Circuit court will meet in adjourned session on Monday, Dec. 17.

P. Van Tongeren, one of North Holland's early settlers, died this week at the advanced age of 90 years.

It is rumored that next spring Wm. Swift, the First ward grocer, will secure himself permanent quarters in a new brick store to be erected by himself.

Henry R. Brink is now sole proprietor of the First ward hardware store, and by the way, he is having a good trade too. Some bargains to be made there. See adv.

Married on Wednesday, Dec. 5, by Rev. Dr. J. W. Beardslee, at the residence of the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Huntley, Market street, G. Robert Huntley and Miss Jennie Bush.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week griddle cakes will be dealt out at M. Notler's, free of charge, as samples of the "Quail Brand Self-Raising Griddle Cake Flour." See new adv.

Gerrit Van den Beldt, residing south-east of the city, is a very sick man. His troubles started last fall with an enlargement of the hip, and to this has been added a derangement of the lungs and liver.

The assessment roll of Holland township calls for $13,291, about the same amount of last year. Treasurer Heyboer will be at Mr. Fairbanks' office on Wednesdays and Saturdays to receive taxes.

Elsewhere Kanters Bro's announce that they will present a Junior Range to the girl under twelve years of age who will write the best composition on "The Majestic Steel Range." For further particulars see adv.

Mayor Hummer is attending a conference at Lansing, called in the interest of the free coinage of silver. It is also freely given out that the ultimate object is to commit the Michigan Democracy to that doctrine.

Much favorable comment is made upon the many first-class entertainments the manager of Lyceum Opera House is securing this season. Among the attractive features on those occasions also is Will Breyman's orchestra.

Died at his home on Sixteenth street on Thanksgiving evening, Nels H. Knutsen aged 76 years. A wife and two daughters, and one brother are left to mourn his loss. The remains were interred Sunday afternoon, at the Graafschap cemetery.

Elsewhere appears the call for the annual meeting of the Fair Association. It will be held next Monday. There should be, and undoubtedly there will be, a good attendance, if all the friends of the Fair turn out. The society, re-invigorated by the successful efforts made in its behalf during the past year, is in a condition now to take another step forward, provided the people want it to. And they do. Then let the opportunity to accomplish this not to go by default. Let all attend.

The wife of a "leading citizen" had bought her a piano lamp, and after a week's trial concluded to name the article after her husband. Upon being asked by him what induced her to be thus gracious she replied: "Well, my dear, this lamp has a good deal of brass about it. While it is not remarkably brilliant, it is nevertheless handsome to look at. It requires a good deal of attention, is sometimes unsteady and liable to explode when half full, flares up occasionally, is always out at bed-time, and bound to smoke."

The intricacies of the silver problem are not confined to politics, but enter also largely into the mercantile domain. Take it for instance in the line of silverware. There not being much demand for the product of the silver mines it is being largely converted into tableware, and there being so much of it manufactured it accounts for its being so cheap. Any one doubting this can be convinced by dropping in at Stevenson's, and obtain prices. It is marvellous the low figures at which the best of solid silverware can be obtained there just now.

Muskegon is shipping Christmas trees to Chicago.

The democratic county committee expended $48 in the recent campaign.

The Y. M. C. A. gospel meeting Sunday afternoon will be led by F. D. Haddock.

Occasionally inquiry is made as to the feasibility of an electric road between this city and the resorts, and it has been suggested that such a line, extended east to Zeeland and south to Saugatuck, would eventually become a paying investment.

Ample preparations are being made at the furniture store of Jas. A. Brouwer for a holiday reception on a grand scale to all that intend to observe the season in the good old way by remembering their friends with a useful or suitable Christmas gift. See new adv.

That the admission to Prof. Cum-nock's entertainment has been placed at the low rate of 25c. and 35c. is in recognition of the splendid support given on the occasion of the Cook lecture. The proceeds of this entertainment will also go to the High school piano fund. Remember the date, Monday, Dec. 17.

A party of ten, members of the Zeeland gun club, came down on Wednesday afternoon for an informal contest with their Holland confreres. Out of 20 shots Mr. Smith of Zeeland made a record of 11, the next best being Messrs. Blom and Arleth of Holland, who each made a record of 9. When finished the score stood 64 to 57, in favor of the Zeelandites, and this in spite of the fact that Karssen's ammunition was not of the "Little Wonder" kind this time.

Washington—the Home of Widows.

Washington is the home of more famous relics of famous men than any other city in this country. Apparently it is an earthly paradise for widows. It has always been so.

