Charge 3 In Police Fight

ALLEGAN — Three men were held today on attempted murder charges in connection with the beating of a policeman who was looking for a juvenile who had run away from home.

Gordon E. Green, 24, Allegan, Russell A. Wells, 21, and his brother David, 27, both of rural Allegan, all demanded examination at their arraignment in Allegan District Court Monday.

Judge Elizabeth Ramsey set bond of $10,000 each. It was not furnished and all three were being held in the Allegan County Jail here.

Police said Allegan County sheriff's deputies Steve Myers and Robert Weaver went to a home just outside Allegan last Friday to check on a report of a runaway juvenile. Myers went inside the house while Weaver chased a man who fled from it as the deputies approached, police said.

When he entered the house, Myers allegedly was beaten with fists and bottles until Weaver returned and helped arrest the men beating him, police said.

The city clerk's office in Holland has just completed reviewing the registrations of all voters in the city and is mailing notices to 1,663 registered electors advising that their registrations are being suspended because of no activity on their registration card within the past two years.

During December of each year, city and township clerks are required to examine voter registrations and to suspend the registration for all electors who have not voted, continued their registration, reinstated their registration, or recorded a change of address on their registration within a period of two years.

The law requires clerks to send a notice of suspension of the registration, which notice states that the registration will be cancelled unless the voter applies for continuation within 30 days. The elector can continue his registration by completing a portion of the form notice and returning it to the clerk's office.

Persons who receive such notice are urged to complete and sign the card and return it as soon as possible to insure the continuation of their registration. After the 30-day period, a person must appear in person to re-register. A person can continue his registration only if he is still living within the city. If he moves to another governmental unit, he must register in person to be eligible to vote there.

City Tax Bills Will Be Mailed Soon

The city assessor's staff has been busy for several weeks renumbering city tax descriptions which will be in use the first time on winter tax bills which will be distributed soon. City Assessor Robert Nienhuis expects some bills will be in the mail by weekend.

This will be the last tax bills which will contain legal descriptions of the property as well as the new permanent parcel identification number, and it is suggested property owners save the tax bill for legal description if needed. This information may also be obtained at the assessor's office in City Hall. The number changes when lot dimensions are changed.

Tax bills will have an enclosure explaining the new numbering system which is one of the early steps toward computer tax bills. It will be a 12-digit number (70-16-31-280-010) designating the county, the township, the section, the block and the parcel.

The winter tax bill covers county tax, intermediate school district and special education, plus special assessment, delinquent taxes and delinquent utility charges.

Tax rate in the Ottawa county portion of the city totals $6.03 per $1,000 in state equalized valuation. This lists $4.50 for Ottawa county operations, $1.40 for special education (including an additional .9 mill voted the past year) and $.13 for intermediate school district.

The Allegan portion rate is $8.23 listing $.70 for county, $.14 for special education, $.13 for intermediate district and $.1 for a sinking fund for an Allegan medical facility.

A small portion of the city lies in the Hamilton school district and the tax rate totals $31.68 which includes $24.09 for Hamilton school district. There are 53 tax bills for this area.

Nienhuis, who presented a "Realtor of the Year" award to William C. De Roo of the De Roo Realty Co. for his many years of service to the Holland Board, presented the president's pin to Mr. De Roo's son, Jack, newly elected president of the Board.

Jack De Roo announced that Frances Seats and Rudy Seats, David Hacker, Robert Piers and Robert Tubergen had completed the Graduate Realtor Institute program of education from the Michigan Real Estate Association during the past year.

During the month of December two showcases of the Herick Public Library will display the doll collection of Evelyn, Christy, and Sonia Van Eyl, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. F. Philip Van Eyl, 114 East 31st St.

The collection consists of 76 different dolls dressed in native costumes of 23 different countries. About a third of the collection was given to the girls by traveling friends of the family.

All the other dolls were purchased by the girls themselves, however, as they traveled through 13 European, Asian, and African countries, while living in Turkey and the Netherlands during the past two years. Their parents had promised one souvenir from each country.

When Christy's first choice was a doll, the other two girls followed suit. When possible, Sonia would choose two smaller dolls over a normal-size one. Evelyn often picked a boy or man doll but selected a girl or woman doll when she could find one that was doing something, like churning butter.

Some of the dolls are manufactured inexpensively, others are quite fancy. A Bulgarian doll, for instance, is dressed around a cornucopia that functions as a body; three nesting Russian dolls are made of wood. The three Belgian dolls, on the other hand, are costumed in real Flemish lace.

The girl's favorites are the flamboyant Spanish flamenco dancers. Their dresses are beautiful and their pose suggests actual movement. Even the simplest doll is loved because it stands for some wonderful experiences with another people.

mented by two guitarists and a recorder consort sang out with fine clear young voices showing their excellent direction by Mr. Meyer. Instead of using the stage, they performed more intimately on the floor of the auditorium.

