NEWSPAPER LAWS.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of newspapers, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid. If subscribers refuse or neglect to take their newspapers from the office to which they are sent, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the newspapers are sent to the former place of residence, they are then responsible.

CONCERNING DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can have arrested any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," and to send a postal notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Saturday's snow-fall gladdened the heart of the robust boy.

The first sleighing of the season was indulged in Saturday. Slipping was fairly good then, but is better now.

The C. & W. M. coaches that were wrecked near Zeeland, Thursday, were sent on to the Muskegon shops for repairs, Saturday.

Wheat is looking good throughout the country and will enter the winter in good condition. The acreage sown is smaller than usual.

At their saw mill near New Richmond, Messrs. J. & A. Van Putten have cut up all the logs they had in the Kalamazoo river and shut down the mill for the winter.

The Paw Paw marsh has been burning for two weeks past near Benton Harbor, with no serious damage till Monday, when several hundred tons of hay stacked in the vicinity were burned.

Gen. Manager Sicer, of the D. G. H. & M. Ry., has issued a circular notifying the employees of that road that it would be pleasing to the officers if they would find boarding places where liquor is not sold.

A Charlevoix man has applied for a patent for the preserving of bodies through petrification. He claims that he can turn a human body to stone, absolute stone, so that it will never decay or crumble, and at small expense.

Capt. B. F. Graves, commandant at the soldiers' home, Grand Rapids, was taken with a chill last week which the doctors pronounced a very severe case of spinal fever and which is feared will result in a long siege with the disease.

After a season's trial the South Haven & Chicago Transportation Co., having found the machinery of the new steamer City of Kalamazoo inadequate for maintaining a high rate of speed, is removing it and will replace it with fore-and-aft compound engines of the requisite power.

Parties are traveling over the country with a sample of some kind of grain or seed, which they show and claim will yield fifty bushels to the acre. They propose to furnish the seed and 100 pounds of phosphate per acre and ask in return one half the crop. This certainly is a good bargain for the one that furnishes the seed, but it is still better when the signed contract turns out to be a note for two or three hundred dollars. Watch the sharpers, as they are continually after the unsuspecting.

Recent railroad accidents, including the one at Zeeland last week, are a warning to railroad companies to light their passenger cars with electricity, and as a precautionary measure this should be enforced by legislation. In the present perfection of electric appliances and the facility of steam heating, flames should not be tolerated in any train. The expense of fitting up cars or maintaining steam and electricity should not be allowed to excuse the retention, longer than necessary, to make the change of stoves or lamps in passenger cars.

Saginaw has a case of mistaken identity on its hands, in which the living have been mourned as dead. Though it reads like a romance, the facts are undisputed and came to light only last week. George Williams, a sailor, was known by his family to be on the lakes but the name of his vessel was not known by them, he having reshipped once or twice during the season. When the steamers Albany and Philadelphia went down in the recent collision off Thunder Bay, some unrecognized bodies were subsequently picked up and taken to Alpena. Mrs. Williams sent a description of her husband to the coroner there, and that official wrote to her that one of the bodies was undoubtedly that of her husband. The body and the few effects found were shipped to Saginaw, and were there fully identified, not alone by the features, but by marks and blemishes he had borne since childhood, by his clothing, and even by a pocket comb that his old mother had given him. This identification was made by his wife, his mother, his step-father and by numerous friends and acquaintances. No doubt was felt by anyone. The funeral was held last Tuesday at Chesoning, where the mother resided, and after the burial the widow returned to her home in Saginaw. An hour afterwards her husband George Williams, strong and tanned from exposure to the elements, entered his home. He had just returned from a trip to the upper lakes. His supposed body was thereupon exhumed and returned to the authorities at Alpena.

Any republic is better than a monarchy, for the monarchical principle is an insult to the dignity and an offense against the intelligence of mankind. Whether in Rome or Honolulu, thrones and crowns have no inherited rights that the people are bound to respect.

Wap-Sey, a Pottawatomie Indian living near Hartford, is at least 110 years old. His hair is white as snow and he is bent nearly double with the weight of years. He takes no note of passing events now, and cannot recall what happened yesterday. Yet his mind is active and clear on things of the past and he has a distinct recollection of the Fort Dearborn battle, where Chicago now stands.

State railroad commissioner Billings has submitted to Governor Rich a special report, in which he gives the causes of the four disastrous railroad accidents which have occurred in Michigan within the past two months.

The accident of Bellevue, in which R. A. Newland and wife, of Detroit lost their lives, the commissioner believes was due to the fog and not to any negligence on the part of the Grand Trunk Railroad Company or its employees.

The cause of the Jackson horror is attributed to the failure of the air brakes to work, and the Battle Creek accident to a plain disobedience of the company's orders. The commissioner says that the fire in connection with the Hamburg accident was clearly due to the disregard by the employees of the railroad company's orders in placing two oil cars next to the locomotive. He says that the railroad companies themselves were not responsible for any one of the accidents.

The oil of the sunflower, which is easily extracted, makes an excellent lubricator, and the seed afterwards makes good food for hogs and cattle, while the thick wooden stalks make a fair light fuel. Throughout Wyoming where wood is scarce and dear, sunflowers are used largely for fuel and they answer the purpose.

A rare legal question has arisen, in connection with the death of Chas. S. Saxe and his wife of New York, two victims of the recent Battle Creek railroad disaster. If Saxe died first the wife's relatives will get the property which is very large; but if Mrs. Saxe died first the husband's heirs will be in luck. A long-drawn-out contest in the New York courts is the prospect.

When a dissipated youth goes astray, friends gather around him in order to restore him to the path of virtue. Gentleness and kindness are lavished upon him to win him back again to innocence and peace. No one would suspect that he had ever sinned. But when a poor confiding girl is betrayed she receives the brand of society, and is henceforth driven from the ways of virtue. The betrayer is honored, respected and esteemed; but his ruined, heartbroken victim knows there is no rest for her this side of the grave. Society has no helping hand for her, no smile of peace, no voice of forgiveness. These are earthly moralities—they are unknown of heaven. There is a deep wrong in them and fearful are the consequences. The injustice of society is vividly brought to mind in such cases.

The gripe has taken a new hold on the people, in several parts of the state.

The steamer Fountain City has been sold at marshal's sale at Milwaukee, for $4,975.

The walls of the main building of the new furniture factory are up to the second story.

The Hotel Cadillac of Muskegon will no longer be known by that name but as the Hotel Wierenga.

The week's weather on the whole has been very unfavorable for those that are still engaged in building.

Richard T. Scott, a traveling salesman for the Cappon & Bertsch Leather Company, died a short time ago at Grand Rapids, and when his wife began arrangements to secure his $4,000 life insurance and other property she found another Mrs. Scott in the field also claiming it. As nearly as can be learned Scott led a dual life, supporting a wife in Grand Rapids and a wife and five children in Fenton, this state.

Schools will open in the new First ward school building next Monday morning. In connection with this there will be a general re-arrangement of pupils of the first four grades, and it is desired that all should be present, that they may be assigned their proper rooms. New classes will be formed at this time for beginners, and will not be formed again before the opening of the spring term, in April. All children that will be five years of age before April 1st will be admitted to the schools now.

Capt. J. Woltman of the schr. Wonder and Messrs. J. Verschure and G. Van Ark, who are interested in her cargo, made one or two visits to the beach, opposite Agnew, this week, to watch the first favorable opportunity for the relief of the stranded ship. With the aid of the tug Crosby of Muskegon and a lighter the cargo of staves was taken out and carried to Grand Haven. For want of steam pumps no efforts were made to pull the schooner off, and she will be left high and dry on the beach until next spring.

Jerry Boynton still continues the agitation of his Grand River railroad project. A company has been organized, and it proposes to build a road from Battle Creek, via Grand Rapids, through Blendon and Allendale to Grand Haven. Mr. Boynton, says the G. R. Press, "depends largely upon the furniture factories of Grand Rapids for the success of the road. He guarantees that his road will secure 90 per cent of the west bound freight of that city. No trouble has been encountered in floating the bonds or securing the right of way. Thousands of ties are being cut in the timbered lands along the route, and everything points to a successful end."

The following is a complete list of the injured in the C. & W. M. railroad accident at Zeeland last week: Campbell, J. Francis, Grand Rapids, Devendorf, F. H., Milwaukee, Wis. Flynn, G. C., Detroit.

Gunn, W. S., Grand Rapids.

Hunt, James K., Grand Rapids.

Kelly, Charles E., Grand Rapids.

Kirby, M., Palo, Mich.

Neftje, Joseph, Cleveland, O.

Meyers, E. O., Goshen, Ind.

Murphy, Daniel J., St. Joseph.

Wilson, A. H., Detroit.

Work, Frank, mail agent.

Van Att, Venne, express agent.

A far as heard from, they will all recover.

H. H. Humphrey of the Commercial Electric Light Co., of Detroit, arrived on the grounds this week to lay out the work for the city-electric light plant. The contract for the erection of the building was awarded Friday morning to E. Takken. It adjoins the water works building on the north and east, and will be 44x64 feet, one story high. The smoke stack will be enlarged and made to answer all the boilers. The new boiler for the electric plant is of more capacity than the two old ones, and the three will be so arranged that they can be used separately or collectively, for either water or lighting purposes. The poles for the wires will arrive next week and be placed at once. Work will be pushed along, it being the intention of the company to have the plant in operation and the streets of Holland lighted by Jan. 15. The several street intersections where poles are to be located have been located by the special committee, and the matter is awaiting the final action of the common council. See proceedings.

SATURDAY, DEC. 3, 1892.

Holland, Mich.

J. Wilkes Booth, the Assassin of President Lincoln.

The house in which Mr. Lincoln died, opposite Ford's theatre, Washington, writes a correspondent of the New York Press, is now shown to visitors for twenty-five cents admission. I visited it a year or so ago when the same family still occupied it who lived there at the time of the assassination. Their name was Peterson, and one of them is a merchant of Washington. He was a boy at the time, and he told me that John Wilkes Booth often slept in his father's house, and that the very bed upon which President Lincoln died had been occupied by him only a few nights before the assassination. He had the blood stained quilt and pillow cases upon which Lincoln had lain during his last hours.

I met the other night a lady who was a school girl at the time of the assassination. She knew Wilkes Booth quite well, and he often gave her candy. He knew she was studying Latin, and a day or two before the assassination, meeting her on the street, he asked her how to spell "tyrannis" with one "n" or two "n's"? He was then probably thinking of the words he would utter at the time of the assassination, "Sic Semper Tyrannis."

There is in the War Department Booth's pocket diary, and also the pistol with which he shot Lincoln. He used a little derringer. The stock of this is rosewood, beautifully carved, and the whole is mounted and decorated with silver. Booth threw it away before he leaped out of the box. The bullet which killed Lincoln is also in this collection. It is oval in shape and weighs just a quarter of an ounce. It was flattened when it struck President Lincoln's skull. The dagger which Booth brandished as he slashed his way across the stage is also here. Booth threw it away as he went out of the theatre, and it was picked up by the police.