Many of these women have known the happiest moments of their lives here. Certainly the proudest days of some have been spent here with husbands high in the councils of the land. Doubtless it is but natural that, remaining family ties being favorable to such a course, these women should come back and settle down among the scenes that had witnessed their successes when they shone in the reflected light of the glory of their husbands. Certainly, part of the respect paid the husband seems transferred to the widow. Washington likes people who have been "somebodies," and is not at all chary in according position to those who have any claim to it at all. In the presence of the fleeting processions of congressmen and quadrennial officials the dignity of these women is heightened and becomes a positive relief.

Some of the cleverest, the kindest-hearted, the most charitable, the most brilliant and most beautiful women this country has ever known are numbered in the Washington colony of widows, which yearly slowly increases. They are a brainy lot of women. They are leaders in many senses, women of breadth and culture. There are especially women who bear names that are known through the length and breadth of the country for their bravery by land and by sea.

Once in a while there is one whose widowhood is merged soon into matrimony. But, for the most part, the women who have borne great names feel reluctant to lay them aside.

As far as wealth goes, there isn't so much of it as there might be, yet there is a fair amount. But it has long been an accepted creed in Washington that money does not make position, and it is the one city in the country still left where that can be said.

MRS. JOHN A. LOGAN.

Probably the most famous widow is the woman who bears John A. Logan's name, and is known and loved in Grand Army homes all over the West, if not the entire country.

Mrs. Logan represents one of the best types of American womanhood, combining happy social qualities, good common sense and business ability. She is about the busiest woman in the colony. Many a morning finds her at her desk in the office of the magazine of which she is editor as early as 8 o'clock. Besides her own affairs, she carries the troubles of numberless people all over the country on her shoulders. She is active in the Garfield Hospital, and it seems as if every veteran in the country and every daughter and granddaughter of a soldier regarded her as a fairy godmother, perfectly able to get anything for them the government had to bestow.

There have been rumors concerning Mrs. Logan's intent to change her name through the matrimonial channel, but any one who knows how thoroughly Gen. Logan animates the life Mrs. Logan lives, knows how impossible it would be for his widow to give up "Black Jack's" memory for any man living.

MRS. PHIL SHERIDAN.

As widow of the late commander of the army of the United States, probably Mrs. Sheridan would come next to Mrs. Logan.

Little Phil's widow was so young at the time of the death of the general that she still is very youthful. She has her three daughters at the Sisters' School, where they are among the regular boarders. Little Phil is at home with her.

Mrs. Sheridan has lived quietly, but is extremely popular with the innermost circles of Washington, and is always a much sought after acquisition to a list of dinner guests.

Although she is by no means a wealthy woman the friends of Gen. Sheridan have the satisfaction of knowing that her affairs are in a comfortable condition and are not likely to cause her any serious thought.

She continues to occupy the brick residence on Rhode Island avenue which was presented to the general some time before his death. It is a handsome home. The general's stern features appear in white marble in the hall, in a fine oil painting in the first drawing-room, and in many other places throughout the house, while the portieres and draperies are mainly very fine samples of Navajo blankets which were given him in the West.

Mrs. Sheridan has found the general's Chicago property a valuable investment, and in addition the biography which Gen. Sheridan prepared has proved a steady source of income, as it has been very successful. All this is very gratifying to the admirers and friends of the late general.

Mrs. Sheridan has a peculiarly charming manner of dress that no other woman has been able to successfully copy. She is rarely ever seen except in black or white; sometimes in clear white trained princess gowns with her dark hair coiled smoothly on top of her head. The poise of her head is just as proud and her carriage as graceful as six years ago. When one sees Mrs. Sheridan an impression is left that a real true woman is standing there—not a creation of toilets and fads and fashions.

MRS. MADELINE DAHLGREN.

Mrs. Dahlgren is one of the widows who not only bears the name of a famous husband, but she herself has added to the importance of the name.

To all appearances the accomplished widow of Admiral Dahlgren leads a happily rounded life. Her children have married well. Her handsome home on Massachusetts avenue and Scott circle is occasionally the scene of receptions to the chief ecclesiastical authorities of the Catholic church, to which she is a very liberal adherent.

The memorial chapel which Mrs. Dahlgren has recently presented to Georgetown college has taken much of her time while being planned and constructed. Her books on Washington society have been very successful and given her a high position in the literary world. Between her literary work and good deeds for the church she leads a busy life.

MRS. KATE CHASE SPRAGUE.

Even her most intimate friends would hesitate long before offering pity to Kate Chase Sprague.

Even if she did not attain the great honor for which she strove, that of becoming the Lady of the White House, with her father in the presidential chair, she has the satisfaction of knowing that the memory of her regime will never be wiped out, and that no one has yet arisen who could even share her fame in Washington.

