Merchants Are Liberal Givers To Farmers' Day

FORMER MAYOR E. P. STEPHAN RECEIVES LIBERAL RESPONSE FROM MERCHANTS AND MANUFACTURERS

Holland never falls down when it entertains guests and today, Friday, the whole countryside and beyond will be the guests of Holland at the Armory. According to the program the mayor of our city, the presidents of our Merchants' association and our Chamber of Commerce, have given all the agriculturists a hearty welcome through their messages.

The Chamber of Commerce delegated former Mayor E. P. Stephan as the man to solicit funds and food supplies and prizes for this festive occasion. That he has made a thorough job of it is indicated in the fine subscription list of cash and merchandise tabulated in this column. It is indicative of a spirit of co-operation not only in behalf of Holland, but in behalf of our neighbors as well.

The excellent program of speaking, music, moving pictures and other features for the morning and afternoon meeting was fully given in our last issue.

Local Resident Celebrates 93rd Birthday

ENJOYS GOOD HEALTH; HAS ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-ONE DESCENDANTS

Friends and relatives in great number called on Mrs. Anna Hamm Wednesday, coming to extend their congratulations to her on her ninety-third birthday. Mrs. Hamm, who at present is making her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. De Weerd at 213 West Sixteenth street, is in good health, although her eyesight has been somewhat impaired for the past few years. Born in The Netherlands on December 6, 1840, Mrs. Hamm together with her husband, Mr. Louis Hamm, 65 years ago. They came to Ottawa county where the Van Raalte colony was by that time well established, but did not settle here. Instead they continued on their way with horse and wagon, going as far as Montague where they made their home for 40 years. Mrs. Hamm stated she would never forget the long, tiresome ride over rough roads, and states that she and the rest of the family surely felt quite shaken up by the time they arrived at their destination. Eight more children were born to the Hamm family at this place, among them being Mr. Ben Hamm of Holland, Mrs. Nick Dykema and Mrs. J. DeWeerd of Holland; Mrs. Anna Hamm of Denver, Colorado, and Mrs. R. Schols of Grand Rapids. Seven of the children have passed away, as also has Mr. Hamm who died 46 years ago.

For the past 25 years Mrs. Hamm has been making her home with her daughters, Mrs. Ralph Schols of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. J. DeWeerd of Holland. At the present time Mrs. Hamm has 121 living descendants; included in this number are the 49 grandchildren mentioned above; 49 grandchildren, 61 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren. A brother, Mr. Benjamin Bromsema, aged 75, lives in Muskegon.

Anyway, for all the 93 years, Mrs. Hamm enjoyed her birthday party to the fullest extent Wednesday, having a keen sense of humor and being able to laugh with others when a humorous incident presented itself.

Mrs. Hamm is a member of Sixteenth Street Christian Reformed church. She, however, has not been able to attend services regularly for some time. Among those who came to the DeWeerd home to help Mrs. Hamm celebrate her birthday Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schols and daughter, Marjorie, and Mrs. C. Wierenga of Grand Rapids; Mr. John Haan, Mrs. A. Korendyke and children, Bobby and Carol; Mrs. Henry Hiddema and Mrs. Dick Haan and son Meryl, of Hudsonville; Mr. Aaron Brondyke, Mr. William Brondyke, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brondyke, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Brondyke, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Dykema, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Haan and daughter, Kathleen and Dorothy, and son Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jacobusse and son, K. Don; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bon and son, Ronald, and Miss Lois DeWeerd, all of Holland.

Civic Chorus And U.of.M. Orchestra To Give 'Messiah'

THREE PERFORMANCES TO BE GIVEN AT HOPE MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Citizens of Holland and vicinity and especially the music lovers are to receive another Christmas treat when "The Messiah" will be given at Hope Memorial chapel, the first rendition being on Tuesday night. It is through the efforts of Director W. Curtis Snow of the faculty of Hope college and his loyal backers that this wonderful religious oratorio is made possible. The presentation of "The Messiah," by Handel is most appropriate. The production was completed in 1741 in twenty-four days from August 22 to September 14. It was first performed at a concert given for charitable purposes at Dublin, Ireland, Handel conducting the performance in person.

The outstanding feature of this unusual program is the fact that besides our wonderful civic chorus in Holland, the oratorio will be tremendously aided and brought to a high standard of perfection because of the large 75-piece University of Michigan symphony orchestra together with the soloists who will come with this musical organization.

Last year the civic chorus was greeted by an audience of 2,600 and judging from the enthusiasm this number will be enhanced. The story of "The Messiah" so closely allied with the yuletide season will be unfolded step by step in the interpretation of this most impressive Biblical production.

In looking over the story of "The Messiah" of last year it was stated that the audience was spellbound. Besides the wonderful talent of the Holland City News states further:

"The orchestra put a finish to the production that was wonderful, indicating to the fullest extent the background that a fine organization of that character proves to be, besides being a potent factor in aiding the chorus in their work, giving the individuals added confidence in their able director."

Miss von Eisenhauer, who will sing "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth," as the soprano soloist, "The Messiah," is a native of Michigan and an American-trained concert soloist. During 1929 she won both the state and district contests for young artists, sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs, and was chosen one of the best three voices in the United States of those competing in the finals held at Boston, Mass. Miss McClafflin, who, like Miss von Eisenhauer, has received much of her training at the University of Michigan school of music, is an instructor at Kent Normal college in Ohio. She will sing, among other selections, the contralto solo from the Christmas section, "O Thou that Bringeth Good Tidings."

Mr. Hackett, professor of voice at the University of Michigan school of music, has also been soloist in prominent New York and Boston churches. He has made concert appearances in leading European centers. One of the outstanding numbers which he will sing here as Messiah tenor soloist will be the opening number, "Comfort Ye My People," a recitative which is followed by the aria "Every Valley shall be exalted." Mr. Lindegren, as bass soloist will sing the famous "Why Do the Nations?" Mr. Lindegren, head of the voice department at Michigan State Normal college, has had extensive experience on the concert stage and as an oratorio and church soloist.

Mr. Besekirsky, Mr. Pick and Mr. Brinkman will be featured on the symphonic program which the orchestra will give on Monday evening. Another feature of this program will be the orchestral rendition of "The Unfinished Symphony" by Schubert.

Miss Pfahl will be featured on the children's concert program on Tuesday afternoon. This concert will be augmented by a lecture on "Orchestral Instruments," by Earl V. Moore, professor of music and musical director of the University school of music. This program has been arranged especially for children up to 16 years of age because these children will not be admitted to the evening concerts. The program begins at 3 o'clock. Prof. Moore and Prof. W. Curtis Snow will conduct at the concert. Mrs. Snow will assist as organist.

As is stated above the University of Michigan symphonic orchestra will be at Hope Memorial chapel Monday evening at 8 p. m., giving a symphonic program. Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. for children's program and Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. when "The Messiah" will be presented by the Holland Civic chorus.

