A mild winter is again predicted.

Look out for the new adv. of G. Van Putten & Sons, next week.

The ecclesiastical tribunal for the trial of Dr. Briggs will convene Monday.

It is said the new steamer for the Holland-Chicago line will be named "City of Holland."

It has been observed that National elections for many years have shown that the possession of federal patronage is an element of weakness and not of strength, although the general belief is the other way.

Recruits are the order of the day in this state. No doubt the newness of the present system and the inexperience of local canvassers justify a candidate who has been defeated by but a few votes in demanding a re-count.

Two Michigan men are named for the position of Commissioner of Pensions under Cleveland—Judge Morse, late Democratic candidate for governor, and Congressman Wheeler, who has just been defeated for re-election by Mr. Moon of Muskegon.

G. R. Herald: C. L. Stowe returned last evening from Macatawa Park, where he went to attend to the placing of his steam yacht in winter quarters. He says he never saw Lake Michigan so rough as it was Thursday night and Friday morning. Several boats put into Black Lake Thursday evening before the storm began.

We learn that a movement is on foot to open a night school in the city. B. M. Reidsma, who has been identified with Business College and English Training work for the past four years, has decided to remain in the city for the winter and give a course of instruction in penmanship and the common English studies, for the benefit of those who are employed during the day.

Delos A. Blodgett, the millionaire lumberman of Grand Rapids, has divided his whole property into three parts, one-third being given to his son John W., one-third to his son-in-law, Edward Lowe, and his wife, and retaining the other third himself. The total value of the property divided is $7,200,000 and includes 500,000 acres of southern pine lands, northern Michigan pine, valuable Chicago realty, and personal property. Mr. Blodgett now retires from business and leaves his son and son-in-law to manage his affairs.

It seems quite likely that the first beet sugar factory in Michigan will be established at Fife Lake, Grand Traverse county, in the spring, and contracts made with the farmers, which will make the growing of the sugar beet an important industry in the Grand Traverse region. Negotiations have been started with Chicago capitalists, looking to the equipment of a plant. The great drawback in establishing beet sugar factories is their enormous cost. It is said to take at the least calculation $150,000 to erect such a plant.

The passenger train on the C. & W. M., due here at 6:30 p. m., Tuesday, was delayed fully one hour by a terrible accident at the Godfrey avenue crossing, Grand Rapids, in which a man and woman were killed outright. They crossed the track with a single horse and buggy and were caught by the engine and thrown about 75 feet. The woman's left leg was broken in two places, her arm in one, and an ugly wound was found just over her left temple. The man also suffered a double fracture of the right leg, a single one to the left arm and a bruise on the head sufficient to cause instant death. The horse was slightly injured on the hip, and all that could be found of the buggy was two of the wheels and a lot of splinters. Conductor C. Bennett and engineer C. R. Howard were in charge of the train.

Next Sunday Rev. E. Bos will deliver his farewell sermon in the Ninth street H. C. R. church, and a congregational meeting will be held on Thursday evening, to nominate a trio from which to make a selection at a later day.

At the recent election Holland City polled more Republican votes (476), more Populist votes (78), and more Prohibition votes (29) than other place in the county. Its total vote also was the largest, and for the first time in the history of the two cities Holland distances Grand Haven—the total vote being: Holland 996, Grand Haven 957.

The circuit court of Ottawa county convened on Monday, Judge Hart presiding. All the cases not otherwise disposed of went over the term. The electric light injunction suit from this city will be argued before Judge Hart next Thursday, in this city. The case against A. Van Vuren has been nolle prossed. Sheriff Vaupell informs us that in view of the desperate character of the horse-thief Sweeney, he has placed a constant watch over him, until such time as he can be tried. The case of the People vs. A. Kuite, assault and battery, appealed from justice court, will likely be tried at the next term of court.

Don't be ashamed my lad, if you have a patch on your elbow. It is no mark of disgrace. It speaks well for your industrious mother. For our part, we would rather see a dozen patches on your jacket than to know you were dishonest. No good boy will shun you because you cannot dress as well as your companions, and if a boy sometimes laughs at your appearance, say nothing my lad, but work on. We know many rich and good men who were once poor and friendless; and if you are poor and upright you will be respected a great deal more than if you were the son of a rich man and addicted to bad habits.—Ex.

The present season, since the latter part of October, will go on record as one of the most disastrous both in the loss of life and property on the lakes in many years. In the number of lives lost, however, it has been surpassed in former years by the great disasters of the steamer Atlantic on Lake Erie, the Lady Elgin and Alpena on Lake Michigan, and the Pawabic on Lake Huron, but in the amount of property destroyed it has probably never been equalled. Thus far only one wreckage has been reported off Holland harbor that of the schr. Little Cooper, a lumber vessel carrying about 250 thousand. She was dashed on the west shore off Milwaukee in Thursday night's gale and drifted across the lake and came to anchor here Saturday about three miles north of the harbor. A life saving crew were four hours getting to her, as the sea was so high and had a very rough experience. Their boat was waterlogged four times, but they succeeded in taking off the Capt. who telegraphed to Milwaukee for assistance. The tug Welcome was sent out Wednesday, and towed the disabled vessel to Grand Haven, where she will remain until the weather moderates, when she will be towed to Sheboygan.

The dog stealer is around again.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. Steketee, Friday—a daughter.

Henry Hidding, one mile south of the city, lost a valuable horse on Thanksgiving.

Rev. J. Riemersma of Zeeland has received a call from Muskegon, Mich., and Rev. J. Keizer of Graafschap one from Roseland, Ill.

The social held by the Young People's Society of the Third Ref. church, Wednesday evening, was a fine affair. Over two hundred were present and a highly entertaining program of exercises was rendered. A very interesting letter was read of Miss Lizzie Cappon, missionary in China, descriptive of her present work and environments.

The gale of Friday last was so severe at Marquette that two heavy rafting chains, each weighing 200 pounds, which had been placed on lumber piles to keep the wind from tearing them to pieces, were blown into the lake. Above the piles, about ten feet, stretched a wire cable as a stay between two electric light poles, and this was broken by the chains when they were lifted by the wind.

Saturday afternoon the Grondwet-News printing house was for a brief while the scene of intense anxiety. The large press in the basement was running off the Grondwet edition, when a loud, distressing alarm was heard throughout the entire building. The engine was stopped, and everybody repaired to the rear room in the basement from whence the voice emanated, where they found Freddie De Groot, an apprentice of the office, aged 18 years, suspended from the shaft. It appears he was playfully handling a thin rope, one end of which was twisted around his left hand, when the other end caught on the shaft, hoisting him off his feet. Fortunately, when the rope had become taut and the arm reached the shaft the latter slipped and revolved within the coil. Upon being disentangled it was found that two fingers were broken, which Dr. O. E. Yates, to whose office he was carried, is yet endeavoring to save for him.

KILLS WIFE AND CHILD

TRAGIC DEED OF A MILWAUKEE MAN.

The Northwest Locked in Fetters of Frost—Big Haul at a Little Bank—Three Men Killed by a Powder Explosion.

A Family Wiped Out.
William K. Binder, living at Milwaukee, shot his wife and little girl, 5 years of age, and then shot himself Monday morning. All three are dead. Binder was the head bookkeeper of B. Leidersdorf & Co. Mr. Leidersdorf was his uncle and Binder had for years been his manager and right-hand man. The real cause for the tragedy will never be known, unless it is given in letters written by Binder to relatives living in Michigan and Virginia. It is supposed to be due to overwork and disappointment in business matters. Mrs. Binder and the little girl, Evelyn, were shot while asleep. The mother lived an hour and the child until noon. Binder died almost instantly.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY POISONED.

Arsenic Placed in a Barrel of Flour in an Ohio Household.

