Music Study as Important as School Duties

This is the time for parents to realize that music study is as essential as book learning. The child who reaches maturity lacking a musical education of some sort will feel the handicap throughout life.

But be careful in selecting the piano for your child's practice and study. Make sure the scale is true, the tone faultless, and the touch easy and responsive.

For the past forty years Meyer's Music House has been supplying your neighbors with musical instruments. We have a carefully selected stock of the best makes to select from. If you wish to get a used piano, this is just the place to go. Prices from $40.00 up.

Knickerbocker Shows as Pleading as Ever—"Happy" Lou More Than Makes Good.

The stock company at the Knickerbocker continues to draw full houses and on several nights have had to turn people away.

A line of plays is being presented that is far out of the ordinary and Holland is showing Manager Ogden that it appreciates his efforts in giving us an up-to-date theater.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, "Isbunial", or "Out of the Depths", from the story by Mrs. Southworth will be presented, and should draw big houses both nights, as the story is well known and has been one of the biggest sellers of books.

Miss Whitney promises a wonderful performance of this play and as all her other plays have been top-notchers we can expect something extraordinary in "Isbunial".

HOLLAND FAIR ELECTS ITS NEW DIRECTORS

SECRETARY BROUWER STEPS ASIDE FOR JOHN ARENDSHORST. NEWLY ELECTED SECRETARY

Financial Report is Not Half Bad Considering the Weather, Deficit of $135.77 But There Is $1366 To Pay It With.

At the annual meeting of the South Ottawa and West Allegan Agricultural Ass'n there were a few surprises in store, one being the financial statement which shows that the Fair Association is in much better shape financially than one would naturally suppose considering the very unfavorable weather conditions prevailing during fair week.

Another surprise was the entrance of John Arendshorst into the field as secretary against the present secretary Ed Brouwer. The vote on the first ballot elected Mr. Arendshorst, the vote standing: Arendshorst 13, Brouwer, 4. Mr. Arendshorst is not new at fair work, having filled the position of assistant secretary under E. P. Stephan two years ago.

The president, Otto C. Schaap of Zeeland and Henry Kooiker of Overisel were re-elected by acclamation, owing to the faithful work that these men have performed gratis for many years.

Ben Brower, the present treasurer, and one who has filled that position for several years was also handed many bouquets because of his efficient services. He was elected unanimously. The next thing in order was the election of ten directors. E. P. Stephan of Holland was named in the place of J. Poppen of Overisel and John J. Rutgers of Holland in the place of John Koning of Saugatuck. Benj. Du Mez sent in his resignation stating that owing to pressing business at that time of the year, he was unable to serve. The directors were reluctant in accepting his resignation, but Mr. Du Mez insisted, stating that he did not wish to act as a figure-head, and that he would continue to do his best for the fair without being a director. M. C. Ver Hage was elected in his place.

D. L. Hagerman and Alfred Benthall, county agricultural agents of Ottawa and Allegan counties respectively were elected honorary directors together with H. W. Mills who has shown his enthusiasm for the Holland fair, by being one of its best fancy stock exhibitors at the exhibition.

The officers of the South Ottawa and West Allegan Agricultural society as they were chosen follows:

COUNTY TEUTONS FOUND LOYAL BY STANTON

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER DECLARES THAT MOST OF THEM ARE WITH UNCLE SAM.

Not Fair, He Says, To Judge All By Sentiments of a Very Few.

As confirmation of the statement made by a Grand Haven pastor that the German population in the northern section of the county are on the whole loyal to the United States in the present war, County School Commissioner N. R. Stanton today declared it as his opinion that the Germans in Chester township are about as loyal as the average person. The Chester Germans are not the ones whose loyalty was called in question, but Mr. Stanton believes that the sentiment among the Germans there is about the same as among other Germans in the county.

Commissioner Stanton has been spending some days in Chester township in connection with his work in the rural schools there and he paid particular attention to how the population feels about the war. There are a large number of Germans there. Some are native born Teutons and some are the second generation, their fathers and mothers having first seen the light of day in Germany. And Mr. Stanton came to the conclusion that they are loyal to Uncle Sam.

"There is no question that a few may occasionally express themselves as against this government," said Mr. Stanton, "but it is these unrepresentative few who always talk the loudest and whose opinions get a lot of publicity. It isn't fair to judge the rest by them. There are a few Hollanders right here in the city of Holland to whom sentiments are attributed that are disloyal, but the rest of the people of Holland would resent it if they were to be judged by the more or less much heralded sentiments of these few."

JUVENILE COURT COMMITS BOY TO LANSING SCHOOL

JUDGE DANHOFF ACTS IN CASE OF HOLLAND LAD; WILL GO TO REFORM SCHOOL

Judge of Probate James J. Danhof in Juvenile court committed Russell Hunderman of Holland to the Industrial school for boys at Lansing on the report of Gerrit J. VanSchelven, superintendent of the poor. On October 2, it was claimed that young Hunderman, who is only 12 years of age entered the residence of Peter Raterink of Holland and took some jewelry and money including gold rings, watches, etc.

According to the story Raterink and his wife were away at work at the time and the boy found the key to the house in the mailbox. When questioned by the Holland police, the lad admitted his guilt and Chief VanRy now has loot in his possession. The boy lives with his foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hunderman and the investigations of the officers revealed that his home and conditions were good. He was sent to the Lansing school to remain until he reaches the age of 15.

DOZEN ASK FOR PERMITS FROM U. S. MARSHAL

Deputy U. S. Marshal Moriarity was in Grand Haven for the purpose of issuing permits to alien enemy subjects which would allow them to approach within the distance provided by the government of public buildings. The deputy established himself at the post-office, but because of the failure of a number of the necessary blanks to arrive on time, he could not complete the issuing of the permits and the work was postponed.

Fully a dozen applied at the post office for alien permits. By alien enemies, the government means all subjects of Germany over 14 years old, and all who have their first papers must also have permits.

OTTAWA COUNTY IS WORTH $47,439,275 ON THE TAX LIST

The state and county taxes in Michigan which become due and payable December 1, will be assessed upon the largest valuation of real and personal property the state has ever known. As compiled from the reports of the county assessors in all counties by the state tax commission, the total valuation of all property in the state, real and personal is $4,022,507,720. Some idea of the enormous jump can be had from the statement of the total last year, which was $3,825,701,140. The assessors, accordingly have found approximately, $400,000,000 more property this year than last. Of this increase the sum of about $250,000,000 has been added in Wayne county.

With the closing of the assessment books this fall there are but 10 or 12 counties which have not been looked over by the state authorities and placed on an actual cash basis. In some counties the commission sent men with the supervisors and explained their methods, so that while the commission itself did not do the work, in most instances the totals were what they would have secured. The counties which are not up to cash value, or have not been reviewed by the commission are small with the exception of Lapeer. This is the only good sized county that has not felt the knife of the commission. Ottawa county's valuation is $47,439,275. Allegan county $41,304,010. Muskegon, $42,617,469. Kent, $222,605,545.

While driving through our village Mrs. Henry Nyenhuis and her two daughters and a young lady from Holland met with an accident. A piece of paper which was blowing across the road frightened the horse and one of the occupants fearing an accident pulled on one of the reins with the result that the buggy was upset. They all landed on top of Mrs. Nyenhuis and with the exception of having two bones in her wrist broken the accident turned out luckily. As there was no runaway, the damage to the harness and buggy was slight.

Dr. A. J. Brower sold his touring car to the firm of Holleman & De Weerd of Zeeland and in exchange has purchased an enclosed Ford Touring car.

While threshing beans on a farm in Salem, John P. Slik who owns the bean huller was repairing certain parts of the machine, one of the belts caught him and in some way or other knocked him to the ground striking on his head. No one knows exactly how the accident occurred but that his head struck the barn floor was evidence as he was bleeding profusely from his nose, ears and mouth when he was found. ZEELAND MAN GOES TO PARIS FOR RESEARCH

DR. PAUL DE KRUIF TO DO WORK IN FAMOUS PASTEUR INSTITUTE.

Captain Paul DeKruif, son of Mrs. Henry DeKruif of Zeeland will leave the latter part of this week for France. Mr. DeKruif will do research work at the Pasteur Institute in Paris. The offer of a captaincy was given him in recognition of his splendid record in research work at the University of Michigan. Dr. DeKruif was formerly a student at Hope College. After he completed a few years work at the State University in Ann Arbor he was given a degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1916. He then engaged in research work under Prof. Noel at the University of Michigan and soon became Assistant bacteriologist.

A few weeks ago Dr. DeKruif enlisted and he received word last week that he was to leave immediately for France. After spending a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. Henry DeKruif of Zeeland, he left this week for Ann Arbor and will leave from there for France. During his absence Mrs. DeKruif and son will continue to make their home in Ann Arbor.

