Wandering Sand Dunes Cease Their Creeping

THIS SECTION OF MICHIGAN
HAS HAD MANY EXAMPLES OF THE DAMAGE OF
SHIFTING SAND

Singapore, once near Saugatuck—the Pompeii of Michigan—has been written about in poetry and prose and everyone knows the story of this buried city. It was mill days. But what happened to Singapore and also a village near Grand Haven—a story—recently published in the Holland City News—has been going on in a smaller way all around us. However, in the early days, there was no checking the slow moving, but sure creeping, shifting sands that covered every thing in its wake.

Numerous articles have been appearing in print from time to time dealing with the encroachment of sand on villages, lakes, farms and roads. A lot of interesting facts concerning Michigan's early history are thus brought out. They also carry somewhat of a challenge to the ingenuity of man in overcoming the battle with nature. Michigan, along its western coast has many sand dunes, which like waves are burying everything in their path. Several are locally famous—representing old land marks. There is "Creeping Joe" at Manistee, finally carried off bodily by a large corporation using moulding sand. There is "Pigeon Hill" at Muskegon; "Dewey Hill" at Grand Haven; "Old Baldy" at Saugatuck; and several more. The Forestry Department at Michigan State College has for a considerable time been making a study of sand dunes and their control.

Today we are able to say, "any sand dune in Michigan can be stopped and at no great expense." There are three outstanding examples as proof of this statement. Some 25 years ago Prof. Arnold Mulder of Holland, now on the Kalamazoo College faculty, wrote a story entitled, "The Dominion of Harlem." It concerned a small settlement of Dutch Living near North Holland. The story centered over the construction of a large drainage ditch called the Harlem ditch. Soon after its construction, the shifting sands began bearing down on it and in it, so the story goes, but actually the drain was there. Some money was spent in re-digging and finally the college forestry department was consulted to see if a permanent cure could not be effected. In actual life, and not in story, the result was that several thousand trees were sent to Ottawa County and planted with the cooperation of the county agricultural agent of this county. The sand was stopped almost immediately and today there are poplar trees forty feet high as a monument to this early effort.

A somewhat worse dune was causing trouble in Muskegon county. This was the Michilindine blow sand area. This dune was gradually encroaching on a road and causing expense each year in the removal of sand. Again, together with the cooperation of Muskegon County's agricultural agent, this area was planted in 1928 and every year, since then, the blowing was immediately stopped and a fine growth of trees is taking the place of a barren expanse of sand. Allerton county's most famous dune is "Old Baldy." This dune has been a great source of both revenue and expense to the town of Saugatuck—revenue because it is one of the attractions for thousands of resorters who love to climb its sandy steep—expensive because hundreds of dollars were spent in hauling away sand which threatened to bury a road and fill up a channel in the Kalamazoo River. Finally the expense overshadowed the gains and steps were considered for stopping "Old Baldy." This time it was a three cornered fight—the forestry department, Allegan county agent, A. D. Morley, and Harry Newham representing Saugatuck vs. "Old Baldy" and "Old Baldy" lost.

It might also be stated that some work has been done on Dewey Hill, but owing to a lack of finances, the results are not satisfactory. It would seem that this depression year is a good year in which to foster public improvements such as the control of sand dunes. Many men could be profitably employed for a short time at least, and the townships would be getting returns instead of doling out money. The Forestry Department stands ready to cooperate with any group wishing to carry on this type of work.

Ottawa County Farm Agent Milham has done much good work at Dewey Hill and also at Harlem. He says as follows: "Farmers on the present time should make cuttings of willow and poplar now, burying them until spring then planting on the sand blow. Under these conditions will grow rapidly and after shifting sands is stopped permanent trees should be planted on these waste areas."

SINGAPORE THE BURIED MILL TOWN

This was the way thrifty Singapore near Saugatuck appeared before wandering sand dunes covered it completely, including mills, stores and homes.

MEMBER OF OLD HOLLAND FAMILY DIES

The Grand Rapids Herald gave an account of the death of Miss Anna J. Wiersma, 65, lifelong resident of this vicinity. She was a member of Fountain Street Baptist church.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Alice Rogers of Grand Rapids, and two brothers, Anthony Wiersma of Chicago and Cornelius Wiersma of Jackson.

The Wiersmas were former residents of Holland, the family living on West 9th St. Mr. Wiersma was a carpenter and Holland's first street commissioner. Tony Wiersma lived in this city for a long time and was a postal clerk under Postmaster Wm. Verbeek. Mrs. Alice Rogers was the wife of "Bill" Rogers, at one time editor and publisher of the Holland City News.

AUTO PARTY ON THE WAY HOME

Charles Van Zylsen has sent The News several picture postal cards describing his trip through Texas and Old Mexico. On the trip, besides Mr. Van Zylsen are Albert Keppel, Bert Gebben and Henry Zwemer. They also called on "Bill" Kellogg, head of the Houston, Texas, telephone exchange. Mr. Kellogg was at one time head of "Bell" exchange in Holland. However he holds a very responsible position in Texas, and is one of the "big boys" in the telephone world.

The party is stopping over in Hot Springs, and will be home early next week in order to do some Christmas shopping before the big day arrives.

In the past two weeks $26,000 has been distributed to sugar beet workers and truckers in the Lansing sugar beet area, a majority of whom reside in Eaton county. The growers of the county, who received approximately $130,000 Thursday as the first installment of their returns on their crop, will not obtain all of their money nor will the factory operators receive theirs until spring, when all the sugar made at the Lansing plant of the Crystal White Sugar company has been sold.

The last court of honor of the year for Boy Scouts of east central district will be held in headquarters of Troop 21 in Zeeland on Dec. 19. The court of review will be conducted before the court of honor. Rev. R. J. Van der Berg will be in charge. Chairman M. B. Rogers and C. Post will assist with presentations. District Commissioner W. H. Vandewater will conduct the court of review. A special program on scouting has been prepared.

Old Van Vleck At Christmas Time

This snow scene was one taken of Hope college campus on a Christmas morning, many years ago with old Van Vleck hall being the highlight in the picture. Rather a beautiful and at the same time a lonesome scene—for a large majority of the students had gone to their respective homes, whether near or far, to spend their Yuletide holidays in home surroundings.

Van Vleck, however, always houses a number of students, who because of economy, cannot possibly make the trip. That has been a fact since Hope college has been established. These students, however, in later years have not been forgotten. A large number receive invitations for Christmas and president and faculty, as well as good Mrs. Durfee, do not allow them to spend a lonesome day in grim old Van Vleck on Christmas. And while we are on the subject of

Van Vleck hall we might say it was the first real pretentious building on Hope college campus. It has raised its hoary head from the hill top since 1857. It was Dr. Van Raalte, who collected $12,000 to erect this building, while the work of constructing was directed by Rev. John Van Vleck, after whom the building was named. It was Mr. Walter C. Taylor and Mr. Van Vleck who taught and laid the foundation for Hope Academy, later Hope college. A great deal of student labor went into this building and it has served in many capacities. Part of it was utilized as the home of the first president of Hope, Dr. Philip Phelps, from 1866 to 1878. The late Professors Zutphen, Klienhekel, Dr. Kollen and Doesburg had their classrooms there. The library also occupied one large room in the building. Some ten years ago President Dimmet converted it entirely to a men's dormitory. In the early days only the two top stories were available for that purpose, and well do we remember the little wood stoves in each room and the wood the students had to lug up several flights of stairs. That was before the Holland furnace.

Then we remember the old iron pump at the entry way before waterworks was installed and the old brass hand bell which sounded for class periods. The ringing was done by old man De Witt and the old gentleman Bloemendahl, who have long since gone to their reward.

But we are straying away from this Christmas scene for we could go on and write a volume along these lines. Suffice it to say that of all the beautiful buildings in stone or marble on the campus there is not one that tugs at the heartstrings of Hope alumni quite as much as old Van Vleck.

