CASUAL STRANGER MAY STILL HEAR STORY OF A BURIED TREASURE AT THE FOOT OF FIVE MILE HILL IN OTTAWA

One Man Dug Down 95 Feet, But Venture Failed

Grand Haven Mich., Nov. 26.—Although it is 12 years since the last determined search for a "buried treasure" lying somewhere on Five Mile hill was made, conversation is still renewed with avidity when the passing stranger stops to question a native as to the veracity of the rumors concerning it.

In the Civil war days when Curtis W. Gray was sheriff of Ottawa county, William Jenkins, was arrested for horse stealing, and confined for a long period in the local jail.
He was treated kindly by the Sheriff, who was compelled to turn him over to the Illinois authorities for complicity in a bank robbery for which he was sentenced to life at Joliet.

The years rolled by and Gray
had forgotten the man until one day he received an urgent letter asking him to come to the Joliet prison to receive an important message from a prisoner in the last stages of tuberculosis. When Gray reached the prison Jenkins told him that in consideration of his kindness, in Grand Haven he would reveal to him a secret which would make him independent for life.

He told him that he and two companions had arrived in Grand Haven from Milwaukee with $30,000 in gold stolen from a bank in the west, and that he had taken it around the shore of Lake Michigan,
and landed at the base of the Five-Mile hill, where he buried it between two pines. He drew a map of the place and gave it to Gray.

Upon his return Gray set to work to find the money. The task was more difficult than he anticipated, as lumber barons had been over the ground since the money was buried and all the big pines had been moved down. With two of his relatives Gray worked quietly for weeks, but in vain. Disheartened he told his friends the story of the treasure.
They listened eagerly, and the next morning started out secretly with shovels for Five Mile hill and began to dig. Many more followed and the search soon became a joke.

In the fall of 1889, Ichabod Beattie, a miner from Pueblo, Colo., who had been dredging the lakes came to Grand Haven to institute search for the money on Five-Mile hill.

Beattie was the possessor of an indicator used by prospectors to locate metallic substances in the ground, and his instrument created a great deal of interest here.

Discovering what the considered the approximate location of the chest from the indicator he started to dig. He purchased 5,000 feet of lumber and built a shaft, descending 95 feet. Large crowds went out to see the work and watch for the day when the money would be found. As the hole grew deeper Beattie's confidence decreased and he finally abandoned search.

Since that time the search for the treasure has been prosecuted in various places but without success.
James O'Connell, John Luiken and many others still living in the city tried it at different times since, but the money has never been recovered.

BISHOP McCORMICK A JOKER Gave Very Interesting Talk At Knights of Pyramids Hall

A fair sized but an appreciative audience greeted Bishop McCormick
at Pyramids Hall, when he gave a fine talk to the members of that organization. Not alone is the Bishop a forceful speaker but he intersperses his discourse with telling examples and rich jokes. For instance in speaking of the assimilation of the emigrants when they came to this country the subject came up with what swiftness we do things in America. To demonstrate this fact Mr. McCormick cited the following incident: An Irishman and a German came across on the ocean liner and landed in New York on Saturday. On Sunday the Irishman arrested the German for keeping his saloon open on the Lord's Day.

This lecture has been so much appreciated by the boys that other speakers such as Rev. Wishart, Martin, Carmody, Mr. White and possibly Rev. John Vander Meulen will be asked to help this lecture course. Rev. Vander Meulen is especially desired in order that one of his two best lectures, Savonarola or Jeanne D'Arc may be heard.

It is the intention of the organization to have at least one lecture

every month and it goes without saying that the next one will be well patronized as each member is authorized to take two guests with him.
The lectures are free and what expense is incurred is paid by the Lodge.

EAGLES ORGANIZE DRILL TEAM Will Drill Once A Week

Owing to the Eagle's Convention which will be held in Holland in June the members of that Lodge contemplate organizing a uniform drill team. Thus far twenty-six members have signified their intention of joining when the organization is complete no doubt there will be nearly a hundred well drilled men in line who will take part in the doings when the Birds meet here at that time.

The first meeting was held last evening and the following names
were enrolled in the club:

FRANCHISE TO BE GRANTED GAVETT

Zeeland To Be Supplied Gas From Holland For Period of Thirty Years

Grand Rapids News—Arrangements
are practically completed for granting to Blaine Gavett of Kelsey, Brewer & Co., of Grand Rapids a franchise for a term of 30 years to supply Zeeland with gas. Mr. Gavett has put up a forfeit of $1,000 to comply with the requirements of the franchise.

It is proposed to extend the service from the plant of the Holland
City Gas company over private right of way to the city limits of Holland
and thence near the highway
through Holland township to Zeeland, serving consumers of gas in the township and probably between 500 and 600 consumers in both Zeeland and the township. Zeeland is to have about 10,000 feet of gas mains and it is planned to install condenser tanks in or near Zeeland and near the Holland City gas plant
for purposes of supply.

Supplying the Macatawa and Ottawa beach resorts with gas probably will be taken later.

TRAPPER JUMPS IN GRAND RIVER

Grand Haven, Nov. 26.—Declaring that he would never be captured alive, William Gustafson of this city slipped out of the net set for him
by Deputy State Game Warden Salisbury and Deputy Sheriff Dykhuis
Saturday and plunged into Grand River. The officers remained in the vicinity for several hours but no trace of Gustafson could be found.

It is feared he was drowned.

A report reached Marshal Welch
today that Gustafson had been seen in the country several miles away.

Complaints had been made to the officers that Gustafson was violating the trappers' law by setting traps over muskrat houses. Saturday morning the officers went after him in a boat. They rowed quietly up to the trapper's boat and when Gustafson saw them he made a dash for his shotgun which was in his boat.
Game Warden Salisbury reached it first, and Gustafson bolted through the marsh to another small island,
a few yards away. As he reached the island, he warned the officers to keep off.

"You'll never take me alive," he shouted. "If I get the drop on you, I'll get you. Somebody's going to die before I let you take me."

The officers followed and the fugitive plunged into the river.

Gustafson's sister was on the river bank with the officers and when her brother plunged into the river, she fainted. According to the story of the sister, Gustafson is also wanted for desertion from the army.

According to her story, the fugi-tive's mother is very near death,
and he had declared that he would never be returned to the army while she lived. After she died he intended to return to the service of his own accord.

RYNE WERKMAN SAYS THAT HIS FINANCIAL DOWNFALL IN HOLLAND WAS DUE TO IMPROPER TITLE

Title of Land To Holland's First Factory Not Clear At That Time

In a letter to the Holland City News, Ryne Werkman, Builder of the Ottawa Furniture Factory, comments on an item appearing in the News of November Thirteen, in which some former Ottawa County people have invested in California land of which the title proved faulty, thus losing all their money in the investment. Mr. Werkman cites an incident in his own life which no doubt is new to most of our Holland citizens, and which according to Mr. Werkman was the cause of his institution going to the wall.

This factory was the first manufacturing concern of any note in the city, with the exception of the Holland Tannery, and after the business reverses of Mr. Werkman, was taken up by other Holland men and has for years been in a flourishing condition. Today it is one of our leading institutions.

The letter of Mr. Werkman follows:

1912 Feronia Ave., Merriam Park,
November 20, 1913.

Editor, Holland City News:
Holland Michigan,

Dear sir;

In your issue of Nov. 13 regarding the Ottawa county man getting into trouble for not employing an attorney to see if his title to a certain piece of property was clear. This I will admit was wrong, but employing one, yes, even two, of the most prominent attorneys does not always keep a man out of trouble, or ruination. As a former citizen of your splendid city, if consistent allow me to ask you a favor and publish the experience I have had in Holland after having employed not one but two of the most prominent attorneys at that time in the City and paid them for looking over an abstract of title.