Six weeks ago William Crawley, who lives near College Corner, Ohio, and his wife and child were taken suddenly sick under peculiar circumstances. The symptoms pointed strongly to poison, and Dr. Kell, of Liberty, discovered, to the great surprise of the family, that the drinking water which they had been using contained oxide of arsenic. A few days ago the family was stricken down and the symptoms for a second time resembled poison. The sufferings of the father and son were terrible. The little boy died. Among those who attended the funeral were Monroe Blas, wife and two children and Mrs. Joseph Baker and her two grown-up daughters, all of College Corner. They all remained at the Crawley residence for dinner and partook freely of the meal. By 8 o'clock, when the party arrived home, Mr. Blas and his two daughters were very sick, remaining so until the next morning, when they recovered. It is believed that poison got into the Crawley flour barrel, and an investigation will result. Mr. Crawley died.

TRIED TO BURN THE BOSS.

Fearful Revenge Planned by Hungarian Railroad Laborers in Ohio.

A party of Hungarians, who were working on the Panhandle extension above New Cumberland, Ohio, on Saturday locked their boss up in a large tool-box, because of some imaginary grievance, and deliberately kindled a fire around it. They were awaiting his cremation when the teamsters employed on the work came along, drove them away, and released the partially suffocated man. After being rescued from such a horrible death it is reported that the boss repaid to his boarding-house and armed himself, returned to where the Hungarians were gathered together, opened fire on them, and scattered the gang, slightly wounding two. The Hungarians took a prominent part in the affair have left for parts unknown.

DYNAMITE SHAKES A TOWN.

Unknown Person Explodes a Bomb at Searay, Ark.

The citizens of Searay, Ark., were awakened at 2 o'clock Monday morning by a terrific dynamite explosion, which wrecked many buildings. Unknown parties exploded a dynamite bomb in front of the jewelry store of A. A. Ballard. The store and contents were completely wrecked, loss, $25,000. Buildings for blocks around were more or less damaged. The perpetrators of the deed are unknown. Their motive is a mystery.

Crespo's New Treaty.

The new cabinet of the Venezuelan republic has just made public its action as to reciprocity treaty with this country. Crespo and his council are in sympathy with the North American policy of reciprocity, and when Dr. Francisco Bestamonte, the new Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to this country, arrives here next month he will bring a copy of the treaty between the United States of North America and the United States of Venezuela.

Carnegie Men Rejected.

There was considerable excitement about the offices of the Carnegie mills at Beaver Falls when the old men presented themselves for work. All expected to go to work with the exception of the six members of the advisory board. About fifty of the old men were refused, which was quite a surprise to them. The action has caused no little talk and considerable feeling among the men.

Eight Below in Minnesota.

The Northwest has got its first cold spell of the season. In Manitoba and the northern portion of Minnesota the temperature was 5 degrees below zero Monday. In St. Paul it was 6 below at 7 o'clock, while in both the Dakotas it was below zero but grew warmer. The cold wave progressed southeastward and over the lake region.

Jewelry Store Blown Up with Dynamite.

At Searay, Ark., the jewelry store of A. A. Ballard was blown up by dynamite, causing a loss of $25,000. The Court House also suffered several thousand dollars' damage, and window glasses for a distance of four blocks were broken. The dwelling of E. J. Crow was destroyed by fire at the same time.

Cholera Breaks Out Again.

Cholera is again showing itself in Belgium. There have been two deaths from the disease in Brussels, and several cases are reported in Bruges and Mons.

Powder Explodes in Mine.

A powder explosion occurred shortly after noon Monday at the Blanch coal mine, located at the west end of Colliers, W. Va. Twenty-five kegs of powder exploded, causing the instant death of three miners and the serious wounding of eight others, three of whom will probably die.

Ashland, Ill., Bank Robbed.

Between 11 o'clock Sunday night and 6 o'clock Monday morning the banking-house of Skiles, Bearick & Co., Ashland, Ill., was entered by burglars and robbed of nearly $5,000 in currency.

THREE DEAD, SIXTEEN HURT.

Awful Accident at a Democratic Jollification—Two Kegs of Powder Explode.

The Democrats of Mountain View, Ark., held a Presidential election celebration in the district school-house at that place the other night, and a terrible disaster ended the proceedings prematurely. Anvil fires and a discharge of fireworks were features of the jollification. A portion of these had been stored in the school-house. During the speechmaking and while the building was packed with men, women, and children two kegs of powder exploded. The results were frightful. The school house was totally wrecked and most of its occupants buried in the ruins. Those who could extricate themselves set about at once to rescue others. Shrieks and moans came from the mass of wrecked timbers, and it was evident that the calamity was a terrible one. The debris took fire in several places, and it required hard work to prevent the cremation of the imprisoned victims. The flames were subdued, however, and only one person suffered from the fire. A son and daughter of Silas Graham were taken out dead, and Berry Sherod, one of the most prominent residents of Washington County, was so badly injured that he has since died. Another man, whose name has not been learned, was also fatally hurt. Fifteen others were seriously injured, but their names have not been ascertained. Berry Sherod suffered horrible agonies, mentally as well as physically, before he was got out of the ruins. He was pinned down by the timbers, and was burned beyond recognition. He lived several hours after being rescued.

IN SECRET SESSION.

Questions of Vital Importance to Be Considered in Conference.

In the marble palace of Archbishop Corrigan, on Madison avenue, New York, there is progressing a conference which may have results of a far-reaching character. Catholic archbishops are conferring upon subjects of grave importance, not alone to their own followers but to the people at large. It goes without saying that the confab is hedged about with privacy, and the avenues of public information are few. Cardinal Gibbons is said to be presiding, and the occasion gains unusual interest from the presence of Archbishop Satolli, the Pope's delegate to this country. Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, is present, and it is thought that he will meet all inquiries from any source relative to his views on the American school question. The educational question, it is believed, is being thoroughly considered by the conference. Among other matters it is understood that the convention will be asked by Archbishop Keane, of Milwaukee, accurately to define the term "secret societies." This request is in deference to the wishes of the Roman Catholics of the West, and is said to have in view the Knights of Pythias, the United Workmen, and other societies without spiritual direction, which have profited by the liberality of the church, while in consequence of this liberality the benevolent societies which have placed themselves under the direction of the church have not prospered to a corresponding degree.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR MEET.

Finances of the Great Organization on a Prosperous Basis.

The report of General Secretary and Treasurer Hayes of the Knights of Labor, in session at St. Louis, begins with a statement of the condition of the benefit insurance feature of the order's work, which, owing to lack of support by the members, has not been very successful. He urges the delegates to adopt measures to arouse the interest of the membership in this part of the work of the order. His financial statement shows that, including the balance on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year July 1, 1891, the total receipts of the order have been $60,614.19, and the total expenditures $59,748.82, leaving a balance on hand on July 1, 1892, of $865.37. The membership of the order has increased slightly during the past year, and has now over 260,000 members in good standing. Except slight balances due some of the general officers on salary, the order is entirely clear of debt; all its property, including the general headquarters in Philadelphia, some coal mining property in Indiana, and other property in Mississippi and elsewhere, is fully paid for, and foots up a total value of in the neighborhood of $100,000.

YELLOW FEVER IN MEXICO.

One Thousand Persons Have Died from the Disease in Cordoba.

A letter received by James Gallagher of New York from a friend in Cordoba, Mexico, gives a most distressing account of the state of affairs there. Yellow fever has raged with awful violence and carried away almost 1,000 of the people of the town. Most of the inhabitants have fled to the mountains to escape the plague. On the day when the letter was written the writer said the only living beings that could be seen in the streets were a few convicts who had been pressed into service for carrying the dead. Trade has been utterly paralyzed. Cordoba is a pretty little town in the heart of the Orizaba Mountains, Mexico. It has about 4,000 inhabitants.

Must Pay Full Fare.

The consideration of rates to the World's Fair occupied nearly a whole day's session at New York of the presidents of the trunk lines. The result will be a disappointment to those who looked for a great reduction from present transportation charges. On all trains scheduled at thirty-five hours or less between Chicago and New York the President decided that the rates now charged shall be maintained. During the Exposition on all trains scheduled at more than thirty-five hours a reduction of 20 per cent each way from present rates may be made.

