pass the GED exam and receive his diploma before the softball season opens next year. Last season he was a regular on the Holland Agency Insurance team and classes will interfere with games next year. He states, "It keeps me in great shape."

In the few hours that are left for relaxation between his work and studies Reyes plays guitar with a local group and enjoys family gatherings with his brothers.

For other people who decide like Reyes that, "It's about time," CETA offers a range of services.

Besides the Work Experience program of which Reyes is a participant, there is Public Service Employment and On-the-Job Training. Public Service must be a new job and not displace anyone else or shorten hours. On-the-Job Training is designed to enable individuals to learn a bona fide skill and qualify for a particular occupation through demonstration and practice.

CETA also has a program with KANDU to evaluate areas of difficulty in a participant's work orientation. The second phase of the program is a work adjustment component aimed at enhancing an individual's vocational potential.

All clients are reminded that the jobs are temporary and are encouraged to seek unsubsidized employment.

Classes in office skills, machine shop and GED exam preparation are also offered through CETA. Kathy Van Oosterhout, the education counselor for Ottawa County CETA, stressed that the program is not a handout but a work-and-earn program and an opportunity to go out and find employment. She said there had been a recent "crack-down" and that clients who did not attend education classes or missed work continuously were cut from the program.

CETA was created in 1973 and the office in Ottawa County has been in existence for about a year. It presently serves approximately 400 persons in improving their marketable job skills.

Cornies Corner

It was delightful having the Netherlands Ambassador to the United States, Age R. Tammenom Bakker and his wife in Holland last Friday, their first visit to the Dutch-American communities in West Michigan.

And there were just enough Dutch touches to make them feel welcome.

At the morning reception in City Hall, Albertha Bratt brought her Singing Boys of the Christian schools, a good share of them in Dutch costume and more than a few wearing wooden shoes. Albertha herself wore the brown costume Jo Kools wears in the Heritage shows for Tulip Time.

One boy who speaks Dutch introduced the two Dutch folk songs they sang, and the Dutch diplomat spoke movingly of having sung those songs himself as a boy.

He autographed a book on the Netherlands to the Singing Boys. And the singers klomped happily to the third floor for a special treat of punch and cookies.

While visiting City Manager Terry Hofmeyer's office, the ambassador was impressed with a framed picture of Council members. The nameplates in front of each member gave clear identification, and the Dutch visitor was fascinated by the Dutch names... Kleis, Vande Poel, Bloemendaal, Oosterbaan, Dykstra, Van Kampen, Beelen.

There have been a few cracks how Hallacy and Cunningham ever made that crowd.

When the city manager learned that His Excellency and Mme. Tammenom Bakker were spending Saturday night at Point West's Macatawa Inn, he arranged for flowers in their room and delivery of the framed picture.

Klomp dancers of Christian High School performed their celebrated dance for the ambassador at a meeting in Grand Rapids Friday night marking the 25th anniversary of the Dutch Immigrant Society.

Ambassador Tammenom Bakker said Rembrandt's masterpiece "The Night Watch," slashed recently by a demented person, is being repaired in full view of visitors to the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam.

This is a departure in European procedures for repairing or cleaning paintings. In the Vatican's Sistine chapel cleaning of masterpieces has been going on for years, but behind canvas enclosures.

Mme. Tammenom Bakker said she is full of admiration for American women and the boundless energy they have in getting things done. She said organization is quite different in the United States from European methods where considerably more is done by governments.

Here in America, it is common for a woman to run a house, raise children, have a fulltime or parttime job and join in working on many fronts... supporting the symphony, the art galleries, on the political front, the environment and many others.

A trim, energetic person, the ambassador's wife says she envies the energy American women have.

On other fronts, Christmas is much nearer than you might believe. Remember the Hospital Gift Shop special sale Dec. 3-6 in the Heritage Room... all kinds of gifts for all ages with lots of choice for stocking or exchange items.

It's a small world. Last July Mrs. William Oosterhof of Holland sent a Sentinel editorial about a granny working in Albuquerque, N. M., to her daughter, Mrs. Keith Brower, who lives in Albuquerque.

Mrs. Brower, wife of Dr. Keith Brower, wrote back to say that the woman mentioned in the editorial was a babysitter for the Browns when they lived in Denver, Colo.

