In telling about the new residence built for Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wade of Fennville by Contractor W. J. Denison of this city the Fennville Herald says: "Wm. J. Denison of Holland was the contractor and builder and all the work has been done in a most satisfactory manner and every feature has been introduced to make the building warm, convenient and comfortable, as well as pleasing to the eye."

During the month of October there were 49 deaths in Ottawa county, 8 being infants under one year, 4 children under 4 years and 22 persons over 65 years of age. Holland reported 14 deaths for month, 4 being of children under one year, 4 under 4 years and 3 persons over 65 years. Grand Haven reported 3. Muskegon and Allegan counties each reported 8 deaths during October.

At the annual meeting of the Third Reformed church P. Gunst and E. Van der Veen were re-elected elders and H. Van Ark re-elected deacon, H. Laandal and J. Kooiker being chosen deacons to succeed John Kerkhof and John Pessink, while the vacancy caused by the removal of John Winter to Ann Arbor was not filled, being left open until a future meeting.

Sheriff Jesse G. Woodbury left Saturday morning for Marquette with Wiley H. Tollefson, sentenced Friday to spend five years of life at the branch prison there. This is the last leg of a two thousand mile journey which was necessary to bring Tollefson from Boston to answer for a crime in Ottawa county. The cost of transportation, trial and disposal will amount to nearly $700.—G. H. Tribune.

Arend Ver Lee, living on West Fourteenth street, has been granted a divorce from Winnie Ver Lee, desertion being the charge. Attorney L. Y. Devries represented Ver Lee. The couple became acquainted through a matrimonial agency and were married five years ago. Each had four children, and in a short time trouble arose and Mrs. Ver Lee left her husband.

Some time ago a fakir traveling through the country under the name of Morrison, worked Landlord E. T. Pennoyer of the Cutler at Grand Haven to the tune of $35 on a bogus check. It was learned just about that time that the fellow had been working the hotel men of this section of the country on much the same game. Descriptions of the wanted man were sent out and this week a letter was received from the chief of police of Joliet, Ill., stating that a man giving the name of Patterson, but very much answering the description of Morrison was held there for working a confidence game, and was being held to the grand jury. Mr. Pennoyer expects to be in Chicago shortly and when he goes there will take a run over to Joliet and if Patterson is the man wanted it is likely that he will be brought to Grand Haven as soon as the Joliet authorities are through with him.

Wednesday night of last week fire was discovered in Chas. Power's barn and before Mr. Powers who was the first to arrive had reached the scene of the conflagration the building was so nearly destroyed that the roof was about ready to fall in. The fire is supposed to have started from a bonfire which had been built by tramps early in the evening to cook their supper. The barn was a well built structure 37x77 and could not be replaced for much more than the $500 insurance that was on it. There was $400 more insurance on the contents of the building which could not be replaced for that amount.

after she had dropped her calf, and shipped her to his home in Illinois. Notwithstanding this long trip she gave during the year 11,102 pounds of milk, 864 pounds of fat and 425 pounds of butter. The following year she gave 12,314 pounds of milk, 410 pounds of butter fat and 478 pounds of butter. She has an average record for two years of 11,708 pounds of milk, 387 pounds of butter fat and 452 pounds of butter.

Inflammation of the Udder.

In treating for inflammation of the udder we should give some laxative constitutional treatment as well as local application, says Farm and Live Stock Journal. For the former give one and one-half pounds of epsom salts and one tablespoonful of saltpeter three times a day. For the local treatment give hot fomentations to the udder, hot cloths or sponges and hot water. Use several thicknesses of an old blanket wrung out in hot water, apply to the inflamed parts and cover with a dry one. Change the blankets often. Rub the udder with camphorated alcohol, witch hazel and lanolin if the inflammation persists, and afterward with camphorated oil, one part camphor to eight parts of olive oil. A vigorous treatment along these lines will reduce the inflammation in a short time.

The Soo Ore Fleet.

"The most impressive commercial panorama that the earth can show," is the ore laden fleet of steamers that passes through the great Sault Ste. Marie canal, 50,000,000 of tons of iron passing in review, 30,000,000 being iron ore to be worked up by countless hands to do service to mankind. One of these great steamers has loaded 10,245 gross tons of iron ore at Allouez bay in 89 minutes. Nine thousand tons of this load were put on in 34 minutes, while the steamer was at dock only 180 minutes, including shifting. The Lake Superior country has been termed the world's richest mineral territory. As said the Hon. Peter White, whose history runs parallel with America's iron age, "the iron trade of the United States is a mighty solemn fact."

GREAT SHOWING BY AMERICAN FARMS

SECRETARY WILSON TELLS OF MARVELOUS CROP RECORD FOR THE YEAR.

Record in Corn Production Is Broken—Total Value of All Crops Is Estimated to Be $6,415,000,000—Extracts from the Report.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The past year has been one of unprecedented prosperity for the farmers of the United States, declares James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, in his annual report to the president. According to the document, farm crops have never before been harvested at such a high general level of production and value. Corn has reached its highest production, over 2,700,000,000 bushels, of a total estimated value of $1,216,000,000. Hay comes second, with a value of $605,000,000. Cotton is expected to yield $575,000,000. The short wheat crop of last year is followed by one of 684,000,000 bushels, and its value, $525,000,000, overtops the highest value ever before reached. While only one crop, corn, reached its highest production this year, four crops—corn, hay, wheat and rice—reached their highest value.

No crop but corn produces the income that the dairy cow does. The estimate of the value of dairy products for 1905 reaches $665,000,000. The farmer's hen competes for precedence with wheat, poultry products aggregating half a billion dollars in value.

Wealth Produced by Farms. "And yet," says the secretary, "the story is not done." The wealth production of farms in 1905 has reached the highest amount ever attained by the farmer of this or any other country, "a stupendous aggregate of results of brain and muscle and machine," amounting in value to $6,415,000,000, an excess over last year of $256,000,000. The wealth produced on farms in 1905 exceeds that of 1904 by four per cent., that of 1903 by eight per cent., and that shown by the census figures for 1899 by 36 per cent. Should there be no relapse from his present position as a wealth producer, three years hence the farmer will find that the farming element, about 35 per cent. of the population, has produced an amount of wealth within ten years equal to one-half of the entire national wealth produced in three centuries.

Value of Farm Animals. The value of horses and mules on farms exceeded last winter $1,452,000,000. Milch cows are advancing in numbers and are worth $482,000,000. The value of all other cattle is estimated at $662,000,000. Sheep are declining in number and total value, while swine maintain their previous position, and are valued at over $283,000,000. In the aggregate, the value of farm animals of all sorts has increased over that given in the census of 1900 by nine per cent.

During the last fiscal year, exported domestic farm products were valued at $827,000,000. This is below the annual average for the five years preceding, and the relative position of farm products in domestic exports is a declining one on account of the gain in exports of manufactures. Nevertheless, during the last 16 years the domestic exports of farm products have amounted to $12,000,000,000, or $1,000,000,000 more than enough to buy all the railroads of the country at their commercial value, and this with the mere surplus for which there was no demand at home. During these 15 years the farmer has secured a balance of $5,635,000,000 to himself, out of which he has offset an adverse balance of $3,000,000,000 in the foreign trade in nonagricultural products, turning over to the nation, from his account with other nations, $5,632,000,000. The exports of forest products were $63,000,000.

Farmers Are Bankers. One of the most notable outgrowths of savings by farmers is the great multiplication of small national banks in recent years. As many as 1,754 banks, each with a capital of less than $50,000, were organized from March, 1900, to October, 1905. These were distributed mostly throughout the south and the north central states, in rural regions. In the south 623 of these banks were organized, and in the north central states 792. The capital of these banks has come from the farmers. The increase of bank deposits in agricultural states is most extraordinary. For the first time in the financial history of the south, deposits in the banks of that region now exceed $1,000,000,000. These remarkable increases in bank deposits in agricultural states and the increase in the number of small country banks are directly and indirectly because of the profits that have come to the farmers.