Especially delightful to the audience was the English carol, "The Holly Bears a Berry," which was arranged for the Madrigal Ensemble by Bill Schwarz.

As a dramatic conclusion, the group performed "Silent Night" by Franz Gruber as they interpreted the carol the first time it was sung on Christmas Eve 1818 by a quartet. A quartet with the guitars and the recorder consort gave the carol new meaning.

Mrs. Robert De Nooyer, club president, extended the greetings of the season to the members and announced a holiday recess.

Rams Rally To Defeat West Ottawa

The Rockford Rams, behind by four points with only one minute to go, came back to beat West Ottawa, 57-55 in a thrilling basketball game in the Panthers gym Tuesday night.

The Rams got their Christmas present early as two quick turnovers by West Ottawa with less than a minute to go provided them with a two-point margin. The Panthers played a much better game than they did last week, coming from a 20-10 deficit in the first quarter to within three points at the half. West Ottawa's 40 per cent shooting from the floor was better than the Rams 37 per cent, but too many turnovers, 18 to be exact, cost them the game.

Keith Raak, the Panthers 6'6" center, was brilliant both on the boards and in scoring. Raak personally accounted for an astounding 24 rebounds and 20 total points to lead his team in scoring. West Ottawa had 41 rebounds as compared to Rockford's 36.

Rockford took a 20-10 lead in the first quarter but the Panthers narrowed the gap 30-27 at the half. With the score deadlocked at 43-43 at the end of the third period, West Ottawa jumped out in front in the fourth period. Then what looked like the game was on ice with a four point lead with a minute to go vanished as the Rockford speedy guard intercepted two quick passes and scored both times, notching the score at 55-44. A. Heible then scored the winning basket with only seconds remaining.

It was a tough one to lose for Coach Joe Iauca's Panthers who now have an 0-2 record in the O-K Red Division.

Behind Raak with 20 points was Mike Gorman with 14 points and Doug Cook at 13. The Panthers meet rugged Holland Christian at the Civic Center on Friday of this week.

Coach Karl Von Ins junior varsity evened their record at 1-1 with a big victory over the Rams 44-28. Rockford could only score seven points in the entire second half. Steve Hartman looked good on rebounds and Don Zimmermaand was high point man with 24 points.

Spanish Dance Troupe Displays Skill, Variety

Leading his company of ten through a variety of Spanish dances, Jose Molina added another outstanding performance to the third presentation of the Hope College Great Performance Series held Tuesday evening in the Civic Auditorium.

Molina, whose dancing impressed professionals even as a child, conceived and directed the program. He included amusing and light dances from the Spanish operetta form, called "Zarzuela," Spanish folk dances, 18th century Spanish ballet and a modern adaptation of Spanish dance as well as the better-known Flamenco dances.

The company's bright and varied costumes punctuated the dances with color and accentuated the various movements while setting the mood.

Lead female dancer, Antonia Martinez, demonstrated how the dress can be an integral part of the dance in a striking costume with a five-foot train of ruffles. She danced with Molina in a moody, romantic number called "The Night."

Assistant choreographer to Molina and second male lead dancer, Luis Montero, displayed skill matching that of the master in a solo number and in a competition dance called the "Zapateado" which tests the skill of the dancer's foot work.

Most of the 13 numbers were accompanied by piano and the dancer's castanets. Solo guitarist Francisco Espinosa, assisted by Beltran Espinosa, added the sound of the originally Spanish instrument to several numbers and set the mood for the rousing finale, "Cuadro Flamenco."

Espinosa, a concert guitarist whose performance was enthusiastically received in Holland a year ago, entranced the large audience with a solo number and was called back for an encore.

Molina demonstrated his mastery of the Spanish dance in the evening's climactic number, "La Cana." It is a form known as a deep dance and is supposed to arise "from the inner depths of the soul." Molina showed the great control and style required by the dance, but difficult to achieve.

The entire company gathered on stage for the concluding "Flamenco" number which allows each member to individually display his skills with the verbal encouragement of his comrades and the audience.

A delightful surprise was added when a female child dancer joined the group with a song and dance of professional proportions. With all members participating a final energetic dance topped the performance.

The next event in the Great Performance Series will be held in Dimment Chapel on Feb. 26 when the Guarneri String Quartet will entertain.

Sunday School Lesson

Sunday, Dec. 13
The Demands of the Christian Life
John 15:10-13; 1 Peter 3:13-17
By C. P. Dame

The first part of the lesson text was written by John, the beloved apostle of Jesus, and the second part by Peter who belonged to the inner circle of the apostles and was a leader of the apostolic band. This lesson is about commitment. We are all committed to something or to some one. To what or to whom are you committed? The Lord says that living the committed life involves meeting certain demands.

I. The world has Christians. John says, "Jesus made this statement. He heard Jesus say it on the day before his death. The world Jesus spoke about is the world, the forces, the powers that are in opposition to God and His rule. The world hated Jesus because He stood for things it loved and wanted. Christians love what Jesus loves and hence the world hates Christians. The world's hate marks people.