Booth's diary is not shown to visitors, and it is necessary to get a permit from the Secretary of War to look at it. It is about seven inches long, four inches wide and half an inch thick. A great part of it has been cut out, but there is one entry three days after the assassination in which, on April 14, Booth justifies his action, and says that God simply made him the instrument of his punishment. Ten days after he had killed the President he writes as follows:

"I do not regret the blow I struck. I may before my God, but not to man. I think I have done well, though I am abandoned with the curse of Cain upon me, when, if the world knew my heart, that one blow would have made me great, though I did desire no greatness. To-night I try to escape the bloodhounds once more."

"Who can read his fate? God's will be done. I have too great a soul to die like a criminal. Oh! may he spare me that, and let me die bravely! I bless the entire world. I have never hated or wronged any one. This last act was not a wrong, unless God deems it so, and it is with him to damn or bless me. I do not wish to shed a drop of blood, but I must fight the cause. 'Tis all that's left me."

A few days after this Booth was shot in a barn, by Boston Corbett. The body was sewed up in a blanket and brought to Washington. It was buried in a pine coffin under the floor of one of the cells in the penitentiary in the old arsenal, and it lay there for two years. In 1867 the penitentiary was torn down and Booth was reburied in the walls of the storehouse at the arsenal. Shortly after this the body was disinterred. Booth's remains were identified by his dentist, and they were given over to his family. When the bag containing the corpse was opened it was found that the flesh had almost entirely disappeared and that the clothing had nearly rotted away. The head had so changed that the features could not be recognized, but the hair was long and glossy, and it had evidently grown somewhat after death. On one of the feet was a boot with the top cut off and slit from the instep and made like a shoe. Booth, it will be remembered, broke the small bone of his leg when he leaped from the box to the stage. The body was taken from the pine case and put into a coffin, which had been bought for it. It was shipped from here to Baltimore and interred beside his father's grave in Greenmount Cemetery.

The first known attempt to assassinate President Lincoln was at his second inauguration, on the 4th of March, 1865, and John Wilkes Booth is supposed to have been the man who made the attempt. There was a fear that some such thing might happen, and there was a double row of policemen in the rotunda to guard the procession of the President, the Supreme Court and others as they marched from the Senate Chamber through the rotunda to the east portico, where the inauguration was to take place. While this procession was moving, and just after President Lincoln had passed through the door, a man rushed from the crowd of spectators and tried to break through the line. He wanted to go with the Presidential party on to the inaugural platform, but was caught by a man named Westfall and held back. Westfall let him go after the inauguration was over, but upon Lincoln being assassinated, only a little more than a month later, he was shown a picture of John Wilkes Booth, and said this was the man who had attempted to get at the President at the capitol.

How the Cranberry Culture is Carried on at Cape Cod, Mass.

The business of cranberry growing has transformed what were once worthless marshes into land worth anywhere from $600 to $1,000 or more an acre. The beautiful trout streams that wind down from the hills, have very little fall. Many of the cranberry bogs are laid out on the low lands or marshes which border these streams.

The process of making these bogs is a slow one. The thick swamp growth has to be dug out and the stumps and roots burned. Oft-times, in some localities, it is necessary to turf the whole area. The land must be drained because the plants need to be flooded at certain seasons. On the other hand it is equally necessary to have dry soil, that the vine may obtain a firm root-hold during the season of fruitage.

Across the streams dams are constructed, and deep ditches are dug across the bogs and oftentimes around them, to catch the drainage from the banks. By this a series of levels or sections are made, each with its dam and system of ditches, until the bottom lands are all made ready. The bog must then be covered with sand from three to six inches in depth. This expense could not be met were it not for the fact that in most cases sand is near at hand. The cost of sanding the surface is from $300 to $1,000 an acre.

After this the long cuttings of plants are doubled up and thrust through it at intervals of about a foot each way, by means of a simple paddle, or long-handled spoon. These plants root quickly in the rich soil previously prepared beneath. The vines make their appearance the first summer and creep along artistically over the white sand. The sand holds the warmth, to off-set the extreme dampness that is likely to appear at any time. The bed of sand also keeps the plant from being lifted out by the frost of winter, and checks a wild growth and consequent unproductiveness of the fruit.

The second season the entire bog is covered with a complete network of trailing vines and leaves. Naturally, there is no end of work in keeping the bogs thoroughly weeded, and if not attended to properly the fruit suffers in consequence.

The third season the owner begins to realize something for his previous years of labor and anxiety. The whole field will be covered thickly with short, upright branches, so full of berries in the fall that one can hardly run his fingers under them without pulling out a handful.

A new element of interest is now added by the harvesting of the fruit. The work of picking the berries is most interesting to the looker-on and brim full of fun for the pickers, who enjoy this work for a month or two. For the work of picking, cords are stretched across the bog three feet apart, at right angles to the straight line of the ditch, where the gathering begins. Each picker gets down on his or her knees and takes the fruit clean between the two cords. By this method the entire force of pickers move forward like an army. The pickers comprise men, women and children. They work hard to fill their measures, which hold six quarts, and then hurry away to the foreman, who either gives in return a ten-cent piece or a bit of card board which is its equivalent. The cranberry crop this year is one of the largest ever known, but financially the product is a failure, owing to low prices.

Electric Launches at the Columbian Exposition.

No electrical feature at the World's Columbian Exposition was entered upon with more uncertainty than the introduction of electric launches on the lagoons, as up to this time such launches had not been made use of in this country except in an experimental way. In spite of these uncertainties, however, the launches, fifty in number, were among the first electrical features that were ready and they have fulfilled their requirements during the entire period that the exposition has been open, with gratifying results, carrying over one million passengers and earning $314,000.

Commissioners on Claims.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF OTTAWA.

Estate of Eliza G. Hale, deceased. The undersigned, duly appointed by the Judge of Probate of said County, Commissioners on Claims in the matter of said estate, and six months from the Ninth day of November, A. D. 1892, having been allowed by said Judge of Probate to all persons holding claims against said estate, in which to present their claims to us for examination and adjustment. Notice is hereby given, that we will meet on Tuesday the Ninth day of January A. D. 1893, and on Wednesday the Ninth day of May, A. D. 1894, at ten o'clock a. m. of each day, at the residence of Charles K. Hoyt, in the Village of Eastonville, in said County, to receive and examine such claims.

Dated, November 9th A. D. 1892. CHARLES K. HOYT, Commissioners WM. WHITTLE JR.,

IS IN YOUR OWN HAND.

Palmetty assumes to tell what the lines in your hand indicate. It will amuse you, if nothing more. The above diagram almost explains itself. The length of the LINE OF LIFE indicates probable age to which you will live. Each BRACELET gives you thirty years. Well-marked LINE OF HEAD denotes brain power; clear LINE OF FORTUNE, fame or riches. Both combined mean success in life; but you must keep up with modern ideas to win it. You will find plenty of these in Demorest's Family Magazine, so attractively presented that even a member of the family is entertained. It is a dozen magazines in one. A CLEAR LINE OF HEART bespeaks tenderness; a straight LINE OF FATE, peaceful life; the reverse if crooked. A well-defined LINE OF HEALTH spurs you doctor's bill; so will the health lines in Demorest's. No other magazine publishes so many stories to interest the home circle. You will be subject to extremes of high spirits or despondency if you have the CIRCLE OF VENUS well marked; keep up your spirits by having Demorest's Magazine to read. By subscribing to it for 1894 you will receive a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides the superb premium picture, "I'm a Daisy," which is almost a real baby, and equal to the original oil painting which cost $300; and you will have a magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep you posted on all the topics of the day, and all the facts, and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and you get with it, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2.00, and you will really get over $25.00 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St. New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send for a specimen copy. A LARGE QUANTITY means honesty; a large TRIANGLE, sincerity; long FIRST DIVISION OF THUMB, strong will; LONG SECOND DIVISION, reasoning faculty. THE MOUNT OF JUPITER betokens ambition; that of SATURN, prudence; the SUN, love of splendor; MARS, courage; MOON, imagination; VENUS, love of pleasure; and MERCURY, intelligence. Take our advice as above and you will be sure to possess the last and most valuable quality.

Probate Order.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF OTTAWA.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Ottawa, holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Grand Haven, in said County, on Wednesday the Twenty-second day of November, in the one year thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Present, JOHN V. B. GOODRICH, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Hermann Doesburg, deceased. On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Otto J. Doesburg, son and legatee named in the will of said deceased, praying for the probate of an instrument in writing filed in this court purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and for the appointment of Isaac Marsille, as executor thereof. Thereupon it is ordered, That Wednesday the Twentieth day of December next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office in the City of Grand Haven, in said County, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; And it is further ordered, That said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the HOLLAND CITY NEWS, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County of Ottawa, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing. Chancery Notice.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, LUCY MAY BROWN, Complainant, vs. George H. Brown, Defendant.

30th Judicial Circuit in Chancery. Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Ottawa, in Chancery, at Grand Haven, on the 1st day of November, A. D. 1892.

In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file that the defendant, George H. Brown, is not a resident of this state, but is a resident of Chicago, State of Illinois, on motion of complainant's solicitor, it is ordered that the appearance of said non-resident defendant, George H. Brown, be entered herein within four months from the date of this order, and in case of his appearance he cause his answer to the bill of complaint to be filed, and a copy thereof to be served on the complainant's solicitor within twenty days after service on him of a copy of said bill and notice of this order; and in default thereof said bill will be taken as confessed by said non-resident defendant.

And it is further ordered, that within twenty days the complainant cause a notice of this order to be published in the HOLLAND CITY NEWS, a newspaper, printed, published and circulated in said County, and that said publication be continued therein once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that she cause a copy of this order to be personally served on said non-resident defendant at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for his appearance.

Tried and Approved by the Millions.
For over a third of a century a great specific has been on trial by a national jury of the billions. Although a verdict in its favor was rendered long since, it is still on trial. Never when it has been "weighed in the balance" has it been found wanting. The name of this medicine is Hosetter's Stomach Bitters, which more speedily than any other terminates those villainous sensations which attend disorder of the liver. It expels bile from the blood and secretions, remedies chronic constiveness, and reinforces the organ of digestion and assimilation. Sick headache, yellowness of the skin and eyeballs, furred tongue, and other indications that the liver has temporarily knocked out work and gone on a strike, disappear when it is used. It is a most efficient safeguard against malaria, rheumatism, and kidney trouble, and fortifies a nervous and enfeebled invalid effectually.

THERE is a hole in Yellowstone Park supposed to be a "dry geyser," which is believed to be "bottomless." Three thousand feet of line, with weight attached, has been let down into it without meeting with obstructions.

PIERCE CURE OR MONEY RETURNED.

For over a quarter of a century, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been effecting cures of Bronchitis, Throat and Lung Affections. The makers have such confidence in the "Discovery" for curing Asthma, Bronchitis, and Indisposed Consumption, that they can afford to guarantee it.