Victims of the Glycer.

A message from Fox Island reports that Charles Bow has found two bodies on the beach with the steamer Glycer's life preservers on them. From papers found on the remains it is believed that one is the body of the steward, named Charles E. Williams. The other is the fireman, named Green. The misadventure of the Glycer was found on the beach at Fox Island.

Willow Ware Goes Up in Smoke.

Another $100,000 loss was Wednesday night added to the little Milwaukee has sustained from fire within a few weeks. The establishment of the Koch & Loeb Company, jobbers in willow ware and papers, on West Water street, was the latest victim of the flames. The two-story building which the company occupies was packed full of stock ready for the winter trade.

Lynched a Prisoner.

William Burnett, colored, was taken from jail in Oxford, N. C., just after midnight Monday night and lynched. The lynch was forced to open the jail under penalty of death, and he was the only person who saw any of the lynchers. Early risers were startled to see Burnett hanging from a tree in the suburbs of the town.

GONE WITH THE CASH.

EXPRESS MESSENGER BAGLEY MAKES A BIG HAUL.

Three Thousand Converts at Kansas City in Two Weeks—Gen. McCook Looks for an Indian Uprising in Arizona—Strike Broken.

Missing Messenger.

George W. Bagley, United States express messenger between Chicago and Council Bluffs, on the Rock Island, disappeared after arriving in Davenport Iowa at 3 o'clock Friday morning, and the entire police force of the city and private detectives were on a hunt for him. It is understood that with him there disappears a considerable amount of money, although officials are reticent as to the actual amount. Bagley lives in Davenport, was a driver for the company before he went on the road for them, and has always borne a good reputation. The Chicago officials of the United States Express Company are reticent regarding Messenger Bagley's disappearance. Vice President Carter immediately notified the Kansas City agent by wire and instructed him to put half a dozen detectives on the case at once. The Davenport agent of the company was also notified by telegraph to make all possible efforts to run Bagley down. One of the employees said he had heard from an official source that Bagley got away with between $12,000 and $15,000. "It was no uncommon thing for Bagley to bring $100,000 to the city," said one of the company's employees, "and it may be that he had a much larger sum with him when he got away than the report gives out. Then again the amount may have been smaller than $12,000, but I think it was fully that."

DEVASTATED BY A TORNADO.

Great Destruction Reported at English, Ind., and Vicinity.

An English, Ind., special says: A tornado has continued in this section almost uninteruptedly during the last eighteen hours and increased to a regular hurricane. The location of English, in a low valley saved it from serious damage, but almost every window and chimney top in town is wrecked. The fronts of the business houses of Joseph Finch, Luther Griss, and William Temple were blown in. Though the brakes were set to the utmost on cars on the railroad track, every car was driven to the west end, where the foremost of them broke through the bumper. John Jones and Cassie Forbes, while passing over the Blue River bridge, were blown off the bridge a distance of fifteen feet, but before they struck the bottom of the river they were driven eastward a great distance and managed to save themselves. The principal loss will be timber in the surrounding country. On the farm 300 large forest trees were uprooted. Hundreds of acres of unharvested corn is blown from the stalks. The meager reports from the surrounding country indicate that great damage was wrought.

Wrecked by Vanderbilt's Yacht.

Two more vessels are sunk off Pollock's Rip shoals on account of Vanderbilt's wrecked yacht Alva, which blocks that important marine thoroughfare. The steamer Saturn, towing the barges Zooloo and Storm King, came up over Pollock's Rip bound for Boston. It was rough at the time, and it was very hard work to manage a string of vessels under such circumstances. In trying to dodge the wreck the barge Zooloo struck bottom and began to fill immediately. The Storm King struck on the same shoal and she, too, foundered. All hands were saved.

Kansas City's Big Revival.

Kansas City was given over to religion Friday. Evangelist B. Fay Mills has been conducting a revival there for two weeks, and Friday was set apart as a midweek Sabbath for business men and their employees. Many business houses closed their doors, and the evangelist addressed great crowds at the Third Regiment Armory. A feature of the day was the neighborhood prayer meetings throughout the residence portions of the city. Three thousand converts to Christianity have been made during the two weeks of the revival.

Vengeance Followed Swiftly.

Thursday evening at a place just over the North Carolina line an officer was killed while trying to arrest a desperate character. The slayer was captured by a posse and was being taken to Cheraw, in South Carolina, for safe keeping. The train was stopped and boarded by a mob with blackened faces. They took the prisoner from his guards and hanged him within sight of the railroad track. Neither the name of the officer nor that of the man who was lynched has been obtained.

Trouble with Indians Expected.

There is fear of an Indian outbreak on the part of the Navajos in Arizona. Gen. McCook telegraphed the War Department expressing fear of an uprising. Black Horse, a discontented Indian chief, is held responsible for the trouble. There are 15,000 male Indians in the Navajo country. Most of the Indians have worked away from the limits of their reservation. The intention, if practicable, is to give them the land they are now occupying instead of the reservation they have deserted.

Death Blow to the Strike.

The Homestead strike received its death blow Friday. The men who came out on sympathy have not during the strike worn such happy faces as they did that day. During the day over 1,000 had their names registered in the company's books as applicants for positions. The mechanics and laborers had a meeting in the morning and almost unanimously decided to disregard the mandate of the Amalgamated and apply for work, and accept the terms they could obtain from the company.

To Admit American Cattle.

Agitation is proposed to be started at Montreal shortly with a view to the admission of United States cattle into Canada. If the Government grants such permission it is probable that dead meat factories will be established, and next summer will also see United States cattle being exported to the old country via Montreal. Circulars will soon be sent out to the leading stock raisers of the country asking their advice regarding the introduction of United States cattle into Canada.

Stole All the Cows in Town.

G. B. Kenter, a Waco, Texas, young man of former high social standing, stole all the cows belonging to the people of the town of Mart, twenty miles from Waco, and drove them to market. He was prosecuted on one of the six indictments and got five years in the penitentiary.

Trampled to Death by a Horse.

Edward Gimber, seventy years old, of Straw's Mill, eight miles from Jeffersonville, Ind., fell from a horse and was trampled to such extent that he died.

END OF THE AMAZONS

King Behan's Female Troops Are Practically Extirpated.

Dispatches from Col. Dods, commander of the French expedition to overthrow King Behan's and his Amazonian army, in Dahomey, reports that the French troops reached Cana, ten miles from Ambo, the capital of the kingdom. The natives resisted his advance desperately, but were routed in every fight, and King Behan's forces, including the remnants of his Amazonian body guard, were reduced to about 1,500, and could not cope with the French troops in open battle. The Dahomeyan kingdom was founded in the seventeenth century. The natives are pure negroes and live in fetish worship and extreme barbarism. The Amazons mutilate captives horribly. Col. Dods ordered that no quarter should be given and all prisoners be shot. It has been a campaign of extermination. The Amazons, who numbered 6,000 when the French invasion began, have mostly been killed.

AGRICULTURISTS MEET.

Reports from the Various Committees Show Improvement in All Branches.

The convention of the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations, at New Orleans, was called to order by President Brown. Reports of the chairmen of sections were submitted, showing the progress made in the colleges in the increased attendance of pupils, in the improvements of buildings, apparatus, laboratories, and additions to the curriculum. The section of agriculture reported through C. L. Ingerson, of Nebraska, the section of botany reporting through E. M. Tracey, of Mississippi. The section of chemistry reported through M. A. Scoville, of Kentucky. The section of entomology reported through Lawrence Brainerd, of Nebraska. The section of college work reported through E. M. Turner, of West Virginia. President Brown read his annual address. He expatiated upon the many and important advantages to result from the Morrill bill as regards increasing the revenues and educational facilities of the colleges in the national educational system.

GOOD ROADS LEAGUE MEET.

Number of Officers Appointed by the Executive Committee.