Two kinds of people inhabit this world. One kind belongs to Jesus, the other to the world. Those people who belong to Jesus have been chosen by Him and hence are His. The world approves its own and Christ does likewise. It is most beneficial for Christians to remind themselves that they belong to Christ and ought to reveal it. This may result in persecution for the people who persecuted Jesus persecute His followers also. "The servant is not greater than his lord" — the servant can expect what his master got.

II. It is possible for sufferers to be happy. Peter wrote from experience. In his days Christians suffered for their faith. Ordinarily a godly man who speaks the truth in kindness is not harmed, but it does happen. Christians can be happy if they suffer for righteousness' sake. Peter recalled the words of Jesus recorded in Matthew 5:10, "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" — it was their identification with the kingdom that caused persecution. Peter quoted from Isaiah 8:12, "And be not afraid of their terror" words which Isaiah spoke to God's people about the Assyrians. God is in control.

III. Christians are called upon to sanctify the Lord in their hearts. The word "sanctify" means "to hallow" to "reverence Christ as Lord" which means to crown Him Lord of our lives. And Christians should be able to tell others about their beliefs, what they stand and hope for. This should be done "with gentleness and reverence" not in a tactless or brazen manner.

The three marks of a committed Christian please note — he has a clear conscience, lives an upright life, and aims to do God's will. Nothing silences critics of Christianity more than living an upright life. It is far better to suffer for Christ's sake than to suffer for doing evil. It is an honor to suffer for Christ who suffered for us.

Paced by seniors Jim Bradford and Dave Holt, the Dutch tallied only three firsts in the meet, while the Bears chalked up three pool records.

Coach Bob Andree commented that the St. Joe squad was "well-balanced, with a lot of returners, though they didn't have much depth."

The Bears opened the meet with a first place in the medley relay and remained in the driver's seat throughout the competition.

Holland returned in the 200-yard freestyle to tally first spot with Bradford's 1:53.6 clocking. In the individual medley, St. Joe's Bob Ehrenberg snatched first place with a new pool record of 2:09.8, followed by Holland's Dave Holt in second spot.

The second pool record fell in the 50-yard freestyle, with the Bears' Keith Dusenberg recording a :24.0, while Dick Beedon slid into second berth for the Dutch.

The third pool mark fell in the breaststroke, as Ehrenberg did the honors for the second time, posting a 1:07.2 to break the 1:08.0 mark he established last year.

Vienna Summer Plans Outlined

Plans for the 16th annual Hope College Vienna Summer School program were announced today by Dr. Paul G. Fried, director of international education.

A number of interesting innovations are scheduled for the 12 week long European program. On June 13 students will meet in New York for a pre-departure briefing and reception at the Austrian Institute before flying to Reykjavik that evening.

A two-day visit to Iceland will introduce students to an unfamiliar culture and provide time for orientation and relaxation before they begin their intensive study and tour program in Europe.

Highlights of the European itinerary include trips on the Rhine and along the Moselle, high level briefings in Bonn, Germany and a three-day homestay with Dutch families in the Netherlands.

Other major stops planned for the western tour are Basle, Belgium; Geneva, Switzerland; Milan, Italy; and in Grenoble, France where the group will meet with Hope's French language students who are currently spending their junior year at the University of Grenoble.

Summer school students will arrive in Vienna in time to celebrate the Fourth of July in the Austrian capital. During their six-week stay in Vienna students will be housed with Austrian families.

Classes in art, music, drama, history and literature are again part of the regular academic offering in Hope's academic program in Vienna.

In addition, supervised research projects in economics, psychology, television, film and urban studies will be arranged if there is sufficient demand in one or more of these fields.