DISLOYAL FARMER IS FROM OVERISEL

Fillmore township, in Allegan county refuses to assume responsibility for the individual who was quoted as saying he was sorry his son would have to fight against his own fatherland. The Allegan Gazette told the story, saying that the old farmer who made this un-American statement was a Hollander living in Fillmore.

Monday Henry Strabbing of Fillmore township declared that the statement had been made to him but that the Dutch farmer who made it was not from Fillmore but from Overisel. According to Strabbing he is well known there and he has lived in this country more than sixty years. But in spite of that he still looks upon Germany as his fatherland, since his family came from Holland near the German border. "Fillmore township doesn't want to own that kind of a man," said Mr. Strabbing. "We are loyal Americans here."

GIVEN POST AS AN INTERPRETER

Word has been received from Tokyo, Japan, that Harvey Oltmans, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. Oltmans, has been appointed interpreter for the United States Ambassador to Japan. Young Oltmans is especially well fitted for this position by reason of the fact that his many years' residence in Japan has given him not only a good working knowledge of that difficult language but it has also made him intimately acquainted with the mental processes of the Japanese people.

Mr. Oltmans spent some years in this country while attending Hope college and later took a course in eye work in Chicago. Returning to Japan a few years ago he has been connected with the St. Luke's Hospital in Tokyo, the largest foreign hospital in Japan.

HOPE CHURCH EXTENDS CALL TO REV. P. P. CHEFF

At a congregational meeting of Hope church Thursday evening it was decided by a practically unanimous vote that a call be extended to the Rev. P. P. Cheff of Zeeland to become the pastor of the church. Mr. Cheff for a number of years has served as pastor of the First Reformed church of Zeeland, and before that he served the Reformed church at Forest Grove.

The Zeeland man whom the local congregation has asked to become its leader has been playing a part of considerable prominence not only in Zeeland where his field of labor lies but through out western Michigan. He is frequently in demand as a speaker at patriotic gatherings in Zeeland, Holland, Grand Rapids and other places. Recently in Holland at a mass meeting he delivered an address which Mr. Booth of the Grand Rapids Press was present declared was the most masterly war address he had heard in any place.

Hope church has been without a pastor ever since the Rev. Dr. A. F. Bruske left the local charge to make his home in California.

The fact that the sentiment for extending a call to the Zeeland man was practically unanimous is taken by the congregation as increasing greatly the chances that they will be successful in securing the services of Mr. Cheff.

HIGH PRICES OF MILK CLOSES OLD CREAMERY

The Fillmore Center Creamery has suspended operations after a successful business for nearly a quarter of a century. The farmers gradually withdrew their patronage and are shipping their milk to the Overton condensary at Allegan which pays them $3.20 per cwt. for 3 1/4% milk, which is practically equivalent to 6 cents per quart with one-way freight cost included. Manager H. J. Kleinheksel stated that in order to operate the creamery at a profit at these prices butter should sell at $1 per pound. A great share of it also goes to the Holland Cheese Factory and Holland Creamery.

BET SUGAR PLANTS TO INCREASE OUTPUT

HOLLAND, ST. LOUIS AND DECATUR FACTORIES BEGIN SLICING THIS WEEK

The beet slicing campaign is in full swing this week at the three factories operated by the Holland-St. Louis Sugar company at Holland and St. Louis, Michigan and Decatur, Indiana, and about one-third of the season's crop has been sliced. The beets are showing a satisfactory test. Manager C. M. McLean states that approximately 125,000 tons of beets will be sliced, producing between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 pounds of sugar. The output this season is expected to be about 25 per cent greater than that of last year. At the Holland factory all the sheds are filled with beets and the beets are lying in large heaps around the factory. Besides the side tracks are filled with cars filled with beets being unloaded.

WEST OLIVE MAN, ON DESTROYER, DROWNED

Washington, Nov. 28.—Casimir A. Majewski of West Olive, Mich., a seaman on the American destroyer Jonett in the war zone, was washed overboard and lost last Wednesday. A dispatch to the navy department said the destroyer's foremast was carried away while Majewski was on lookout duty in forward crow's nest.

Chief of Police Van Ry Monday said that Majewski had not been drafted, but was a volunteer.

FILLMORE OVERSUBSCRIBES Y FUND

Fillmore township Friday announced that it had oversubscribed in the Y. M. C. A. drive. Henry Sagers, chairman of the township committee sent a check for $424.60 to C. R. Wilkes of Allegan, county chairman, while the allotment for Fillmore township was $400, making an oversubscription of $24.60.

The township committee has been putting in some hard lies to make the drive a success and there was general gratification throughout Fillmore that the fund had been oversubscribed.

ENTERTAINMENT NETTED $75.00 FOR THE POOR

Another splendid presentation of "Mater" was given on Friday night in the high school auditorium. The actors were at their best and added to their former enviable record. Much credit is due to Mrs. R. B. Champion and Mrs. A. H. Landwehr who supervised the play.

The Cantillation and tableaux by the Camp Fire Girls furnished an interesting and artistic prelude.

High class music was rendered by two ladies' quartets and the high school orchestra. The Social Service society wishes to thank all who contributed to the success of the entertainment. The proceeds were $75 which will be used in relief work.

MAD DOG SCARE MAY RESULT IN STRICT QUARANTINE

A dog afflicted with the rabies, ran through Grand Haven last Saturday, biting many other dogs in various parts of the town. Those who saw the animal report that it acted strangely and that other dogs seemed afraid of it.

One human life is worth more than all the dogs in the world and if it is true that the strange hound which has ranged the city, had the rabies, then many of the other dogs about town are likewise affected, and perhaps soon reports will come in of people being bitten.

It has been suggested that a stringent quarantine be at once placed upon dogs and that they be locked up as they were in this city some months ago.—Grand Haven Tribune.

GIVES REASONS FOR KILLING OFF CATS AND DOGS

The Grand Rapids Press "Public Pulse" writers during the past week or two have been throwing fits over a recommendation of Dr. Wm. DeKleine formerly of Grand Haven, that all cats and dogs in cities should be killed off as a food conservation measure. In an interview Dr. DeKleine gives his reasons for the statement:

"The average dog eat considerably more food than the average man and it eats identically the same food. What dogs eat human beings are deprived of. While cats don't eat as much as dogs, they consume an enormous amount of wholesome food that ought to be saved for human beings. I am convinced that if the thousands of cats and dogs could be killed the food saved would feed an army."

"Dogs and cats are a real danger to civilization. They cause the health departments an endless amount of trouble. We quarantining a family, including their pets, but the dogs and cats rarely observe it. They run around and do as they like. As a result they are a menace everywhere."

"If it were not for dogs, rabies would not be known, and we could do away with Pasteur institutions. Cats have rabies, too. They get it from dogs. We know this to be true, yet we allow the miserable pets to run at large and bite each other and human beings. Dogs and cats are responsible for the spread of diseases, too. I can't understand why we haven't taken steps long ago to do away with them."

"There are, no doubt, a few useful dogs in existence, such as dogs trained for war work. Such dogs generally are in control and are not nuisances. But the other dogs, the poodle, the pet, the common everyday street dog, are as useless as the cat, and both should be legislated out of existence in all cities."

Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Bouwerman took the interurban for Grand Rapids Tuesday morning.

Austin Harrington was in Grand Rapids Tuesday on business.

OTTAWA BEACH HOTEL FIGURES IN WAR PLAN

GOVERNMENT PROPOSES MAKING IT PART OF RECONSTRUCTION HOSPITAL PLANT.

The Ottawa Beach Hotel is to be converted into a reconstruction hospital, in connection with a project to locate such a hospital in Grand Rapids. According to plans announced by Dr. F. C. Warnshuis of Grand Rapids, formerly of this city and a graduate of Hope college, who has been in Washington for a week conferring with the federal officials, the main plant of the hospital will be located in Grand Rapids, probably in the building of the Owastanong Club at Reeds Lake, and the Ottawa Beach hotel will also be used.

Reconstruction hospitals will be established all over this country to take care of wounded American soldiers who return from the front incapacitated for further war service.

The building of the Owastanong club at Reeds Lake will be used for the hospital, which requires room for from 1,500 to 2,000 beds and patients. Major King, representing the government and with full authority to complete negotiations will arrive in Grand Rapids next Monday, Dec. 3, to arrange for the location of the hospital there.

Government officials declare that the reconstruction hospitals will be in operation from three to five years at least. It is intended to make the hospital headquarters for wounded Wisconsin and Michigan soldiers. The government figures that in addition to the 2,000 patients in the hospital, 500 nurses and attaches will complete the personnel of the institution.

Figures secured by Dr. Warnshuis at Washington show that from $15,000 to $20,000 per day will be expended in Grand Rapids as a result of the government hospital's location there.

Expenses for the patients alone will cost $5,000 daily, according to the government estimates, in addition to which will be the maintenance expenses of the attaches and the money which will be put in circulation by the influx of relatives and friends of the wounded soldiers to be quartered in the hospitals.