A meeting of the executive committee of the National League for Good Roads was held at Madison Square Garden in New York. Thornton K. Prime, of Illinois, was appointed General Western Secretary. His territory includes Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Tennessee, and Kentucky. Mr. Frederick Bronson was chosen Vice President of the league for the State of Connecticut. Colonel Delancy K. Kane was chosen Vice President for New York State. General Angus was appointed Director for the State of Maryland. Colonel Henry R. Russell, of Massachusetts, was appointed Director for that State.

Twenty Persons Poisoned.

A case of wholesale poisoning by eating canned meat is reported at Columbus, Ohio. About twenty persons have been affected, in five different households, and although, with one exception, they all seem to be out of danger, many of them are still suffering and are unable to retain food. The meat was all taken from one can. The doctors are in doubt as to the nature of the poison. Some of the meat has been sent to the State University for analysis.

Fatal Freight Wreck.

A freight wreck occurred at Allegheney, Pa. Three men are probably fatally injured. Their names are S. G. Johnson, engineer; Busck, fireman; and a brakeman whose name could not be learned. They were brought to the Altoona Hospital for treatment. It is likely that Busck will die.

Supreme Court Decision.

The Supreme Court of the United States has affirmed the decision of the New Mexico Territorial Supreme Court in the San Pedro and Canyon del Aguas grant case. The decision is against the grant, and throws the district open to miners.

Cannot Collect Tolls.

The Michigan Supreme Court declared unconstitutional an act passed by the Legislature of 1891, giving to cities and townships the right to acquire, either by purchase or condemnation, toll on plank roads within their corporation limits.

Nine Convicts Killed.

During the past year several outbreaks among convicts have occurred in prisons in various parts of Spain. Wednesday the most serious of all the series occurred in the prison at Tarragona and nine of the convicts were killed.

Is It Biela's Comet?

The astronomers at Harvard have been directing the big telescopes to a fiery mass in the heavens, which is supposed to be the famous Biela comet.

CANADA WANTS BEEF.

NEW CONQUESTS FOR THE AMERICAN STEER.

Sunday Morning Killing on the Rail—Secretary Foster's Forecast on the Pension Question—Snuggled Safe with the Sheep—Congressional Gossip.

American Cattle in Canada.

At Montreal, agitation is proposed to be started shortly with a view to the admission of United States cattle into Canada. If the Government grants such admission it is probable that dead meat factories will be established, and next summer will also see United States cattle being exported to the old country via Montreal. Circulars will soon be sent out to the leading stock-raisers of the country asking their advice regarding the introduction of United States cattle into Canada.

THE FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

It Will Convene Dec. 5—Complexion of Both Houses.

The next Fifty-third Congress will convene the first Monday of December, 1893. The present House consists of 228 Democrats, 88 Republicans, and 8 People's party members; total, 324. The next House will consist of 219 Democrats, 125 Republicans, and 11 People's party, total, 355. This is a Democratic loss of seventeen, a Republican gain of thirty-seven, and a People's party gain of three. The Democrats have complete control, entirely upsetting the calculations of Edward McPherson and other experts that the People's party would hold the balance of power in the House. The present Senate stands 47 Republicans, 39 Democrats, and two People's party. The terms of 29 Senators expire March 4, 1894, and Republican losses and Democratic and People's party gains which will result from the change of political control of legislatures elected this year will make the Senate stand after March 4 as follows: Democrats, 43; Republicans, 40; and People's party, 5. The People's party will therefore have the balance of power in the United States Senate, and if the Senators have the nerve to stand up for what the rank and file of the party demand there will be some interesting Senatorial deadlocks.

ENORMOUS SUM FOR PENSIONS.

Secretary Foster Thinks the Amount Needed Annually Will Be $250,000,000.

"The pension expenditures will shortly reach the sum of $250,000,000." This was Secretary of the Treasury Foster's statement Friday afternoon. He was asked what he thought of the levying of an income tax for the purpose of carrying on the present pension legislation. Such a tax has been suggested. "I don't think such a tax is feasible," replied Mr. Foster. "It is almost impossible to collect such a tax. All taxes are distasteful enough to the average citizen, but a personal tax is especially obnoxious and can rarely be collected." "What means, then, of raising revenue would you suggest?" Here Mr. Foster ceased to be communicative. He replied: "I am preparing a report in which I shall deal with this subject, and it is a matter of doubtful propriety to anticipate that report by a verbal and informal statement."

PROTECTED BY A FLOCK OF SHEEP.

How the Life of a Schoolgirl, Who Was Lost in a Storm, Was Saved.

A heavy snow-storm prevailed in Southern Idaho for several days. Nellie Logan, the 8-year-old daughter of James Logan, of Hillsdale, falling a well-filled lunch basket in her hand and accompanied by a little terrier, started across the divide for school. A short time after the girl's departure snow commenced to fall heavily, and as she had not at noon reached her destination it was known that she was lost. Her dog was found Wednesday frozen stiff. The little wanderer was found alive and well, but terribly weak, in an old stock shed, with no companions save a dozen fleecy sheep, among which she had sought, and thus escaped death by freezing. She said she had been attracted to the cattle shed by the bleats of sheep.

BUSINESS IS HEALTHY.

There Are No Important Changes in the Markets.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

No important change appears in the condition of business. The distribution of products continues enormous. Production by manufacturers is greater on the whole than in any previous year, and while some hesitation is seen about entering into new accounts, the general tone of business and industries is remarkably healthy. Trading in cotton was much the largest ever known in any week, but stock dealings have been but moderate. At Boston business continues large, collections good, money easy. In general, the situation is unchanged, excepting that wool is more quiet.

Wholesale Slaughter.

North Paulina street, Chicago, was the scene of a tragedy Sunday morning which resulted in the killing of two persons, the slight wounding of two others, and finally the shooting of the maniac who wrought the havoc. Henry Felte, a German, 66 years of age, and his wife Carolina were shot and almost instantly killed by their son-in-law, Hermann Siegler. Officer Donahue received a charge of shot in his overcoat, and was struck by a stray pellet on the nose. Other lives were in danger till a lucky bullet from Officer Simonson's revolver found a lodgment in Siegler's side, but even then he was only captured by Officer Dan T. McCarthy after a hard struggle. Siegler was insane.

Warren on Trial for His Life.

At Waco, Texas, Tommy Warren, the champion feather-weight, is on trial charged with the murder of Clem Stoval, a colored saloon waiter. Warren and a gambler named Root were drinking in a wine-room when an insult passing both drew revolvers. Stoval entered with drinks and received the bullets intended for Root.

Killed on the Rail.

Conductor Beauchamp and his brakeman went to sleep in the caboose of their train on the Chicago and Western Indiana Sunday. Their train stopped near the Belt Line crossing in Chicago, another freight dashed into it, and the two men named and the fireman of the colliding engine were killed.

Gone with a Woman and the Cash.

C. W. Ridgway, general manager of the Rocky Mountain Telegraph Company, a connection of the Postal company, is missing from Helena, Mont. The company is several thousand dollars short in consequence. Ridgway is a married man.

Members of the Coffin Trust Indicted.

At Jackson, Miss., forty-three indictments were found in the Federal Court against a mass of members of the coffin trust, recently organized in that State. The indictments are based on a Federal statute recently passed, and charges a conspiracy to raise the price of coffins.

PRESIDENTIAL LANDSLIDES.

HOLLAND CITY NEWS

G. VAN SCHELVEN, Editor.

SATURDAY, NOV. 26, 1892.

The Result on Attorney General.

The official canvass in all the counties of the state, except Manitowish, gives every candidate on the Republican state ticket, excepting Mr. Diekema, a plurality ranging all the way from 600 to 17,000.

The plurality of Ellis over Diekema in the state is 862, with Manitowish to hear from. This county is composed of the islands in Lake Michigan near the Straits, and casts not to exceed 150 votes. In 1890 the vote stood: 97 Democratic and 9 Republican. At this writing the official vote has not yet been reported, although it is known that, owing to the stormy weather on election day, only a very light vote was polled, not to exceed 50. As will be seen further on, the relative insignificant vote of this county may become an important factor in the final result on attorney general.

