Heinz Family Shows Spirit of Yuletide

HEINZ "57" VARIETIES GET TOGETHER

The H. J. Heinz company has a club in Holland they call the "57" club. Only in this particular instance 400 attended. Rather a party of "elites" first the "400" and then Heinz's best. Anyway it was a happy party that gathered at the Masonic temple to enjoy the Christmas spirit over the festive board.

Not only were gifts exchanged in a happy spirit in which Santa Claus was not forgotten, but awards were made to employees for faithful service over a number of years. J. A. Hoover, Holland plant manager, gave those present a heart-to-heart talk in which the future plans of the "57" club were discussed. He said the company places in the treasury of each club an equal amount to the total dues collected from the members yearly.

E. A. Fish, president of the "57" club, presided, following the banquet and opened the program with a short talk, paying tribute to H. J. Heinz, founder of the first "57" club in Pittsburgh. He outlined the growth of "57" organizations, which has spread to the many Heinz plants throughout the country. Declaring that persons employed by the Heinz company were fortunate to be connected with such a successful concern, he pointed out that the local factory has shown increased activity this year.

Those receiving awards were as follows: Katherine Bos, watch, 12 years of service; Mrs. Hendrika Havinga, gold medal, 10 years of service; Everett A. Fish, gold medal, 10 years of service; Joe Dose, gold medal, 10 years of service; Fred Zeirip, gold medal, 10 years of service; and Jacob L. Hoffman, gold medal, 10 years of service.

Special music was furnished by the Heinz orchestra, and Misses Zwanette and Marguerite Stegink offered two guitar duet numbers which were favorably received.

This is the second "get-together" of Heinz employees within the last two months. A short time ago a telephone "hook-up" brought all the principle centers of the Heinz company together and Howard Heinz, head of the company and son of the founder, spoke to the employees and his message was received with enthusiasm. The H. J. Heinz family has always been close knit and the relations have been most amicable.

MISSION PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN IMPRESSIVE

Nearly 400 attended the Mission entertainment on Christmas night in the big building on Central and it was a real program of Christmas cheer.

A playlet, "Coming of the King" was impressive and well received. There were 18 in the cast. The robes necessary were loaned for this occasion by the First and Sixth Reformed churches. The message of the day was given by George Trotter, assistant superintendent of the mission. Henry Boone, superintendent of the Sunday school, was in charge of the school in which the infant class was prominent on the program.

The Elks and the Rotary club donated liberally from their large store of Christmas presents, and Verborg Hardware store also helped materially. Candy and oranges were a great delight to the 150 little ones present. Mr. Trotter stated it was the best ever.

MANY COUNTIES NAMED AFTER INDIANS; OTTAWA IS ONE

The names of 30 or more of the 83 counties of Michigan are of Indian origin, the Department of Conservation reports. Some of the names denote the locality where a powerful chief of tribe held sway. The hunting grounds of the Chipewas, Hurons, Lenawees, Menominees, Ottawas, Kalkaskas were in or near the counties bearing their names.

INNATE WORTH

(The Holland City News poet is a wonder. He can write a classic with the lowly "sard apple" "earth apple," potato, "spud" as the subject matter.)

By Ralph Schepers
Holland's Rural Poet

Potatoes, sometimes, large and small
Are almost worth their weight in gold,
Again, the largest of them all
For almost nothing must be sold.

But this is not because of faults
They always have intrinsic worth,
The vitamins and starch and salts
They gathered from the air and earth.

Just so has man his ups and downs
In our financial world,
In times like these late often frowns
From heights of wealth to want he's hurried.

But from himself this cannot part
This value-true intrinsic worth,
The qualities of mind and heart
He gathered to himself from birth.

NETHERLANDER TO SPEND YEAR IN THIS COUNTRY

Warm Friend Tavern has a guest named Nic Peepkorn, who comes from near Amsterdam and whose occupation is the laundry business. He is a fine young man and under the immigration rules has been permitted to stay here for one year.

He will stay in Holland until January 1, when he goes to Joliet to study in a laundry school to find out the methods and ways of the American laundry business. Mr. Peepkorn has never been in the United States before, but thus far he is much taken up with America. A great surprise was when your editor began speaking to him in Hollandish and his reply came in fluent English in a pleasant brogue. When asked when he mastered the English language, he stated that he was compelled, as were all students at school, to not only learn to speak the English language, but several other languages as well.

The young man is pleasing to meet, has a fine personality and is dressed "to the minute." May his stay in America be a pleasant one.

HOLLAND WOMAN FLIES TO THE WEST

Following the closing of the schools here, Miss Anna Dehn, a teacher, packed her grips and boarded an airplane, flew to Seattle, Washington, to visit a brother, William Dehn, whom she has not seen for a number of years. Miss Dehn has the distinction of having taught penmanship and English to as many as three generations, in some of the Holland families. Several years ago, while on a trip to Europe with her late father, she flew from Denmark to Switzerland. Miss Dehn has served in Holland public schools longer than has any other instructor.

THEATERS TO GIVE NEW YEARS SPECIALS; ALSO MIDNIGHT SHOW

Henry Carley, manager of the local theaters has been giving the very latest in film productions for some time and his holiday feature are always very entertaining and the programs are elaborate.

At the Holland on New Years day the show will be continuous, starring Bing Crosby and Kitty Carlisle in "Here I Am."

There will be several other features—news reels, cartoons, etc. At the Colonial New Years day there will be a double feature, Randolph Scott in "Home on the Range," and Barbara Stanwyck in "Secret Bride." All the other features usually given will be included. The show will also be continuous on that day.

A special program will be given after the Monday night second show when patrons can "see the old year out and welcome the new year in." These features will be special and an entire new program for that midnight show only. It is going to be a dandy. Stay over for midnight at Holland theater.

TWO INTERESTING FEATURES

In section three of this issue will be found a contribution from the pen of Miss Deborah Veneklasen, head of the emergency relief administration in this county, giving some "Relief Facts." Another article will appear next week. The articles will be very instructive.

The annual settlement of the city of Holland showing all expenditures, all disbursements, bonded indebtedness and all details relating to Holland's financial standing will be found in section three. There are two and a half pages covering the compilation in tabulated form and it is worth going over and also keeping for future reference. Holland's financial condition is fine, in fact this city is the envy of most cities in the state.

The night school in agriculture held in Zeeland for rural boys unable to attend high school has proven a successful venture. Otto Pino, agricultural teacher in the local high school, is instructor. Balanced rationals, farm crop rotation and plant supply are being studied.

Might Develop Winter Quarters For Ships Here

FREIGHTER TO WINTER
HERE; TO FURNISH JOBS

The freighter, Bennington tied up at the Harrington dock after a delayed voyage from South Chicago with a load of pig iron for the Holland Furnace company, will winter here and then pull out with the breaking of the ice in early spring.

The ship, which was blocked by the ice in Black lake near Virginia Park, was able to proceed to its mooring when its way was cleared of ice by the coast guard cutter Escanaba.

The boat, which is the last one to dock here this season, left South Chicago twice only to turn back after experiencing high seas.

The Bennington, owned by D. Sullivan of Chicago, has as its captain Fred Mastine, and its chief engineer is Mr. F. K. Harmon.

Capt. Harmon was chief engineer on the ill-fated Damaru reported blown up while transporting munitions during the world war. He was one of the 14 men who escaped, after being adrift in the Atlantic in a life boat for nearly a month.

Holland now has quite a fleet of steamers laid up for the winter, including the North and South America at Montello Park docks and now the Bennington, coal and iron freighter. Jesiek Bros. also has a large fleet of pleasure boats in dry dock at the head of Lake Macatawa. Jointly, these craft give considerable winter employment and in that way it is a fine thing for this city besides giving this port a marine aspect.

GETS SCHOLARSHIP

Dr. J. Russell Brink, graduate of Hope's class of 1928, has been given a scholarship from Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn. Brink began his work there in June, following his completion of two years' internship at St. Luke's hospital, Chicago.

$800 FIRE ON ZEELAND ROAD

Prompt action of the Holland fire department saved the home of John VanDam on rural route No. 3, from being destroyed last night when a storage house and three stall garage burned within 40 feet of the residence. The loss is estimated at $800, partly covered by insurance.

Mr. Van Dam is in the produce business and his home is located on the new Zeeland-Holland road at Boone's Crossing.

The Holland fire department deserves credit for "stepping on it" with one big truck and preventing the loss of more property.

FORD SALES AND SERVICE MOVES TO RIVER AVENUE

The local Ford Sales and Service has moved from East Eighth street to the building formerly occupied by the Ford company on River avenue, according to an announcement found elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. M. D. Latgreveld, local manager, states that the new location is much larger than the former, and that they will therefore be able to give more complete service than was possible in the old quarters. The new 1935 Ford models will be on display in the local show rooms on Saturday of this week and invites Holland folks to come in to see the new home of the Ford Sales and Service and the new models as well.

PERRY WEED HONORED AT MUSICAL RECITAL

A most unusual and pleasing program was presented at Congregational church, Saugatuck last week, Wednesday evening, when friends of Mr. Perry Weed, accomplished musician of Holland and Saugatuck, presented a program in his honor. A number of Holland musicians, friends and admirers of Mr. Weed, gave violin selections. The various numbers and also gave two readings. She also gave a short talk in which she stated Holland was proud to have a musician of Mr. Weed's ability as a citizen of the community.

Rev. Kortkamp of Saugatuck opened the program with a few well-chosen remarks. The concert was an excellent one throughout, and all the numbers were heartily applauded by the large and appreciative audience.

The ushers were Anne Partridge and Ruth Kortkamp of Saugatuck, Betty Kremer of Holland and Jane Ritter of Denver, Colorado.

Following the concert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint of Saugatuck gave a reception in honor of Mr. Weed and also of the musicians who so generously gave of their time and talents to help make the affair a success. The reception was given in the Flint home.

Confident 1935!

Our new-born 1935 seems confident, hopeful and even boisterous. However, the Holland City News wishes to modestly and earnestly convey appreciation to its many patrons for their kind consideration always. In our humble way we are endeavoring to fill our niche in performing our part in the scheme of civic well being. We hope that 1935 will bring renewed confidence, renewed efforts, renewed happiness to all.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Echoes of the Grover Cleveland election, when all Negroes were made to believe that the new president, about to be inducted into office, would bring about legislation against the colored race. In an interview President-elect Cleveland said in part: "The constitution provides a place as citizens for the colored race; this fact is generally accepted by our people and the black man need not be disturbed in the least. The rights of both white or black will be maintained on the same basis and no one should have the slightest idea that any attempt will be made by this administration to change these constitutional mandates. There need be no fear that the Democratic party or its newly-elected administration intend to oppress or enslave them. However, we hope on the other hand to do something to help them."

The newly elected state senator of Muskegon and Ottawa county was not Gordon Van Eenennaam for there was no Gordon then. The man's name was J. W. Moon of Muskegon. The political luster of this shining body illuminated the political arena for a time. The representative of this county elected at the same time was the late minister to the Netherlands, Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema, of this city, who almost immediately became speaker of the house of representatives at the state capital.

His star has shown for a half century and still shines brightly in the minds and hearts of his true friends.

Prof. George P. Hummer, the head of our public school, will spend his two weeks' vacation visiting New Orleans, where the world's exposition and cotton centennial is held.

On Tuesday next, Bert Scholten of Graafschap will be united in matrimony to Miss Gertrude Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boone of New Groningen. Note: A golden wedding anniversary is now due in the Scholten family.

The system employed in Hope church for financial support is one of the best that could be devised. The quarterly pew-rents are willingly pledged and promptly paid. Note: We disagree with Editor "Bill" Rodgers, long ago "gone to the reward." It was a miserable method and in vogue in all Holland churches. As a youngster I was present when father, with others, bid for the annual pew and there was sharp bidding for those who could afford to get the pews in the center aisles reasonably close from the front. I was always glad when father was given one pillar that side door in the "Big Pillar" church—easy exit quickly—for those sermons were from 9:00 to 12:00 and from 2:00 to 4:30, followed by Sunday school until 5:30. Anyway, those who had the means got the best seats from year to year and the less fortunate were placed in the rear or alongside. I can still remember the names of the chosen in that church. This method held true in every church, also Hope as this item states. Many years ago this method was abolished as it should and pew-renting or bidding, as the case might have been, is out long ago. The church is open to everyone and to member or stranger the best seats are available to those who come first and of course if the usher is of the same mind.