ZEELAND POST OFFICE SITES WERE INSPECTED

W. R. Walters, postal inspector, was in Zeeland Tuesday and Wednesday of this week viewing the several sites in this city offered by local property owners for the proposed new post office building to be erected there. In all there were about twenty sites offered but no indication was made which site would be accepted, if any.

Good wood can be purchased in Hamilton for nine shillings per cord. This is caused by the C. and W. M. railroad, who refuse to buy wood this winter. Note: In those days all local engines were wood burners and the stacks were covered by a large "spark catcher" to prevent woods fires. NELLA BREEN AT GRAND HAVEN

The Parent-Teacher association of the Christian school at Grand Haven met last evening. The program committee had been very fortunate in securing Miss Nella Breen of Holland as the main speaker. Miss Breen has spoken to local audiences before and many remembered her interesting message. Miss Breen is assistant missionary to Miss Johanna Veenstra, who is a missionary in Africa, and in home on her first furlough.

A group of the Immanuel Under-nominal church of this city will conduct the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning at the Baptist church in Allegan.

HATCHING THEM OUT IN A SNOW STORM

Mr. and Mrs. John Kraemer of Douglas have a spring pullet that stole its nest and hatched six little chicks about two weeks ago in a snow storm. All six chicks are still alive. It is unusual for a pullet to set before it is a year old but the Douglas hen is different and there is also something unusual in hatching a brood of chicks in midwinter when an incubator does not even attempt.

Ottawa County's leading potato club boy, William Westrate, of Coopersville, won the fourth place on his exhibit of Irish Cobbler potatoes at the National exhibit in Chicago. This is the second consecutive year that William has placed at the National potato exhibit. He has been a member of the Hanchett 4-H potato club for four years. His work has been outstanding not only in the county but in the state. The Michigan State College has awarded him a scholarship for work in Michigan. At the last 4-H State club week he was elected a member of the State 4-H Service Club, an honorary organization of leading club members. Leonard Westrate, his brother, is president of the State Service Club. Instruction in growing, judging and exhibiting potatoes in club work came through the county agricultural agent.

PROF. WINTER SPEAKS AT GRAND HAVEN

Prof. Egbert Winter of Hope college addressed the meeting of the Central Parent-Teacher association of the high school auditorium at Grand Haven Tuesday evening. The program was in charge of the men and Ralph Wilson presided.

Dr. Winter spoke on "Peace Training in the Home." Personal examples of mothers and fathers do much to train and make lasting impressions on young children, he said. He pointed to the increase in divorces, saying in 1904 there were four divorces for every 100 marriages. In 1932 there were 25 out of every 100, indicating the atmosphere in the homes was probably anything but peaceful.

He advised surrounding the child with literature that avoided the glory of war but rather stressed the glory of courage, truth and real valor.

Alfred Joldersma, former assistant city clerk, has taken a responsible position with the Holland City State bank. Note: "Al" is still with this bank and surely has made good.

Railroad Man Plans Western Trip But Dies

LATE ENGINEER BECAME HOLLAND "POTATO
KING"

Men in railroad circles and many friends in Holland, Muskegon and elsewhere, were grieved to hear of the death of Marinus Hektor, age 72, which took place at his home, 166 Fairbanks Avenue, Saturday.

Mr. Hektor, who was born in this city, became fascinated with railroad trains and engines early in life and started as fireman on the old Chicago-West Michigan railroad, now the Pere Marquette.

After firing an engine for five years he became engineer and served for 40 years until he was retired on a pension. There are no black marks back of Hektor's name in railroading. He was in two accidents and never had a death in any railroad wreck that he was in, and the company also exonerated him in these two.

At the time of his retirement, three years ago, he was the oldest engineer on the Pere Marquette system. He naturally was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Quite a departure from pulling the throttle of an engine was when he went into the potato business in Holland around World War times. Potatoes were tremendously high at that time, largely because of a very short crop. Hektor had run his engine through potato country for a number of years and knew that he could get potatoes at quite a reasonable price in that "neck of the woods."

Hektor shipped in several cars, had them carted to a vacant store downtown and sold potatoes all winter for $1.75 and $2.00 a bushel, much lower than they could be purchased for elsewhere.

It was not long before Hektor's cargo was cleaned out and he kept shipping in more cars until this vicinity was well supplied with potatoes.

When potatoes came down again Hektor discontinued the potato store and has been devoting his time largely to traveling about, spending his winters in California. His plans were to go west again this year but death intervened.

The funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Joshua O. Randall, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating.

The remains were taken to Muskegon, where a second service was held at the clock funeral home Monday afternoon and interment took place in the Muskegon cemetery, where his first wife is buried.

Surviving are his widow, formerly Miss Lydia J. Hopkins of Chicago, who he married May 4, 1931; and two daughters, Mrs. M. B. Morgan and Miss Frances Sacket, both of Detroit.

FORMER HOLLAND MAN GETS CALL TO KALAMAZOO

Rev. Jerry Veldman, pastor of Richmond Street Reformed church, Grand Rapids, has accepted a call to Bethany Reformed church at Kalamazoo. Mr. Veldman has been a Holland resident for 10 years, graduating from Hope college and the Western Theological seminary. For several years he wrote "sports" copy for the Holland City News. Mr. Veldman married Miss Adeline Borgman, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Borgman, 12 West 13th St.

HOLLAND CITY NEWS ADVERTISERS TISEMENTS GOOD NEWS

The Holland City News appears this week with the sections filled with Christmas announcements from different merchants of this city.

This is the season of the year when advertising is real news. These hundreds of announcements contain thousands of suggestions for Christmas—gifts at prices that were never before so reasonable. When you read the news in the News also read the display matter for that is real holiday news. Remember—now is the time to buy—Christmas is less than ten days away. By all means buy in Holland for the builds our city and our countryside.

Christmas Mail

That bromide about nothing being certain except death and taxes could be amended to include the tardy mailing of Christmas cards and packages. There will always be some people who will mail these items a day or two before Christmas, in the blithe expectancy that they will be delivered on time, even into Timbuctoo and the furthest ends of the earth. Christmas mail offers a big challenge each year to any postoffice to get letters and parcels sorted and out promptly. If folks who are sending presents and cards will co-operate by mailing them early they will not only help to prevent congestion at the postoffices, but will insure the arrival of their messages.

Of course they should also write all addresses correctly and plainly, including a return address. Because many do not do this, Uncle Sam has to keep a dead letter office open 12 months of the year at an approximate annual cost of $1,000,000. Anyway, Christmas is less than two weeks away. Get those cards and packages in the mail early; and be sure to put Christmas seals on them, too.

Locally you can aid Postmaster Westwater and his able staff tremendously by following the rule—prompt mailing and proper and plain addressing.

WESTRAT-VAN HARTES- VELDT CASE SET FOR NEXT WEEK

The Westrate-Van Hartesveldt case that occupied the attention of the court for four days two months ago and is to be retried by order of Judge Miles, is on call for next week in circuit court, Grand Haven. It is hoped to have the case finished before Christmas. Undoubtedly the trial will not take up as much time as before unless new and more witnesses are brought into the case.

Judge Miles stated there is but one case ahead of the above-named court matter.

FLU CONTINUES HEAVY TOLL IN G. H. SCHOOLS

Grand Haven schools and business places continue to have empty ranks due to ravages of the flu here. More than 100 absentees were reported by high school authorities and two teachers are still ill there. The grades are also suffering. A large number of absences were reported from the Christian school today.

WRITES FOR WOODRUFF TO BE TODAY, FRIDAY

Funeral services for Archie Woodruff, 33, of this city, who died last week in Cumberland, Md., where he was stricken with pneumonia while en route to Washington, D. C., with a group of "hunger marchers," will be held today, Friday, at 2 o'clock from the Nibelink-Notier chapel. Rev. James Wayer, pastor of First Reformed church, and Rev. J. Lanting, pastor of Immanuel church, will officiate. Burial will be in Holland Township cemetery.

