Six New Members Elected to Board

Election of six new board members and the presentation of annual reports highlighted the annual meeting of the Holland Christian School Society Thursday night in the high school auditorium.

Elected to three year terms are Ben Altena, Donald Zwier, William Vogelzang, Gordon Bouws and John De Vries, the latter from Zeeland. Named to a two year term was the Rev. T. C. Vanden Heuvel.

Retiring board president, the Rev. Charles Steenstra, pastor of the Faith Christian Reformed church, presided at the meeting and gave the opening devotions. Other retiring members are Norman Artz, Robert De Nooyer, Konrad Marcus, Russel Michmerhuizen.

Various financial reports were discussed and distributed to the members of the society. In commenting on the financial report, Alvin Brouwer, treasurer, said that revenues during the year amounted to $1,442,017.70 and net expenditures of $1,164,401.25 with expenditures in excess of revenue of $22,383.55.

Tuition and contributions amounted to $846,845.25 of the total revenues with the remainder coming from other gifts and the Sustaining Membership Fund. The SMP fund accounted for $181,245.58 but failed to meet its goal of $205,000. This amount of $23,745.42 accounts for the general fund shortage, Brower said.

Instructional expenditures amounted to $912,725.84 with administration listing $49,330.24; operation of plants, $96,885.43; maintenance of plants, $12,697.

Supervisors Will Start Budget Study

GRAND HAVEN — Budget problems will face the Ottawa County Board of Supervisors members next week as they hold their annual budget session at the county building. The October session opens Monday at 1:30 p.m. and will cover a period of two weeks.

The board is limited with funds for 1970 and some paring will be necessary if the board is to live within its income for next year.

The major task before the 21-member board will be the preparation of the new budget and its final adoption. The board will convene as a committee part of the session to go over the proposed budget, item by item.

A public hearing on the budget will be held prior to its adoption. Millage will be set for county roads, parks and county operation, and the annual report will be received from the taxes and apportionment committee.

Appointments will take up some of the time of the board next week and annual reports will be received from county officers. A letter of resignation has been received from Robert Murray of Coopersville, a member of the Grand River Watershed council from Ottawa, and the board must appoint a person to fill his unexpired term.

Terms of Mrs. Joan Danhof of Zeeland and Lawrence Smith of Holland in the canvassing board expire Nov. 1 and they will probably be reappointed. Terms are for four years.

There are several items of business left over from the September session of the board, including the hiring of a full-time county dentist to replace Dr. C. L. Norcross, who retired.

Pullman Man Seeks $50,000

GRAND HAVEN — Sammie Banks of Holland was named defendant Monday in a damage suit in Ottawa Circuit Court in a case filed by David Abrams of Pullman, Mich.

Abrams seeks $50,000 damages from Banks in connection with an accident on the Indiana tollroad near La Porte, Ind., back on Oct. 27, 1967.

Plaintiff claims he was changing a tire on his 1960 car at the side of the highway and was struck by a car driven by Banks. Both cars were on the westbound part of the highway. Banks claims he suffered severe neck and back injuries.

Deputies Cite Driver
For Failure to Yield

Cars driven by Robert E. Slenk, 38, of 608 West 30th St., and Walter H. Voorhies, 53, of Indianapolis, Ind., collided at US-31 and 16th St. at 11:08 a.m. Saturday, according to Ottawa county sheriff's deputies who cited Slenk for failure to yield the right of way.

Deputies said Voorhies' wife, Imogene, 49, sprained her ankle and was taken to Holland Hospital. She was released after treatment.

97; fixed charges, $77,583.01; auxiliary services, $2,050; capital outlay, $13,128.76.

Brouwer also mentioned that as of Aug. 31, 1969 unpaid tuition and contributions amounted to $68,160.20.

The building fund report showed that the total indebtedness on all school plants is $733,658.74, including the Rose Park addition. Total contributions to the building fund during the school year amounted to $175,140.69, Brouwer said.

He also reported that the cost of the new high school paid to date, including development and landscaping is $1,587,775.66. Brouwer also acknowledged a gift of approximately $20,000 from the athletic fund payable to the development of the athletic fields west of the school.

The athletic development to date includes six tennis courts, completely fenced, an asphalt quarter mile track, two softball fields and backstops, one varsity baseball field plus other physical education areas. Included in the track is a regulation soccer field.

Supt. Mark Vander Ark also presented his annual report to the Society. He touched on five major areas of supervision, educational, financial, building and grounds, planning and construction and promotion.

His report discussed briefly the curriculum changes undergoing study by various faculty committees in grades K-12. He also mentioned the administrative changes as well as the testing programs carried out in the various schools.

He touched on the salary schedule for teachers and also in the area of finance, reported on progress in the Parent Subscription Plan where financial ability to pay takes priority over the number of children in school. He said an average family contribution of $685, above tuition is needed to balance the budget.

Under building items, he reported that the new high school grounds are developed about as far as planned with only a utility-storage building still contemplated. Junior high and elementary playgrounds are now receiving the attention, he said.

He also reported that with the four room addition nearing completion at Rose Park, no new construction is anticipated for the foreseeable future.

In the area of promotion during the last school year, Vander Ark highlighted the participation of the band in the Presidential Inaugural Parade and the school's active participation in Tulip Time activities through klompen dancing, grade school pageant and the band's featured concert.

The Rev. J. Gunnink, pastor of the Providence Christian Reformed Church, offered the closing prayer.