Mrs. Sprague makes her home in the residence her father occupied, out near the Soldiers' Home, when she is in Washington. It has been her custom to spend a part of the last few winters in New York, where her daughter has been studying.

In Washington she keeps closely to herself and is seldom met in society, where people would be happy to see her once more. She receives her old friends, and there are many who delight to make a pilgrimage to enjoy seeing her. Kate Chase Sprague has memories enough to keep her company every hour.

Mrs. Sprague has felt the benefit of the rise in real estate in the vicinity of her holdings, and a few years will see them valuable property, which she has business sense enough to take advantage of at the proper time.

MRS. HARRIET LANE JOHNSTON.

An older woman, but one with even more brilliant memories, is Harriet Lane Johnston, who is the only ex-mistress of the White House now living in Washington.

Mrs. Johnston's fame is all due to her own brilliancy and beauty and to her rule over the White House, when her uncle, James Buchanan, was president. She is a much sought for woman whenever she occupies her Washington home.

Points of Interest Concerning Worthy Sons of Illustrious Sires.

Robert T. Lincoln served his country in the Cabinet and as Minister to England. He is a good lawyer, makes a specialty of insurance law, and has had a good practice when not in office. He is thought to be tolerably "well off" as fortunes go in these days, his investments having usually turned out well. His wife, the daughter of James Harlan, whose name sounds strange in the ears of the present generation notwithstanding he was United States Senator from Iowa and Grant's first Secretary of the Interior, is wealthy in her own right. Mr. Lincoln has several interesting bright children and a pleasant home in Chicago.

Gen. Garfield's sons are both practicing lawyers in Cleveland, where they have an office in the magnificent Perry-Payne Building, which was built by ex-Senator Payne, William C. Whitney's father-in-law. The boys are doing tolerably well. They enjoy the friendship and good will of such men as M. A. Hanna, Amos Townsend, and ex-Senator Payne, and will doubtless do well in time. One of the sons lives with his mother in the city, while the other keeps his home on the old place in Mentor. The latter has political ambitions, was an unsuccessful candidate for the State Senate recently, and has Congressional aspirations which his friends believe will be gratified in the near future.

The two sons of Rutherford B. Hayes are quiet, modest, but good business-men. One of them, Rutherford, is the cashier of the savings bank in which his father was a heavy stockholder in Fremont, O. He is successful in everything he undertakes, is not speculative by nature or inclination, but inherits his father's caution and shrewdness. He is unmarried and lives with his sister, also unmarried, in the old homestead in Fremont, which village is the site of the Crogan massacre in the war of 1812, a pleasant, clean, thrifty Northern Ohio town, about thirty miles from Sandusky River. The other son, Birchard, is a successful lawyer in Toledo, a member of the firm which includes a son of the late Justice Wayne of the United States Supreme Court, and brother of Gen. Wager Swaye of New York. Birchard Hayes is reserved in every one of the painful irregularities and weaknesses that prey upon women. They fade the face, waste the figure, ruin the temper, wither you up, make you old before your time.

Get well! That's the way to look well. Cure the disorders and ailments that beset you, with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. It's a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the entire system.

Mrs. ANNA ULRICH, of Elm Creek, Buffalo Co., Neb., writes: "I enjoy good health thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I was under doctors' care for two years with womb disease, and gradually wasting in strength all the time. I was so weak that I could get up in bed only a few moments, for two years. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and by the time I had taken one-half dozen bottles I was up and going wherever I pleased, and have had good health and been very strong ever since—that was two years and a half ago."

his tastes and habits and genial and faithful in his friendships; and has also inherited his father's quiet, forceful, but plodding way of succeeding with almost everything he puts his hand to. He is happily married and has a pleasant home in the thrifty and wealthy little city on the Maumee.

Col. Fred Grant is known to his associates as having developed into a quiet, modest, thoughtful man, who is best liked by those most intimately acquainted with him. He and Robert Lincoln are alike in that while they have held office they have no taste nor particular aptitude for politics. Col. Grant enjoys life as an American gentleman. He is neither obtrusive nor showy in any respect. He has a most beautiful wife, nee Honore, of Chicago. Her father was once very wealthy, and it is believed he settled a comfortable dot on Mrs. Grant in those days. Col. Grant has a reasonable fortune, the income from which will probably enable him to live comfortably in an unostentatious way. He was educated for the army, and does not show any particular liking or fitness for civil business. He will make his home either in New York or Chicago. "Buck" Grant, who married the daughter of the late Senator Chaffee of Colorado, is very wealthy in the right of his wife, who was her father's only child, and occupies himself in the management of the immense estate left by his father-in-law. A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others cannot. Only a specialist of years experience can tell that. ATTENTION FARMERS!