An unusual occurrence in the George Lage Drug store on 13th and Maple Ave., where the window display portrayed the north pole and Santa Claus emerging from an igloo or Eskimo hut. Plenty of snow and plenty of ice for even Col. Peary and possibly (Cooke). However, the scene changes and the arctic snow became the tropic. George was proud of his display but for some reason the window outlet had become frozen up and Mr. Lage endeavored to force a water vent with a red-hot poker.

snow began to burn, which in itself is unusual, and the blaze soon enveloped Santa, pole and all. With presence of mind, George grabbed Claus and the rest of the Christmas trappings and set them down in a real snow heap out of doors to cool off. The damage was $100 besides some badly burned hands and arms. This should forever settle the north pole squabble. Note: Just at that time the fight was on as to whether Col. Peary discovered the north pole or whether a man by the name of Cooke did. The story is history, namely that Peary was honored for his discovery.

The offices of the Standard Grocery & Milling Co., on North River St., were destroyed by fire and the loss is $10,000.

A small blaze in the basement of the Ninth St. Christian Reformed "Big Pillar" church was discovered, bringing out both departments in a hurry. No damage was done, but a great calamity, of historic import, was averted.

S. J. Williamson, a Negro, whose home is in Jamaica and who is a student at Kalamazoo College, was one of the two winners in the preliminary contest for representation to take part in the state oratorical meet and as a result there is much excitement among the students. It is the first time in the history of the state that a "colored man" has been declared the representative of a college in a like affair. At Hope College the result is causing much comment and finals will be watched with a great deal of interest.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Jacob W. Flehman, cousin to Jake Fleiman, the celebrated hunter and trapper, passed away at the home of his son, Leonard, at Norland, Wyoming, where he had gone to live a short time before. He had been identified with the Flehman blacksmith and wagon shop on River Ave. for many years and was considered the best carriage painter in this county. Before the auto Mr. Flehman was generally called in to paint and stripe the equipages of Holland's "well-to-do." He was an alderman of the second ward, where he lived for many years. One of his daughters, Miss Lillie Flehman, became a singer of the rear. She later became Mrs. G. M. McKinney, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The new building committee for the Third Reformed church, where some material changes are to be made, are the following: Chairman, Will Van Der Ven; Jacob Geerlings, secretary; Leonard Kardux and Carl Bolhuis. These men are submitting plans for an addition to the church at the rear. Note: Which is now the large church parlors for smaller gatherings and social events. The church was also given a covering of "stone products," popular in those days.

Popular Local Girl Weds At Four Today

MISS LOIS KEPPEL, HOLLAND,
MARRIES JOHN C. SAMUELSON OF TRAVERSE CITY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Keppel was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Lois, to Mr. John Clarence Samuelson of Traverse City, at 4 o'clock Thursday, the Rev. Thomas W. Davidson, pastor of Hope church, officiating.

The ceremony took place before a large Christmas tree placed in the living room of the home. The tree was beautifully decorated with blue lights and silver tinsel as was the fireplace in close proximity. The candelabra on the mantel shelf were also silver, shedding soft rays of blue.

Music before the ceremony included vocal selections by Mr. John Minnema, noted bass soloist of Traverse City, and concert manager of Interlochen National Music Camp, also musical selections, "Schubert's Serenade" and "Romance." — Ambrosia by Miss Jean Bosman, pianist, and Miss Ruth Keppel, violinist, both prominent Holland artists.

The ceremony was made especially impressive because of the accompaniment of the soft strains of violin and piano as Miss Keppel and Miss Bosman played "The Swan," by Saint Saens.

The bride, who descended the winding stairs on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Bosman and Miss Keppel, was lovely in a classic gown of white satin fashioned by Molyneux. Its simple lines were enhanced by a long train. Her long lace-veiled veil was fastened to a small cap, trimmed with seed pearls, which came far down over the right side of the forehead. At the nape of the neck nestled orange blossoms worn by the bride's mother at her wedding 41 years ago. The bride carried a bouquet of narcissus, stelia and Johanna Hill roses tied with silver and bridal illusion. Her only jewelry was a necklace—the gift of the groom.

Preceding the bride to the altar were Miss Evelyn Albers and Mrs. William Votruba, sister of the bride. Miss Albers, as bridesmaid, wore lapis blue, trimmed with silver, and Mrs. Votruba, as matron of honor, wore Christmas tree green. They carried similar bouquets of pom poms and white roses tied with silver ribbon. The groom was attended by Maurice Henderson of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Keppel, mother of the bride, wore black velvet trimmed with silver, and her shoulder corsage was made up of gardenias. Mrs. Samuelson, attired in black, also carried gardenias. Mrs. T. L. Kennedy and Mr. William Votruba acted as mistress and master of ceremonies. A dinner for the wedding guests, who numbered only the immediate families and a few intimates of friends, followed.

For traveling, Mrs. Samuelson chose a wood bark brown suit, trimmed with mole, which was fashioned by Lanvin. Her veiled hat and accessories were also brown. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson will reside in Traverse City, where Mr. Samuelson is an established architect.

The bride is a graduate of Holland High school and Hope college and also of Holland Business college. Mr. Samuelson is a graduate of Chicago Technical school.

YOUNG HOLLAND FOLKS MARRIED NOON CHRISTMAS

Christmas Day was of special significance to Miss Adelaide Eberhardt, daughter of Oscar Eberhardt, and Harris Weststrate, of Mr. and Mrs. James Weststrate, for the reason that they not only celebrated Christmas Day as such, but it was also their wedding day.

The popular young couple was married at a ceremony performed at noon Tuesday at the parsonage of the Rev. Victor Maxam, acting pastor of Third Reformed church. Rev. Maxam read the marriage vows and performed the single-ring ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride, looking charming in a gown of green silk crepe and carrying white rose buds, was attended by Mrs. Ray Phillips of Dowagiac, sister of the bridegroom who wore a black silk gown with a tunic fashioned of gold metallic cloth and carried a bouquet of yellow rose buds. Mr. Phillips attended the bridegroom.

The bridal party and guests adjourned to Warm Friend Tavern immediately following the ceremony, where a wedding dinner was served, seventeen guests being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Weststrate left on a wedding trip to Chicago and Milwaukee, and are planning to reside at Warm Friend Tavern for a few weeks upon their return. They plan to make their home at Central Park after February 1.

Mrs. Weststrate is a graduate of Holland High school and is employed at the Holland Furnace Co. offices. Mr. Weststrate is a graduate of Holland High school and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. He is also employed at the Holland Furnace company.

Emily Evans, daughter of Prof. Robert Evans of Holland, a sophomore in Albion college, has been chosen as a member of one of the 1934-1935 Albion college deputations. The teams provide recreational activities; speakers and leaders for Epworth League, Sunday school and church services; entertainers for all types of meetings and court days for the

MASONIC TEMPLE, A GLACIER

On the top floor of the Masonic temple to the west, one of the large windows was broken, and with the zero weather a water pipe was frozen and burst, and water flooded the vicinity, gushing down in a water fall to the ground below. Now the tall building has some of the aspects of a miniature frozen Niagara on the outside. It is expected there will be at least $50 in damages.

MUSIC FILLS THE AIR AT CHRISTMAS TIDE

Christmas programs in Holland were many and varied this year. Beginning with the rendering of Handel's "Messiah" on Thursday by Holland's Civic chorus, programs were rendered each evening to and including the evening of Christmas Day, with young and old taking part.

There is nothing quite so impressive, edifying and filled with pathos as Christmas tide music and song, and it might be said that Holland was simply filled with music judging from the many entertainments, cantatas and church and Sunday school exercises that its citizens were privileged to hear, the crowning events being the rendering of the "Messiah" and the singing of Christmas carols in Centennial Park.

Space forbids giving in detail the exercises at the different churches, civic organizations, fraternal orders, etc. Never on Christmas have the young folks been taken care of, entertained and feasted as in 1934.

The Christmas spirit was further exemplified when crowned with Christmas present giving. Surely Holland says "Thank you" with a heart filled with thankfulness to all those who contributed through their diligent efforts making Christmas of this year a most memorable one. The Christmas spirit surely has not forsaken the city of Holland.

NO FEDERAL TAX ON CHECKS OR DRAFTS AFTER JANUARY 1

According to a bulletin on banking affairs there will be no federal tax on checks, drafts of orders for payment of money after January 1, 1935.

The ruling will be effective at all three Holland banks.

Section 751 of the revenue act of 1932 was repealed at the last session of congress and the repeal becomes effective next week.

PROGRAM OF READINGS AND MUSIC GIVEN SAT.

The second of a series of monthly programs given by pupils of Mrs. Viola Partridge, teacher of public speaking, and Miss Ruby Hughes, piano, was given Saturday afternoon at 4 p. m. in the Royal Neighbors hall above Keefer's restaurant. The program rendered in the presence of parents of pupils and friends, consisted of the following numbers:

Piano duet, Miss Hughes and Genevieve Damvel; recitation, "The Executioner," Alice Houtman; recitation, "Signs of the Times," Garrett Rauch; recitations, "Why Betty Didn't Laugh" and "Moo-Cow-Moo," Nancy Brownlow; piano solo, "The Song of Marguerite" (Ludovic), Evelyn Borgman; recitation, "Wonder What," Gordon Oosting; recitations, "Dat Good-Nodding Dog" and "Breaking the News to Junior," Dorothy Van Oss; dialog, "King Charles II and William Penn," Garrett Rauch and Junior Prins; monolog, "The Day After Christmas," Katherine Hartman; piano solo, "The Song of the Brook" (Lock) Helen Stroop; recitations, "The Census Taker" and "A Great Saving," Adele Swenson; reading, "The Downfall of Santa Claus," Geraldine Teusink; piano duet, "Intermezzo" (Bohm), Helen and Margaret Stroop.

The program was concluded with two short musical readings by Mrs. Partridge, with Mrs. Jeanette Kremer at the piano.

BOEVE-MANNES WEDDING TAKES PLACE WEDNESDAY

In a simple but impressive ceremony, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Boeve of rural route 5 Wednesday afternoon, Miss Edythe Boeve, a daughter, was wedded to Glenn Mannes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mannes, of the Rev. J. Schortinghuis, pastor of Ebenezer Reformed church, performing the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of midnight blue chiffon velvet and carried a bride's bouquet of mixed flowers. The couple was unattended.

Mrs. Mannes is a teacher in the Westview school south of Graafschap. Mr. Mannes is employed by the Holland Furnace company.

Following a short wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home to their many friends at 181 West Fifth street.

The bride has been feted at several bridal parties, the most recent being a kitchen shower given in her honor by Mrs. G. H. Boeve and daughters, Harriet and Lucille. Guests at the shower were Mrs. H. H. Boeve, Miss Dorothy Boeve, Mrs. Henry De Witt, Mrs. A. De Witt, Mrs. W. Van Den Belt, Mrs. G. Oonk, Mrs. H. Kortering, Mrs. N. Dykhuys, Mrs. R. Boeve, Mrs. W. Nies, Mrs. Ben Boeve and children, Betty and Dale, Mrs. S. Van Hooven, Mrs. A. Daining, Mrs. J. Boeve, Mrs. Ed Boeve, Mrs. Mannes, Mrs. E. Nienhuis and the hostesses.

Gas Boys Do Not Forget Injured Fellow Worker

GAS COMPANY EMPLOYEES
GIVE THEIR ANNUAL

At least 50 employees and officials of the Michigan Gas Electric company gathered in a large hall at the gas plant Thursday for their annual get-together. This is the occasion when the employees are the hosts to the officials and believe us, they have a great time.

The whole "gas house gang" gathered together, including the force from the general offices and the local offices as well. Mr. George Mills, the gentleman who was the head of the general offices, president and general manager when they were brought to the city, but who since has been promoted to a higher official position could not refrain from coming from Chicago and take a part in these festivities. Together with Mr. Mills was Mr. W. C. Blanchard, who is now the president and general manager of the Michigan Gas & Electric Company.

"Bill" Burg, for many years local manager, was the leader in song and George Essenburg of the local company was master of ceremonies.

The tables were fittingly decked with Christmas embellishments and the evergreen decorations were everywhere in evidence, and besides the yuletide spirit was rampant everywhere. There was musical program consisting of accordion playing and other musical instruments. There was plenty of speaking, toasts, and take-offs of many of those present taking part in the program.

It was a chicken dinner with all the trimmings and this annual get-together was indicative of the wonderful spirit that exists between all departments of this large organization. For a great many years there has been most amicable relations not only between employees and employer, but the public relations, too, have been most gratifying.

It goes without saying that the chicken dinner went over big and undoubtedly next year there will be another happy occasion of this kind.

The real Christmas spirit of a material nature was made evident when a substantial purse was collected from all present in behalf of A. Vanden Bosch, who some time ago was unfortunate in breaking his hip. The man in question, who is one of the employees, was thankful beyond words.

ZERO WEATHER LAST NIGHT

Holland and Jackson, Michigan, were the only prominent spots that report zero weather. This is the first time the mercury has gone that low this winter, and that for only a few hours. At midnight it was still 11 above. The weather, however, slid into the warmer bracket today with still milder weather in the offing.