AGAINST EIGHT-HOUR DAY. National Grange Adopts Resolution Aimed at Labor Unions—Contest May Follow.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 24.—Before adjourning sine die Thursday evening the National Grange, Patrons of Industry, adopted a resolution declaring "that we, as American citizens, believe it is every man's privilege to work as many hours as he wills, for pay that energy, thrift and activity are entitled to encouragement and should command rightful compensation for services rendered." This is taken as a direct aim at labor unions, which fix on eight hours for a working day, and may mean a contest between the farmers and organized labor.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use

Lion Coffee,

the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

Some sudden strain from over-exertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

Take no chances; make your heart strong and vigorous with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me."

TELLS OF LOAN PAID BY MORGAN

PERKINS, OF NEW YORK LIFE, EXPLAINS TESTIMONY OF PREVIOUS WITNESS.

ADMITS HE POCKETED AGENT'S COMMISSIONS

Vice President of Big Insurance Company Relates Secrets Laying Bare Customs to Legislative Investigating Committee.

New York, Nov. 27.--In explaining the testimony of last Friday, when the statement was made by a witness that $56,720 was paid to Andrew Hamilton, "the legislative insurance generalissimo," by J. P. Morgan & Co., George W. Perkins testified before the insurance investigating committee Monday that in 1901 J. P. Morgan & Co. paid $56,720 to the Central national bank and the New York Security and Trust company. This payment was made, he said, upon the request of President McCall, of the New York Life, to take up loans to Edward E. McCall and Andrew Hamilton which those institutions had made at the request of President McCall. Edward E. McCall is a justice of the New York state supreme court and is a brother of President McCall, of the New York Life insurance company.

Perkins Gets Loan Profits.

Mr. Perkins said that $40,193, which was paid by Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, to the New York Life insurance company in September, 1904, as the profits of a loan to that company of $330,000, was paid to Mr. Perkins as trustee of the "Nylle" fund, and that he (Mr. Perkins) had negotiated the loan for that fund. As the "Nylle" fund did not have that amount to spare, the New York Life insurance company loaned the money to Kidder, Peabody & Co. on Mexican Central railroad bonds, which were deposited by the Boston company. The life insurance company received interest at the rate of five per cent. of the bonds as its profit in the transaction and the "Nylle" fund got the $40,193. The "Nylle" fund belongs to the agents of the New York Life insurance company.

Received Cash on Insurance.

George W. Perkins, vice president of the New York Life insurance company and member of J. P. Morgan & Company, was the first witness called before the legislative life insurance investigating committee Monday. He testified that he was insured in the New York Life insurance company to the amount of $310,000. Some of the policies he held were taken out when he was an agent of the company. On six of them the commissions amounted to $318, and he received these commissions from the agent. Mr. Perkins maintained that the commissions on his own policies were returned to him as trade discounts and that it was not improper for him to accept them as such. Mr. Perkins said he did not regard it as wrong for any man in any business to receive a trade discount.

Thought It the Custom.

It was his impression that it has been the general custom for life insurance officers to accept these commissions on the policies taken out by them. His own acceptance of a commission, Mr. Perkins said, was in part because he took it out during a prize competition between agents. Under the New York Life plan the offering of bonuses, he said, did not promote rebating. Competition between companies he believed to be the cause of rebates. Mr. Perkins said he thought Gage E. Tarbell was mistaken in saying he was insured in the New York Life for $50,000 through Mr. Perkins. The policy was taken out through an agent, he said. He knew that Tarbell got the commission, but it was not so arranged with Mr. Perkins. The agency which took the Tarbell policy is discontinued and the commissions on renewals on the policy are being paid to Mr. Tarbell. Mr. Hughes asked Mr. Perkins to produce a statement of all insurance policies held by the officers of other companies in the New York Life.

Would Bar All Rebates.

At this point Chairman Armstrong, of the investigating committee, asked: "To what people are rebates allowed?" "They ought not to be allowed at all," Mr. Perkins replied. "They are allowed to people in the insurance business." If any agent were detected in rebating to outsiders he would be punished, the witness said. It never struck Mr. Perkins that this was a discrimination. He did not believe, however, that there was any statute allowing officials to get rebates.

"What was the New York Life's participation in New York Security and Trust company's participation in United States Steel syndicate?" asked Mr. Hughes.

"The New York Life insurance company had no direct interest in the syndicate," replied Mr. Perkins. He added, however, that the trust company did have and had also an arrangement with the New York Life by which the New York Life got 75 per cent. of the profits in that participation.

Richard A. McCurdy has resigned as president of the Mutual Life insurance company. His retirement has been followed by that of his son, Robert H. McCurdy, general manager of the company, and Louis A. Thebaud, the favored general agent for New York. Each of these men has been drawing approximately $150,000 a year in salaries and commissions from the company, besides their indirect profits in financial transactions with Mutual money.

INDIAN SUMMER.

The stillness that doth wait on change is here,
Some pause of expectation owns the hour;
And faint and far I hear the sea complain
Where gray and answerless the headlands tower.

Slow falls the evening of the dying year,
Misty and dim the patient forests lie,
Chill ocean winds the wasted woodland grieve,
And earthward loitering the leaves go by.

Behold how nature answers death! O'erhead
The memoried splendor of her summer eves
Lavished and lost her wealth of sun and sky,
Scarlet and gold, are in her drifting leaves.

Vain pageantry! for this, alas, is death,
Nor may the season's ripe fulfillment cheat
Our thronging memories of those who died
With life's young summer promise incomplete.

The dead leaves rustle 'neath my lingering tread,
Low murmuring ever to the spirit ear:
We were, and yet again shall be once more,
In the sure circuit of the rolling year.

Trust thou the craft of nature.
For then
A comrade wise she moves, serenely sweet,
With willful presence mocking sense of loss
For us who mourn love's unreturning feet.

Trust thou her wisdom, she will reconcile
The faltering spirit to eternal change
When, in her fading woodways, thou shalt touch
Dear hands long dead and know them not as strange.

For thee a golden parable she breathes
Where in the mystery of this repose
While death is dreaming life, the waning wood
With far-caught light of heaven divinely glows.

Thou, when the final loneliness draws near,
And earth to earth recalls her tired child,
In the sweet constancy of nature strong Shalt dream again--how dying nature smiled.

Steamer Argo Driven Ashore. 23 Rescued By Life Sav- ing Crew

The Graham & Morton steel steamer Argo, Captain John Stewart in command, with 23 passengers aboard, carrying a crew of 32 men, and well laden with freight, was driven ashore north of the north pier at Holland harbor. Friday morning during the terrific southwest gale which swept Lake Michigan, and the passengers and some of the crew were taken ashore in the breeches buoy by the life saving crew commanded by Capt. Pool, the keeper, after arduous and thrilling work.

The Argo cleared from Chicago Thursday evening in fair weather and clear skies, but was not long on the way when a storm accompanied by intermittent showers came up.
Holland harbor was sighted between 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, but Captain Stewart decided to lay by until it was light enough to make the harbor. About 5:30 the chance offered and he headed the steamer for the entrance. Ordinarily the trial would have been successful, but in this instance a bar had formed in front of the piers and the Argo struck this bar and lost steerage way.
Before she again gained headway a couple of heavy breakers battered her and threw her against the piers.
Another breaker struck her a little forward of midships and drove her to the north of the north pier where she struck the bar fairly hard, and although the engines were kept working she could not again be brought under control and lodged on the bottom about 500 feet north of the pier.

Surfman Wm. Woldering was on watch in the lookout of the life saving beach tower and had watched the Argo until her light was first distinguishable in the early morning.
When she struck he rang the jingler and the awakened captain and crew manned the life boat, and in the heavy sea, through a powerful wind that struck them broadside to they pulled for the imperilled steamer. It was a dangerous undertaking but they cleared the harbor successfully and rounding to swept to the aid of the steamer. The boat was tumbled about in the surf while they hovered near the lee side of the ship, but they could not get near enough to take off the passengers without taking unnecessary risks.

Returning to the station they took the beach apparatus and transferred it to the north side of the harbor and made ready to shoot out the shotline. In the meantime the steamer had been pounded along to the northward until it reached a point about 1,500 feet from the north pier and about 500 feet from shore.