The object of the new election law was to purify election methods. Its first workings have proven quite satisfactory, and its mandates have as a rule been universally respected.

The one conspicuous exception, however, is found in the county of Manistee, a Democratic stronghold and the home of our present secretary of state Robert A. Blacker, a politician of no mean renown.

As the campaign progressed in this county it became apparent that the old-time Democratic majority stood in jeopardy by reason of a general defection in the Polish vote, which threatened to flop over to the People's party. In order to retain this element, which is quite numerous in certain precincts, for the Democratic ticket, two additional Democratic county tickets were gotten up, with the names of one or two Poles as candidates, but with the regular Democratic state ticket on top. These tickets, although they did not represent any political organization or regular convention, were placed by the election commissioners of Manistee county on the ballot in addition to the others, making six tickets in all, and were designated as "Independent Democrat" and "Regular Independent Democrat," each bearing its vignette. One of these vignettes was a wheel, and by this wheel the Poles were directed by their priest on the Sunday before election to designate the ticket of their choice on the ballot.

It is needless to further dilate upon the fraudulent nature of these proceedings or point out the legal defections.

In order to facilitate a canvass of such ballots, and to secure by a count whatever might otherwise fail, secret printed circulars bearing the official name of Attorney General Ellis were distributed among Democratic election inspectors, instructing them among others that "if any one candidate be voted for two or more times upon one ballot," the ballot is not void as to that one candidate, but he should be credited with one vote. The object and effect of all this is evident on the face of it.

The returns of Manistee county show a total vote on President as follows: Democrat 2310, Republican 1481, People 157, Prohibition 231. On a recount, which was demanded on the office of sheriff and judge of probate, it developed that of the 2310 Democratic votes 940 had been designated on one or the other of the two irregular Democratic tickets.

As to whether this state of affairs will in anywise affect the final result on attorney general, will in the first place depend upon whether the plurality of Ellis over Diekema in the state is above or below 940—the number of irregular Manistee tickets; and in the second place whether, in case Ellis' plurality shall be less than that number, Mr. Diekema will take recourse to the courts for his rights, or not.

Having been apprised of the situation of affairs in Manistee county, Mr. Diekema on Monday proceeded thither, appeared before the county canvassing board, asked for a recount, and deposited the necessary fee. The board however declined to grant him his request and adjourned.

Judging from present indications nothing definite can be looked for until the total vote for attorney general throughout the whole state has been officially or reliably ascertained.

Hon. C. W. Garfield of Grand Rapids has just returned from a four-months' trip through Europe on a wheel. In an interview with a reporter of the G.R. Democrat, he makes this reference to his journey in Holland: "We landed at Rotterdam, and rode through Holland, passing through Delft, Hague, Leyden, Haarlem, Amsterdam and Utrecht, thence out of Holland to Cologne on the Rhine. I liked the Holland people better than any nationality we visited in Europe. They are more like Americans. You can meet people anywhere in Holland who speak English, for it is taught in the schools. If you see a well dressed lad on the street in Holland and address him in English, you are reasonably sure of being understood. The Hollanders are hospitable and delight to show attentions to strangers. If you stand on a street corner consulting your guide book, some man, woman or child is sure to rush up and ask if he or she can direct you. In England, the Britisher acts at all times as if he thought he was lord of creation. If you speak to one of them he is sure to make you feel sorry that you did. They stand up so straight in England that they lean backward."

Now that Belknap is reported as elected, we condole with the Republicans in Holland in having gone back on their congressional representative. They will probably feel modest when they ask appropriations for their harbor.—G. H. Herald.

"Modest" does not begin to express it.

It's agony and remorse, unspeakable and excruciating.

Think of the fate of our harbor appropriations hereafter, with Mr. Belknap "gone back," and no more intercessions in our behalf before the Senate committee on Commerce, of which Senator Frye is chairman.

The controversy between Col. Ludlow and the Lighthouse Board is ended. Col. Ludlow will not be restored to duty. Many of the marine interests, especially in Detroit and Chicago, sought his restoration because of his services in the lighting of St. Mary's river. Col. Ludlow got into a wrangle with the Lighthouse Board over the number of lights to be used there, and was relieved by the War Department at the request of the Treasury Department. Subsequently Secretary Foster sustained Col. Ludlow's contention as to the number of lights. At the request of the Secretary, Supt. Mendenhall of the coast survey, a member of the lighthouse board, made an investigation. His report scores Col. Ludlow severely and sums up that the lighting of St. Mary's river in itself had nothing to do with the request for the relief of Col. Ludlow. He charges the Colonel with persistent insubordination and declares the lighthouse board could not have done otherwise than it did in requesting that Col. Ludlow be relieved. Secretary Foster accepts Supt. Mendenhall's report as conclusive. This, however, does not relieve the Colonel as the engineer in charge of the harbors on the east shore of Lake Michigan, which position he holds under the War Department. The general tone of the press does not sustain the treatment Col. Ludlow has received at the hands of officials of the Treasury Department.

The retail liquor dealers of this state, it is said, will appeal to the next legislature for a partial revision of the liquor law. They will ask for uniform licenses for liquor and beer. The saloon men think the men who take out nothing but a beer license sell as much whisky as the men who pay $200 extra for a whisky license. The present license for a liquor saloon is $530 and for a beer saloon $300. They desire a uniform rate of $300. The chances however are that the uniformity will be fixed at the rate of $500. The legislature of 1889 established it at that figure, but owing to an irregularity in enrolling the bill, the supreme court knocked the law out. They will also ask that druggists take out a whisky license, as they believe some druggists sell as much whisky as the saloonists. They further wish a uniform closing law for the whole state. In some towns the saloons close at 9 o'clock, while in others they pull down the blinds and run all night. They wish to keep open on Christmas, New Years, Fourth of July and on all holidays except Thanksgiving and on Sundays.

The question of student voting is a vexed problem in every college town in this state, recurring at each election. The constitution provides that "no elector shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence while a student at any seminary of learning." The proposition involved may be put thus: Can a voter, under no circumstances whatever, gain a residence, while a student? A test case will be made at Ann Arbor, by a literary student, Loren D. Carr, who is also janitor of one of the churches in that city. He has been arrested for illegal voting under the provision above cited. Hon. R. P. Sawyer of Ann Arbor, will appear as his counsel.

On Tuesday of this week the cemetery north of Stinesville, Ind., was discovered to have been desecrated. The tombstones over every soldier's grave had been broken to pieces by means of an ax. The city marshal received a telegram the next day from Pacific Grove, Cal., offering men and money to aid in the search and prosecution. Other offers have been received, but none will likely be accepted, as the home veterans feel able to bring the criminals to justice. A similar outrage, in spirit, took place at a political jubilee the other night at Birmingham, Conn., where some overly enthusiastic partisans in the festivities, went to the soldiers monument in that town and decorated it with crape.

Dealers in country produce on South Water street, Chicago, have a hard winter before them. Market reports show that cabbage, potatoes, apples, turnips, parsnips, carrots, beets and onions are selling at double the prices of a year ago, and the chances are that the values will be enhanced before the middle of winter. The kitchen garden industry, in the country tributary to Chicago, has been almost a complete failure this year. Not only here, but nearly all over the United States and in some parts of Canada the same condition prevails. There seems to be no source whence the deficit in the vegetable crop can be filled except by importation from Europe, and vegetables obtained thus would be so expensive as to preclude their use by persons of moderate means. The direct cause of the vegetable crop failure was the backward season last spring and the cold rains that continued late into the summer.

Said Mr. Walter Phelps, the American minister at Berlin, at the Thanksgiving dinner, Thursday evening: "America is the only land in which God has poured forth such a river of good things that it takes a Thanksgiving day to dispose of them. America is the only nation that could have a national Thanksgiving. Other nations try it and the day instead of becoming a day of thanks becomes one of prayer. When other nations pray they pray for just what the United States has got."