Last Friday official winter presented itself but up to this time there has been no extreme cold—only once 5 above zero and last night zero. In both instances the low mark lasted but for a few hours in the early morning.

With all we have had a glorious fall and a seasonable winter. The old sun is again on the upward path and longer days will soon be noticeable.

JUDGE MILES REVERSES JURY VERDICT IN ONE DOCTOR'S CASE

A reversal of the verdict of $10,000 damages to Lydia Rauch, Holland, against Dr. Otto Vander Velde of Holland was made in circuit court yesterday in an opinion handed down by Judge Fred T. Miles.

The motion for a directed verdict, the opinion reads, should have been granted at the time it was filed in favor of the defendant and therefore, it is granted now and the defendant can recover costs

Uncle Sam Saves the Elms

As an American institution the elm tree appears to rate sufficient importance to obtain a grant of $527,000 of PWA funds to combat the Dutch elm tree disease which is running riot in the territory surrounding New York City.

Foresters, botanists and plant experts in September sought the aid of President Roosevelt in getting funds to fight the spread of this fatal fungus disease imported from Europe a few years ago in a shipment of elm burl logs. Its rapid spread and fatal consequences so alarmed those interested in tree life, and their plea so impressed the president, that funds have now been made available.

The work will be undertaken by 1,500 CCC boys under the supervision of trained foresters. It is planned to cut down and burn at least 50,000 affected elm trees within a short radius of New York City before spring. This will cover the principal area of infestation and it is hoped will put an end to the invasion of another undesirable European tree pest.

ZEELAND, HOLLAND JOIN IN AID TO POOR CHILDREN

The Zeeland Rotary club held its first crippled children's party on Monday, when more than 35 handicapped children of Zeeland and vicinity had a gala day as guests of the local chapter. Local children joined the handicapped children as guests of the Holland club in a theater party at Holland theater. At noon the children were guests of the Zeeland club at the weekly luncheon.

Holland's civic organizations provided yuletide cheer to approximately 2,500 unfortunate children. Willard G. Leenhouts post, American Legion, distributed toys to some 600 children. Holland Elks sponsored a chicken dinner and presents for 300. Holland Rotary club provided a theater program with presents for 1,200, the Junior Welfare league distributed gifts to 275, and 500 rag dolls were distributed among listed by the county FERA bureau.

The Holland Elks sponsored a Christmas dinner in the clubrooms Monday afternoon for about 300 needy children. Allegan and Saugatuck was represented. Wives of club members served the meal. Each child was presented with a large stocking filled with candy, fruit and nuts.

The kiddies had a glorious time and the "Good Fellows" are to be thanked.

GIBSON PUPILS HAVE OLD-TIME SLEIGH RIDE

The pupils of Gibson school, southwest of Holland, enjoyed an old-fashioned bob sleigh ride. The party was thought of and sponsored by Mrs. Irene Bauhahn, the teacher, and did they have a good time. A hot meal was served at the home of Mrs. Otto Wilmer, who was assisted by Mrs. Ebbeson and Mrs. Griffin.

GET MONEY FOR COMPANY D

Capt. John Bremer, commanding officer of Company D, 126th infantry, Holland, reported that about $1,000 checks for the guardsmen had been received and distributed.

Thursday, December 20, was the sixtieth birthday of Mrs. Kate Brondyke, rural route 2, and to celebrate the occasion her children and their families gathered at the Brondyke home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Karsten and son, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. A. Veale and family, Mr. and Mrs. Veale and family and Mrs. Baurers.

HAMILTON GIRL WED TO NEW YORK MAN

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Ruth Strabbing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Strabbing of Hamilton, to Mr. William James Clough of Flushing, New York, was solemnized Christmas Day morning at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends.

The vows were spoken before the fireplace, which was simply decorated with holly, white candles and Christmas greens, the Rev. A. H. Strabbing, grandfather of the bride, performing the single-ring ceremony. Two musical compositions by Edward Grieg preceded the ceremony. Mrs. John Brink, Jr., played "Ich liebe dich" as a piano number, while Mrs. M. H. Hamelink played a violin solo, "To Spring," accompanied by Mrs. Brink at the piano.

The bride was becomingly gowned in stratosphere blue crepe and carried a hand bouquet of white roses and stebia. The mother of the bride wore a black lace gown, with a shoulder bouquet of pink roses.

A three-course wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Holland High school and of Western State Teachers' college with a B. S. degree. She taught music and art for two years in Michigan schools and has since that time been employed in St. Louis, Mo.

The groom is a Hope college graduate and is now taking a medical course in the St. Louis University School of Medicine.

After a brief visit with the groom's parents in Flushing, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Clough will return to St. Louis to take up their residence.

WILLIAM E. KUHLMAN DIES AT HOME HERE

William E. Kuhlman passed away at 2 o'clock Sunday morning at his home, 11 East Twenty-eighth street. Mr. Kuhlman had celebrated his fifty-sixth birthday on Saturday. Death was attributed to apoplexy.

Mr. Kuhlman was born in Berlin, Germany, on December 22, 1878, coming to the United States in 1886. Up to the time of his death he was employed by the Baker Furniture company. He was a member of the local Eagle lodge. Funeral services took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Dykstra Funeral home, Rev. Richard A. Elve, pastor of the Open Bible church, officiating. Burial was in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

Mr. Kuhlman is survived by the widow; three sons, Willard, Russell and Clarence Kuhlman; three daughters, Genevieve at home, and Mrs. Robert Doyan and Mrs. John Scharf of Holland; and two brothers, Juio and Fred Kuhlman of Chicago.

Mr. Kuhlman's aged grandmother, Mrs. Marie Kuhlman of Eastmanville, who on February 11 is to celebrate her one hundred third birthday, also survives.

Carl Kuhlman, father of Mr. Kuhlman, died a little more than a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Speet announced the engagement of their daughter, Julia, to Harold Schaap of Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaap, at a dinner given recently at the Speet home at 136 West Twenty-seventh street. The guests at the dinner were Jack Rezelman, Miss Dorothy Steketee, Reakus Ryzenga, Miss Nell Michielson, Mr. and Mrs. George Speet, Miss Dorothy Schaap, Russell Looman, Marvin Schaap, Miss Muriel De Witt, Miss Julia Speet and Harold Schaap. Prize winners in games played were Mrs. George Speet and Mr. Jack Rezelman.

The Adult Bible class of Sixth Reformed church held their annual meeting in the church parlors Friday evening at which time a miscellaneous program of music and games was rendered following the business session. Officers for the ensuing year were elected with the following results: M. Brandt, president; Mrs. J. Hartgerink, vice president; Martin Tubergen, secretary; the Rev. T. Hibma, treasurer, and Gerrit Van Gelderen, assistant secretary and treasurer. The class also presented Rev. Vander Beek, teacher of the class, with a gift, and furnished candy for children of the graded department following the Christmas program in the church Monday evening.

GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN COOKIE

By Jean Allen

Perhaps you have always looked down your nose at those objects which you scornfully called "store cookies," but if so, prepare to shed your haughtiness. For "store cookies" are clearly made of wholesome materials; they are grand and safe "filler-uppers" for the children; and they can be used as the basis for many moderately priced but deliciously novel desserts.

If the level of your cookie jar diminishes as rapidly and as constantly as ours, you'll feel lucky to fall back on "store cookies" in between, instead of hustling around to bake a new batch.

And speaking of dessert uses, a few simple trimmings will make this one as much a part of the Christmas party as the scarlet-clad elf himself.

GRAHAM CRACKER ICE-BOX CAKE

¾ pound graham crackers, rolled fine
¼ pound marshmallows, cut fine ½ cup chopped nut meats
¼ cup coffee cream or evaporated milk
1 tablespoon orange juice ½ pound dates, cut fine
Whipped cream 10 red Maraschino cherries

Mix ingredients, except whipped cream, in the order given. Press firmly into a loaf cake pan lined with heavy waxed paper which has been buttered, or into a well-greased glass loaf-shaped dish. Cover and let stand over night or for several hours in the refrigerator, or in a cool place. Turn out, slice, and serve with whipped cream or whipped evaporated milk, or marshmallow creme.

Note: For Christmas parties garnish each serving with a sprig of holly, or stick a small red candle in each. Light at serving time. Chopped red and green Maraschino cherries may also be sprinkled over the topping.

A delightful variation of an old standby is:

BANANA CREAM PIE WITH VANILLA WAFER CRUST

2-3 cup sugar 1-4 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons flour 2 egg yolks
2 cups milk 1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon butter 2 or 3 bananas
3-4 cup crushed vanilla wafers 12 whole vanilla wafers
2 egg whites 2 tablespoons sugar

Cover bottom of a 10x1½ inch pie plate with vanilla wafer crumbs. Cut off one side of each whole wafer so that when they are placed around the edge of the pie plate a scalloped crust will be formed. Make a cream filling by mixing the first five ingredients in the order named, and cooking them, stirring constantly, over a low flame or in a double boiler, until the mixture coats the spoon. Cool, add vanilla and butter. Slice the bananas into the wafer lined pie plate, and cover with the cream filling. Beat the two egg whites and add the two tablespoons of sugar. Cover the pie with this meringue and place in a slow oven for 15 minutes until delicately browned. Cool slightly and serve. Yields 6 large or 8 medium pieces.

For bridge parties, formal teas, or children's parties, there is always a place on the program for

SHORTBREAD MARQUETTES

3-4 cup sugar 1-4 cup water
3 marshmallows cut in pieces 1-4 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg white stiffly beaten 1-4 teaspoon vanilla
1-2 cup chopped nut meats if desired
Shortbread cookies (such as "Lorna Doona," "Dutch Cookies," "Whimnilla," etc.)

Boil sugar and water until syrup will spin a thread three inches long (234 degrees F.). Add marshmallows. Pour slowly on the egg white; add vanilla and nut meats. Spread cookies with the mixture, and place on an ungreased cookie sheet in moderately cool oven (325 degrees F.) for 15 minutes, or until delicately browned and puffed.

In an emergency, a quart or so of drug store ice cream can be dressed up by sprinkling each serving with small cubes of fig newtons, allowing about one fig newton to each serving.

A short-notice tea party may be engineered successfully if you include in your stock bag of tricks

(1 John 5:1-12)

HENRY GEERLINGS

This is our last lesson of the year. Instead of reviewing the twelve lessons of the quarter we are to sum them up in one final study. During the three months we have considered the Bible, prayer, growth, citizenship, stewardship, the sacraments, the home.

Now we are to think of the Christian himself. How shall we test him? How may we know the genuine from the spurious, the real from the counterfeit? This is an important question. Counterfeit religion has no credit with God and it creates confusion among men.

The question is also a most timely one. Our age is tremendously interested in reality. In science, philosophy, literature, even in political and economic realms, men are impatient of pretense. They want facts, not fancies. Especially the youth of today, who are the victims of a civilization that collapsed because it was not built upon ultimate reality.

And surely the religion of Christ does not shrink from this test of reality. It welcomes it. It bids men to follow the Galilean, confident that He alone is the final answer to the questions that perplex us, and the solution of the problems that vex us.

The fifth chapter which contains our lesson, magnifies faith in Christ and its fruits, as the very essence of Christianity. The keynote of the whole chapter is found in the twelfth verse of the lesson. According to John the Christian is a man who has faith in Christ, as the incarnation and revelation of the love of God. This faith begets a life, a life that is eternal in its quality as well as in quantity. And this eternal life manifests itself here and now in its fruits, which are both the proofs and the tests of its reality.

The testimony of this early witness to Christ concerning the nature and tests of Christianity, thus, is notable both for its omissions and for its affirmations. He omits and ignores the tests which men have sometimes unduly magnified, much to the hurt of the cause of Christ. He sets before us the tests that are fundamental and eternal.

One of the false tests is the ecclesiastical test, with all its narrow inclusions and rigid exclusions. Happily, we hear little of that today. Even Catholics will admit that true Christians may be found in other communions than their own. Only the most fanatical sects claim that they alone wield the key to the kingdom of God. The proof and test of a Christian is not membership in a church, the observance of its rituals and ceremonies or submission to its rules and ordinances that makes one a Christian, a true follower of Christ.

Nor is the true test intellectual or emotional. Doctrinal beliefs and profound emotional experiences of peace and joy and gratitude do accompany genuine religion but they do not constitute its essence. One may give intellectual assent to all the creeds and catechisms of Christendom and yet utterly lack the mind of the Master. And one may revel in religious ecstasies without manifesting the fruits of the spirit of Christ in his life.

The real test is summed up in the phrase, "He that hath the Son hath the life." Christianity is the life of Christ in men. But how can a man have the Son? How can he have and live the eternal life that is in the Son? Only by sharing it through a living faith in Christ. Faith in Christ, a hearty trust in Him as the revealer of God and the Redeemer of mankind, that marks the secret. Of the eternal life which is the true Christian life. Through faith we may share that life.