The first shot went too far south, but the second went over the bow and the line fell in a little tangle over a fender forward. Mate Crawford climbed down the side of the steamer and brought it to the deck

but this soon broke and the fastening was made close to the lee bow.
During the time that communication was being made between steamer and shore, the steamer had been gradually pounded northward and closer inshore and before the breeches buoy was made ready for service the sand anchor had to be moved three times; but finally everything was ready, the steamer was practically stationary about 400 feet from shore, and Smith wiggled the captain to send the buoy out.
The first to enter the buoy was Mrs.
P. J. Niskern of Big Rapids, and while willing hands manned the weather whip she was hauled ashore in fine style. She was greeted by a mighty cheer, and seemed none the worse for the thrilling trip. Then out and in the buoy was sent on its errand until fifteen passengers had been brought ashore, there being among them besides Mrs. Niskern, three other women, Mrs. C. Johnson of Big Rapids, Mrs. C. W. Earl of Chicago, and Mrs. P. Canaan of

Twice the life boat was dashed back upon the beach and then part of the crowd got a hold of the bow painter and others assisted the crew in keeping her away while she was towed and pulled to a point nearly opposite the steamer. Then the boys bent to the oars and Capt. Pool swung her into the breakers for another trial.
They forced her to within about 100 feet of the steamer's bow when the wind and waves struck her flush and gradually beat her back. The waves were the hardest kind to row against.
If they were real large and rolling it would have been all right for then the boat could gain headway while climbing them or when between breakers. But they were short and choppy and beat a regular tattoo on the sides and broke over the boat drenching the men to the skin. The wind was very fierce about this time and actually picked up the water and threw the spray against and over the surfboat. Inch by inch the boat was beaten back, but captain and crew kept at it, struggling against the elements with all their might until they were beaten down the shore about a quarter of a mile and reluctantly beached the surfboat.

Then arrangements were made to resort again to the breeches buoy, another line was shot to the strand ed steamer, communication re established and the remainder of the passengers and the purser were brought ashore.

When the last passenger was landed Surfman Smith wiggled that Captain Stewart and the crew would stay aboard as long as the gangways, which were springing considerably, held. Later some members of the crew were taken off, and the remainder stayed aboard all night.
The beach apparatus was kept ready for instant use and two of the life savers kept watch through the night.

Following is the passenger list:
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Canaan and daughter, Juliette, E. L. Craw, H.
Brown, colored, H. Jaress, E. Parker, M. B. Gilbert, Grand Rapids; T.
F. Brown, P. Endress, L. O. De Camp, Ionia; Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Johnson, Big Rapids; H. H. Walker,
Mr. and Mrs. P. Niskern, George Pfaff, Mrs. C. W. Earl; J. Burton, E. A. Adams, Chicago; H. G. Pelgrim, O. C. Jensen, Peter Brusse, Holland; Capt. F. Wild, C. Bennett,
Albany, Ill.; L. Miller, Hilliards, Mich.

The Argo's crew, officers and men consisted of thirty-two men. Late in the evening about fourteen came ashore in the buoy. Among those who came ashore were Baggage-man S. Bem, San Francisco; Cabin Boy Harry Willis, Cairo, Ill.; Quartermaster John Burtker, Frankfort, Mich.; Walter W. T. McManus, Chicago; Deck Hands F. Vail, Chicago; W. Bemis, Chicago; Oscar Lyons,
Chicago; C. Miller, Chicago; James Sexton, Chicago; Edward Dwyer, Chicago; William Demdow, Chicago;
Francen, Chicago, and Purser J. E.
Hall, Manitowac, Wis. Captain John Stewart, Chief Engineer William Bradley and First Mate Jack Crawford, with about half the crew, including the whole engine and fire room crew, stayed aboard all night.

The members of the life saving crew, in charge of Capt. C. D. Pool, are Oscar Johnson, Harry Van den

Berg, Wm. Woldering, Francis Cady, John Roberts, Robert Vos and Robert Smith. Captain and crew rendered a mighty good account of themselves. From daylight until dark they worked indefatigably both in the surfboat and on the beach handling the wet lines, and although they were drenched with the chilling water they stuck to their respective posts and their efforts were directed to good purpose. Many words of praise have been bestowed upon them. It was the first time a Holland crew ever used the breeches buoy to good advantage, and it was a hard time, as the steamer was pounded and surged, making it difficult to keep the hawser taut. But the boys were at home either in the surfboat or at the beach apparatus and moved with the precision of clockwork.
Surfman Smith's plunge in the breakers and his handling of the situation after he boarded the steamer won the plaudits of all.

One thing that was proved conclusively was the utility, the need, and the value of the wigwag system of signaling. It was needed that day, and conversation by means of it was carried on easily between Capt. Pool and Surfman Smith. It greatly expedited matters. It is safe to say that never again will a member of the Holland crew laugh at the wigwag or denounce it as useless red tape.

The Argo was insured for $90,- 000 in the Marine Insurance company and has been turned over to the company, which will float her, place her in dry dock for repairs and then turn her over to the Graham & Morton company as good as new.
The boat is in peril as long as there is a likelihood that the wind will shift and come from the west or the northwest. Such a wind will kick up a heavy sea here and if it blows strong might batter the hull beyond easy repair. So far the steamer, being a staunch one, has withstood the battering very well.

J. S. Morton, secretary of the Graham & Morton line, arrived here Saturday forenoon on a special train.
F. C. Werkman, representing the marine underwriters, has also arrived and has taken charge of operations. With the tug Pup and a scow the freight was taken from the boat
Monday and is in fairly good shape.
Sunday a horse consigned to Edgar Morse of Grand Rapids for use in the Grand Rapids fire department was slipped overboard by means of the gangplank and piloted safely
ashore.

The tug Bonita arrived from Benton Harbor Sunday morning with Captain Boswell aboard but was not of much use as the water is too shallow for her to get near.

Capt. Boswell has been placed in charge of the Argo, and Capt.
Stewart went to Benton Harbor Sunday afternoon on the Bonita with Secretary Morton to take charge of the steamer Holland which has taken the Argo's place on the Holland and Chicago line. The company expects to continue navigation as long as the weather and the harbor permits.

Captain Stewart carried himself well during the trying times Friday and proved efficient, courteous and of good judgment. President Graham attaches no blame to him whatever for the grounding of the boat.

"It was one of those unaccountable things," he said. "The sea was not dangerously high and the boat could have made the harbor a thousand times in safety. Something went a little wrong and the control of the ship was lost. No one was to blame.
Being a steamboat captain is not an easy place. Had Captain Stewart made no effort to enter the harbor that morning it would have been said that he and his men were cowards."

The Graham & Morton company have for many years been paying $10,000 to $12,000 insurance and this is the first time that they have been in line for any return. The Chicago loss was not covered by insurance.

Monday afternoon the wrecking tug Favorite arrived from Chicago but could do nothing Monday or yesterday on account of the sea. The tug can get within about 400 feet of the Argo now and it will be necessary to dredge a channel about 500 feet long, then dredge around the steamer and haul her into the channel and away to deep water.

The steamer City of Benton Harbor, Capt. Russell in command, arrived here yesterday and will stay on this line until the freight that has accumulated is cleared away.

Piers Destroyed At Harbor.

Forty feet of the outer end of the north pier has been swept away by the storm now raging on Lake Michigan and it is feared that if the gale continues a great deal more of the pier will be swept away. The broken timbers have some of them been thrown on the north beach near the wreck of the Kate Lyons and the remainder is floating in the channel.
The Argo is being badly pounded by the waves but so far does not show any ill effects.

BIG STORM WRECKS 11 SHIPS. 26 LIVES MAY BE LOST

All along the chain of lakes a mighty storm raged Monday night and yesterday and did terrible damage. Following are some of the results of the storm:

Steamers Mataafa, R. W. England and Crescent City are wrecked near entrance to harbor at Duluth, within sight of lighthouse. Crew of 26 on Mataafa is thought to be frozen to death.

Steamer Appomattox is battered to pieces north of Milwaukee.

Steamer D. C. Morton goes shore at Port Washington.

Government lighthouse on Milwaukee breakwater stove in and east wall carried away.

Barge Harvey Bissell is torn to pieces at Alpena.

Steamer City of Holland is on the rocks at Rogers City. Crew is taken off.

