The News is issued on Wednesday this week, owing to Thanksgiving day.

The L. O. T. M. election of officers will take place Thursday Dec. 3rd, 1908. All members are requested to be present.

John Lubbers the register of deeds elect. of Fillmore has rented the house owned by George Maentz on Monroe street, Allegan and expects to be settled there some time before the first of the year.

The new bridge on the Waverly road has been completed. The work was done by the Continental Bridge Co., and it is the only bridge of its kind in this vicinity. It is a steel bridge with concrete floor covered with a bed of gravel.

In the Sixth grade spelling contest held in the High School hall Thursday afternoon Miss Malo Dick of room 6, Maple street, won first place with Florida Hanson also of room 6, Maple street, a close second, and Helena Dubbink of room 2, Central school, third. There were 28 contestants, 14 boys and 14 girls, and it took them just an hour and three quarters to spell down.

Arrangements have finally been made by the Macatawa Resort Co., for leasing Hotel Macatawa. The hotel has been leased for a term of years to C. E. Welshans of Chicago, a veteran hotel man, for many years manager of the Hotel Luzerne, best known of the North Side Hotels of Chicago. A prominent railroad official of Texas will be associated with Mr. Welshans in the resort business, and he is expected to draw many patrons from Southern states. Among the many important improvements to be made will be new kitchens and a new dining room.

In order to create more interest among the scholars, the officers and teachers of the M. E. Sunday School at Saugatuck have adopted a new plan. Each member was given a celluloid button. At the end of two months each scholar who has been present every Sunday will return his button and will receive in its place a pin. The pins will likewise be exchanged every two months, a better one being given each time, and at the end of the year those who have been present every Sunday will receive a solid gold pin.

Morris Kuite and John Haight, two boys who have been in trouble before, were arrested Friday evening by Officer Kieft while in the act of carrying off a roll of roofing from E. Takken's lumber yard to their shanty on North River street. The shanty had been used by the boys as a playhouse and retreat, but the disappearance of various articles that might have gone into the construction and maintenance of the shack aroused the suspicions of the officer. Kuite, who is under 16 years old will appear before the juvenile court at Grand Haven and Haight's case will be handled by the prosecutor.

At the declamatory grade contest held in the High School room Friday evening Anthony Dogger of room 1, Central building, whose declamation was "The American Flag," took first place. Gordon Oakland of room 7, Central building, took second place with "The Blue and the Grey," and Loren Bishop of room 6, Maple street, came third, reciting, "The Minute-men of the Revolution." Musical selections were furnished by a boy's chorus from the grammar school and by the High school orchestra. Principal A. J. Helmer of the High school, presided, and presented the contestants, seven in number. The committee of judges consisted of Fred T. Miles, Hoyt G. Post and A. J. Van Houten, Hope, '09.

Perry Askins and Joe O'Leary, proprietors of the Amuse theater that opened up last week, have made a protest to the council against paying a license fee of $50 for the privilege of operating their show until next June. They claim that the pro rata portion of their license should be refunded. The council cannot grant a license for later than the first Monday in June, and on this basis the proprietors of the Amuse would get the benefit, the license confers for only half of the year. They further claim that the roller rinks are in the same class with them and that the immunity from taxes of the latter is unfair to the picture show business. Askins & O'Leary have retained Attorney M. A. Sooy to represent them. The matter will be taken up at the next council meeting.

Arrived at the home of the new alderman of the Fourth ward—a canary bird, named Dick.

James Price of Holland will reopen a branch of his Palace roller rink in this city. Foster's New Auditorium has been leased for the purpose. He will manage the rink himself.—Allegan News.

John Boone of Holland was in the city with a string of saddle and driving horses. The Rev. Fr. H. P. Maus has secured one of the driving horses brought to this city by Mr. Boone.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The old college boarding club on East Tenth street which has stood vacant since the opening to all the students of the dining room in Voorhees hall, once more has a tenant. Mrs. E. L. Scott has rented the building and offers accommodations to both roomers and boarders.

Among the proposed appropriations for harbor improvements which will come up in congress is a bill for $190,000 for the improvement of Grand Haven harbor. This sum if it is allowed will help some in making the improvements. With that sum invested Grand Haven should be something like its old self.

Mrs. Cornelius Andre, wife of Sheriff Elect Andre of Ottawa county, was presented with a handsome past matron's jewel by the Eastern Star lodge of Grandville. Mr. and Mrs. Andre will shortly remove to Grand Haven where Mr. Andre will assume his office January 1.

A new series of postage stamps will soon be on sale at the post office. The design will be somewhat different from those now in use, being simpler, and naturally, more artistic. The stamps will bear the same portraits as at present, but will be in somewhat different form. Laurel leaves will furnish the decorative effect and "U. S. Postage" and the denomination will be printed on a straight line across the top and bottom.

Frank Reed, the wayward son of William Reed of Allegan, has been in the Ottawa county jail in Grand Haven several months. He stole a gun and knife from William Buck of Monterey last summer and then tried to hold up two women near Holland. While in jail he attacked a fellow-prisoner with a knife and seriously wounded him. He is a vicious fellow and this week Judge Padgham sentenced him to five years in the state prison in Ionia and he may have to spend ten years if he does not behave himself.

A chart that every citizen of Holland should possess has just been issued by the U. S. Lake Survey office in Detroit. It can be obtained by sending fifteen cents in money order or postal draft (not stamps) to the Detroit office. The map shows Black lake and the shore line back of it for a distance of a mile, with every hill, valley, creek and building depicted in its exact location and magnitude. The height of the hills are given, as well as their contour, while the usual topographic symbols indicate swamp land, woodland, and cultivated field. The same is also shown for the Lake Michigan shore for some distance north and south of the harbor entrance. In Holland city, the public buildings and business blocks alone have been placed, but each is labeled; forming an invaluable guide for anyone entering the city a stranger.

Mrs. J. C. Post, president of the Ladies Aid Society of Hope church, has received a letter from Herman L. Swift, of Boyne City, Superintendent of schools of the Beulah Home for boys, expressing his thanks to the ladies of the Aid society and of the W. C. T. U. for the clothing and food sent last month. Among other nice things he wrote: "When I saw the wealth of clothing and other things, I said, 'Yes, people do care for my homeless boys.' All I want is the true practical interest of Christian people and I will receive hundreds of boys each year. Thirty new boys have been lately received and they came in such wretched condition. Their clothing was so filthy and filled with vermin that in many cases it had to be burned. Already Holland clothing is being worn by Beulah boys, and by the time you good people think of us again the clothing you have now sent will be worn out."

Sommers Blackman, manager of the ketsup department of the Heinz Pickle Co., will move to Pittsburg, where he will take a position at the headquarters of the same company.

John Patrouille, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Patrouille of Borculo, and Derk Velleman of Brandon, Wis., have purchased tickets of J. M. Mulder on the steamer New Amsterdam, and expect to sail Dec. 1st for the Netherlands. They will make a short visit to their birth place.