The Christmas Spirit

News Items Taken From the Files of Holland City News Fifty, Twenty-five and Fifteen Years Ago Today

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Word has been received from Russia telling of the death of John Kroll, Jr., 600 Van Raalte ave. He was a "buddy" of Joe Brieve, son of the Holland alderman, Frank Brieve. Brieve also died in Russia. He died of pneumonia in Archangel Sept. 18, 1918. The dispatch states, died of pneumonia in Archangel Sept. 18, 1918. The membership at first was 500 but after Christmas and no more presidential campaigns in sight for four years the organization soon joined the "Ananias Club." The club did stage one big banquet at "Princes Rink," now the super-service station on River ave. and Sixteenth st. It was a tremendous affair, 600 attending and the Fisher orchestra of Kalamazoo furnished the music. G. J. Diekema and Abe Stephan were among the leaders in staging this banquet.

Life savers can't swim in mud as was the experience of Herbert Van Oort of the Holland Coast Guard station. During a ten day furlough "Hips" as he is known by his friends, spent most of his time trapping muskrats in the "mud flats" near Big Bayou. He struck a very soft spot and began sinking in the mud without a chance to rescue himself. A farmer came by and with a plank succeeded in rescuing Van Oort from his dangerous position. With the aid of the board and a rope the man, mud filled tunic boots and all were hauled to safety.

A party of Holland folks motored to Florida. They were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oosting, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Hofstee and children, Miss Dorothy and Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plaggenmeyer, Dr. and Mrs. Tenuis Boot of Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Toney De Kruij of Zeeland.

Theda Bara, the noted "vamp," will appear in "Salome" in moving pictures in the Holland theatres. Note: By the way, where is Theda today—where are all the film stars of that time?

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

The Wm. McKinley club, a Republican organization honoring the martyred president, has appointed new committees among the membership of six different committees are Charles Floyd, Dr. M. Cook, Wm. H. Beach, John Cappon, Wm. Brusse, Gerrit Van Schelven, Daniel Ten Cate, Cecil Hultin, John Arendshorst, Nick Kammeraad, Arend Viascher, Cornelius Vander Meulen, Henry Pelgrim, Frank Brieve, Arthur Van Duren, Gerald Cook, Art Drinkwater, John Vandenberg, Milo De Vries, Cor. Dornbos, Alford Hidding, Richard Overweg, Simon Ross, Gerrit Van Zanten, Henry Vander Werf, Wm. Orr, Peter Bruisens, Ben Brower, E. P. Stephan, and Ben Mulder. Note: This was after a successful campaign and what the boys were going to do with that club politically was plenty. They first met in Princess Rink on West Eighth st., west of Van Landegem Plumbing Shop. They then rented the rooms above Dick Boter's new store then were reading rooms, recreation rooms, nice desks, fine floor covering, etc., etc. But these political clubs have a way of dissipating after the hurrah! is over. This one went the way of all the others and after a few months the furniture was sold for debt. The News got the battleship lineolium for a printing bill and in that way the McKinley club paid off and went into the discards. The membership at first was 500 but after Christmas and no more presidential campaigns in sight for four years the organization soon joined the "Ananias Club." The club did stage one big banquet at "Princes Rink," now the super-service station on River ave. and Sixteenth st. It was a tremendous affair, 600 attending and the Fisher orchestra of Kalamazoo furnished the music. G. J. Diekema and Abe Stephan were among the leaders in staging this banquet.

Work on the $75,000 pier at Holland harbor has been stopped for better weather next spring.

Mrs. Wm. J. Murphy of Ottawa Beach, who left Holland harbor several weeks ago with her thirty-four launch "Quo Vadis" for a trip down the Mississippi river via Chicago down the drainage canal has returned to her home here after a successful trip. Mrs. Murphy kept a record of her trip through picture post cards with notes of the different localities visited. She sold her yacht before returning.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

All persons attending Hope Reformed church are requested to be present promptly at the appointed hour of worship, the dominie, Rev. Thomas Walker Jones, says. The choir should not be disturbed in their beautiful service of praise. Nor should the preacher be disturbed in his services of prayer and pulpit instruction. Walking in late and departing early is uncalled for and annoys those who come early and remain throughout the service. Note: Fifty years later there are those who still come late—not the same ones but a new crop—undoubtedly several new crops by this time. All churches have them as well as Hope. These late comers are not confined to church denomination or creed.

C. Blom, Sr., and Charles Odell shot thirteen rabbits and a large owl Thursday. Note: These men were among the leading hunters in the city and there were several.

An Allegan county woman boasts of having drank nine kegs of beer this summer and paid for it in butter and eggs. Note: Her name will not be given or rather let us call her the large "butter and egg woman."

President Arthur has at last pardoned one of the penitentiary Sergeant Mason, the man who attempted to shoot Giteau, the assassin of President James A. Garfield. Note: They should have given him a medal instead of a prison number. Look out, editor, you will have President Hoover on your neck.

ARTISTS TO PLAY IN "THE MESSIAH"

VAN RAALE HOME IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

The house belonging to Mrs. Abbie Van Raalte, Grand Haven township, was burned to the ground Tuesday between 7 and 8 p. m. Mrs. Van Raalte was asleep when the fire started and was roused by Kenneth Boyd, who, living nearby, saw the flames. The house and contents were totally destroyed. It is not known whether there was any insurance. The house is located on the lakeshore road about six miles south of here. Mrs. Van Raalte has lived there for many years. The fire did not spread beyond the house as there was little or no wind at the time. The cause of the fire was not reported.

FROZEN ASSETS

The Douglas water committee has been out trying to collect delinquent water taxes. It would seem that the committee of our neighboring town selected rather an unseasonable period to liquidate these frozen assets.

WILL APPEAR WITH TWO CUTS

Because of late news and holiday advertising the long Exchange football banquet article had to be held over. It will appear with cuts of both teams next issue.

Much Beloved Holland Woman Passes Away

WAS WIFE OF ONE OF HOLLAND'S LEADING ATTORNEYS AND A PIONEER

Although not unexpected the death of Mrs. Laura E. McBride, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leila McBride Cadwallader, Owasco, Michigan, caused a shock among her many friends and relatives here. Mrs. McBride, who was 90 years old, had spent more than half a century as a resident of Holland. She was the wife of Patrick H. McBride, one of Holland's leading attorneys at that time, and together they pioneered and saw Holland rebuilt from the ashes caused by a terrible conflagration in 1871. They were a much beloved couple, holding the respect of the entire city, which was then only of village size and until it had assumed nearly the proportions of today.

As a girl, Mrs. McBride took a deep interest in education. She graduated from Ypsilanti university and soon started teaching in southern Michigan. Mrs. McBride was born in Lenawee county and was married to Mr. McBride in 1879, while he was still at the University of Michigan. They came to Holland shortly after the big fire of '71, and Patrick H. McBride became associated with George W. McBride, who was already a practicing attorney. The brother moved to Grand Haven, where he was a prominent figure in political and social life.