And that new and eternal life will manifest itself very definitely in loving, in living, in overcoming. These are the fruits of faith in Christ.

It will be a life of love. The man of faith in Christ will love God and Christ. To love God means to keep His commandments of love. We love Him when we express that love in our daily living, in all our human relationships.

Thus living and loving, Christians overcome the world. That is the ultimate test of a living faith in Christ that expresses and manifests itself in a life of love. It overcomes the world. It gains the victory over matter and man, over all the temptations of the material things and all opposition of men. Even death itself, it overcomes.

Mrs. Marina Kooyers, 351 River avenue, passed away Saturday morning at Holland hospital where she had been confined for two weeks. She was 42 years old. Mrs. Kooyers is survived by her husband, one daughter, Joyce; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Zuverink of Zeeland, and six brothers, Gerrit, George, Bert and Joe of Zeeland, Ralph of Borculo and John of Byron Center, and two sisters, Mrs. Lena Kroll of Zeeland and Mrs. Josie Tubergen of Holland.

Miss Marie Chalmers of this city is spending two weeks in Chicago. She is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Will Riley of Evanston. Funeral services took place Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home, and at 2 o'clock at Fourteenth Street Christian Reformed church, Rev. R. Danhof officiating.

Lute Hoffman, for many years a character about town, living a few miles north of the city, was found overcome with cold yesterday morning near the Donnelly-Kelley Glass company. He was taken in and given a good warming, the police were called and, though numb of cold, the man, who is nearly 70 years old, was little the worse for his experience today. He often walks from his home to town with eggs and other produce, but the sudden change in weather overcame him as he was entering the city. He was brought to police headquarters, where he was given restoratives and spent some time near the radiators, becoming thoroughly warmed up.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Arend Hopp, 311 West Twenty-third street on December 19, twin daughters, Rolene Ann and Carol Ann. Gerrit Schrotenboer of East Saugatuck recently killed an opossum which he found in his chicken coop. Ray Schaap of Western Theological seminary will conduct all the services at the East Overisel church next Sunday.

The Christmas cantata, "The Christmas King," by Fred B. Holton, which was presented by a chorus of fifty voices before an appreciative audience in Sixth Reformed church last week, Wednesday evening, will be repeated Sunday evening in conjunction with the regular service at 7:30 o'clock. Communion services will precede the presentation of the cantata.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, received a most unusual surprise gift Christmas eve. They purchased a quarter-pound package of I.G.A. tea at the Montello Park store and opening the carton, which was sealed in Japan, they found not only the tea, but also three $1 bills in American money inside the package.

Bernard Vande Lune, 202 East Twenty-sixth street, was assessed a fine of $5 and costs by Justice Hoffman today on a drunk charge. He was ordered to pay for a show window in the Faber Grocery store, 376 Central avenue, which he is charged with breaking. Vande

Lune's sentence of 60 days in the county jail was suspended for six months probation during which time he has signed a pledge of total abstinence of liquor.

Following an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Earl Francomb, 19, died Thursday morning at her home, 176 West Tenth street. Mrs. Francomb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finch of this city, her maiden name being Miss Jane Finch. She was born in Holland on October 21, 1915, and is a graduate of the local public schools as well as of Holland High school. Mrs. Francomb has been active in Girl Scout and Camp Fire Girl work. Surviving are the husband and parents; a sister, Mrs. Jay Dalman of Holland, and a brother, Harold Finch of Holland. Funeral services will take place 9 o'clock Saturday morning at the St. Francis de Sales church of which Mrs. Francomb was a member, with Father F. W. Ryan officiating. Burial will be in Pilsgrimage cemetery. The body will be taken to the home tomorrow noon.

Hotel Saugatuck is to give a New Year's eve dance at the large hotel for which special arrangements have been made as will be seen by the announcement elsewhere.

Otto Yntema, candidate for Ottawa county school commissioner, was the speaker at a regular noon luncheon of the local Lions club in the Warm Friend Tavern, speaking on the topic "Education of Youth in Rural Schools." Mr. Yntema, who is a graduate of Hope college, and a former local resident, is principal of the high school at Jamestown. He presented a clear picture of problems of rural education.

The local Lions club is sponsoring a benefit basket ball game on New Year's night when the Sutherland Papers of Kalamazoo will meet the Holland Flying Dutchmen in the main game, and the Rutgers Clothiers will face the Zeeland Stallions in the preliminary. The American Legion band is to furnish music.

J. W. Markvluer, 82, died at his home in East Saugatuck Wednesday morning. Born in Germany, Mr. Markvluer came to this country as a youth. Surviving are four sons and two daughters, William and George of Holland, Henry and Albert at home. Mrs. Edward B. Wolbert of rural route No. 1, Holland, and Miss Fannie Markvluer at home. Five grandchildren also survive as well as a sister and brother in Germany. Funeral services will be held on Saturday at 12:45 o'clock at the home in East Saugatuck, and at 1:30 o'clock in the East Saugatuck Christian Reformed church, Rev. S. P. Miersma officiating. Interment will be in East Saugatuck cemetery.

The Christmas entertainment presented Christmas evening by the City Mission in the auditorium before a full house, will be repeated Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A large number of Holland residents were unable to enter the building Tuesday because of the large attendance, and the program will, therefore, be repeated.

Our next meeting will be held on January 9, with John Kammeraad and Chet Van Tongeren arranging the program.

There cannot be all gain without some losses. Due to the holiday rush, it was impossible to gather any news from the gang for last week's paper, and, of course, the toy drive took most of the attention.

Even the program committee was disappointed in getting their numbers for the meeting on the 26th. It was evident that the crowd expected quite a bit from the Karsten and M. Kammeraad team. And they were all out of luck. We thought the boys could at least have recited "Forward, the Light Brigade. Oh! What a charge they made!"

The committee in charge of the toy drive is picking up the stray ends of their work preparatory to a report. A lot of credit is due these folks. Some 2,000 toys were distributed to about 650 children, and the group put in a good many late hours the last few days arranging the distribution.

In another two weeks we will be putting on the playlet, "The World's All Right." The plot of it is built up around a broadcasting station and the rehearsal of a program. You will want to come and see how your friends act before a microphone.

The Legion county council held its annual meeting at Grand Haven on the 13th. Homer Fisher of that city was elected commander, and he appointed Comrade Biehle as his adjutant. It was suggested that the four posts of the county put on a picnic for all the ex-soldiers early next summer. It sounds a little previous, but we might just as well keep it in mind.

The dead line for applying for your adjusted compensation certificate is January 2. If you haven't applied as yet, you have only a day or so to get fixed up.

Pay up your dues and get all the benefits the American Legion affords.

At our next meeting on the 9th, the boys in the cub pack will be with us to receive their charter. And be there on time, because these lads will have to leave as soon as the presentation is made. We will have to open the meeting before 7:45 p. m.

Some strange faces appeared at our last meeting, including Len De Pree, Dutch Hank Woudstra, and H. Karsten. Yes, sir, the band president in person!

Beach was duly adjudged bankrupt, and that an order has been made fixing the place below named as the place of meeting of creditors, and that the first meeting of creditors will be held at my office, Suite 845, Michigan Trust Building, Grand Rapids Michigan, in said district, on the 9th day of January, 1935, at 11 a. m., eastern standard time, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, examine the bankrupt, elect a trustee and transact such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

CHARLES B. BLAIR, Referee in Bankruptcy.

CHARLES H. MCBRIDE, Attorney for Bankrupt.

Notice—No claim will be received for filing unless claim back is filled out, including name, complete address of claimant, together with amount claimed.

SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

THE Sunday dinner between Christmas and New Year's will probably be a most one in most homes. Lamb, veal, and pork are somewhat cheaper than they have been and any one of them offers good value. Beef remains rather high. Green vegetables are much higher so that potatoes, other root vegetables and salad greens are good choices.

Oranges, Naval oranges, grapefruit, apples and bananas are plentiful and relatively cheap. Use them for desserts, salads and fruit cocktails as well as breakfast fruits.

Oysters, salt and smoked fish make moderately priced fish dinners.

Here are three menus, including a New Year's dinner, made up from seasonable foods:

Low Cost Dinner
Roast Shoulder of Pork
Mashed Potatoes Creamed Turnip
Bread and Butter
Apple Betty
Tea or Coffee

Medium Cost Dinner
Roast Lamb
Carrots and Peas
Bread and Butter
Jellied Apple Sauce
Tea or Coffee

New Year's Dinner
Fruit Cup or Clear Soup
Celery
Carrot Sticks
Roast Fresh Ham
Glazed Apples
Mashed Potatoes
Yellow Turnips
Spinach Vinaigrette
Balls and Butter
Frozen Fruit Fudding
Coffee

It cost the city nearly $1,800 to dig itself out of the 24-inch covering of snow this month, according to pay checks that have been issued from the general street fund of the city. Much of the work was on trunk line highways, however, which take in both Eighth street and River avenue. The city will likely be reimbursed $1,200 or $1,300 for this service from state funds.

"Loneliest Man" Just Waited for Reaper

"The loneliest man in the world," they called William Reid, 67, in Receiving hospital, Detroit, when it became known that he had been without food in his house from Nov. 11 until Wednesday before a neighbor thought to suggest that something might be wrong.

For many of those days he had lain semi-conscious and finally unconscious on the floor. "I knew of the welfare department," he said, "but I am an old man, alone. I didn't think they would bother with me. I tried to go out, anywhere, after a week, that was when I fell on the floor. I couldn't get up."

Reid lost his job eight years ago. He used his life savings to buy the house where he lived—alone. He earned enough to buy food by working at odd jobs, but finally there didn't seem to be any more jobs.

On a card found beside him was some writing. It said: "My name is William Reid, 24,750 days old; 3,535 weeks old and 5 days; 830 months and 4 days, or 67 years, 9 months and 4 days. No funds. Nothing to eat and no heat."

"I have had plenty of time to figure it out," he explained, "while I was alone."

He came to Detroit from Ionia county.

Later—We learn that the man has just died.

GEORGE CABALL CHICKENS MAKE BIG RECORD

Records made by Caball's Superior Leghorn Pullets of Zealand in national laying contests, just started, are as follows: In the month of November, 5 pens of 10 pullets laid as follows at Michigan National Laying Contest at East Lansing: 236 eggs; Georgia National Laying Contest, Athens, Georgia, 1 pen laid 238 eggs and another pen 234 eggs; at Oklahoma National Egg Laying Contest, Stillwater, Okla., 1 pen laid 237 eggs; an average for November of 236.2 eggs per pen, better than 23 eggs per pullet. A real record for this number of pullets.

Two Alleged to Have Robbed Benefactor

BROTHERS HELD ON CHARGE OF ENTERING HOUSE OF HUDSONVILLE MAN

Two brothers, Henry and Charles Norder, 20 and 18 years old, respectively, from South Dakota, were arraigned before Circuit Court Commissioner Dan F. Pagelsen, charged with entering with intent for larceny. They waived examination and were bound over on bonds of $500, which were not paid, and the two were sent to the county jail.

The arrest was made by the sheriff's officers, who were called Dec. 20 by Louis Spoelman, Hudsonville, who declared that two men had entered his house and were searching for a strong box that he had with money in it. He told the officers he was awakened in the night and saw the two using a flashlight while hunting for the box.

He called his daughters, who saw the men leave the house and identified the two boys, who had been employed by father.

The defendants were picked up later in a car which was stuck in a ditch in the snow opposite a farmer's home. In the car a revolver was found which Henry today admitted he had on him when he entered the house. A 22-repeater rifle was also carried by one of the youths which they admitted having thrown away before the officers got them.

Sheriff Rozema stated that Henry's confession came following the arraignment and the charges may be changed before they are brought before circuit court.

The pair came from South Dakota, one last spring and the other several weeks ago. They had been employed in and near Hudsonville, and the Spoelmans claimed they knew of the strong box.

Before entering the house through the basement the boys disconnected the distributing wires of the two Spoelman cars and cut the telephone and light wires in the home.

When the revolver, which was found, they denied it was theirs. A wrapping around it gave the name of the place where it was purchased in Racine, Wis.

Later the elder of the two admitted he had it on him when he entered the house.

SAUGATUCK WOMAN'S CLUB TO HAVE LOCAL ARTISTS

The Saugatuck Commercial Record, in a Christmas writeup of the Saugatuck Woman's club, also announces the program for the next meeting as follows:

The next meeting of the club is on January 4 and is a musicale in charge of Mrs. Carl Hoerman. Mrs. Hoerman is bringing such artists as Mrs. D. B. K. VanRaalte of Holland, who will sing two solos; Mrs. Snow, who is her accompanist, will also render several piano numbers.

Miss Ethelyn Metz will give a worth hearing and we trust there will be a good attendance. Mrs. Grace Brackenridge is social hostess.