HEDCOR Dream Realized Early

A truly great success story for Holland was unfolded at the monthly Chamber of Commerce Early Bird breakfast in Hotel Warm Friend Tuesday when John Van Dyke Jr., president of the Holland Economic Development Corp. (HEDCOR), spoke on "Promises, Pledges, Results."

In tracing the history of the corporation which sparked Holland's South Side Industrial Park, Van Dyke said the industrial program has succeeded far beyond the dreams of the little group of public minded men who incorporated the nonprofit plan in 1962.

Of the 300 acres acquired at the start of the program, 94 per cent has been committed in the five years the program has been in operation. In the interim the corporation has purchased another 100 acres.

In putting the achievements into perspective, Van Dyke estimated that there is more than three times the development on the site today than what the HEDCOR leaders back in 1964 envisioned by 1970. He said Ottawa county is one of the fastest growing counties in the state today, and Holland's economic life has advanced at a rate greater than any cities nearby.

In an area where only three plants existed in 1964, there are 20 plants today, the largest being the Beech-Nut plant which purchased a large site in 1964. Van Dyke gave full credit to many organizations which cooperated to produce a fine program, City Council for its work in zoning and providing streets and utilities; the realtors who provided professional services at no charge; those who contributed funds for developing the program, and many others.

He also gave full credit to industrial and commercial development in the environs of Holland. Roscoe Giles, Chamber executive vice president and industrial coordinator, showed slides of HEDCOR buildings and other developments in the area including downtown renovations, schools, hospital and motels.

James Hallan, immediate past president of the Chamber, presented Van Dyke with a framed citation in recognition of his work on HEDCOR "and for the vision and the energy which he has contributed to the group effort in developing Holland's South Side Industrial Park into one of the outstanding facilities of its kind."

Civil Defense Alert Test Slated

ZEELAND — Civil Defense officials here are planning for their test alert which will occur sometime after 6 p.m. Thursday, according to Civil Defense Director Don Voss.

Voss said there will be three to five minutes of siren blowing at a steady blast followed by a 30 seconds to one minute all clear signal of the same tone.

While Thursday's alert is a test, the signal would be used as a "take cover" warning in the event of a tornado or to alert persons to an industrial disaster.

Voss said persons should become accustomed to tuning to their local radio stations for further information when they hear the alert.

Five Persons Injured In Two-Car Collision

Ottawa county sheriff's deputies are investigating a two-car collision at M-21 and 72nd Ave. that occurred 2:53 p.m. Sunday and injured five persons.

One of the drivers, Jeane Rackes, 61, of Warm Friend Apartments, and her husband, Adam, 62, were taken to Holland Hospital and released after treatment.

The other driver, Mary Lou Schrottenboer, 20, of 7135 New Holland St., Zeeland, was taken to Zeeland Community Hospital and released after being examined and x-rayed. Her two passengers, Barbara Schrottenboer, 15, and Debbie Schrottenboer, 12, of the same address, were also released after treatment at the Zeeland hospital.

United Fund Leaders Give First Reports

Pledges and contributions totaling $30,649.30, or 17.4 per cent of the $175,000 goal were turned in today at the first report meeting of the Greater Holland United Fund-Red Cross campaign. The meeting was held at the Hotel Warm Friend.

Dale VanLente, drive chairman, said comparison with last year's reports indicated that the rate of giving by many groups is exceeding last year's. This is a healthy sign and one that must continue if this year's goal, an increase of 8.3 per cent over last year is to be met, he noted.

Paul Winchester, chairman of the Industrial Division reported a total of $22,160.80 from five firms, which represented an increase of 16.4 per cent over the 1968-69 contributions of $19,053.

The DePree Company and Hart and Cooley Mfg. Co. and their employees qualified for the "C" Award for outstanding citizenship. Employees of Northern Fibre Products and Beech-Nut Life Savers also earned the award.

Divisions reporting today amounts so far and their quotas are: Commercial (William G. Oonk) $2,372.50 on a $21,770 goal; Retail (Calvin J. Hulst) $974 on a $9,996 goal; Professional (John Tyse) $1,790 on $6,463; Public-Civic (John W. Fonger) $2,737 on $16,998; Industrial (Paul Winchester) $22,160.80 on $104,872, and Construction (Marve Freestone) $30 on $4,061.

The second report meeting will be held at Hotel Warm Friend Tuesday, Oct. 14 at 7:30 a.m. All report meetings are "Dutch Treat."

Driver Is Hurt in Crash

A young Holland driver is in Holland Hospital Tuesday undergoing treatment for injuries received in a two-car collision at River Ave. and Fourth St. at 7:12 p.m. Monday, according to Holland police who are investigating.

Elizabeth Ann Overway, 16, of 340 East 24th St., was listed in satisfactory condition with forehead lacerations and fractured ribs received when the car she was driving collided with one driven by Guy McGonegal, 63, of Jackson.

McGonegal's wife, Mary Louise, 65, received contusions of the chest and left knee and was released from Holland Hospital after treatment.

Police said Miss Overway had just left a gasoline station at Third St. and River Ave. when the wheels started to slip. Police said she slid into the other lane of traffic, hitting the McGonegal car and scraping a power pole.

Wounded Girl, 7, In Poor Condition

KALAMAZOO — Seven-year-old Kandy Simmons of Allegan who was seriously wounded when accidentally shot in the head Tuesday morning remains in poor condition at Borgess Hospital here today.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Simmons of 3400 125th Ave., route 5, Allegan, was shot when a loaded automatic .22 caliber rifle was accidentally fired by one of her smaller brothers, according to Allegan county sheriff's deputies.