The following newcomers to Holland in October were welcomed by the city hostess:

Mr. and Mrs. Victor L. Steurwald and daughter of Clay City, Ind., are buying a home at 754 Marylane. He is a construction engineer with Canonic Construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Granditzke and son of Milwaukee are living at 120 Walnut. Mr. Granditzke is with Vanguard Glass Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Manohar Arora of Chicago are living at 97 East 19th. He is with Chemetron.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schaffer and daughter of Miami, Fla., are buying a home at 1209 Eunice Vista Ct. Schaffer is president of Slickcraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ophoff of Grand Rapids are buying a home at 44 East 22nd St. Ophoff is an attorney with William Coupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walter of Fairlawn, N. J., are buying a home at 163 West 40th St. They are retired.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Whitney and three children of Cohasset, Mass., are buying a home at 1152 Harvard. Whitney is general manager of the Board of Public Works.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bruso of Taylor, Mich., are buying a home at 523 Butternut. They are retired.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glunz of Midlothian, Ill., are buying a home at 79 West 31st St. They are retired.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Tietze of Joliet, Ill., are buying a home at 261 Leisure Lane. Tietze is with Chemetron and his wife is working at Beech-Nut Life Savers.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chamberlin of Upper Saddle River, N. J., is buying a home at 14685 Valley View. She is a travel consultant.

Kurt and Marianne Aspmann of Chicago, Ill., are buying a home at 783 Brook Village Ct.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Moyle and three children of Windsor, Conn., are buying a home at 419 Moerose. Moyle is with Consumers Power.

Christian High's Concert Planned

A concert featuring American music will be given by the choir and orchestra of Holland Christian High School Tuesday, Nov. 18, at 7:45 p.m. in the Christian High Auditorium.

Four of the school's performing groups will perform music of American origin with some of the numbers based on events of our country's history.

The Madrigal Ensemble will sing the hymn, "America" in historical perspective as well as humorous numbers about two issues in American history which received a lot of attention, women suffrage and prohibition.

Among the works sung by the Girls' Choir are arrangements of three early American hymn tunes; the Stephen Foster song, "Some Folks Do" and Irving Berlin's popular setting of the inscription on the Statue of Liberty, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor." The Girls' Choir is accompanied by Cindy Niemi and Ronda Van Slooten.

The Christian High Orchestra will perform Richard Stephan's arrangement of the famous Civil War song, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and the number "Bratislava" by J. Holesovsky, which was dedicated to the National School Orchestra Association.

The orchestra will close its part of the concert with a light and fun-filled number entitled "Swing Yer Partner," in which composer Ralph Mates-ky captures the country sounds of a hoe-down.

The final group to perform will be the A Cappella Choir, which will sing two patriotic songs, "The Pledge of Allegiance" and "America, Our Heritage." Other numbers include "The Road Not Taken," which is a setting by the American composer, Randall Thompson of the famous Robert Frost poem; a De Cormier arrangement of the popular war song, "Johnny Has Gone for a Soldier"; a Stephen Foster song, "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming"; and the Negro spiritual, "This Little Light of Mine." Deb Arnoldink, Kathy Bosman and Michelle De Vries will be soloists.

The finale of the concert will be a multi-media work, "Cry For Freedom" compiled and edited by Leonard Van Camp. Slides depicting the events of the American Revolution will accompany a narration while the A Cappella Choir sings music by William Billings based on these events. Don Larsen will be the projectionist while Gary Beckman narrates. Sue Dykstra, Bruce Jipping and Ken Van Beek will be soloists. Evonne Den Ouden and Marcia Dykstra are the accompanists.

Admission to the concert is free. A free-will offering will be taken. Marvin J. Ritsema and John R. Swierenga are the directors of the choirs and orchestra.

Milliken Sidelights

Gov. William Milliken, in Holland Thursday for an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from Hope College, said he finds visits to places like Holland a great help in dealing with political problems of the state.

There is a tendency in Lansing, he said, to become too involved in Michigan's complex problems, and getting away from the capitol occasionally provides a broader view which helps put things into perspective.

The governor who has been in public life since he was first elected to the Michigan Senate in 1961 does not plan to remain in politics "forever." He said he had 17 years of experience as a businessman, a career which helped immeasurably in his political posts.

Of people in public life on state levels, he said most are "honest and decent and trying to do a good job" and he deplored the cynical attitude on the part of many citizens that the political life is bad.