Mr. WILLIAM LORAN, of Thurston, Delaware Co., Pa., writes as follows:

Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: "Dear Sir:—I wish to write you of my brother, Harry C. Troup, who has been sick for ten years with asthma. He has been treated by ten different physicians, who have said he could not be cured. He had to sit up at night, he got so short of breath, he suffered with fearful headaches and had a bad cough. After taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets, he did not get short of breath, and can sleep all night."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

DONALD KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, MASS.
Has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures every kind of Humor, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both under humor). He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the right quantity is taken.

When the lungs are affected it causes shooting pains, like needles passing through them; the same with the Liver or Bowels. This is caused by the ducts being stopped, and always disappears in a week after taking it.

If the stomach is foul or bilious it will cause seasickness feelings at first.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it. Dose, one tablespoonful in water at bedtime. Read the Label. Send for Book.

PIES CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.
Consumptives and people who have weak lungs or Asthma, should use Pies' Cure for Consumption. It has cured thousands. It has not injured one. It is not a poison. It is the best cough syrup sold everywhere. 25c.

AREA WILL DECREASE

PROBABLE RESULT OF THE DE-PRESSED WHEAT MARKET.

Foolish Terror of Speculators Caused by the Visible Supply—Some Facts and Figures—Funeral of General Rusk—The Detroit Fire.

Hope for the Bulls.

The wheat trade according to the Chicago Post, is squatting in the shadow of a "visible supply" of 77,000,000 bushels—that is to say, that many bushels are "in sight" in the public warehouses at the present time, to say nothing of many more million bushels in private elevators. This great mountain of wheat, subject to the call of consumers, has driven every other consideration into the background. It has discouraged speculative investment and induced farmers to rush their surplus upon a reluctant and sorely pressed market as though fearful they might not be able to get anything for the grain unless they hurried. Producers are panic-stricken, and during the first twenty weeks of the current crop year, beginning July 1, a larger percentage of wheat has been shipped out of first hands than on any previous crop in the history of the grain trade. The wheat markets have been in the dumps all summer and fall, in spite of the fact of a short crop, and nothing seems able to lift them out of the slump.

Yet when the current statistics bearing on the wheat trade are analyzed in cold blood and with judicial impartiality, they are not particularly terrifying. At the beginning of the 1892 crop year, July 1, the visible supply was 24,282,000 bushels. Last July there were 62,316,000 bushels "in sight." During the twenty weeks that have elapsed since the beginning of July the visible supply has increased 14,437,000 bushels; last year, for the corresponding period, the increase was 45,274,000 bushels. Owing to the fact that it started 38,000,000 lower down the scale than this year, the aggregate on the corresponding date a year ago was less than now, and many who only look at the daily and weekly statements of stocks, not thinking or caring to inquire further, imagine that there has been a deluge of grain and that the "visible" is likely to reach 100,000,000 bushels or more. Yet comparisons show that during the twenty weeks from July 1 to Nov. 17 the movement of wheat from first hands, as gauged by the receipts at the leading Western points, aggregated 90,000,000 bushels, against 145,000,000 bushels the corresponding twenty weeks of 1892, a decrease of 55,000,000 bushels.

The next thirty days will determine whether reserves are in a bad state of impoverishment. Farmers' deliveries have already run down to small proportions. Prices at the present level are said by experts to be below the cost of production. People are not in the farming business to raise grain at a loss, any more than manufacturers are in industrial lines from philanthropic motives. Hence it is for a series of years the area devoted to the raising of wheat in this country has been undergoing a process of gradual shrinkage.

Shrinkage of Wheat Area.
The wheat area of 1892 was 1,350,000 acres less than 1891 and the area of 1893 was further reduced 4,000,000 acres. Advances from thousands of country correspondents in the great Western States foreshadow another reduction, the acreage for 1894 being estimated at 5 to 7 per cent. less than this year. Farmers have cut down their winter wheat acreage everywhere. Continued low prices until spring would be reflected in a diminished spring wheat breadth also, according to the information of those in closest touch with the great Northwest.

The following tables compiled from reports of the United States Department of Agriculture show the relations between low prices and decreased production. They afford a fruitful subject for study and thoughtful consideration. The tables are:

Year.	Crop, bu.	Average farm price.
1893.....	399,000,000	$2.0
1892.....	618,000,000	63.2
1891.....	612,000,000	85.3
1890.....	400,000,000	85.9
1889.....	400,000,000	69.8
1888.....	414,000,000	72.5
1887.....	458,300,000	63.1
1886.....	467,218,000	68.7

Estimated.

GRADUAL REDUCTION IN AREA.

Year.	Spring acreage.	Winter acreage.	Total acreage.
1893.....	11,844,000	22,794,000	34,638,000
1892.....	12,545,000	28,980,000	41,525,000
1891.....	13,335,000	28,851,000	42,186,000
1890.....	12,867,000	28,820,000	41,687,000
1889.....	12,719,000	28,388,000	41,107,000
1888.....	13,283,000	28,984,000	42,267,000
1887.....	13,419,000	21,223,000	34,642,000
1886.....	12,794,000	24,531,000	37,325,000

Unless signs fail the wheat area next year will not exceed 33,000,000 acres, which at the average rate of production per acre would yield about 425,000,000 bushels. Assuming that the surplus of this and former years will be run down to a low ebb by the beginning of another crop year, a crop of only 425,000,000 bushels would leave less than 75,000,000 bushels for export, or less than half the average of recent years. With diminished production the long down-trodden bulls feel that they would have a right to expect an inning. It has been a "powerful long time a-comin'."

THURSTON WILL STAY.

Not to Be Given His Passports by the State Department.

It was stated at the State Department, says a Washington correspondent, that there was abundant ground for giving Minister Thurston his passports. Minister Thurston, representing the provisional government of Hawaii, caused to be published a reply to Blount's report on the Hawaiian revolution, and in the statement he pointed out that Mr. Blount did not seek his evidence, although frequently charging him with being the leader of the revolution; he denies that United States troops took part in the overthrow of the Queen; asserts that the American troops did not land under two days after the revolution broke out, and gives a complete history of the revolt that seems to show conclusively that Blount was either misinformed as to the occurrences of the revolution or misrepresented the facts.

It is claimed that his letter is a breach of diplomacy and amply sufficient to warrant this government in immediately severing all relations with the Hawaiian Minister. Such action would be taken but for the reason that the American people might not think it fair play; that the right of any man to talk and give his side of a controversy is always conceded, and that to force Mr. Thurston to leave this country would be considered by the people a disposition not to allow the other side a hearing.

CRUSHED AND BURNED.

Two Men Jump to Their Death in the Big Fire in Detroit.

One of the worst fires that Detroit has had for many years completely destroyed the five-story building at Jefferson avenue and Bates street occupied by Edison, Moore & Co., wholesale dry goods, and damaged several adjacent buildings, causing a total loss of $700,000. Three men employed by the dry-goods firm lost their lives in the flames, and five others who were missing are also supposed to have perished. The fire started at 12:30 o'clock and so quick were the flames that in half an hour the building was completely gutted. Practically only the iron front remains. The department fought with a fire which fairly defied their efforts. The blaze was first seen on the fourth floor and looked as if it could be kept in subjection, but the flames spread as quickly as if the building were wood. It was said to be fireproof.

Long before the many engines responded to the general alarm two men could be seen on the window sill of the fifth story on the Bates street side of the building and a groan went up from the crowd. Then there were shouts: "Don't jump!" "Don't jump—there's help coming." But even as those below called the flames behind them advanced and burst out around them. A bale of jute was procured by the spectators and placed below the window on which Bradley Dunning was perched. Driven by the flames which roared around him he sprang from the window and landed on the tale. He bounded off and fell to the sidewalk, where he lay limp and apparently lifeless. An ambulance carried him to the hospital, where he died soon after. By this time the firemen who had arrived spread a net to catch McKay, who fell into it. His injuries were such that he, too, died soon after being taken to a hospital. Hardly had this double tragedy taken place than another man was seen near the upper window nearest the corner. He was evidently nearly suffocated, for, although he succeeded in reaching the sill, his strength apparently gave out, and after an effort to raise himself, one arm having been thrown over the sill, he slowly sank back and disappeared from view, being swallowed up in the furnace behind him. He is thought to have been Edward Genthner.

After the fire the firm established temporary headquarters and opened a register. By comparing notes it became evident that Genthner, Rider, Volt, Markey, Baker, and Kirohner were missing. The firm's loss is $500,000, well insured. How the fire ignited is not known. The burned building was erected twelve years ago at a cost of $100,000. The loss, which is total, was covered by $50,000 insurance. Other business places were damaged to the extent of $30,000.

FUNERAL OF GEN. RUSK.

Masons, Knights Templars and the Grand Army Take Part.

On Thursday morning the family of Gen. Rusk surrounded his bier in the parlor of the little farm house, near Viroqua, Wis., that was so long his home, and in privacy listened to words of eulogy. At noon the remains were removed to the Methodist Church, where they remained in state until the funeral services proper at 2 p. m. Friday. The exercises were under the Masonic auspices, with a Knight Templar, Consistory and Grand Army escort. Special trains brought distinguished men from all over the country.

Many hundred messages expressing tender sympathy for the bereaved family were received, from such persons as President Harrison, all the living members of the cabinet, Gen. Fairchild, Gen. Alger, Secretary Morton, Senators Vilas, Spooner, Sawyer, Culum and others in almost every city and State in the United States. The body was laid to rest in the family lot in the quiet little church yard.

The Kitchen Leaven Is Working.

The People's Kitchen, recently established in Vienna, is an amplification of the kitchens already in successful operation in America, on the model of the famous New England Kitchen of Boston. The Viennese have taken so kindly to the pleasant cooking and wholesome menus provided for them that their kitchen is furnishing fifty thousand meals daily.

The prices, of course, are scaled down to the minimum, and permit a person to dine comfortably for seven cents. For this sum he may have soup, meat, vegetables, pudding and coffee, with fruit or cheese by way of an appetizing finish. A supper of cold meat, vegetables, pudding, with tea or coffee, also costs seven cents, but it is possible to breakfast on coffee, soup, ham and eggs and bread for four cents.

Greater, even than the low prices, is the advantage to the ignorant classes of good food prepared in an appetizing way. It is this enlightenment which it is hoped in all such enterprises will prove the thin edge of the wedge that shall drive asunder the rock of stupidity upon which more than the ignorant classes have gone to pieces in the cooking line. Scientific cooking is no longer a name; it is a recognized necessity, and its dyspeptic substitute is not to be longer put up with.

A Sitting Duck Walled In by Bees.

A couple of days ago, at the farm of G. W. Hutchins, seven miles from Marysville, a bee tree was found near the east bank of Feather River, which was out to obtain the honey. After the tree was cut down to the ground an investigation was instituted and the honey located in a hollow half way between where it was cut and the top. On cutting upon the body of the tree, they secured about eighty pounds of honey, eleven duck eggs and a dead duck. It appears that a wood duck had formed a cavity through a hole that was originally large enough to admit her body. After laying eleven eggs she had commenced sitting to hatch them, and while doing so the bees had filled the hole with comb so that she could not get out, and she died on the nest.—Red Bluff Democrat.