Deputies reported Kandy's two brothers, Cleve Jr., 6, and Richard Allen, 5, were playing in the living room with the rifle when Kandy walked in. The rifle went off, wounding her.

Holland May Become Showplace for Computers

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of articles on a proposal for data processing equipment in Holland, now being considered by the City Council.) The idea of data processing equipment — computers — in Holland city government is not a new one.

As early as March, 1968, the inadequacy of equipment and techniques for processing data had suggested the need for computers to city officials.

In recent months, this idea has approached reality.

Computers could mean a double savings, in time and in money, for Holland residents. Payroll for city employees could be quickly and accurately handled by data processing equipment. Extensive, up to date records could improve and expand the services of Holland City Hospital and the Herrick Library. Utility bills could be paid to the Board of Public Works in one sum, possibly on an installment plan.

Although the computer would require an initial investment of city funds, elimination of wasted time and overlapping bookwork would soon save money for the taxpayer and offset the cost of equipment.

A study committee representing all phases of city government has been looking into the feasibility of data processing in Holland since March of 1968. Their initial contacts with computer manufacturers met with enthusiastic responses.

"More and more cities our size are going into computer associations," comments city auditor John Fonger, chairman of the study committee. Computer firms hope to prove that their equipment could benefit cities of 25,000 or less, and Holland, nationally known for its annual Tulip Festival, would be an ideal showplace for the manufacturers of data processing equipment.

The study committee felt it needed the opinion of an unbiased outside authority not directly connected with computer manufacturing. "When a computer man does a study, they're bound to be biased," Fonger observed, since each representative would want to sell his own equipment.

Alexander Grant and Company, a New York based management advisory service, was chosen from among nine large certified public accounting and consulting agencies competing for the contract to study the feasibility of data processing in Holland.

Representatives of Alexander Grant and Company came to Holland in March and April of 1969. They studied the city's government, made suggestions for improvement, analyzed the need for data processing, and recommended types of equipment most economical and beneficial to the city.

The Alexander Grant study contains two surprising recommendations, Fonger reports. First, it suggests that the computer facilities be located at Holland City Hospital, and not in downtown Holland. Although all branches of the city government will use the computer, the hospital's extensive medical records, Medicare and insurance forms, and large payroll will require 55 per cent of the computer's services.

And, the study recommends a General Electric 115 computer instead of the expected IBM equipment. The key to this recommendation is the back-up support available through the General Electric 415 computer, located at the Hermetic Motors plant on 16th St.

Back-up support means that computer programs could be tested and perfected on GE equipment before the city's GE 115 computer arrives. Programmers and maintenance crews trained on GE equipment would be available at the Hermetic Motors plant, to help the city personnel. In case of a breakdown of the city's computer, essential data such as hospital records and city payrolls could be processed on the computer at Hermetic Motors.

The computer would eliminate waste and effort, but not people, Fonger notes. Clerks and accountants whose duties would be taken over by the computer, would be retrained for new jobs on the computer equipment itself. Positions for programmers and keypunch operators may eventually open up.

A two-shift, 16 hour a day schedule is being planned for the computer. Later, the computer could be in continuous operation, with periodic stops for upkeep and repair. Night-time hours could be made available to other tax-supported institutions, such as the Board of Education. "We're interested in holding down costs to the taxpayer," Fonger says, noting that continuous operation of the computer is most economical.

Acceptance of the data processing proposals "is far from a formality," Fonger says. Councilmen and board members are now studying the Alexander Grant Company's recommendations. The computer study committee will prepare its report to the City Council Nov. 25, and the feasibility of data processing in Holland will be discussed at the Dec. 3 City Council meeting. Public comment is welcome at that time.

Building Codes

A report on the successful Parade of Homes at Imperial Estates was given by William Boersma, president of the Holland Area Home Builders Association, at its monthly meeting, Monday at Holiday Inn.

Boersma reported that more than 6,500 persons attended the two-week event, with proceeds going to the West Ottawa High School vocational carpentry class and the Zeeland Library. The association plans to have a similar event next year.

Henry Brederland of the West Ottawa High School teaching staff expressed thanks for the group's efforts in the carpentry class program.

Speaker for the evening was Jack Langfeldt, Holland city inspector, who showed a film "The Building Code Official" and answered questions.

Marvin Freestone, executive officer, gave a brief report on Regulation Z (Truth in Lending) and he and Ed Harrington reported on their recent trip to Washington, D. C. to discuss with senators and representatives the problems builders face in the tight money situation.

Ambulance Problems Clarified

ALLEGAN — State Rep. James S. Farnsworth of the 55th district which includes Holland city today clarified the ambulance service problem which has caused a great deal of concern, particularly in outstate and rural areas of Michigan.

In view of an alarming number of private ambulance firms going out of business, Farnsworth pointed out that the two measures by the state legislature in 1968 in no way restricts ambulance service. One permits townships and counties to contract with persons, firms, organizations and corporations in order to provide ambulance and inhalator service. The second licenses and regulates ambulances, drivers, attendants and attendant-drivers.

What causes present problems, Farnsworth says, are federal laws and regulations which now consider ambulance service as interstate business. As interstate business, ambulance service is regulated under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act which requires a minimum wage of $1.60 an hour with time-and-a-half for overtime.

Until very recently, Farnsworth said, it was common practice in outstate areas of Michigan for ambulance crews to be paid on a call basis, receiving compensation only when a run was made, but federal laws no longer permit this arrangement and a crew must be paid for its entire work shift. This would mean a cost of at least $76.80 in salaries alone to keep a driver and an attendant in readiness throughout a 24-hour day. Under actual conditions, the cost would be considerably greater.