He said much of this disillusionment is caused by candidates making too many commitments and promises that cannot be kept, resulting in loss of faith and trust.

"One of the best ways to restore confidence and trust is the draw the line at what government can do, what it cannot do," he said. "Be sure you can keep your promises, or don't make them."

Arrangements for the governor's visit were made by the political science department, and a number of political science majors joined the governor and other guests at lunch in Durfee Hall after the convocation.

Penetrating questions were asked on many subjects — marijuana (some relaxation in penalties but Milliken is still opposed to decriminalizing its use) deficit (the state is expected to have a $300 million deficit by midyear and Milliken is projecting moves to avert it, none of them popular) — and so on.

On the Michigan lottery, Milliken said lotteries were voted by the people three or four years ago although he objected, but he and the legislature were grateful for the proceeds which he estimated would be $62 million the current year, and possibly more.

He said the lottery is well run, and is probably the most successful lottery of any run in America.

Milliken was happy to report that Tom De Cair, former Sentinel reporter and Hope College graduate, is busy at work in his new post in coordinating the governor's dealings in Detroit, Washington and elsewhere. This is a departure from Tom's duties at the White House where he worked in (but was not limited to) public relations under Ron Nessen.

De Cair, who made Phi Beta Kappa as a Hope student, also had attended Kalamazoo College. Milliken said Tom and his wife, Lansing girl, appear glad to be back in Michigan, away from some of the frenzied activity in the nation's capital.

Eunice Bareham of Spring Lake, a member of the Ottawa Board of Commissioners and chairman of the GOP organization, made more of a statement than a question, when she pointed out that partisanship in politics is not so divided as it used to be. She said Democrats and Republicans are working together in new ways in an earnest effort to find solutions to today's problems.

Hugh De Pree of Zeeland, president of the Hope Board of Trustees presented Milliken for his honorary degree at the special convocation in Dimmet Memorial Chapel Thursday morning.

He traced Milliken's biographical sketch, where born, went to school, etc., and said he was a waist gunner in the Air Force during World War II and was shot down in Austria.

"After surviving the war, he was ready for politics," De Pree said. A peal of laughter followed.

Calvin Tabbed Again To Win MIAA; Pick Hope 5th

Hope — To no one's surprise, Calvin College was tabbed as the team to beat again in MIAA basketball this winter by the league coaches at the winter press day here Thursday.

However, some eyebrows were raised when the coaches picked Hope College to come in fifth behind Alma, Kalamazoo and Albion in that order. Olivet and Adrian are expected to battle it out for the final two positions.

"No, I'm not disappointed in being picked to finish fifth," said Hope mentor Russ De Vette. "We'll just have to prove that we're much better than that."

A running offense and a pressing defense are changes that DeVette hopes will get the Flying Dutchmen back on the winning track after a disappointing 9-13 campaign last year. Hope relied on a one-guard, deliberate offense during the 1974-75 season.

"We will try to run and press," said DeVette, noting that his charges will have to utilize their overall quickness in applying pressure to offset a lack of rebounding strength.

Alvin, a 6'4" forward and Chris Peterson, a 6'4" guard, both from Grand Rapids and Ed Ryan, a 6'1" guard from Schenectady, N.Y.

Other returnees include 6'4" senior forward Dan Van Pernis of Grand Rapids, 6' senior guard Gerry Frazier of Levittown, Pa., 6'2" junior guard Steve Vanderhyde of Grand Rapids, 6'3" junior forward Chris Van Singel of Mason, and 6'7" sophomore center John Savage of Manchester. Senior forward Mike Riksen of Holland also returns after a year's absence.

The 6'3" Riksen started for the Dutch as a sophomore. Junior varsity players seeking to make the varsity team include 6'3" George Moger of Simsbury, Conn., 6'4" Wayne Van Dyke of Allendale, and 6'4" Wes Vande Streck of Parchment.

Hope will be participating in two tournaments — the Aurora, Ill. Tourney on Dec. 5-6 and the Suncoast Classic in St. Petersburg, Fla. on Jan. 9-10. De Vette believes both tournaments will help ready the Dutchmen for a tough MIAA season which begins at Calvin on Jan. 14.

"I think the whole league will improve because of the number of underclassmen that played last year," said DeVette, the dean of MIAA coaches.

Three Holland area cagers are listed on the Hope freshmen team. They include Ken Bauman of Holland High and Mike Huizenga and Bill Dykema of Zeeland.