Two Things about Catarrh in the Head

First—It is a constitutional disease. Prof. Gross, a leading scientist, says: "Catarrh is a constitutional disease which manifests itself by local symptoms." Dr. Die Lewis says: "Catarrh is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man." Therefore he says sniffs and other local applications are useless.

Second—It requires a constitutional remedy, like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which reaches and cures Catarrh by purifying the blood and building up the system, so as to throw off the disease. Thousands who formerly suffered from Catarrh agree that Learning Trades.

Among German princes it has for ages been the custom that every one shall learn a handicraft. At the present time the three sons of Prince Albrecht, Regent of Brunswick, are all hard at work at Kamen, the two elder ones as budding bricklayers, and the youngest as a would-be cabinet maker. They are engaged in the building of a small house, and their father, the Prince Regent, goes over every other day or so, to note his boys' progress, and to criticize and encourage them.

The late Prince Consort, the present German Emperor, the Emperor Frederick and the Pattenburg princes were similarly brought up to various trades.

Prince Louis of Battenberg, who is a commander in the English Royal Navy, served his apprenticeship as a printer, and now, when he is on half pay or on leave, often practices his art. Not long ago he put in type a history of H. M. S. Dredgnaught, of which he was for a time executive officer, and when he left the ironclad, presented copies to his late shipmates.

The old Emperor William was a bookbinder, and several books of his binding are to-day preserved in the royal library at Potsdam.

Tariff Notes.

The new tariff as formulated by the Democratic majority of the House Committee on Ways and Means has been given to the public. As such it will undoubtedly be reported to the House when it convenes next Monday. Part of its provisions are in accord with the ultra views of that wing of the Democratic party that holds protection to American labor to be "un-constitutional" and a "robbery." Salt, wood, iron ore, copper and silver, lead ore, pig copper, wool and coal have been placed on the free list—that is, these articles which heretofore could not be brought into the United States from countries where cheap labor prevails without paying an import duty, will hereafter be placed upon the American market in direct competition with like articles produced by the better paid American laborer.

The logical results hereof are being better understood to-day than they were a year ago. It means a reduction in home production, home labor, and home wages, in order to humor the Democratic doctrine in buying where he can buy cheapest, regardless of how it affects American labor and American interests generally.

The new tariff bill is framed upon the Democratic maxim, so freely uttered during the last campaign, that a protective tariff is a tax, and a burden upon the people. By this time, however, the American laborer—ask the miners in the Upper Peninsula of this state—has found out that idleness is a much greater tax and a much more onerous burden than any tariff tax which can be imposed. There is no burden so great as unemployed men; no tax so grievous as poverty. The statesmanship which can supply work to willing hands, consistent with the general national prosperity that has been had in the past thirty years, is the statesmanship of good business and of saving common sense. The farmer who has a house full of grown, vigorous sons, finds no economy in hiring his neighbors' sons, however cheap he may hire them, while his own are idle. The country which has a million of its own citizens unemployed will find no economy in employing aliens and strangers of another country to do its work abroad.

With the conditions which confront us to-day in every centre of industry in the country, with the many idle men, with the many idle factories, idle mines, the question is what will this new revenue tariff do towards restoring good times? Will a lower tariff restore American enterprise, and re-ignite the fires? Will larger importations of competitive products made by a cheaper labor increase our domestic production? If the foreign shop is to have easier access to this market with its competitive goods through a lower tariff, will that help American shops? Will freer access to the markets of the United States increase the demand for American products and American labor? That is the question. Will the larger use of goods of foreign shops competing with our own increase the labor in our own? Will more foreign goods shipped here increase the demand for like domestic goods? Lower tariff or no tariff makes it easier to bring in foreign goods and harder to dispose of kindred domestic goods. The more foreign goods are used competing with ours the less domestic goods will be used, and the less domestic goods are used the less will be made, while the less made the less men are required to make them, and those who do make them have less work and will have less wages. Do we want to make it easier than it is now to import foreign goods competing with our own? Do we want to have foreign competition without hindrance or restraint? If we do, a revenue tariff without the protective principle will accomplish it. If we want our goods made abroad and not at home we should be for a revenue tariff. If we want them made at home we should be for a protective tariff. If we make them at home we will employ American labor. If they are made abroad foreign labor will make them and home labor will be idle. It is no economy to buy foreign goods and leave our own unsold.

Since the day Congress met in special session, the Democratic committee on Ways and Means has been besieged and implored by delegations representing various industries in every section of the land not to carry out the threats of the Chicago platform, on which the present administration came into power. These delegations represented not politics, but business and industry. They came alike from the manufacturing centres of New England and the West, and from the new industries in the South.

Said Mr. Bush, at the head of a large delegation from Alabama: "I protest against the injustice of placing iron ore or coal on the free list.

The protection on iron ore and coal has gridironed Alabama with railroads and developed these industries until Alabama now annually produces 1,000,000 tons of pig iron and 5,000,000 of coal. If this committee, as reported, is to put lumber, rice and sugar, coal and iron ore on the free list, then the South might as well give up. It would be a death blow to southern prosperity. We are not politicians. We are plain business men. We are Democrats and we do not expect to suffer in the house of our friends. If we do, it is a natural question to ask how long will we continue to kiss the hand that smites us?"

Said Maj. Thomas, from Kentucky: "I am a Democrat and from the South but I believe, as many of our Southern people are beginning to believe, that protection is as much needed in the South as in the North, and while we have been vamping about free trade and denouncing protection of industries the North has grown wealthy and the South is beginning to believe with Henry Grady that what is good for Pennsylvania is good for us. We have the raw material and cheap labor, and protection will utilize both to our own good."

Similar appeals were made by the Democratic governor of West Virginia at the head of a delegation of 100 representative citizens of that commonwealth, protesting against placing iron ore on the free list, and stating that there are no party lines in industrial disaster, and that Democrats as well as Republicans must suffer from the evil effects of unpatriotic tariff legislation. Also by ex-representative Neidringhaus of St. Louis, Mo., a manufacturer of tinplate, who gave the committee a history of that industry. The McKinley law had started it and it was now established. The laborer received the benefit of the duty. If it was removed, the wages of the laborers would be lowered according to the reduction made. If the price of labor here and abroad was equal the industry could hold its own and even beat the foreigner in his own market. The removal of duty might cheapen the "dinner-pail" for a while, but he asked what the laborer would have to put in it.

The supreme test of every civilization and every system of government is the type of men and women it produces. The grandeur of a nation is not in the splendor of its rich men's palaces, but in the standard of comfort, intelligence and virtue in the homes of its toilers. Tried by this test, the Republican policy of finance and protection has been magnificently successful. Protection to American industry has made possible a higher type of citizenship. In other nations the laborer is a serf. Here he is a sovereign.

By securing the home market for the workingman protection has brought about in this country a development of industries which is unparalleled in history. It has created a standard of wages and of living that exists in no other country under the sun. It has enabled the American workingman and his family to eat the best of food, wear the best clothes, live in a comfortable house, enjoy the benefits of newspapers, magazines, books, and all the means of popular enlightenment which our nineteenth century civilization affords. Protection has made the American home the fortress of purity, intelligence and comfort: a citadel which the forces of want and vice have assailed in vain.

The threatened Democratic tariff legislation of the past six months has seen all this progress checked and all this security undermined, and the enactment of the proposed tariff bill to law will see it consumed in to a lasting reality.

Destitution in Michigan.

In the mining districts of the Upper Peninsula the destitution among the suffering miners has reached that alarming condition that Gov. Rich has been forced to lay the matter before the people of the state and call upon them for aid. The following proclamation has been issued:

To the People of the State of Michigan: Owing to the closing down of the mines in the iron regions of the Upper Peninsula, which commenced as early as last May and has continued to the present time, the miners have been thrown out of employment and are in a situation of absolute want. This destitution extends over a large area of territory, and includes a number of people. A severe winter is already at their doors, and they lack food, fuel and clothing, and something must be done to prevent, not only suffering, but actual starvation.

Appeals have already been made from Benmore for immediate aid, and similar calls may be expected from several other localities in the iron region. There is no doubt that the liberal minded people of Michigan will be glad to respond freely and cheerfully to a call of the needy within the borders of our own state. It must be borne in mind that this emergency is not temporary, nor confined to a few. The relief must take one particular means for collection and distribution, that it may not be wasted, and may reach those for whom it is intended. I trust our people will not be tardy in forwarding their subscriptions and contributions for immediate relief.

Immediate steps will be taken for the organization of relief committees and means for the collection and distribution of food, clothing and money. Owing to the distance of the sufferers from here, it is desirable, as far as practicable, to have each contribute out. As far as information is received, or organization completed, information will be given through the press or such action.

The suffering and needy have never appealed to the people of Michigan in vain. While there are some needy and suffering in our own midst, enough can undoubtedly be spared from our abundance to relieve the suffering neighbors in the Upper Peninsula. Let your contributions be prompt and liberal.

It is hoped that the press of the state will give this appeal for aid the widest circulation possible, as their portion of the good work to be done. (Signed) JOHN T. RICH, Governor.

The suggestions made in the above proclamation, says the Free Press, should at once be carried into effect by the good people of the state. Nothing could more strongly appeal to their sympathy or their sense of duty than the story of the hardships under which those in the afflicted districts are making a struggle against death by cold and starvation. No words can picture the sufferings which they are called upon to endure or strengthen the appeal which is made in the plain relation of their condition as it appears in the daily reports. Men, women and children are enduring all the agonies of slow starvation and have reached that pitiable state where death is welcomed as a messenger of relief. They are utterly powerless to help themselves, and brave, willing hands can do no more than reach for the succor which humanity will give. It is an emergency that calls for prompt, liberal and well-systematized effort.

Several of the railroads have consented to forward all supplies free of charge.

The clerks in the state capital at Lansing have raised $450 and sent 100 barrels of flour.

In Detroit the Tribune and Free Press have charged themselves with receiving and forwarding contributions. The Democrat offers the same for Grand Rapids. From both cities several carloads have already been forwarded.

Holland Harbor.

In the annual report of the Chief of Engineers, U. S. A., for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, to be submitted to Congress, the following reference is made to Holland harbor:

The outlet from Holland Lake was originally improved to about 5 feet at local expense and the project of 1866, amended in 1873, 1879, and 1884, calls for a 12-foot channel between piers and revetments 200 feet apart.

To secure this depth the piers have insufficient development, and frequent dredging is resorted to to keep the harbor open.

The piers are respectively 713 and 696 feet long, terminating at about the 10-foot contour in the lake, while the 15-foot contour is about 500 feet farther out, and the commercial interests of the harbor are hampered by insufficiency of depth.

August, 1892, the draft was 9 feet, in September 8½ feet, and November 6½ feet. In April, 1893, soundings showed but 7 feet between the piers notwithstanding the rise in the lake.

The entrance was dredged in April and June, 1893, and a cut 50 feet wide and 1,440 feet long made to 18 feet. The total dredged was 15,587 cubic yards, and by July 1, the navigable depth throughout was 13 feet, which however, cannot be maintained.