There is no use running to Zealand to buy your Farm Implements, or anything else that you can buy just as cheap, and some a good deal better at the stand of J. FLEEMAN, River St. My own make Lumber Wagons, with double Truss Braces, to which I will challenge any man's make, as for light running and finish is concerned.
Rock Island Rake and Hay Loader. No more use for Hay Rakes now. This Loader takes the Hay, just as the Mower leaves it, rakes it up and loads it on the wagon. No matter how hard the wind blows, the hay must go on the wagon.
TALK DON'T GO.

I will here challenge any and all makes of Hay Loaders on a field trial of five acres. Will take the same number of horses and men, and then see which will do its work the quickest and best. The machine which comes out ahead to receive $100, besides the competing machine. This amount I will deposit in the Holland City State Bank, providing my competitor does the same.
Old Reliable Buckeye Mower and Binder, and the Wm. N. Whitely Mower, either of which cannot be beat.
Thomas Hay Rakes, both self dump and hand dump.
Land Rollers, Disk Harrow, Riding and Walking Cultivators, Plows both cast iron and steel, Potato Diggers, and lots of other things which a farmer needs, too numerous to mention.

CAUGHT IN DETROIT.

A Gang of Smugglers Brought Up with a Round Turn.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—The police and customs officers have just run down a gang of smugglers who have for a year past been smuggling thousands of dollars' worth of Turkish embroideries and fancy goods from Windsor to Detroit. Four members of the gang have been arrested, two of them being women. Most of the goods were shipped to New York. Certain Armenian and Syrian merchants in New York have been selling these goods at less than their cost to importers, but although they were closely watched the discovery of the smugglers was brought about by the Detroit police.

The smugglers have been admitted to bail, bonds of $2,500 each being required of Asaph Gholbreen, his wife and George Mashany, $1,000 each of John Nichols and Joseph Lazenas, and $500 each of Mrs. Moore and Miss Kirk. The two latter have turned state's evidence and will probably be released. The value of goods smuggled by this gang, it is said, is about $30,000.

TOILERS OF MICHIGAN.

The State Federation of Labor Holds a Convention in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 5.—The seventh annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Labor opened here Tuesday. President Flanagan, of Grand Rapids, delivered his annual address. President Flanagan spoke of the necessity of securing legislation on the sale of prison made goods; for the enforcement of the factory labor law and the establishment of a legal age, under which boys and girls cannot be employed at dangerous machines, and many other reforms. Mr. Flanagan recommended that the state federation be affiliated with the American federation.

Secretary Crewe reported that the interest in the federation during the past year has been flagging. Ten unions had been suspended for non-payment of dues and two new ones admitted. The receipts for the year were $892.52, and the expenditures $256.64.

FOR FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

Michigan Farmers to Petition the Legislature for an Appropriation.

LANSING, Dec. 3.—The farmers of Michigan are going to make a united effort to induce the legislature at its forthcoming session to provide for the holding of farmers' institutes on a more extensive scale than has heretofore been the custom. They claim in this regard Michigan is far behind other states of far less importance from an agricultural standpoint, and that the time has arrived for taking an advance step in this direction. The movement already has been inaugurated and Gov. Rich is receiving petitions from farmers asking him to incorporate in his message a recommendation that an appropriation of $10,000 per annum be made for the purpose of carrying on these institutes.

MICHIGAN SCHOOLMASTERS.

They Hold an Interesting Session at Ypsilanti.

YPSILANTI, Dec. 3.—The Michigan Schoolmasters' club has appointed a committee consisting of leading state educators to confer with leading college and academy presidents of the north central states for the purpose of at once organizing an association to secure greater uniformity in the courses of study in the various educational institutions of those states. MURDERED AND ROBBED.

Aged Man Near Lansing, Mich., Beaten to Death with a Bludgeon.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 3.—Michigan is rapidly acquiring an unenviable reputation for mysterious murders. At least six have been committed in the state since October 1, and none of the murderers has been arrested. The latest victim was Michael Goyt, who was found dead in his cabin in Locke township, northwest of this city, Tuesday. For some reason the police were not notified until Thursday. After dispatching Goyt, who was 82 years old, with a bludgeon, the murderer took a large sum of money and departed. At present there is little hope of unraveling the mystery.

ON THE JURY.

President Angell, of the University of Michigan, Serves His Country.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 5.—President Angell, of the University of Michigan, appeared in the circuit court Tuesday as a jurymen. He said that he was ready, like any other American citizen, to do his duty on a jury, and was glad of an opportunity to do such humble service to the state. He offered no excuse and was not challenged. As no case was ready the jurymen were excused until Tuesday afternoon.