The sentimental and beautiful Indian name is not found in many places in Ottawa county. True it is that the name of the country is after one of the most important tribes that once roamed over this territory, but not a single town in the county is of Indian derivation. The Netherlands fare differently: Holland, Noordeloos, Groningen, Zeeland, Vriesland, Drenthe, Zutphen and Borculo are all named after towns or provinces in the Netherlands.

While working at the Fennville Roller mills Tuesday Claude Hutchinson, son of Jessie Hutchinson proprietor of the mills, had an exceedingly narrow escape from death when he was whirled around an overhead shaft several times. He was severely bruised, but no bones were broken. If internal injuries do not develop he will recover. Hutchinson was at work near the shaft when his clothing caught and he was whirled several times before he could be heard and the machinery stopped.

Owing to the fact that the price of paper has gone up, causing each individual paper to be issued at a loss, the Daily Sentinel has made the announcement that after January 1st the price will be 35 cents a month, or $4.00 a year. The price of paper has been steadily rising on account of changed conditions in the paper market, so that many daily papers all over the country have found it necessary to raise on the price. The cessation of operations in some of the large paper mills, as announced in the metropolitan Sunday papers, on account of the millponds drying out, is an added factor that bids fair to make a reduction in paper impossible for a long time to come.

Officers of the Hope College Debating Club for the coming year were elected as follows: President, H. George Roost; vice-president, Henry Rottschaeffer; recording secretary, George De Young; corresponding secretary, N. S. Siehterman. Members elected to fill vacancies were John Abbink, A. Luidens, A. J. Van Houten, A. C. Van Raalte, Ernest Brooks and Grant Hinkamp. The club is planning to hold debates with each of the various literary societies of the college and there will be two inter collegiate debates. The subject for the first of these two debates is "Resolved, that the ignoring of the Fifteenth amendment to the United States constitution is justifiable." Dalenberg and Oggel will appear for the affirmative with Warnshuis and De Young for the negative. The club has challenged the Cosmopolitan Society to a debate, the latter to choose the subject and the challengers to choose sides.

The Tribune has received the following letter from Carl W. Harvey, a Brooklyn, N. Y. man: "Some time ago, probably a little over a month, an old man named M. Ainsley Scott, 88 years old, was arrested in your city and fined $60 for practicing medicine without a license. I understand that his young wife followed on to Detroit, and got a friend either in Detroit or some other place, to pay the amount of the fine so that he only served two days in the House of Correction. I am a young man, comparatively, in my thirties, but two or three years ago Mr. Scott and I went into a business venture together, which was in the nature of entertaining guests at large hotels. Mr. Scott being thoroughly qualified to entertain anyone from Boss Tweed down. I might say that Mr. Scott was a thoroughly qualified man, perfectly capable, if he got the opportunity, of going into the parlors of the White House and intelligently entertaining President Roosevelt and family. Mr. Scott and I parted good friends and I have not seen him since. Can you tell me anything about Mr. Scott and where he is now?" The Mr. Scott referred to is the alleged physician who was arrested at Coopersville some weeks ago, charged with practicing without a license and who put up such a fight when arrested.—Grand Haven Tribune.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van der Schel, 248 West Twelfth street, Saturday—a daughter.

The divorce case of Anthony J. Van Raalte is being tried before Judge Padgham in circuit court today. George E. Kollen is representing the plaintiff and Charles McBride is the attorney for the defendant. Many witnesses have been called to testify for both sides.

Is this the "house that Jack built?" Mr. and Mrs. John Schipper and family have moved from Crisp into a house lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. Visscher, the latter have moved into a house lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. M. Van Heukelen on Rich street, while the latter moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Van den Bosch on Main street.—Zeeland correspondent in Daily Sentinel.

Prof. Meyers, the new instructor in Latin and Greek and professor of Ethics and Logic, at Hope College, has made himself popular with the college boys by entertaining them at his home. Last Friday evening he visited the two college literary societies and treated the boys to several delicacies that Mrs. Meyers had baked. So popular has Mr. Meyers become among the college boys that the girls have become jealous, and it is now up to the genial professor to visit the Sosis and the Minerva societies.

Mrs. Walter Lane was the hostess at a charming afternoon reception at her home on East Ninth street Thursday. Chrysanthemums formed the decorations in the parlors while in the dining room a colorscheme of pink and green was used. Miss Ethelyn Metz entertained the company with two readings from Justin McCarthy's "If I Were King." Refreshments were served at small tables which were decorated with carnations and hand-painted place cards. Mrs. John Bosman, Mrs. B. Van Raalte, Jr., and the Misses Elsie Lane and Lucile Lohm of Chicago assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Charles Boyden, Jr., of Grand Haven owns the congressional gold medal awarded to her uncle, Capt. Dan F. Miller of that city, for bravery in saving survivors from the wrecked steamer H. C. Akeley, of which wreck we published an account last week in the column "What You Saw in this Paper 25 Years Ago Today." The medal itself is a beautiful piece of heavy gold. On one side is a symbolical engraving and the words, "Awarded by congress June 20, 1874, in testimony of heroic deeds in saving life from the perils of the sea. On the reverse side is the inscription "To Dan F. Miller for gallant daring in saving life at the wreck of the steamer H. C. Akeley, Nov. 31, 1883."

Determined that if the John Calvin Junior college leaves Grand Rapids Muskegon will be its location a committee appointed by Judge Benjamin G. Oosterbaan to get the necessary finances is canvassing among the Holland Americans there and thus far is meeting with phenomenal success. If there is sufficient money raised among the Holland people there the chamber of commerce has agreed to assist financially also, making the location of the school there more than probable. While the committee has given out no figures it is understood that the fund now approximates $10,000. This amount will be doubled when all of the Reformed and Christian Reformed churches of the city hold a union meeting on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Cornelius Westerhouse lost her life Sunday morning in a fire which destroyed the home of her son-in-law, Albert Voight in Ferrysburg, and which is believed to have been started by Mrs. Westerhouse. The family were awakened at an early hour Sunday morning to find their home in flames. They hardly escaped with their lives saving nothing. One of the upper rooms was occupied by Mrs. Westerhouse, mother of Mrs. Voight, and it was impossible to save her. Her charred remains were found in the ruins Sunday. Mrs. Westerhouse had been demented for some time and the belief is that she started the fire as about a week ago she had attempted to set the home on fire. Mrs. Westerhouse's husband and son had been killed in a railroad accident and her insanity dated from that time.

SOCIETY WOMEN

Some Spend Hundreds of Dollars a Year on Their Hair

Leaders of society in New York know the social value of attractive hair, and according to a metropolitan newspaper every society woman spends a great deal of money to keep their hair beautiful and resplendent.

These women employ highly paid hair dressers and specialists, and so long as they have the money to gratify their desire for beautiful hair, none should complain.

But what about the thousands upon thousands of women just as intelligent, just as refined and just as lovable as any society woman, who have not the means for expert hair dressers and specialists?

What are they to do? Are they not entitled to beautiful lustrous and luxuriant hair?