CHANGE IN LOCAL GAS COMPANY OFFICIALS

During the past week announcement has been made at the Michigan Gas & Electric Co. offices that George A. Mills, the president, who has made many friends in this city during his brief stay, was to move to Chicago, he having received a fine promotion as field executive for the Middle West Utilities Company with which the Michigan Gas & Electric Co. is allied.

The city was very much impressed with the personnel of Mr. Mills at a recent banquet tendered the general staff when the offices were moved from the state capital to Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills liked Holland because it had a high moral tone, was a city of education and a city of churches. The lake, especially, appealed to them.

Mr. Mills on leaving stated that he regretted to leave Holland and that the reception accorded him from the very beginning was something he would never forget.

The man who takes the place of Mr. Mills is Mr. W. C. Blanchard, who is already on the job in the general offices. He is an old Michigander "who went west" as Horace Greely said young men should, and landed in South Dakota some twenty years ago and has been connected with public utility work since 1910.

Mr. Blanchard has been located in Aberdeen, South Dakota, and has been executive of the North-western Public Service company. It is evident that Mr. Blanchard is an able man in his line, having had years of experience in his association with public utilities. Mr. Blanchard stated that it felt good to be back in his own home state near his parents, who live not far from the state capital.

Mr. Blanchard stated that he is going to like Holland and while he had heard a great deal of this city he has never had the opportunity to become well acquainted until now. Although he has been here less than a week he stated that he is very favorably impressed with Holland and its environs and he is looking forward to the time when he can move his family to this city which will be shortly.

The Ladies' Aid society of Ninth Street Christian Reformed church will hold its annual sale of delectable work, aprons and baked goods on Saturday in the building formerly occupied by the Selles Jewelry. Lunches and supper will be served. The sale is for the benefit of the needy of the church.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kammeraad, 208 East Eighth street, on November 29, a daughter, Shirley Yvonne.

Council Asked To Reconsider Road Location

MAYOR BOSCH AND COUNCIL WANTS TO SEE ARMISTICE DAY LEGALIZED

The council meeting last evening was rather long drawn with many projects to be considered. Rev. J. Vanderbeek of Sixth Reformed church opened the meeting with prayer.

Three communications were sent in, having to do with the proposed liquor laws governing hard liquors. The communications were from the Holland Ministers' association, the W. C. T. U. and the Woman's Literary club, protesting the sale of hard liquors in Holland and Ottawa county. The matter as far as is known is for the local governing bodies to handle.

The whole matter is new to the common council and they will go into the law on the different phases of hard liquors as this applies to the local community slowly and earnestly in order that there may be no mistake. The petitions were filed to be taken up later.

Several small building permits were granted. One of larger size over, for Benjamin Speer, who is to build a new home on Twenty-first street, costing approximately $3,000.

A communication from the board of public works authorizing the purchase of pipe and tile to be used in the relief work program was granted.

Henry Geerlings, secretary of the board of education, through the board asked that delinquent tax money owed the city of Holland be paid to the school board for use during the year. The request was granted.

The matter of transportation for Holland labor on the Port Sheldon road was also taken care of. A large delegation from Park and Lake townships were present at the council meeting, protesting the relocation of US-81 as the council had fostered at a previous meeting. Supervisor Leonard Visser, George Straight and James Boyce, Jr., were spokesmen protesting the relocation of the highway.

One speaker pointed out that Laketonville several years ago had bonded to help build this road and these bonds were not yet paid for. It was also pointed out that because it always had been a permanent road and had been maintained by state and federal authorities, that all property along the highway had been improved, costing thousands upon thousands of dollars; that it tapped the finest local resort district and gave direct connection through part of the fruit belt via Gibson to our neighbor Saugatuck.

It was the opinion of the large delegation present that the relocation of this road was unthinkable considering what had been accomplished and the large number of people that it served.

Mayor Bosch in answering many questions put by those attending the common council meeting, stated that he felt the heavy truck travel should be diverted from the old highway and it would leave a more quiet and a more pleasant place to live and a more pleasant highway. He stated that he did not see how Saugatuck could possibly be affected because of the new road since both roads would have to go through Saugatuck.

He also pointed out that several hundred farmers in Fillmore township had waited for years for better highways and this fact should not be ignored.

Attorney Clarence Lokker "threw some oil upon the troubled waters," deploring the fact that there should be friction between Holland and neighboring villages over a new highway and that a dispassionate discussion of the matter by all concerned could not help but bring about a better understanding. He stated that the state of Michigan brought about the first move for a new highway before Holland entered into the picture and that storm sewers amounting to several thousands of dollars were ordered by the state, which request was complied with by the city if the new road was to be built. This work has all been completed, Mr. Lokker states. He said that the first proposal did not come from Holland, but was a state plan.

A matter of unusual importance was brought up by William Connelly who presented a resolution adopted by the Chamber of Commerce harbor committee and concurred in by the Holland harbor board, asking the common council to appoint an information relative to the building of a municipal dock by federal grant through the CWA. The Holland City News has repeatedly given plans relative to dock for bulk freight to build up a tonnage that has grown to tremendous proportions at both South Haven, Grand Haven and Muskegon. Holland thus far has taken no action in the matter.

When Mayor Bosch told Alderman Kleis, who made the motion to appoint a committee, that he suggested the membership, he named Alderman Prins, his colleague, at present on the harbor board, to act as chairman of the committee. The mayor seemed to object to this and stated he would name this committee to see to the time done up to this time.

Mayor Bosch then presented a measure as this relates to making Armistice Day a permanent legal holiday.

The message of the mayor follows: TO THE HONORABLE the Common Council of the City of Holland.

Over five hundred thousand rural school soldiers, divided into two armies — the Reds and the Blues, will begin their march on a common objective, the citadel of Tuberculosis, this week. The campaign on the disease, expected to take three weeks, will be directed by 5,000 teachers, recently commissioned by Governor William A. Comstock as colonels in Michigan's Anti-Tuberculosis Corps.

No toy war this, the armies will be expected first to advance on a bridge near which three hundred children are held captive by Tuberculosis. In quick succession follow such obstacles as barbed wire entanglements, trenches, tanks and tuberculosis school houses. Advancement of the anti-tuberculosis troops will be marked on a military map of the offensive to be hung in the school rooms, which will show the number of tuberculosis Christmas Seals sold by each army. The capture of each tuberculosis outpost will represent the sale of that many more seals.

SCHOOLS OPEN ACROSS THE BRIDGE

Sausagebuck schools are closed, "busted for funds." Just across the bridge the Douglas schools closed only to give time for a turkey dinner. They didn't even stop on Friday after Thanksgiving day.