A memorial meeting to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Woodruff was held last evening by Holland's unemployed council.

For the past five years Mr. Woodruff was a resident of Detroit, where services were held on Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of Detroit's unemployed council.

BACH PROGRAM PRESENTED BY HOL- LAND MUSICIANS' CLUB

Wednesday afternoon the Holland Musicians' club held a Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Visscher. The program of the afternoon was in charge of Miss Ruth Keppel.

Miss Keppel read a most instructive paper on Bach, the world's master musician. Miss Keppel stated that the modern art of playing begins with Bach. He exercised more influence on the development of music than any composer who ever lived. Bach surpassed all that had been done before him while at the same time laid the foundation for all that was to be written in the future.

The universal reverence in which Bach is held is due not merely to unsurpassed science, but also to the intellectual force and emotional depth in his works. Superior to all masters in workmanship he still remains one of the most supreme masters of expression.

The following program of Bach compositions was presented:

Vocal solo, "Bist Du Bei Mir," sung by Mrs. Jeanette Brumbaugh; violin, concerto in A Minor (allegro and andante movements), by Miss Ruth Keppel.

Mrs. Martha Robbins played the Last arrangement of the Bach organ prelude and fugue in C minor. Miss Ruth Keppel concluded the program with Sonata No. 2 (Sarabande), for violin alone.

Judge Fred T. Miles is exchanging views with Judge John Vandewerf of the Muskegon circuit court.

Ottawa County Ready for Storms That May Blow

BIG SNOW PLOWS ARE WELL EQUIPPED—MEN OFFER PUT IN 24 HOURS STRAIGHT
AFTER BIG BLOW

For weeks the Ottawa county road commission has been making preparations for the winter season which has arrived earlier than in several years. In fact to date there have been more severe weather and more snow than at any time last year up to March. Miles of snow fence have been erected and the giant plows, tractors, scrapers, and sanders have been put in commission at the big plant on Monroe St., where the major part of the equipment is kept.

The county plans to keep open by using plows 90 miles of trunk line highways, 175 miles of county roads and some of the township roads.

The county department has erected about 20 miles of snow fence over the county. There are giant snow plows that have been recently hooked up to the big trucks and the sanding machines are in order. The sand is mixed with chloride at the plant to make it stick to the ice.

Recently a large door was cut in the plant to allow the big snow plows to run into the garage that no time be wasted when the force is put on in day and night shifts. Thus far there has been only a little scraping to be done. But it is after the snow is piled up on the side of the roads, and the fields are full, that drifts form easily and require constant plowing.

Many thousands of dollars are saved the county commission by the efficiency of the building. A machine shop is provided so that all repair work is done here. There is a sign painting department, where the thousands of signs required around the county are repaired, repainted, stakes for laying out new jobs are salvaged after each job is completed, allowing the stakes to be used for two years.

Riding over the open highways all winter long, the individual becomes so accustomed to them as to forget that they are attained only by constant work of this road crew. When storms are severe a crew works night and day. Last year in a sudden heavy snowfall some of the men worked 24 hours continuously.

Some of the township roads are not heavy or wide enough to permit use of the heavy plows and trucks. It is only the township roads that have since the passage of the McNitt bill that the county is required to keep open.

WOMAN WINS $600 AWARD IN CAR CRASH SUIT

Mrs. Clara Snuverink of Holland was awarded a $600 verdict by a circuit court jury at Grand Haven for damages and injuries sustained when her car was struck by one driven by Maurice Davis of Chicago. The accident occurred in Holland and Mrs. Snuverink was badly injured. The jury deliberated for one hour and ten minutes. Judge John Vandewerf of Muskegon presided.

ZUTPHEN CHURCH HOLDS ANNUAL MEET

Congregational meeting was held last week Monday evening at the Zutphen church when the following elders and deacons were elected. Elders: Gerrit Heyboer, newly elected, and Harm Ringewinkel and John Loeks, re-elected. Deacons: Jacob Kreuze was elected and Gerrit Nynhuis and Jacob Heuler re-elected. The retiring elder is C. Veen and the retiring deacon Gerrit Heyboer.

FESTOONS OF LIGHT BEAU- TIFY HOLLAND STREETS

Holland business districts are again illuminated with festoons, of colored lights for the holidays, extending on both sides of Eighth St. and River Ave. Flag sockets at the edge of walks in front of the stores have been utilized for placing Christmas trees for decorations. This work was in charge of Shady Lawn Florist and Cook Co. Two trees in Centennial park will be illuminated with colored lights and topped with a large star. Carols will be sung Christmas eve by hundreds of voices led by ex-Mayor John Vanderluis and sponsored by Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The trees in the park and the decorations on the main street will remain lighted until and including New Year's night.

BEWARE, SANTA CLAUS. LEST YOU GO UP IN SMOKE AT CHRISTMAS

Fire Chief C. Blom, who wishes to prevent the turning of Merry Christmas into tragedy through careless use of inflammable materials has set out to broadcast his annual warning.

"Hardly a year goes by that some kind soul, going by Santa Claus, doesn't go up in smoke when his whiskers catch fire. These Santa Claus should be made as fireproof as possible and the wearers should be careful not to come in contact with anything that may set them on fire," Mr. Blom states.

"The use of candles on Christmas trees, is of course a romantic but a thing of the past, but we do find them and they never should be used under any circumstances. The electric lights are much safer, yet they offer a certain hazard. People should be careful that the wiring to the lights is in good order and that no inflammable materials come in contact with the lights, else a fire may start."

He cautioned merchants against using inflammable materials in window displays where lights are used which may come in contact with the material.

YULETIDE DOLLAR
NOW BUYS MORE

The Christmas dollar will buy 18 per cent more this year. And because of this the volume of holiday business should make a favorable comparison with the year before for the first time since the boom.

While the average American will have about 20 per cent less to spend due to unemployment and salary and wage cuts, the greater purchasing power of the dollar due to price reductions should offset this to a large extent.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM IS PRESENTED AT LITERARY CLUB

Members of the Woman's Literary club enjoyed a Christmas program at their meeting Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. McBride was in charge. The club house was decorated appropriately for the occasion.

Preceding the convening of the club, members were greeted with the familiar Christmas carols and hymns, played behind scenes by Mrs. Hazel Wing Guild.

Mrs. J. E. Telling sang "Christmas Hallelujah" by Ganes. Mrs. Guild accompanied her, and Mrs. J. D. French played a violin obligato behind scenes, with lovely effect.

Miss Margaret Westveer gave a reading, "Beasley's Christmas." A quartet of college men, Bruce Van Leeuwen, Carl Zickler, Carlyle Neckers and V. Lindsey, accompanied by William Welmers, sang.

A German legend, "The Story of the Christ Child," was read by Mrs. Marjorie Daugherty.

A group of Christmas songs from Poland, France, Spain and Russia were sung by about forty boys from the sixth grade, and a group of about fifty first and second grade children sang carols under the direction of Miss Elaine Meyer.

Mrs. John Vereke was a guest of her sister, Mrs. C. D. Van Lee, at her home in Holland last week, Thursday.—Zeeland Record.

IMPORTANT RELIGIOUS MEETINGS TO BE HELD

The Classis of Holland, through the committee of the Consistorial union, appointed in the meeting on Evangelism, held in the First Reformed church of Zeeland last Monday, announces that on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Dec. 19, another meeting will be held in the local Second Reformed church, for all the men of the Classis.

This meeting is in the nature of a follow-up meeting. The spiritual power evidenced in the last meeting has moved the Classis to have more meetings of a devotional nature for purposes of a new consecration and a deeper spiritual life among all the churches within the bounds of the Classis.