Most assuredly they are, and thousands of them give thanks daily to the great scientist and dermatologist who put within their reach, at a small price, the marvelous and quick acting hair tonic known all over America as Parisian Sage. Walsh Drug Co. will sell a large bottle of Parisian Sage for 50 cents. It will make any woman's hair grow thicker, more beautiful and more lustrous in a few weeks.

It cures dandruff by killing the microbes, and it is guaranteed by the Walsh Drug Co. to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back. Get a bottle while its on your mind. It is a most pleasant hair dressing and is not sticky or greasy.

"I was near to death's door. The doctor said he had done all he could; but my stomach was old and worn out. I was weak, I could not walk. OLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

THE REAL AMERICAN HEIRESS.

A Worthy Standard of Conduct the Only Imperishable Heritage.

To know that one's forebears were people of refinement, of culture, of gentle breeding, instead of inspiring arrogance should challenge the best that is in one, lest he fall short as a representative of those in whose persons these graces once flowered, writes Ruth McEnry Stuart in Harper's Bazar.

An inherited standard of life—let us put that down in our list of blessings. And for all inherent good which has come down to us as a benediction, without the asking, and which may be held only in trust as a sacred responsibility, let us delight to give thanks.

We American women, then, will tell to our children any true story of prowess, of chivalry, of long patience and reverent waiting—of any great quality which has found expression in lives of any of their ancestors—so that they may know themselves thus endowed with the only imperishable heritage. The daughter, the granddaughter, who comes by direct line into such an inheritance is the real American heiress.

She may not have a dinner gown to her name, or be "up" in the etiquette of fashionable life. Perhaps she is not even a person of leisure, much less a member of the "leisure class." If so, so much the better. So much more hopefully has she her life in her own hands.

PAIN MADE A DEFINITE POINT.

No Manner of Doubt as to Location of Trouble.

Angelina Spring, in spite of the beatific sound of her name, had a bad temper. One day she insisted on crying, and protested when the question was put often enough to elicit an answer, that she had a "pain." Exactly where, she would not or could not describe. Her persistent fretting finally won for her a vigorous spanking.

After the punishment there was quiet. A caller came, and heard the tale.

"You see," said Mrs. Spring, "she kept saying that 'it hurt her,' but she wouldn't say where. So there seemed no other way to stop her bawling than to spank her."

"Kind of localizing the pain?" suggested the visitor.

"Yes," agreed Mrs. Spring, heartily. "That is it precisely."—Youth's Companion.

Fortune.

Ill fortune never crushed that man whom good fortune deceived not. I therefore have counseled my friends never to trust to her fairer side, though she seemed to make peace with them; but to place all things she gave them so as she might ask them again without their trouble; she might take them from them, not pull them; to keep always a distance between her and themselves. He knows not his own strength that hath not met adversity. Heaven prepares good men with crosses; but no ill can happen to a good man. Contraries are not mixed. Yet that which happens to any man may to every man. But it is in his reason what he accounts it and will make it.—Ben Jonson.

Charles I.'s Cloak.

The mayor and corporation of Shrewsbury, England, have recently had presented to them the scarlet cloak which was worn by Charles I. on the scaffold at Whitehall. The cloak was secured by William Walcott, who was page of honor to the unhappy monarch and who was in attendance on the king at the time of his execution. The garment has been in the possession of the Walcott family for 260 years, and was exhibited at the Society of Antiquities in 1861. It is in a splendid state of preservation, and the Walcott family having presented it to the Shrewsbury town council, it is now on view in the town museum.

High Lineage of Slang.

"That expression, 'Painting the town red,' is not," writes a correspondent, "the creation of some unknown Cockney genius, as G. K. C. would seem to infer. Its birth has been traced to 'The Divine Comedy.' Dante, led by Virgil, comes to the cavernous depths of the place swept by a mighty wind where those are confined who have been the prey of their passions. Two faces arise from the mist—the faces of Francesca and Paolo. 'Who are ye?' cries Dante in alarm; and Francesca replies sadly: 'We are those who have painted the world red with our sins.'"

Crocodiles Along the Nile.

At the sound of the shot the whole of this bank of the river, over the extent of at least a quarter of a mile, sprang into hideous life, and my companions and I saw hundreds of crocodiles, of all sorts and sizes, rushing madly into the Nile, whose waters along the line of the shore were lashed into white foam, exactly as a heavy wave had broken.

It could be no exaggeration to say that at least a thousand of these saurians had been disturbed at a single shot.—Strand Magazine.

Not Scared.

"Were you frightened during the battle, Pat?" asked a sergeant of an Irishman who had received his "baptism of fire."

"Not a bit, sor," replied Pat. "OI can face most anything when OI have me back to it."—Unidentified.

JUST WHAT HUNTINGTON SAID.

Clever Salesman "Got" Railroad King in Book Purchase.

The late Henry Miller, who was guide, philosopher and friend to many booklovers within a thousand miles of New York, was a most successful salesman. One day he called on Collis P. Huntington and showed him a rare copy of —

"There are two volumes of this," said Mr. Miller. The other volume is in perfect order, as you see this one is. You cannot possibly let them escape you, for you know you have nothing like this in your library."

"What is the price?" asked the railroad king.

"Seven hundred dollars," said the bookman.

"Those are too valuable volumes for my library," Mr. Huntington exclaimed.

Mr. Miller went back to his place, and sent the books to Mr. Huntington's house with a bill for $700. Next day the railroad king sent for him.

"Why did you send me those books?" he demanded, sharply.

"Because you bought them," was the calm reply.

"I certainly did not!" cried the millionaire.

"Oh, yes, you did," answered Mr. Miller. "You'll remember perfectly well when I tell you what you said. You told me distinctly: 'Those are two valuable volumes for my library.'"

—Harper's Weekly.

VICTORY THAT WAS DESERVED.

The Struggle of One Scottish Youth for an Education.

Many hardships endured by students attending university or college in Scotland have been brought to light from time to time. A student of Anderson's Medical college some years ago fulfilled the duties of lamplighter during his spare hours in a neighboring burg. He had no other income than the few shillings he received weekly for lighting, extinguishing and cleaning the burg lamps, and from this he paid his college fees and kept himself fairly respectable. On one occasion he applied for an increase of wages and was called before the committee. One of the bailies remarked that an able-bodied, healthy-looking young man like the applicant might find some other employment instead of wasting his time as he was doing. The application for an increase was refused. One may conceive the bailie's surprise at a subsequent meeting when the town clerk read a letter from the lamplighter tendering his resignation, as he had passed his final examination as a fully-qualified doctor.

Man's Inhumanity to Woman.

In all the civilized cities of the world woman is encouraged to demoralize herself and hold herself cheap in music hall, theater and even in opera house, for what man of proper instincts would like to see his daughter or sister in the attitudes and in the drapery so popular at such places? It all comes from denying to woman a responsible voice in the highest affairs and placing her on a lower plane. It is proposed to legally forbid her to serve in a public house, because of its bad moral atmosphere, which men alone have given it, while public opinion allows her to make reckless displays on the stage of the theater and music hall.—Westminster Review.