I will admit that every man should have his title looked over by a reliable man, who understands the looking over of titles as long as they have such a rotten system of titles as they have in Mich. Having bought the grounds the Ottawa furniture factory stands on. I had my abstract examined by two of the most prominent attorneys of the city at that time, and they gave me to understand that the title to the said property was clear. I had the plans drawn up for the building of this factory, took them to Grand Rapids and made arrangement with the Grand Rapids Insurance Co., for a loan of $10,000 as soon as I had the factory completed. I built this factory being assured by my attorneys that I had a clear title and the promise of a loan of $10,000.60

Having completed the factory got it running I needed the $10,000 to pay up certain indebtedness to keep up my credit, I started for G. Rapids to the Insurance Co's., office with the abstract of this property.

Mr. Kleinhans than the attorney for the insurance company looked it over and soon came to me with the information that I had no title to that property, and that the insurance company could not make a loan on the property, and many of the present citizens of Holland will remember the result, the fortune I had accumulated after starting in business with $250.00 of borrowed money and being very successful accumulated a nice fortune was lost, as not being able at that time to make this loan I lost everything I had. These are facts that a very few people know. Had there been a system of title in Michigan as they have in Canada, the Torenco System
there could not have been such trouble as the titles are all backed by the government. This system has been introduced in this state,
and any one who gets a Torenco
deed, or in fact a certificate of deed
from the state, knows that it is absolutely right, and if it should not be so, the great State of Minnesota will make it right. This does away with all abstracts, and attorneys looking over the titles. The old system of title is rotten, and the people of the state of Michigan
should insist upon the Torenco system.

You will please give the above a space in your valued paper, and you will greatly oblige, Yours Very Truly,

R. E. Werkman.

A. E. Van Landegend of Racine, Wisconsin, will spend Thanksgiving
with his mother, Mrs. J. Van Lande-gend.

Miss Lucile Mulder was in Grand Rapids yesterday.

Miss Alma Solosth of Grand Rapids is the guest of her sister Mrs.
John Karreman.

Miss Esther Gray is visiting with friends in the city.

Mr. Vanden Burg gives notice in this issue of the Record that his personal property will be sold at auction, after which he will remain on the farm until the end of the year when the new owner takes possession. It was understood that these products would be taken to Benton Harbor but instead they were taken to High Island, in the northern part of Lake Michigan near Beaver Island. This company of people own half of High Island and have a sawmill there. A large number of their people from this vicinity went on the boat to work in the mill.

HUDSONVILLE

Hudsonville, Mich., Nov. 22—Little Henry Ritter, Jr., was seriously if not fatally injured Friday by falling down the stairs at his home. Henry, who is but 6 years old was playing ghost with other children who were visiting him. Upstairs his mother covered him with a sheet and cautioned him to be very careful in going down the stairs to the room below, but at the top of the stairs a corner of a sheet dropped under Henry's feet and tripped him. He fell to the bottom and was picked up unconscious and has remained so since. His physicians say that he is suffering from concussion of the brain and that his recovery is very doubtful.

FILLMORE

Fillmore township is one of the best in the county. The tax commission must think so, because they boosted the valuation in that township from $1,202,000 to $2,008,400, a clean raise of 68.7,400. This is the biggest increase of any township in the county when the fact is taken into consideration that this township is practically a rural one, entirely, being without any villages of any consequence or manufacturing enterprises.

Olivet Den Beeyker has been selected a juror for December term of Circuit Court holding at Allegan.

MAN NOW SERVING THIRTY DAY SENTENCE AGAIN TO BE ARRESTED.

It is claimed that the mystery surrounding the disappearance of some comforters and other articles belonging to the Ladies Aid society of the Fourth Reformed church has been solved. A charge of breaking an entrance into a building with the intent to commit larceny will be lodged against Eltje Roda, who is at present serving a 30-day sentence in the county jail on a charge of drunkenness, immediately upon his release.

It is alleged that Roda broke into the Fourth Reformed church and stole many articles of value belonging to the Ladies Aid society. He sold these things it is alleged about the city for almost nothing, compared to their value. The officers have been working on the case and it is claimed that evidence is strong against Roda.

Roda is a resident of this city and has just started a 30-day sentence in the county jail for drunkenness. As soon as he is released from this charge he will be placed under arrest on the charge of breaking into a building, and it is likely that he will have a stiff sentence thrust upon him, if found guilty.

ALD. AUSTIN HARRINGTON SHOT A DEER AND IS BACK HOME.

Austin Harrington returned home Friday after spending about two weeks in the north woods hunting deer. Harrington shot a doe. However he did not bring this along home with him but shipped to his home here a fine buck shot by one of the others of the party. This buck weighs over 200 pounds.

There were seven in Harrington's party and so far they have shot 7 deer. Harrington is the only one of the party who has returned; the others will remain in the woods for some time.

The Harrington party lost their camping outfit in transit and they occupied a house in an abandoned lumbering town named Robbins. The camping outfit was finally located. It was not lost through the fault of the Pere Marquette but thru the fault of the Northwestern railroad.

The hunting party had a good time in the woods, although they were given a taste of the big blizzard that swept over the Great Lakes a week ago Sunday.

W. D. SANDERS OPENED MATTRESS FACTORY MONDAY.

A new industry started operations in Holland Monday when W. D. Sanders opened a mattress factory and repair plant in a building corner of Columbia avenue and Eighth street. Mr. Sanders has been in this business for many years, having been located in Lowell the past three years, where he had nine hundred customers.

Mr. Sanders manufactures all kinds of mattresses and also repairs them. He also manufactures featherbeds. He has leased the building here for a year and he is now ready for business. Mr. Sanders has been in Holland for a number of weeks getting his place of business in shape. He brought here from Lowell a car load and a half of equipment.

Miss Ella Althuis was the hostess at whose home the class meeting was held. A short program was rendered consisting of a vocal duet by the Misses Van De Bunte and Boyenga and a reading by the teacher. Class plus and a class name will be decided upon by a committee appointed by the president.

Etta Boyenga was elected president, Jeanette Van Tongeren, vice-president; Miss Ella Althuis, secretary, and Miss Ella Van de Bunte, treasurer. There will be three committees—program, social and membership. The class consists of eleven live members. During the past year one of the features of work outside the Sunday school has been a competition in writing an essay on the life of "Joseph". Class debates and essays are planned for the coming year.

JOHANNES J. LAPPINGA WAS PROMINENT IN LIFE OF HIS COMMUNITY

Lived On Same Farm 42 Years; Reclaimed Farm From Wilderness

Thursday afternoon Johannes J. Lappinga, aged sixty-six, died at his home near Port Sheldon, after an illness that lasted several years. Lappinga was a pioneer of that community, having lived on the same farm for forty-two years.

He was born in the Netherlands and came to this country in 1871. He immediately settled on the lake shore farm, taking the land when it was a mere wilderness. The land was cleared by him and converted into a beautiful farm.

Lappinga was also prominent in the religious life of the community. He was one of the charter members of the consistory of the Christian Reformed church of West Harlem and he held the position of consistory member 27 years, up to the time of his death.