The official State canvass was commenced this week, but owing to the non-arrival of the returns from several counties an adjournment was had until to-day (Friday). The congressional canvass for the Fifth district is still pending. In Ionia county an occasional small error is discovered, while in Kent county the board has adjourned for two weeks, during which interval a committee of the board will go over the ballots from all the precincts in the county.

In Grand Rapids they agitate an amendment to their city charter by which they will be authorized to bond the city for $150,000 to prosecute the dredging of Grand River, begun by the U.S. government some years ago.

Windmills.

A windmill is almost indispensable now-days.

Among the best ones manufactured in this country is the ABRIEL ROLLER WINDMILL, of J. M. De Feyter, Cor. Pine and Fourteenth streets, Holland, Mich.

This Mill drew the general attention at the late Fair held at Holland. It is especially adapted for deep wells, is made after an entire new model, has a very attractive appearance, and is the result of thirteen years' experience and experiments with different kinds of mills.

A good supply of pure water is an absolute necessity on every farm, and this can be obtained by purchasing an ABRIEL ROLLER MILL of J. M. De Feyter, who is also ready at all times to dig wells and furnish drive wells.

He also has the agency for the STAR STEEL WINDMILL.

Our Young Men.

In view of the early completion of "Bergen Hall" in this city, and the entering of the Y. M. C. A. upon its active career, we cheerfully devote space to the following extract from a sermon preached by Rev. H. G. Birch, by in Hope Church on Sunday last, the closing day of the Y. M. C. A. week of prayer:

"Run, speak to this young man."—ZACH. II: 4.

As Christians and patriots it behooves us to look out for the welfare of this beloved land of ours—this land which God has given us for a goodly heritage. Intelligent men, all over the Union, are asking themselves, with some anxiety, "What is to be the future of this great land of ours?" And the answer comes back unmistakably clear and plain, "It is to be largely just what the young men make it." As Christians and patriots therefore, it behooves us to take heed to the words of our text: "Run, speak to this young man." What is true for the country is also true for the church.

This past week has been kept all over the Christian world as a special season of prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian Associations. In our schools and colleges, in our large business centres and our churches God's people have been supplicating the Throne of Grace for a blessing upon the work among young men. How great the need!

In 1880, in this country were 24 cities of 45,000 and upwards, population; in 1890, we had 34 such cities. Between '80 and '90 the increase of population in the cities and towns was 57 per cent, while in our rural districts it was but 8 per cent. We have now 490 cities and towns with a population of 3,500 and over, in which are gathered to-day nearly two fifths of all our people.

These large cities and towns are the nerve centre of our civilization, and also its storm centre. Where else, except in these large centres, can you find a soil into which if you drop the seed of anarchism, of socialism or communism, its roots will strike so deep and as a noxious weed grow so rapidly bearing destruction and death all around? We need look no further than Chicago for an illustration of this statement.

"What is to be the outcome of all this?" is becoming a grave question with the leaders in our municipal organizations as well as the leaders in our churches. When this question is settled for our large cities it settles the future of our nation. And, brethren, one potent factor in the elucidation of this problem is the Young Men's Christian Association.

We find this organization established and accomplishing its beneficent purpose all around the world; and America, with its International Committee, keeping in touch with the multitude of associations all over Canada and the United States in the clasp in the belt which girdles the globe with organizations working for young men in obedience to our text: "Run, speak to this young man."

Now, brethren, note one thing: Truth is eternal, truth never dies, truth never changes; but the methods of presenting and applying truth change with every generation that comes and goes. You, business men, understand this. There are certain principles which underlie all true business and which never vary nor change; but methods change continually. The methods, current fifty years ago, twenty years ago, would not do to-day, and business men know it. How long, do you suppose, it would take one of your factories to adopt some new method, if it could be shown its manager, that by this he could increase his output and enlarge his trade? How long, do you suppose, it would take a tradesman under like circumstances to adopt a new method? Not long, unless he was a failure.

And, brethren, the Christian church is adopting new methods in carrying on the King's business; methods adapted to the exigencies of the times, dealing in the same class of goods; setting forth the same "Old, old story of Jesus and His love"; but setting it forth in such beauty and freshness that it is a "New, new song" in the hearts of all who receive it. And what are all these organizations, societies, guilds and associations but a new business methods of the church of Christ?

A remarkable phase of our life to-day is the tendency to specialize in every direction. The old proverb is now true: "It takes nine tailors to make a man," or to furnish him a suit of clothes. And yet, it is in the recollection of some still living, when from the wool on the sheep's back to the coat on the man's back it passed through but one pair of hands. The same holds in most lines of production. Shoemakers are dying out, and so are watchmakers. Everything is being made piece meal and by specialists. The day of walking encyclopedias is past, and one is not only content but proud if he can master the special branch he has selected for his life study.

Then it need not surprise us that this tendency has appeared in the work of the Church, and the different classes of mankind with their differing demands are provided for and met by differing agencies, all actuated by the same spirit, the spirit of Christ, in His love for souls. Hence the Young Men's Christian Association is the church of Christ reaching out in new methods to raise and save the young men.

You ask me, "Is there any need of it?" Look at the city of Boston. It has 90,000 young men, and less than 10,000 of them are members of evangelical churches, leaving 80,000 of them out side of the church of Christ; and one of the leading pastors some time ago said, it was safe to say that at least one half of them seldom if ever attended church.

Look at the city of Milwaukee, where in 1890 statistics were carefully gathered, and out of 30,000 young men, over 12,000 of them by actual count were numbered in the saloons of that city on a Saturday night.

Take San Francisco, and the pastors of that city, canvassing the young men found in the theatres and saloons of that city on Sunday night, discovered 37,000 young men in those places, 1800 young men being in one theatre alone; while on a succeeding Sunday, canvassing the attendance at the Protestant churches, they discovered but 2,000 young men attending those places of worship. Is there no need to be up and doing, that we may reach and save the young men of our land?

In this city of Holland, out of 1,000 young men less than 250 are among our regular church attendants, and of the remainder, 500 possibly never cross the threshold of the sanctuary.

In a systematic visitation of your factories, it has been learned that but two out of eleven are church members. While the city is increasing rapidly in population, we fear the churches are practically standing still. Within the sound of the church bells calling to worship, there are living many who are as much heathen as the natives of central Africa or inland China, so far as church attendance is concerned.

There are two saloons filled every night with young men, 30 or more, and on Saturday nights crowded, and the other five drinking places in the city to doubt have their share.

Now, brethren, I ask you solemnly before God: What are you doing to meet these evils? You may point to "Bergen Hall," and you ought to be commended for that true endeavor. It is a noble work and deserving of all praise, and now that it is so near completion I trust it will not lack for that financial encouragement which will set it on a firm and working basis. It would be a shame for any one connected with this church to permit this building, bearing the name that it does, to be crippled for any aid which he can afford it; and I bespeak for its officers a prompt and generous response to all their appeals that, when it initiates its beneficent work as a Young Men's Christian Association, it may be perfectly and thoroughly equipped for its mission. I understand that there is a debt of $2,500 on the building, and that the sum of $1,000 will cover all the expenses of furnishing it. A word to the wise is sufficient.

But, my dear friends, the Young Men's Christian Association, noble institution that it is, and grand work that it does, does not absolve you from the weight and obligation of our text: "Run, speak to this young man."

You cannot shift the responsibility from your shoulders to others. These young men that crowd around you in this city and jostle you on every hand, many of them, if we believe the Bible to be true, are on the broad road to destruction. You cannot answer them with any Cain-like question: "Am I my brother's keeper?" The opportunity closes the obligation. It is the duty, and it should be esteemed the privilege of every Christian man to seek the welfare of young men. Whenever brought into association with them, we should realize that it is with our power to divine blessing, to mold the character, fix the career, and determine the destiny of the youth.