The meeting will be held in the club house. Meeting opens promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

OTTAWA COUNTY FARM SOLD BY FEDERAL LAND BANK

Gerrit van Loogenoord of Nunica has purchased the 80 acres formerly owned by Sam Shapiro three miles northwest of Nunica and expects to take possession of the farm at an early date, it was announced here this week by John O. Doe of Kalamazoo, field representative of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul.

BREAKS ONE AND SPRAINS OTHER ANKLE

Mrs. Philip Rookus of Grand Rapids, while walking along East Washington St., Zealand, fell on the icy walk and fractured her leg above the ankle and sprained the other ankle. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rookus have been living in Zealand the past few months, making their home with their grandmother, assisting in caring for her after she, too, was seriously injured some months ago. Mrs. Philip Rookus was taken to Huizenga Memorial hospital for treatment. She will be laid up for several months.

A Christmas program was featured Friday at the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Following devotions by Mrs. Fred T. Miles, Christmas carols were sung by the Junior High school girls' glee club under the direction of Miss Tricie Moore and Miss Clara McClellan. Mrs. Nina Daugherty read "The Other Wise Man," by Henry F. Van Dyke. Union Signal excerpts were submitted by Mrs. John Van Oss. Mrs. Margaret Markham, president of the local union, read an article, "The High Cost of Hatred," written by Roy L. Smith. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. F. Jonkman, Mrs. G. Albers, Mrs. H. Van Lente and Mrs. N. Wassenaar.

Another candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket as Allegan county school commissioner entered the field this week with the announcement of G. Roy Sturgis, Grove St., Allegan.

Mr. Sturgis passed his petitions Monday and will file them in the near future.

Miss Alice Boter, with the Detroit Free Press, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Boter.

Douglas is To Have $200,000 Bridge Soon

WILL BE COMPLETED LATE IN JULY; PART OF 1935 PROGRAM OF STATE

A $200,000 bridge across the Kalamazoo river at Douglas and Saugatuck is planned for Allegan county early in 1935, and according to an announcement from the state highway commission, the bridge will be completed by July 1, 1935.

The cost of the new bridge will be financed from the $6,452,569 grant from the federal government under the Cartwright act, and a second project, a $55,000 bridge across the Rabbit river at Hamilton already is under way. The two projects costing $255,000, are the estimated 1935 program for Allegan county.

The proposed structure at Saugatuck and Douglas will be on U.S. highway 31 and will replace a bridge that is narrow and not satisfactory for the amount of heavy traffic on the lake shore highway.

The total cost of state highway construction in Allegan county during 1934, financed from the $12,736,227 national recovery highway grant to Michigan from the federal government, including engineering and contingencies, was $126,100. The greater portion of the $12,736,227 grant was earned on 1934 construction, although a relatively small amount was earned during the last months of 1933, the report of the highway commission shows.

Allegan county projects in 1934 included 1,838 miles of 20-foot concrete pavement; Glenn relocation at $85,000; 0.685 miles of grading, drainage and 20-foot and 36-foot concrete pavement in Plainwell and east at $40,700.

Highway construction, after the grant of $6,452,000 is spent, will depend on the state's ability to match federal aid money, the commission reports. Under the Cartwright program approximately $4,000,000 will be available to Michigan in 1935 and another $4,000,000 in 1936, provided the amounts are matched with state funds.

It is expected that bids on the proposed $200,000 bridge structure at Douglas and Saugatuck, will be called by the state highway department in the near future and that work will get under way within a few months.

The program is being widely distributed in order to spread employment and highway advantages and includes 100 or more projects, estimated to provide more than nine million man hours of work.

It is also rumored that when the projects get under way that Holland, Saugatuck, Laketown and the resort district along US-31 must come together more closely if certain road projects are to be entertained by the state highway commission.

For the last four years road work in that direction has been practically at a standstill because of the intense differences of opinion as to the location of these roads. It is understood that regardless of where a new road is built the old US-31 will be maintained. It might be well to ask the state highway department just what their best plan would be and why. Roads are built to dovetail in with the state's entire road plan. It would seem that a getting-together of groups from all of these different road factions might lead to something constructive and possibly both Ottawa and Allegan counties would get something while now they have been getting nothing constructive. Across-the-table talks might bring a better understanding. Surely the state isn't going to build a $200,000 bridge unless a good road leads up to it.

ZEELAND BIRTHDAY PUPILS "B's" - "D's" - "R's"

FOR THE LOCAL TOURIST

The Pictured Rocks, which extend for a distance of 12 to 13 miles along the south shore of Lake Superior between Munising and Grand Marais, are one of the most famous scenic features of the upper peninsula. They derive their name from the diversity of colors they display and the grotesque shapes they present as a result of the action of waves and frost over a period of hundreds of years.

HOLLAND CHRISTIANS TAKE ALLEGAN GAME BY 38 TO 17

(Allegan News) The Holland Christian's long reached basketball quintet, invading Allegan last Friday night, took the local squad's scalp in a game that ended with a score of 38 to 17 and with Holland clearly the victors from the beginning of the first quarter.

Zwier and Visser, Holland men, both more than six and a half feet tall, shot at will and scored consistently, Zwier totaling 17 points. The foot shorter Allegan men were hopelessly outmatched and unable to cope with the visitors.

Coach Damoth, starting Zavith and Conlee at forwards, Finn at center, and Barrett and Bringer at guards, pulled Conlee for Shoemaker, Barrett for Nyberg, and Nyberg for Miller. Zavith scored 4 points, Finn 6, and Barrett 5. Shoemaker was good for 2.

The game was on ice for the Christians from the beginning of the first quarter and at the end of the first period a lead of 7 points had been established in a score reading Holland, 10; Allegan, 3.

The second period resulted in 9 for Holland while Allegan was getting was 5, but in the third, the visitors, shooting almost at will, piled up 11 points to Allegan's 2, and the game ended with Holland getting 8 in the final quarter and Allegan 7, the only even quarter of the entire struggle.

The Allegan reserves also lost, but by 1 point only, the game ending with a score of 17 to 18.

A supper, followed by a short program and singing of Christmas carols, featured the annual meeting of the Adult Sunday school class of Fourth Reformed church Friday evening in the church parlors. Business included the election of officers with the following results: J. Overbeek, president; J. Vander Hill, vice president; Mrs. J. Vander Hill, secretary; Mrs. G. Visser, assistant secretary; Mrs. P. Klaver, treasurer, and Mrs. J. Vanden Elst, assistant treasurer. The class presented a gift to Rev. and Mrs. H. Van Dyke.

Students from colleges abroad home for Christmas and New Years are: Miss Vivian Vischer, Peter Boter, Charles McLean, Andrew Dalman, "Vandie" Vanden Berg and Milton Slagh, who are attending the University of Michigan; Miss Katherine Wrieden from Vassar; George Fell from the Northwestern Dental college, and Charles Kirchen from Culver Military academy; Miss Emily Evans, who attends Albion college; Harry Irvin and Patrick Donnelly from Notre Dame; Floyd Otteman, Gene Beukema and Tom Selby from Michigan State college.

A three-way accident at College avenue and Thirteenth street last night sent Mrs. John Klein of Hamilton to the Holland hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises. Autos driven by Milton Slagh and Jacob Bonketeo of Holland, and Mr. Klein were involved. All were badly damaged.

Rev. Raymond Drukker, formerly of Holland, now of Grand Rapids, was the guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Parent-Teacher club of Hudsonville.

ANOTHER GIFT FOR MOTORISTS

Michigan motorists today received a belated Christmas gift in the joint statement issued by Secretary of State Clarke W. Brown and Orville E. Atwood, secretary of state.

The announcement was to the effect that 1934 license plates will be legal until February 1, 1935, on all motor vehicles except trailers of more than 3,000 pounds.

Under the trailer-brake law adopted by the 1933 legislature, all trailers of more than 3,000 pounds gross weight must be equipped with brakes that can be operated by the driver of the truck. Because of this law, 1934 trailer license plates cannot be used legally after December 31, 1934, on trailers weighing more than 3,000 pounds.

NEW HOLLAND PLANT TO START JANUARY 15

Secretary William Connelly states the Crampton Hardware company would begin operations about Jan. 15. Refrigerator hardware and other specialties will be manufactured and between 25 and 30 men given employment at the start. The plant occupies the building formerly occupied by the Poole Printing company, at Van Raalte Ave. and 13th St. Tools and dies to be used by the new factory are being supplied by two Grand Rapids firms.

Holland Public schools closed Friday noon for the Christmas holidays. They will re-open on Monday, Jan. 7. Hope college will open again Jan. 8.

A three-way accident at College avenue and Thirteenth street last night sent Mrs. John Klein of Hamilton to the Holland hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises. Autos driven by Milton Slagh and Jacob Bonketeo of Holland, and Mr. Klein were involved. All were badly damaged.

George Pufflett, age 84, living at 16 North River avenue, died of a heart attack suffered Thursday evening upon his return from the Memorial chapel where he attended the performance of the "Messiah." Born March 2, 1850, in London, England, Mr. Pufflett came to Holland 20 years ago from Chicago. He has operated a delicatessen shop on North River avenue for the past ten years. He is survived by the widow, one son, George W. of Holland, and two daughters, Mrs. Olive Burgess of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Ella Myers of Heikhoorn, Wis. Four grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Dykstra funeral home, George Trotter, assistant superintendent of the City Mission, officiating. The body was taken to Chicago on Monday, interment taking place in Oakridge cemetery. Short services were held at the chapel there.

During Christmas week Holland folks have been hearing the Hope Memorial chimes daily as they peeped forth Christmas carols at noon and evening. The chimes will continue until after the new year is ushered in when at midnight the chimes will welcome in 1935. The beautiful-sounding carillons were donated by the late Charles M. McLean at a cost of $12,000 when the beautiful chapel was built. Holland is not alone in the sounding of the chimes for at these given hours all similar carillons, large and small, in this nation and beyond, are sending their peels over the land, as an appeal to all and an expression that there are still Christian people who are keeping the faith.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Scholten will hold open house for relatives and friends Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 5 o'clock in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. The Scholtens for many years lived in Laketown township, coming to this city about thirteen years ago. Their children are: Bernard H. Scholten and Mrs. Gertrude Buscher of Holland, Gerrit Scholten of Grand Haven, and John H. and Alfred Scholten of Laketown.

Local Scenic to Grand Haven Becomes Fact

SHORE HIGHWAY INCLUDED AS STATE ROAD; RUNS FROM OTTAWA BEACH TO THE COUNTY SEAT

Designation of the Lake Shore road as a state trunk line was announced by the state administrative board at Lansing, according to an Associated Press dispatch. This road, designated from Ottawa Beach to Grand Haven is 20 miles long and was one of several, including 612 miles, designated to be added to state trunk lines.

Carl Bowen, county engineer, formerly of Holland, who has been in charge of the improvement done under county and CWA funds during the past year, said he had had no notification of the board's action but he was hopeful that it would mean the construction and maintenance of the road by the state in the future.

Roads are many times designated for state support long before the actual work is taken over, he explained. Murray Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner, has always favored lake shore roads, he stated, and upon the occasion, when the county road commission has approached the state department relative to taking in this stretch, he has declared that the right-of-way through the dunes made it an appealing one to him.

The road was developed by the county for welfare purposes and work was started a year ago when CWA was instituted. The county has spent $48,000 for materials, supervision and overhead and $65,000 was expended through CWA. Work is to be continued after the first of the year on a fill near Port Sheldon to be paid for by funds delegated to welfare support by the county road commission.

The road at the Grand Haven end has been graveled from the city limits to Little Pigeon creek, a 50-foot bridge span has been built at Port Sheldon and gravel has been placed on the road from the Getz Lakewood farm road north to Port Sheldon, besides an immense immense amount of grading necessary.

It runs through one of the most beautiful resort sections of Western Michigan, and as a state highway would link up with other scenic drives which the state has been taking over in western Michigan, Mr. Bowen declares.

The county road commission has approached the state commission many times to interest them in the road as a state trunk line, but there has been no official application for it, Mr. Bowen stated today.

He has gone over the route with state deputy road men and all have expressed satisfaction with the right-of-way as laid out by Mr. Bowen and the engineering necessary to the layout among the dunes.

The road connects up with the west section of M-50 from US-31, which was improved last year and opens up a wonderful resort area south of this city.

SET STATE ACREAGE FOR SUGAR BEETS; ALLOTTED TO HOLLAND, 4,607 ACRES

Beet sugar production in Michigan in 1935 will be based on an allotment of 162,512 acres under a national schedule for the beet sugar industry, announced Saturday by the AAA.

The proposed allotments for western Michigan are: Isabella Sugar company, Mt. Pleasant, 14,541 acres; Lake Shore Sugar company, Holland, 4,607 acres; Michigan Sugar company, Alma, 13,740 acres; Michigan Sugar company, Owosso, 12,981 acres; St. Louis Sugar company, St. Louis, 8,400 acres. The dispatch came from Washington, D.C.