It is felt that there is a spontaneous spiritual awakening in our churches and that the men of these churches are moved to come together to rededicate themselves to their high calling in their Lord for deliverance from sin which lies at the bottom of these trying times, and also to praise God from whom all help is awaited.

The committee planning this meeting met Wednesday morning in the Trinity Reformed church parsonage at Holland. The members of the committee are the Rev. Richard Vandenberg, chairman, Zeeland; Rev. John Wolterink, Forest Grove; Mr. John Pater of Jamestown; Mr. D. De Kleine, Forest Grove; Mr. H. H. Boeve, Ebenezer, and Rev. H. D. Ter Keurst, Holland.

FIRE DESTROYS RESIDENCE IN VRIESLAND

Fire on last Saturday evening destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron De Jonge, about one mile south of Vriesland. The origin of the fire is thought to have been through a defective chimney and the firing of highly inflammable fuel during the excessively cold weather.

The house was the property of Mr. Ben Kroodsma, but had been occupied by the De Jonge family since last February and was covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered in time to save most of the clothing and furniture but De Jonge with his wife and two children became homeless.

Civic Chorus Greeted By 2600 At Hope Memorial Chapel

MAGNIFICENT WORK OF CHORUS IN RENDERING THE MESSIAH RECEIVES FINISHING TOUCHES THROUGH U. OF M. SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Possibly one of the most unusual musical treats listened to by an audience of 2600 at Hope Memorial chapel, was when the Holland Civic chorus, under the direction of Prof. W. Curtis Snow, rendered the most impressive religious oratorio, The Messiah, Tuesday evening.

The chorus, composed of nearly 100 mixed voices, gave an unusual rendition of this Biblical masterpiece and the work of the local talent was enhanced greatly by the accompaniment of the University of Michigan Symphony orchestra, one of the most talented organizations of this type in the state.

The soloists were remarkable in their interpretation of The Messiah. Those who did solo work were Miss Marjorie McClung, soprano, and Mrs. Kathryn Strong Gutekunst, contralto, of Grand Rapids; James De Jonge, tenor, of Zeeland, and Jack Bos, baritone, of Holland.

The story of the Messiah, so closely allied with the yuletide season, was unfolded step by step, interpreted through most impressive music that held the audience spellbound. The orchestra put a finish to the production that was wonderful, indicating to the fullest extent the background that a fine organization of that character proves to be, besides being a potent factor in aiding the chorus in their work, giving the individuals added confidence in their able director.

The presentation opened with an overture by the orchestra. The full orchestra, with a slow and solid tempo, created atmosphere for the opening tenor solo by Mr. De Jonge. In a clear lyric tenor, the prophecy of the Messiah was told in song.

The first chorus was "And the Glory of the Lord" in which an antiphonal effect is obtained by the composer. Mr. Bos and Mrs. Gutekunst sang the remaining solo work in the first part of the oratorio, and their work was commendable.

The second part of the presentation was that depicting the pastoral scene, where the birth of the Christ is made known to the shepherds.

COMFORT YE MY PEOPLE
Every valley shall be exalted
And the glory of the Lord
Thus saith the Lord
But who may abide the day of His coming?
Behold, a virgin shall conceive
O Thou that tellest good tidings to Zion
For behold, darkness shall cover the earth
The people that walked in darkness
For unto us a Child is born
There were shepherds abiding in the field
And lo! the Angel of the Lord came upon them
And the angel said unto them
And suddenly there was with the angel
Glory be to God
Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion
Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened
He shall feed His flock like a shepherd
Come unto Him

All extravagant words and wild claims have been eliminated from the promotion of this sale. We are letting "The Values Speak for Themselves." During the last two years a host of cheap shoes have found their way into some retail stores. Some manufacturers—faced with lowering sales due to reduced buying power of the public—developed these "price" [or cheap] shoes to meet conditions. However, as they always have in the past, "QUALITY SHOES" are again in general demand.

Sportsmen From Holland Make A Strong Protest

HOLLAND FISH GAME CLUB
HOLLAND FISH-GAME CLUB
WANT PRIVATE SHOOTING
PRESERVES LAW CHANGED

Michigan's private shooting preserve law must be radically changed if it is to prove effective in increasing the ringneck pheasant supply in the state, the Conservation Commission declared in a resolution adopted at its December meeting, and in answer to numerous resolutions adopted by sportsmen's organizations.

"We are greatly disappointed that more owners of small acreage and primarily engaged in agriculture have not availed themselves of the intended advantages of this act," the resolution stated. "It has been developed in directions which we believe are not in keeping with the original intention of the plan. In this building up an antagonistic public sentiment, we believe it has over-reached itself and has proven impracticable in its present form."

"We believe there is a sound conservation principle involved in the act, especially as to the wider use of land and propagation of game, but its present construction must be radically changed to meet its practical application as it has developed."

A resolution adopted by the Holland Fish and Game Club and read before the Commission charged that the Private Shooting Preserve Law, adopted in 1929, has resulted in commercialization and "introduction of the European System into Michigan," and asked that the season and limits under the law be made to conform to the general game law.

The Central Sportsmen's Committee of Grand Rapids and the Grand Rapids Chapter of the Izaak Walton League, in resolutions directed to the Commission claimed that the law is in effect creating a system under which free hunting is lost, and requested remedies similar to those offered by the Holland club.

CUTTER ESCANABA CARRIES TWO CANNON, THREE MACHINE GUNS

The new coast guard cutter Escanaba, docked at Grand Haven, her future home, is well armed for a craft whose mission is peaceful. On the deck, mounted on either side forward of the deck house are two six pounders. These guns may be used for throwing either life line balls or service ammunition and practice is to be held once each year with them.

In the Escanaba's armory are two Lewis machine guns; one Thompson sub-machine gun; twenty-two 30-30 calibre rifles; twelve 45 calibre pistols; two very pistols for signaling; and some smaller bore weapons. A liberal supply of ammunition for all arms is carried aboard.

HUDSONVILLE IS AROUSED OVER POISONING OF DOGS

Residents of Hudsonville are aroused over the fatal poisoning in the last few days of three dogs, all fine canine specimens and all held in affection by the owners and friends.

Mrs. Hattie Smith, hotel proprietor, Friday night found her Collic dead, the third poison victim. Two valuable Newfoundland dogs died Thursday as the result of poison potions administered from an as yet unidentified source.

SAUGATUCK ALSO TROUBLED WITH THIEVING

On account of the prevalence of petty thieving at present the Saugatuck village board is formulating a patrol system to guard the business district after the closing of stores in the evening. It will be thorough and very strict and those abroad late at night will be asked to give an account of themselves.

MAY MAIL GREETING CARDS FOR 1½c POSTAGE

Christmas cards may be mailed in unsealed envelopes with a 1½ cent stamp, provided the enclosed card contains only a signature or name, Postmaster Westveer stated. This means of cutting postage costs will undoubtedly be resorted to by many senders this year.

NEW WATER MAINS AT SAUGATUCK COMPLETED

The 5,000 feet of new water main on the west side of the river at Saugatuck has been completed. It runs both ways from Bald Head park and is connected with the Douglas water system on the south end for use in case of emergency. There have been placed seven new hydrants with pump connections. This convenient water supply should help the insurance rates among the properties of our summer colony.

Patrons are reminded of the new increased postage rates, which require a 3-cent stamp for all first class mail in place of the former and familiar 2-cent stamp. These increased postage rates are national and apply all over the United States.

A LONG WAIT

My grandpa notes the world's worn cogs and says we're going to the dogs.

His granddad in his house of logs, aware things were going to the dogs.

His dad among the Flemish bogs vowed things were going to the dogs.

The cave man in his queer skin togs said things were going to the dogs.

But this is what I wish to state: The dogs have had an awful wait. —Pacific Cooperative Wool Grower.