Theory Advanced In Spagnolo Case.

A citizen of this city who has given the Spagnolo murder case considerable attention advances the following argument in favor of the suicide theory. He says:

"I do not think we should accept positively the deduction that it was impossible for Spagnolo to inflict the wounds that were found on his body. Isn't it possible that he put the revolver up to the side of his head well towards the back and that when he pulled the trigger the revolver was jarred so that it pointed down and thus the bullet entered the back. Then he might have tried to shoot his head from the other side and in the same manner cause the other wound in the back, and failing in these two attempts to shoot himself in the head he then, it is reasonable to suppose, shot himself in the side.
I know that ordinarily there ought to be powder burns on the clothes in case the thing happened the way I've explained, but probably the revolver did not come quite close enough to burn. Anyway I've a notion to try it on a dummy and see if in case I shoot as I have described there will be powder marks or not. One thing is clear in my mind and that is that all of the evidence points to suicide excepting the location of the wounds and the consequent apparent inability of the dead man to inflict them. This man Martini seems to be the one who in the opinion of the public did the shooting, but there has been nothing advanced so far to prove it. It has not been shown that he is quarrelsome. On the contrary his employer at the Cappon & Bertsch Leather company says he was a quiet un-offensive man and never had any trouble. The only thing I see against this man is his looks but I don't think a man ought to be convicted of crime just because he is homely. His actions have always been all right and he should be given a little credit for that. Of course he may have done murder, but before I say so I'm going to experiment with powder burns. I'll tell you all about how I come out.

I'll take to the woods Saturday and shoot a dummy and will tell you all about it when I get back."

Jealous Husband Shoots Five And Then Kills Himself.

Two dead, two dying, one seriously injured, and another but slightly wounded sums up the butchery which occurred in Robinson township, Ottawa county, Monday.

Carl Kokosinski, an enraged pole, was the slayer. His little son Eddie is dead; his wife, Hattie Kokosinski, is shot through the face and one arm,
but it is believed will live; Frank Dubrowski, who was looked upon as Mrs. Kokosinski's paramour, is dying at a neighboring house with a 32 caliber bullet in his lungs and another in his side. Innocent little Max Kokosinski, aged 5, is lying with a bullet in his head in the very room where his crazed father shot him. Joseph Smith, who happened to be stopping at the house, has a bullet wound across his abdomen, but the injury is only a flesh wound.

Kokosinski, after completing his deadly work, put a bullet in his own brain and died instantly.

The tragedy occurred at the farm home of Frank Dubrowski, an unmarried Pole aged 25. Dubrowski and Kokosinski were supposed to be friends and the latter's family lived at his place since last August. The two men had for three years been shopmates in the big Pullman works in Chicago. When Dubrowski bought a farm here two years ago he urged Kokosinski and his wife to come and live with him.

This August they came, and some weeks ago both men returned to Chicago to work, leaving the woman and children at home. Dubrowski, after a time, returned. Neighbors gossiped and declared that Mrs.
Kokosinski thought more of Dubrowski than of her husband.

Kokosinski arrived from Chicago, hired a rig at a livery and had the young man drive him out to Robinson. The driver noticed his passenger's eccentricities.

Mrs. Kokosinski says that while she and Dubrowski and Smith were eating, the door suddenly opened.
She turned round and saw her husband.

He shot her flush in the face. She jumped up, the blood spurting from the wound, to receive another bullet in the arm.

Then Kokosinski turned the gun
upon Dubrowski and shot twice.
Smith, who is an old man, was next shot, but he begged for his life and the murderer allowed him to run from the house. Kokosinski did not pursue his wife and Dubrowski, who ran across the road to a neighbor's.

Dubrowski fell once from weakness, but Mrs. Kokosinski pulled him into the house, fearful that the murderer would pursue.

Alone in the house with his two little sons, Kokosinski put a bullet into the head of each and then applied the gun to his own brain.

Tony Martini, Mrs. Peter Spagnolo and Joseph Spagnolo, the three suspects in the Peter Spagnolo murder case, were brought over from Grand Haven yesterday for their preliminary hearing in Justice Van Daren's court. Prosecuting Attorney Pagelson was assisted by Attorney Walter I. Lallie of Grand Haven, and the interests of the prisoners were looked after by Attorney Charles H.
McBride. The testimony brought out no new developments and the hearing was adjourned to December 12 and the prisoners taken back to jail at Grand Haven.

when all heaved away and drew the whipline to the steamer. Those aboard the steamer did not seem to understand the intricacies of the whipblock and whiplines well enough to work rapidly, and to hasten the obtaining of communication between shore and steamer Capt. Pool decided to put one of the surfmen aboard.

The surfboat was manned, and after a severe buffeting was rowed near enough to the lee of the steamer to get a line. One end of this line was fastened around Surfman William Smith, the other was aboard the steamer. When a point of vantage was reached, Smith jumped overboard and struck out for the steamer. He was hidden from sight by a huge wave but soon reappeared and was hauled to the upper deck, scrambling up the sides in good shape. He was loudly applauded by the onlookers for his heroic plunge.
All day long he stayed aboard ship and saw that everything ran free and clear.

First the tail of the whip was fastened around the steamer's spar,

Grand Rapids, and one little girl,
Miss Juliette Canaan of Grand Rapids.

While this work was going on the people had been gradually assembling from Holland, Zeeland, Grand Rapids and other points and by this time (about 11 o'clock in the forenoon) a large crowd had gathered.
Many of the men lent a hand to the life saving crew and were of great assistance pulling and hauling the wet lines.

After the fifteenth passenger had been hauled ashore and while the breeches buoy was being sent out for another, the hawser, chafed by the surging of the steamer, parted.
As the life savers would have to go across to the station to get another equipment thus consuming time and as the wind and sea was increasing, Capt. Pool decided to make another trial with the life boat, which at this time was on the beach about 800 feet north of and therefore to the lee of the steamer.

The life boat was manned, and assisted by a willing crowd, the life savers headed her into the breakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Melhorn entertained a company of friends at a venison dinner Sunday at their home at Evanston Park. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Barnard, Fred Metcalf, M. Tromp, Theron Metcalf, Sidney Cobb, A. D. Orr, Don Johnson, Will Phernambuco, James Kelly and Clyde Cobb.

Miss Mae McMillin was surprised last Thursday evening by a number of young friends who were entertained by games. The company included Grace Jones, Florence Van Anrooy, Marguerite vandenBrink, Ethel Buskirk, Mary Price, Minnie Hamelink, Janet Blom, Mabel and Myrtle Knutson, Myrtle Wilson, Flora Bontekoe, George Smith, Willie Minderhout, Edward Visscher, Henry Reidsma, Henry Griffin, Edward Fassen, Niles Hansen.

Henry Tuls and Miss Ella Geersmaa were married last Thursday afternoon at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tuls, 150 West Fifteenth street. Rev. R. L. Haan and Rev. Tuls, brother of the groom, of Paterson, N. J., conducted the ceremony. In the evening a reception was given to the young people, about 100 guests being present. Many handsome presents were received.

Ralph VanLente was surprised last Thursday evening at his home, 23 West Twelfth street. The hours were spent playing various games after which refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Geneva Swift, Jen'ie Pikard, Alice VanArk, Gertrude Reidsma, and Grace Frericks, Chris Becker, Ed Nyland, Peter Oosting and Al Hoeksema.

The T. H. M. club was entertained at the home of Miss Anna Knoll on East Seventeenth street last Monday evening. After the regular work of fancy sewing a musical program was carried out including the following numbers: Piano solo, Miss Anna Knoll; duet, the Misses Gertrude Reidsma and Alice Van Ark.

Monday evening a company of young people pleasantly surprised Mrs. F. Yonkers, 82 West Eighth street, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. She was presented with a handsome hand-painted fruit dish, the presentation speech being made by Miss Allie Kuite. Among the guests were Mr. Henderson of Allegan, and Mr. VanZylen and Mr. Yonkers of Grand Rapids.