Many X-Rayed
In Ottawa Co.
Are Reported

Nearly 200 in This County Take Advantage of T. B. Tests

There were 195 from this county who were x-rayed at the Ottawa county Health Unit last week following the tuberculin tests that were made throughout the county. Those who showed positive reactions to the test were advised to be x-rayed and the large proportion who took advantage of the service is indicative of the interest and cooperation being met in this county.

The films are sent to the Herman Keefe hospital at Detroit and each one personally examined by the doctor in charge of that department. A written report is sent back on each film stating the status of the case and this is later sent out by the county authorities to the patients. It is expected the reports will not be returned for at least a month.

The sale of the Red Cross seals at the Christmas season forms a large part of the cost. Last year the receipts from this county were very low, although the entire cost of the work was paid by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. This year other methods of financing will have to be found.

The sale per capita in this county was 1.40 cents. An error was made in the report given out by the county officials last week. The report in the Ottawa county sales is believed to be due to the community chest plan which is in vogue in Grand Haven and in Holland. Stamps are now mailed to individuals in this city and a concerted drive is being made to put the good cause over.

FIRST HOME OWNERS MORTGAGE RECORDED

(Grand Haven Tribune)
The first mortgage under the Home Owners Loan Corporation to be filed at the Register of Deeds office in Ottawa county was recorded yesterday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jackowski of Grand Rapids on property in Tallmadge township. The mortgage was between $5,000 and $6,000. There are about 500 such mortgages of the kind that are being sought and a large amount of work has been executed in the local abstract office to perfect the titles. Charles E. Misner is the attorney appointed some time ago by the state to examine all the papers in connection with such a loan and Marvin Turner is the appraiser.

LARGEST CHECK COMES TO CUSTOMS OFFICE

The largest check ever received at the Grand Haven customs office for import duty was announced here today by William Phillips, deputy customs collector; the amount was $4,008.40. The importation was for leather and while the deputy collector refused to give the name of the consignee, as against official ruling, it is not hard to attach the shipment to the Eagle Outfitters Co. Mr. Phillips reports that since July 1, the beginning of the federal fiscal year, $17,042.44 has been received at this office through import duties. A large part of the duty was taken in through foreign shipments of pulp wood from Sweden.

POOR PICKER PAYS PENALTY;
PROBOSCIS PROPELS
PEANUT

Jay Sehorn, star member of the Willows Journal of California and son of Ed Sehorn, publisher, recently was officially dubbed the "peanut reporter."

Jay pushed a peanut with his nose down the length of an Orland confectionery in payment of a bet. The Willows high school football fan bet that his home town team would defeat Orland. He was so sure Willows would win that he offered to do the peanut-pushing act if Willows lost. Willows lost. Bright and early the following Monday, Jay went to Orland to get the wager-debt over with. He wasn't early enough. The entire Orland football team was on hand to gloat over their victory and official photographs were taken.

FEDERAL SANDSUCKER

The Meade just came from a job at the Muskegon pier. She will come into port at Grand Haven for layup following the work here where she will undergo the usual winter overhauling and repair work.

ENUMERATORS TO BEGIN

"HENRY'S WEDDING" TO
BE STAGED BY 125
LOCAL PEOPLE

Next week, Thursday and Friday nights, December 14 and 15, the unusual production "Henry's Wedding" will be staged at Masonic Temple, Holland, under the auspices of Eagles Booster club. This promises to be one of the biggest events of the season in Holland and has the distinction of being the only public wedding of the year. At that time three couples will take the big step into matrimony. They are Leon Moody, playing the part of Uncle Henry and Mrs. Earnest Brooks taking the part of Samantha Green; also George Damsen as Jack, and Dorothy Tasker as Mary, and Lucille Lindsey as Susan Christopher and Elbert Parsons as Lawyer Brown.

"Henry's Wedding" is a story of a bachelor bridegroom of 55 getting married for the first time to a widow of 49, who has twice been married. This in itself brings enough comical situations to keep the crowd in an uproar. But what makes the situation even more hilarious is the fact that Jack, Uncle Henry's nephew, planned to get married on the day of the show, and collect on the next day, his twenty-fifth birthday. $100,000 from his grandfather's will. However, the sudden announcement on the part of Uncle Henry of his marriage on the same day will cut Jack out of the $100,000 and give it to Uncle Henry, and Jack immediately, with his boy friends, Ted and Harris, played by Chuck Van Domelen and Ray L. Smith, attempt to stop the wedding of Uncle Henry. Persuasion fails and they turn to an attempt at kidnapping, and at this juncture the comical situations begin. O'Flarey, the hard-boiled detective, played by Russell Welch, and Mugs, his assistant, played by Donald Elferdink, are called in to help solve the mystery, and they give a lot of amusement and comedy to the show and keep the audience in an uproar.

Eliza, played by Mrs. Carl Shaw, the Negro cook, and her lazy husband, Rastus, played by Will Padgett, afford a great deal of the comedy. One of the big events is when Uncle Henry, hiding in the ash can, is the victim of a tremendous gasoline explosion and comes up black as coal, and is immediately mistaken for Rastus, Eliza's husband, and is forced to do the menial housework instead of receiving the praises and compliments of his friends, as a bridegroom.

The missing bridegroom causes many ludicrous situations, and the boys, Ted, played by Chuck Van Domelen, and Harris, played by Attorney Ray Smith, who attempted to kidnap him, are shaking with fear throughout the entire time, due to the fact that they are afraid they will go to the penitentiary for such an offense. Mary, Jack's fiancée, gets disgusted because of the unusual happenings and decides not to get married and Jack is then in a worse condition than before. However, he attempts to rush the wedding through with the hope of getting married before his uncle, and when this fails he decides to postpone the wedding and his fiancée fails to understand all his peculiar actions and decides not to get married at all. Things go from bad to worse and it seems there will be no wedding, but during all this time a love affair develops between the old maid, Susan Christopher, the jilted lover of Uncle Henry, and the family attorney, Lawyer Brown. They decide to get married and at the last join in the happy circle and make it a triple wedding. However, after a long series of difficulties, things completely iron themselves out and all are able to get married and Jack is able to receive the money due to the fact that Samantha Green became a life-long friend of Mary Smithfield, because both of Mary's ancestors came over on the Mayflower together.

Other characters who add much to the plot are Virginia, played by Betty Smith; Marie, played by Lavern Essenberg; Rev. Turnipseed, played by "Andy Klomp"; Sister Sadie, played by Mrs. Jeanette Brumbaugh; Brother Jones, played by Jack Peterson; Singing Sam, Bert Franks; Brother Jackson, played by Roy Heath; Brother Jones' wife, played by Mrs. Norton; traffic cop, Attorney J. Thomas Mahan, and Abraham Lincoln Brown, played by Bert Franks.

The two bandits from Chicago are played by Peter Damstra and Archie Vander Wall. "Henry's Wedding" is a scream from start to finish and no one can afford to miss seeing the thrills of a bachelor bridegroom. Your presence is requested at this wedding, and remember it is the only public wedding to be performed in this community this year.