Flouring Mills Burned.

FLINT, Dec. 2.—The Thread flouring mills were destroyed by fire Saturday evening. The flames gained headway so quickly that five streams were ineffective in checking them. Upward of 5,000 bushels of wheat and 500 barrels of flour were also burned. The plant was comparatively new and was owned by a local stock company. The total loss is estimated at $45,000. Two fire men who were overcome by heat fell from a ladder and suffered temporary injuries.

Shot While Resisting Arrest.

SATURDAY, DEC. 8.

The most popular man in town, just now, is treasurer Brusse, judging from the numerous calls he receives. Usually these official visits are limited to one, but this year they are made in duplicate. Every one has heard that taxes are high, and hence a preliminary call is made early in the season to ascertain how much additional there is to be provided for. Well, taxes are high. The increase in all over last year is $3,043.17. In 1893 the rate was $3.27 on every $100; this year it is $3.81. The following comparative table shows the difference:

Taxes.	1894	1893.

David Zoll, a farmer from Monterey, Allegan county, while crossing the C. & W. M. track at the Hidding crossing so-called, south of the city, with his team, Saturday afternoon, was struck by the mail train from Chicago and instantly killed. The body was taken on board the train, brought to the station and delivered to the authorities. An inquest was held by Justice Van Schelven and a jury, composed of J. Eileman, Sr., J. Kramer, M. Notier, S. Crandell, Gerard Kanters and Will Botsford. The crossing at which the accident occurred is an angling one, and quite long. The highway and the railroad track for quite a ways south run nearly parallel. Both Zoll and the train were going in the same direction. The former was in the lead, and evidently miscalculating his distance and the greater rate of speed at which the train was coming up in his rear, thought he could make the crossing before the train did, but failed. The collision was witnessed by Henry Hidding, from whose testimony at the inquest the above is a reasonable deduction. The horses had crossed the track and escaped without injury, but the rear part of the wagon was struck and the man carried along or thrown a distance of about fifty feet. His skull was fractured into several fragments. The unfortunate man was coming to town with a load of corn and potatoes, intending to spend the Sunday here with friends. He was 47 years of age and leaves a wife and seven children, the oldest of which is 18 years and the youngest less than one. His remains were identified and the sad tidings wired to Hopkins station, near which he resided on a 32-acre farm. His father-in-law, Chas. Tanner, and two neighbors, G. Leweke and Wm. Sutton, arrived in the city early Sunday morning and took the remains home, which in the mean time had been duly taken care of by undertaker Alberti. They were buried on Tuesday. The funeral was largely attended, for the deceased was a man universally esteemed. The blow is a terrible one to the family and also to his aged father-in-law, who is one of the early settlers of that locality. Incidentally Mr. Tanner informed us that he well remembers the first arrivals of Holland colonists in the "Bolks settlement," as Overisel was designated in those days, and that he helped to build the first eight miles of road from Overisel to Holland, having stopped several nights at the house of the old domine.—The jury in their verdict exonerated the engineer and train hands of the passenger train from all carelessness or neglect in the matter. The C. & W. M. Ry. Co. were represented at the inquest by their attorney H. P. Grover, and the People by pros. att'y. A. Vischer.

The Monday evening discussion of sociological topics, in Bergen Hall, was again well attended. The subject was "Co-operation, or profit sharing." Prof. Kleinbessel led off and was followed by Geo. E. Kollen, D. L. Boyd, L. Neumeister, I. Marsilje, G. Van Schelven, W. Baumgartel and J. C. Post. The subject for next meeting will be: "Is the free coinage of silver desirable?" The names of those that are expected to lead in the discussion will be announced next week. The attendance and interest in these meetings, as manifested thus far, will make them one of the features of this winter's entertainments. The fact that they are open to all, free of charge, and at the same time instructive, commands them to public favor. As bearing on Monday's topic, profit sharing, a friend handed us during the week the following clipping:

The famous firm of Procter and Gamble, manufacturers of soap, at Cincinnati, O., has, for the last seven years, held to the policy of profit sharing with its employees. On the last dividend day Mr. Gamble made to the workmen of the concern a statement regarding the success of the plan, which is full of interest and encouragement to all who see in this method of co-operation one of the very best possible ways of settling the great labor problem. He declared that with them the plan was no longer an experiment, that it had come to stay. One point made in his address is especially to be noted, namely, that for the success of profit-sharing not only must the workmen have confidence in their employers, but the employers must have well-founded confidence in their workmen, that they will not be eye-servants, but faithful laborers. Profit-sharing is a partnership between labor and capital. No partnership can be successful without mutual trust. All partnership will be profitable if each party to the undertaking does his very best for the interests of the other party. In fact, profit-sharing, if it is not to fail, must be based on a realization, on the part of both workers and directors, of the great principle, "We are our brothers' keepers."