Shifting the Burden.

"Never get out of trouble by bringing it on some one else," remarked a man on the train the other day. "I remember," he continued, "when I was a small boy, I was one day going along the road when I came upon a man holding a ram by the horns. As I came up he said: 'Here, sonny, hold this ram till I climb over the fence and unlock the gate.'

"I took hold of the ram, and he went over the fence. When safely over he said: 'I've been holding him for an hour. I hope you get rid of him as easily as I did.'—Lippincott's.

Sounds Which Carry at Sea.

Examinations by naval experts in wireless telephony as to the sound which will carry the greatest distance at sea develops that a siren under 72 pounds of steam pressure will emit a blast which may be heard 40 miles. Next comes the steam whistle, the sound of which is carried 20 miles. Among the softest sounds which carry a considerable distance is the whistling buoy installed by the lighthouse board, which has frequently been heard a distance of 15 miles.

Cab Hire.

The price that one pays for a taxi to-day is just a little different from what was paid for, say, the hire of a sedan chair in days of old. In the domestic accounts of "Mistress Nell Gwyn" we read: "For charring you to Mrs. Knight's and to Mrs. Cassell's and to Mrs. Churchill's and to Mrs. Knight's, 4s. For charring you yesterday and waiting 11 hours, 11s. 6d.—Paid thirteenth October, 1675."—London Chronicle.

Truth Will Not Be Compelled.

Truth is such a flyaway, such a shy-boots, so untransportable and unbarrelable a commodity, that it is as bad to catch as light. Shut the shutters never so quick, to keep all the light in, it is all in vain; it is gone before you can cry "Hold!" And so it happens with our philosophy. Translate, collate, distil all the systems, and it steals you nothing; for truth will not be compelled in any mechanical manner.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Favorite Seats of The Favorites

Recently an entertainment was held in one of the halls in the city, which was a great success as an entertainment and the purpose, which was a worthy one. It was extensively advertised and almost every advertisement contained the words, "Twenty-five cents will buy any seat in the house." Some members of audience who came reasonably early were chagrined to see a few of the best seats turned upside down—reserved for people who had paid no more than the ordinary admission price. The people who had a "line" on those seats could come as late as they pleased confident of getting the seats they wished.

Whether the organization that gave the entertainment or some individual was responsible for thus arbitrarily reserving seats makes little difference. We do not wish to criticize any organization or individual, but merely wish to call attention to the principle. When the seats in a lecture hall have been offered for sale and no arrangements have been made for reserving them, any seat in the house not occupied belongs to the holder of a ticket. He has bought the privilege of occupying any vacant seat he finds on entering the hall. Any attempt on the part of the management or an individual on the "inside," to show special privileges to a few, is simply depriving the holder of a ticket of his rights. The case we refer to did not work any great hardship to anybody, since at paid entertainments there is usually plenty of room for all. And perhaps for this reason it is often overlooked. But the pettiness of the practice does not alter the injustice of it. The principle of the square deal has been so inculcated in the average American mind, that any deviation from it, no matter how small, cannot go without protest.

The Decline of The Post Card

The post card had which has had a tremendous boom in the United States and other countries, is reported to be on the decline. In France postal receipts from this source began to fall off early in the year, and German manufacturers found less demand from the trade for their goods. American and English makers engaged heavily in production when the boom was at its height, and they now find themselves overstocked. One reason for the decline is that the postal authorities have banished many improper cards from the mails. Seizures of large quantities have been made by the authorities, both here and in Europe, and the objectionable cards should have part of the blame for the depression in the trade. The post card is a convenience and a pleasure for many people and its use is commendable but its abuse will not be tolerated.

Give Thanks

Give thanks tomorrow. This is the day set apart for national thanksgiving, and surely every one has reason to be thankful for something. While sorrow has come to many lives during the year that is past, through it all there has been blessing we cannot measure. Do not fail to stop a moment from the busy toil of life and count the numerous blessings the Great Giver of all good has bestowed upon you.

The Negro And The Republican Party.

In last Friday's Chicago Tribune appeared an article from the pen of A. J. Offord, a well known colored resident of Grand Haven, on the race problem in the south. Mr. Offord believes that the real object in eliminating the negro from politics is to overthrow Republican rule. He says that the negroes are loyal to the Republican party which has removed the bonds of slavery, granted the ballot, and has done hundreds of other things to encourage the colored race. The colored people, he says, know of no race problem and they are not losing any sleep trying to find its solution, but are moving on to success, buying homes, rearing respectable families, educating themselves and their children, branching out into various business enterprises, learning and practicing trades.

One man is fined for selling "Vim" and "That," drinks which contain a fraction of 1 percent of alcohol, while another may sell what he calls a patent medicine, containing 60 percent of alcohol, and go unscathed.

A party that was beaten by 600,000 in 1896, by 800,000 in 1900, by 2,500,000 in 1904, and by 1,200,000 in 1908 should not be so imprudent as to join in the search for the origin of the word "frazzle."

All of the Thanksgiving proclamations this year express the gratitude of the public for the return of prosperity, overlooking the important fact that turkeys are high and scarce.

Two years ago the prophets of progress were deep in the subject of denatured alcohol, but the article is still almost as scarce as Edison's cheap, runabout automobiles.

A Maine hunter shot a man whom he mistook for a squirrel. Being mistaken for a deer is bad enough, but being mistaken for a squirrel is certainly adding insult to injury.

If the Ann Arbor medical faculty expelled a student for kissing a pretty nurse, somebody is taking science a lot too seriously, that's all.

The students of the "A" class of Hope are all the same size judging from the number on the bottom of their trousers.

When the flag of the United States next fades out of sight will the Cubans cheer or wipe their eyes?

The beauties of early rising are only appreciated by those who don't have to practice it.

Marine

The tug Pup, formerly of Saugatuck is being rebuilt at Lunde's shipyard and will fish out of Ludington this winter.

Sailors of the Great Lakes may find a home this winter in the big cities in the shipping offices of the Lake Carriers' Assn., which contrary to former years, will be kept open all winter. They formerly closed Dec. 15. The rooms will be fitted up as club rooms, reading will be provided—for the use of the sailors during the idle winter months. The rooms will thus furnish a convenient and inexpensive lounging place for the unemployed sailors who have hitherto been forced to shift for themselves during the winter.

On and after January 1, 1909, in the display of night storm warnings of the United States Weather Bureau a red light alone will indicate easterly winds, and a white light below a red light will indicate westerly winds. The forgoing action reverses the positions formerly occupied by the red and white lights in indicating westerly winds. This important advice to mariners is authorized by W. L. Moore chief of the U. S. Weather bureau.

The Pere Marquette Company has purchased the two steamers P. M. No. 5 and Wisconsin which have been plying between Chicago and Milwaukee. The No. 5 is well known here having been on this run for some years previous to her purchase by the Barry Line. Both boats will continue to run from Milwaukee to Chicago and this will give the P. M. Co. continuance service from northern Michigan ports to Chicago. The Kansas which has been leased from the Northern Michigan Co., will be returned as the P. M. Co. will now have plenty of boats of its own.