A hard times surprise party was given O. A. Burns, last Friday evening by his friends and neighbors of Montello Park, the occasion being his 60th birthday anniversary. Hard times refreshments were served, music and games were enjoyed and the party returned home at a late hour. During the evening Mr. Burns was presented with a beautiful reading lamp. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames H. Boone, Jr., John Van Zanten, B. N. Tozier, J. J. Baxa, T. R. VanWert, Jr., J. L. Conkey and daughter Ruby. Knole, Albert Diekema, Frank Meengs, Geo. Farnsworth, F. R. Van Wert, sr., Mr. Astra and Mr. Van Hulst.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Century Club was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cappon. It was attended by 112 members and guests of members. The early part of the evening was given over to a reception to the Misses E. Grace Updegraff and Alice Frances Raymo d. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cappon, Attorney George E. Kollen and Mrs. Louise M. Thurber, respectively presidents and secretary of the club, and the Misses Updegraff and Raymond. Following the reception Miss Updegraff was heard in a group of songs, all encored, and Miss Raymond very capably read "Vestry of the Basins," in four scenes. During the intervals between the scenes musical numbers by local talent were contributed, including a piano duet by Miss Amy Yates and Mrs. Fannie Humphrey Mills, vocal solos by Prof. J. B. Nykerk and Miss Updegraff.

Ben A. Mulder of the News is still confined to his home by illness.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burgh, East 11th street, Tuesday—a daughter.

Postmaster Glerum of Zealand is in the city.

Thanksgiving services in Hope church will begin at 11 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. J. T. Bergen and special music. A feature of the musical services will be the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Updegraff.

The High School foot ball team will be up against a tough proposition to-morrow. They play the South Haven team at South Haven and when you see South Haven without a good team you see white black-birds. But the Holland boys have been going some this fall and expect to make a good showing.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Paul H. McNeil, son of Mrs. E. D. McNeil, an Architect of Calumet, and Stanley Johnson of the Electric Light plant, of Houghton, had a narrow escape from death in the lake Superior woods near lake Gerald last week. Messrs. McNeil and Johnson were in the woods a greater part of the week hunting deer. One morning they left camp and on entering a large ravine noticed a 250 pound buck headed for the swamp. They succeeded in wounding the deer and were making their way through the underbrush to head the animal off before it got into the swamp. While making their way through the brush two shots rang out. The bullet from the first shot passed over their heads close enough for them to feel it whiz as it went by. The second bullet was the one that did the damage and came near ending one or the other of the gentlemen's lives. It struck the stock of the gun carried by Mr. Johnson and shattered it. Some of the pieces when picked up were found to be not much larger than a match. Mr. Johnson was in the lead, only about three feet when the bullet struck the gun. They killed the deer they were after and shipped it to Calumet.

A number of our towns folk are roasting turkeys, making mince pies and cranberry sauce for Thanksgiving.

Attorney George E. Kollen has been retained by Attorney Benjamin F. Chadsey, to fight the requisition made upon Governor Warner for Chadsey, the latter being held at Niles on an indictment for grand larceny returned against him at Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Kollen went to Lansing today to argue against the granting of the requisition papers.

A fast football game is promised for Thanksgiving Day, when the Holland Junior Independents and the Grand Rapids Independents will clash on the local gridiron. This will be the best contest of the year for Holland.

A Talk With the Man

Who Honestly Wishes to Sell His House at an Honest Price.

Eight Reasons why He Should List it with the R. H. Post Agency for the season of 1906.

FIRST—Because he advertises more extensively than all other Holland agents combined, and will agree to a vertise all property placed in his hands.

SECOND—Because he sells entirely on commission, giving all property an equal chance, and an equally energetic effort.

THIRD—Because located in the center of the downtown business district all new comers inquiring about real estate go directly to him.

FOURTH—Because his sales during the past season were over $50,000.00, including more than 35 houses, every one bona fide sales, made and carried out entirely through his efforts.

FIFTH—Because he will gladly furnish a list of those who have sold or purchased houses through his agency during the past year—every one satisfied.

SIXTH—Because he attends to every detail of the business for you, places loans, make out deeds and mortgages, examines abstracts, takes the whole responsibility from you.

SEVENTH—Because early in 1906 he will issue a booklet advertising Holland and Holland property, and will gladly include your house, without charge.

EIGHTH—Because his motto is No sale—No charge.

AWFUL TRAGEDY OCCURS IN IOWA

MOTHER AND FIVE CHILDREN FOUND MURDERED NEAR INDEPENDENCE.

Husband and Father Arrested and Charged with Most Brutal Crime in History of Eastern Section of State
—Little Evidence of Struggle.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 25.—Mrs. William McWilliams and her five children, ranging from three years to 18 years of age, were found murdered Friday afternoon at their farm home, six miles south of Independence, Ia. The husband and father, William McWilliams, is now under arrest at Independence, charged with the crime.

The murder was the most brutal in the history of eastern Iowa. Evidently the mother had been killed while preparing a meal, probably dinner, for when the bodies were found food was on the stove cooking. She had been killed by blows of a hammer and her skull was terribly crushed then she had been savagely hacked with a knife. After her murder the children had evidently been called in one by one and murdered in a similar manner, for all wore clothing that indicated that they had been at work on the farm just before death. The babe, not three years old, when found, still wore a hood and mittens, and had in its hand a piece of buttered bread. One blow of the hammer had sufficed for it, and then the murderer laid it in its dead mother's arms.

SULTAN DEFIES THE POWERS

Rejects Demand That He Yield Control of Macedonian Finances and Prepares to Fight.

Constantinople, Nov. 24.—The sultan Thursday issued an irade approving the decision of the council of ministers to reject the demands of the powers for international control of the finances of Macedonia. Whether the rejection is absolute or conditional has not been definitely ascertained. Vice Admiral Huseini Pasha has started on a special steamer for the Dardanelles, presumably with instructions for the commander of the forts regarding the commander's conduct in the event of the appearance of the international fleet. Similar instructions have been sent to the governors of the Turkish islands in the archipelago.

London, Nov. 25.—Information from the foreign office is that the porte having refused to accede to the demands of the powers, the naval demonstration will proceed, the matter now being in the hands of the naval commanders.

Athens, Nov. 27.—The international fleet assembled at Piraeus for the purpose of making a naval demonstration against Turkey in support of the demands of the powers for the financial control of Macedonia has sailed under sealed orders. British and French torpedo boats were left behind to keep up communication with the fleet.

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED.

Gov. La Follette Summons the Wisconsin Legislature to Meet on December 4.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 23.—Gov. La Follette has issued a call for a special session of the legislature to meet on December 4 to consider, among other things, a communication from the governor relative to the United States senatorship and the governorship. The question of the state capital, which cannot be rebuilt under the present law, is another of the objects for which the call is issued.

Fire in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23.—Fire here caused damage to the stock of the Badger Furniture company amounting to $75,000 and injured the two seven-story buildings on Washington street occupied by the company to the extent of $10,000.

PRISONERS MUTINY.

Guards Shot Down by Felons at Jefferson City, Mo.—Three Die in Fighting.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 25.—After blowing up the prison gates with high explosives, shooting two prison officials dead, and seriously wounding a third, four convicts, leading a mutiny, escaped from the state penitentiary Friday afternoon, only to be recaptured by guards, police and citizens' posse, after a wild chase and desperate battle with Winchesters, in which two of the fugitives were wounded, one fatally. The whole city was thrown into a panic by the rapid discharge of firearms and rumors that all the convicts in the big prison had escaped. Hundreds of shots were exchanged in the running fight, and as the fugitives dashed through the principal street in a wagon they had seized, volley after volley was fired, the convicts holding the driver of the captured team as a living shield from the bullets. Men, women and children scattered in all directions to take refuge from the flying lead.

The dead: E. Allison, prison guard; Hiram Blake, convict from Grundy county; John Clay, gatekeeper.

The wounded: R. E. See, deputy warden, shot in arm and hip; Harry Vaughan, convict, St. Louis, shot in arm.

Mutineers Captured unhurt: Charles Raymond; George Ryan, from St. Louis.

The desperadoes, finding themselves surrounded by their pursuers, finally brought their wagon to a standstill and, taking shelter behind it, turned on their pursuers. Refusing to surrender, they emptied their revolvers right and left at the posess, who took shelter behind trees. The wagon was almost shot to splinters with the rifles of the pursuers before the convicts were disabled by wounds. The plot to blow up the prison and kill all who resisted their efforts to escape evidently had been planned for several days.