Bruce Vander Schaaf, a former standout at Timothy Christian, is also listed on the freshmen unit.

Albion — Enthusiasm and a positive mental attitude are the two important keys to the Briton varsity basketball team. Head coach Mike Turner has 11 talented lettermen returning, for a sum total of 17 years of varsity experience. Team balance is also important as 9 of the 11 were rotational starters last season.

Dominant leaders on the team include Michael Williams, Flint sophomore, at forward. Williams was selected to the 2nd all-MIAA team last season with a 15.9 point per game average and the Briton nominee for Most Valuable Player. Paul Cryderman, Okemos junior, at forward; Kevin Huffman, Homer senior, at center; and Denny Frost, Lake Odessa junior, were on the honorable mention all-MIAA team. Jim Knudson, Bloomfield senior, will also add punch to the Briton scoring power. Also returning as lettermen are Joe Pergande, Essexville senior; Mike Sowles, Coldwater junior; Tony Kern, South Lyon sophomore; Roger Wiesenauer, Bay City junior; Don Braun, Livonia sophomore; and Mike Kujacznski, Flint junior. Two potential newcomers to this year's squad are Greg Rogers, Midland sophomore, who was most valuable player on last year's junior varsity team, and Milton Barnes, a freshman from Saginaw.

Last season, the Britons finished 4-8 in MIAA play and 5-6 in non-league competition for a combined record of 9-14.

Calvin — A primary goal of last year's Calvin varsity cagers was to improve on the previous season's record. That team did that, almost achieving winning perfection with a 22-1 record.

While of course aiming again at winning, the basketball team this year has the added goal of playing the game a little closer to perfection.

Coach Ralph Honderd puts it this way: "We have lots of talent. The task lies in putting it together. We've got to fight the urge to be complacent and realize that every year has new challenges." The goal, says Honderd, is for everybody to be a winner.

The Knights lost two top starters from last year's MIAA championship team, offensive leader Marc Hoogewind and steady scorer and top defenseman Larry Vander Veen. The rest of last year's core remains, however, in veterans Gregg Al-man and Randy Wolhuis, two-time MIAA MVP Mark Veenstra, and plenty of bench strength.

A good part of the defensive intensity Honderd is stressing will likely come from seniors Afman and Wolhuis. Afman, a 6'6" guard, will find himself assigned to controlling the opposition's top guard while Vander Veen's role of shutting off the opposition's top forward, Veenstra, "in the best physical condition since coming to Calvin," according to Honderd, will be looked to help control the tempo of the game with his work in the middle.

Junior Jim De Groot, sidelined by medical problems for two years, and sophomore Brian Ellens add an element of quickness to the Knight defense and offensive breaks. Rebounding along with Veenstra will be the domain of big men Dwight Maliepaard and Dave Mulder.

Honderd will remain with the inside oriented, balanced and controlled offense that has brought his teams to four won or shared league titles in five years. Balancing the inside attack of Veenstra, bolstered by the powerful offensive board work of Maliepaard, will be senior ballhandler Paul Zwier, Afman — "the best passer on the team," juniors Jack Buist and Barry Capel, both good perimeter shooters, and sophomores Kurt Vander Horst and Dave Buurma.

With the many capable players providing a lot of depth, Honderd hopes for consistent intense play, meeting challenges from a variety of tough schools. Schedule highlights include powerful early season foes Concordia and Ashland and, of course, the tough cross-town trip to Grand Valley. Another trip will take the Knights to mile-high Denver and two big Colorado state schools at the end of the Christmas break.

Two former Hudsonville Unity cagers — Jim Haverkamp and Bill Van Vugt are playing on Calvin's freshmen squad. Tom Vander Laan has taken over as head freshmen coach this winter.

Adrian — With a strong nucleus of returning players, Adrian Coach Tony Archibald feels his 1975 squad will be a greatly improved ball club. The year of seasoning for his players and the familiarity with Archibald's systems and philosophies should be key factors in turning around a significant number of tight games that the Bulldogs dropped a year ago. A fine recruiting year yielded some outstanding freshmen prospects, further bolstering the optimism felt for this year's team.

The pressure man-to-man defense of the Bulldogs will again be the foundation of the team. Archibald believes his players will be even stronger on defense this season, due to the effectiveness gained as players learn to react to each other. In addition, it requires depth at the guard positions which should be a strong suit for the Bulldogs this year.