PERE MARQUETTE ROAD IS USING NEW SALON CARS; HOLLAND WILL ALSO SEE THEM

The Pere Marquette is now operating a new and improved type of salon car between Grand Rapids and Detroit and plans, on Dec. 18, to start operating similar cars between Grand Rapids, Holland and Chicago. The cars are a combination chair car and diner just completed by the Pullman company and offering many new and advanced ideas in comfort and appointments.

The car is divided into three sections. One might be termed the lounge, the other the smoker and the third the dining section. The car is radio equipped and has the new air conditioning system which pumps fresh, washed air into the car and keeps the interior of the car at the proper temperature summer and winter. The crews of these cars are all Filipinos—the colored "Georges" who have been so faithful for more than a half century, having been eliminated, we are sorry to state.

ZEELAND GIRLS PROVIDE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES

The Girl Scouts of Zeeland held a meeting last week in their new headquarters.

The program, which was in charge of Miss Laura Berghorst, consisted of a reading, "The Gift of the Magi," by J. Vander Kolk, and Miss Gladys Van Haltsma read a Christmas story, "A Lot of Things."

During the business meeting which followed members decided to dress dolls furnished by the American Legion auxiliary.

The dolls will be given to children of needy families at the annual Christmas party. The girls will also prepare baskets of groceries for needy families. They plan to sing carols for shut-ins in conjunction with Zeeland Literary club plans.

Allegan Woman, 90 Years, Takes Airplane Ride

CAME TO ALLEGAN IN OX TEAM; RIDES OUT THROUGH THE AIR; SOME CHANGE

One of Allegan county's oldest residents enjoyed her first airplane ride and at an altitude of 1500 feet, delighted with the trip, exclaimed, "I like it! I could ride all day." She is longing to take another air ride soon.

The passenger was Mrs. Lila Merchant of Trowbridge, Allegan county, who makes her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Merchant. The latter accompanied the elder Mrs. Merchant, who was 90 years old, in the air trip.

Mrs. Merchant was born in New York state in 1842, four years before Dr. Van Rensselaer founded Holland. She moved to Allegan with her parents when she was but a little miss, going by canal boat to Buffalo, New York, and by coast ship to Detroit. From Detroit the family went to Kalamazoo by railroad, about the only one in Michigan, and from Kalamazoo the trip was made by oxen and the old "plank road" to Allegan. The trip to Kalamazoo took three weeks and from Kalamazoo to Allegan one day.

When they reached Allegan they found there was not much to the town, just a few wooden buildings. She remembers there was a grist mill, postoffice and grocery store combined and two hotels, but the dry goods store had burned down. The stage stopped at the Allegan House. Mrs. Merchant says there were not many horses in Allegan at that time, nearly everyone driving oxen.

But soon Allegan began to grow. Ira Chaffee built a saw and shingle mill and D. W. Bush put up a shingle mill. Then both of these mill owners built stores.

Mrs. Merchant says trading with the Indians was popular with many. However, the whites, as a rule, wouldn't accept what the Indians gave in return because of their lack of cleanliness. Some folks suggested to the Indians that they strain their maple syrup, and then one Indian, to prove that he had done so, showed Mrs. Merchant an old dirty blanket through which the "red man" and his "squaw" had strained the sugar sap.

Mrs. Merchant has always been industrious, and even today at her advanced age she is almost always seen sitting with some sort of handwork, knitting lace or crocheting. When she was only 11 years old she could sew and knit quite well. When she was quite young, only 15, she was married to Lemuel Foster of Allegan.

Mrs. Merchant married Luther Merchant of Trowbridge in 1869. Of all the sons and daughters born during both unions only one remains and the fine old lady lives with him and it is he who gave her the first airplane ride which makes ox team speed look like a standstill to her.

24 TB. DEATHS IN OTTAWA IN 2 YEARS

During the past two years, according to Dr. Ralph TenHave, county health commissioner, there have been 41 active tuberculosis cases and 24 deaths from tuberculosis in Ottawa county. Control of tuberculosis, he points out, calls for continuous efforts. Public interest must be kept up by education and publicity because recognition of the disease in its early stages is the only sure remedy, he says.

Many school students received the first test Tuesday under direction of Dr. F. M. Bartlett, of the Muskegon county sanatorium, at a clinic held in the courthouse. The health unit has received many requests for explanation of the results of the test, Dr. TenHave says, activity of the case cannot be actually determined until February when the X-ray and physical examinations are given.

Marriage license applications have been received from Charles Rance, 30, of Grand Haven, and Loretta I. Du Shane, 19, of Grand Haven, and from Raymond Schnap, 28, of Holland, and Alberta Klomprens, 23, of Holland.

HOLLAND TO SEEK ITS BOND ISSUE FROM R. F. C.

Holland withdrew its invitation for bids on the sale of emergency bonds authorized by the common council Wednesday. This action followed upon the suggestion of Howard C. Lawrence, state treasurer, that Holland substitute for its $54,000 bond issue a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. This suggestion was made in a communication to Oscar Peterson, city clerk, in reply to a request from Mr. Peterson for a certificate of approval on the proposed bond issue.

The city is in no great hurry for the money and undoubtedly the R. F. C. will be the source the money will come from. Holland's credit seems awful good when they invite you to have money. Some other cities do not find it so easy. Holland's credit has always stood high.

Big Ship Makes Harbor; Grand Haven WelcomesCITY GREETES CUTTER ESCANABA FROM PIER—FLAGS FLY AND BANQUET DUE OFFICERS

The cutter Escanaba, scheduled to arrive in Grand Haven, her home base, at 10 a. m. Thursday, according to word received from Sault Ste. Marie by the coast guard officer, arrived 24 hours late because of severe storms. There was a big sea outside, and as the boat is new, she arrived late because of a bad northwester blowing. It was not advisable to push her, said one of the coast guard officers, so that she was delayed several hours by the increasing storm.

Grand Haven turned out en masse Friday to witness the arrival of the splendid new ship, the finest of her type in the cutter service. The officers and crew were given a royal welcome to this, their future home. Flags about the city were flying and whistles and sirens blew, bells rang, signaling the entrance of the ship into the harbor. The streets leading to the docking place, at the government pier, was dotted with hundreds of citizens and school children all waving and shouting a hearty greeting.

Capt. William Preston with his Grand Haven coast guard crew went out in the local coast guard boat to escort the ship into the harbor and boats in the harbor gave the marine welcome. The seascouts also took an active part in the escort.

The official welcome was extended by a group of citizens on the government dock which was roped off for the occasion. The delegation included John Vyn, president of the chamber of commerce, and the following committee: Wm. Stribbley, secretary of the chamber of commerce; William Connelly, Paul Johnson, Walter Syrett, Hartger Jonker, Mayor William Ver Duin, City Manager Peter Kammeraad, Alderman Martin Boon, E. J. McCall, president of the Rotary club, and the following committee: A. L. Colten, F. B. Reghel and E. H. Babcock; Almon W. McCall, editor Grand Haven Daily Tribune; Major George L. Olsen, chairman of the Harbor commission; John Casemier, president of the Merchants' Service Bureau and George Barnard, secretary.

Com. John Kelly, his personnel officer, Fred D. Straubel, and Chief Yeoman Alvin Lane, a former officer on the ship, who has recently been transferred to the Grand Haven office, were in the group as official coast guard representatives to welcome Lieut. Com. Perkins, Liet. Com. Johnson and the remaining officers and crew.

The celebration proved to be a gala event. It was marked by stirring tunes played by the Grand Haven High School band, noise-makers, flags and streamers.

Following the introductions, the officers were taken for a ride about Grand Haven and vicinity to acquaint them with the business, residential and resort districts. The state and city police provided an escort.

This evening the directors of the chamber of commerce and the directors of the Rotary club entertained the commissioned and warrant officers at an informal banquet at the Elks club.

Company F. National Guards, invited the officers and entire crew to attend the dance given at the Armory last Friday night as the company's guests.