The Sitsen club had a Christmas party at the home of Miss Deborah H. Veneklasen, 322 River avenue, Holland, Wednesday evening. The affair featured a supper at 6:30 o'clock which was followed with a selection by Mrs. Bernard De Pree and a "lay," "Little Woman, What Now?" presented by Miss Dorothy Matchinsky, Miss Joan Lugers, Miss Marjorie Matchinsky and Miss Janet Coster. Santa Claus appeared and presented gifts after which games were played. Special guests were Mrs. De Pree, Mrs. Angus De Kruit, Mrs. E. V. Hartman, Mrs. Jennie Mulder and Mrs. Kate Veneklasen. Others present were Miss Dorothy Van Otterloo, Miss Coster, Miss Dorothy Matchinsky, Miss Lugers, Miss Clara Witteveen, Miss Marian Lambers, Miss Gertrude Hulsebos, Miss Mary Heydens, Miss Adeline Czerkies, Miss Marjorie Matchinsky, Miss Neela De Groot, Miss Evelyn Den Uyl, Miss Veneklasen, Mrs. Mary Hayes and Mrs. Wilma Mouw.

Miss Ann Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Peters, 181 West Eleventh street, became the bride of Vernon W. Bosloof of Owosso, Friday afternoon at the parsonage of the Christian Reformed church in Graafschap, the Rev. H. Blystra performing the ceremony. The couple was attended by Miss Henrietta Poppen and Eugene Peters, the latter a brother of the bride. Mr. Bosloof is instructor in the Owosso high school. The bride has been a teacher in the Grand Rapids Christian school. They are making their home in Owosso. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bosloof had been Holland correspondents for the Grand Rapids Herald.

This Friday night the Gibson church program for the yuletide season will be given and all are invited to see and hear this lovely Christmas entertainment. The school program will be held on Saturday evening.

Varieties of Bird Are Many In Michigan

ALL-YEAR RESIDENTS SHOW
BIG INCREASE, U. OF M.
SCIENTISTS REPORT

A total of 212 varieties of birds, including 26 that remain in southern Michigan the year around, were listed by Norman A. Wood and A. D. Tinker, of the University of Michigan Museum, in a recent tabulation of birds reported seen in a comparatively small area in the southern part of the state during the past 50 years. Washtenaw County and portions of Livingston, Monroe, Wayne and Jackson counties were represented in this check-up.

The complete list of birds identified is believed to be the longest ever recorded for a given area, and the number of bird species that have been noted in this territory throughout the year is particularly surprising to many of us who thought that all but a very few of our bird friends disappeared upon the arrival of cold weather. The year-around list includes the following: Eastern ruffed grouse, greater prairie chicken, Eastern bob-white, barn owl, Eastern screech owl, great horned owl, Northern barred owl, long-eared owl, Northern flicker, red-bellied woodpecker, Eastern hairy woodpecker, Northern downy woodpecker, prairie horned lark, Northern blue jay, Eastern crow, black-capped chickadee, tufted titmouse, white-breasted nuthatch, Eastern robin, cedar waxwing, starling, English sparrow, Eastern meadow-lark, Eastern cardinal, Eastern goldfinch and Mississippi song sparrow.

Among the rarest of the migrants listed by Wood and Tinker as having been observed in the area studied, during the past 50 years, are the gannet, the Northern horned lark, Brewster's warbler, Kentucky warbler, Western meadowlark and the American golden and black-bellied plovers. The most remarkable of these is probably the gannet, which is properly an Atlantic sea-bird. One of these birds was recorded in this southern Michigan district in 1911.

Probably other parts of the state, no further northward than Washtenaw County, have much the same bird population, Mr. Wood believes, although definite records to prove this are lacking. The number of permanent residents grows less, however, in the northern portions of the state.

Even Children's Clothes

A woman, recently returning to Washington after an absence of a decade, is much impressed by the new aspect in the dress of the children who frequent Dupont Circle. Where, in former years, she says, one could tell at a glance the nationality of the children from the embassies and legations by their clothing, today all that is changed. True, the little ones who are in charge of attendance still have their nannies, Fräulein or bonne, as the case may be, whose garb is definitely English, German or French. But the same can no longer be said of the outfits of the juniors. There are, to be sure, traces of the individual tones of the proverbial dress of the country; these, however, are but tones, not the motif.

This pronouncement of an observant woman raises an interesting question. If this change is as definite in one capital of the world as her opinion indicates, to what is the difference due? To the effect of the ever-widening interest in things international? To the growing give and take in play and sport which permeates even the children's world? Or to the tendency of modern creators of fashions to make use of the best of each country for the advantage of all?

Probably it is the last named—with the pleasant result that French simplicity and crispness, English cut and sturdy quality are combined with American variety and freedom, as witness the zipper addition to playtime togs. To whatever cause or causes may be attributed this departure from the strictly nationalistic to the more universal in clothes for children, it is an innovation doubtless as welcome in other cities as it is in Washington.

GANGSTERS: ALIVE AND DEAD

While those who take the machine gun must expect to perish by it, a live gangster in the hand of the law may be worth two dead in the ditch.

The capture of Joe Burns alive may lead federal agents to the hideouts of John Hamilton, who is wanted as public enemy No. 1.

A live bandit may, if sufficiently persuaded, tell a lot of things which the department of justice would like to hear.

The practice of pumping such gentlemen full of lead before pumping them dry of information that may lead to the apprehension of their fellow-gangsters is to be encouraged only under exceptional circumstances.

Trains of the Desert

Little by little the automobile is replacing the camel as the freight and passenger carrier of the Near East and African deserts. The newest automobile train put into service carries 35 passengers and three tons of freight from Damascus to Bagdad in 18 hours, as compared to the 10 days or two weeks ordinarily required by camels.

Here is an instance of a modern form of transportation competing with one of the oldest forms still in use. Camel trains have been journeying over the deserts south of the Mediterranean since the dawn of history. Egypt and Chaldea once exchanged goods across the Arabian wastes in this way. Later the Persians, then the Romans, and finally nomads from Asia controlled the routes.

When Europe was plunged into the darkness of the Middle Ages, the enlightened Mohammedans supervised a busy and prosperous traffic in the desert lands, as amazed Crusaders discovered. Long before the Portuguese found the water route to India the camels had busied themselves carrying supplies of spices and precious goods northward from the ports of the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf.

Right down to the present time this dependence upon the camel has continued. The railroads which were begun never quite functioned, and when Lawrence mobilized the Arabs against the Turks during the World War, it was camels that carried supplies for the army which took Jerusalem.

So the appearance of the automobile in the deserts less than 10 years ago has meant a change in transportation methods which were hoary with age when the Wise Men made the pilgrimage to Bethlehem, and for which no satisfactory substitute had been found since.

LOCAL PASTOR TO PREACH SERIES OF SERMONS

Rev. J. Lanting, pastor of the Immanuel church in the Holland armory, will preach a series of sermons on the "Second Coming of Christ," beginning Sunday evening.

Mr. Lanting states "This subject that is holding the attention of Christian people, and causing many to speculate will be heard in a series of sermons entitled 'The Second Coming of Christ' and its effect on the Jew, the gentile, the church and the world," each Sunday.

The second coming of Christ is a fact. It holds peace and blessing for some, and sorrow and judgment for others.

The following subjects will be given in their order from the Word of God at Immanuel church:

Dec. 16—"The Christian Hope, and Sure Word of Prophecy."

Dec. 23—"The Jews in Relation to the Coming of Christ."

Dec. 30—"The Gentiles in Relation to the Coming of Christ."

Jan. 6—"The Church in Relation to the Coming of Christ."

Jan. 13—"The Tribulation and Those Who Pass Through It."

Jan. 20—"The Appearing and Kingdom of Christ."

Jan. 27—"The Judgment and Eternal State of Saved and Lost."

Grasshopper War

Farmers in ten Middle Western states and three provinces of Canada are prepared to battle grasshoppers on a big scale this year. Surveys conducted last fall disclosed that millions of acres of cultivated and grazing land contain grasshopper eggs which are due to hatch shortly.

The dryness of the season increases the menace of this pest, which has been held in check since the season of 1931 by opportune spring rains. Deep plowing is being resorted to in Canada to keep down the number of eggs that hatch.

The chief fight, however, will come after the grasshopper nymphs appear. If poisoned mash can be placed in front of them at this stage, they will eat it greedily. Hundreds of tons of bran and sawdust have been shipped into the affected regions for this purpose, together with thousands of gallons of sodium arsenite to mix with it. In Saskatchewan alone 1,200 farmers' committees have been organized to direct the distribution of the poisoned mash.

The area to be covered is very extensive, however, and a comparatively small bit of soil can hatch forth millions of hoppers, which travel in dense clouds when they grow to maturity, and eat every bit of vegetation in sight. They have been known to eat fence posts, rake handles, and leather outsoles, in addition to the bark of trees and stalks of grain.

How serious the grasshopper plague is to be will appear when reports of the hatching come in from the Dakotas, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Montana, Minnesota, Nebraska and similar areas. Preliminary arrangements for united action against the pest have been made in the belief that it will be very serious indeed.

AN INTRODUCES SELF TO BROTHER AFTER 25 YEARS

R. Z. Lawrence of Grand Rapids is enjoying a visit from his brother, William H. Lawrence, of Swan Lake, Mont., after being separated from him 25 years.

"I didn't recognize my brother when he arrived and he had to introduce himself," the Grand Rapids man explained. "He was only 21 and I was 35 when we last met."

William Lawrence, formerly of Houghton Lake, returned to Michigan especially to see another brother, U. G. Lawrence, of Ionia, who is ill.

CHICKENS UNCOVER RICH GOLD FUND

If he hadn't happened to find several tiny gold nuggets in the crops of several of his chickens, Morris Willaden, Cheyenne, Wyo., farmer, might not have recognized the presence of gold ore in a chunk of rock he plowed up in his fields one day. But forewarned proved to be forearmed in Willaden's case and he was on the lookout for just such a find and thus did not miss the chance to open a streak of ore on his land about five feet wide and 15 feet deep that assayed $67 a ton in gold and silver.

A Duck That Is a Real Duck

Homer Miller, Fish Point, has submitted to the Department of Conservation his entry for the most ambitious duck in Michigan. Not satisfied with a single brood, his duck hatched out two broods on two adjoining nests last spring. The duck, a black mallard, is kept as a decoy during the duck hunting season. Last spring she made two nests within a few feet of each other and laid eggs in both. During the hatching season she sat on one nest for a brief time and then moved over to warm the eggs in the other nest. She succeeded in hatching eleven ducklings in one nest. These were taken from her. She then went to the other nest and hatched out three more ducks.

MINNOW SEINES

Minnow seines not to exceed 30 feet in length and eight feet in width may be used in the inland lakes, streams and rivers of this state, except trout streams, and minnow seines not to exceed 80 feet in length and eight feet in width may be used in the Great Lakes and connecting waters.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

HOW ABOUT MOVIES?

Making home movies with a modern, low-cost camera is actually as easy as making snapshots. It's fascinating, sporty, too.

MAY as well be frank about it. Until a few months ago I had the notion, shared by a good many other folks, that home movies were (1) expensive, (2) difficult, and (3) not very good, anyway.

And then Bill, a friend of mine, got a movie outfit. Neither he nor his family can be called as wealthy, or anything like it, but there he was—sporting a movie camera. Naturally, I was curious.

The camera itself was about the size of a small book. Slid into a top-pocket without any fuss at all. It was neat as the proverbial pin and about as simple. Bill showed me how to run it. You merely held it up, aimed it as you would a gun, pressed a button—and you are making movies. Oh, of course, there was a spring to wind and a lens aperture to set, but it was any amount simpler than my favorite snapshot camera. Even the loading was easy.

That particular camera, as I recall it, cost about $35. It used 8 mm. film and held enough to allow for a couple dozen full-length shots—each shot long enough to show, for example, a sensational football play, from the snap of the ball to the end of a fifty-yard run, forward pass included. All that on about a dime's worth of film.

Movie film, I learned, is really pretty cheap to begin with and doubly so when you consider that the purchase price includes the cost of finishing, done by the manufacturer.

Well, I revised my notions of movies, as to cost and difficulty, promptly. And when I saw the finished movies, a week later, I got all over the idea that amateur movies weren't very good. Bill's were excellent. And he's only an average person, a snapshotter like the rest of us.

I'm passing all this on merely for your consideration. Movies, at their best, will never in this world take the place of good snapshots. The snapshot camera has a charm all its own. But there's no reason at all why snapshotters shouldn't take up movies, too. For, obviously, movies can do things that still cameras cannot. They can get the whole of a bit of action instead of merely a part of it.