The offense will be adapted to take advantage of the speed and jump shooting ability of leading scorers Brad Thompson and Dale Campbell as well as back up guard Jon Malhoit. Senior Randy Swoverland is also expected to provide solid floor leadership and scoring punch as well. Archibald's new offense will enable wingman Mike Betts to shoot his jump shot on the move. Betts performed solidly as a freshman, and had the high point effort of the season with 27 against Spring Arbor.

The Bulldogs front line will have to outquick and outrun their larger opponents to be effective. Sophomores Paul Fahrback (6'6") and Bruce Bredless (6'8") or freshmen Fred Davis (6'5") and Curtis Williams (6'5") will be handling the post positions. Fahrback saw limited varsity action a year ago, while Bredless led the JV's in rebounding. Davis received 2nd team All-Ohio honors last year, and should provide good inside scoring punch. Williams holds all of the rebounding records at Niles.

McKinley High School and the strength necessary to be a top rebounder in the MIAA this year.

Senior forward Doug Meyer was hampered by injuries most of last season. Archibald feels Meyer's aggressiveness will help the Bulldogs at both ends of the court, along with good point production. Another freshman that has been impressive this fall is Chris Miller, a 6'3½" forward with great leaping ability and quickness.

Olivet —

Hopes are high for the Olivet College basketball program during 1975-76. No one graduated from last year's team although Kevin Janer, a standout performer in 1974-75, did transfer to Central Michigan University. Nevertheless, a very fine nucleus of returning varsity players can be counted on and there were several junior varsity players from a year ago that showed they were about ready to lend able assistance to the varsity team. In addition, the recruiting year was highly successful as several key freshmen, at least a few of which will play at the varsity level, were recruited by coach Gary Morrison and his assistant coach John Grimes.

Coach Morrison at present has an overall record of 89 coaching wins and 89 losses during his tenure at the college. He remains the only basketball coach in Olivet's history with better than a losing career coaching record. With this record at the precarious .500 level, Morrison is hoping for a strong showing and a winning record this season by his Comets.

The height on the team will be supplied by senior Fred Livingston, 6'9", junior, Randy Sharpe, 6'7", sophomore, Bob Mette, 6'8", and freshmen Mike Omara from Lakewood's State Champs at 6'7" and Jeff Taube, 6'6" from White Cloud High School, a 25-1 team. Intermediate height comes from senior Kerry Collins, Bruce Grusecki of Alpena C.C., and two-time All-State Bob Fowler, a freshman from White Cloud. All these young men stand 6'5".

Other noted performers include captain John Sibley, Steve Bivens, and Mark Larson, all juniors and veterans at the guard position. Curtis Webb, a varsity starter as a freshman, will be back at forward. Dan Briggs, Brad Baynal, Barry Kloenhammer, Bob Reck, and Mike Starkey are up from the Junior Varsity team. Another community college transfer is Al DeMott from St. Clair Community College.

Besides Omara, Fowler, and Taube, the remainder of the freshman group looks outstanding. Another All-Stater from state champion Lakewood High is 6'3" guard Al Westendorp. Zach Clark is a guard from Eaton Rapids, John Bishop a guard from Our Lady of the Lakes in Pontiac, Mark Jackson, at 6'3" guard from Buchanan, Fred Krull a guard from Three Rivers, Bill Rathe, and Larry Schweitzer a forward and guard from Harper Woods Lutheran East. Rathe was All-Metro in Detroit, and was selected to the Lutheran High School All American team. Gary Robertson a guard from Detroit East Catholic's fine team, Bruce Szcdronski a guard from Linden H.S., Jim Ullman a guard from Mt. Clemens Chippewa Valley H.S., and Scott Vanderveen from Pontiac High.

Kalamazoo — Kalamazoo College finished last year with a 13-9 record under veteran Coach Ray Stef-fen.

The Hornets have such returning standouts as Ruben Billings, Duane Garner, Harley Pierce, Kevin York, and Andy Noble.

Alma — The 1975-76 Alma College basketball team will be led by two seasoned performers, senior captain Stuart Ten Hoor, a 6'5" center, and Willie Dawkins, a 6'2" junior forward. Willie Dawkins, a two-time All-MIAA and All-NAIA selection, has also been the Scots leading scorer, rebounder, and most valuable player the past two years. He is being counted upon for another fine year at his forward position.