As a result, private ambulance firms operating in low-accident areas have found it impossible to continue operations without some degree of subsidy. The fees that may reasonably be charged to patients or accident victims are no longer sufficient to meet the costs of maintaining crews and vehicles.

"Far from driving ambulance companies out of business, the legislature moved last year to see ambulance service continued in the face of expensive federal requirements," Farnsworth maintains.

He said there are two basic methods by which local governments in areas no longer receiving adequate ambulance service can assure the citizens that this need will be met, either through contracting with a private firm or by utilizing an existing governmental agency, and he believes local governments are best qualified to solve local problems.

He said sheriff's officers or policemen can complete the required courses of first aid and be licensed as attendants or attendant-drivers. Station wagons could be specially rebuilt for use as both ambulances and patrol cars. In this way, both personnel and vehicles can serve dual purposes without the high expense of total dual operation.

State Police Nab 2 Escapees From Training School

GRAND HAVEN — State Police here apprehended two escapees from the Boy's Training School at Lansing after chasing a stolen car in Spring Lake township at 10:20 p.m. Thursday.

The two, Raymond Dekker of Spring Lake and Thomas Lute of Warren, both 17 years old, were lodged in Ottawa county jail to be turned over to authorities in Lansing.

State Troopers said they spotted the car and attempted to stop it for a traffic violation when the two attempted to elude officers. A chase followed until they were cornered at a dead-end road on 148th Ave. a half mile north of M-104.

Officers said the fleeing pair attempted to turn the car around and rammed a patrol car which was blocking the exit headon.

Don't Misuse Water Says Dr. W. Stapp

Members and guests of the Holland Garden Club spent a most enlightening afternoon, on Thursday, when they heard Dr. William B. Stapp of the Department of Natural Resources of the University of Michigan speak on "Conservation, When Will We Learn?"

Dr. Stapp opened his talk by reviewing how man has dealt with his natural resources in the past, explaining the first great conservation surge began with President Teddy Roosevelt, when he set aside vast forest lands for future use. He recognized the need to preserve those resources that man cannot replace. Then in the 30's, trained and skilled management of our environment was introduced. The third conservation movement was launched with the recent Secretary of the Interior, Secretary Udall, when he saw the great need for quality environment.

Among the many topics touched upon were historic preservation, water and watersheds when he said "Water from the Lake Macatawa watershed drains into Lake Michigan, and with all its pollutants takes 100 years to reach the Mackinac bridge, which means the pollutants are with us for a long time."

He also stated that by 1985 we will not have enough ground or river water to meet our needs, if we continue our misuse of water as we are today. Also discussed was what to do about flood plains, the need for proper zoning, "what do you know about your community, what about recreation and where does industry and your municipal government stand on the use of natural resources?"

At the close of the program Dr. Stapp showed some most interesting slides on the various types of pollution, explaining that pollution is a "people" problem, and pollutants must be reclaimed and put back into the system. Of most importance is that the ordinary citizen must be aware of the problems, ask questions, attend civic meetings and take action where needed.

Dr. Stapp was introduced by the club's conservation chairman, Mrs. Donald Kingsley, who also had on display the map of the Lake Macatawa watershed, the geological charts showing how Michigan came into being, a pesticide display and a geological rock display.

Preceding the program a short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Leonard Dick, club president. She announced that the club had approved the hiring of the firm of Johnson, Johnson and Roy, Landscape Architects from Ann Arbor, to draw up a plan for the landscape development of the remainder of the hospital grounds, this plan also met with the approval of the Hospital Board.

Mrs. Helen Hoinville, of Cassopolis spoke briefly, thanking the club for their support of the foundation in awarding scholarships to students in Landscape Design.

AN OLD STORY

Congressman Philip E. Ruppe of Michigan polled his constituents on their views concerning taxes, inflation and government spending. Among other things, he asked if they would be willing to support substantial reduction in domestic spending programs in an effort to check inflation and rising prices. He also asked if they favored substantial reduction in military spending.

Forty-three per cent would support a cut in domestic spending against 33 per cent opposing. Fifty-seven per cent would support a reduction in military spending against 22 per cent opposed.

On the face of it, these answers would seem to indicate that voters would approve less government and less spending possibly even at the price of military security. But favoring economy in government as an abstract proposition is far different than favoring economy in government when it must be accomplished at the expense of pet projects and programs.

When the chips are down, it may be the old story all over again of economy in government being something that applies only to the other fellow and not to ourselves. Until this obstacle can be overcome, there is little chance of controlling government spending or, for that matter, long-term, creeping inflation.

'No Exit' Rare Theatrical Experience

The Pacific Repertory Co. provided a rare theatrical experience in its presentation of Jean Paul Sartre's gripping drama "No Exit" Tuesday night in the chapel of Western Theological Seminary.

The spellbinding masterpiece directed by Charles J. Golden was cast on a bare stage, a so-called empty room in the hereafter containing only three chairs. It was a matter of dissecting the human soul after death, and the emotional pull triggered its share of grim humor which brought laughter to relieve the tension.

Effective lighting helped emphasize the chancel presentation, putting an almost hypnotic spell on the full house.

There are no real answers to Sartre's provocative drama, but man's search for his relationship to his world broadens and grows more introspective.

In a review seminar conducted by the players after the drama was given, the group learned that the play was presented as a free adaptation by the actors to a present-day American setting which required a reassignment of roles different from that indicated in the programs.