The deceased is survived by a widow, a brother Claus Lappinga of Port Sheldon; a sister Mrs. G. Lindemulder of Grand Haven; and the following children: Mrs. J. D. Klompars, Mrs. Gilbert Vander Water and John Lappinga all of this city; Reakus Lappinga of West Olive, and Claus and Alice at home.

The funeral took place Monday at eleven o'clock in the forenoon from the home and at one o'clock from the West Harlem Christian Reformed church. The Rev. R. Vander Kieft, the pastor of that church, and the Rev. W. D. Vander Werp of the Maple Ave., Christian Reformed church of this city, will officiate.

DR. S. M. ZWEMER TO MAKE A SHORT VISIT HERE IN FEBRUARY.

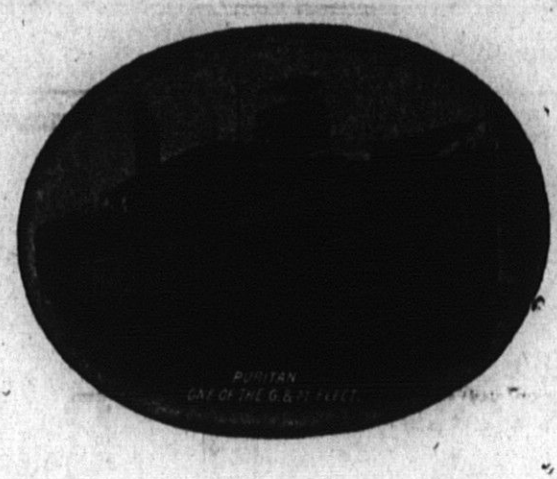

Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer of Cairo, Egypt, will make a short visit to America in February. He has been invited to address the quadrennial convention of the Student Volunteer Movement to be held in Kansas City in the first week in January. The Foreign Board of the United Presbyterian church, with whose Missions in Egypt Dr. Zwemer is now associated and the Board of the Reformed church are co-operating in arranging for his itinerary while he is in this country.

Among other plans is one for a representative Congress of the men of the Reformed church somewhat similar to that held recently under the auspices of the Boards of the Methodist Episcopal church in Indianapolis.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, had a high fever and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson, of Lexington, Miss. For sale by all dealers.—Adv

Is Entitled To Our Trade

"I believe the home merchants are entitled to our trade when the prices are as reasonable. I think it is a wrong principle to send away for the goods that can be bought as well at home," said a farmer to the editor
the other day. It sounds good to hear men argue the justice of this matter. The local business man and the farmer's interests are mutual:
neither one can succeed in the fullest sense without the other. The mer-of profit and when he does this he is entitled to the trade of his com-

"SLICK" VAN OORT, HARRY AGREEMENT IS MADE FOR NEW MOUW AND HERMAN SERIER INDUSTRY IN THIS CITY
LODGED IN CITY JAIL City Gives No Bonus; Place Chosen
Because of Favorable Conditions Here.

Were Taken By Local Officers On Warrants Signed By Chief of Police

William Van Oort, better known as "Slick" Van Oort, Harry Mouw and Herman Serier are under arrest on the charge of having stolen fish from the carp fishermen who are operating on Black Lake. Van Oort was taken about five o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mouw was captured about 7:30 and Serier a little later. All three were taken to the city jail and they spent the night in a cell. All three were arrested on complaints signed by Chief of Police Dykhuys, the one against Van Oort being issued by Justice T. N. Robinson and those against the other two by Justice Sooy.

Van Oort is awaiting trial on the charge of resisting an officer, and with the new charge against him he will have trouble enough to keep him busy for some little time, although in the other matters in which he has from time to time been involved he has usually had a remarkable run of luck.

Mouw is awaiting sentence on the charge of assault and battery in connection with the assault of Officer Steketee, and Serier is awaiting trial on the same charge. Both Mouw and Serier were at liberty under bonds. They knew Thursday that the local officers were after them and they spent the afternoon in a boat house, apparently unwilling to jump their bonds by leaving the city. Thursday night however when they ventured from their hiding place they were immediately taken in charge and soon they were safely lodged in the city jail.

Mouw and Serier were arraigned before Justice Sooy Friday morning. Both pleaded not guilty and both will have a trial in the court room in the city Hall today at one o'clock in the afternoon.

They were given the opportunity to secure their release meanwhile on furnishing bonds to the amount of $300 each, but Serier said he would rather spend the intervening time in jail, and Mouw also failed to secure bail.

Van Oort was not arraigned Friday morning because of the absence of Justice Robinson from the city.

EPIDEMIC OF ROBBERIES IN HOLLAND WAS BROKEN
SUNDAY NIGHT.

Robbers Make Too Much Noise In Attempt to Break Into John Vandersluis' Store

From recent robberies in this city it would seem as if Holland has been picked as a regular Sunday night stopping place. But the attempt of the "Jimmy Men" failed Sunday thanks to the quick ear and quick action of Officer Steketee.

While Steketee was making his rounds Sunday night he heard a window breaking while he was passing J. Vandersluis' dry goods store. He ran down the street and cut through the alley near Van Tongeren's cigar store, which was the nearest place, but the burglars must have heard him coming and they had a good start when he arrived there. When Steketee arrived at Vandersluis' store he heard someone running through the alley, and he was just in time to see the rear decks of a man disappearing around the corner of a house about 100 feet away. He did not have a chance to shoot and did not dare shoot, fearing that the bullet would go through one of the houses near by, but gave chase with the hope of cornering the men. The robber made his escape through Mr. E. P. Stephan's yard, where he was last seen by the officer from the alley.

It is claimed by Peter Karos, who rooms upstairs that when Steketee and his brother, Chris Karos, who had joined the officer, left the alley two men who were hiding there made their escape. Although the search was continued by the officers no trace of them was found again.

Early in the evening three men of a suspicious looking character were seen hanging around the stores and were closely watched by the officers. But during the course of the evening these men disappeared and it is thought that they may be responsible for the job.

It is thought by some that the robberies that have been taking place in this city are in some way connected with the frequent robberies that are taking place in Grand Rapids. A couple of the Grand Rapids gang can easily take a trip to this city on Saturday night, pull off a job and get to their headquarters in Grand Rapids or where ever they may be, before the robbery is discovered.

Through the efforts of the bonus committee and the industrial committee of the board of trade Holland has landed a new industry in the shape of a shoe factory. The agreement for this new factory has just been signed and next Friday the contract for the building will be let. The name of the new shoe factory has not yet been determined on, but it is to be conducted here by F. J. Tappan, who is a veteran shoe man, having been in this business for 38 years, ever since he was 16 years of age.

Mr. Tappan has been negotiating with the local industrial bodies for several weeks and he has finally made all the necessary arrangements. It will not be a large concern in the start, but the plan is to develop it gradually, and Mr. Tappan thinks he will be able to employ a hundred at the end of the first year.

A site 100 feet by 260 feet has been purchased on Twelfth street east of Harrison avenue. The building will be 200 feet by 50, so constructed that three wings can be added as well as two more stories. The building is to be of fireproof brick. Although at first the capacity will be small the plan is to provide for a building of such a size, when complete, that three thousand pairs of shoes can be manufactured a day. However it will be some time before the capacity run will be reached.

The first carload of machinery will arrive in Holland this week, and Mr. Tappan's family will arrive here within a few days.

Mr. Tappan selected Holland out of two hundred cities that were making a bid for him to locate. And many of the other cities held out strong inducements. A city in Iowa for instance, offered a free plant and several cities offered large bonuses. Niles, Mich., was Holland's strongest opponent and that city offered a substantial bonus.