Stuart Ten Hoor was a second team All-MIAA selection last year as a center. Stuart's versatility, he can play guard, forward, or center, could be the key to the Scots success this year. Stuart will play at least two of these positions for Alma this year.

Lee Roy Jeffrey Succumbs at 67

DOUGLAS — Lee Roy Jeffrey, 67, of Pontiac died Wednesday in Community Hospital, following a five-month illness. He had been visiting a nephew, Glenn Jeffrey of Fennville.

Born in Arkansas, he had worked for the Pontiac Division, General Motors in Pontiac from 1949 to 1966 when he retired.

Surviving in addition to his nephew in Fennville are three brothers, George B. of Corning, Calif., Henry E. of Pontiac and Levi of California.

BOEVE RESIGNS, NEW COACHES — Ted Boeve (left), veteran golf coach at Holland High for more than 20 years, has called it a career by resigning from that position. Mike Bos (center) former Dutch and Hillsdale College football and baseball star, has replaced Ray Backus as head baseball coach. Clyde Line (right) is returning to run the Dutch wrestling program after giving up that post last year to Ron Howard.

Holland Should Be Contender For Big Seven Honors

Basketball — Veteran Holland basketball Coach Don Piersma expects his Dutch to be a title contender in their initial appearance in the Big Seven.

Said Piersma, "On paper Kalamazoo Loy Norrix, St. Joseph, Portage Central and ourselves look like the teams to beat."

Piersma, who enters his 13th year as head mentor at Holland, has a huge front line in 6'7" forward Dennis Lawson, 6'4" forward Dave Van Wylen and 6'5" center Loren Schrotenboer. All our seniors.

Other senior lettermen include forwards Bill Borgman and Jay Peters and guards Tom Borgman and Todd De Young.

Juniors on the varsity are guards Steve DeVette and Dan Molenaar, forwards Steve Van Toger and Frank Petersen and 6'5" center Chuck Bobeldyke. For the first time since Piersma's first season, two juniors Del Doezeman and Kurt Droger will be playing on the reserves.

"The Big Seven allows juniors to play on its reserve team," replied Piersma. "However, if I didn't feel that the two could make the varsity next year, I wouldn't go along with the procedure."

"We're looking forward to a very fine season," added Piersma. "Overall, we have the best depth we've had in many years, especially at guard."

Piersma indicated that the Dutch will probably run out of a single stack offense in hopes of keeping his big men inside.

"We're definitely a much better shooting team than last year and hope to continue our winning ways like we did at the conclusion of the season last year." The Dutch won seven of their last 10 contests.

"Bill Borgman has been the biggest surprise from last year," insisted Piersma. The Dutch senior grew two inches to 6'1" and has been moved from guard to forward.

"Grand Haven will probably have one of its greatest teams ever," Piersma said. "All of Al Schafer's hard work is paying off for him this year."

Piersma, a student assistant coach in Rick Smith.

The Dutch varsity will scrimmage at Grand Rapids Christian on Nov. 20 while the reserves will host the Eagles the same day.

Girls' Gymnastics — Her name is Marilyn Young but when the Holland High girls' gymnastics team opens its season on Dec. 11, her name will be Marilyn Tremml.

The third year Dutch coach will be marrying Joe Tremml, who is also on the school staff in two weeks.

Miss Young has nine lettermen back from last year's 7-5 squad.

They include Kathy Oosterbaan, Pat Lunderberg, Mary Arthur, Sharon Harper, Lynn Teerman, Eileen Doherty, Lori Van Krimpen, Pam Williams and Tami Bos.

Other girls on the squad are Nancy Scholten, Kim Kamphuis, Kim Mairnear, Karen Johnson, Connie Vinkle, Sue Kuipers, Nan Marsha and Sue Boudry.

Holland will run its first invitational tournament this season. The Dutch will also compete in 12 dual meets.

Girls' Volleyball — Coach Pam Bird's Dutch volleyball team won't open its season until Jan. 13. A pre-season write-up will run in The Sentinel shortly before that date.

Wrestling — Clyde Line returns to run the Dutch Wrestling program after a one-year retirement.

"We're in a good wrestling league," said Line. "I'm glad to be back as wrestling coach."

"We have many fine sophomores up from a very fine junior high team. I definitely feel that we'll be competitive in the league."