Jenison Woman Nails Lie Slandered the Red Cross

A short time ago stories were circulated in Holland and for that matter, in all the chief cities of the country, that the Red Cross ladies were selling the stuff that was being made by the faithful women of the country. It has been shown that these stories were as false as anything could be.

Many stories equally as false have been going the rounds, started by German sympathizers, for the purpose of discouraging those who are doing their share to aid our boys at the front. The stories used to be of a general nature, the same everywhere, but of late they differ in different cities, giving them a local color, which carries more weight.

The latest lying scurrilous fabrication is one being put about claiming to come from Mrs. Jim Irving, mother of Marshall Irving, the young basketball star of Holland High school, now in France.

It seems that Mrs. Irving has been knitting her son a sweater, which she personally sent to him in France. The story attributed to her is that when the sweater was completed it was sent to the Red Cross, and in order that her son Marshall might have a little extra spending money she had sewed a five dollar bill on the inside of the sweater and in that way brought it to the Red Cross.

Then the story goes further and says that instead of sending the sweater to Marshall Irving one of the Red Cross ladies was wearing it and the five dollars was gone.

The story is attributed to Mrs. Irving and she was dumfounded to hear of it for the first time when she came to Holland.

Her statement to this paper is as follows: "I am simply horrified at a nasty lying story credited to me which I heard for the first time when I came to the city to shop. I never sent Marshall's sweater to the Holland Red Cross, but sent it to him personally. I never sewed money in the sweater but what money I did send I sent by Uncle Sam's mail. If I am willing to put my son's life in the care of Uncle Sam, I surely would be willing to trust the money in his care also, and would not resort to any foolish methods of sending it by the sweater route. The story is a lie from beginning to end, made for the purpose of discouraging the good ladies of Holland whom I love. I am away from the city at Jenison and do not come here much over once a week, and you can imagine my surprise to hear this story upon my arrival in Holland. A story that I could not have started in this city even if I wish to, for the reason that I was not in Holland."

Here you have Mrs. Irving's denial of the falsest thing yet circulated in this city. It is a stab in the back of Mrs. Irving's own son and the sons of two hundred other mothers who want their boys to get all the help possible from the American Red Cross. A noble organization does not exist and that the German propaganda can use such heinous tactics thereby discouraging the workers of the Red Cross, so that in this way they may curtail the help that our boys receive thru those channels, goes to show what a damnable unfair foe we are fighting. All Holland patriots should do their best to run down the person who made up this story and the persons who continue to circulate it, without denial. They are cowardly traitors to their own country, to their own family and to the cause of Liberty.

AUSTRIAN IS LOYAL TO THE UNITED STATES

TELLS OTTAWA COURT HE HAS BOUGHT LIBERTY BONDS AND BELIEVES IN US.

Nine new citizens of the United States swore their allegiance to the Stars and Stripes, in circuit court at Grand Haven upon recommendation of H. L. Roethe, of Chicago, United States Naturalization Examiner. Lined up before the desk of County Clerk Orrie J. Sluiter, the little group swore to support and sustain the United States, their new country, which is at present engaged in the greatest war the world has ever known. In the class the former citizens of the Netherlands predominated but England was also represented; even Austria, the ally of an enemy of the United States had a representative in the group.

Three of the twelve applicants failed to gain their citizenship papers. One man was requested to go back home and study and to appear at a future time with a better knowledge of the English language and the American government. One failed to appear and the third was out of the court's jurisdiction.

Those who became citizens were: Wendell Wild, Austria, Grand Haven; Leonard Ver Wert, Netherlands, Grand Haven; Kyrn Dees, Netherlands, Holland; Jans Ver Wege, Netherlands, Holland; Antonio Caruso, Italy, Grand Haven; Boelof C. Vander Lee, Netherlands, Grand Haven; William Knoles, England, Grand Haven; Jacob Troost, Netherlands, Holland; Jacobus Naerbout, Netherlands, Holland.

One of the applicants was a subject of Austria. He proved to be well posted upon the organization of the United States, and answered the preliminary questions readily. "Do you believe in the United States, although your country is practically at war with us?" he was asked. "Yes sir, I do," came the answer in tones which could not be mistaken.

"Did you buy Liberty Bonds?" asked the examiner. "Yes, sir, I did," answered the applicant.

"How many?" "Fifty dollars," replied the Austrian. "I did not have the money so I am paying for it by installments." "I am pleased to recommend this man, your Honor," announced the examiner.

DIEKEMA AGAIN HEADS OTTAWA RED CROSS

Hon. G. J. Diekema was re-elected chairman of the Ottawa County Red Cross at a meeting held Thursday afternoon by the board of directors at the court house in Grand Haven. Mr. Diekema has held this position since the chapter was organized last May.

As vice-chairman, Mrs. R. P. Shoup of Grand Haven was appointed. Atty. Arthur Van Duren is the secretary and G. Van Schelven was named treasurer.

The board of directors was elected at a recent meeting in Holland, and the members of the board in turn appointed the officers.

WERE EXPECTING MORE ALIENS TO REGISTER

There is no way of ascertaining how many alien enemies there are in this district until the official returns are made by the government to the local postoffice authorities. The registration of the alien enemies was completed Saturday afternoon, and at the close of the work the federal officials who were at the postoffice Friday and Saturday for that purpose sealed up their reports, leaving no statistics of what the result of their campaign here is. These reports will be forwarded to the authorities at Washington and returns will be made later to the local postoffice so that the local officials will know who is registered and has therefore the privilege of visiting the local postoffice as usual.

Unofficially the federal officials who did the work here declared Saturday that not as many alien enemies had come to be registered as they had expected. They did not say why they expected more to be present themselves but it is possible that they were looking for a larger number because of the fact that this is a Holland community. The federal officials may have been under the impression that there are many more foreigners here than there really are. As the records of the Ottawa County court show, the Hollander who comes to this country to make America his home is usually very quick about taking out citizenship papers, so that the number of unnaturalized foreigners here is perhaps not as large as is the case in other foreign communities in the United States.

But often the outsiders confuses the Hollander and the German and that may account for the remark of the officials.

Willis Wolters, residing just south of the city in Fillmore township has enlisted in the navy and expects to go Norfolk, Va.

Attorney Arthur Van Duren was in Grand Rapids on legal business Tuesday.

ENEMY ALIENS MAY BE BARRED FROM LAKE MICHIGAN SHORES

MAY NOT BE ALLOWED TO BE WITHIN ONE HUNDRED MILES OF GREAT LAKES

An order may be issued in a few days barring all German aliens from living at any point 100 miles from the coast line of the United States, including the Great Lakes. It would send them far inland and it is estimated that over 600,000 enemy aliens would be affected in the United States.

Federal officials in New York declare that the order barring Germans from the coast line would surely be put in effect, and strong pressure is being brought to have the literal of the Great Lakes be interpreted to mean the coast line. High naval officers say that the Great Lakes should be included, pointing out the numerous fires that have occurred recently in grain elevators along the Great Lakes. They declare until drastic measures are taken the burning of food stores will go on at the pleasure of the Germans.

"The order is drastic," said one official, "but it is necessary. The frequent recurrence of German attempts to destroy cattle and wheat and grain and munitions has made this order imperative."

Billiard Fans to Raise Funds To Provide Field Ambulances

A drive for funds in Holland to boost the American Billiard Players' ambulance fund will be launched next Friday night at the Palace Billiard hall when George Spears, champion straight rail billiard player will stage an exhibition and the billiard players of Holland will be asked to donate to the fund. Every billiard player in the city will be asked to do his bit in helping the nation-wide movement.

There are many devotees of the game here and the campaign will doubtless be a success. In England the cue fans have raised enough money since the war started to equip and put into service more than 300 ambulances. With the prestige and popularity the sport enjoys in this country, it is believed England's efforts can be made to look small beside the American enterprise.

The war department has given the movement its backing. W. P. Duss of New York is the national chairman and Maurice Bailey, who originated the idea has been named national treasurer. George Spears is the chairman and treasurer for Western Michigan. The campaign will close Dec. 15 and any donations may be handed to the local chairman, Chris Korose with the absolute assurance that they will find their way into the National fund. The Palace will stage a special billiard exhibition for the benefit of the fund.

Resolved that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the President and members of the Board of Education of the City of New York and offer them the co-operation of the League in any way they deem proper to aid them in their future work.

11-Year-Old Girl Gives Principals of Food Conservation

The food propaganda work is not confined to the grown-ups. The little ones are beginning to be interested and in some of the local schools the teachers are encouraging the children to think about it and to become familiar with it by having them write essays on how to save food.