Women in the World.

A French scientist figures that the number of women in the world is nearly equal to that of men. In France the numbers approach more nearly to equality than in any other country, there being 1,007 women for 1,000 men. For the same number of men in Sweden there are 1,064 women, and in Greece only 933 women. In the French colony at Reunion there are 457 creole women for 1,000 provincial Frenchmen, colored men included. In Hong Kong there are 1,000 men for 338 women.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

The awards granted at the World's Columbian Exhibition, compared to the number of exhibitors, present the smallest number ever granted on the occasion of a World's Fair. This result distinctly shows that unusual care and precaution were taken by the expert judges, who, because of the rule requiring them to declare over their own signatures the reasons for their judgement, fully realized the great responsibility thrown upon them. The exhibitor, therefore, may be assured that his award will have a value such as the award granted at previous Expositions never give. This statement, from the official circular of the World's Columbian Commission, as applied to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, and which also received the highest possible awards, must convince the most sceptical mind that this well-known blood-purifier stands far in advance of all similar preparations in existence. It has cured others; it will cure you.

OTHERS COME AND GO, but we are always in the field.

During the 12 years that we have been offering you our flour, many brands have been pushed to your notice under the claims that they were "just as good Daisy" or "almost equal to Sunlight and cheaper" etc., etc. We ask your attention to the striking fact that none of the older brands for which such claims were made are now on the market. Why? Because the housekeeper's practical tests proved their claims false.

New brands are now offered with a repetition of these old claims, and their fate will be the same as their predecessors. Why? Because we have the largest and best equipped mill in Western Michigan, use only the best wheat, and employ the most skillful millers, and therefore produce the very best flour that it is possible to make. Prices were never so low and will go higher soon.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.
To the Honorable, the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Holland.
GENTLEMEN:—
Your committee on streets and bridges beg leave to report that the alley appearing upon the city map north of First street and west of River street, has for more than fifteen years last past been fenced in and occupied by individual owners and never has been opened as a public alley, and that therefore the city has lost its rights to open said alley without arrangements with the private owners and occupants of the same and adjoining premises.

Your committee further find that the dwelling house of Gerrit Plakke is situated upon a part of said alley and that if said alley is to be opened, said dwelling-house must be removed.
Your committee further report that they have had a conference with the owners and occupants of said alley, and that upon the payment of twenty-five dollars by the city to help defray the expenses of moving said dwelling-house of said Plakke, all of said owners and occupants of said alley, are willing to deed the same to the city and to open up the same for a public alley; and recommend the payment of said money to said Plakke, as soon as proper deeds have been executed to the city and said dwelling-house has been removed from the alley.

PERFECT CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS.

Its extraordinary curative power manifests itself almost immediately it is taken. On this point the evidence of those who have taken it is uniform and positive. They say they can feel the effect of every dose during the day. It is a powerful nerve invigorating tonic, imparting its restorative influence through the medium of the nervous system to every organ and tissue of the body. It makes but little difference whether the constitutional vigor has been undermined by acute disease, overwork, or certain mischievous indiscretions; or whether the broken down condition is called by one name or other, so long as there is nervous exhaustion, general or local weakness—so long as emaciation and debility are the type of the ailment, this is the remedy.

THOSE WHO SUFFER

from the results of over-mental or physical exertion, hardship, exposure, hidden drains, caprice, or who have brought upon themselves a series of ailments by ignorance or wilfully violating nature's laws, will find in CATON'S VITALIZER and NERVE TONIC the remedy for their certain relief. It speedily removes all evidences of progressive physical deterioration, and restores the enfeebled energies to their natural vigor.

WHENEVER THERE IS

any weakness of the vital organs, nervousness, prostration of the physical or mental energies,
confusion of ideas, lack of self-confidence, irritability of temper, melancholy, convalescence, weakness of the knees and back, palpitation of the heart, dragging pain in the loins, headache, irritation of the kidneys and bladder, milky urine, pernicious and hidden wastes, resulting in a failure of the mental and physical power, constituting an impediment to success and unful-filling life, it is the remedy par excellence.
A single package will be sufficient to inas-

THE DEAD ALIVE.