RATES ARE EXCESSIVE.

Official of the Equitable Tells Committee That Premiums Are Loaded Higher Than Necessary.

New York, Nov. 23.—After being on the witness stand before the Armstrong legislative committee on insurance investigation for the greater part of three days, Gage E. Tarbell, second vice president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, finished his testimony Wednesday. Mr. Tarbell said the system of "loading" premiums was originated to insure the ability of companies to meet any contingency of claim or expense. He said that premiums are placed higher than necessary for safety, and the excess "loading" is returned to policyholders in dividends.

Mr. Tarbell said he and his family were insured for about $500,000 in the Equitable society. He said he received the agent's commissions on this insurance and also received the renewal commissions, although the insurance was written through a general agency.

New York, Nov. 25.—That George W. Perkins, vice president of the New York Life insurance company and partner of J. P. Morgan, last year took a profit of $40,000 which belonged to the New York Life for a loan of $939,000 it had negotiated in Boston, and that J. Pierpont Morgan in 1902 paid to "Andy" Hamilton $60,000 out of profits which the New York Life had made in United States Steel, were facts dragged out of a clerk of the insurance company Friday at the legislative insurance committee's inquiry. Morgan probably will have to go on the witness stand and tell why he was dealing with Hamilton, the "yellow dog" fund handler and fugitive, and Perkins must unbarre to the probe of Chief Examiner Charles E. Hughes what right he had to interest money belonging to the New York Life.

BURTON CONVICTED.

Jury Decides That the Kansas Senator Accepted Money from Grain Company.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—Senator J. R. Burton, of Kansas, was on Saturday found guilty on all six counts in the indictment upon which he has been on trial for the past week in the United States circuit court charging him with having violated a federal statute by having agreed to accept and having accepted compensation from the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis to appear for the company in the capacity of an attorney before the post office department. The verdict was brought in at 12:50 o'clock, two hours and 25 minutes after the jury had received the case. Senator Burton was ordered to appear in court at ten o'clock this morning when, his counsel announced, a bill of exceptions would be presented and an appeal asked for.

Millions for Museum.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 21.—By the will of Stephen Salisbury, which was filed for probate Monday afternoon, more than $3,000,000 is bequeathed to the Worcester Art Museum. His estate is estimated at $5,000,000.

Buried Under Falling Slate.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 27.—Alex. Mercy, aged 45, and Charles Toole, Jr., aged 21, miners at Standard mine No. 3, were killed by being buried beneath a mass of several tons of falling slate.

Gompers Re-elected.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 27.—Samuel Gompers was re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor by practically a unanimous vote.

COLLIDE IN DENSE FOG.

Crash Between Trains in Massachusetts Costs the Lives of Fifteen Persons.

Lincoln, Mass., Nov. 27.—Eighteen persons were killed, 25 were seriously injured and probably a score of others cut and bruised in the most disastrous railroad wreck recorded in this state for many years. The wreck occurred at 8:15 o'clock Sunday night at Baker's Bridge station, a mile and a half west of Lincoln on the main line of the Fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad. The regular Sunday express, which left Boston at 7:45 o'clock for Montreal by way of the Rutland system, crashed into the rear of an accommodation train bound for points on the Marlboro branch line and which started from Boston at 7:15. Of the dead, all but two were passengers in the two rear cars of the Marlboro train. The other two were Engineer Barnard, of the Montreal express and his fireman. No passenger on the express train was injured. Of those who lost their lives, a number were apparently killed instantly in the collision, while others were either burned to death or died from suffocation. There were 13 corpses taken from the wreck and three persons died soon after being removed. Three of the bodies were headless. Two skulls were found at two a. m. and 20 minutes later a man's head with a full beard was picked up. It is difficult to fix the exact number of those who perished, but it is thought it will not exceed 18.

KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Wife of F. B. Harrison, of New York, Dies in Crash in Long Island City—Steering Gear Breaks.

New York, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, wife of former Congressman Francis Burton Harrison of New York, was killed Saturday by the overturning of an automobile in which she was riding with a party of friends from San Francisco. The car was running down a steep hill in Long Island City when a break in the steering gear caused the accident. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence I. Scott, of San Francisco, and Charles T. Crocker, also of San Francisco, a Yale student and a brother of Mrs. Harrison, were injured. Mr. Scott suffered a fractured rib and is in a serious condition, his wife was rendered unconscious, but later was revived. Mr. Crocker was bruised, and the chauffeur slightly hurt. Mrs. Harrison's neck was broken.

Mrs. Harrison was Miss Mark Crocker, daughter of the late Charles F. Crocker, of San Francisco. She was one of three children who divided a fortune of between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000 left by her father. Her husband, Francis Burton Harrison, is the son of Mrs. Burton N. Harrison, the novelist, and Burton N. Harrison, who was secretary to President Jefferson Davis, of the southern confederacy, during the civil war. Mr. Scott is a son of the late Irving Scott, the San Francisco shipbuilder.

BANK PLUNDERED.

Burglars Dig Their Way Into Japanese Bank at Los Angeles and Steal $15,000.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 24.—Robbers broke into the local Japanese bank in East Fifth street and took cash amounting to $15,000. The robbers gained access to the bank, which is a branch of the Nishi Bel Cinko, by opening the door of a bicycle shop in the adjoining building, cutting a hole through the back wall into the bank and thus reaching the rear of the safe. Through this hole the strong box was reached and all the cash taken out except $31,250, which was covered with papers. The robbery was not discovered until the bank was about to open for business Thursday. The police say it was the work of expert burglars.

Found Guilty of Murder.

Upper Sandusky, O., Nov. 27.—The jury in the case of Frank Heil, charged with murdering his wife and secreting her body in an outhouse, has returned a verdict of manslaughter. The jury took 40 ballots before reaching an agreement.

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles or such hosts of grateful friends as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration. Falling and Displacement of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Leucorrhoea than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development.

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Menstruation, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Womb troubles, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system, and is as harmless as water.

It quickly removes that Bearing-down Feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, Dizziness, Faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the Uterus, which this medicine always cures. Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound always cures.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

DOUGHERTY GIVEN PRISON SENTENCE

EX-PEORIA BANKER PLEADS GUILTY TO FIVE CHARGES OF FORGERY.

Gets One to Fourteen Years on Each Count—Brief Story of His Peculation of School Funds and the Exposure.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 25.—Newton C. Dougherty Friday pleaded guilty before Judge Worthington on five of the forgery charges against him and was given a sentence of from one to 14 years in Joliet penitentiary on each of the five counts, the sentences to be concurrent.

Many Hear Sentence.
In the courtroom there were 200 spectators, who had heard that the educator and financier would plead guilty. Attorney Irwin addressed the court. He said Dougherty had turned all of his property over to him and that he had been given right of attorney to settle the affairs of the prisoner. He added that Dougherty's property would amount to more than the school board defalcations. He admitted Dougherty had been careless and that he stood willing to take his punishment.

Judge Worthington replied as follows: "I find it necessary to send him to the penitentiary as the law provides. It will be a severe punishment. In count No. 200 the sentence will be confinement in the penitentiary at not less than one year or more than 14 years' solitary confinement. In counts 21, 240, 243 and 244 the same sentence. That is all."

While the court was speaking Dougherty looked straight ahead of him and did not move a muscle. He said nothing when the sentence was pronounced and was taken back to jail, escorted by his attorneys.

Quarrel Exposes Dealings.
The exposure of Dougherty's dealings was brought about by a quarrel between two Peoria citizens over a $30 bill. Eugene Baldwin, editor of the Peoria Star, and Arthur Keithley, an attorney, are the principals. Keithley, who had been Baldwin's attorney, put in a bill for $30 which Baldwin disputed. The lawyer sued and lost. Baldwin claimed the grand jury had been packed to indict him for criminal libel. Packed or not, it was out for business, and soon had Dougherty on the rack as the result of suspicions directed toward him by a former tax collector.