All week thus far the officers and crew have been feted by different organizations in Grand Haven and they surely have been made to feel at home.

In a former issue the Holland City News gave a complete description of this wonder ship that will visit Holland harbor from time to time in her coast guard duties.

The new cutter, constructed at a cost of $600,000, is designed for year-round service in keeping navigation open on Lake Michigan. She was constructed with an ice-breaking prow and her plates at the water line are 7-8 inch thick. She has a crew of 6 officers and 50 enlisted men, and is powered by a geared turbine with oil for fuel.

Clothes for the Needy

Women volunteers sewing for the needy under direction of the Red Cross produced 296,000 garments last year, and will produce millions of garments in the winter of 1932-33. These will be from the millions of yards of cotton cloth distributed by the national Red Cross from the 500,000 bales of cotton turned over to the organization by Congress. Cloth was sent to all chapters requesting it, and later it was proposed to send some simple ready made garments, including trousers, overalls, underwear, stockings and sox.

Blind Readers Get Books

Books in braille for reading by the blind are made by women under Red Cross direction. Last year 2,813 such books were produced in single copy, and 3,538 in double copies. Fiction, biography, history, economics and school books were among those printed in braille. The Red Cross gives them to libraries for free distribution to blind readers.

The following girls were taken in: Gene Van Kolken, Roberta Zibbell, Carol Thompson, Marion Van Huis, Florence Via, Ruth Barendrecht, Alice Vander Riet, Irene Williams, Evelyn Van Dam, Lois Vander Meulen and Dorothy Eckerson. After the flock was gathered it led its way to the Warm Friend Tavern and enjoyed a delightful breakfast. Red Cross to Enlist Great Army of Members to Fight Distress

Last year 4,004,459 men and women joined the American Red Cross as members during the annual roll call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. A peace-time army even greater than this will be needed in 1932-33 to support and carry on the nationwide relief work of the Red Cross. There are 3,639 Red Cross Chapters and they have 10,000 branches.

Huge Task of Nurses

Red Cross public health nurses, who work in hundreds of communities, are meeting the greatest demands in history for their services, due to the depression. Visits in maternity cases, protecting the health of infants and children, and aiding mothers in distress due to unemployment of the bread-winners have taken them into thousands of homes. The nurses made 1,357,000 visits to or on behalf of individuals, and inspected 149,900 school children. More than 58,000 adults were instructed in home hygiene and care of the sick.

Local News

The Fennville Woman's club will have its annual Christmas program next Wednesday at the clubhouse here, in charge of Mrs. Zelma Dickinson.

Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock Rev. Cornelius Muller of Holland will deliver a lecture on "The Creation of Man" at the Baptist church in Allegan. The Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock will be conducted by a group of "fishermen" from Immanuel Undenominational church, Holland.

The first indication of a revival of the winter village on Macatawa bay was marked Tuesday, with a dozen fish shanties on the ice at Jensen Park. Black lake is frozen over with ice varying in thickness from two to four inches and slush ice has formed on Lake Michigan extending about 500 feet from shore. Navigation has closed from this port. Saugatuck fishermen are netting for trout about ten miles southwest from Holland harbor. The ice on Black lake is safe in spots, but caution must be exercised. Skaters are using places near shore. With a continuation of cold weather and thicker ice fishermen will pull their shanties on the lake and the winter village will be thickly populated.

The officers of the coast guard cutter Escanaba were driven from Grand Haven to Bay City by William L. Stribley, chamber of commerce secretary, to enable them to get articles for which there was no room on the boat, and also their automobiles. Most of the crew of nearly sixty have found homes or living quarters.

The annual bazaar of the Ladies' Aid society and the auxiliary of Sixth Reformed church will be held Saturday beginning at 9 o'clock in the Van Ark building on West Eighth street. Fancy work, plain sewing and lunches will be sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Van Oort have moved from their home at 42 East Sixth street to a residence at 39 East Ninth street.

Miss Mary Sinke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinke, and James Bos of Borculo were united in marriage last week at the Central Avenue Christian Reformed church parsonage. Rev. L. Veltkamp performed the double ring ceremony. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Gebben. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to South Bend, Ind. After Dec. 15 they will be at home to their friends at 48 East Sixth street.

HARDERWYK CELEBRATES FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY TWO SISTERS—CHARTER MEMBERS STILL LIVING

The Christian Reformed church at Harderwyk, located on Lakewood boulevard, marked the fiftieth anniversary of its organization on Wednesday with special services, afternoon and evening. Speakers on the afternoon program were Rev. T. VanderArk, pastor of the church nearly three years; Rev. A. Keizer of Holland and Rev. Roelof Diephuis of Goshen, Ind. Rev. Joseph P. DeVries of Spring Lake, Rev. Richard Posthumus of Pine Creek and Rev. T. VanderArk were listed as evening speakers. The church was organized in 1882 with Rev. J. B. Jonkman, who died in 1919, as its first pastor. Successive pastors were served by Rev. R. Diephuis, Rev. K. W. Fortuin of South Holland, Ill., Rev. Hiram Beute of Grant, Rev. Andrew Kelzer and Rev. Joseph P. DeVries. Statistics show a total membership of 159. The first edifice was razed in 1906, when the present building was erected. The old chapel organ was replaced in 1930 by one purchased from First Christian Reformed church at Zeeland.

The church still numbers among its members two aged sisters, Mrs. R. Vandenberg and Mrs. E. Vandenberg, who joined as charter members. Several other members who joined as children are included in the charter membership and still enrolled as members. Jacob Witteveen, one of the first elders, served as officer 26 years. Sunday services are still in Hollandish and English—English in the morning and Dutch in the afternoon.

FARMERS ARE WARNED AGAINST CHICK THIEVES

Allegan county farmers are again warned against chicken thieves which are reported working in various parts of this vicinity. Last week a Trowbridge resident was called out of bed in the middle of the night by a man inquiring if he had a horse to sell. The next morning he discovered part of his flock missing. It is presumed that while one of a party of thieves inquired at the door, others worked in the chicken coop. Farmers are warned that should untimely strangers call at the door, turn a spotlight on the hen coop. Ottawa county farmers can also take warning for this is the season for turkey and chicken stealing.

Mrs. Gertrude Evink, who was seriously burned in Zeeland on Oct. 28, has been removed to her home here at 204 East Fourteenth street.

Thousand Lbs. of Bacon Gift of Wm. Hatton

WILL DONATE BACON TO HELP NEEDY; DISTRIBUTION TO BE THROUGH WELFARE BOARD

Grand Haven Tribune—A handsome gift has been made to the needy of this city by William Hatton, who announced last night to Peter Kammeraad, city manager, that he will give 1,000 pounds of bacon for distribution through the Welfare board.

Mr. Hatton has assisted the local board in purchases of bacon for several years. He thoroughly believes the bacon goes a long way with potatoes and beans to make balanced rations. He is always mindful of the days when he lived in the "Emerald Isle," when a chunk of bacon fat was hung in the larder to be sparingly dealt out with the simple food common in that day.

A slab of bacon, to be sliced by the housewife as she will, he believes, is economy. The careful cook will make it go a long way, he knows.

Thus far 191 bushels of potatoes and 400 pounds of beans have been purchased wholesale by the city manager. It is stored in the basement of the city hall which has been turned into a veritable store for welfare work. The Red Cross is receiving a large quantity of flour for which Mr. Robbins is providing storage space and orders are made out by Chief Pippel and individuals go to the warehouse for it.

Fuel is the big item these days. The total amount of welfare cost for November was $2,121.27 against $1,914.07 for October. The increase came from the fuel costs, said Chief Pippel. Other items of cost during November were: Food, $1,046.50; rent, $322. In the permanent relief column $27.79 was spent for medicine, $86 for food, $14.07 for fuel, $22.35 for clothing and $15 for rent. Miscellaneous expenses, water, light made up the balance.