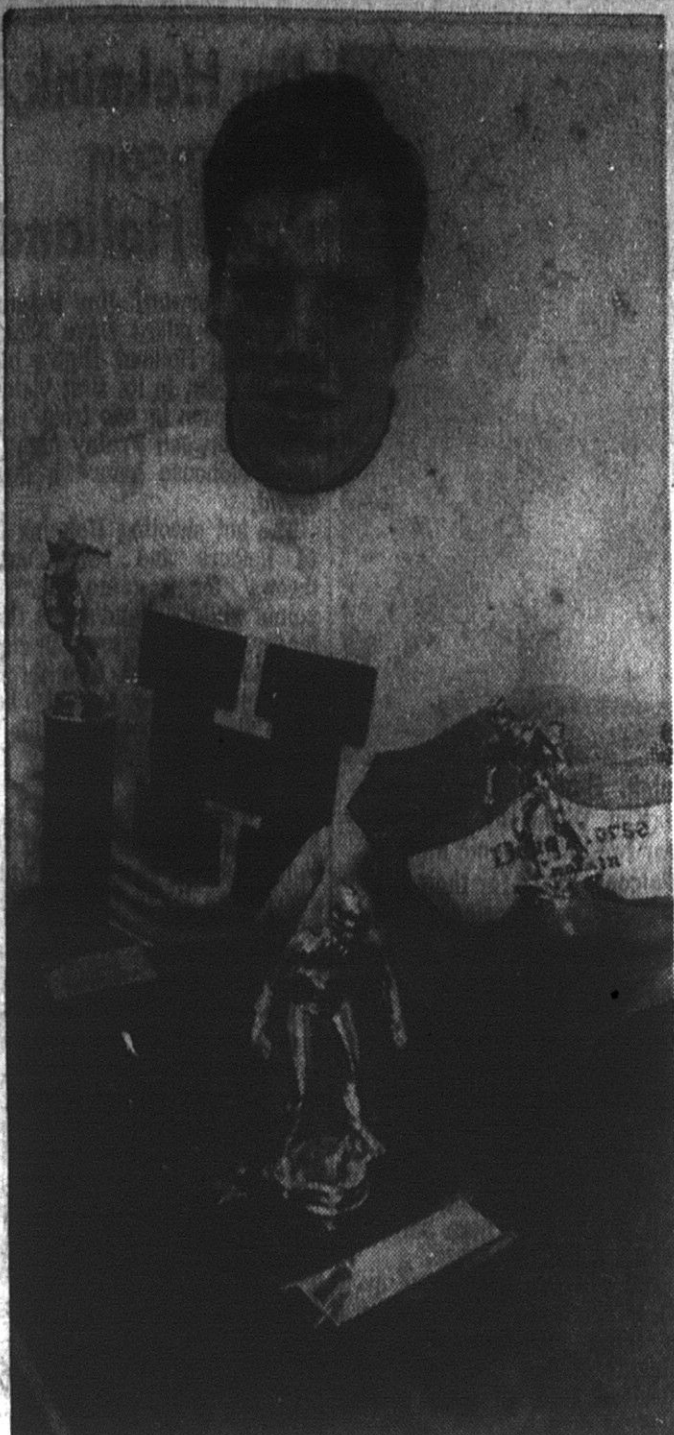

Field trips or attendance at musical performances form part of the instructional program in most courses and a number of optional weekend excursions to places like Salzburg and Prague will be offered to participants.

A weekend homestay in an Austrian country community, which was one of the highlights of last year's experience, has again been arranged for the whole group.

Following the close of the academic session in Vienna students will have the option to three and a half weeks of independent travel or an 11-day East European tour followed by two weeks of free travel.

HOLLAND'S ALL-STATE — Doug Morse, Holland High senior, proudly shows off some of his awards that he has won in football. The Detroit News All-State first team trophy in front is the one that Morse "loves" the most. The trophy in back (left) is the R.E. Barber most valuable junior award while the one on the right is the Dutch senior award which goes to every Holland senior that has participated in three years of high school football.

NOSE Tips

by Leo Martonosi

The honors that Doug Morse, Holland High senior, has won this year is a once in a lifetime occurrence and all of us from Holland should be proud of his accomplishments on the football field this year.

Morse, who stands 5'10" and weighs in at 220 pounds, was recently named to the Detroit News' All-State first team as one of the best 11 high school players in the state in Classes A, B, C, and D combined.

Besides being picked for the News' team he was also named to the United Press International and Associated Press first-team All-State teams as a tackle.

As far as we are concerned, the Detroit Free Press missed the boat, as Doug was only given an honorable mention on their All-State team. As always, The Free Press is partial to the Detroit area teams and to the Saginaw Valley Conference.

Doug is believed to be the first player in Holland to receive unanimous All-State selection. Some players in the past have made one All-State team but none have been placed on three of the four.

The rugged Holland senior has won many honors during his outstanding career on the gridiron but the award that Doug loves the most is the Detroit News' trophy. "It has to be my greatest honor," cried Morse.

Morse won the R. E. Barber award in his junior year. This award goes to the outstanding underclassman and finished second in the voting to Tim Matchinsky for this year's MVP.

The aggressive Morse averaged 12 solo tackles a contest over the past two years and is called by Coach Dave Kempfer the "finest defensive lineman that I have ever coached."

Assistant varsity line coach Ray Backus, who is credited along with assistant reserve line coach Dan Porretta, as helping Doug the most in his goal to be one of the best linemen in the state. "Backus and Porretta sure have been a big help to me and I want to thank them dearly for their time and patience."

Veteran sports observers pointed out that when Doug was a youngster, the police had to chase him and a bunch of other kids off the Riverview Park field. "They were always out there playing before and after the game," fans said.

Morse's love for the game hasn't changed from his younger days and this is one of the reasons Doug is more than an average player. He's got what coaches like to say, "determination" to be not just good but to be the best.

"My most satisfying victory in high school has been over West Ottawa when I scored a touchdown this year," said Morse. "The Panthers had a fine team and after our victory, I thought we would go undefeated."