The tug Duncan City with the barge Empire State in tow took refuge in the Ludington harbor the last of the week. The Empire State was loaded with stone for Holland. As the sea did not go down it was decided to unload the barge here and the Duncan City was sent back to Sturgeon Bay for the barge Corning. The tug broke her wheel and was unable to return.

The big scow Porto Lapidum was the first of the week loaded with stone for delivery from Sturgeon Bay to Holland, which will be the last cargo to be delivered at that port.

Only six lives were lost in accidents on the freight and passenger boats during the season of 1908, and these all happened since October 1st. Four of the deaths were due to the bursting of a steam pipe on the Maggie Marshall and two by the capsizing of a scow in Whitefish Bay. Up to that time not a single loss of life due to collisions, storms or accidents had been recorded, something unparalleled in lake navigation, and the season will no doubt be a record-breaker in this respect that it will be hard to beat.

WHAT YOU SAW 30 YEARS AGO

Governor elect Talbot and Lieutenant Governor elect Long of Massachusetts are Unitarians.

Ben Butler would now like to be an angel, but being emphatically cross-eyed he is afraid he couldn't fly straight.

On Thanksgiving night about 12 o'clock burglars broke into five stores in the Village of Zeeland, apparently commencing with the boot & shoe store of P. Vanden Bosch, where they stole some goods, next attempted to enter the harness shop of John de Jong, but took nothing, then entered the tinshop of the De Pree Bros., and took some tools, then they entered Brusse's clothing store and took considerable wearing apparel, and wound up by attempting to enter the grocery store of Van Eenennaam, but since they dropped their tools and a bunch of keys at this place, it is presumed that some thing must have disturbed their Thanksgiving haul. No clue to the thieves.

WHAT YOU SAW 25 YEARS AGO

Mr. L. Mulder, proprietor and publisher of De Grondwet, is fitting up his building on the corner of River and Seventh streets. He expects to have it ready for occupancy this fall.

Last Wednesday night Pete Anderson, a sailor on the schooner Wollin which was lying at the north pier at our harbor, fell from the main boom to the pier below and sustained a fracture of the right leg.

Last Sunday afternoon the sad news reached this city that Mrs. E. De Spelder, nee Miss Annie Frik, of East Saugatuck, had died that morning. Mrs. De Spelder was the wife of Dr. E. De Spelder.

All persons attending Hope Reformed Church are requested to be present promptly at the appointed hours of worship. The exercises will begin with the anthem and the choir should not be disturbed in their service of praise. Nor should the preacher be disturbed in his service of prayer and pulpit instruction. Walking in the aisle after the services have begun and leaving the church before the services close, interrupt the worship and should be if possible avoided.

The Chorus Choir of Hope Reformed Church is being Reorganized. It will consist of about twenty members with Miss Rika Boone as organist. Of the vocalists the following are the leading voices: Mr. J. Marion Doesburg, chorister and first tenor; Miss Mary Alcott, first soprano; Miss Helen Pfanstiehl, first alto; and Mr. Darius Gilmore, first bass. During the service the entire audience will be led in congregational singing by the full choir. Every person will be expected to join in the hymns.

Last Friday afternoon a little seven year old son of Mr. Jas. L. Fairbanks, of Fillmore, was very badly injured on his father's farm in a horse power feed mill which was running at the time of the accident. The little fellow in stepping over the tumbling rod of the apparatus, got his clothes caught and was whirled round and round the rod until the machine was stopped. The space, between the ground and the rod through which the child's body had to go, was but a few inches. Notwithstanding the child was alive and is now in a fair way for recovery. The most severe of the injuries sustained were the breaking of the bones of both his limbs above the knee, and one of his knees was severely cut.

Mr. Chas Kline killed a fine deer one mile west of Hudsonville this week.

A lodge of Good Templars was organized at Hudsonville at the Congregational Church Sunday evening. Dr. B. B. Godfrey, Worthy Chief Templar, Chas. S. Underhill, Worthy Vice; and H. E. Hudson, Treasurer. For the present meetings will be held in the church.

The best record in the hunting line that has been made thus far in this locality, was that of a party headed by Jacob Flieman of this city on last week Thursday Friday, and Saturday. There were five hunters in the party and the "big swamp" north of our city was the hunting ground. There were five deer killed, three of them being shot on Saturday. Mr. Flieman says that all the deer were shot without being chased by dogs, which he strongly disapproves, and which he thinks ought to be stopped. For this purpose he desires to form a "sportsman's club." We wish him success.

Four bodies from the lost steam barge H. C. Akely have come ashore but the bodies of Capt. Strech and the cabin boy have not yet been recovered.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. Boone last Tuesday morning.

Prof. Hummer who has been ill for the past two weeks is, we are happy to state, slowly recovering. Mr. A. H. Dutton has sold his fruit farm on the south side of Macatawa Bay to Dr. D. M. Gee.

WHAT YOU SAW 20 YEARS AGO

Born:—On November 11th, 1888, to Mr. and Mrs. S. Lievense, a baby boy.

The log cabin which was in the procession during the jubilee of last week, was raffled off last week Friday evening. Jas. Kok held the lucky number. It was afterwards purchased by J. C. Post for the amusement of the little folks on Eleventh street.

There are at least five hundred acres of choice celery land in the immediate vicinity of Holland. If this was devoted to its culture it would give employment to more than five hundred men.

WHAT YOU SAW 15 YEARS AGO

Cards are out announcing the wedding on Wednesday next of Cornelius Roos and Miss Annie Dalman both of this city.

It will be seen by the council proceedings that the city has been successful in negotiating its bonds for the erection of an electric light plant, at par, subject to a commission of two and one-half per cent, half of which, however, we learn will be borne by the company that has the contract for the construction of the plant. The latter will commence operations at once, as soon as they can get material on the ground.

Thursday morning news reached this city that the schooner Wonder, Capt. John Woltman, which left this harbor Tuesday evening for Milwaukee, with a cargo of staves of the Holland Stave and Lumber Co., had gone on the beach near the "Twin Sisters" so called, 16 miles north of Holland harbor. In the G. H. Tribune we find the following further particulars:—"Before Wednesday morning the northwest gale increased in force until it reached a velocity, at one time, of 42 miles an hour, blowing away some of the parts of the schooner's rigging, and at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning drove her on the beach at the Twin Sisters, about five miles south of this city. When the boat first struck, her yawl was washed away so that the crew were obliged to take to the rigging until ten o'clock in the forenoon, when they were rescued by Chas Weaver, Fred Behm and John Renwick, in an exhausted condition. The sufferers were taken to the house of John Renwick, where everything was done to make them comfortable, so much so that they were soon themselves again.

WHAT YOU SAW 10 YEARS AGO.

Benj. Brower, bookkeeper at A. B. Bosman's, will move to Hamilton next week. He has bought out the interest of Mr. Klomparsen in the firm of Klomparsen & Brower, general dealers—the junior member being his brother.