Seats go on sale at the Model Drug Store at 9 a. m. Wednesday. The production is being directed by Miss Hazel Calhoun.

COULDN'T SIGN THE CODE

The best N.R.A. story of the week is probably the one about the president of a small town bank, who said he couldn't sign the blanket code because it would mean that the bank's janitor would get a bigger salary than he did, and that would upset the morale.

History of Ebenezer Is Continued

Henry H. Boeve, Historian of the Church, Gives 60 Years of History. Church Building Begun in 1866.

(By Henry H. Boeve)

In March, 1912, the Rev. L. Dykstra of Grand Rapids became our pastor. At this time it was shown that human nature was the same as it was in 1862, forty years ago. If man was filled with the Spirit of God instead of their own selfish corrupt self, what a different world this would be, and the church as a whole. Oh that we would have more of the soft soothing winds instead of the storms or tornadoes of life. The first of August, 1913, Dykstra left for Chicago. Two unsuccessful attempts were made, one for Candidate Ver Berg and Rev. A. Strabbing. On November 17, 1913, Rev. John Meeter was called. Here your historian cannot report that the call was accepted nor when Rev. Meeter was installed. The minutes tell us nothing about it, nevertheless he was our pastor, a man who never referred to himself or to his past. He was not only a preacher but also a farmer. At 5 a. m. he could be seen cultivating his corn. He did not have a polished vocabulary but he had a spirit of love. It was during his pastorate that a pipe organ appeared on the scene. It was placed on the rear of the pulpit. It was there for some time and then disappeared. One said item I must relate and that is that on the fall election day he was taken sick and died the same day.

On February 23, 1915, another call was extended to the Rev. A. Strabbing. He declined three calls before this. What will he do now? To our great pleasure he accepted. "Aan houden doet over winnen." We had a very pleasant and peaceful time without severe or threatening storms. Mrs. Strabbing was a mother in Israel among young and old. The seven years that they were in our midst were only too short. August 7, 1922, was our parting day. We are very happy that he is with us occasionally also today.

October 11 an SOS mail was sent to Rev. Gerrit Flokema, who answered in the affirmative. Soon we were called upon to unload a car of furniture, books and garden tools. This pastor was harassed very soon after his arrival. The young girls of our school were very much pleased as this pastor had a son, George, of marriageable age and one of more timid years and a pleasant smiling "juffrouw." This pastor has several remarkable abilities, one was that he was a marvel in walking. He put many a horse to shame. Above all this he was a man among men. We enjoyed his work among us. Staying with us for a short time, he left as classical missionary.

Common Council

November 11, Armistice Day, we hear citizens bemoan the fact that this day of days has not been declared by our national leaders a legal holiday. We rightfully celebrate the Fourth of July in memory of those brave leaders of American history who gave this country of ours our independence. On May 30 of each year we cover the graves of our brave boys in blue with flowers to commemorate the memory of these brave heroes who fought and who died to save our great union. Both of these days have been declared legal holidays and rightfully so.

In my Armistice Day proclamation I brought attention to the fact that up to this time Armistice Day has not been recognized by our government as a legal holiday and left the thought that strong efforts should be made when the next congress meets that this day be legalized as a holiday, the same as other national patriotic days.

The world strife for which Armistice Day represents the end, sent the flower of this nation's manhood to foreign shores to battle for what they thought was the savior of democracy. Every locality in this grand country of ours felt the scars of that war through the loss of loved ones.

It would be most fitting and proper and a great step toward consummation of this idea if you as a council, representing our city of Holland, would go on record tonight as approving congress' legalizing Armistice Day as a legal holiday. I would further suggest that you unanimously pass a resolution so stating these thoughts and to send a copy of this resolution together with copy of this message, to the Hon. Congressman Carl E. Mapes, and to the Hon. United States Senators Arthur H. Vandenberg and James Couzens. I request that our congressman and United States senators do all in their power to secure the legalizing of this day at the next session of congress when it again convenes next January, 1934. Respectfully submitted, Mayor. Thereupon Alderman Kleis presented the following resolution, which was seconded by Alderman Prins:

WHEREAS, the Hon. Mayor of our city has delivered a very timely message to us advocating that the United States congress designate Armistice Day, November 11, as a legal holiday, and

WHEREAS, we the common council of the City of Holland are heartily in accord with said message,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the common council of the city of Holland recommend that Armistice Day be declared a legal holiday and that a copy of this resolution together with a copy of the mayor's message be sent by the city clerk to the Hon. Congressman Carl E. Mapes and to the Hon. Senators Arthur H. Vandenberg and Senator James Couzens, and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said congressman and senators be requested to lend their support to the end that said Armistice Day may be so declared to be a legal holiday at the next session of congress when it convenes in January.

Carried, all voting aye.

"Slave Maid" Is Seen At Trinity By Thousands

ESTIMATED THAT MORE THAN 4,000 CAME FOR "THE EAST" PRODUCTION—FLOWERS FOR THE COACHES

"The Slave Maid," a religious story with scenes laid in the "Far East," was presented at Trinity church auditorium for four nights and it is doubtful if any offering ever given in this city has surpassed this one for capacity houses. Estimating that this edifice can seat 1,000, the figure of 4,000 for the four nights is not far out of the way.

More than 1,000 crowded the auditorium for the final performance of the Scriptural play Tuesday evening. Despite the fact that it was given four nights in succession each night hundreds were turned away.

FLOWERS OF APPRECIATION

Between the second and third acts of "The Slave Maid of Israel" at Trinity church Tuesday evening there was a number in the evening's entertainment that was not on the program. Two huge bouquets of mixed flowers, in which chrysanthemums predominated, were carried to the stage. At this juncture Miss Corinne Baker, in behalf of the event and the League for Service, who sponsored the play, presented to Mrs. Henry D. Ter Keurst and Mrs. Theodore Boot, the coaches of the play, each with a large bouquet, as a token of appreciation for their untiring efforts in making possible the fine rendition of this Biblical production. The presentation brought a hearty round of applause by the large audience present. The two ladies bowed graciously in response to the token.

The play centered around the Bible story of Naaman who finds himself smitten with leprosy. George Essenberg ably acted the part of Naaman, captain in the Assyrian army. Through the efforts of the king of Syria, played by Rein Vischer, an Egyptian sorcerer was sent to the court of Naaman to relieve him through her incantations, but all to no avail. The Faith of Israel is declared by a lovely slave girl, Ruth. Her trust and confidence in the Jehovah arouse deep emotion. This part was taken by Dorothy Van Saun. By her persuasion Naaman goes to the Prophet and is cured of his dread ailment by dipping himself seven times in the river Jordan.

The audience was captivated by the stirring love scenes and the happy reunion of the "Slave Girl" Ruth and her long-lost lover, Jesse. It was a realistic and at the same time wholesome romance.