It was the third time that the Pacific Repertory Co. has presented chancel drama at the local seminary. Two years ago "Cyrano de Bergerac" was presented and last year "Everyman." The company was founded in 1966 to bring significant and meaningful drama to people in all areas. Troupes have covered over 200,000 miles, coast to coast, playing more than 1,700 performances in 45 states.

Sunday School Lesson

The Lord or Baal
I Kings 18:30-39
By C. P. Dame

One of the greatest powers we all have is the power to choose. We make choices many times. This lesson tells about a nation which made a wise choice. It would be wonderful if we as a nation would make a similar choice.

I. A crisis calls for action. Israel was slipping religiously. It began with Solomon who worshipped pagan gods with his pagan wives. Jeroboam made matters worse when he built two chapels and placed two golden bulls in them. Finally Ahab, son of Omri, came along. He married Jezebel, a strong-willed worshiper of Baal. She imported false prophets. The Lord's people were persecuted.

Suddenly Elijah came upon the scene. After making the announcement, "As the Lord God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew or rain these years, but according to my word" he disappeared. God took care of him. After some time the prophet appeared again. King Ahab and Elijah faced each other. Elijah challenged Ahab to a contest on Mt. Carmel which he accepted. The time for action had come.

II. Life offers us choices. The king called the people together and many came to Mt. Carmel. Elijah and the prophets of Baal were present. Elijah ordered the building of two altars and it was agreed that the god "who answers by fire, he is God." Baal's prophets failed.

Elijah got a turn. He repaired the Lord's altar which had been torn down because of disuse, using twelve stones which symbolized the twelve tribes of Israel. Elijah prayed briefly, calling upon the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and thus reminded the people of the covenant God made with the nation.

God heard Elijah's prayer for "the fire of the Lord fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench." The prophets of Baal saw what happened and realized their failure. When the people saw what had taken place they shouted, "The Lord, He is God; the Lord He is God."

The prophet had challenged the people, saying, "How long will you go limping with two different opinions?" The people decided for God at least with their lips. Baal worship was an innovation. It tried to push Israel's true religion aside. Elijah summoned the people to return to the God of their fathers.

We are living in critical times. We need men and women who are loyal to the Christian faith and committed to its basic doctrines. We are troubled by novelties, changes, innovations, hoping that they will bring about a renewal. A return to the God of our fathers will bless the nation. We must all personally choose—God or a false god. What is your choice?

'Need to Be Alive, Love' Solution, Beahan Says

"This is not the world you were born in—or when you went to college — and perhaps not the world we really want it to be." The speaker was Msgr. Hugh Michael Beahan and these were his opening remarks to members of the Century Club Monday night as they began the 73rd year of Century Club at a dinner in the Warm Friend Hotel. The statement also set the theme for his address, titled "Not Me, I'm No Machine ... This is a Recording."

In his speech, sprinkled with wit and humor, he explored the dilemmas of the middle-aged in particular in trying to find their identity amid the unceasing changes in philosophy, culture, and even in the machines of our technological world.

A startling fact that emphasized the differences in learning experiences of the young and middle-aged was that the average high school graduate today has completed 11,000 hours in school versus the 15,000 hours he has also spent before a television set.

"Conflicts to be coped with today," Father Beahan said, "concern the generation gap in culture and even in political machines, the Black vs. White problem, the issue of authority in the Catholic Church and the ecumenical problems among the Protestant churches themselves.

In analyzing the religious situation today, Msgr. Beahan sought to give "insight," he said, "in the social picture."

He was critical of the tendency, long prevalent in both the religious and secular leadership of "putting down the 'human' part of man." The methodology of separating the worldly and the churchly often causes the "humanity of Christ" to be neglected, he pointed out. He also emphasized that the influence of fear on adults prevents true compassion for each other and that a genuine expression of love is needed, not just ceremonial ritual that has become meaningless.

A poignant answer to man's question of "Who am I?" was given by a black child in the inner city of Grand Rapids. Msgr. Beahan related that in touring the office of the Human Relations Council of that city, he came across a message written by this youngster. It said, "I'm me and I'm good because God doesn't make junk."

Msgr. Beahan concluded that "humanity" is at stake in our time and that the humanity of Christ needs to be re-emphasized. He asked, "How real are we? How much genuine love and sharing are in us?" The need to be "alive and to love," was suggested as the best solution for coping with machines and change.

Bernard P. Donnelly Jr., president of Century Club, introduced the speaker and presided at the meeting. New members, Dr. E. F. Gearhart and Mr. and Mrs. John Tyssie, were introduced. Guests present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boite, Gilbert Hittinger of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Arthur Visscher, and Hendrik Vander Flier from The Hague, the Netherlands.

Tommy James, Shondells Thrill Crowd

Holland Civic Center rocked Saturday night as popular recording artists Tommy James and the Shondells captivated a full house whose members included the emotionally geared teenage set, their more reserved peers and even some of the "older set."

Singing up a storm that packed more punch than Hurricane Camille, the group opened with a loud whirling version of the Beatles' hit "With a Little Help From My Friends" and then led right into their own lively "Money Money" which Tommy later explained he coined from a "Mutual of New York" sign.

The beat slackened but drew wild applause when they sang "What the World Needs Now Is Love," proving what one member of the audience said: "You can understand what he says . . . the words of the song have a meaning."

"Tommy is about one of the best singers today," one girl was heard to say and his exciting group could get nothing but thrilling "oohs" and "aahs" when they sang their million seller "I Think We're Alone Now" and their more recent hit "Sweet Cherry Wine."