Morse was chosen to the Valley Coast All-Conference first team in his junior year and made The Sentinel's all-area team the past two years. He was born in Butler, Pa., in 1953 and moved with his family to Holland when he was one-year-old.

Butler is the same place that Terry Hanratty, former brilliant quarterback at Notre Dame and now of the Pittsburgh Steelers was born. The Saul brothers, Ron and Rich of Michigan State also made high school fame in Butler.

Morse, who isn't sure where he would like to go to college, has indicated that Ferris State or Northwood Institute are two of his top choices at this time. "I don't want to get lost in the shuffle," stated Morse when we asked him if he would like to attend Notre Dame, Michigan or Michigan State.

The rugged Morse likes defense better than offense and added, "I love to hit and that's probably why I like defense better." It's not that you can't hit on offense, it's just that you can't use your hands and Doug uses his hands with the best of them.

Besides playing football, Morse is an outfielder and a catcher on the baseball team. "I don't get to catch too often with Ron Wadsworth handling the chores. He's got to be one of the best in the state."

Morse runs the 100-yard dash in around 11.5 and is as quick as a cat getting off the ball from his middle guard position. Many times during the season, Morse would grab the ball carrier before he ever had a chance of getting a hold of the ball.

Kempfer and Morse attended the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Awards Banquet recently in Southfield and Morse, who was introduced with 10 other All-State members, said, "I got goose pimples when they introduced me."

Other players attending the banquet were end Greg Den Boer of Kentwood, Greg Collins, guard from Birmingham Brother Rice, center Don Mc Neal of Ferndale and guard Jim Heethuis of Muskegon.

The backs on the dream Detroit News' All-State team included Linwood Harden of Detroit Northwestern, Reggie Barnett of Flint Central, Mike Gow of North Farmington and Gary Baginski of Utica High.

Completing the honor team were end Bill Malcolm of Ann Arbor Pioneer and tackle Norm Lang of Trenton.

The Master of Ceremonies was Bill Flemming of ABC Wide World of Sports.

Paul Hornung, former Heisman trophy winner at Notre Dame in 1957 and great running back at Green Bay in the National Football League was the principal speaker.

Such guests included these past great players, Sam Williams, Norm Masters, Ron Kramer, Lowell Perry, Sonny Grandelius, Dorne Dibble, Al Wistert, Lynn Chandnois, Jim Martin, Ed Bagdon, Leon Hart and Earl "Jug" Girard.

Morse, who was called many times by this writer as another Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions, was disappointed that Alex didn't make it to the dinner. "I was really looking forward to meeting him," Morse said.

One could surely understand why goose pimples were running up and down Morse's spine with such celebrities being in the same room with Holland's outstanding griddier.

Being a former college center myself, I know one thing, I don't think I would have liked to play a full game with Morse hanging over my head. With a man like Morse playing over the center, he didn't have too much of a chance.

Doug is a great one and we would like to congratulate him for his fantastic career at Holland High and wish him the best of luck in whatever school he decides to attend.

Moving Program Given By Camp Fire Groups

Sleigh bells and holly, snowballs and sleds, angels and shepherds, choirs and young actresses, ancient and modern, all blended together in the presentation of the gay and serious aspects of the Christmas season at the annual White Gift Carol Sing Sunday afternoon at the Civic Center.

The audience in the Civic Center balconies witnessed a moving program completely updated this year.

The program opened with the Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, Jean Teens and Horizon Girls presenting their White Gifts for those less fortunate in the greater Holland area.

Nancy Kiel directed the girls in song during the presentation of gifts. Linda Berkompas and Nancy Scholten presented the treat tree and mitten tree for the 150 Jean Teens and 450 Horizon Girls. Carol Crane, Kristi Coffman and Lugene La Combe thanked the girls for their gifts on behalf of the distribution groups.

Kathy Wettack narrated the program. Sally Etterbeek, Cindy Padnos, Ann Fink, Diane Mancinelli, Nancy Stewart and Cindy Padnos gave a rhythmic interpretation of a Navajo Prayer and the Christmas Story. Mrs. Robert De Bruyn, Jr. directed the girls and Mrs. Donald Hillebrands, chairman of the White Gift program, narrated the Prayer and Christmas Story.

In contrast, Mrs. Lester Douma's Peace Maker Jean Teen group enacted the beauty of a "Winter Wonderland" with a lively version of fun and frolic.

Jefferson School 4th, 5th and 6th grade girls choir in white starched robes with large red bows and Miss Rita Den Hartog as leader sang Silent Night. This was performed as it was first sung in Germany many years ago accompanied by guitarists Jeanie Maring and Sandy Goossen.

Junior high groups presented choral readings of the real meaning of Christmas.

Melissa Hakken and Michelle Drummond were a couple of lively old ladies discussing Christmas and warned against making Christmas just a Christmas gift exchange.