A Woman Supposed to Have Been Buried
for Years Resurrects.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Mrs. Percis Anna
Hartsig, supposed to have been buried for the past eight years in Elmwood cemetery, Detroit, appeared in the office of her son—room 1107 Security building, in this city, a week ago Wednesday. According to the story of her son, Lewis W. Hartsig, of 1808 West Adams street,
his mother, after escaping from the Pontiac lunatic asylum, returned to their home, 336 East High street, in Detroit, eight years ago, and while preparations were being made for her return to the asylum she fled from the house, and this was the last seen of her until a week ago last Wednesday. The body of a woman was found on the tracks of the Detroit, Milwaukee & Northern railway shortly after her disappearance, which was identified as Mrs. Hartsig by her relatives, and was buried in the family
lot in Detroit.

Mrs. Hartsig says she went by the night train to Benton Harbor, Mich.,
and was taken in charge by the police authorities and sent to a sanitarium, where she stayed for twelve months. Her reason was restored, but her mind was a blank. She came to Chicago and secured a situation as nurse in Evanston and has since lived in that city unknown to her family. She has amassed property in Evanston. She states that two weeks ago she was reading a newspaper and happened to see a paragraph stating that E. A. Hartsig had been indicted on a charge of forgery, and at once repaired to the criminal court.
The sight of the name seemed to clear her mind and she distinctly remembered her past. Her son was not at the county jail, but was found by his mother in his office.

Jonas E. Hartsig, husband of Mrs.
Hartsig, believing his wife dead, married a second time three years ago and for the past year has been living in Chicago. He has one daughter by the second marriage. Mrs. Hartsig is now visiting her mother, Mrs.
Dove, at Savannah, Ill. Mrs. Dove, after the supposed burial
of her daughter, could not believe her dead, and offered a reward of $1,000
for information of the missing woman.
Mrs. Hartsig has told her sons that she will secure a divorce from her husband.

Mrs. Hartsig No. 1 was the widow of Byron Jones, a railroad engineer, when she married Hartsig. Her maiden name was Peate. Her father, Rev.
George Peate, is a retired Methodist minister of Detroit, now residing at Dresden, Ont. The family connections of all concerned directly in this marimonial error are prominent, well-to-do

WEATHER REPORT IN COURT.

The City of Detroit Wins in a Suit for $10,000 Damages.

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—Weather service
reports served the city a good purpose in court Saturday when Mahala Saw-telle was suing the city for $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received on a defective sidewalk. The woman claimed to have fallen owing to a 6-inch difference in a sidewalk grade. It was shown there was only a difference of 4 or 5 inches, but the principal evidence that affected the jury was because it was alleged it was a rainy night, whereas the signal service showed the temperature that day ranged from zero to 7 degrees below. The jury brought in a verdict for the city.

TO TEST CONVICT LABOR LAW.

Detroit Metal Polishers Begin Proceedings Against Jackson Prison Authorities.

LANSING, Nov. 30.—The Metal Polishers' union of Detroit is about to commence proceedings with a view to ascertaining if the law relative to the management of the prisons of Michigan permits contracts for the labor of convicts to be made. It is claimed that the present law, which was enacted two years ago, repealed the contract feature of the old law. The state prison at Jackson is about to make a contract with the Derby Cycle company, of Chicago, and the metal polishers will endeavor to prevent its consummation.

THE MARVIN CASE.

Despite the Judge's Severe Charge the Jury Disagrees.

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—The jury in the case of Frederick Marvin, ex-cashier of the Third national bank, charged with embezzlement, after having been locked up all night, reported Saturday that they were unable to agree, and were discharged. The jury stood six to six from first to last. The prosecution probably will try the case over again as soon as possible. The defense regard the result as a substantial victory in the face of the judge's severe charge.

Canadian Gas in Detroit.

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—The big natural gas main which the Detroit Gas company has been pulling across to Canada beneath the Detroit river successfully brought the product of the Canadian gas fields into this city Saturday afternoon. The gas came through all right and now fully half the consumers in this city of natural gas are using the Canadian product. The company will immediately begin laying a second pipe.

Michigan Schoolmasters Meet.

CADILLAC, Dec. 1.—The North Michigan Schoolmasters' club, over 100 strong, began its annual meeting here
Friday. In the afternoon James H.
Kays, of Reed City, and D. E. McClure, of Shelby, read papers. In the evening
Dr. College, of the Congregational church, lectured on "Second Fiddle."

didate for governor, makes affidavit that he spent $5,584.54 during the campaign.

An experiment with this disease
during all its past epidemics, warrants the bold claim that Dr. King's New Discovery will positively cure
each and every case if taken in time and the patient takes the ordinary thing has been proven, that those who have used Dr. King's New Dis-

Fire in the river marshes illuminated the heavens last Tuesday night and caused many in this section to think there was another big conflagration at Fennville.