Holland gives Mr. Tappan no bonus of any kind. All that this city gives is a loan on good security, without interest for two years.

Mr. Tappan chose Holland because of favorable labor conditions here as well as because of good shipping facilities. The fact also that he thinks this city one of the finest residence cities he has ever visited also had considerable influence in bringing him to a decision.

Mr. Tappan has been connected with the Tappan Shoe Company of Coldwater for the past 23 years, retiring last January, intending to go out of the business permanently. However since then he has decided to resume his work with the result that he has fixed on Holland as the place. He understands the business from A to Z and can run any machine in his factory himself.

The members of the bonus committee as well as of the industrial committee of the board of trade have been working hard to secure this industry for Holland. This work was made easier because of the fact that Att. A. Van Duren, secretary of the bonus committee was acquainted with the Tappans.

Mr. Tappan is enthusiastic over Holland as an ideal place to live. "You'll find me a booster for Holland," he said when asked how he expected to like it here.

MRS. MARIA J. KREMER FORM-ERLY LIVED IN ZEELAND

Mrs. Maria J. Kremer, wife of the late Rev. J. Kremer, died at her home in Detroit after an illness of some duration at the age of 71 years. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Henry De Kruij, Zeeland; Mrs. Henry M. De Vries, Misses Jessie and Anna M. Kremer of Detroit. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the home and the remains were laid at rest beside those of her husband in Elmwood cemetery, Detroit. Dr. M. Kolyn of this city officiated.

The late Rev. Mr. Kremer conducted a very successful pastorate of the Zeeland First Reformed church for about eleven years, and many of the older residents remember the family and recognize the good work done by the dominie during his long period of residence there. He was succeeded by Rev. J. P. De Jong, now of Alton, Ia., as pastor of the First Church some twenty years ago. Besides Zeeland he has served churches in Grand Rapids, South Holland, Ill., and other places.

who is up in the north woods with ten others hunting deer has written to Peter Dulyea telling of what his party has done in the line of hunting. Mr. Vander Bie writes that conditions for hunting have been very favorable all the time. It took the party, which is made up of men from all parts of the state a week to get to camp on account of the storm and when they once got to camp it was for a time impossible to do any hunting.

But at the time when the letter was written the party had shot 11 deer and two red fox. Mr. Vander Bie brought down a fine two-year-old buck.

The party has been suffering from bad water, but the Holland man has not had any trouble, although three of the others are laid up. Mr. Vander Bie expects to be home about Thanksgiving day.

NEW ENGINES ON PERE MAR- QUETTE

The big, new mogul freight engines recently put in use on the main line of the Pere Marquette are attracting lots of attention. They are longer and stronger than any engines that ever traveled the road before. Recently one of them went over the line drawing 130 freight cars and a "dead" engine and made no unusual effort in the work.

ADULT BIBLE CLASS DISCUSSED THE IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

The Men's Adult Bible class of Trinity Reformed church held a debate Monday evening in parlors of Trinity church on this subject "Resolved that immigration should be restricted." The negative was taken care of by John Luidens, J. H. Strabbing and H. Neerken. Mr. A. Van Ry, Roland A. Beens and D. A. Van Oort defended the affirmative. Steps were also taken at this meeting to organize a permanent debating club. The meeting was called at 7:30.

All Pavements In City Are Now In Excellent Condition.

Repair work on the pavements in Holland was completed Saturday when work on Central Avenue near 8th street was finished.

Twelfth street is now in first class condition, all the holes and bad spot having been refilled with asphalt. This work was done at the expense of the city, but all the repair work done on Central Avenue was paid for by Contractor Vander Veen of Grand Rapids who did that job. The entire job was done by City Engineer Naberhuis, and although work was held up several times, on the good days, it was rushed at double speed.

In a short time the mayor and aldermen will make a trip of inspection over all the pavement in the city.

WITHHOLDS HIS APPROVAL OF COUNCIL'S ACTION IN AP- POINTING TREASURER Does Not Give Reasons, But Says He Will Do So Later.

Mayor Bosch has again come across with a veto, the sixth one during his second term of office. He has filed with the city clerk a message stating that he withholds his approval from the action of the common council of last Wednesday appointing Ald. Van Drezer assistant treasurer to help the city treasurer in collecting the taxes during the month of December. The mayor declares he will do so at the next regular meeting of the council. Four weeks ago an appropriation not to exceed $75 was voted by the council to pay the wages of an assistant who should help the treasurer in the collection of the taxes. During recent years the banks have taken care of the pay of an assistant, but when the system of placing city deposits changed so that the banks were required to pay interest, they naturally discontinued this custom. For a long time City Clerk Overweg has been in the habit of assisting the city treasurer. The veto does not cover the appropriation but is in disapproval of the appointment.

The veto reads as follows:
Holland, Mich., Nov. 20, 1913
To the City Clerk,

of the City of Holland:—
Dear Sir:—I hereby desire to inform you, and through you the Common council of the City of Holland, that I have withheld my approval from, and do hereby veto the action passed by the Common Council of the City of Holland, at a meeting held November 19, 1913, in the appointment of an assistant to the Treasurer, of the City of Holland, for the collection of taxes for the year 1913.

My reasons for so doing, I do not desire to make public at this time, but if the Council desires will give same at the next regular meeting of the Common Council.

Respectfully submitted:
Nicomemus Bosch,
Mayor.

"I issued this veto with the distinct understanding that it wouldn't affect the proposition of an appropriation for that work," said the mayor today. "I believe the man who assists the treasurer in tax collecting should be paid. The veto refers only to the appointment that was made."

DEATH OF MRS. P. A. LATTA Had Been Failing for Last Few Years

Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock Mrs. P. A. Latta, prominent churchwoman and clubwoman, died of heart failure at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter C. Walsh, 42 East Ninth Street. Her maiden name was Margaret Jane Just and she was born on October 8, 1843 in Newbury, N. Y., but her girlhood was passed in Ionia County, Michigan where her parents moved shortly after her birth. In 1862 she married Professor P. A. Latta and for many years she lived in Otsego, Allegan and Saugatuck. Since her husband's death, three years ago, she had made her home in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Walsh. She was an honorary member of the Ladele Literary club of Saugatuck, and an associate member of the Women's Literary Club of this city. Many friends mourn her death.

She is survived by two children Mr. James A. Latta, vice president of the Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis and Mrs. Walter C. Walsh of this city. Four grandchildren also survive her. Mr. E. C. Brooks of Waukesha, Wis., Ruth Latta Walsh of this city and Martin and Jeannette Latta of Minneapolis. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, the Rev. F. O. Grannis of St. Joseph officiating. Many from out of town were present.

Interment at Pilgrim's Home Cemetery.

Allegan Gazette—The older residents of Allegan will hear with regret of the passing of Mrs. P. A. Latta, whose death occurred Wednesday night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Walsh of Holland. Heart failure was the cause of her sudden death, though her general health had been failing some time. Both Mr. and Mrs. Latta are remembered here with esteem and pleasure. They resided in Allegan many years, and because of their noble character and remarkably pleasant personalities were held dear by a large portion of the town's people, to say nothing of Mr. Latta's great usefulness to the country as school commissioner, a position he filled with unusual ability fourteen years. Both were prominent in the Episcopal church in their day here, Mr. Latta being a member of the fine choir of the eighties and a faithful supporter of society generally. Mrs. Latta was of exceptionally sweet character.