Barbara Bradford, Sheryl Bouman and Jodi Volken, three Blue Birds, told of their difficulties in living with secretive, mysterious adults just before Christmas. Another crowd pleaser, especially for Grandmas, was the interpretation of the poem, "A Girl Needs a Grandma" by Myra and Joan Hillebrands. Ann and Sally Helbing presented the more serious side of Christmas as they recited "Why Can't Every Day Be Like Christmas?"

A quintet of West Ottawa High School girls presented Christmas Carols throughout the program and were accompanied by Sue Van Liere on the piano. Mrs. Ted Bosch, Guardian, gave a thought provoking Christmas message to children. Kathy Karle sang "O Holy Night."

Julie Japenga closed the program by calling out "God Bless You Everyone!!!!"

Jim Helmink, Brownson Pace Holland

Senior forward Jim Helmink and junior guard Dave Brownson paced Holland High's basketball team to its first victory of the season in two tries, 89-79 over Kentwood Friday night in the Fieldhouse before a large crowd.

The hot shooting Helmink hit 14 fielders and two charity throws for a game high 30 points while Holland's fine floor leader, Brownson, tased in eight baskets and eight free throws for 24 points. Tom De Vries and Greg Slenk chipped in with 13 and 11 points respectively for the Dutch.

Big 6'7" All-State end in football, Greg Den Boer led the Falcons with 24 points, while guard Tom Booth followed with 16. Kim Wurm added 14.

The Big Red Machine got its high flying offense in full gear in the first period as they tore down the nets for 30 points while Slenk and company did a fine defensive job on Den Boer, as they held the Falcons to only 12 points in the first eight minutes to lock up the contest.

Brownson, Helmink and De Vries paced the first stanza blasting off by scoring nine, eight and six points respectively.

Kentwood came alive in the second stanza as they scored 24 points to 16 for Holland to cut the deficit to 10 points, 46-36 at the half.

The Falcons shifted from a man-to-man defense to a zone in the third period to slice Holland's margin to seven points, 46-39 before Helmink took complete control of the situation by scoring on three straight buckets and finished the quarter with 12 of his 30 counters.

Both teams scored 43 points in the second half with Holland canning 23 and 20 markers compared to 14 and 29 for the losers.

"Helmink, Brownson and Slenk played fine games for us and I was sure glad to beat Kentwood which is rated as one of the top teams in the O-K Red Division," said Coach Don Piersma.

Kentwood hit on 55 per cent of its shots to 47 for Holland but made two fewer baskets and six less free throws.

Coach Ken Bauman's reserve team smashed the little Falcons, 66-38 for their first victory of the season.

Ron Israels led the way with 18 points while Jed De Boer and Steve Miller helped out with 14 and 12 in that order.

Holland will host rival Grand Haven next Friday in the Fieldhouse.

Pioneers Spoil Iauch's Debut at West Ottawa

East Grand Rapids spoiled the basketball season opener for new coach Joe Iauch's West Ottawa Panthers here Friday night with a 68-51 win.

Byron Cutler's hot shooting of 24 points was too much for the Panthers as the Pioneers hit on a torrid 47 per cent of their shots as compared to 35 per cent for West Ottawa.

Coach Iauch thought that the Pioneers experience paid off as they had three starters from last year's team while West Ottawa had none. Opening team jitters seemed to plague the Panthers throughout most of the game. Although the Panthers had 22 turnovers the rebounding was pretty much even with WO having 33 compared to 39 for the Pioneers.

West Ottawa started the scoring and took a 3-0 lead early in the first quarter when East put a tough press on. This bothered the Panther offense and they missed several shots and caused them to turn over the ball too much. East settled down and took a 16-10 lead at the end of the first period, and a 24-32 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, the Pioneers were really hot scoring 24 points to only nine for West Ottawa. It was East's fine guard Cutler who consistently hit shots from 20 feet that really put it out of reach as they led by 23 points at the end of the third period 56-33. The Panthers played better ball in the final period with 6'6" Keith Raak getting some fine rebounds and scoring eight points.

Jack Glupker led West Ottawa scorers with 11 points followed by Doug Cook and Pat Allen with nine points apiece. Coach Iauch explained, "we didn't put enough pressure on them and figured that the team needs lots of work if we're going to have a successful season." The Panthers were unable to practice on Thursday due to bad weather warnings and this might have hurt them. Iauch also thought that the foul shooting was below average and the score would have been closer had we made these.

West Ottawa's junior varsity lost to East 53-42. Coach Karl Von Ins stated that the team only hit on six of 22 free throws. East led 24-12 at the end of the first half but the Panthers outscored them in the third period narrowing the gap to 34-27. Con Zimmerman was high scorer for West Ottawa with 14 points followed closely by Steve Hartman and Craig Klomparsen with 10 points apiece.

Coach Von Ins stated that Klomparsen played a fine game and singled out Hartman as the games leading rebounder. The Panthers will host Rockford Tuesday night.