Line has 33 out for two a day drills, including standouts Paul Nolton (heavyweight), Dale Boven (145), Louie Boeve (155), Randy DeWilde (119), Bob Boersen (126) and Rob Petters (126).

However, standouts Tim Horn and Dave Moore graduated and are attending Northern Michigan University and Muskegon Community College respectively on scholarships.

Line pointed out that four former Dutch stars — junior Doug Helmlink and Tim Harrington and sophomores Bruce Harrington and Kirby Howard, are competing at Michigan State University.

"We've been working hard and will have team discipline," stated Line. "Some people just don't realize how much time a wrestling coach puts in. When we have meets on Saturdays, I get up by 6:30 a.m. and don't get home until mid-night."

And unfortunately for Line, the Dutch have scheduled 10 meets on Saturday this winter.

Boy's Swimming — Tom Bos, is in his fifth year as Dutch swimming coach.

Bos admits his 1975-76 club will have a hard time in belting last year's 16-1 record.

Holland has 17 swimmers presently out including three state qualifiers last season in Jim Petersen, Bill Derks and Dave Cupery.

The graduation of Dan Houting and Jim Derks and the loss of diver Robbin Kuite to the girls team, will require a lot of work by the returning swimmers and incoming sophomores to make up for, according to Bos.

"The team has been working hard the last two weeks and with normal improvement we should have another strong team again this winter," replied Bos.

"The Big Seven will be in its first year of swimming as a conference sport and the outlook is for a fairly even race between most of the schools in the league," Bos concluded.

Maroons Return 6 Senior Cagers

Basketball — Holland Christian's 1975-76 basketball team has six seniors back from last year 12-9 team. The six include 6'4" starting forward Dave Van Langevelde, spot starter forward Joel Vogelzang, who also stands 6'4" and part-time regular guard Tom Zoerhoff.

Others are guards Kraig Boeve and Mike Vander Ploeg and center Ron Geerlings, 6'3".

Juniors on the team include 6'5" center Mark Van Dyke, 6'2" Cal Keen, 6'2" Doug Vogelzang and 6'2" Duane Terpstra at forwards. Guards Ken De Jonge and Dennis Schipper round out the 12-man squad.

Coach Dave Vander Hill, in his third year as head man, indicated that he had 22 fellows working out this past summer. However, only 17 came out.

"The fellows that quit sure made it easier on me," said Vander Hill.

"We have another rough schedule this year that includes games against River Rouge, Grand Rapids Creston, Holland High and Grand Haven."

"I guess you can say I'm optimistic," continued Vander Hill. "We have some good kids with some experience and the attitude has been excellent."

Dan Vander Ark will coach the reserves and Ed Heethuis the freshmen.

Christian will scrimmage Grand Rapids South Christian on Nov. 21 at home.

Wrestling — Harold Van Iddekinge has replaced Don Eggebeen as wrestling mentor at Holland Christian.

Since Van Iddekinge doesn't have that much experience in second coach with him around," stated Van Iddekinge.

Some of the wrestlers mentioned by the first year coach include Tom Driscoll (98), Ken Schreur (155), Mark Vandenberg (138), Jerry De Frel (126), Allen Slenk (119) and Jim Meusen (167).

Christian had an excellent turnout, 38 kids which is the most ever. Of that group 13 are freshmen.

The Maroons will be participating in a Christian High tournament in Chicago this winter.

Swimming — Dan Stephens is the new swimming coach at Holland Christian.

Stephens, who works full time at the Holland Community Pool, as an instructor, replaces Tom Buursma as Maroons coach.

Returning swimmers are Denny Buursma, Larry Koning, Scott Petroelje, Mike Dokter, Scott Beyer, Mike Van De Vusse, Mike Smeenge, and Randy Lamse.

Newcomers are Jerry Wolters, Doug Leppink, Chuck Ringwald, Tom Drenth and Chuck Rozema. Only Dokter and Beyer are seniors.

Girls' Volleyball

Carol Braaksma will be coaching the Maroons' volleyball team again this winter.

Since their season doesn't start until next year, an article on them will appear at a later date.

wrestling, he doesn't know what to expect of this year's team. "We lost about the whole team last year," said Van Iddekinge. However, I'm very excited about running the program."

Van Iddekinge indicated that senior captain Rod Huisings has been a big help to him in practice.

"It's almost like having a