BECAUSE OF FAITHFULNESS IN ATTENDANCE FIRST CHURCH ORGANIZATION IS FEASTED

Andrew Steketee Jr. "Sets 'Em Up" Monday Night at Quarterly Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of the Men's Adult Bible Class of the First Reformed church was held Monday night and the members and their ladies, to the number of 165, took part in the meeting, which was in the form of an entertainment, including refreshments. The spread was "one on" Andrew Steketee Jr., as the phrase goes. Before the Rev. Mr. Veldman left for the Netherlands, Mr. Steketee made the promise that he would "set 'em up" to the class if during the summer in the pastor's absence the attendance would reach 75. In this he was following a custom set by the pastor earlier when he gave an oyster supper because the class had reached this number in attendance. During the summer the attendance was several times more than 75 and Monday night the promised feast was given.

After the business session which was presided over by H. Van Tongeren, the president, a program was given consisting of reports by the delegates who attended the conventions in Benton Harbor and Kalamazoo, selections by the Adult Bible class quartet, selections by the orchestra and a vocal solo by Miss Westraate, the organist of the class. The delegates who attended the conventions were Edw. Wiltedink, Wm. Mokma, Jacob Tibby and Bert Slagh.

The Bible class began its career some years ago with a charter membership of 28. It has been growing steadily until now it has an enrollment of a hundred. The average attendance is very large, as can be gathered from the fact that last Sunday there was an attendance of 89.

STATEMENT IS MADE THAT MAY OR CANNOT SET ASIDE APPOINTMENT.

It Is Argued That He can Veto Only Those Resolutions That Carry Money Appropriations

That Mayor Bosch had no legal right to veto the appointment of Ald Van Drezer as assistant to the city treasurer during the tax collecting time in December is the opinion of one or two of the aldermen. City Attorney Van Duren is out of the city, but it is understood that the men who take this position base it on an opinion given by him. It is declared that the mayor can veto only a resolution with which a money appropriation is connected and that hence the present veto is void.

In a way a money appropriation is connected with the appointment of the assistant treasurer, since the council voted to allow from fifty to seventy-five dollars for the work of the extra man. But this money was voted four weeks ago in a separate resolution. It was not till two weeks later that the appointment of the assistant treasurer was made. Hence the appointment was in a resolution that was entirely separated from the resolution that fixed the amount of the remuneration.

Moreover Mayor Bosch made it very clear that he did not wish to veto the appropriation but that his only aim was to veto the action of the council in making the appointment. He wants the work to be paid for, but it is no secret that Mayor Bosch thinks that City Clerk Overweg is entitled to the appointment.

"The city clerk understands the work from A to Z" said Mr. Bosch, "and what is needed is a man who can do the work quickly and who knows all the angles of it. This no one, no matter how efficient, can know who has not had actual training like the city clerk. Moreover, Mr. Overweg has for many years done the work for almost nothing and now that there is a little something in it there seems to me no good reason why he should not do the work as usual. As I said in the veto I shall give my reason fully when the council takes it up at its next meeting."

Those who take the other side of the question declare that a job of this kind should not be given to a city employee who is supposed to put in all his time for the city for the salary that he is receiving.

Even if it should be found that the veto is illegal it is not unlikely that it will cause the council to take the matter up again for final settlement, either by confirming the appointment that has been made or by setting it aside.

However on the legality of the veto Mayor Bosch was very emphatic.

"I am absolutely sure it is legal," he declared. "The charter provides that the city treasurer may have an assistant during tax time. He may decide who this assistant shall be but his choice must be ratified by the council. Entirely in accordance with the provision of the charter the city treasurer went to Mr. Harrington, chairman of the ways and means committee, and asked for Mr. Overweg as assistant. He said he himself was a new man and that he would like to have Overweg help him because the clerk is thoroughly familiar with the work in every way. Acting on this suggestion, Mr. Harrington put the request to the council and when the appropriation was passed it was understood that the city clerk should again do the work as usual. In making the appointment that was made, the council, in the absence of myself and the chairman and one other member of the ways and means committee, did it without regard to the provisions of the charter that the treasurer had followed in every respect in making his request. Their action entirely ignored the action that was taken on this question two weeks before. For these and several other reasons I am convinced that the veto is legal."

Local Man Receives Curious Epistle From Relative in the East.

P. Luidens, East 15th street, has received from a relative in the East a letter that was written a hundred and fifty-eight years ago. The letter was sent here for translation, and it is written in the old Dutch script, having been written in the Netherlands to an early settler in this country and having been handed down from generation to generation. The letter is still in very good condition.

JOHN VANDER HAAR SUCCEUMBS WHEN HE SITS DOWN TO REST YESTERDAY MORNING

John Vander Haar, employed at the Bay View Furniture factory, died suddenly yesterday about nine o'clock as a result of heart failure. Vander Haar was not feeling well and he went down to the engine room to rest. He sat down and a few minutes later he died. Dr. J. J. Mersen was called but Vander Haar had been dead for some little time when the physician arrived.

He was taken to his home in the Nibelink ambulance. Vander Haar is survived by a wife and two brothers and two sisters, all except one sister living near this city. One sister lives in Iowa.

WILL GATHER TONIGHT TO GET YELLS READY FOR THE GAME

A mass meeting of the alumni of the High school will be held tonight. This meeting will be the final spurt that the alumni will make before the game between the alumni team and the high school team the next day. The alumni are enthusiastic over the game and many of the old-timers, who had almost forgotten what football is like have become interested and will be on hand Thanks giving day to see the game. As evidence of the enthusiasm the old-timers have resurrected their class colors and they will wear them at the game, each class to be represented by its respective bunting. The mass meeting tonight is partly for the purpose of getting ready yells. The old timers still have a good deal of wind and they will let off a lot of steam on Thanksgiving Day in the form of old time class yells.

A limited number of tickets will be sold to high school pupils at 15 cents. This concession is made to give those who cannot afford to pay a quarter a chance to see the game.

The receipts of the game, over expenses will be divided equally between the high school and the Y. M. C. A. fund. Negotiations are on to secure a big University of Michigan football player to referee the game Thursday.

TRINITY CHURCH HAS DEBATE

The Men's Adult Bible class of Trinity Reformed church met Monday and enjoyed a splendid debate on the subject Resolved "That immigration should be restricted." Speakers on both sides of the question displayed considerable talent in their efforts to win. Many reasons were advanced pro and con. The vote was left to the audience and when the ballots were counted it was found that the affirmatives had won by a large majority. Owing to the advanced stage of the evening it was deemed advisable to postpone the organization of a permanent debating society until some other time. A committee of three was appointed and they will arrange another debate in December. At that time the organization of a club will be completed. After the battle the Rev. J. Van Peursem made a few complimentary remarks to the warriors and congratulated both winners and vanquished on their splendid efforts. He called attention to the educational value of these debates and he expressed the wishes of the entire audience when he asked that these debates might be continued thru the winter months. The affirmative was defended by Messrs. A. Van Ry, D. Van Oort and Roland A. Beens. Negative, G. Neerken, H. Strabbing, John Luidens. A large audience was present.

SENIOR AND FRESHMAN CLASS EACH WINS SIX POINTS.