Died at his home, in Grand Haven, on Monday afternoon, at the age of 70 years, Arend J. Nyland, president and manager of the Grand Haven Leather Co.

Poultry Exhibit Dec. 18 to Dec. 22

The ninth annual exhibit of the Holland Poultry and Pet Stock Association will be held from Dec. 18 to Dec. 22 in this city. The entry lists will close on Dec. 17. In the annual booklet or premium list that the association issued, a fund of information is found about the association and about the coming exhibit which will be the most elaborate the association has ever held. The number of regular premiums offered can be estimated from the fact that this department takes up 40 pages of the premium list.

Forty-two regular classes of birds are bulletined for competition, with the prizes mainly of merchandise and subscriptions to the leading poultry magazines and periodicals. Five premiums are offered in each class, for the best cock, hen, pullet, cockerel and pen. Special cash prizes totaling $25 are offered for individual birds and cigars, photos, poultry feed and numerous other miscellaneous prizes will be given.

A handsome silver loving cup worth $50.00 will be given for the highest scoring breeding pen, open to all classes as a grand prize. This cup will not become the permanent property of any exhibitor unless it be won three times. After the first and second victory the winner will be given a certificate. Three certificates entitles him to hold the cup permanently. In sweepstakes two 120 egg incubators are offered as the leading prizes, with seven other prizes of cash and merchandise. Separate classes are offered for bantams, pigeons and in the turkey-duck-geese class.

Some of the well known poultry clubs in this and other states offer special prizes, as the National Single Comb Buff Orpington Club, the International R. C. Black Minorca Club, The American Black Minorca Club and several others.

The officers of the association this year are: President, J. B. Hadden; Jacob Westveld, vice-president Robert Westveld, treas.; Fred G. Kley, secretary. Executive Board: Wm. Viissers, John Westveld, Jacob Westveld, John Ver Hoef, James De Koster, A. Vander Hill.

Judge: Chas McClave, New London, O.; Wm. Bouwkamp, Supt.

"Gay New York" at the Majestic

"Gay New York" a popular musical comedy, will be the attraction at the Majestic for Thanksgiving, starting with the special matinee at 2:30 on that date. "Gay New York" is fashioned on plot principles, the story hinging on an incident of mistaken identity, politics also coming in for an incident of mistaken identity, politics also coming in for a share of the theme. While the plot is made subservient to the melody and comedy, still it lends an element of sanity to the whole. Comedian Dan Mason has the leading part, that of Herman Schultz, the fashionable ladies' tailor.

A number of new musical numbers have been added, the program this season including "Why So Late?" "The Model's Complaint," "Florence," "Gay New York," "The Pretty Things You Say," "A Message From Mars," "It Makes Me Think of Home," "In the Light of the Same Old Moon," "If You Care For Me," and "Finette."

"Gay New York" has been described by one critic as a "violent shock" in the musical comedy line.

Starting Thursday afternoon "Gay New York" will run the remainder of the week offering a popular Saturday matinee.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." ### A Letter From Japan.

Miss Jennie Pieters, sister of John A. Pieters of Fennville, who has been a missionary teacher at Nagasaki, Japan, writes of a recent trip, which is very interesting; the Pieters' family is well known in this city. The letter follows:

"As you see, I am no longer in Nagasaki, but down here in the southernmost city of Japan—in other words, the jumping off place. The trip down was one long to be remembered and which I may have to repeat. I left Nagasaki at 9:20 a. m. of Saturday and reached Kumamoto that night at about six. There I stopped with friends until Tuesday at 4:30 p. m., when I left by a miserable little train for a place called Hitoyoshi, reaching there about 8:30. Dr. Davison had told me to go to a certain hotel—Japanese, of course—and ask for an upstairs outside room, but when we (a Japanese girl and I) came to the hotel all the rooms were taken but a down stairs inside room. There was nothing to do but take it, but just imagine yourself sleeping in a room off from the main front entrance, while any one, strangers and all, could just slide aside any one of three sides of your room. Safe, isn't it? And yet, after my quilts were once down on the floor and I was between them (for your upper quilt is about as thick as your under one) I went fast asleep and slept until the noise of the servants preparing our breakfast, about three o'clock, awoke me.

"At 5:45 a. m. we took the basha. They usually seat four persons and are something like the old carry-all—two long sides but almost no room for your knees and very narrow seats. These basha's have no springs, the back wheels are very large, the front ones small, thus throwing you forward constantly. The harness of the horse is of rope and the driver keeps on the jump, off and on his seat every time he meets a team or person. Well, the whole outfit is a caution and would make you laugh for a week. There were two men in with us and they were very nice, all except their cigarettes, which the Japanese smoke continually. The Japanese seldom smoke cigars, always those detestable cigarettes. Well, I rode in such a conveyance from 5:45 a. m. to 2 p. m. and was thankful there was no more of it. Going up the mountain all was fine, weather, scenery and all, but going down—well, my only comfort was that the basha posts were strong, or I should have landed on the gentleman to my left, and also that it could not last forever.

"I am here for language study and keep at it pretty steadily for it is a difficult language to get hold of, so entirely opposite to ours in thought and all.

Notes of Sports

FOOT BALL

The Holland Juniors won an easy victory from the Union High School of Grand Rapids on the college campus Saturday afternoon. The score, 66 to 0 shows the relative strength of the two teams. From the referee's whistle to the end the Grand Rapids boys were completely outclassed. Holland excelled in forward-passes and were also superior to their opponents at the old style game. For Holland Whelan and Blom starred and it was only Gusty Fechner's toe that saved the visitors from a more decisive defeat.

BASKET BALL

The managers of the various basketball teams in the city are trying to get together on a proposition whereby a city league can be formed. Business men who are interested in athletic sports have expressed their intention of offering a trophy to the winning team. At present there are seven or eight local teams all of which are strong, thereby promising a close finish in the proposed league. The teams in the field at present are: the Holland Lyceums, the H. V. T's. the High School, the Business Men's team, the Holland Juniors and the team representing Price's Roller Rink. An effort will be made to include the Zeeland Y. M. D. A. team.

The Holland Lyceums will play the H. V. T's. a team made up of college men; at the Lyceum Roller rink Monday evening. Before the game a preliminary contest will be pulled off between the High School and the Holland Juniors. Admission for the double header will be 15 cents.

They Take The Kinks Out

Anchor Association Entertainment

The Anchor Association administered their "sure cure for the blues" Monday evening to the public in Carnegie Hall, and if those who heard the program of the college boys and girls have nothing else to be thankful for tomorrow, there will be sufficient cause for thanks on that account. For in reality no set of blues could long resist the efforts of the people who inhabited the house that Jack built, or the antics of the Muffin Men or the jerky surprises that developed when Mrs. Jarley's wax figures had been wound up. There was even a sporting page in this highly entertaining edition of funny things. John Laven, unassisted, provided as much entertainment for the baseball fan as the whole aggregation of Tigers and White Sox together with Jennings on the side lines picking grass and making faces.