As far as technicalities are concerned, anyone who has mastered the essentials of snapshotting can take up the modern movie camera without a qualm. Bill has permitted me to make a number of movie shots and I'm both surprised and delighted with the results. Maybe someday I'll get me an outfit.

In America, I find there are two standard sizes for amateur movie film—8 millimeter and 16 millimeter. (Hollywood uses 35 millimeter film.) Naturally, costs are less in the 8 mm. class than in the 16, but even the 16 mm. outfits are surprisingly reasonable in both first and operating costs. Of course, you can spend a great deal of money on special equipment, but it's not at all necessary. By the way, with certain 16 mm. outfits you can get action pictures in full color. That's something we snapshotters can't quite do, to date.

Coal was first produced in Michigan in the Jackson district in 1835, according to the Geology Division, Department of Conservation. Three years later coal was produced in the vicinity of Grand Ledge. Subsequently, coal deposits were discovered at many points incidental to the drilling of salt wells.

The first shacks of a miniature village of fishing shanties that will cover the ice on Lake Macatawa this winter have made their appearance, according to local sportsmen. The ice is reported to be between five and six inches thick. The first shanties were undoubtedly prompted by excellent perch fishing in the lake, also reported recently.

The Jamestown State bank this week made $22,000 available to hundreds of persons through a pay-off of 10 per cent. The bank went into receivership two years ago. Since then it has paid off $55,260 in bills payable. Henry Winter of Holland is in charge.

Justice John Galien Friday postponed the examination of Dick Verhage, 18, of Hudsonville, charged with leaving the scene of an accident in which his car struck Celia Overzet of Hudsonville until Jan. 5. Verhage says he was unaware of striking the girl with his machine.

Preliminary plans have been completed for the construction of a warehouse and loading dock, estimated cost $40,000, to be erected at South Haven for the South Haven Terminal Corporation. So you see, all ports are getting somewhere—“Let's go, Holland.”

Peter J. Van Dyke, 55, of Central avenue, received a fractured leg and bruises when he was struck by a car while walking to work at the Bay View Furniture Co. The driver of the car was Henry Wierda, 53, of 127 East 15th street, who told the police that he did not see Van Dyke. Van Dyke was treated at the Holland hospital.

OTTAWA COUNTY NEWS

Despite a heavy jail sentence meted out several days ago to two youths in Grand Haven for turning in false fire alarms, another alarm was sent in yesterday afternoon which called out the department on another “wild goose chase.” The call came from Box 33, opposite Chief Edward Boongaard's home. The alarm came in just as school was being dismissed and the Chief is inclined to think perhaps one of the youngsters was celebrating the beginning of the Christmas holiday recess.

On Monday evening, Dec. 17, Mr. and Mrs. John Essing of Drenthe, had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ter Haar to celebrate the 27th wedding anniversary of both the Ter Haars and Essings. These couples were married on the same day and year and always enjoyed the anniversary supper together. Mr. and Mrs. William Bekius of Holland were also present.

Drenthe butchers and farmers who took their baby beavers to the seventh annual fat stock show in Grand Rapids last week all received prizes.

The Junior Ladies' Aid members of Drenthe who were to collect funds for the Zeeland hospital, were assisted by their husbands. The collection amounted to $126.65 from this community.

Juffrouw Thomas Yff was honored recently by the Golden Hour Girls' Society of the North Blenden Christian Reformed church. Mrs. Yff has been president of this society since October 22, 1931, when it was organized under the name of “Loving Lois” with the following officers: Mrs. T. Yff, president; Marie Groenhof, secretary; Lillian Velthous, vice-president; Clara Dys, treasurer; Gretha Ver Lee, assistant secretary; Ida Havedink and Fanny Driesenga, buying committee. At the last meeting the name of the society was changed to “Golden Hour Society” with the following officers: President, Mrs. H. Plagemeers; vice-president, Marie Groenhof; secretary, Mamie Klinge, Mrs. Yff was presented a 27-piece rose glassware water and tea set as a token of appreciation for the work she has done in the past for the society. GREETINGS

IT GIVES us great pleasure to extend to the citizens of Holland and vicinity the greetings of the season. We sincerely believe that the sunshine of better days is ahead.

As Dry Cleaners you have known us for many years. We aim to do everything in this line as it should be done. Good work and reasonable prices have always been our aim. We are here to serve you.

Ideal Dry Cleaners

The New Year

Is a time for a new start, new resolutions and more lofty endeavors . . .

IN the business world it draws business associates—whether they be the merchant or the manufacturer, the vocational man or the laborer from the shop or farm—closer together.

It binds those who have long been associated together with bands of steel.

For more than four decades we have been a part of this community, have materially aided in its upbuilding, and with the many yuletide seasons of the past we feel we have endeared our home folks to us. We hope to continue to make our services felt—lasting far beyond the NEW YEAR.

We sincerely extend to every one the greetings of the season and hope that 1935 may prove a brighter and happier one.

Mutually,

Ottawa County Relief Facts

By DEBORAH VENEKLASEN

(Note: This is one of several articles being prepared by the Emergency Relief administrator of Ottawa county, Miss Deborah Veneklasen, designed to explain the regulations governing relief, and to answer questions which come up from time to time regarding the work. County relief headquarters are in Holland and all projects and applications must go through a regular procedure before accepted by the government.)

RELIEF

1. What is relief?
2. How is it extended?
3. What is the aid extended?
4. To whom is it extended?

Relief is the extending of aid to any family or individual in need, by some public agency. This aid is extended by the public organization known as the Emergency Relief Administration, through a public agent, the Emergency Relief administrator. Such organization is established in each county of the state; thus in Ottawa it is known as the Ottawa County Emergency Relief Administration. This organization is directly responsible for the distribution of aid and is considered the Public Agent.

In order that the various states, counties and townships in the United States could receive direct benefits from the Federal Emergency Relief funds a State Emergency Relief Administration was established in each state. The above named relief organization was established in Ottawa County through the State Emergency Relief Administration in September, 1933. This is a Federal ruling as of August 1, 1933.

In many cities and towns private agencies were engaged in the service or relief, taking care of the needy, unemployed, etc., through the medium of funds contributed either locally or through private donations and community chests. It would be a serious handicap to any community if the interests and cooperation of these organizations were lost. As a means of coordinating all agencies, many of the officials and workers of these organizations have been made public agents and are assisting in caring for the needy. Compensation is allowed the same as any other public servant if they are taken over by the Public Agency. One unalterable ruling is that the person in need must apply to a public agency for relief and this relief must be furnished directly to the applicant by a public agent.

Specific Use of Funds
Where any Public Agency is functioning under the Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1933, these funds can only be used for specific things, including food, shelter, fuel, clothing, medicines, medical attendance, medical supplies in case of emergency, hospitalization, operations, institutional care or the boarding out of children, either in private homes or in institutions are not allowed and must be borne by the local authorities or by private agencies engaged in similar work but without the restrictions placed upon them that the government places upon the F. E. R. A.

This relief is distributed by persons designated and known as public agents. A public agent is a person who is engaged in carrying out the purposes of the public agency and these people must have the qualifications as laid down by the rules and regulations of the F. E. R. A. The compensation of the employees of said organization are paid according to a schedule established by the State Administration according to population of the county in which the organization is established.

The kind of relief extended is of two types, known as direct and work relief:

1. Direct Relief—is relief given without any returns whatever from the client who receives it. His budget is established according to his needs. This is determined by questioning the client as to his financial status, church affiliations, relatives, lodges, or any person or persons who may be interested in assisting the client either with material or financial aid.

2. Work relief is relief where by the client works for the relief extended him. This can be paid either in cash or in kind. This client is given work to the amount of the monthly budget and in most cases is paid by check for his services.

1. Direct relief is given in the form of food, shelter, clothing, etc., as enumerated in a previous paragraph with the following exceptions where provision is already made under existing laws such as widows or mothers pension, or old age pensions.

2. Work Relief is based on:
 1. Relief need of the individual or his dependents.
 2. Rate of wage to be paid is the going rate prevalent in that county for a particular type of work performed as determined by a Wage Rate Committee.
 3. Work Relief allowed only to persons who are employable.
 4. Relief clients to work on approved projects only.
 5. Work Relief projects must be projects undertaken on Federal, State or local public properties.

Who is entitled to such relief?

Any person desiring aid must first be registered. A social history is taken at which time the client gives the history of his family relative to the number of children, ages, birthplaces, schooling and disability, if any. This is also applicable to the client himself and his wife. Further information requested is number of boarders, lodgers, or paying guests; date of marriage and where the marriage occurred; army record; legal residence; relatives living, who they are and where they are living; employed or unemployed; the client's previous work record with employer's name and wage earned; church, club or lodge affiliations. Also, if he had had or is receiving assistance from any of the above named organizations or any other public agencies paying pensions.

After the social history has been given a financial history is taken. This pertains to the financial status of said client. Is the property free and clear or is he renting; who owns the mortgage; amount of indebtedness; the list of his creditors; amount of his taxes; water and light bills; is there fire insurance and the amount of the premiums; life insurance, on whom written, what company has underwritten the insured; and what is the amount of the premiums; any money in the bank; do they hold any bonds or mortgages or other real estate; do they own a car; if so, is it paid for, is the title clear and what is the number of the license? The above history is taken and the client signs his name to the affidavit.

Upon the receiving of said application, the investigator makes an investigation to check the statements of the client. The minimum investigation includes:

1. A visit to the home.
2. Inquiry and checking as to real property, bank accounts and other financial resources of the family.
3. An interview with a recent employer.
4. Determining the ability and agreement of family, relatives, friends, and churches or other organizations to assist.
5. Also the liability under public welfare laws of the several states of members of the family or relatives to assume such support in order to prevent such member becoming a public charge.

If the investigation shows a definite need, a case number is assigned and relief may be extended on a budgetary deficiency basis. Reinvestigations are to be made as frequently as possible to determine whether the status of the family has changed any since the registration. Many times a member of said family, or the client himself, has obtained work and neglected to inform the organization of said change. If such has been the case, it would indicate the necessity for reducing or cutting off the entire relief.

In rural areas the extension of relief is slightly different as many have resources not available to the metropolitan clientele. A supplemental financial data sheet is taken, together with the social history. This requests the client to give a detailed report of his farm—total tillable acreage; pasturage; wooded lots; his yearly yield of the various products; number of cows; horses, chickens and other stock; his indebtedness mortgages; chattel mortgages; if he has a Federal Loan, amount of said loan with interest; amount of his taxes. Also he must state the various incomes from cows, chickens, turkeys, sheep, etc. The status of a rural client can change more frequently than that of a metropolitan client. This is, in brief, the procedure required before relief may be extended. In our next article, we shall describe the process of giving direct relief to a family.

Mrs. Dick Plaggemars, Mrs. Robert Pool and Mrs. Simon Pool were hostesses at a party given recently in honor of Sue Ann, the three-weeks-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kammeraad. The guests brought many gifts to the little tot. Guests were Mrs. Bill Walters, Mrs. Walter Allen, Mrs. Gerrit Bredeweg, Mrs. Simon Pool, Mrs. Richard Evenhuis, Mrs. Robert Evenhuis, Mrs. Ed Evenhuis, Mrs. Nick Tappan, Mrs. Hilbert Bos, Mrs. Peter De Kraker, Mrs. H. De Kraker, Mrs. F. Kammeraad, Miss Marian Kammeraad, Mrs. Henry Kammeraad and daughter, Sue Ann, and the hostesses.

New officers for the A. C. Van Raalte Junior club No. 13, for the ensuing year were elected at the last regular meeting, with the following results: Virginia Ellison, president; Ruth Lindberg, secretary; vice president; Della Jeanne Van Bemmelen, junior vice president; Mildred Vande Water, treasurer; Esther May Buurama, chaplain; Mildred Stevens, captain of colors, and Doris Rowan, attendant. Virginia Ellison, patriotic instructor, presented a patriotic program.

COUNCIL OFFICIALS TENDER FAREWELL DINNER TO RETIRING SCOUT EXECUTIVE

(Grand Haven Tribune)

Peter H. Norg, executive of the Ottawa Boy Scout council for the past year, who leaves for Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 24 to take a similar position, and his wife were given a farewell supper at the Presbyterian church house here last night by the members of the executive board of the council, scoutmasters, committeemen and other officials of the county organization.

George Mooi of Holland, president of the council, presented a brief case to Mr. Norg as a gift from the council and Mrs. Norg was given a pair of gloves, presented by Mrs. Mooi. Remarks were made by Prof. Egbert Winter of Holland, chairman of the training committee, Jacob Braak of Spring Lake, chairman of the camping committee, C. L. Beech of Holland, former council president, and Mrs. W. J. Vaxter of Grand Haven.

About 75 attended the supper and the social time afterward. The committee in charge was like De Kraker of Holland, Bill Vandewater of Zeeland and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vaxter of this city.