The Senior-Freshman football game at the College campus Friday resulted in a 6-6 score. The seniors succeeded in sending Poppen over the line in the first quarter and Van Putten of the Freshies broke away in the third quarter and made the score for the lower classmen after a thirty yard run. The game was much more exciting than the inter-class game of last week as the teams were more evenly matched, the Seniors having a shade the better of the argument. The Senior defense was impenetrable and the Freshies made scarcely nothing on line smashes. The Freshmen's secondary defense was very strong and succeeded in foiling a number of Senior end runs. There was some discussion in regard to one decision by Referee Van Putten, but rather than cry over spilled milk, the game will probably be played over again next week.

HOLLAND-ST. LOUIS SUGAR CO. MAKES STATEMENT TO FARMERS.

The Holland-St. Louis Sugar Co., will close contracts with the farmers offering five dollars per ton for beets with a percentage of sugar of 12 and thirty-three and a third cents more per ton for every per cent above twelve. This, according to the company, is fifty cents per ton more than other companies in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana have ever paid for beets, and perhaps a dollar per ton more than some of them will pay the coming year, it reports about a cut in price are correct.

This statement on the part of the company to which the farmers in this part of the state deliver their beets will be welcome to the farmers in view of the frequent reports that have been made in the newspapers recently that, because of the new tariff, the other companies in Michigan and in many of the Western states as well could cut the price paid to farmers.

The new tariff removes from sugar a duty of 35 cents per hundred. This is equivalent to a reduction of from 75 cents to 90 cents per ton for beets; that is, if the company wished to buy the beets the coming year on the same basis as other years, then they would have to cut the price at least seventy-five cents.

But in spite of this and in spite of the fact that sugar is down and has been down for some time, the Holland-St. Louis Sugar Company has decided on paying the price of five dollars per ton the coming year. In a statement to the farmers the company is asking them to co-operate with the company so that the burden may not fall on the manufacturer of sugar any heavier than is necessary. This co-operation can consist in the farmers doing everything in their power to produce a high grade crop the coming season.

LOWLANDS ON EAST END CAN'T BE SUPPLIED BY PRESENT SEWER.

According to City Engineer Naberhuis sometime in the future Holland will have to face a serious sewer question. If many people settle on the lowlands in the Eastern part of the city and demand sewers the city will have a problem on its hands as to how to supply this district. The land here is almost level with the lake and the sewer that now runs from Sixth street and Central avenue in a round about way to the corner of Columbia avenue and 9th street will be too high to serve these lowlands. This sewer was put in on as small as possible a grade and so cannot be lowered unless it is taken out as far down as the outlet. This would hardly be advisable to do however and it is probable that a separate sewer be installed if the occasion should demand it.

PAUL COSTER ADDS MAGIC LANTERN DEMONSTRATION ROOM.

Paul Coster has added a new feature to his photo supply store in the shape of a demonstration room for magic lanterns. This room has just been completed and several have been shown how the lanterns work. It is very easy to work them; all that is necessary is to attach to an ordinary electric light socket, turn on the juice, put in a picture.

Any ordinary picture post card can be used in throwing a picture on the screen. There are various sizes of machine, but the operation of all of them is extremely simple.

This is the only magic lantern demonstration room in the city. Mr. Coster is showing the working of a lantern to all who care to see it.

COACH VAN PUTTEN AND CAPTAIN VEENKER OF HOPE WHIP PLAYERS INTO SHAPE

The alumni football team went through some good stiff practice Friday and the team is showing marked improvement. Some excellent coaching from men who know the game is doing wonders to get the team into shape for the Thanksgiving game with the High school. While Coach Van Putten of the Hope College team is directing the alumni from the quarterback position, Capt. Veenker is doing the coaching. The players that have reported for practice are as follows: Jack Van Anrooy, Sprigg Te Roller, Carl Shaw, Jake Van Putten, Jr., John Ederlee, D. Whelan, Ed Van Ry, Case Stroop, Bruno Miller, Geo. Kardux, T. N. Robinson and John Driy. Others are expected to join the squad before the big game. Van Putten has been chosen field captain.

Team Was Headed for Store When They Hit Telephone Pole

A team owned by Andrew Tjoerdama, became frightened because of a freight car yesterday while tied in front of Van Landegend's plumbing shop on Eighth street, and ran away. Officer O'Connor who was passing caught the team but was forced to let go when the horses forced him against a hydrant and telephone pole on the curbing. He ran ahead and again caught the horses as they were headed straight for G. T. Haan's drug store on the corner of River and Eighth. The officer tried to swing the team away from the store and swung them into a telephone pole. The damage was very small.

"Robert Burns in Song and Story" was the title of an interesting lecture and song recital given Friday night in Carnegie hall by Mac Innes Neilson. The talented speaker and singer entertained his audience for some two hours with Scotch songs and with an interpretation of the work of Burns as well as an analysis of his personality. Miss Hazel Wing acted as accompanist.

Mr. Neilson is a native of Scotland and he was in thorough sympathy with his theme. Burns has always been best understood by the Scotchmen. It was Carlyle who wrote perhaps the most sympathetic in all the vast volume of literature essay on Burns that has as yet appear about Scotland's great plow-boy poet. It was Robert Louis Stevenson, another Scotchman, who did for Burns what Carlyle had left undone. While Carlyle idealized him, Stevenson gave Burns back to the world as a real flesh-and-blood human being, with all his weaknesses and all his faults yet with a marvelous understanding of those faults and weaknesses.

Mr. Neilson's estimate of Burns was something like a composite of the pictures left by his famous countrymen. He idealized him in so far as the man's wonderful poetry placed him on a high plane, but he did not overlook his faults and weaknesses. He said that in Burns was embodied the very spirit of the Scotch people and that that is the reason why he has a stronger hold on their affections than any other writer. He was a son of the soil who had first hand knowledge of their joys and sorrows and who could sympathize with them. While Walter Scott recognized worth in the man who was well-bred and cultured, Burns said that "a man's a man for a' that"; he said a man is a man because of inherent manhood. He was the great poet of democracy.

Mr. Neilson painted Burns in his native setting. He told of the drinking habits of the Scotch people in Burns' time. He did not excuse the great poet's weaknesses but helped the audience to understand them. He painted a graphic picture of the eternal struggle in the heart of the poet between the good and the evil in him.

The so-called rural problem was discussed Monday by the Social Progress Club when that body met at the home of Attorney and Mrs. F. T. Miles. After the usual preliminaries, which consisted of productions in a lighter vein, Prof. L. Eidson of Hope college read a paper on the question of the evening. Prof. Eidson treated his subject exhaustively and he reinforced the points he made with numerous statistics gathered from government reports of a number of years back.

Prof. Eidson briefly traced the agricultural development of the U. S. since this country was founded. He told of the various territorial acquisitions and the relation of the increase of area to the increase of population. He told of the movement cityward, declaring that the disproportionate increase of city population was due to immigration and to migration from the country, but mainly to immigration. Dr. Eidson declared that what was usually considered a menace, namely the abandonment of the farm by the boys and girls, is not as great a menace as it seems. He said statistics show that the percentage of increase in population of the city due to migration from the country is comparatively small. In many cases when it was supposed that the people leaving the farm in the East, for instance, had gone to the city closer investigation showed that this population had merely gone to other and cheaper farms in the West.

Prof. Eidson discussed the rural church and the rural school. Neither he said, was holding its own. The equipment was not up to the standards of modern progress and the country population was consequently suffering. Although in many respects social conditions in the country have been improved, the educational facilities are still for the most part rather crude and the rural church is not doing its work economically and systematically. He advised greater co-operation on the part of the churches and a systematic system of education in which the rural pupils can enjoy about the same advantages as the city pupils.