Little Virginia Maxted, 11 years old, was perhaps the proudest child in Holland a few days ago when she won a contest in Miss Eva Leenhouts' room in the Washington school by writing the best essay on "Food Conservation." She received a big "E" on the essay and as a prize was given a pin with a Statue of Liberty on it. How well the children are absorbing the conservation ideas is shown by the fact that this little essay contains most of the fundamental principles, the observance of which will make the campaign a success. The prize essay follows:

The Food Conservation

The United States has gone into the great world war. They need not only money and men but also food. Every one must save food so that the men that are serving their country will have enough to eat, and in that way win the war.

The mothers can help in the greatest way by saving the food. They should observe the meatless and wheatless days.

They should not prepare any more food than for one meal. If there is any left it should be made use of.

The children can help by using less sugar in their coffee and tea and by not taking lunches between meals.

One should eat plenty of potatoes, rice and other vegetables, instead of meat and wheat.

One should prepare all food for cooking at one time so as to use less fuel in cooking food.

CITY HOSPITAL IS PROVING ITS VALUE

EIGHT PATIENTS ARE TREATED AT LOCAL INSTITUTION

Holland Hospital is more than proving its value even now, although it has been in operation so short a time that there has not yet been an opportunity for a formal opening. Miss Barencse announces that the hospital is filled to its present capacity. There are eight patients in the place.

The hospital's capacity will be increased soon when additional beds will be placed in it. Additional furniture also is being furnished and in course of time the hospital will be equipped with everything necessary to make it a high class institution.

Of the eight patients now staying there four are women and three are men. One case is a woman from the upper peninsula, one is from East Saugatuck and the others are from Holland.

The hospital now has a well equipped operating room. As soon as some more furniture has been installed a formal opening day will be observed, when the public will be invited to the institution to inspect it.

Even now people are not forgetting the hospital and the patients in it. So many flowers are being sent that Miss Barencse is put to it to find vases in which to place them. She said that people who have vases to spare can do the hospital a service by donating them.

Miss Oelen has been engaged as a nurse in the hospital.

MUCH SUBSCRIBED; LITTLE PAID IN

While the total amount subscribed for the Army Camp Y. M. C. A. fund is $7600 the amount actually paid in at this time is $3161.69. The impression might obtain that $7600 is already paid in and that there does not exist the immediate need for further payment. This is not the case.

The pledges total $7600 of which $3161.69 is paid. The balance is still in the form of pledges. When these pledges are paid we will have gone "Over the Top" in our Y. M. C. A. drive.

C. E. UNION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The Christian Endeavor Union of the City, consisting of the C. E. Societies of the Reformed churches of Holland, held its annual business meeting Thursday evening at which reports of the year's work were given by the various committees. About one hundred were present at the gathering in the Fourth Reformed church, and Henry Geerlings gave a talk on C. E. work in Holland.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows. President, Bert Van Ark; secretary, Mrs. Fred Meyers; treasurer, P. Van Dommelen.

TRINITY PASTOR TO STAY IN HOLLAND

REV. JOHN VAN PEURSEM DECLINES CALL FROM KALAMAZOO CONGREGATION

The loyalty of his congregation here to himself and to his work won the Thursday afternoon when Rev. J. Van Peursem, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, sent a telegram to the Second Reformed church of Kalamazoo declining the call extended to him recently by that congregation. The Kalamazoo call was a very desirable one in very many respects and much pressure was brought to bear by that congregation to secure a favorable verdict; but the appeal of the local people won out.

This is the seventh time that another congregation has tried to secure the services of Mr. Van Peursem since he came to Holland nearly six years ago, but each time he has decided to remain. Before coming to Holland Mr. Van Peursem served for four years as pastor of Trinity church, Chicago, and before that for three years as pastor of the Reformed church at Coopersville.

ZEELAND MAKES GOOD RECORD IN Y DRIVE

In the Y. M. C. A. drive, the allotment set for Blendon, Georgetown, Jamestown and Zeeland townships, including the city of Zeeland, has been oversubscribed by $500. The pledges from Zeeland city are now $1250. From the country as follows:

Blendon, $90; Vriesland, $110; Drenthe, $100; Beaverdam, $180; Jamestown, $231; Forest Grove, $250; Hudsonville and part of Jenison, $290; total, $1251.

This gives the rural districts the lead of one dollar. Treasurer John Donia reports that the gifts are still being in by individuals and by the solicitors.

QUOTES ADDRESS OF FORMER LOCAL MAN

The New Amsterdam, (New York) Courier, quotes at length a patriotic address delivered in that city by Rev. C. Muste, formerly of this city. The address was in connection with the recent Y campaign. Referring to the symbolism of the flag Mr. Muste said: "The red in our flag symbolizing sacrifice is being lived up to with the red blood of the Allies and Americans mingling with the red of the flag. There is no fear of the blue for loyalty not being lived up to, but the white for purity is always in fear of stain. There is no agency in the whole world today that is doing so much to keep the boy who is at the front pure and clean and to send him back to his mother as he was when he went as the Y. M. C. A. The Y takes charge of a soldier and tides him over the terrible hour of reaction when he comes out of that pit of hell, and if not let down easy, would drive him stark mad. He needs music to soothe his nerves, entertainment to direct his thoughts away from war, and pen, paper and ink to keep him in touch with mother and home."

FIRMS ASKED TO GIVE DATA FOR NEW TAX

HOLLAND CONCERNS MUST SUPPLY INFORMATION TO INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR

Internal Revenue Collector Emanuel J. Doyle of Grand Rapids has begun work to collect income taxes under the new schedule. Most of the firms in Holland have received requests to this end. The tax will hit a good many. All unmarried persons having an income of $1,000 must pay and all married persons earning $2,000 a year.

The following communication has been sent by Mr. Doyle to Holland concerns:

"The Act of Oct. 3, 1917, requires persons having a net income of $2,000 and single persons having a net income of $1,000 to file a return for the year 1917, between Jan. 1 and March 1, '18. Those who do not so report will be subject to fines and penalties.

"You are requested to mail to this office a list of all persons, with addresses, in your employ to whom you have paid or will pay salaries, wages or commissions during 1917 in sufficient amounts to make them subject to the above requirements. This office will in the latter part of December mail to each a blank that he or she may be prepared to give the matter of making a report proper consideration.

"In preparing this list it is not necessary to give the names of persons you may know who in previous years made returns as their names are now on the mailing list. Persons whom you know to be married and receiving less than $2,000 should not be reported.

"In furnishing this list you are doing no injury to your employees, but rather a favor you are rendering them in removing the probability of penalties and fines. No suggestion of unfair or dishonorable conduct can be imputed to you by them in rendering to your country this valuable service. The information you give will be held strictly confidential."

TO GIVE LEGAL ADVICE TO THE REGISTRANTS

THAT WILL BE DUTY OF THE NEW BOARD CREATED IN THIS DISTRICT.

The local draft board has recommended the appointment of the following as members of the legal advisory board for the second district of Ottawa county: Atty. D. Ten Cate and Atty. T. N. Robinson of Holland, J. Den Herder and C. Roosenraad of Zeeland and Fred Me Eachorn of Hudsonville. The names have been recommended to the department which is practically equivalent to appointment as the local board's wishes are nearly always followed.

The legal advisory board will serve without pay. It is appointed for the purpose of giving the registrants legal advisors who can help them with questions that may present themselves when they begin to study their questionnaires. The men named will in effect be counsel for the registrants and can be called upon by the latter for assistance.

It will also be the duty of these legal advisors to help the registrants get properly classified. All of the nine million registered men will be placed in classes by the government and on the classification will to a large extent depend in what capacity the men will be called upon to serve the government. The classifying of the men depends upon a number of considerations, many of them often complicated, and the legal advisors can help the registered men to get into the right governmental pew.

Another board that will be created in the Second district of Ottawa county is a medical advisory board. This body will also be for the benefit of the registrants. This board will act in cases where the registrants wish to appeal from the decisions of the examining physicians of the local board. The members of this body have not yet been appointed.

FALSE YARNS OF EPIDEMICS ARE BEING DENIED

OTTAWA NAVAL HERO

IS KNOWN IN CITY;

JOINED IN CHICAGO

Casimer Majewski, the Ottawa county lad who lost his life, when the forward fast of the U. S. Destroyer Jonett went overboard in a sea in the war zone Saturday, was known by a number of people in this city. Majewski enlisted in the navy at Chicago this spring, and his mother, Mrs. Meltzer lives on a farm known as the Charles Beyers place in Olive. The farm adjoins that of Thomas Sheehan. The young sailor visited his mother just before leaving for the war zone and at that time a number of his acquaintances here saw him.

SAME TACTICS USED IN OTHER CITIES

RED CROSS SLANDERS SPREAD THERE AS THEY WERE HERE.

Holland is not the only city in which the tactics are being used of slandering the Red Cross by using the name of a local woman to whom is attributed statements derogatory to that organization, as was done in the case of Mrs. Jim Irving. Reports are coming from Detroit and various other cities showing that in each case the name of some local woman has been used to give these stories greater verisimilitude. But as was the case here the women are coming forward and indignantly denying the tales, so that the slanders are acting as boomerangs to the persons spreading them.