We should hear the commission from heaven: "Run, speak to this young man."

We allow young men to come and go from the sanctuary, without by a kindly word enlisting their sympathies and rendering them at home. We talk with young men upon every conceivable topic, without seizing the fitting moment to drop a word for Jesus. And yet a sentence or two fitly and timely spoken, may cast a flood of light upon their path, and entirely transform their course of life. It may be but a single word that you speak to the young man, but God can make that word like the command upon the battlefield that secures the victory, or like the word of the marriage ceremony that links two lives forever. The mighty God can take your simple word, proceeding from a sincere sympathy with the young man in his perils and an earnest yearning to help him to the truth, and make that word marvellously efficacious.

Then speak the word, the word of warning, the word of welcome, the word of entreaty the word of counsel. Let young men feel that your religion is not a selfish thing. Show that you are consciously your brother's keeper; prove that you can enter into his conflicting hopes and fears; that you understand his position of peculiar temptations, as he steps into the realm of novelty; that you sympathize with his honest doubts with which at his outset he is called to contend; and that you are faithful to be his friend, companion and counselor.

"Richard and his Sweetheart Nell," song and chorus, quarto, sent free to any address by Studebaker Mfg. Co., South Bend, Ind., on receipt of stamp to cover postage and mailing. The verses relate the story of a drive taken by Richard and Nell. The title page has an elegant picture, specially designed by the artist, Gray-Parker, showing Richard and his sweetheart about starting out on their memorable drive. The words, of course, constitute a love story. The share in it of the Studebakers is merely incidental. The melody is delightful, and was composed for the words by the well known musical writer, W. F. Sudds.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." Dr. J. F. Kitchin, Lowell, Mass. "Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." Truth About Russia.

the best things possible for the nation which, doing lores and which as ardently loves him. But what an undertaking to rule one hundred and twelve million of people, made up of one hundred and thirty different languages and of many different languages! But notwithstanding all these things there move on marvelously well, and I do not believe that after five hundred thousand years there will be any more than one person who dislikes the Emperor, and so few persons who dislike the Emperor, and so few persons of dread of assassination drops so flat it can fall no flatter.

Calmly the second—If you go to Russia you will see a severe aspect, stooped, here and there, and a stern, stern, stern, stern, stern,
But my opinion is that if a man is disturbed in Russia it is because he ought to be disturbed. Russia is the only country in Europe in which my hand, tied together with a cord so that their titles could be seen, a pile of eight or ten books, all of them from 1812 to 1871, and Russia, but I do not think in coming with me the books,
There is a little more than a little more than

When a criminal is sent to Siberia, in the vast majority of cases it gives him an opportunity to make a new start under the best possible circumstances. The sentence is not imposed on him for his family alone, and that is merely one of our country's grants. In the quiescent mines of Siberia—the hardest place of expropriation—there are thousands of Americans who are criminals. For other three-fourths go to Siberia because they choose it as a place to earn their living.

After being in Siberia while the condemned go to earn a livelihood, and they come to own their own property, they are sent back to the United States. Many of these people coming to wealth, and thousands of them under no inducement would leave those parts of Siberia which are paradises for the United States. Influence. Now when do you think is the best time to visit Siberia? When many of our American prisoners? When a man commits a big crime in our country, the judge looks into the frightened face of the condemned and says: "You shall have a sentence of a sentence you to the penitentiary for ten years." He goes to prison. He is shut in between four walls. No sunlight. No fresh air. No bath—no soap. He has served ten years he dies of consumption. He is so comforted by the thought of his life he sits with folded hands—a wheezing invalid.

In preference to the United States of the average American, I would give me Siberia. Because there, when offenders come out of prison in America, what chance have they? Ask the newly supported socialist friends to get these people out of prison, and to give them the most poorly paid place for work from a mine to get them reason, as a consequence, it is said, of the distress incident to the long over- and journey. The ill-fated traveler must have made the trip in a hurry.

Other day, when returning from serving his second term in the house of correction, he was drunk—y-a, as dead drunk as the man who is trying to drown his

WRECKED BY CYCLONE

THE TOWN OF RED BUD, ILL., LAID IN RUINS.

Two Persons Are Killed, Twelve Seriously Hurt and Many Others Injured—Eighty Buildings Demolished—Scenes of Death and Devastation.

Wiped Out by Wind.

The city of Red Bud, Ill., situated thirty miles southeast of St. Louis on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, was visited by a cyclone of wonderful intensity. The day preceding was a delightful autumn day, mild and bright. Toward night, however, the clouds began to gather and the weather indications rather favored rain. Shortly after midnight a terrific rainfall, accompanied by violent thunder and lightning, aroused the citizens, and at 3:30 in the morning a cyclone was raging. Eighty-four buildings were demolished, two persons killed, twelve seriously hurt, and many more injured. It is estimated that $100,000 worth of property was destroyed.

The dead: Koppe, Willie; Koppe, Mrs. Nob. The injured: Bayo, Mrs. Louis; Crow, Emma; Dose, Peter; Havermann, Margaret; Heltman, Mr.; Kardell, Mrs. Peter; Manderfeld, Mrs. John; Starr, Alden; Starr, Mrs. Alden; Starr, Charles; Sperr, S. A.; Sperr, Mrs. S. A.

Work of the Wind.

Among the buildings blown down were the Catholic Church and parochial school, the German Lutheran Church, the City Hall and prison, the city fire engine house, the German Lutheran school, the high school building, the Continental Hotel, and the residences of the following named: W. Perkins, H. D. Redge, F. B. Droge, John Lang,

RUINS OF THE SCHOOL-HOUSE.

John Randall, John Haba, Peter Kardell, A. D. Perry, L. Koffenberg, Ernest Budd, Chas. Jaeger, Mrs. Hauerman, C. Grelow, P. Janneman, Mrs. Jacob Kobe, John Kuaker, Henry Waldman, William Buotner, Henry Beeson, Dr. Alley, John Barnes, M. Triveller, H. W. Schmidt, William Voges, John Mauderfelt, William Michaels, B. Miller, Charles Gubert, P. Enzenauer, William Stinde, J. J. Just, Jacob Miller, William Williamson, Frank Lang, George Reles, Alden Starr, Mrs. Sophia Rathbert, Henry Rathbert, D. Rathbert, John Wetzel, William Kellerholz, Frank Lish, F. D. Guken, and Mrs. Dora Kaufman.

Besides the above there were many barns, warehouses, and outbuildings demolished.

The storm came up without the slightest warning and the first intimation the inhabitants of the ill-fated city had of it was when they were awakened from their slumbers by the crash of their homes about their ears. The horrors of an lark darkness lighted up momentarily by flashes of lightning added to the fear and madness which oppressed all minds during the terrible visitation. Daylight only made more terrible that which night had hidden. The scene cannot be described. The streets, when lit up by the first streaks of dawn, presented a pitiable scene of ruin and utter desolation. On every hand rose the moans of the injured and the grief of their friends and relatives. The streets were blocked with the debris of the storm's wreck, and for some time it was impossible to get an accurate list of the sufferers of the terrible visitation. The one given above is believed to cover all the casualties, and the number of houses wrecked by the storm is fairly complete.

As soon as the more fortunate people of the city recovered from the first shock of the calamity, efforts were at once diverted to caring for the injured. They were taken to the homes of those who had escaped the storm's wrath and cared for by willing hands, and the doctors of the village dressed their wounds.

Track of the Storm.