At the conclusion of the reading of the paper the members of the club discussed the rural problem.

Again two Hope College boys have been successful in passing the examinations for the Rhodes scholarship, according to a report just received by President Hutchins of the University of Michigan. President Hutchins has received word from the trustee of the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford, England, that Robert Kroodsma and L. Hekhuis are two of five men who have been successful and who are eligible to appointment to the honor. The other three men are W. F. Bennie of Hillsdale College, S. P. Cook of Alma and L. J. Kennedy of Detroit. One of these five will be chosen to represent Michigan at Oxford.

Some time next month President Hutchins will call a meeting of the chief justice of the Michigan Supreme court, President Anthony of Adrian, President Dickie of Albion, and Dean Effinger of the literary department of the University of Michigan to meet with him and the successful candidates and the Rhodes scholar will be named after that meeting.

Mr. Kroodsma is a member of the Senior class of Hope college. He is a native of Vriesland, having been born on a farm there. Last spring he published a volume of poetry, which booklet gave him the distinction of being the first Hope undergraduate who ever published a volume of poetry.

Mr. Hekhuis graduated from Hope College last June. He was one of the commencement orators at the exercises. At present he is attending the Western Theological seminary, as a member of the Junior class. Both young men have distinguished themselves in scholarship while at the local college.

WHAT YOU SAW IN THIS PAPER

THIRTY FIVE YEARS AGO

Among the improvements around town we notice that Mr. J. Kulte is building himself a small office in the front part of his meat market, which will be fitted up for his personal comfort during the cold season.

Among the medical men this town seems to be a favorite. A few days ago another doctor—Dr. G. W. Packard—settled in our midst. He hails from Massachusetts; comes with an experience of twenty five years, is ripe in years, every inch a gentleman and can be found at Scott's Hotel where he has taken up his quarters.

The remarkable clarity and quietness of the atmosphere last Sunday morning, enabled us to distinctly hear a large church bell many miles from this city; in a northeasterly direction. The question is—whether one.

The cotton wood telegraph poles used on the line of the Southern Pacific Road have sprouted and give promise of supplying a continuous row of shade trees.

Winter is fast approaching.

Our friend, Mr. Chas. Waring has returned to his post of duty again. He looks hale and hearty after having spent a few weeks at his home in the interior of the state.

Extensive sheds are being built around the City Mills, and other improvements are being made which attest the prosperity of the flouring business.

Dr. Bentum was found guilty of manslaughter on Tuesday last in the City of Grand Rapids. The testimony against him of able physicians, was too strong to be overcome by the eloquent pleading of his able counsel. According to the "Standard" of yesterday efforts are now being made to have his punishment reduced to a fine, and his friends are already in the field collecting money to pay the same in anticipation of being successful in having his punishment reduced.

On Monday last, Mr. William Winter, in the town of Manlius, sustained a severe injury, being struck by the limb of a falling tree, from which he may possibly recover, but it is feared that he will die from his injuries. The limb struck him on the back of the neck, and witnesses pronounce it miraculous that the blow did not kill him instantly.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

The schooner, Presto, owned by Captain J. Nemler and John Richards of Grand Haven, went on the beach last Friday night.

Lane Van Putten returned from Ann Arbor last Thursday where he had been to consult physicians at the State Medical School, as to his case of paralysis. He reports that they say he will be all right in a short time and gave him so much encouragement that he intends to start for New Orleans, La., next week.

The barge, Milwaukee, is still lying here in our harbor. On Tuesday the crew were "paid off" and they, or some of them, proceeded to get "gloriously drunk." At about 6:30, James Malloy and William Bergin, knocked down John Horn, one of their companions, and robbed him of $17. Marshal Vaupell was immediately notified by an eye witness of the affray, and in a short time had both of the young thugs in durance vile at our city lockup. On Wednesday afternoon they were arraigned before Justice Roest. Waiving an examination they were taken to our County Jail in default of $500 bail, by Sheriff Vaupell. We are given to understand that this is not the only crime that these young persons have committed. There are one or two other serious charges that they will undoubtedly be held to answer for.

Born:—To Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tibbitt of Hudsonville, a daughter, Nov. 21, 1883.

Zeeland
A few days ago, Cornelius, son of Mr. and Mrs. John De Jong, our harness maker, had his elbow dislocated while coasting. Dr. McK Best was called in and reports that the boy is getting along nicely.

Mr. J. De Pree, our livery man (Klein Jantje) has been carrying his arm in a sling for a few days. He got it bruised by falling from a load of hay. No bones broken.

Vriesland Items

A sad case of accidental shooting occurred here last Wednesday afternoon, resulting in the death of John Wynngaarden, a young man of this locality. He was out hunting, and being alone at the time the accident befell him, the exact circumstances attending his death are unknown. It is thought that while attempting to step from a fallen tree trunk to an adjoining stump he missed his footing, and the gun being cocked, discharged its contents into his chest killing him instantly. Herman Karsten who shortly after discovered him, notified the neighbors who took the body home. The unfortunate young man was but 20 years of age.

In Michigan

The weather was cool but favorable, throughout Michigan on election day, and a large vote was polled. The "great prohibition gains" failed to appear, and the Fish vote will not be as large as that given to St. John, in 1884. It is estimated that the Labor party cast about 4,000 votes in Michigan, for Street-er. This will hardly elect him, however.

"Hillsdale's wool and Muskegon's pines,
Saginaw's salt and Marquette's mines,
Swell the chorus!
Goodbye, sweet Grover, Good-bye."

If last Tuesday had been such a day as Thursday, we would have doubts about the result of the election. It rained hard, in fact was a regular Democratic day.

Death of Henry Baum

We take from the San Diego "Union" the following notice of the death of Henry Baum, who resided in Holland for many years and has many friends here. Mr. Baum moved from Holland about six years ago.

"Henry Baum, who has lived in National City nearly six years, died Sunday afternoon. He was seventy-five years old and had many friends in National City. He leaves six children, three in Pennsylvania and three in National City. He lived with his daughter's family, and has suffered for many months with a chronic disease. He was highly respected by all. The remains will be interred at 10:00 o'clock this morning.

John G. Huizenga of this city, now a student at the Michigan University at Ann Arbor, was elected secretary of his class. This indicates that John is a popular boy at the University.

The Workman Manufacturing Company have on hand at present, orders for 400 bedsteads. The factory is running to its fullest capacity and is turning out over two hundred bedsteads a day. The proprietors are considering the question of enlarging the capacity of the factory.

The Anchor is out again, No. 1 of Vol. VII has put in its appearance. Wm. J. Van Kersen, editor-in-chief. We clip the following.

"College widows are plentiful this year, probably the result of leap year.

"Prof. Nykerk has recently organized two singing classes—one for rudimentary instruction and another for more advanced music.

"Our faithful janitor Bloemendal also visited the World's Fair this summer."

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The social, in Bergen Hall, Friday evening was a pleasant affair and largely attended. The exercises were very entertaining, and consisted of five minute addresses by Rev. C. A. Jacobs, G. J. Diekema, Supt. C. M. McLean and J. C. Post, the topic of each speaker being "When I Was a Boy." The music was furnished by W. Olive and N. Mc Kay. The committee on lectures is arranging for a full course during the season, and expects to be able to report at an early date.