The committee to select a new council executive met yesterday at Holland and interviewed several applicants, sent by the district organization. Stephen Mead, scout commissioner for the council, attended from this city. No successor to Mr. Norg will be named for several weeks, it is believed.

HOLLAND CHRISTIAN WINS 16TH IN A ROW

Holland Christian added another victory to its string last night by defeating Cass City, 34 to 17. Holland started the scoring with the opening whistle and never let up throughout the battle. The score at the half was 21 to 10, Holland. Zwier with 16 points was high while Graham made 8 for Cass City. It was the 16th straight win for Coach Muijsen's men.

FOUR ADDED TO CREW OF COAST GUARD CUTTER

Four new men have been added to the crew of the coast guard cutter Escanaba, making in all six officers and 61 men, which is an increase in the crew from 56 when the ship arrived here a little over two years ago.

The four men detailed here were taken from the cutter Seminole, which has been decommissioned by the government recently. The new men are a chief radio operator, carpenter's mate and two seamen, first class.—Grand Haven Tribune.

ZEELAND MAN LOSES CAR AT HOLLAND

Arthur De Witt, of Zeeland, reported that his automobile, a 1928 Chevrolet coach, had been stolen from where it was parked near the Model Laundry on 8th St., Holland, between 7 and 9 o'clock, last Friday evening, December 14. The license number is 052-114, Michigan, 1934. Nothing has been learned about its whereabouts since nor of the perpetrators of the theft.

HOLLAND SENIORS SELECT CLASS PLAY

The senior class of Holland High school announced today that "The Nut Farm," a 3-act comedy by John C. Brownell, had been selected as the class play for 1935. The cast will be coached by Miss Lindsey, and the following will have parts: Robert Wismeier, Gertrude Young, Peggy Bergen, Eugene Brown, Clarine Elenbaas, John Steketee, Charles Drew and Rodrick Van Leuwen. Rehearsals will begin Jan. 7, with presentation of the play the last week in March.

Aged Wine It Seems Has the "Kick of Mule"

THREE YOUTHS TELL WHERE THEY BOUGHT WINE: HIT REV. MEYER'S CAR, CRASH

A raid was made by sheriff's officers near Grand Haven that resulted in the confiscation of 317 gallons of "dago red" wine, held in barrels and glass containers, owned by John Radspeier, 60, Grand Haven township. Radspeier was brought to the county jail and is held there on a warrant charging possession and sale of intoxicating liquor without a license.

The find was made by the officers following an affidavit signed by three young men who narrowly missed a serious accident Sunday afternoon when their car hit several objects on M-50 near Pearl and turned over twice landing with the wheels in the air.

The signed statement says they went to Radspeier's home early in the afternoon and purchased two glasses of the wine which they drank there and also two quarts which they took in their car. The sheriff's department secured "a buy" at the place and immediately clapped the warrant upon the unsuspecting farmer.

The three youths who signed the affidavit are Sidney H. Johnson, 225 Fountain street, Grand Rapids; Robert McDowell Gilmore, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Robert Bowman, Grand Rapids. After securing the liquor, they told the officers they struck for M-50 and were hitting a top speed when they struck a car driven by Rev. A. O. Meyer, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church at Grand Haven, both driving east. Their car was driven by Gilmore.

After the youths' car struck the Meyer car it shot across the road, hit a tree, tore down a mail box, and turned over twice, landing with the four wheels in the air. They were riding in a roadster. They were bruised and scratched but not seriously hurt.

The three boys were brought to the county jail where they were held for a time and Gilmore was arraigned on Monday before Justice Peter Verduin charged with drunken driving. He was fined $50 and costs of $12.60.

Radspeier is alleged to have sold the wine for 35 cents a quart, which is considerably under the legal price. The wine is said to be very strong and has a very intoxicating effect even with a small quantity. The confiscated liquor was brought to the county jail this morning and the four big barrels, some of the small kegs and glass containers were stored in the county garage. All the barrels were full and the contents of such age that it is very strong and potent.

The Meyer car was not badly damaged but the Gilmore car was a wreck after its contact with the several objects and hurtling through the air.

Later, John Radspeier, Grand Haven township, charged with selling liquor without a license, pleaded guilty before Judge Fred T. Miles and was sentenced immediately to 30 days in the county jail, $25 fine and $10 costs.

His jail term is to start January 2, he is to pay the costs this week, and the fine before the first of the year. He was arrested following a raid made by the sheriff's officers upon an affidavit of three Grand Rapids boys who declared they had bought wine at the home of Radspeier. There were 317 gallons of wine confiscated.

Guy Wise, who pleaded guilty to a statutory charge some time ago, was sentenced to one to ten years at Ionia reformatory. Wise has been ill since his arraignment and has just recovered sufficiently to receive sentence.

SETTING FOR STRANGE BETROTHAL

THE delicate beauty of shimmering lakes and azure skies, the grandeur of smoke-plumed volcanoes and mighty mountains have won for Guatemala the unqualified praise of all visitors who know the world, and yet it is not only this spectacular scenery but also the lure of mysterious half-buried cities and the traditions of primitive Indian villages which make Guatemala one of the most popular countries on the route of the weekly cruises between New York and California.

Near Lake Atitlan—pictured here—at the foot of a towering volcano rests the sacred city of the Tzut'ul Indians. It is a village of thatched-roof, hipped houses built of black volcanic basalt—each house with a mausoleum-like structure behind it, erected for setting room for the mother during childbirth.

The Indians in this village are exceedingly primitive, knowing practically nothing of the outside world. Among the ancient customs to which they still cling is the betrothal ceremony. When a boy finds his one and only, he hides in the shrubbery on the route she must follow on her daily water-carrying trips between Lake Atitlan and her house. When the girl approaches his hiding place, balancing the jar of water on her head, he dashes out, snatches the jar, and smashes it to pieces on her head. How method of replying "no" is to run away. If she accepts his advances, however, she takes the drinking water like a transfusion at attention. This act is regarded as a public betrothal, and is followed by the wedding ceremony which is equally simple, though less dramatic. The couple simply say away together and settle in a hut.

GAMING MACHINES RAIDED BY POLICE

(Grand Haven Tribune)
A raid on gaming machines in this city today by the city police yielded machines which were picked up at several local business places.
The machines will be confiscated and efforts are being made by the police to locate the owners. The local men, in whose places the machines were found, do not own the apparatus. The machines were picked up under violation of the state gambling laws.
Chief of Police Lawrence De Witt said that while the machines are not slot machines they are of the type which never gives advantage to the player and are considered gambling machines, violating the state law.
The police will continue to keep a sharp eye out for machines of the kind and will attempt to clean up the city from devices that are considered illegal.

ZEELAND HOSPITAL DRIVE OVER THE TOP

In the drive last week to raise $1,800 for the Zeeland hospital, the committee collected $2,127. There was no doubt about the outcome. Zeeland never has failed to put things over when needed and a hospital in any city is a "God send." Non one knows better than those who have been compelled to use its good offices. Such an institution is imperative in any city. Holland has been aware of that for some years now.

At the congregational meeting of First Reformed Church, Zeeland, the following were elected: Elders, G. Yntema and Jas. Westenbroek; deacons, C. Plasman and B. Kuipers. The total receipts of the church for the past year were $1,700.00 — better than last year. The evidences of spiritual blessings were not wanting.

COMMON COUNCIL

Holland, Mich., Dec. 19, 1934. The common council met in regular session and was called to order by the mayor.

Present: Mayor Bosch, Aldermen Kleis, Prins, Drinkwater, Kalkman,

Van Zoeren, De Cook, Steffens, Damson, Huyser, Bultman, Van Lenter, Thomson and the clerk.

Devotions led by Alderman Prins. Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Petitions and Accounts.
The clerk reported having received an invitation from the management of the City Basket Ball league to be their guests at the opening game this evening.

Accepted with thanks.
Reports of Standing Committees.
Ways and means committee, to whom was referred the communication relative to payments for T. B. patients at Muskegon sanitarium reported as follows:

In previous this charge has been spread upon the winter tax roll. However, this year the board of supervisors passed a resolution directing that bills be sent direct to the several units. They further reported that since no appropriation had been made it was impossible to advance the money at this time. They would, however, include this in the next appropriation bill so that the charge can be paid upon the collection of next year's taxes.

Adopted.
Public lighting committee, to whom had been referred the request to keep all of the boulevard lights between River avenue and the police station lighted all evening, reported that they had taken the matter up with the board of public works, but had not yet arrived at a decision as to the best course to pursue, and recommended that the matter be referred back to their committee with power to act.

Adopted.
Claims and accounts committee reported having examined claims in amount of $12,328.10, and recommended payment thereof.

Adopted.
The license committee reported that Mr. Ben Lieveense of the Lievense Bowling Alley was delinquent in his license fees for the last two years and a part of the previous year. Total amount delinquent being $99.06. After a brief discussion, and on motion of Alderman Van Lente, seconded by Alderman Thomson,

The clerk was instructed to notify Mr. Lieveense that the council will be obliged to revoke his license unless some definite arrangement can be made by him to take care of this license fee before next council meeting.

Reports of Special Committees.
Mayor Bosch stated for the information of the council that he had been criticized because of the fact that he had not invited the council members to attend the dedication services at Grand Haven a short time ago. He wanted the council members to know that the reason they had not been informed of this invitation was due to the fact that he received the letter of invitation on the same day that the ceremonies took place and incidentally in the letter was an apology for not having written sooner. The mayor stated that he was merely calling this to the attention of the council so that they would understand why they had not been informed.

Communications from Boards and City Officers.

The claims approved by the library board in the sum of $200.41; park and cemetery board, $2,087.41; police and fire board, $2,406.61; board of public works, $10,981.08, were ordered certified to the council for payment. (Said claims on file in clerk's office for public inspection.)

Allowed.

December 20, 1934.
To all Churches, Schools, Hotels, Theaters and all other public gathering places in the City of Holland:

Gentlemen:

At the last regular meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners, the matter of fire hazards and adequate means of exit in case of fire in public buildings, was discussed at considerable length.

The clerk was directed to instruct the owners of all public buildings to have an immediate inspection of all electric wiring. Such inspection to be made by some licensed electrician, and all defective wiring promptly corrected.

You were further instructed to inspect and examine all exits and fire escapes to see that they are adequate and in proper order.

You were further instructed to prohibit the use of chairs in aisles or other open spaces where they would become an obstruction in case of a fire and a hurried exit became necessary.

Anything else of a hazardous nature should be eliminated, and the board respectfully requests your co-operation in making all public buildings in the City of Holland a safe place in which to congregate.

Mr. C. Blom, fire chief, desires that you contact him on any matters of which you may be in doubt, and he will gladly render the necessary advice and assistance.

Yours sincerely,

OSCAR PETERSON,

Clerk of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners.

P.S.—Mr. Blom's address is:

18 W. 8th St., phone 2914.

The board of public works reported collection of $18,991.83; city treasurer, $2,949.22 for miscellaneous collections; $14,727.81 for taxes.

Accepted.
The clerk reported bonds due in amount of $2,055.00.

Ordered paid.

Motions and Resolutions.

On motion of Alderman Prins, seconded by Kleis,
The matter of auditing the city books was referred to the ways and means committee, together with the mayor and city clerk, with power to act.

Carried unanimously.

On motion of Alderman Prins, seconded by Kleis,
The city treasurer was instructed to continue collecting taxes up to January 20, 1935, without penalty.

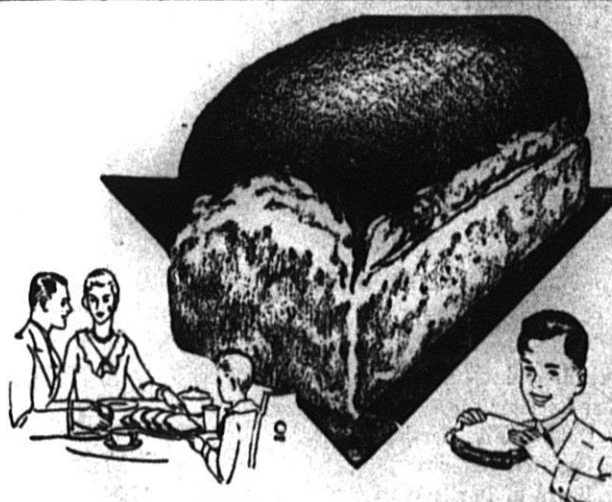

Carried.
Alderman Prins also called the attention of the council to the fact that Mr. Franklin Van Ry, who had been acting as deputy city treasurer to collect delinquent personal taxes, now had a permanent position and is not in a position to continue as deputy treasurer. He further reported that someone else should be appointed to take over this work and recommended that the matter be referred to the committee on ways and means.

Adopted.

OSCAR PETERSON,

City Clerk.