A play called the "Booster Club of Blackville" was the last number on the program. It was the story of some "collad gemmen" enthusing over Hon. Bill Johnson, candidate for judge. The new college orchestra furnished the music and musical selections were also given by the college quartet and the Misses Yates and Bemis.

What is perhaps most gratifying of all to the Anchor association is the fact that they made nearly enough out of the entertainment to wipe out the debt on the paper. The management wishes to thank all patrons who so generously supported the college paper by attending the entertainment.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food when you hate it and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

FIRST CHARGE TO CUSTOMERS.

Somewhat Novel System in Vogue in Stores of Salem.

Evidence of that thrift which contributed its share in making Salem the prosperous little city it is today smote me unawares the first day I ventured into one of the numerous "antique" stores.

The shop's exterior was tempting and I entered, to find some indifferent mahogany littered about a severe maiden lady who stood framed in an extremely interesting interior. I noted the disposition of things and was preparing to leave, having just replaced something on the shelf where it belonged, when the lady said "That will be ten cents."

"Thank you; I really couldn't use it," I replied, edging away for the door.

"But the charge is ten cents," she added, coldly, moving nearer.

"So I understand," said I, skillfully maneuvering for a hurried but dignified exit.

"The admission to the store is ten cents," she put in here, with chilly distinctness, outflanking me.

For anything savoring of novelty in this fin de siècle business world let us be truly thankful! The shopkeeper who charges you a fee for the privilege of entering her store does not lose in dignity by the proceeding. She insists upon the disbursement with such an air of divine right that for the moment you feel strangely like the recipient of a favor, and wander down the street, a prey to vague fears that possibly you may owe her money.—Harper's Magazine.

ASTONISHED BY THE GIRAFFE.

Frenchmen Were Slow to Admit Existence of the Animal.

Dr. Johnson, as is well known, refused for many months to believe in the Lisbon earthquake, and Parisians formerly were just as skeptical as to the existence of the giraffe, a new specimen of which had just been added to the Jardin des Plantes. The earliest specimen of these gentle creatures was seen in Paris in the reign of Louis XVI. We learn from a French contemporary that the giraffe was first heard of in 1787, when it was described by a Frenchman named Levaillant, who had journeyed in the lands of the Hottentots and Kaffirs. When the explorer referred to the animals with the long necks he was looked upon as a Munchausen and told that he was such in not the politest language. It was only when some living specimens arrived in the French capital that Levaillant's reputation for veracity was re-established, and then the animals for a long time formed the sensation of Paris, not only among the multitude, but in all scientific circles.

Chinese Taxes.

The Chinese government, while it collects a part of its revenue from customs, relies largely upon the provinces to supply revenue, and arbitrarily names each year the sum which each province must supply, leaving to the officers of that province the methods by which this is obtained. The consequence is that each province is permitted to collect a tax on goods entering it from adjacent provinces and this custom has been extended to the subdivision of the provinces, so that goods in transit are frequently compelled to pay taxes every few miles. As a consequence, the interior taxes, known as "likin" become not only the terror of importers, but sometimes almost prohibitory.

Squabbling the Cause of It.

A magistrate who has taken upon himself the difficult task of adjusting domestic troubles says that petty squabbles break up more homes than affinities ever could do. He has no mercy for wife-beaters and is skeptical concerning the influence of so-called soulmates on the average middle class household, which he stoutly maintains is moral. In the strongest terms he condemns nagging and squabbling and sounds a warning against the effects of overwork. He is not the only person who believes that in ordinary cases of faithlessness the cause can be found in a cloudy home atmosphere. Bickering is shamefully common and the causes too trivial to give an excuse for wasting breath.

Bad Novels.

Novels have deteriorated lamentably, the paying book now being either the wildly sensational or the insidiously wicked: incidents that formerly were named with bated breath being openly written of and blazoned abroad, for gain of gold, and too often by women. It is difficult to find a plain intellectual meal served by the moderns, who furnish us with little but cayenne pepper, poisonously spiced oysters and Gorgonzola cheese—a literary dinner the memory of which, as has been well said, serves no end but to leave a dark-brown taste in the mouth.

Faith and Hope.

Mayme—If you don't love him why are you going to marry him?
Maybelle—Oh, I expect to love him after we are married. He has promised that on the morning of our wedding day he will shave off his dinky little French beard.

One Advantage.

Benevolent Old Gent—Don't you find a sailor's life a very dangerous one?
Old Salt—Oh, yes, sir, but fortunately it ain't often we gets into port.

CROUP QUICKLY CURED

"Not long ago our little boy Walter, awake in the night with a bad attack of croup. We allowed him to inhale Hyomei; he began to breathe easier and in half an hour was fast asleep. I am glad to speak a good word for a remedy that will rob croup of its terrors."—Rev. Geo. Sisson, pastor M. E. Church, South Londonderry, Vt.

How To Get Strong

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted insomnia has been overcome and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. ## SURELY HAD MONEY'S WORTH.

Uncle Hod Had Come Far to Get It—and He Got It.

There being no dentist in the little town where he resided Uncle Hod Rowdybush had gone to the county seat to have an aching tooth extracted. "I see it's one of your large molars," said the dentist at whose office he called, "and it will come pretty hard. Don't you think you'd better take gas?"

"I don't know," answered Uncle Hod. "Does it cost anything extra?" "Yes, it will be two dollars if you take gas and one dollar if you don't."

"How long does it take to pull it that way?" "It won't seem any time at all to you. You go to sleep and you seem to wake up immediately and the tooth is out."

"And I don't feel it come out?" "Not a particle."

Uncle Hod reflected. "Well," he said, "I've come 27 miles to have this tooth pulled and I think I'm entitled to the satisfaction of knowing when you yank it out—to say nothin' of savin' a dollar. I don't want no gas."

From the manner in which Uncle Hod groaned during the subsequent operation it was inferred that he had fully a dollar's worth of "satisfaction."

CAME TO HIM AS INSPIRATION.

When Mr. Sankey First Sang the Famed "Ninety and Nine."

The story of "Ninety and Nine," the well-known hymn the music for which Mr. Ira D. Sankey improvised in a burst of deep feeling, was told by Rev. Dr. C. E. Locke, at the funeral of Mr. Sankey. The evangelist had found a little poem, "The Lost Sheep," in a Scotch newspaper, so runs Dr. Locke's account in the Brooklyn Eagle, and had clipped it. One night in Edinburgh Mr. Moody asked him to sing. Mr. Moody had just finished his sermon, "The Good Shepherd."

Mr. Sankey had no thought of composing a new song, but as he used to tell the story:

"As I sat at the organ my fingers fell on A flat and my eyes fell on that little poem. I began to sing, and I sang the words of that poem."

When he had finished, Mr. Moody rushed down from the platform and asked him where he had found that song. He said it was the most wonderful song he had ever heard. Mr. Moody was weeping and the audience was in tears, so great was the impression produced by the song.