KOLES CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Rev. and Mrs. William Koles celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Monday with open house to their friends and relatives from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and with a family reunion in the evening. Mr. Koles was born in Beaverdam, Ottawa county, followed the blacksmith trade 18 years in Holland, Overisel and East Saugatuck, took a course in Calvin college and seminary and was ordained a minister of the gospel in 1898 in the Christian Reformed church at New Era, his first charge. He served five pastorates, covering an active ministerial career of 25 years until 1923, when he was forced to become emeritus due to paralysis of the face. Mrs. Koles, nee Gracie Brinks, is a native of The Netherlands and came with her parents to Michigan when five years old, locating in Laketown. Mr. and Mrs. Koles were married by a justice of the peace in Holland in 1882. They are parents of five children.

GRAND HAVEN WOMAN STILL IN BEST OF HEALTH ON 95TH BIRTHDAY

Enjoying remarkable health for a person of her age, Mrs. A. L. Granger, Grand Haven, celebrated her 95th birthday anniversary at her home Thursday, Dec. 8, welcoming her many friends who called on her during the day and into the evening until almost midnight. Living alone in her modest home, Mrs. Granger continues to enjoy the best of health and is remarkably agile for a woman her age. She was born in Illinois near Elgin Dec. 8, 1837, and later moved to Milwaukee, from where she came to Grand Haven 22 years ago. Mrs. Granger has two children, 11 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Westing, Holland route 7, on Dec. 12, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barkel, at Holland hospital, on Dec. 13, a son.

Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, returned Saturday from New York where he attended a meeting of the board of education of the Reformed Church.

City Treasurer Nicholas Spritsma follows his annual side line in counting dead sparrows and disbursing payments to boys engaged in killing these birds. He already has passed the 5,000 mark in his count. The highest amount paid to one boy was $7.50.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman have moved from their home at 278 West Tenth street to a residence at 284 West Eleventh street.

Democrats Meet At Grand Haven For Jubilee

MANY FROM HOLLAND AND ZEELAND ATTEND BANQUET AT HOTEL FERRY

At least 300 Democrats assembled Friday evening at the Ottawa county victory spread. The banquet was held in the Hotel William M. Ferry dining room with an overflow crowd.

Muskegon, Muskegon county, Grand Rapids, Holland, Zeeland, Allegan, Spring Lake, and rural sections of Ottawa county contributed to the throng gathered for celebration of Democratic success at the polls Nov. 8. Charles E. Misner, chairman of the Ottawa county Democratic committee, was toastmaster. Boyink's orchestra from Grand Haven, furnished music, augmented with the Avalon quartet and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn E. Thatcher of Ravenna, who gave vocal selections.

Horatio J. Abbott received an enthusiastic welcome as he urged support of the policies of Governor-elect William A. Comstock. "I am a Democrat because I believe in the great fundamental principles of government which incorporated into the laws of the land bring the greatest good to the greatest number. The Democratic party stands for this."

Wrongs of the farmer he blamed for much of present trouble. "Agriculture started on the toboggan in 1918. When I was a young man a binder could be bought for what 100 bushels of wheat would bring. Now it takes 700 to 800 bushels to buy one. In spite of economies of massed production, the price of binders has doubled and wheat is selling at one-quarter what it did then."

Mr. Abbott assailed the $500,000,000 farm relief board, headed he said, by a manufacturer of farm machinery and owner of many large elevators. The national committeeman criticized methods employed to "count out" B. J. Abbott of Saginaw, Democratic candidate for secretary of state. He promised investigation as soon as the Democrats take the reins of government.

Economy in state government and dismissal of many political pensioners on the state payroll numbering 14,500 persons was necessary, Mr. Abbott said, to bring Michigan out of a condition that would cause bankruptcy of a private concern.

Ousting Mr. Pearce and Grover C. Dillman, highway commissioner, in the spring was needed as part of the general house cleaning, he said. A number of guests came late, including Winfield H. Caslow of Grand Rapids, and John Dolfin of Muskegon, held up by slippery highways. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douma of Muskegon county sent regrets by telegram to Mr. Misner.

Mr. Dolfin, youthful campaign orator, sounded the call to clean up all state offices, later taken up by Mr. Abbott. "We must build an organization, not for the purpose of coercing voters but to build up a true democracy." Mr. Dolfin assailed $1,800 typists in certain state departments and said there was little hope for the Democratic party returning to power two years hence if it did not clean up.

The part played by the young men and women in the Democratic victory was stressed by Mr. Dolfin, who said the advice of old party wheelhorses should be heeded. "The spirit of youth," he said, "is unafraid to take uncharted courses through which solutions of present-day problems must be made."

Salmon Begins and Ends Its Life in Fresh Waters

It is not generally known that the beginning and the end of the life of a salmon is in fresh water streams but the principal span of their existence is spent in unknown salty ocean depths.

There also remains the inexplicable mystery of how truly the salmon will return at the appointed time to the stream where it was given birth. Seldom is the mistake made of entering any of the other countless thousands of streams along the Washington, Oregon and Alaska coast line.

The life cycle of the salmon, depending upon the species, is either two, three or four years. Invariably at the end of that time they seem to receive that silent, mysterious call which has beckoned their ancestors for ages, and they begin their pilgrimage of tremendous distances to the Northern waters of their birth.

enthusiastic over the Democrats' so-called victory. "The task wished on the Democratic standardbearers of cleaning up the mess we are in is hardly anything to be happy over. The voters dumped it on Democracy's doorstep because the makers of the mess could not clean it up." He urged the party to venturate Jefferson and Jackson, but in dealing with modern problems to use modern methods.

Mrs. Sally Nash, Port Sheldon township Democratic worker, told the group how she had campaigned throughout the township in her horse and buggy since the family car could not be spared. "We got 112 Democratic votes to 60 for the Republicans," she said, adding the thought, "Buy everything made in the United States and you will help Franklin D. Roosevelt make good."

Mr. Abbott lauded Mrs. Nash highly, saying: "I wish the party had a Sally Nash in every township and city in the country."

Each speaker was introduced briefly by Mr. Misner, who gave a final summing up at conclusion of the banquet. Before the banquet was served, Fred Albers of Grand Haven asked invocation.

Spanish War Brought Profit To Government

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS FIGHTING TO RETAIN THEIR PENSIONS

The Holland Spanish-American war veterans post is one among hundreds of other posts who are fighting the propaganda now being broadcast about the country among taxpayers to bring about legislation that will deprive in whole or in part certain classes of soldier pensions.

The Spanish-American war boys are especially taking this matter up and through their commander, Frank L. Finch of Michigan, are putting out literature endeavoring to counteract the matter being sent out by the so-called National Economy league.

Mr. Finch contends that Spanish-American war veterans have never been a burden to the government. They were slow from the outset in demanding pensions at all, largely because they allowed sentiment to take the place of good business judgment.

Says Mr. Finch: "We have always been willing and have accepted compromise legislation in face of the fact that we did not compromise with the nation in 1898. We served our country for the princely wage of $13 per month with 20 per cent additional for facing fever, starvation, wire entanglements and dum dum bullets in a foreign country, not forgetting our wonderful ration of embalmed horse. We laid great stress on the fact that we brought liberty to an unfortunate people. That we were responsible for the unity of the North and South; that today the sun never sets on our glorious flag; that our services were given voluntarily, a record beautiful and true of which we are justly proud."

He brings out that the opposition is now talking in a language of dollars and cents, entirely forgetting what occurred thirty-four years ago, discarding that beautiful phrase, "Lest We Forget."

Mr. Finch also then speaks in terms of dollars and cents, giving figures showing that the Spanish-American war was the only war ever fought by the United States where this nation did not come out second best.

He then gives the following table: "At the close of the Spanish-American war, the United States acquired properties valued at $8,000,000,000. The cost of the war amounted to $1,200,000,000, leaving a profit of $6,800,000,000. The first war in history showing a profit."