SCHOOLS ASKED TO HELP THE REGISTRANTS

The registrants who must answer a small volume of questions put to them by the government in the official questionnaire sent out by the draft board will not lack for assistance to lead them through the maze of queries with their various complications. County School Commissioner Stanton has been asked by the governor to request all his teachers in Ottawa county to help the registrants who may need assistance, and the same request for the cities of Ottawa county has been made to the city school superintendents.

The greatest problem of securing the required help was in connection with the rural districts. In the cities the registrants can apply to attorneys, most of whom will give the required information, but in the country the boys had no one to turn to who had the required training to give clearcut answers in plain English to the various questions. So the plan of pressing the school teachers into the service has been hit upon and they will have a great opportunity to do their country a great service by assisting the registrants to make their returns to the government promptly.

The same system will be carried out in all the counties of the state.

In many of the counties also the bar associations are passing resolutions to the effect that all attorneys will give their services to the registrants free of charge in connection with the filling out of the questionnaire.

The questionnaire will have to be returned to the government by December 15 and it is important that there shall be no delay to throw the machinery out working order.

CLEAR SCHOOLS OF TEACHERS NOT LOYAL

A national movement has been started to clear out from the schools of America all teachers who are not positively pro-American. Supt. E. E. Fell and Mayor Vanderschuer have received copies of a resolution adopted at the meeting of executive committee of the National Security League in New York City, touching on this point. The campaign is for the purpose not only of removing the pro-German teachers but the luke-warm teachers as well on the principle that those who are not for us are against us. So far as known there are no such teachers in Holland, but the resolution which follows is brought to the attention of schools in all cities:

Whereas wars are now waged not only by armies, but also entire peoples, and it is the spirit of the people of the Allied nations which must win victories, we look with grave concern upon the alleged seditious views of certain teachers as a menace to the lives of our men in the Army and navy;

Resolved, that without prejudging the actions or views of any particular teacher or reflecting upon the vast majority of our teachers who are loyal and patriotic, we urge upon the Board of Education of the City of New York, and, in fact, of all cities, to remove from their teaching staff forthwith any teacher who is proven not to be supporting the conduct of the war and not upholding the Federal Government with absolute loyalty;

Resolved, that as a national necessity and as a war measure, we call upon every Board of Education, School Commissioner and School Committee to put into the curriculum of the schools without delay as a part of each day's actual tuition the facts showing why we are at war with Germany, the danger of failure to this country and the duty of every American to support the conduct of the war loyally and by service.

them, for the stricken Armenians and Syrians in and out of Turkey

Some of the local churches have already taken up collections for this cause and some will do so again.

What has been happening to these people is the worst that has ever been inflicted on the human race.

Four hundred thousand or more orphans are today destitute in Bible lands. A missionary just returned from Syria tells of passing through a village whose houses were all deserted, with the exception of one little cottage in whose doorway sat a tiny girl. The child had the face of an old woman as she rocked back and forth droning "I'm hungry." Multiply this instance by thousands; add it to the cases of thousands more who have been gathered into orphanages; and some idea of the plight of the children in Western Asia today may be gathered. Die by the thousands they must unless help can reach them soon. The death rate in Lebanon alone last winter was a thousand a day. It will be vastly greater this winter unless we send relief and send quickly. A telegram says:

"Estimates place the number of Armenian and Syrian refugees in Caucasus at 250,000, Eastern Turkey, 100,000 and the total slowly increasing by newcomers; 250,000 of these are without employment. Many of them women and children. To meet needs of situation minimum an estimate $500,000 per month. Conditions reported in previous telegrams now more acute. The committee urge support for fatherless children in homes. 5,000 now on lists, about 15,000 others require immediate help, widows as well as children."

Hundreds of thousands of the destitute are refugees and exiles in the Russian Caucasus, Persia, Mesopotamia and elsewhere outside of Turkish dominions. These alone would more than exhaust committee's available funds. But within the Turkish empire channels of relief are open and distribution by American missionaries and other responsible neutrals is effective with increasing friendliness on the part of the Turkish officials

COAST GUARD ARE LEARNING OF WAR RISK INSURANCE

Keepers Robinson of South Haven, Sammet of St. Joseph and Gatsfield of Muskegon No. 1, Surfmen Toft of Fisher of Montague are in Grand Haven receiving instruction from Ship's Michigan City, Roe of Holland and writer James Keltie on the war risk insurance plan which has been extended by the government to the men of the army and navy. The coast guard service is under the navy department in war times and its members are therefore eligible to the insurance.

Three men from the coast guard service were recently delegated to Washington to receive instruction in the plan, and four men in the local lake district have been detailed to instruct the men in the two districts. The men detailed for this work in this district are Keeper Signal Johnson of Sleeping Bear Point, Keeper Frank Partridge of Charlevoix, Keeper Eli Pugh of Ludington and Ship's Writer James Keltie of the superintendent's office in this city.

The instruction is carried on by the means of a definite plan. The men who are in Grand Haven carry the information back to their respective crews. Every member of the coast guard service is being urged to take the government's insurance of from $1,000 to $10,000.

There are undisputed signs of diseased tonsils, and they are so common that no one may be deceived. That tired feeling, bad breath, deafness swollen glands of the neck, and rheumatism are almost certain indications that the tonsils are in an unhealthy condition.

To remove these diseased requires not more than thirty seconds, and there is no ill after effects. If you have any of the above symptoms, consult a specialist at once. If you will write to me I will send you one of the new folders dealing with diseases of the tonsils, or call at my office and I will make an examination free of charge.—Educational Publicity.

SAYS GERMANS IN WEST OLIVE NOT DISLOYAL

There are many German residents of Grand Haven and the surrounding community, who resent the claim recently published in a Zeeland paper to the effect that Germans around West Olive and vicinity are not loyal to the U. S. A. While there may be unnaturalized Germans there, upon whom the United States has no claim of loyalty, there are also many good people of German blood, who have declared their loyalty to America. These people will be with the United States, no matter what happens, it is declared. Naturally though they resent a statement which might seem to imply that all Germans in a certain community were disloyal.

There may have been occasions, they point out when residents of German blood have said more than any citizen should say at a time like this but it is claimed this has happened only in a few cases, when they have been taunted with greatly magnified accusations, which it is impossible for them to believe.

There are about fourteen families attending the Lutheran church in Grand Haven and part of Olive township. In speaking of the incident this morning, Rev. J. Hoeness, pastor of the Lutheran church in Gr. Haven whose parish extends over the country territory, was grieved that any accusation of disloyalty should be lodged against citizens of German blood without discrimination. Mr. Hoeness stated that while not all the German residents of the territory south of Grand Haven were in his flock, he was confident that his people and the majority of the German-residents were loyal citizens of the United States.

The people he said had left the Fatherland behind them and sworn their allegiance to the United States. Today altho the war affects the Fatherland, and altho their own flesh and blood makes up its armies, they are with the United States until the last, and no matter what happened.

Many of the farmers were not in a position to buy Liberty bonds, he said, and many whom he knew personally had bought them tho they had to pinch themselves. From his pulpit, Rev. Mr. Hoeness has preached loyalty to the Stars and Stripes. He has advised his people to control themselves, altho unfair accusations are made against them. While there may be one or two unwise ones, Mr. Hoeness believes the naturalized Germans of Ottawa county are strictly loyal and purely American in their attitude in this war, no matter what their decision has cost them.

Says West Olive Germans Not As Loyal as Supposed

Recently the News printed a little story telling how two Holland men canvassed the German district near West Olive and sold Liberty Bonds to all they asked with only one exception. Though the purchase of a Liberty bond does not necessarily prove a man's loyalty, since they are sometimes bought as a blind, the Holland men got the impression that the German population in that section were loyal to the United States.

The Zeeland Record last week expressed another opinion in regard to these people. Here it is:

"One of our esteemed citizens has just returned from a trip thru West Olive and the German settlement between there and Grand Haven, and reports that the much vaunted loyalty of the Germans in that territory is a myth. Those papers which have been distributing these reports are requested to make an investigation, and it is predicted that they will find conditions not as promising as they reported. Our informant states that only a small percentage of them have purchased Liberty Bonds, and one old man is so radically pro-German that only his age stands between him and summary punishment."

New Citizen Wants New Old Glory on City Hall

A peep at the flag-staff of the City Hall will show plainly what prompted a letter and a check for $5 sent by one of Holland's new citizens, namely Frank A. Ogden, manager of the Knickerbocker theater.

The flag sure looks as if it had gone thru one of Gen. Haig's recent battles in Flanders. The flag was in very frazzled condition before the recent storm, but two days ago the wind finished the job, as will be noticed by Mr. Ogden's letter which contains $5. Very little more will be needed to buy a new flag, to replace the old one that has served its purpose for the past half year.