The storm was destructive and far reaching. Sweeping down from the north came a tremendous storm of snow, rain, and sleet, which, encountering the warm air-currents of "Egypt," developed three distinct cyclonic storm centers, diverging from a common center near Red Bud. Taking a southeasterly course one part of the storm passed on rapidly through Western Kentucky and Tennessee, leveling everything in its path at Red Bud, and only when Northern Alabama was reached had it lessened its force. To the westward moved a second storm center passing through Central Missouri, thence across Northern Kansas, finally being lost in the mountains of Wyoming, but the curious feature of this remarkable atmospheric disturbance lay in the direction taken by the third arm—a northerly course, through Iowa, veering to the west into Nebraska leaving a hopeless tangle of wires in its wake, until it became next to an impossibility to reach any of the great cities west of St. Louis except by circuitous routes. Not a wire remained from Milwaukee to St. Paul and Minneapolis and the Northwest, these points being served with European and Eastern domestic news over the Southern Pacific route to Denver, thence to Ogden, Utah, Helena, Mont., and via the Northern Pacific to Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The News Aftermath.

It is now reported that Senator John G. Carlisle is likely to be made Secretary of State.

Col. JACK CHINN, shot on the East St. Louis race track by Capt. Anthony, will recover.

This output of the cigar factories at Reading, Pa., so far this year, has been over 100,000,000.

Gov. FLEMING, of West Virginia, has refused to commute the sentence of Allen Harrison, under sentence to be hanged for the murder of his sweetheart, Bettie Adams.

It is a great domestic remedy, and should be kept in every home. Mr. Norman Cheatham, Waverly, Sussex Co., Va., who has never been without it for twelve years, subscribes to this opinion. He says: "Our family has been using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for twelve years and are never without it in the house. It is invaluable."

A Chemical Fire Alarm.

A new fire alarm now in use in Sweden consists of a small copper cartridge closed by an India rubber button and filled with a fire composition. The fuse contains a mixture of potassium chlorate and sugar, and on it is placed a paraffine capsule containing a few drops of sulphuric acid. When the temperature of the room rises above the melting point of paraffine the sulphuric acid is liberated and ignites the chlorate mixture, which in its turn sets fire to the Bengal light.

A fusible metal disc, placed in contact with the mixture, will also be melted, and thus make electrical connection with a call bell so as to sound the alarm at a distance.

A Tremendous Rumpus.

In the system is produced by a disorderly liver. Bile gets into the blood and gives a saffron tinge to the countenance and eye-balls, sick headaches ensue, the digestive organs are thrown out of gear, the bowels become constipated, there are pains through the right side and shoulder blade, the breath grows sour and the tongue furred, dizziness is frequent, especially on rising suddenly. This state of affairs could not exist unless the disturbance were a serious one. Yet it is easily remediable with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which relieves every symptom of biliousness and indigestion, and promotes a regular action of the bowels, and is auxiliary of appetite and sleep. The Bitters is a superb specific for malarial and kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility. A wineglassful thrice a day.

Gannets.

From the small island of St. Kilda, off Scotland, 20,000 young gannets, and an immense number of eggs are annually collected, and although this bird lays only one egg per annum and is four years in attaining maturity, its numbers do not diminish.

Beware of Quack-remedies for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

There are officially estimated to be in the United States 12,523,731 school children, an increase of 26.54 per cent. in the last ten years, or a gain of about 2 per cent. more than the increase of population.

DESERVING CONFIDENCE.—There is no article which so richly deserves the entire confidence of the community as Brown's Bronchial Troches. Those suffering from Asthmatic and Bronchial Diseases, Coughs, and Colds should try them. Price 25 cents.

It makes a cheap swell proud to be called a dude.

In Olden Times.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Cure for Gas Frostration.

It often occurs in the various gas works of the city that men working in the retort houses are overcome by the fumes of gas and are in danger of asphyxiation. There is a uniform remedy for all such cases, and it never fails in 999 instances out of 1,000. As soon as a man exhibits symptoms of being affected by the gas he is promptly given a Sedilix powder. This generates gas in the stomach, and as it is thrown off it carries with it the noxious coal gas which the patient has inhaled. Large supplies of the powders are always kept on hand at the different works for use in such emergencies.

Don't give up and say there is no help for Catarrh, Hay Fever, and Cold in the head, since thousands testify that Ely's Cream Balm has entirely cured them.

I HAVE been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years; I had lost sense of smell entirely, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needles. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread on just as needles as ever I did; my sense of smell seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh.—Mrs. E. E. Grimes, Bendville, Perry Co., Ohio.

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Onondaga County, N. Y.:

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat five times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to Queer Characteristics of John Chinaman.

As an inventor John has achieved some distinction, and has won for himself the name of the "Yankee of the East." Besides the mariner's compass, type, printing, paper, porcelain, silk, gunpowder and clocks are some of his alleged discoveries. He has kept the knowledge of these things to himself as much as possible, scorning to give to those so much inferior to him as he supposes other nations to be, the knowledge which he has made his own. John himself and his countrymen are "celebrities," his Emperor is the "Son of Heaven"; why should he stoop to benefit a people so much beneath him as the inhabitants of England or the United States? John's schoolbooks give amusing testimony to the abundance of this national pride and self-satisfaction. His geography allots nine-tenths of the globe to China, about a square inch to England, and no space at all to our own great country! This same self-conceit helps to account for the lack of progress noticeable in John and his countrymen. For centuries they held themselves quite apart from other nations.

At the same time, John's nation is, in its way, an educated nation. All public offices are open to the graduates of their colleges, without any distinction of class or creed. Brains and skill, rather than money, are the highways to honor and office.

John's language is the hardest of all to learn. His alphabet has two hundred and fourteen letters, and such complications of tones and inflections that one word spoken in ten different ways means ten different things.

As a business man John is not remarkable for honesty, to say the least. One traveler asserts that the first Chinaman by whom he was swindled was the first one with whom he had any business transactions—and that the last one who swindled him was the last native with whom he had any dealings when he left the country a year later.

John, as a soldier, is so brave that he goes to a night attack with his lighted lantern. It may expose his whereabouts to the enemy, to be sure, but if hostile soldiers are to be dreaded much more the dark—in John's opinion.

John's religion? He has plenty—such as it is. Every trade has its patron divinity. The Joss-houses have their idols by the dozen, and John smokes and chats as he prays. As he has only a single tongue, however, he must use some device to do either the chatting or the praying. So he prays by means of two sticks, half round, determining by the way they fall whether or not his prayer is granted. Or he prints his prayer on a strip of red paper and pins it on the wall near the door. At the proper time the priest sends it, with other accumulated prayers, up into the air, on the wings of fire.—November St. Nicholas.

Hamilton.

Albert Klompars and Ben Brown visited Holland city, Wednesday, on purely business matters—so they say.

Sam Smith having received a small fortune from Uncle Sam for the loss of one of his eyes during the late war, has purchased the property of Henry Woodruff, and after furnishing it handsomely, started out for Ohio to find his wife whom he had not seen for a quarter of a century. We are glad to learn that he was successful, and that they are nicely settled and enjoying their second honeymoon.

Thanksgiving was duly observed in the Ref. church, Rev. A. Strabbing delivering a very appropriate sermon to a large and attentive audience.

Saugatuck.

Commercial: It is understood to be the intention of the C. & W. M. to construct their new bridge across the Kalamazoo river at New Richmond without a draw, thus forever cutting off river navigation above that point. Once established, it would be very difficult to compel the removal of such a bridge, and if people who are interested in having the river kept open to navigation wish to protect their interests, they should file a protest with the secretary of war at Washington.

Allegan County.

Gazette: Two ladies from Ganges, Mesdames Corner and Sutherland, were seriously injured on the C. & W. M. railway near Millgrove one evening last week. They were upon the train bound for that place. For some reason it was not stopped at the station but some distance beyond, and then the conductor told them that the way was clear to the depot. They started back and had gone but a short distance when they walked into a cattle guard. The company can probably be held responsible for the injuries sustained.

Steps were taken at Wayland, Tuesday, to put the local-option law in force in Allegan county after the first of next May, the time when the tax-year expires. Several townships were represented at the meeting and a partial organization effected. A committee of three will be appointed in each township, the chairman of which will be a member of the county committee. J. W. Humphrey of Martin was chosen chairman of the county committee. Petitions will be printed and circulated at once.