The total expenditures to July 1, 1892, were $262,242.87, and for the fiscal year $2,377.20.

The estimate for 1893 is: For sheet piling to prevent seepage of sand, $7,460, and for general repairs, refilling, etc., $6,000, which with contingencies makes $13,000.

July 1, 1892, balance unexpended..... $9,371.25
Amount appropriated by act approved July 13, 1892..... 5,000.00

June 30, 1893, amount expended during fiscal year..... 2,377.20
July 1, 1893, balance unexpended..... 4,994.05
July 1, 1893, outstanding liabilities..... 726.82
July 1, 1893, balance available..... 4,267.23

Amount that can be profitably expended in fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, 15,000.00

In the appendix to the report appears the following detailed statement from Maj. Ludlow:

Holland, or Black Lake, is a large body of water, and the town of Holland lies at its head, some 5 miles from Lake Michigan. The entrance channel is between piers 200 feet apart, and the official project calls for 12 feet depth. This cannot be maintained, even by frequent dredging. The piers have not sufficient development to protect the entrance, and large quantities of sand pass through them owing to the permeable older brush constructions upon which the Government piers were built. Both piers should be sheet piled, and when an extension is authorized, be carried further into the lake, in order to control the bar that from time to time forms in front. At present the north pier and revetment with a total length of 1,850 feet, projects 630 feet beyond the shore line, and the south pier and revetment, 1,689 feet long, projects 690 feet.

The operations for the year were as follows:

At the commencement (July 1, 1892) of the fiscal year the U. S. dredge Furquhar was at the harbor, under instructions to dredge the entrance. The navigable depth having, however, increased somewhat from natural causes and there being urgent need of dredging at Saugatuck Harbor, where the depth had diminished to from 3 to 4 feet, the Furquhar, being the only available dredge at that time, was sent there July 1. The navigable depth at Holland on August 31, was 9 feet, on September 30, 8½ feet, and the soundings of November 16-25 showed it to have decreased to 6.5 feet.

Early in 1893, the navigation interests of Holland harbor represented the necessity of immediate dredging, as a regular line of steamers to Chicago was to commence running in the latter part of April. Soundings made April 7-10 showed a depth of but 7 feet between the piers.

The Furquhar commenced dredging April 5, and on May 1 had completed a cut 25 feet wide and 16 feet deep from a depth of 13 feet inside to 14 feet outside. The cut was 1,440 feet long.

The immediate requirements of navigation having been met, the dredge was temporarily ordered to South Haven, whence she returned June 10 to complete the proposed dredging, which was done June 30. A second cut of the same dimensions as the first was made, widening the dredged channel to 50 feet, and a shoal which had formed in the first cut was removed, cutting to a depth of 18 feet. The total quantity dredged measured 15,587 cubic yards.

At the end of the fiscal year the navigable depth throughout was 13 feet.

The available balance July 1, 1893, $5,000, is to be used for needed dredging.

Estimate for 1895: Sheet piling north and south revetments, 1,492 linear feet, $7,460; general repairs and refilling of existing works, including new superstructure of 238 feet of north revetment and dredging channel, $6,000; which, with contingencies, make $13,000.

*Compiled from statement furnished by Mr. W. C. Wahr, of Holland, Mich.

It is a curious coincidence that the Democratic party occupies upon its return to power very much the same critical position before the country as it occupied when it went out with James Buchanan. It is confronted by issues vital to the nation and to its own existence. And it is prepared to meet them in the same way it met the issue of 1860. It is split into factions, each at war with the other. As a minority it has proven itself strong, alert, resourceful, combative; as a majority it is again weak, vacillating, disunited.

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. Kitchell,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ANGER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

Thanksgiving Notes.

It snowed.
Business was entirely suspended.
The attendance in the churches, especially the Dutch churches, was good. Union services were held in Hope church, by Hope and the M. E. people, Rev. C. A. Jacobs delivering the address. Also in the Third Ref. church, for the congregations of the First and Third churches, Rev. J. Van Houte occupying the pulpit, vice Rev. H. Dosker, who was suddenly taken ill. The H. C. Ref. Churches had their services separate as usual.

The church collections were good. Market street H. C. Ref., $111; Ninth street H. C. Ref., $160; Third Ref., union service, $45; Hope, union service. Other noble charities were not omitted but duly attended to the day before Thanksgiving, on the part of the deacons of some of our churches, the Young Women's Christian Association, yea even the pupils of three of the rooms of the Public Schools imitated the true Thanksgiving principle by distributing well filled baskets among the poor and needy of the city.

Annual meetings for the election of officers, with the result thereof, were held as follows: Market street H. C. Ref. church—elders, H. Kragt, P. Bloemendaal; deacons, A. Van Putten, H. Geerlings. Ninth street H. C. Ref. church—elders, W. F. G. Beeuwkes, L. Sprietsma, S. Holkeboer, J. W. Bosman (who declined a re-election); deacons, J. Van Apeldoorn, A. Roos.

Family gatherings were not so general as other years, the times not being as favorable as they might be.

The Thanksgiving spread at the City Hotel was no mean affair—at least so say the guests. Behold the menu:

New York Corns.
Milk Tart.
Baked Lake Trout, a la Bechemel.
Celery. Queen Olives. Horse radish.
Baked Chicken, Celery Sauce Sugar Cured Ham.
Roast Prime Beef.
Roast Young Turkey, Stuffed Cranberry Sauce.
Roast Domestic Duck Oyster Dressing.
Baked Spaghetti and Cheese, a la Gratin.
Pineapple Fried, Sauce au Madras.
Lobster Salad.
Creamed Potatoes. Steamed Sweet Potatoes.
Fried Tomatoes.
Sugar Corn. Wax Beans.
Steamed Plum Pudding, Brandy Sauce.
Mince Pie, Pumpkin Pie, Huckleberry Pie, Lemon Pie.
Assorted Cake. American Cheese.
Wine Jelly.
Oranges. Green and Black Tea. Grapes.
Coffee. Milk.

College Items.

It is rumored that at an early date there will be another increase in the literary staff of the institution.

The November number of The Anchor pays due tribute to the memory of the late Prof. Scott. From its columns we glean the following items:

By the liberality of a friend of Hope College, whose name for the present is kept in the background, two more prizes have been established. By the action of the Faculty they have been referred to the C class—the first prize, fifteen dollars, to the one passing the best examination in English Grammar and Orthography, and a second prize, ten dollars, to the one passing the second best examination in these branches.

The south end of Prof. Yntema's room, in Van Vleck Hall, is being transformed into a laboratory, and it will be equipped in the latest style. This will enable the students to do much better work in chemistry, and it is hoped that they will make use of these additional advantages to their utmost extent. The new instruments and materials, which Prof. Yntema has ordered and the tables he has had made will soon put him in a position to teach first-class practical chemistry and physics. When that promised new telescope arrives and is mounted we will look for a new heavenly body to bear the name of the professor.

Now that some of the rubbish has been cleared away from the new Library Building and the ground has been somewhat leveled, the beauty of architecture of the edifice is brought out much more strongly. Work on the interior is progressing rapidly. The plastering up stairs is finished and on the first floor is nearly finished.

Twelve delegates from the college association attended the State Y. M. C. A. convention held at Battle Creek. W. Dehn, '93, has a position as instructor in science and Latin and German in the high school at Reed City, Mich.

Prof. Whitenack now boards together with Profs. Sutphen and Nykerk at Mrs. Alcott's.

Hope College possesses three literary societies, all in fair condition.

Common Council.

HOLLAND, Mich., Nov. 26, 1901.

The common council met pursuant to adjournment and, in the absence of the mayor and president pro tem, Mr. Haberman was appointed to preside.

Present: Alds. De Spijder, Schom, Den Uyl, Dalman, Schmidt and Haberman and the clerk. Minutes of last three meetings read and approved.

Mayor Hummer and Ald. Lyker appeared during the reading of minutes and took their seats.

The clerk reported that no objections had been filed in the city clerk's office to special assessment rolls for the improvement of West Eleventh street and of Sixth and Fish street special assessment districts, and that notice of same had been given two weeks in the Holland City News, according to law.

A report accepted and special assessment rolls confirmed, amount of assessment of each of the above street districts divided into five equal installments payable February 1, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 & 1898; and the board of assessors instructed to make special assessment rolls for the payment of the first installment, in each of the above street districts, falling due February 1st, 1894.

The city clerk reported sale of bond No. 1 of East Eleventh street and Fish street assessment districts, at par, and payment of the contractors for the improvement made in said street district.

The city surveyor reported profile and estimates for the improvement of Twelfth street, between Columbus avenue and Lead street. Accepted and placed on file.

The special committee on Electric light, to whom was referred the matter of resuming the placing throughout this city the forty arc lights, unanimously recommended that they be placed as follows:

On river street where same is located by Second, Fifth, Eighth, Tenth, Twelfth street, and at the junction with the B-o-l-u-e State road, so-called.

On Pine street where same is located by Ninth, Eleventh and Thirteenth street.

On Maple street where same is located by Tenth, Twelfth and Fourteenth street, and at the junction of Mill street and Eighth street.

On First avenue where same is located by Ninth, Eleventh and Thirteenth street.

On Van Houten avenue where same is located by Tenth and Twelfth street.

On Columbia avenue where same is located by Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Sixteenth street and by the B-o-l-u-e State road so-called.

On College avenue where same is located by Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Twelfth and Fourteenth street.

On Columbia avenue where same is located by Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Twelfth and Fifteenth street.

On Lead street where same is located by Tenth, Twelfth and Fourteenth street. Accepted and laid upon the table. Adjourned.

GEO. B. SIPP, City Clerk.

That must have been a very wicked man indeed—a sort of anarchist—that feloniously abstracted two well prepared fowls from the premises of the sporting editor of the News on the evening before Thanksgiving.

The happiest Thanksgiving party is to be seen in the show window of C. L. Streng & Son. They are still enjoying it, and it is worth the while to take it in.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spotsylvania C. H., Va.

CANADA SHAKEN UP.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSES A MILD PANIC.

New Tariff Rattles the Bulls and Bears of Wall Street—Final Figures of the Receipts and Expenditures of the Great Exposition.

On Mother Earth's Bosom.

One of the worst shocks of earthquake ever experienced in Quebec occurred shortly before noon Monday, and created tremendous excitement. The shock was sudden and sharp, lasting several seconds. In factories the first thought of work people was that the boiler had burst, and a rush was made for the street by every means—fire escapes, windows and stairs. In the public schools children were panic-stricken and stampeded to the street along with the teachers and masters. The crockery in stores and restaurants got badly rattled and made fatal movements to the floor. In some cases windows were broken. In the City Hall, employees rushed out of their offices into the corridors with consternation on their countenances, massive walls shook, big iron safes rocked, and everything in the building took upon itself more or less the appearance of a ship at sea. Various parts of the province felt the shock, but no serious damage was done anywhere.

FINANCES OF THE FAIR.

Auditor Ackerman's Final Report on the Cost of the Exposition.