Had Control of School Funds.
Dougherty was accused of peculations amounting to $500,000. Practically in sole control of the school funds of the city for 27 years, investigation proved he had taken advantage of his opportunities. Dougherty was arrested, immediately after which he resigned as president of the Peoria national bank. His bail was finally fixed at $105,000. He was unable to furnish it. The school funds from which Dougherty helped himself had been kept at the Peoria national bank for years. He kept the school books himself and allowed no one to touch them. The bank officials knew nothing of his transactions other than that the cash to the credit of the schools, on deposit in the bank, was supposed, to tally with the figures on the books in Dougherty's possession.

O. J. Bailey, chairman of the finance committee of the school board, was indicted by the grand jury, charged with malfeasance in office. As a result of the scandal exposed, Nelson G. Burnham and C. C. Lines, old directors in the bank, died.

RUSSIAN SAILORS REVOLT.

Entire Regiment of Infantry Joins the Mutineers—Sebastopol Is at Their Mercy.

Sebastopol, Saturday, Nov. 25 (delayed).—The long expected mutiny of sailors, who have been on the verge of revolt for months, has come and Russia's stronghold on the Black sea is in danger of falling completely into their hands. The situation is very critical. All the shore equipages, numbering 4,000 men, are in open rebellion, having driven away or taken their officers prisoners. The Brest regiment of infantry has gone over in a body to the mutineers. Gen. Nepluff, the commander of the fortress, is a captive. The Bielstok regiment, the only other regiment in the city, received the mutineers with cheers, but thus far it remains loyal. Some of the artilleryists have also joined the men in revolt.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—The successful mutiny of the sailors at Sebastopol, accompanied by the first open revolt of an entire regiment of troops, has created the greatest alarm in government circles and no attempt is made to disguise the seriousness of this latest crisis. The army is the last prop of the government. Mutiny is contagious and the epidemic of revolt, which has attacked in turn practically all the units of the navy from Vladivostok to Cronstadt, it is now feared is destined to spread through the army.

Noted Will Case Decided.
Milwaukee, Nov. 27.—Judge Carpenter in a lengthy decision has sustained the will of Mrs. Lisette Schandeln and admitted the instrument to probate. The will makes Mrs. Jacob Heyl the chief beneficiary of the $7,000,000 estate and Mrs. Ella Frank and Emil Schandeln, two other children, were cut off with a small allowance.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do You Fear Consumption?

When we take into consideration the fact that one out of every seven in this climate die of consumption, it is a wonder that it is feared by the people of Holland who have weak lungs and chronic colds and coughs.

A famous London physician has for years urged his patients, when the slightest tendency to consumption appeared, to take the best and liver preparation they could get, and physicians everywhere have recognized that the cod's liver oil contains curative values for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption and all wasting diseases unequalled in medicine, but, unfortunately, few could take and derive any benefit from old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions on account of the indigestible grease which they contain.

Our local druggist, Con De Pree, says, we want every person in Holland to know the value of our new cod liver preparation, Vinol. It actually contains in a concentrated form all of the strengthening body building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.

Therefore, where old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions would do good, Vinol will do far more good. We guarantee Vinol will improve the appetite, strengthen digestion, make rich, red blood, create strength, cure chronic coughs and colds and strengthen weak lungs. If Vinol fails to give satisfaction, we return your money without question." Con De Pree Druggist.

Women's Sympathy.

Is Proverbial—Holland Women No Exception.

How much we owe to the sympathetic side of womankind! When others suffer they cheerfully lend a helping hand. They tell you the means which brought relief to them that you may profit by their experience. Read the testimony given by a Holland woman.

Mrs. M. Shonaker, 256 West Fifteenth street, says: "I suffered from constant heavy aching pains across the small of my back so that I could not rest comfortably at night in any position, and in the day I felt tired and languid. The kidney secretions became badly affected irregular, too frequent, scanty and were attended by a good deal of pain besides depositing a heavy sediment. I suffered also from headaches and spells of dizziness so that I either had to sit down or hold on to something from falling. I used a great many different remedies but without obtaining any benefit. Friends advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and used them. They helped me from the very start. They are the best remedy I ever tried and I have no hesitation in recommending them.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer. All druggists sell it.

Mrs. H. W. Dellinger, aged 62 years, died Friday morning at her home, 194 West Eighth street, after a year's illness with cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Dellinger was born in Licken county, Ohio, and lived in Allegan until two years ago when the family moved here. She is survived by eleven children: E. E. and Jesse Dellinger of Elkhart, Ind., John and George, Mrs. Nora Marble and Mrs. Cora Moore of Otsego, Mrs. Electa Streeter, Mrs. Bessie Blackman, Misses Ellen, Rilla and Carrie Dellinger of this city. The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at the home, and the remains were taken to Allegan Monday for burial.

A. Van Dort died last Friday at his home, 284 East Eighth street. He was 82 years of age and lived in this city 42 years. He had been an invalid nearly ten years. Surviving are the widow and five daughters, Mesdames William Stern of Hart, Peter Kuiper of Oakdale, Ill., John Derks, Joseph Mason and A. Smith of this city, and the sons are John, Henry, Peter and William of this city, Antonio and James of Grand Rapids. Mr. Van Dort was born in the Netherlands, and came to America in 1861. He was one of the organizers of the Central avenue church, being a member forty years until his death. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the Central avenue church, Rev. Vander Vries officiating, assisted by Revs. R. L. Haan and D. R. Drukker.

The thirty fifth annual meeting of the Michigan State Horticultural society will be held in Grand Rapids, Dec. 5, 6 and 7, in conjunction with the Grand River Valley Horticultural society and the Grand Rapids Fruit Growers association. The program presents many of the best horticultural authorities and speakers in the nation and the discussions will be led by men and women of practical experience. The sessions will be held in the large banquet hall of the Pauline hotel and the display of fruits, flowers and vegetables will be spread in an adjoining room. All are invited to display their best horticultural products.

The conference between the railway officials and the Zeeland township board materialized last Saturday at the clerk's office with Messrs. Hendrie, Beach and Floyd present to represent the interurban line. Nothing was gained, however, the only proposition by the railway company being to overlap the village and township east to Beaverdam crossing, allowing these passengers to come into the village for five cents while those from stops beyond could ride to the village limits for five cents. The board tabled the proposition and is taking legal advice. The case is not yet to a close.—Zeeland Record.

Dr. C. B. Brown of Spring Lake stands a chance of making a tidy sum of money out of the folding bedstead he recently invented. The Cyril Folding Bedstead company has filed articles of incorporation with the state. The company is capitalized at $25,000 all paid in, and the officers are H. F. Harbeck, president; C. P. Brown, vice president; George P. Savidge, secretary and treasurer; J. F. Johnston, manager. William Savidge and Thomas Johnston with the officers of the company will comprise the board of directors. The company will manufacture their new attachment which will make a folding bed out of any iron bedstead. The attachment will be manufactured by contract and the headquarters will be in Grand Haven for the present. The company has secured space for an exhibit at the Grand Rapids furniture exhibit in January.

All previous efforts of the Holland Poultry & Pet Stock association will be outdone by the exhibition at the December show. Communications received by Secretary Spritsma indicate that poultry fanciers from all points realize the magnitude of the coming show and intend to be among the exhibitors. From the Purina Mills of St. Louis, Mo., have been received a ton of poultry food which will be used to feed the stock exhibited. The gift is greatly appreciated by the association. The Purina Mills received at the St. Louis exposition the highest prize and medal for their food. Not a whit behind the poultry show will be the corn exhibit. Many of the farmer's boys are saving the best ears in the hope of capturing the liberal prizes.

They have sewers on Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets that are not sewers, for the reasons they are clogged so badly with sand that the sewage is not carried away. The fault lies in the lateral sewers, and it is evident that the work was not done right in the first place. The committee on sewers drains and water courses have the matter of furnishing a remedy under consideration and it is likely that they will place men at work at once. Should they not do so before winter sets in the residences near the places affected will not have sewer advantages and the public health will be endangered. Too great a risk will attach if a remedy is not secured before snow flies.

Two hundred feet of the south brick wall of the Bush & Lane piano factory, which is in the course of construction, was blown down during the heavy storm Friday night. Bos & Bolhuis the contractors were put to considerable loss as the wall was nearly ready for roofing. The erection of the factory will be delayed about one week.