"I sang it as God gave it to me,"

Mr. Sankey replied. He never changed a note of the song from the time it tell from his lips.—Youth's Companion.

LOCALS

While operating a boring machine at the Lambert furniture factory Monday morning, William Raas, aged 17, sustained a compound fracture of the second finger of the left hand.

The local camp of Royal Neighbors of America will leave for Grand Rapids on the 11:35 car for Grand Rapids where they will take part in adopting a class. The exercises will take place at 7 o'clock.

J. P. Huyzer was elected as elder and John Dumlez, N. Prakken, Chris Lokker and Dr. A. Ikenbouts were chosen deacons of the Third Reformed church. The annual report of the treasurer showed the church to be in flourishing condition. The total collections for the year for missions, congregational purposes and general benevolences was $6,197.85. Of this $1,472.40 went to missionary purposes. The church rolls show 201 families with 500 communicants and 530 Sunday school scholars.

Zeeland is doing its best to live up to its standard as a full fledged city. The list of births there during the past week would make glad the heart of Theodore Roosevelt: Born, to Mr. and Mrs. G. Lemson, a daughter, Friday; to Mr. and Mrs. J. Westveld, a son, Saturday; to Mr. and Mrs. John Kleinstra, a son, Sunday; to Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Huis, a son, Monday; to Mr. and Mrs. G. Ten Broeke, a son, Sunday; to Mr. and Mrs. P. Bloem sma, a daughter, Sunday.

Chief of Police Kamferbeek and his force made a sort of raid on the drinking clubs in this city Saturday night. Several of these clubs have been organized since the saloons went out of business. The chief and his men visited six of them, one of them being a boat house club, and the rest social gathering places in the business district. No arrests were made in connection with the raid, it being merely a tour of investigation. The chief of police will probably make a report to the police board at a special meeting.

Last evening the Royal Neighbors surprised Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Whelan at their home on West 16th street. Mr. Whelan arrived home from Detroit on the 7:35 car and a few minutes later the large company arrived. The party was such a large one that every available place in the house was occupied. The surprise was in the nature of a farewell party, since Mr. Whelan will leave for Cuba the first of December. Progressive Pedro was one of the games played, the head prizes being taken by Mrs. James Doyle and Mr. Cortney and the consolation prizes by Mrs. Palmer and Jas Hoefer. In the course of the evening Mr. Whelan made a short address to the company.

Fifteen years old Mary Marble of Monterey Center, near Allegan, is in a critical condition as the result of alleged abuse by her father, Martin Marble, aged 63, and three of his friends, Biram Pegg, Dee Draper and Dick Smith, all of whom are under arrest. The child's condition was learned by neighbors who heard she was ill and investigated. Officers were immediately notified and physicians sent to attend the child. They say she has a bare chance of recovery. There was talk of lynching the four men and the officers had to hurry them secretly to the jail in Allegan. The prisoners were arraigned late Friday, Smith being the only one to demand an examination in the lower court. The others were bound over to the higher court with bail fixed at $1,500 in the case of Marble, and $1,000 in the other three.

Holland Veneering Co. Will Be Re-organized.

The business difficulties in which the Holland Veneering Co. has been involved for some time have been settled by the sale of the plant to Henry G. Dykhouse, a lumber man of Grand Rapids and W. Hanchett, of this city, manager of the C. L. King company. The price received at the sale for the plant and its machinery was $15,000, several other parties anxious to secure it, running the bids up to a figure $2,500 higher than the mortgages and notes which were secured by the value of the property. Trustee Kollen knocked it down to the highest bidder after some spirited bidding. Manager Lane Van Putten of the old company has been asked to take charge of the reorganized concern, and the plant will be run by practically the same force as before.

The Holland Veneering company was formed in the spring of 1906, taking over the old Michigan Toy and Novelty company, which had been operated for many years in a West Eighth Street location. The new company was capitalized at $30,000 and many local people held stock in it. A new factory was built on West Sixteenth street, and the business grew so rapidly that a large addition was considered necessary to care for future demands. This was completed and equipped at considerable outlay just when the panic of last November came on, and with the business falling off of more than 60 per cent, the lack of capital caused a failure. Atty G. E. Kollen was appointed trustee at a stockholder's meeting. September 1, and the business has since been conducted under his management.

The remaining assets of the old company are in bills receivable and the receipts will be applied on the accounts of the creditors unsecured by liens on the factory and equipment.

LIABLE TO BECOME IRKSOME.

Some Drawbacks in Having Disease as an Occupation.

A New York man was brought before a magistrate the other day for speeding. The magistrate asked his occupation. "Rheumatism," replied the prisoner. It was so recorded.

When you think of it, he was probably not far wrong. If anything will keep a man occupied it is a pet trouble like rheumatism or indigestion. Give it a chance and it will make other mundane matters relatively unimportant. It will prove the most exacting of occupations.

It has one advantage over the ordinary ones; hard times can't interfere with it. Every factory in the world may close, but the man who makes his disease his occupation need not work. His occupation will not be touched. It will always be open, beyond all "chance and change of the unsteady planets." But it has the disadvantage that it tends to grow more and more enervous. A man begins, say, with a little light and easy employment at indigestion. His hours at first are reasonable. Soon he discovers that he must pay more attention to it if he would do the thing right. He gives it several hours a day additional. He begins to think about it at odd times. Before he knows it he is occupied with it for practically all his waking hours.

IN EUROPE WITH MOTOR CAR.

Much There That Is Perpetual Delight to Traveler.

Belgium and Holland, though not blessed with good roads as a rule, have much to charm visitors in their quaint views and old-world cities. One has, of course, to travel slowly over the brick Dutch roads and the Belgian pave, but the towns are so close together that the journey need never be monotonous. And the lace-like architecture of Brussels, the mystery that enfolds antique Bruges, or the historic associations of Dordrecht and the dead cities of Zuyder Zee, are sufficient recompense for the slight discomforts of the route. But once east of Namur the pave ceases, and one can travel in the delights of speed along the valleys of the wandering Meuse, Lesse or Moselle. The latter river is charming, and a trip should be made down it from Luxembourg if possible, the grand ravines and immense woods giving a never ceasing variety of view.—Vogue.

A DANGEROUS COUGH

Wife of Newark, Ohio man Had Symptoms of Consumption. Was badly run down and reduced in Flesh.

Restored to Health by Vinol

"About two years ago my wife was in very poor health. She had no appetite was much reduced in flesh, and for three months had a very bad cough with all the symptoms of consumption. Vinol was recommended and she began taking it; before the first bottle was used her appetite was better, and she was improving in health; by the time she had taken three bottles the cough was gone. She is still taking Vinol and cannot say enough in its praise." N. L. Stebleton, Newark, Ohio.

The reason that Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it is the only preparation that contains tonic iron together with all of the healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but no oil.

Without hesitation we proclaim our faith in Vinol for chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis and as a body builder and strength creator for old people.

Anyway, if you try it and it does no good we will refund your money on demand. R. M. DeFree & Co., Druggists, Holland.