Naaman's beautiful wife Thamar was played by Corinne Baker. During Naaman's absence she and her household were molested by Simeon, played by Theodore Boot, who was given command of all except the palace. He tries to usurp Naaman's title by announcing that Naaman is dead and will not return. However, while endeavoring to capture the beautiful Thamar by threats, starvation and intrigue, Simeon's plans are suddenly thwarted by the return of Naaman, a cleansed and redeemed man. What happens to Simeon can well be conjectured.

The cast of characters in their order of appearance follows: Ben Hassen, an Arab chief, ally of Naaman, Peter Bol; Naaman, commander of the Syrian army, George Essenberg; Simeon, his second in command, Theodore Boot; Hiram, leader of the Syrian foot soldiers, Peter Veenstra; Na-han, Naaman's personal slave, Howard Teusink; Ezra, slave in Naaman's household, John Engelsman; Her-ald, messenger of Syrian king's army, Lester Wassenaar; Zilph, Thamar's personal slave, Dorothy Bowman; Thamar, Naaman's wife, known as "beautiful," Corinne Baker; Runner, messenger of the king of Syria, Lester Wassenaar; Ruth, a Jewish maiden, slave to Thamar, Dorthea Van Saun; Ashael, overseer of Naaman's slaves, Phillip Teusink; Salome, a refugee slave from Syrian camp, Dorothy Stekete; Egyptian, a sorcerer, Gertrude Meungs; First Woman, slave woman from Naaman's estates, Henrietta Haverdink; Second Woman, slave woman from Naaman's estates, Vera Damstra; Water Carrier, slave woman from Naaman's estates, Esther Kow; Fruit Bearer, slave woman from Naaman's estates, Mary E. Damstra; Jesse, a young Israelite, betrothed to Ruth, Neil Baldwin; King, ruler of Syria, Rein Vischer; Anner, stewardess of the palace, Adrianna Stekete; Manah, slave to Simeon, Phillip Teusink; Zelia, Geneva Kleinhek-sel.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Henry D. Ter Keurst and Mrs. Theodore Boot, and the stage manager was Earl Kropscot. In the first act the palace and the inner court of Naaman, near Damascus in Syria is pictured as in the year 894 B. C.

POLICE TO CONTINUE TRAFFIC CAMPAIGN

A regular meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners was held Monday evening in the city hall.

It was voted to continue the traffic campaign to halt violators of the stop signals. It was also the opinion of the board that the signal lights at Columbia avenue and Eighth street should be continued. They may be darkened for a week to test their importance.

Martins Vande Water was named fireman in place of A. Bar-veld, who recently resigned.

"WHOLE TOWN TALKING" THIS WEEK

On these two nights, Thursday and Friday of this week, at 7:45 o'clock the senior class of the Zeeland high school is presenting its annual dramatization, the play chosen for this year being entitled, "The Whole Town Talking."

Don't miss it. It's a play full of laughs and it's for the whole family. Why not see it and get over your "hard-time blues?" It would not be bad for Holland students to motor over and see how Zeeland puts on a play.

STRAWBERRIES IN WINTER

Charles Van Zyl of the Holland Vulcanizing company states that Mr. Frank Fendt of West Olive, route No. 1, was in the city Saturday displaying some strawberries he picked Saturday morning from his field of 15 acres of berries. He states that there were quite a few berries and green blossoms on the vines in the patch. Strawberries in winter is some achievement.

ALLEGAN JUDGE PASSES AWAY WHILE DEBATING

Fidus E. Fish, Allegan justice of the peace and dean of the Allegan county bar, died suddenly Monday night of a heart attack while participating in a debate sponsored by the WCTU at the home of Mrs. Jessie Garlock. Justice Fish was 79 years old.

Known extensively as a spiritualistic medium, Justice Fish had been prosecuting attorney of Allegan county about 30 years ago, but recently was widely publicized when the Fred Ring nudist case was taken into his court.

Justice Fish and Rev. Harold F. Weston took the negative side of the question: "Resolved, that false nationalism is one of the fundamental causes of war in the present time." They were opposed by former Prosecutor Harry F. Fell and Rev. C. Mulder. Justice Fish had just completed his argument and sat down when he slumped to the floor. Artificial respiration was applied pending arrival of physicians, but he failed to respond.

HOPE AND HOLLAND FIVES OPEN FRIDAY

Hope college and Holland high school basketball teams will begin their schedules tonight, Friday. Hope facing Ferris institute at home on the Army court and Holland playing Ottawa Hills at Grand Rapids. Holland Flying Dutchmen and Grand Haven Vyn Trueters will clash in the preliminary game.

Holland Christian High school will meet Coe High of Grand Rapids at Grand Rapids.

Coach Bud Hinga of Hope college has seven letter men available in Dalman, Steffens, Nykerk, Bonnette, Korstanje, VanZanden and Boven, and several sophomores, while Coach Gerald Breen of Holland high school has only one member of the first squad of last season, Ben Bos.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN GOES WEST

Rev. Bert Brower, formerly of Holland, now pastor of Home Acres Reformed church, Grand Rapids, announced to his congregation Thanksgiving day his intention to accept call tendered him recently by the American Reformed church at Orange City, Iowa. The pastor and his family expect to leave Grand Rapids shortly after Christmas. Mr. Brower, while studying at college, was with the Vanden Berg Bros. Oil Co. He wed a Holland girl, Miss Suzanne Hamelink, and Home Acres, about eight years ago, was his first call.

CONNELLY NOT AGAINST CANAL TO GR. RAPIDS

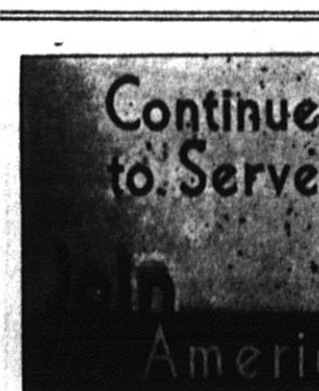

(Grand Rapids Press)

William M. Connelly, managing director of the Holland Chamber of Commerce, gives as his opinion that Grand Rapids should take the initiative in the proposed ship canal between Holland and Grand Rapids as promoted by John Buys, but that Holland would be willing to join in the project.

Connelly has consulted an engineer of large experience and an authority on canals of other countries and expresses himself more tolerant to the proposal than at first when he considered the project economically unsound.

Connelly expresses the hope that Grand Rapids will make a thorough analysis of Buys' proposal before government funds are exhausted on projects of less merit.

Connelly, however, raises the question whether the services would justify the investment.

LEGION NOTES

Our next post meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 6. This is going to be some meeting with Bill Connelly as speaker and then four of the post's live wires have arranged something special in the menu for our eats. All ex-service men are invited and it is up to YOU to see that they come.

Bill Padgett says he has not been appointed Detective on the Police force, but Detective on the Police force.