The old one can be placed in the archives of the city or be burned as the government prescribes. It can be used for no other purpose.

The check was promptly sent to Mayor Vandersluijs and the letter from the congenial theater manager follows below:

Nov. 23, 1917

Mr. Ben Mulder, City, Dear Mr. Mulder—

I was reading where the City Fathers have put up $15 for a picture of our President.

I wonder if they ever stopped to look at the City Hall flag?

I'm in Holland to stay and as a resident of the city I think we need a flag that strangers will talk about. Sure, they will talk about this one, but it will be funny-bone talk. Let's get up a popular subscription for a big, dandy flag to float over that big fine building, (Holland is surely blessed with two fine buildings—The City Hall and the Knickerbocker).

You get up the subscription through your valuable papers. I'll start the ball rolling with a $5 check enclosed. What do you think about it?

Yours for the good of Holland, Frank A. Ogden.

The proceeds will be used towards building grandstands for Holland's new municipal athletic park. The officers of the league are: President H. Van Tongeren; vice-president, G. Lage; secretary-treasurer, Bert Vander Poel.

Wanted To Be the King Bee In His Own Household

A Bohemian named Mike Laga, whipped his wife because he claimed she wanted to be boss. After he had licked her to second place in the family, he chased her out of the house and she sought refuge in the weighing house of the Holland Sugar Co., where she was called into service.

Laga had been drinking, it is said, and when brought before Justice Robinson he paid a fine of $4.25 and signed the pledge. He insisted that he would be the king bee in future however.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING AT HOME OF MR. W. J. WESTVEER

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Westveer delightfully entertained the teachers of the Sunday school of the Third Reformed church at their home Friday evening. There were 65 present. It was the largest attendance in the history of the quarterly meetings. The program was inspiring and interesting. Instructional papers were read by Misses Harriet Stokette, Evelyn Zwemer and Florence Dabbink. The three delegates who attended the Michigan State Sunday School Association gave splendid reports. Mr. B. Du Mez discussed the Teacher Training; Miss Amelia Sywassink had made a specialty of the Junior work; and Miss Jean Klumper reviewed the teen age conferences. Three minute talks were given by those who were not officially accredited delegates to the Detroit Convention and they gave their impressions.

This Sunday School alone sent 21 representatives to the convention. Mrs. Waltz and the Ukele Orchestra rendered splendid music. Committees were appointed to consider the advisability of organizing a Teachers' Training Course; the grading of the Secondary Department; the Christmas entertainment and the Lesson Helps for the ensuing year.

AFTER THE WAR THEY SHOULD SEND SUCH BACK AGAIN

Allegan Gazette—One of the men who came to Allegan to see his son off to Camp Custer was a Hollander whose name for the present shall be omitted. He was born near the German line in Holland but had been a resident of Fillmore township, this county, more than sixty years. He has been known in his community as a pro-German ever since the outbreak of the war. When here he was still expressing his sympathy with Germany in this war with the United States and concluded with this outrageous utterance: "The worst of it is that I must see my boy go to fight against my own country." He was sharply called to account by one of his neighbors for this. If a man cannot become an American citizen in law and sentiment and loyalty within 60 years he is of no use here and ought to be sent back to help his liege-lord the Kaiser. He is unworthy the blessings he has so long enjoyed of a free country and the dignity and advantages of American citizenship.

ROAD WORK IN ALLE- GAN PROGRESSING

The stretch of stone road in Douglas village from the limits to Murt's corners has been completed.

It had been hoped the similar road in the northern portion of Saugatuck village might also have been built this fall but it is impossible to procure the coarse stone material, and it has been decided to postpone the job until next spring.

On the Gibson road it is intended to put local gravel on a stretch of a mile and a half. It has been found that the Purdy pit, which has been counted on to supply gravel for road work in that part of the township, does not contain a quantity sufficient for the purpose, so some of the contemplated improvements will have to wait.

For the mile of improvement it is hoped to make on the north town-line road gravel will have to be hauled from a distance, as there is none in the vicinity.

On the south town line, where three miles of gravel road was to be made, work is under way on the west mile and a half of the stretch, which is the portion allotted to this township. The eastern, allotted to Ganges township, has been finished, and when the gravel becomes thoroughly packed it is said this will be an excellent piece of road. There was some complaint that the road was made almost impassable at a time of year when it was most used, but the job was a long one and gravel could not be secured earlier.

HARD TO GET AWAY WITH FALSEHOODS

Withing a few weeks now the registered men of the Second District of Ottawa County will receive their questionnaires and then the 2277 men registered in this district will begin the struggle with the giving of information the government wants. One look at the number of questions to be answered may be enough to scare out the average person. There are sixteen pages of questions in the document.

But the young man in this district who thinks that he can put one over on the government in making out his questionnaire has another guess coming, according to D. F. Boonstra, secretary of the local draft board. "Any man who can lie about himself and get away with it would almost deserve to be let off—he's too blamed smart for the army or anything else," said Mr. Boonstra.

The questionnaire, according to the members of the draft board who have studied it, is like the constitution, a matter of checks and balances. But mainly checks. Every question is checked up in the most amazingly clever way by other questions that follow it later on in the document. If a man says something about himself that is not strictly true, it is pretty certain that later on he will say something else about himself that will not correspond to the first fib, and in that way he will be his own accuser. And the queer part about it is that in most cases it will be practically impossible for him to detect it himself.

But the officials will have all kinds of means of checking up all the questions, and it will be a particularly bright young man who will get away with the untruths.

MAN WHO STRUCK JOHN KONING GETS LIMIT OF LAW

Allegan Gazette—Samuel VanBooven the tough from Chicago, who recently used indecent language in the presence of women on an interurban car between Saugatuck and Holland, and also struck John Koning the veteran hardware man, who objected, got the limit of the law Monday when he pleaded guilty before Justice Brady. He was fined $100 and costs of $10.15 and in default of payment he will be kept in jail 90 days. This is a good sample of what justices should do but which they too infrequently fail to perform. A little more stern action in justice courts is most desirable. Van Booven had been told that he probably would get "a good one" from Justice Brady but there was nothing else for him to do but to plead guilty. There were eight witnesses to his vile language and his brutal conduct and he could not escape the penalty. Justice Brady told him his guilt deserved more than the law permitted a justice to impose and that, while he took no pleasure in assessing penalties, there was nothing for him to do but impose the limit of the law. Justice Brady is a smiling, good-natured man and he might be suspected of going "easy" but he is not. He has always shown a disposition to deal with law violators as the laws intends he should, and he therefore has the respect and esteem of all good citizens.

Letter from Harold Karsten

Pt. Oglethorpe, Ga.,
Nov. 19, 1917

Dear Bro. Geo. R.

You can see how busy I am from the number of times I write home. When I do not feel like doing anything else then I want to write and have written so many letters that I don't know who to write to any more. I want to tell you how I spent last Sunday. Got up regular time 6:30 had breakfast, looked around some, played the victrola and the piano and played checkers for a while and then wrote some letters. Attended Sunday school in the Y. M. C. A. building. That lasted until 11:30 then mess at 12. After mess Al Van Nederyn and I took a peach of a walk through the woods. Found a nice shady spot where we laid down and spent an hour watching the squirrels and talking of home. We had a splendid talk also about how hard a fellow should try to lead a clean life in the army and how easy it really is to stay straight if a fellow wishes to. Al and I have had many talks like that in the woods and we enjoy it. Then we walked over to the trenches, and thru the dug outs, the tunnels and the trenches also. We tried to get thru the wire entanglements but believe me its some hard job. Then we walked over to the German camp for prisoners caught as spies, tee. Everything is so interesting around here. Something new all the time.

At three o'clock an entertainment was given by some ladies from Chattanooga in the Y. It was very good. They had violin, piano and vocal solos. At 5:10 mess was sounded and believe me we beat it as fast as we could. After mess we fooled around till 6:30 then went to church and what do you think I was asked to play the piano. Gee it seemed funny to be up on the platform in front of more than 500 soldiers. The sermon was good. Subject was "We neither know the hour or day when the son of man cometh."

About 11 fellows came forward when a chance was given for those who wished to turn over a new leaf. After church we had our Christian League, which we hold in separate rooms in which about 20 or 25 fellows discuss things that any one wishes to bring up. Al is president, Bernie Mulder is secretary and I am organist, and we have some good meetings in our rooms. Yesterday morning I was the happiest fellow in camp when I got that letter forwarded to me from Columbus. Always before I had to stand around watching the other fellows reading their mail. Knowing there was none for me as it was impossible to reach me yet. When I got that letter I bet they could see me smile for a mile. I am so thankful that I struck such a nice place. I am perfectly O. K. healthy as a horse.

Saturday evening Al and I went to a church social in Chattanooga and had a fine time. You see every Saturday evening several churches in Chattanooga give socials for the soldiers and hundreds of them go. They surely treat the soldiers fine.