Auditor Ackerman has submitted his final report on the finances of the World's Fair, which shows that the total receipts of the Exposition were $28,238,828.25, and the total expenditures $25,540,537.85. There are outstanding obligations of $748,147, leaving the total net assets over liabilities $1,662,438.03. Following are the condensed figures on receipts and expenditures:

Construction expenditures.....	$18,322,421.56
General and operating expenses.....	7,127,240.32
Preliminary organization.....	90,674.97
Assets.....	$2,698,291.01
Liabilities.....	97,699.11
Net assets.....	2,600,591.90
Total.....	$28,151,168.75

The $748,147 of outstanding obligations must be deducted from the net assets. The rate receipts by months were as follows:

May.....	$383,021
June.....	1,256,150
July.....	1,297,376
August.....	1,294,518
September.....	2,263,038
October.....	3,195,070

The following table will show the expense of operating the Exposition for the six months:

Months.	Receipts.	Expense.	Net.
May.....	$617,140	$269,757	$347,383
June.....	1,647,444	620,585	1,026,859
July.....	1,297,134	599,310	697,824
August.....	2,297,456	669,708	1,627,748
September.....	2,169,988	837,466	1,332,522
October.....	4,402,467	610,000	3,792,467
Total.....	$14,141,242	$3,440,837	$10,700,405

Classified details of the expenditures in all departments of the Exposition are given in Auditor Ackerman's report. The Fair still owes $163,665 for construction and $100,000 is still due from concessioners, the Ferris wheel owing $75,000 of this amount.

WALL STREET IN A FUROR.

Stocks Are Tremendously Affected by the New Tariff.

The new tariff bill, as reported from the Committee of Ways and Means, was made public Monday. At New York sugar and whisky got mixed up in unequal proportions on the Stock Exchange. Stock values went tumbling up and down with lightning-like rapidity. The excitement following the announcement of the changes in the tariff on sugar reached the proportions of a cyclone at times, and the stock of the trust was jostled about like a toy balloon in a blizzard. Over in another part of the room, in the crowd trading in Distilling and Cattle Feeding stock, another equally severe storm was in progress. The latter was due to the intimation that no increase in the tax on whisky was considered likely. Both stocks have been alternately buoyant and weak for weeks on alleged straight information from Washington given out by the manipulators of those stocks that the Ways and Means Committee would or would not bring in a bill favorable to the two properties. When the bald truth was definitely known sugar stock broke 3 1/2 points in the first ten minutes. Distillery stock, which has been very strong on reports that the government would be compelled to raise the tax on whisky for revenue purposes, broke 4 points at the same time.

BLOCK COAL CORNERED.

Entire Product of Indiana Is Secured by a Chicago Concern.

Negotiations which have just been completed place the control of all the block coal produced in Indiana for the next year in the hands of the Indiana Block Coal Company, of Chicago, says a Chicago dispatch. The president of the company is Leslie Thomas, and Eugene M. Conas is secretary and treasurer. The production of block coal in Indiana is about 1,000,000 tons a year, and there are a number of concerns engaged in mining it. What it has cost the company to secure control of the output of these concerns is conjectural, but men well posted in the trade estimate it at $1,500,000. Indiana block coal is used exclusively for steam purposes, and is superior to any other coal that can be obtained for that object. Its price in Chicago is $3.25 a ton delivered, but with the entire control vested in one concern this price is likely to soon advance.

Two More Desperadoes Wiped Out.

Dispatches from Durant, I. T. state that Tandy Folsom engaged in a duel with Will Durant and killed him in short order. But Durant, a brother of Will, then drew his revolver and killed Folsom. The trouble was due to an old feud between the families. Some weeks ago Folsom shot and killed Key Durant in a fight at Caddo.

French Cabinet Resigns.

After a vote of no confidence the entire French Cabinet tendered its resignation Saturday, and was promptly accepted by President Carnot. M. Dupuy will probably reconstruct the cabinet.

LOSS TWO MILLIONS.

Springfield, Mass., Visited by a Disastrous Conflagration.

The fire at Springfield, Mass., proves to have been the most destructive fire the city has known for years. It started shortly after midnight in the block owned by J. K. Dexter and Henry S. Dickinson, at 93 Worthington street, and was not checked until 6 o'clock in the morning, when it was estimated that the total loss would reach $2,000,000. The flames when discovered had gained considerable headway, from the fact that the fire seems to have started in the center of the building some time before it appeared on the outside of the block. The flames soon spread beyond the control of the firemen. John Doolan's building, next to the Dickinson Block, went next and then the Mayo Block. The Abbe Block was then attacked and the Hotel Glendower was soon completely surrounded by fire and speedily caught. The hotel burned rapidly and at 4 a. m. its walls fell. The guests long before had packed their baggage and left the building. The attention of the department was then turned to saving the Fuller Block, where the fire was finally checked about 6 o'clock. While the fire was at its height the fronts of the Abbe and Worthy Blocks fell and the flames seemed to leap across the street, but fortunately the blocks opposite were low and exposed less surface. With tremendous energy the vast blaze was driven out the front windows of the three upper stories of the Glendower. The cloud of burning cinders sweeping to the west caught a house on Bridge street, necessitating the diverting of a line of hose from the main conflagration. Many thought that the Van Norman studio was in for another experience such as that which it had a short time ago, for the low, flat roof was smoking and steaming. The waves of the flame from the Glendower spread to the Wight Block, on Worthington street, and in a short time it was in ruins. The Glendower meanwhile had been destroyed and when the wall fell Chief Leshure was struck on the head by a falling missile, but was not injured seriously enough to take away his courage. No one else was found to have been hurt. Steamer 5 from Hartford arrived at 4:30 a. m. and was put to work at the corner of Main and Lyman streets. Two companies arrived from Worcester at 6:30 o'clock.

DOLE STILL IN POWER.

Lillooaluan Has Not Been Restored to the Hawaiian Throne.

The steamship Alameda arrived from Honolulu Thursday bringing news that no change had been made in the government up to the time of sailing. The United Press correspondent at Honolulu says: As yet Minister Willis has made no intimation to this government of any special communication with which he may be charged, nor is it known that he has any. The city is daily alive with strange rumors of the Minister's intentions, all of which are traced to royalist sources. Three days ago the ex-Queen made a brief call upon the American Minister merely to pay her respects, as Mr. Willis subsequently stated. Up to this time Mr. Willis has not returned her visit. On the same day a committee of the American League tendered a reception to Minister Willis, at which he delivered an address in diplomatic but agreeable and encouraging terms. Minister Willis said: "I have my instructions which I cannot divulge. But this much I can say: The policy of the United States is already formulated regarding these islands and nothing which can be said or done, either here or there, can avail anything now."

FIGHTING AT MELILLA.

Spanish Convicts Keeping Up Operations Against Rifians.

A dispatch from Melilla says that a hurricane had prevailed there for two days. The weather was so severe that it compelled a cessation of work at the forts being constructed by the Spaniards. The tents occupied by the troops and workmen were blown down and the camps were inundated by the floods that poured down from the mountains. The mail steamer from Malaga was forced to put back to Melilla and remain for forty-eight hours. Notwithstanding the severity of the storm skirmishing proceeded between the Spanish forces and the Rifians. During the fighting two Spaniards were wounded by bullets falling into the camp. The band of thirty convicts under command of Captain Ariza, who have heretofore done excellent work in fighting the Rifians, continue to make trouble for the enemy.

CRUSHED AND BURNED.

Several Men Meet Their Death in the Big Fire in Detroit.

One of the worst fires that Detroit has had for many years completely destroyed the five-story building at Jefferson avenue and Bates street, occupied by Messrs. Edison, Moore & Co., wholesale dry goods, and damaged several adjacent buildings, causing a total loss of $700,000. Three men employed by the dry goods firm lost their lives in the flames, and five others who are missing are also supposed to have perished.

Spokane at the Mercy of a Mob.

At Spokane, Wash., extra police were sworn in Wednesday night to be ready to be called to duty at any moment. A large crowd of laboring men paraded the streets and angry threats were heard on every corner. The crowd threatened to blow up several large buildings, including the Morning Review Building. The leaders claimed that several prominent citizens would be tarred and feathered and hanged out of town on rails, and the lives of quite a number were threatened. The cause of the disturbance is the issuing of an injunction forbidding the city officials from letting the contract to build the river waterworks. At a mass meeting A. M. Cannon, the President, and Simon Oppenheimer were denounced as traitors and murderers, and it was insisted that the fifty people who control the 20,000 population must be gotten rid of at once to keep the rest from starving.

The Cronin Case.

Sensational developments in the Cronin case are promised when Dan Cronin's case comes to trial, says a Chicago dispatch. These developments will aid in clearing up the mystery of the Doctor's murder. They will also lead to the arrest of two men whose names have never been mentioned in connection with the case, but against whom damning evidence has been obtained. They will also tend to prove that all the men who were put on trial for the assassination were justly condemned. The evidence on which these developments will be based is now in the hands of the State's Attorney.

Robbers Hold Up a Street Car.

On Wednesday night, three masked men, with drawn revolvers, held up a Covington electric car near Milldale, Ky., and took two gold watches and $43 in money from the motorman and conductor. There were no passengers.

FATAL FIRE IN OHIO.

TWO THEATERS AT COLUMBUS BURNED.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies Prognosed—Cabinet Steps Down—Shocking Tragedy at Kankakee—Ohio Penitentiary Ravaged by La Grippe—The Cold.

Columbus Is Scorching.

Fire broke out in the new Henrietta Theater, corner Spring and Front streets, Columbus, Ohio, at 8:15 Friday night, and in less than an hour and a half this elegant playhouse, the Chittenden Hotel and Auditorium and Park Theater were in ruins. Andrew Thompson, a state hand, was burned to death. The "Paper Chase" and the Gray and Stephens companies lose all their properties, and the furnishings of the hotel were destroyed. The guests saved much of their personal property. The theater audiences left in an orderly manner. The total loss exceeds $1,000,000.

GIOLITTI STEPS DOWN.

Italian Cabinet Tenders Its Resignation to the King.

A meeting of the Italian Cabinet was held Friday morning. The situation arising from the reading Thursday in the Chamber of Deputies of the report of the committee appointed to investigate the bank scandals was most thoroughly discussed and the ministers decided that their usefulness was at an end. In accordance with the decision the cabinet tendered its resignation as a whole to King Humbert. Among the many things contained in the report of the committee on the bank scandals is a statement that the charges made by certain newspapers that Prime Minister Giolitti used money of the Banco Romano to advance the interests of his party at the last elections are not proved by the evidence, but the committee declined to say they were disproved. President Zanardelli, at the meeting of the Chamber of Deputies, declared the Chamber prorogued. This action was taken only after it was shown that personal violence would be offered to Sig. Giolitti.

PASSENGERS' NARROW ESCAPE.

Miscreants Place an Obstruction on a New Hampshire Road.