Mike Schoone is the head of the toy drive committee and will be assisted by Ernie Bedell, Chuck Van Lente, Dub Vaupell, H. Geerds and Al Joldersma. We doubt the efficiency of the last two names because the best they ever did in that line was to crowd their own kids away from their toys.

This committee has a big job on its hands and everyone should try to give them a hand. If you are handy with a paint brush or with a jig saw, or can do some soldering, step up and offer your services. The men will need such help when they get organized and located.

The Christmas basket project will soon be under way. This is a wonderful piece of work and the men that handle the job will have their hands full. Should you be called on during the last few days be prepared to help for a while at least. It is the last few days when

Westveer Tells Local Patrons to Mail Early

CHRISTMAS PARCELS SHOULD BE SENT PRIOR TO DEC. 19TH

A warning that the public should shop and mail Christmas presents early, if it desires to have them delivered to their destination in sufficient time for Christmas, was issued this week by Postmaster Ed. Westveer as instructions from headquarters from Washington, D.C. The post office officials have put December 19 as the latest date parcels may be mailed any place in this country with assurance that they will be received before Christmas.

During the holiday time the volume of mail increases approximately 200 per cent and officials claim it is a physical impossibility to handle this great mass of mail matter efficiently and promptly within a few days. Gifts, cards and all parcels of mail should be mailed at least ten days before Christmas to make it absolutely certain they will be received before Christmas, they declare.

In listing several important things officials state all parcels must be securely wrapped or packed with strong paper and heavy twine. Articles easily broken or crushed must be securely wrapped and crated or boxed with liberal quantities of excelsior or like material in, around, and between the articles and the outside container. All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "Fragile." Perishable articles must be marked "Perishable" and packed in suitable containers, according to contents.

Addresses should be complete and return cards should be placed in the upper left hand corner. Christmas cards should not be mailed in red, green, or other dark colored envelopes or in very small envelopes.

Postage must be fully prepaid and no parcel may be more than 100 inches in length and girth combined nor exceed 70 pounds in weight.

The use of a Special-Delivery stamp will assure delivery on Christmas day if mailed at the proper time.

In Holland there will be no delivery on Sunday nor on Monday, Christmas day, except for special delivery mail, officials declare, and perishable matter arriving Saturday, December 23, will be delivered but a special delivery fee will be charged.

Outgoing mail to distant points should be mailed from Holland as follows: East coast, no later than Dec. 19; West coast, no later than Dec. 18; South coast, no later than Dec. 19 and Denver or vicinity, no later than Dec. 19.

Local Divine Tells Story of "Wm. of Orange"

PRINCIPLE OF TOLERANCE CAME FROM DUTCH 400 YEARS AGO

Dr. Nettinga Says Leaders of Industry Should Take Lesson — and Liberty Would Not Be Turned Into License

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Dr. C. S. Nettinga of Holland, president of the Western Theological Seminary, addressed a group at the Woman's club of Grand Haven Friday afternoon at an open meeting. Dr. Nettinga has been heard in that city at different churches at both Grand Haven and Spring Lake and the large gathering attested to his popularity in north Ottawa.

In commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the birth of William the Silent, Prince of Orange, Dr. Nettinga gave a history of that great Dutch leader, calling him the pioneer of religious freedom. He traced his influence to the 13 colonies and the religious tolerance in this country as embodied later in the constitution.

Leaders in this country today should display the same devotion to principle to forestall absolutism and autocracy lurking dangers, as that great leader did through personal sacrifice 400 years ago, he declared.

Men in industrial life today should take a lesson from that great character and desist from turning liberty into license, if this nation is to continue under the principles of tolerance which came from the Dutch ruler 400 years ago, he stated.

Born as a German, he said, William the Silent adopted the Dutch people as his own. He fought the intolerance of that age and believed that men could live together peacefully even if they did differ in religious thought. It is the things we believe that influence life. We live as we think. Principles are the dynamics of life.

Great principles are articulated in some great personalities, usually men of training and education, he stated.

Dr. Nettinga pointed to the 16th century as being an age of intolerance and spoke of the bloodshed and suffering that cost thousands of lives because men could not allow individual thought and religious freedom. In those days men were willing to suffer and die for their convictions. In this day it is utterly different. We are becoming too tolerant.

William of Orange believed in justice for all. He showed his tolerance to the Spaniards when the Dutch regained control of their country. He blazed the way for an idea that has become commonplace in America today.

He traced the idea of tolerance to New Amsterdam in the early days of the colonies and 100 years later when it was incorporated in the constitution.

Dr. Nettinga sees the hand of God in selecting such personalities to carry on the progress of human relations and development of mankind. He pointed to the leaders of the world today and believes that they will be called upon to make the same kind of sacrifices as the Dutch leader, if they would lead the people out of the chaos into which the world today has become involved.

The Woman's club chorus sang a beautiful old Dutch melody, an appropriate number preceding the address.

Mrs. W. B. Bloemendal asked for volunteers to cooperate with Judge Cora Vande Water as probation officers. Miss Vande Water at a recent meeting stated she would gladly receive such assistance in the juvenile court work of this city.

The Misses Anna and Ada Chalmers were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Reilly in Chicago.

Funeral services for Klaas Mulder, 75, who died last week, Wednesday, at Eastmanville, were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Langeland Funeral home. Rev. F. Van Dyke, pastor of Central Park church, officiated. Burial took place in Park township cemetery.

Mr. Mulder was a resident of Park township several years ago. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Jennie Knottnerus of Grand Rapids and a brother, Henry Mulder, also of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Clarence A. Lokker and Mrs. Mayo Hadden will have charge of the holiday dinner which will be given tonight, Friday, at 6 o'clock in Hope church. Members of the church, their families and guests are invited.

Buying Power of Hogs

BASED on the fair exchange relationship with prices of things farmers buy, hogs during the past decade have had materially less purchasing power than they had in the pre-war period. In 1933, it took about eight hogs to buy what three hogs would buy in the 1910-14 period as indicated above. In all the years since 1920-21 (excepting in 1925-26 when there was a temporary reduction in hog supply) the purchasing power of hogs has been on a general downward trend.

In 1932, the fair exchange value of hogs was $7.75 per hundredweight. The prices of things farmers buy averaged slightly above their pre-war level. But the actual farm price of hogs in 1932 was only $3.47 per hundredweight, or $4.28 below fair exchange value.

Fair exchange value means the pre-war price for hogs only when the price of things farmers buy is at the pre-war level. If the prices of things farmers buy become double their pre-war level, then the fair exchange value will be double the pre-war price of hogs.

The corn-hog production adjustment program under the Agricultural Adjustment Act seeks to raise hog prices to the current fair exchange value. This may be done by bringing production into better balance with the most profitable demand through a reduction in 1934 of 25 percent in hog production and 20 percent in corn acreage.