Cost of Pensions, Hospitalization, Examinations, Etc.

"Amount paid in pensions to the Spanish war veterans from the close of the war in 1898 to July 1, 1931, $572,755,232.28. Appropriations for 1932 (appropriations asked for are usually more than required), $112,010,000. Approximate cost of hospitalization, examinations and administration 1899 to 1931, $1,000,000. Total expenditures, $686,765,232.28."

Mr. Finch then goes to considerable length in showing what the other wars have cost and are continuing to cost this government, including the Civil war and the world war. The figures are rather enlightening.

Another soldier speaking in behalf of the Spanish war veterans, is Rie W. Means, chairman of the national committee on legislation of United States war veterans.

The nation's entire tax bill is divided one-third for federal taxes and two-thirds for state and local taxes, he said. Veterans' pensions are paid only by the federal government, he added, and no man's home is taxed one cent to pay these pensions.

"The farmer, mechanic, clerk, laborer and professional man pays his taxes direct to the state and local treasuries—not one cent of which goes to pay veterans' pensions."

"Where does the money come from that is paid to veterans? From the federal government which receives it as the result of income tax payments and certain indirect taxes as the result of tariff and license legislation. The great bulk of it comes from income tax.

"The treasury department statistics for the prosperous year of 1928 show there were 4,070,000 persons who paid federal income taxes for that year. Ninety-nine per cent paid only one-fifth of the total taxes. In other words, one per cent or 40,700 people paid four-fifths of the income taxes, amounting to $1,080,000,000. The statistics further prove that for each $1 the average income taxpayer paid to the federal government the big taxpayer paid $330."

Mr. Means contends that it is this group who have made money and are paying income tax because they have made money, that are called upon to largely pay these pensions and they surely can afford to carry this burden.

Bird's "Language"

A scientist who has been making a study of the songs and noises made by birds, says that the African finch seems to have a vocabulary of about 300 words, and apparently an alphabet of 25 letters or symbols. Instead of singing when it opens its beak, it really makes words. Often the bird will use a word one day and not use it again for many weeks.

It wakes up at the same time every morning and usually makes the same morning speech of about 20 words that lasts 14 seconds. Its daily schedule varies less from day to day than that of human beings.

Cleveland and Pittsburgh
Cleveland, Ohio, is named for Moses Cleveland, the founder of the city, but the extra "a" has been eliminated. Pittsburgh honors the name of William Pitt. Its first name was Duquesne, given by the French, who had located a fort at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers. After its capture by the English, in 1758, George Washington, then an officer of the British colonial troops, suggested that it be named Pittsburgh.

Quakers in World War

The selective service law in vogue during the World War provided exemption to "a member of a well recognized religious sect or organization, organized and existing on May 18, 1917, whose then existing creed or principles forbid its members to participate in war in any form and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein." This selective service law applied to Quakers as well as many other religious sects. However, there were numbers of Quakers who served in our active fighting forces.

Compromise

A village bachelor, who had long been the object of a spinster's ambitions, finally succumbed to the charms of a very willing widow, but on his wedding morning he failed to turn up.

The next day he called at bride-to-be's house, looking rather sheepish.

"Jack, dear," screamed the widow who was well-nigh frantic with anxiety, "why didn't you come for me yesterday at noon?"

"Well," drawled the bachelor slowly, "I intended to, but it looked too much like rain to me."

CHURCH AT HOLLAND NOW 85 YEARS OLD

FIRST LOG EDIFICE WAS BUILT IN 1847

Eighty-five years ago this fall the sound of the ax rang out in the forests of the infant settlement of Holland, as pioneers under the leadership of Dr. A. C. Van Raalte set about to build their first church of logs, marking the rise of First Reformed Church here into one of the strongest units of that body in the West. As the summer of 1847 advanced, it became evident that a church must be built for winter services. A log building 35 by 60 feet was erected on the brow of a hill on what is now the southwest corner of Pilgrim Home Cemetery. Only part of the church was finished for the winter of 1847. A single room with a board platform for the dominie, rude seats for the Dutch people and two old-fashioned cook stoves for warmth served as the meeting house until the following summer, when the building was completed and furnished with a pulpit, pews and communion tables.

The church also served for school purposes and public meetings for about eight years, and in 1856 was replaced by the old pillar church, now known as Ninth Street Christian Reformed Church. Services were continued there until 1882 when the memorable secession movement over the lodge issue resulted in possession of the building by the majority through a legal ruling by the courts and later the supreme court. The minority group of Reformed members from that time until 1886 conducted services in the old Hope Chapel, a plain, frame structure, and the head of the flock was the late Dr. N. M. Steffens. The present First Reformed Church was erected in 1886, and in 1917 was remodeled and enlarged at a cost of $40,000.

Dr. C. A. Van Raalte was pastor until 1867 and was succeeded by the Rev. Roelf Pieters, who served until 1879. He is the father of Dr. Albertus Pieters of Holland. The third pastor was Rev. N. M. Steffens. He was followed by the Rev. Jacob Van Houste, who was here until 1900. These four are now dead. The Rev. Seth VanderWerf, who is now Western secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed Church, was pastor from 1901 to 1906. The Rev. Henry J. Veldman, now of Muskegon, served from 1906 to 1919. Since that time the Rev. James Wayer has been pastor.

Membership has grown to more than 335 families.

The annual package sale of the Gibson P.T.A. was held Friday evening, Dec. 3. After the usual business meeting Mrs. McAllister took charge of the program. Miss Irene Bauhahn led the audience in singing a number of songs. Mr. Cook, the postman, of Holland, was next and before he gave his numbers he gave a talk in which he expressed his gratitude to the people for their co-operation. He then delighted both young and old with his music on the big piano accordion. Mr. Cook's kindness in coming to the meeting and being so generous with his music was appreciated. Bernard Problem then gave some piano solos and a vocal trio was given by Mrs. Ruth Boyce and Mrs. Lillian and Mrs. Maude Sundin, these being impromptu as some of the numbers scheduled failed to appear. Mr. Cook responded to a request for another number and closed the program with a humorous song, playing his own accompaniment. Mr. McAllister, chairman of the sale, then took charge and the selling began. Mr. Bauhahn and Mr. Bjork had charge of the fishpond and the children kept them busy. Mrs. Jean Hall, Mrs. Hemwall, Mrs. Lillian Sundin and Mrs. Maude Sundin had charge of the packages and groceries. In a very short time the tables were emptied and then came the drawing of the lucky number on the quilt. Mrs. George Volkema being chairman of the quilt committee, Lillian Partman was chosen to draw the numbers. The fifth ticket was the lucky one and Mrs. Jean Hall was the winner. A pair of embroidered pillow cases went to Mrs. Sayther. Several articles were auctioned off by Mr. McAllister and brought a good amount. Much of the success of this sale was due to the generosity of Saugatuck merchants to whom the P.T.A. extends hearty thanks and appreciation. The refreshment committee consisting of Mrs. Owen, chairman, Mrs. O. Wilner and Mrs. Knoll, served coffee and cake.

After admonishing a group of children for making noise at church services, Alva Phoenix, age 55, head usher, died unexpectedly of heart disease at the Baptist church at Allegan Sunday morning. Mr. Phoenix fell to the floor after asking the children to be quiet. He was dead when reached by others. A resident of Allegan for eighteen years he had worked most of that period in Chicago at his trade, paperhanging and interior decorating. Only in the last year had he been in Allegan continuously. He was a trustee of the church.

The temperature of the air at a given place depends not only on the sunshine it is then getting but also on its own recent history. Wind from the south on a cloudy day may be as warm as wind from the north on a sunny day. This is particularly true when, as often happens, these winds have come a long way. Furthermore, when it is warm, the mid air feels warmer than the dry air at the same temperature. Washington Star.