An attempt was made to derail the accommodation train on the York Harbor and Beach Railroad. As the train approached Oakland Farms, a small fire station about midway between New York Harbor and Kittery Point, N. H. Engineer Emery discovered an obstruction on the track. He whistled "down brakes" and also applied the air brakes, and the train's speed had been greatly reduced when the obstruction was encountered. Three sleepers and a signpost had been laid across the rails a short distance apart. The place where the obstruction was placed is one of the worst on the road. Some think that the attempt was the work of tramps, while others think it was done by some one residing in the locality. A collision occurred on Keating Summit Hill between a push engine and a work train on the Western New York and Pennsylvania road, resulting in a smash-up. Theodore Crane, the fireman, was killed, and three others injured.

GRIP IN OHIO'S PRISON.

Forty Per Cent. of the Convicts Suffering from the Disease.

The grip has broken out in the Columbus, Ohio, State Prison, and about 40 per cent. of the convicts are ill with it. One hundred and seventy-five were reported in two days. In addition many of the officials, including Deputy Warden Playford and many guards are sick with it. The epidemic prevails in a mild way through the city and physicians are interested to know why it proves so much more serious in the prison.

Cold Snap at St. Paul, Minn.

The thermometers in various parts of St. Paul, Minn., Friday morning ranged from 5 degrees to 25 degrees below zero, and like reports are received from all over the State. North Dakota and Manitoba. There was little wind and the sky was free from clouds, the cold being the quiet, emphatic sort. Sank Rapids, Minn., reports 24 degrees below, and at Fargo, N. D., 25 degrees below is reported.

Menage Escapes Into Honduras.

Gautamala dispatch: The man calling himself Miller, but who is alleged to be Menage, the Minneapolis embezzler, has given the American sleuth-hounds the slip, having got safely across into Honduras. The men who conducted him across the line, among whom was one named Figueroa, have returned here, but none of them will talk about the matter.

Brazil's New Warship.

The new Brazilian cruiser America made her first move toward the scene of future action by moving down to the East River the other morning to a point in the upper bay below Bedloe's Island. All that remains is to put the destructive gunpowder and dynamite aboard and to ship the two fifty-five-pound rifles which are to arrive from Europe.

Ended Three Lives.

The most horrible crime ever committed in Kankakee, Ill., occurred at noon Friday, when Jess D. O. Smith murdered his divorced wife, Ellen Smith, and Mrs. Caroline Graybill. The crime was a most cold-blooded one. Smith and his wife had been living apart for almost a year.

Made a Game Fight.

George Hell, of Clarion, O., while on his way to Woodfield, capital of Monroe County, to pay his taxes of $300, was attacked by robbers, who broke one of his legs and both of his arms before they overpowered him and obtained his money. Hell's condition is critical.

Chicago Limited Wrecked.

A costly wreck occurred at Vincennes, Ind., on the Evansville and Terre Haute Passenger train No. 6—the Chicago Limited—plunged into the rear end of freight train No. 55. The freight engine was taking water and the baggage car fell to do his duty.

Wrecked in a Fog.

A west-bound passenger train on the Rock Island Road crashed into a freight train as it was entering the Des Moines yard, wrecking the engine, derailing a number of cars, but doing no other injury. A heavy fog caused the accident.

Into an Open Switch.

Freight train No. 35, west-bound, on the St. Louis and San Francisco Road, ran into an open switch in the yards at Van Buren, Ark., and demolished two engines and five cars. Three men were killed and a fourth so badly injured that he cannot live.

LEHIGH STRIKERS LOSING.

Through Freight Trains Moving in Both Directions in the Eastern Division.

Jersey City special: The backbone of the Lehigh Valley strike in this division is apparently shattered. Freight trains, on which all the fight on both sides has been concentrated, were moved in both directions, and with crews complete. At noon twelve through freight trains, averaging twenty loaded cars in each train, were ready to pull out of the Lehigh yards at Communipaw, having been made up during the night by a crowd of fifty freight-handlers. All the drill engines were fully manned and made up the trains without interference from the strikers. On every engine were two state officers. The passenger trains are running more regularly than usual. The company claims that there has been as much progress at other points along the line as in the yards here, but press dispatches do not bear out their claims, although the men admit that there are more engineers from the West applying for work than they expected. A force of 150 police was detailed to guard the yards and prevent the strikers interfering with the running of trains.

MANY PERSONS HURT.

West Michigan Passenger Train Runs Into an Open Switch.

The Chicago and West Michigan east-bound passenger train, leaving Chicago at 4:55 p. m., struck a misplaced switch half a mile north of Zeeland, Michigan, Thursday night. The baggage car, smoker, and day coach went off the track, and for a hundred yards plowed along the right of way, taking down a telegraph pole and stopping all communication. The smoker contained twenty passengers and the day coach was well filled. The passengers were piled up in heaps. Among those most seriously injured are: Campbell, Francis, Grand Rapids, back hurt; F. H. Devendorf, Milwaukee, badly bruised; G. C. Flynn, Macom, Ga., skull fractured; W. S. Gunn, Grand Rapids, internally injured; M. Kirby, Polo, badly bruised; Verne Van Otte, baggage master, scalp wound; A. H. Wilson, Detroit, bruised, about the body; Frank Worth, mail agent, leg fractured; Joseph Neftel, Cleveland, badly bruised.

INDIANS ARE STARVING.

Greatest Distress Prevailing All Over Canada and Many May Die.

The greatest distress prevails among the Indians all over Canada and from Labrador to British Columbia come tales of suffering. Priests and missionaries are vainly endeavoring, in a small way, to relieve the misery and suffering which has only commenced with the arrival of cold weather and the government will be appealed to. One of the Indian towns in the northern part of the province of Quebec has been wiped out by reason of the famine. It is already known that more than 400 Indians have perished because of hunger. It is expected that thousands more must inevitably starve before the winter is over.

Sunk Mello's Ship.

The Brazilian Legation in London has received a dispatch from Rio Janeiro announcing that the insurgents' warship Javary had been sunk by the Nicerohy battery. The crew of the vessel went down with the ship. The Javary was an iron turret ship of 3,640 tons displacement and drew 11 feet 4 inches of water. She carried four 21-ton guns besides an auxiliary. Nicerohy is a suburb of Rio Janeiro, just across the bay from the city. It has been almost destroyed by the rebel fleet.

Hard Lines for a Pension Attorney.

Edwin R. Niles, a pension attorney of La Porte, Ind., caused the arrest of four citizens, charging them with entering into a conspiracy to do him bodily injury. A second complaint alleges that he was taken from his premises and badly whipped. Niles says he is the victim of white caps.

St. Louis Is Scourged.

At St. Louis, there are thirty-six typhoid fever patients at the City Hospital and this number is being increased daily. Superintendent Marks of the City Hospital, estimates that 10 per cent. of the cases come to the hospital, while 90 per cent. are treated in their homes.

Have Not Combined.

The report that the Carnegie Steel Company, Bethlehem Steel Company, Cambria Iron Company and Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company had combined to lease the big plant at Sparrow's Point, Md., is denied.

Denver's Former Mayor Destitute.

Milton M. Delano, Mayor of Denver in 1888, is dying in destitute circumstances in New York. Under the Grant administration he was appointed Minister to China. Financial reverses caused the distress that now confronts the family.

Embezzler Dit Arrested in Frisco.

D. E. Dix, who embezzled $30,000 from Armour & Co., Ashland, Wis., in June, has been arrested in San Francisco.

NEWS OF OUR STATE.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO MICHIGANDERS.

An Officer Fined—What Sobered Beckley?

George Cook's Fear—Starving Michigan Miners to Be Relieved—Grand Rapids Alderman in Disgrace.

The Deputy Was Mistaken.

Deputy Game Warden Thomas Hammond, a resident of Spring Lake, mistook three farmers who were cultivating celery upon the shores of Grand River for illegal fishermen. Hammond was obliged to point his revolver at the crowd to subdue them. As it was all a mistake, the deputy had to walk into a Grand Haven court and pay $5 and costs.

Good for the Schoolma'am!

A schoolma'am south of Sanilac Center has a whole lot of "sand," as the boys say. A short time ago she asked the officers to hire a janitor for her, but they refused, telling her she was large enough and old enough to do her own sweeping, etc. She thought differently, however, and kept on teaching, but not doing any sweeping, until the house got so dirty that she could no longer stand it, when she dismissed the school and locked the building. After a few days the officers thought they had better hire a janitor, and did so, and now everything goes along smoothly.

Ald. G. H. Jacobs Found Guilty.

The Grand Rapids Common Council declared Ald. George H. Jacobs guilty of embezzlement, perjury, and conduct unbecoming a public official. Formal charges were preferred by the Mayor, and the Council met in committee of the whole to try the impeached Alderman. This committee reported him guilty and then the Council met formally and adopted the report. Jacobs will be removed from office. As Chairman of the Bridge Committee he diverted city money to his own use.

Gus Beckley's Pledge.

Gus Beckley, a Bay City veteran who recently died, was in some respects a remarkable man. He came home drunk one night, and noticing another man in a similar condition, remarked to his son, "That man is drunk." "No drunker than you are," replied the son. "Is that so?" asked the father. He thought a minute and then took the pledge, which he kept faithfully for the rest of his life, refusing to take whisky even as a medicine.

Two Detroit Suicides.

At Detroit, Paul Friebe was held up by highwaymen on his way home from work and $50, his entire wages, was taken from him. In the morning he was found dead in bed with an empty morphine bottle beside him. Hans Ewing, aged 75, shot himself in the head with a revolver, and died almost instantly. He lost his wife by death one year ago and had since been very despondent.

For the Relief of Starving Miners.

Employees of the State residing at Lansing sent a carload of flour, pork and beans to the starving miners of the Upper Peninsula. A meeting of prominent citizens of the State was held at the office of ex-Gov. Alger in Detroit, at which Gov. Rich presided. Measures of relief were discussed, and the Governor appointed a general relief commission to receive and forward provisions.

Willing to Call It Square.

The happiest farmer in Casco is named Patterson. The other night Port Huron thieves carried off $10 worth of choice poultry. While Patterson was cussing and hunting around the henhouse he found a pocket-book containing $50. He thinks he knows who took the chickens now, but is willing to call it square on general principles.

A Pint of Whisky Did It.

Abe Loney, a farmer, was found dead about four miles from Harrisonville, in a piece of woods. He had been drinking and it is reported that he drank a pint of whisky in going three miles. He was probably killed by a fall from his wagon. His faithful dog was found near by, having never left him.

Cook's Queer Craziness.

George Cook, of Alpena, is insane. He tells everybody that a certain business firm robbed him and drove him to the poorhouse. "If these robbers of the poor can ever get to heaven," moaned he, "what can we do? They'll rob us there!" And there is said to be some truth in his story.

Touched a Live Wire.

Zeph Tibbitts, a young Grand Rapids business man, attempted to adjust an electric light carbon. He stood on a stepladder and grasped a gas chandelier to steady himself. This action completed a circuit and he was instantly killed by an electric current.

The Plunger Caught His Foot.

Jacob Yost, a young man from Newport, tried to push loose straw into a hay press with his foot, instead of with a fork. The foot was caught by the

GHOSTS AT HAMPTON COURT.