Maroons Win Second Game Of Season

Holland Christian's basketball team, showing marked improvement over its opening game, breezed to an 82-46 victory Friday night over Kalamazoo Hackett, before a capacity crowd in the Civic Center.

The Maroons, leading the entire game, went from a 6-4 advantage to a 19-9 lead at the end of the first quarter. Phil Tuls paced Christian in the period with eight points on some excellent shooting. Meanwhile, the Maroons' sticky man-for-man defense, was keeping the Irish from getting good shots.

Any hopes Hackett had of winning were soon dispelled as Christian tallied eight straight points to open the second quarter, to go up by a 27-9 count. Dave Mulder scored the first four on free throws, followed by buckets from Tuls and Ron Scholten. The half ended 37-23, as Mulder, Tuls, Scholten and Ray Schrotenboer each carded four points, and Dan Plasman the other two. Ed Givhan notched 10 of Hackett's 14 points in the second quarter.

Coach Elmer Ribbens' cagers had no intention of letting up in the second half as they quickly took a 26-point lead, 45-25, on a basket by Scholten, then traded points for a 55-35 lead going in to the final eight minutes. Scholten, turning in his usual steady game, scored seven of his 20 points in this period.

The Maroons ripped the Irish defense apart in the fourth period, outscoring Hackett 14-2 in the first five minutes, taking a 69-37 bulge, as five different players scored. Ribbens, who used substitutes freely throughout the game, got everyone in the last stanza, and they responded with 27 points while holding the Irish to 11.

Christian received fine support from their second five, with Mulder, Schrotenboer and Plasman in particular, turning in good performances. Tom Klaasen also appears ready to give added depth at the guard spot.

The Maroons controlled the backboards, despite the limited playing time of starting center Steve Vogelzang, who sat out much of the contest in foul trouble. Tuls moved to center and more than held his own against a taller Gary Vander Poel. Jerry De Groot and Mulder combined with Tuls on the boards to lead Christian to a 42-35 rebounding edge, which was much larger until the final few minutes. De Groot pulled down 11, Tuls nine and Mulder seven.

Christian hit 49 per cent of their shots, 29 of 59, having quarters of 7-16, 5-10, 8-16 and 9-17, while the Irish were 20 for 69 for 28 per cent, as the Maroons' defense forced Hackett to take many low percentage shots. At the charity stripe Christian made good on 24 of 36 and Hackett 6 of 19.