But the greatest response was to their "Crystal Blue Persuasion" and to their largest seller "Crimson and Clover" which had to be repeated in the second half of the program.

Clowning an imitation of Ed Sullivan, Tommy introduced "Hanky Panky" which delighted rock enthusiasts of about four years ago and spurred audience handclapping.

As magnetic as Tommy, drummer Peter Lucia drew the crowd with his twirling drumsticks and towel-wiping antics. Ronnie Rosman, organist, broke through his "famous scowl" having become a "proud papa" earlier in the day.

Eddie Gray, lead guitarist, and Mike Vale, bass guitarist, were not to be left out and drew warm applause by donning the wooden shoes given them. One of them, in acknowledging the wooden shoes, said, "That's really beautiful. Usually you go to a city and forget it. Now we have something to remember."

The fantastic five displayed extraordinary showmanship, even under the sometimes winking and ineffective spotlights of the building, in the show promoted by Ed Ver Schure and Marc Vanden Bosch.

Amidst the cheering, Tommy concluded by saying: "Doing your thing is important. Thank you for letting us come and do ours. Peace everyone. God bless you all!"

Preceding Tommy James and the Shondells were The Sheffields of Holland featuring Gary Teall, lead vocalist; Dale Knoll, bass guitar; Ron Gibson, lead guitar; Dana Dunn, drummer, and Dave Raffenaud, organist.

Miss Nancy Jane Vojvodic and Wayne Stokes were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in Douglas Community Church.

The Rev. Charles Johnson officiated and appropriate music was by Mae Winne, organist, and Donna Le Maire, soloist, in a setting of mums, gladiolas and a wedding tree.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vojvodic of route 2, Fennville, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wright of Allegan.

The bride wore a white satin gown with imported French lace accents and carried an arm bouquet of white roses, carnations, mums and baby's breath.

Miss Susan Vojvodic attended her sister as maid of honor and was attired in a moss green empire gown and carried a yellow mum.

The bridesmaids, Charlene Mohr, Ronda Vojvodic and Tommie Sue Wadsworth, sister of the groom, wore celery green empire gowns and carried yellow mums.

Ron Wright was best man assisted by Jerome Mohr, Rich Wadsworth and Carl Vojvodic.

Karen Dresdow of Grand Rapids poured punch for the reception in the church fellowship room where the bridal couple greeted 150 guests.

Following a wedding trip east, the couple will live in Lansing.

The bride is a graduate of Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music and the groom, who is a labor foreman, will attend Le Tourneau College, Longview, Texas, in January.

Bulldogs Tie Holland, 12-12

GRANDVILLE — Some people say a tie is like kissing your sister. Well that's just what happened to Holland High Friday night in a Valley Coast football league game as Grandville pulled off the surprise of the season by tying the Dutch, 12-12.

Somehow the team that Holland was playing Friday was a lot better than the one that the Dutch thought they were supposed to be playing. Grandville only scored one touchdown in three previous games but moved the ball well against the defense of the Dutch.

In the first half the Bulldogs ran 27 plays to 20 for the Dutch and for the game Grandville ran 54 total plays from scrimmage compared to 50 for Holland.

The Bulldogs picked up 176 yards in the air to only 121 for the Dutch with Holland's fine running back Ken De Boer picking up 80 yards on 17 carries. De Boer was the workhorse for the Dutch on the ground throughout the entire contest as he was called upon to carry the ball at least two plays in every running series.

Max Glupker, who tossed three touchdowns passes last week for the Dutch connected for two Friday but was able to complete two additional passes out of 13 attempts. In his behalf three or four passes that were right on target were dropped by his receivers.

The Dutch had a great opportunity to win with only two minutes left in the game as Doug Morse pounced on the only Bulldog fumble of the night on the eight yard line of Grandville.

After losing three yards on an attempted sweep around right end, Glupker hit Larry Lamb with a beautiful touchdown pass from 11 yards out only to have the play called back because of an illegal procedure penalty called against Holland.

Glupker went back to pass once more and tossed a nice soft pass to Fritz Steininger on the two yard line only to see Steininger fall to hold onto the ball. Dick Vohlken came in to try a field goal that was wide to the right and the Bulldogs settled for a 12-12 tie as time ran out 30 seconds later.

It was a fired up Grandville team that Holland was playing as the Bulldogs took the opening kickoff of the game and drove into Dutch territory before Tim Matchinsky stopped the Bulldogs drive by intercepting a pass.

Both teams were unable to score in the first quarter but Grandville didn't waste any time by notching its first touchdown of the game with 7:39 left in the half on a one yard drive by Mike Zenaitis who set up his own score by lumbering 11 yards up the middle to the one. The run failed for the two points and Grandville surprised everyone by taking a 6-0 lead.

The Dutch went right to work as Glupker hit De Boer on a pass, run touchdown play from 47 yards out which saw De Boer use a couple of beautiful moves before scoring.

Holland went 70 yards in five plays to tie the contest at 6-6. The kick for the extra point failed and the teams left the field after 24 minutes of hard nose football ties at 6-6.

A broken play set up Holland's second six-pointer of the game in the third quarter. Steininger was back to punt for the Dutch but dropped the snap from center and when he looked up to kick it was too late, as three Bulldogs were barreling down on him, so Steininger showed his speed by racing hard to the right to pick up six yards and a first down on the Grandville 46 yard line.

De Boer set up the touchdown by rumbling 20 yards to the Grandville 12 yard line. A five yard penalty against the Dutch set the ball back to the 17 where Glupker went to work by throwing a perfect touchdown pass to Lamb in the end zone. The pass failed for the conversion but Holland enjoyed a 12-6 advantage for the first time of the evening with 5:33 left in the third stanza.