L. W. Grant has a curious old engraving of Saugatuck. It is printed from a wood cut, which seems to have been made from a pencil sketch of the town in its early days.—Commercial.

Allegan County.

The criminal docket of the present term of the circuit court contained nine cases for violation of the local option law.

Hopkins has a resident who claims to belong to the "Sanctified Saints," but his conduct recently has been far from saintly. His wife did not like the way he expressed his religious views and told him so. He became enraged and struck her on the head with an instrument, causing an ugly wound. She ran to a neighbor's, where the hurt was dressed and consolation extended. She returned home the next day, and at last accounts he had become quite decent again.—Gazette.

During the deer season just closed forty-one of the animals were killed on territory embracing four sections of land lying just east of Bravo and running as far north as Fennville.

Democrat: Last week county treasurer Goodman and county surveyor Waterman were confined in the jail for about three hours, much against their will. The board of supervisors had directed the treasurer to attend to the matter of having a new sewer provided for the jail, and in pursuance of this object the treasurer called for the assistance of surveyor Waterman and they went into the jail to make the proper survey. Upon going in, Mrs. Stratton locked the door as usual; when the work was completed the imprisoned officers knocked to be released. Here is where the fun came in. The key broke off in the lock, and it was impossible to open the door by any means at the hands of Mrs. Stratton. When informed of the situation through the peep hole, the two gentlemen were wild with consternation, as visions of remaining there over night flashed through their minds. Goodman demanded that an ax, a sledge, or if necessary a charge of dynamite be used to force the door. Waterman was fully as scared as Goodman. The other prisoners were not slow in grasping the situation, and added to the confusion by their gibes and jeers. After long and futile efforts to release the two men, Mrs. Stratton left them and hastened down town, calling upon the gunsmith, Turner, who, taking his tools, repaired to the building and speedily released the two men.

A terrible accident occurred last week at the Otsego paper mill, by which John M. Donald lost his life. He was walking across a plank over a vat of hot water when the board slipped and he fell in. There were ten feet of hot water in the vat. He grasped the plank and saved the upper portion of his body, but from the waist down he was literally cooked. He called for help, but no one heard, so he took hold of the pipes that heated the water and pulled himself out. The accident happened about half-past seven in the morning and he lived until evening, but did not suffer so much as one would think, seeming to be paralyzed. He left a wife, three children and an aged mother.

In the circuit court Monday morning prosecuting Attorney Fish moved that the case against Mrs. Ira Hurd, charged with the murder of her husband, be nolle prossed. The reasons given were that he considered the evidence too weak to secure conviction. He had no more evidence than was given at the examination in the justice's court. Mrs. Hurd and her sureties were discharged.

Wm. Smith, Abraham Anya and Martin Anya have returned from their hunting expedition up north and brought with them three deer and part of a young black bear. Our school board have got the hal-yards replaced on our 50-foot flagpole, so that on holidays Old Glory will again be seen flowing from the head of the pole. Freddie Schrauer, who has been sick for quite a time, is out and around again. His sister Matilda took a trip to Fennville Monday morning.

Great progress is being made at our city of West Olive. Samuel Mountford has moved into his new store, which is a decided improvement, and the Squire looks quite a young man again. His clerks are always ready to attend to customers when they come, and the library in the corner with the law books, looks formidable enough to strike terror into the breast of all the lawbreakers of the vicinity.

Carl McKindley has bought Squire Mountford's old store and fitted it up as a meat market, in a manner which does him credit for neatness. We hope the people will encourage him, so that we need not go all the way to Holland when we desire a bit of fresh meat for a change.

On Wednesday, the 25th, the old mailroute from Ventura to Holland, which has been running so many years, came to a close, and to-day Chas. Anya begins the new route, which leaves Ventura at 10 a. m., reaches the new post office at Port Sheldon at 11 a. m., and West Olive at noon, leaving West Olive again at 1 p. m., Port Sheldon at 2 p. m., and arriving at Ventura at 3 p. m. The route is run twice a week, Wednesdays and Saturdays, as formerly.

World's Fair HIGHEST MEDAL

awarded to

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

The highest award was given on every claim, comprising superiority in leavening power, keeping properties, purity and excellence. This verdict has been given by the best jury ever assembled for such a purpose, backed by the recommendation of the Chief Chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., who made an elaborate examination and test of all the baking powders. This is pre-eminently the highest authority on such matters in America.

This verdict conclusively settles the question and proves that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is superior in every way to any other brand.

NOTE.—The Chief Chemist rejected the Alum baking powders, stating to the World's Fair jury that he considered them unwholesome.