Now I must close. It's 9 o'clock and I want to get in a couple of hours practice before noon. Tell everybody to write. With much love to all,

Your brother,

Harold.

P. S.—What do you suppose I have done? Have turned professor. You see they teach French, German and English in the Y building and I was asked to take a class in English. Was afraid to tackle it but offered to try, so am now teaching English from 6 to 7 every evening except Saturday and Sunday. Have a class of nine Italians who can not read, write, speak or understand a word of English. Some job, but I make them understand by motions, etc. Getting along fine so far. Had them a week now. They are about 30-31 years old. They call me professor.

The Y. M. C. A. is surely doing good work and I am doing all I can to help.

More later,

Harold Karsten.

Camp MacArthur, Nov. 18, '17

Dear Cousin—

Well as this is Sunday afternoon and have a little time to write a few lines, but haven't much news, at present. I am feeling fine; hope the same of you out there. The weather is a little cool out here and it rained yesterday, it sure did make it dirty as this is very nasty ground when it rains, and it made it cool out doors, wish we had a stove in our tent. Well we are very busy nowadays and will stay that way for awhile I think. I sure do like my work as it is great to work with horses again after we get all of our horses we will be signed up for two and will have to take care of them ourselves, and it sure will seem good again to walk around horses. Well it is supper time and it is sure cold here and we haven't a stove in our tent, but then we are a pretty warm-blooded bunch else we would go for a stove.

Will close now hoping to hear from you soon. Good bye.

Your cousin,
PETER SIERSMA,

Letters From the Front

U. S. Training Sta.
Co. 61 Naval Operating Base,
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 26, 1917

Dear Parents:

Well I haven't heard from you since we left Baltimore, October 31st. We have trouble as our mail is held up some place. We have left St. Helena and are now at the Naval Base at Hampton Roads under our old Commander, Captain Macklin. It sure is some place, it is located on the old Jamestown exposition grounds at the junction of the Chesapeake and the Atlantic ocean. This is the largest naval yards and base in the U. S. Hampton Roads right in front of camp is the home of the Atlantic fleet and some of the largest dry docks in the world are here, also the naval hydroplane school is here in our own camp and the Curtis school of airplanes across the bay so aeroplanes are as thick around here as Fords in Holland. The first day we were here we had the Field Commander nearly crazy, we'd be marching around the field and every five minutes we would start looking up at the aeroplanes. Some land out on the Grinder where the boys drill. One G. R. boy drives one and he loops the loop and turns over sideways and hen does the Dead leaf falls nearly to the ground. Say you read about the fire at Baltimore on the piers. Well I was at that fire until 3 a. m. It was burning the next night when we left on the boat. We live in nice bungalows nine in each one; we sleep in hammocks and there are two steam radiators and electric lights and two nice large library tables and each one of us has a folding camp stool to sit on. We are quite comfortable here. I got a month's pay today and will send half home as soon as I get to town where I can get a money order. We have a light on our porch and hot and cold showers but we are in the detention camp and have to cases of measles and some mumps in camp, so we don't get much lib.

write soon, hoping you are all in good health as I keep on getting fatter every day. How was the picture?

Your loving son,

Marion Buttles.

Holland Sentinel, Holland, Mich.

It is Saturday night and we are sitting in the Y. M. C. A. waiting to hear a lecture by Dr. Holt of Chicago. We always attend the lectures for the boys enjoy them. These Y's are certainly a great thing for the soldiers if it wasn't for them we wouldn't know what to do nights. Two nights they have movies, one night the soldiers themselves put on an entertainment of boxing and wrestling tricks, etc. other nights they have lectures, singing and Sundays services. We also must thank the people of Holland for doing more than their share for such a good cause. We are having the best kind of weather over here and the most of us are enjoying the best of health. We drill eight hours a day except Wednesdays and Saturdays afternoons when the boys do their washing and have their athletics. I played ball last Saturday and happened to sprain my foot a little bit but it is better now. Twice a week they take us out on a hike once day times and once at night for four hours and the boys are pretty well all in when they hit their bunks and are soon fast asleep. As a whole we like the drilling here a little better than in Battle Creek. As first we (or I) were a little homesick, but I soon got in with the fellows and am making good with them. I am in Co. L 126 Inf. National Guards consisting mostly of Grand Haven boys under the leadership of Capt. Oelsen. Those Grand Haven people certainly think of their boys here. Last week they sent them a check for $127.65 for their Thanksgiving dinner and 13 barrels and 2 boxes of fruits. Muskegon just sent two (2) thousand dollars for Co. L's and Co. I and I for one think that Holland ought to get in on a little of this and think of their boys who are in training here; it isn't all sport to be down here 1600 miles from home and not have any of the comforts of a modern home. They must remember that we are here to do our duty for our country and keep Old Glory on this earth and are willing to sacrifice our lives for it. What more can we do? Now do your share and do a little for our sake.

From a Holland Private at Camp MacArthur.

Letter from Ben Rutgers

Nov. 20, 1917

Dear Editor:—

Four days at this camp and I thot it time to let friends know of my whereabouts. This will be a surprise to many in fact it was for myself, because we heard so many rumors about leaving from time to time that I lost all faith in any of the reports until we actually began to pack up.

You know, a marines life is like a game of checkers, continually moving, this camp seems to be the king row and after this, the high jump.

We left Friday morning early on a troop train, and after a lot of stops and delays we arrived there about 9 P. M. I hated to leave Buck and Gerrit as we were together most all the summer and I will surely miss the Philadelphia's hospitality but this life here is real soldiering, still I guess you know all about Quantico thru Marsh and Cobb and the other fellows.

At present our battalion is situated on Infantry Hill, but we are really supposed to be quartered across the railroad tracks in the Artillery Camp. As soon as a few companies leave we will move over there I think.

Last Sunday I took a walk to the trenches and the rifle range. The trenches are really wonderful, with machine gun pits and under ground passages, sometimes 16 feet below the surface. One place we came to a little wooden door and went down some steps crawling and feeling our way thru the inky blackness, the passage way gradually led upwards and we came to the surface under a roll of bushes which concealed the opening about thirty feet in front of the trenches.

Today I was put on the truck and tractor section and I drove a large tractor this afternoon. They remind one of an elephant, so large and clumsy, but nothing can stop them when they are once started. They are not so hard to manipulate, only one has to keep cool headed; after I get out the service I will be able to apply for work on one of the City Rollers.

Thank you for the Sentinels I received two this afternoon, transferred from Philadelphia, so now will you send them direct.

I am going to try and get a furlough soon, would like to come home Xmas. Well good friends, don't forget the boys in your prayers, because we surely need them. I must say good-night now, almost time for taps.

Sincerely,

BEN RUTGERS,
Quantico, Va., H. A. F. 19th Co.

November 23, 1917

Army life is a great life if you don't weaken. We are getting drilled eight hours a day and school from 7 to 8 P. M. Army life is the only life for a true American. I have been musician of the guard at Headquarters for about six weeks and like it fine and wish some of my old schoolmates would join the army and come up here. I haven't run across a person since I have been in the army that I knew before I enlisted and it makes it kind of lonesome.

We pressed our pants and coat by a new method; we wash them till they are pressed and then we dry them and sleep on them to keep them pressed. We have the Holland Dry Cleaners beat for service—maybe.

A couple of other fellows and I have invented a pudding which we call trench pudding. Now if we got enough to eat we would not eat this: 2 bowls of oatmeal, one cup of flour, a week's saving of sugar, 1 cupful and some condensed milk, if it happens we can lift a can out of the mess sergeant's gentle hands(!), boil it till it comes to a thick substance then if you can't manage to eat it throw it away. But don't let this bother those young fellows joining the army. When I come back if I come back, I want to see a lot of those who have been in the army and don't forget there's old glory to defend. Boys do your duty. Tell them to write to Musician Eastman,
Q. M. C. Supply 305 Madison Barracks, New York.

Letter from Camp Mac Arthur

Camp MacArthur, Waco Tex.,

November 19, 1917

Editor of the Sentinel:

Dear Sir:—

A few lines to thank you for the papers I have received. It is needless to say I enjoy reading them. I am sure the kindness extended by the Sentinel to the boys of Holland will always be remembered and appreciated. I would have written my thanks before but have been very busy the past few weeks. I have been attending Divisional School studying Field Fortifications. I finished the course of study a few days ago and now am instructing my battalion in the work. A battalion consists of four companies (250 men per company) so you can readily see I have but little spare time. However I am not the only busy man in camp. Every man is going through a course of training that when completed will make him a wonderful fighting machine. The boys are going after the work with an eagerness that looks bad for Kaiser Bill. Our one great wish is to get in to the game as soon as possible. I see by the Sentinel that some of Holland's boys have already crossed. They are certainly lucky. However, I do not think it will be long before we will all be across and into it. In the meantime we are shaping ourselves into bitter pills for the Boches. It is now 6 p. m. time for chow (supper) so will bring this to a close. Regards to Gally and the rest. Thanking you again for the papers, I am

Respectfully yours,

Sergeant L. J. Purchase,
Co. D. 126th Inf. Camp Mac Arthur,
Waco, Texas.