Capt. Oliver Deto piloted the Waukazo company passenger steamer Mary, from Johnson Bros' shipyards in Ferrysburg yesterday and tied her up to the Harrington's dock for the winter. The Mary has been overhauled and will be in fine trim for next season.

It has been reported that Dick Lyons, caretaker of W. H. Johnson's property at Tennessee Beach, was knocked down at the Grand Haven bridge, three-quarters of a mile north of the city, last Thursday night, and robbed of $5, a basket of groceries and a revolver. Lyons was on his way home from the city about 10 o'clock. He did not see his assailant and did not regain consciousness until three hours later, when he returned to Holland and reported the affair to the police. Lyons had $45 in his vest pocket, which the robbers did not get. He had been in the city and had received pay for several months' work and paid several bills. Lyons is an ex-sailor. He believes he knows who his assailant was, claiming the man knew he had money, but he has not divulged. The officers do not place much reliance on the report and all evidence obtainable shows that there was no holdup.

A bill for divorce has been filed by Anna Cooper against Dorman Cooper, both parties living near Holland. The couple were married in 1871 and their oldest child is 34 years of age. Mrs. Cooper alleges that her husband neglects her for younger women and refuses to support her. Since March of this year she claims that he has given her only a few potatoes and vegetables and $6.75 in money. She has taken in washing and worked until midnight in order to get clothes for herself, she states, but she is becoming too old for that now and is compelled to depend upon her children for support. Diekema & Kollen of Holland are her attorneys.

From 50 to 60 per cent of the business which the Wolverine Motor company of this city does is for export. A number of its products go to Europe, but the largest share of this foreign business by far is for the Central and South American states. The company makes both gasoline engines and the launches as well. The motors are made at the plant in Grand Rapids and the complete boat at the yards in this city. The company is now building a forty-five foot gasoline launch of eighteen horse-power and about ten miles speed per hour, which will be shipped to Montevideo, Uruguay, when completed. Another order and a much larger one recently filled by this company was for between forty and fifty launches for various points in the republic of Panama.

The Laparte, (Ind.), Argus-Bulletin has the following regarding W. F. Doelker, formerly solicitor for the Holland City Gas company: "Eight guests sat about the banquet board at the Teegarden hotel last evening at a farewell party in honor of W. F. Doelker, who left this morning for Mattoon, Ill., where he will become connected with the gas company of that city in a responsible position. The party was given by W. H. Hulswit, of the LaPorte Gas Light Co., in appreciation of the services of Mr. Doelker, and the affair also served to more closely cement friendships formed by the latter during his stay in the city. Mr. Doelker expects to remain in Mattoon until spring when he will again return to LaPorte to resume the relation which he has but severed for the winter. The menu was of the choicest of the season's offerings and the affair was a delightful one for the privileged participants."

Entering Grand Haven harbor Sunday afternoon with a heavy load of stone, the steam barge Joseph Hurd of Sturgeon Bay, had a narrow escape from capsizing in the harbor mouth. It was noticed that just before the harbor was reached the Hurd was listing badly. She careened dangerously in the heavy sea and several waves boarded her. All the time the Hurd was listing more and more. Suddenly, when about four hundred feet from the life saving station, the big barge appeared to go completely over, to the apprehension of hundreds of people who were on the government pier. There was a loud noise as the stone cargo dumped overboard. Soon after the Hurd righted herself. Life savers were at her side almost as soon as the accident occurred, but as soon as the cargo dropped into the river all danger was over. The Hurd's mast was broken by the stone, her bulwarks were carried away and the fore and after cargo badly damaged. No one was injured and the boat proceeded to the dock. The stone which dropped into the river will not menace navigation, as the boat was north of the regular channel in the river. This cargo was consigned to the government for pier work.

Prof. L. S. Bliss has gone about the business of establishing his Holland Treatment Rooms in the Visscher block in a very business like manner. He intends to give the best of service and to have the latest and best modern equipment. This added to Prof. Bliss' experience and his skill insures the best of care to those taking treatments.

Wiley Tollefson, the forger, figured on making a break for liberty from the county jail and sawed one of the bars of the jail before he was taken to Marquette.

Next Sunday students of the seminary will preach as follows: A. Kaneman, Kalamazoo, 1st; J. A. VanZomeren, Zeeland, 1st.

Circuit Court

Wiley H. Tollefson, the youthful alleged forger and bank crook wanted in towns the country over, received a sample of Ottawa county justice Friday forenoon when Justice Padgham sentenced him to Marquette prison for a term of not less than five years. Tollefson was found guilty of passing a forged check for $15 upon the National bank of Grand Haven. He was arrested in Boston some months ago after having just completed a term in the Massachusetts prison for the same offense. When taken by the Ottawa county officers Tollefson was wanted by police in 13 other cities. He comes of a good family in Minneapolis. While he has been in the county jail he has drawn some money from the old family estate and occasionally when he got tired of the sheriff's fare he sent out for his supper. The ladies of Grand Haven, were taken with Tollefson's natty appearance and there was one young lady who called on him regularly at the county jail.

The jury in the appeal case of Cleve M. Burch vs the estate of Nancy McCulloch brought in a verdict Friday for $861 and interest at 5 per cent. The matter in circuit court was an appeal from the commissioners on claims which allowed Mrs. Burch that amount for taking care of her mother and her mother's estate for two years. Mrs. Burch cared for her mother, Mrs. McCulloch, for four years until the mother died in 1904 and when she died her estate was left to her daughters Cleve and Iva. A deed to the house left by the father was set aside by the court because it had not been delivered to the mother. Cleve Burch then put in her claim for $861 for taking care of the estate and it was allowed by the commissioners, Mabel Hase, another daughter, brought an appeal and Friday's verdict was the result.

The jury in the case of the Greening Brothers against Thomas Quinlan brought in a judgment for $320.80 for the plaintiff. The suit arose from nursery stock which was consigned to Thomas Quinlan, and which the defendant claimed was not satisfactory. This was the last jury case of the term.

The case against Robert Curry held for forgery for sentence will probably not be disposed of this week. The judge is looking up the matter and investigating the circumstances of the crime to which Curry has pleaded guilty. Curry appeared Saturday afternoon and Judge Padgham instead of imposing sentence released him on probation. Curry was arrested charged with forging an order by which H. DeKruif of Zeeland was victimized. Curry first pleaded not guilty but later appeared in court and changed his plea to guilty. Judge Padgham will have a private talk with Curry before pronouncing sentence. Mrs. Curry was in court and the couple were very dejected indeed in appearance, exciting sympathy even from the officers in the court room. Curry himself was the picture of repentance.

Will Vote On County Normal Class For Holland Next Wednesday.

A School Election, for the purpose of voting on the question of establishing a County Normal Training Class, in the "Public Schools of the city of Holland," will be held on Wednesday, December 6, between the hours of two o'clock and eight o'clock p. m., in the Walsh Block, No. 52 East 8th street.

It is not thought that there will be many votes cast against the proposition. The advantages that will obtain from the establishment of such an institution are self evident. It simply means that not only will considerable good accrue to the town financially in the way of saving expenses obtained from teachers and from pupils but that the standing of educational affairs will be materially advanced.

Charles K. Hoyt, of Grand Haven, Chief deputy game warden, and Deputy Theodore Trudell seized over nine tons of fresh-caught lake fish from the steamer City of Mackinaw this week. There were 3,485 pounds of whitefish and 13,650 of lake trout, all consigned to A. Booth & Co., of Chicago. The firm claimed that the fish were caught at Duck Island, Canada, and bought by them at Cheboygan. Other information reaching the wardens they made the seizure. Monday the fish were turned over to the Booth company to be kept in cold storage pending an investigation. This is the closed season for both whitefish and trout in Michigan, and any of them exposed for sale and not caught by the government are liable to seizure until Dec. 15.

If all men were like the man in Olive township that Peter Brandsen, treasurer of Olive township, tells about, life would be a joy forever for the tax collector. Treasurer Brandsen says that this man last year was so eager to be the first one to pay taxes that he deposited the money with Mr. Brandsen two weeks before tax time.