Seebawa Camp Fire Girls of Saugatuck have elected: President, Jeanne Force; vice president, Mildred Bekkan; secretary, Laverne Taylor; scribe, Jane Brady. The camp is planning a Christmas party.

The J.U.G. Club, Ganges, was entertained in the home of Mrs. Edwards last week. Mrs. Gertrude Mosier will be hostess at the meeting Dec. 9. In this day of initials and codes it is difficult to conjecture what some letters stand for. This one is rather suspicious looking in this day and age, but we feel harmless in good old Ganges.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen L. Newnam of Saugatuck are celebrating their fifty-fourth anniversary of their marriage, which took place in Saugatuck Dec. 6, 1879. They have two sons here, Richard and Harry, and two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Dick of Harvey, Ill., and Bessie Neil in Arizona. Mr. Newnam was born in London, England, in 1854 and came to America when a lad. For many years he was an engineer on the Great Lakes and in the winter he taught school. He now is justice of the peace. Both Mr. and Mrs. Newnam are workers in the O.E.S., of which he is a past patron; he also is a past master of F. & A. M. and his days are filled with various activities. He is a brother of the late Judge Newnam of Grand Rapids.

Bids were asked last Thursday by Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, on highway projects aggregating $822,925. They included in Allegan county 1.8 miles of 20-foot concrete pavement, US-31, Glenn northeast relocation, $67,000.

The Pennville Lumber Company received a curiosity last week in the form of a piece of bark a foot thick from a redwood tree. It came in a carload of lumber. These trees reach a size of 30 feet in diameter and are many hundred years old. Mr. Bourne will give the bark to the school for their collection.

Announcement was made this week of the purchase of the former home of M. C. Hutchinson, Pennville, by Walter Hicks, superintendent of the canning factory.

During December the pastor of the Pennville Baptist church, Miss Olson, will preach a series of Christmas sermons on the theme "Jesus Your Own Saviour."

Deer hunters of Pennville and vicinity are all home again. A few brought back trophies of their marksmanship, but most of them didn't. Among the lucky ones were Guy Teed, Jim Miller, Chas. Rose and Walter Kunen. Well, deer season in Michigan is over again with its usual fatalities. Heavy snow prevented more of them.

Robert Westveld took over the management of the Standard Oil station on Dec. 1. His place at the Dickinson Department store at Pennville is now filled by Archie Flanders.

Seems to be moving time in Pennville so many families are changing their places of abode. Carne Tucker has moved to his farm, Walter Hicks bought the former M. C. Hutchinson house. N. E. Herrick has rented the Hardie home and Vern Whittaker will occupy the Gidley house. Coleman Davison shift over to the Barron place and Oscar Berggren moves into his own place on Maple avenue. And as heretofore noted, Kenith Jackson is now domiciled in his West Main street bungalow.

The Pennville city council has been notified that its application for development of the Pennville cemetery, located one mile west of here, has been granted through the Lansing office of the federal civil works administration. This will involve an expenditure of $2,500 and will employ a number of men for eight weeks. The greater part of the work is in laying water lines in the new addition of three acres and making drives through it. This addition was purchased from George C. DuVall a few years ago.

The Douglas Congregational Ladies' society met at the parsonage yesterday with Mesdames Morgan, Van Syckel and Scarlett as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nye of Ganges went to Ann Arbor, spending Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. E. T. Burgh and family. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nye, Harry Nye, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Deters also spent Thanksgiving with them in the College City. All have returned to Ganges reporting a pleasant visit.

A report has just been made covering 30 farms in Ottawa and Allegan counties for 1932 which shows that of the ten most profitable farms, five were in Ottawa county; of the ten intermediate farms, Ottawa claims four; also that of the ten least profitable farms the two poorest were in Ottawa. The investigation also showed that the dairy products sold per cow amounted to $71. The value of eggs sold per hen was $1.95. The average yield of corn per acre was 38.7 bushels and the yield of wheat was 25.5 bushels. The per cent of tillable land in legumes was 26.3. Land and personal taxes per farm was $118. The net farm income was $465. Here's the most startling figure; if the average farmer's investment was charged five per cent interest there would be $573 less than nothing as a labor and management income.

REV. FIFIELD STATES THAT RUSSIA IS WRONG

Rev. J. W. Fifield of Grand Rapids gave a lecture in the high school auditorium Monday evening for the benefit of the American Legion Christmas basket fund. Rev. Fifield, who was introduced by Rev. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope Reformed church, spoke on the subject "Is Russia Right?" He stated that he was convinced that Russia is wrong and that the proposition such as is worked out in that country will never stand.

Rev. Fifield pointed out that Russian communism is not the communism that we know in our country. Russia has plans to manufacture 140,000 automobiles yearly, but has no roads on which to drive them; Russia has big power plants, but no place to use electrical energy, the speaker explained.

He also told of conditions in Germany, France and Great Britain. He stated that the countries are preparing for war, and that the question is not whether there will be a war, but rather when the attacks will break out.

Rev. Fifield pictured a comparison of God's country and the lands across the sea, stating that here are found real opportunities, freedom and liberties compared to the Russian peasant who is always sad and never smiling.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

The days following Thanksgiving mean a let down or effort to the housewife. Simple fare after feasting is best for digestion and for purse. Friday's fare is a welcome change and the variety is great, considering that fasting weather has been bad. Oysters are especially attractive just now.

Many people like to have cold sliced turkey for their Sunday dinner. Since it is wise to buy a large turkey, as it carries more meat in proportion to bone than a smaller one, there should be plenty left. Some people, however, prefer turkey sandwiches or a salad of sliced turkey, celery, chopped olives and salad dressing for the Sunday night supper.

There is no change in the fruits and vegetables available though prices and quantities may vary slightly. Green peas are somewhat cheaper after a long period of high prices.

The Quaker Maid suggests the following after-Thanksgiving menus:

Low Cost Dinner

Braised Beef Balls Baked Potatoes Green Beans Bread and Butter Cottage Pudding Chocolate Sauce Tea or Coffee

Medium Cost Dinner

Cold Turkey, Hot Dressing and Gravy Mashed Potatoes Brussels Sprouts Cranberry Sauce Rolls and Butter Mince Pie

Coffee Milk

Very Special Dinner

Consomme Celery Cold Turkey, Hot Dressing and Gravy Candied Sweet Potatoes Buttered Broccoli Cranberry Sauce Tomato Salad Salad Dressing Mince Pie Coffee Milk

FINAL RITES HELD FOR B. RICKSEN

Surviving are two sons and three daughters: Ryk Rickesen of Zeeland and Bert Rickesen of Holland, Mrs. Mulder of Eastmanville, Mrs. C. Vander Schoor and Mrs. Harriet Stanley of Holland; one sister, Mrs. E. J. Nienhuis of North Holland, and a brother, Henry Rickesen, of Oak Harbor, Washington, also survive.