Letter from the Front

Cape May, N. J. Nov. 19

Gentlemen:—

The first thing I do when I receive a Sentinel is to look for letters from fellows in the service. I am always disappointed when I don't find any. If all the fellows wrote as seldom as I do there wouldn't be very many in. It always makes me smile when I read the heading "Letters from the Front". Why us poor unfortunate dubs are in no more danger in the States than we would be in our home town.

Well, I've changed stations since being home. We left Philadelphia Oct. 14. The extension of my furlough was refused on account of the company leaving so soon.

When I was home I said I thot the company would go across the pond soon. Several changes have taken place, however, in the meantime. Several men were transferred to the company and then it was split up into five companies, four of them going to Mi-neola, Long Island, New York, the army aviation field and we down here. One of the companies that went to Mi-neola is on its way across now. How I long to be with them.

We have a nice place here. We are three and one-fourth miles from Cape May proper. If we want to go to town we call up for a bus.

We have wooden barracks fitted with steam heat which is certainly a great comfort. Within a very few days we expect the electric lights connected and water to be turned on. We now have to walk about three-fourths of a mile to Seaman's barracks to take a bath. There are an even 100 men in our company now.

We have five seaplanes in running order and five still boxed up so you see we can smash a few and still get along. That is not unusual in training. Two have already been smashed up since being here. One by an officer and one by an enlisted man from Detroit. They cost $18,500 so you see its quite a loss to the government when one is wrecked. This is a navy postal air station. We patrol the coast and instruct at the same time.

I'm afraid we'll be here till next spring. It would not do any good to kick so we'll have to take it good-naturedly.

I hope to be in old Holland around New Years for a couple of days.

I think this will do till next time.

Pvt. Marius J. Kole.
P. S.—I want to thank you most heartily for your paper. I am getting it quite regularly here.

COST OF COAL INCREASES ES LIGHT RATES

GRAND HAVEN CITY COMPELLED TO RAISE PRICE OF JUICE

The city of Grand Haven like every other business organization in the country is compelled to get more for its commodities because of the raise in the cost of operation. Accordingly at the meeting of the Council Thursday night the bill providing for an increase in light and power rates furnished by the city plant was passed. The change of rate will take effect with the December billing.

The increase in rate will amount to about one cent a kilowatt to the smaller consumer. The price is proportionately raised on commercial light and power, placing the earning power of the city plant on a more satisfactory basis. Even with the increase the rates are still much lower for both light and power than those charged for by the power and light companies who manufacture juice for sale to private consumers. The power rate has always been down below reason in this city and the raise is absolutely necessary now to avoid a complete loss in the department.

While the rates have remained stationary for a long time, the cost of operation has been mounting steadily. It is estimated that the cost of the coal used by the city will amount to at least $10,000 more than the fuel supply cost last year. Other expenses have also mounted proportionately.

There appears to have been no objection to the increase in rates, as those who were in touch with conditions have realized for some time that the city was furnishing juice for prices well under the recognized minimum.—Grand Haven Tribune.

GRAND HAVEN SHUT OUT BY LOCAL HIGH

Saturday before a large crowd, at the 4th ward school ground the Holland High gridders again proved their superiority over the Grand Haven eleven.

Seven minutes passed before Holland scored, Cappon toted the ball over for the first count.

Grand Haven's line presented a stonewall defense during the first quarter of the game, holding Holland to two touchdowns during the first period.

Cappon's open field running featured this game. Boyd's line plunging was brilliant, while Jappings's generalship at quarter could not be surpassed.

Holland was handicapped thru the loss of Knutson, end, who was confined to a sick bed. But Ingham filled his shoes admirably well.

Fisher, and Capt. Face of Grand Haven attempted many line smashes, but the defensive work of the Holland line stood out prominently, and each play directed at this wall was in vain.

The first half ended with the score 36-0 in favor of Drew's warriors.

The second half opened with a rush and the Holland backs continued their already excellent offensive work.

Right half, Van Domelen, was compelled to retire at the end of the first half in favor of Ingham, owing to a strained muscle above the thigh. But when Ingham attempted a run, later he too received an injury to his arm, but he continued playing.

Kuite's great defensive work was one of the main features during this period. Holland's aerial attack was not of much value to them being only successful once. During the last seven minutes of play Holland scored three touchdowns.

Grand Haven folks who take their meals at restaurants, are now having their chance to do their bit in the conservation of food. Grand Haven restaurants are observing meatless and wheatless days. One proprietor stated that meatless days would hereafter be the rule with his Tuesday menus. On Wednesday he would observe the food administration's suggestion for wheatless menus, to do his bit toward saving these two articles of food for the government.

John Weersing reports the following sales of city property for the past week: A house and lot on West 3rd St. for Jacob Weersing, Jr., to Frank Haight, a house and lot on West 19th Street for George E. Kollen to Charles Myers; also seven lots in Post's Park Hill Addition owned by two parties, and sold to five different parties. While the price asked was obtained for the houses, this was not the case with the lots, as they were originally sold on the easy payment plan for $200 and now brought from $100 to $150 each.

IN THIS WAY SHE HELPS PUPILS TO HELP THE JUNIOR "Y"

Miss Anna Preston, teacher of the school in Blendon District No. 1, has originated a new way of encouraging her pupils to take part in the Junior Y. M. C. A. drive. When School Commissioner Stanton visited the school it was announced that ten scholars had subscribed $20 for the cause.

Miss Preston, much interested in having her school make a good showing, advanced the money to her pupils. Thus the contribution has already been made in hard cash. The pupils in turn will work at odd jobs and earn the money at their leisure, after which they will repay the teachers.

PULL ON CITY COAL PILE IS STILL BRISK

MUNICIPAL COAL YARD STILL SUPPLYING MANY FAMILIES WITH FUEL SUPPLY

Hard Coal Comes; Prudden Sends In Two Car Loads To That City.

Grand Haven Tribune—Many Grand Haven families are still depending on the City for their fuel these cold, brisk days, when furnace and stoves fairly swallow up the coal. Up to the present time the city has been able to supply all orders at actually cost price, and delivery wagons have been kept busy every day on the job. Many tons of fuel have been sent into Grand Haven homes and thru the action of the city a great amount of real suffering has been prevented.

Two cars of hard coal arrived yesterday, thru the direction of the state fuel administration department which has been bombarded with requests from the Grand Haven city authorities. While the coal is somewhat higher in price than the soft coal, there has been a demand for it and it will go out a ton at a time.

The city administration has been fully justified in its action on the local coal question by the results. Local dealers were entirely without a supply and seemed to be unable to get it, when action was taken. Small amounts have been coming in to the dealers since, and some of them have been partially able to fill their orders. Several of the factories, which had a sufficient supply on hand have assisted in supplying their employees. One dealer, who has sold more or less to the retail trade in the city, already has disposed of considerable good coal at a price as low as that made by the city. In some of the local factories, the coal situation has been serious at several different times, but coal has always arrived in time to save the situation.

Eventually government pooling and sale of all coal mined in the United States is seen as a possibility in the fuel administration's approval of a producers' pool just formed at Cleveland, which will handle shipments of mines in Ohio, West Virginia, a part of Pennsylvania and perhaps Tennessee and Kentucky.

Creation of other pools will be encouraged.

If the government pooling is agreed on, it would become operative next spring and will supersede the shippers' pools. Under such an arrangement the government would requisition at the mines the entire output of coal, selling it without profit. Such a plan was suggested by the federal trade commission before the government took control of the coal industry. It however, called not only for government sale of coal under a pool, but for a system of paying producers on a cost plus basis.

Advantages in a government pool pointed out today by officials would be that it would be easier since the government itself would direct shipments and more efficient operation of priority of movement.

Like Abraham, City Rescue Mission Is Moving Again

Like Abraham of Old Testament fame, the City Rescue Mission is moving on again. The Mission is fast establishing a record as a mover. It has been in most of the available buildings in the city along Eighth street, and today it is leaving its old quarters and is pitching its tent for the time being at least in the store at 35 East Eighth street until recently occupied by the Cohan clothing and shoe store.

"We don't know how long it will be," said Miss Nellie Churchford, the superintendent of the Mission cheerfully.

The change this time is because the old quarters are not large enough to accommodate the growing Sunday School and to take care of other activities of the Mission. According to Miss Churchford there has been a considerable revival at the Mission during the past few weeks, between thirty and forty having been converted there in the past fortnight.

On account of it being moving day today there will be no services at the Mission this evening, but services will be resumed tomorrow evening in the new quarters.