The Dutch defense stopped the Grandville drive twice in two different series to kill off any chances the Bulldogs had in mind. Guard Dave Yskes saved the day for Holland by recovering his teammates fumble on the Dutch 20 yard line.

Gary Wayer made two big first down plays for Grandville which eventually led to the tying touchdown. The first came on fourth down and three situation on the Holland 38 yard line as Wayer busted through for six yards on a counter play. The second came four plays later on a eight yard pass from quarterback Bill Wilson which gave the Bulldogs a first down on the Holland 15.

Holland's defense stiffened on the next three plays as the Bulldogs were faced with another fourth down play from the nine yard line. Grandville needed four yards for a first down and nine for the touchdown and the Holland fans were hoping the Dutch defense would hold. For a moment they did but Zenaitis busted a couple of tackles and dashed into the end zone to tie the contest at 12-12. Bill McKen-

ALL EYES ON BATTAGLIA — West Ottawa's fine defensive halfback Mike Battaglia (21) goes high in the air to intercept a pass during Friday night's game with Wyoming Godwin. Other West Ottawa players are Captain Tom Kruitthof (43) and Rod Berkompas (41). Al Alvery (15) of Godwin was the intended pass receiver on the play. Godwin took a thrilling 14-8 decision. ney's extra point kick was no good and the game ended at 12-12.

Holland is now 1-0-1 in the Valley Coast Conference and the Bulldogs are 0-1-1. The Dutch are 2-1-1 overall to 0-3-1 for Grandville. Muskegon Heights leads the Valley Coast Conference presently with a 3-0 mark while Grand Haven is 1-0 and Holland next in line at 1-0-1.

Coach Dave Kempker's Dutch will be hoping to get back on the winning track next Friday when they host East Grand Rapids at Riverview Park.

Godwin Ruins Panthers' Homecoming

The West Ottawa Panthers had their Homecoming football game ruined Friday night 14-8 at the hands of the Godwin Wolverines in front of a large crowd.

Godwin proved that the outcome of a game can be changed in a matter of seconds. The Wolverines scored with just 46 seconds left in the game to win.

The Panthers opened the scoring in the first quarter when they drove the ball down to the Wolverine 15 yard line on some fine running by tailback Greg Van Wieren.

Tom Kruitthof grabbed a pass from quarterback Les Zommermaand and raced in for the score with 3:44 left in the first quarter. Zommermaand ran in the point after try which made the score 8-0.

Godwin posted the only other serious scoring threat of the first quarter when they marched down to the Panthers 20-yard line. The drive failed to materialize as the Wolverines were stopped on downs.

Defense played an important part of the second quarter as both teams fought to a standstill. A pass interception by Godwin's Al Avery on the Panthers 20 yard line set up the Wolverines score just before the half. Rick Owens scored for Godwin from the five-yard line with just 14 seconds left in the first half. Godwin's extra point try failed and left the Panthers with an 8-6 halftime score.

The Panthers held a slight edge in first half total yards with 140 to Godwin's 114 total yards.

West Ottawa took the second half kickoff and moved the football to the Godwin 40 yard line before being stopped by the Wolverine defense.

Godwin took the West Ottawa punt and couldn't move the ball against the Panthers defense. West Ottawa fumbled the Godwin ensuing punt on their own 33-yard line. Godwin was stopped on downs several plays later at the Panther 15-yard line. The third quarter ended with the score 8-6.

The fourth quarter was a defensive battle as both teams were not able to move the ball against each other.

West Ottawa retained the football with just 5:25 left in the game on a key interception by Mike Battaglia. The Panthers couldn't hang on to the ball as they fumbled with 2:33 left in the game on the Panthers 49 yard line.

Godwin's Avery ran the ball to the Panthers four yard line several plays later. Godwin ran a quarterback sneak into the end zone only to have it called back because of a 15-yard penalty.

With just 46 seconds left to play, Steve Sharporn caught a 9 yard pass for the second Godwin score. The extra point attempt was good on a run by Ed Lucas.

West Ottawa took the ensuing kickoff and ran it back to their own 35 yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tom Kruitthof took a pass from Zommermaand and ran it to the Godwin 27 yard line.

The following play saw a Godwin interception in the end zone. Time ran out on the Panthers as the game ended 14-8.

West Ottawa travels to Hudsonville next Friday night in an O-K league game at 7:30.

DEFEATED FROSH — The freshman class (pictured) at Hope College went down to defeat Friday at the hands of the sophomore class in the school's 70th annual "Pull" across the Black River. It took the sophomore men two hours and 22 minutes to pull their opponents into the water, slightly less than the longest "Pull" which took two hours and 27 minutes in 1965. Tradition leans toward the sophomore class in this yearly event and last year's frosh went into the water in one hour and 29 minutes. The emotional young women pictured on the immediate sidelines are known as "morale girls" and their tasks for the event include taping the contestants' hands, wiping brows, serving lemon slices for thirst and administering a healthy dose of vocal encouragement.

Hope Church Introduces Program on Taskforces

Last Sunday morning marked the public announcement of the launching of an innovative Christian Action Program by the congregation of Hope Reformed Church. The announcement was made in the form of a dialogue sermon by the pastor, the Rev. Glen O. Peterman, and newly-appointed Director of Christian Action Dr. James I. Cook.

The sermon explained the formation of six "taskforces." A taskforce is a small group of volunteers from among the church membership who will accept one particular task assigned to them in the area of social need in the community. The taskforce will work under the direction of Dr. Cook and a professional consultant from the community.