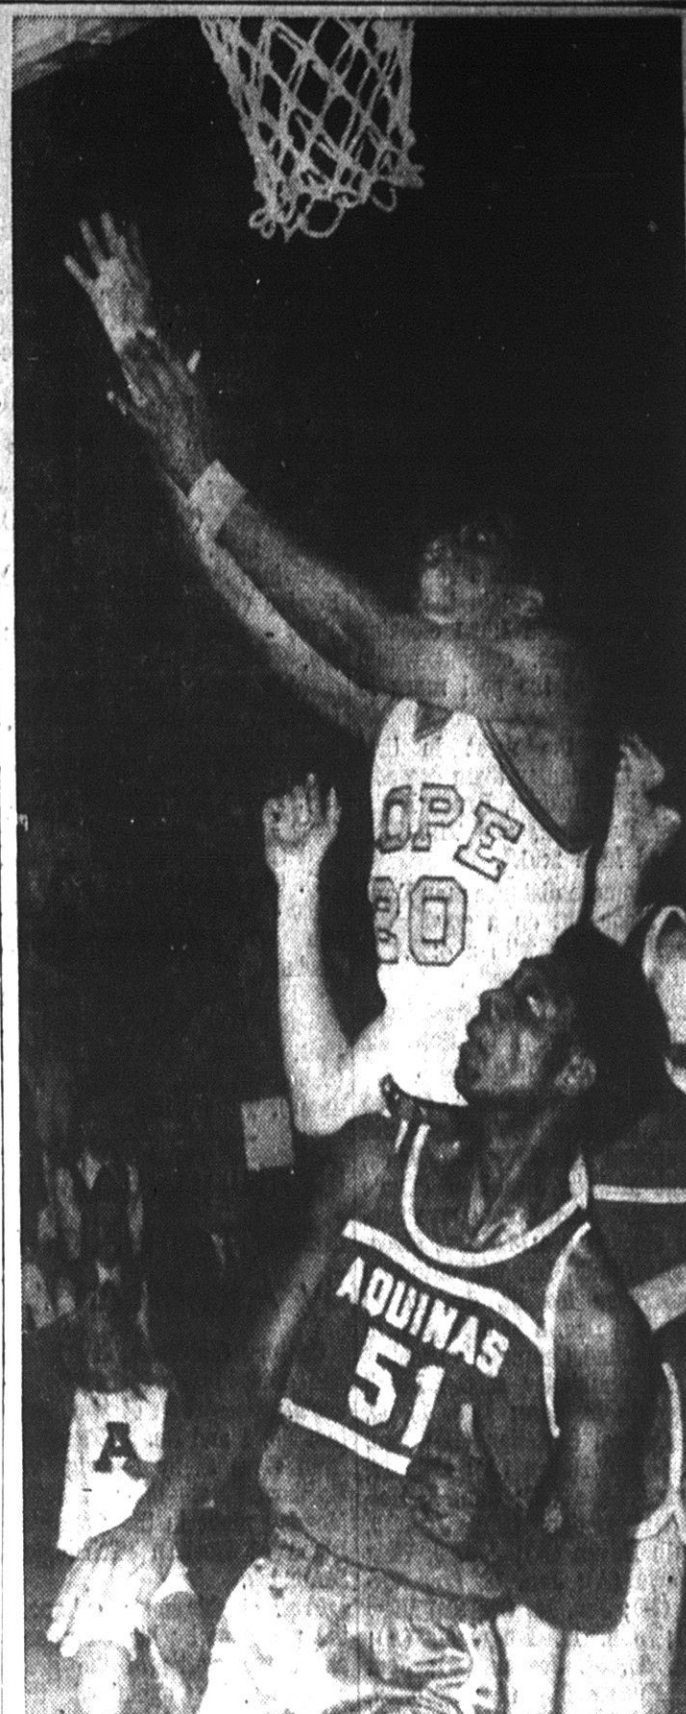

Coach Dave Vander Hill's reserve team also won its second game of the season, 47-38 over Kalamazoo Hackett's second team. The Maroons were on top at each quarter break, 10-6, 20-17 and 37-28. Rick Klompmaster and Sid Bruinsma shared scoring honors with 12 apiece, while the Irish were led by Bob Sadler with 15.

Christian travels to Allegan Tuesday, in search of its win of the season without a loss.

SCORES TWO — Lorenza Howard (20) Hope College starting guard on the basketball team, goes high in the air to bat in two points in Hope's home opener with Aquinas Saturday night in the Civic Center. Looking on for the Tommies is center Charlie Mathews (51). The Flying Dutchmen dropped a 79-72 decision to Aquinas. (Sentinel photo)

Aquinas Tops Dutchmen In Civic Center

Aquinas College wrecked Hope College's home basketball opener here Saturday night in the Civic Center by defeating the Flying Dutchmen, 79-72.

The Tommies had a 17-point lead at 69-52 with 10:18 to play in the game when Coach Russ DeVette called for a full court press which almost pulled out the decision for Hope.

Hope managed to come within five points, 75-70 with 2:33 left in the game and had the momentum to pull out the contest, but as it turned out, there just wasn't enough time as the Tommies held on for dear life.

Aquinas had defeated a major college foe, Xavier of Ohio earlier in the week and brought a 1-1 record into the game compared to Hope's 0-1 mark were playing the Dutchmen on even terms in the first half.

The big story of the first half was the fact that Hope's high scoring guard Dan Shinabarger of Holland failed to collect his first basket until 5:06 was left to play. "Shinny" finished the first 20 minutes with five points with the last point coming after he had left the court at the half and came back to swish a charity toss as a technical foul was called on the Tommies coach after time ran out.

Shinabarger's free throw cut Aquinas' lead to 38-36 at the intermission.

Marty Snoop, who was playing one of his finest games ever led Hope in scoring in the first half with 15 points while guard Lorenza Howard was next with six.

Big 6'7" forward Mark Simmons of Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart, who ran into foul trouble late in the half, led the Tommies with 10.

Aquinas broke open the game at the outset of the second half by collecting five baskets in a row and holding Hope scoreless to take a commanding 50-38 lead.

The Tommies increased their margin to 17 points at 69-52 before Hope got back on the beam to make the final score close.

"We just couldn't buy a basket when we needed it," said DeVette. The Dutchmen made only 27 of 68 shots for a cold 38 per cent while Aquinas was much hotter than the weather outside as they blitzed the nets for a 57 percentage on 37 of 64 attempts.

De Vette continued, "we are going to have to get better rebounding or scoring if we are going to be successful this season. I am sure we will get better though."

Big 6'5" sophomore center Tom Wolters of Fennville led Hope in rebounds with 16. The Dutchmen took down 32 team rebounds to 36 for the winners.

The hot shooting Simmons finished the night as the games top scorer with 24 counters. Guard Paul Gneper chipped in with 16 while center Charles Mathews and forward Frank Carrico scored 12 and 10 respectively for the Tommies.

Even though guard Gary Sovey only netted nine points, he was a pain to the Dutchmen all evening, especially in the first half when he stole the ball on four occasions from Hope players to the delight of the Tommies' fans.

Snoop led Hope in scoring with 23 markers while Shinabarger who went to work late in the second half contributed 17. The only other Dutchmen to reach double figures was Howard with 10.

Hope will play at tough St. Joseph's College Wednesday in search of its first win of the season.