Perhaps it is Anne Bolcyn in Search of Henry VIII.

The ghosts at Hampton Court palace still are said to frighten the inhabitants and officials of the place, and even visitors, it is declared, are not exempt, several of them having terminated their visits abruptly owing to the noises they have heard. A resident in the palace sends to the London Daily Graphic an account of an apparition seen by an attendant in the gardens, who was sitting on a bench waiting for the inspector to pass on his rounds at night, when suddenly he felt a hand laid upon his face, and, looking up, saw a tall, pale lady, dressed in gray. He sprang up at once, but she vanished before his eyes, and the shock caused by the apparition was so great that he had to resign his post. He became so nervous that he was absolutely afraid to remain in the gardens at night.

Nor are the ghosts confined to the gardens, for a few nights ago two of the maid servants, fancying they smelt something burning, went down one of the staircases in the middle of the night and met a tall, pale lady with "a reflected light on her face" and dressed in black. She, too, vanished through one of the queen's gates, though the door itself was shut, and no footsteps could be heard. Other servants in the palace have been visited by these royal ghosts. One servant declares that she felt something come and touch her face in the dark when she was asleep in bed, and another maid sleeping in the next room called out to her to "leave off walking about her room," as she heard footsteps moving about. Several visitors to the palace have noticed extraordinary noises in a particular room, and only a few months ago two ladies were standing talking near this room at about half-past eleven one night when they heard a loud crash and saw a brilliant light flash through the room, a sight which they could not account for in any way. The Graphic's informant is positive that no practical joker is the author of the disturbances, as has been suggested in some quarters.

DEATH BY LIGHTNING.

It Is Due to an Absorption of the Vital Electric Fluid.

The phenomenon of lightning is the signal that announces the coming together of different electric currents in the restoration of equilibrium. All life is electricity, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. The stomach is a regenerator, the brain is a battery. When one is killed by lightning, death is due to an absorption—to a loss of this vital fluid or whatever it may be termed, that impels the physical engine. A thundercloud is charged with positive electricity, the earth below it is charged negatively. Any object below this cloud is similarly charged with this negative current. A discharge from above takes place, the currents meet, ignition ensues, the expansion of the gases produces a vacuum, the air comes together again with a report, and this is thunder.

A late view is when one animate object is struck dead by lightning that the upward and not the downward current is the agent. The fact that no bird on the wing has been known to be killed by lightning is not conclusive in sustaining this later view of the method of lightning in producing death.

When a tree is thus struck the sod is frequently lifted away from the roots in such a manner as to indicate the downward passage of the stroke.

On the evening of the Sawmill Run disaster the writer observed an electric discharge strike a tall walnut tree with a dead top and the zigzag plainly came from above downward and the contact generated a cloud of bluish smoke, and only at the extreme top of the tree.

This new idea relating to death by lightning may be held in abeyance until a clearer solution can be presented.

MACAULAY AND FROUDE.

Two Inaccurate British Historians Who Trade Ireland.

Regarded as historians, and particularly as historians who deal with the history of Ireland, Sir Charles Gavan Duffy finds little to approve either in Lord Macaulay or Mr. Froude. In a preface to a volume of the "New Irish Library," comprising a reprint of the remarkable series of papers on "The Patriot Parliament of 1809," contributed by the late Thomas Davis, to the Dublin Magazine fifty years ago, Sir Charles says:

"Lord Macaulay has written a striking and persuasive but essentially false account of James' transactions in Ireland. If that accomplished writer has treated no subject which he has not made bright and attractive, he has scarcely treated one in which a sober inquirer, following in his track, has not discovered that he habitually sacrificed truth to scenic effect, or in his history at any rate, to the predetermination to produce a national epic whose heroes are unchangeably in the right.

"There is an eminent living historian with a specialty for misrepresenting Irish affairs, who has no more idea of fairness or reciprocity than a Mohawk; but many Irishmen prefer the outspoken enmity of Mr. Froude to the polished plausibility and disingenuous glosses of Lord Macaulay."

Tabby Cats.

Some writers on the curiosities of animal nomenclature tell us that the reason we call a feline of certain markings of color a "tabby" cat is because Tabitha was the goddess of the crooked-clawed species. A curious old work (printed in London in 1606) entitled "Names Applied to Animals Things," the following seems to explain the tabby cat enigma: "The name 'tabby cat' is derived from Atab, famous streets in Bagdad, a little of the Orient. This street is inhabited by the manufacturers of a silken stuff called 'atabi,' the waved markings of the watered silke resembling a cat's coat. From that we call all cats so marked 'atabi,' 'etablie,' or simply 'tabby' cats."

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain in my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130½ lbs. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

John Tripp of Cheshire climbed upon a stump and pulled his shotgun up by the muzzle. That same day the doctor made a very neat and tasty amputation of the right hand at the wrist.

After the failure of two or three attempts the steamer Saugatuck was hauled out on the ways last Tuesday.

The new creamery at Collendorn is making 230 pounds of butter daily, using a steam separator, which makes 8,000 revolutions per minute. There are three 500-gallon vats and a 300-gallon churn, and the power is from a six-horsepower engine.

Arrangements are making for holding a Farmers' Institute at Allegan Dec. 18 and 19. A fine program of papers and discussion on timely topics is in preparation.

Saugatuck is credited with but 820 inhabitants, yet nine secret societies continue and flourish there.

Journal: This week witnessed the departure to Holland of A. H. Brink, the pioneer business man and first postmaster of this place. He resided here nearly thirty years, and all wish him Godspeed in his new environment.

On Tuesday evening of last week, an educational meeting was held in Hamilton, by Prof. J. W. Humphrey, county commissioner of schools. The meeting convened in the Presbyterian church, which was well filled with the parents, teachers, and pupils of Heath and adjoining townships. The program consisted of recitations, music and songs. At the close of the exercises Prof. Humphrey delivered a very pleasing and instructive address. It is understood that the commissioner hopes to hold one of these educational gatherings in each township, and the schools of the townships can not fail to receive very great benefit from such meetings.

Revival meetings will begin at Allegan, on Monday, Dec. 3.

Judson Peet, of Mill Grove, found a weasel in his hen coop, and hid himself to the house for the old musket. He aimed the weapon at the intruder, and fired, but the gun went off at the wrong end, blowing off Peet's fingers and mangle his hand in a terrible manner.

Harlen Johnson was caught in the shaft of one of the largest cylinders in the paper mill at Allegan, Thursday morning. His thin clothes saved him from a horrible death. Every particle of clothes with the exception of shoes, stockings and necktie were torn from him and his body was badly bruised, but no bones were broken.

At Saugatuck a skeleton has been unearthed that unravels a mystery of twenty years ago. It was found near a house that once had the reputation of being a tough place. The bones are those of a man. The skeleton was found in a doubled-up position, the feet, arms and head together. It looks as if the body had been stowed away in great hurry. There were no marks of identification. Twenty-two years ago Nels Anderson, a Norwegian sailor, mysteriously disappeared. He had a good deal of money on his person. There is little doubt that the bones just found solve the mystery.

Grand Haven.

An adjourned term of the circuit court was to have been held Monday, but on account of the illness of Judge Padgham has been adjourned until December 11. The judge is suffering from a severe attack of the grippe.

Theol. student C. M. Steffens of Holland preached Thanksgiving Day in the Second Ref. church.

W. C. Sheldon has purchased the Baker lot, corner of Washington str., west of the court house.

The Chicago and Grand Trunk railway pile driver is here at work on the Spring Lake trestle bridge.

About three or four thousand feet of lumber has come ashore south of the pier. It is being piled upon the beach.

A project is on foot to open another bank in this city.

The boats now laid up here for the winter are, steamers Mary A. McGregor, City of Milwaukee, Fanny M. Rose, Nellie; schooners Alert, Condor, Stephenson, Behm, Maggie M. Avery, and tug Sprite. The Alice M. Gill and the Mary H. Royce will be in to lay up shortly.

Efforts are making to organize a Y. M. C. A.

The basket factory of Joseph Edward & Co., which has been operating at Agnew, will remove to this city next year.

One evening last week, at Spring Lake, as Jacob Pool was going home from his shop, some one came up behind him and struck him three times with a board, knocking him down and injuring him badly. Mr. Pool will not say whether the robber got any money or not.

Grand Haven now has the only weather bureau station on the east shore of Lake Michigan.

Duncan Robertson has contracted to build a seventy-five foot fishing tug for Capt. McCann of Beaver Islands.

Rev. Henry Johnston, D.D. of South Bend, Indiana, formerly of the Presbyterian church of this city, has been called by the First Presbyterian church of Duluth, Minn., which call he will accept at a salary of $5,000 yearly and $500 moving expenses.

Ex-Senator Perry is confined to his house, by an attack of the grippe and nervous prostration.

The case of the People vs. Len Kammeraad, John Lock and Henry Rogers for illegal fishing was tried in Spring Lake Tuesday and resulted in a disagreement. W. I. Lillie appeared for the defendant and Pros. Atty Vischer for the People.

Fillmore.

Prof. J. W. Humphrey is expected to visit the Fillmore school soon. The first school visited by him this week was Overisel No. 1.

A great crowd of young people assembled at the home of Mr. Hoffman in Overisel last Friday, the occasion being the wedding reception of the newly married couple Herman Wolters and Miss Hattie Hoffman.

Sunday night, as John Etterbeek was running along the road rapidly, he stumbled and fell upon his arm, causing its breaking. Dr. Ross reduced the fracture.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas of Junction City Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says they saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without results everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Heber Walsh Holland, and A. De Krulif, Zeeland, Mich.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope; am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Heber Walsh, Holland, Mich.

To the Farmers!

Be sure and look well this season to your own interests, in buying your Hay Loaders and other farming tools. I keep at present the Buck Island Bale and Hay Loader combined, which is far ahead of anything yet offered in this vicinity. It has already been tested, to the best satisfaction, by one of our largest farmers to Fillmore, Kline Dykshie. He prefers it far above the Krystone.

Also something new in the Hay unloading line, with which you can unload your grain as well as your hay.

The American Cultivator and Sander and Bean Puller Combined. Will pull from 8 to 10 acres in one day.

The American Disk Harrow and Pulverizer. Also the North Mower Spring Tooth Harrow, all steel. No loading up of dirt.

The Five-Fold Cultivator, all steel. Land Rollers, Plows, Ray Rakes, Double Shovel and Three Shovel Cultivators, Hay Forks and Hay Stacker, etc.

I also keep on hand a full line of Buggies, Road and Farm Wagons, and Carts.

Particular attention is called to my new Patent Double Truss Brace, which I now put on all my wagons, and of which I am the sole proprietor for this City. This is the only true strain brace made. No extra charge. Upon short notice I fill every order in the wagon and blacksmith line. Carriage and Wagon Painting done in the most satisfactory manner.

At Wholesale and Retail—a full line of Iron and Steel.

I buy all kinds of Furs, and keep a full line of Bee Supplies.

All the above goods I will sell at close margin, for Cash, or good Bankable paper.

Thanking you for your past patronage I solicit your further trade during the ensuing season.