The six taskforces and the consultants are as follows: Suicide Prevention Service, Dr. Robert Brown; Junior High Tutoring Service, Ralph Kickert; K and U Industries, William Paarlberg; Family-to-Family, Roger MacLeod; Faith-to-Faith (Communications Class for handicapped young people), Dr. Les-velopment, housekeeping skills, etc.

Task No. 4 is a Family-to-Family Taskforce. Six older houses have been purchased for rehabilitation and resale to low-income families in the community. Volunteer families from the congregation will relate to the new owners as friends, counselors, guides, helpers, etc.

Task No. 5, called Faith-to-Faith, is to serve with a seminary team ministry in offering a Communications Class for 15 handicapped teen-aged young people. The class will meet Thursday evenings.

Task No. 6 is the Higher Horizons Big Brother program. The task is designed to provide a youth from a broken home with a stable adult male relationship. Monthly professional assistance will be available to all participants.

The Christian Church is suffering from a growing criticism that it is all talk and no action. While that criticism has been justified in the past, Hope Church is now moving in a specific constructive way to become involved in the social, economic, educational and emotional, as well as the spiritual needs, of the people of the community.

Any questions regarding this program may be addressed at any time to the pastor of Hope Church, the Rev. Glen O. Peterman, or to Dr. James I. Cook, the Director of Christian Action.

Sometime during the course of this year the council, along with several members from each district, will organize a campaign to raise some funds for 4-H. The National 4-H Center in Washington, D.C. is building a big addition. Michigan's share towards this addition is $75,000 and Ottawa County's share is $3,000. We would like to have our clubs, leaders and members raise funds in their local communities and donate 90 per cent of their gross to Ottawa County to participate in this National Fund Raising Campaign.

The Ottawa County 4-H Council meets once each month, usually the second Tuesday evening of each month. During these meetings, we discuss events, activities, programs and 4-H in general, according to the season of the year. This fall we will be spending some time talking about boys 4-H clubs and the winter program. We would encourage any leaders to contact their council representatives to keep in touch about these programs and inform the council of your ideas. The council at present is working on a plat book as a fund raising project. The plat book carries the maps of each of the 17 townships showing all owners of five acres or more of land in each township.

We are holding a special meeting for Holland Christian 4-H leaders Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Southside Christian School. This meeting will be held to help leaders organize and to answer any questions that might come up in connection with sewing. Miss Rowles will be on hand to talk about technical methods in sewing, etc. Mr. Boss will talk about organizing, programming, etc.

here Friday night in a non-league football clash with powerful Zeeland as the Chix took a 27-6 decision.

Lamer tallied three touchdowns and figured in the fourth Chix score as the Zeeland ace picked up 177 yards on the ground and passed for an additional 134 yards. As a team Zeeland picked up 489 yards with Lamer getting 311 of it.

Zeeland scored its first touchdown the third play from scrimmage on a 66 yard run by Lamer. Butch Wyngarden kicked the extra point and the winners enjoyed a 7-0 lead.

With Zeeland only holding a 7-0 lead in the second quarter Lamer teamed with Mike Zylstra on a 36-yard pass, run play for the Chix second score of the game. Zylstra's touchdown pass was one of his four catches in the contest for a total of 104 yards.

Hamilton roared back to score a touchdown with 9:58 left in the second period. Cal Schrotenboer tallied for the Hawks on a one yard quarterback sneak to put his team in the game at 13-6.

With Zeeland only up by seven points, 13-6 in the third period Lamer decided he better get busy as he tallied two quick touchdowns. The first covered three yards with the second a nifty 65 yard jaunt.

Hamilton's defense got tougher as the game moved on as they held the Chix in bay but were not able to muster too much of an offensive threat for the Zeeland defense which was sky high also.

The victory lifts Zeeland's record to 3-1 overall while the Hawks are just the opposite at 1-3.

Enthusiastic Audience Applauds Talented Pianist

An attentive and appreciative audience gathered in Holland Civic Center Monday night for a concert by Pianist Anthony di Bonaventura who ushered in the 1969-70 season of Holland's Community Concert Association.

It was an evening of delight for "squares" who still prefer Bach, Beethoven and Brahms to the din of modern rock. And the artist proved himself a master of the keyboard in selections by Beethoven, Chopin, Granados and Liszt. In a group of Chopin selections, he moved from the gentle to the spirited to the bombastic, and back again, his fleeting fingers making light work of difficult technical passages.

A delicate tonal quality was demonstrated in Beethoven's Sonata in D major, lulling the listening audience, a sharp but interesting contrast to the active Liszt numbers which included Hungarian Rhapsody No. 10.

Spanish Dances Vol. 2 by Enrique Granados, less familiar than the Beethoven - Chopin-Liszt numbers, rounded out a well balanced program with an approach that was fresh and clean. The pianist obliged with two encores, Rachmaninoff's Prelude in G major and a Chopin Etude.

The Holland audience is to be commended for its attentiveness during the program. There was a minimum of coughing and stalling and only a few left before the second encore. And the applause, loud and enthusiastic, was in the right places.

It has not always been thus in Holland, but there has been improvement through the years, and an interesting article in the smaller-sized Bravo magazine which included the concert program titled "The Perils of Audience Pests" does not apply to Holland audiences today like it would have some years ago. The article referred to the "fanner" usually swathed in furs, the cougher or throat-clearer always setting off 50 others, the vocalizer who hums along, women's hats, and adolescent movers.