HOLLAND REFERENCE LIBRARY MADE GOOD USE OF

BY OTHERS THAN LOCAL RESIDENTS

The Public Library of this city is not only constantly branching out along various lines, but during the last few months it has been attracting the attention of other communities than Holland. Students from the Zeeland high school and from other schools in the vicinity of Holland have discovered that much valuable information can be obtained here and they have been patronizing the library liberally. Almost any Saturday, and sometimes on other days as well a number of such outside students can be found in the reading room consulting the numerous reference books to be found on the shelves there. It has become quite the custom for them to come to Holland and consult the library here whenever they are preparing for debates or oratorical contests.

The files of some of the country's most valuable magazines for many years back can be found at the local library, as well as the more important sets of reference books, dictionaries and encyclopedias. Outsiders who come here to consult the reference library are encouraged to do so in every way, the librarian and members of the board being anxious to make the institution as democratic as possible and being anxious to make it of service to any who wish to avail themselves of the opportunities for information to be found there.

The children's story hour each Saturday forenoon is again proving a success. The library is gradually growing larger and as the city grows doubtless other features of library work will be added from time to time.

TELLS COUNCIL OF HIS WORK ALONG THIS LINE IN HOLLAND.

Recommends That Precautions Be Taken To Save The Trees of The City

The following report was made to the council last night in regard to the inspection of the trees of the city for scale. The report was referred to the Park Board for recommendation.

Holland Nov. 7, 1913.

To the Honorable the Mayor and Common Council of the city of Holland.

Gentlemen

I as deputy state Nursery and Orchard Inspector have looked your city over the past two days I find you have done some good work since I were here last year. There is still a good many old apple trees that are affected with St. Jo Scale without doubt it is on some of the shrubs and flowers in the different parts of the city. As the state law requires the city as well as the towns to appoint three competent men as inspectors where diseases are found I would recommend you to do so and where found have it sprayed by owner or if they refuse the city do the same and tax the owner for the expense. I would also recommend that all Lime Sulphur Solution be tested as to strength which should be 33 Per Ann I have had Mr. Walsh send for testers so they can be bought for about $1.25. I have seen the town board of Holland and they have promised to see to their part. One orchard east of the city that I visited yesterday I condemned all but four trees it is the worst orchard I ever came across. I will see that they take care of the trees around the city, or the rate the Scale is spreading there would be no apples soon.

Respectfully Yours,

O. H. Robbins,

Hart Mich.

SURE WE ARE THANKFUL

We are thankful for what we have had, for what we have and for what we are going to have.

We are thankful for what we are and for what we are not.

If there is anything else to be thankful for, let us know what it is and we will be in on that, too.

Good crops, peace, a fair degree of prosperity, freedom from pestilence, flood and conflagrations, a climate that will average fair—these are the good old staples of Thanksgiving day, and we have them all. And why should we not be thankful and rejoice? Individually, we may think we see a fly in the ointment, but if we look closely and think rightly, we will find that the fly is in reality a very small fly—too small to be worth noticing in comparison with the world of good ointment all around it. Don't use a microscope in looking at your troubles. It will be as disastrous to your enjoyment of life as to examine too closely the vinegar you use to give relish to the baked beans. Look at life in a big way and you cannot help being thankful. Take an inventory of what you have, and the man who cannot find something to be thankful for is, indeed, in hard luck. If it is a boil, you can be thankful that it is not a carbuncle.

You can be thankful that you are a good American citizen. Suppose you were a Russian, a Prussian or a Turk, or a Chink, a Pap or especially a Greaser? Just to be a plain, ordinary everyday good American citizen with the privilege of saving your country every four years and throwing your Governor or Congressman out of office every other year and changing your municipal officers every spring and saying what you think at all times— isn't this something to be thankful for?

Yes, as we have said, we are thankful. If you have doubts just watch our dust when the turkey passes tomorrow. A little of the white meat, please, and also some of the dark.

Kissing may be unhealthful, but it does not necessarily follow that the sickliest looking girls have endured the most osculation.

The most helpless looking man in the world is the one who stands around in a dry goods store waiting for his wife to get through buying.

Fowl will be cheaper this Thanksgiving, the dealers say. If, of course, you can buy them in the shell.

Someone has discovered a hotel clerk in New Jersey who had never heard of William Jennings Bryan. How's that for luck?

A Chicago couple has just celebrated a "tango wedding" and from now on will keep getting farther and farther apart, no doubt.

At the Knickerbocker

On Thanksgiving day there will be a feature film at the Knickerbocker of Thaw's Escape from the Matteawan Criminal Insane Asylum. Every picture alive with excitement and interest. Do not fail to see this—Thaw's escape from Matteawan.

That the elementary feelings and passions of human nature were the same eighteen centuries ago as they are today is most forcibly illustrated in Geo. Kleine's photo drama exquisite, "The Last Days of Pompeii" announced for Saturday night at the Knickerbocker beginning 7:30 and 9 p. m.

The principal characters of the story are Nydia, the blind flower girl who passionately loves the handsome and wealthy Greek youth Glaucus, who pities the blind girl but is himself in love with Ione, the beautiful Athenian maiden. Another virile factor is the proud Egyptian priest, Arbaces, whose passion for Ione leads him to terrible extremes, even to murdering her brother, Apocides. Then there are the idle pleasure seekers, Clodius, and Sallust, friends of Glaucus, and the repulsive sorceress of Vesuvius, who herself had her love tale; Burbo and Stratonica, keepers of the tavern, the gladiators and host of others, all woven into a tale of masterly quality and absorbing interest; all actuated by the passions of love, hate, avarice and ambition; each with their petty jealousies and parallel joys and pleasures. It was the same world then as it is today, the only difference being that the development of Christianity and civilization has taught the world of today a better control—perhaps through knowledge and perhaps through fear.

NEARLY FORTY YEARS A LIFE-SAVER

Captain St. Pierre, keeper of the Pentwater Lifesaving Station, who passed his 70th mile-stone in life last May and who has been thirty-six years in the lifesaving service, is to be relieved, probably this week by Capt. ## HOLLAND BOASTS TWO ONE-ARMED AUTOISTS WHO DRIVE WITH EASE

Holland, Mich., November 26.—Holland has two one-armed automobilists who can operate their machines as easily as any driver with two hands.

They are Samuel W. Miller and Benjamin Van Raalte, Jr.

Mr. Miller is proprietor of the depot lunch room and maintains a car merely for pleasure. He has owned and operated it for several seasons and only once figured in an accident. This happened a few months ago while he was making a run over a narrow stretch of road. The machine skidded and his car turned turtle and rolled down an embankment. Miller sustained three broken ribs. Soon after he recovered, he drove his car on a trip into Canada as far as Toronto.

Benjamin Van Raalte is a grandson of the late Rev. Dr. A. A. Van Raalte, founder of the Holland colony. He lost his arm a few years ago. He contracted the automobile fever a few years ago also.—Detroit Free Press.

DIDN'T READ PETITIONS

Farmers Testify They Signed Papers to Rescind Road Action

Herman Foss and A. F. Brosset,

Ottawa county farmers, were called as witnesses by the plaintiffs in the case of the Ottawa county road commissioners against the board of supervisors in circuit court. They testified that members of the board and asked them to sign petitions at the time when petitions for calling a special good roads rescinding election were being circulated. They stated that it was then represented to them that the petitions were merely protests against the manner in which the good roads work was being carried on in the county. Both witnesses stated that they did not know what they were signing. County Clerk Jacob Glerum was on the stand about two hours, reading the records of the board of supervisors concerning the county road fight. All of the testimony was objected to by the defendants upon the grounds that court of equity had no jurisdiction in the case. Judge Cross overruled the objections.
